Bussing, Teacher Contracts, Wage Schedules Main Topics At Meeting of School Board

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

At Monday night's Kewaskum School Board meeting, the main topics of discussion were the bussing of kindergarten students to Beechwood School, approval of new teacher contracts, approval of non-certified staff wage schedules, the problem of truancy, and the presentation of the Outstanding Young Educator Award.

Two Town of Farmington parents of kindergartners, Mrs. Rozanne Pilachowski and Mrs. Backhaus, expressed concern as to why their children should be bussed when "we have such a nice school in Farmington" and have almost the number required for two classes. Board President, John Tessar, responded that the most feasible way to go was to bus kindergartners to Beechwood to "balance out" a policy of several years ago whereby Beechwood students were bussed to Farmington. The parents also were concerned about the length of time a kindergartner would have to spend riding a bus. Board member Jim Oelhafen claimed it would be no more than an hour and most likely less depending on the point of pick-up. Superintendent Brenholt did assure the parents that a single bus route (most likely down Forest View Drive according to Director of Elementary Education, Richard Zarling) would be provided for the kindergartners. It would be "dovetailed" with a high school bus route such that the kindergartners would be picked up after the high schoolers had been dispatched. The cost of this operation would be no more than for any other bus route - about $2,000 per year. No shuttling of children would be necessary. The exact number of kindergartners involved is presently unknown. Summer kindergarten screening and the influx of families may increase or decrease the number of children eligible in the Farmington and Beechwood areas.

The wage schedule for non-certified staff was unanimously approved. It involves an 8.22% increase in total salary costs for 1979-80. A 30 cent per hour across the board increase would be for custodians, custodial trainees, secretaries to building principals, secretaries to the superintendent, payroll secretaries, teacher assistants, cooks and servers. A 32 cent per hour increase would be for aide-secretaries, stenographer-clerks, and year-round secretaries. A 40 cent per hour increase would affect the head custodian and the head cook.

A teacher contract was approved for Donald Liebetrau as a High School Health and Physical Education instructor, as well as assistant football and assistant wrestling coach. Liebetrau is a native of West Bend and attended the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse. Also, a contract for Patrick Gasser was approved in the area of General Science and Math. Gasser hails from Oshkosh and is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. He will also be an assistant football coach.

The problem of dealing with truancy was discussed at some length. It was reported that a certain group of youths are noticed outside of school during

Local Breath of Life

Bike-A-Thon Saturday

"Our goals are simple: to find a cure or control for the inherited disease cystic fibrosis, while improving diagnosis and treatment of children suffering with serious lung-damaging diseases," said Mrs. Kenneth Becker, Chairperson of the Breath of Life Bike-A-Thon in Kewaskum.

"We have dedicated volunteers, a national organization, renowned scientists and researchers, and 110 diagnostic and treatment centers," said Mrs. Becker. "What we don't have is enough money. That is why the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation is appealing for support to expand research and care programs through the Breath of Life Bike-A-Thon."

Although cystic fibrosis, the most serious lung-damaging disease, is still incurable, the average life expectancy of children affected has been increased from infancy to the teen years, and many patients now live into young adulthood. These giant strides of progress are due to earlier diagnosis and improved methods of treatment, which are developed from a better understanding of the disease.

In addition, the treatment programs which CF patients are using have proven very effective in alleviating the suffering and often curing children with severe asthma, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis and a condition sometimes called "childhood emphysema."

"Naturally, we know more today than we ever have before, but we still have a long way to go before we've conquered CF," said Mrs. Becker. "Every Dollar raised for the Breath of Life Bike-A-Thon means better health and a brighter future for youngsters struggling for the 'breath of life'."

The Breath of Life Bike-A-Thon will take place at the new park in Kewaskum on Saturday, May 19 (rain date May 26), from 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

ALL ABOUT OMELETS

I recently purchased a recipe booklet on omelets — just omelets. I never would have believed it was possible to write an entire book about omelets — but it was!

There are basically two types of omelets — the plain and the fluffy. The difference is in the method of preparation. The fluffy omelet requires a separation of the yolk from the whites and each are beaten separately. The fluffy omelet is generally baked.

An omelet provides a high protein entree at a reasonable cost. It is a good nutritional buy. I suggest a Sour Cream Omelet.

Beat 5 egg yolks until thick, beat in 1/2 cup sour cream and 1/3 teaspoon salt. Fold in 5 stiffly beaten egg whites. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in 10" ovenproof skillet. Pour in egg mixture. Cook over low heat for 8 to 10 minutes. Place in 325° oven until top is golden brown. Top with sour cream and strawberries.

Send all your comments, questions or recipe suggestions to Ann Crowley, c/o The S. S. Shannon Co., P.O. Box 2395, Appleton, Wisconsin 54911.

School Board

school hours, either hitch-hiking on the highway or in houses when the parents are not present. Dismay was expressed by the principals present and the members of the board. One principal stated that the police no longer do anything about the problem. The procedure then consists of writing three letters to the parents about their child's truancy. (Parents are also contacted by phone as soon as possible). Then a form must be filled out for the Department of Social Service. They, in turn, send out an intake worker who tries to persuade the parents to get their children back in school. Board member Goeden commented that this process could take three or four months. Tessar then suggested it would be more appropriate to restrict the truants while in school by perhaps confining them to one area. High School Principal, Clark Pearson, stated that there was a policy of in-school suspension. Middle School Principal, Ken Erickson, said that truancy depends on the attitude of the parents and admitted that his biggest problem was getting three particular students to come to school. Pearson also stated that sometimes a parent will bring a child to school only to have that child leave as soon as the parent is gone and no one is watching. No solutions were given and no conclusions were drawn at this time. It was mentioned that truancy only involves 1-2% of the school population.

Ron Schmitz, representing the Jaycees, presented the Outstanding Young Educator Award to Denise Leong, an eighth grade English teacher at Kewaskum Middle School. After she received her plaque, Tessar added, "You have our congratulations."

In other action, Tessar requested that Brenholt report on the need for, and feasibility of, a full-time secondary position for teaching emotionally disturbed students. Zarling stated that eight such students have been identified within the district but no qualified personnel are available to fill such a legally required position. Several years ago, it was authorized that an ED teacher be shared with Campbellsport. It is now felt an independent full-time program may be necessary as federal and state laws require ED programs if the need is present. Board member Dr. Charles Ogi wanted to know why such a program had been initiated several years ago and the number of students dwindled to zero. It was stated that some students left school and were generally not that cooperative with the program. Brenholt stated another alternative - to initiate a full-time program and make it available to other districts on a tuition basis.

The board also approved a bus contract with Johnson Bus for 1979-80 involving an 8% increase. Payroll and vouchers were routinely approved by the board. It was agreed that the scheduled second meeting in May would be cancelled. A budget committee was appointed to include Jean Goeden and John Tessar. A parent transportation contract involving the pick-up of a kindergarten student at Good Shepherd School was approved. Tessar also appointed Byron Gessner once again as Public Policy Correspondent for the Wisconsin Association of School Boards. A committee to take a survey on salaries and wages for non-certified personnel was appointed. It includes Jim Oelhafen, Jerry Secor and Jean Goeden. The negotiations committee which may meet earlier than other years consists of Richard Theusch, Byron Gessner and Jerry Secor, with Jean Goeden as a substitute.

Approval of Graf and Van der Jagt for auditing services was granted by the board.

The Title I program for remedial reading was recommended by Brenholt to be continued as is for 1979-80. Reports back from the schools where these programs are in operation are encouraging. The funds are available from the state and are slightly more than last year. The board approved this, pending state approval which is likely next week.

David Ziegler was also hired to assist with the Behind-the-Wheel Summer Driver Education Program. Principal Pearson stated it was difficult to find qualified personnel and that the two regular driver ed. instructors have too many students to handle. Ziegler would be paid $7.00 per hour and get roughly $2,000 worth of salary.

Zarling also admonished the board to examine a booklet of a policy statement and the rules implementing this policy in order to bring Kewaskum in compliance with all laws governing special education programs. The board must approve it as their policy at some future date.

The progress of various curriculums compiled throughout the district was discussed. The language arts and reading curriculums are still not completed. The values curriculum was "well along."

The principals also reported on the number of suspensions issued this last school year. It was about the same as other years. Pearson said the number was no higher at the high school. Erickson stated the number was down at the middle school. Zarling said the elementary school had two or three more.

Art Contest Winners Named

The Helen Mears Art Contest was a joint project for the Kewaskum Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club. The chairmen for the event were Mrs. Rita Schmidt and Mrs. Gloria Rodenkirch.

Helen Mears was a Wisconsin artist and sculptress whose clay sketch of a woman entitled "Genius of Wisconsin" now stands in the Wisconsin State Capitol.

All eighth grade students in the Kewaskum schools were encouraged to enter and the subject was of his or her choosing. Any media was used such as watercolor, oil, crayon, pencil, etc. Entries were judged on the basis of originality, composition, design, color and execution.

The winners on the local level were then entered in the competition at the District Woman's Club Convention held at Kiel on April 26. Unfortunately, none of the Kewaskum entries won on that level.

The class A winners were Heidi Edgar, Mary Paul and Mike Metz. In class B Dan Gerhartz, Toby Mueller, Mark Rodenkirch and Jeanne Murre were winners.

The winners will be honored and awarded prizes at the May 16 meeting of the Kewaskum Woman's Club. The entries will then be displayed at the Library May 18 through May 28.

Recreation Card Purchased by 3,000 Senior Citizens

Approximately 3,000 Wisconsin senior citizens have taken advantage to date, of the opportunity to purchase a Senior Citizens Recreation Card, according to Department of Natural Resources' park officials.

They expect the demand for the card, which has been available for purchase since late last year, to increase now that milder weather has arrived in the state and with the approaching summer season of activity in state parks and forests.

The card is available to Wisconsin residents, 65 years of age or older, for a one-time charge of $7.50. It entitles the holder to free vehicle admission to state parks and forests and includes free fishing and small game hunting privileges.

Recreation cards may be purchased at the offices of county clerks, Wisconsin state parks and forests, DNR district offices and the main office in Madison. Applicants must submit evidence of residence and age.

A random sampling of card purchasers so far indicate that about 68 percent of the cards have been purchased by persons under the age of 70, though a number of senior citizens over 80 years of age have purchased cards.

'Cooking With Herbs' Class At MPTI

How many times have you seen an attractively decorated kitchen, with a spice shelf hanging over the stove, or near it, as part of the decor? Did you know that the flavor in herbs and spices is in their oils and that these oils will evaporate if exposed to light or heat?

Herbs may not be "food" in the popular sense of the word, but they contain salts invaluable to health. Science keeps discovering more curative properties and nutrients in herbs. With the judicious use of them in cooking, one gets all this and wonderful flavor, too. Dishes flavored with the good sauces French cooks are so fond of. Cheaper cuts of meat especially benefit from a skillful use of herbs.

If you'd like to learn more about "Cooking With Herbs" sign up for Moraine Park Technical Institute's spring course. Students will meet with instructor Robin Jasinski for three weeks beginning May 30. Tuition is $3.35, payable in advance at MPTI, 2151 N. Main Street, West Bend.

All registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

West Bend Savings & Loan Association Plans New Quarters

The West Bend Savings & Loan Association has recently announced the completion of plans for their new main office quarters. Construction is scheduled to begin during the coming summer and it is expected the project will be completed in early 1981.

According to association president, Richard A. Larson, the new building will be a two story addition to the already existing main office and the present building will be completely remodeled on both the interior and exterior. A second story will be built over most of the present building, a two-level parking deck will be added to the south and a multi-lane auto drive-in facility constructed.

"The decision for the expansion followed almost a year of extensive study by the association's board of directors and building consultants," Larson said, "additional savings facilities and mortgage loan service space was needed in order to provide adequate service to an ever increasing number of customers. And, a very definite shortage of customer parking and a totally inadequate single drive-in window also prompted the need for further expansion."

The building presently occupied by the association was built on the corner of 5th & Walnut in 1950 and extensively added to in 1968. At that time, according to Larson, the association had total assets of approximately twelve million dollars and six employees. The expansion in 1968 was originally planned to meet the association's needs over a twenty year period, assuming asset growth up to twenty-five million. Actually, West Bend Savings has grown from twelve million dollars to almost eighty million dollars in assets since 1968 and based on planning research done by First Research Corporation of Miami, Florida, and Bank Building Corporation of St. Louis, Missouri, the association can be expected to grow to over 198 million by 1987 and to almost 350 million by 1992. According to Larson, even these projections are based on a compound growth rate lower than the actual experience of the association over the past ten years.

The contemporary new office was designed by Bank Building Corporation to include many special features that will make the building unique to the local area. It is scheduled to be the first major project in connection with the planned downtown redevelopment, which was a major factor in the association's decision to remain at its present location. Larson said the design and planned construction of the Main & Walnut Street intersection and the proposed new bridge were key factors in influencing the association's decision to acquire all the building sites on the north end of the block between Main Street and 5th Avenue. The new building will front on Main Street, Walnut Street and 5th Avenue. And, because this intersection will become a major traffic artery, at the south end of the planned downtown 'loop', the association has designed the new building with a substantial set back from the respective streets. This plaza area will be landscaped to compliment the proposed parkway area adjacent to each site of the new Walnut-Water Street bridge. In addition, all major vehicle entrances and exits to the parking and drive-in window areas will be from 5th Avenue, allowing association customers to avoid traffic congestion when visiting the new office.

Parking needs will be met by the planned two level deck designed to provide over fifty customer parking stalls, with further expansion possible when needed. Both upper and lower parking levels will be accessible from 5th Avenue. Over fifty percent of the lower level parking will be under roof and a covered walkway will lead to the association's main entrance. With this design, according to Larson, association customers can park their cars within a few feet of the main entrance and walk into the building without being exposed to inclement weather. An additional main entrance will front on Walnut Street and is designed to be of greater convenience when redevelopment work is completed in the future. Larson also pointed out that the municipal parking lot on 5th Avenue, directly across from the association, is being redone and expanded by the City Parking Authority.

"The new building, together with the customer service offices in the Westfair Mall and on West Washington Street, will place the association in an excellent position to provide convenient, readily accessible service," Larson said, "and, added convenience will be provided with increased drive-in service at both our new office and West Washington Street office."

The new building will expand the association's present operations space of approximately 9,000 square feet to approximately 27,000 square feet, of which the association plans to immediately occupy over 23,500 square feet with the additional 3,500 square feet allocated for tenants and future expansion. Larson said the new savings area will be at the same level as the new loan service area and the substantial increase in work space, customer lobby and lounge space will allow for a more efficient operation. The present savings department area will be utilized for the association's wholly owned subsidiary corporation; Citizens Credit Corp., a consumer financial company and Citizens Financial Service Corp., a real estate development company and appraisal firm. The accounting and bookkeeping functions will also be at that level. The second floor of the new building will be used for executive and staff offices.

West Bend Savings and Loan operates branch offices in Slinger, Kewaskum, Jackson and Germantown, in addition to the two service offices in Westfair Mall and on West Washington Street. Larson indicated the association has developed plans for future branching in other southeastern Wisconsin communities. "However," Larson said, "we have complete faith in the vitality and continued growth of the West Bend area and we are confident that many aspects of the proposed downtown improvement will take place over the next five years."

According to Larson, the immediate need for additional customer service space and the projected needs for the future, to keep pace with the economic development and growth of West Bend, demanded the association undertake this project in 1979 or 1980. "Our decision to stay in the key downtown area with our main headquarters was prompted by the action taken to date by the City of West Bend and the private property owners in downtown West Bend to improve the City Centro area," Larson said, "and the enhanced downtown parking, the proposed improvements to the Milwaukee River area, the Walnut Water Street Bridge relocation and work on the downtown loop to help solve traffic congestion were almost certain developments. If other private property improvements take place, it will make downtown West Bend one of the most successful redevelopment projects undertaken in any Wisconsin city. West Bend Savings is making a very substantial dollar investment based on our projections of what we see happening in the City Centro area and we're extremely pleased to be part of the project."

“Come to West Bend Savings for your mortgage and avoid the thirty year mistake.”

Daniel V. Filzen
Assistant Vice President & Branch Manager

The “thirty year mistake?”

Building or buying a home is the biggest investment most people will ever make. So finding an institution to finance that investment is certainly an important decision. But too many homeowners make the mistake of looking only for the lowest interest rate without checking on the other costs and services involved. That could be a costly mistake. One you might regret for the next 20, 25 or 30 years.

Shopping for a mortgage

By all means shop around to find the best mortgage for your needs. But get all the facts. All the charges. All the services. If you shop long enough you'll end up at West Bend Savings. We didn't become the biggest home lender in Washington County by letting people down. We've been helping families finance their dreams for over fifty years. So we're not about to lead you into a “thirty year mistake.”

Attractive rates . . . and more

Of course, interest rates are a major consideration. And West Bend offers some of the most attractive rates in the area. But we go beyond that with special services — including variable interest and short term renewable loans. We're also one of the few home lenders in the area to offer a number of consumer oriented packages with mortgage loans.

We'd like to help

Stop in any of our seven Washington County offices for a free copy of “How to Shop for a Mortgage” a handy guide to help evaluate any home lender. Shop around. We're sure you'll come back to West Bend Savings. Where Money for Living includes avoiding a “thirty year mistake.”

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Harter, Kewaskum, were pleasantly surprised on Thursday, May 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alban Nigh on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary.

Jimmy Buss, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buss, Kewaskum, suffered a skull fracture when he was accidentally run over by a tractor, Saturday, May 15, on the Wallace Geidel farm here.

The following were elected to office at the regular monthly meeting of the Kewaskum FFA: Jerome Nigh, president; Kenneth Blank, vice-president; Carl Meyer, secretary; Delbert Haack, treasurer; John Spartz, reporter (re-elected).

The Kewaskum Chevs lost their second game in Land O' Lakes play Sunday, being thrashed by the hard-hitting Port Washington, 15-2, at Port. Don Meisenheimer was the starting pitcher for the Chevs but was relieved in the fourth by "Hefty" Backhaus. Killy Honneck came in in the seventh and finished in the game. Bob Dreher was the only Kewaskum batter with two hits. He now has five hits in nine trips to the plate.

Melvin L. Moths, Kewaskum, has been given the privilege of the exclusive use of the name "Meldorodale" as a herd name in registering his purebred Holstein-Friesian cattle. This prefix name is granted and will be recorded by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, Brattleboro, Vt.

Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knoeck, Route 2, Kewaskum, on Monday, May 17, and to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Butzke, Route 2, Campbellsport, on Thursday, May 13.

Weitzer, Renetta E. Becker, Jacob C. Schlosser, Johanna M. Schellhaas, Henry B. Rosenheimer, Esther M. Bruesewitz, Margaret A. Miller, William F. Hopkins, Helen M. Harbeck and Ralph L. Kohn. The class salutatorian is William Hopkins and the class valedictorian is Margaret Miller.

Those completing their work in the 8th grade will also be presented with their diplomas after the exercises. These pupils are: Arnita E. Hafemann, Marcella T. Schleif, Fred A. Backhaus, Marguerite Haefner, Anita Backhaus, Linda K. Rosenheimer, Magdalene M. Weddig, William S. Martin and Herbert Backhaus.

Rev. and Mrs. Gerhard Kaniess of Kewaskum are the happy parents of a baby boy born to them on May 12. A baby boy was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Willard Liepert of Boltonville on May 8.

75 Years Ago

Mason contractors Opgenorth and Kohn were awarded the contract for building the abutments for a new bridge to be put up near George Schleif's place in the Town of Auburn. They will receive $399.50 for the job.

The boys organized a baseball club here on Sunday, May 15, with Lehman Rosenheimer as manager; Ed Miller, Captain; George Schmidt, secretary and treasurer. They have leased the field in the rear of L. Rosenheimer's store for their grounds.

Jeweler Mat Bruhy has a novel clock exhibited in his window at his store which shows the hours and minutes of the day printed on small cards which are shifted mechanically.

August Kirchner raised an addition to his barn on May 12 to be used as a machine shed.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Felix of St. Kilian on May 15.

Alfred Neibler, who enlisted in the U.S. Navy at Milwaukee, some time ago, arrived safely at Brooklyn, N.Y. He will be engaged as a fireman on a ship.

RABIES

By Victor S. Falk, Jr., M.D.

Rabies, or hydrophobia, is a disease occurring in many wild animals, bats, and domestic animals such as dogs, cats, and cattle. It is transmitted to man by direct contact such as by the bite of an infected animal, and is due to a virus. The incubation period varies from one to six months and is generally fatal with death occurring in from two to five days. Saliva of a rabid animal on an open wound (usually a bite) or mucous membrane constitutes exposure to rabies.

The United States Center for Disease Control has specific recommendations relative to the prophylaxis and a final determination must be made by your physician. In addition, local wound treatment is very important and the exposed area should be scrubbed with soap and water.

When there is suspicion that an animal might be rabid, it should be quarantined for at least ten days and carefully observed. If there is any question about the behavior or health of the animal, a veterinarian can give you advice in that regard.

It is most important not to become impatient or angry with a domestic animal and kill it hastily. It is not an uncommon tendency to shoot or otherwise kill an animal under suspicion and often destroy the head or bury the animal. It is important that the brain of the animal be preserved and properly transmitted for examination.

The Wisconsin State Laboratory of Hygiene has discontinued routine testing of rodents for rabies since there have been no reports of rabies in rabbits, squirrels, chipmunks, gophers, rats, mice, gerbils or hamsters for over fifteen years in Wisconsin. The United States Public Health Service states that these species of animals have never caused a documented case of human rabies in the United States.

Late last year in Wisconsin, two puppies from a litter of eleven developed rabies after the litter was exposed to a skunk. Three new owners had significant exposure to one of the puppies but there were 39 human contacts to the second and four had significant bite exposures. Another eight had non-bite exposures such as scratches or saliva contact with mucous membranes or breaks in the skin and all received human rabies immune globulin for passive protection along with initiation of active vaccination.

The State epidemiologist strongly recommends that whenever a potentially rabid non-rodent wild animal or bat bites a domestic animal, the incident should be reported to a veterinarian or local health department, especially if the attack is provoked. Early reporting will facilitate early and effective quarantine and surveillance of the exposed domestic animal. When the wild animal can be located, it should be killed immediately without damage to the head.

There also is a strong recommendation that wild or exotic animals be strongly discouraged as pets. This is especially true of skunks, raccoons and foxes. The Wisconsin State Division of Health recommends that veterinarians refuse to descent skunks as a deterrent to the practice of keeping skunks as pets.

Recent episodes in other states are good examples of this problem. Twenty-nine persons in Oklahoma, twenty-six in Indiana and twenty-three in Arizona were all bitten by rabid pet skunks. An Arizona pet shop sold a skunk to a family who returned it the next day because it had bitten several family members. The skunk was sold again, and ten days later became violently ill with rabies. This was one of a batch of forty-nine that had been sold by a single supplier. Officials tracked down as many of the remaining skunks as they could as well as twenty-two persons who had been exposed to the rabid animal. At least one person had been bitten more than thirty-five times and all the exposed persons received anti-rabies treatment. Rabies is so common in skunks that it is now assumed automatically that anyone bitten by a skunk has been exposed to rabies.

Incidentally, the rabies prophylaxis consists of a series of twenty-three injections which is a long and rather uncomfortable procedure. Although there is a new method of prophylaxis recently reported which is not so long and involved, it is not yet generally available.

Local Students Given Athletic Awards at UWWC

During the ninth annual Athletic Awards ceremony at the University of Wisconsin-Washington County, the accolades given to the coaches and the athletes were warm, colorful and sincere. There is no doubt that the participants enjoyed what they were doing and took pride in their success. But the most revealing comments were those that were delivered by the various participants who praised the athletic program with all its successes and victories with the final comment, "and all this without an athletic facility." Also stressed was the scholastic achievement of many of the athletes.

more information, or a show bill and entry form, please contact Debbie Wiedmeyer, 2163 Hwy. K, Hartford, WI 53027. Phone: 1-673-2804.

He watched from an easy chair as his wife staggered in with a huge basket of laundry.

Smitten by compassion, he said, "Helen, this has got to stop, I don't want you to be bending your back under such burdens. You should make more trips and carry lighter loads."

SPEND LESS TIME UNDERWATER.

Most people underestimate the cost of being underwater.

A leisurely ten minute shower uses about 30 gallons of water.

If you take a ten minute shower every day, you're using about 900 gallons a month.

And when you figure what it costs to heat those 900 gallons of water, you can see how every minute you spend in the shower really adds up.

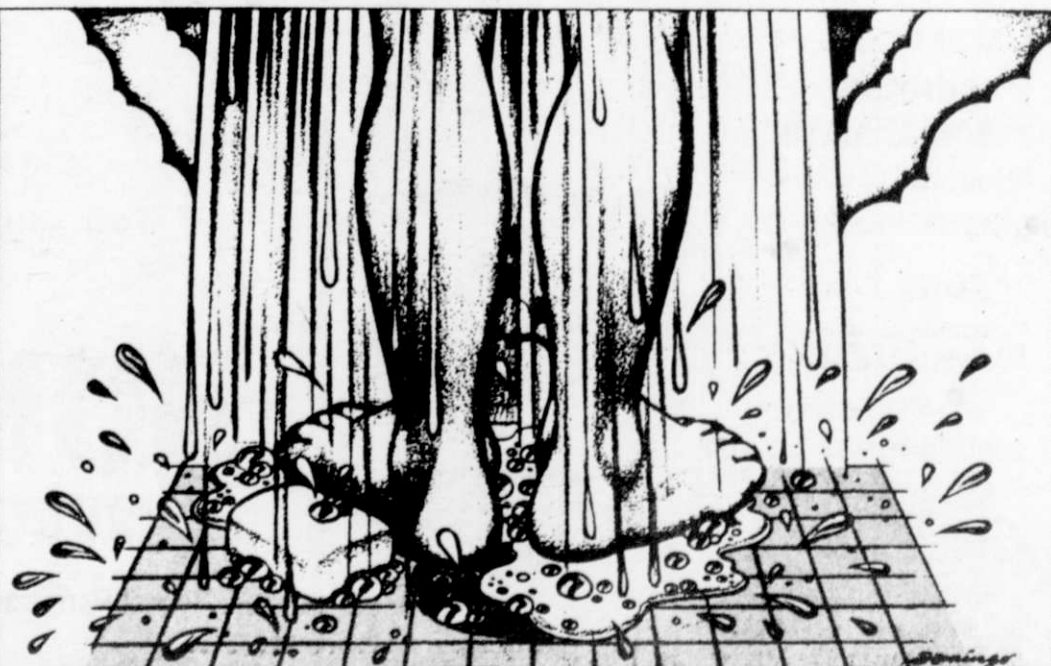

In fact, your water heater is one of the biggest users of energy in your home.

But, there are a couple of ways to begin saving energy and money.

Check to see that your water heater is set no higher than 140°. That's usually high enough for most household uses.

And here's another idea. When you take a shower, take one of those wind-up timers in the bathroom with you. Set it for five minutes. When you hear the bell, that's your cue to come out.

Remember: In the shower, time is money.

Gasohol — Fuel for the Future?

There has been much discussion about the potential for gasohol, a mixture of 90% gasoline and 10% alcohol, to reduce our gasoline consumption. It is not a miracle answer, but it does offer some advantages worth considering.

An unreleased Department of Energy study has found that gasohol could reduce annual gasoline consumption by 9%, get mileage as good or better than gasoline, and be burned without damage to existing vehicle engines. The study also found that the price of gasohol, now marketed in over 500 mid-western service stations, is competitive with that of unleaded premium gasoline. As gasoline prices increase, it will become even more competitive with gasoline.

The alcohol component can be distilled from many different sources — coal, wood, garbage, corn, grains, and other farm goods. Thus, gasohol production could provide a vast new market for surplus farm products, as well as help address our gasoline problems.

Gasohol does have problems, however. Distilling methods make alcohol more expensive than gasoline and there are not enough alcohol plants around the country to make gasohol a nationwide alternative yet. But there is hope, because nearly every part of the country has products from which alcohol can be made.

The federal government has taken a few steps to promote the use of gasohol, like exempting it from excise taxes. But more needs to be done, and there are a variety of measures in Congress to make gasohol a viable alternative — through tax incentives and loan guarantees for alcohol plants, for example. Congress should act to make sure that gasohol has a chance to be a part of the solution to our gasoline problems.

June 30 is Tax Credit Deadline

June 30 is the deadline for farmers to apply for participation in the state's Farmland Preservation Program with a farmland preservation agreement.

That's the word from Jim Johnson, farmland preservation program director with the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection. He points out that a farmland preservation agreement is a contract between a farmland owner and the State of Wisconsin in which the owner agrees to keep the land in agricultural use to be eligible for tax relief. The contracts will run until September 30, 1982.

Any Wisconsin farmer is eligible to apply for a farmland preservation agreement as long as he or she owns at least 35 acres of land which produced gross profits of $6,000 last year or $18,000 over the last three years. Applicants must also be SCS cooperators or have applied for a Soil Conservation District Conservation Plan for the farm.

According to Johnson, the 530 farmers who obtained contracts in the first year of the program received an average tax credit of $850. Last year an additional 917 farmers applied for contracts in the program. Tax benefits for these farmers are estimated to average between $1,000 and $1,200 due to an increase in the tax benefits available. "Participation is expected to increase again this year as a result of the higher level of credits available and increased public understanding of the program," Johnson emphasizes.

Farmers can also receive tax benefits if their land is zoned for exclusive agricultural use under a local zoning ordinance. To date, seven counties have adopted such ordinances. In addition, more than half of the counties in the state are currently developing local plans to preserve farmland. Approximately 9,000 farms are now eligible for tax credits, through both individual contracts and local zoning. These farms represent about 1.9 million acres of Wisconsin farmland.

Johnson says, "Last year many farmers inquired about the program after the June 30 sign-up deadline - so this year we want to inform as many farmers as possible about the deadline and program details."

Farmers interested in the program are urged to contact their local agricultural extension agent or zoning office or the farmland preservation unit of the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection in Madison.

animals vaccinated for equine encephalitis (sleeping sickness) now.

He points out that immunizations should be given in spring before the mosquito season sets in. He explains that the disease is caused by a virus which affects the central nervous system and is spread by way of mosquitoes from infected birds.

According to Dr. Bosman, there is no effective treatment for the disease and even with symptomatic support about 25 percent of the affected horses die. He adds, "Treatment is usually costly, and not always effective. The best method of fighting the disease is prevention, and that means vaccination in early spring."

It is recommended that vaccinations be given early when horses are not being trained or used extensively, since the vaccine causes an adverse reaction in many horses. The horse's initial series should be two doses of vaccine, given three to eight weeks apart. This should be followed by annual boosters against both western and eastern types of the disease.

Dr. Bosman says, "If your horse shows signs of encephalitis — high temperature, convulsions or walking in circles — call a veterinarian. Blood tests will be taken to measure the horse's antibody level and repeated a few weeks later. A change in the antibody level makes a positive diagnosis possible."

"Common sense is the shortest line between two points."

"There is strong evidence that smoking mothers have a significantly greater number of unsuccessful pregnancies due to stillbirth and neonatal death", says the U.S. Surgeon General. Many obstetricians now encourage their pregnant patients to stop smoking, especially if they have a history of miscarriage or babies of low birth weight.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dearly beloved husband and father, Ivan Buss, who passed away two years ago, May 15, 1977:

The blow was great,
The shock severe,
We did not know the end was near;
And only those who lost can tell,
The pain of parting without farewell.
No one knows how much we miss him,
No one knows the bitter pain,
We suffer since we lost him.
Home has never been the same.
We think of him in silence,
No one sees us weep.
But many tears are shed,
When others are asleep.

Sadly missed by his wife, Marge and children.

THANK YOU

I wish to thank Robert Budenhagen for calling the Rescue Squad for me and Mr. and Mrs. John Hammes for bringing me back to Kewaskum from the hospital. Your kindness was appreciated.

7th Annual Open House at State Recreational Facilities May 20

The recreational opportunities you seek on your vacation may be as near as the closest state park or forest, according to Department of Natural Resources' park officials.

May 20, date of the 7th annual Open House at state recreational facilities, offers an opportunity for you to explore a state park or forest near your home and become acquainted with the picnicking, hiking, camping, swimming, boating or other forms of recreation offered without being required to pay the vehicle admission fee. The fee will be waived on that date.

"The uncertain gasoline supply situation this year may result in many of us planning our vacations and other recreational outings at locations closer to our homes," commented Loren Thorson, director of recreation programs for state parks and forests. "May 20, open house day, would be a good day for you to plan a visit to a nearby state park or forest and discover the wide range of recreational opportunities provided there."

Thorson noted that there are almost 519,000 acres of state parks and forest lands providing many recreational facilities. There are 41,000 feet of beach frontage with 142 boat launching facilities available for water related activities. A total of 47 miles of nature trails and 577 miles of hiking trails are available for use, and there are 92 miles of horse trails. Thorson added that 56 shelter houses are provided along with 5,250 picnic tables and 1,600 grills.

The state area provide 5,109 campsites, although the camping fee will not be waived during the open house on May 20.

Open House Day is a "gesture of hospitality" to local citizens, community groups, governmental officials, media and others who have expressed an interest in the care, development and support of Wisconsin's state parks and forests.

Kewaskum Girls 4th, Boys 5th in County Outdoor Meet

Host Hartford won both the boys' and girls' sections in the Washington County Outdoor meet last Wednesday. The Kewaskum girls placed fourth with 62 points in their section and the boys wound up fifth with 58½ points.

Kewaskum's day started bad when Diane Bremser's ankle did not respond and she was unable to compete in the 440 and mile relay. Katie Lightner had to run the 110 hurdles and 100 yard dash with about one minute's rest and the best she could do was a third in each. A bad handoff in the 880 relay put the Indians out of contention in that race and the field events also hurt.

The only first won by Kewaskum was by Wilson in the 880 run with a time of 2:25.4. Besides Lightner's two thirds the Indians' 880 relay team took third, Yearling finished second in the high jump, Zemlicka took third in the 220 dash and the mile relay team copped third. Some other lower places were won by the Indians.

KHS Golfers in 4 More Outings

The Kewaskum Indian golfers had the chance to play on the Lawsonia Links at Green Lake last Tuesday and lost to Green Lake, 175-181, in non-conference action.

Green Lake's Standifer was medalist with a 40 and he was followed by Friend 43, Kautzler 45 and Rost 47. Kewaskum was led by Scott Rohlinger and Brian Larsen with 43's, Bob Nigh had 44 and Jim Rohlinger 51.

The Indians played well at Grafton Thursday with a 161 but this was not good enough to win the second Scenic Moraine quadangular among the top four schools in this year's race.

Kettle Moraine won with a 158 at the Mee-Kwon course with scores of 38, 38, 39 and 43. Kewaskum came in second. Scott Rohlinger, brother Jim and Al Dominguez all had 40's and Nigh was one back with 41.

Grafton and Hartland tied for third with 165's.

Brookfield Central topped the field at Friday's Warhawk Invitational at Germantown. Playing in the Lake Park par 70 18-hole layout, last year's state champions ended up with three scores in the 70's for a 315 total, edging Homestead by five strokes.

Homestead's Brisky won medal honors with a 73.

Kewaskum, Germantown and Slinger placed sixth, eighth and ninth respectively. The Indians all came in under 90 and beat Port Washington by 20 strokes.

For the Indians Scott Rohlinger was low at 84.

Monday's match between Kewaskum and Grafton here was an exciting one. A win for the Blackhawks would have given them a perfect 7-0 record in Scenic dual meets and they would have moved within a point of leading Kettle Moraine.

Paced by a couple of even par 35's from junior Nigh and freshman Larsen, the Indians came in with 151. Grafton with three players in the high 30's had 156.

For the Kewaskum boys top places were Herriges third in the long jump, Pettit third in the 100 dash, and Herriges third in the 440 dash. The Indians also took four 4ths, four 5ths and three 6ths.

Girls Win, Boys Lose in Track To Germantown

Germantown and Kewaskum runners came up with good efforts in dual competition last Tuesday. The schools split, with the girls winning their end of the meet, 75-48, while the boys lost, 82-45.

Bright spots for the Indian girls were sophs Katie Lightner, Julann Zemlicka and Barb Wilson. Lightner won the 100 meter hurdles and 100 meter dash and also anchored the winning 800 meter relay. Zemlicka ran the open 200 and 400 instead of the 800 meter relay and 400 and won two firsts. Her 400 time of 62.9 is her best outdoor mark of the year. She also anchored the 1600 meter relay to a win and took a third in the long jump. Wilson lost to Kate Somers in the mile but came back with a strong 800 for a win.

The Germantown boys won with Jerry Vance and Todd Hernandez leading the way but Kewaskum had some good times in several events. Mike Pettit's 10.1 in the 100 was his best ever and he had a fine leap of 21-2½ in the long jump, second to Vance's great 22-1 effort. The Warhawks won all but two events, the 880 relay won by Kewaskum's Pettit, Subat, Schultz and Kempf and the high jump won by the Indian's Bremser.
