Ceremony, Special Events Scheduled

Official Opening of New Kewaskum Park Saturday

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Park Committee and the Kewaskum Village Board has invited the public to the official opening of the "New Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park," located at the west end of Brooklane Drive, on Saturday morning, June 16, at 10:00 a.m. The new park which boasts a new swimming pond will be "opened" with a ribbon cutting ceremony on the walkway leading to the bath house-shelter. The program will also include:

An Invocation by Reverend Darrell Joiner.

A Welcome by Village President, Bob Danielsen.

A History of the New Park by Park Committee Chairman, Daniel Schmidt.

A statement by past Village President, Charles Miller.

A Flag Raising Ceremony by Robert G. Romaine Legion Post 384.

At 10:30 there will be special events. These athletic events involve the community's service organizations and village representatives. Three events will occur simultaneously:

1) The Kewaskum Kiwanis will challenge the Lions Club to a free-throw contest. Five players from each club will be given four free throws each. The winner will be the team with the most baskets out of the 20 shots. This, of course, is the "mane" event for the Lions. Judges for this will be provided by the Kewaskum Senior Citizens and the Modern Woodmen.

2) The Kewaskum Jaycees will provide two members to take on another two members of the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club in a two out of three game tennis match. As we all know, there is no "love" lost between these vicious competitors. Representatives from the Woman's Club and the Legion will act as judges.

3) The Village Board and some village employees will challenge the Kewaskum Fire Department in a two out of three game volleyball match. Each team will have seven players and a bench of up to six additional players. This should prove very interesting with Trustee Raynor Herges as a Captain, Village Commissioner Bill Martin as a Coach, and Recreation Director, Tom Larsen, as himself, among the participants. This should help clarify what it is to "serve" on the village board. Judges for this will be provided by the Kewaskum Historical Society and the Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce.

About 11:30, after the special events, awards will be distributed to the victors.

Coffee for the adults and Kool-Aid for the kids will be provided. The bath house-shelter will remain open until about 3:00 p.m. that day and village personnel will be on hand to answer questions and explain the many aspects of the new park.

To refresh the memory, the new park contains a 1.4 acre kidney-shaped pond. This will be used for recreational swimming as well as Red Cross swimming lessons later this summer. A bath house with showers, restrooms, provisions for checking personal items, and a concession stand, provides the only means of access to the swimming area which is surrounded by a cyclone fence. The exact date of opening for the pond, the specific swimming rules, and the date when season passes will go on sale will be announced later.

The new park also contains four tennis courts near the park entrance, which will be surfaced with green asphalt. One court is convertible to a volleyball court by raising the net. At night, one hour of lights can be purchased by machine for 50c.

A basketball court is also available. Two softball diamonds are located to the rear of the park. There is also a wildlife trail winding through a wooded area. This will later bear signs identifying local flora and fauna. Another unique feature is a natural flowing stream through the center of the park. There will be some playground equipment as swings, swinging gates, and bobbing horses. The parking lot has room for about 200 cars.

Rules Outlined For New Park

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

Besides outlining the program for the new park opening, the Kewaskum Village Park Committee discussed the rules which may be adopted for the new park.

The rules are basically taken from those already adopted by such larger communities as West Bend and Oshkosh.

The hours for the new park were proposed as 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. to allow for late baseball games and some night tennis. Park Committee Chairman, Dan Schmidt, read over a list of possible park rules to which the other members could respond. Park regulations concern any unlawful conduct on the park premises.

In reference to vehicles, the rules would prohibit the following: parking anything except bicycles on the grass, operating a vehicle off a roadway or walkway, operating a vehicle in excess of 15 m.p.h., operating any snowmobile, minibike, etc. anywhere in the park, and parking any vehicle in the park between the hours of 11 p.m. and 6 a.m.

Also prohibited would be any hunting devices as snares or traps or anything that may harm a living creature. Disturbance of any wildlife is not permitted. There will be no provision made for fishing in the park. Domestic animals and pets as cats and dogs are not allowed in the park, except for seeing-eye dogs when properly restrained.

Fires would not be allowed except in provided fireplaces. Committee member Paul Blumer suggested here that "proper grills" could be permitted in the park.

Games as baseball, frisbee throwing, horseshoes, etc. could be engaged in only in the properly designated area. No excessive noise would be allowed from radios or phonographs such that it could be heard beyond 20 feet from the source.

In regard to vandalism, the rules would prohibit destruction or damage to any property as benches or equipment in the park, to litter or dump any refuse anywhere other than an appropriate container, to claim for one's own later use any plant, dirt, or equipment within the park. It would also be unlawful to alter or move signs or equipment without written permission.

The use of alcoholic beverages in the park was somewhat

Regal Presents $25,000 Check for New Park

Regal Ware, Inc. recently presented a check for $25,000.00 to the Village of Kewaskum. This is the amount Regal had pledged toward the development of the Kewaskum Park, in memory of the late J. O. Reigle, founder of the company.

According to Village Clerk, William Martin, the money covers the major portion of the cost of two baseball diamonds in the newly developed 34-acre park. Clerk Martin said use of the diamonds will begin next year to avoid damage to the newly seeded grass. In addition to the two ball diamonds, the park will include a 1½ acre spring fed swimming pond, bath house, tennis courts, basketball court, playground, picnic area and nature trail. Total cost of the park is estimated at $360,000 according to William Martin.

Regal Ware, Inc. has supported many community activities in the past including the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Kewaskum High School projects and the local Kiwanis Turkey Shoot. Profits from the Kiwanis Turkey Shoot were used to purchase the land for the Kewaskum Park.

Board Debates Proposed 11.3% Increase in School Tax Levy

By DAN MELLAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

Justification of an 11.3% increase in the school tax levy for the proposed $4.2 million 1979-80 budget fell upon Superintendent Floyd Brenholt and the Budget Committee at the Kewaskum School Board meeting held Monday night, June 11. There was also approval of two new teacher contracts and the acceptance of a resignation. Summer school for two special education students was also approved along with additional summer custodial help.

Budget Committee Chairman, John Tessar, stated how most of the budget was fixed up to about 93%. He added that some cuts could be made, but they are on items that are really needed as a fence around the new track for $11,400 and lockers at the middle school for $16,250. Board member Dr. Charles Ogi registered the strongest criticism by considering these actions as postponements instead of real cuts. He labelled the roughly $200,000 that could be cut as "cosmetic." Ogi further objected to the increase by stating that the proper time to look at a current budget is the year before. He was also convinced that the main portion of the budget concerned an excess of personnel, saying, "...so we don't have to cut programs, we'd better look damn close at hiring personnel."

Brenholt responded to the criticism of the $234,384 increase in the 1979-80 tax levy. The high rate of 11.3% next year would be balanced out by a lower rate the following year. Over a 2-year period, the increase would be 13.1% or 6.5% a year. This situation has two causes:

- 1) The increase of general state aids next year would be less than the increase the year before, putting more of the increase upon the tax levy. If an additional $38,000 is received next year, the state aid would increase $168,398 as opposed to a $182,000 increase between 1977-78 and 1978-79.
- 2) Some of the 1977-78 funds were used to pay 1978-79 bills. Although this reduced this year's budget, next year's budget would have to increase to get back to normal and retrieve what was really spent for 1978-79.

The mill rate for next year would range between 10.66 mills and 10.8 mills depending on the relative increase in state aids. Brenholt also noted that the Kewaskum District compares very favorably to the state average for taxes. In 1977-78, the tax on $75,000 property would have been $948 as compared to the state average of $1,057 for such a property. Also, Kewaskum spent $1,532.45 per student as compared to $1,751.35 per student for all CESA 16 schools and $1,750.24 per student for the state as a whole.

Brenholt summed up his rationalization of the budget for the school board by saying, "...when you are talking to people about the cost of education.... I hope you are going to tell people that we are providing a quality program and we're spending $200 less per student than the state average, and I think that's meaningful. I see no reason why in 1978-79 and next year we aren't going to be in the same kind of position."

Business Manager Robert Borch presented a summary of percent increases of the proposed budget. Administration costs were up 9.4% with contracted services for data processing costs involved. Instructional expenditures were up 9.4% with supplies, materials, and equipment a major factor. Pupil transportation costs were drastically up 20.1% with an increase in proposed fuel expenditures from $50,000 to $87,000 responsible. In fact, the cost of petroleum fuels accounts for 1% of the entire budget. Operation costs increased 10.9% (this includes a new station wagon for $5,600). Capital outlay is increased 9.4%, vocational education costs are up 3%, and transfers to other districts increased 20%. Some areas with reduced amounts were health expenditures, down 6%, debt service, down 3.9%, and maintenance of plant costs which decreased 2.2%.

Fees were discussed as a means of increasing revenue. In the music area, elementary instrumental music teacher, Robert Getter, noted that the district would only gain about $300 by charging fees for the use of band instruments. Annually, only about seven students would be involved, mostly from Beginner's Band.

A list of proposed fees was distributed. Kewaskum already charges some fees for book deposits, towels, and activity tickets, etc., however, an additional $12,000 could be cut off the tax levy if some extra fees were adopted. These would include a $2.00, $4.00, $9.00, and $12.00 per year fee for instructional materials for kindergarten, grades 1-6, middle school, and high school students respectively. Further fees at the high school level would involve $5.00 per semester for graphic arts students, $3.00 per semester for art students, and $4.00 per semester for home ec. students. Behind-the-wheel driver's ed. fees would be $8.00, and a parking fee would be $5.00. These rates compare, on the average, to those charged students in Slinger, West Bend, Waupun, and Cedarburg.

No direct action was taken on the fees except to allow for further perusal by the board. The budget will be discussed further on Monday, June 25, and possibly approved at that time.

In other action, the board approved the re-hiring of Title I Language and Reading teachers for next year. These include Barbara Harju, part-time at Wayne; Mary Ann Secor, part-time at Beechwood; Karen Larson, full-time at Kewaskum Elementary, and Kathleen West, full-time at Farmington. These programs have been approved and are 100% funded by the state.

Jane Vesper was hired as a Girl's Physical Education instructor as well as Head Volleyball and Head Gymnastics coach. Miss Vesper attended the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and has done student teaching at Galesville. Mary McCormick's contract was approved for an English teaching position at the high school. She will also be Head Forensics coach and a Cheerleading advisor. Miss McCormick graduated from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and has taught five years at Necedah.

A resignation was accepted from Bethel Ebersold, an English teacher at the middle school, since her family will be moving to Pepin, Wisconsin.

Summer school programs were approved for two special education students. One child would be instructed at Kewaskum Elementary by Dan Melahn who is hired as an aide. The other child would be placed in a summer program at Decorah School in West Bend. Due to the severity of the handicap, Kewaskum cannot presently provide the facilities required. The Kewaskum District would pay about $600 for the instruction and transportation, since the child resides in this district. No alternate means of transportation were deemed workable or more economical.

Board President John Tessar conducted the first reading of a Special Education Policy as a Curriculum Extension for the district. It stated that: "Special Education for children with exceptional educational needs (EEN) shall be in compliance with state and federal laws and Department of Public Instruction rules and regulations." This is based on the state and federal laws which mandate a free and appropriate public education for those handicapped children within any school district.

Two or three part-time custodial-maintenance personnel were approved in order to accomplish the cleaning, painting, and repairing required to spruce up the schools for fall. The short 11-week summer vacation means more work must be done in a shorter time.

Approval for CESA 16 computer contracts was granted again this year. Advantages of this are that the administration would have instantaneous access to records stored within the computer. There would also be computer time for instructional purposes at the high school and access to the Wisconsin Career Information Service. The increase in costs would jump from $12,337 to about $15,000.

A contract for special educational services such as supportive administration services and in-service programs with CESA 13 was approved. Special Education Director, Richard Zarling, said the in-services were really worthwhile and had involved 21 teachers. The Kewaskum District would go with CESA 13 for use of our federal funds in the area of special education as in other years.

The sale of 138 unused wire baskets for $3.00 each and a total of $414 to the Village of Kewaskum was approved. These baskets would be used for checking clothes in the bath house at the new village park.

Tessar also read a motion: "To reaffirm the board's action to retain the firm of Isaksen, Lathrop, Esch, Hart, and Clark to assist the administration in the investigation of allegations against Mr. Denniston as it may be pertaining to possible disciplinary action by the school district." There was no discussion. It was carried unanimously. Byron Gessner so moved and Jean Goeden seconded the motion.

The board also approved all vouchers payable for a total of $587,027.61. (Sorry, Jim, but the only quote you're allowed here is, "I move we pay the bills.")

New Park Rules

questionable. Some parks as West Bend do not allow so much as a 6-pack of beer without a written permit. Some committee members felt this was a bit stringent and the matter will be taken up later.

A provision for fireworks was retained in the rules. Dan Schmidt pointed out that some service clubs may wish to sponsor fireworks and could then get a permit for $50.00.

General swimming rules would prohibit bathing in any undesignated areas or swimming in the designated area without going through a proper admittance procedure. It would also be unlawful to wash any dishes or clothes in the natural bodies within the park.

Groups of more than 25 persons are not allowed without written permission. This is mainly to prevent undesirable rallies. Gambling and games of chance would be prohibited in the park, as well as hawking, peddling, or soliciting. Interference with any village employee while performing his or her duty would not be allowed.

Firearms as guns, bow-and-arrow, or sling shots would also be strictly forbidden in the park. The vast majority of the proposed rules were readily accepted by the committee members. These would be presented to the village board for adoption.

Possible amounts for certain permits were discussed. Up to $6.00 would be charged for reservations of picnic tables for a day. $10.00 would possibly be charged for any permitted assembly of more than 25 people. A volleyball, basketball, or kickball would be available for a deposit of $5.00. Upon return of the ball, $4.00 will be refunded. Frisbees would require a $2.00 deposit, $1.50 of which is returned. Parking fees for buses are a possibility.

Rules for the tennis courts were also given. Play will be limited to one hour. Courts are to be released on the hour to the next group of players. Tennis shoes would be required and no bikes or roller skates, etc. would be allowed on the courts. Sitting on the net would also not be allowed.

In regard to the swimming, it was agreed that the village would go 50/50 on the cost of swimming suits with the guards. A windbreaker, establishing the guards' identity would be provided. Several additional rescue tubes would also be purchased.

Send in your pictures to the Statesman. No charge.

Only 81 Votes Cast In Village; Hephner, Hanaway Nominated

A special primary election involving seven candidates was held in the 2nd Senate District Tuesday to determine two nominees for a special election July 10 for the seat vacated by the election of Tom Petri of Fond du Lac to Congress. Petri was elected to fill the 6th Congressional seat after the death of Rep. William Steiger of Oshkosh.

In Tuesday's election, Donald Hanaway of De Pere won the Republican nomination and State Rep. Gervase Hephner of Chilton captured the Democratic nod. Hanaway, 43, is a former mayor and city attorney in De Pere. Hephner has been the 6th Assembly District representative for the last 13 years.

Unofficial returns in the 2nd District (63 of 64 wards) were:

Republican: Donald Hanaway 1,556; Donald Steege, 1,047; Joseph Rice, 1,031; Michael Lotto, 863.

Democrat: Gervase Hephner, 3,591; Richard Switzer, 1,223; Gary De Byl, 709.

In the Village of Kewaskum only 81 votes were cast, resulting in each vote being an expensive one. Results were:

Republican: Rice 9, Hanaway 1, Lotto 3, Steege 28.

Democrat: De Byl 1, Hephner 39, Switzer 0.

The National Heart Institute says that studies show heart attacks are associated with obesity, high blood pressure, high cholesterol levels in the blood, lack of exercise, and high rates of cigarette smoking. Many doctors thus recommend weight control, exercise, diets low in animal fats and cholesterol, and elimination of cigarettes. This advice is an effort to avert the patient's headlong dash toward a heart attack. The advice is sound at all age levels.

Ice Cream

If you are watching your weight or concerned about the nutritive value of the foods your family eats these days, you know that it is sometimes difficult to satisfy your family's taste for sweets, especially when dessert time rolls around. When you read the labels or check the recipes on many of your favorite desserts, you are likely to find that they are high in calories and low in many important nutrients, such as minerals, vitamins, and protein. A two-inch wedge of chocolate cake, for instance, contains 370 calories. A slice of apple pie might run about 345 calories. What is the answer to the dessert dilemma? It is ice cream—probably an old family favorite! Because it is made from milk, ice cream provides us with many of the nutrients found in milk. The good news is a one-half cup of ice cream contains only 145 calories. So, during June Dairy Month, be sure to remember ice cream; it is delicious and nutritious.

REMEMBER CALCIUM!

Mothers, attention! Milk is still the leading source of calcium. Growing children need calcium to build bones and teeth. Milk provides protein which builds and repairs body tissues, helps the body fight infection and supplies energy. If your child finds yogurt, cottage cheese or ice cream more appealing than milk, substitute them for part of the daily milk recommended.

1/2 cup of cottage cheese equals about 1/3 cup of milk
1/2 cup of plain yogurt equals

about 1/2 cup of milk
1/2 cup of ice cream equals about 1/4 cup of milk
Compared to other beverages, milk is quite a bargain. Serve it regularly, with meals, snacks or by itself!

Dine out during Dairy Month

County Junior Fair Well Into Planning Stages

The 1979 Washington County Junior Fair, held in Slinger, is now well into the planning stages. The dates for this year's fair are July 25-29.

The fair committee for 1979 consists of Chairman, John Kohl of Richfield; Vice Chairman, Norbert Dettmann of Boltonville; and Hugo Schwulst of Erin. The secretary and manager of the 1979 fair is Joyce Albrecht.

The fair activities will include such things as the meat-animal sale, horse pulling contest, beef-pancake breakfast, chicken flying contest, the Fairest of the Fair Pageant, barn dance, and the usual cattle, livestock and open class and youth exhibits.

The fair management and committee would like to take this opportunity to invite the people of Washington County to communicate their ideas and suggestions for the 1979 fair. If possible, we will attempt to incorporate these into the upcoming events.

Past commercial exhibitors have been invited to continue as an exhibitor in 1979. Anyone wanting to rent space should contact the fair secretary at the County Fair Office, P.O. Box 537, West Bend, Wis. 53095. Phone 334-3491, Ext. 319.

Adults are encouraged to enter the open class departments which include clothing, foods, home furnishings, flowers and livestock. Anyone who wishes to exhibit at the 121st annual county fair must make advance entry by June 29. Fair books are available from the Fair Office located in Court House Annex II.

Yogurt

Did you know that eight ounces of yogurt will provide the same amount of nutrients as are present in one glass of milk? Not only is yogurt nutritious, it is also a cool and delicious way to add a fresh note to summer menus. Yogurt is available in a medley of fruit flavors for eating alone and in combination with fruit or vegetable salads, in desserts, or as an ingredient in a party dip. Plain yogurt can be used interchangeably with sour cream in many recipes. During the month of June, which is Dairy Month, do not forget yogurt. It is refreshing summertime eating that is good for you!

Oats Reserve Hits Release

Oats prices reached the reserve release level for the second time since the establishment of the farmer-owned Grain Reserve.

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) says farmers may immediately remove their oats from the reserve by repaying their price support loans. The release does not require farmers to redeem or sell their grain at this time.

The commodity was first released from the reserve on March 12 when the price was $1.29 per bushel. The release authorization was withdrawn May 2 when the price dropped to $1.27, and reinstated on May 10 when the price rose again to $1.29 per bushel.

About 12,761 bushels of oats are in the local Grain Reserve program. Farmers receive storage payments annually in advance on these oats.

ASCS will review the average price of oats on June 29 to determine if the release authorization will remain in effect.

In Wisconsin a coalition of citizens' groups, that have been concerned with getting one-way optional metroplan or two-way extended area service over the past several years and been denied by the telephone companies and the Public Service Commission, is forming. At present approximately forty people are involved and represent about fifty telephone exchanges throughout Wisconsin.

Saturday morning, June 16, at 10:30 a.m. they will hold their organizational meeting at University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

"The time is ripe for a statewide citizens' group to stand up to the telephone utilities and demand consideration of their communication needs," said Bernice Popelka, key organizer of the group.

"We never realized each other existed until we got together May 9 in Johnson's Creek and exchanged horror stories of our individual groups' struggles. It was a joy to know how many other groups shared our views and understood us. The telephone companies and P.S.C. have ignored our 'communities of interest,' and many of us are forced to pay expensive toll calls just to contact our schools, churches, places of work and business, doctors and hospitals, associates and relatives."

Optional one-way metroplan and two-way extended area service are services that had been granted several years ago to many other residents due to "community of interest" and recently has been consistently denied to petitioners, many of whom have average phone bills of $50 to $100 a month without the service.

Cong. Sensenbrenner To Survey District On National Issues

WASHINGTON — Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-Shorewood) Friday announced that his first regular poll on national issues will be distributed this week to residents of the Ninth Congressional District. The questionnaire asks their views on several major issues, including government spending, oil taxes, national health insurance, gas rationing, nuclear power, the SALT II treaty, and the draft.

In a message accompanying the survey, Sensenbrenner noted that it was helpful to him in determining the views of constituents and representing them in Congress. He urged wide participation by citizens in responding to the survey.

"While there are hundreds of issues before Congress each year, we tried to include in the survey some of the major ones likely to be voted upon. The results will be tabulated and published, and will be instructive to me and the people of the Ninth District. I hope everyone will take the time to reply," Sensenbrenner said.

A questionnaire is being sent to each household in the district. Each one is arranged so two persons may respond.

Representative Sensenbrenner, who is serving his first term in Congress, pledged to conduct such a survey regularly to gauge public opinion in the Ninth District and to respond to its wishes. "I found these surveys very useful while in the State Legislature, so I will continue them as another means of keeping in touch with the people of my district," Sensenbrenner added.

The Ninth Congressional District consists of all of Ozaukee, Washington, Waukesha, and Jefferson counties, the north shore suburbs of Milwaukee, and part of Dodge County.

How Not to Reform a Bureaucracy

Congress has an excellent chance to reform a federal bureaucracy and make it more efficient and effective in its cooperative effort with state and local governments in fighting crime. Unfortunately, Congress seems to be blowing this golden opportunity.

Since 1968, The Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) has channeled billions of dollars to the states to support anticrime programs. Last year these funds amounted to $733 million, which was parcelled out to local governments for a whole gamut of law enforcement programs — from police training to criminal rehabilitation programs.

There have been criticisms of the program, however, more with its administration than its purpose. Some claim that the LEAA has not had adequate control over local expenditure of grant funds, which has led to some abuses. It is also said that the LEAA is very inefficiently organized to carry out its own intent.

Congress has a chance in HR 2061 to streamline the LEAA and the way it doles out funds for anticrime programs. But the bill was amended in committee in a way that will only make the situation worse.

Under HR 2061, local and state crime units will be competing more for the same dollars. State supervision of funds used locally is also eroded. A local program could apply for funds given to the state, but if denied, could turn right around and apply directly to Washington for funds a second time. This will only result in poorer criminal justice program planning and monitoring of how these funds are spent.

In HR 2061 Congress has a golden opportunity to "tighten up" a federal program, but instead it is only increasing its size, diluting its effectiveness, reducing the amount of grants to local governments, and abdicating Congressional oversight of criminal justice program policies. If Congress takes this same approach to all federal programs, we are all in trouble.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL GRADUATION TRIP HELD

Next Tuesday, June 19, at 8:30 a.m., members of the 6-7-8 grades who attended daily Mass will have a trip to Mariott's Great America.

Wheat, Feed Grain Signup Ends With 415 Farms Enrolled

The signup period for the 1979 wheat and feed grain set-aside program ended April 30 with 415 farms in Washington County enrolled.

Ira A. Oelhafen, Chairperson of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) committee, said that program enrollment is lower than in 1978, but the amount of cropland to be set-aside or diverted is favorable and impressive.

Participating farmers intend to set-aside 253 acres under the wheat program and 2001 acres under the feed grain program. They will divert for payment an additional 1,925 acres.

"By adjusting their grain production in this manner, farmers help to obtain higher prices for their crops," Ira A. Oelhafen said. They also become eligible for price support loans on all eligible commodities produced, and for deficiency and disaster payments on crops of barley, corn, or wheat on participating farms.

According to Oelhafen, wheat and feed grain acreage planted for harvest on participating farms totals 21,105 acres, including 1,264 acres of wheat, 19,673 acres of corn, and 168 acres of barley.

County Agent Jack Trzebiatowski Promoted to Associate Professor

Jack J. Trzebiatowski, University of Wisconsin-Extension Agricultural Agent in Washington County, has been promoted to associate professor. His promotion was reported to the UW System Board of Regents.

UW-Extension Chancellor Jean C. Evans said his promotion "recognizes Trzebiatowski's professional work in making UW System resources available to Washington County citizens."

Trzebiatowski served Extension as Marinette County Extension Agricultural Agent from 1973 to September of 1977, when he took his present post.

He is noted for his leadership in developing and conducting programs in farm management, livestock and crops, with emphasis on feed testing and ration balancing for cows to increase milk production.

Trzebiatowski earned both his bachelor and master degrees from UW-Platteville. He is a member of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents, the Wisconsin County Agricultural Agents Association and numerous other organizations related to his field.

Wisconsin's 1978 milk production was .2 billion greater than produced in 1977. This increased production was 17 percent of the national increase in 1978.

June Activities in Wisconsin

Summer arrives in Wisconsin with a multitude of events, festivals and celebrations in June.

Perhaps best of all, Wisconsin attractions are close and convenient, with most less than a tank of gas away.

The annual Heidi Festival in New Glarus brings town residents on stage to present the popular story of the little girl, her grandfather, and her adventures. The festival will be June 23-24, and the many shops and ethnic restaurants of New Glarus will be open for browsing and shopping, and the Little Switzerland Festival will be Saturday, while the Heidi Crafts and Food Fair will be Sunday.

Milwaukee's Summerfest, "The World's Greatest Music Festival," begins June 28 and lasts through July 8. The Summerfest grounds, located on the Lake Michigan shoreline, are alive with music from bluegrass to classical, calypso to disco, and jazz to rock. There's a main stage, the Miller Jazz Oasis, Pabst International Stage, and Schlitz Country Scene. Also on the grounds are a midway, comedy shows, circus and food booths. It's described as a music festival, sports event, children's show, bazaar and block party, all rolled into one.

Some of Wisconsin's June events begin early, in May. An exhibition of Irving Amen and Japanese prints will be at the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum, in Wausau, from May 30 through June 24. And a collection of German Expressionist Art from the 1890's to the mid-1930's will be on display at Milwaukee's Art Center throughout June until July 8.

Wisconsin is noted for her variety, both in landscape and recreation. Here's a sampling of the wide variety of events to visit and take part in this month.

Heritage Trail Days, in Waupun, are set for June 14-17. This summer is the city's 140th anniversary, and the 50th anniversary of Waupun's gift of the bronze statue of Fraser's "End of the Trail."

The 22nd Annual Wonago Rodeo will happen June 15-17 at State Fair Park, West Allis. Top rodeo stars are expected to compete for World Championship points. June 16 the Hy-Land Lakes Carnival will be held in Elcho, and the fascinating Bathtub Races will return to Oshkosh. The Summer Trolley Days, at the East Troy Trolley Museum, will be June 16-17, the same dates for the annual Fyr Bal Festival in Ephraim, which welcomes the return of summer to Door County. The annual Alewives Jazz Festival begins June 18 in Milwaukee and runs through July 13.

The third weekend of June brings the return of the Lakefront Festival of the Arts to Milwaukee, June 22-24. Attracting more than 200 exhibitors, the event is recognized as one of the finest outdoor art shows in the midwest.

Olde Ellison Bay Days, in that community near the tip of the Door County peninsula, are scheduled for June 22-24. Spring Green's Arts and Crafts Fair will be June 23-24. The annual Muskie Festival, honoring the king of Wisconsin gamefish, will be June 23 in Hayward. Presque Isle's 2nd annual country fair is set for June 24, and there will be Whitewater Kayak Clinics and a tour of northern Wisconsin rapids on the Montreal, Brule and Flambeau Rivers sponsored by Whitecap Mountain at Montreal, June 25-July 1. Bayfield's Commercial Fish Festival will be June 23-24 in that Lake Superior port.

A number of events begin in June and continue into July. Monroe's Mid-Summer Festival of the Arts is scheduled for June 29-July 4. Antigo's Centennial Celebration will be June 30-July 7, and Hurley's Heritage Festival is set for June 30-July 8.

Song of Norway performances begin June 30. They'll be held at the Cave of the Mounds complex, near Blue Mounds. Performances are also scheduled for July 7, 14, 21 and 28.

The Symphony of the Hills concert begin with the traditional pasty ball in Mineral Point, June 30. Five more performances are scheduled for July 1 in Governor Dodge State Park, Dodgeville, July 3 in Monroe's Twining Park, July 5 in Richland Center, and July 7-8 in Governor Dodge State Park.

The 7th Annual King Richard's Faire begins its summer season in Wisconsin June 30-July 1. Designed like an Old English marketplace of more than 400 years ago, the grounds are located just west of I-94 near Kenosha. The faires will be held on weekends through August 4-5.

The summer show at the three Mitchell Park "domes" in Milwaukee begins June 30. The conoidal domes house three separate climates — tropical, arid and changing displays — under the 84' tall glass.

Landlord-Tenant Hearings Scheduled

The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection announces that it will hold a series of public hearings in June to consider the adoption of rules related to residential rental practices.

The proposed rules on landlord-tenant relations were drawn up after studies requested by the State Legislature.

Persons wishing to appear are encouraged to inform the department in advance of the hearings as to the time and date they wish to appear. Arrangements may be made with Gina Carter at 608-266-9235, or by sending requests to the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection, 801 W. Badger Rd., P.O. Box 8911, Madison, WI 53708. Copies of the proposed rules are available at the department.

Diesel Fuel Authorized for Farm Use

"Farmers are entitled to obtain sufficient diesel fuel to meet their requirements," Ira A. Oelhafen, Chairperson of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) committee, said. They are also entitled to 100 percent of their farm needs of propane, butane and gasoline.

The Department of Energy (DOE) established recently a priority system for distributing diesel fuel, giving the highest priority to that used in agricultural production.

Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland said any shortages of diesel fuel could significantly reduce the size of harvest, create a tight supply situation, and result in serious market disruptions. Wholesale suppliers of diesel fuel will be required to provide local distributors and retailers with supplies sufficient to meet farmers' needs.

To help implement the agricultural priority, ASCS will assist farmers in making application for their fuel requirements. "Upon request, we will help determine what constitutes agricultural production. We will also report planted acreages, cropping patterns and other information to fuel dealers, state energy offices and the Department of Energy, in support of a farmer's application," Ira A. Oelhafen said.

If the problems cannot be solved locally, ASCS will get further help from the DOE regional office.

Expand Clinic Hours for Adult Health Screening

Clinic hours have been expanded for the Adult Health Screening program offered by Washington County Community Health Nursing Service for the convenience of area residents.

MAKE YOUR APPOINTMENT NOW!

The clinic will be held June 20, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 3:30 to 7:00 p.m., in the lower level auditorium of the Washington County Courthouse, and is available to residents, 18 years and over, by appointment.

The clinic is a service offered by the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service to detect early signs of chronic disease. The tests offered are hearing, vision, blood pressure, and glaucoma screening. Community health nurses will be available to interpret the significance of the screening results to clinic participants and provide preventive health counseling to individuals who have concerns about their health needs.

Screening tests are not a substitute for regular medical care by a physician, but are a method of detecting early signs of chronic disease often unrecognized by an apparently healthy adult.

An appointment is necessary for the screening. To make an appointment, please call the Community Health Nursing Service, 334-3491 or 644-5204, extension 261. Call now!

McClain Advances In State Match Play

Chuck McClain of Kewaskum's Hon-E-Kor Country Club was one of the survivors still remaining Wednesday in the state match play at Lac La Belle Country Club in Oconomowoc.

McClain was a morning winner Tuesday over Pete Davis of the host club, 4-3. A hot 31 on the back nine was what decided the match. After being two down after the first eight holes, McClain won the ninth hole, tied on No. 10, and then ran a string of five straight holes. He had four birdies in his back nine barrage. Chuck was even par after 12 holes and three up in the match when he ran into a bit of tree and bunker trouble.

It was reported Wednesday afternoon that McClain also defeated Lance Melik of Racine to advance further.

Laatsch-Sauer Win Regal Cup Tourney

The annual Regal Cup tourney at Hon-E-Kor recently had 25 teams entered. The champions were Don Laatsch of Boltonville and Roy Sauer of West Bend, who combined for a 124 total to win by six strokes.

Second were Jack Dunn and Bob Wolf with a 130. Two teams, Kelly Bauer and Ray Gruber, and Bill Wuebben and Jim Westphal, tied for third with 132's.

Kewaskum's Tom Larsen had the best individual round of the day, a five over par 75. Clark Pearson shot a 76 and Westphal, Wuebben and Chris Winkler each had 77's.

Laatsch and Sauer will have their names engraved on the Regal Cup. Each will also receive a trophy at the annual Awards Night in the fall.

Area Racing News

By Ken Knoll

Rain forced cancellation of both the regularly scheduled Thursday night show and the Sunday afternoon "Red Race" at Wisconsin International Raceway in Kaukauna. The "Red Race" has been rescheduled for this Sunday afternoon, June 17.

The rain did not interfere with the races at Wayne Erickson's Slinger Super Speedway, much to the delight of Tony Strupp of West Bend. Although his winning streak was stopped at two, he still had to be very happy with the night's racing. Tony was fourth in time, first in the fast dash, fourth in his heat, and second in the 30 lap feature. Willie Goeden of St. Michaels was seventh in the feature.

Lions First Annual Fun Run Sunday Has 50 Participants

Despite the cold, rain and high winds about 50 running enthusiasts participated in the Kewaskum Lions Club's first annual Fun Run Sunday afternoon. The runners came mostly from Kewaskum, West Bend and Hartford.

There were two different races, a one mile and three mile for jogging and running enthusiasts and serious runners. Registration took place at the new park starting at 1 p.m. and the races began at 2 p.m. The races were run on the paved streets on Kewaskum's west end.

There were eight divisions in the mile race: boys 14 and under, 15-18, 19-30, and 31 and over. The same classifications held for girls. The 3-mile race had six divisions: boys 18 and under, 19-30, and 31 and over. The three for women were the same.

Entry fee was 50 cents and there were ribbons for the first five places in each division. Co-chairmen were Howard Zemlicka and Dale Squier. Lions Club members and the co-chairmen were well pleased with the turnout in the inclement weather and the enthusiasm of the runners.

The event was sort of a warmup for the "Kettle 20" which will be held August 19 in conjunction with the Lions Chicken Bar-B-Que. At that time there will be a 12 1/2 mile race, three and seven mile events, as well as a 25 mile bicycle race and golf flag tournament.

West Bend West Beats Indians, 16-4

West Bend West, a member of the Scenic Moraine Baseball Conference this year, bombed the Kewaskum Indians in their Scenic opener here last Tuesday, 16-4.

The Spartans got a strong performance from pitcher Jeff Sarauer, who struck out 15 Indians, while allowing 7 hits. Sarauer's teammates chased Kewaskum starter Scott Reif, who gave up 11 runs before being relieved.

West had 11 hits, however, in their two big innings, the second and sixth, walks and errors were largely responsible. The second inning saw the Spartans bat around to score 5 runs on only 1 hit.

Tim Nennig was the batting star for West with three for four, including a double and triple. Mickey Muenster had two hits. For Kewaskum, Gene Pufahl had a triple and single and Joel Herriges went two for two, also including a triple and single.

The defeat left the Indians with a 0-1 record in conference and 1-3 overall. Their game with Grafton Thursday was called due to wet grounds. Tuesday Kewaskum faced Slinger and lost. Results next week.

West also won the JV game, 10-5.
