Only 32 Persons Attend

No Objections to $4 Million Budget At Brief Annual School Meeting

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

The budget hearing and annual meeting for the Kewaskum School District on the torrid Monday night of July 23, was a sparsely attended and brisk affair. No objections were made to the proposed $4 million budget and no questions or comments about the school's functions were stated by the electorate.

School Board President John Tessar was elected as temporary chairman of both the budget hearing and annual meeting which lasted only 30 minutes. Including the board, only 32 people were present, and at times it seemed as if no one was willing to make motions.

Business Manager Bob Borch had the duty of explaining the proposed expenditures for 1979-80 which are broken down into 4 funds. Fund 500 refers to food services and is self-sufficient and does not affect the budget directly. Fund 300 is for debt service, and of the proposed $385,275.36 for this, $340,988.00 would come from the tax levy.

Fund 200 is a special projects fund, including Title I language programs and CETA programs which are mostly funded by the state. Vocational education programs, supported more locally, had a slight increase from last year up to $321,086. A transfer from Fund 100 of $316,000 will be used for some of these programs. The total of Fund 200 is proposed at $409,607.

Fund 100 is the general fund and the major area of expenditures, including teaching salaries, administration, and supplies and materials. It totals $4,211,766.00. Excluding short term borrowing, it would be $3,711,766.00. Borch touched upon a few items where there were large increases. For contracted services, there was a jump from $4500 to $10,300 for data processing, due mainly to the installation of a computer terminal and the necessity to purchase computer time for instructional purposes. Supplies and materials were up from $94,522.00 to $135,034.00, due to the purchase of some items two years ago, which were consumed last year, and of course, inflation. For example, the lowest bid on paper was 17% above last year's. The proposed increase in petroleum costs for pupil transportation was from $50,000 to $87,000. Escalator clauses requiring the school to pay at the increased rate that suppliers must pay. Oil for heat was also up from $15,000 to $19,500.

For capital outlay in Fund

100, Borch pointed out that the board had cut $21,000 from the budget that would have gone for a new station wagon, a storage shed, and a fence around the track. Provisions for installation of lockers at the middle school at a cost of $16,250 were included in the budget. Also, blacktopping at Farmington, KES, and KCHS for $4500 and the construction of a vestibule at the administration building for $2,000 were retained in the budget. Borch noted that no short-term borrowing was required last year but may have to be done this year.

Superintendent of Schools Floyd Brenholt explained the receipts. He said there were no great changes except in two areas - the tax levy and general state aids. Last year, $1,389,672.13 was received from the state, and this year,

Krazy Daze Is Well Attended

The annual Krazy Daze event in Kewaskum Tuesday again was very well attended by large crowds during the day and again in the evening. Food and refreshment sales (both inside and on the street) were up from other years as young and old lined the streets to take advantage of the many bargains, enjoy the good food and have fun.

A shower of rain in the afternoon sent folks scurrying to cover and caused some of the outside stands and booths to close early. Others opened up again later.

Large crowds returned for the evening with most of the people gathering around Behring's brat, hamburger, hot dog and sweet corn stand, for the live music at the Wigwam and Schmitt's Never Inn, and inside the taverns.

The event didn't end until the wee hours.

Michael Heisler, 25, Killed In Car Crash Early Sunday

Michael Heisler, 25, of 1623 Longmeadow Drive, West Bend, was killed early Sunday morning when his car struck an embankment head on near the intersection of Scenic and Paradise Drive in the Town of West Bend.

Heisler was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heisler, also of 1623 Longmeadow Drive, West Bend, and a nephew of Mrs. William Harbeck of Kewaskum and Frank Heisler of Fond du Lac.

He died of massive chest injuries, according to reports of sheriff's deputies.

Because there were no witnesses to the accident, the circumstances are unclear. However, sheriff's deputies said it appeared that Heisler was southbound on Scenic as he passed a stop sign at the intersection with Paradise Drive. Deputies said he continued through the intersection and struck the embankment.

The time of the accident was reported as 1:10 a.m. but there was no ambulance call until 1:23 a.m. Heisler was removed by the Schmidt Ambulance Service to St. Joseph's Community Hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

He was Washington County's 17th traffic fatality of 1979.

Heisler was born December 10, 1953, in Columbus, Ohio, and came to West Bend in 1966. He was employed as a set-up man at Milwaukee Machine Products.

He graduated from West Bend East High School in 1971 and attended Moraine Park Technical Institute, Fond du Lac. He served in the U.S. Army for four years and was stationed in Germany, and was also a member of the Wisconsin National Guard of West Bend.

Survivors include three children, Shane, Chad and Amanda Heisler, all of West Bend; his parents, Russell and Helen Heisler of West Bend; other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Monday at 7:30 p.m. from the Techtman-Myrhum Funeral Home, West Bend. Mass of Christian Burial was at 8 p.m. at Holy Angels Church, West Bend. Fr. James Hoefer was the celebrant and burial was in Washington County Memorial Park.

Visitation at the funeral home was after 4 p.m. Monday until the time of services.

ANNIVERSARY — A surprise 50th wedding anniversary celebration was held June 10 for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Prost of Kewaskum.

A reception and supper given in their honor by their children, Myron (Ellen) Prost, Lloyd (Carol) Prost of West Bend, and Bernice (Ronald) Stange of Kewaskum, was held at the home of their daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Prost were married June 8, 1929, at St. John's Parsonage, West Bend. Mr. Edward Prost and Mrs. Clara Stange were honor attendants.

Mrs. Iona Schmidt 1st Runner-Up In County Bake-Off

The category was a challenging one - a hot meatless Main Dish which used dairy products rather than meats to provide the main protein source for a meal.

Ten out of 18 entries met the challenge and were invited to bring their prepared dishes to the Wisconsin Gas Company on Tuesday, July 17. The judges sampled the dishes for flavor and texture, evaluated them on appearance, nutritional value and overall appeal to reach their final decision.

Mrs. Pam Matenaer of West Bend and her Calico Cheese Casserole was chosen as the winning entry.

Mrs. Iona Schmidt of Kewaskum was first runner-up with her Cheese Strata with Mushroom Sauce.

Mrs. Loraine Schoeni, last year's Bake Off Winner presented a slow-cooker appliance to the winner and an electric bun warmer to the runner up. Both prizes were compliments of the West Bend Industries in West Bend.

A public "Thank You" also goes to the Wisconsin Gas Company and their Home Service Representative, Mary Underhill, for providing the facilities for the Bake-Off as well as refreshments and a presentation on Outdoor Cookery.

The recipes are especially good for this time of year when you are looking for something light, but filling.

The winning entry, Calico Cheese Casserole, and Mrs. Iona Schmidt's first runner-up, Cheese Strata with Mushroom Sauce, are reprinted.

CALICO CHEESE CASSEROLE

- 1 package (8 ounce) spaghetti
- 1 package (10 ounce) frozen mixed vegetables
- 6 tblsp. (3/4 stick) butter
- 1 1/2 cups soft white bread crumbs (3 slices)
- 4 tblsp. flour
- 1 tsp. salt
- 3 cups milk
- 1 tblsp. prepared mustard
- 3 cups shredded sharp cheddar cheese (3/4 pound)
- 4 hard-cooked eggs, shelled and sliced

Break spaghetti into 3 inch pieces. Cook spaghetti and frozen vegetables in separate saucepans, following label directions for each; drain well and return to saucepan spaghetti was cooked in.

Melt butter in a medium-size saucepan; measure 2 tblsp. into a small bowl and toss with bread crumbs.

Stir flour and salt into remaining butter in saucepan; cook, stirring constantly, until mixture bubbles; stir in milk and mustard. Continue cooking and stirring until mixture thickens and bubbles, 1 minute. Stir in 2 cups of the cheese until melted. Pour sauce over spaghetti in saucepan and stir until well blended. Spoon half the spaghetti mixture into an 8 cup shallow baking dish; top with egg slices; add remaining spaghetti. Sprinkle remaining 1 cup cheese over top of casserole and top with buttered crumbs. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes, or until casserole bubbles.

Yields 6, Total Cost - $2.60, Cost per Serving - $0.43. Prepared by: Mrs. Pamela Matenaer, West Bend

CHEESE STRATA with MUSHROOM SAUCE

- 12 slices day old bread
- 1/2 pound thinly sliced Provolone cheese

- 4 eggs
- 2 1/2 cups milk
- 1/2 tsp. dry mustard
- 1 tblsp. finely chopped onion
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/8 tsp. pepper
- 1 7 ounce can mushrooms in sauce
- 2 tblsp. commercial sour cream

Arrange 6 slices of bread in the bottom of a greased 12x8x2 inch baking dish. Cover bread with cheese slices; top with remaining bread slices. Beat eggs slightly, add milk, mustard, onion, salt and pepper. Pour egg mixture over bread. Let stand at room temperature one hour. Heat oven to 325 degrees (moderately low). Bake cheese mixture uncovered 50 minutes. Heat mushroom sauce in a small saucepan over moderate heat. When the sauce bubbles, remove from heat and stir in sour cream. Cut into squares and serve with hot mushroom sauce.

Yields - 4, Total Cost - $2.65, Cost per Serving - $0.66. Prepared by: Iona J. Schmidt, Kewaskum.

Beach Briefs

After another hot and sticky week was survived by the sun-bronzed lifeguard staff, they were unanimous in their choice of swimmers of the week of July 15-22. Congratulations go to Jodi Averill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Averill of 1320 Kewaskum Street and Scott Klein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klein of 3813 Bonnie Lane. Senior Guard Andrea Wagner did comment, however, about all the kids - "There are so many good ones."

Jodi, age 11, said that she liked the new pond, because, "It's cleaner," and "It's funner." She mentioned the pier and raft as positive features. She has "a lot" of hobbies, including painting, skateboarding, roller skating, and would you believe, reading. Jodi's favorite tune is "YMCA" by The Village People. Between giggles, Jodi admitted her favorite foods were definitely spaghetti or pancakes, depending on the time of day. This being the week of Krazy Daze, the question of the week was: What's the craziest thing you ever did? After saying, "Oh, my gosh" and "I have no idea," she finally admitted to doing 305 somersaults in a row and being only slightly dizzy. If Jodi were Village President, she would "Try to get the streets more paved." She claimed some of them were rough and bumpy. Take heed yet another time, President Danielsen and Payne and Dolan!

In a personal interview at the pond, Scott, age 16, commented on the new pond that "It's nice and warm...and deep." He further described the new park as "different." Scott's hobbies include swimming and biking and swimming and running and swimming. "Eating" was also mentioned, but he denied a craving for "Dot's Club shrimp." Otherwise, his favorite tune is "Life's Been Good to Me" by Joe Walsh. The craziest thing that Scott ever did was "running through a raspberry patch with shorts and no shoes" (ouch!). If Scott were Village President he'd have "swimming 'til midnight" every night. Get out your Captain Midnight costume, President Danielsen!

The raft now sports a new astro-turf surface which prevents slipping, thanks to K & R Carpeting. Lately, the pond seems to have an influx of web-footed friends known as frogs. Tadpoles must grow up!

Thursday night's adult classes were attended by 16 people. A few even churned their way to the raft.

Andi's Banter
Senior Guard Andrea Wagner announces:

We need candidates for Advanced Lifesaving class. There is the possibility of lifeguarding jobs at the pond next year, and personnel must be certified this year. You are eligible if you are a strong swimmer and 15 years of age. You may come down (up?) to the pond to see Cathy Johnson or Andrea Wagner if you are interested.

School Meeting

$1,507,410.00 is expected. Brenholt said about $40,000 more would probably be received if the state budget is approved. The "worst possible picture" for state aid is reflected in the proposed budget, and whatever is received is then taken off the tax levy on a dollar for dollar basis. The total tax levy according to the present budget would be $2,301,594.00. This includes $1,456,545 from the current year's levy, $504,061.00 from the prior year's levy, and $340,988.00 of the levy used for debt retirement. This all represents a 10.5% increase in the levy, but if the state aids come through, the levy would increase 8.5%. Brenholt stated the reason proposed interest earned was $5,000, as compared to last year's actual $17,735.74, was the pace at which state aids may come in and monies could be invested.

When Brenholt asked for questions on the budget, there were none. In a parliamentary procedural quirk eventually corrected by Clifford Stautz, Tessar asked during the budget hearing for a motion to accept the budget. Walter Theusch then moved to NOT accept the budget. There was no second to this, so Tessar said, "Motion denied." Stautz then pointed out that the only correct motion here would be to present the budget to the annual meeting. This motion passed unanimously.

The annual meeting consisted of the passage of 9 motions allowing the school district to operate for the coming year. Besides the resolutions to accept the minutes of last year's meeting, the Treasurer's report, and the School Board report, the major resolution (No. 8) that a tax be levied on all taxable property of the district for operating expenses and capital outlay for the 1979-80 fiscal year in the amount of $1,960,596.00 and for debt retirement in the amount of $340,988 passed unanimously. It was so moved by Jerry Keifer and seconded by Mrs. Jan

Rosenthal.

The salary of school board members was set at $700.00 per year and compensation for lost earnings was not to exceed $15.00 per day. This was moved by Francis Gilboy and seconded by Jerry Kiefer. A motion authorizing temporary loans to pay expenses until other funds are realized from the current tax levy was made by Clifford Stautz and seconded by Roy Esser and subsequently passed. The school board was also authorized to sell or dispose of obsolete equipment, to provide for prosecution or defense of actions involving the schools, and to lease buildings needed to efficiently operate the schools and levy taxes to pay the rental costs.

There was no miscellaneous business and only one other motion by Cliff Stautz to accept the proposed budget. After being seconded by Bob Getter, there was no objection, and it passed unanimously.

It was my personal observation that only 11 people were involved in making or seconding the 9 resolutions at the annual meeting. Of these, 6 had some position with the schools, as teachers, principals, or attorney. Only 5 non-school related persons were involved in motions. Five people had to repeat their role in getting motions through. The non-school related electorate was represented by 8 people. A virtual sea of empty chairs separated the board at the front of the room and the school personnel who hovered at the back of the room.

In a humorous statement, that was an ironic comment on the energy crisis and the apparent lack of concern by the electorate, one board member commented how he had "wasted all that gas" to get to the annual meeting.

Construction Underway on Ice Age Center Near Dundee

Construction of an Ice Age Interpretive Center is underway this summer at the Northern Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest located in Fond du Lac, Sheboygan and Washington Counties.

The Northern Kettle Moraine is one of nine units of the Ice Age National Scientific Reserve in Wisconsin, a joint National Park Service and State of Wisconsin venture.

Significant glacial features will be preserved, protected and interpreted at each of the Ice Age Reserve units. Each unit contains unique or important examples of glacial features, many of worldwide interest.

The Kettle Moraine interpretive center will house exhibits depicting glacial events and features. It will also include an auditorium where various interpretive audio-visual programs will be presented. The new facility, located one-half mile south of Dundee on Highways 67 and "G", is scheduled to be open to the public in the spring of next year.

Similar future facilities are planned for other Ice Age units including Devil's Lake, Interstate and Mill Bluff state parks.

Each of the nine Ice Age Reserve units shares both national and state park status. Vehicle admission fees are waived for persons holding a Federal Golden Age or Golden Eagle Passport. Acquisition, development and operational costs of the units are shared by the state and federal governments.

Additional information concerning the Ice Age Reserve may be obtained from the Kettle Moraine, Devil's Lake, Interstate or Mill Bluff state park headquarters or from the DNR headquarters in Madison.

Tips Offered for Mailing Film

A little extra care when mailing film for processing could mean the difference in preserving the memories of your summer vacation, Postmaster Frank Beesten advised recently.

"Thousands of film packages end up in dead letter offices throughout the country each year," Postmaster Beesten said, "just because the film package was wrapped and addressed carelessly."

He offered the following tips for mailing film:

* Put the film in a sturdy envelope, and when possible use envelopes supplied by a film processing company.

* Write the film processor's mailing address, return address and ZIP code legibly on the outside of the envelope.

* Tape your name and address to the film roll or cartridge before putting it in the envelope, and put your name and address on the back of any photographs being sent for copying, re-touching or other purposes.

Lions Club Donates To CARE for Water System in Bolivia

The Kewaskum Lions Club has helped establish a source of drinkable water in rural South America.

The Lions of thirty communities of southeastern Wisconsin, comprising Lions District 27-A2 have pooled funds to finance the project, which is under the supervision of the international aid agency, CARE. It is located in Bolivia at Cumandaity, in Chuquisaca, where a gravity water system was built with the assistance of the local people. Joseph Mackesy, of Belgium, Wisconsin, was Chairman for the Lions in coordinating the drive.

Each year, southeastern Wisconsin Lions Clubs and CARE undertake an overseas development project designed to reflect the Lions' pledge of international brotherhood. In past years the Lions of this area have built a nutrition center and an irrigation project in Colombia, a schoolhouse in Nicaragua, a school-feeding and kitchens project in Panama, a classroom project in Honduras and nutritional education centers in the Philippines.

Rueben Suter, 4702 N. 42nd Street, Milwaukee, Lions/CARE Project Chairman for 1979-1980, said that the membership is currently looking forward to the establishment of its new undertaking in Belize, Central America, where a system of CARE-supervised rural agricultural classrooms will be established with the aim of stemming the tide of rural youth to urban centers by providing training in farm pursuits.

Summer Playground News

Thursday was "Backwards Day" at the playground. As part of Good Humor Week, we staged a kickball game in which players kicked left-footed and ran the bases backwards. The following people were given awards in the Left-Handed Coloring Contest: Dan Heisdorf (6-7 year olds), Roger Vandebusque (8-9 year olds), and Amy Serwe (10-11 year olds).

Our major craft project was bread dough sculpture, which everyone seemed to enjoy.

"Sesame Street Fever" was one of the tunes heard at the playground Wednesday evening at the Disco Dance. We also had a Cupcake Walk, and punch was served.

This week's sportsmanship awards go to Tina Weddig and Chris Weddig.

July 30 - August 3 is "Super Stars Week." Here's your chance to be a star at the Talent Show scheduled for Thursday, August 2.

Ground Breaking Ceremony for New Wing Held at Cedar Lake Home

The Cedar Lake Home Campus broke ground for a 57 bed replacement wing on Thursday, July 19.

The Home had a short ground breaking ceremony with members of the Campus family and local representatives at 11:00 a.m. according to the Campus Superintendent, L. C. Riesch.

The two story wing will replace fifty-seven beds that are currently being phased out due to new and proposed federal and state code regulations. The wing will provide facilities for elderly and handicapped persons requiring skilled nursing and concentrated-intensive care. It also will include a special area for residential living.

Included in the expansion are needed activity areas and treatment rooms. A small greenhouse will be an important part of the project.

The section of the original building which will have all of its beds relocated is to be utilized for ancillary services such as offices, occupational therapy treatment, rooms for overnight guests, music therapy, discussion-therapy, emergency and examination room and medical records.

The Cedar Lake Home Campus community used dental suite for the elderly will be relocated to this area.

"We've thoroughly studied all of the possibilities before deciding to construct a new wing," said Rev. Riesch. "We learned that it was impossible to renovate the present structure."

"The need for the quality services provided by the Campus is tremendous as attested by our 99 plus percent occupancy rate," Riesch added, "We note that this wing will give us the opportunity to provide additional services both for our residents and for the community. Good stewardship and good planning are essential parts that help a Campus such as ours to have an outstanding services record in quality of care and promotes its use as a teaching resource."

When wheat is processed into white flour, not only is the most nutritious wheat germ eliminated, but there is a 60% calcium loss. A diet of white flour contributes to the loss of bone strength in older people, and the ease of bone fractures. Whole wheat breads and whole grain cereals generally are the more healthful in supplying vitamins A, B-complex, and E, as well as essential calcium.

New ways Valley helps you save.

Effective July 1st, banks were authorized by the Federal Government to increase the amount of interest we can pay on Instant Interest savings to 5 1/4 per cent. Valley Bank has put the new rate into effect as of that date.

We have also restructured our Valley Certificates of Deposit to make them more attractive to the smaller saver.

Instead of requiring a minimum $1,000 purchase for 4, 6 and 8 year Certificates, you can now purchase these for as little as $100.

These all pay higher interest than Instant Interest savings depending on the length of maturity you select.

In addition to the 6 month Money Market Certificate of Deposit, we now have a totally new 4 year Investment Certificate (Minimum $100). The rate will be calculated at 1 1/4% below the 4 year average yield for Treasury securities.

What this means is that even the small investor can now take advantage of the attractive rates on Valley Money Market Certificates.

Keep in mind there is a substantial penalty for early withdrawal of all time deposits. Those with maturities of more than one year must forfeit six months interest and those of less than one year must forfeit three months interest.

We've made saving at Valley a lot more attractive. See for yourself. Stop in or call us today.

Gasoline Hotline Number is Changed

Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-Shorewood) Thursday announced that the toll-free national gasoline "hotline" number for information on gasoline availability has been changed, due to the unexpectedly large volume of calls being made to obtain the service.

Sensenbrenner earlier advised Ninth District residents of the service, especially those vacationing outside Wisconsin this summer and worried about the gasoline situation in the areas they would be traveling in.

The new "National Gasoline Hotline" number is 1-800-238-1000, or 1-800-542-5270 if the call is placed within Tennessee. Both are toll-free and open 24 hours a day to provide the latest information on the gasoline situation in over 100 metropolitan areas around the country and along all major Interstate and U.S. highways, Sensenbrenner said.

Sensenbrenner urged people to use the service, but to please note the change in the number.

Time Vegetable Harvest for Best Flavor, Nutrition

By Dan A. Wilson
Resource Agent

UW-Extension, West Bend

Home-grown vegetables taste best and are most nutritious when they're harvested at the proper time. Knowing the right stage in your plants' growth to harvest will assure high quality vegetables.

Each vegetable has an ideal growth stage when harvesting will yield the best product. Here are the proper harvesting times for some popular garden vegetables:

BEANS — For the snap varieties, the best time is when the pods are almost full size but the seeds have not yet begun to bulge.

BEETS — For greens, pick the leaves when they're 4-6 inches long. The beet itself should be 1-1 1/2 inches in diameter. Harvest the roots when they're 1 1/2-3 inches around.

BROCCOLI — Harvest before the flower buds in the head begin to open. The leaves are also very nutritious.

CABBAGE — When the heads are solid, pull them upward enough to break a few roots. This will prevent the heads from splitting by reducing the water intake. Leaving the roots, stem and old leaves after the main head is cut will also produce other heads later on.

CARROTS — Start harvesting carrots when they are at least 3/4 - 1 inches in diameter.

CAULIFLOWER — Cauliflower heads or curds become yellow and tough when exposed to light, so it's a good idea to cover them with a cabbage leaf or tie the leaves loosely over them when they reach 3-4 inches in diameter. Harvest the curds when they are 6-8 inches around.

CELERY — If you plan to store celery, leave it in the garden until just before the first frost. Otherwise, harvest when stalks reach 12-15 inches tall.

CHARD — Chard plants will produce repeatedly if you remove the older outer leaves when 8-10 inches long.

CUCUMBER — The size the harvest fruits depends on how they will be used: for sweet pickles — 1 1/2 - 2 1/2 inches long; for dill pickles — 3-4 inches long; and for slicing — 6-9 inches long. The best fruit is still bright green and firm.

LETTUCE — Pick leaf lettuce when leaves reach 4-6 inches long. Harvest heads before the seed stalk starts.

MUSKMELON — The fruit will begin to separate from the stem when fully developed.

ONIONS — Green onions should be harvested when 6-8 inches tall. Onions from seeds should be harvested when tops fall over. Cut them 1 inch from the bulb, and dry onions for storage in a protected place.

PARSLEY — Harvest 3-4 inch long parsley leaves throughout the summer. Start your winter plants from seeds sown in a pot outside about August 1.

PEAS — Harvest regular varieties when the bright green pods are fully developed. Pods should be about 3 inches with the seeds barely starting to swell for the edible-podded cultivars.

PEPPERS — Pick peppers when they're firm.

RADISHES — Harvest when they reach 1 - 1 1/2 inches in diameter.

SPINACH — Harvest the entire plant when leaves are 6-8 inches long.

SQUASH — Harvest winter squash when the bottom of the fruit is orange. The rind should be firm and glossy. Harvest the elongated summer "squash" at 6-12 inches and the "patty pan" varieties at 3-6 inches in diameter.

SWEET CORN — Corn is usually ready 21 days after the silk appears. When the last ear is harvested, pull out the stalk, chop it into short pieces and place in compost pile to make the soil easier to work the following year.

TOMATOES — Those to be used for canning should be harvested during August and very early September. They should remain on the plant for several days after full color for the best flavor. Harvest others when the fruits are fully colored.

Some additional harvesting hints — for high quality leaf vegetables, harvest early in the morning while plants are still dew-covered. Harvest vegetables you wish to can or freeze just before preparation to assure freshness. To prevent wilting, store all vegetables in plastic bags or closed containers in a cool place after harvesting.

Synthetic Fuels — Hope for the Future

With all the recent discussions about our energy problems, again and again we come back to the theme of making the U.S. energy independent. Breaking the stranglehold OPEC nations have on our economy, due to our immense appetite for their oil, is the byword. It is just as frequently suggested nowadays that synthetic fuels may be the means of achieving our energy independence.

Synthetic fuels include substitutes for oil and gas made from coal, shale, tar sands, and even garbage. We already have the proven technology for getting gasoline and oil from coal. And though not yet fully proven, technology exists for extracting them from shale and garbage.

It should be noted that this country's coal reserves are sizable enough to produce four million barrels of synthetic crude oil a day for hundreds of years, over one-half our current imports from OPEC nations.

We presently do not have a synthetic fuels industry, however, because of the financial risks to the private sector. "Synfuel" plants cost billions each, and such an industry would need protection from temporary price cuts by OPEC designed to undercut and destroy any competition synthetic fuels could muster.

However, the House recently passed H. R. 3930, which I supported, to seek national "synfuel" production of 500,000 barrels a day by 1985 and 2 million barrels a day by 1990. This would be accomplished largely through price supports for the fuels themselves and loan guarantees for distilling plant construction. These will help develop a domestic "synfuels" industry that will enable us to replace that OPEC oil we are dependent on.

Synthetic fuels will not provide cheap energy, however. It has been estimated that a barrel of such fuel could cost $5 to $10 more than the current price of oil. But as oil prices rise, that difference could be wiped out and, indeed, "synfuels" could end up being cheaper.

If enacted into law H. R. 3930 would set a meaningful and attainable goal of synthetic fuels production. It would not provide immediate energy independence and all the gas we want. But it would start us down the road toward ending our addiction to OPEC oil and the threats and intimidation from OPEC nations that has shaken our economy.

Early Treatment Can Save Dutch Elm Disease Infected Trees

By Dan A. Wilson
Resource Agent
UW-Extension, West Bend

If you have elm trees you want to protect from Dutch Elm disease, you should watch closely for signs of the disease during the next several weeks.

Elms that develop symptoms in late June and July were probably infected just this spring through bark beetle wounds. Many of these trees can be saved by prompt treatment with a systemic fungicide.

Elm bark beetles overwinter under the bark of dead or dying elm trees. They emerge in May and early June and fly to healthy elms to feed in the crotches of small twigs. New infections are started when spores of the Dutch Elm disease fungus, which the beetles carry from their overwintering sites, make their way into feeding wounds.

Dutch Elm disease also spreads through root grafts—connections between the roots of adjacent elms.

Distinguishing between root- and beetle-transmitted infections is important because only new beetle-caused infections offer any promise of successful treatment. They can be detected while still small and localized.

One or two wilted, yellowing branches in the upper crown of a tree usually signals a fresh beetle-caused infection.

When wilting is more widespread (sign of a more advanced infection) or occurred before June 20, (sign of a carryover infection from last year) there is almost no chance of saving the tree. You should remove it as soon as possible to prevent spread to other elms.

But even a new, localized infection requires fast action because the fungus can spread rapidly, sometimes killing a tree in just a few weeks.

Examining particularly valuable elms from several different angles every day to insure spotting a new infection at first sign is recommended. The sooner fungicide is injected into the tree, the greater the chance of stopping the disease.

Only one fungicide—thiabendazole hypophosphate salt—is recommended for use against Dutch Elm disease in Wisconsin. It is available commercially under the trade names Arbotech S and Arbotech 20S. You will need special equipment for injecting it into a tree's water-conducting system.

A successful fungicide treatment will stop the disease's spread soon after injection, but treatment is not always successful. You might consider a second treatment if the first does not halt the disease. If the second treatment is not effective, however, there is little hope for saving the tree, and you should remove it to protect other elms.

Fungicide can also be injected into healthy elms as a precaution against infection. Such preventive treatments can be made any time after the leaves are two inches long.

The fungicide label restricts application to "trained arborists and others trained in identification of Dutch Elm disease and injection techniques." But homeowners can meet the applicator requirements by reading UW-Extension publication A2392, "Dutch Elm Disease in Wisconsin," (20c) and literature available from dealers who sell the fungicide and injection equipment.

For more information on combating Dutch Elm disease with systemic fungicides, contact the Washington County University Extension office.

Good Tasting
Summer Treats

By Debi Streuli
Summer Home Economist
UW-Extension, West Bend

It seems as though ice cream is a favorite summer treat for many people. Some people on special diets though cannot tolerate the high amounts of fat in ice cream and yogurt or the large amount of sugar found in ice creams and sherberts.

Here at the Extension Office some of us have been experimenting with an easy-to-make, inexpensive product which we feel is a good substitute for those cool, creamy ice creams and yogurts. One of the secretaries even made it for her discriminating teen-age daughter who asked for more after the initial "taste test!"

Below is a recipe for one serving. You can simply multiply the recipe for additional servings. For diabetics, one serving of this product would equal one milk exchange and one fruit exchange.

Puree 1/2 cup of your favorite fruit in a blender. Add 1/2 cup of nonfat dry milk powder. Blend till milk is dissolved. Mixture should be the consistency of a thick batter. If too thick, add additional fruit juice.

If desired, you may add sugar, artificial flavoring or sweetening to taste.

Freeze until firm. When ready to eat, let fruit whip stand at room temperature for a few minutes. Eat as is or garnish with additional fruit.

Hephner Cited
By Veterans' Organizations

Representative Gervase Hephner (D-Chilton) was recently cited by the Military Order of the Purple Heart, Disabled American Veterans and AMVETS for his legislative leadership in supporting veterans' rights legislation.

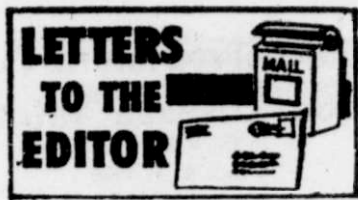

The DAV at their annual State Convention in Fond du Lac this past month, termed Hephner as having "regularly shown himself to be a staunch friend of veterans." Also George Trewyn of Oshkosh, Department Commander of AMVETS, said "Without your (Hephner's) help, many of our state programs never would have become a reality."

Most recently, Hephner led the opposition against AB-46 which would have shifted the funding for Wisconsin veterans' direct home loan program to revenue bonding. This change, "will take the opportunity for home ownership from many low-income veterans," the MOPH resolution stated.

These testimonials, continue to acknowledge Hephner's long and dedicated service on behalf of the Wisconsin veterans.

Reduce Soil Loss

By Don Kurer
District Conservationist

The loss of Washington County farmland rushes on. Urban development gobbles up many acres of rural land every year, much of which is prime farmland. But the loss of farmland does not represent the total loss. Soil erosion washes away more tons of topsoil than "acceptable" on some farms. The loss would be much greater if it had not been for the conservation practices applied on the farms of over 700 Washington County Soil and Water Conservation District cooperators.

Some farmers are not aware of soil loss on their farms. Due to new farming techniques, improved chemicals, more efficient machinery, fertilizer and better seed, yields have remained fairly constant as topsoil has been washed away. Therefore, these new farming techniques have covered up the fact that the soil is becoming less productive through the loss of topsoil. We cannot continue to allow this soil erosion and expect that improved farming techniques will continue to make up the difference.

We need to exert an effort to reverse the loss of prime farmland to other uses and reduce the rich topsoil that is being lost. For once it is lost, it cannot be renewed.

Take on West Bend East in Sectional

Indians Blank Ozaukee for Regional Baseball Title

Brothers Steve and Scott Muench combined to spark Kewaskum to a 7-0 shutout win over Ozaukee Thursday evening in a regional baseball championship game in Kewaskum. Ozaukee had reached the regional final by upsetting Campbellsport Monday evening.

Steve stopped Ozaukee on three hits, all singles, and struck out seven to gain the win. His brother, Scott, gave him good support behind the plate and with a two-run single in the second. It was the Indians' first shutout of the season.

After Steve got a three run lead in the second inning he got tough and the sophomore right-hander was never in serious trouble. In the last three innings he threw just 32 pitches, 25 of which were strikes.

The Indians took advantage of two Ozaukee errors to take their 3-0 lead. Some successful bunts in the fourth added two more runs. A hit over third base scored Steve Muench with the sixth run in the fifth and Kewaskum closed out its scoring with an insurance run in the seventh.

Haeser got two of the Warriors' three hits. Kewaskum's four hits were divided.

The victory gave Kewaskum a berth in Wednesday's Random Lake Sectional where they faced favored West Bend East's Scenic Moraine co-champs. East (20-4) and the Indians (7-14) played at 6 p.m., with Grafton and Random Lake squaring off at 8:00.

Random qualified for the sectional by shutting out Cedar Grove, 16-0, Friday evening. Kewaskum ousted Ozaukee, East had beaten West Bend West, and Grafton eliminated Slinger in regional play. Wednesday's winners will play Thursday at 8 p.m. for the right to appear in the state baseball tourney.

Kewaskum coach Mike Theiler had indicated he would start Muench in the sectional opener.

Dairy farmers in Wisconsin sold 14 million pounds of milk and cream direct to consumers in 1978 for $2.7 million.

One lap. That's all Tony Strupp led during the feature Thursday night at Wisconsin International Raceway in Kaukauna. But that was all he needed as it was the last lap and Tony scored another feature victory. He had earlier turned 3rd fast time and placed second in the fast dash. Willie Goeden of St. Michaels was 6th in time, 4th in the fast dash and 5th in the feature.

Sunday night the drivers were back in action at Slinger Speedway. Strupp continued to show the form that has earned him the track point lead as he placed 3rd in time and 2nd in the 50 lap feature. Goeden continued his run of bad luck at Slinger. He was 6th in time and then while running in 5th place with two laps to go, he was clipped by a spinning car that was many laps down and slammed into the 4th turn wall nearly climbing over the fence and almost flipped his mount. His car was very heavily damaged and he received some minor bruises. He was credited with a 10th place finish in the feature.

Winnebago County — Walleye fishing on Lake Winnebago has slowed down considerably because of the clear water conditions. Walleye action was spotty on Lakes Winneconne and Butte Des Morts. The best fishing is in the early morning and evening hours.

Dodge County — Fox and Beaver Dam Lakes are producing panfish.

Green Lake County — Walleyes are being taken on Big Green Lake with leeches, night-crawlers and artificial lures.

Sheboygan County — Lake trout and Chinook fishing was fair during the week and very good on the weekend, after westerly winds caused cold water conditions along the shoreline. As a result, Saturday and Sunday saw good numbers of coho taken from the Sheboygan piers, along with some rainbows and browns. The Saturday-Sunday contest sponsored by the local UAW saw 822 fish registered consisting of about 125 rainbow trout, 125 cohos and about 250 each of lake trout and Chinook salmon. The coho are running unusually small at this time with most being just 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pounds.

Southeast District

Inland waters fishing

throughout the District has been generally slow. Recreational boating pressure has been high on the lakes and rivers of the District. Panfish are providing most of the action with some bluegills and crappies being taken on Gerber and Crystal Lakes in Sheboygan County and Eagle Lake in Racine County and Nagawicka Lake in Waukesha County.

Browns Lake in Racine County is producing a few large-mouth bass. Some walleyes are being taken on Big Elkhart Lake in Sheboygan County.

Lake Michigan fishing for trout and salmon could be considered fair to good off Port Washington and Sheboygan. The best fishing has been in the early morning hours.

Vacationers Urged to Watch Out For Wildlife Along Highways

Illustration by: Kim Kerin

It is estimated that autos kill millions of wild animals on U.S. roads each year.

Much of the damage occurs during the spring and summer, when rural roads are jammed with holiday-bound motorists.

If you are about to go on vacation, the National Wildlife Federation urges you to observe these humanitarian rules:

Remember to look out for animals, both wild and domestic, along the highways. By driving alertly, especially at night, you can help spare the lives of creatures who normally panic when confronted with a speeding auto.

Dr. Fred R. Scroggin, president of the NWF, issued the appeal. "We can't assume that wildlife will act rationally when they see your car," he said. "The driver must be rational. You may have to stop completely to avoid a collision that could kill you as well as that roadside animal."

Scroggin noted that 29,914 whitetail deer and 84 bears were killed by autos in just one state, Pennsylvania, last year. In one area, Allegheny County, drivers killed more deer on the highways than hunters bagged during the hunting season.

Three Pennsylvania University employees who conducted an informal survey of the wildlife toll in their area are convinced that millions of animals die on the state's roads yearly. Along their 40-mile commutation route alone, in one month they counted 65 dead rabbits, 34 birds, 20 opossums, and a number of raccoons, skunks, squirrels, cats, dogs, squirrels, deer, chipmunks, snakes, foxes, and porcupines.

The three noted that the greatest number of animals died on fenced, two-lane roads bordering farms or forests.

NWF's President Scroggin also advised against "adopting" or "rescuing" wildlife. "Wild animals make bad, and even dangerous pets," he said.
