Fireworks in Park July 3

The customary Fourth of July holiday colorful fireworks display will again be held in the Kewaskum Village Park next Thursday night, July 3. This yearly event is sponsored by the Village of Kewaskum under the supervision of the fire department.

The dazzling fireworks will be set off at dusk from the west side of the Milwaukee River.

Spectators on the park hill across the river will have the best view of the electrifying fireworks, including ground displays and thunderous aerial bursts and sprays.

The park will open at 6:00 p.m. and game and refreshment stands will be in operation. Hamburgers, hot dogs, popcorn, beer and soda will be sold. Live music will be provided on the stage featuring Annie and the Playboys.

All residents of Kewaskum and surrounding area are invited to add a little "spark" to their holiday celebration by attending this fireworks spectacular. Come early and enjoy the entire evening.

In the event of rain, the fireworks will be held on Friday, July 4.

$4.5 Million School Budget to Be Presented at Annual Meeting

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

The proposed $4.5 million Kewaskum School District budget for 1980-81 was unanimously approved by the Board of Education Monday, June 23. The budget will be presented to the electorate at the annual meeting on July 28.

The budget will have nearly a $481,000 increase from last year, due mainly to inflation.

The local tax levy will be increased around 15%. As Superintendent of Schools Floyd Brenholt explained, the tax rate will remain essentially the same but the equalized valuation of property will increase about 15%. State Aids will not increase as much as in other years.

A senior citizen, Frank Sell, was present to express his concern over rising property taxes. He wondered how year after year the taxes go up and up while many senior citizens' incomes remain fixed. He asked, "How long can we keep that up?" Board President John Tessar responded, "You'll have to understand that 75-80% of our budget is fixed." He also mentioned the skyrocketing cost of petroleum products as a factor.

Sell continued that the district would "have to cut back on something else...on sports or whatever it is." He proclaimed that eliminating some minor programs as golf or tennis ".... would be more important than to deprive somebody else out of his livelihood."

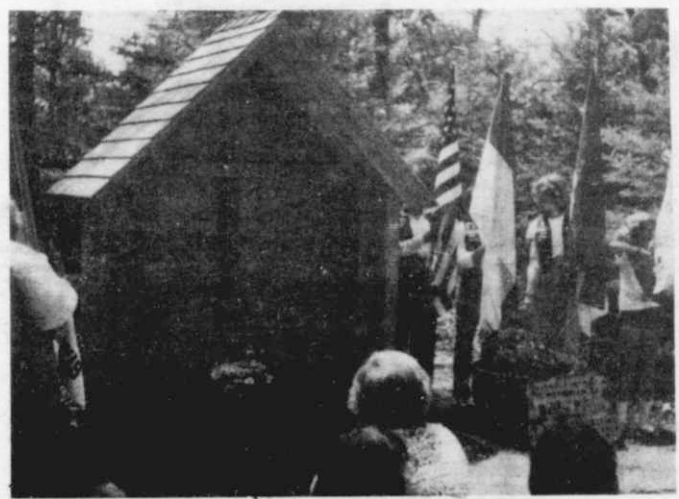

Tessar, Brenholt, and other board members, sympathizing with the plight of senior citizens who may risk losing their property, said that elimination of minor sports wouldn't mean more than $2,000 cut off the budget for each sport. Brenholt said the savings on his own home would amount to 27c. He felt 27c was worth it to provide kids with these activities.

Brenholt also elaborated on expenditures, saying, "I don't think its just fair to say 'you gotta cut back'." He cited statistics which show Kewaskum as spending $400,000 less than other comparably sized districts. Out of 25 similar school districts, Kewaskum was last in the amount it spent per student. He stressed again that had Kewaskum spent more in the past, it could now make cuts.

It was pointed out by Brenholt, Business Manager Bob Borch, and several principals that $300,000 or 10% of possible expenditures had already been pared from the budget. The dollar amount for supplies and equipment had remained the same, so due to inflation, actually less materials would be

Dottie Pettit Memorial Chapel Dedicated

Dottie Pettit Memorial Chapel

Rev. Steve Crites

On Sunday, June 22, the Girl Scouts from Kewaskum, Farmington and Wayne held a dedication ceremony for the Dottie Pettit Memorial Outdoor Chapel at Camp Tiwaushara.

Opening the ceremony was a Presentation of Colors by three girls from each of the eleven troops in the area. A beautiful presentation was given by Mrs. Lois Bartz, a very close friend of Mrs. Pettit's, and included highlights of Dottie's eighteen years of love and devotion to girls and Girl Scouting. Dottie, or "Mrs. P." as she was known to the girls, was overheard many times telling girls, "I don't always like you, but I will always love you."

A prayer was then offered by the Reverend Steve Crites of the Church of the Nazarene, West Bend.

The girls gave a recitation of the song "On My Honor." The chorus of this song recited by these young people, tells so beautifully what Dottie helped instill in all those she touched.

"On my honor, I will try,
There's a duty to be done and I say I,
There's a reason here for a reason above,
My honor is to try and my duty is to love."

Among the guests present were Mrs. Callie Mae Irving, Dottie's mother from California, her husband Michael Pettit, and their children, Michael, Stefanie and David of Kewaskum. Also present was Mrs. Meredith Henry of the Wau Bun Council.

The ceremony ended with the placing of a wreath of daisies, the Girl Scout Flower, at the base of the chapel.

We would like to extend our thanks to the chapel planning committee, Mrs. Vel Wheatley, and Mrs. Pat Morgan, and to those who helped construct it. Vel and Lyle Wheatley, Judy and Dick Goetsch, Carol and Sonny Neuser, and Rev. Steve Crites. The beautiful Memorial Plaque was made by Jeffrey Meloy. We would also like to thank Miller's Furniture of Kewaskum for the beautiful plant they sent and everyone who contributed to the Memorial Fund.

It is our hope that Girl Scouts in the future will come to the chapel in the peace and solitude of the little pine grove, and know some of the pride and love the Kewaskum area Girl Scouts feel for having known Mrs. Dottie Pettit.

School Board

purchased for next year.

Brenholt also presented statistics which showed Kewaskum's staff to pupil ratio as around 18 to 1. Out of 25 similar school districts, Kewaskum ranked 23rd with most schools having more pupils involved with each staff member. He declared, "No one can accuse us of throwing money around wildly or being overstaffed."

Brenholt also chastised the state for constantly fluctuating the share that it pays the district. Sell also felt the state should assist the elderly in offsetting their tax burden. He resented having money taken away as taxes and then repaid through "breadlines" which only make politicians look good. He personally felt too proud to partake of any free meals. Sell also complained of public apathy towards the budget. "I can't understand that not any more people take interest in it. What's the matter with the rest of the citizens in the community?"

Tessar and the rest of the budget committee went over each extra-curricular activity and each classroom and could not come up with any viable cutbacks. Tessar had asked for suggestions from the community and the board and apparently received none. In regard to cuts, he implored, "Tell us where; help us out."

Board member Byron Gessner favored taking some of the tax money coming in during August and applying it to next year's budget. Brenholt said this might lower the levy several per cent. This would also mean that borrowing money may have to be done later to meet expenses. Borrowing is generally done, especially since funds from the state will now trickle in at about 10% of the total amount, whereas it used to arrive in larger 25% chunks.

Brenholt said the option of the board to use some of these "back taxes" would be mentioned in the annual report. He best stated his summary of the budget situation with, "We might cut a few pennies but we're not going to cut big bucks."

The agenda for the annual meeting was approved with one additional motion that the board be authorized to set the date of the annual meeting. Board member Jim Oelhafen felt a later date would be better after the September "head count" was taken in the schools.

Gene Bohn was present to clarify the school's insurance coverage for non-school sponsored events which use school facilities. A question had arisen about the school's liability during a summer gymnastics program at the high school which was sponsored by a private organization - the Farmington PTO. Bohn said he had contacted the insurance company who insisted there was no problem in having outside groups in the school. He said the company would cover any legal liability if there is any incident involving negligence. Bohn stressed that the supervisors and assistants of the program would not be covered by workman's compensation.

Jim Utrie of the Wisconsin Education Association Trust Fund, the health insurance carrier for the school, explained a change whereby maternity benefits would be paid to new employees without a 270-day waiting period. Since law mandates pregnancy now be considered as an illness, coverage begins the day the involved person enters the district.

Utrie also explained that the district had to notify terminated employees that health insurance coverage is available for an additional 12 months at their own cost but still at the group rates.

A teacher resignation was accepted from Debra Wells-kopf, who taught kindergarten at Beechwood. A teaching contract was approved for Janet Wollangk as a Speech and Language Clinician. She attended UW-Oshkosh. Dan Wangerin was also hired as the Graphic Arts teacher and an assistant football coach at the high school. He attended UW-Stout and has four years experience at West Allis Hale High School.

Bob Borch explained that if the football-athletic field were transferred to the track area, work would have to be started shortly. Warzyn engineers from Madison informed him that an initial topo survey would have to be done for around $1,000. Later, stripping and regrading might cost $12,000, and re-seeding $5,000. Four lights on poles might cost $100,000. The reaction of the board was to table the issue, since they were not prepared to plan for extensive future spending at this time.

Borch recommended that gasoline not be bid. He contracted James Robinson of the U.S. Dept. of Energy who said the district must stay with its present supplier, who is Les Strobel. Robinson also mentioned an "artificial glut" of oil which flabbergasted the board. The situation will be investigated further.

A committee was appointed to review school staffing. Charles Ogi is the chairman with John Tessar and Jean Goeden being the other members. They will make their report by January 1, 1981.

Adoption of the Scott-Foresman Language Arts Series, the Laidlaw Spelling Program, and the Zaner-Bloser Method of handwriting was approved. These language arts texts and programs tend to stress writing skills.

Summer Playground Notes

"Community Pride Week" was the second theme for this year at the Kewaskum Summer Playground.

For one of the projects, the children were asked to draw a picture of one of Kewaskum's prominent features. The favorite subjects were the park itself and the water tower. These drawings were designed with built-in 3-d frames. Another picture was drawn of Kewaskum in the year 2025 A.D. Two projects or activities focused on the past.

On Wednesday the children visited the Kewaskum Historical Society Museum on River-view Drive. Many of the children had never visited this very informative museum. Indian necklaces made from rolled comics also made the children aware of Kewaskum's beginnings.

This week the children had the unique opportunity to be the first to enter the "Name the Park Contest." This contest is being held to name the park on the east side of the village by the Milwaukee River. The contest will run until July 3, at 4:00 p.m. Any village resident is welcome to submit a park name on a 3 x 5 card. Please drop it off at the Municipal Building or bring it to the Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park between 1:00 and 4:00 and give it to Erv Uhlman, the Summer Playground director.

The Juvenile Decency Award for last week was given to 7 year old Jason Gengler. Jason won the award for being courteous and helpful, and for displaying good sportsmanship.

Next week is "U.S.A. week." Most of the projects will be red, white, and blue, and will focus on patriotism. The children will also be working on their entry in the Kewaskum parade which is July 13.

Last week's average daily attendance was a surprising 20 children. Children from age 5 to age 12 attended. Parents are asked to accompany any child under 6 years old.

Edwards' Host 50th Wedding Anniversary of Heymanns

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Heymanns

A surprise celebration for the Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Heymanns, 10943 Glenway Court, Wauwatosa, was held on the patio of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Edwards, Kewaskum, on Sunday afternoon, June 22.

The Heymanns daughter, Betty, who authored the book, "Bittersweet Triumph," did the planning and correspondence from her bedroom in Wauwatosa, where she resides with her parents in their home. They are very nose people and it was a miracle that they came on the Edwards' invitation to enjoy a few "brats" with them, not once suspecting that Nick's four brothers and three sisters would step out of the garage, as their car door opened to the "tuneful" sound of a real "charivari." Also, all the others were present to witness the total surprise shown on their expressionless faces, by then turned very white, as they stared at all their relatives standing before them.

The weather was top notch — warm, yet not muggy — and everyone visited and ate and drank for the next five or six hours with joyful sounds coming from all directions on the patio.

The couple received many gifts from all present and as they left for home Monday afternoon, Mrs. Heymanns said "We came out a poor couple and now we go home rich, with some money, but far richer in our hearts for the great happiness this day of surprises has given to us."

Guests included the following: Charles of Sheboygan, oldest brother of Nick; Peter of Holyoke, Mass.; John of Phoenix, Ariz., and Michael, younger brother, and his wife Marg., of Sheboygan. Sister M. Annette, who celebrated her fiftieth year of service to the Lord at the St. Francis Convent in Springfield, Ill., last year, arrived also to share in her brother's festivities. Another sister, Sue, came from Fond du Lac with her husband, Tony Zornack, and their son, Charles, and his wife from Illinois. The third sister, Marie, came from Sheboygan with her husband, Frank Rehberger.

Irma's relatives included her sister Elsie, who was her maid of honor at their wedding. The best man was Elsie's husband, Leonard Hook, who has passed away. Another younger sister, Goldie Hornaday, came from Milwaukee with her daughter, Audrey Bradetich to enjoy their visit with all the relatives. The baby sister, Alma, Doc's wife, carried out the orders of niece Betty and enjoyed every minute of the long preparations.

A nephew, Harold Zimpel, and wife, Emily, also drove up from Milwaukee. Harold had lived with the Zimpel family in Medford for several years after his mother died when he was a very young boy.

Jules and Gwen Dreher drove up from Kenosha to be a part of this great day in her aunt and uncle's life. Dr. Joe and Patti Darin arrived after a four day Italian wedding held in Michigan just as the celebrants drove up the driveway. They also brought their children along from Brookfield to visit with their cousins at Bill's home.

An old family friend for many years, Win Thayer, came with his son, Vernon, from Milwaukee.

A big surprise came when old friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Kessler, arrived from Appleton to be with Nick and Irma on their day. The celebrants attended the fiftieth wedding anniversary of their friends last year at Appleton. John and Nick used to work at Kohler Company in 1927 and have been close friends since that time.

A nephew, Robert Roesler, of Milwaukee, son of Irma's deceased sister, Hilda, also attended. He teaches school in the Milwaukee School System.

The fishing cousins, Elmer and Marcella Zuehlke, Kewaskum and Marcella's sister Elvira of Stetsonville, cousins of Irma Heymanns, also came for a visit with their relatives.

In addition there were packages and greetings from Nick's cousin in Luxemburg, Europe, where Nick was born and from Irma's niece, Shirley, in Seattle, Washington.

Pick-Your-Own Strawberries Ready For State Harvest

Some of Wisconsin's 1500 acres of strawberries will begin ripening this week and John Polich, market specialist with Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection predicts that this season's crop will be a little larger than last year's. "With good sunny weather we should have an abundant supply," he says.

Strawberries grow in every county in the state and 95 percent of the 4 million pounds grown are harvested from pick-your-own gardens.

Berries grown under plastic have been ready for a couple of weeks, Polich says. Folks in the southern third of the state can begin picking early varieties this week and continue until the end of June. "Those in the northern part of the state will have from July 4-20 to get good quality fruit."

Prices may be higher than last year but Polich estimates that growers will get 42 to 55 cents per pound—that's 60-80 cents per quart. Retail market berries will cost about 90 cents to $1.25 per quart.

The vitamin C in strawberries varies with variety, climate, weather and conditions of harvesting, but the more sunshine strawberries get, the more vitamin C they will have. A cup of the fruit has about 60 calories but provides a day's supply of vitamin C.

Pick berries when they are fresh, all red, and free of moisture, says Polich. The best way to harvest strawberries is to grasp the stem above the berry with the thumb and forefinger, pull with a slight twisting motion, and allow a few berries to roll into the palm.

Leave the cap attached until the fruit is washed and ready to be refrigerated or it will spoil faster. Berries left standing in water lose their flavor faster. Strawberries keep best with their hulls in place, so don't remove them until just before serving or cooking.

Since keeping quality of fresh berries is poor, buy only as many as will be used in a day or two. If this isn't possible store unwashed berries in the refrigerator in a plastic bag with a few small ventilation holes punched in it.

If you plan on picking your own fruit it's wise to phone ahead to pick-your-own locations to find out the particulars.

County Extension offices have the bulletin "Wisconsin Strawberries—Pick Your Own" which lists pick-your-own locations. They also have B2756, "The Care and Eating of Strawberries."

July 1 - 2:00 to 6:00 p.m.
July 22 - 9:00 to 12:00 noon.

The grand opening of the new Feed Mill and Elevator and Farm, Lawn and Garden Center at West Bend Elevator, Hwys. 45 & D, 4 miles south of Kewaskum, will be held this weekend, Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28. There will be tours, refreshments, food, displays, and door prizes.

The new addition of a feed mill and grain elevator was completed recently. The company's growth reflects the energy of owner John Kratz.

When a feed firm has diversified product lines to sell and can offer quality service, the combination can build up volume steadily over the years.

This has been the case of the West Bend Elevator, whose chairman of the board is John Kratz. Its feed, grain and other operations bring in an annual impressive figure. Today, because of good management and efficient service to retail and wholesale customers, the company is doing a tremendous business.

The president of West Bend Elevator is Dan Wickert, who has been associated with the firm for 27 years. Dave Goring and Bud Becker are Vice-Presidents.

West Bend Elevator handles Purina feeds and Vita-Plus products for use in their locally mixed feeds.

Bird feed has become an excellent seller. Some is purchased and some bird feed is made under their own label. As much as 20 tons of sunflower seed is purchased at a time. Goring manages the seed and feed divisions of the company for the elevator and does some outside selling. Becker is in warehousing and salt.

Grain storage is in steel buildings which West Bend Elevator prefers to tanks or silos. They have three large storage buildings on this 10-acre site. The grain division manager, Allen Becker, uses these steel buildings seasonally for grain, farm chemicals, salt and oil for industrial firms. Each building has a wide driveway down the center to simplify unloading and loading of merchandise.

Dairy feed is the firm's best seller, with hog feed second and beef third.

The grain complex has perhaps the largest cob corn storage crib in this part of Wisconsin. There is a wide driveway in the center of the crib, with 5,000 bu. of cob corn stored on each side to facilitate the filling of the storage area and the loading out.

"We use some of this cob corn for our own feeds, and some dealers also buy cob corn from us regularly," Kratz said. "We believe we are one of the few places in Wisconsin where people can buy cob corn like this in large quantities. We replenish our stock regularly by buying from farmers in our area," he added.

Kratz worked for a Wisconsin custom mill for a period of 15 years before he bought the West Bend Elevator in 1947. He realized the potential for sales and service in this land-rich area and has developed it well for several decades.

West Bend Elevator helps support the 4-H and FFA Clubs each year with donations and publicity. Kratz served on the County Board for 15 consecutive years and on the vocational school board for eight years. He credits a great deal of his success to the efficiency and loyalty of his 20 some employees; some have worked for West Bend Elevator over 30 years.

Kratz's wife Grace has helped him steadily with office, sales and other business duties for many years. "We never dreamed we could reach the high dollar volume we enjoy today," he said. "but we worked hard, treated our customers right and paid our employees well, with many fringe benefits. We all feel that our company can continue to grow, especially if we continue to diversify as opportunities arise."

The West Bend Elevator Office at 204 Wisconsin St., West Bend, was closed on Saturday, June 14, and the entire operation is now at Hwys. 45 & D, 4 miles south of Kewaskum.

West Bend Elevator and employees invite the public to stop and see the new facilities this weekend.

TIPS

from Tom Leitzke, R.P.H.

Whether it is called phlebitis or embolism, a blood clot is dangerous. You can help your body avoid blood clots by becoming more active.

Avoid sitting for longer than 30 minutes without a "walk break." Get up, walk around, stretch easily in all directions. This helps relieve the pressure in the deep leg veins from sitting [at home or work] for long periods of time.

Elevate your feet periodically to stimulate blood flow. Walking, bicycling, swimming promote good and healthful blood circulation.

Art Weiner's Retirement

For a man whose career in education has spanned 42 years the next goal is to catch Wisconsin's biggest muskie. Art Weiner, retiring from Moraine Park Technical Institute this month, was reflecting on his years in education. "If you like people, then teaching is the best occupation. I missed that contact when I became an administrator." But people have been a big part of Weiner's life. Certainly his devotion to civic affairs has been an example of that.

He currently serves on the Council of the City of Fond du Lac and as President of the ADVOCAP Agency of Fond du Lac and Winnebago Counties. When he lived in West Bend, he served on city government there. "I have been the President of three Lions organizations—in Tomah, West Bend and Fond du Lac," he noted. He is a member of the American Vocational Association, the Wisconsin Association of Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association.

His career in education began with teaching, first for eight years in Tomah, for two years as Principal of Sparta High School, and later as Superintendent of Schools at Melrose, Wisconsin. He moved with his family, wife Marie, the former Marie Elmer, and daughter Nancy, to West Bend in 1951 where he taught vocational agriculture. "I organized the first state land judging contest that was held in the state, even traveled with some students to Oklahoma City to compete in the national contests. The contest has now become part of Farm Progress Days." Washington County residents who drive through the countryside and admire the many pine forests are in debt to Art Weiner. "My first FFA students started planting pine trees in open land as class projects. We went all the way down to the Hartland area, planting over one million pine trees. We started that in 1954. Many of those trees ought to really be big by now."

Weiner was Principal of West Bend High School from 1961-68. It was in 1968 that he joined the Moraine Park Technical Institute District as Administrator of Research, Development, and Public Relations.

As an administrator, he feels his most significant involvement was with the Moraine Park Master Plan. "This was the Moraine Park building plan, the program development that was going to be the main thrust of the District. My feeling has always been that if you have good planning, you have 90% of the job completed—then you can begin a project without making too many mistakes."

Art Weiner has used that planning "talent" for his retirement also. His priority is to muskie fish at his cottage in Manitowish Waters in Vilas County. That is not something one can do forever and Weiner has planned for the end of muskie fishing season. "I still have my term on the City Council to serve, that will expire in April. I will maintain my position as the Executive Secretary of the Moraine Park Foundation. I have been on that committee since the Foundation's organization in 1976, and I have been asked by Moraine Park to handle the planning and activities of the 1981 WAVAE Convention which is to be held in Fond du Lac next April." In between all his activities, he and his wife still plan to do some traveling and lots of visiting with their daughter, Nancy Hackbarth, her husband Dave, and son Aaron, 16 months. The Weiners will continue to live in Fond du Lac.

County Fair Entries Due

It hardly seems possible but here we are talking about county fair again. The time just seems to fly by. The deadline date for county fair entries is June 27.

County fair premium lists have been given to all 4-H clubs and FFA chapters. There should be a book for every family. If you haven't gotten one ask your leader or call the county fair office. Members of other youth organizations or people interested in exhibiting in open class can also get the premium lists by calling the fair office.

County fair is one of the many opportunities to learn through 4-H. During the year members learn how to make or grow things. They learn this at project meetings or while working at home. They try to do the best job that they can. The fair is a chance to see what many others have done. It's also a chance to compare the things that they have grown or made to things made by others.

When you get to the county fair take time to see what others have done. Try to understand what you have done well. Try to learn where you can improve and do even better. That's what a fair is all about, learning to make your best even better.

Indians Beat Slinger, Grafton And West Bend West; Now 6-1

The Kewaskum Indians baseball team won three more games the past week and are now 6-1 in the Scenic Moraine Conference. Their only loss to date came at the hands of Hartland Arrowhead, state champions last year. This is the Indians best start in a number of years. They are now tied for second with West Bend East.

Last Tuesday night Kewaskum defeated Slinger here, 7-2. Mike Pettit's two run triple in the fourth inning, in which the Indians scored 5 runs, helped break the game wide open. Three walks and a hit batsman also were included in the barrage.

Henry Schilter also got a triple in the third, in which the other 2 runs were scored. His hit scored Steve Yahr and Randy Heberer scored Schilter on a sacrifice fly. The Indians had just one other hit in the game.

Slinger got off to a good start off Jeff Geidel with runs in each of the first 2 innings. Most of the rest of the game Geidel was stingy as he put the side down in order in the 3rd, 4th and 6th innings. However, the Owls loaded the bases in the 7th on an error and 2 walks but Geidel got out of it.

With top pitcher Steve Muench injured, pitchers Geidel and Tim Heberer have been surprises. Geidel brought his record to 2-1 and Heberer is 2-0. Muench may return to the team in a week or so.

Grafton tied the score in their half of the inning but it was their last run.

The Indians sewed it up with 3 runs in the top of the 5th. After Randy Heberer scored, Rick Leitheiser drove in 2 more with a double. Geidel did the rest. He struck out the side in the 5th and put the side down in order in the last 3 innings for his 3rd victory.

Tuesday night Kewaskum hosted West Bend West (both West Bend teams are members of the Scenic Conference in summer baseball), and escaped 7-5 with 2 unearned runs in the bottom of the 6th.

The Spartans outhit the Indians, 9-4. Mickey Muenster and Rob Menzel each had 2 of their hits. Three of Kewaskum's hits came in the 1st innings, in which they tallied 2 runs on Schilter's single and Pettit's long home run. Randy Heberer and Scott Muench had the other 2 hits, both singles.

Menzel also homered with a shot over the centerfield fence and got another RBI with a double.

With the Indians leading, 5-3, West tied it up at 5-5 with 2 runs in the top of the 6th. Some shaky fielding gave Kewaskum their 2 winning buttons in the last half of the same frame. The Indians didn't play too well either, as each team committed 3 errors.

Winning pitcher Tim Heberer, although he did not feel well before the game, notched his 3rd victory.

Playing at Grafton Monday evening, the Indians came through with a 6-3 victory on good defense and another strong pitching performance by soph Geidel.

Kewaskum played errorless ball against the Blackhawks. Geidel struck out 11 batters and had good offensive help from Dave Donath and Scott Muench. Donath got 3 hits on 3 hard shots and Muench had 2 of Kewaskum's 8 safeties.

The Indians tied the game at 2-2 in the 3rd on hits by Donath and Schilter. Kewaskum scored another in the 4th on Muench's double and Steve Yahr's hit.

Hank Aaron's record-breaking home run—with which he equalled Babe Ruth's 715 lifetime homers—was made on April 8, 1974 in the fourth inning of a game against the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Julann Zemlicka, a junior sprinter and middle distance runner, was named Most Valuable Performer on this past year's Kewaskum High School girls' track team.

Zemlicka was a member of the Class B state championship mile relay unit in 1978 and this year's 1600 meter relay quarter. This season Julann ran the 200 and 400 meter runs, together with the 1600 meter relay, and she also switched to the 800 meter relay for the state tournament, where the Indians took a sixth at Madison.

She was honored along with other letter winners at a track banquet for squad members and parents at the Holiday Inn, West Bend, last Tuesday evening.

Trophies were also presented by Coach Mike Ffrick to the following: Co-Captains, Diane Bremser and Laurie Wilson; Most Valuable Sprinter and Hurdler, Katie Lightner; Most Valuable Distance Runner, Barb Wilson; Most Valuable Field Event participant, Jill Yearling, and Most Improved, Brenda Fuller. Only Bremser and Laurie Wilson are seniors, the rest will all return next year.

This year's letter winners and the number of letters they have won in track are: Seniors—Bremser 4, Laurie Wilson 4. Juniors — Zemlicka 3, Barb Wilson 3, Lightner 3, Mary Brenholt 2, Lisa Kempf 3. Sophomores — Jenny Zemlicka 1, Vickie Reif 1, Amy Nigh 1, Sue Bade 1, Yearling 2. Freshmen — Linda Larsen 1 and Carol Schmidt 1.

Bremser, the Wilson sisters and Zemlicka have combined for two state championship relays in the past two years. Laurie Wilson's name is also on record for the 1976 880-relay win with Pam Kempf, Jenny Schaub and Carrie Kempf, now a sprint champion at UW-La Crosse. Barb Wilson won the Class B mile as a freshman and in 1979, she was the 880 champion.

Weekly Big Fish Contest Winners

Winners for the week ending June 23 in the Big Fish Contest at Village Sport Shop are as follows:

Dan Krieser of Kewaskum won the northern category with a 4.8 lb. 27 1/4" fish caught on the Milwaukee River.

The biggest largemouth bass brought in so far was caught by David Weidner of Kewaskum. His 4.8 lb. 21" fish was caught on Mauthe Lake.

Jon Sison of Kewaskum continues to have good luck on Lake Michigan. He brought in a 24.5 lb. 39 1/4" Chinook salmon.

The crappie category was won by Marty Shaw of rural Kewaskum. His 7 oz. 10 1/4" crappie was caught on Ricken's Lake.

Terry Ziegelbauer's 1 lb. 16 1/4" walleye caught on Long Lake took the prize this week.

Bruce Dreher, Kewaskum, brought in the largest bluegill for the week. It weighed 4 oz. and was 8" long. He caught it on Little Green Lake.

The nice weather had either produced more fish or more fishermen fishing. There were more fish entered this week after a slow two-weeks. Most likely due to weather conditions.

Dan Dean Wins Junior Golf Tournament

Dan Dean, who will be only a sophomore at Kewaskum High School this fall, won the 54-hole Junior Golf Tournament held at Hon-E-Kor Country Club.

Dean tied at 231 after the three 18-hole rounds with Dave Lemler, who plays for West Bend West High. Then Dean won the sudden death playoff on the first hole with a birdie three, while Lemler hit a par when he rimmed the cup on his putt.

Dean's three rounds were a 74, 78 and 79 respectively. Lemler had a 77 the first day and wound up with a 75 and 79. Par is 70 on the course.

Lemler and his West Bend West team competed in the state meet this year. Dean just missed qualifying as an individual by one stroke.

Third place winner in the championship flight was Bob Lyons with a 239, followed by Kelly Tighe 243, Jim Rohlinger 246, Tom Jensen 251, and Gary Schuetz 252.

The second flight was won by Scott Zettel of West Bend with a 260, with rounds of 95, 85 and a final day 80. Greg Volland, West Bend, was next with a 272, Chris Harlow 279, Randy Sucon 284, and Gene Galante 290.

Ross Bartelt of Kewaskum won the third flight with a 327.

HON-E-KORNER

The Hon-E-Kor Women's Golf Association had day golfing on June 18. 18 hole net winner was Irene Schlefke with a 69. Day event of closest to the left sand trap on No. 4 was won by Cathy Wierman. Class event winners were A-most 4's Audrey Jaraczewski, B-most 5's La Verne Hron, C-most 6's Fran Rohlinger and Tudy Warner, D-most 7's Ada Kannenberg. Diane Hoffman had a chip-in.

Bridge winner was Irene Thomas. The next event is July Match play starting July 1. This 9 hole handicap event will be played on the front 9.
