Halfway House Plans Expansion Program

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Exodus House, a transitional care facility for recovering alcoholics, has presented remodeling plans to the Kewaskum Plan Commission.

In November a request by Thor Otto, Director of Exodus House, to re-zone the Kleineschay home, adjacent to Exodus, for expansion was denied. Area residents raised objection to two such facilities in the same neighborhood. Neighbors stated they did not object to expansion of the present site, but they did not want to see another residence turned into a halfway house.

Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling stated this denial turned out to be a "blessing in disguise" for Exodus, since it was later discovered the original plan would have required a supervisory staff for each residence.

New plans call for a 30 ft. x 40 ft. addition on the west side of the present building which will allow the facility to increase occupancy from 16 to 20 beds. The original plan called for an increase to 25 beds with the two houses. Plans also call for remodeling of kitchen and bath facilities.

Otto stated the new plans have been sent to the state for approval. Otto hoped to hear from the state within the next 6-8 weeks. Upon state approval, Otto will present the plans for a public hearing and request for building permits.

RECREATION NOTICE

To Whom It May Concern:

The Kewaskum Park and Recreation Committee is asking all baseball leagues that participated in the Kewaskum 1980 Summer Recreation Program and any new leagues interested in participating in the 1981 Summer Recreation Program to submit a resume for their league. We are asking for the number of teams in your league, their sponsors or supporting organization, the night you prefer to play, your second and third choice for nights of play, the average number of village residents in each league, the average number of school district residents in each league, plus the name, address and phone number of the official representative from the league.

The purpose for the resume is to more appropriately assign time to each of the two new diamonds in the Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park. These two diamonds will be the only diamonds maintained by the Village of Kewaskum for the 1981 Summer Recreation Program. This means the games will have to begin earlier than in the past, because there will be no lights provided. Also, arrangements will have to be made by individual teams for practice locations on other diamonds or play areas. This means the Village will not maintain the ball diamonds on school district property. The Village Park and Recreation Committee along with the Village Board are taking this action as a cost saving effort. Inflation is causing taxes to increase faster than taxpayers can afford, so we must do our part to curb spending. This cost savings effort will be reflected in the team fees, reducing them accordingly.

If all goes well this year, there will be a smaller little league or practice diamond added to the new park (at no additional cost to the taxpayers). The new park will provide new bleachers this summer and hopefully a concession type building before the tournaments start in mid to late summer. We ask for your cooperation in reference to this decision and ask that you return your league resume no later than March 27, 1981 to the Municipal Building, 204 First Street, P.O. Box 38, Kewaskum, Wisconsin, 53040, c/o the Park and Recreation Committee. The Committee is making available a simple resume form you may use, which can be picked up at the Municipal Building. Village participation in the leagues will be a main qualifying criteria for your league's participation in the 1981 Summer Recreation Program. Tournament weekend scheduling shall be on a first come, first serve basis, giving the local teams preference.

In conclusion, there will be a general meeting at which time all league representatives will be invited. The final scheduling will take place at this meeting and the different questions or problems resolved.

Thank you!

Sincerely,
The Kewaskum Park and Recreation Committee

Regal Ads Win Awards

For the second consecutive year, advertising placed by Regal Ware, Inc. received a first place award in the annual competition sponsored by the Milwaukee Ad Club (MAC). The winning ad, entitled "Solid Gold," was entered in the Business Publication category. The award was presented to Frankenberg, Laughlin, Bernstein and Constable of Milwaukee, the company's advertising agency.

A part of Regal's 1980 July Housewares Show campaign, the ad features the company's stainless steel cookware. The campaign appeared in several trade publications including HFD, HOUSEWARES, DISCOUNT STORE NEWS, CHAIN STORE AGE, HARDWARE AGE and BUYER'S WORLD.

Two other Regal entries, a sales kit entitled "Write More Business in 1981" and two mailers, "Slip In" and "Birth Announcement," received MAC Merit Awards in the Sales Kits-Dealer Aids and Traffic-Building categories, respectively. The mailers were also part of the July Housewares Show campaign, while the sales kit was introduced at Regal's 1980 December sales meeting for use in 1981 promotions.

Frankenberg, Laughlin, Bernstein & Constable also created the Regal ad campaign which took first place in the 1980 MAC competition. This year, the agency won a total of 28 awards, more than any other agency. The ads were entered in various categories for other clients including the Milwaukee Art Center, Wisconsin Electric Company, H. C. Prange, Oshkosh B'Gosh and Republic Savings & Loan.

Elementary Music Testing Program OK'd by School Board

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At Monday evening's meeting, Robert Getter, music instructor for the elementary and middle schools, asked for and received approval to run a three-part music test for all 5th graders in the district.

Getter told the board he had run the test three years ago with very good results. At the present, 65 schools in the state are using this program. The testing program is made up of three 45-minute tests on tune, rhythm and sensitivity.

The purpose of the program is to help instructors discover several things, from musical ability to the weak and strong points in that ability. Getter pointed out this test is not designed to discourage prospective music students but rather to direct them to an area where they are most likely to find enjoyment and greatest success in the music area.

Getter stated an example of a youngster who wanted to study percussion instruments. After reviewing the child's test, Getter was able to advise the parents that rhythm was a weak point in this child's scoring. However, the child did well in tune and sensitivity. Getter suggested this child try trombone at which he succeeded very well.

Getter also stated that children who were interested in music yet tested low could be helped also because it showed where and how much help would be needed to see this child succeed. This program is designed to encourage children to look into all phases of the school music program. Getter stated "any kid that wants to be involved should be given a chance to try."

Getter noted in these days of economics, he needed a tool so he could properly advise parents regarding investments in musical instruments for their children. The test would not involve any money since supplies are available from the previous test, run three years ago. The testing will be tentatively scheduled for April.

HAVE YOUR BLOOD PRESSURE CHECKED

A blood pressure screening clinic will be held in Kewaskum, Wednesday, March 18, from 11:00 to 12:00 noon at the Senior Citizens Center, Kewaskum Legion Hall. This clinic is a service offered by the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service and is provided without charge.

In other business, the board approved changes in the school lunch program for reduced lunches. Business Manager Robert Borch noted approximately 55% (1,100) of the students participate in the hot lunch program, with approximately 300 on the reduced fee schedule.

Mrs. Judy Harlow asked how come meat had been served Friday as Lent has begun and Catholic students over 14 are not allowed meat on Fridays during Lent. Superintendent Floyd Brenholt felt it was probably an oversight and it would be checked into.

Another item on the board's agenda, approval of the KEA 1980-81 contract, was tabled. Brenholt noted copies of the contract had not been given to the board in time for them to review and vote on it.

James Schaeffer Graduates From Culinary Institute

HYDE PARK, N.Y. — James G. Schaeffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schaeffer, 707 Highland Ave., Kewaskum, graduated from The Culinary Institute of America on March 6, after completing a two-year course in food preparation and service.

Schaeffer will be employed at the Playboy Hotel, Atlantic City, New Jersey. In fall he plans on going to Switzerland to work.

With an enrollment of 1625 students and a faculty of 94 chefs, bakers, maitres d'hotel and operational procedures educators, the Culinary Institute is the largest facility of its kind in the world. Founded in 1946, it is the only private, non-profit professional college in the United States devoting its curriculum exclusively to education in the culinary arts.

In May, 1976, the Institute initiated a Progressive Learning Year schedule, which permits admission of new students every three weeks. This system insures that every student pursues his or her studies in the most beneficial order, progressing from basic to advanced subject matter in proper sequence. Students learn and practice a full range of food preparation methods, as well as food and beverage service techniques.

The Culinary Institute offers the degrees of Associate in Occupational Studies and Associate in Applied Sciences, under a charter from the New York State Board of Regents.

The Statesman welcomes readers to submit photos for the "Memories" feature. Photos should show life in the olden days in this area. Deliver or mail to The Statesman, 250 Main St., Kewaskum, WI 53040. Photos can be picked up again after publication.

This photo was taken about 1910 at the north village limits where the Mrs. Marion Erdmann home now stands. It was known as the Chicago House tavern and hotel, operated by "Chicago Fritz" Andre. The elderly gentleman to the left is Mr. Endlich, who found the famous Kohlsville 15 or 16 karat diamond, which was found one mile south of Kohlsville on a farm. Others on the two wheel cart are members of the Werner family.

Girls Sharing Lunch and Chatter!

The Girl Scouts from Kewaskum, Farmington, Wayne and Beechwood held a "Winter Fun Day" in January. Over 125 girls showed up at Kewaskum High School for a day of fun and getting acquainted with new Girl Scouts. In the morning, there was folk dancing. The girls learned dances from Germany, France, Israel and more. The leaders wore out, but the girls could have danced the day away.

The girls brought bag lunches and, being girls, spent the lunch hour doing what girls do best, chattering and giggling!

After lunch there was a group sing-a-long and then out in the snow! There was sledding, snow kick ball and just a super time was had by all.

A patch that was especially designed by Pat Morgan was available to all girls who attended the fun day.

Brownies Visit The Dentist

Eleven girls from Brownie Troop 186 of Farmington took a trip to the dentist's office as a group. They were earning a dabler badge and this was a part of career exploration. Dr. Schacht of the Oakbrook Medical Center in West Bend was willing to help.

Cindy Berres was the patient and had a check-up with the rest of the girls gathered around. Dr. Schacht showed the girls x-rays, and instruments, and explained everything he was doing.

Dana Neuser became the next patient and had impressions taken.

Dr. Schacht also told the girls about all the "little germs" in the mouth and explained about cavity prevention.

The girls really enjoyed their trip and learned a lot about good oral hygiene and about dentistry as a career.

One of the proposed budget cuts the Kewaskum School Board is considering is to eliminate parochial bus routes out of the district. This is very upsetting to the many families that would be affected by the cut.

For many of us, the parochial school our children attends is the closest school to our homes. What happened to the state law providing busing to the closest school? The loophole is a Parent Contract provided by the School District. The School District would offer a contract for approximately $167.00 a year to provide our own transportation for our children to and from school. So why are we upset? If the distance from your home to school were only 3 miles, it would cost approximately $432.00 a year to provide transportation for your child. That's assuming you own a second car which the mother can use to take the children to school. That is also assuming the mother is not working and is available to provide transportation.

This year about $800.00 of our property tax went to the Kewaskum School District. The only benefit we get from this is busing and now they want to take that away from us.

I believe we must tighten our belts and cuts in the budget must be made, but forcing many families to sadly consider discontinuing their child's parochial education because they cannot afford to provide transportation for them is not the answer.

Couldn't we work with other school districts to combine busing? Couldn't we put both parochial and public school students on the same bus? Couldn't cuts be made in some other programs that would affect everyone in the district equally? I hope we can come up with some alternatives.

Letter to Kewaskum Village Citizens:

On April 7, I (James Scott) am a candidate for one of three Kewaskum village trustee positions held by three incumbent candidates. You have a choice to make. I would like to express my feelings and concerns on local facts and issues.

1. I am a "newcomer" with fresh ideas, and I am a "challenger" amongst four candi-

2. I would not support T.I.F. because I am skeptical of the bureaucracy it may create. The cost of setting up a T.I.F. district may run from 12-15,000 dollars. There is no guarantee the returns will outweigh the expenses. Even incumbent Rohrer stated "the village has to make up the difference if the taxes that are generated do not cover the cost of the projects."

3. I will represent the Kewaskum village homeowner. Owing a home is part of our American heritage. I want to assure family security and safety as well as look out for your interests as taxpayers and citizens.

James Scott
Candidate for Village Board

TO ALL RESIDENTS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

The Threshold, Inc., a rehabilitation facility for handicapped residents of Washington County is in need of volunteers to help with woodworking projects that we can produce and sell through our Gift Shoppe and possibly some outlet stores.

Some of the items that we are interested in doing are doll cradles, doll houses, child's barn, child's wooden puzzles and decorator shelves. We need people who would be willing to help us order supplies, design projects and cut-out the projects. We have the necessary equipment to do this at The Threshold or perhaps as a volunteer you could cut-out items at home. Our clients and work trainees would then be paid to do the sanding, painting and final assembly.

If you feel you would be able to spare a few hours per week, are willing to volunteer some of your time and have knowledge of woodworking skills, we would love to hear from you. Please call 338-1188 between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Sincerely,
Horst D. Wagner
Executive Director

Polly Rosenheimer Honored in Red Cross Centennial Event

A West Bend resident will be among the volunteer leaders to participate in a ceremony highlighting the 100th anniversary of the American Red Cross.

Polly Rosenheimer, wife of Lem Rosenheimer, a member of the Greater Milwaukee Red Cross Board of Directors and director of Community Volunteer Services, will help dedicate a special Centennial sign, created to honor the chapter's 5,000 volunteers. The ceremony will take place during the Red Cross Board of Directors meeting at 12:00 noon, Wednesday, March 18, at Red Cross headquarters, 2600 W. Wisconsin Avenue.

During the commemorative ceremony, Rosenheimer and other key Red Cross volunteer chairmen will place the names of their service areas on the Centennial placard. The exterior sign will be displayed at the chapter building throughout the official Red Cross Centennial celebration (March - May). A "fashions of the forties" style show, featuring a collection of Red Cross uniforms and popular fashions dating back to World War II, will also be featured in the program.

The capes and veils of Red Cross nurses, volunteer uniforms and civilian dress of World War II, and the modern-day garb of Red Cross volunteers will be included in the parade of fashions. Red Cross volunteers will serve as models for the special glance back into American Red Cross history.

Rosenheimer, as chairman of Community Volunteer Services, helps coordinate the recruitment, training and placement of the Milwaukee chapter's active corp of Red Cross volunteers. The Greater Milwaukee Red Cross has 5,000 volunteers serving as safety and health instructors, disaster survey persons, counselors, and in production, clerical, VA, school health, and patient transportation programs.

The American Red Cross was founded on May 21, 1881 by Clara Barton as a volunteer, humanitarian service organization. The Greater Milwaukee chapter was chartered in 1916, immediately preceding World War I.

Today, the Greater Milwaukee Red Cross offers a variety of services to the Milwaukee-area community, including: service to military families and veterans, disaster assistance, safety and health education, and numerous community volunteer programs - ranging from youth volunteer services to school health and transportation programs.

Altho older people commonly complain of poor memory, laboratory studies show that many of the old actually can learn as well as younger people. Dr. L.F. Jarvik, Prof. of psychiatry at Univ. of Cal. states that so-called memory loss may really be due to hearing difficulty, impaired hearing, inattention, etc. He says that mental deterioration in the elderly is really a symptom of depression. The 'deterioration' can be overcome simply by counselling, psychotherapy, or the use of antidepressant medication.

Hanaway, Opitz Seek Improved Security at Kettle Moraine Correctional Institution

State Senators Donald J. Hanaway (R-De Pere) and David W. Opitz (R-Ozaukee/-Sheboygan) have urged the state Building Commission to approve bonding for additional facilities to improve security at the Kettle Moraine Correctional Institution (KMCI) near Plymouth.

"A number of residents in Fond du Lac and Sheboygan Counties have expressed their fears for life and property because of escapes and other incidents at KMCI," Hanaway stated.

There have been 38 successful escapes from the medium security institution since 1975.

This compares with 14 escapes from Fox Lake Correctional Institution during the same five-year period. Fox Lake, which also has medium security status, has double fencing.

In January, 1980 two inmates escaped from KMCI and invaded a home nearby. They stole firearms from the house and held the residents at gunpoint. After terrorizing the couple, the escapees killed their dog and took the homeowner's motor vehicle. Both felons were later apprehended in another state.

"We met with people from the neighboring community at that time," said Opitz, "and we found them understandably apprehensive and insecure. We promised them we would do everything in our power to make the area a safer place."

As a result of meeting and discussions with officials of the Division of Corrections, recommendations were made to upgrade security at KMCI. These included: Construction of an additional guard tower; the erection of a second 14-foot chain link fence, topped with a razor ribbon rampart; construction of a road outside the new perimeter and the installation of an intrusion alarm.

Hanaway and Opitz have expressed the urgent necessity for approval of the project to individual members of the Building Commission, citing recent unrest inside the institution when a small group of inmates took over a housing unit for nearly an hour. Both senators have called upon the Building Commission to vote for bonding authority for the $2.6 million project at their meeting at the State Capitol on Monday, March 9.

The most severe snow, sleet and electrical storm of the winter struck this area Saturday. Although only about three or four inches of snow fell, it was accompanied by a high wind which piled the snow into drifts and made driving very hazardous.

The cast of characters has been chosen and preparations are being made for the annual senior class play to be presented in the Kewaskum High School auditorium on April 27 and 28. The play is entitled "Mr. Barry's Etchings" and the cast of characters includes the following students: Doug Wierman, Judy Weddig, Darlene Nischke, Lloyd Klemke, Dick Schaefer, Adeline Ketter, Carole Harbeck, Bob Stenman, Darlene Janssen, Charles Schaefer, Tom Peterson, Rosalie Below and Fred Seefeldt.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krueger, Jr., on Friday, March 9, and a son, David James, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Loomis, Milwaukee, also on March 9. Mrs. Loomis is the former Jeannette Krueger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krueger, Sr. of Kewaskum, who became grandparents twice in one day.

Daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Czaja, Kewaskum, on March 13; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Dei, Route 2, Kewaskum, on March 12, and to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roethke, Campbellsport, on February 29. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kuehl, Kewaskum, on March 11.

This section of the state was hit by the worst snowstorm of the season last Saturday night and all day Sunday (March 7 and 8), when over a foot of snow fell accompanied by a high wind blockading the public highways.

The new fire truck purchased by the city council and delivered here last week Monday, received its initial test last Monday when the local fire department was called out shortly before the noon hour to extinguish a fire on the roof of the Fred Belger Sr. residence. The fire is believed to have started from sparks from a chimney. On Wednesday morning the fire department was again called out to extinguish a fire on the roof of the Holy Trinity parochial school building. The fire, before it was noticed, had already burned a hole in the roof about ten feet square. School was in session at the time the alarm was given. Last week Saturday, the local department with the small chemical engine, was called to the farm home of Math Bath, 1 1/2 miles east of Kewaskum to put out a fire on the roof of a shed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mertes of Kewaskum are the happy parents of a baby boy, born to them on Saturday. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Haugh of Fillmore on March 2nd.

The general store of A. Ruplinger and Co. at Allenton came near being wrecked by the explosion of a boiler connected with the steam heating plant last week Friday. Jacob Martin, one of the clerks, was seriously injured. He was found in an unconscious condition and his face and clothes were covered with blood. The force of the explosion shook the large building but did not do much damage.

The excessive use of coffee leads to great muscular irritability, gastritis, recklessness and sleeplessness. It is held by many medical men that the effects of coffee are wholly bad. The mildest results of an overdose of caffeine, the active element of tea and coffee, are a tendency to wakefulness, but there are recorded a number of deaths from heart failure due to its employment in large doses. Moral: Would it not be better to drink West Bend beer with your meals instead of tea or coffee?

Response to Older Worker Placement Program Very Good

The response to the Older Worker Placement Program in West Bend for Washington County residents has been great.

This program sponsored by Job Service is exclusively for workers over fifty, seeking meaningful employment.

This program has been active for almost a year. The number of placements specifically for older workers has increased dramatically, but we still have a long way to go.

Perhaps employers are generally not aware that there exists a tremendous amount of experience in this age level. They also possess valuable traits lacking in less mature workers. They are dependable, alert and accurate.

Employers, we are here to assist you in finding a desirable applicant to suit your needs. Let's unite - this is a definite step forward for many.

Employers and applicants, if you are interested in our program contact Older Worker Specialists - Irene Wade or Jane McElroy at 338-4700 in West Bend.

The Wisconsin Association of Conservation Districts (WACD) 27th annual conference theme of "Under The Gun in '81" was well dramatized by keynote speaker Jonathan Barry, 47th District assemblyman. Barry told the audience that it would be hard for the next legislative session to keep the Board of Soil and Water Conservation Districts alive if they did not transfer to the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection.

Much of the conference discussion revolved around this proposed change. WACD expressed concern about the Board's ability to operate the needed conservation activities if placed under the authority of the Board of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection.

Eugene Savage, executive secretary for WACD listed four criteria that WACD believes should be a part of any transfer of the Board of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. WACD wants any change to strengthen and help local districts, eventually the farmland preservation efforts and those of soil conservation should be merged, the board should have policy making authority and a strong education program should be maintained.

The conference members also took stands on such issues as farmland preservation and the "Right to Farm." WACD feels that both these issues should include a strong conservation ethic.

During the three day conference WACD presented a number of awards. The Washington County Soil and Water Conservation District received the "Honorable District Award" for conducting an outstanding district program for the year 1980.

Session Planned on Yard Maintenance

Dan Wilson, Washington County Resource Agent, will be presenting a program on "Selecting and Maintaining Plants in the Home Landscape" April 13, 20 and 25.

The first class will stress proper tree and shrub selection, types of planting stock, planting methods, pruning and caring for trees and shrubs and common pest problems.

During the second class, establishing a new lawn, maintaining an existing lawn and lawn pests will be discussed. The final class of this short course will involve a Saturday morning on-site pruning demonstration.

The course, sponsored by UW-Extension, will be held in the Washington County Courthouse Auditorium from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. A registration fee of $3.00 covers the cost of this course. For pre-registration information, contact Dan Wilson, P.O. Box 537, West Bend, Wisconsin 53095 or phone 338-4480, 644-5204 or 342-2929.

Open Letter to the American People...

When I went to high school in 1912, I had a principal that was a genius. He taught classes from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. and got $125 per month with no fringe benefits.

During this time he made three predictions. One was that we would have a war with Japan within 30 years. The reason being that we had taken over control of the Pacific. This came true to the year. The second prediction was that the atom bomb would be invented by then which also proved to be true. The third was that this form of government could not last over 200 years after the constitution was adopted. This would be in 1989. One reason he gave was that our forefather did not trust the people and therefore gave supreme power to the courts. These people are not elected but are appointed for life and must be of the legal profession. The next reason was that the government did not limit the number of terms of offices such as the Congress and Presidents. He feared that one class of people, namely those of the legal profession, would get control of the government and ruin it.

This is definitely true today. Our courts are in shambles with one judge overruling another. Cases that should be over in days are dragged on for weeks and months so that the lawyers can rob the public. My principal told me that when this comes about we no longer have representative government.

This also gives Congress the purse and look what they have done with it. In 1912 Congressmen got $7500 plus one clerk hired for $2500. They have now expanded this so that today they have unlimited free postage plus free transportation to and from their district once a month. They also are given $100 a day while they stay in Washington. They now have from 17-70 people working for them only to help them get re-elected. This is all paid for by the government. Today it costs $1 million a year to keep just one Congressman in Washington. This figure is quoted from the Reader's Digest.

The liberal spending has deflated our once most precious dollar to only one dime! Our dollar is about at the bottom compared with other countries of the world so that now we can't compete with them.

These same judges have twisted our constitution so that there is little left of it. Our men are elected by about 24% of the people. They make promises while running for office but soon forget them after they are elected. No wonder why people get disgusted and refuse to vote.

We have so much fraud and corruption that everybody is only after money. What started us down this road was the state and federal revenue sharing. This was started so politicians could make the people believe they were getting something for nothing. The ones who pay for this are the taxpayers. For every dollar we get from Washington we have already paid $1.50 and from the state $1.30. How much longer do you think we can keep this up?

Before this every municipality had to stay within their budget and things went along smoothly. When I got to be 21 my dad had also seen this coming. He told me that whenever possible I should never vote for a lawyer. He said they will only make laws for the lawyers of which they have done a good job. Today we are told to go see a lawyer or leave it up to the judge to decide.

Reader's Digest said that 200 million people are ruled by 1/2 of 1% of the population. This is not representative but a one class government. Class rule is a form of Communism like they have in Russia. My principal told me it would end up in socialism or dictatorship, and most likely the latter. He based this on past history.

It all started back in 1913 when the first income tax law was passed. It brought in so much money that the Congress started to take advantage of it to help themselves. The first $1 billion budget was in 1913. Today it is up to $650 billion. Before this time the lawyers were not interested in government because they made more money with their law practice.

I have lived through this and today I find my life savings deflated. In a few years it may disappear all together and it is possible that people in our situation may have to go on welfare.

In 1956 a Finnish student came into my yard for an interview. He told me the U.S. committed suicide in 1947 with the Marshall Plan. This sent billions of dollars to Japan and Germany to rebuild their factories and industries while ours stood idle during the war. He said that we won the war but lost the peace. He also said that in 10-20 years this would come to haunt us because those laborers are sincere and want to produce a superior product for less while our laboring men just look for their paycheck. Here we are, years later, paying for our folly.

I compare our economy to a balloon. If you keep blowing air into it and never let any out it will burst. Then you don't even have a balloon anymore.

Ceremony at Washington D.C. to Honor Americans Killed or Missing in Vietnam War

An American Legion delegation including Keith A. Kreul, National American Legion Legislative Chairman, Fenimore, Wisconsin, will go to Washington, D.C., for a ceremony March 16 at Arlington National Cemetery honoring Americans killed or missing in the Vietnam war.

Legionnaires and Vietnam veterans from across the country will be present as American Legion National Commander Michael J. Kogutek, presents the Distinguished Service Medal, the Legion's highest award, at the Tomb of the Unknowns. The commanding general of the Washington, D.C., military district will accept the award, in the form of a plaque that will be put on permanent display at the tomb.

Other scheduled participants from Wisconsin include Jim Kirch, Commander of Post 151, Madison and State Vice Commander Tom Carlson, Green Bay, both Vietnam veterans.

"We want the award ceremony to reflect the gratitude and appreciation that all Vietnam veterans deserve from their fellow Americans," said State Commander Wendell G. Williams. "We anticipate a large turnout of top government and military officials, along with representatives from every American Legion department in the United States," he added.

The American Legion proposed the original monument to the Unknown Soldier in 1921 and has led the nation in paying homage to U.S. war dead following every conflict thereafter. The March 16th ceremony falls on the 62nd birthday of the nation's largest veterans organization.

James Hubbard of the Legion's national staff in Washington, project officer for the event, said, "We hope it will

The National Council for Health and Welfare Services of the United Church of Christ announced that Mrs. H. Gumm, RN, director of nursing at the Cedar Lake Home Campus, West Bend, has been unanimously selected as the National Employee of the Year.

Gumm, of Jackson, accepted the award at the annual meeting of the national Protestant Home and Hospital Association and the Council for Health and Welfare Services of the United Church of Christ Board of Homeland Ministries in San Antonio, Texas, on March 2. Her husband accompanied her to Texas.

Reverend Garnet Adams, chairman of the Council's Awards Committee, told Mrs. Gumm that "it is our privilege to be able to honor you in this way as you have honored your profession and your Christian service throughout so many years."

The national award is based upon Christian spirit and exemplary service. Among the factors which contributed to her selection was her outstanding devotion to the ministry of the Cedar Lake Home Campus, affiliated with the United Church of Christ, and the persons served by her and her nursing staff, caring beyond the requirements of duty with an outstanding record of high quality of care provided.

Gumm, as director of nursing at the Cedar Lake Home Campus, directs nursing services for 415 residents who require skilled, intermediate, or residential care and she oversees the health-wellness program for 128 residents in the three retirement villages. She also supervises adult day care and outpatient services that are available to community members.

"Hedy," as she is affectionately known, is cited for her assistance with planning the Total Team concept wherein residents, their families, staff, volunteers, and community all work together as a team. She is hailed as a leader for her part in the establishment of the first program and facility in the nation for those suffering from arteriosclerosis or Alzheimer's Disease which causes confusion and forgetfulness, Cedar Lake's House of Friendship. Gumm promotes an overall wellness health approach for all residents on the Cedar Lake Home Campus. In addition to services for the residents, as the director of nursing she encourages staff development and growth through educational experiences and inservice programs. New and improved methods of care are often sought by nursing staffs across the midwest under her leadership. The Cedar Lake Home Campus has 35 Registered Nurses, 32 Licensed Practical Nurses, and 219 Nursing Assistants.

Appointed director of nursing in 1968, Gumm joined the Cedar Lake Home Campus team in 1960. She established the Campus nursing practice certification program as the Education Director of Inservice in 1966.

The national Employee of the Year is selected from qualified nominations made by over 100 health and welfare agencies affiliated with the United Church of Christ from across the nation.

Air Force Tech. Sgt. Kenneth K. Kreif, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Kreif of 1150 Western Ave., Kewaskum, has participated in Global Shield 81, the Strategic Air Command's (SAC) response to a simulated attack on the United States.

The service member is among the more than 100,000 U.S. Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps and Canadian personnel taking part in SAC's largest, no-notice, 20-day training exercise.

During one portion of Global Shield, more than 500 B-52 and FB-III bombers and KC-135 tankers took off from 70 different locations in the United States and Guam within minutes of notification. This exercise is not related in any way to real world situations, according to a SAC spokesman.

Global Shield 81 is designed to test the command's capability to carry out emergency war orders to support U.S. policy if deterrence fails. This exercise has been constructed to measure SAC's response to a set of preplanned events leading up to a simulated attack on the United States, the spokesman explained.

As part of Global Shield, some SAC aircraft deploy to civilian and military airfields selected specifically for the exercise. Additionally, B-52s and FB-III's fly low-level training routes approved by the Federal Aviation Administration. The routes were pre-selected to help measure the simulated bombing, navigation and electronic countermeasure skills of SAC aircrews.

The girls of Junior Troop 223 from Wayne are very proud, and justly so. They raised money this winter to purchase uniform sashes with all the patches and insignia and badge books for themselves.

In October they held a bake sale at school on parent-teacher conference day that was a big success. Then in December they held a "Secret Gift Shoppe." At the shop, children could choose from over 375 items, all handmade by the Girl Scouts and leaders.

Both the girls and leaders realize that the moms worked hard too, so on Feb. 19 the girls held a special candlelite ceremony for "Thinking and Thanking Day," and each girl presented her mother with a special Girl Scout Friendship Pin as a way of saying thank you. The troop's leaders and mothers are really proud of the girls from Wayne!

Overweight Trucking Permits Suspended During Spring Thaw

The state department of transportation has temporarily suspended all annual overweight trucking permits effective at daylight, March 8.

Harry O. Price, chief traffic engineer, said the suspension is due to unstable condition of the roadway subgrades during the spring thaw. Overweight permits will be reinstated when the subgrade conditions stabilize, Price said.

Price said the ban will affect only overweight loads. Loads which exceed legal size limits may be hauled in accordance with annual permit provisions. Overweight loads moved entirely within Milwaukee county are not affected by the ban.

Be Aware of Persons Posing As Internal Revenue Agents During Tax Filing Season

Milwaukee—You should be particularly aware of persons posing as Internal Revenue Service Agents during the tax filing season. This time is not only busy for the Internal Revenue Service but is also the time when people impersonating IRS Agents are most active. The IRS Inspection Service receives more impersonation complaints from taxpayers during the period January 1 through April 15 than at any other time of the year.

Unfortunately, senior citizens are prime targets to tax schemes, where individuals impersonating IRS employees show up to "collect" additional taxes. The IRS says all of its employees are required to carry clearly recognizable picture identification which must be presented when they contact taxpayers. Most people who owe additional tax are contacted by mail first, so make sure you don't transact business of any kind if you suspect fraud.

Also, beware of organizations claiming to have tax-exempt status that ask for donations to their cause. While there are many legitimate and praiseworthy organizations with tax-exempt status, there are also fraudulent groups posing as bonafide tax exempt organizations.

The most frequent scheme used by the impersonators is for one or more representatives to arrive unexpectedly at a person's home or business and announce that the person owes the government several thousands of dollars in back taxes. The phony agent then offers to settle the person's tax records if the person simply pays a percentage of the money supposedly owed.

You should not answer questions concerning your tax situation or allow persons into your home or business without first verifying that the IRS Agent has proper identification.

In the following situations you should call the Inspection Service:

- If contacted to schedule an audit meeting, the "IRS AGENT" does not have proper identification and attempts to collect money from the return filer on the spot.

- If after the death of a spouse, an "IRS Collector" arrives to arrange payment of the deceased's back taxes.

- If contacted by an "IRS Agent" who offers to prepare your tax return for a fee.

If you have any reason to believe someone is impersonating an IRS employee, or if you suspect someone of representing a bogus tax-exempt organization, immediately contact your local police and then call the Inspection Service, Internal Security Division collect at 312-886-5855. The Division is located at 35 East Wacker Drive, Room 1646, Chicago, Illinois 60601.

Remember, under no circumstances should you give money, checks, bank books, or any other item of value to someone you are not sure of. It pays to be careful.

Indians Ousted by Slinger In Regional Opener, 67-51

After beating Random Lake in a subregional game Tuesday, the Kewaskum Indians were eliminated from further WIAA tournament action in the regional opener at Slinger Friday when they were defeated by the Owls, 67-51. Slinger was also ousted the next night by Shorewood.

The loss ended a long season for the Indians, in which the victories came few and far between. They ended the season with an overall 4-16 record and 1-11 in the tough Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

If Kewaskum could have hit their free throws against Slinger in the first half it would have been a close game. The Indians missed 11 of 16 in the half as the Owls charged ahead, 32-19, at the intermission. Slinger was not much better but they had more chances. Together the two teams had 61 attempts from the free throw line and made only 50%. Slinger made good on 21 free throws to the Indians 9.

The Owls also defeated Kewaskum in double overtime in the opening game of the season for both teams.

Except for the free throws the team played quite evenly. Slinger's fast start when they jumped off to a 9-1 lead and their advantage in quickness

Gymnasts 9th In Sectional

The Kewaskum High School girls gymnastics team placed ninth out of 11 teams Saturday in the Class B sectional at Chilton. This was the first year Kewaskum fielded a full team in the meet.

The event was won by Fall River, which defeated Lake Mills, winners of two state titles in succession, by seven points with a fine 95.6625 total. Fall River placed at least one qualifier in every event.

All four events, beam, uneven bars, floor exercise and vaulting were held at the same time. The top five finishers in the individual events, along with the winning team and top three all-around performers qualified for state.

The Indians, coached by Jane Vesper, failed to qualify anyone for state. Freshman Wendy Wilson and Teresa Nigh ended up with the same score of 6.2. Amy Nigh and Annette Jandre both had 6.25. Vaulters Jandre and freshman Dolly Swenson had 5.65 and 5.6 respectively. Amy Nigh had 5.35 and Teresa Nigh 5.2. Sue Harlow topped Kewaskum beam competitors with 5.15.

Their good start helped the Owls move out to 15-5 lead at the end of the first quarter. After that the scoring was pretty even, although Slinger outscored the Indians, 17-14, in both the second and third quarters. Both teams tallied 18 points in the final period.

Ken Cornell, the lone junior starter, led the Owl scoring with 17 points, Randy Hess had 13 and Dave Nowicki 12. Scott Severson did a good job in defending Kewaskum scoring ace Jim Rohlinger, who was held to 14 points. High scorer for the Indians was Brian Larsen with 17 points. Rohlinger is one of few seniors on the team.
