School Board Still Deadlocked On High School Guidance Post

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Board of Education is still deadlocked on the high school guidance position. At its special session Monday evening, the board tied 3 - 3 on a vote to promote a female applicant to the high school position. It also tied 3 - 3 on a vote to compromise with both of the in-district applicants acting as co-counselors at both the elementary and high school levels.

So far three alternatives for filling the high school guidance position have received no action after 3 - 3 ties. Last week a vote to promote Milt Dickinsen, the present elementary guidance counselor, to the high school was also deadlocked. The board is presently functioning with 6 members due to the extended absence of one member. Board President John Tessar stated after this week's standoff, "We'll have to wait until Mr. Gessner comes back." He is expected to be present by the annual meeting on July 27.

An original motion to have Sharon Blank, presently a 3rd grade teacher at KES, who recently completed all requirements for certification in guidance, was introduced by Tom Brigham and seconded by Jean Goeden.

Goeden then proceeded to point out that out of 10 schools in the area, most have a female counselor at either the elementary or secondary level. She also mentioned that out of these schools, and the 18 schools that feed into the University Center System, 80 to 90% of them have both males and females in the area of guidance. For example,

West Bend schools have 2 female and 2 male counselors at West High and 4 female counselors at East High. They also have 1 male counselor at Silverbrook Middle School and 1 male and 1 female counselor at Badger Middle School, while having 3 female counselors and 1 male counselor at the elementary level. Fredonia Unified Schools have 1 male counselor at the high school and 1 female counselor at the middle school. Slinger has 1 male and 1 female at the high school with one male at the middle school and one female at the elementary schools. Campbellsport and Kewaskum are exceptions in that Campbellsport has 2 females only and Kewaskum has 4 male counselors.

Goeden added that she was on record, "... that I would like to see a woman in the position in the guidance department." President Tessar at one point indicated that to purposely hire a woman was incorrect. "First of all, it's against the law. You can't say you want a woman." Tessar stated he was going along with the recommendation of the administration which originally had been to promote Dickinsen. Board member Jerry Secor had no qualms about

Due to the July 4, 1981 holiday, there will be no garbage pickup on Friday, July 3, or Saturday, July 4, by the Village of Kewaskum, Dept. of Public Works.

Fireworks Here July 3

The customary colorful Fourth of July holiday fireworks display will again be held in Kewaskum River Hill Park this Friday night, July 3. This annual event is sponsored by the Village of Kewaskum under the supervision of the fire department.

The dazzling fireworks will be set off at dusk from the west side of the Milwaukee River. Spectators on the park hill across the river will have the best view of the electrifying fireworks, including ground displays and thunderous aerial bursts and sprays.

The park will be open at 6:00 p.m. and game and refreshment stands will be in operation at that time. Hamburgers, hot dogs, popcorn, beer and soda will be available. Live music will be provided on the stage from 7:00 to 11:30 p.m. by Annie and the Playboys.

All residents of Kewaskum and surrounding area are invited to add a little "spark" to their holiday celebration by attending the fireworks spectacular. Come early and enjoy an entire evening.

In the event of rain, the fireworks will be held on Saturday, July 4.

Annual Kewaskum Picnic Set for July 11-12

The annual Kewaskum Firemen-Legion fund-raising picnic will be held in River Hill Park (old village park) on Saturday evening and Sunday, July 11 and 12.

Saturday night there will be women's water fights at 6:00 p.m. In the beer garden live music will be supplied from 7:00 to 11:00 p.m. by Danny and the Sunliners. All of the rides, refreshments and food stands will be in operation.

Starting off the festivities on Sunday will be another excellent parade at 12:00 noon sharp, one of the highlights of the event. The parade will again be led by the Milwaukee Civic Riders Motorcycle Club and will feature many bands, drum and bugle corps and drill teams. These include the Kewaskum High School Band, Hartford Municipal Band, Old Mapleton Circus Band, Georgie Girls, Royal Knights Drum and Bugle Corps, Green Beret Marching Band of Janesville and Wausau Story Drum and Bugle Corps.

Other units will include beautiful floats, baton twirlers, majorettes, children's specialties, visiting firemen and equipment, Legionnaires, comic entries, orchestras, ancient cars, riding horses, clubs, organizations and more.

The parade will form on the high school campus and adjacent streets, from where it will proceed to the park. All participants should be present to line up no later than 11:30 a.m. Persons wishing to enter the parade should contact Bob Staehler, parade chairman. Theme for this year's parade will be "SEASONAL FUN IN '81." Businessmen, industries and organizations are urged to enter a float. Prizes will be awarded for the best floats and children's specialties.

Immediately following the parade there will be exhibitions by drum and bugle corps or bands in the park. There will be continuous music throughout the afternoon and evening. In the beer garden music will be by Syl Groeschel's Band from 2-6 p.m. and the Bill Thull Orchestra will entertain from 3-7 p.m. on the bandstand. In the evening from 7-11 p.m., music will feature Ida Red in the beer garden.

Men's water fights will again be held at 6:00 p.m. Sunday with neighboring fire departments competing.

Advance tickets are on sale for $800 in prizes, including a first prize of a $500 savings bond, second prize of a $200 bond and third prize of a $100 bond, plus 91 valuable merchandise prizes. Tickets may be purchased for $1.00 from firemen and Legionnaires as well as at some business establishments.

See you at the Kewaskum picnic on July 11 and 12.

SUE SPENDS A TIRING DAY ON THE MERLIN PROST LIVESTOCK ROUTE

By Sue Simon

It was 4:30 a.m. as I backed my little car out of the garage and headed north from Milwaukee to the home of Merlin Prost on Hwy. B in Kewaskum. The unknown is always somewhat unnerving for me, and I was wondering what that day, to be spent with a livestock hauler, would hold.

My job, as the Market Information Director at the Milwaukee Stockyards, involves the dissemination of current livestock prices and trends to newspapers, radio and television stations, and the wire services. It had been, in the past, primarily an indoor job; but when Merlin offered me the opportunity to get out into the country and accompany him on the truck, I jumped at the chance.

Although I felt a bit apprehensive showing up at the Prost's door at 6:00 a.m., the smell of fresh coffee and Doris Prost's warm smile were all I needed to feel at home as I sat down for a little breakfast. "Little breakfast?" Bacon, cheese, rye bread, cold cuts, fresh fruit salad, orange juice, sweet rolls, coffee and vitamins adorned the table. (Who needs vitamins with a breakfast like that?)

There's little time for dawdling when the farmers are waiting for their livestock to be picked up, so by 6:30 we had finished breakfast and I was climbing up into the cab of the truck. My day as a livestock trucker had begun.

I was feeling totally content; warm, full, and happy, driving through the country enjoying the scenery. That sense of euphoria soon faded as we pulled into Reny Follmann's farm on Hwy. H in Kewaskum. I learned that our first stop of the day was to pick up "Chester," a 550 pound boar. I like animals. Honest. In fact, I like boars even more than I like saber-toothed tigers. But not a lot more.

As we drove into the barnyard, Reny, the President of the Tri-County Pork Producers, was waiting for us. He assured me that Chester was the tamest boar he'd had in a long time and he hated to get rid of him. Unfortunately, Chester had injured a rear leg so the time had come for him to go to market. Not quite convinced about what a wonderful fellow Chester really was, I stood in the corner of the barn, behind a fence, until Merlin and Reny had coaxed and prodded Chester onto the truck. Soon he was loaded and we were on our way.

Our next stop was at the farm of Kenneth Theusch, Hwy. 144, Kewaskum. Although Ken works at the Gehl Company in West Bend, he was home that morning to help Merlin load three Holstein steers intended for market. Within no time we had the ramp down, the gates up, and the cattle inside the truck.

I was really getting the hang of things by the time we pulled into Walter and Edna Krueger's barnyard in Campbellsport for a cow. Unthinkingly, I jumped down from the cab right into the tooth-filled, barking faces of two of the Krueger's dogs. (Luckily for me, they're good natured and affectionate; only curious as to who we were and what we wanted).

We soon had the cow loaded and were off again. This time to pick up a calf at the farm of Francis Volm on Townline Road in Kewaskum. In addition to farming, Francis also works at Gehl, but was home on vacation the day we stopped. One...two...three...into the truck went the calf. As an afterthought, Francis had Merlin take a Holstein steer along, too.

Once again we were on the road heading for Frank Fleischman's farm on St. Kilian Drive in Campbellsport. Frank and his son were waiting for us as we drove into their meticulous yard for a red calf. It was a beautiful day, Frank was planning on making his first crop of hay that afternoon, and we had other stops to make. In less than five minutes we were loaded and on our way.

every stop we had made, the assistance given at the farm of Nathan Nigh, Merlin's neighbor across the road, was overwhelming. As soon as we turned into the drive, three teenage boys jumped into action; arranging gates to form a chute through which the cattle would be driven onto the truck. While the boys sorted out the two white-faced steers for market, I got a quick tour of the Nigh's farrowing house from Willard Klein, a neighbor who had stopped by.

As we were leaving the farm it occurred to me that a cooperative and eager attitude toward demanding, physical work had been evident on every farm we'd visited. I guess it could be no other way. Particularly on the Nigh Farm, they have sixteen children.

Next we headed for the farm of Don and Wilmer Philippi on River Road in West Bend. Together, these brothers maintain a herd of approximately 100 registered Holsteins, sixty milking. As we walked through the full barn after loading a bull calf onto the truck, Don proudly pointed out nine of his cows which had achieved an "excellent" rating. The farm was most impressive and he was justifiably eager to show it off to me.

Our last stop of the day was at the farm of Aaron Fischer on Hwy. M in West Bend. As Merlin and I walked out of the penetrating sunlight into the clean, cool darkness of the barn, we found Aaron and his calf there, waiting for us. After a quick loading, we headed south to the Stockyards.

The livestock were quickly unloaded and sold in Milwaukee and soon we were on our way back to Kewaskum so I could pick up my car.

As I drove back to work, I thought about my new rural friends. Everyone, with no exception, had one thing in common; an extremely cheerful, friendly, and open attitude. Naturally, they express concern over weather conditions, prices, or any of the other variables that could affect their lives. Still, they don't let that get in the way of their general optimism.

I experienced a little bit of what it takes to be a livestock trucker. It's difficult work, requiring strength, stamina, and a bold attitude toward strange animals every day. In addition, every farm is a small challenge in its own way: how do you back a twenty-six foot truck up a hill, around a corner, and into a twenty-four foot space?

As I walked into the Exchange Building, I felt tired. My arms were sore from lifting the gates off the side of the truck. My legs felt wobbly and weak. No wonder Merlin has vitamins for breakfast!

houses there at that time on the right. The men in the photo could not be identified. The picture was taken just north of the Main Street bridge. (Photo submitted by Edgar Miske)

AFS Students Express Thanks

Since our stay in Kewaskum is coming to an end, we want to express our sincere thanks to our host families, the Ronald Landvatter family, the John Schmitt family and the Leland Schaub family, also to the AFS chapter, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Peterson, the school community and all our friends.

We enjoyed our stay in Kewaskum very much and we will always recall this very special year.

On June 27 we are leaving from Waunakee, WI from where we will have a bus trip through several states.

We will leave for Austria and Thailand July 8 or July 9.

With best wishes,

Letters to The Editor....

Dear Editor,

I think it's great all the sports Kewaskum High School offers our young people.

This is mainly referring to the JV Baseball Team. The word "team" means to play as a group, why are there only 9 chosen boys playing every game. How can a coach say he has 9 good players, when the other boys never have a chance to play more than 1 inning or no innings at all. Many boys have quit because they practice every day and don't get a chance to play ball with the team.

I could see if they were a winning team to keep 9 boys playing the whole game, but they won 1 out of 5 games, so why not let everyone play, because the boys would not have joined to sit on the bench.

ANDREW SCHWIND

Andrew L. Schwind, 63, of 204 Superior St., Fond du Lac, died Saturday night, June 27.

He was born on Nov. 18, 1917, in the Town of Greenbush, son of Nicholas and Mary Miller Schwind. He married Lucille Little in February of 1941.

Mr. Schwind farmed in Oakfield and Brownsville areas until moving to Fond du Lac in 1976.

from Tom Leitzke, R.P.H

Heart attacks are over ten times more common among men than among women, prior to menopause. Female hormones help keep fat from accumulating in the bloodstream. Men lack this protection, so they should cut down on heavy animal fats in their diet to enjoy a longer heart lifetime. Reducing both fats and salt tends to avoid high blood pressure. Physical exercise is essential to a healthy heart and circulation. Emotional stress appears to raise blood cholesterol to unhealthy levels for the heart, so try to avoid emotional upset.

He is survived by his former wife; one son, Thomas of Brandon; and four daughters, Mrs. Ronald (Anna) Flury of Mukwonago, Wis., Mrs. Albert (Nancy) Pahnke of Lomira, Rosemary Schwind of Mayville and Beverly Jean Schwind of Norfolk, Va.

Other survivors include four brothers, John of Route 1, Glenbeulah, Henry of Route 1, Cascade, Joseph of Kewaskum and George of Random Lake; five sisters, Mrs. Rose Fitzgerald of Los Angeles, Mrs. Catherine Tonn of Fond du Lac, Mrs. Marge Johnson of Milwaukee, Mrs. Mary Baus of Wolf Lake and Mrs. Martha Scharf of Conover, Wis.; and nine grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one stepdaughter.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at Bidlingmaier-Twohig Funeral Home, Fond du Lac, and at 10 a.m. at St. Mary's Church. The Rev. John Simon officiated and burial was in the Lady of Angels Cemetery, Armstrong.

Visitation was from 4 to 9 p.m. Monday at the funeral home.

Students must be taking not less than 12 credits and have a grade point average of 3.3 and above to qualify for the Honor Roll. Those students with grade point averages of 3.75 and above are named to the Dean's List. The averages are based upon 4.0 being a straight "A" grade.

Among those on the Honor Roll or Dean's List from this area were:

Classes Scheduled

CPR - Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation - can make the difference between life and death, and the West Bend Red Cross has scheduled a CPR class to help save the lives of people who experience sudden heart attacks or cardiac arrest.

The CPR technique used to provide heartbeat and breathing, consists of rhythmic compression on the victim's chest, alternated with mouth - to - mouth resuscitation.

By employing CPR, it is possible, in many cases, to re-establish natural heartbeat and breathing, and stabilizes the victim until medical help can be obtained.

The class is scheduled for three Thursdays, starting July 16th, 23rd, and completing on July 30th, from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the West Bend Marine Bank. To enroll, call 334-5687 or 692-2806. Linda Howe is the Instructor.

Dogs in State Campgrounds OK, But....

"Fido" may be man's best friend, but their owners should give some serious thought to the matter before bringing their dog to a state park.

"Each year we have situations which border on tragedy because dog owners either are not aware of park rules or have not made adequate advance planning before bringing their dog on a camping vacation," according to Loren Thorson, chief of recreation for state parks.

Dogs are not allowed in state park picnic areas. Dogs taken along on picnic outings usually end up being confined in a car, and even on cool days, the inside of a car can heat up to the point where the health of a dog is severely threatened. Park officials strongly recommend that dogs not be taken on a picnic outing at a state park.

Dogs are permitted in campgrounds, but unless the dog is an experienced camper or special preparations have been made, camping can be a traumatic or even fatal experience for a dog. Thorson commented that "the greatest danger to a dog on its first camping experience usually occurs when the family leaves the campsite for a period of time with the dog tied to a tree or some other stationary object. The dog is suddenly left alone in a new environment and often becomes hyperactive because of the strange situation."

Thorson pointed out that there have been cases where dogs have seriously injured or killed themselves as the result of an accident during these periods of owner absence. The best approach is to leave the campsite and go to some remote point where the dog can be kept under observation to determine its behavior patterns when alone. Returning to a campsite after a short period of time will reassure the dog. The period of absence can be extended each time until the dog becomes comfortable that his owner has not left him for good.

"We expect dog owners to make sure that their dogs behave. A dog that barks incessantly can disrupt an entire campground and ruin a camping experience for everyone," Thorson concluded.

"It is good to be merry at meals." English Proverb

KCHS Key Club Members to Attend International Convention in New Orleans

Scott Buchel, Carol Lehmann, Craig Rosenthal, and Diane Rohlinger, Kewaskum Community High School students and Key Club members, will be in New Orleans, July 5-8, to attend the 38th Annual Convention of Key Club International along with some 2,300 Key Club members from across North America and the Caribbean.

Key Club International is a service organization for high school students, maintaining ideals and objectives similar to its sponsor, Kiwanis International. There are more than 97,000 Key Clubbers in approximately 3,400 clubs in high schools throughout North America and the Caribbean.

Principal speakers at the convention will include the President of Key Club International, Jeffrey L. Magone; Merald T. Enstad, President, Kiwanis International; and humorist, Jeanne S. Robertson. Additional speakers have yet to be finalized.

The convention begins Sunday, July 5, with an inspirational presentation of the Key Club International Theme and Objectives for 1981-82. A theme and related objectives are developed annually to serve as a guideline for projects and activities for the International high school service organization's clubs throughout the coming year.

A member of the 1980-81 Key Club International Board of Trustees will deliver the Key-note Address at the K-Family Breakfast, Monday morning, July 6. Monday will be filled with educational meetings, seminars and contests to be topped off with the evening's session, Salute to Districts' Night. The purpose of this session will be to recognize the newly elected District Governors for 1981-82 and the districts they represent.

Tuesday evening's Annual Talent Show and Awards Presentation will feature America's Junior Miss, who will present the awards to the finalists of the Talent Contest.

Delegates will assemble for the House of Delegates on Wednesday morning to elect the new International Officers for the 1981-82 year. Officers to be chosen are a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary, and twelve trustees. Each Key Club is entitled to have two official voting delegates.

The convention will conclude with the noon President's Farewell Luncheon. Jeffrey L. Magone, the outgoing President, will bid his fellow Key Clubbers farewell and will preside over the installation of the newly-elected officers.

4-H'ers Step Out in Style At County Revue

Connie Haack's skirt and vest is examined by Judge Mary Koepke.

Four-H'ers from all over Washington County came to the Washington Mall to model the garments they made for the Clothing, Crocheting and Knitting Revue. The Revue was held June 25, from 1:00 - 4:00 for the young 4-H'ers and from 7:00 - 9:00 for the 4-H'ers from 13 - 19 years of age.

The 4-H'ers were asked to write a description of the garment they made and model it while the description was read to the audience. They were then judged on various aspects of their garment such as fabric and pattern selection, garment fit and construction and their personal poise and grooming. After each class, the girls were told what ribbon they would be awarded.

At 2:30 a model representing Rosemary Bischoff's modeling agency demonstrated some modeling techniques used to enhance the look of a garment. Several 4-H'ers took part in this demonstration.

The results of the 4-H Clothing Revue were as follows. Blue ribbon for sewing projects were awarded to: Jenny Rathke, Lori Prochnow (2 garments), Dianne Barth, Karen Doll (2 garments), Amy Sekas, Terri Barth, Janet Barth, Mary Ellen Shaw, Kelly Nadelhoffer, Patty Williams, Andrea Rathke, Jeanne Awve, Diane Mae Schmidt, Ann Shaw (2 garments), Michelle Bordeaux, Kira Zaporski, Lori Wolf, Lori Willkomm and Debbie Seideman.

The blue ribbon crocheted projects were done by: Karen Pikoske (2 articles), Diana Buckmann, Jill Peterson and Janelle Peterson.

Red ribbons were received by: Chris Holtz, Kim Brodzeller, Janet Seideman, Terri Barth, Emily Schroeder, Amy Jo Schmidt (2 garments), Laurie Johnson, Janelle Peterson, Wendy Haack, Linda Prost, Vicki Loser, Ann Shaw, Shelly Johnson, Connie Haack, Cathy Weinert, Wendy Wagner, Chris Neuberger, Karen Pikoske, Cyndie Berres, Ellen Hetebrueg and Claire Beder.

At the end of the evening Dress Revue, all blue ribbon winners, ages 14 and older were again judged to determine which girls would attend State Fair. The girls eligible for State Fair are Lori Prochnow, Janet Barth, Karen Doll, Lori Wolf, Mary Ellen Shaw and Amy Sekas. The two winners and alternates will be announced at the County Fair Dress Revue held Saturday, July 25, at 8:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

School Board

hiring a woman if she was qualified, but asked, "how do we go about doing it?", referring to the options of accepting administrative recommendations or "just because we want to do it."

Richard Theusch wished to amend the motion such that the existence of the elementary guidance position was maintained, but another board member, Dr. Charles Ogi, countered that he didn't think this was pertinent to the issue at hand.

The official vote on Mrs. Blank had Goeden, Ogi, and Brigham voting Yes, while Secor, Theusch, and Tessar voted No.

Goeden then proposed an alternative solution. She thought, "... maybe it would work if we would try to consolidate and work together with the man and the woman in the high school position and/or the elementary." She suggested, "... that we have them sharing the duties of the elementary and high school guidance counselorship," and added, "I feel that our district would benefit at least by having a woman in guidance." She recognized that, "Both people have very high values. I have a lot of confidence in Mr. Dickinsen and Mrs. Blank, and I just feel it would be an asset to our community." Tessar was rather skeptical about this arrangement, saying "I have some doubts if it's going to work, because anytime you put 2 people in 1 position, you're going to have some problems."

Superintendent of Schools, Floyd Brenholt, Dickinsen, and Blank were aware of this possible arrangement and did support it. Brenholt commented that if this situation was accepted, "...we're going to go into this with the idea that it's going to work ... and it's going to be made to work." Later he added, "It's not our first recommendation, but we feel that it's something that could be made to work if everybody wants it to work."

Brenholt pointed out several advantages of this proposal. He noted that when students sought counseling at the high school, "There are 3 possibilities instead of just 2," and also added that there would be 2 people to take over elementary counseling. Dickinsen and Blank were both amenable to cooperation and recognized the advantages of having a choice of counselors.

Mrs. Jan Hubbell, a concerned parent and a guidance counselor at West Bend West wanted to know just how their duties would be split up, and Brenholt responded that both counselors might be at the high school from 7:30 to 8:30 each morning, but on alternate days one might go to the elementary school while the other stayed at the high school. He suggested Mr. Dickinsen might stay at KES while Mrs. Blank might take the outlying elementary schools. At the high school level, he said one might start with the freshmen and allow that group into the sophomore year, or one might take some freshmen and sophomores while the other handled juniors and seniors.

High School Principal Clark Pearson indicated that it was not absolutely necessary that a decision be made at this time but could live with a decision made by the annual meeting. Presently, the only counselor at the high school, Dave Wietor, is scheduling students for next year, and since this is his first year as a counselor at that level, this task seems overwhelming. The usual case is that counselors are given 10 extra days on their contract to perform this sort of duty as the principals request or the situation warrants. Any additional counselors would have the same sort of contract.

The vote on the composite position was split with Goeden, Secor, and Brigham voting Yes, and Theusch, Tessar, and Ogi voting No. So once again there was no action on the matter.

It took 30 years to create the first zipper.

In a ceremony, performed in St. Michaels Church, St. Michaels, June 23, Richard J. Herriges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Herriges, Route 2, Kewaskum, claimed as his bride Miss Audrey M. Uelmen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Uelmen, Route 2, Kewaskum.

The terrific heat wave, stretching over a period of seven days, during which time the thermometer registered all the way from 90 to 104 in the shade, was broken on Wednesday afternoon when rain and electrical storms came as welcome relief for all who were suffering under the sweltering heat. This, according to reports, was the hottest wave experienced in Wisconsin in 30 years for the month of June.

The death toll in the state of human life and animal life was heavy. The Kewaskum Aluminum plant suspended work on Tuesday, due to the intense heat. Farmers here whose horses were dying rapidly, suspended work on the hay fields during the day, and worked during the night. Thousands of fish in the Milwaukee River here were dying on Tuesday and Wednesday, due to the heat and lack of oxygen in the water. The surface of the water at the mill pond was literally covered with dead fish on Tuesday, and small crews of men were at work carrying them from the streams in bags and burying them in order to avoid an epidemic.

A German play of three acts will be presented at the Kewaskum Opera House on July 5 by members of the Pabst Theater Stock Company of Milwaukee. The play is entitled, "Die Drei Zwillinge."

Charles Miller, assistant director of this division of the cherry pickers at Sturgeon Bay, left Tuesday for the latter place to make preliminary arrangements for the cherry pickers soon to arrive there.

Mr. Dobke tried to hold the team by the bridle and was dragged in between the Lay store building and the printing office, a space about five feet wide, where the team and Mr. Dobke became tightly wedged in. After the horses were backed out Mr. Dobke was found bleeding profusely. Dr. Driessel was summoned and found the man's collar bone broken and his face badly bruised.

The annual school meeting of District No. 5, Kewaskum, was held at the school house last Monday evening. Nothing important was transacted except the regular routine of business. A. G. Koch was re-elected treasurer. It was decided to raise $2,000 for the next school year. Principal Cavanaugh will be assisted next season by one male and three female teachers.

Miss Martha Bunkelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bunkelman of the Town of Farmington, and August Staeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Staeger of Scott, were married in Kewaskum on June 30.

The Weber Brewing Company of Theresa was incorporated last week with a capital of $25,000.

Judicial Rotation For County Judges To Shift Work Load

Shortly after Court reorganization in 1978, the Wisconsin Supreme Court mandated rotation of judicial assignments among the Judges in each Circuit which have more than one Judge. This required that assignments be changed every two years in Washington County. This order was effected on August 1, 1979 and requires shifting of work loads every two years. To effectuate this shift at this time, the Circuit Judges of Washington County, the HON. J. Tom Merriam, HON. James B. Schwalbach and the HON. Richard T. Becker devised a plan of assignment of work loads which plan has been approved by the Chief Judge of the Third Judicial District, HON. Harold J. Wollenzien.

The major new feature in the plan is that case loads in the area of civil, family, criminal and traffic will be divided between the three branches. Previously, each of the branches had primary responsibility for one of those areas. In addition to those areas, the areas of Probate and Juvenile law will be assigned to one of the Judges.

The plan provides that Judge Merriam, sitting in Branch I, will have a case load consisting of one-half of all civil cases; one-half of all family law matters; preliminary hearings in criminal felony cases and a portion of the traffic trials. Judge Schwalbach, presiding in Branch II, will be responsible for one-third of the civil cases; one-sixth of the family law matters; all felony and misdemeanor trials and a portion of the traffic trials as well as small claims matters. Judge Becker, presiding in Branch III, will be responsible for one-sixth of civil cases; one-third of family law matters; all probate and juvenile matters and criminal and traffic in-take. Previous to this order, Judge Schwalbach heard family law matters, probate and juvenile matters as well as some criminal and civil cases while Judge Merriam primarily heard civil cases where the amounts involved were in excess of $1,000.00. Judge Becker previously heard all traffic cases as well as handling criminal in-take, most misdemeanor trials and a portion of all felony trials and preliminary hearings.

A copy of the order for rotation signed by Judge Wollenzien will be supplied by the Clerk upon request. The purpose of this memo is to summarize the contents thereof. Any questions on this subject may be referred to the Clerk of Courts who will either answer them or put the reporter in touch with one of the Judges who can answer the question.

A NOTE OF THANKS

I wish to thank all those who were so kind to remember me with cards, gifts, visits, flowers and phone calls while I was a patient at St. Joseph's Community Hospital and St. Luke's Hospital, and while recuperating at home. Special thanks to the Kewaskum Rescue Squad, doctors, nurses, chaplains, Rev. Joiner and Rev. Schowalter. These kindnesses will always be remembered.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear father, father-in-law and grandfather, Leo Rohlinger, who passed away three years ago, June 30, 1978.

Though his smile is gone
And hands we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories

Of one we loved so much;
His memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part,
God has him in His keeping
We have him in our hearts.

Sadly missed by his family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our mother, Lorraine Strobel, who passed away ten years ago, July 3, 1971:

Time is a weary traveler passing quickly everyday,
Taking with it, memories, that seem to fade away.

Time has taken many things as passing times will do,
But time can't erase or change or take - the memory of you.

Indians Win Two in Scenic, Split Pair in Eastern Loop

Playing four games in six days the past week (six in eight days including last Monday and Tuesday's game) the busy Kewaskum Indians won three of them, winning two in the Scenic Moraine and splitting a pair of contests in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. The victories came over Slinger, Campbellsport and Chilton, and the loss, a tough one, was to Sheboygan Falls.

Hosting Slinger last Wednesday night in a Scenic contest, lefty Tim Heberer had his ball moving as the Indians defeated a usually heavy hitting Owl team, 6-1. Slinger has one .500 batter in their lineup and several others just under that average. Heberer allowed the Owls just four hits.

Kewaskum got eight hits off Duane Mantz but didn't hit the ball hard as they did in the loss to New Holstein Tuesday when they hit it right at somebody. Some of them were bloopers and the Owls didn't play heads-up baseball.

Kewaskum scored one in the first inning, two in the third, and added three in the fourth. The Owls' lone run came in the fifth.

Tim Heberer's brother Randy paced the Indians with three hits in three times at bat. Rick Leitheiser contributed two. Dave Donath played well defensively, combining eight putouts and assists.

Randy Heberer, who is having a fine season, again went two for two as the Indians shut out Campbellsport Thursday here, 4-0. In doing so he raised his average to near .600 in the Scenic. Heberer had hit safely in his last six times at bat going into the game and added a single and ground rule double.

Kewaskum scored two unearned runs in the first inning and added two more in the third. Campbellsport got men on base but couldn't come through with timely hitting.

Steve Muench chalked up his third straight victory in his shut-out and was tough when he had to be. He gave up only five hits while his mates collected seven off Brian Serwe. Muench got some good defensive help, including a great play at short by Heberer and two fine outfield catches.

Leitheiser and Jeff Geidel also got two hits for the Indians and Twohig got two for the Cougars.

The win gave the Indians a 4-4 record in the Scenic.

In an important game at Sheboygan Falls Saturday, Kewaskum outthit the Falcons, 7 to 2, but wound up losing a tight 2-1 contest. The Indians dominated their opponents but nothing went right for them.

The Indians' Jeff Geidel pitched an excellent game, giving up just two hits, one of them on a bunt, but as luck would have it, both of them came in the same inning, the fourth, when Falls scored both of their runs. The winning run was scored on a debatable play.

The Indians' lone run came in the second when Tim Heberer and Geidel singled, and advanced on Steve Muench's attempted bunt single. Heberer was out at home on a fielder's choice but then Geidel scored on Steve Yahr's sacrifice fly. Kewaskum had the bases loaded a couple of times and left 11 runners stranded.

The victory moved Sheboygan Falls into first place with a 6-1 record and dropped Kewaskum into a tie for second with Two Rivers, both 4-2.

In another Eastern contest Monday night, the Indians hosted Chilton and came through with a 4-1 victory to bring their mark to 5-2 in the Eastern Wisconsin.

Pitcher Tim Heberer had solid defensive play in the outfield behind him. The Tigers hit eight balls to the outfield but Kewaskum fielders caught every one of them. They included a diving catch of a liner by Mike Heisdorf in the second inning with the bases loaded, which got Heberer out of a jam. Heisdorf made another fine grab when he robbed Dave Nenig of a double in the seventh. Leitheiser also made three catches in left field, including one on a long fly ball.

Kewaskum sewed up the game with three runs in the third. Donath was the only Indian with two hits, while the Falcons' hits were all divided. Both teams had six hits. Heberer is now 2-0 in the Eastern and 3-2 overall.

Thursday Kewaskum is at home to New Holstein, Friday they play at West Bend East, Monday at Two Rivers and Tuesday at Slinger. The busy schedule continues playing in two conferences.

The West Bend Lithias defeated Kewaskum Sunday, 8-3, behind the strong pitching of John Jazak and Bill Froehlich. West Bend's record is now 8-2 in the Lakes Northern Division and Kewaskum's is 2-8.

Jazak struck out 8, walked 2, and gave up only 3 hits in the six innings he worked. Froehlich struck out 5, allowed no walks and only 1 hit, pitching the last 2 innings. Tom Bartelt started for Kewaskum and took the loss. He pitched 6 1/3 innings, giving up 7 runs, and 10 hits. Al Jaeger pitched the final 1 2/3 innings for Kewaskum.

The Lithias jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first on a single by Kevin Lyons, a walk, an error and a sacrifice fly by Kurt Meinberg. They increased their lead to 2-0 in the second on a couple walks, a sacrifice and Lyons' run scoring single. The Lithias scored 3 in the 5th on singles by Tom Kuehn and Jeff Nonhof, a 2-run triple by Meinberg and a sacrifice fly by Mitch Knox, making it 5-0.

Kewaskum finally got on the board in the 7th with 3 runs. Two walks and Randy White's single scored the 1st run and the 2nd run scored on an overthrow following White's hit. White then scored on a double by Bartelt. This narrowed the Lithias' lead to 5-3. However, the Lithias came back in the bottom of the 7th on a walk and Doug Gonring's 2-run home run over the right centerfield fence, making it 7-3. The Lithias added their final run in the 8th inning on 2 errors, a stolen base and a sacrifice fly by Bob Mollwitz.

Lyons led West Bend's 10-hit attack with 3 hits and Meinberg added 2. Kewaskum's 6 hits were divided among 6 players. This Sunday Kewaskum travels to Grafton for a 1:30 p.m. game.

Tom Bartelt's Insurance team had to play Farmington's Red Hots. Their pitching, says Mr. Wilhelmi, is next to excellent. There is no insurance that you'll become a hitter against that team. Bartelt's Insurance went down, 13-2. So far they have 2 wins, 1 tie and 2 losses.

Kewaskum Jaycees Youth Softball

There was an upset in last week's game against Herriges Oil Hot Shots and the ever so cool A & W Bears. The Bears had the Hot Shots eating ice cream right out of their hands. With the help of some hitting and defensive plays from the Bears, Herriges Oil seemed to just run out of gas, a 5-3 defeat.

In another close contest it was the Valley Bank A's leading the entire game until the last inning when Bier's Jewelry Gems started shinning. They tied it up to go into an extra inning but the A's had a couple credited hits to win, 9-5.

Hefter's Short Stuff bumped into the West Bend Savings & Loan Indians with a 3-0 win to make it Hefter's first win.

The Bunkelman Construction Crew built themselves another win against the Roger & Dan's Mean Machine, 12-6.
