Work is nearing completion on the reconstruction and repairing of the three railroad crossings on Main, First and Second streets in the village by the Chicago & North Western Railway. The Main and First Street crossings have already been completed and are now very smooth and vastly improved. The crossings have been blacktopped and widened. The tracks and ties on the two sidings on Main and First Streets have also been removed. Workmen and equipment are shown at the last to be done on Second Street.

Enrollment Is Down But Higher Than Expected

Preliminary enrollment reports from Kewaskum Public Schools show figures very close to those projected. As a Tuesday, September 1, total enrollment was 2,054. Last year the enrollment was 2,098 students. Projections made last year had estimated an enrollment of 2,044 students.

The high school enrollment was at 810 students, the exact number expected. This was down from 823 students a year ago. The middle school has 312 students, two more than last year but down four from projections. Total elementary and EEN enrollment is 928, up 14 from projections but down 36 from a year ago.

Kewaskum Elementary has the largest enrollment with 419 students. Farmington has 250, Wayne 160, and Beechwood 99.

Believe It or Not

Rattlesnake Discovered in Area

Jeff Waala, of 1327 Midland Ave., Kewaskum, stopped his car south of St. Michaels on Forestview Road when he noticed he drove over something last Thursday morning. He got out of the car and to his amazement, saw it was a large rattlesnake. He noticed the snake was still rattling and knocked it out, then picked it up with his hands and put it in a box which he had in the car. Waala was on his way to work at Mequon at the time.

He called the DNR and they said there were no rattlesnakes around here. He then took it to the Ice Age Natural Resources office at Dundee and Rich Van Osch, naturalist, identified it as a Canebrake Rattlesnake, a southern species, found in the swamps of the south.

It is assumed that the rattler had been kept in captivity and released in the area.

Van Osch stated that Waala's report of the rattler was a first for this area. It was later picked up by the DNR for further observation.

The snake measured 3½ feet with a 2 inch rattler.

In 1976, Pastor Joiner accepted the call to pastor Peace U.C.C. in Kewaskum.

In the five years that Pastor Joiner has served this congregation there has been a steady growth in membership, participation and esprit de corps. Pastor Joiner has served the ministry and this congregation well by giving spiritual leadership, guidance and holding forth the high morals and principles of the Christian faith, and in being a friend and counselor to those in need.

Floyd Brenner

Elementary School Principal Richard Zarling Presenting Award to Mrs. Moe

Kewaskum teachers and the Kewaskum Board of Education paid tribute to three teachers at the annual opening school year breakfast.

From the high school staff, Larry Ammel, a veteran of nine years of teaching at KHS, was the nominee. Larry has taught band, music appreciation, music theory, and served as senior class advisor while at the high school.

Floyd Brenner is a nominee from the Kewaskum Middle School. During Mr. Brenner's 14 years of service to the district, he has taught science in both the elementary and the middle school.

Ms. Jean Moe, the Kewaskum Elementary School nominee, has taught in the Kewaskum school system for 25 years. In addition to accepting her outstanding teacher nomination award, she was also honored for her 25 years of teaching in the Kewaskum school system. During the past 25 years, Jean has taught 6th, 7th and 8th grades for six years and spent the past 19 years in the primary department at K.E.S.

Ms. Sylvia Schultz, a former Kewaskum teacher and close friend and colleague of Ms. Moe, acted as mistress of ceremonies and presented Jean with a gift from the Kewaskum Education Association for her dedicated service to the school community. Ms. Schultz went on to review some of the highlights of Jean's teaching career.

Ms. Moe commented that the past 25 years have been very rewarding. Changes in education, she feels, have been for the better. The good cooperation from fellow staff members, the administration and students, Jean added, have made her teaching experiences very fulfilling.

Each outstanding teacher nominee received a certificate from the state D. P. I. honoring their nomination. In addition the Kewaskum school district is proud to be represented by these three outstanding teachers.

Dear Friends

We wish we could convey the horror of highway deaths as we too often witness the gruesome results. Death is so final. The tragic effects on the family are often so appalling. May we join our law enforcement officials in again urging less speed and more courtesy in driving.

Brenholt Heads CESA Committee

Floyd Brenholt, superintendent of the Kewaskum Schools, will head a committee during the coming months to study Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) 16 operations. Brenholt just completed a year as president of the CESA 16 Professional Advisory Council, during which time he began this assignment and has been asked by the incoming president to continue as committee chairman.

With the reduction in state funding for their operations, CESAs have had to review their programs and find alternative sources of operating funds. The CESA 16 Board of Control requested the superintendents of the members schools to do this management study.

A report and recommendation will be presented to the Board of Control on or before December 1. This will allow the Board time to make decisions for the 1982-83 school year.

Blood Donor Unit Coming Sept. 15

Area residents are reminded that the Milwaukee Blood Center Mobile unit will be at the Kewaskum High School (old gym area) on Tuesday, September 15, from 1:30 to 6:30 p.m. Donors who have been giving on a regular basis will be receiving post cards prior to that date. New donors are encouraged to come.

The next person to need blood could be you! Nature makes it easy to give blood. An average person has about 10 to 12 pints in his body. A normal donation is about one pint. Medical authorities say that donating a unit of blood quickly stimulates a healthy person's bone marrow and his blood count is as normal after the donation as before.

Under medical supervision, the collection of blood is made by a medical technologist or a nurse. The procedure is simple and safe. The entire process takes less than an hour.

After you have given blood, you receive a card which lists your blood group and Rh type. This is important as the blood of every human being is almost as distinctive as his fingerprint.

Unless more people become donors, the supply will not keep pace with the growing demand for blood. Someday your life may depend on its availability.

To assure that blood will be there when you need it, give blood now, and encourage others to become voluntary blood donors.

Strobel is planning to construct a 26 x 36 foot garage to be located on east Clinton Street for storage of its truck. Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling said the request met all zoning requirements for the area.

KEWASKUM NIGHT AT THE BREWERS GAME

There were 331 persons who attended Kewaskum Night at the Milwaukee Brewers game against the Chicago White Sox last Tuesday, Aug. 25, at Milwaukee County Stadium.

Attendance was down but about half due to the players' strike and probably because of a lack of interest due to the lateness of the season. Last year's attendance was 700. Many refunds of tickets were requested this year.

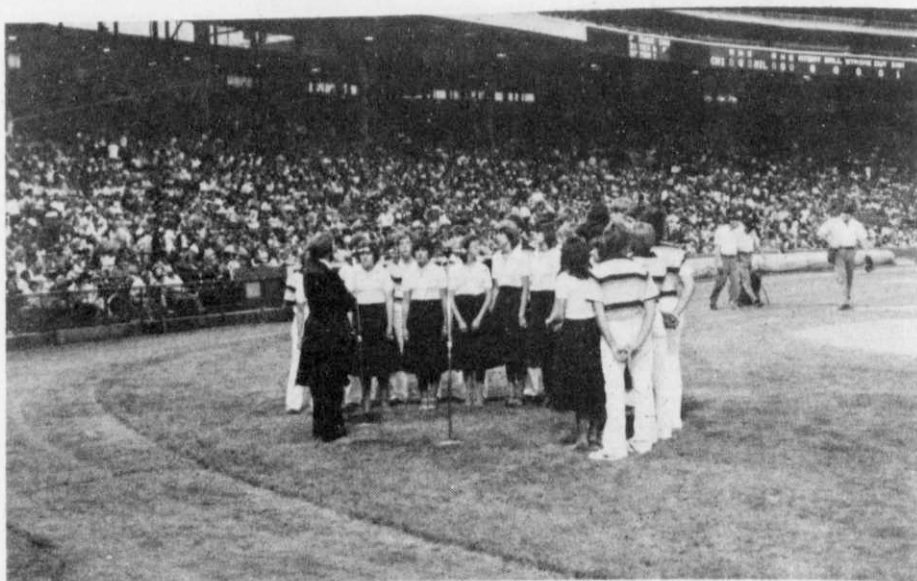

At this time it is not known whether Kewaskum will receive a trophy for attendance from communities in Wisconsin under 5,000 population. The trophy is awarded on "Fan Appreciation Night," which is Saturday, Sept. 12.

Fans were disappointed when the Brewers lost the game, 5 to 1, on a one-hit performance by the Sox' pitcher, Dennis Lamp. They missed out on seeing a rare no-hitter on Robin Yount's bloop hit in the last of the ninth.

Just before the game started the Kewaskum High School Swing Choir, directed by Dave Bertelsen, performed an excellent rendition of the National Anthem from the home plate area of the field. This was followed by Village President Gerald Stollenwerk throwing out the first ball from aside of the dugout.

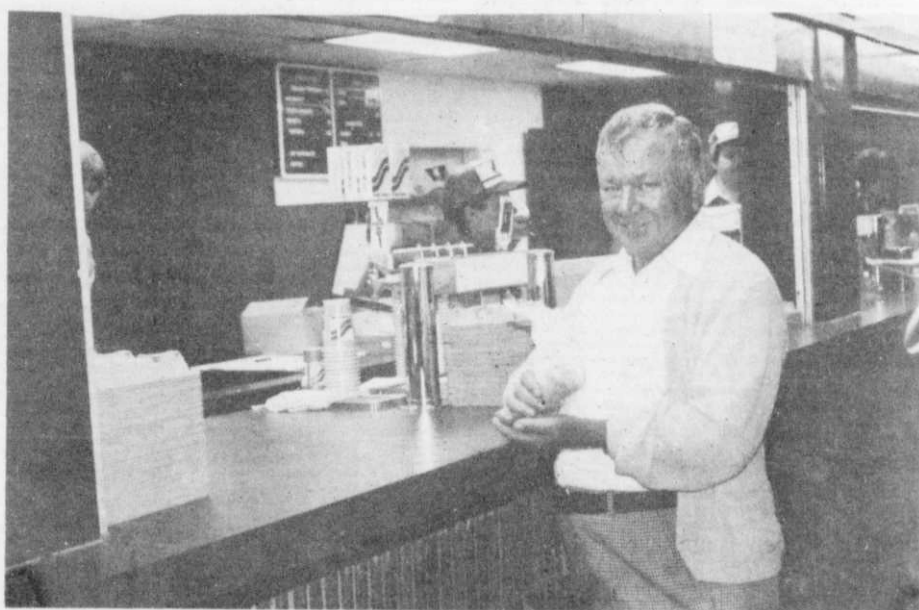

Kewaskum Night is sponsored by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce. Local fans made the trip to the game in four chartered buses and others drove individually. Some buses were cancelled out due to a lack of interest.

The Kewaskum High School Swing Choir sang the National Anthem.

'Do Not Pass,' 'Pass With Care' Highway Signs to Come Down

Beginning Tuesday, Sept. 1, state transportation department maintenance crews started dismantling the approximately 35,000 "Do Not Pass" and "Pass With Care" warning signs along the 11,000-mile state trunk highway system, the department announces.

Removal of the signs and sign posts is an economy move that will save the department — and state taxpayers — an estimated $100,000 a year in sign maintenance costs, Harry O. Price, WisDOT's chief traffic engineer, said.

"The removal of the signs will not compromise highway safety," Price said.

"No Passing Zone" pennant signs, located on the left of roadways, will remain to remind motorists that it is unsafe to pass in those areas," Price said. "In areas where there currently are no "No Passing Zone" signs, signs will be erected before the old signs are removed," Price said.

"In addition, the yellow unbroken lines that indicate "no passing" zones will remain as a constant reminder to motorists that an area is unsafe for passing and that a conviction for violating the law can result in a fine and demerit points against a driver's record," he said.

Price estimates that 75-80 percent of the old signs will be recycled and used later to construct other highway signs.

The project is expected to be completed by Dec. 1.

Brownies Move Up In Ceremony

Kewaskum Brownie Troop No. 95 finished the 1980-81 year with their Bridging Ceremony held at the Holiday Inn. There were eleven Brownies who bridged to Juniors. Junior Girl Scouts placed the green sashes over their heads and accepted them to their level of scouting. The troop earned a Super Troop recognition, received their wings in May at a Flyup Weekend and almost all of them earned four Junior Dabbler Badges.

Members of the troop were strictly third graders from both schools in Kewaskum. They are Tammy Bath, Jennifer Liegl, Jennifer Bauer, Dawn Jandre, Tina Keller, Tamara Clement, Carla Lemke, Stacey Schmitt, Debra Rimmel, Suzanne Rinzel and Melissa Weber.

Mrs. Janet Panzer, troop leader, expresses her thanks to her assistants, Mrs. Marie Lemke and Mrs. Susan Levien, and to Mrs. Cheryl Rinzel, who helped her out at Day Camp.

Letters to the Editor

August 28, 1981 To The Editor:

To the Taxpayers of the Kewaskum School District:

On Monday, August 24, a school board meeting was held to approve or disapprove a proposed salary for our administrative staff. I am sure the staff must be very pleased with their new salary increase. I'm sure that some doctors and lawyers are envious at this percent of salary increase. We cannot blame the administrative staff for spending our money. We have a School Board of seven elected people who voted this erroneous increase. What's worse, is that, we (the taxpayers) elected this board. Out of seven members, only two realized what this wage package meant to us (the taxpayers).

If we, the members of the Kewaskum School District, would receive a 14.8% increase, no one would dispute the fact that our administrators are making this amount of money. But, we are not making this kind of money, and when the Kiplinger report projects a maximum of 8 to 10% for the next two years for everyone, I think it's time to take a good look at our school board. Whoever heard of an important meeting involving this amount of money would be held at 10:15 p.m. We do have several Senior Citizens within the Kewaskum School District (who are also taxpayers). Was this meeting set up? It is too late now, but if we vote for new board members next spring, I am sure we can stop this unnecessary spending and start to redevelop the district into a place we can afford to live again.

Dennis C. Jandre
Resident Taxpayer

P.S. Thanks again to Dr. Charles Ogi and Tom Brigham for their support in trying to do the job we (the taxpayers) elected them to do.

Aug. 31, 1981

To the Taxpayers of the Kewaskum School District:

I had the pleasure of attending my first school board meeting on Monday, Aug. 24th. As a taxpayer, I'm ashamed that this was my first visit. Even though the results were not in favor of the taxpayer, it was a real learning experience. I saw eight people discussing these huge salary increases. Don't we the taxpayers vote for a board of seven members? Do we really need a member of our administrative staff sitting in on a closed session of our school board? After all, the salaries of our administrative staff were being discussed. I'm sure our present school board doesn't need this type of input at a meeting of this nature. If we the people (who were standing outside) cannot attend a closed session, why can one of our administrative staff sit in?

I would like to see 100% of the Kewaskum school district protest this meeting. In this day and age of smaller families, it's getting easier to find good administrators who would love to live and work in this area for less wages. Our school enrollment is getting smaller and staff pay is getting higher.

Concerned Taxpayer

While I don't feel that a series of letters to the editor is the best place to carry on a debate, it appears it is necessary. I cannot let some of the comments made by people at the board meeting and in letters go by without a rebuttal.

First, one general comment. I'm going to ignore, as I hope anyone would, letters which are not signed with the name of the writer. It has always seemed to me that if someone wishes to be heard, he or she should at least be willing to stand up and be counted. It's easy to say almost anything if you can remain anonymous. A letter in the last issue of this paper, for example, talked about "secret" meetings and then the author kept his or her name a secret. While I disagree with Mr. Horner on a number of things, he has had the courage to publicly take his stands.

Now let's get to the issues that have arisen. Basically, there are two from the August 24 board meeting. The first has to do with the way the meeting was conducted and the second with administrator salaries. To begin, I'd like to make a few comments on the meeting itself.

1. It was unfortunate the open meeting reconvened so late, but to suggest this was done to discourage input was unfair. The closed meeting began at 7:45, and this is the earliest that at least Dr. Ogi and Byron can get to a meeting. The discussion simply took longer than was anticipated. In terms of input, those people attending were given every opportunity to speak, and the vote was not taken until there were no more comments forthcoming.

2. I've been here during the terms of four different board presidents, including Dick Edwards, Tom Gundrum, Dr. Ogi and now John Tessar. The discussions on salaries have always been closed. This procedure is certainly nothing new.

3. I don't know why people can't accept the fact that there can be legitimate differences of opinion. Why does Mr. Horner condemn people for not agreeing with him? He suggests in his letter that because the majority of the board didn't vote the way he wanted those board members didn't even listen to him. That's a grossly unfair accusation. He expressed concern about the democratic process, but fairness and an understanding that there can be differences of opinion is very important to that process.

Now let's look at administrative salaries.

1. I think it is not right that a few people insist on using total (including fringe benefits) cost figures rather than just salaries in all of these discussions. Virtually no other reports from municipalities or business are reported in this fashion. It is an attempt to paint as "black" a picture as possible. Improper comparisons by people are made as a result of this and it is confusing. We should report as others report.

2. Mr. Horner had, at the annual meeting, said he was tired of comparisons with other districts. At the last board meeting, however, he took us all the way to Chicago to suggest that in that city they are talking about 7% increases over two years. For one thing, that's just talk. Also, what he failed to mention is that the Chicago superintendent, for example, makes over $100,000 a year in salary and the business manager $100,000. I'll take the 7% raise if I can also get the base salary.

Another comment was made that if "catch up" raises for administrators were called for, they should wait for better economic times. A few years ago, when times were better and the cost of living not going up so fast, a number of us were given raises two years in a row of 3% or 4%. What is the "right" time?

3. I don't think people should feel that teachers or administrators should never make more than that community member makes. This ignores training required, years of experience, responsibility, etc.

4. Someone commented at the board meeting about his $400,000 business investment and asked what teachers or administrators have invested. First, that person has a $400,000 investment which can be sold and the money collected. Teachers and administrators have an investment in college costs and at least 4 years where they gave up a wage or salary to attend college. To earn the top teacher salaries discussed or administrative salaries, we have to have at least 5 or 5½ years of college and 15 years of experience. We have a big investment but the only way we can realize anything from it is through wages. We are not fortunate enough to be building up equity in a business property — our investment is in ourselves.

5. When comparing raises with private industry as some are doing, comparisons should be made over a period of years, not for just one year. There can be a great deal of variation in any given year. Also, to make meaningful comparisons, industry must be willing to release all salary and wage information and, if we are going to compare that way, all fringe benefits.

6. At their request, I have given all board members a great deal of information on administrative salaries. At best, our administrative salaries are average, and many administrators earn wages considerably less than the average for that position. I'd be happy to sit down with anyone interested in the facts and present this information. It gets rather lengthy for a discussion here.

I have debated the wisdom of writing this letter. Sometimes it is better to ignore these arguments and just let them pass. I am concerned, though, that the reputation of a good community and school system, and the employees of that system, are being damaged by what I consider to be unjustified criticism. Complaining about taxes and employee salaries may be a popular stand with some people, but the statistics do not back up the complaints being made. Again, I would invite anyone to come and talk with me and discuss these topics. I have a good deal of information which may be of interest to you, and I'd like to hear your views.

Sincerely yours,

Floyd A. Brenholt
Superintendent

To the Editor:

I'm somewhat reluctant to comment on controversial subjects in the "Letters to the Editor" column, however, the letters in the August 28th Statesman warrant some response.

For various reasons the Kewaskum administrative salary decision was delayed until almost two months into the school year. Thus it was important to settle it at the August 24th meeting.

It is the school board's duty to make that decision. We spent over two hours trying to reach a compromise that would be acceptable to all of the board members. The efforts to reach a compromise would not have been aided by an open session.

This may appear to be an "ignore the taxpayers" attitude but the board is certainly aware that the community wants as economical a school district as possible. There are a lot more taxpayers than administrators. Therefore, if I were trying to win a popularity contest, it's easy to see which way I should vote. However, I must consider all of the information relative to salaries within our district and in similar districts in an effort to make a decision that will keep our Kewaskum Community Schools educationally strong.

I agree that the open meeting was held at a late hour, but believe me, the board members were no happier about the time than those interested citizens in the audience.

Thousands of people flocked to Random Lake last Sunday, where they viewed the ruins of a $100,000 fire which at one time threatened to destroy the entire village. The fire, thought to have started from spontaneous combustion in the Random Lake Co-operative Association's feed mill on Saturday afternoon, spread so rapidly that before it could be put under control, destroyed the following buildings and caused a loss estimated at $100,000: The feed mill and elevator of the Random Lake Co-operative Association, John P. Altenhofen's real estate office and the dental office of Dr. Herman W. Beger, Begers' general store, Henry Paulin's harness shop and residence and the upstairs dwelling of Mary Garbinger.

Your HEALTH TIP

from Tom Leitzke, R.P.H.

We all are aware that hot, dry heated air of winter needs moistening to prevent parching of the mucous membranes in nose, throat and bronchials. Humidifiers do this job very well, and moist membranes are better able to resist cold and flu germs. But here is a caution. Thoroughly clean the humidifier annually to remove scale and mold, as the mold spores, if blown into the air and breathed, can cause allergies and flu-like symptoms on their own.

County Soil and Water Conservation District Holds Annual Planning Meeting

By Marc Bethke
District Coordinator

The Washington County Soil & Water Conservation District Supervisors met on Wednesday, August 26, at the Washington County Courthouse to begin setting priorities for the district's 1982 Annual Work Plan. The supervisors called upon agency representatives from the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), University of Wisconsin Extension (UWEX), Soil Conservation Service (SCS), Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) and the district for advice and recommendations on which to make their decisions.

County Ag. Agent, Jack Trzebiatowski, reported on UWEX efforts to educate farmers about conservation tillage. A priority through 1982 will be to continue three demonstration plots on the cooperating farms of Robert Melzer, John Brugger and Sunset Farms to collect data on growth and yields from various types of conservation tillage on corn crops.

DNR Forester, Jim Miceli, reported on the many accomplishments of his department over the past year and goals for 1982. He emphasized the fact that there has been a great demand for the purchase of small packets of trees by county residents. Efforts for 1982 will be to better supply county residents with state trees, and to direct over-flow needs to local private nurseries. The idea of spreading municipal sludge on woodland was presented as a potential benefit to curbing pollution as well as benefiting timber growth.

DNR Game Manager, Armin

Schwengel, reported on his department's efforts to improve waterfowl habitat on the Theresa Marsh, County Park land as well as assisting private landowners. It was explained that a major emphasis has been and will continue to be placed on Project Respect, a cooperative program between landowners and the DNR which encourages hunting on private land under a controlled plan and also discourages trespassing and vandalism. 1982 priorities include establishment of more nesting habitat for Wood Ducks and Mallard Ducks.

ASCS County Director, Don Sampson, reported on the 1981 Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP). Reductions in federal cost sharing dollars to Washington County has made it difficult to approve all farmers' requests for cost sharing assistance on establishing conservation practices on their land. It was explained that priorities will be given to the most critically eroding or water pollution problems in the future, as has been done in the past.

District Conservationist, Don Kurer, of the Soil Conservation Service highlighted major accomplishments of his department in 1981. Popular practices installed this year were grass waterways, contour stripcropping, conservation tillage and diversion terraces. Emphasis in 1982 will be placed on controlling erosion and improving water quality in priority areas of Big Cedar Lake and the Cedar Creek Watershed, Kewaskum Creek Watershed, the City of West Bend's three mile jurisdictional area and portions of Wayne Township.

The tentatively approved annual work plan as developed by the district supervisors emphasizes certain top priorities including: 1) Assisting local units of government in developing erosion control programs; 2) Initiating "Group Conservation Planning" sessions with farmers enrolled in MPTI Farm Management Classes; 3) Completion of the Big Cedar Lake Watershed Project; 4) Completion of the Cedar Creek Watershed Land Use Inventory; 5) Promotion of conservation education in schools and of the general public, and 6) Promotion of Farmland Preservation in Washington County.

- Mushroom Lovers - Unite!

Mushrooming is mushrooming. Foraging edible fungi in Wisconsin woods has become a popular autumn past-time. Mushroom lovers, often discouraged by the high prices charged at supermarkets for the 7 million pounds of mushrooms imported to the United States each year, are seeking less expensive and more enjoyable methods for satisfying mushroom appetites. Over 15 varieties of these plants flourish in fall weather. Absence of summer heat and insects plus sporadic rainfalls provide excellent conditions for propagation. But even if all factors are perfect for mushroom gathering, amateur aficionados are not advised to simply pick and eat. Poisonous fungi and mushroom toxins also bound in Wisconsin woods. In order to alleviate any hazard in mushroom identification, Dr. Sami Saad, associate professor of

Support in Infant, Child Death Meeting

Support in Infant and Child Death, a parent support group, meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month. The meeting will be on Thursday, Sept. 10, at 7 p.m. at the Planned Parenthood office on the 2nd floor of the old section of St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend.

This month's meeting will be an informal gathering of parents who have lost children at any time from miscarriage through the teen years. Parents are invited to share as much or as little of their experience and feelings as they wish. SIICD meetings simply provide a compassionate atmosphere; parents offer support to others who feel the pain, fear, and sadness that the death of a child brings. It

List of Selective Service Registrants May Be Viewed at Kewaskum Municipal Building

In accordance with Section 6(h) of the Military Selective Service Act, the names of Registrants and their tentative local board assignments are being made available for public inspection through the State Director for Selective Service.

At the present time, lists of Registrants born in 1962 and the first three months of 1963 are available; others will be produced at a later date.

The list may be viewed at the Kewaskum Municipal Building. Local board assignments are arranged by ZIP-code based upon the registrant's permanent address. Copies of the lists for those ZIP codes in your area of coverage may be obtained from the State Directors.

This action is a part of the revitalization of the Selective Service System. It helps to give the agency the ability to respond quickly in the event of national emergency. Other ef-orts include the establishment of a computer center at Great Lakes, Illinois, the selection and training of potential local board members, and the registration of men born in 1960, 1961, and 1962. Currently, men born in 1963 are required to register within 30 days of their 18th birthday. They may do so at any U.S. Post Office.

License Registration Fee Increase Sept. 1

First notices to owners of vehicles subject to the increased registration fee provided by the recently enacted budget, effective Sept. 1, 1981, are in the mail from the Wisconsin department of transportation's division of motor vehicles.

The new fee is $25 for the year, up $7 from previous years.

"We are calling this to the attention of all whose license renewals fall due in September to hopefully avoid having checks sent to us for the previous amount," Norbert Anderson, administrator of the division of motor vehicles, said.

"By sending in the correct amount of $25, as indicated on the notices, automobile owners will be assured of prompt service while avoiding unnecessary, additional handling and postage expense," he said.

The first round started with Newburg I against Random Lake in which Newburg I beat Random Lake, 24 to 7. At the same time on the other diamond Farmington played against Greenbush and saw Farmington win 13 to 11. The two winning teams advanced to the semi-finals.

The next round saw Batavia teamed against Ace Hardware of Elm Grove in which Ace Hardware came out on top, 20 to 5. On the other diamond Newburg II was playing against Fredonia. Newburg II came up the winner 11 to 1. The two winning teams from these games advanced to the semi-finals.

In the semi-finals Newburg I was paired up against Farmington in which Farmington won 4 to 2 to advance to the championship game. In the other semi-final game Ace Hardware played against Newburg II and the winner was Ace Hardware, winning by the score of 8 to 0. This put them into the championship game against Farmington.

This game went back and forth with Ace Hardware on top 3 to 2 going into the top of the 7th inning. Then Farmington's bats started booming as they scored 7 runs and went on to win 8 to 3, becoming the first champs of this tournament.

Immediately following this game, awards were given out. Individual second place ribbons were given to the Ace Hardware team. Farmington, the winning team, received individual first place ribbons and an attractive first place trophy.

I would like to thank everyone who took time to help make this 1st tournament an enjoyable and profitable success. I especially would like to thank Dennis Gindt, Steve Liegl and Art Fleury for their great job of umpiring. Thanks, also, to Brian Larson and Rick Leitheiser for fixing up the diamonds.

West Bend West Blanks Indian Girls in Tennis

The Kewaskum High girls opened their tennis season at West Bend West Wednesday and were blanked, 7-0, as the Spartans swept the singles and doubles.

Coach Jan Rosenthal has six lettermen returning from a team that posted a 5-6 record last year but is not sure of two of his doubles combinations and of his No. 3 and 4 singles players.

Debbie Allmann and Julie Dettmann are at No. 1 and 2 singles. They replace graduates Brenda Manthei and Mary Brenholt. Sophs Lisa Matenaer and Jenny Lightner are at singles after playing doubles last year. Another letterman, Marjean Backhaus, moved from singles to doubles, teaming up with Jenny Zemlicka. No. 2 doubles team will pair juniors Mary Paul and Jan Schmidt. The sixth letterman, Darla Prost, will be at No. 2 doubles.

There is not much depth on the squad as the turnout was lower than usual. Rosenthal is working with 25 girls, compared to 40 a year ago.

The West JV team also won, 7-0.

Girls Beat West Bend West in Golf

On a rainy afternoon Friday, the Kewaskum High girl golfers defeated West Bend West at Hon-E-Kor, 255-274. The KHS girls are competing in the Little Ten Conference in golf this year.

Medalist honors were won by Junior Cheryl Jaeger for Kewaskum with a 55, while Melissa Koch was next low with a 60. Jane Gibson led West with a 61.

Kewaskum coach Joe Harlow said the course was a bit wet, and this may have contributed to higher scoring.

Hunter Education Week Sept. 6-12

Over 200,000 young persons have completed hunter education courses in Wisconsin since the hunter education program began in 1967.

The 2,000 volunteer hunter education instructors in the state who have made that enviable accomplishment possible will be honored the week of September 6 through 12, proclaimed Hunter Education Week in Wisconsin by Governor Dreyfus to coincide with the 1st Annual International Hunter Education Week.

Homer Moe, coordinator of hunter safety in the Department of Natural Resources, said, "The personal involvement and dedication of volunteer instructors is the heart of the hunter education program in Wisconsin, and I encourage all hunters to get involved in supporting hunter education. In participating, hunters will learn more about wildlife, our environment and our relationships to them, and will thereby help to insure the future of the sport of hunting in our state."

Moe noted that the basic hunter education program instills a positive and respectful attitude toward the environment, wildlife resources, private landowners and other outdoor recreational activities. It promotes individual responsibility, safety and involvement in learning more about our fragile environment and how it can best be protected.
