Shop-Rite, Inc. Applies for Liquor License in New Shopping Center

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

National Avenue Shop-Rite, Incorporated of Milwaukee has applied to the village for a beer and liquor license.

Paul Behring, of Behring's Market, was listed as the agent.

Behring told the Statesman, Wednesday, he has no exact information as to the present status of a Shop-Rite Grocery in the new Kewaskum Shopping Center.

Behring stated he had been contacted approximately two weeks ago regarding the license, however, he had no other information regarding the proposed opening.

Behring said his last conversation with the Shop-Rite representative did not result in anything definite. He stated if he is associated with the store it will probably be as Assistant Manager of the Meat Department and local Purchasing Agent.

C. Bartelt of Shop-Rite was called to verify opening of a store in KEWA Shopping Center however, he is on vacation and no one else could release any additional information.

Kewaskum PTO to Run Village Halloween Party

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

An alternative to Trick or Treat night was presented to the Village Board Monday night, by representatives of the Kewaskum PTO.

The PTO parents outlined their proposed plan to hold a village Halloween party for area youngsters pre-school through sixth grade. The event would run from 5:30 to 7:30, Friday, October 30, with everyone meeting at the football field. The children would parade around the field allowing viewers in the stands to see all the costumes. From there, the youngsters would be divided into two groups. Pre-school through second grade would head for a party at the elementary school, with third through sixth graders going to the middle school. The children would receive juice, popcorn and other treats. The PTO hopes it will have enough personnel to run games such as apple dunking, etc. If not, movies will be shown to the groups.

A survey was sent home with KES students to see how parents felt about having a party which would replace the traditional Trick or Treat night. Of 422 questionnaires sent out, 267 were returned with 174 in favor of the party, 84 against and 9 undecided.

The PTO goal is to give children something else to do besides trick or treat which they feel is not as beneficial. Trustee Jeff Rohrer noted he had questioned several village residents and found that most of the people were in favor of the party replacing "Trick or Treat" night. The only question he had was "whether or not this would be penalizing some kids who would shy away from a party or youngsters whose parents won't take the initiative to bring the kids to the party." Trustee Dave Nigh asked if the party would be solely financed by the PTO. One of the committee stated they would also have some assistance from the Woman's Club and would be talking to the Chamber of Commerce. However, they felt costs would be minimal. Nigh stated that the Chamber of Commerce had decided Monday afternoon to sponsor a window decorating contest, hoping it would deter soaping of windows. Trustee Don Mlodzik stated "the only way we'll know (if the party idea will work) is to try it."

A motion was made by Trustee Dick Schmidt to drop Trick or Treat night and let the Kewaskum PTO have their party. The motion was unanimously approved. The committee asked the board to make it clear that the party is a replacement and that there will be no trick or treating to the homes. The board noted it will support the project and encourage people to attend it.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt updated the board regarding Cable TV in the village. Schmidt said the Department of Transportation had recently approved right of way for burying of cable from West Bend to Kewaskum and it was hoped this work would be completed by October 15. The pre-engineering work has been completed and CATV has all the equipment with most of the hook-up equipment up in Kewaskum.

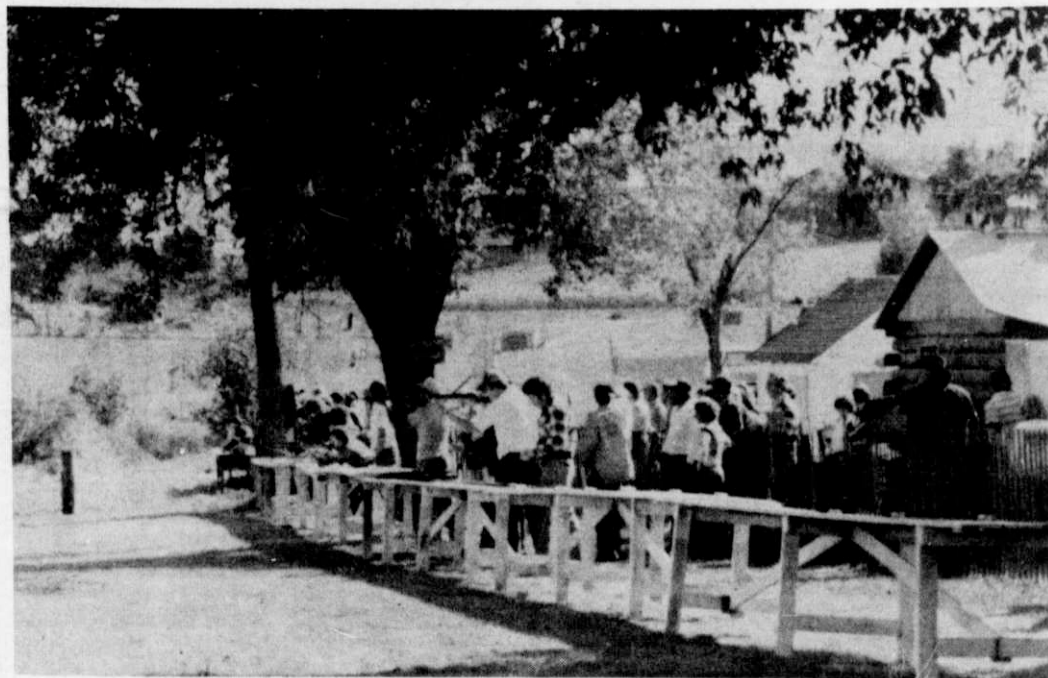

In other action, Schmidt informed the board of the circumstances regarding village annexation of the Carl Johnson property at the south end of the village on Highway 45. Schmidt stated he had been informed by Dan Thompson, during development of the TIF district, that no township island is permissible unless it is 65 acres or more. The Johnson property, covering approximately 230 x 319 feet, is considered part of the Town of Kewaskum entirely surrounded by the village. Schmidt said this is a violation of state statutes and he recommended the board approve action to annex the property. Schmidt noted permission is not required since the owner has no choice regarding the annexation, however, he would get in contact with him informing him of the situation.

Dan Schmidt also advised the board that the city of Onalaska had accepted Kewaskum's sealed bid of $7,525.00 for radio communications equipment. The equipment will be used in joint cooperation with the Town of Kewaskum which will be sharing part of the purchase costs. Schmidt noted the equipment is only three years old and if the village would have had to purchase this system new, it would have cost $15,000 to $20,000, so the village has realized a considerable saving on this purchase.

Schmidt presented the board with proposed budget figures for 1982. He commented he and the department heads are making every effort to keep the budget close to 1981 figures, noting the '81 budget had been

Turkey Shoot Another Success; 470 Birds Taken

[More Turkey Shoot pictures inside]

Ideal weather, sunny and 71 degrees helped make the 29th annual Turkey Shoot, a great one-day activity, sponsored by the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club at the Bar-N Dude Ranch Sunday, another fine success.

A total of 470 turkeys were taken on the rifle line, pistol, bow and arrow and trap shoots. This is 45 less than the 515 total of last year. There also was a BB gun and sausage shoot.

The trout were not cooperating at the fishing pond but around 100 were caught. Linus Seefeldt of rural Kewaskum caught the largest trout and received a Regal cookware set for his efforts.

Brats, hamburgers and hot dogs went at a brisk pace and the stand ran out of food later on in the day. There were games for the children, pony rides and other attractions.

The Kewaskum Kiwanis are happy with the results of the day and anticipate the gross receipts as good as last year.

Blood Pressure Screening Clinic

A blood pressure screening clinic will be held in Kewaskum, Wednesday, September 30, from 11:00 to 12:00 noon at the Senior Citizens Center, Kewaskum Legion Hall. This clinic is a service offered by the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service and is provided without charge.

Burglary, Thefts Reported in Area

Washington county sheriff's deputies were informed of the theft of a metal box containing money, savings bonds, collector's currency and important papers from the rectory at St. Michael's Church in the Town of Kewaskum. Entry was gained to the building Saturday or Sunday, Sept. 12-13, through a basement window

Ann Kadinger of 376 County Trunk S, Town of Auburn, informed Fond du Lac County authorities Friday of the theft of her 1968 Chevelle, which was stored on a platform at the residence. The theft occurred between 11:30 p.m. Thursday and 6:30 a.m. Friday.

A Harley-Davidson motorcycle parked in front of the Kettle Moraine State Forest ranger station on County Trunk G in the Town of Auburn Saturday was reported stolen to the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department. Alan Sigler notified authorities at 1:20 p.m. of the theft of his motorcycle valued at approximately $2,200. The theft occurred between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Saturday, Sigler told sheriff's officials. He said he parked the cycle in a field driveway in front of the ranger station, and when he returned at 1 p.m. it was gone.

School Administrator Brenholt Participates in Madison Conference

Kewaskum School District Administrator Floyd Brenholt participated in an intensive day-and-a-half conference in Madison, September 16-17, to learn about key issues in elementary and secondary education.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Herbert J. Grover, called Wisconsin's 433 public school district administrators to the conference which is designated in the State Statutes as an official convention.

In his first address to the administrators' group as state superintendent, Dr. Grover reported to them on the state of education and announced the establishment of a citizens task force to study the organization, financing and functions of cooperative educational services agencies (CESAs).

Each school district is a member of one of the 19 CESAs in the state. They exist to serve the local school district in providing services which can most efficiently be furnished by combining resources. The study will determine the future role of intermediate educational agencies in Wisconsin public education.

Among the subject areas discussed at the conference by leading authorities in their fields were competency testing, industry's role in education, "woes" of the public sector, federal funding of education and public and private schools.

"While not the only issues facing elementary and secondary education, these topics are representative of the kinds of issues that are on the minds of Wisconsin's school leaders," said Dr. Grover. For example, he noted that legislation calling on school districts to develop minimum competency tests and administer them to their students will be before the State Legislature when it convenes in October.

Administrators attending the conference had the chance to raise questions on these and other issues and to gain a good perspective on state and national thinking in these areas. They also shared experiences with their fellow administrators.

Thursday afternoon, following the conference, Brenholt attended a meeting of a committee on which he serves. Set up by the Wisconsin Association of School District Administrators, the committee deals with educational program evaluation.

St. Joseph's Hospital Offers Class in Early Pregnancy

St. Joseph's Community Hospital is offering a new two-hour class called "Early Pregnancy," designed for the woman who has just become pregnant. There is much information a woman should know as early as possible in her pregnancy in order to insure a comfortable pregnancy and a healthy baby. Some of the material to be covered includes smoking, drugs, diet, exercise and preparation for breast feeding. Ideally, future parents should attend the Early Pregnancy Class during the first three months of the pregnancy. However, all parents up to the sixth month of pregnancy are welcome.

The first class, taught by registered nurses from the maternity floor, will be held in the hospital Assembly Room on October 7 from 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

Expectant Parent Classes, dealing more with preparation for labor and delivery, are held each month except December, on the first four Tuesdays of each month. Most parents prefer to attend this class during the last three months of their pregnancy.

You may register for either class by calling 334-8226 between 7:00 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Dear Friends

The average person is faced with funeral arrangements only once each 12 to 15 years. Hence, bereavement finds most people inexperienced and unprepared - funeral decisions hastily made often lead to regrets. We hope these 'open letters' will inform our readers about funeral matters so they may be better prepared to handle funeral arrangements wisely.

$5,000 less than the 1980 budget. Schmidt noted, however, that this doesn't mean there will be no tax increases. Cuts in State and Federal revenue will definitely affect tax rates. Schmidt stated there is speculation that Federal Revenue Sharing may be dropped entirely and State Revenue Sharing may also be reduced drastically. Schmidt told the board that the General Property Tax Relief credit ($4.20 last year) has already been eliminated. If the state budget had been passed as presented, Kewaskum would have gotten $352,000. As things stand now, the village is hoping to receive approximately $315,000. This would result in an increase of approximately $5.50 per thousand, which does not include increases for county, state, school and vocational taxes. Schmidt stated "generally speaking we're in good shape," noting everyone involved with the budget is making an effort to keep costs as low as possible.

Jeff Rohrer informed the board the pool was officially closed last weekend due to the weather and low participation.

Building permits for the Ed Roehrborn and Dale Matthies residence additions were also approved.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor,
Kewaskum Statesman

The taxpayers of this community must really be thought to be a gullible group.

We are being told and asked to believe that the presence of an Administrator at the closed session of the Kewaskum School Board dealing with Administration salary raises should not be a matter of any concern to us.

We are to believe that the superintendent would have nothing to gain by being present at this meeting. He has made the statement that his salary for this year (1981-1982) was set by the Board a year ago and this is true. He probably just forgot to mention that as a result of this meeting he received additional fringe benefits. Just one of these benefits, evidently given to him as a gift by the board, is paid dental insurance which alone costs the taxpayers $276.00, but we are to believe that these fringes are nothing.

Secondly the superintendent's contract runs for three years. His wages will be discussed next year. We are to believe that the raises that he evidently had input into this year will not affect the size of his raise next year. If some of the administration received in the neighborhood of a 15% raise this year, again we, gullible taxpayers, are led to believe that this will not affect the size of his raise next year. We would be willing to believe that he will only ask for a 6 or 7% raise for himself next year.

Are we, the taxpayers, really this gullible?

Editor, The Statesman:

Is taking milk away from our children the way to balance the budget?

The United States Department of Agriculture has proposed to:

drastically reduce nutritional standards for lunches.

reduce amount of milk served with lunch to 6 ounces for elementary children; to 4 ounces for pre-school children.

permit yogurt to replace milk at lunch.

Please urge Secretary Block to:

(1) Maintain requirement that lunch meet 1/3 of children's daily nutritional needs.

(3) Not allow yogurt to replace milk at school.

(4) Require whole milk to be served with lunch.

Children can't get enough calcium if milk consumption is reduced. Calcium is essential for optimal growth and develop-

West Bend Savings' Tax-Exempt Certificate

Available October 1, 1981

Finally, a break for savers. The All Savers Act passed by congress now allows West Bend Savings to offer the most attractive savings certificate ever—the one year West Bend Savings' Tax Exempt Certificate - to combine high tax-free earnings with insured safety.

Profitable

You can exempt the interest income earned from your Tax-Exempt Certificate up to $2000 (joint return) or $1,000 (single return) on your federal income tax return. Depending on your tax bracket and the amount deposited, in most cases, you could save a substantial amount over non-insured money market funds or lower-yielding bonds.

The table below shows the effect on yields between a taxable investment and your new tax-exempt investment using the October 1 rate of 12.61%.

IF YOUR FAMILY INCOME IS	THE INTEREST RATE YOU'D HAVE TO RECEIVE TO NET 12.61% AFTER FEDERAL INCOME TAXES
$20,000	16.81%
$25,000	18.01%
$35,000	21.02%
$50,000	25.22%

These figures are approximate and based on 1981 tax tables.

Safe

Your deposit in a West Bend Savings' Tax-Exempt Certificate is insured up to $100,000 by an agency of the federal government for the term of the account.

The rate is set at 70% of the average investment yield on one year U.S. Treasury Bills as of the most recent auction. The rates will change every four weeks - but the rate at the time you open your certificate will be guaranteed for 12 months.

Affordable

The West Bend Savings Tax-Exempt Certificate can be opened with as little as $500. The amount you can deposit is unlimited. You can even switch your West Bend Savings 6-Month Money Market Certificate to a Tax-Exempt Certificate with no penalty.

Good for Washington County

West Bend Savings will invest 75% of every net dollar received from deposits in our Tax-Exempt Certificates into real estate or agricultural loans. Your money stays in Washington County to help provide lower cost home financing.

Federal law requires a substantial penalty and loss of tax exemption for early withdrawal prior to maturity of these certificates.

Area Students Semi-Finalists in Merit Scholarship Competition

Area students are among semi-finalists in the 27th Annual Merit Scholarship competition. They include James R. Mack and Bobbi J. Tadtalt, both of Beaver Dam High School; Kathy Theisen, Campbellsport High School; Kevin W. Neuberger, Dodgeand High School at Juneau; Kevin R. Chesak, Kewaskum High School; and Marsha Lenz, Markesan High School.

Others are Monica M. Walk, Mayville High School; James L. Westrich, St. Lawrence Seminary at Mount Calvary; and David M. Williams, Plymouth High School.

The 15,000 semi-finalists from throughout the U.S. entered the 1982 Merit program by taking the 1980 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Semi-finalists are students who scored highest in their state and represent less than one-half of one percent of each state's secondary school graduating class.

Grants to NMSC from about 600 corporations, company foundations, professional and business organizations, and colleges and universities underwrite nearly all Merit Scholarships. In 1982, sponsors will finance four-year Merit Scholarships for finalists in the competition who meet preferential criteria.

Except for colleges and universities, these sponsors also will provide grants to support program operations and to underwrite the national $1,000 awards — the scholarships for which all finalists compete on a state representational basis.

According to NMSC officials, about 90 percent of the semi-finalists are expected to become finalists who will compete for some 5,000 Merit Scholarships in 1982.

Three types of awards are offered each year: $1,000 National Merit Scholarships, corporate-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships, and college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarships.

Winners of corporate scholarships will be announced April 8, recipients of $1,000 awards on April 22, and college-sponsored scholarships on April 29.

In the 26 competitions between 1956 and 1981, over 68,000 students have won Merit Scholarships valued at about $192 million.

Third and Fourth Grade Youth Invited To Be 4-H Explorers

By Bob Stodola
UW-Extension
4-H and Youth Agent

September and October are the months when most 4-H clubs reorganize for the coming year and invite new members and families to join them. 4-H is for families with children from third grade to 18 years of age.

As new members and families think about 4-H, I would suggest they consider the 4-H Exploring project. It is intended especially for 9 and 10 year old beginners.

The exploring project is just that. The member explores. He explores living things and non-living things around him. He explores his home, family, friends and community. He explores his own physical, social and creative self and finally he explores 4-H. He learns about the many projects and activities and opportunities for 4-H members.

Some of the things that a group of exploring members might do, would be, to bake a giant pizza, have a party, go on a tour of the community, make a shoescraper or do something with animals. There is a booklet of ideas and suggestions and leaders have many more ideas of things to do.

So now is the time to find out more about 4-H. The local 4-H clubs are having New Family Information Nights during September and October. They are putting up displays in store windows. If you want to know about how to take part, call the nearest 4-H leader. If you don't know who the club leader is, call the County 4-H Office. It is listed in the phone book under Washington County. Our phone numbers are 338-4478, 644-5204, or 432-2929.

Increase in State Real Estate Transfer Fee Now in Effect

John C. Steilen, Washington County Register of Deeds, announced that, with the signing of the recent budget bill, the Wisconsin Real Estate Transfer Fee will increase from $1.00 per $1,000.00 to $3.00 per $1,000.00.

The present fee collected is being shared on a 50/50 basis between the State of Wisconsin and the local counties. The new fees will be allocated on a 20/80 basis with the 80% going to the state. The Wisconsin real estate transfer forms are now being prepared and will be available at the register of deeds office in the near future. All conveyances, even though they might be exempt from the fee itself will now require a transfer form. This will become effective with all conveyances dated on or after September 1, 1981.

Selective Service Registration Continues for Eighteen-Year-Olds

Young men who reach their eighteenth birthday are required by law to register with Selective Service at any U.S. Post Office.

Registration is a simple process. Within 30 days of his birthday, a man fills out a registration form which asks only for name, address, phone number, social security number, and date of birth.

The purpose of registration is to have available on a computer the names of men born in 1960 and later years, who could be contacted quickly if there ever were a national emergency and Congress were to declare an induction.

Peacetime registration will save the United States at least four weeks time in mobilizing its manpower in an emergency. This is especially important with today's all volunteer force. There are only 2 million men in the armed services today, but we would need many more men quickly should an emergency arise — for example, in World War II we had 10 to 16 million men bearing arms depending upon the stage of the conflict.

Registration and revitalization of the Selective Service do not signal a return to a draft. They are simply emergency preparedness measures. President Reagan is firmly committed to making the all volunteer force a success, supporting incentives to recruit and retain volunteers.

To date, nearly 6 million men have registered. Failure to register is a felony, punishable by a maximum penalty of a $10,000 fine and/or five years in prison.

The symbols used on playing cards were supposed to represent the four classes of men: hearts represented the clergy; spades [after the Spanish word for sword, "espada"] represented the gentlemen warriors; clubs were originally leaves, and denoted the peasantry; and citizens and merchants were recognized in the diamonds.

County 4-H Leaders Honored at Recognition Banquet at Slinger

"Opportunities in 4-H" was the theme of the Washington County 4-H Leaders Recognition Banquet held at Slinger, September 15. The "opportunities" in 4-H were portrayed by several members and leaders who had participated in some of the events.

Mary Ellen Shaw, West Bend, and Rae Ellen Šobotik, Colgate, told of visiting Congressmen and other things of interest in our Nation's Capitol during the Citizenship-Washington Focus trip. A busload of high school age members attends from southeastern Wisconsin.

Karen Doll, West Bend, told of visiting the State Capitol during State 4-H Congress in Madison. There were also many seminars and events at the University of Wisconsin.

Jane Weix, Richfield, pointed out the many outdoor learning opportunities for 9-14 year old members at County 4-H Camp. High school age members also learn responsibility for being counselors and conducting activities.

Theresa Leppla, West Bend, gave her talk on Child Abuse which represented opportunities in the 4-H Speaking Program.

Muriel Bast, Hartford, told about the "Anything Goes" activities at County Fair. Every club can have a team of members at the fun event.

Learning to play and enjoy the guitar was the topic of a demonstration by Patty Hupfer, West Bend. She explained various guitar strums and sang songs to illustrate the use of each.

Many of the opportunities, especially for older members, are based on applications by the members. Applications for 1982 activities are due October 30.

Several adult 4-H leaders were honored for milestones in their service to you. Mrs.

Herbert Ramel, Kewaskum, received the 25 year Emerald Clover Pin Award. Mary Ann Hupfer, West Bend, was honored with the Diamond Pin Award for twenty years of leadership. The fifteen year Pearl Clover Award was presented to Mrs. Jean Beisenstein, Hartford; Mrs. Ray Fick and Joseph Kresse of Cedarburg, and Mary Secor of Kewaskum.

Leaders honored for ten years of leadership received the Gold Clover Award. They are Mrs. Marie Beder, Janice Bohmer, Diane Bordeaux, Mrs. Sandy Sterman, Hartford; Edward Hetebrueg, Elvira Hetebrueg, West Bend; Mary Lynn Prost, Germantown; Barbara Schneider, Fredonia; Allen Schulz, Allenton.

The five-year Silver Clover Award was presented to Dorothy Barth, Marie Clark, Carol Esselman, Barbara Falk and Mrs. Jerry Prochnow of West Bend; Ruth Beder, Susan Schmidt, Keith Sterman, Hartford; Robert Belger, Mrs. Dennis Seideman and Dennis Seideman, Kewaskum; Victor Ihde and Mrs. Victor Ihde, Germantown; Mrs. Vernon Jung, Random Lake; Mrs. Erich Lehmann and Judith Mingari, Hubertus; Caroline Williams and Robert Wolf, Slinger.

Carol Esselman, West Bend, is president of the Washington County 4-H Leaders Association. A new Board of Directors was elected for 1982. The Board will meet October 12 to elect officers and appoint program committees.

Forty years they had been hitched and 40 years she had made the living; then he died. The thrifty widow instructed that his body be cremated and the ashes be delivered to her.

Carefully placing them in an hourglass she put it on the mantle, sat down to rock and said: "Now you worthless bum, at last you're going to work."

DOT Public Opinion Survey Finds Support For Highway Preservation, 55 Speed Limit

A public opinion survey of 10,681 randomly-selected Wisconsin drivers has found strong support for preserving and improving state highways, and continuation of the 55 mile per hour speed limit.

The survey, conducted by the state department of transportation, found that well over half of the state's drivers now drive less than they did two years ago, and that one in three has purchased a new or used car for the purpose of getting better gas mileage.

The survey made use of three questionnaires pertaining to: highway improvement needs, highway priorities, and effects of the energy situation.

A large majority, 71 per cent, of respondents felt it "very important" for the state to continue to preserve and improve its highways, while an additional 25 per cent believed it to be "somewhat important." Only 2-3 per cent said such improvements were "not important," while less than 2 per cent had no opinion.

However, drivers placed relatively less importance on major highway construction, with only 12 per cent responding that it is "very important," 29 per cent consider it "somewhat important," and about half, 53 per cent, believing that new highway construction is "not important." About six per cent did not register an opinion.

Survey respondents listed rough pavement, narrow roads and traffic congestion as the problem most needing correction. At the time of the survey, prior to the 4c per gallon gas tax and $7 registration fee increase, three out of four drivers favored some sort of user fee increase to pay for state highways.

Generally speaking, Wisconsin drivers have chosen to combine trips, take fewer or shorter trips rather than switch to another mode of transportation in order to cope with rising transportation costs. Weekend recreation and shopping are the two types of trips cut most frequently.

The survey found that three of four Wisconsin drivers favor continuation of the 55 mile per hour speed limit. Of the respondents, 76 per cent favored, 19 opposed and five per cent were "not sure" of the desirability of continuing 55. About 46 per cent of the respondents stated they did not believe the energy situation has reduced auto travel enough to warrant a cutback in new highway construction, while 32 per cent felt it had - 22 per cent were "not sure."

The attitudinal survey was conducted as part of the development of an updated state highway plan.

Humane Society to Construct Building

The Washington County Humane Society Board of Directors has announced that construction will begin on Oct. 1, 1981, on the society's new educational building. This building will be known as the "Ricki Room." The building will be a memorial tribute to Ricki Peterson. Although Ricki lived in Waukesha County she was dedicated to all humane societies and particularly to the Washington County Humane Society.

Funds to erect this building are being obtained through memorial donations to Ricki. Although the building may be used by other groups, priority will be given to animal oriented clubs. The building will also be used by other animal groups to hold shows and animals oriented events. Most of all, however, the building will be used by 4-H clubs to teach young people how to groom dogs, train animals and otherwise maintain them in good health.

TAKE TRIP — Junior Girl Scout troop #145 of Farmington recently took a trip to King Richard's Faire. Seven girls and their leaders left Wisconsin 1981, to spend the day in medieval times, complete with knights, ladies and even beggars. They saw a fire-eater, a sword swallower, and many shops from the days when knighthood was in flower. They finished the day by having flowers painted on their faces. The trip was enjoyed by all, but we are glad to have them back in the twentieth century.

Name Winners in County Malting Barley Contest

Bob Ihlenfeld of Allenton entered the winning barley sample at the 1981 Malting Barley Contest held recently in Washington County. The second place winner was Jasper Ziemer of Cedarburg, followed by Sylvester Rettler of Hartford as the third place winner.

The Malting Barley Contest was jointly sponsored by the Washington County UW-Extension and the Great Lakes Malting Corporation.

Various producers from the eastern Wisconsin area brought in samples of their barley to be judged. The individual samples were judged based on the color, berry size, moisture, and cleanliness of the samples. The ideal barley sample is one that is bright in color, and with large, full, plump berries.

Barley producers attending the session also had an opportunity to receive information on barley production from a program offered by Ed Oplinger, Extension Agronomist with the University of Wisconsin-Extension in Madison.

There has been a renewed interest in barley production in Wisconsin, as local malting establishments are now buying Wisconsin grown barley. In past years, the majority of barley used for malting purposes was produced in the western states and transported to Wisconsin.

Increased costs of transportation and the development of new varieties has generated interest in growing barley for malting purposes. Many local malting firms, including Great Lakes Malting Corporation with a plant at Kewaskum, have been utilizing locally grown barley.

Based on the success of this year's program, the organizers plan to conduct a Malting Barley Contest again in 1982.

County 4-H Older Youth Group to Meet

High school 4-H members are invited to a meeting of the Washington County 4-H older youth group. It will be on Saturday, September 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the Polk Town Hall, 3680 Hwy. 60, Slinger.

A committee of older members has been planning this first meeting of the older youth group. They are Mary Ellen Shaw of West Bend, Rae Ellen Sobotik of Colgate and Tim Indermuehle of Campbellsport. They are planning a fun filled evening with election of officers and plans for the coming year to be developed.

There are many opportunities for older 4-H youth. There are several Out-of-County trips and awards. These include State 4-H Congress at Madison, a Natural Sciences Workshop, National 4-H Congress at Chicago, Citizenship-Washington Focus at our Nation's Capitol, the National Dairy Conference in Madison, the National 4-H Conference at Washington D.C., Camp Miniwanca in Michigan and possibly exchange trips to other states. Any high school age 4-H member may apply for any or all of these trips. Application blanks may be obtained from the local 4-H leader or from the county 4-H office. Applications are due by October 30.

All of these trips are educational. Some of them, which are geared for freshmen and sophomores, have a heavy emphasis on seminars and learning for the future. Others are based on an excellent past 4-H record and are an award for past good work. Members are encouraged to apply whether they have just gotten into 4-H activities or if they've been in for many years.

ILLUSIONS

Driving illusions can fool you. For example, the narrower the road the greater the swerve when you pass another car. And the opposite, you swerve closer on wide, super highways. 25 miles per hour seems slow coming down from 55 MPH; it's faster speeding up from a standstill. This explains many accidents that should never have happened.

But, you will have no illusions when you drive in at J & J AUTO SERVICE for auto services. With modern electronic scopes, speciality tools and most important 'experience' we service all makes of cars. We guarantee your satisfaction. Drive over to 450 E. Main today or phone for an appointment.

All entries will be assigned a number upon receipt to prevent bias by the judges who will be the administrative team of The Threshold. The three (3) finalists will be submitted to our Board of Directors who will determine the winner and second and third place honorable mention. The actual flag, based upon the decision of the judges (Board of Directors) shall be subject to minor modifications regarding actual color tones used, placement and size of symbol and any minor alterations.

Openings in MPTI's Nursing Program

Openings still exist in the January, 1982, nursing class, according to Josephine Roehrborn, RN, MSW, Supervisor for the Moraine Park Technical Institute Associate Degree Nursing Program in West Bend.

If you are a Licensed Practical Nurse interested in upgrading to the Registered Nurse level, this is the program for which you've been waiting. Upon satisfactory completion of the ADN program, the student will be eligible to write the State Board Test Pool Examination and become a Registered Nurse.

Certain transition requirements are necessary before entering the program. The required twelve General Education credits, however, can be attained through challenge and transferring credits as well as through taking the actual courses. The required courses are Introduction to Psychology, Communication Skills I, Anatomy and Physiology I, Technical Science Survey, Chemistry for Health Sciences, and Challenge Exams Fundamentals of Nurses and Nursing Care of the Adult I. All are available through Moraine Park this fall.

LPN's interested in enrolling in the Associate Degree Nursing Program are urged to contact Josephine Roehrborn at 334-3413, extension 58. While openings are still available, enrollment numbers are limited. Call now to avoid disappointment.

An Adventure in Learning Awaits AFS Area Students

An exciting international adventure awaits high school students in the Lake Moraine AFS Area. The local AFS Chapters are seeking young people interested in living abroad for a summer or a full school year in one of 55 nations. The program is sponsored by the AFS International/Intercultural organization.

The AFS exchanges, which began in 1947, have made it possible for more than 40,000 American high school students to discover another country, another way of life. The purpose of the people-to-people programs is to foster understanding between nations through the exchange of world youth.

To qualify, students must be sophomores, juniors or seniors in school. The American Abroad Summer Program is open to sophomores as well as juniors and seniors. The American Abroad School Program for both northern hemisphere summer department and southern hemisphere winter department is open to juniors and seniors only. These students will attend high schools in their host country. Most important, applicants should be curious about the world around them and desire new learning experiences.

While AFS teaches young people about the world, they also learn about themselves. A young person gets the chance to live with a family abroad and learn what it is like in another country. However, the students learn as much about themselves and USA as they do about their host country.

AFS also offers the chance to live in another section of this country for a semester on the USA program.

Applications for either of these programs are available now from local high schools in the area who sponsor AFS students in their schools. Regional screening of applicants will take place in October. Selection by local area AFS chapters will be made during September.

There are more openings available for qualified School Program Winter Department applicants and male applicants than ever before.

Area students desiring these kinds of experiences are asked to contact their local high school or AFS chapters in their communities.

Superman first appeared in a comic book in June 1938. Today, the comic book is worth over $4,000.

National Grant Awarded to Cedar Lake Home Campus

Attesting to the nation-wide interest in the varied educational programs offered on the Cedar Lake Home Campus, an $8,000 dissemination grant was awarded by the federal Fund for the Improvement of Post-Secondary Education to the Cedar Lake Home Campus, Town of West Bend.

The grant will enable the Cedar Lake Home Campus to produce a slide set and a video tape describing three programs developed on the Campus. The first program, entitled "Living Better With Less," is a one day work-shop for retired persons living independently in the community. Tips are given at the workshop on how an individual's independence can be maintained.

The other two programs, "Building Bridges" and "Tutors Unlimited," are designed to aid elderly persons living in extended care facilities to find purposefulness as teachers of youth and also to learn, themselves, through the youth they serve. Building Bridges is an intergenerational sharing experience between the elderly and youth. Tutors Unlimited brings grade school children and the elderly together at schools.

Both the slide presentation and the video tape will be available this fall for any facility across the country desiring to replicate the programs. A video tape is also being developed for distribution among cable television stations across the nation.

The Cedar Lake Home Campus is a 543 resident health care facility serving the retired and the aging. It is located at 5595 Hwy. Z, West Bend. For more information call, (414) 334-9487 or (Milwaukee) 276-4370.

Dairy Farmer to Feel Impact of President's Budget-Cutting Ax

(MADISON)—No other group in the country will feel the impact of the President's budget-cutting ax more sharply than the dairy farmer, according to State Rep. Gervase Hephner (D-Chilton).

Actions taken last week in Washington, D.C., he explained, could erode the dairy price support system to 50% parity by 1983. We may see many dairy operations pushed into bankruptcy in the near future if federal support continues to weaken, the Chilton lawmaker predicted.

The Senate adopted the Reagan administration's plan to slash more than $1 billion a year from the dairy price support program as part of a four-year agriculture program. By 1982, parity would drop to 70% claiming approximately $6,500 from the average dairy farmer's annual income.

"This cut is coupled with the elimination of the April milk price guarantee inflation adjustment earlier this year that caused parity to dip from 80% to 75%," Hephner pointed out. It's estimated that this reduction cut the average dairy farm's annual income by about $6,000.

The consequences of these cuts are not only devastating for the individual dairy farmer. As the leading milk producing state, Wisconsin will feel the effects of the drop in parity levels too.

"Not only will many beginning and young farmers be pushed to the brink of economic ruin," Hephner observed, "but every community with agricultural ties will feel the economic slump."

"After all," he added, "you can't sell machinery, equipment or livestock to a 'busted' customer."

"Something must be done, and soon," Hephner pointed out. He suggested, that the Assembly's Agriculture and Nutrition Committee could hold public hearings across the state and encourage expert testimony from a wide variety of people to accurately assess the impact of the parity cuts.

"We must also seek alternatives for our dairy industry," Hephner observed. Pointing to his dairy promotion bill, he said, we must start promoting Wisconsin's dairy products.

The dairy promotion program calls for a cooperative marketing and advertising program to help stimulate Wisconsin's dairy industry. A million dollars would be provided to fund the dairy promotion program and another million would fund promotion of other agricultural commodities.

"Since the federal government has turned its back on the dairy farmer, it is up to state leaders to help soften the blow of the parity cuts through alternative programs and wise legislation," Hephner argued.

County Youth 1st in Beef Herdsmanship At the State Fair

The Washington County Junior Beef Exhibit received a blue award in herdsmanship at the Wisconsin State Fair. The judging of herdsmanship is based upon preparation of exhibit, appearance and attitude of exhibitors and care of the exhibit.

In the county group competition, the Washington County exhibitors received a second in the angus division and second in the "all other breeds" division.

The Washington County 4-H members who participated in the state fair and their placings are as follows:

Jeff Rauh of Slinger, second, jr. heifer calf in all other breed division, and fourth, summer yearling.

Mary Ellen Shaw of West Bend, second, in angus senior heifer calf, blue, jr. yearling heifer and sixth in showmanship.

Jeff Guyant, West Bend, seventh, in angus summer yearling heifer.

Ann Shaw, West Bend, placed 14th in the summer yearling heifer.

Stan Shaw of West Bend placed first in angus jr. yearling heifer class. Steve Zimmerman of Slinger placed 16th in the charolais jr. yearling heifer and first in the senior yearling heifer class.

Attend Soil Conservation Meeting

Eighteen people from the Wisconsin Chapter SCSA were among the over 1,200 people attending the 36th annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America held at Spokane, Washington, recently. Harry and Jane Hendrickson, Mike Flitter and his mother, Elizabeth "Pep" Flitter, and Don and Dorothy Kurer represented the chapter from the West Bend area.

The theme of the meeting was "Land, People and Policy: The Western Connection." Over 35 speakers participated in the three day meeting, speaking on topics such as the influence of Mount St. Helen's ash on soil resource, to challenges of controlling soil erosion in the Palouse region of Washington, to reclamation techniques on western energy sites. A film of Mount St. Helen's fly ash is still seen in the Spokane area, 300 miles east of the volcano.

SCSA is a non-profit scientific and educational organization dedicated to advancing the art and science of good land use. It has almost 14,000 members in the U.S., Canada and 80 other countries.

Racing Profile....Ron Luedtke

Ron Luedtke

Lomira is his home and farming is his living, Ron Luedtke is his name and racing is his game! Yes, Ron has given 24 years to the sport of racing modifieds and he is doing it again this year....and better!

Ron is currently running second in the E.W.S.C. point standings. He drives a three-year-old pogo built modified 1972 Maverick, powered by a 350 Chevy engine, which is owned by Bob Wondra of Lomira. Sponsors of the car are the Village Pump and Bob Voskuil Chevrolet-Pontiac, both of Lomira. To keep the car in tip-top condition, Ron and Bob need and have a loyal pit crew working for them. They are: Don Feucht, Joe Flasch, Chuck Kuen, Jerry Gitter, Stan Rensderman and Ken Thorn, all of the Lomira area.

Since this has been Ron's best finish in a racing association point standings, Ron stated that he could only do it because of the "good man behind the car," (meaning Bob Wondra), and the "challenge that I get" being out there on the track with "The Master!" ("The Master"....Willie Goeden.)

Ron is like a bottle of wine; he gets better with age! Over the years there are some things that haven't changed. He always brings his smile and his sportsmanship with him to the track. The 45-year-old farmer is married and has two daughters and one son. His wife's name is Donna and his children are Missy, Mindy and Murray.

On October 3, Ron and the other drivers from the E.W.S.C. will be honored at a banquet being held at the Millhome in Kiel.

Award West Bend Judo Instructors Bronze Star Club Charter

Instructors of the West Bend Judo Club were recently awarded the U.S. Judo Association's coveted "Bronze Star Club Charter." This award goes to a Judo Club that has over 100 members. The West Bend Judo Club is now the largest in Wisconsin and one of the top 14 of 1,100 clubs in the national association.

The West Bend Judo Club was founded in 1967 by Ron Rodamer, Jon Sanfilippo and Joseph Sanfilippo, with a membership of 10 Judoka. Business commitments forced Rodamer from continuing participation. Jon and Joe Sanfilippo, at ages 17 and 14, respectively, continued coaching the club. Efforts of the Sanfilippas, through the Judo club during the past 14 years, have produced positive results for the sport. Hundreds of area residents have participated in the West Bend judo program. It has produced many state champions.

Some of the national participants include: Lynn Roethke, Julie Larson, Dan Sutton, Dan Spors, Bart, Bret and Troy Randall, Dave Schlieter, Chris Puestow, Joe, Tom and Marianne Fulop, Jane Tischer, along with both Jon and Joe Sanfilippo.

A premier competitor, Lynn Roethke has won the Wisconsin state and grand championships, National Junior Olympics, U.S.J.A. championship (3 times) and has won 3rd place in International Judo.

Judo instruction is not only designed for competition. The instruction program run through the West Bend Park Forestry and Rec Department has been designed by the Sanfilippas as a life-time activity.

"It allows the individual to concentrate on his or her interest, be it physical fitness, self-defense or sport competition," said Jon.

Participants have ranged from 7 to 50 years old, including the physically handicapped.

After 14 years of success teaching judo, and their 18 years of judo participation, Jon and Joe have co-authored a book, two film strips and two cassettes for physical education teachers. Their goal is to see judo included in school curriculums throughout the United States.

New judo classes start September 22, at Silverbrook Middle School. Youth beginners go from 6 to 7, youth advanced from 7 to 8:15; and adults from 8:15 to 9:30 p.m. Cost is $5 youth. Fees range from $5 to $15, payable to the West Bend Rec Department.

Fur Harvest Nets Wisconsin Trappers Over $15 Million

A total pelt value of $15,300,000 was realized by Wisconsin trappers from last year's fur harvest, according to Chuck Pils, furbearer specialist, DNR.

Muskrats and raccoons led in income production. A total of 958,318 muskrats brought in $6,097,715 for an average pelt price of $6.36. Raccoons numbered 179,000 and brought a total of $5,800,000, an average of $32.33 each. Muskrats and raccoons have been the leaders in total pelt value during the past ten years, Pils said.

Wisconsin's muskrat harvest led the entire North American continent in number of pelts taken during 1977-78, according to harvest figures compiled by the International Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies. Wisconsin's total take was 730,327. Louisiana was second with 638,816 followed by Ohio and Ontario with 550,352 and 484,949.

Wisconsin's muskrat harvest has averaged more than 700,000 animals during each of the past ten years and the average total pelt value during that period has been $2,652,000. Pelt prices have risen steadily during the ten years to last year's average of $6.36. Pils said this will make muskrats the number one target species of trappers again in the 1981-82 season.

Indians Tip New Holstein For First Win in Eastern

The Kewaskum Indians won their first game of the season Friday night at New Holstein and also their first game ever in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, defeating the Huskies on their home field, 14-7, in the conference opener.

The Indians went into the game after suffering tough, identical 12-7 losses to Slinger and Campbellsport. On the other hand, favored New Holstein had a 2-0 record after beating Waupun and Ke-waunee. And they did it without the services of their ace running back Bob Lautenschlager.

Last year, first in their new conference, the Indians went 0-6 in the Eastern Wisconsin, their only win of the season coming against Slinger in pre-season action. The Indians were highly elated in the closing seconds when victory finally was theirs.

But with two minutes left on the clock it appeared the Huskies might tie the score. The Indians were on New Holstein's 33 yard line trying to run out the clock after Daryl Tews recovered Lautenschlager's fumble on a punt return. After two rushes by the Indians, Randy Klotz managed to strip the ball from Dave Donath. The Huskies' Joel Greuel picked it up and started down the sidelines. Finally Kewaskum quarterback Ric Leitheiser brought him down at the 16, with 1:25 remaining. Holstein had one incomplete pass then hit on a short one. The next pass by Greuel was intercepted by Bill Heberer at the five yard line to insure the victory.

Kewaskum's defense played well, coming up with one touchdown and helping set up another. Defensive halfback Randy Westerman had a leading part in both plays. On the Huskies' second play of the game, the ball popped out of Lautenschlager's hands as he was being tackled. The ball landed right into Westerman's hands and he raced 34 yards for a score.

About half way through the second quarter, with Greuel back to punt, he had trouble handling the ball on a low snap. Westerman tore in to tackle him on the 16 yard line. Two plays later Donath went in from the four yard line for another score. Brian Larsen made good on both kicks for extra points.

In their first possession of the second half the Huskies drove 55 yards for their only score, with Steve Rockow taking it in from the four.

The Indians got only one first down in the second half but the defense did its job in holding the Huskies to one touchdown.

This Friday Kewaskum returns to the home field to face Chilton in a conference contest at 7:30 p.m. Chilton was nosed out by Plymouth last week in an 18-17 squeaker.

Friday, with 14 schools participating, was won by Hartford, a surprise team that has been showing great improvement.

Kewaskum competed in the White Division (based on team scores) and the Indians finished sixth, with Brookfield Central taking first in that division. Cheryl Jaeger again was low for the Indians, while the three others struggled on the course they had not played before.

Brad Dieringer scored on an 85-yard kickoff return. Several minutes later, following a Steve Seitz interception, Dieringer scored again on a 48-yard run.

New Holstein came back to go ahead 14-13 and maintained the lead until the Indians scored on a long drive in the fourth quarter with a Jim Braun run from the four. Kewaskum finally iced the victory when Braun romped 43 yards for a score.

The freshmen were shut out by the Huskies 22-0. The Indians made some mistakes, accounting for two long New Holstein runs of 60 and 50 yards for TDs in the first half. The Indians offense never got further than their opponents' 35-yard line.

Cross Country Meet Here Won By Two Rivers

Two Rivers easily was the strongest team in Friday's Eastern Wisconsin Conference cross country quadrangular held in Kewaskum. The Raiders won five of the first seven places, winning with just 19 points.

Ted Taddy and Rich Richmond of Two Rivers ran a close race, with Taddy pulling away in the last half mile to win in 16:13.

New Holstein placed second, Plymouth third, and Kewaskum last with Wayne Boudreau the first Indian to cross the finish line in eighth place in 17:55. Boudreau experienced some leg trouble.

Other Indian finishers were: Bob Jandre 19th, Jeff Nigh 21st, Steve Hubbell 22nd, Craig Rosenthal 23rd.

Since Kewaskum was the only school to field a full girls team, all the girls who were at the meet ran the three miles (instead of the normal two) with the JV boys.

New Holstein Beats Girls in Volleyball

In a volleyball match at New Holstein Thursday, the fired up Huskies defeated Kewaskum in two fairly close games. Reserves took over in the third game and the Indians managed a win in this one. The JV and freshmen teams also lost their matches.

The varsity's first game was won by New Holstein, 15-13. The disappointing part was that at one point Kewaskum led 9-1. The Indians were dominating play but lost momentum after missing some serves. Leading 13-10, Kewaskum had to serve three times and each time they lost it. In the second game the Indians lost, 15-11.

Sportsmen's Club Releases Pheasants

The Kewaskum Sportsmen's Club released pheasants on Sunday, Sept. 13. Approximately 940 pheasants were available for club members to pick up and release in the surrounding areas.

The pheasants are received from the state hatchery located at Poynette, Wis. They arrive as day-old chicks and it involves much care to raise them for release in a 12-week period.

Much credit is to be given to Club President Walter Schmidt for doing a fine job as caretaker.

Hunting Over Salt Lick Is Illegal

Hunters should be aware that it is illegal to hunt over a salt lick or in an area where residue from a salt lick remains in the soil. This applies to all forms of hunting, not deer hunting only. Salt which has been placed in fields or pastures for livestock or any other purpose is included in the category of a salt lick.

Hunters who may plan to hunt in an area such as this where salt has been placed are advised to remove the salt, including any residue which may have become mixed with the soil, before hunting in the area.

Hunting with the aid of bait is restricted to use of apples, pastry or liquid scent. Bait must be confined to a hole in the ground measuring not more than two feet square. No bait may be placed within 50 yards of any trail, road, or campsite used by the public.

Baiting restrictions do not prohibit hunting over bait materials deposited by natural vegetation or found solely as a result of normal agricultural practices.
