New Concept Subdivision Plan Presented to Village Board

207-Unit Housing Project Planned for Kewaskum

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A new idea of a "community within a community" is how Jim Reigle defined the plan for a new subdivision being contemplated for an 80-acre site owned jointly by Reigle, executive president and the chairman of the board at Regal Ware, Inc, and Dr. Charles Ogi, Kewaskum veterinarian.

Reigle, speaking on his and Dr. Ogi's behalf, stated they had been considering development of this land for some time, however, they did not want a "normal condominium type development." The land being considered lies just outside the Kewaskum village limits on Highway 'H', adjacent to the west side of Bel-Ric Acres subdivision on the south side of 'H'.

Reigle said the purpose of coming before the board Monday evening was to get a general feeling of how the project would be accepted. He noted the primary and ultimate factor governing the possible creation of this project was annexation by the village so village sewer and water would be run into this subdivision. Reigle noted that if there was any chance the board was NOT in favor of this project and the land was not annexed, the entire project would be dropped now before any further work was carried on.

Reigle stated, "we bring people in and they end up living in other communities because we don't provide them with living needs they desire."

Bill Nelson, of Nelson Associates, Milwaukee, presented a blueprint of the proposed subdivision. Nelson told the board his firm is not a developer. They are consultants who design plans for their clients. Actual development would be done by Reigle and Ogi.

Nelson explained the sketch and the idea of this process called "Planned Development." He stated, "we have been trying to retain the character of the small rural communities." Single families on individual lots would be set in clusters in courts, nothing would face the village green area. Single family attached units would be set in a condo type setting, with the four-family multiple units set up in generally the same way. The subdivision would be bordered with cultivated hay fields and trees to preserve the rural feeling. The open area can be either a public or private park depending upon the desires of the developers and village. Nelson said the project also has the ability to contain hiking, biking and riding trails within it.

Housing Project

Nelson noted the project would be set up as condominium units and not rented. Each of the three groups would have its own "Owners Association," governed by one "Master Association" made up of representatives from all three groups.

The subdivision would contain 83 single family on individual lots units, 72 attached single family and 52 units in the multiple family group for a total of 207 units. Nelson stated this works out to 2½ units per acre of land.

Nelson felt a project such as this would be an asset and contribution to any community.

After Nelson's presentation, President Jerry Stollenwerk asked the board if they had any questions regarding this plan. Trustee Jeff Rohrer questioned whether there would be architectural limitations and if there would be control over type, etc. Nelson said, "we would recommend tight control over type and quality of the development." This, too, would be governed by the way the subdivision was developed either by one contractor building all the units or selling individual lots and the owners designing and constructing their own homes. Trustee Dick Schmidt asked what the average size of a single family lot would be. Nelson said lots would be 70 ft. by 120 ft., about 8,400 square feet.

Reigle said, "we would like some guidance from the board as soon as possible. Where do we go from here?" Reigle noted, "frankly, we're not planning on breaking ground this year," noting there was a considerable amount of work yet ahead as far as development and financing. "We want to know if we're on the track and that a project like this would be accepted before we proceed with any plans to request annexation." Rohrer said, "I find it extremely exciting, you're working with the contour of the land and keeping control of architectural style." President Stollenwerk stated, "it's a very interesting development and I think it would be a welcome addition." Stollenwerk noted, however, that the board could not make any decisions until the project was reviewed by the Plan Commission. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said he would bring the plans up at the next Plan Commission meeting November 24.

This housing project would be the third one for Kewaskum within the past year. The 10-unit Moraine Condominiums on the east end of the village have been completed and already has some occupants, and work on the 36-unit Meadow Creek Apartments on the southwest side of the village is progressing rapidly. Kewaskum also has several apartment buildings.

Fire Saturday Destroys Car

Lester Francke of 1441 Parkview Drive was visiting the Ken Leitheiser family at 549 Knights Avenue, Kewaskum, Saturday morning. About 20 minutes later, about 10:50 a.m., as he happened to look out the window, he saw his car parked outside was in flames. The fire department was summoned.

The fire was attributed to a short in the wiring. Lester just purchased the 1981 Century Limited 4-door Buick in May. The car was destroyed.

Francke was taken to St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend by the firemen's rescue squad when he became distraught during the fire. He was released Monday.

Late Bus to Run 3 Days a Week

Due to the scheduling of early and late practices for basketball and gymnastics at Kewaskum High school, many students are not able to use the parent sponsored late bus running to the Farmington area. Forty families were needed to guarantee that the bus would run Monday through Thursday for the entire second quarter. Because this goal was not met, the bus schedule was revised to a three day run, Monday through Wednesday.

Family passes at $20 are still available at the middle school and high school offices. The bus leaves at 5 p.m. and services the areas of St. Michaels, Hwy. 144 and H and A, Green Lake, Fillmore and Boltonville. Maps of the route and approximate arrival times are posted at the schools. Students who do not have quarter passes, but would like to ride the bus on an occasional basis, may purchase daily tickets for a $1.00 at the high school office.

Legislation Holds Key To Final Village Budget

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At Monday evening's Village Board meeting, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt presented what he had hoped would be the last revision of the 1982 Village Budget before its public hearing on December 7. It looks like matters could change again. Schmidt called this reporter Tuesday morning to make sure this article pointed out this budget still contains preliminary figures, noting he had received still further changes in state funding figures. Schmidt said, in the ten years he has worked on the budget, there has never been so much change and revision. He commented that changes were coming in daily and figures even varied from morning until afternoon.

A proposed 12% cut in Federal Shared revenues could mean a loss of another $3,000 in revenues for 1982. Schmidt noted that this change also is not final, leaving the preliminary 1982 budget of $860,382.00 dangling on yet another string.

Schmidt noted he has balanced the budget at this point by making several cuts which were suggested at the board's last meeting. The Garbage and Refuse Collection budget will be reduced by approximately $5,000 with the change over to once-a-week collection for nine out of twelve months in 1982. The three-year re-assessment program and microfilming of village records were also dropped from the budget. The police budget was reduced by $3,000 for maintenance of its second vehicle and the fire department budget reduced by $3,000 by early purchase of truck hoses. The Parks and Recreation Committee also cut its previous budget figure by $30,000 down to $8,056.00.

Schmidt said the village is at 64.5% of equalized valuation, a drop from 70.29% used to calculate last year's levy. The drop in assessed and equalized valuation alone reflects a 11% increase in the village tax rate. The latest revised preliminary tax rate is $31.442 per $1,000 with a proposed state tax credit of $4.558 for an approximate net rate of $26.884 per $1,000, a 13.5% increase over last year's rate of $23.69. Schmidt again stressed this is only preliminary since the previous tax credit was calculated at $2.70. This figure will not be finalized until legislators in Madison and Governor Dreyfus settle on a final State Budget. Schmidt stated, "if items been purchased from an Dreyfus does veto the budget, that would put us back to zero." Kewaskum could then end up with a tax credit of only $2.70.

Schmidt listed other increases that will be reflected on tax realized from operation of the bills. The county increase is 11.6%, state 9.2%, school 13.2%, and vocational school 19.6%. Trustee Dave Nigh said, "it looks like we're the only ones who are getting less. I think there are things we should have kept in the budget, but I'm not in favor of raising taxes. One thing is the re-assessment, I don't like to see us keep putting it off." Dan Schmidt agreed noting there are several inequities in village property taxes.

President Jerry Stollenwerk noted at a recent local government meeting, a gentleman commented on the shared revenues which Kewaskum received. He said, "it looks like the Village of Kewaskum is too frugal. It seems like the money goes to those communities who spend it."

Trustee Jeff Rohrer, Chairman of the Parks Committee informed the board 1982 budgeted park projects would include an obstacle course, one additional pier section, benches, landscaping, a stripper and paint for the baseball diamonds and grills being made by the high school students for the new park. Approximately $1,300 for landscaping and lighting has been budgeted for River Hill Park. Rohrer noted that through the efforts of Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo and one of his employees, a slide, log roll and swing were added in the new park at a material cost. Had these items been purchased from an outside source the cost would have been approximately $1,900.00.

Rohrer also informed the board that $6,172 in revenue was realized from operation of the new pool with expenses running $14,500. He compared Kewaskum's operation costs to Mequon where they made only $5,655 and other business before the board was consideration of repairs and remodeling of the Municipal Building. Administrator Schmidt took the board on a tour of the premises pointing out the many areas which are in serious need of repair along with the overcrowded conditions in the library and village offices. Schmidt noted that $36,000 had been put in the 1982 budget which could be used either to do only the necessary repairs or, if the board decided to go with a combined repair and remodeling program, used for the first year's interest on the money borrowed for the remodeling program.

Serious roof leaks, chimney repairs, upgrading of lavatory facilities, lighting and a storm sewer to remedy a flooding problem will themselves cost approximately $31,000.

Schmidt cited serious overcrowding in the library has resulted in storage of books in the old fire department garage area. Rohrer asked if these books were still in use. Schmidt said yes, that they were all listed in the card catalog and if someone needed a book the librarians had to go to the garage to obtain that book.

Toilet facilities in the building are also in need of repair. Schmidt said if we were a restaurant the health department would close us down. Also, restrooms do not meet requirements for handicapped persons. Schmidt presented remodeling plans from two companies. The first had a price tag of over $398,000. The second plan set renovating and repair costs at $296,880. Schmidt noted the second plan provided more for the money including an addition to the building for approximately $100,000 less than the first plan which would remodel the old firehouse garage area to provide added space.

Schmidt stated, "if we borrow $300,000.00, we could have it paid off in less than ten years." He said the park debt would be paid off in the near future making it feasible to go ahead with the remodeling program. Schmidt said it was suggested the debt limits stay at a constant level rather than have sharp rises and drops since this also affects tax levies.

President Stollenwerk turned the plans over to Trustee Don Mlodzik and the Public Works Committee for further study asking them to suggest changes or revisions they felt would benefit such a project.

Schmidt also requested permission to transfer $10,000 to the Fire Department Outlay Account for payment of the new fire truck chassis which is due to arrive Thursday.

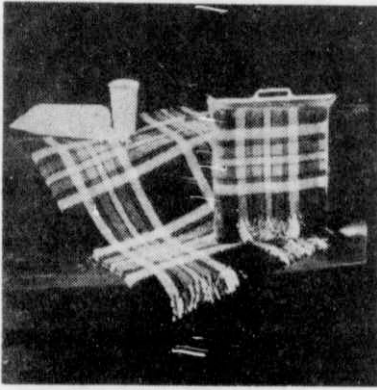

Schmidt informed the board that to date, 71 applications had been received for the job opening in the Public Works Department. The board also approved a resolution to combine voting wards and use one polling place and box.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

Kewaskum Chapter of FTA Tours College Campuses

The Kewaskum Chapter of the Future Teachers of America sponsored a college campus visitation day for its members and other interested seniors. Thirty-two students and their advisor, Ms. Barbara York, toured three campuses last week to get a firsthand look at college and technical campus offerings.

The students' itinerary started at the Wisconsin University in Oshkosh, a four year college. After touring the library, various department buildings and some dorm facilities at Oshkosh, the students visited the Wisconsin University in Fond du Lac, a two year college. Here Dean Hevken welcomed the group. After a slide presentation of the college offerings and facilities the students toured four of the main campus buildings. The last of the scheduled stops for the group was the Moraine Park Technical School in Fond du Lac. This tour included an introductory speech to the students and a tour of the vocational schools' facilities.

Decision time is fast approaching for KHS seniors and the touring group unanimously felt their visitation time was a big step in this direction.

For the first time this year a freshman team was involved in competition. Members of the team included John Nowak, Jim Herriges and Ray Langhoff. Dear Mr. Harbeck:

I would just like to take a few minutes to thank you for the space allocated to covering the recent Kewaskum Area United Way Fund Drive campaign. Much effort went into organizing this campaign and it was through your help that we were able to get much of this information and facts out to the citizens of our fine community.

We will probably have one final summary article giving the results of the campaign drive the first week in December. We will then have another article reporting the fund distribution to the various charities after our annual meeting at the end of January.

Once again, we want to thank you for your time and help in getting the United Way message to all of the Kewaskum area citizens.

Don't wait until your next electric bill to take this test!

You may be able to lower your electric bills with Wisconsin Electric's new, voluntary Time-of-Use electric rates. Taking this test will help you find out. But, first, an explanation:

With standard electric rates you pay the same rate for each unit of electricity you use. With Time-of-Use rates you pay a lower rate at night and all day Saturday and Sunday. And you pay more than the standard rate on weekdays from 7 AM to 7 PM. Because you are charged less at night and on weekends with Time-of-Use rates, people who use much of their electricity during these lower cost times may be able to save money.

This test can show you your potential for saving money with Time-of-Use electric rates. Try it and see how you score.

- 1 What kind of heating system do you have?
  - Electric heat (20 pts.)
  - Gas, oil or other system (0)

TOTAL POINTS = _____

Next, figure out what your electricity use is per month—in kilowatt hours. This number appears on your monthly bill. Since your electricity use varies, it's a good idea to average as many months as possible.

AVERAGE USE PER MONTH = _____

How you scored.

Find your average monthly use in the left column and then read across to the statement under your test score.

AVERAGE USE PER MONTH	TEST POINTS = 0 to 55	TEST POINTS = 56 to 100
Over 1200 kilowatt-hours	It is possible for you to benefit from T-O-U rates if you reschedule more of your daytime electricity use to evenings and weekends. The higher your test score, the more likely it is you will benefit. Call us for more information.	You will very likely benefit from T-O-U rates since it appears you are already using much of your electricity during evenings and weekends. Don't wait. Give us a call now.
701-1200 kilowatt-hours		You would be a good candidate for T-O-U rates and would probably not have to make much of a change in your current electricity-use habits. Call us for more information.
401-700 kilowatt-hours	It is unlikely you could benefit enough from T-O-U rates to make it worth your effort.	You may be able to benefit from T-O-U rates, particularly if you scored 50 or more points on questions 1 through 6.
Under 400 kilowatt-hours	You would not benefit from T-O-U rates because you could not reschedule enough electricity use to lower-cost times to offset the additional $2.50 monthly cost of the T-O-U metering equipment.

If it looks like you'll benefit from having Time-of-Use rates, we urge you to call your local Wisconsin Electric office to discuss the rates with one of our service representatives. There is no obligation.

25 Years Ago

November 23, 1956

The Kewaskum Indians will open their 1956-57 18-game basketball season November 27, with a non-conference game at Oostburg. Coach Ernie Mitchell and his assistant Walt Bade have a big rebuilding job on their hands with only two lettermen back on this year's squad. One of the two lettermen back is Dave Mertzig, 6 foot senior forward. The other is Jerry Opgenorth, junior guard. Gone from last season's title are such aces as Tom Peterson, the league's top scorer; Curtis Yahr and Bob Stenman, who ranked second and third in team scoring, and Doug Wierman. The varsity team, in addition to Mertzig and Opgenorth, will probably be composed of Dave Fickler and Eugene Laatsch centers; Dave Opgenorth, Mark Rodenkirch, Norman Hirsig and Bill Boegel, forwards, and Bob Sparks, Roger Garbisch and John Rosenheimer, guards.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Kuehl, Kewaskum, was celebrated on November 10 with a buffet supper served at Barney's Hall at Wayne to their many relatives and friends. The couple was blessed with five sons and one daughter. They are Romand of St. Kilian, Marvin of West Bend, Elmer of Campbellsport, and Winonea (Mrs. LeRoy Streat) of Sheboygan Falls. One son, Reuben, died in infancy and one son Lester was killed in World War II.

Miss Catherine Strohmeier, daughter of George Strohmeier, Route 3, Kewaskum, became the bride of Francis Hug, Route 3, Hartford, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hug, Sr., during a nuptial mass on November 10.

Daughters were born to Mr.

and Mrs. Robert Krueger, Route 1, Kewaskum, on November 20, and to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wiesner, Jr., Route 3, Campbellsport, on November 11. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Haug, Kewaskum, on November 18, and to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Herriges, Route 2, Kewaskum, on November 14.

50 Years Ago

November 20, 1931

In the presence of their children and grandchildren and their original bridal attendants, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Ockenfels, pioneer and rare occasion of celebrating their golden wedding anniversary at their home on November 17. The couple are the parents of seven children, namely: Amalia (Mrs. N.J. Braun), Olive (Mrs. Haase), Adolph, Frances (Mrs. Earl Donahue), Rose (Mrs. Peter J. Haug), Josephine (Mrs. Edward Guth) and Leo.

The county tax roll this year will be lowered about $1,871,848. The fact that there is no assessment on horses, mules, wagons, carriages and sleighs, automobiles, motor trucks and motorcycles, is greatly responsible for the decrease of the county tax roll. Though the total recommended value of real estate increased by $1,026,765, the total recommended value of real estate and personal property in the county is given with $53,728,685, or $1,871,848 less than in 1930. Cattle in this county increased by 1325 head but their value decreased from $62.27 to $50.17 per head. The number of sheep decreased by 283, making a total of 1450, but the number of swine increased by 898, making a total of 6794.

Miss Corine Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Schaefer, and Louis T. Opgenorth, son of John Opgenorth, both of Kewaskum, were quietly married on November 19.

William Windorf will hold a dressed poultry show on November 22. Everybody is invited.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pfeifer on Sunday. Mrs. Pfeifer will be remembered here as Miss Florence Andre.

Theodore Stern, another of the Town of Kewaskum's pioneer citizens passed away in death at his home on November 16. He was born April 2, 1854 and on June 28, 1880 he was married to Bertha Ebert who with the following children survive: Emma (Mrs. Charles Meinecke Jr.), Ida (Mrs. Otto Meinecke), Anna (Mrs. Louis Ramthun), Katie (Mrs. Henry Ramthun), Frieda (Mrs. Willie Kutz), Edna (Mrs. Melvin Wendelborn, Fred Stern and Henry Stern.

One pound of raw potatoes, unpeeled, makes about two cups when mashed.

75 Years Ago

Henry Glass of Beechwood informed us this week of an instance which beats the record. On September 8, a hog disappeared from his place and all hopes of ever finding the animal were given up until last week Thursday, November 1, when the hog with four young ones came out from under a straw stack, all alive. It is a mystery how the hog lived for seven weeks under the stack.

Twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs. William Koenen of Kewaskum last Saturday. This is the second time twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. Koenen. The first twins were girls.

A baby girl was born to Mr.

and Mrs. Joseph Gudex of Kewaskum last Tuesday. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weasler of New Fane last Monday.

OVER CONTROL

There are a lot of car owners with power brakes and power steering who start the first icy days of winter with accidents. Not a lack of control but over control is usually the fault. Using a deft touch on these power controls is very necessary for safe driving on slippery roads.

Another good practice is to drive to J & J AUTO SERVICE at 450 E. Main for a complete check of brakes and steering in connection with greasing of the chassis. You'll know that you are safe then.

WASHINGTON COUNTY'S SOLID WASTE DILEMMA

[5th in a series]

By Dan A. Wilson, Horticulture/Resource Agent

LANDFILL DESIGN

Until a few years ago, solid waste was disposed of in "dumps" which were often located anywhere a depression or gravel pit needed to be filled. That was before it was determined how easily ground and surface waters became polluted, air was contaminated and rodents became a problem.

Today, state and federal regulations require the development of sanitary landfills to ensure that solid waste is disposed of in an environmentally safe manner as possible. Engineering plans showing the overall landfill design, construction and operation must now be detailed and approved by the Department of Natural Resources before a site can be built.

New landfill sites must meet 38 requirements before they can be approved. Just a few of these requirements include: no burning of solid waste, no contamination of ground or surface waters, all paper and plastic to be collected and buried, all waste to be compacted and covered with 6" of earth daily, site access to be restricted, insects and rodents to be controlled, leachate to be collected and treated and an attendant must be present when the site is open.

All these requirements are in addition to site investigation details, groundwater monitoring provisions and construction specifications.

Designing a landfill requires consideration of the site topography, geology, soils, drainage and proposed method of operation. If a site is determined to be suitable for landfilling and the county plans to go ahead with its development, an engineer establishes where on the property the landfill will be placed.

The bottom depth of a landfill depends upon the amount of waste to be deposited and the ability to drain precipitation and leachate from the site. For covering the solid waste, one part of earth is used for every three parts of waste.

Depending on the final use of a landfill, the site can be very high and steeply sided for use as a winter recreation spot or gently sloped so that farming can take place. The amount of waste that can be put into a landfill is directly related to the final use.

The design also requires road locations, site screening, fencing and a leachate collection system.

Next: What does it cost to operate a landfill?

Toys for Tots Campaign Begins In Village, County

The Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots campaign has begun for Washington County, it was announced by Lt. Col. Buette, commanding officer of Wes-47, Green Bay.

The Toys for Tots program is an annual toy-collecting drive spearheaded by Marine reservists located in more than 180 cities throughout the United States. The toys are given to less fortunate children in Washington County at Christmas time. "Were it not for this program, these children would have a pretty bleak Christmas," said Buette.

National chairman for this year's campaign is Larry Wilcox, who stars as Jon Baker on the television series, "Chips."

Larry will be aided in his efforts by Donald Duck, the Walt Disney creation, who is pictured on this year's Toys for Tots posters.

Local businesses and organizations joining the Washington County Marines in the campaign are: American Legion, Jaycees and others.

Marines will be manning collection barrels throughout the village. They look forward to your donations of new, unwrapped toys for the drive.

Collection points will be located where you see the large Toys for Tots poster. At the present time there are two collection points — the A & W and Kewaskum Legion.

For further information, contact 626-4149 or 626-2910.

Salvation Army Christmas Appeal To Arrive Shortly

The Salvation Army's Annual Christmas Appeal will be arriving in many Wisconsin communities after November 16.

The Christmas Appeal is The Salvation Army's major annual fund raising effort. Monies donated by the public are used to relieve problems encountered by the needy at Christmastime and throughout the winter months. Special programs such as "Toy Lift" which provides gifts to children of prisoners in state institutions, and League of Mercy, which provides a friendly visit and gift to a shut-in or nursing home resident, are also supported by Christmas Appeal donations.

EXERCISE & ANTIBODIES

Antibodies are special chemicals produced by the body to neutralize germs and viruses. They mean the difference between coming down with a cold or not catching it. Physical activity stimulates production of antibodies to ward off disease. Fast walking, bicycling, even active housework, cause your blood to circulate faster, increasing the lymph nodes generation of antibodies which surge into the system and fortify your resistance to infection.

Shotgun Only Deer Season in County Changed

The shotgun only deer season in Washington and Ozaukee Counties has been changed this year, according to William J. Mitchell, Assistant District Warden for the Southeast District.

North of State Trunk Highway 60 and County Highway Q from Grafton east to Lake Michigan is now in Zone A, a nine-day season beginning November 21 through November 29. A buck or a doe with a hunter's choice permit may be taken from Zone A.

Below Highways 60 and Q is now in Zone D, where either sex may be taken during the five-day season running from November 21 through November 25.

Mitchell reminded hunters that state regulations require that deer must be registered in the zone in which they are bagged. Ozaukee and Washington County hunters bagging a deer in Zone D may register their deer at Frank's Tavern, located on Highway 60 in Jackson. Hunters who bag their deer in Zone A may also register their deer at Frank's Tavern.

"Hunters also must be aware that deer taken by firearm must be registered by 5:00 p.m. on the day following the close of the regular season," added Mitchell.

Previously, Ozaukee and Washington Counties were buck or doe for the first five days of the regular season and buck for the remainder four days.

Deer Will Be Checked for Ticks

Again this year, state health officials will be examining deer taken by hunters for ticks which may be carriers of Lyme disease, an arthritic condition which may affect persons who are bitten by ticks. This will be the third year the inspections have been conducted.

Inspections will be made on November 21 and 22, the first two days of the gun deer season, at 32 deer registration stations located throughout the state. About 40 to 50 deer will be checked at each station for the ticks, a small "freckle-sized" insect commonly called bear tick. Hunters whose deer are checked will be asked to describe the time and place where the deer was shot. The examination and interviews will be conducted by students from the university of Wisconsin system and will take only a few minutes to complete. The study is being conducted by the Department of Health and Social Services (DHSS) in cooperation with the Department of Natural Resources.

Ticks collected from the deer will be sent to Harvard University for identification and examination in an effort to determine distribution of the tick and the nature of the agent causing the disease.

Lyme disease was first detected in 1972 in Lyme, Connecticut. It was first identified in Wisconsin in 1978. There were 32 cases reported in 1979 and 1980 in Wisconsin. Symptoms of the disease may include headache, fever, a characteristic red expanding rash, stiff neck, slight facial paralysis and arthritic conditions. The disease is easily treatable with antibiotics but may persist for periods of months or longer if left untreated.

Persons who may exhibit

Lyme disease symptoms are asked to notify their physician and the DHSS in Madison.

Six Lettermen Back

Indians Edge Slinger In Basketball Opener

After only seven days of practice, both teams played a good game of basketball for an opener Tuesday night at Slinger where the Kewaskum Indians defeated the Owls in a non-conference contest by a three point margin, 79-76.

The Indians have an experienced team back this year, including all but one starter from last season, who was lost through graduation. He is Jim Rohlinger, a second team all-conference selection. There is only one way to go after last year's 4-16 season and that is up.

Coach Jim Westphal has six lettermen returning, although one, Jim Krahn, is still sidelined with an injury from football. They include Brian Larsen, a 6-2 senior who had 244 rebounds and scored 312 points for a 15 point average in his junior year. Center Dale Wodsedalek, 6-4, is also back. He was second in rebounding and averaged almost 10 points per game. Other lettermen include Ric Leitheiser, a 5-10 guard, who led the team in assists; Randy Westerman, a 5-10 1/2 guard who looked good last season, and Dave Donath.

Westphal has a squad of 15 players, which includes three non-lettering seniors: Mike Heisdorf, who starred for the JVs last year; Scott Stoltzmann, a varsity reserve, and Steve Straub, who did not play last season. Top prospects are 6-2 forward Dan Dean and 6-4 soph Brian Arndt, who has moved up to the varsity and has been looking good.

In the game at Slinger Tuesday, Larsen played one of his best overall games ever, according to Coach Westphal. He scored 27 points, including 11 of 21 shots from the floor and 5 of 6 free throws. Wodsedalek, who can shoot the ball, had his third foul called right at the start of the second quarter but came back with 18 second half points, including key buckets down the stretch. Leitheiser also was in double figures hitting for 12 points and 7 rebounds in the first half.

Brett Miller showed much improvement for the Owls over last year. He had 17 points, even though sitting out some time in the third quarter after being charged with his fourth foul.

At this point the Indians charged ahead, 61-53, for their largest lead of the contest. Slinger came back to outscore Kewaskum 12-2 to begin the last quarter to tie the game at 65-65. The Owls took the lead twice but the Indians got a three point play from Wodsedalek to go ahead again, 70-69.

Kewaskum led by three with a minute and a half to play but Miller's three pointer tied it up again. The Owls then made some costly turnovers and Wodsedalek and Dean gave Kewaskum a five point cushion before Cornell hit a bucket just before the final buzzer.

For Slinger, Parish was the top scorer with 18 points, followed by Miller with 17, Fritz with 16 and Cornell with 15.

The Indian JVs also won a close one, 59-57 in double overtime. Brian Arndt's two free throws with 20 seconds left decided the game. Arndt had 16 points and Dennis Butz 18 for the winners. Ken Vlasak and Dave Dodge had 19 and 18 for Slinger.

This Thursday Kewaskum plays another non-conference game at Campbellsport and Tuesday West Bend East comes here for the Indians' first home game.

Preference Does Not Guarantee a Hunter's Choice Deer Permit

Preference applicants for hunter's choice deer permits who did not receive a permit have a lot of company. Because 65,344 of them are all in the same boat.

All permits were mailed to successful applicants last week and should have been received by now, according to Doug Poole, chief of the license section, DNR.

A total of 347,155 hunters submitted valid applications for the 108,430 permits available. Of these 170,433 were preferred applicants, 176,722 were non-preferred. Preferred applicants are those who applied last year but did not receive a permit. There were 10,959 incomplete applications received for a grand total of 358,114.

Poole said that contrary to the belief of some hunters, the mere fact of being a preferred applicant does not assure that one will receive a permit.

"There were many more preferred applicants than there were permits available in most of the management units," Poole said. "The preference status only assured the applicant of having first crack at getting a permit in the unit he applied for."

Successful applicants were chosen randomly by computer selection.

Only 13 of the total of 86 management units had enough permits available to accommodate all preferred applicants, Poole said.

Some of the units in highly popular hunting areas of the state were over-subscribed by thousands of applicants.

For example, unit 55 in Jackson, Clark and Monroe counties received a total of 21,322 applications for the 4,125 available permits. Of these 11,401 were preferred applicants. That means there were 7,276 unsuccessful preferred applicants and a total of 17,197 applicants, both preferred and non-preferred, who applied for that unit and did not receive a permit.

The only unit that had enough permits to accommodate all the applicants was number 82, the Chambers Island unit in Lake Michigan off the Door County peninsula. This unit had only 19 applicants for the 50 available permits.

Two Rivers Repeats As State Champions

Two Rivers, which repeated as champions of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference (of which Kewaskum is a member), also repeated as state public high school Division III football champions by rallying to defeat Baldwin-Woodville in the finals Saturday. The game was played at Schofield.

The Purple Raiders defeated Mishicot, 7-0, in the quarter-finals at Manitowoc and Reedsburg, 38-14, in the semi-finals at Fond du Lac to reach the finals.

Two Rivers' title came as a surprise as they lost their entire starting lineup last year through graduation. Mistakes by Baldwin-Woodville cost them the game.

Sheriff Schwartz Has Deer Hunter Message

To have a safe and successful hunting season, deer hunters should not only obey the law, they should be extra careful, suggests Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz.

Sheriff Schwartz and the Wisconsin Sheriffs and Deputy Sheriffs Association say that the true sportsman obeys hunting laws for his own protection and the protection of others. A true sportsman is careful of the lives and property of others.

Every year the misbehavior of a few hunters damages the reputations of thousands of hunters who obey the law and follow the codes of good sportsmanship, Sheriff Schwartz says.

If you are a careful, thoughtful, lawful hunter, you'll earn the respect of thousands of hunters and non-hunters alike. Then, whether you bagged a deer or not, you had a successful hunting season.
