Three Write-ins for Village Board

Hotly Contested School Board Race Expected to Bring Out Heavy Vote

The two winners in the highly contested Kewaskum School Board race will finally be decided in the Spring Election next Tuesday, April 6. During the past few weeks much discussion has been centering on the School Board election and numerous letters to the editor have been written (20 of them in this week's issue).

The candidates are incumbent Gerald Secor, who has been a member of the School Board almost 12 years, Ralph Horner, John Spoerl and Joan Rosenberger, who won out in the primary election held Feb. 16. Spoerl and Rosenberger are newcomers, while Horner lost out in his bid for the board in the last election. The other incumbent, Byron Gessner, who was seeking reelection, was eliminated in the primary.

The heated School Board Race is expected to bring out a heavy vote throughout the Kewaskum School District.

Polls will be open from 9 a.m. until 8 p.m., giving everyone an opportunity to vote. Notices of election are published on other pages of this issue.

In the Village of Kewaskum there are only two candidates for the three trustee offices to be elected. They are incumbents Donald Mlodzik and Richard Schmidt. There are also three write-in candidates for the third trustee position, namely Howard Laubenstein, Travis Canfield and Mary L. Krueger. Other write-in candidates can also be voted on. Incumbent Raynor Herriges is not seeking re-election.

Charles F. Miller of Kewaskum is unopposed for reelection as Washington County Supervisor of District 10.

In District 9, Harold Westerman of the Town of Wayne will be opposed by Jane M. McElroy.

There are two candidates for Court of Appeals Judge of District II. They are Richard S. Brown and Denis R. Vogel.

Voters will also cast their ballots on a referendum question: County responsibility for acts of sheriff. Shall section 4 of article VI of the constitution be amended to provide that the legislature may, by law, permit or require counties to be responsible for the acts of the sheriff?

Economic Conditions Warrant Review of TIF Priorities

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Tuesday night's Plan Commission meeting found its members agreeing that TIF projects must be reviewed and reprioritized.

Bleak economic conditions have taken their toll on projected construction plans for development and reconstruction projects which are part of Kewaskum's Tax Incremental Finance District. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt suggested the commission consider hiring Dan Thompson, of Action Associates, to do a study to re-evaluate projected village revenues for 1982. Thompson's fee would be $2,000.00 for researching, preparing a report and meeting with the commission to discuss his findings.

Schmidt told the commission that a study should be made so that Kewaskum would not find itself in the same predicament as some neighboring communities, beginning projects only to find out there isn't any money to pay for them. A projected revenues study would give the village some idea as to how much money would be available for TIF projects. Commission member Charles Miller stated, "he's (Thompson) going to come up with a whole new set of figures and speculate again. In other words, we're going to pay him $2,000 to correct his projections," said Miller.

Commission member Jeff Rohrer questioned whether this study could be done "in-house." Schmidt noted "I could give you projections and I think they would be in the ballpark. I'll do whatever I can," said Schmidt.

"My feeling is, some kind of re-evaluation has to be done" said Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling. "I think another look has to be taken at the projects and possibly reprioritize them," Zarling added. Schmidt noted that projects may be postponed, but they cannot be moved up.

Schmidt told the meeting, the village may see construction of three or four new homes and possible development of a new subdivision. "If we are to consider annexation of the proposed subdivision, the watermain loop and well on the south end of the town must be constructed to provide service."

Village President Gerald Stollenwerk told the commission, "whatever Dan comes up with, let's not disagree with him. I am sure if we were to do the study we would come up with seven different answers and not agree with Dan's."

The commission unanimously agreed to let Schmidt work on the revenue study. Commission member Bob Kirst stated, "let's keep the door open, if Dan runs into any problems, he can come back to us for approval of getting outside assistance on this study."

Paul Auction Hall Burglarized

Items valued at more than $10,000, including antique guns and music boxes, were stolen over the weekend in a burglary at the Paul Auction Hall located along County Trunk S, 1 1/2 miles north of Kewaskum.

Owner of the auction hall, H. Jim Paul of Kewaskum, contacted the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department at 8:04 a.m. Sunday to report the break-in. He said someone entered the structure located in the Town of Auburn sometime after 6 p.m. Saturday.

Authorities reported that entry was gained by breaking open a door located on the east side of the large building. Many of the stolen items, were the property of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gitter of Route 1, Campbellsport, authorities said.

Stolen from the auction hall were numerous antiques that were to have been sold at auction, including 20 antique guns, two music boxes and fancy glassware. Other items listed as missing from the hall included between $50 and $100 in quarters, some blankets, a pocket watch, bratwurst valued at about $13 and some candy bars.

Fire Causes Damage at Home

The Kewaskum Fire Department answered a call to the Ralph Kern residence at 315 North Ave., Kewaskum, at 7:15 p.m. Thursday, when a flash fire resulted when fumes ignited as Ralph was applying carpet paste while laying linoleum.

Mr. Kern's use of a home extinguisher had the fire under control when firemen arrived. Kern's wife, Cordell, ran across the street in her stocking feet to a neighbor's house to summon the Fire Department, as she was unable to get to her kitchen phone.

There was about $1,000 damage to the floor and cupboards.

Rabies Clinic April 6

Last year Doctor Ogi, with help from Kewaskum FFA members, immunized over 200 cats and dogs. This year's clinic can be even more successful, but only with your help!

The annual Kewaskum FFA Rabies Clinic will be held Tuesday, April 6, from 7-9 p.m. in the Agriculture Shop. Local residents can have dogs and cats immunized for a reduced fee of $5.00 per animal. Doctor Charles Ogi will be on hand to administer all injections.

Wisconsin ranks high in rabies related cases, a statistic that state could do without. If everyone pulls together and spreads the word about rabies, the state can overcome this problem.

The Kewaskum FFA is working within the community to help combat this disease. It can only be done with the support of all community members. Make plans to attend Tuesday's Clinic and help clean-up the rabies problem in Kewaskum.

State to Hold Public Meeting Here To Discuss Improvement of Hwy. 28

The State of Wisconsin will hold a public informational meeting to discuss the improvement of approximately 8 miles of Highway 28, between USH 45, Kewaskum and USH 41, in Washington County.

The meeting is scheduled from 11:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., on Tuesday, April 6, at the Kewaskum High School.

The Department of Transportation staff members will be available to discuss the project design aspects, alternatives considered, environmental assessment of the work and the right-of-way needs of the project. The DOT real estate staff members will also be available to discuss how property is acquired for highway projects.

All interested persons are invited to attend the meeting, at their convenience, and to express their views on the project.

KHS Forensics Team Continues Winning

Earlier this month the KHS forensics team had received 16 "A" ratings in sub-district competition. Last week Tuesday, March 23, the team traveled to Plymouth to participate in the 2nd Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet. At this meet, 8 KHS students received "A" ratings and 6 "B" ratings placing the team in a tie for 3rd place among the seven participating schools. Kiel High School placed first, followed by New Holstein, Kewaskum, Plymouth, Chilton, Sheboygan Falls and Two Rivers.

This past Saturday, March 27, thirteen members of the team attended the district meet at Brookfield East High School. Of these 13, 10 received "A" ratings — Tim Indermuehle - Prose - "Chesapeake," Shelly Sekas - Prose - "Stone Age vs.

Rock Age," Darla Prost - Prose - "I Fall in Love," Mary Schmidt - Declamation - "Penney," Denise Meyer - Declamation - "If Only," Doreen Jacobs - Declamation - "Chatty Cathy With a Kiss," Beth Strigenz - Declamation - "A Teenager's Survival Kit," Janet Mueller - 4 Minute Speech - "Child Abuse," Brenda Witz - 4 Minute Speech - "Neglected and Abused Animals," and Sue Fischer - Story Telling - "The Emperor's New Clothes." "B" ratings were earned by Jenny Mueller - 4 Minute Speech - "Cults: Following the Leader," Jama Jacak - Poetry - "Black Selections" and Amy Sekas - Poetry - "Creation."

The 10 students receiving "A" ratings will now travel to Madison on April 23, to compete in the state meet.

Helsell Named CF Bike-A-Thon Chairperson

The Wisconsin Cystic Fibrosis Foundation has appointed the following chairpersons to lead annual Bike-A-Thons in their respective communities: Dennis Helsell, and the Kewaskum Jaycees, Kewaskum; Joe Klotz, and the Campbellsport Jaycees, Campbellsport.

The appointments were made by Robert L. Gilpatrick, President of the Wisconsin Chapter, who noted that funds raised in the event will support research and treatment programs of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The principal goal of research is to find a cure for cystic fibrosis (CF), the number one genetic killer of children and young adults in the United States. Every day, every five hours, a child is born with CF and every day, every eight hours someone died from CF.

The Wisconsin Chapter is one of 73 Cystic Fibrosis Foundation Chapters in the country. The Foundation's mission is to find the means for the prevention, control and effective treatment of cystic fibrosis. In addition to providing annual research grants to study the causes of the currently incurable disease, the Foundation also supports a network of 128 CF Centers nationally. Two of these are located in Wisconsin at Milwaukee Children's Hospital and the University of Wisconsin-Madison Hospitals. These CF Centers specialize in diagnosis and medical care for CF patients, as well as services for CF families.

"We hope to get the full participation of many residents in the event," said Gilpatrick. "Together with the hundreds of other volunteers working on similar fund raising events throughout Wisconsin, we can make a strong impact on the fight to conquer cystic fibrosis."

BABIES BAPTIZED AT HOLY TRINITY

Recent baptisms at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Kewaskum, included Crystal Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Kuehl; Rhonda Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Williams; Danielle Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wietor; Jeffery Adam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery Waala; Timothy James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schneider; Amy Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Piwoni.

Kellow Named Ad Director At Regal

Richard A. Kellow

Regal Ware, Inc. has announced the appointment of Richard A. Kellow as Director of Advertising. Kellow will be responsible for all corporate and consumer advertising, sales promotion and public relations functions, including development of all television and print advertisements, sales aids, packaging and point-of-purchase materials.

A graduate of the Philadelphia College of Art, Kellow has over 20 years experience in advertising and marketing, working most recently as marketing services manager for a national equipment manufacturer.

A member of the American Marketing Association, Kellow is involved in community affairs. He is a director of the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce, a member of the West Bend Safety Commission and a member of the University Council of the University of Wisconsin - Washington County. In addition, he is active in the Bay Lakes Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Kellow and his wife, Marilyn, are West Bend residents.

Regal Ware, Inc. is a multi-plant manufacturer of cookware, portable electrics and microwave accessories headquartered in Kewaskum.

Auxiliary Police To Conduct Door to Door Cancer Drive

On Saturday and Sunday, April 3 and 4, the Kewaskum Auxiliary Police will be going from door to door in the Village of Kewaskum to assist the Washington County Unit of the American Cancer Society in its annual drive.

The men will be distributing information on services available to patients, families, and friends whose lives might be affected by cancer. They will also afford all of us a chance to contribute to do our part to fight this disease.

The men are all volunteers who are doing this because they believe in it. They will be in uniform to identify them. Please do whatever you can to make this a success.

Free Blood Pressure Clinic Here April 14

RALPH HORNER
Kewaskum School Board Candidate

- A resident of the school district since 1956
- The father of three children — two now in school, one starting this fall
- Very concerned about our children's education
- Opposed the large administrative salary increases of 1981-1982
- Sounded the alarm on the effects of the federal budget cuts on local property taxes
- Called for budget cuts in order to give taxpayers some relief
- We can have 'true value' education [a quality education and some relief for the property taxpayers]
- We need new and innovative approaches to the school board budget
- The taxpayers should have a right to speak at board meetings without being 'put down'
- For your ideas
- For your vote

SENTRY
FOOD STORES

Campus Day in County to Be Held in Evening

Do you work during the day? Have you found it impossible to attend Campus Day in previous years because it was held only during the day? Then this is the year to attend Campus Day. Campus Day is an annual event sponsored by the Ozaukee and Washington County, UWEX Offices. A wide variety of stimulating courses are offered.

This year, six classes will be held on the evening of April 13. The courses being offered include:

Quick Camp Cookery — This workshop/demonstration will cover nutrition and food preparation for outdoor cookery, including the use of freeze-dried foods for individuals and/or group campsite cooking. There will be audience participation and food samples. The class will be taught by Julie Ann Lickteig, Registered Dietician from Cardinal Stritch College.

Stress and Techniques of Coping — Stress identification and management. Inventory of life changes and their stress. Assessment of wellness. Preventive measures as well as training in effective techniques of managing stress. This evening session will be taught by Asuncion Miteria Austria, PH.D., Psychology Department at Cardinal Stritch College.

Maintaining Plants in Your Yard — Many homeowners are concerned about properly selecting, planting and maintaining the plants in their yards. This course is designed to help you keep your trees, shrubs and lawn in healthy condition. Class will be instructed by Dan Wilson, Horticulture/Resource Agent at UWEX, Washington County.

Traditional Images of Women — Throughout history, women's role has been that of an object and has been influenced by society, religion, psychology and science. Awareness of these influences is vital for breaking free from those determiners of our identity. Instructor: Linde Plagman, PH.D., English Department at Cardinal Stritch College.

Coping with Death and Taxes — What happens if a person dies without a will? What provisions should be included in a will? These answers plus information on inheritance and estate taxes, combined with basic estate planning will be discussed by Attorney Elaine Shanebrook.

Music in Early American Colonial Culture — This class will cover musical usage of the colonies of the American Eastern sea-board, beginning with the Pilgrims, Puritans, Southern Colonies and into the Revolutionary Period. Instructor for the class is Sister Noreen Zehnpfenning, Asst. Prof in the Music Dept. at Cardinal Stritch College.

Registration for any of the above classes is $2.50 and must be made prior to April 2. The session will be held from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Registration forms are available from the U.W. Extension Office, Court House Annex II or by calling 338-4479; 644-5204 or 342-2929.

J & J AUTO TOPICS
COST LESS PER MILE
The oil filter is the most important accessory of your automobile's engine. It keeps dust, dirt and sludge from getting into the crankcase oil, thereby allowing smooth lubrication of bearings and cylinder walls. Without this protection the accumulated grit in the oil would be acting like sandpaper, wearing into the important metal and life of your car.
Even the best of filters become clogged with impurities after four or five thousand miles and should be changed. J & J AUTO SERVICE specializes in checking this important part of the automobile, and would like to be of service to you. The drive over to 450 E. Main for these important auto services will keep your mile-to-mile travel cost lower than you ever experienced before. We may look like just another filling station, but let us prove that we can do a lot more for you.

VOTERS' STATEMENT

We, concerned residents of the Kewaskum School District, urge every registered voter to cast their ballot on April 6, 1982. We urge you to consider each candidate carefully in regard to his or her commitment to the education of our children.

Though all of us would like to see our taxes lowered, we feel cuts should be made in areas least affecting the learning and growing process of our children. Once programs and services are cut, it is very unlikely that they would be restored at a later date.

With our vote on April 6, we intend to choose JOAN ROSENBERGER and GERALD SECOR, who will place the education of our children first. Above all, we intend to VOTE and urge everyone in our district to join with us to keep a school system of which we all can be proud.

Rabbit Raising for Beginners Workshop

Rabbit raising for beginners will be the topic of a workshop on Wednesday, April 7, at 7:45 p.m. at the University Wisconsin-Extension meeting room, 515 East Washington Street in West Bend. It is intended especially for 4-H members and parents in the rabbit project. However, anyone that is interested in getting the basics on rabbit raising is invited.

Stan Hahn, the county 4-H rabbit project leader and several members will start the program by demonstrations with several breeds of rabbits. At 8:30, Professor John Skinner U.W. Small Animal Specialist, will be on the program by way of the Education Telephone Network (ETN). He will be discussing basic rabbit management including nutrition, breeding, equipment, and housing. Participants will also be able to ask questions.

Rabbit raising is one of the more important animal projects in Washington County with almost 100 members enrolled. Raising an animal such as a rabbit can teach a youth many things. He gets to know the needs of regular feeding and care. A member also quickly learns responsibility in caring for animals.

The principals of genetics and inheritance can be quickly learned with small animals.

Several generations can be observed within a relatively short time.

Raising rabbits can be a good project. It can be a hobby to raise the animal as pets or they can be used for commercial purposes.

To the Editor:

I have heard some complain that my campaign for a seat on the Kewaskum School Board has been a rather negative one. I do not think so and I question those that charge it has:

Is it negative to oppose the 1981-82 raises for the administration that ranged from 11.4% to 14.8%? Is it negative to oppose another round of administration raises for 1982-1983 to the tune of $24,000? Is it negative to wonder how that by giving these huge raises to administration our children's education has improved even one iota?

If some think this is negative, then I am and will continue to remain so.

Is it negative to oppose school board meetings that are finally opened to the public after 10:00 at night? Is it negative to feel that it is wrong for administrators to shout down, belittle, or otherwise insult a taxpayer expressing his opinion?

If some think this is negative, then I am and will continue to remain so.

Is it negative to sound the alarm on what the federal budget cuts will ultimately do to the property taxpayers? Is it negative to say that we can provide a quality education for our children and also have some relief for the taxpayers?

If some think this is negative, then I am and will continue to remain so.

To those who want some positive statements I maintain:

I am the one with the Positive attitude when I present the statement that we can provide a quality education for our children and at the same time provide some relief for the taxpayers. It is negativism that says we can not have both. It is negativism that says that if you emphasize quality, your program costs will go up. It is negativism that says "if you emphasize cost effectiveness and taxpayer relief the quality of education will slip. Maybe people who think so negatively don't have any idea of what a quality education is. Or how to achieve it. They think quality means spending more and more money on more and more programs. It is a positive statement to say that quality means putting the right programs in place, in the right way in the first place, and putting them in at the right costs. It is a positive statement to say that quality also means discontinuing any programs that are no longer the right programs in the right place at the right costs.

Quality education is not provided by spending more and more money. Either the quality is there or it isn't. You don't necessarily make it any better by spending more money.

Quality education from a commitment - that of the Board to assure that the programs are the right ones and that they are cost effective; that of the administration to implement the thought and directions of the Board and not the reverse; that of the teachers to do the very best job they can with the resources provided; that of the parents to support the teachers and school system; and lastly that of the students themselves to cooperate and diligently apply themselves.

Dear Editor:

Please print the following open letter.

Dear Joan Rosenberger:

In your letter to the editor, dated March 25, 1982, the opening sentence read, "You are wrong." I respectfully submit, it is YOU and your source of information that are in error. The Advanced Placement Program CAN be offered to high school students without an enormous expenditure, but with a real benefit of solid educational advancement.

The Advanced Placement Program has been offered here in West Bend with no need for an increase in the professional staff. The cost of additional teaching aides (to use your words) has been minimal. For instance, last year the science department had to include an additional $1500.00 in the budget to implement the teaching of Advanced Placement Biology; when divided between the two high schools (East and West) it amounts to $750.00 per school. Seven hundred-fifty dollars for 17 students in each school, amounts to roughly $45.00 per student. Considering the difference in enrollment size between Kewaskum High School and West High School, you may find that only 8 students in Kewaskum will take Advanced Placement Biology. The total expenditure, if such were the case, would be $360.00. This doesn't seem to be a cost factor that would drive the school system into debt. Costs outside of the science area, in disciplines such as English, have been little or nothing; the instructor was involved in advanced work, and the outlay for additional equipment wasn't necessary.

As to benefit, graduates have returned from their first year at such schools as Marquette, UW-Milwaukee, UW-Madison, WSU-Whitewater, WSU-Eau Claire, and WSU-Oshkosh, elated over being able to have placed out of basic courses in English and math - with credit. They felt it was an advantage to be able to proceed to higher level courses and not receive a repetition of concepts covered at the high school level. They didn't mind the cost savings either.

As to Universities differing in the scores they will accept or not accept, this is true; they do differ. However, on a scale of 1-5, if you score a 3 or 4 you will have an excellent opportunity for placement at most Universities here in Wisconsin. If you need additional information concerning scores and what level of score is accepted at each University, Mr. Paul Lupton, who is in charge of the Advanced Placement Program at the high schools, would be most happy to help you.

Mrs. Rosenberger, your remarks (to use your words) are a "GROSS EXAGGERATION," and a misrepresentation of the facts. You would do well to examine the excellent potential that exists at the high school level of professional educators - especially your own staff at Kewaskum High School. I know many of them personally, and have worked with them. I find them to be dedicated, intelligent professionals that would provide Kewaskum youngsters with an excellent Advanced Placement Program.

Just one final note Mrs. Rosenberger, please do your homework BEFORE coming to school. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Instructor, Farley

Dear Editor:

Before the Kewaskum District voters go to the polls Tuesday I would like to set some voters straight on my fiscal policy. One person told me that he was afraid I would add new programs if elected. The fact that I'm not playing the political game of telling people that I'll lower the budget, does not mean that I plan to raise the budget. I've been honestly trying to explain why it will be extremely difficult for anyone to lower the budget without sacrificing educational quality.

I am a fiscal conservative and if elected I will look for places to save, but when one has a lean piece of meat it is hard to cut fat or "frills." If elected I'll be happy to talk to all district residents and research any suggestions made and if feasible try to implement them.

Sincerely,

Joan Rosenberger

An Open Letter to
Mrs. Rosenberger:

Mrs. Rosenberger, YOU are the one who is wrong about the Advanced (not "Advance") Placement program; Mr. Spoerl, as usual, is correct. The misinformation you promulgated could be attributed to mere campaign rhetoric, but I fear that students and their parents may be misled.

Suffice it to say, Advanced Placement does not have to cost more money, the vast majority of universities including the entire University of Wisconsin system accept at least part of the program, and students may receive more than a semester's worth of college credit.

Evidently you misunderstood the information Mr. Baldwin, your UWWC source of information, gave you. If facts elude you, fiction should not be substituted. Do your homework, Mrs. Rosenberger.

To The Editor:

Unemployment rampant! Gehl's close doors for a month! Regal Ware has a layoff! Weaslers operating at low ebb! Milk prices down! Lack of employment and underemployment!

August, 81 - Administrators salaries at Kewaskum High School raised average of $3500. Secor votes for this raise. March, 82 - (7 months later) administrators salaries at Kewaskum High School raised again an average of $3500. Secor again votes in favor of these excessive raises!

In fact, Mr. Secor always votes in favor of any and all spending.

Mrs. Rosenberger advocates more guidance counselors and agrees with past spending of the board including the "In house computer toy for the administration" at $75,000 for starters.

Cuts in the budget are made by all other schools in the area, but not Kewaskum!

Has Mr. Secor ever voted against any administration spending? Never!

I will cast my vote for Spoerl and Horner to bring a little fiscal responsibility to the board.

Retired Taxpayer, trying to hold my head above water.

To the Editor:

As a resident of the Kewaskum School District, I have been most interested in the comments and questions contained in the "Letters to the Editor" of the Kewaskum Statesman concerning the upcoming School Board election. I am patiently waiting for Mr. Spoerl to answer the questions asked by Gerald Buchen in the Statesman, Friday, Feb. 26, 1982. There are many parents and students who are confused as to which activities Mr. Spoerl considers "frills." We would like Mr. Spoerl to be very specific in his reply.

I would also like to know why Mr. Spoerl was unavailable for the Voter's Forum. When you become a candidate, busy as your schedule may be, every effort should be made to appear before the district voters. If Mr. Spoerl chooses to stay away from a voter forum, then his statements should not be printed in newspapers.

Concerning Mr. Spoerl's statements, I find it interesting that Mr. Spoerl's written statements are so much more eloquent than his spoken statements. When I have observed him speaking at various school board meetings, I have never heard anything close to such word combinations as "scholastically advanced," "insures the retention," "ongoing assistance," "athletic endeavors," and others I find in his letters to the editor.

If Mr. Spoerl pays no taxes to our schools, I, too, believe vengeance is the key motive for his candidacy. If Mr. Spoerl had been allowed to continue punching in before he actually began working, where would the line have been drawn for other personnel?

To those of you who support Mr. Spoerl, I hope you will carefully consider all the facts. Is Mr. Spoerl your answer to continued quality education or are you interested in helping him gain revenge? If he gains his revenge, how will that help our children?

Think carefully before you vote!

To the Editor:

As an employer of John H. Spoerl, a candidate for the Kewaskum School Board, I can strongly endorse him.

John is a good employee. He has plenty of common sense and isn't afraid to use it. It is typical of John that while others are attacking him, he continues discussing the issues. He is responsible and reliable. When an emergency, such as illness, arises, John, like a good neighbor, is willing to help well beyond his usual commitment. The Kewaskum School District could only benefit from having John H. Spoerl on the school board.

To the Editor:

Voters of the Kewaskum School District, knowing whom we should elect to the Kewaskum School Board April 6 becomes clear once we ask ourselves some questions. Do we want tax relief? If so, vote for Spoerl and Horner. Do we want innovative programs without increased costs? If so, vote for Spoerl and Horner. Do we feel that a good school district can be improved? If so, vote for Spoerl and Horner. Do we want our representatives to display a sense of fairness and common decency? If so, vote for Spoerl and Horner. Do we want people who can think for themselves (unlike the incumbent who, for as long as we have followed the doings of the School Board, has not differed with the superintendent's position)? If so, vote for Spoerl and Horner. Do we want people who know the issues, who understand the current economic conditions, and who are willing to work for us? If so, Spoerl and Horner, numbers one and three on the ballot, are the candidates who deserve our votes. The choice is yours. Vote April 6.

Sincerely,

Mr. & Mrs. Robert G. Serwe

To the Editor:

As the Kewaskum School board election approaches, it is clear that the candidates have divided themselves into two political camps - Joan Rosenberger and Gerald Secor, liberal spendthrifts and Ralph Horner and John Spoerl, fiscal conservatives. With today's economy, we need people on the Board who can make intelligent decisions which will hold the line on taxes without sacrificing educational quality. We plan to vote for Ralph Horner and John Spoerl on April 6 and encourage you to do the same.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Retzlaff

Kewaskum Statesman

Kewaskum, WI 53040

Dear Editor:

As a fairly recent graduate of Kewaskum High School, it is with great interest that I am following this year's school board elections. It should be noted, however, the only source of information on the election I receive is from the Kewaskum Statesman and verbally from my family, since I am attending college away from the Kewaskum area. However, I personally find the communities reactions to a few of the candidate's platforms causing me to worry for the students presently enrolled at the high school. Many people seem to want their candidate to make drastic cuts in the school budget, however, this would be a large error concerning your children's education's and futures.

Attending any university will show you quite clearly that the students succeeding there, were usually the ones that were involved in extra-curricular activities back in their high school years. If not given the chance, these students will never be able to gain the leadership qualities and confidence in themselves these activities are capable of giving. As noted in a letter to the editor in last week's paper, only 2.8% of the school budget is used for these extra-curricular activities so necessary for a high school student. This recently former student of KHS is asking the community to use their vote in a way as not to jeopardize the future of my younger brothers and sisters, and all Kewaskum students.

Sincerely yours,

Andrew Strigenz
1980 KHS graduate

To the Editor:

As I have observed throughout the past year, the majority of the votes on the Kewaskum School Board have been 5-2 with Dr. Charles Ogi and Thomas Brigham being the only ones concerned with the reckless spending of the majority of the Board members.

Our economy does not allow for wasted spending of taxpayers' money (like an in-house computer system for administrators' convenience). It's time to give these two men some support for their proposals. Therefore, in order to implement a conservative approach to a quality education, I support John Spoerl and Ralph Horner for the Kewaskum School Board.

Sincerely,

Earl J. Etta

To Editor,

Kewaskum Statesman,

I just couldn't help but laugh about the statement made by Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Connor on March 19th, when they made the statement that "good management doesn't cost, it pays." Let me point out a couple things about management:

1. First you must have good sound management and then only will it start paying off.

2. And good management doesn't come cheap, knowing from experience in that field and these are facts. And the class of '82 complaining about good education. This is up to each student to get the most out of their high school years. I've seen seniors come in the personnel office and couldn't even fill out a simple application. Just remember class of '82, the business world is tough out there. Management doesn't play games anymore, management does what they want. There is no senior going to tell them what to do. Just like Mr. Spoerl said it well, "why not reward our scholastically advanced student?" So the less you get out of 4 years of high school, the less you can expect. Mr. Spoerl had another good point "where a student could benefit from an eight period day." Why not let Mr. Spoerl and Mr. Horner prove their point once.?

Signed,

A Concerned Citizen

To the Editor:

As I sit here reading the March 26 issue of your fine paper, I can't help but to comment on some of the statements pertaining to the upcoming school board election.

I've tried to follow the letters to the editor section to become better acquainted with the issues surrounding this year's election. Most of the letters that support Gerald Secor and Joan Rosenberger also seem to belittle John Spoerl and Ralph Horner.

As I recall, John Spoerl and Ralph Horner face the issues. They speak about ways they know will help our school system as well as give some relief to us overburdened taxpayers.

Now, as this campaign draws to a close, I suppose we will see a multitude of signatures who in essence are trying to support a sinking ship. They could never float on their own, so they latch onto whatever benefits them regardless of the price hard-working people have to pay.

People of the Kewaskum School District; don't be fooled! John Spoerl and Ralph Horner are the only candidates who can give you a platform based on the common sense approach to budgeting, a true commitment to education, and give true guidance to an administration who has lost touch with the public sector as is evident with their huge salary increase.

My vote will definitely go to John Spoerl and Ralph Horner on April 6th.

Letter to the Editor

As a concerned citizen of a community I am proud to live in I am disappointed in the number of articles of criticism rather than compliments. It is evident that it is easier to criticize than to compliment. I feel that a compliment does a lot more good and goes a lot further than any criticism ever does. The only thing a criticism does is make an enemy of one when what we really need are friends. If each and everyone of us would look on life with a more positive attitude rather than a negative one we would very possibly not be in the economic conditions that we are now in. I was proud to see that some of our students that we are providing an education for realized this and took the time to write an article and sign it in what I interpreted as a Thank You. I believe that a good education is a likely possibility of a better tomorrow.

I hope that every one of us will be more thoughtful and be willing to give a Thank You for jobs well done and for this we might see more people willing to run for positions on the school board as well as village and town officials and people who are willing to give a little more of their personal time to make this world a better place to live in. God gave each one of us a brain to use, to make up our own mind so let's not keep telling the next person how he or she should vote.

I personally hope I did not offend anyone by this letter.

Thank You

TO THE EDITOR:

My children have completed their education in Kewaskum and have gone on to experience success in college and in their individual professional careers in education, medicine, law and business. The 48-plus years of education they received here have served them well. They were not blessed with unusual ability. What they had in Kewaskum was a faculty of high quality, a staff of intelligent administrators, an effective school board and a community concerned with the future of their children. Each of these separate entities did their best to provide a sound education for all students and perhaps most importantly, worked together to create an atmosphere for learning.

In recent years it seems to have become popular for some board members and some candidates for election to the board to be more concerned with creating issues or dwelling upon areas which do nothing to promote education. This often serves only to cause strong feelings of animosity, uneasiness and distrust between the above vital groups. The school board should not become a battleground for personal egos or a place to settle vendettas of a personal nature. A school board member should be able to work cooperatively with others and have the ability to reach a conclusion based on the ultimate benefit to both students and community while being aware that every facet of education cannot be measured by a cost in dollars.

The voter doesn't know how effective new members will be until those members have had the opportunity to learn the facts and vote their own judgments. I have never had the pleasure of working with Mrs. Rosenberger, Mr. Horner or Mr. Spoerl and know their qualifications only from what appears in the papers. From personal board experience with Mr. Secor, I have learned he is committed to providing good educational opportunities for Kewaskum students and is knowledgeable about the cost of providing this service. I also believe he is aware of the cost of not providing the best we can for our children and for the children of our friends and neighbors.

Although no longer a voting resident of the district, I am a concerned taxpayer and still interested ten year veteran of the Kewaskum Community School Board. Hopefully all eligible residents will consider their choices carefully before casting their ballots on Tuesday.

To the Editor:

The recent PTO Forum was well attended by school district voters. However, one candidate, Mr. Spoerl, was absent again. A school board candidate that cannot get out and meet and face the voters certainly does not deserve any intelligent person's vote. No one is really sure whether he is really interested in education or really interested in personal vengeance for getting fired from his district job several years ago. Time and time again local civic and KEA groups have invited him to meet with them at any hour but he has a different excuse every time. I for one do not want a person unknown to me to be handling my tax money for the next 3 years.

Editor, The Statesman:

I was "shocked, angered, and disgusted by the intemperate attack" on my husband and myself by John Spoerl's "good friend and neighbor," James Oelhafen. Mr. Oelhafen, you obviously had little grasp of what our letter was actually saying and are guilty in spades of the very tactics of which you have accused us. My husband will not dignify such chicanery with a response, but I feel compelled to defend our name when so viciously maligned.

First of all Mr. Oelhafen, if you will kindly reread our letter, you will clearly see that we did NOT level "a personal attack" nor "pass moral judgement" on John Spoerl. I happen to feel that a candidate's personal qualifications, as they apply to an election, are very much a part of his platform, and so apparently does Mr. Spoerl. His campaign pamphlet listed much personal background information as part of what he feels are his qualifications for office. We merely did the same, presenting the other side of the coin. And in what way you felt we passed "moral judgement" on Mr. Spoerl, completely escapes me. Read our letter again Mr. Oelhafen and you will see we merely stated facts, facts that we feel are important to any candidate's qualifications for office. The information we put forward is all a matter of public record and we were very careful to state it accurately. My husband listened to tapes of previous school board meetings to make sure we were not short-changing Mr. Spoerl with untruths.

You go on to say "all (our) accusations have been made secondhand" because we have not talked to Mr. Spoerl. What does our talking to him have to do with anything. As I said, my husband listened to the tapes so that information (not accusation) wasn't "second-hand." More importantly, we have heard Mr. Spoerl speak and witnessed his antics at School Board meetings. You can't get more first-hand, Mr. Oelhafen. Seems you're the only one disseminating "accusations second-hand."

If the "people from this district believe in fair play and thoroughly disapprove of backbiting," Mr. Oelhafen, then surely these people find your ludicrous statement that we "look down (our) noses at a man who labors for a living" in the poorest of taste and completely despicable. And believe me, we have had many, many calls and comments to this effect from friends and strangers alike. How dare you to presume that we would judge any human being by what he does for a living! Seems to me you are the one who feels "any end to justify the means" and you are the one who "must be desperate to resort to such tactics."

Incidentally, Mr. Oelhafen, all the quotes in this letter belong to you. You have unfairly made us a target in an election we are not involved in, other than as concerned voters. You have hurt us very deeply with your callous remarks and would dignify yourself with an apology.

Carole M. Connor

P.S. We don't like spending such a large portion of our income on taxes any more than the next guy, but feel we must keep our priorities straight. Our children are our most important resource for the future and deserve the best education we can give them. And, yes, a lot of other districts are making cuts, but if you read past the headlines, you will realize that most of the cuts they are making have already been made here or else don't apply to our system. There are districts in Milwaukee that spend over $4,700 per pupil per year, so they have lots of areas in which to cut. We spend $2,623 per pupil per year and don't have that luxury.

To The Editor:

For some time Mr. Horner has been constantly throwing darts at what he indicates to be high Administrative salaries of our school district.

When reviewing our administrators, Mr. Brenholt, Mr. Pearson, Mr. Esser, and Mr. Borch, we find the following information:

Mr. Brenholt has a Masters Degree plus 15 additional post graduate credits. This is equal to 5 1/2 years of College Education.

Mr. Pearson has a Masters Degree plus 35 additional post graduate credits. This is equal to 6 1/2 years of college education.

Mr. Esser has a Masters Degree plus 20 additional post graduate credits. This is equal to 5 1/2 years of college education.

Mr. Borch has a Masters Degree plus 75 additional post graduate credits. This is equal to 8 years of college education.

Along with their many years of schooling we cannot overlook their years of experience. For example Mr. Esser has 25 years teaching and 6 years as an administrator and Mr. Pearson has 10 years teaching and 11 years as an administrator.

After looking at the qualifications of our Administrators I think Mr. Horner should consult his Employer. If they permit, then find out what his company's professional people with comparable years of schooling and years of experience are receiving for a salary. He would probably find the salaries of our Administrators near and in most cases below those of his company.

When this situation occurs it is always best to judge apples with apples, do not compare them to something else. I think it would be wise if Mr. Horner would review his position and his salary and compare it to the education he has for his position; he might find he is over paid.

If Mr. Horner is concerned with education and the activities of the school I feel he should have shown his face for the girls basketball team "Welcome Home" on Sunday, March 14, at the school.

So everyone can understand my point I would like to compare two students who would have graduated in 1981. One person selected to get a degree in Education Administration and the other selected to take a production job at Regal Ware for average salary.

The estimated cost for a college student attending a Wisconsin school is $4000 - $4500 per year. In order for a student to achieve a Bachelors Degree in Administration a minimum of 4 years is required. Should that individual desire a Masters Degree additional schooling is required. After receiving his degree and a position additional credits are needed to improve his position.

Taking Mr. Pearson's qualifications as an example and considering he got his Masters Degree in 4 1/2 years and his 35 post graduate credits were gotten by taking summer courses after taking an Administration position.

Cost of Education	at $4000 per year	- $18,000
35 Post Credits	at $85 per year	- $ 2,975
Total Cost		$20,975

Assuming he worked summers and earned $3000 per summer	- $ 9,000
Total Cost of Ed.	$11,975

After completing his schooling which would be about 1985 he accepted a position for a salary of $24,000, and received salary increases of 8% annually.

The classmate which received average salary at Regal Ware for $8.00 per hour and worked a normal year of 2000 hours without overtime would get an annual salary of $16,000. Let us also see that this fellow gets an 8% annual salary increase.

The big question I have is how long must the college student work before his gross life earnings with his cost of education equals that of the factory worker. The answer is 18 years. Do you think this would encourage better education?

My point as parent, taxpayer and not a member of the faculty is to encourage better education and not discourage it.

TO THE EDITOR:

At the present, the Sheriff is the only public officer or employee in Wisconsin excluded from protection against lawsuits or judgements arising from his official acts. This exclusion is caused by a relatively unknown 134 year old section of the Wisconsin Constitution.

A law exists providing coverage for Deputy Sheriffs. Because "Deputy Sheriff" has at times been declared to be legally the same as "Sheriff," there is a question whether or not Deputy Sheriffs have the same protection as all other public officers and employees. To remove this question, both the 1979-80 and 1981-82 legislatures have approved a change in the Constitution. Their action must now be ratified through the referendum appearing on the April 6th ballot.

We believe all employees should be provided the same protection. In addition, we believe a citizen with a legitimate claim against a Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff should have a means of recovering damages in those instances where a Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff has limited assets from which to satisfy a judgement. A "Yes" vote on the April 6th referendum will guarantee both. It will be a vote for equal treatment.

NOTICE OF REFERENDUM ELECTION April 6, 1982

STATE OF WISCONSIN) Elections Board) ss.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that at an election to be held in the several towns, wards, villages and election districts of the State of Wisconsin, on the first Tuesday of April, A.D., 1982, being the Sixth day of said month, the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin, having been approved by two successive legislatures, will be submitted to a vote of the people pursuant to law:

1981 Assembly Joint Resolution 7
Deposited May 20, 1981
Published May 23, 1981

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION 15

To amend section 4 of article VI of the constitution, relating to county responsibility for the acts of sheriff (2nd consideration).

Whereas, the 1979 legislature in regular session proposed an amendment to the constitution by 1979 Assembly Joint Resolution 99 (Enrolled Joint Resolution 38) and agreed to it by a majority of the members elected to each of the 2 houses, which amendment reads as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4 of article VI of the constitution is amended to read:

[Article VI] Section 4. (1) Sheriffs, coroners, register-officers of deeds, district attorneys, and all other elected county officers except judicial officers and chief executive officers, shall be chosen by the electors of the respective counties once in every two years.

(2) The offices of coroner and surveyor in counties having a population of 500,000 or more are abolished. Counties not having a population of 500,000 shall have the option of retaining the elective office of coroner or instituting a medical examiner system. Two or more counties may institute a joint medical examiner system.

(3) Sheriffs shall hold no other office. They shall be chosen by law to renew their security from time to time, and in default of giving such security their office shall be deemed vacant, but the county shall never be made responsible for the acts of the sheriff.

(4) The governor may remove any elected county officer mentioned in this section, giving to such officer a copy of the charges against him and an opportunity of being heard in his defense.

(5) All vacancies in the offices of sheriff, coroner, register of deeds or district attorney shall be filled by appointment, and the person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold office only for the unexpired portion of the term to which he shall be appointed and until his successor shall be elected and qualified.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the foregoing amendment to the constitution is agreed to by the 1981 legislature; and, be it further

Resolved, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to a vote of the people at the election to be held on the first Tuesday of April, 1982; and, be it further

Resolved, That the question concerning ratification of the foregoing amendment be stated on the ballot as follows:

"County responsibility for acts of sheriff. Shall section 4 of article VI of the constitution be amended to provide that the legislature may, by law, permit or require counties to be responsible for the acts of the sheriff?"

EXPLANATION

Article VI, section 4 of the Wisconsin Constitution now provides that the county shall never be made responsible for the acts of sheriff. This provision has been construed by the supreme court to mean that the county may not be made financially responsible for damages suffered by wrongful acts of the sheriff.

A no vote would not change this provision.

A yes vote would amend this provision of the Wisconsin Constitution to enable the legislature to either permit or require counties to assume financial responsibility for damages suffered by wrongful acts of the sheriff.

I, Gerald J. Ferwerda, Executive Secretary of the State Elections Board, DO HEREBY CERTIFY, that the foregoing proposed Referendum known as 1981 Assembly Joint Resolution 7, 1981 Enrolled Joint Resolution 15 has been compared by me with the published copy of said resolution and the same is a true copy thereof.

GIVEN under my hand and the official seal of the County of Washington, in the City of West Bend, this 22nd day of February, A.D., 1982.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF APRIL ELECTION
April 6, 1982

OFFICE OF WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK
TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a spring election to be held in the several wards in the County of Washington, on the 6th day of April, 1982, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office shall be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of office (and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below.)

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two ballot clerks must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.

At a nonpartisan election, the elector shall place a cross in the square at the right of or depress the button or lever next to the candidate's name for each office for whom he or she intends to vote, or insert or write in the name of his or her choice for a candidate.

On referenda questions, the elector shall make a cross in the square at the right of or depress the button or lever next to the answer which he or she intends to give.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the electors spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initiated by two ballot clerks or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After the official paper ballot is marked, it shall be folded so the inside marks do not show, but so that the printed indorsements and ballot clerks' initials on the outside do show. After casting his or her ballot, the elector shall leave the machine or booth, and where paper ballots are used, give his or her name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand the inspector his or her folded ballot to be placed in the ballot box, deposit any unused ballots in the blank ballot box, and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may be assisted by two election officials of different political parties in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English, or that due to physical disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. Alternatively, an elector making such declaration may have another elector of the county assist in marking the ballot or operating a voting machine. The presiding official may administer an oath to a person making such declaration.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

VOLUNTEERS you can get involved in many valuable ways. Volunteer work is a great way to gain skills and experience to put on your resume for that job that isn't available now. If you have lots of time on your hands right now, volunteering is a great way to share your interest and time in a meaningful and appreciated way. Following is a list of opportunities for volunteer services in Washington County. If you would like to volunteer for one of these services contact the person listed below.

* The West Bend Red Cross would like to find transportation drivers to drive the West Bend Red Cross vehicle. Red Cross orientation is provided. Drivers are needed Monday thru Friday from 8:00 to 5:00 and simply need to hold a current driver's license. Contact Mrs. Jackie Wicklund at 334-5687.

* The Samaritan Home is looking for volunteer pets for a new pet therapy program for communication with elderly residents at the home. Any well behaved and friendly farm animals or pets would qualify. The pets are needed Wednesdays from 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. and the owner need not be present at the sessions. Have your owner call Lori Long at 338-4500.

* Sandy is 23 and lives in a foster home in Kewaskum. She would really like to meet and get to know another woman to share her recreational time with. Sandy could really benefit from a friendship in which she could share talks about personal grooming, interests and feelings. If you would like to know more about a 1 to 1 relationship as a volunteer, contact Sue Moser at the Citizen Advocacy Program at 334-3384.

This column is a service of the Organization for Professional Exchange Now (O.P.E.N.) Volunteer Committee. Non-profit agencies that would like an item in this column can contact Susan Moser, Volunteer Committee Chairperson, 551 Silverbrook Drive, West Bend, Wisconsin 53095, or call 334-3384.

Campus Notes

Certificates of commendation are being mailed to about 1,100 students at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point who earned high academic grade-points during the fall semester that ended in December.

Chancellor Philip R. Marshall said students with grade-points from 3.90 (B plus) to 4.0 (straight A) are designated as scholars of highest honor. High honor citations are going to students with grade-points from 3.75 to 3.89, and honor citations will go to students with grade-point averages from 3.5 to 3.74.

One hundred and thirty-six students in the highest honor category have received straight A averages.

Following is the list of honor students from this community:

Bonnie Ladwig, 8434 Wesley Ct., Kewaskum, honors; Nancy Janous, 261 Railroad St., Campbellsport, honors; Jean Koch, Rt. 1, Box 250, Campbellsport, honors; Michael Krueger, Rt. 2, Campbellsport, honors; Margaret Lang, 206 N. Fond du Lac Ave., Campbellsport, highest honors.

Mary Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Ryan, Littleton, Colorado, formerly of Kewaskum, has been named to the Dean's List for academic excellence for the fall semester, 1981, at Mount Mary College, Milwaukee. A grade point average of at least 3.6 on a scale of 4.0 is required for this honor.

Ms. Ryan is a senior with double majors in general business and integrated home economics.

There have been 1,457 students named to the Honors List for the fall semester at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, announced Dr. Larry Schnack, UW-EC acting vice chancellor.

To be eligible for the honor, a student must receive at least a 3.5 grade-point average (where 4.0 equals A) for 12 credits or more of college credit courses.

There were 544 seniors, 319 juniors, 312 sophomores, and 282 freshmen who qualified for the honor.

UW-EC Honors List students from this area include John Harvey Dettmann, junior, from 9388 Bolton Drive, Kewaskum.

University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh officials have announced the names of undergraduate students named to the Dean's List and Honor Roll for the 1981-82 fall semester which ended January 22.

To qualify for the honor roll a student must be taking not less than 12 credits and have a grade point average of 3.3 and above, based upon 4.0 being a perfect or straight "A" average.

UW-Oshkosh students from Kewaskum on the honor roll and Dean's list are:

Sandra L. Beisbier, 1212 Roseland Dr. (Dean's List - Straight "A"); Donna M. Ehner, 1323 Roseland Dr.; Janet A. Matenaer, 2050 Hwy. 28 (Dean's List - Straight "A");

WATER FOR HEADACHE

Drinking water can eliminate a headache in 9 out of 10 youngsters, according to Dr. Ray LaForest, pediatrician at Scarborough Hospital. He attributes 90% of the headaches in school children to dehydration. "A youngster can lose as much as a quart of water during an active gym period." In his studies on 200 children, most headaches disappeared after drinking water. Both children and adults can benefit from the natural cure for headaches — water.

Paul Backhaus, 73, well known farmer of the Town of Kewaskum, residing on Route 2, one mile east of the village, was killed almost instantly March 22, in a car-truck collision on Highway 28, one-half mile east of Kewaskum. His wife, the former Minnie Klein, survives along with one daughter, Florence (Mrs. Albert Stange).

The Village of Kewaskum, although much smaller than most cities visited by presidential candidates, was host to its second Republican candidate for president on Wednesday, when Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, and president of the University of Pennsylvania visited our little city.

Peace Lutheran Church in Milwaukee was the setting Saturday for rites uniting in marriage Miss Lucille Scheerer and Byron R. Dei, Seaman First Class, Kewaskum.

Augie Bilgo, guard on Kewaskum's title winning team, copped third highest scoring honors in the northern Lakes basketball league during the season just closed.

Daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Prost, Route 2, Kewaskum, March 23, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jansen, West Bend, March 22. Mrs. Jansen is the former Evelyn Weddig of Kewaskum. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Belger, Route 1, Adell, March 14.

Wednesday evening, the farm residence together with all household furniture and personal belongings of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kuehl of the Town of Wayne, three miles southwest of St. Kilian was completely destroyed by fire. The fire started while Mrs. Kuehl was filling a gasoline lantern, and in some manner the gasoline ignited and rapidly spread. Mrs. Kuehl was very severely burned about the hands and back, that she was not fatally burned is a mystery. In the room at the time of the fire were here three children, her sister, and her mother. All had to flee for safety. Mr. Kuehl was busy in the barn doing the evening chores. The loss is estimated at $6,000, partially covered by insurance.

The following students in the Kewaskum primary room had perfect attendance the past month: Harriet Backhaus, Patricia Brauchle, Laverne Terlinden, Evelyn Weddig, Robert Brauchle, Homer Schaub, Allen Bruessel, George Hart and Willard Manthei.

The local Forensic Contest will be held at the high school on April 13. The participants include: Wilmer Klahn, Lester Bartel, Earl Kohler, William Harbeck, Gladys Schleif, Lorraine Habeck, Retha Jane Rosenheimer, Ione Schmidt, Beulah Schaub, Florence Westerman, Ruth Heppe, Evelyn Schaefer, Charlotte Lay, Celesta Backhaus, and William Martin.

Now that the ice is gone and the weather is warming up, some of the local fishermen have had very high fever. One day last week John Andrae, Jr., while spearing in the river near John Staehler's place, speared a carp that weighed 27 pounds. This is the largest carp speared in this community. Roman Smith, a few weeks ago, speared one that weighed 23 pounds.

The farm house of John Aupperle, formerly known as the George Aupperle place, Town of Scott, was destroyed by fire on Thursday afternoon.

75 Years Ago

March 30, 1907

Last Sunday afternoon a fire broke out in the J. W. Schaefer residence on Main Street which threatened the destruction of the building for awhile. The fire started in a clothes closet and all of the family's clothes were burned. How the fire started in the closet is not known.

The ice on the mill pond went out last Sunday. This is the first time in years that the river and mill pond have been entirely free from ice at this time of the year.

On Thursday, Wenzel Peter of the Town of Wayne purchased the forty acre farm in the above town, known as the Byrne farm from L. Rosenheimer; consideration $3,500.

Christ Rothenberger sold his farm near Wayne to George Kippenhan for $850 last week Friday.

Rosenheimer and Day bought the homestead and land sold by John Koelsch near St. Michaels; consideration $5,500.

Some 500,000 immigrants come to this country every year.

Boat Registration Renewals Sent Out

The Department of Natural Resources' License Section has mailed boat registration renewals to 155,000 boat owners whose registrations expire this March 31.

While the boating season may seem a long way off with the lakes and rivers frozen over at the present time, it does creep up in a hurry, and you are urged to act promptly in renewing your boat registration. That way you'll be all set to go when the ice breaks up and the open water beckons.

Any boat owner whose registration expires this March 31 who did not receive a renewal notice is asked to contact: License Section, Department of Natural Resources, Box 7921, Madison 53707-7921. Telephone: (608)266-2107.

Milk Marketing Meeting in County

Dairy farmers and many others closely involved with the dairy industry are concerned about the future of milk prices and the dairy economy.

Interested persons will have an opportunity to become updated on the situation at a special Milk Marketing Meeting that will be held on Thursday, April 1, from 8:30 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. The meeting will be held in the basement meeting room of the Washington County UW-Extension Office, located in Court House Annex, West Bend.

The program will be presented over the Educational Telephone Network (ETN) system. Professor Robert Cropp, Dairy Marketing Specialist at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville, will be leading the discussion and providing information and update on the current milk marketing situation.

There is no registration charge for the program, but we would encourage anyone interested in attending to contact the Washington County UW-Extension Office at 338-4477, 644-5204 or 342-2929 so that we may have an idea as to how many people are planning to participate to allow arrangements to be made for space and handout materials.

Local FFA chapters will have a unique opportunity to add to their treasuries this year, thanks to a program being sponsored by the FS Supplies Division of GROWMARK, Inc. For each analysis tag clipped from a bag of FS seed corn and returned to a local FS service company, FS will give 50 cents to a local FFA chapter. Wisconsin Association FFA president, Neal Wellner [right], here accepts one of these tags from O. Glenn Webb, chairman of the board of GROWMARK.

Don't be surprised if you get a visit in the near future from a youth clad in a blue and gold FFA jacket inquiring about the analysis tags on those FS seed corn sacks you just received. For that youth, those tags mean cold, hard cash.

Local FFA chapters will have a good opportunity to add to their treasuries this year, thanks to a unique program being sponsored by the FS Seed Division. For each analysis tag obtained from an FS seed corn bag and returned to a local FS service company, 50 cents will be given to a local FFA chapter.

According to Frank Unger, seed marketing services manager for the FS Seed Division, there are several ways the tags can be redeemed.

"The best way is to rip off the top half of the tag and give it directly to someone from a local FFA chapter. You can also give the tag to your local FS service company and tell them who you want the redemption to go to, but we prefer the first method. We'll redeem them both ways, however."

"FS and FFA have had a long association. This is one way we can aid a fine organization like FFA in helping shape tomorrow's farm leaders."

The program will run through July 15, 1982. Money will be returned to the local FFA chapters soon after that.

Musicale at Cedar Lake Home

Proceeds from the Cedar Lake Home Campus' 25th anniversary musicale, "The Life of the Man of Man," will be used towards the purchase of a van equipped with a wheelchair lift. Campus superintendent L. C. Riesch stated recently.

The 8-passenger van will be utilized for residents and community members. The "Cedar Van," as it will be named by the Resident Council, will be ideal for transporting small groups of residents to medical appointments and a variety of off campus activities including shopping outings.

The "Life of the Man of Man," to be presented in the West Bend High School Auditorium April 29 and May 1, is an all new musicale which depicts life from birth through the "golden years." The 200 plus persons involved in the presentation will provide the audience with a fun filled, exceptional learning experience as the joys, sadnesses and successes of living life are portrayed.

Environmental Fish Workshop at Dundee

Whether the topic is water pollution, aquatic critters or worm dunking for lunkers, teachers can learn about "Fish From the Bottom Up," at an environmental education workshop held on two successive Saturdays this spring.

On Saturday, April 24, participants will take a day-long look at stream and lake fish at the Northern Kettle Moraine Ice Age Center located a half mile west of Dundee on Highway 67. Starting with an overview of DNR's fish management program for inland waters, the class will move bankside where environmental educators will show you how to use streams and lakes to, literally, get your students "into" aquatic ecology. You'll wade into Nichols Creek and Lake Ellen (near Cascade) to get first hand experience in conducting ecological research. The session runs 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

On Saturday, May 1, you'll regroup at the big fishin' hole to the east — Lake Michigan. Starting at the Great Lakes Research Facility, 600 E. Greenfield Avenue, Milwaukee, you'll be introduced to Great Lakes ecology and tour this research center. You'll learn that fish aren't the only competitors on the big lake; sport anglers and commercial fishers both vie for Lake Michigan's bountiful harvest of fish. Finally, you'll learn how to tie water ecology, pollution threats and fish together for classroom presentations. The session runs from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Attendants must register for the course by April 9. Enrollment is limited to 30 people. The course may be taken for university undergraduate credit, graduate credit or audited through UW-Green Bay or UW-Whitewater. For registration and information, contact Dr. Dennis Yockers, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707. Phone: (608)266-0870.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT RABIES
By Charles J. Ogi D.V.M.

Although rabies seldom results in human fatalities in the United States, it remains a potentially dangerous public health problem. Each year more than 20,000 Americans undergo rabies treatment as a result of exposure to potentially rabid animals.

Rabies is a usually fatal disease that can affect all warm blooded animals, including humans. Rabies virus is transmitted from animals to humans through the saliva of a rabid animal. Wild animals make poor pets and are a potential rabies threat to their owners and others. Rabies is caused by a virus that attacks the central nervous system, and if the disease is not prevented, causes the death of its victim. Therefore, every pet owner should take the responsibility in helping to prevent rabies outbreaks.

If you or anyone in your family has been bitten, try to have the animal detained, and thoroughly wash the wound with soap and water. Give first aid as to any puncture wound. Call your physician immediately, and report the bite to your veterinarian. Don't kill the animal or allow it to be euthanized unless so advised by public health authorities or a veterinarian. Don't let the animal stray or give it away. It must be available for observation. Check with your veterinarian to see if your animal has a current rabies vaccination. If the rabies vaccination is not current, consult your veterinarian about having your animal vaccinated for rabies.

Remember, the main thrust of rabies control is prevention. Be certain your animals are vaccinated and that these vaccinations are up to date.

Washington County Mental Health Association Announces Scholarships

The Washington County Mental Health Association will be granting two (2) $300 scholarships this year, to individuals who are pursuing or who will be pursuing a career in the field of mental health.

The need for qualified, well trained individuals in the field of mental health continues to exist. A mental health career demands special persons with exceptional skills. If you know of anyone who plans on pursuing such a career in 1982, please encourage them to apply for our scholarships.

Any high school senior or adult interested in entering some phase of mental health work will be eligible. Social work, work with the mentally handicapped or emotionally disturbed, psychological work, psychiatric nursing, and work in the area of learning disabilities are a few examples of mental health occupations. Aptitude for your chosen work should be demonstrated, and Washington County residency is required.

Applications must be received by April 15 by Washington County Mental Health Association Scholarship Committee. Scholarship recipients will be notified of the results by mail during the week of April 19, 1982.

To apply, simply contact your guidance counselor at your high school, or contact any of the persons listed below:

Mr. Dale Thomas, Scholarship Chairman, The Threshold, Inc., West Bend, WI 53095.

Mrs. Beverly Johnson, Slinger High School, Slinger, WI 53086.

Ms. Pat Schaff, Washington High School, Germantown, WI 53072.

Mr. Wayne Hammond, Hartford High School, Hartford, WI 53027.

Congressional Redistricting Accepted by Sensenbrenner

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Mar. 29 - U. S. Rep. F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr. today announced his acceptance of the Congressional redistricting plan signed into law by Governor Dreyfus last week. He issued the following statement:

"I am very pleased the Governor finally has approved a Congressional redistricting plan. It has been a long and difficult process which has been hard on everyone involved.

"As for the changes the new plan makes in my district, which I believe are fair and reasonable, I understand the necessity of them because of the population shifts in the Milwaukee area and I accept them. However, I do regret the loss of the communities of Brown Deer, Glendale, Shorewood, Waukesha, New Berlin, Muskego, and Big Bend. I have had the honor and pleasure of representing the people of these communities since 1979, and have enjoyed serving them and working with them.

"I particularly regret the loss of Shorewood, where I have lived since 1955 and which I have represented in the Legislature or Congress continuously since 1969. However, I am hopeful the special relationships I have with many people in Shorewood will continue nonetheless.

"However, I feel it is my duty to continue serving the new Ninth District, the large majority of which I have served for over three years. To do so, I intend to move my residence, now in Shorewood, to a new location within the new boundaries of the district. This cannot happen immediately, however, for my wife, Cheryl, and our infant son, Jimmy, are not yet able to travel and join me in finding a new home. We will do this as soon as possible, and hope everyone understands the reason for the delay."

Farmington Brownie Troop No. 40
Visits Children at Threshold

This winter 8 brownies from Troop No. 40 from Farmington went with their leaders to the Threshold in West Bend. They visited the children enrolled in the Pre-school program and presented them with animals and little toys they made themselves. The girls really enjoyed watching the children play with the toys. They were also given a tour of the building, and were able to see the "living experience classroom" that looks like a real apartment and also see where the people work at the Threshold. It was truly a caring and sharing experience for the girls.

President John Tyler had 15 children.

RECYCLED MATERIALS
— A Way to Save Energy —

By Recycling Committee
Kewaskum Jr. Woman's Club

Over the years the Kewaskum Recycling Center has recycled 3/4 ton of aluminum. We take in mostly aluminum cans, TV trays, foil and occasionally some aluminum siding scraps. All our aluminum is sorted, all out aluminum cans, and placed in large clear plastic bags. It is then trucked to West Bend where Reynolds Aluminum Co. operates a mobile collection site. There the aluminum is weighed and we are paid 23 cents per pound. From this point on I will be telling how Reynolds Aluminum handles the aluminum. The process is basically the same for all the major companies.

The Reynolds mobile collection truck takes its load of aluminum to the recycling plant in Milwaukee. At the recycling plant the metal passes through a magnetic separator to eliminate any stray steel cans. It then moves to a shredder where the aluminum is reduced to popcorn-size chips to remove moisture and reduce its volume. Now the chips are transported to a smelting plant.

At the smelting plant the chips are fed into to specially designed furnaces to be melted. During the melting process, the furnace burns off any coatings on the can chips and other foreign matter and turns the chips to molten metal. The aluminum is then tapped from the furnace and poured into large crucibles for transport into the fabricating plant. The molten metal is poured into production furnaces and cast into sheet ingots. These ingots are rolled into sheet for manufacture into new aluminum products.

Recycled metal targeted for new aluminum cans is rolled into a continuous coil sheet for transfer to an aluminum can plant. Reynolds, using a unique draw and iron process, then produces new cans just like those which were brought to our center-only this time at a significant energy and materials savings.

By recycling aluminum over and over, 95% of the energy required to make it originally is saved each time it is recycled with no loss in quality.

Recycling aluminum is one way we can all help during this energy crisis. Remember 95% of the energy is saved by using recycled aluminum over raw materials. Please next time you are tempted to throw away that aluminum can, think twice and then Recycle It.

Goodwill Makes Urgent Appeal for Useable Materials

Goodwill Industries, Milwaukee Area, Inc. is making an urgent appeal to the public for donations of useable materials.

"Our collection of materials has dropped steadily since December," said Dennis Kolacinski, Director of Operations for the rehabilitation agency. "We attribute the problem to the severe weather," he said.

Clothing and household items that are collected are processed at the Milwaukee rehabilitation center, providing job opportunities for the disabled.

"If our donated goods program does not improve in the very near future, it could mean the lay-off of disabled workers," said Kolacinski. "We have tried different avenues in search of these goods, and are running into many stumbling blocks, he said. "We need these materials if we are to keep our people on the job."

Goodwill Industries, located on the northwest side of Milwaukee works with almost 500 disabled persons each day, providing skill training, day services and sheltered work opportunities to handicapped members of the community.

For the location of your nearest Contributailer or drop-box, contact Goodwill at 353-6400. All contributions are tax deductible.

Facsimile Ballot Notice of Village Election Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin

April 6, 1982

Notice is hereby given of a village election to be held in and for the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, on the sixth day of April, 1982, at which the officers named below shall be chosen.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of electors:

(a) Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his name and address before receiving the ballot from the ballot clerk. The initials of 2 ballot clerks must appear on the ballot. Upon receiving the ballot, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth and mark his ballot. A ballot clerk may inform the elector of the proper manner for marking a ballot, but he shall not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.

(b) To vote for a person whose name is printed on the ballot, make a cross (X) or mark in the square after the name of the person for whom you desire to vote. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on the ballot, write the name in the blank space provided for the purpose.

(c) The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot, he shall return it to an election official who shall issue another in its place, but not more than 3 ballots shall be issued to any one elector. Not more than 5 minutes' time shall be allowed to mark the ballot. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

(d) After the official ballot is marked, it shall be folded so the inside marks do not show but so the printed indorsements and ballot clerks' initials on the outside do show. After folding the ballot, the elector shall leave the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him the ballot to be placed in the ballot box, and leave the polling place promptly.

(e) An elector may be assisted by 2 election officials of different political parties in marking the ballot if he declares to the presiding official that he is unable to read or that due to physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot. If an elector declares that he is visually handicapped, he may have anyone assist him in marking his ballot. The presiding official may administer an oath as to a person's disability.

(f) Any qualified elector who is absent, or expects to be absent from the village in which he is a qualified elector, or who, because of sickness or physical disability cannot appear at the polling place on election day, may vote at such election by means of an absent voter's ballot to be secured upon application to the Village Clerk, not more than sixty days and no less than three days, or by personal application, not later than the close of office hours on the day prior to such election.

(g) The following is a sample of the official ballot:

Official Village Ballot

NOTICE TO ELECTORS: This ballot is invalid unless initialed by 2 election officials serving as ballot clerks. If cast as an absentee ballot, the ballot must bear the initials of the municipal clerk.

To vote for a person whose name is printed on the ballot, make a cross (X) in the square after the name of the person for whom you desire to vote. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on the ballot, write his name in the blank space provided for that purpose.

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO REQUEST A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE DESIGN ASPECTS OF THE PROPOSED IMPROVEMENT OF STATE TRUNK HIGHWAY 28 BETWEEN USH 41 and USH 45 WASHINGTON COUNTY

All interested persons are advised of an opportunity to request a public hearing by the Wisconsin Department of Transportation to consider the detailed design aspects of the proposed improvement of State Trunk Highway 28, between US Highway 41 and US Highway 45, in Washington County. The proposed improvement consists of regarding the existing roadway on its present alignment, constructing a new base and recycling the bituminous pavement.

Federal-aid highway funds may be used as part of the financing of the proposed improvement, and accordingly an opportunity is being afforded to all interested persons to request that a public hearing be held.

An informational meeting will be held from 11:00 AM - 10:00 PM on April 6, 1982 at the Kewaskum High School. District staff members will be available to discuss the project, environmental assessment, property acquisition matters and project scheduling.

Information concerning the proposed improvement is also available at the Department's District Office in Waukesha. (phone 548-5958).

An environmental assessment of the proposal's impacts and effects has been prepared and filed according to the State and National Environmental Policy Acts. This document indicates that no significant environmental impacts are anticipated to occur as a result of this improvement. Copies of this document are available for inspection and copying at the following locations:

District No. 2 Office
Wisconsin Dept. of Transportation
310 South West Avenue
Waukesha, WI 53186
Bureau of Environmental Analysis and Review
Wisconsin Dept. of Transportation
4802 Sheboygan Avenue,
Room 951
P.O. Box 7916
Madison, WI 53707

Comments regarding the environmental impacts and effects of the proposed improvements are invited to be submitted to the Department of Transportation by May 3, 1982. Mail to Mary O'Brien, Deputy Director of the Bureau of Environmental Analysis and Review, at the previously named address.

It is not anticipated that the relocation of persons, businesses or farms will occur as a result of the proposed improvement.

Any person interested in or affected by the proposed improvement may request that a formal hearing be held by submitting a written request to the Department's Waukesha District Office. However, before making such a request, persons are encouraged to contact the District Office for the purpose of expressing their views and discussing with the staff those aspects of the proposal that concern them. If a hearing is held, it will consider the detail-

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I hereby certify that the following applicant has applied to the Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, for a Combination Class "B" Fermented Malt Beverage and Intoxicating Liquor License for the period commencing April 6, 1982, and ending June 30, 1982.

Robert Joseph Holub, Jr., 1310 Riverview Drive (formerly John and Dee's). Mr. Holub is presently residing at 519 Misty Meadows Blvd., Hartford, Wis.

The above application will be heard and considered at a public hearing to be held in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street, in the Village of Kewaskum on the 5th day of April, 1982, at 8:00 o'clock P.M. All interested persons will be given an opportunity to be heard.

Nehm Wins Gehl Ag Day Contest

(West Bend) — Monica Nehm, West Bend, took top honors over 50 other Washington County Future Farmers of America members in an essay writing contest sponsored by Gehl Company in recognition of Agriculture Day, March 18.

Contestants wrote on the 1982 Ag Day theme, "Agriculture: It's Your Heartbeat, America." University of Wisconsin - Washington County English instructor Carol Coakley and area dairy farmers Curtis and Betty Scheunemann judged the FFA essays, selecting two winners from each of the county's three FFA chapters.

Gehl Company President John Kamps awarded $100 savings bonds to the three first place chapter winners: Monica Nehm - Slinger FFA, DuWayne Schacht - Kewaskum FFA, and Mary Feller - Hartford FFA. Kamps also presented $50 savings bonds to the second place winners: Tony Wagner - Slinger FFA, Barbara Schulz - Kewaskum FFA, and June Schwendimann - Hartford FFA.

Monica Nehm of the Slinger FFA chapter was awarded the top overall trophy from Gehl Company for her essay entry.

Miss Nehm's winning essay:

"WHY AGRICULTURE CAN BE CALLED THE HEARTBEAT OF AMERICA"

By Monica Nehm
Slinger FFA

Few people listen to, or even think about their own heartbeat. An involuntary muscle, the heart seems to keep us going without ever receiving any assistance from us. Agriculture, the heartbeat of America, is not an involuntary muscle, and yet Agriculture keeps us going. The time has come to put a stethoscope to the heart of the matter and discover just how important Agriculture is to America.

Less than five percent of the population currently feeds the remaining ninety-five percent. A decreasing minority is faced with feeding an increasing majority, and they are doing it with food to spare! This is one of the greatest accomplishments of our modern technological society, and yet people unsympathetically cry, "Food is for people, not profit!" when food prices are driven higher. Agriculture involves more than farming, yet farming and food production are the core of the industry. It must be realized that farming is not an easy job, no matter how you look at it. All businesses are faced with the variables of supply and demand. Farming is an equation with multiple variables: supply, demand, climate, insects, disease, and the all-encumbering and still uncontrollable weather. Next time you eat a bowl of cereal, appreciate the fact that someone was willing to tackle those variables and provide food and fiber for 230 million hungry Americans.

Taking the pulse of American Agriculture, one finds it beating strongly. Following the artery of production back to the farm, one finds dedicated and hearty individuals who recognize Agriculture for what it is. Enroute from farm to factory one finds men and women in occupations ranging from vocational agriculture teachers to veterinarians, and from milk haulers to mechanics. Together, they are the lifeblood of American Agriculture. The Arabs may pump their oil from wells deep in the sand, but in the heart of America is the golden production of Agriculture.

Agriculture runs so fluidly that few people appreciate the long hours of physical labor put into making certain that Americans have the best, most nutritious food possible. When a crisis strikes, hampering the fluidity as surely as a heart attack stops the flow of blood, people are forced to recognize once more that Agriculture is not an involuntary muscle, steadily sending output down the artery of production. Indian Track Teams Split With Plymouth, Drubbed by Hartford

With some of the basketball girls not ready yet after the state tournament, the Kewaskum girls track team still got the 1982 indoor season off to a good start Tuesday by defeating Plymouth here, 61-47. On the other hand the boys, although they had some individual successes, were downed by the Panthers, 74-44.

New girls head coach Jane Vesper, a former assistant coach, has 12 letter winners back. They are: Seniors — Jackie Mueller (hurdles), Barb Matenaer (high jump), Amy Nigh (hurdles and long jump), Vicki Reif (distances), Jill Yearling (high jump), Jenny Zemlicka (weights); juniors — Erika Follman (distances), and Cathy Schlice (sprints); soph — Wendy Wilson (middle distances) and Holly Kempf (weights).

Helping considerably in the victory over Plymouth were Holly Kempf, who was a double winner, plus Wendy Wilson and Karen Volm, who posted personal indoor bests. Kempf took the 45 meter dash in 6.65 and the shot put with a 34-1 3/4 for her best effort yet. Volm was first in the 200 meter dash with a 31.25 and Wilson, only a sophomore, won the 400 meter run with a 1:06.7.

The boys won six of 14 events with letter winners Wayne Boudreau and Brian Johnson taking four of them. Boudreau took both the 1600 and 3200 meter runs, the former in a good time of 5:02.9 for the first meet. Johnson won both hurdle events, the lows in 6.84 and the highs in 7.05.

Stuart Stautz won the pole vault and Monty Shaw started his prep career with a fine 2:19.4 in the 800.

The very young boys teams has just four returning lettermen among the 35 candidates out. They are Wayne Boudreau, the only senior letterman, who runs the 1600 and 3200 meter races, and juniors Mark Rodenkirch (400 and relay), Brian Stautz (pole vault and sprints).

In another indoor meet Thursday here, the Hartford High track teams won impressively over the Indian teams. The Orioles took the girls end of the meet by a 63-37 margin and scored a one-sided 87-31 win in the boys events, even with some of their regular sprinters and distance runners not participating.

Kewaskum managed just three first places, two from ace senior Boudreau, who won the 1600 meter run (5:08.2) and the 3200 meter race (11:20.8). Freshman Monty Shaw again won the 800 in 2:19, just .6 of a second ahead of two Hartford runners. Mark Durian had a personal best of 11' in the pole vault.

For the girls, the Indians' Linda Larsen started out her first meet with a double win in the 200 and 400, and was part of the victorious 16 lap relay, winning because the Oriole quartet was disqualified.

Holly Kempf's 34' in the shot was a highlight for Kewaskum as was Wendy Wilson's 800 meter win.

Holy Trinity A Team Places 2nd In Conference

Friday, March 19, ended the league season for the Holy Trinity School Wildcats at the annual All-Star Game, held here at the Kewaskum High School.

St. Matthew's Campbell-sport, league champions, were thwarted in seeking an unblemished season when the All-Stars, headed by the scoring of Holy Trinity's Tim Rohlinger with 21 points and Ron Theusch's 6 points and C.C.L.T. (Consolidated Congregations of Lomira and Theresa) Kevin Reuter's 12 points, outlasted St. Matthew's, 47-39. Bob Sippel of St. Matthew's was high for the league champs with 23 points.

Holy Trinity's A team finished second in the conference this season, led by a strong inside combination of Tim Rohlinger, averaging 24 points per game, and Ron Theusch with 12 points, followed by Tim Bienger's 7 point average, Jesse Mueller 9 points, Jay Kaross 2 points, and 6th grader Greg Dean with a 6 point average.

Though these statistics are impressive for a few, it is the strong team oriented play of all players that make the opportunities, the unsung heroes as they are called who work hard at both ends of the court and at practice. Among these are Jeff Sevick, Randy Gindt, Bill Nigh and Todd Boegel. It was this hard work and sacrifice that made the team successful.

The other teams making up the Kettle Moraine Catholic Basketball League are St. Matthew's, Campbellsport; Holy Trinity, Newburg; St. Mary's West Bend, and the Consolidated Congregations of Lomira and Theresa (C.C.L.T.).

The Holy Trinity A team and Coach and League Commissioner Oscar Knoeck would like to thank the Holy Name Society of Holy Trinity for their financial support, especially the new warmups, all parents who took time as drivers and monitors, Dick Heisdorf, Jerry Gosa and Tom Timblin for officiating our home games, and Dennis Reha and Roy Ganser, and their cooperation and use of Middle School and High School facilities. Without all this support our program would not be the success it is.

The Holy Trinity B team showed a lot of desire and sportsmanship throughout the season. With the desire these kids have, they should have a great future ahead of themselves. The team consisted of Charlie Castro, Allen Theusch, Bobby Westro, Doug Geidel, Mike Johann, Pat Murre, Russ Volm, Jason Boegel and three all-stars, Noel Stollenwerk, Joe Klahn and Mike Struebing.

Oconomowoc Dumps Lakes Team in Finale

The Kewaskum Lakes basketball teams pulled down the curtain on their 1981-82 Lakes season, as the Oconomowoc Lakes handed them their eighth straight defeat at St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Tuesday night, 144-106, as Tom Checki poured in 38 points. With the victory Oconomowoc clinches third place in the Lakes 'A' Division with a 9-4 record with a makeup game at Slinger left Wednesday night, the final Lakes game of the year. Slinger needed a victory in that game to tie Hartford for first place in the 'B' Division. The loss drops Kewaskum to a 2-13 record and a share of the 'B' cellar with Mayville.

Hot shooting, a blistering fast break, and strong rebounding carried Oconomowoc to their romp over Kewaskum. Actually Kewaskum stayed pretty close in the first half, but a big third quarter put the game away for Coony.

Oconomowoc led 30-26 at the quarter and increased their lead to 64-50 at the half as Checki had 20 first-half points. Leon Laatsch countered with 22 points in the first half for Kewaskum. Then came the disastrous third quarter as Oconomowoc rolled up 47 points, to Kewaskum's 24. Checki had 12 and John Sibley had 10 in the quarter for Oconomowoc. This made the score 111-74, Oconomowoc. The teams played fairly even in the fourth quarter with Oconomowoc having a 33-32 edge. Mike Ferris had eight points in the quarter for Coony, while Laatsch led Kewaskum with 10.

Seven players scored in double figures for Oconomowoc. Besides Checki, Sibley had 22 points, Dave Nelson had 18, and Keith Sindberg 17. Leon Laatsch again led Kewaskum with 37 points. John Slesar had 15 points, Bill Backhaus had 14, and Brian Larsen and Ric Leitheiser each had 12.

Oconomowoc made 10 of 13 free throws for 76.9 percent, while Kewaskum was 16 of 24 for 66.7 percent.

Lakes Team Loses, Wins by Forfeit In Tourney Games

The Kewaskum Lakes basketball team was clobbered by Kugle's Keg of Reedsville, 117-76, in key of their opening game of the Howards Grove Athletic Club tournament Saturday, behind a balanced scoring attack led by Joe Mael's 21 points. Kewaskum then moved into the tournament's consolation bracket and won by forfeit over the Swan Club of De Pere Sunday night as the latter team failed to show up for the 7:00 p.m. game. There was no word as to what had happened to the Swan Club team.

Kewaskum was up against a team loaded with players from UW-Green Bay, UW-Stevens Point, and Ripon College in their opening game on Saturday. Kugle's figures to be one of the stronger teams in the tourney. Kewaskum was both outnumbered and outsized as Kugle's came with a 12-man squad, with a number of players between 6-foot-5 and 6-foot-7.

Kugle's jumped to a 26-15 first quarter lead behind balanced scoring. Leon Laatsch had eight for Kewaskum. They increased their lead to 53-30 at the half as Mael got seven in the second quarter. The lead went to 83-48 after three quarters as Kugle's again got balanced scoring in the third quarter. John Slesar had seven for Kewaskum. It was 34-28 Kugle's in the final quarter as Cam Curtin got six for Kugle's. Bill Backhaus countered with 10 in the quarter for Kewaskum.

Besides Mael, Cam Curtin had 18 points for Kugle's and Casey Zakowski and Pete Zuiker each had 14. Bill Backhaus led Kewaskum with 19 points, while Leon Laatsch added 16 points and John Slesar 11.

Kugle's didn't need free throws in this game as they shot only four, making one, for 25.0 percent. Kewaskum was 14 of 20 for 70.0 percent.

Kewaskum now moves into the consolation bracket semifinals and will play their next game Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

They will play the winner of the game between Mautink's of Oostburg and Fireball Arcade of Oshkosh, which was played Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. If Kewaskum wins their game on Saturday, they would be in the consolation championship game Sunday at 6:45 p.m.
