School Board Meetings - Sign Up or You Don't Speak

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Sign up to speak or hold your peace, seems to cover the new policy established by newly elected School Board President Charles Ogi at Monday night's meeting.

Beginning with the next school board meeting, citizens will have to sign up with Ogi before the meeting and give their name and the agenda issue on which they wish to speak. Ogi said he would no longer recognize citizens from the floor unless they had contacted him prior to the meeting. Citizens who sign up will be given time to speak when the item comes up, but before the issue is discussed by the board. Once issue discussion is begun by the board, the audience will not be allowed to speak or question members on their reasons for taking a particular stand or ask for clarification of any points.

"We've had some kind of noisy meetings with not too much order and it takes so long to complete a meeting," said Ogi. "We welcome anyone to speak on any issue they so choose that's on the agenda," continued Ogi, "but I think it would be appropriate that they would give their names and on what specific item they'd care to speak and we'll give them five minutes or whatever time it takes. I have had people tell me the meeting gets out of hand with a lot of give and take among the audience itself," said Ogi.

Mrs. Diane Buchel asked, "how do you know what you're going to speak on until we've heard some of the comments Doc, you can't close down the discussion." "You know the situation ahead of time," said Ogi. "No we don't, not until the people make their point clear," said Mrs. Buchel "and it's our right to talk at that time." "Certainly you have a right to speak before the meeting, and I have a right to set the rules," Ogi replied.

Gerald Buchel told Ogi that at a previous meeting he had chastised Mr. Brenholt for not letting a member of the public speak their piece, closing them down. "We only have what we read in the paper, the agenda, we have no idea what your discussion is going to be, so how can we put forth our opinions until we hear what you're discussing," Buchel said there was no way the public can know the members' opinions and views until they hear the board's discussion. Board member John Tessar told Ogi, "I think you have to open the meeting."

When the board was asked how they felt about the new policy they noted they had not been consulted by Ogi and he alone had made the decision. They knew nothing about it until Ogi brought it up when the meeting began. Gerald Buchel commented, "are we going to build you a pedestal too?"

KHS Outdoor Concert in Park Sunday

An outdoor concert in the old village park will be presented by the Kewaskum High School Music Department this Sunday, May 16, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. All six of the high school's musical groups will be performing.

After a busy and successful year, the students and directors are really looking forward to this second annual outdoor event. This is the time for the musicians to show their "lighter side" and give entertainment to their families and friends in a beautiful riverside setting.

Opening the concert will be the Girls' Chorus, singing "Day Break," selections from "Little Things that Creep and Crawl and Sometimes Fly," "Where Is Love" and "Ragtime Sing-A-Long." The Girls' Triple Trio will sing the song that earned them a first at state, "Poor Man Lazarus."

The Jazz Band will play the "Theme from Ice Castles," "Soul Man," "Yo-Yo," "Easin" and "Cashmere."

The Swing Choir will follow with "Medley of Country Music," "Ain't She Sweet" and "New York, New York."

"Flourish for Winds," "The Typewriter," "Madison Avenue Strikes Back" and "A Star Is Born" will make up the Concert Band's portion of the program.

Following the Concert Band will be the Mixed Chorus, singing, "Ain't That Good News," a medley from "A Chorus Line," songs from "Fame," and the boys will be featured with "I Wish to Be Single Again."

The final group to appear will be the Symphonic Band, who will play "Raiders March," "Candide Overture," "Overture on an Early American Folk Hymn" and "Salute To TV's Crimefighters."

Similar to last year, a grand finale which will combine both bands into one large 120 piece band, will present one of America's top three marches, "Americans We" by Henry Fillmore.

Refreshments will be sold by the Kewaskum Indian Booster Club. The musicians will be performing on the east bank of the Milwaukee River with the audience seated on the facing hill. In case of rain the concert will be in the old gym at 1:45 p.m.

Men Charged In Service Station Theft

Two men from Milwaukee were charged in Washington County Circuit Court Tuesday in the theft of more than $600 from a service station on U.S. Hwy. 41 in the Town of Wayne Monday night.

Assistant District Attorney Tom Wolfgram said Dwight Mapp, 26, was charged with theft and John E. Taylor, 31, was charged with theft and driving after license revocation.

The attendant at the Monarch Products Ltd. service station, located at the intersection of Hwy. 41 and State Hwy. 28, west of Kewaskum told sheriff's deputies the men entered the station at about 9:45 p.m.

Taylor asked the attendant to help him check the oil in his car and Mapp asked where the restroom was located, according to the Sheriff's Department report. The attendant told authorities that he heard the cash drawer rattle as he was pouring the oil into the car. He pretended that he didn't notice but noted the license number on the car as the men quickly pulled away out in front of oncoming traffic on U.S. 41.

A sheriff's deputy spotted the car near the intersection of State Hwys. 167 and 175 a short time later. He stopped the car and arrested the two men, according to the report.

Deputies recovered $640 in $20 bills from the front seat of the car the men were driving and another $100 in $20 bills from Mapp's sock, the report said.

County Fairbook Dedicated to Boltonville Man

The 1982 Washington County Junior Fair Premium Book has been dedicated to John Youngbauer of Boltonville. Each year the Washington County Fair Office, U.W. Extension Office and the Fair Committee select an individual who has contributed to the success of the fair over the years.

For many years, John served as the superintendent of the sheep and swine departments. You could usually find him in the barn, helping exhibitors pen their animals and patiently helping younger members with their questions.

In recent years, John's skill at building, repairing and supervising was put to work when he was asked to be in charge of the ground and maintenance crew. The smooth operation of the fair set-up and clean-up was due to John's work in the background and his willingness to help anyone in need. "John, can you fix this?" was usually answered with "I'll give it a try."

The fair Committee, and the Fair Office wish to say "thank you" for your continuous support and it is great to have you as a worker and friend.

Scholarships Available to 4-H Members

Scholarship aid worth thousands of dollars is available for college study to outstanding 4-H members in Wisconsin.

Members and former members can apply for scholarships for which they are eligible on one form. You can get the form at the County 4-H office.

School Board

There's your new leader people."

Another change in attitude seems to be that of new board member Ralph Horner. While Horner was attending meetings as a private citizen, he was quite vocal in asking questions and demanding answers from the board members and administrative staff. At Monday night's meeting, when asked to clarify a statement regarding the similarity of some of the athletic director's duties and high school principal's he refused saying, "I don't have to respond."

In other action, the board reviewed the guidance counseling program. At a previous meeting, there was some feeling that the split assignment system was not working as well as anticipated.

Board member Tom Brigham said, "I would still like to see two full time counselors at the high school." The question arose as to who would fill the second position working with the present high school counselor David Wietor. Mrs. Sharon Blank has eleven years teaching seniority with one year of counseling. Milt Dickinson has four years teaching and three years counseling. Superintendent Brenholt noted if the board wanted to go according to seniority, they had to decide which one, teaching or counseling.

One of the board, noting this could again bring up the possibility of eliminating the elementary guidance position, asked what would happen in that case. Brenholt stated that Mrs. Blank would then be returned to teaching if a position was available and Dickinson put in to counseling.

The board voted four to two to assign Wietor and Blank as the two high school counselors and Dickinson as full time elementary counselor. Both Blank and Dickinson indicated they preferred the high school assignment.

The board again discussed the question of filling the Athletic Director position for 1982-83. Miss Jane Vesper has applied for the opening being vacated by Dave Wietor.

Board member John Spoerl motioned to drop the position and assign the duties to high school principal Clark Pearson and his staff. Horner seconded the motion. A citizen asked how the board could consider giving Pearson and Roy Esser more responsibilities when they are already putting in 9 and 10½ hours a day already. Board member Dick Theusch said he could not understand how Spoerl could figure that the assistant principal has so much free time, when last year Spoerl passed around a petition to keep the position, when Theusch recommended the job be eliminated.

One woman in the audience said, if the board has an applicant that wants the job let her have it, or is it because it's a woman applying for the job.

Because Jean Goeden was absent, resulting in six voters, the board voted four times on motions regarding the athletic director position. Spoerl's motion ended in a 3-3 vote. Tessar motioned to appoint Vesper with release time, the vote again was 3-3. Tessar then motioned to table the question, again the vote was 3-3. Tessar then asked, "what are we doing, we're had three motions and nothing was solved." At that point Tessar again motioned to table action and the motion passed 4-2.

President Ogi announced committee assignment for the seven board members. Transportation, Chairman John Spoerl, Ralph Horner and Dick Theusch; Negotiations certified staff, Chairman Tom Brigham, Charles Ogi and Jean Goeden; Salaries of Support Staff, Horner Chairman, Goeden and Tessar; Grievance, Tessar Chairman, Brigham and Spoerl.

Dick Theusch stated, "I refuse," when he heard his assignment to the Transportation Committee. Ogi said he couldn't refuse. Theusch reminded Ogi that he had refused a position on a previous Negotiations Committee. Tessar felt serving on the Negotiations and Salaries Committees for six years was enough. "I want to sit back and say you're giving too much," said Tessar to the other board members. Ogi told Theusch and Tessar they could switch if they could find someone willing to trade assignments.

Superintendent Brenholt announced the recall of teachers Mark Roth, Irene Stradtman and Linda Lohr from temporary layoff. Receipt of Title I funds made the reinstatement possible.

The board also gave approval to Coach Nell to hold a wrestling clinic during the summer and to the Men's and Ladies' Baseball Leagues to use the school diamonds when not needed for school functions.

To Discuss Athletic Director Position at Special Board Meeting

A special meeting of the Kewaskum Board of Education will be held on Monday, May 17. The meeting will be held in the Middle School and will begin at 8:00 p.m.

The purpose of this special meeting is to discuss the athletic director position.

from Tom Leitzke, R.P.H.

BREAST FEEDING

Are breast-fed babies healthier? The medical profession is realizing that human milk possesses a chemistry, an inner power, that is uniquely suited to the human child. Human milk is more readily assimilated than cow's milk and does not cause allergic reactions - it also possesses factors which protect against various infections. Also important, breast-feeding helps the mother get her body back in shape. The baby's sucking causes the uterus to contract, which helps to prevent hemorrhage after delivery.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, The Statesman:

Through you, I would like to urge the people of this school district to sit up and take notice. Whether they were incensed by the results of the last school board election, thrilled by them, or didn't really care, they owe it to themselves, their children, or grandchildren to go and see what this board is doing. If parents of preschoolers, parochial students, or those who have no children in the house think that board matter's don't pertain to them, they couldn't be more wrong. Their tax dollars should be reason enough to go and see what is being done and then to speak out.

To begin with, the general manner in which Dr. Ogi, board president, would like to run these meetings is dictatorial and downright alarming! Tonight (May 10), he stated that in the future any member of the public wishing to speak must request permission to do so on specific issues at the beginning of the board meeting. He was doing this he said in an attempt to cut the length of meetings and this was according to Hoyle! Unbelievable! How can one be expected to know when he would like to speak on a specific issue, without first hearing the input of others, especially the board members? And to not allow freedom of expression at a public meeting by those who pay the bills is outrageous! Don't we as taxpayers have a right to speak to whatever we wish no matter how long it takes. May I remind you that this is a Democracy we live in Dr. Ogi. Incidentally, I think our board meetings should continue to be run properly and not according to Hoyle, who makes the rules for games.

And then Mr. Horner had the nerve to tell a woman, who wanted one of his motions explained more clearly, that he didn't Have to answer her questions. That's fine Mr. Horner, if you're being unjustly heckled, but this woman merely wanted you to explain what your motion entailed. Is this the same man who screamed bloody murder all during his campaign that he had once been cut off or shouted down during a meeting? Seems as though our commonman candidate has vaulted himself to a position where he feels he doesn't have to answer to the public that elected him.

Then there are some members of the board (i.e. Dr. Ogi, Mr. Spoerl, and Mr. Horner) who voted on a failed motion to give the athletic director's job to the high school principal with some help from the assistant principal at no additional salary. This would, in the final analysis, save our district a whopping $750. Mr. Spoerl, who made this motion, hadn't even bothered to find out the approximate amount of time that would be added to Mr. Pearson's schedule. Never mind that the former director estimated that it takes two to four hours per day to perform this duty and that in cases like when the girl's basketball team went to state, the job took all day every day for some time. Never mind that it will require an additional approximate 96 nights per year that Mr. Pearson would be required to be at school added to the approximate three night a week that he spends there already. Never mind that this man is a husband and father to three young children that he probably enjoys seeing once in a while. Mr. Spoerl just felt that the principal had some flexibility in his schedule — never mind whether this flexibility could encompass this very time-consuming job. If this isn't a case of plunging ahead without the full facts, I can't imagine what is. I find it ironic that at the last meeting when one board member was needed to attend a CESA convention, not one of these men could spare the single extra night, but they expect Mr. Pearson to add 96 extra nights with no extra pay!

The list of these kinds of actions goes on and on. One gets the feeling that the votes on many issues are pre-determined and that no amount of facts or common sense are going to keep these people from their own power trips. I would like to believe this not to be true, but so far the actions of the board seem to speak louder than any protesting to the contrary that they might do. Please, people of this district, go see for yourself what is happening and then speak out. The board members all have phones, so let them know how you feel. The newspaper coverage of these meetings is great, but a lot of what goes on necessarily gets lost in the translation. What is happening with this board should not be allowed to go on.

I would like to sign my name, but I remember the vicious personal attacks on those who spoke out during the election and also have no desire for the middle of the night phone calls from those who support "the big boys from Wayne" (their own words on the phone) to start again. Just sign me:

A Distraught Parent.

Letter to the Editor:

The May 10th school board meeting was just another insult to the school district and our district voters.

The meeting started with our Board President's backhanded warning to all the "Chicken-Littles" who are out there in our district gossiping about the possible affects our new school board will have on the academic structure of our school. Never-fear, they have no intention of doing any harm academically and please cut this out, because you really look silly.

Feeling certain we are two of those "Chicken-Littles," we are not too certain harm hasn't already come to our whole educational system, since the primary election. Oh yes, we are talking about it, right out in the open. Many concerned citizens are trying to let the rest of the district know what is really happening on the school board.

Pre-election half-truths, and unanswered questions, to many of us, loom heavy over this district. People who were unconcerned before, are now truly concerned. More and more of these concerned people are asking questions at school board meetings and outside of these meetings. A greater number of people are taking time every other Monday night to come to the meetings, ask questions, and voice their opinions.

That brings us to the next part of our meeting's opening statements by Dr. Ogi. Dr. Ogi's new rule will henceforth be—if you have something to say at a meeting you must read the agenda in the local papers, and sign in when you come to the meeting, indicating which items you would like to speak on. When the item comes up, you will have the opportunity to say what you want before the school board members even give you a hint of what they are planning to do on that item, and then you may no longer speak. This will provide for a more orderly meeting, and will let our board make all decisions without having anyone dare question their motives. It will also allow Dr. Ogi to continue to protect several members from having to answer to the public. We feel certain this might be due to the fact that at the last two meetings, questions posed to John Spoerl (one from another board member) were answered by Dr. Ogi.

We were never able to question this particular board member at pre-election forums, because he always managed to have prior commitments. Now we're not allowed to question him or any other board member, if they are 100% right or wrong; by rule of Dr. Ogi.

Surprisingly, this type of limiting public speaking at school board meetings is legal but, to make it legal it must be made board policy by the entire board, according to the attorney at the Wisconsin School Board Assoc., in Madison. To everyone's surprise no other board member even knew Dr. Ogi was putting this rule into effect.

If you've ever glanced at a school board agenda in the paper, you will know its very difficult to know what action is intended on a certain subject by our board, especially if you are not in regular attendance at meetings. It's nearly impossible to comment without hearing the complete item and the board's proposed actions and/or their feelings on the subject.

During the winter months, there was an incident between Mr. Brenholdt and a citizen in attendance at a meeting. Beside the fact that Dr. Ogi blew this incident way out of proportion, even after an apology was extended between the people involved, he did stress the fact that everyone has a right to speak and the board welcomed these comments, in fact, encouraged them. Now that the shoe is on the other foot, and the public is applying a little heat, we are no longer so welcome.

Our community has always had open meeting and voter input. Our recent candidates all said they welcomed comments from the area. It is true, we may need a little more parliamentary procedures, and restraint from the citizens attending, but is it even thinkable they could take away this accepted district freedom?

The meeting continued with a steady downhill progress. This one session only managed to upset those of us who want to be heard, the student delegation in attendance with a well-worked proposal, our guidance staff, our principal, our assistant principal, and our would-be athletic director. That only leaves those of you who weren't in attendance. We're not so sure that you shouldn't be upset.

Oh yes, we were one board member short during this meeting, which resulted in four tie votes on one subject. The fourth being to table the motion until next meeting. This board can't even agree on that.

Can the split caused by our school board hurt our school and district? Can a ruler supreme be tolerated? Can the voice of the people be silenced? You be the judge.

Come to a meeting and see for yourself. The next meeting is May 24th.

Jerry & Diane Buchel

To the Editor:

We would like to thank the Kewaskum Village Board for proclaiming May Recycling Month.

We would also like to thank the fellas on the village crew, Regal Ware, The Kewaskum Statesman, West Bend News, Herriges Oil, Recom, Minz Supply, every single one of the Kewaskum Jrs. and many of their husbands, the village schools, and all the citizens who showed support.

Recycling is hard work. It's dirty and cold, or muddy and wet and sometimes sunny on recycling mornings. The center has been closed twice in 8½ years due to snow storms — that's a real record.

It's generally a once or twice a year commitment by each member plus committee work. When your out-of-doors, your dressed for the weather. The recycling shed is exactly that — a shed.

When the recycling program began, we were told a woman's club would never be committed to a long term project and such hard work.

To the citizens who have been recycling their glass, tin and aluminum since the center opened its doors — where would you go if our center was not there?

The recycling concept as we see it is: reclaim materials that can be reused — 50% of glass, 35% of tin and 98% of aluminum. We have often read that the natural elements are rapidly declining. We recycle.

The recycling concept is: save the land for planting. You see the daily cost increases in food production. Your purchase power at the grocery store is less for more and rising. Landfill and dump sites are almost always prime farmland, because of the good drainage, location and terrain. We recycle.

The recycling concept is: we are not getting rid of other people's garbage. We have been working with our village to help decrease refuse volume, decrease trucking, gas, use of personnel and our taxes. We recycle.

We have afforded our community, our county, our state and our country a look at what can be done if you truly care.

The Kewaskum Junior Women's Club members are recycling, many past members are recycling, we have members families recycling, we have village and township families recycling, we have Washington County recycling.

It has come to our attention that the City of West Bend and Hartford are discussing setting up a recycling program for Washington County. We would like to see the Kewaskum Center become part of a Washington County program.

Thank you,

County Treasurer Seefeldt Reports 53% Increase in Delinquent Taxes

The delinquent portion of 1981 real estate taxes increased 53% over last year, according to Fredric A. Seefeldt, Washington County Treasurer.

Delinquent taxes as a share of the total property tax levy in Washington County went from 2.6% last year to 4% this year. The dollar amount increased from $1.1 million last year to $1.8 million this year.

Postponed taxes were up over $800,000 but as a share of the total property tax levy, they held at the same percentage as last year, 18.7%, Seefeldt reported.

Seefeldt stated that this office has taken over the responsibility for collecting more than $10.6 million in outstanding 1981 real estate taxes. The total is $1.5 million greater than last year. This amount is made up of $8.8 million in postponed taxes due by July 31 and $1.8 million in delinquent 1981 taxes.

Town, village and city treasurers collect each year's property taxes through the last day of February and then all tax rolls are turned over to the County Treasurer. The County Treasurer's office then becomes the central tax collection office for the whole county, Seefeldt explained.

Seefeldt also noted that on a county-wide basis, property taxes had not increased as sharply as last year. Taxes for all purposes went from $42.6 million last year to $45.9 million this year for a 7.86% increase as compared to 11.6% previously.

Check Conditions Before Boating

Becoming familiar with conditions where you plan to boat will contribute to a safer and more pleasant boating experience, according to Department of Natural Resources' officials.

Dale Morey, boating law administrator for the DNR, said, "This is particularly true for boating trips on streams, rivers and flowages where it is important to know the location of any dams and portage trails for getting around them."

"Making some inquiries locally and doing a bit of scouting on your own before going out in a boat to fish, or before beginning a canoeing trip, will help insure that you have a safer time on the water," Morey said.

Seven persons have drowned in Wisconsin waters this month as the result of boating mishaps. Five fatalities occurred last weekend and two the weekend of April 10 and involved three canoeists and four anglers.

"That's a very high number of fatalities at this stage of the boating season," Morey said, "and we urge all boaters to exercise extreme cautions at this time of the year to avoid adding to that grim toll."

High blood pressure. Treat it and live.

The only way to control high blood pressure is to treat it every day. Do whatever your doctor prescribes, but do it daily, no matter how you feel.

If you're on treatment, stay with it. If you haven't started, do something about it, today.

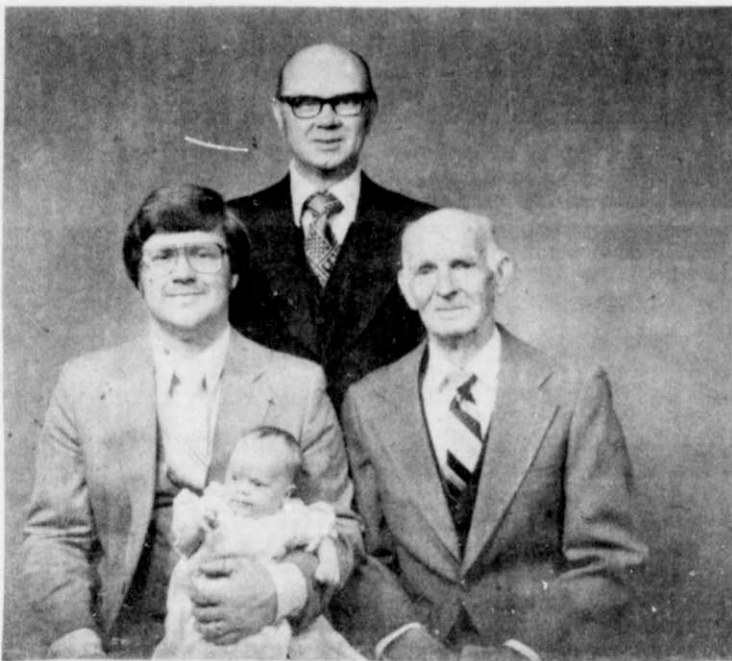

And if you've stopped, don't be discouraged. You can get back on treatment and bring that pressure down.

May Is High Blood Pressure Month

High Blood pressure, also known as hypertension, is the most prevalent disease in America, afflicting an estimated 35 million persons. One out of every six persons has high blood pressure but may not even know it.

High blood pressure is a major risk factor in heart and blood vessel disease, but generally has no symptoms. If not detected and controlled, the condition can lead to a heart attack, stroke or kidney failure. Detecting its presence is the first step in eliminating these devastating effects of high blood pressure. Once diagnosed, high blood pressure can be controlled through drug therapy, diet and lifestyle changes, and medical supervision. But those under treatment must be convinced of the importance of remaining on the prescribed therapy - something many are reluctant to do in the absence of symptoms and the presence of side effects from anti-hypertensive drugs.

Washington County has a blood pressure control program. Residents are invited to have their blood pressure checked free of charge at the following locations.

Saturday, May 15 — Hartford Rescue Squad Garage - 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, located behind City Hall, Hartford.

Saturday, May 22 — West Bend Fire Dept. - 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. 325 N. Eighth St., West Bend.

Saturday, May 22 — Health Fair - 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Washington Square Mall, Germantown.

Today's Medicine

YOUR PET'S HEALTH IS A FAMILY CONCERN

By Dr. Charles Ogi

Of infectious diseases, two, Rabies and Leptospirosis, are known to be transmissible to man.

For the sake of your pet and family, veterinarians urge that special precautions be observed to prevent children and pet owners from contracting diseases from household pets.

The safest insurance you can have is routine veterinary advice. As soon as a new animal becomes a member of your household, consult your veterinarian concerning proper care, immunization recommendations, and disease prevention procedures. A healthy, happy pet is a delight for any family to enjoy. The affection and companionship that pets give to people are important to all of us. Children learn responsibility for others as they learn to care for a loved pet. And the companionship of a pet to a person living alone is often invaluable. Only a healthy pet is a happy companion. To assure your pet's daily well-being requires regular care and close attention to any hint of ill health.

The first step in keeping your pet healthy is to provide protection against infectious diseases by vaccination.

Secondly, dogs and cats, like people, have specific nutritional requirements: protein for growth and tissue repair, carbohydrates for energy, vitamins and minerals for general health.

Dogs and cats, or any family pet, need love from the family who has adopted them. Knowing they're loved and wanted and included in family fun, makes for a happy, contented pet and companion.

The Washington County SWCD District will join in the nationwide celebration of Soil Stewardship Week to take place on May 16-23, according to an announcement by Marc Bethke, County Conservationist. The theme of this year's celebration is "A Time for Tenacity."

"This is 'A Time for Tenacity' in our faith, in concept, in communication, in cooperation, in the political arena, in experiments and research, in leadership, in priorities, and in total commitment," cites the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD) in the 16-page Soil Stewardship Week booklet. Forward for the publication was written by President Ronald Reagan. NACD has sponsored Soil Stewardship Week since 1955, in cooperation with the nation's nearly 3,000 soil and water conservation districts.

Informative material on the Soil Stewardship Week theme each year is distributed through local conservation districts to clergymen, lay leaders, churches, civic and educational organizations and to individuals participating in the observance.

"With the growth of population and the world demand for food and with the clearing and development of most land that is suitable for cultivation, we must turn our attention to the task of saving every acre," according to NACD. "The dream of adequate supplies of food and shelter must cover a period that extends far into the future because this is the only world we have and the total heritage of our descendants."

Information and materials for the 1982 observance of Soil Stewardship Week are available in this area from Soil Conservation Service, 2395 W. Washington, West Bend, WI 53095.

WISCONSIN'S NEW DRINKING/DRIVING LAW

DRINKING/DRIVING LAW CHANGES GO INTO EFFECT

[First in a series]

Beginning May 1, it is now going to be a lot easier to get caught for operating while intoxicated, and a lot harder to get away with it.

Wisconsin's new drunken driving law is in effect, raising almost all penalties. Starting May 1, all drivers convicted of operating while intoxicated will lose their licenses for at least 90 days, and face mandatory assessment of their drinking problem.

Drivers who have a previous conviction on their record within the past five years face a mandatory jail term of at least five days, and six months revocation of their driver's license.

First-time offenders after May 1 will receive a mandatory 3-6 month driver license suspension, a monetary penalty of around $440 including the forfeiture, court costs, penalty assessment and the new $150 surcharge which went into effect Jan. 1.

All will be sent to an approved assessment center for a professional assessment of the extent of their drinking problem, and for an individually-tailored driver safety plan. The plan may include inpatient or outpatient alcoholism treatment, as well as educational/treatment programs such as Group Dynamics or general traffic safety school. Failure to comply with the assessment requirement, or the driver safety plan will result in suspension until compliance.

'REFUSE...AND LOSE'

Drivers convicted for the second time will be fined between $300 and $1,000 plus the $150 surcharge, receive a minimum of five days in jail, plus a minimum six month revocation. Assessment and treatment/education is mandatory. Conviction for the third and subsequent offenses is progressively more serious and costly.

Drivers who refuse the chemical test for intoxication will lose their licenses immediately, although they will receive a receipt from the arresting officer permitting them to operate for 30 days. They then have 10 days in which to request a judicial hearing, which may consider only the events relating to the refusal, whether or not they had been placed under arrest and informed of the penalties for refusing. If no hearing is requested or if the judgment is against them, drivers will be revoked for six months. The revocation is in addition to penalties of the OWI conviction.

The new law also adds mandatory six months additional revocation for driving after revocation or suspension for chemical test refusal or operating while intoxicated, plus a fine of not less than $150 and up to six months in jail. A second driving after revocation/suspension conviction carries a penalty of at least $300 fine, and 10 days to nine months in jail plus six months revocation.

THREE FILING OPTIONS

An OWI driver who causes injury can count on a fine ranging from $300 to $2,000 plus the $150 surcharge, may be sentenced to 30 days to a year in jail and one year to two years revocation. Causing great bodily harm penalties include up to $10,000 in fine plus the surcharge, up to two years in jail and two years revocation. Homicide while operating while intoxicated results in up to $10,000 fine plus the surcharge, up to five years in jail and five years revocation.

Law enforcement officers will be able to use the results of a preliminary breath test to prove that they had probable cause to arrest a driver for operating while intoxicated.

Law enforcement officers have three options for filing charges. They may charge drivers with operating under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, or for operating with a blood/alcohol concentration of .10 per cent or above, or both.

While it is illegal to operate with a BAC of .10 per cent or above, it is also illegal to operate while under the influence of alcohol, which may include BAC levels of between .05 and .099 per cent, or a combination of alcohol and drugs, or drugs alone. If a driver is charged with both, the two charges will be treated as one in establishing penalties.

Hopp Threshold President

James Hopp

The Threshold Board of Directors and the Board of Directors of the Association for Retarded Citizens-Washington County recently met for their joint annual meeting. Upon recommendation of The Threshold Board, James Hopp was elected president of The Threshold Board of Directors as announced by Executive Director, Horst Wagner.

Hopp succeeds John Rozek as president. Hopp has been on The Threshold Board for the past five years. He formerly was vice-president of the Board and served on the Building, Equipment & Transportation Committee and the Long-Range Planning Committee. He also served on the 1973 Building Committee as a technical consultant and the 1978 Building Expansion Committee. Because of his 21 years of experience and expertise in Facility Engineering with The West Bend Company, his employer, he is often used as a technical consultant on similar Threshold concerns.

Hopp graduated from UW-Madison School of Engineering and attended Marquette University where he obtained a Master's Degree in Business

The Board also elected William Bailey as vice-president and John Rozek as treasurer. Elaine Shanebrook was re-elected secretary. E. H. (Bud) Maahs of Hartford was a newly elected member of the Board to succeed Ken Kresheck.

Other Board members include: John Beisbier, Norman Colby, Ted Dickmann, Robert Steiner, Kathleen Walter, Doris Fisher, Derry Wagner, all of West Bend; Donald Stevens, Hubertus; Robert Zarling, Kewaskum; and Alfred Zimmerman, Slinger. All terms of office are for one year. All Board members have a 3-year term and may be elected for successive terms.

Ken Kresheck gave up his seat on the Board due to time commitments involved with the Hartford Community Hospital and the Hospital Foundation. Kresheck was honored by President of the Board, John Rozek, and given a plaque which acknowledged his 12 years of service as a Board member. He was also given a booklet on milestones of service to The Threshold. Horst Wagner narrated highlights of events covering the past 12 years.

Ken's wife, Dorothy, was presented with a corsage by Wagner who quipped "that behind every good man there's a good woman."

Wayne Bruessel of Hartford, President of the Association for Retarded Citizens-Washington County, also acknowledged and thanked Kresheck for his many years of service to the handicapped of our County.

SEE INFORMATION ON BACK

Vehicle renewal notices have a new look since April 26, the state department of transportation announced.

Richard Solterman, manager of motor vehicle district 2 office in Fond du Lac, said that from now on most Wisconsin vehicle owners will receive their license renewal notices on postal cards rather than in the familiar window-envelopes. After successfully testing out postal card notification in selected areas of the state last August, the department decided to adopt it as the major form for its renewal notices.

The face of each 4 1/2 by 6-inch postcard carries the address of the owners, a description of body style, vehicle identification number, model year, current license number and expiration date, in addition to stating the location where the vehicle is normally kept.

The reverse side instructs the owner about how to make changes, what to do if the vehicle has been sold and how to report non-operation. The upper segment of the notice is to be torn off and retained by the applicant for personal records. The lower segment with payment due is to be mailed back to the department. Recipients of the postal card form are asked to pay particular attention to the department's mailing address when returning the notice for registration.

He said about 90 per cent of the 3.3 million renewals the department mails out annually will be in postal card form. The remaining 10 per cent will be on renewal statements enclosed in envelopes. These are expected to be used for bulk renewals to leasing companies and fleet owners, and to notify vehicle owners of changes in fees or laws affecting registration.

Along with the postal card notification program, a more efficient method of processing renewals is also being implemented, he said, which will get certificates of registration and stickers to vehicle owners faster than before, and at less cost to the department.

He said, "Previously processing an application took from six to 10 working days. Anticipated turnaround time under the new system is three working days.

Postage savings plus savings in the cost of envelopes (both mail-out and return) along with improvements in processing are expected to save the department about $800,000 annually.

Anyone needing assistance in responding may contact the nearest motor vehicle branch office, or call motor vehicle district headquarters at 414/-929-3720, or write the Renewal Processing Unit, PO Box 7911, Madison 53707.
