Ogi to Make Final Selection of Citizens Advisory Committee to Select New Superintendent

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Although the other six members have been asked to submit names, it will be Kewaskum School Board President Charles Ogi final, who will make the final decision as to who will serve on the Citizens Advisory Committee to select a new superintendent.

The board members had been asked to present their recommendations at Monday night's regular school board meeting. Member Jean Goeden noted, however, she had not been able to find anyone willing to serve. Goeden said she had contacted six or seven people and had received basically the same reply from all, why should they waste their time volunteering when the committee has already been picked. Board member Richard Theusch, too, noted he had gotten the same reaction. Theusch said he had talked to five people, all of whom refused to work on the committee. One citizen told him he knew of two names from Wayne that would probably end up on the committee for sure. Board member John Tessar said he had contacted several people in the district, some of them prominent citizens in the village. Tessar also had no luck in getting volunteers. Tessar said one comment he received was, these people felt there was really no need for the committee, that this screening should be done by the board itself with the help of its hired consultant.

Ogi said he resented the insinuation that committee members had already been decided on, noting that was the reason he asked names be submitted on a blank sheet of paper. Goeden told Ogi it wouldn't make any difference since she was sure he would recognize her handwriting even without a signature.

Tessar was against forming a committee at this time. "Let's see how many applicants we get before we appoint a committee," he stated. Ogi said a committee was needed at this time because the board did not have the extra time needed to screen the one or two hundred applications that would probably come in. Past board member Gerald Secor questioned whether citizens who were not familiar with the everyday activities and duties of a superintendent would know exactly what to look for as far as specific qualifications. "Isn't that what Mr. Buntrock is supposed to do?" questioned Secor. Interim Superintendent Robert Borch was asked how many applications had been received. To date 31 responses have come in said Borch, noting the district had been receiving six or seven a day, the past three to four days. Deadline for applications is the 31st.

Tessar said many people had questioned him as to why the board was even looking outside when there were qualified people within the district who could do the job. Tessar said he told them to ask Ogi that question, since he did not have the answer.

The comment was made it

Fire Causes Damage At Heller Residence

Kewaskum firemen were summoned to a fire at the Joe Heller home at 805 Pleasantwood Drive at 2:06 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Heller was cleaning paint brushes with gasoline in a pail in the basement when the gas vapors were ignited from a pilot light on the water heater or the furnace according to Fire Chief Augie Bilgo.

Some clothes on the floor caught fire and there was also some fire damage to wiring on the ceiling and smoke damage to the house.

Firemen were at the scene about a half hour extinguishing the blaze.

Boy Still Critical After Rescue From Park Pond

A 6-year-old Allenton boy who was rescued from the water by a lifeguard from the Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park pond last Thursday morning remained in critical condition in the intensive care unit at Children's Hospital in Milwaukee, it was reported Tuesday.

Steven W. Mertz of 8375 Fairview Drive, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Mertz, was transferred from St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend to Children's Hospital Friday afternoon. The transfer was made for further treatment.

Steven's mother noticed that the boy was missing about 11 a.m. and notified a lifeguard, who cleared other swimmers from the pond. The boy was located in the water and was brought to shore, authorities said.

The boy was in the water about 10 minutes, according to a Washington County Sheriff's Department report. The child received mouth-to-mouth and cardiopulmonary resuscitation at the scene.

The pond was closed for the remainder of Thursday. It was reopened Friday.

7 Killed in Area Truck-Auto Crash

Seven people were killed in Washington County Saturday morning when a car carrying nine Chicago residents attempted to cross US Highway 41 to head south and was hit broadside by a semitrailer truck.

The accident occurred around 9:46 a.m. at the intersection of US 41 and Fireside Road, near County Highway W in the Town of Addison.

The seven victims, five men, one woman and a child, all of Chicago, were identified as: Damaso G. Tellado, 47, the driver; and his sons, Damaso Tellado Jr., 22; and Alcidas Tellado, 16; Margarita Velez, 35; and her son and daughter, Juan Velez, 16, and Awilda Velez, 3, and Nathaniel Battle, 17, Juan's friend.

Three other people were also injured in the crash. The truck driver, Laverne A. Schulz, 41, of Marathon, was in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend. Francisca Velez, 59, Margarita's mother, was listed in stable condition at Hartford Memorial Hospital, Hartford, and Frances Velez, 11 months, Margarita's daughter, was treated at the Hartford hospital and released to relatives.

It was reported the two families and Battle were planning to fish and picnic at Big Cedar Lake and had stopped at a service station at the intersection of Fireside Road and Highway 41 seeking directions.

Robert Ewert, manager of the Fireside Restaurant, witnessed the accident and said the truck caught the car behind the driver, "totally disintegrating it."

According to County Coroner Bob Boltz, all the occupants, including the two survivors, were thrown from the vehicle.

Sgt. Thomas Martin of the Washington County Sheriff's Department said the auto drove in front of the semi and the truck driver couldn't help what he did.

The accident was the state's deadliest in two years. Four ambulances from Kewaskum, West Bend, Allenton and Slinger responded.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET TUESDAY

The Kewaskum Historical Society, Inc., will hold their monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, July 20, at the Kewaskum Valley Bank meeting room.

The Early Farm Days Committee will meet at 7:00 o'clock at the bank.

Picnic Is Overwhelming Success

[Picnic photos on inside pages]

The annual Kewaskum Firemen-Legion Picnic held Saturday night and Sunday was one of the most successful ever held in spite of the rain Saturday evening. The rain kept many people away and some of the stands and rides in the park closed. The beer garden was packed but the beautiful picnic weather on Sunday, however, attracted large crowds throughout the afternoon and evening.

Sunday's parade at noon, annually one of the best to be seen in this area, again was excellent and one of the finest ever held. Thousands of people witnessed the parade, which drew much favorable comment from everyone who watched it. A highlight of any parade is the musical organizations and there were at least 11 bands, drums and bugle corps, and orchestras in the line of march, together with floats, clowns and many dozens of other units.

First prize among the floats went to the Kewaskum Sno-Chiefs, second to the Kewaskum Girl Scouts, third to Marlene's Costume Shop, and fourth to the Kettle Riders. Honorable mention went to Laubenstein's 4-H First Kindergarten-Watertown float. Regal Ware had one of the most beautiful floats but did not compete for prizes.

Children's float prizes went to: "We Made Wisconsin Famous," kids pulling a wagon, first; J & R Realty (Jennifer and Heather Spoerl); Two Little Houses, second; Three Clowns, third; and Boy on Decorated Bike, fourth.

A number of local businessmen donated toward the cost of sponsoring musical units in the parade and in the park as well as toward the cost of printing the tickets.

The Rev. John T. Budde was honored as parade marshal. Father Budde went into semi-retirement Tuesday after serving as pastor of Holy Trinity parish and St. Bridget's mission for 24 years.

Entertainment in the park Saturday evening was furnished by the Kewaskum High School swing choir and music in the beer garden was furnished by Gary Cross and the Cedar Creek Band. On Sunday the Hartford City Band played a concert immediately following the parade, which was followed by music by Bernie and His Jolly Lads on the bandstand during the afternoon and again in the evening. Syl Groeschel's Orchestra played in the beer garden in the afternoon and Ida Red at night. Ralph Buchel's band played at the north beer stand in the afternoon.

A record total of 23 teams from neighboring fire departments were entered in the men's water fights Sunday evening. Teams competed from Kohlsville, Boltonville, Mayville, Silver Creek, Allenton, Miami, Florida (a team made up of Kewaskum fire chief Augie Bilgo and neighboring chiefs), Newburg North, Waubeka, Theresa, Fox Lake, Adell, Batavia, West Bend, Jackson, Beaver Dam, Burnett II, Burnett I, Fillmore, Newburg South, Hustisford, Lomira, Campbellsport and Grafton. The first place trophy was won by Beaver Dam firemen, second went to Campbellsport and third to Kohlsville.

Winners of the $500, $200 and $100 bond prizes will be announced at a later date.

From the School Board President's Desk ....

What are the qualities the district is looking for in a superintendent? What are the requirements and priorities the Board has set up? What kind of person are we looking for?

The Kewaskum School Board is looking for a person from the Midwest who is an education specialist with an especially strong background in curriculum and finance. We want a person with district administrative experience who meets the qualifications necessary to be accredited by North Central. The new superintendent should have solid credentials, showing a commitment to academic excellence both through his/her personal credentials and through the presence of a strong academic program in his/her current position. The person must firmly believe in the development and enforcement of strong disciplinary policies.

The candidate should espouse the development and implementation of stringent evaluation procedures which will insure accountability of students, faculty, and fellow administrators. He/she must have an awareness of current trends in education and methods of implementing them. Curriculum and staff development must be stressed, and the candidate should be willing to work with the faculty to improve the curriculum. At the same time, the superintendent should be willing to make unpopular decisions as long as those decisions will benefit the students' education. The new superintendent must be aware of community needs and willing to respond to them. Activity in professional organizations and community endeavors would be expected.

The new superintendent should be experienced in several areas. The primary area must be curriculum. Negotiating and budget would be next. He/she should be experienced in working with school boards and realize that the superintendent functions as a liaison between citizens of the district and the faculty/staff, with the ultimate responsibility being to the community via the school board.

These are the desired characteristics of the new superintendent. Are there some other aspects you feel we should stress? Is there an important area we've overlooked? I would appreciate any comments you would care to make. Send them to Dr. Charles Ogi, P.O. Box 201, Kewaskum, WI. 53040.

Dr. Charles J. Ogi

It's a misconception that being male means being tough and self-reliant. At the loss of a wife a man needs a lot of support from family and close friends. He needs to feel that he is not forgotten and that he is not an outcast. It is a time for the children to return the concern and care they received during childhood.

School Board

would be a shame to spend $4,000 to $5,000 for a consultant only to end up hiring a person from the district. Board member Ralph Horner asked, "John, why didn't you hire from the inside last time?" Tessar said he was not on the board when the last superintendent was hired, replying to Horner, "if they jumped in the river are you going to jump in with them? I'm not." Theusch stated he was on the board to hire a superintendent. The reason the district hired from the outside then was, the person the board had selected from within the district turned the job down. Horner asked if that person would accept it now. "He's no longer with the district," stated Theusch. Resident Gerald Buchel told the board he felt they should look very carefully 'in-house' before going outside the district.

The board approved the creation of the committee on a 4 to 2 vote. Ogi, Horner, Spoerl and Tessar voting for, Goeden and Theusch voting against. Tom Brigham was absent. Tessar noted he voted for the committee even though he was against the idea, because things have to get going. Too much time has been wasted already and school begins the end of August.

Ogi was asked why he alone would make the committee appointments. He said it was board policy that the president has the power to make the final selection from the recommendations of the board.

In other action, the board denied a recommendation to increase substitute teacher pay rates. Tessar motioned to accept the increase, but it died for lack of a second. Tessar asked if there was a problem with the recommendation. Horner stated, "I'd like to see a freeze." Tessar noted the district is paying approximately $5.00 per hour. "I don't think that's too high," said Tessar. Borch noted one reason the district had been successful in getting the specific substitute needed in most cases was the equal or slightly higher salaries. Without the increases the district may find it more difficult to find the qualified substitute. Tessar noted substitutes look at a job and take the one which offers the best pay.

The question of kindergarten bussing and class assignments has not been resolved. Richard Zarling, who represents the administration on the Transportation Committee, presented two alternates to the board. Alternate No. 1 would result in no Beechwood kindergarten class, two Farmington, three Kewaskum and one Wayne class. This would result in a maximum riding time to 50 to 55 minutes for some students. Alternate No. 2 would have one class each at Beechwood, Farmington and Wayne, with three at Kewaskum. This would have 15 Farmington and one

Kewaskum student being bussed at Beechwood, with a maximum riding time of 30-35 minutes. Zarling recommended the board approve alternate No. 2. Horner felt there was a third alternate. This would be to bus 15 to 16 Kewaskum students to Beechwood and eliminate the need of bussing the five Farmington students. Zarling said he would have to go back to Johnson Bus to see how feasible this route would be. Horner was appointed to meet with Zarling and Erv Gorecki to check out his recommendation. West Bend News reporter Judy Harlow asked Horner whether he made this recommendation because it might affect where his son would go to school. Horner said no.

The board tabled action on repair or replacement of the high school air conditioner. The district received three bids for rebuilt compressors and only one bid on a new unit. Tessar said, "I question putting this much money in a used unit." The original air conditioner was installed in 1966. Rebuilt prices ran from $13,440 to $15,046. The new unit price was $20,008.00. Tessar noted Thuemeling Industries was high by $2,000 on the rebuilt unit. "I'll wager he's $2,000 high on his new unit bid." The board agreed and asked Borch to again seek bids on a new unit from other companies.

The board tentatively approved a calendar for the 1982-83 school year. Final approval is dependant on the settlement of a contract with the teachers union. Tessar asked Borch if there was any way of getting a decision out of the arbitrator. "This has been going on for 7 1/2 months," said Tessar. Borch noted there is no law stating how quickly an arbitrator has to make a decision.

A full-time contract for 1982-83 was issued to Mary Reilly-Kliss. A replacement teacher will be hired to teach retiring Arno Cord's sixth grade class for 1982-83, during Mrs. West's leave of absence.

Fr. Budde Honored at Farewell Open House

OUR PARTING SHEPHERD
-FR. BUDE-

On Tuesday evening, July 6, Father Budde, above, July 6, Trinity Catholic Church and St. Bridget's Mission Church, was honored at a farewell reception in the church hall. The reception, which was preceded by Benediction at 7:30 p.m., was attended by several hundred parishioners, relatives and friends.

Father Budde, 72, left Tuesday, July 13, to live in semi-retirement at the Budde homestead in Beaver Dam with his brother, Richard Budde and family. He will assist Father Walsh at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Beaver Dam.

Father Budde was presented with a recliner chair by the organizations of the church, personal cards, gifts and best wishes. He was also presented with a plaque with an apostolic blessing which was sent by the Vatican.

For the past 24 years Father Budde has been pastor of Holy Trinity, which now has over 400 families and St. Bridget's has over 60 families. While he was pastor the congregation celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of its founding at a Solemn High Mass on Sunday, September 30, 1962. In 1965 four new classrooms were added on to the existing school building and other improvements were made.

Father Budde loved children and always had time for them. He will be deeply missed by his parishioners and the youngsters.

Rev. Robert Berghammer of Presentation Church in Fond du Lac will be the new pastor at Holy Trinity and arrived Tuesday, July 13.

*He walked among his sheep at Holy Trinity Spiritually nurturing them as he went along,
Asking for no reward
Save that of knowing
He served the Lord.*

*He sought those
Who estranged themselves
From the fold,
A gentle word of concern
For those who strayed.*

*He knelt in silent prayer
Lifting his heart to the cross,
And there upon left
The wounds of his sheep
Trusting the Lord to heal them.*

*The rich and the poor
He treated alike;
To no one did he close the door.
He practiced what he preached;
He lived the gospel theme.
He saw every parishioner
As a child of God
With a soul for eternity.*

*He deeply took to heart
The beloved words of Jesus,
"LET THE LITTLE CHILDREN COME UNTO ME".*

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD
THERE IS NOTHING I SHALL WANT...
Those words find a resonance
In the depth of Fr. Budde's soul
And echo their truth
By his deeds and example.
Yes beneath this giant of a man
Is a faithful son
In whom the Lord is well pleased.*

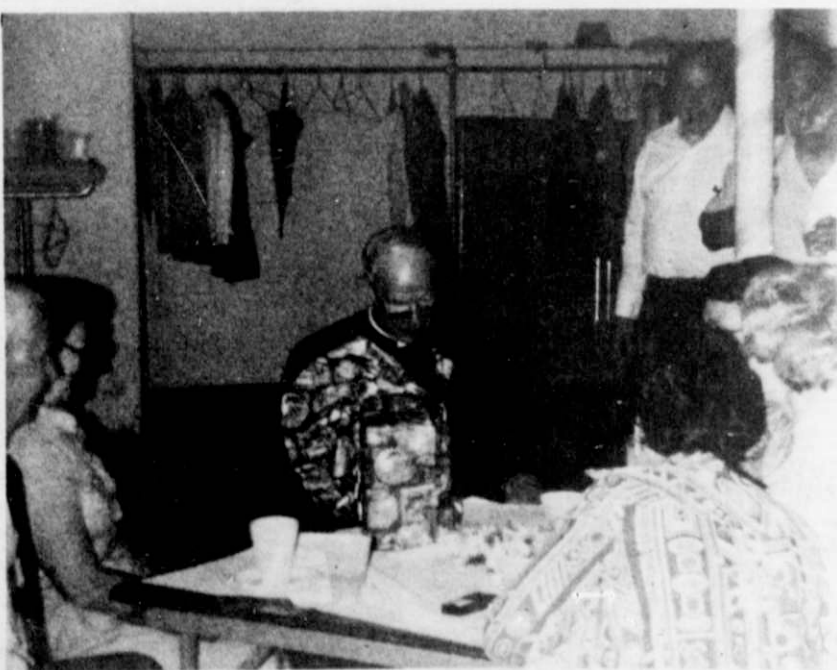

*As he leaves his sheep
Who know him by name,
We ask Our Lord to richly bless him
As he continues to be
A saintly priest.*

*As he goes forth
To be beside more "restful waters"
We entrust him to Mary,
God's lovely lady dressed in blue,
And we praise and thank God
For the many years
We as the flock of Holy Trinity
Were so very blessed to have him.*

Lee Ann Schoofs

Three members of Father Budde were also in attendance at the farewell open house. They are [from left] Henry, Dick, [Father John] and Leo. Of the ten children, there were three other priests, Fathers Ray, Gerard and George, all deceased. Barbara, Lawrence and Felix have also passed away. Father Budde was ordained 40 years ago in February of 1942, at St. Francis Seminary.

Relatives and friends observe Father John opening some of his gifts.

THE FLAGS OF FREEDOM — From 1686 to 1777 our forefathers fought to free this country and make it a nation governed "of, by, and for the people." Throughout this period of time, many banners were flown over the battlefields, and have been reproduced by one of the members of The Historic Octagon House and the Silver Wheel Manor Museums, of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. The Flags of Freedom are now being flown as a tribute to our freedom on a parade float, for all ages to enjoy. Towering at the center of the float stands a hand-made replica of the Liberty Bell. The patriotic theme is completed by a group of volunteers dressed in authentic costumes depicting various periods in our nation's history. The costumes are only a small part of the vast number contained within the walls of Marlene's Costume Shop, the float's sponsor, located at 1602 Hwy. K, in Fond du Lac.

FFA Attends State Convention

Jon Etta excelled at the State Convention in the FFA creed competition. Jon was the first Kewaskum FFA member ever to make it to the State Creed finals. Competition began back in February when Jon won district and then sectional competition, advancing him to state with nine other freshmen from around the state. Jon then won his division at state putting him in the finals against one other contestant. Jon presented the creed one more time in front of about 1200 spectators and was given a second at state. Jon [left] receives his second place state trophy from advisor Mr. Rizzardi.

Gary Kempf represented the chapter as the BOAC [Building Our American Communities] chairman. The local rabies clinic was submitted as the chapter's BOAC project this year. Once again the chapter received a high rating, placing with a bronze pin and plaque. Gary also received the Three-Star President's Award for outstanding leadership throughout the year.

State Farmer Degree Recipients — Kewaskum FFA members Duwayne Schacht, [left], and Wesley Haug were two out of 392 State Farmer Degree winners in the state this year. Winners are selected on their participation in FFA activities, their home projects, and reinvestment of money back into agriculture. Duwayne's main project was working in the home dairy herd. Wesley worked with hogs for the fair and meat processing at Behring's Market in Kewaskum.

John Herriges, [left], and Roger Batzler represented Kewaskum as official delegates to the convention. Each chapter from around the state can have two delegates for voting purposes. John and Roger sat in on state business sessions voting on FFA policy and budget recommendations. They also voted for the upcoming year's state FFA officers.

their leaders and parents. They try to develop the skill so they would be able to make things themselves. In most cases the articles they make would not be perfect. Instead they are just steps along the way of learning a skill. Some of the articles may have been made by 9 or 10-year-old who are in the project for the first year. Others may have been made by older members who had several years of experience in the project.

So, as you bring your articles to the fair consider this a learning experience. Listen to the helpful comments and suggestions that the judge will make. Ask the judge questions about problems you may have had in making the article or other suggestions for improvement.

The county fair is an excellent exhibit by youth from all over the county. Imagine how many skills have been learned by all of the members as they worked and learned to make their fair exhibits.

Wes Haug, [right], receives his State Farmer Degree from State FFA President Neal Wellner. The ceremony recognizes members with the third level of membership available to FFA'ers. The only other degree available is the American Farmer Degree, administered at the National Convention in Kansas City.

County Fair for Fun and Learning

The Washington County Fair is here. The fair opens at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 21, with the carnival and rides starting. Entry day is Thursday, July 22. This is when the articles will be brought in and many of them judged.

County Fair is a lot of fun where you meet old friends and get to have a lot of rides and other entertainment. County Fair can also be a time of learning.

One of the main purposes of a county fair is to have exhibits that were made by 4-H and FFA members, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and members of other youth groups. It's an opportunity for them to show what they have done. Their exhibits can be judged according to certain standards and the members given helpful comments on how to improve in the future.

As we view these exhibits we should keep in mind an important fact. Most of the members started out at the beginning of the year with very little knowledge about a certain project. During the year they learn about this project from

Area Resident Announces Candidacy For State Assembly in 88th District

Patricia Gruber Jerominski, a 6th generation and lifelong resident of this area, has announced her intentions to seek the State Assembly post in the new 88th District, created by the recent court-ordered reapportionment plan. The announcement was made at a special gathering of news media, friends and campaign supporters on Tuesday morning at the Fireside Restaurant, just north of Allenton. Jerominski stated that the reason she selected this location to make her announcement held very special meaning to her... "not only is it more central to the district, but pointing out the window toward St. Anthony's my great-great-grandfather and many of his descendants are buried right up there on the hill by St. Anthony's"...indicating how deep her roots run in this area. Jerominski said she intends to address a variety of issues she believes to be of considerable concern to district residents throughout her campaign... "the stagnant economy, inflation, unemployment, interest rates, property taxes, medical and educational needs, assistance for the elderly and handicapped, concerns of agriculture and small business and environmental protection are just a few...I intend to discuss these areas and more, with the 'people' in the campaign and with their support, get down to Madison and let 'their voices' be heard." "Traditionally, active constituent involvement has been noteworthy in local and in national politics...but all too often, too passive on affairs attended to by our state legislators and assemblymen. With the federal government's returning many functions back to the states, many changes will be required in our state's legislation, financing, administration and execution of these programs if we are going to efficiently and effectively meet the needs of all of the people of this state and of this 88th District. If these challenges are to be met effectively, this passive disinterest and/or assumption that 'somebody' will take care of it for us, has simply and honestly got to change...all of these programs will affect all of us, in one way or another, now or in the future...and how they will affect us depends on each and every one of us. One of my primary objectives will be to reestablish the constitutional intent of government... 'by the people'... and to put that concept into its 'proper' perspective with government... 'for the people'...at least here in the 88th District."

Jerominski, 28, attended grade school at St. Matthew's in Campbellsport, graduated from Campbellsport High School, attended the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, received her LPN in Nursing from Moraine Park Technical Institute, is a member of both the School Board and Parish Council at St. Matthew's is presently employed at St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend, is married with three children and resides on Rural Route 2, Campbellsport, in the Town of Auburn in the County of Fond du Lac.

The new 88th District includes the cities of Hartford, Horicon and Mayville; the Villages of Brownsville, Campbellsport, Iron Ridge, Komarkee, Kewaskum, Lemira, Neosho and Theresa; and the following Townships in Dodge County, Lomira, Williams, Theresa, Hubbard, Herman, Rubicon and Ashippun; in Fond du Lac County-Ashford and Auburn, and in Washington County-Wayne, Kewaskum, Barton, Addison and Hartford.

Today's Medicine

HEARTWORM CAN BE FATAL
By Charles J. Ogi, D.V.M.

Heartworm is a serious parasitic disease that is potentially fatal to dogs. Once thought to be limited to warm, humid regions, it is now present in every state of the Union - and in near epidemic proportions in all states east of the Rockies.

The adult heartworm lives within the chambers of the heart and blood vessels of the lungs. Here it blocks or reduces blood flow, leading to death or damage of vital organs. It is transmitted from an infected dog to an uninfected dog through the bite of a mosquito. The larvae (immature heartworms) pass into the dog's bloodstream. They eventually moved to the heart region where they continue to grow up to lengths of more than a foot.

A blood test performed by a veterinarian is the only sure way to diagnose the presence of heartworms. If the test is positive, your veterinarian will begin a program to destroy the heartworms. If the test is negative, your veterinarian will start your dog on a preventative program of daily medication.

Don't keep antibiotics 'just in case' you may feel ill later. By taking medicine on your own - and without doctor's orders - you may mask the symptoms your doctor should know about. Don't misuse medicine by allowing family members to use it because their symptoms 'seem the same.' Only your doctor can safely diagnose and prescribe medication.

Sue Carlson

Iowa Artist, Sue Carlson, arrived Tuesday evening to visit at the Douglas Ritchie home in Kewaskum.

Sue is one of ten children born to Iowan farmers, Harold and Dorothy Pohren. She grew up with the love and talent to draw. Now 30 years old and having three children of her own, she loves to paint from her memories of her farm life. Most of her paintings show the heritage of her youth, such as the painting of her grandpa churning the ice cream on the back step. "We had homemade ice cream every Sunday night." Her paintings also include butter churns, cream cans, old barns, and machinery. She loves to paint nature's wildlife into her country scenes.

Another subject dear to her heart is the American Indians, which she paints with much feeling and realism. And due to several trips into Wisconsin she has added two more paintings to her collection: "Wisconsin Marsh," after visiting the Canadian geese at Theresa one fall, and "Wisconsin Hills," a beautiful scene of the rolling hills of Wisconsin.

Sue, who thinks "self-taught" doesn't quite say it, explains that the Lord gave her the talent and developed it as well. She has been teaching acrylic painting at her studio in Lockridge, Iowa, for 4 years now. Her classes are kept small for more individual instructions. "A person has to paint what they feel."

Of the many canvas and barnboard paintings she's created, most have found their way to homes and businesses across the country. She has exhibited her work mostly in Iowa, Illinois, and Missouri, and now will be having a "one-man show" at the Arts Building Restaurant, 518 Poplar Street, West Bend. Several of the pieces will be for sale. You are invited to meet the artist and view her work July 16 and 17 from 4:00-8:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

The green bug that has been making such havoc in the green fields in the west is with us, attacking oat and late barley fields, and it looks like farmers are up against a short oat and barley crop. The green bug is very small, squashy looking, and infects the grain close to the leaves where it heads out. The grain which is affected takes on a rusty look and soon practically dies.

Announce Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-Thon Winners

On Saturday, May 15, the Kewaskum Jaycees sponsored the annual Cystic Fibrosis Bike-a-Thon. This year's Bike-a-Thon was held on a 10½ mile course from Kewaskum to New Fane and turn around on Auburn-Ashford road to Kewaskum. The Jaycees thank all those who participated in this fundraiser for CF.

Some of the bikers in the 1982 Bike-a-Thon won prizes from local merchants. The people listed under the picture won prizes because of the money they raised for CF. Brad Kidd, our Jaycee president this past year, was the top dollar raiser in the entire state. His 84 miles biked garnered $934.

Please consider biking in next spring's Bike-a-Thon to raise needed money for Cystic Fibrosis. Please also give freely to our Muscular Dystrophy fish-bowl on Labor Day weekend as cures for these dreaded childhood diseases must be found.

RACING RESULTS

GOEDEN WINS his first modified feature of the season. The 1981 E.W.S.C. modified champ is now 9th in the point standings. Ron Luedtke of Lomira is leading in that division.

141 Speedway
Frances Creek, Wis.
Modified Div.

The main event was a real hair raiser! Rich Wondra of Campbellsport started on the pole position of the front row for the 30 lap feature. When the green flag dropped, Wondra took the lead but was challenged by Randy Butler of Iron Ridge and "Schwartz" Johnson of Slinger.

With the signal from the flagman that there were five laps left, Willie Goeden of Kewaskum, who was fast qualifier, had worked his way to fourth position. On the next lap Goeden passed Johnson and Butler and headed for Wondra, who had a quarter lap lead. Goeden closed the gap and on the white flag it was a dead heat to the line! The crowd was on their feet for the last lap, as Goeden, taking the high outside groove, took the lead on the back stretch. It was a duel in the 3rd and 4th turn, but it was Goeden at the checkered. It was Goeden's first modified win this year. Johnson and Butler finished in 3rd and 4th position consecutively.

County Real Estate Taxes Due July 31

Washington County Treasurer, Fredric A. Seefeldt, today reminded county taxpayers that second half real estate tax payments are due in his office on or before Saturday, July 31.

Payments can be made in person or mailed to his office, Seefeldt said. The treasurer's office is Room 226 of the Courthouse, 432 East Washington Street (Hwy. 33, East), West Bend. Office hours are currently 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Payments by mail should be addressed to: Washington County Treasurer, P.O. Box 518, West Bend, Wisconsin 53095.

Seefeldt pointed out that the courthouse is not open on Saturdays and will not be open on Saturday, July 31. "However in accordance with a Wisconsin Attorney General's opinion, walk-in payments on Monday, August 2, will be considered as timely," Seefeldt reported.

He cautioned that all payments by mail must carry a July postmark to be considered timely. "Any mail postmarked in August will be subjected by State law and County ordinance to an 8½% interest penalty on the outstanding balance," Seefeldt stated.

Seefeldt also advised that to insure prompt crediting of their account, taxpayers should include the tax key numbers of the properties on which they are paying taxes. "This number can be found in the upper right hand corner of their tax receipts," said Seefeldt.

"Taxpayers paying in person should also bring along the proper tax key numbers or their first half tax receipts to aid in the processing of their payment," Seefeldt added.
