Refuse Collection Fees Set for Tax Exempt Properties

Village Board Takes 'Wait and See' Position on Landfill Commitment

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Monday night's Kewaskum Village Board meeting reflected a problem which is confronting communities throughout the state and country, the ever increasing volume of refuse and how and where to dispose of it.

With disposal regulations becoming stricter and dump sites becoming more scarce, Kewaskum and other municipalities will eventually be faced with the dilemma of what to do with the tons of waste produced by its residents each year.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt presented the trustees with a copy of a resolution asking Kewaskum, along with other Washington County municipalities, to commit itself to the use of a proposed County landfill site.

After reviewing the resolution, both Schmidt and village attorney Gerald Kiefer felt they could not recommend the village adopt it because of some conditions set forth in the proposal. The major objection to the landfill commitment is a financial clause stating, "Be it further resolved that in the event that the (town, village or city) of _____ is unable or unwilling to join any solid waste authority created in Washington County that the (T, V or C) of _____ agrees to exclusively utilize any solid waste facility developed by the authority at a price to be determined by the authority for a minimum period of time equal to the amortization of any municipal borrowing required to construct the facility."

Schmidt noted several of the municipalities, such as West Bend and Hartford which had been backing the county landfill plan, are withdrawing or considering dropping their support of such a project. Schmidt said West Bend's feeling is, "the county is trying to get out from under a touchy situation."

Village Board President Gerald Stollenwerk asked

Winter Arrives

After a lack of snow and unseasonably mild weather, winter finally arrived last Thursday when approximately eight inches of snow fell in this area. The snow followed a freezing rain on Wednesday. About two to three more inches of snow fell Sunday, since when the temperatures have been mild again.

Schmidt, "what is it going to cost us?" (going with the proposed county landfill). Schmidt said using present costs, "it would be three times higher ($108.00 per truckload compared to $40.00) than what we're paying now."

Schmidt was asked if the village's present landfill could guarantee how long it could take the village's waste and if they would sign a long-term contract with the village. Schmidt's answer was "no" to both points. The landfill operator could give an approximate life-expectancy said Schmidt, but that would depend on such factors as changes in Department of Natural Resources requirements and increased use by other communities whose present sites may be closed.

Stollenwerk said, "as far as I can see it's a case of economics, the only question is, how long can we continue at $40.00."

Schmidt told the board, even if the county were to go ahead with the landfill plan, it would take five years before it would open. Communities whose present sites are filled before then could start hauling to Kewaskum's facility and that could cause the village's rate to sky rocket too.

Schmidt informed the board that a meeting will be held March 1st, in West Bend to discuss the landfill proposal. He asked what direction or input the board would like him to take to the meeting. Trustee Richard Schmidt said, "I think we should just be observers at this time and listen."

Schmidt asked the board to

Judicial Primary Election Tuesday

A Judicial Spring Primary Election will be held Tuesday, Feb. 15, for Justice of the Supreme Court.

The three candidates for the office, one of whom will be eliminated, are William A. Bablitch, Gordon Myse and Trayton L. Lathrop.

This is the only ballot that will be voted on in the Village of Kewaskum and the Towns of Kewaskum and Wayne.

In the Town of Auburn a primary election will also be held for the office of Town Treasurer, where there are four candidates to succeed Elmer Krueger, who retired. The candidates are LaVerne Schaub, Harold Pritzkow, Athleen Butzke and Norman Heberer.

read the complete resolution and he would place it on the February 21st meeting agenda for further discussion.

The Village Board addressed still another refuse related item during the meeting. This time the trustees approved Ordinance 83-3, which sets collection fees from properties which are exempt from local property taxes, such as schools,

Cancel School Budget Meeting

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After a two-hour delay because of a closed session considering the possible expulsion of a student, District Administrator John Long announced the board had decided to cancel Tuesday's meeting to discuss the 1983-84 School Budget.

Approximately a dozen citizens had patiently waited for the board to go into open session. Long apologized for the inconvenience and stated the budget discussions would be re-scheduled for the near future.

Historical Society Elects Officers

The Kewaskum Historical Society, Inc., held their annual meeting January 18. At this meeting the election of officers was held. The 1983 officers are as follows: Daniel Schmidt - President; Dolores Kleinke - Vice-President; Minerva Martin - Secretary; Sylvester Schmidt - Treasurer; Lloyd Westerman - Board of Directors (Ronald Markus and Marshal Reysen previously elected Board of Directors); Evangeline Teese-link - Curator and Rosie Westerman - Sunshine Lady. Dolores Kleinke was also appointed to the position of Youth Education Chairman.

Other business for discussion was the societies calendar of events for 1983. This calendar of events will be finalized at the February meeting and then published.

The Society will hold the next scheduled meeting on February 15, at 8:00 p.m., in the Municipal Building, 204 First Street, Kewaskum.

The public is invited to attend.

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM NEWS NOTES

II. Snow not to be deposited in the streets. No person shall cause to be deposited snow from his premises or sidewalk abutting thereon onto any street in the Village without a permit from the Superintendent of Public Works, who may require to be paid a fee sufficient to reimburse the Village for the cost of removal of such snow.

Don't Chance Snowmobiling On the Ice

With the many miles of well-marked, groomed trails throughout our area and the state, we want to stress to ALL SNOWMOBILERS, don't ride on the ice.

It's a said thing to pick up a paper and read that another death or injury has occurred because of breaking through the ice on a lake or river. Snowmobiling over supposedly frozen bodies of water is never a good idea, but it's more dangerous yet when you are riding in an unfamiliar area.

So, we ask that you please heed our warning. We are concerned for the safety of every snowmobiler, whether they belong to a club or not.

Clubs such as ours, work hard to provide good trails for everyone to use. Please use them and not the ice!

Yours for Better Snowmobiling. The New Fane Kettle Riders.

INTERCOUNTY EXCHANGE WITH OCONTO COUNTY

Would you like to visit a 4-H family in another county for three days this summer and have a member from another county visit with your family? Well you can through the 4-H Intercounty Cultural Exchange Program planned with Oconto county this year.

The purpose of the exchange is for 4-H members to have an experience living in a somewhat different culture. They would live with someone who has an interest in 4-H but that person may be in different projects, may have different club activities and do things differently in their family and community. It's getting to know how other people live and making new friends.

This exchange is for members 12-14 years of age. The dates are June 19-25. Under the plan, Oconto members would come to Washington County for the first part of the week and live with Washington County families. At mid-week members from both counties would go to Oconto County and stay with the Oconto County host families.

While the exchange goes on the members would take part in the daily family activities. Perhaps one special event might be planned for the whole group, but most of the time would be with the family. The member would be treated as a member of the family and would be expected to join in the work as well as the other activities.

One adult chaperone would also go along with the group.

Families that are interested should get the details and registration forms from the 4-H office.

churches and charitable organizations.

The recommendation to set such fees had been brought up last year when Schmidt told the board the village was not being reimbursed for refuse collection provided to the tax exempt properties. This deficit was being absorbed by the village.

Schmidt calculated approximately 2/3 of the refuse produced by these properties came from non-residents using these properties, such as rural students attending the various schools in Kewaskum and users of the Legion and Labor halls and Exodus House.

At this time, the board gave the go-ahead for Schmidt to set up a schedule of nominal collections fees. The board approved the following fees: A one-yard mobil container will cost $5.00 per week, 1.5 yard container $6.00 per week, 2 yard container $7.00 per week and garbage bags or cans $7.50 per month. The properties will be billed on a quarterly basis with cost running from $75.00 to $308.00 per year, depending upon the container size used for collection. The ordinance will go into effect March 1st.

The board also approved a resolution which will allow Kewaskum to participate in the county-wide electronic card voting system. The new method will use punch cards which will be electronically tabulated in West Bend. The initial cost to the village will be approximately $1,200. Schmidt noted the system will not provide any large savings, however, the system is much easier, quicker and accurate than manual vote tabulations. The new system should be in operation for the April election said Schmidt.

The board opened bids for the purchase of a new body for the tanker fire truck. Bids ran from a low of $12,861.00 to a high of $20,089.00. The bids will be reviewed by the fire department equipment committee and recommendations made at the February 21st meeting.

Police Chief Don Hlavaty received the okay to advertise the sale of the department's 1981 Chevrolet squad car.

Dan Schmidt presented a short report on building permits for 1982. "It wasn't as bad as it was supposed to have been," stated Schmidt. Permit requests were up considerably in all areas except one. Residential permits for new and remodeling homes were 42 in 1982, compared to 36 in 1981. Mercantile, stores, filling stations, offices, etc., saw an increase from 8 in 1981 to 14 in 1982. Factory permits, three were issued in 1982 compared to one in 1981. Non-taxable permits were the same at one in 1981 and 1982.

Trustee Don Mlodzik announced there will be a Public Works Committee meeting on February 21st at 6:30 p.m.

MEASLES

About 1 in every 1000 measles patients suffers from encephalitis [inflammation of the brain] which kills nearly 1 in 3 patients. Those that survive encephalitis often have mental defects and behavior disorders. Measles also often cause middle ear infections and pneumonia, leaving children partially deaf or with weak chests. For these reasons, everyone susceptible to measles should be immunized.

The South High School Chapter of the American Field Service observed its 30th anniversary when it hosted the Lake Moraine Area annual meeting on Saturday, Jan. 29. The group of 150 people from Sheboygan and surrounding communities was welcomed to the one-day conference by Roland Alger, Assistant Principal of Student Affairs at South High and the school's AFS faculty representative.

Kewaskum AFS Chapter representatives attending the meeting included the following: Gordon Wilhelmi, chapter president and his wife Frances, daughters Mary and Julie; Ms. Sue Schmitz, head of USA program in the Kewaskum Chapter; Ms. Terry Candelario, teacher in the Kewaskum School System, who is AFS student group advisor; Ms. LaVerne Hron, Kewaskum Chairman of Americans Abroad program; Mr. and Mrs. John Hazlewood, host family of AFS student Hiroko Yamada of Japan, who also attended, and their daughter Jan, who is AFS student president; Beth Strigenz, KHS, who will be the student to go abroad this summer, and Joan Jung, another KHS student and chapter member.

After Alger's welcoming remarks, the attendees participated in various workshops which provided a dis-ussion forum for the foreign students and their host families, prospective students and families as well as AFS Chapter personnel.

The day of activities was highlighted by a surprise presentation to Rudy and Betty Minster by the South High School Chapter. In his introductory remarks, chapter vice president Bob Srenaski noted that "to exist an organization requires not only a purpose, but also resources in form of people and money. But it takes more than those things to grow and prosper - it takes the sparkplug of dynamic leadership. The South High AFS Chapter has really 'taken off' in the last ten years because it has been blessed with the exceptionally dynamic leadership of Betty and Rudy Minster." In presenting the award to the Minsters, Srenaski noted that "their unselfish giving of themselves and exceptional dedication to AFS were inspirations to all of us in the Lakes Moraine Area."

In addition to the workshops and the Minster Award, the day's activities included a luncheon speaker, Mrs. Sylvia Weber, and a talent show presented by foreign and domestic AFS students. During her remarks, Mrs. Weber reviewed the history of AFS in the area and the events that led to the creation of the South High Chapter. Mrs. Weber related how personally rewarding her family's involvement in AFS has been and how rewarding AFS can be for all participants. She went on to note the personal accomplishments of many of the foreign students who made their temporary homes in Sheboygan and the Lake Moraine Area.

The Rev. Scott Walters, Associate Pastor of St. Luke United Methodist Church, gave the invocation and benediction at the meeting.

If any family in the community is interested in hosting a foreign or domestic AFS student for the 1983-84 school year, please call Gordon Wilhelmi at 626-4172.

"Pop, how do they catch crazy men?"

"It's easy. A little rouge and lipstick, a new hair-do and a pretty dress."

From the School Board President's Desk

How is the school budget coming along? Does the Board consider how deeply the economic problems are affecting the district?

As I mentioned last week, we are starting to work on the budget. There are two Board policies that touch on the Board responsibilities. Policy #8300 states: "They (the Board) seek to move toward decisions and actions which will best serve the educational needs of pupils in the light of available resources and the often conflicting needs and demands of all interested individuals and groups." Even more to the point is Policy #8100 which states: "It shall be the purpose of the board to provide education of the best obtainable quality for residents of Kewaskum School District, within the limitations imposed by the taxpayers' ability to pay and his willingness to support the educational program." (I supplied the underlining).

In working on the budget the Board is forced to deal not with that which we would like to have but that which we can afford. The private sector has taken the brunt of the economic blow and is, therefore, in trouble. As I talk to people in the community, I hear of no raises, take-backs, and generally reduced income. The public sector, on the other hand, has been relatively unscathed, with fairly full employment, regular raises, and no concessions to the economic plight of the private sector that supports it. I think it is about time that the public sector realizes that it too is going to have to feel the economic pain that the private sector has been enduring in order for both to survive.

The Board is fully aware of the economic problems and is committed to budgeting with the economic condition of our taxpayers in mind. It is hard enough to plan with this uncertain economy, but when the district gets hit by unexpected expenses like legal fees (already in excess of seven thousand dollars because of KEA law suits), it makes budgeting even harder. When I'm working on the budget, I'm reminded of an old saying—with a slight twist: Eat a live toad the first thing in the morning, and nothing worse will happen to you the rest of the day—unless, of course, you have to work on the school district budget.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Barbara Braun, both of Fredonia. Also surviving are two brothers, Norbert Braun of Lake Wales, Fla., and Al Braun of Fort Walton Beach, Fla.; and a sister, Mrs. Marie Block of Milwaukee. Two brothers preceded him in death.

Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at 8 p.m. Friday at St. Rose of Lima Church, Fredonia, with the Rev. Carl Alberti, pastor, officiating. Interment was in St. Rose Cemetery.

Visitation was held from 4 to 7:30 p.m. Friday at Poole Funeral Home, 203 N. Wisconsin St., Port Washington.

Today's Medicine

Note: National Children's Dental Health Month will be observed throughout the nation during the month of February, 1983. PRIMARY TEETH: THEY ARE IMPORTANT!

by Stephen R. Van Ess, D.D.S.

"They're only baby teeth, they'll fall out anyway." Fifty years ago, most parents and even some dentists felt this way about children's primary teeth. As a result, the children had dreadful teeth. In 1935, 96% of all five-year-olds had at least one cavity; 60% of them had seven or more. Painful toothaches and swollen jaws were not just jokes to laugh at in comic strips but facts of life.

Today, the situation is far better. The National Caries Program of the National Institute of Dental Health reports that 36% of all children 5-9 years old have no decayed or filled primary teeth.

This dramatic improvement in children's dental health has been possible only because people realized how important the primary teeth are. Children need strong, healthy teeth to chew their food easily, to learn to speak clearly, and to look good to themselves and their friends.

The primary teeth also help to reserve space in the jaw for the permanent teeth. If a primary tooth is lost too early, the teeth beside it may drift into the empty space. When it's time for the permanent tooth to come in, there's not enough space for it to grow into its proper position. This can make the teeth crooked, helping to create what dentists call a "malocclusion." Straightening the teeth may require orthodontic treatment.

Children should be examined by a dentist by the age of 3, when all of the primary teeth have erupted. In this way, any dental problems can be discovered and treated early. Often parents do not realize that tooth decay can start as soon as the teeth come through the gums. Even babies can have wide spread, early decay if they are allowed to take a bottle of milk, formula, sugar water, or fruit juice to bed with them at naptime or bedtime. Whatever the age, any child with tooth decay should see the dentist right away. Cavities don't get better by themselves; they just get worse. Decayed primary teeth can seriously damage the permanent teeth underneath them or near them in the mouth, as well as cause pain and difficulty in chewing.

The eagerly awaited basketball attraction of the year will take place this Saturday night, February 8, in the spacious new high school gym when the world famous Texas Cow Girls, champions of the female world, will appear here against the Kewaskum Chevrolets, champions of the Land o' Lakes league. A huge crowd is expected to attend the game which will immediately follow a preliminary contest at 7:15 p.m. between the firemen and Kiwanis Club. Proceeds of this twin bill will be used to defray expenses of the Lakes team. Manager "Cisco" Backhaus will probably start his regular five, consisting of John Tassar, center; Augie Bilgo and Don Meisenheimer, forwards, Frank Krueger and Bob Stenman, guards.

Bernard Murray, new vocational agriculture instructor at Kewaskum Community High School, who replaces Orval Behnke, and his wife and child have moved into the Elmer Schaefer home on East Main Street, recently vacated by Dr. H. L. Rumsey and family.

On the occasion of her birthday on January 25, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Staehler Sr. of Kewaskum, announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen, to Norman Boegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Boegel of Route 1, Allenton.

Miss Thelma Rosenheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosenheimer, Kewaskum, has accepted a teaching position in the English department at Beaver Dam High School, where she assumed her duties on February 3.

The first blizzard of the winter swept this community Tuesday, followed by sub-zero weather. All told only about 5 inches of snow fell, but the terrific wind piled it up in high banks.

According to E. A. Seeley, official weather observer stationed at Fond du Lac, January was the warmest first month on record of that office. Average of all the maximum temperatures registered during the month was 40 degrees and the average of minimum temperatures was 22.9 degrees fixing the mean for the month at 31.45 degrees.

When the populace of the community awoke Thursday morning and proceeded to go about their daily duties, they were confronted with the coldest day of the year, it being only 30 degrees below zero. Several reported that their thermometers registered 34 below.

Frank Slowik and Loran Keller have opened a barber shop at New Fane. Mr. Slowik is the shop manager and Mr. Keller, the apprentice. The price of a hair cut is 25 cents and shaves are 15 cents.

The senior class of Kewaskum High School will present their class play, "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy," on February 16 and 17. The cast includes Raymond Kudek, Linda Rosenheimer, Raymond Smith, Ruth Corbett, Marcella Schleif, Wilmer Klahn, William Martin, Theodore Schoofs, Sylvester Muckerheide, Ione Schmidt, Harold Casper, Edna Krueger, Eleanor Hron, Louise Herman, Eleanore Krautkramer, Harold Marx and Edward Dorn.

Principal E. E. Skaliskey has received a report from the University of Wisconsin of the ranking of the members of the senior class in a statewide intelligence test given early in December. The report shows that two students, Linda Rosenheimer and Ione Schmidt, placed exceptionally high. Four other seniors placing high were Edward Dorn, Ruth Corbett, Harold Marx and William Martin.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip McLaughlin Jr., Kewaskum was christened on Sunday. She received the name Joan Marie. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Schultz of Beecwood was baptized, also on Sunday. He received the name Charles Herman.

About 12 inches of snow fell last Friday afternoon and night blocking the roads so badly that none of the five rural carriers were able to get over their routes. Another heavy snowfall was experienced on Tuesday with a high wind which continued to drift the public highways so badly that team traffic was impaired the balance of the week.

A number of young men of the village have organized an orchestra and are holding rehearsals weekly. This organization is composed of a piano, violin, cornet, trombone and drums and will be known hereafter as the Kewaskum Quintette. They are now ready to take all jobs such as dances, parties, social gatherings, etc. at a very reasonable price. Address all communication to Joseph Schlosser, Manager.

The junior class of the Kewaskum High School gave a banquet to the seniors at the home of Miss Elsa Brandt on February 1. The following were present: Assistant Principal, Miss Amy Aplin; the seniors — Miss Kathryn Schoofs, Arthur Schaefer, Elsie Kocher, Edwin Kuehl, Susan Schoofs, Olga Haug and Nora Backhaus; the juniors — Agatha Tiss, Edna Altenhofen, Alvin Gottsleben, Rosa Ockenfels, Clara Heine-mann, Agnes Kuehl, Harry Backhaus, Elsie Sommers, Edna Schmidt, Cora Colvin, Walter Schneider and Joseph Schaezner.

While in town last Tuesday,

Emil Gessner, Frank Stange and Peter Fellenz, the building committee of school district No. 4, Town of Scott, bought the lumber at the Lay yards for their new school building. Contractor Louis Klumb of Kewaskum secured the contract for the carpenter work. Mr. Klumb also has the contract to build a new house for Fred Dorn in the Town of Kewaskum.

Congress last Monday passed a bill granting a flat pension of $12 a month to widows of all honorably discharged soldiers who have heretofore received pensions and an increase of $4 a month for those who have not benefitted under the act of 1890.

J & J AUTO TOPICS

ABOUT AIR

Some drivers wonder why their cars get less gasoline mileage and don't handle as well when the temperature suddenly drops.

One big reason is that cold air is more dense than warm air. If your tires had 30 pounds of air pressure and the temperature dropped, say 30 degrees, you now have only 20 pounds of tire pressure.

Of course, cold weather affects other parts of an automobile, too. Particularly, if it hasn't been properly serviced and maintained for winter use. This we do at J & J AUTO SERVICE. Drive over to 450 E. Main for an all-weather tune-up. You'll like the way we treat your car and you. Sure, we'll put air in the tires, too.

"A DEALER YOU CAN TRUST"

MAKING ENDS MEET

By Joyce Albrecht, Extension Home Economist
PLAN YOUR SURVIVAL STRATEGY BEFORE UNEMPLOYMENT, ILLNESS HIT

When the paycheck stops and the bills keep coming, the financial consequences can be serious.

The best way to manage successfully during a financial crisis is to plan ahead.

Every family probably needs an emergency fund to tide them over during unemployment, ill health or other difficulties. Many financial advisors suggest that families keep two to six months' income to meet emergencies. Your family may need more or less, depending on its daily expenses, debt load and other factors.

During the past few years, families may have learned to prepare for emergencies. A recent University of Michigan study showed that more than half the families surveyed who faced unemployment could draw on savings to cover expenses. About one-fourth reported going into debt.

If you anticipate a lay-off, take precautions now to ease the financial strain. Start by cutting back on expenditures. Postpone major purchases. Also consider decreasing your income tax withholding. With your income reduced for the year, you won't owe as much in taxes.

Find out exactly what you can expect in unemployment compensation and how long those benefits last. Inquire at your employer's personnel office about continuing group health insurance. Under state law, you can continue coverage under the same plan for up to one year by paying your employer's share of the premiums.

As a family, examine where your money has been going. Then decide which expenditures are essential and which can be cut. Draw up a survival budget and plan to follow it for at least six months.

Don't get caught thinking you can find a job in a month or two. In these times of high unemployment, it's best to be cautious.

As the job search continues and your savings dwindle, you may have to establish priorities for paying your debts. Generally, advisors recommend making house payments before paying other bills. If need be, go to the lender and ask if the payments can be restructured for a brief period. Perhaps the lender will allow you to pay only interest for several months.

Rent, utility bills, employment search costs, car payments and insurance premiums also are likely to be high priorities.

When deciding what bills to pay first, consider whether the creditor will try to collect. If the amount is low, collection costs may exceed the amount you owe. Also consider whether an item may be repossessed. Cars tend to be repossessed more often than furniture or appliances, unless those are very new.

You probably will want to pay bills with the highest finance charges as soon as possible.

Creditors must be paid or contacted immediately so that a suitable repayment plan can be arranged. It's best to contact creditors before bills are due. Don't try to avoid them.

Be prepared to tell your creditors the amount of take-home income you expect, your fixed expenditures (house payments, other debt payments, utilities), your variable expenses (food, clothing) and how long your income will be reduced. Present each creditor with a reasonable repayment plan and work out an agreement in writing. Be sure to follow the agreement and notify the creditor if your situation changes.

Motorcycle Rider Training Available Locally

If you are thinking of buying a motorcycle this spring, remember that the type of training you receive is even more important than the brand of motorcycle you select.

Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz said, inexperience and lack of training take a heavy toll of motorcyclists each year. "Wisconsin has a relatively short riding season. Therefore, it takes Wisconsin riders two or three times longer to become seasoned riders than those in warmer climates," he said.

The "cure" is rider training courses, which will be available early in April at all vocational, technical and adult education institutions in the state. "The 21 hours courses are taught by instructors trained and certified by the Motorcycle Safety Foundation," Sheriff Schwartz said.

People who want to learn to ride before investing in a motorcycle are welcome to participate in the training programs.

The rider training courses are a real bargain to the participants. The cost is usually under $20, with motorcycles and some safety gear furnished by area motorcycle dealers, at no extra charge to the participants. The remainder of the course costs are provided through a grant from the State Motorcycle Safety Program.

Give Snowplows Plenty of Room

Washington County motorists today were warned that following a snowplow too closely is not only illegal but dangerous, and may hamper efforts to restore a vital public service.

Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz advised that Washington County maintenance crews make every effort to expedite snow removal so that highways may be kept open for safe travel. "However, motorists should do their part by staying off the road when weather conditions are bad, and by avoiding interference with cleanup efforts when the storm has abated," said the Sheriff.

"Drivers should remember that when a heavy snowstorm hits, the snowplow operators may well have to stay on the job until the roads cleared, even if that means working around the clock," Sheriff Schwartz commented.

He went on to say that, "It's understandable that plowing crews don't feel kindly toward drivers who end up stalled and blocking plowing operations."

It is vital for motorists to remain a safe distance behind a snowplow for their own safety. "Plows throw up a swirl of snow which may limit the plow operator's vision, as well as may blind drivers of cars following too closely. When clearing an intersection, plows frequently have to back up and operators may not see a car, particularly a compact or subcompact, snuggled under the plow's tailgate," Sheriff Schwartz said.

Drivers convicted of following a snowplow (or other vehicle) too closely are required to post a $64 deposit, including court costs and penalty assessment. They also receive three (3) demerit points against their driving record.

Sensenbrenner to Hold Meeting in West Bend Feb. 12

Ninth District Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner will hold a "town hall" meeting for West Bend area residents on Saturday, February 12th, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the Washington County Court House, 432 East Washington Street, West Bend.

For the first hour, Sensenbrenner and area state legislators will respond to audience questions and comments on national and state issues.

Beginning at approximately 11:00 a.m., Sensenbrenner will meet with persons seeking help for problems they are having with federal agencies, or seeking information or copies of government publications.

The public is welcome.

Letters to the Editor

Unsigned Letter

This week the Statesman received another unsigned letter to the editor, criticizing the Kewaskum High School boys' varsity basketball team and their coach. The writer did not sign his or her name. All letters to the editor must be signed, and the name and address of the writer must be given in order to be published.

The Statesman prefers to use signed letters, however, the name of the writer will be withheld upon request.

We welcome letters to the editor on issues of concern to our community. We ask that the letters be legibly written or typed.

February 2, 1983

Dear Editor,

In a letter sent to the Editor on January 24th the School District of Kewaskum made certain arguments and allegations which present only one side of the issue. The Kewaskum Education Association wishes to make the public aware of facts which the Board article conveniently forgot to mention or misrepresented.

1. The Kewaskum School Board violated its own procedures in getting into the dental insurance dispute. The District bid the exact specifications from the Certificate of Insurance which was contractually required. Only one insurance carrier met those specifications. Only one insurance carrier agreed to meet the usual and customary payment practices which the contract mandates.

The Administration recommended the continuance of the WEA Insurance Trust dental program. It was the Board of Education, and not the Administration, which violated its own internal bidding procedure, allowed amendments to sealed bids after the bids were opened and did so in total disregard for the integrity of the bidding process.

The question the public must ask is who is responsible for such Board level mismanagement?

2. The letter to the editor misstated legal conclusions which never took place in Judge Schwalbach's courtroom. According to the Board's letter, the Court recognized the school board's duties to attempt to keep costs such as dental insurance as low as possible under all circumstances. This is not true. What the court will actually be determining is whether or not the District violated the teachers contract by changing the benefit levels and standards without the written consent of the Kewaskum Education Association members.

3. The District states that the Court found that the expired collective bargaining agreement does not allow nor was intended to require that the Board must obtain its insurance from the WEA Insurance Trust. They further state that the Court found the Blue Cross/Blue Shield plan would provide "basically" the same benefits and coverage. Using the term "basically" suggests the District violated Section 111.70 of the Wisconsin Employment Relations Act when it switched the benefit levels by adopting a new carrier.

Perhaps an analogy will help. If you contracted in writing to buy a side of beef from the meat cutter and then went to pick up the side of beef and were told that some of the particular cuts were going to be eliminated because the "meat cutter could save money," would you allow the meat cutter to do so? Wouldn't he have violated his written obligation with you to provide a complete side of beef? Nowhere in common law does one party get to take actions which increase the value of one side to the detriment of the other. This is exactly what is going on in the legal dispute which the KEA has with the District.

4. The District contends that it has spent over $7,400 for attorneys services as of January 15, 1983. It is the District which has violated the collective bargaining agreement. It is the District that violated its own bidding procedure. It is the District which never even asked the KEA to consider negotiating such benefit level changes. The KEA has repeatedly asked the District to negotiate the change outside of court. They refused. It is the District which continues to spend more money litigating changes which it alone initiated.

It is the American judicial system which allows the KEA to challenge such arbitrary actions. Should the KEA be denied its fundamental legal right just because the employer must defend itself? Perhaps the District is forgetting that the KEA members, through dues to their state organization, are paying too for the District's mistakes.

If the District is so concerned about spending $7,400 to date, then why is it that it had three different attorneys at a one-day hearing? That's not bad pay for that kind of work in this economy! If you as an individual had a sink to be fixed would you hire three plumbers? You might, if you had an unlimited taxpayer resource from which to drain. If the District is truly desirous about cutting its legal costs then it should have cut the number of attorneys representing the District by 2/3. The KEA was represented by only one attorney.

The irony of the cost argument is that the District may well spend more money defending its illegal actions than it would have saved. This makes no sense to the average taxpayer. In addition, the District may be liable for reinstating the old carrier and its benefit levels retroactively and paying court costs and attorney fees for the KEA. The cost impact to the District must be the responsibility to those individual Board members who blindly pursue at any cost their right to dictate management policy. Such action serves no public good, creates a hostile bargaining environment, wastes taxpayers' dollars and should not be tolerated by members of this community.

Very truly yours,
The Kewaskum
Education Association

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF FEBRUARY PRIMARY February 15, 1983

OFFICE OF WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given of a spring primary to be held in the several wards in the County of Washington, on the 15th day of February, 1983, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of office in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two ballot clerks must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.

At a nonpartisan primary, the elector shall place a cross or other mark in the square at the right of the name of the person for whom he or she intends to vote, or insert or write in the name of his or her choice for a candidate.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initiated by two ballot clerks or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official paper ballot is marked, it shall be folded so the inside marks do not show but so that the printed indorsements and ballot clerks' initials on the outside do show. After casting his or her ballot, the elector shall leave the machine or booth, and where paper ballots are used, give his or her name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand the inspector his or her folded ballot to be placed in the ballot box, deposit any unused ballots in the blank ballot box, and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may be assisted by two election officials of different political parties in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to physical disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. Alternatively, an elector making such declaration may have another elector of the county assist in marking the ballot or operating a voting machine. The presiding official may administer an oath to a person making such declaration.

Lakes Team Edged By Sussex, Denied Chance for First

The Sussex Lions denied the Kewaskum Lakes basketball team of a chance to move into first place in the Lakes 'B' Division by edging them, 89-86, in a mild upset at Hamilton High School, Sussex, Sunday night, as Rollie Pearson led the way with 23 points. The loss keeps Kewaskum in second place with a 5-5 record, a half game behind Port Washington, which is 5-4. Port was upset by Slinger, 139-122, Saturday night. Third-place Slinger thus moves a game closer to Port and Kewaskum with a 4-5 record.

Kewaskum had to play without the services of Bill Gonwa and Brian Larsen, and this hurt their chances. Also, Leon Laatsch fouled out with about five minutes to go when the game was still in doubt.

Sussex jumped to a 26-23 first-quarter lead as Pearson had eight. Kewaskum came back to lead at halftime, 47-46, behind Todd Pruett's seven second-quarter points. Sussex regained the lead in the third quarter and built it to as much as 14 points. By the end of the quarter Kewaskum had cut the lead to 75-69. Dan O'Rourke had eight in the quarter for Sussex and Clark Eichstedt had eight for Kewaskum. Kewaskum continued their comeback in the fourth quarter and took a two-point lead with about six minutes left. However, Laatsch fouled out shortly after that, Sussex regained the lead, and held on for the win despite getting only 14 points in the fourth quarter. Eichstedt had nine in the quarter for Kewaskum.

Besides Pearson, Dennis Konkol had 16 points for Sussex, Rick Paddock had 14, and Jeff Kroneberg and O'Rourke each had 12. Eichstedt led Kewaskum with 31 points, while Laatsch had 16 and Mike Maney 15.

Both teams shot well from the free throw line. Sussex made 15 of 19 for 78.9 percent, while Kewaskum was 14 of 19 for 73.7 percent.

Kewaskum will try to get back on the winning track when they host Mayville, which is in fifth place in the 'B' Division with a 1-7 record. The game will be Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Kewaskum High School gym.

KHS Chess Team Defeats St. John's 52-3

In a battle for second place in the SCCA, the Kewaskum chess team destroyed St. John's Military Academy 52-3. Kewaskum is now 3 and 1, while St. John's is 2 and 2.

The win was impressive as St. John's came in second place at last year's conference tournament and had all of its players returning.

Brian Pamperin started the match out right with a quick win at board 7.

Kewaskum interchanged their top two players for the match and the strategy worked perfectly.

Romie Holl defeated Chris Winn at board 1, while Gregg Classey was victorious at board 2. Holl's game was an exciting match as Holl had to sacrifice a piece but gained a strong attack. Holl involved all of his pieces in the attack, doubled his rook and on the knight file and found a winning attack that featured a pin against Winn's queen.

Classey also played a fine game as he trapped his opponent's bishop along the side of the board, won a pawn and finished up with a good endgame.

John Martin and Glenn Classey both won their matches in the openings with early knight forks. Ed Hahn and Jeff Igel won closely contested matches.

Todd Jaromin suffered the lone loss. Jaromin's game had to be adjudicated and decided by the advisors, as St. John's had to leave after 2½ hours. Jaromin had a pass pawn on the sixth rank but the game was awarded to his opponent, due to an advantage in materials.

Board 1 — Romie Holl 10, Winn 0

Board 2 — Gregg Classey 9, Martin 0.

Board 3 — Ed Ham 8, Gilbert 0.

Board 4 — Jeff Igel 7, Lain 0.

Indians Lose 2 More, to New Holstein, Chilton

The Kewaskum Indians dropped their record to 2-6 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference with two more losses last week. On Tuesday night at New Holstein they went down to the Huskies, 73-60, and Friday night at home they were nosed out by last place Chilton, 78-76.

New Holstein jumped out to a 37-27 lead in the first half and was never headed. The Huskies took full advantage of their chances from the free throw line, sinking 31 of them, 11 more than Kewaskum.

The defensive play of Dan Wilbersheid, who blocked a number of shots kept the Indians from getting off easy shots. Wilbersheid, a junior, showed much improvement since the last time the two teams met, when New Holstein had a rally to nip the Indians.

Another Husky showing improvement was little Bob Lautenschlaeger, who hit five baskets and 10 of 11 free throws for 20 of his team's points. He scored only three points against Kewaskum in their first outing in December. One of Lautenschlaeger's big plays came seconds before halftime when he made a three point play which gave his team a 10 point edge at halftime.

The teams were just about even on field goals but the Huskies had a 31-20 edge on free throws. The Indians fell behind and had to foul.

Both Kewaskum's Brian

Arndt and Dan Dean were held below their averages but Dennis Butz made up for it to a degree with 19 points on six baskets and seven free throws. He and Jeff Squier with 10 were the only Indians to hit the double figure mark.

Next to Lautenschlaeger's 20 points, Lorenz scored 17 for the winners.

All in all the game was pretty ragged with neither team showing up well.

FT Missed — Kewaskum 11, New Holstein 9.

Todd Eisner, 6-5, and Dave Nennig, 6-0, carried the scoring and rebounding load as Chilton finally got into the win column here Friday night, shading Kewaskum, 78-76. It was only Chilton's second win of the season compared to seven setbacks.

The Tigers have been showing improvement of late, however, losing by two points to both Kiel and Sheboygan Falls and holding their own against leading Two Rivers. Still with all of the team intact again after a number of injuries, the Indians figured on winning after gaining a victory in overtime in their first meeting at Chilton.

Eisner led all scorers with 26 points for the Tigers, including 10 straight free throws at one point, the most important two coming with just 35 seconds left which gave Chilton at 75-72 advantage.

The Indians' Brian Arndt also put on an impressive show, scoring 23 points on 11 baskets and one free throw, including three super left-handed hook shots. Arndt paced Kewaskum in a fourth quarter comeback and put them ahead with 3:47 to go after being down by seven.

Eisner's bucket and Nennig's free throw tied the game and an Eisner layup put the Tigers in the lead for good. Eisner, Nennig and Arndt were all cited for good games, but the Indians gave up too many easy shots on defense.

Trailing Eisner for scoring honors were Nennig with 25 points and Maliman with 11. Arndt's 23 were followed by Jeff Squier and Jim Hanrahan with 10 and Dean with 9.

Both the JVs and freshmen won to bring their records up to the .500 mark. Dan Menzel and Joe Riebe paced the JVs in their 64-44 win. The frosh got 19 points from Tim Rohlinger in their 53.36 victory. Rohlinger hit 30 points in the freshmen's 55-53 win over New Holstein Tuesday.

Plymouth Wrestlers Win E-W Tournament; Kewaskum Last

Plymouth, which tied for the dual meet championship in Eastern Wisconsin Conference wrestling, also won the conference tournament at Two Rivers Saturday.

The Panthers ran up 150½ points, seven more than second place Sheboygan Falls with 143½. The top five teams in the seven team conference all finished within 23 points of each other, showing the balance in the E-W this year.

New Holstein, the other team champ, was fifth with 127½, behind Two Rivers 133, and Kiel 130½. Chilton and Kewaskum trailed the pack with 75½ and 73½ respectively. Kewaskum did not have a single entrant qualify for the finals.

Four individuals successfully defended their titles: 112 pound Wayne Prah of Kiel, 155 pound Wayne Hoerth of Chilton, 167 pound Dan Laurent of Two Rivers, and 185 pound Scott Rabe of New Holstein.

It was a bad day for Kewaskum. The Indians managed to get six of their 11 wrestlers through the first round but all of them were outpointed in the semi-finals. Both Mike Wiedmeyer (119) and Brad Dieringer (138) dropped one point decisions. Both boys came back to take third places.

Two other Indian wrestlers whom it was hoped would reach the finals, Stuart Stautz (155) and Steve Seitz (167) lost two matches. Seitz was ahead late in the second period when he gave up a takedown and near fall. He then lost a one-point decision.

Stautz fell behind by a 5-0 score in the semis and was never in the match. He too lost a one point decision for third place.

The Indians hope to do better this Saturday in regional competition at Sheboygan North.

Three Starters Foul Out In Girls' Loss to Kiel

By Cathy Schlice

The Indian girls had their winning streak snapped at 2 games at the hands of the Kiel Raiders here Tuesday night. The final score was 62-50.

Kewaskum had a tough time guarding Sue Kuester in the first half. Kuester had 16 of her team's 39 points in the first half but was almost shut out in the second half, scoring only a pair of free throws. The Indians were very cold in the first half, hitting only 6 shots and 2 free throws.

Center Julie Koepke picked up 4 quick first half fouls and was used sparingly in the second half. Another victim of fouls was Linda Larsen, who picked up foul No. 5 early in the fourth quarter, finishing with a team high 18 points. Before the end, 2 other starters, Lisa Matenaer and Cathy Schlice, also fouled out.

In the second half the Indians went into a man-to-man defense and outscored them 36-23 in the half, cutting the lead to 9 at one point but never came closer.

Coach Soerens was proud of his team's hustle in the second half and especially in the fourth quarter when they outscored the Raiders 21-12 with Schlice contributing 6 points and Cheryl Jaeger 4. Larsen scored only 3 points in the final period before fouling out.

Free throws made the 12 point margin as Kewaskum hit 8 of 20 for 40%, while Kiel shot twice as many, 40, hitting 22 for 55% creating the 12-point winning margin.

Larsen scored 18, Koepke added 12 and Schlice and Jaeger netted 6 in the losing cause.

The Raiders were led by Kuester and Tammy Brocker with 18 and 15 points respectively. Koepke pulled in 13 rebounds and Larsen hauled in 9.

The Kewaskum girls have 3 games this coming week. Thursday they play at Two Rivers, Monday they have a makeup contest at Chilton, postponed by the weather on Feb. 3, and Tuesday they travel to Plymouth. The final home game before the tournaments is Thursday, Feb. 17, against Sheboygan Falls.

The JVs were victorious over the Raiders by a final score of 53-28 with Debbie Basten leading the Indians' attack with 11 points.

The frosh were also victorious over the visiting Raiders by a final of 47-23. Jody Yearling led her team with 15 points, while Lisa Fusek, Sandy Muench and Brenda Kober each added 8 to chalk up another victory.

Gymnasts Beat Waupun, 2nd in Chilton Invite

The Kewaskum High gymnasts came up with super performances in a dual meet win over Waupun Thursday and a second place finish in the Chilton Invitational Saturday.

Three school records were broken in the two meets. In the 88.79 to 77.01 victory over Waupun Annette Jandre had her best meet of the season. She recorded three first places, along with a first in all-around. Jandre hit a 7.65 on the vault for a school record and two days later she came up with an even better showing with a 7.9 in taking third place Saturday at Chilton. Also in the Waupun meet Jandre's 7.237 in all-around was a school record.

Saturday in the seven-team meet at Chilton, the Indians scored 92 points, just two behind the winning Fall River team. The second place Kewaskum girls brought home their first trophy.

Sandy Nigh placed in four events - second in the all-around, third on the beam (7.1), fifth on parallel bars (7.1), and sixth on floor exercise (7.6).

Wendy Wilson took a sixth in all-around and set a record for bars with 7.4, which was good for third place. The old mark was 7.0, also set by Wilson in 1979.

Dolly Swenson had the team's other place, a fourth on vault with 7.4.
