Sno-Chiefs and Hon-E-Kor Dedicate New Bridge

New bridge on county snowmobile trail on Hon-E-Kor Country Club land.

The Kewaskum Sno-Chiefs Snowmobile Club held a bridge dedication ceremony on February 27, at the Hon-E-Kor Country Club. The bridge spans the Milwaukee River and is sixty feet long and ten feet wide.

Construction of the bridge was a joint venture. Hon-E-Kor was responsible for the foundation and the decking. The Sno-Chiefs supplied manpower and assorted materials. The Washington County Snowmobile Association provided funds for the beams and a crane service. Since the Association is self-supporting and uses no public tax dollars, it relies primarily on registration fees paid by snowmobile owners and a portion of the gasoline tax.

Present at the dedication were AWSC president, Jim Gescheidle; vice-president, George Lendved; local director, Jerry Wantry; Washington County Snowmobile Association president, Dan Fischer; county board members Harold Westerman and Jack German. Bruce Halfmann represented Hon-E-Kor. Robert Staehler, president of the Governor's Council, presided over the ceremony. After a few appropriate speeches, Wendi Wilson, the Sno-Chiefs newly elected queen, officially opened the new bridge by cutting the ribbon.

Sincere thanks and well-deserved recognition are given to those people responsible for a very successful project: Russ Shiba, coordinator; Rich Schmidt, welder; Howard Fischer, crane service; Bill Lehmann, coordinator; as well as Howard Hackbarth, Richard Kuehl, John Shaske, Marge Schmidt, Fred Wesenberg, and Terry Shaske.

Four Firms Bid On Wastewater Plant Project

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Dean Freeberg of Foth & Van Dyke and Associates opened bids for the modification project planned for Kewaskum's Wastewater Treatment plant.

The program will update and modify the plant to meet the Department of Natural Resources' latest guidelines and requirement for operation of a wastewater treatment facility.

The project will include general construction work related to, and including, installation of fiberglass covers for the two clarifier tanks and installation of chlorination equipment.

R.P. Honold Company of Sheboygan came in with a low bid of $68,694.00, CEPEK Construction, Madison, bid $69,700.00, Joseph Lorenz Company, Hartland, $71,200.00, and high bid of $74,708.00 from Krug & McClellan of Butler.

The cost of the clarifier covers, which is included in the bids, is expected to run approximately $54,000 to $57,500.00. Freeberg will review the bids and make a recommendation to the village board at its next meeting.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt noted construction costs had been expected to run about $110,000 to $115,000, but submitted bids indicate final costs should run about $35,000 to $45,000 lower than projected depending on which bid the village and DNR accept.

Financing of the project will be handled with 60% of the program funded through the Wisconsin Fund and 40% being picked up by the village.

KEWASKUM ELEMENTARY ART SHOW TUESDAY EVE

The second annual Kewaskum Elementary Art Show will be held on Tuesday evening, March 15, at 6:30 at the Middle School. The public is invited.

R.L.'s Game Room Open

R. L. Haney, Kewaskum, has taken over the game room at 143 Main Street, from Ervin Waala Jr., West Bend.

The video game center will be called R. L.'s, the name Haney was known by, by his high school students during 16 years of teaching, of which the last 11 years were in the Pardeeville school system. Currently R. L.'s has 10 games. Haney hopes to double that number. The games are owned by West Bend Amusement Company.

R. L.'s sells a variety of snack items such as soda, Schwan's ice cream treats, candy, popcorn, chips and string cheese.

Hours at the game room are Monday thru Thursday, 3-9 p.m.; Friday, 3-10 p.m.; Saturday, 12-10 p.m., and Sunday 2-8 p.m., until the summer season.

An adult attendant will be on duty at all times. Basic rules governing R. L.'s are: No smoking, no alcohol, no bad language and no loitering.

Credit and I.O.U.s will not be given. Haney feels that a person should have the quarter to use or should not play.

Chess and cards are available at small rental fees. Gambling is prohibited.

Haney is searching for seating and tables so that the game room can be used for birthday and other parties. He is also interested in the use of the facilities as a senior citizen center during the morning hours if interest is shown.

Since the game room will struggle just to meet expenses, Haney said "If trouble begins, I will close the place up quick."

Char Zarling Named Chairman
Miss Washington County
Pageant Set for April 23

Every young girl dreams of becoming Miss America. The girl who is selected Miss Washington County Pageant queen could be the next Miss America.

Now is the time to decide for any young woman in the Washington County area who qualifies, Char Zarling, Pageant General Chairman, said in calling for candidates to enter the pageant.

Zarling also announced that the Pageant will be conducted the Saturday night of April 23rd at 7:30 p.m. at the Grafton High School. The pageant will be a part of the Tri-County Pageant, the other counties being Ozaukee County and Sheboygan County. Six finalists from each county will compete. The three winners will go to Oshkosh in June to compete for $25,000 in scholarships on the state level.

Zarling called for civic and social organizations in the area to sponsor candidates and she called for individual young women to submit their own names as entries. Applications can be obtained by calling 626-2264. The Pageant winner receives a scholarship that offers her educational and cultural advantages and can provide promotional possibilities for the merchants and communities that back her. The amount of support we receive from sponsors and advertising fees determines the amount of the scholarship the winner and 1st runnerup receive.

To qualify, a young woman must be between the ages of 17 and 26 on the Labor Day holiday, must be a high school graduate by Labor Day and must never have been married.

Talent will be considered in the judging and each contestant should possess some quality of talent, either trained or potential. In discussing the talent qualification, Zarling stresses that the range is varied and that no young woman must necessarily be trained in any specific field. She pointed out that many entrants in previous pageants did not realize they possessed a quality of talent until they considered entering the contest. She also pointed out that in almost every national Miss America Pageant conducted at Atlantic City, N.J., there have been state queens who have presented dramatic readings or comedy monologues as their talent presentations before a panel of nationally prominent judges.

FFA Speakers Move On to Sectionals

In late February, three speakers represented the Kewaskum FFA at the State District Speaking Contest held in Horicon. Patsy Panzer recited the FFA Creed, John Nowak participated in extemporaneous speaking and Jon Etta delivered a prepared public speech on swine.

District speaking contests represent the first phase of State Competition, with only the first place finishers advancing to the State Sectionals. Patsy Panzer finished a close second in the tough Creed competition. John Nowak and Jon Etta each placed first in their divisions, earning the right to speak at sectionals later this month. All three contestants were competing against the eight other FFA Chapters in the district.

John Nowak and Jon Etta, both sophomore agriculture students have had previous speaking experience. Nowak spoke this fall at the District Soil and Water Conservation Contest, placing second. Etta was last year's second place State Creed Speaker.

County Goal Set in Stewardship Appeal

Washington county has a goal of $199,000 this year in the Catholic Stewardship Appeal of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, compared to $187,000 in 1982.

The goal was announced by Washington county district leader Leo F. Schlaefler of West Bend, who also named associate leaders to help direct the campaign, which runs until March 22.

Last year Washington county raised $187,305 in contributions from 4,892 donors.

The total goal in this golden anniversary year is $5,000,000, or just under a five per cent increase over last year's goal of $4,750,000. The appeal topped this goal by $90,000, raising a total of $4,840,000 in 1982.

Associate leaders named by Schlaefler are: Erwin J. Benka, 740 Fairview Drive, Hartford; Jerome Krantz, 321 1st St., Allenton; Robert Kirst, 333 Main St., Kewaskum; Patrick J. Faragher, 1816 Chestnut St. and James A. Spella, 1129 E. Timberline Dr. of West Bend.

The annual appeal is the major source of funds to maintain the services and agencies of the archdiocese. These serve parishes and individuals in 10 counties of southeastern Wisconsin. General chairperson of the campaign is Mrs. Eileen Sheahan of Elm Grove.

People once believed that if their palms itched they would receive money.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK

On March 12, Girl Scouts will celebrate their 71st Birthday, and our theme for the whole year will be, "We Found a New World."

Girl Scouting has opened new worlds of thought and action to nearly four generations of American Girls.

Finding New Worlds in Girl Scouting begins with the individual girl working at her own level. Caring leaders help her gain the security to reach out to other people, find new interests, and accept new challenges.

Girl Scout Week, March 6 to 12, gives us the opportunity to see the many ways Girl Scouting affects our world for the better. The girls will hold special services in their churches, and also hold special events in their individual troops. The community Pot Luck Supper, normally held during Girl Scout week, had to be postponed until March 27 this year. We will also hold our annual Art Fair at the Valley Bank from March 4 to March 17. We hope you will stop in and see some of the beautiful things made by area Girl Scouts.

We would like to call upon all citizens of Kewaskum, Farmington, Beechwood, and Wayne to give their continued interest, cooperation, and support to the Girl Scouts throughout 1983.

Village Board

Schmidt said there is approximately $51,000 available in the "Aid for Sewage Treatment Plant" account and $45,000 in the village's Department of Sanitation Improvement Fund.

Schmidt advised the board that a lawsuit brought by Ralph and Henriette Scott against the village had been dismissed in Circuit Court on December 6th, 1982. Schmidt stated, "a judgement has been entered against the Scotts for the costs incurred in that lawsuit and the village's attorneys will be proceeding with the collection of that judgement."

The Scotts have now started a similar suit against the village in Federal Court. The board went into closed session to discuss this latest action.

Village President Gerald Stollenwerk issued a proclamation stating the week of March 20th and the day of March 26th be declared Kewaskum Indian Booster Club Week and Day.

The proclamation recognizes the club's fine efforts to support extra curricular activities of the school district. The club's projects have provided funds for a band instrument van, ventilating system in the weight lifting room, high school trophy case, and a $300.00 yearly scholarship.

The board approved the construction work and materials for completion of the Edgewood Drive storm sewer. The actual work will be done by the village's Public Works Department crew.

Administrator Schmidt furnished the trustees with a copy of the resolution approved by the communities of Germantown and Richfield regarding a county landfill. "We could adopt a similar resolution after some revisions," said Schmidt.

Schmidt told the board, present county plans are to have each community that commits itself to the landfill represented on the Solid Waste Management Board. There would be between 15 and 20 board members, depending on how many municipalities join the program. No final action is needed said Schmidt until a revision comes through.

At its March 21st meeting, the board will review TIF financing options for the new well project on the south end of the village.

The board approved requests from the Public Works, Wastewater Treatment and Parks

Departments to advertise for part-time summer help. The village will take applications during Easter week with April 11th, the deadline for applying.

The board also approved a motion to lift the winter parking ban effective immediately.

letters to the editor . . .

March 8, 1983

To the Editor:

We, the members of the Kewaskum High School Student Government, are writing this letter in regard to the eight-period day. One of our representatives recently discussed the situation with Dr. Charles Ogi, the president of the school board. In this conversation, he indicated that no student or taxpayer was going to tell him what to do. We feel that this was an irresponsible position to take. It seems to us that the taxpayers and students are the very backbone of our school district. He also implied that it does not matter what the students want - (This does not agree with the original thoughts of the school board. The main reason that the eight-period day came up was because the school board had believed that the students wanted it). However, we feel that it does matter as to what the students want because it affects our education. Lastly, he implied that the administration wanted the eight-period day. However, after talking to a few members of the administration, we found that they were against it.

We would like Dr. Ogi to clarify these statements, and we would also like to state the thoughts of the student government, which represents the student body. In a survey of the students, the majority were against an eight-period day. We found the main objection to an eight-period day was the shortened class period. For example, in a phy-ed class, it takes twenty minutes to dress, undress, and take attendance. This leaves you with 22 minutes of actual playing time. In an academic class, after reviewing the assignment and discussing a new one, there is little or no time left for individual help from the teacher. Therefore, it is obvious that both vocational and academic classes will be affected.

There were some students in favor of the eight-period day because they did want to take an extra class. However, most did not want valuable class time taken away. Therefore, if the eight-period day is to be considered, a rotation schedule should also be.

If we went to an eight-period day, most students would not have enough electives to choose from. Therefore, classes would have to be added to the curriculum. Thus, an eight-period day would benefit the minority not the majority. During our discussion with the administration they had several good suggestions in working out the problems of the minority.

As student government representatives, we hope the board members will give serious thought to the opinions of the students.

Profitable move or power move? This is the question that is still running through my mind. I guess the real answer lies in who you ask. Was it really necessary to move the administration offices to the high school and take over the guidance counselors offices? To move the guidance offices into smaller quarters really makes no sense at all. It has taken several years to get the guidance offices up to the high quality that they now have. To push them into a cubbyhole is a great injustice to the ones you want to help. "THE STUDENTS." Instead of having room for the student to wait, they will now be asked to wait in the hall. All of the career pamphlets will have to be placed in the hallway which is about 3 feet wide. Not as many will be available to the students because of the lack of much needed space. What kind of message will we be sending out to the scholarship community? When a group of interviewers, be they college reps or members of a scholarship committee, come to the Kewaskum High School to interview students and possible scholarship candidates, where are they going to conduct their interviews? Are we going to run them all over the school? Is this the kind of organized confusion we want to display to our college bound students? What if small groups of students want to see one of the guidance counselors? What are we to do? Do we tell them to take a number? How will it affect the students having the guidance office next to the vice principal's office? What about the confidentiality that now exist between the guidance counselors and students on personal matters? I have been told that this move was done to save a total of $4,000.00! How much is it going to cost to make all of these moves? Why was it so important to make the move now? Why couldn't it have waited until school was out for the summer? That is, if it really had to be done at all! I feel it's time for some people to forget about trying to show their power and feed their egos. Let's get back to the basics and quit playing chess with our children's future!

From the School Board President's Desk....

What is the difference between computer literacy and computer programming? Aren't they pretty much the same thing?

There is quite a difference between computer literacy and computer programming. Computer literacy means knowing how to operate a computer using a program someone else designed. The vast majority of people who use computers in their occupations are using programs that were designed for their specific needs by computer program designers—or computer programmers. This is not to imply that people who use computers have no input. The program is general—it becomes specific when one enters one's own numbers or other specific data. Computer literacy also means understanding what a computer can and cannot do. Contrary to what some may say, computers cannot do everything. Knowing the limits of the machine is an essential part of computer literacy.

On the other hand, utilizing the capacity of the computer is the job of the computer programmer. Designing a program is a very logical, detailed process. Have you ever tried to write down every single step involved in tying your shoes? It is enough to make one switch to boots. In programming, one must design a series of steps which, if followed, will consistently give the desired result. It is not easy. Fortunately, the proliferation of software (computer programs) makes it possible for computer-literate people to effectively use the computer without knowing programming.

I was glad to hear from so many of you about your interest in a computer demonstration evening. As soon as the Long Range Planning Committee finalizes the plans, I'll be sure to let you know.

WISCONSIN FARMLAND PRESERVATION PROGRAM UPDATE

The Wisconsin Farmland Preservation Program was enacted to assist local people who want to preserve farmland, and to provide tax relief to farmers who participate. Farmers are eligible for tax credits only if the county in which they farm has adopted a farmland preservation plan or exclusive agricultural zoning.

Washington County adopted a Farmland Preservation Plan in 1981. This qualified farmers for tax credits only in townships which completed exclusive agricultural zoning.

As of September 30, 1982, 51 counties had adopted farmland preservation plans, four more plans were scheduled to be adopted in 1982 and six counties just began their planning programs.

Exclusive agricultural zoning has been adopted by all or some townships in twenty-five counties. As of that date, 13,000 farms are protected by exclusive agricultural zoning representing over 2.6 million acres of Wisconsin farmland.

The townships of Hartford, Kewaskum, Trenton and Barton and the Village of Germantown now have exclusive agricultural zoning approved by the Wisconsin Farmland Preservation Board. Therefore, farmers located in these townships and village can take advantage of the Wisconsin Farmland Preservation Tax Credit Program.

Any farm owner in an exclusive ag. zone is eligible for tax credits if the farm is at least 35 acres in size and produces an annual crop valued at $6,000 in the past year or an average of $18,000 over the last three years.

According to 1977-1979 data, the average farm size of all participants is 200 acres, which is also the average farm size state wide. The majority are dairy farmers. The milk production of participants is slightly higher than that of the average Wisconsin dairy farmer (571,900 pounds vs. 464,800 pounds per year). Only 2.7% of the land in the program is held by corporations.

The amount of tax credit can be calculated in two ways; a formula can be used which compares household income with property taxes and pays the highest credit when income is low and property tax is high or the credit amount can be 10 percent of the current years property tax (up to a maximum credit of $600.00 using this method). The method paying the highest credit can be used.

The tax credit or refund is claimed against state income tax. To claim the credit, a certificate must be obtained from the county Landuse and Parks Dept. The certificate is then attached to the individual's income tax return along with Form F.C.

The Farmland Preservation Program provides that under certain conditions the landowner is responsible for paying back part of all of the tax credits. The basic payback provisions are:

1. When land is rezoned out of the exclusive agricultural district.

2. The maximum payback tax is the total of tax credits received over the preceeding 10 years interest free plus 6% interest from the time of rezoning.

3. Even after land is rezoned out of an exclusive ag. district, the payback tax does not have to be paid until the land is sold or developed.

4. The owner of the land at the time it is rezoned is responsible for paying back the tax credit received by earlier owners.

5. As long as the land remains in the exclusive ag. district there is no payback.

We hope this information answers some questions and misunderstandings some farmers and townships have about the program. Please contact Jack Trzebiatowski, University Extension at 338-4477 for more specific and detailed information and assistance. The Washington County Landuse Dept., 338-4445 and the Soil Conservation Service, 334-3706 can be contacted for assistance.

ATHLETES - PROTEIN

Supplemental protein for body-building programs in young athletes is of no value, states the American Medical Association. Protein does not increase strength, is not an efficient energy source, does not store in the body, and may take extra energy to metabolize and digest when taken in excess. The AMA also notes that excess protein may cause dehydration, loss of appetite and diarrhea.

WTKM, Hartford, Plans Farm Fair

With spring on the way and agriculture week starting soon, it's time to say "thank you" to the farmers in the community for their help in providing us with our country's plentiful food supply. To coincide with the start of this new planting season, an Agriculture Appreciation Day has been planned by WTKM Radio for Tuesday, March 22.

The "WTKM Farm Fair" will be held at Zivko's Chandelier Ballroom in Hartford from 9 until 5, and will feature over 40 agribusiness firms from throughout the area, exhibiting their products and services. Guests can also enjoy free milk courtesy of Cedarburg Dairy and Bordens, along with food and refreshments sold by the Hartford FFA alumni.

The Farm Fair will also give farmers a chance to talk with local and regional farm leaders, and area home economists will be available to answer questions from the farm wives. Although this is the first farm show in this area in many years, it's hoped that the WTKM Farm Fair and Agriculture Appreciation Day can become an annual springtime event.

UWWC to Stage 'Cabaret'

UWWC's Theatre on the Hill will perform the bittersweet, candid musical CABARET March 17-20 and 24-27. Performance times are 8:15 p.m. each night in the Union Theatre, 400 University Drive, West Bend.

CABARET received the Tony award and the New York Drama Critics award for best musical in 1966.

The play is set in 1929 Berlin, Germany. Based on John van Druten's play, I AM A CAMERA, CABARET tells the story of the frustrated love affair between Sally Bowles, an innocent amoralist, and Clifford Bradshaw, an aspiring novelist. A subplot depicting the romance between a middle-aged landlady and a Jewish fruit store proprietor help illustrate the disillusionment and decaying morality that led Germany into the hands of Nazism.

One of the many highlights of CABARET is the garish nightclub that features Kit-Kat girls and an all female band.

Tickets for CABARET can be picked up weekdays at the university between 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. or ordered by calling 338-5208. Tickets will also be available before performances if seats are still available.

FEELING HIGH

I guess there's many ways you can feel high; needle injections, powder sniffing, pill swallowing, hard liquor, just to mention a few. But one that can be just as bad is automobile exhaust. Leaky manifolds, rusted mufflers and broken exhaust pipes can give you that 'high' feeling, too.

Servicing under the hoods and chassis at J & J AUTO SERVICE, we get a good write up at times, and although we write lightly about it, it can be a tragic one. So, if you notice exhaust odors, keep your car windows open and get over to 450 E. Main. We'll check it out for you. You'll like the way we service your auto.

TAKING CARE-A WAY OF LIFE A WAY OF MEETING THEME OF MEETING

"Taking Care-A Way of Life" is the theme for the next Washington County 4-H Leaders Association meeting. It will be on Monday, March 14, 7:30 p.m. at the University of Wisconsin Extension 4-H Office meeting room in West Bend. All adult and youth 4-H leaders in Washington County are invited.

The Kewaskum 4-H'ers will be serving refreshments at 7:30 p.m. and the business meeting gets under way at 8:00 p.m. The main part of the evening will be devoted to "Taking Care." It is a new unit which takes a new approach to the idea of health. Health means more than not being ill. It means feeling good and feeling good about yourself. It means doing little things that help the family have fun together and do things for each other.

The new booklets in the "Taking Care" project have many ideas for activities at club meetings, for the family and for a member to do alone. One example is a special gift certificate. This is a certificate which you give to someone. On it you write something special that you will do for this person. For example you could offer to wash the dishes, or run an errand or any other nice thing that you could do to make someone else happy. Being thoughtful and courteous towards others can lead to family happiness and good health. The Taking Care project emphasizes those things that we can do.

MAKING ENDS MEET

By Joyce Albrecht, Extension Home Economist

STRETCH YOUR FOOD DOLLARS WITH STEWS

Penny pinching! Trying to watch your food dollars! Why not try a stew? A stew is economical, easy and great to serve in cold, damp weather.

The traditional stew is a whole meal in a single pot with meat, vegetables and gravy simmered together in a cooking liquid. In America, stew commonly consists of beef, onions, potatoes and carrots, but all kinds of ingredients can be used. What ever the ingredients, stew means familiar and economical foods, imaginatively combined and simmered slowly to produce distinctive flavors and tender meats.

Stews are an economical way of preparing food. Nothing is lost by evaporation and nothing is thrown away but the bones and then only after they have furnished their nourishing substances.

Stew, whether done in the oven or on the stove, is a long process with the proper temperature between 150 degrees and 170 degrees F.

Because stew is cooked slowly for a long time, less tender cuts of meat can be used. Many recipes use beef, but you can also use veal, lamb or pork. You may wish to buy packaged stew meat or cut your own from a large piece of meat. Whichever you choose, be sure to trim off all fat to reduce greasiness and simplify eating.

The traditional stew vegetables are carrots, potatoes, onions, and turnips. You may choose to add such vegetables as parsnips, mushrooms, green peppers, cauliflower, green beans, and rutabagas. Use vegetables you have on hand or add some of those leftover. What ever vegetables you do choose to use, generally add at the end so that their good garden flavor is saved and the vegetables are not overcooked. Judge when to add vegetables as to how fast or slow the vegetables cook.

Almost any type of meat stew can be frozen successfully. The vegetables will freeze well if they have not been overcooked. Stews can be preserved by canning. They should be processed in a pressure canner at 10 lbs. pressure in pint jars for 60 minutes and quart jars for 75 minutes.

The following are two recipes from the bulletin called "Stretch Your Food Dollars with Stew-Pendous Meals" available at the U.W. Extension Office. To receive a copy of the bulletin, submit a self-addressed, stamped, legal size envelope to Joyce Albrecht, UWEX, P.O. Box 537, West Bend 53095.

Unplug It... And Be Safe

Always unplug any small electrical product after using it, cautions the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers (AHAM) and Underwriters Laboratories (UL).

Don't assume that if the switch is "off," there's no danger of electrocution. This may not be true if the product comes into contact with water.

Electrocutions may occur in kitchens, bathrooms or outdoors — anywhere near water sources.

Never use any electrical product while bathing or put it where it can drop or be pulled into the tub or sink. If the appliance accidentally falls into the water, don't reach into the water for it. Unplug it immediately at the wall outlet.

Never leave a small portable electrical appliance within the reach of small children. Children left unattended could pull the plugged-in, but switched-off appliance into the tub or sink and risk being electrocuted.

Clarence A. Schwartz, Sheriff

Sheriff Says U-Turns Are Illegal At Signal Lights

Making a U-turn at a signal light could cost up to $40 and three (3) demerit points against your driver's license, according to Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz.

Wisconsin law specifically prohibits U-turns at signalized intersections, whether or not a "No U-Turn" sign has been erected, the Sheriff said.

Other places where U-turns are prohibited are mid-block in a business district (unless the turn is at a crossover on a divided highway), or mid-block on any through highway in a residential district (unless at a crossover on a divided highway).

U-turns are also prohibited at any location where signs prohibiting such turns have been erected, Schwartz added.

A second or subsequent conviction within a year could result in a forfeiture of up to $100, plus an additional three (3) penalty points.

Dinner Planned by Citizen Advocacy Program of County

Five years ago, the Association for Retarded Citizens of Washington County opened the doors of the Citizen Advocacy Program. The idea came from a desire to involve the community, through one to one relationships with volunteers. A better quality of life for people who happen to be disabled was the main goal, and in the five years since the start of the program, volunteers have gotten involved in 70 one to one relationships and have spent over 15,000 hours with people who are disabled.

The lives of both people in each of the Citizen Advocacy relationships has been enriched by sharing friendship, concern and support.

It is this sharing that is being celebrated at a dinner commemorating the 5th anniversary of the Citizen Advocacy Program. Active citizen advocacy relationships, past and present advisory committee members, board members and supporters of the program will share the evening of March 14 at Timmerman on Big Cedar Lake. Entertainment and anecdotes from people who have been involved in the program will follow a cash bar and dinner. In addition, Mary Panzer, State Representative for the 53rd district, will make some comments. For more information, call the Citizen Advocacy office at 334-3384.

TRAVELING WITH YOUR PET

By Gregory G. Ogi D.V.M.

It happens every year. Millions of vacationing and moving families are faced with the question of "what to do about their pet."

Some pets can add a great deal of pleasure to a family trip. On the other hand, some pets can take all the pleasure out of a trip. In the latter case, a week or two in a clean well-run boarding kennel might be your pet's idea of an ideal vacation.

Your first step is to make sure your pet is in good health. You may want to take him to a veterinarian for a checkup. If you are traveling through several states, check with your veterinarian to find whether health certificates and proof of rabies vaccination are required. Most states require some form of health certificate.

If you are planning a long trip in your car, just let your pet get used to the feel of the car by taking several short trips around town. After a few rides most pets overcome their motion sickness and begin to enjoy riding with the family. If your pet does not travel well, consider a boarding kennel. An unhappy pet on a trip will make both you and the pet miserable.

It is a good idea to make your carrying case with adequate air holes to keep your pet in while traveling. In this way you can relax and enjoy the trip knowing that your pet cannot get into mischief. A loose pet, especially a cat, can easily interfere with the safe operation of a car by jumping onto the driver's shoulder or neck, getting under the brakes or gas pedal, or jumping out open windows or doors.

Take along your pet's own food bowl for feeding and watering. Provide adequate water, but keep feeding during the trip to a minimum. A dog or cat can go all day without solid food without harm if he gets enough liquid. In this way he is less likely to get an upset stomach and car sick.

If possible check in with the hotel or motel you will be staying at in advance to see if they allow pets. Most reputable establishments will allow the pet with you in your room. If the management is reluctant to allow your pet into your room, offer a deposit as a guarantee of your pet's good behavior.

A can of flea powder is a necessary item. Your pet may pick them up somewhere along the trip. You don't want fleas in your car and the hotel or motel doesn't want them either.

By planning ahead and observing a few rules of traveling with pets you can enjoy your dog or cat with you nearly everywhere. If your pet takes car travel then the entire family can expect an enjoyable and safe trip.

Friends for Battered Women of County Plan Safe Home Project

Friends for Battered Women of Washington County, Inc. is announcing the start-up of our Safe Home project. Friends for Battered Women (FBW) received funding from the Lutheran Church Women to research and develop a Safe Home network for Washington County residents. Beginning April 1, 1983, the project will be in operation and FBW will be able to shelter battered women and their children in Washington County.

A "Safe Home" is a private residence to be used as temporary (three days) shelter. Safe Home "operators" are volunteers from the community who wish to temporarily house a victim of domestic violence. Volunteers will be reimbursed for food costs and any other direct expenses and will gain from the experience of helping a woman break the cycle of violence. Volunteers will receive training in working with victims of domestic violence and their children. FBW will also provide staff support and other volunteers to work with the woman while at the Safe Home.

Friends for Battered Women and Ozaukee County Advocates for Battered Women and Families are co-sponsoring the first training session to be held March 19, 1983. Persons interested in volunteering for the project or persons wanting more information about Safe Homes should contact FBW at 334-7298. Civic organizations and clubs wanting to know more about the project or about other services FBW offers, should also conduct the office at 334-7298. Speakers are available.

State's Tax Burdens Force Retired Citizens to 'Escape from [not to] Wisconsin': Luckhardt

MADISON — State Representative (R-Horicon) today said, "Wisconsin's individual income and inheritance tax burdens are nullifying the DNR's bumper strip slogan — by encouraging, if not actually forcing, retired citizens to 'Escape FROM (not to) Wisconsin.'"

The GOP lawmaker declared, "Wisconsin residents who worked hard and saved during their working years have done it so they would have something to live on and leave to their children — not to the State Department of Revenue and the Big Spenders in state government."

"Furthermore, Governor 'Taxing Tony' Earl's proposal to increase sharply Wisconsin's already heavy individual income tax burden will further reduce the living standards of retired person's living on fixed incomes," she added.

Luckhardt pointed out that the state income and inheritance burden on retired citizens is counter-productive, because in the end the state will collect less, rather than more, tax revenues from them. She explained, "as more and more senior citizens are forced to move elsewhere, they are no longer around to pay property, sales and income taxes in Wisconsin."

"At the same time, the communities in which they formerly lived are deprived of the many significant and valuable contributions which senior citizens frequently make the community projects and civic affairs," she continued.

"It is truly sad to have former life-long residents of Wisconsin writing letters to say they still think Wisconsin is a nice place to visit, but they no longer could afford to live — or die — here," concluded Luckhardt.

Allow Extra Time for Photo When Renewing Your Driver License

People who are renewing their driver licenses are asked to allow extra time at the test station for processing.

Under the new photo driver licensing system, driver license examiners actually update the computerized master driver record file. This on-line process plus the photo-taking requires more time than before, according to Norbert K. Anderson, administrator of the Department of Transportation's Motor Vehicle Division.

Anderson said that although December was a relatively "slow" month for driver license renewals, driver exam stations processed more than 30,000 photo licenses and 29,000 non-photo license applications.

"Although this was a new system, and the examiners were not completely familiar with the equipment or the system, the great majority of the applications were processed routinely, and with a minimum of additional delay," Anderson said. "And in those instances where delays did occur, the public was generally quite understanding and patient," he added.

Drivers whose licenses expire in 1983 and whose birthdates are on an "odd" day of the month will receive their photo driver licenses this year. People whose birthday anniversaries are on an even day will receive a two-year non-photo license this year and their photo license in 1958.

"We want everybody to know that driver examiners appreciate their patience, and to be assured that with the quality control procedures and on-line updating of driver records, Wisconsin's photo driver license and licensing system will be the best produced in any state," Anderson concluded.

Law Enforcement Agencies Nab 356 Speeders Each Day in 1982

Every day last year, Wisconsin law enforcement officers apprehended an average of 356 drivers who were exceeding the 55 mile per hour rural speed limit, according to records compiled by the state Department of Transportation.

Of the 129,671 over-55 citations issued last year, 106,446, or 82 percent, were written by the State Patrol, with 23,225, or 18 percent, issued by county and municipal officers.

Norbert K. Anderson, administrator of the Division of Motor Vehicles, said 29,717 of the citations issued by the Patrol and 3,866 of those issued by other agencies were to drivers going 10 miles or less over the limit.

"This averages out to about one of every four apprehensions made at speeds of 56 to 65 miles per hour," Anderson said. "This is an indication, and should be taken as a warning, that Wisconsin officers are serious about enforcing the speed limit, and do ticket drivers in all speeding brackets," he added.

The bulk of the speeders were traveling between 11 and 20 miles over the limit. The report shows that State Patrol Troopers issued 73,685 citations in that bracket, or 69 percent of their apprehensions. County and local agencies issued 17,273 citations in the 11-20 over bracket, which was 74 percent of their rural speeding apprehensions.

State Troopers issued 3,044 citations to drivers going 20 or more over the limit, while local and county agencies issued 2,086 tickets to the 20 and over crowd.

No Traffic Deaths For 6 Straight Days Establishes Record

Death took a six-day holiday on Wisconsin highways last month.

Not a single traffic death on any Wisconsin street or road for six consecutive days.

That, said the state Department of Transportation, has never occurred before in the 28 years for which daily records could be checked.

Russell Fleming, chief of accident data for the Division of Motor Vehicles, said there were no fatalities for the six days from Feb. 17 thru 22.

The death of a 14-year-old boy in a Washington County pedestrian accident about 6 p.m. Feb. 23 ended the six-day record. The past previous fatality was a 53-year-old woman who died in a car-truck crash on STH 21 in Adams County at 1:45 p.m. Feb. 16.

Fleming said the longest previous record of no-death days was five, recorded from Feb. 17-21, and again from Jan. 7-11, 1982.

GOV. EARL RECOMMENDS INCREASING COST OF RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES IN WISCONSIN

The warm weather of last weekend has turned the thoughts of many Wisconsin residents to the brighter days of spring. As we shed our winter coats and break out of our homes, many of us look forward to the recreational activities that make Wisconsin a great place to live. Unfortunately, our governor would like to make those activities so much enjoy more expensive.

In his recent budget request, Governor Earl recommended increasing, on an average of 20%, the costs of fishing, hunting, and boating licenses, as well as overnight camping fees and state park admission fees. In addition, some items which have been free in the past, such as canoes and rubber rafts, would have to be licensed and $4 fees assessed.

The governor has not chosen to single out just the young and middle-aged outdoor enthusiasts. He is also including senior citizens in his plan. Senior citizen recreation cards granting lifetime privileges for fishing, small game hunting, and parks admission would be increased from $7.50 to $11.

The Earl proposal also calls for a voluntary check-off on income tax returns, similar to the one we now have for campaign contributions. The funds raised from this check-off would be used for the management and protection of endangered and non-game species. Several other states have initiated this program as a way of dealing with a decrease in federal funds for protecting these animals.

If Governor Earl gets his way, his proposals would begin as early as January 1, 1984, when new park and fishing fees take effect. These would be followed by boating fee increases in April and hunting license increase in fall.

The average increases of 20% actually translate as follows:

Resident annual fishing licenses will rise from $6 to $7, nonresident licenses from $16 to $18. Inland trout stamps would increase from $2.25 to $3. Resident sports licenses, now $22, would increase to $25.50. Deer hunting licenses would go from $10.50 to $11.50 for residents and from $80 to $85 for nonresidents. Residents small game hunting licenses, now $6, would cost $7. The $125 general hunting licenses would be eliminated and replaced by a furbearers' license at the same cost.

Presently, motorized boats require a uniform $5 license. This would change so that boats under 16 feet in length would require a $6 license, those from 16 to 26 feet, an $8 license, those from 26 to 40 feet, a $10 license, and those over 40 feet, a $12 license.

Finally, annual state park admission stickers would increase from $10 to $12 from residents and from $15 to $16 for nonresidents. Daily stickers would go from $2 to $3 for residents and from $3 to $4 for nonresidents.

Rep. Mary Panzer to Hold Office Hours

NO BLANK CHECK FOR THE PENTAGON!

It is apparent that Congress is growing more and more reluctant to give the Pentagon the entire $280 billion it is asking for in 1984. Members of parties, every philosophical bent, and every geographic location agree that defense spending should be cut.

True, the President has requested $8 billion in defense cuts for 1984, but the feeling in Congress is that the knife can go much deeper into the Pentagon's fat.

Last week, I joined with several Republican Congressmen in expressing our concern over defense spending to Defense Secretary Casper W. Weinberger. We emphasized that the Pentagon must bear its share of the burden for federal belt-tightening, that it must improve efficiency and productivity in defense programs, and that it must assign priorities to the new weapons systems it wants to develop.

I think these concerns are shared by nearly everyone in Congress. A strong national defense is needed as an effective deterrent to Communist aggression around the world, but we cannot try to achieve that simply by telling the Pentagon it can have anything it wants.

There is no question there is fat to be cut out of the defense budget. When we hear horror stories about how the Army spends $140 for a $1 part, we know there is room for productivity cuts.

Many of us are also troubled by Secretary Weinberger's refusal to assign priorities to the new weapons systems. Our economic situation, for one thing, dictates we make choices, not just issue blank checks. Secondly, we should make sure we are strengthening our military capabilities in the right areas, not just add new capabilities where they are not needed.

There is less agreement over the issue of whether weapons and equipment should take precedence over military personnel in terms of where more money should go. The President emphasizes the former, while proposing a pay freeze for the latter. Some feel the weapons are useless unless there are decently paid, competent personnel to man them.

The 1984 defense budget will receive much attention in the coming months, but already it is clear more cuts will be made in it. You can expect very hot debate as to what point they endanger our national security.

National Wildlife Week March 20-26

"THIS IS YOUR LAND" "Public Lands Belong To All Of Us," is the theme of the 46th annual National Wildlife Week to be observed this year from March 20th through the 26th.

The observance has been sponsored annually since 1983 by the National Wildlife Federation and its state affiliates.

This year, attention is centered on the economic, recreational and biological importance of public lands to the people and wildlife of our country. It focuses on the theme that each American citizen is a part owner of the 740 million acres of federal land and has a stake in the effective management of those lands.

Educational materials distributed by the Federation prior to the observance of National Wildlife Week are designed for use by teachers to help their students: gain an understanding of the importance of public lands to our nation's wildlife; become familiar with the geographic location of unique historical and natural attractions on public lands; learn about the history and land policies of our public lands and gain an awareness of the complexity of balancing the needs of humans and wildlife on our public lands.

Area Young People Capture State Judo Titles at Fond du Lac

The 1983 Wisconsin State Junior and Senior Judo Tournament was held this past weekend at Theisen Junior High School, Fond du Lac. It was sponsored by Scanda Spa Judo Club. Members of the West Bend Judo Club participated in the 100 competitor event.

Entered in the Senior Women's competition was Lynn Roethke. Lynn won the state title at the 134 lbs. classification. She went on to capture the state Grand Championship by beating the other division champions. Lynn was awarded the "Best Technique of the Tournament" trophy for her full point two arm shoulder throw and her halfpoint hip throw.

Robb Gessert, West Bend, won all of his matches in the boys 13-14-year-old division with all full point wins. He was awarded first place in the junior boys division.

Chad Bingen

In the 9-10 year old junior boys division, Chad Bingen, Milwaukee, took first place. He is the son of Allen and Carolyn Bingen, Milwaukee, former Kewaskum residents. Adam Gessert took second place.

After Lynn Roethke's recent second place win at the Pan American Judo trials at Colorado Springs, Colo., she has been invited to compete in the Pan American Sambo trials. Sambo is a Russian designed sport which is very similar to judo. The trials will be held in Kansas City, March 11, 12 and 13.

Chess Team, 6-1, Defeat Hartford

The Kewaskum chess team improved its record to 6-1 Tuesday night with a 36-19 win over Hartford. The team can insure at least a first place tie with a season ending victory at St. John's this Tuesday night.

Hartford forfeited the bottom 4 boards giving Kewaskum 10 pts. This gift turned what should have been a close match into a breather for Kewaskum. Collecting the forfeits were Glenn Classey at board 7, Frank Voge board 8, Brian Pamperin board 9, and Todd Jaromin board 10.

At board 1. Romie Holl lost to Hesprih. Hesprih is leading the league and is undefeated at board 1. Holl played a good match but lost a pawn early. Hesprih won a close endgame of rook and 2 pawns vrs. rook and pawn.

At board 2. Gregg Classey lost to Ketter. Classey who had won his last 3 matches, failed to see that his queen was in danger. Ketter gained a queen to bishop advantage.

At board 3. Ed Ham defeated Jay Morgan. Ham played a strong opening and out-played his opponent in the middle game.

At board 4. Tom Crandell defeated Jeff Morgan. The game featured an opening trade that left Crandell with a bishop and knight vrs. Morgan's rook and pawn.

At board 5. Jeff Igel defeated Rahlf. Igel played a consistent game taking advantage of positional mistakes by Rahlf.

At board 6. John Martin defeated May. Martin gained an early advantage and promoted a pawn to insure his win.

The Indians close the season Tuesday night at St. John's and then travel to Delafield on Thursday for the conference tournament. The team will be trying to win its 5th consecutive conference tournament.

West Bend West's Strong 2nd Half Ousts Indians in Regional Here

The Kewaskum Indians won the first half but West Bend West came back like gangbusters after the intermission with a come-from-behind victory to eliminate the Indians from further competition in Friday's WIAA Class A regional tournament opener played in the Kewaskum fieldhouse. The Spartans rallied for an easy 84-57 victory. The Indians had led at the half, 30-27.

Kewaskum started an all-junior team against the Spartans consisting of Dennis Butz, Jeff Squier, Brian Arndt, Jim Hanrahan and Tim Leitheiser. Two seniors, Dan Dean and Rod Donnelly, sat out the game because of training violations. With five starters and several reserves back, the Indians have the nucleus for a good team next year.

After being down at the half, West came back with an effective full court press and improved shooting to pull away from the battling Indians. The Spartans scored as many points in the second half as the Indians did in the entire contest—57. A poor start from the field and Kewaskum's strong rebounding kept West Bend behind in the first two quarters. West hit on only four of 18 shots during this time.

What really hurt the Indians in the second half was the shooting and scoring of the Spartans' ace, Bill Albrecht, who took game honors with 23 points, and Kewaskum's getting into severe foul trouble. Two Indians, Hanrahan and Leitheiser, were lost on five personals and two others played with four fouls apiece. As a result, West scored 32 points on free throws to the Indians' 17. Kewaskum had a total of 29 fouls called by the quick-on-the-whistle officials, who came up with some questionable calls.

Kewaskum jumped out to an 8-2 lead with four early baskets but the Spartans came back within two and missed a chance to tie the game when they missed three shots just before the buzzer. Arndt and Hanrahan were on the bench in foul trouble most of the second quarter but still the Indians picked up a four point lead. Dan Gerhartz came off the bench and scored seven points on a basket and five free throws. West was having problems on rebounds and hanging onto the ball, and trailed by three points at the intermission.

At the start of the second half the Spartans came out running and their press started to become effective. A jumper by Tim Mollwitz with six minutes left in the period gave West its first lead, 34-32. The Spartans proceeded to hit 10 of 13 shots in the third quarter and soon built up their lead. In a little over a minute the scoreboard changed by 12 points and this stretch was what iced the game.

Its lack of depth was beginning to hurt Kewaskum. Hanrahan fouled out near the end of the third stanza and Leitheiser followed suit early in the fourth. A three point play halfway through the last quarter gave West Bend a 20 point lead. Minutes later the starters for both teams retired to the bench and reserves finished the game, with the Spartans increasing their lead, mainly on free throws.

The fouls broke the Indians' back and added to a disappointing final score. Kewaskum could be credited with a fine performance in the first half. Sophomore Brian Ruplinger had a good effort in a reserve role and Butz also had a fine game with 17 points.

The Spartans got balanced scoring with eight of them scoring six or more points, led by Albrecht, who made several shots from more than 20 feet out.

West Bend West went on to defeat Waupun (winner over West Bend East Friday, 72-71) in the regional final at West Bend Saturday, 73-54. Thus West advanced to the sectional this weekend at UW-Oshkosh. They will face Sheboygan South (17-3) Friday at 8:30 p.m., following the Kimberly (15-3)-Oshkosh North (9-11) contest.

Kewaskum Beats Port, Clinches Share of Lakes 'B' Division Crown

The Kewaskum Lakes basketball team won their showdown game with the Port Washington Lakers, 123-109, at Port Washington High School Sunday night, and thereby clinched at least a share of the Lakes 'B' Division championship. This is Kewaskum's fourth 'B' title in nine years, but their first since 1979. It is the climax to a complete turnaround from a 2-13 season last year and 4-10 the year before. Leon Laatsch led the way with 34 points.

Kewaskum, now 9-5, has a game and a half lead on Port, with the 'A' Division leaders Menomonee Falls Badgers left to play. Port, now 7-6, plays the Menomonee Falls Stingers next week, and then the Falls Badgers on the final week, while Kewaskum has a bye. Port would have to beat the Stingers and Badgers, and Kewaskum lose to the Badgers, for Port to tie Kewaskum for the championship. One more loss for Port or one more win for Kewaskum would give Kewaskum the title alone.

The game was very close and well-played, fitting for a championship-type game, with both teams shooting extremely well. Only in the fourth quarter did Kewaskum pull away and take control of the game. The game matched Kewaskum's quickness, speed, and sharp-shooting against Port's strong inside game with 6'7" Kevin Lemon and Dave Ross and the outside sharpshooting of Rollie Kitt. In the end Kewaskum had more weapons and better balance than Port, and this prevailed. It should be mentioned, though, that Port was without Chuck Lanser, one of their strong inside players.

Kewaskum took a 33-30 lead after the first quarter behind Mike Maney's eight. Lemon had 12 for Port. Kewaskum put on a spurt at the end of the second quarter to lead 66-58 at halftime. Laatsch poured in 17 in the quarter. Port came back to narrow the gap to 91-86 after three quarters behind Kitt's 14. Kewaskum turned it on in the fourth quarter, outscoring Port 32-23, to win by 14.

Kewaskum's balanced attack featured six players in double figures. Beside Laatsch, Clark Eichstedt had 28 points, Brian Larsen 22, Bill Gonwa and Mike Maney each with 14, and Bill Backhaus 11. Port could boast only three players in double figures as Rollie Kitt led with 37 points, Kevin Lemon had 32, and Dave Ross 24.

Both teams shot extremely well from the free throw line, with Kewaskum making 11 of 14 for 78.6 percent, and Port shooting a blistering 19 of 21 for 90.5 percent.

Kewaskum takes on the Menomonee Falls Badgers, perennial Lakes grand champions, this Sunday at Falls East High School at 7:30 p.m. in their final Lakes game of the year. The Badgers have a 10-2 record and lead the 'A' Division by one game over Cedarburg and Oconomowoc.

Manager Bill Backhaus has announced that Kewaskum will be playing in the Holy Cross Open Tournament in Kaukauna and the 28th Annual Howards Grove Athletic Association Tournament. Kewaskum will take on the Mack Bulldogs of Milwaukee, last year's champs, in the Kaukauna tournament on Saturday, March 19, at 7:00 p.m. The Kaukauna tournament will run March 18, 19, 20 and March 25, 26, 27. The Howards Grove tournament runs from March 23 through April 2.

Gymnasts Beat Chilton, Finish Eighth in Class A Sectional

The Kewaskum gymnastics team brought their regular season to an end with a close 87.49 to 83.587 win over Chilton here.

After the first three events, the teams were tied at 59.95. Then Wendy Wilson, Sandy Nigh and Annette Jandre took first-second-third in uneven bars to settle the meet. Wilson won bars with 7.50, while Nigh was given a 6.7 and Jandre a 6.6.

Jandre ended her high school career with a first place in floor exercise (7.50) and a third in vaulting (6.9). She finished second in all around competition.

Besides her first on bars, Wilson tied for first with her teammate Dolly Swenson in vaulting (7.05) and was third in floor exercise (7.15). She also tied with Laura Schmitz of Chilton for all around honors with 6.74.

Wilson and Nigh are both juniors.

The Indian JVs also won, 86.71 to 49.75. They got first places from Sandy Klein on the balance beam and floor exercise. Darlene Luedtke won the vault event and Kris Heberer was first on uneven bars.

On Saturday, the Kewaskum varsity participated with eight other teams in Class A sectionals at Sheboygan South.

Manitowoc just got by Fond du Lac, 95.85 to 95.625 for the sectional championship. Kewaskum, competing in Class A for the first time, finished eighth in the nine team meet.

Behind champion Manitowoc, which is headed for the State Meet this weekend, and runner-up Fond du Lac, were: Neenah with 94.1, Oshkosh West 90.487, Sheboygan South 88.537, Port Washington 87.862, Oshkosh North 85.95, Kewaskum 84.05, and Waupun 63.425.

The highest place won by the Indians was a seventh in vaulting by Annette Jandre. A four year regular, she scored a 7.7 in the event, which was won by Peggy Longmeyer of Manitowoc with an 8.8. Jandre had a fine performance.

Kewaskum coach Jane Vesper had expected her team would score on the uneven bars but the girls had an off day on the bars, with everyone falling. Previously Wendy Wilson had been doing very well in the event.

The top team, two all arounds, and top three girls in each event advance to the State Meet. Two girls, Krista Klimaitis of Neenah and Longmeyer took the majority of the top places.

Vesper said it was a tough meet but her girls were respectable.
