Woman Elected to Village Board for First Time

Write-ins Dieringer, Weare Elected to School Board

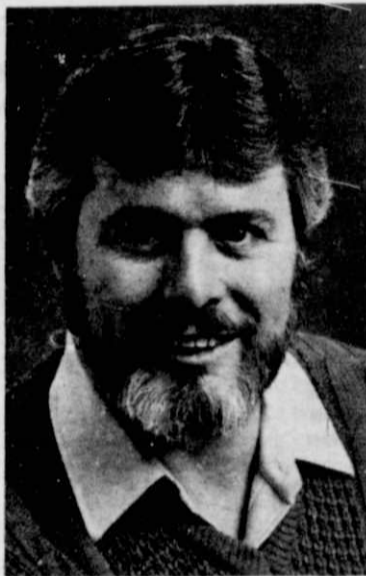

Laneille Dieringer

Two write-in candidates for School Board members of the Kewaskum School District were elected to office in the Spring Election Tuesday, defeating the two candidates whose names appeared on the ballot.

Elected were write-ins Laneille Dieringer and Neal Weare, who defeated candidates Norma S. Serwe and Colleen Narbatovics. Dieringer is a resident of 420 Hwy. 84, Fredonia, in the Town of Farmington area and Weare's address is Route 2, Box 64A, Campbellsport.

What swung the election in

Neal Weare

Dieringer's and Weare's favor was the voting in the Village of Kewaskum and Town of Farmington, which the two write-ins carried by two-to-one margins.

The total School Board vote was as follows:

Narbatovics	734
Serwe	862
Dieringer	930
Weare	940

The newly elected members of the board will succeed John Tessar and Richard Theusch, who were not candidates for re-election. Both are newcomers on the board.

Village of Kewaskum
For what is apparently the first time in the Village of Kewaskum's history, the village will have a woman on the village board. Mary L. Krueger was elected to the board to succeed

Mary L. Krueger

Jeff Rohrer, who was not a candidate for re-election. She was a write-in candidate last year but was defeated by a close margin.

There was no opposition for the three trustee offices. Elected along with Krueger were incumbents Paul Blumer and David Nigh, who were both re-elected. President Gerald F. Stollenwerk was also re-elected without opposition.

A total of 560 votes were cast in the village. Results were as follows:

President — Gerald F.

High School Computer Demonstration Slated

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At Monday evening's Long Range Planning Committee meeting, District Administrator John Long announced there will be a Computer Usage Demonstration, held on April 25th from 6 to 9 p.m. in the old gym of the high school.

The program is being set up by instructors Joe Harlow and Mark Roth to give parents an idea of what the district's computer program is all about. Visitors will be able to see students using the computers as well as get some "hands-on" experience themselves.

The demonstration is being run in conjunction with the committee's study of a computer program for the entire district.

At the meeting, School Board candidate Neal Weare said he was glad such a demonstration was being held. Weare said he had been approached by some parents who were concerned with the program because they think the computers are being used to play games. Many people do not understand computers and how they work, noted Weare. Long agreed with Weare. Many parents think these are like the computers they have at home, two boxes with handles, said Long.

Long said, computers are somewhat like modern math in the respect they are trying to teach kids to think in the abstract.

The meeting also heard a presentation by Paul Frank and Tony Meade of The Video Station, a company located in Fond du Lac. The company

Hilltop Laundromat Under New Ownership

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After 15 years, the Hilltop Laundromat, located at Highway 45 and H, will have new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Weddig of Highway H, Kewaskum.

Don Mlodzik and his wife Corrine, who began the business in April of 1968, sold the operation to the Weddigs who took over April 1st.

Mlodzik began the laundromat with a 30 x 40 foot building which he expanded five years later to a 30 x 60 foot service area.

The Mlodziks will be moving into their new home on Edgewood later this month. Mlodzik said now that the business is sold he figures he is semi-retired, but he said his wife is already wondering about what she will be doing with her extra time.

5 KHS Students Advance To State in Forensics

On March 26th the Kewaskum Forensics team traveled to Brookfield East High School to participate in this year's District Forensics Contest. Twenty-six schools participated in the contest and those receiving "A" ratings will advance to the state contest on Friday, April 22, at Madison's UW campus.

Five of the twelve Kewaskum team members received "A" ratings. Those students included Mary Slegler in prose reading, Sue Lemke - prose reading, Jama Jacak - poetry reading, Amy Sekas - poetry reading and Leah Kuphal - poetry reading. "B" ratings went to Barb Panzer, Beth Strigenz and Ada Thull in declamations, Mitzi Nigh in prose reading and Sue Schmitt, Kim Brodzeller and Denise Meyer in play acting.

This year's Kewaskum forensics team is coached by Ms. Barb York and Ms. Judy Jacak.

House Moving Situation Is Still Unresolved

After another drawn out meeting of the Plan Commission Monday night, no decision was made on the fate of the house now located at 1502 Fond du Lac Avenue.

The Village Board, at its meeting following the Plan Commission's special meeting Monday, was to take action on a permit to move the residence into the Ideal Subdivision. However, the board tabled action when it was informed the Commission would not present a recommendation.

After last Tuesday's meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Schacht looked into a second alternate location in the subdivision, that of a corner lot. Several subdivision residents attending that meeting had suggested the Schachts consider a corner lot rather than their initial choice in mid-block. At Monday's meeting, however, property owners were on hand to object to the second alternative at 499 Knights Avenue. Some of the residents said it was not suggested the Schachts look into a corner lot.

The Plan Commission advised Village Administrator Dan Schmidt that it wanted to hear the tapes of Tuesday's meeting in an effort to clarify the discussion between the two meetings. Until then, the Commission said it would not make a recommendation on the permit.

Trustee Howard Laubenstein asked whether or not the home met village codes. Schmidt said the house met all village municipal codes and zoning ordinances. The subdivision owners feel the house does not meet and conform to covenants set up by the subdivision's developer.

In other action, the board approved the purchase of fire-works for 1983. Because the village's Fire Department does the actual igniting of the displays, the village is able to save 30% on the cost of the fire-works.

Schmidt informed the board that an "open book" for the village's reassessment has been scheduled for April 26th and 27th, from 9 to 5, and 6 to 8. A Board of Review will be held on May 9th.

Sale of the village's municipal bonds for financing the construction of the new well and several other TIF projects, will begin on April 18th, 1983.

Issue Federal Indictment In Record County Drug Bust

Joseph P. Stadtmueller, U. S. Attorney for the eastern district of Wisconsin, announced Tuesday April 5, that a federal grand jury has returned a 3-count indictment charging John J. Whitehall, 37, of Greenfield, Wis., with conspiracy, possession with intent to distribute 3,260 lbs. of marijuana, seized in Washington County on Dec. 21, 1981, and interstate transportation in aid of an illegal enterprise.

This prosecution was the result of a joint investigation by the State of Wisconsin, Division of Criminal Investigation and the Washington County Sheriff's Office.

Count 1 charges Whitehall with conspiring to distribute 102 bales of marijuana, weighing approximately 3,260 lbs. Count 2 charges Whitehall with unlawfully possessing the marijuana with the intent to distribute. County 3 charges him with traveling in interstate commerce in order to promote the distribution of the marijuana.

If convicted of counts 1 and 2, Whitehall faces a maximum exposure of 5 years incarceration and/or a $15,000 fine on each count. If convicted of count 3, Whitehall faces a maximum penalty of 5 years incarceration and/or a $10,000 fine. Therefore, if convicted under all 3 counts of the indictment Whitehall faces a maximum exposure of 15 years imprisonment and/or a fine of $40,000.

This case was investigated by agents of the Wisconsin Department of Criminal Investigation working in conjunction with the Federal Drug Enforcement Administration.

Assistant U. S. Attorneys Charles H. Bohl and R. Jeffrey Wagner have been assigned to handle the prosecution of this matter.

John J. Whitehall was born on Oct. 31, 1945. His current address is unknown.

Zemlicka felt more stress was being put on obtaining more and better equipment for the high school, while her night school instructor felt the biggest computer with the most material available should actually be directed at the elementary level.

AND YOUR COMPLETE FINANCIAL RESOURCE CENTER IS OFFERING LOW HOME LOAN FINANCING TO QUALIFIED BUYERS

YOU'VE WAITED LONG ENOUGH FOR THAT NEW HOME. NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY OR BUILD. THE ECONOMY IS STABILIZING. INFLATION IS CONTINUING TO DECLINE. AND, HOME LOAN INTEREST RATES ARE DOWN.

BUYING? See your Realtor.

With economic improvement, lower interest rates and an abundance of good home buys on the market - the time to buy is now. As a result of the slow real estate market, homes are selling at fair and realistic prices, and many sellers are willing to negotiate. But don't wait, see your realtor today because when the economy stabilizes the number of homes available will decrease and prices will increase.

BUILDING? See your Contractor.

The spring and summer of 1983 is also one of the best times to build a new home. Building sites are reasonably priced and in good supply, and present construction schedules are light which means minimal construction time and delays. The key, as with buying, is to act promptly before builders fill their schedules and building site sellers increase their prices.

REMEMBER THE HOME AND STACKED BILLS?

West Bend Savings last used this photograph of the home and stacked bills to advertise home loans about two years ago, when times were good. Then came the recession and high interest rates. It seemed only fitting that we reuse the photograph in this advertisement for home loans now that things are improving again. And, if you missed out on the favorable financing available two years ago - don't make the same mistake again - talk to a West Bend Savings loan officer today.

Kewaskum Lions Host Senior Citizens

The Kewaskum Lions started this year's Easter celebration by hosting the senior citizens of Kewaskum with a delicious ham dinner. The Easter dinner was served to approximately 120 senior citizens last Wednesday afternoon at the American Legion Post.

The senior citizens really enjoyed this happy occasion and the opportunity for members of both the Senior Citizens Club and the Nutrition Program For the Elderly to join together for this Easter dinner. The Lions were also very happy that with the volunteer help of Otto Weddig and Frank Felix the Easter dinner was delivered to 13 senior citizens who are presently confined to their homes. Following the dessert and coffee the Lions entertained their guests with Fun Bingo. The lucky winners in the fun bingo were:

Irene Dreher, Doug Kennedy, Marie Rafenstein, Rose Weiland, Josephine Battaglia, John Battaglia, Marcella Beisbier, Genevieve Schmitz, Veronica Kirst, Helen Felix, Irene Kohl, Theodore Rohlinger, Ella Hansen, Ella Backhaus, Kathryn Gruendeman.

The Lions would like to thank the officers of the Senior Citizens Club, the Manager of the Nutrition Program for the Elderly and the American Legion Post for their cooperation in making this Easter celebration such a very successful event in Kewaskum.

The Lions also announced that during this past month a $500 contribution was made to the Kewaskum Special Olympics for the new 1983-84 school year period and a $100 contribution to the Volunteer Services for the Visually Handicapped. The Volunteer Services for the Visually Handicapped represents volunteers that transcribe tapes, brailles and enlarges type used as textbooks for blind students. The Lions would like to emphasize to our community that all individuals, either blind or partially blind, can have available at no cost the use of various aids, including electronic equipment by contacting a Lions member or the Milwaukee Public Library for further information.

The Kewaskum Lions presently represents a small member of men from the village and the surrounding area who want to serve their community without reward. Business meetings are held in Kewaskum at 7:30 p.m. on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month so the members can discuss and plan the different activities to be supported by the club. They have really joined the millions of Lion members throughout the World that try to provide a variety of services to their community.

Lions clubs, for example, operate or support most of the country's eye banks and dog training schools; they support eye research at hospitals and universities from coast to coast; they purchase new eyeglasses and hearing aids for the needy; and recycle millions of used ones for use throughout the world. Please do not hesitate to contact your Kewaskum Lions if they can help you.

EDUCATIONAL USE OF HOME COMPUTERS INCREASES CHILDRENS' READING, WRITING SKILLS

Home computers can be an important educational tool for children, but only if parents buy wisely and regulate their use.

W. Patrick Dickson, a University of Wisconsin-Madison child and family studies professor has suggestions for parents. He says that if you want your children to learn from a computer, buy one that has a keyboard. And don't spend any money on arcade-type games.

An arcade-type game will drive any educational activity right off the screen. Hardly any child, given a choice between a shoot-em-up arcade game or educational software, will choose the educational software.

Most video games are of the arcade style. They don't have any educational value because they involve only reflex action and don't require the child to use intellectual skills. Playing these games requires no more intelligence than a lizard uses when knocking a fly out of the air with its tongue. Most games also have a lot of aggression and destruction.

Adventure games, or simulation games such as "Oregon Trail," have a lot of merit, because they force children to organize information, manipulate words and numbers, and use creative problem-solving skills. In "Oregon Trail," players become pioneers heading West in covered wagons, and must deal with problems the real pioneers faced a century ago.

Children who use computers should do better in school.

The reading and writing abilities of children who come from a home where a computer is available and properly used, will be ahead of those without a computer. They will have more job opportunities when they enter the work force.

Other tips for those considering buying a computer:

—Out of the total amount you plan to spend, allow a good portion for software and courses.

—Spend time with your children. You'll both learn better if you do it together.

—Save money by swapping software with other families.

—Encourage your children to learn programming. There is a new computer language called Logo which is easier to use than Basic, but more expensive. It may replace Basic as the most common computer language.

From the School Board President's Desk....

By this time the school board election will be history. The voters of the district have spoken and now it is time to get about the election rhetoric and get down to providing a quality, cost-efficient education for our children. Since I am writing this column on Sunday evening, I do not know how the election will turn out, but the fact remains that all candidates are concerned about education.

Yes, there are differences, but there are similarities also. All candidates are sincere in their concern about the district issues. The candidates differ in the means of achieving a positive resolution of these issues. While the philosophies differ, the central concern must remain the education of our children. It is possible — no, it is imperative — that all board members work together for the common good. We must look beyond our individual differences and examine in as dispassionate manner as possible the problems confronting the district. We can, we must do this. Regardless of past differences and campaign rhetoric, let us — the current board members, the new board members, and the entire community — unite in doing the very best we can to improve the Kewaskum School District.

East Central Breeders Honors Top Producers

At a recent district meeting, East Central Breeders of Waupun honored Washington and Ozaukee County dairymen with awards for outstanding production.

The awards are based on the dollar value of the official rolling herd averages that were compiled by W.D.H.I.C. as of December 31, 1982. Dollar Value is determined by using the national average selling price for milk with the butterfat differential included. This price was obtained from the latest U.S.D.A. sire summary which is $13.00cwt. plus $0.172 per point over 3.5% butterfat as of July 1982.

To qualify for a bronze award the dairyman must be an East Central Breeders member and have a dollar value that is 15% or more above the state average. If he is 25% or above he receives a silver award and if 35% or more he receives a gold award.

TWO HOUR SHOW

PARENTS: This is a show NOT just for your children, but for YOU as well! Come! Spend an enjoyable and enchanting experience with your child. We guarantee it — you will have a fun time!

De YOUNG IS HERE!

For the past three weeks, the Kewaskum Jaycees have been telling area residents that "DeYoung Is Coming." Well, DeYoung is no longer just coming, HE HAS BEEN HERE!

On Tuesday, April 5th, Dick DeYoung and several of his assistants entertained Kewaskum area elementary, middle school and high school students with a preview of his fun-filled magic show. The area public and private school students were treated to magical acts such as fire-breathing, disappearing and reappearing animals, straight jacket escape, and other crowd-pleasing favorites. The students in attendance were delighted by the tricks they saw; those teachers viewing the performance said afterwards they feel the performance was well received.

The magic show performed by DeYoung and Company will be held at 8:00 p.m. Saturday, April 16, and 1:00 p.m. Sunday, April 17. Tickets are available at Rich's Foods, Behnke-Schmitz Insurance, Van Ess Dentistry, or Richard's Kut & Style in Kewaskum, Ben Franklin in Campbellsport, and from any Kewaskum Jaycee member. All seats are $3.00; additional information on the show and tickets can be obtained by calling 626-4669 or 626-4965.

DeYoung and Company has been performing throughout the Midwest for over 25 years, and is now one of the most famous magic acts in all of Middle America. When many parents hear about the magic show from their children, they think the show is for children only, but they are wrong. When DeYoung appeared in Campbellsport last fall, the adults in attendance were just as amazed and entertained (possibly more) as the youngsters. Those Kewaskum Jaycees in attendance at the Campbellsport performance are sure that parents and grandparents will enjoy the show as much or more than a movie, for a price that is very reasonable.

People attending the Saturday night performance have occasionally been known to purchase tickets for Sunday, just to see if they can better figure out how some of the tricks are done.

Tickets will be available at the door until there is a sellout. To avoid missing this marvelous magic show due to be a sellout, contact a Kewaskum Jaycee or one of the previously mentioned ticket outlets. We guarantee that kids of all ages will be entertained by the fun and thrills of DeYOUNG and COMPANY.

It is estimated that the bow and arrow have been with us for 50,000 years.

Judy Bohrofen Named Area Membership Chairman for Children's Service Society

"GET IN STEP WITH THE NEEDS OF CHILDREN" says Judy Bohrofen of 423 Timberlake Rd., Sheboygan. Mrs. Bohrofen, a member of the Sheboygan Area Advisory Board of CHILDREN'S SERVICE SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN has accepted the position of Membership Chairman for 1983. As chairman, Mrs. Bohrofen's role will be to inform the people in Kewaskum and the surrounding areas of the programs and services offered by CHILDREN'S SERVICE SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN and to broaden the base of membership support.

CHILDREN'S SERVICE SOCIETY OF WISCONSIN, CSSW is the only private sector, nonprofit, nonsectarian, state-wide agency in Wisconsin which works exclusively with the child who faces major physical or emotional problems.

CSSW Exists to help threatened or damaged children emerge from childhood as independent, responsible adults. The emphasis in all programs is on children. A unique opportunity for help is offered. No child is ever turned away from CSSW because of ethnic or religious heritage or a family's financial or social status.

CSSW is accredited nationally by the Council on Accreditation of Services from Families and Children. Both professionals and volunteers are used to help and learn from each other throughout the State of Wisconsin. The largest CSSW program is preventative, counseling children living with their own families.

"It is the hope of CSSW that every child have the opportunity to lead a worthwhile adult life. By getting in step with the needs of troubled children, CSSW can turn that hope into reality," says Mrs. Bohrofen.

Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation Legislative Conference April 12

Farmers from around the state will be going to Madison in April to meet with their legislators and express their views on legislation being considered by the State Legislature. In turn, they will hear from the Governor and the minority leader of the State Senate.

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation Legislative Conference will be held at The Concourse Hotel in downtown Madison on Tuesday, April 12.

Roger Cliff, WFBF executive director of Governmental Relations, will brief participants on the legislation being considered by their representatives. Taxes are a major concern with property tax relief now under attack in the Governor's budget proposal. In addition, bills have been introduced which would decrease state inheritance and gift taxes and exempt perennial plants from property taxes—both of which Farm Bureau favors.

Attendees will have an opportunity to personally visit their legislators at the State Capitol that afternoon.

Governor Tony Earl and Senate Minority Leader James E. Harsdorf will address the conference prior to the Legis-

Grain Availability For Farmers Under PIK Agreement

Farmers enrolling in Payment in Kind (PIK) sometimes are concerned about the delivery point of the grain under the PIK agreement. Washington County does not have any Uniform Grain Storage Agreement (UGSA) - approved warehouses located in the county.

The ASCS Office provides a list of warehouses approved within a 40 mile radius. Normally a producer will get his grain from his preferred site.

PIK Handlers Agreements are being arranged within or close to a producers marketing area. Hopefully, these agreements will be ready for use and helpful for farmers of our community.

FIGHTING THE COMMON COLD
By David G. Ley B.S., RPh.

The term common cold is actually a misnomer in that it is not a simple single disease. It can be caused by more than 100 different viruses. What makes it so common is that people have on the average six colds per year. Children and families with children in school, the number is as high as twelve colds per year. Being exposed to a draft or getting chilled won't give you a cold. If you have been in contact with any of the viruses responsible for respiratory infection, you may develop cold symptoms regardless of the weather. Contact with an infected person is the easiest way to catch a cold. Coughing or sneezing expels viruses into the air where they can hang around long enough to be inhaled by someone nearby. Some types of viruses may be transmitted by touching rather than through the air. You can also pick up the viruses from inanimate objects where they can survive for up to three hours.

Treatment does not shorten the duration of a cold. This is not to say that cold preparations are worthless. Some do provide relief. Your aim should be to seek out approved remedies that contain no more ingredients than necessary to treat your symptoms. The traditional non-medication methods of rest and drinking plenty of fluids are helpful. If a headache or fever is present, aspirin or acetaminophen can be used. In some people with allergies, aspirin can trigger asthma attacks. Also, children with influenza, chicken pox or influenza-like symptoms should not be given aspirin due to its possible association with Reye's Syndrome. These people should use the acetaminophen as a substitute.

Cough suppressants can be useful, except that it is not always a good idea to suppress a cough. If a cough is loose and productive, it is better to cough up the phlegm than to leave it in the bronchial tree. In this instance, the productive cough can often be eased by sucking plain hard candies (medicated ones are not necessary), by drinking hot liquids, by inhaling steam or by adding moisture to the air with a vaporizer. On the other hand a dry, hacking cough serves no purpose. There are three cough suppressants found to be safe and effective: codeine, diphenhydramine and dextromethorphan. Be judicious about selecting and using cough suppressants. If a cough lasts longer than a week following a cold, seek the advice of your physician as a persistent cough could be a sign of a more serious condition.

The activity of antihistamines at their present available dosing level does not indicate any therapeutic value against cold symptoms. Decongestants, both oral and topical (nasal sprays) provide temporary relief of nasal congestion. After the decongestant effect leaves, the danger is that the patient will dose themselves again either too soon or for a longer period of time than suggested by the label and this will cause a rebound reaction that worsens the condition you are trying to alleviate.

It is basically impossible to avoid catching a cold as long as we are going to live in society and come into contact with people who are shedding viruses. If you have a cold, it should be common courtesy to stay at home and try not to give it to other people. If this is not possible, wash your hands frequently, use a tissue when a sneeze is imminent and cover your mouth when a cough is about to occur.

Washington County, Wis. SHERIFFS DEPARTMENT

Clarence A. Schwartz, Sheriff

Drivers Should Note Pedestrian Rights

Pedestrian rights are still not assured, despite legislation a few years back to clarify and strengthen the rights of pedestrians to cross the road in safety, according to Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz.

"The most frequent violations of pedestrian rights are at unmarked intersections where auto drivers seem to believe that might makes right," Sheriff Schwartz said. "But almost as frequent are violations at signalized intersections where drivers ignore the legal requirement to yield to pedestrians and other traffic lawfully using the intersection, before making any turn," he added.

Wisconsin's law is quite specific. At intersections of crosswalks where there is a traffic signal, the operator of a vehicle is required to yield the right-of-way to pedestrians who are crossing on a green or "walk" light. The law specifically forbids endangering pedestrians, or interfering with traffic legally in the intersection.

Drivers are also required to yield the right-of-way to pedestrians crossing at unsignalized intersections, when pedestrians are crossing in either marked or unmarked crosswalks.

Sheriff Schwartz said that the county traffic deposit schedule calls for a $43.60 deposit, which is usually the amount of the fine of forfeiture. In addition, convicted drivers are assessed three (3) demerit points against their driving record.

Washington County motorists were also reminded that they should be alert to the presence of joggers, who have the same rights and responsibilities of other pedestrians.

Pedestrians Have Responsibilities Too

Watch your step, walking in the city or on a rural road, pedestrians were cautioned today by Sheriff Clarence Schwartz of the Washington County Sheriff's Department.

The Sheriff listed the following suggestions for pedestrians:

1. Obey traffic signals. Wait at the curb or on the safety island when facing a "Don't Walk" signal. Don't walk against a red light or green arrow.
2. Cross in the crosswalk. Crosswalks may be marked or unmarked. They are "extensions" of sidewalks at intersections.
3. Walk on the left, facing traffic, when walking on a road with no sidewalks.

4. Never stand, loiter or hitchhike when walking on a road with no sidewalks.

5. Avoid dark clothing. The wearing of bright colored clothing when walking along the roadway is recommended day or night.

6. Look all ways before crossing any street or highway.

7. Depend more on yourself than the drivers of nearby vehicles to prevent being struck by a moving vehicle.

Stewardship Appeal At 75% of Goal

MILWAUKEE—A progress report issued on March 25 shows that the Catholic Stewardship Appeal has reached 75% of its 1983 goal of $5,000,000. Mrs. Eileen Sheahan of Elm Grove, general chairperson of the fund drive, said that the report shows pledges and gifts totaling $3,749,861 from 75,999 donors.

Leo Schlaefler, district leader of the Stewardship Appeal in Washington County, said that $147,541 of the 1983 goal of $199,000 has already been reported by parishes in the county. Last year 4,892 donors gave $187,305.

Schlaefler said the first phase of parish solicitation is now being concluded. Follow-up procedures will begin when parish reports have been completed. Schlaefler said it is important to have all cards returned to the parishes, even those indicating "no contribution" or "unable to contribute," so that follow-up messages will not be sent to those persons.

The Catholic Stewardship Appeal of the Milwaukee Catholic Archdiocese is the principal source of income for on-going services offered to parishes, families, and individuals in ten counties of southeastern Wisconsin. Last year the appeal surpassed its goal of $4,750,000 by $90,000. When the books were closed in December, 1982, gifts totaled $4,831,858.

Indian Boys Last, Girls Fifth In County Indoor Track Meet

The Washington County Indoor Track Meet was held in the West Bend High Fieldhouse last Wednesday evening.

Tom Leow, Hartford star, was a quadruple winner in the boys' events as he ran up 40 of the winning Orioles' 131 points as Hartford repeated as champions, even more decisively than last year. Three of Leow's victories were very close.

Slinger was a distant second with 85 1/3 points, edging West Bend East with 84. West Bend West finished fourth with 55 1/6, followed by Germantown with 49 1/2 and Kewaskum with 27.

Leow set the only new County Indoor record with his 6.6 in the high hurdles. Another photo finish came in the 50 yard lows, where Leow edged Brian Johnson of Kewaskum. Leow also won the 213 in 23.7 and the long jump with a leap of 21' 1 1/2".

Another Oriole first from Bob Hackley came in the pole vault. Slinger produced four firsts including Jim Zillmer's 5.9 in the 50 in another photo finish, Jim Bednar in the 440 and Dave Dodge in the high jump. The Owls also won the 12-lap relay.

One of the guttiest performances of the meet was by 5-0 and 75 pound freshman Kyle Vogt of Kewaskum in the 2-mile. Although he didn't place among the top six, he was "all heart."

Places won by Kewaskum were a second in the 880 yard dash by Shaw, second in the 50 yard low hurdles by Johnson, fourth in the 12 lap relay, sixth in the long jump by Johnson, third in the 50 yard high hurdles by Johnson.

West Bend East continued domination in the girls' end of the County Indoor Meet as the Suns rolled to another championship with 104 points. East scored in all events but the shot.

West Bend West finished second with 79 points, Hartford third with 65, Slinger fourth with 55, Kewaskum fifth with 47 and Germantown last with 20.

West's Rhoda Butt took individual honors with record-breaking performances in two events, another first in which she tied a record, and a strong anchor in the final relay won by the Spartans.

East's outstanding basketball star, 6-1 1/2 junior Linda Reichl, scored in four events with a first in the 440, a second in the 213 behind Butt, second in the 50, and a third in the high jump.

The Suns' freshman Ann Schneider pulled off one of the big upsets in beating Kewaskum's basketball star, 6-0 Linda Larsen, in the 880-yard dash. Larsen led until the second last lap when Schneider passed her and hung on to barely beat her, 2:35.2 to 2:35.3.

Kewaskum's only first came in the shot where Holly Kempf got off a personal best of 38 1/4 on her final throw.

Other Indian winners were Follman fifth and Schmidt sixth in the mile run, fourth in the 4 lap relay, Wilson third in the 440 yard dash, Follman fifth in the 880 yard run, Klein second and Butzker fifth in the 2 mile run, and fourth in the 8 lap relay.

Holy Trinity Boys 'B' Team Finishes First

Standing, rear — Rev. Berghammer, Coach Tony Butschlick.

The 1982-83 season ended with the Holy Trinity 'B' Team boys playing against the All-Stars at the Kewaskum High School Gym. The All-Star team consisted of three players from each team in the Kettle Moraine Catholic Basketball League. The All-Stars started out very well shooting a high field goal percentage from the floor, while Holy Trinity boys were ice cold the first half. Starting the second half the boys settled down, and played some fine team ball to cut the lead to within two points with two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Despite their fine team effort, and aggressiveness, they lost their second game of the season 31 to 25. The reason for their successful season, with a record of 10 wins and 2 losses, was extremely hard work and a total team effort.

Coach Tony Butschlick would like to thank all the parent's, timekeepers, cheerleaders for all their support, especially the referees, Dick Heisdorf and Tom Timblin, giving up much of their time to make this a memorable year.
