Long Range Planning Committee Under Fire Again

Seven Period Day to Stay at KHS

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

An attendance of over 150 people was on hand at Monday night's Kewaskum School Board meeting to hear the board's decision to remain with the seven-period day.

Many of the people attending the meeting were prepared to voice their support in retaining the present seven-period schedule. However, after a short presentation by David Rohde representing the high school Social Studies Department and a few comments from the floor, board members Richard Theusch and John Tessar withdrew their motion and second for an eight-period day. By their action, the seven-period day automatically remains in effect and no further motions or voting were necessary.

Theusch wanted the audience to know that he had never been in favor of the eight-period day, but had such a motion NOT been made there could have been no discussion for or against the idea.

The question of the Long Range Planning Committee and its actual purpose was again brought before the board.

Theusch told the meeting he had never been in favor of the committee and felt it should be dissolved. Board member Ralph Horner told Theusch his motion was out of order since he had cast a dissenting vote when the committee was originally created. Tessar then made the motion to disband the committee with Board Member Jean Goeden seconding the motion.

Theusch said the Long Range

Moving of Disputed Home Approved by Board

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After yet another round of Plan Commission and Kewaskum Village Board meetings, a decision was finally made Thursday night, on a new site for the brick home now located at 1502 Fond du Lac Avenue.

On two separate 5-2 votes, the Village Board approved moving and building permits which will allow the house to be moved to 499 Knights Avenue, in the Ideal Subdivision.

Subdivision homeowners were again on hand to voice their opposition to the move. Property owner Brian Thompson said, "it is a quality home, quality constructed, but it does not belong in this subdivision."

Subdivision residents again stated their fears that because the home did not meet covenant restrictions as far as style and construction, their property values would go down.

Some of the trustees noted they had lived in areas of the village where existing homes had been moved in, as well as talked with other village residents who live in areas where older homes were moved into their section of newer homes. They could find no evidence to indicate that property values of the surrounding homes have gone down. Trustee Howard Laubenstein felt the same would hold true in this case.

Thompson told the board, all

Unsuccessful Board Candidate Contests Election Results

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Norma Serwe, who made an unsuccessful bid for a seat on the Kewaskum School Board, has filed a petition for a recount.

Serwe, with 862 votes, came in third behind two write-in candidates, Neal Weare having 940 votes and Lanielle Dieringer with 930. Colleen Narbatovics came in fourth with 734 votes.

The board of canvassers began the recount Tuesday and worked through Wednesday until all votes had been verified.

District Administrator John Long did not become aware of the recount petition until shortly before Monday night's school board meeting. Serwe filed her request shortly before the three-day deadline for such requests expired.

Long said the final results probably would not be learned until late Wednesday.

Borch to Become Business Manager Of South Milwaukee School District

Robert C. F. Borch, 37, the Kewaskum School District's Business Manager, announced that he will become business manager for the South Milwaukee School District on May 1.

The Kewaskum School Board accepted Borch's resignation March 28. At that time, Borch had declined to identify his new employer.

At Monday night's meeting, to decide whether to advertise for a successor to Borch, the School Board moved to post the business manager position.

Borch had served as business manager here since 1978. At the time of his resignation, South Milwaukee officials had not publicly confirmed his appointment but did so late last week.

South Milwaukee has an enrollment of approximately 3,100 students with six administrators in the central office. The current business manager is retiring after serving 16 years in the position.

It was reported by officials that Borch's contract calls for an annual salary of $36,500, which will be reviewed July 1, 1984. Borch received a 26-month contract.

This Is No 'Yolk'

Rosie Kuehl, Kewaskum, stopped at our office last week to show us an Easter egg that she had cracked and cut in half. To her surprise, the egg had no yolk but was completely all white. This is a rare occurrence and a first in Rosie's lifetime.

Too bad Rosie didn't crack open the egg on April Fool's Day. Then she could have given it to Wes for a "yolk."

Memories...

The Statesman welcomes readers to submit photos for the "Memories" feature. Photos should show life in the olden days in this area. Deliver or mail to The Statesman, 250 Main St., Kewaskum, WI 53040. Photos can be picked up again after publication.

School Board

Committee had never been approved by the board. A committee was to be set up to study computers for the district and computers only. Mrs. Clara Trapp, a district resident who has attended several committee meetings, said "if this committee was picked just for computers, they're way out of line."

Resident Jerry Buchel questioned Chairwoman Norma Serwe's comments during a radio interview on WBKV last Saturday, in which she said her committee was asked to look into several other items including the seven-period day, open or closed campus, smoking and competency based testing. As had been brought up at an earlier meeting by Tessar, the only item assigned to the committee had been the computer study, and no other board action was taken which asked the committee to look into anything else.

Mrs. Trapp asked President Pro-Tem Tom Brigham if the committee had brought anything to the board on their computer study. Brigham said no. "They were picked to do the footwork and they've got the public doing it for them," said Trapp. Trapp told the board, Administrator Long is doing all the footwork and investigating, bringing the information to them (the committee), when they were the ones who were supposed to do the work and bring it to Mr. Long and the board. Trapp felt that since Long was doing all the "Footwork" and doing it well already, there did not seem to be a need for the committee.

Margaret McFadden, a parent, said no teachers or computer experts had been appointed to the committee. McFadden also felt Long should have been assigned to the committee. "I think Mr. Long has been doing most of the work anyway," she said.

Theusch told the board, I made a motion to disband the Long Range Planning Committee, NOT the computer committee. Goeden agreed with Theusch. "We could appoint another committee which would include computer experts like Mr. Vogt and Mr. Redig, teachers and Mr. Long, contended Goeden.

Brigham thought a motion to dissolve the committee was premature at this time. Buchel questioned why. If the committee has completed its computer study as Serwe had indicated in her radio interview, there was no longer any need for it.

When a vote on the motion was called for, Tessar, Theusch and Goeden voted yes, with Brigham, Spoerl and Horner voting no. The motion died because of the tie vote. Charles Ogi was absent.

In other action, the board moved to post the Business Manager position. Horner told the board he had some concern about posting the position now. Horner said he wanted to wait until after the Department of Public Instruction's study was in. Horner felt that someone other than a business manager could be hired or some of the work assigned to other people. A Beechwood resident spoke up, "I think our district is already suffering by all the cuts. I think we better hire another business manager before we lose Mr. Long and we have to look for another administrator." Theusch, Tessar, Brigham and Goeden voted to post the position, Horner and Spoerl voted no.

The board also approved Long's recommendation to pick up the tab for school crossing guards in the village. Long told the board neither the village or school district is legally obligated to provide crossing guards, however, discontinuing the practice would result in a dangerous situation for the children.

Since the school district cannot legally hire crossing guards, the village will continue to do so and the district will reimburse the village for their cost.

Certification of the spring school board election was held off since Norma Serwe, an unsuccessful candidate in the school board race, filed a petition for a recount of the votes. The recount was scheduled for Tuesday.

On behalf of the school board and district, Brigham thanked retiring board members Richard Theusch for his twelve years and John Tessar for seven years of service on the board. Tessar told the meeting "I hope the new board members coming on and the present members get together and work for the good of the school system, and let the administration and faculty run the schools and let us follow the policies."

Village Board

the subdivision homes are eight years old or newer. The brick home in question is at least 40 years old.

Another concern of the homeowners was possible damage to roads from moving the house which weighs approximately 150 tons. Although a bond must be posted to cover any damage, Thompson questioned, "what, if two years down the road, you find cracks in your sewer and water systems, who will have to pay for those repairs?"

Village President Gerald Stollenwerk and the trustees admitted this had been one of the toughest problems the board had run into. However, after a great deal of study by the Plan Commission members and trustees, the Village Board felt everything was in order to approve the request of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Schacht.

Property owner Robert Sparks commented that, as elected officials, he thought the board was expected to make a decision based on the feelings of the majority, but based on what he and the other subdivision residents saw that night, the views and opinions of the majority did not hold any water.

After the meeting, Trustee Dave Nigh, who, along with Don Mlodzik, had voted against the motions, gave his reason. Nigh said he had come to the meeting fully intending to vote for the permit, but after listening to the discussion regarding the possibility of damage to the underground sewer and water lines, he had to reverse his decision.

Home craftsmen say that a good way to thaw a frozen water pipe is with a hair dryer.

BUYING? See your Realtor.

Badger Boys & Girls State Selections Announced at Kewaskum High School

This year some 2,000 junior boys and girls throughout Wisconsin are selected to represent their schools and community at a state gathering of Wisconsin school students. This year the delegates, sponsored by the local American Legion Post or auxiliary as well as other local organizations, will be participating in the girls' fortieth and boys' forty-second annual workshop.

This year Mary Sleger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sleger, Rt. 1, Kewaskum; Sandra Nigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Nigh, Kewaskum, and Julie Koepke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koepke, Kewaskum, were the 3 junior students selected from the top third of junior class girls.

Doug Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller, Kewaskum, and Kirk Vogt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Vogt, Kewaskum, were the 2 junior boys from the top half of their class.

The selection of delegates is based on the students scholastic standing, their participation in extra-curricular activities such as athletics, music, speech, journalism, clubs or other school organizations and their adaptability to the Badger State program.

The girls will start their week of activities on June 5th, at Madison while the boys begin their week of activities in Ripon, Wis. on June 12th.

Through this Badger State program, these high school leaders of the future should develop a sense of individual obligations to their community, state and nation.

Hwy. 45 Bypass to Be Presented Dept. of Transportation Plans Public Informational Meeting in Fond du Lac

The Wisconsin Department of Transportation will hold a public informational meeting on the 1983-85 transportation budget in Fond du Lac on April 19.

The meeting will be held at Goodrich High School Auditorium, 382 Linden Street, starting at 7:30 p.m.

This is one of ten meetings to be held throughout the state to inform the public of the issues involved in the $1 billion biennial budget. Transportation Secretary Lowell Jackson, who will be the main speaker, said he would welcome citizen comments regarding budget priorities.

The two-year budget calls for less than a four and one half percent increase over the current base. However, it does propose a number of significant changes, including:

- 1) A stabilized motor fuel tax formula to account for increasing costs and declining fuel consumption.
- 2) Continuation of the 30% cost sharing formula for transit operations and state pickup of some expected loss in federal transit aids.
- 3) A 5% across the board increase in local formula and "hold harmless" highway aids.

Featured during the meeting will be an audio-visual presentation describing 14 major projects targeted for accelerated development. They include the West Bend Bypass, Highway 45 in Washington County between Highway 41 and CTH "D"; 10-mile segment of Highway 23 in Sheboygan County, from Highway 32 to CTH "P"; and Highway 151 in Fond du Lac County between Fond du Lac and Peebles. These projects are considered to be of such importance to the state's transportation future that Governor Anthony Earl and Secretary Jackson have proposed the state use bonding to insure completion by 1990.

An exchange of information between DOT officials and the public about the budget is the major purpose of the meetings. Thus, considerable time will be allowed for questions and answers.

Lions Club to Hold Diabetes Screening

The Kewaskum Lions Club will be conducting a Diabetes Screening Test on Friday, May 6, from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m., at Kennelly Pharmacy in the Kewaskum Mall.

The American Diabetes Association will assist in conducting the tests.

More information will be announced in a later issue.

NAME OMITTED

Robin Kempf, a 7th grade student, was inadvertently omitted by the Kewaskum Middle School in their release of the honor roll (3.0-3.4) which was published in last week's issue.

Mathias and Catherine Schickert of 1176 Western Avenue, Kewaskum, and Ray and Judy Schrauth of Route 3, Campbellsport, are proud to announce the engagement of their children, LuAnn and Don. LuAnn will be a 1983 graduate of Kewaskum High School, and is presently employed at the Fin-N-Feather Supper Club of New Prospect, and Campbell's Village Inn of Kewaskum. Don is a 1980 graduate of Campbellsport High School and is presently employed at Regal Ware Inc. A June 22, 1984, wedding is planned.

April 12, 1983
To Whom it May Concern:

I attended last night's school board meeting where Mr. Tom Brigham was chairman of the meeting, which in my opinion was one of the better conducted meetings I have had a chance to attend with a crowd of a hundred fifty people, plus. Now that the election is over, even with the recount, I hope our new Superintendent is given a chance to work with the board and the public, and I hope for peace and no more mud slinging. We had an honest election and the voting public is to be congratulated for a job well done.

We have a good teaching staff even if we find in the bottom of the barrel a few who could need a little more of the three "Rs" themselves.

As for the eight period day, I for one am glad it went out the window. There was respect shown for the students and all concerned and I hope "the students" show the same respect in return. With keeping a seven period day, all the students have a chance, not just the gifted and talented. This gives a slow learner a chance too for he or she needs that diploma also. When I was a high school student we needed 16 credits to graduate. I had (19).

Respectively,
Clara Trapp

Return From Visit to Rome

Vernette Riley, the daughter of Jim and Ella Andre of Kewaskum, recently made a 12-day business trip to Rome for Mercy Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa. Among those in the Mercy delegation were 15 physicians, 15 nurses, Sister Patricia Clare, president; Vernette Riley, vice-president, and Sister Seraphia McMahon, director.

The purpose of the trip was to start "The Heart Center of Rome." It will be a 60 bed hospital. Twenty-seven nurses and four physicians from Mercy will staff the hospital for a six month period and then will be replaced by another group. Under terms of a three year agreement with "Heart International" they will provide patient care and also train English speaking nurses from Thailand, Colombia and Africa. After they finish their training they will return to their own countries to help develop open heart surgery programs. The hospital should open in June or July.

The group had a private audience with the Pope and visited historical places in Rome, Naples and Florence.

Vernette graduated from Milwaukee Deaconess School of Nursing in 1950 and has been employed at Mercy since 1954. Her daughter Nancy will graduate from nursing school in April.

Firemen Answer Two More Calls

Kewaskum firefighters responded to two more calls during the week.

At 8:45 a.m. Sunday the firemen were called to Meadow Creek Apartments, 1119 Roseland Dr., where burned food on a stove caused smoke to fill the apartment. Smoke fans were used to ventilate the apartment.

At 11:52 p.m. Tuesday firemen were called to put out a stubborn chimney fire at the David Pascavis home, 2808 Salisbury Lane, in the Town of Kewaskum. Twenty-five firemen responded to the call and were at the scene one hour, according to Chief Augie Bilgo. No damage resulted.

Also, to the "Friends of Education" for the many long hours you put in and your support, a heartfelt thank you for a job well done. I could not have done it without your support.

A special thank you to all of the students who took the time to get involved. For many this was the first time for you to go to the polls and cast your vote. As you can see, your vote does count. Thanks again for your help and your support.

Threshold Officers Re-Elected; Name James Moran of Regal Ware to Board

At their recent annual meeting, the board of directors of The Threshold in West Bend re-elected the following officers to a one-year term; James Hopp, president; Kathleen Walter, vice-president; Elaine Shanebrook, secretary; and William Bailey, treasurer.

Approval for re-election to three-year voluntary terms as Threshold board members were: Norman Colby and Robert Steiner of West Bend; Don Stevens of Hubertus, and Alfred Zimmerman of Slinger. James Moran of West Bend was a newly elected board member. Moran is employed by Regal Ware of Kewaskum as director of human resources. Mr. Moran filled the vacated position of Robert Zarling.

Prior to the election of officers, the Threshold board held their annual meeting with the Association for Retarded Citizens of Washington County.

Horst Wagner, executive director of Theshold, reviewed the 1982 audit report which indicated a net operational budget loss of $18,353. He cited there were 20 less people referred for services by the Wisconsin Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) than the previous year. Also, DVR had a more limiting budget for case services and tightened up on length of time clients could be in rehabilitation programs. The $5,129 revenue loss from DVR plus a net income loss of industrial subcontract dollars, due to the tight economy, accounted for the total deficit for calendar year 1982.

Threshold department heads highlighted and reviewed their pre-printed and distributed programs and services reports. The supervisors giving summations included: Dale Thomas, coordinator of rehabilitation services; Nancy Roskopf, educational services director; Phil Seidensticker, production manager and subcontract procurement; Marvin Wolf, transportation supervisor and building maintenance; and Mary Engelke, home trainer - early intervention services for children under age 3.

Special guests for the evening included the C.C.S.A. program coordinators, their director, and members of the C.C.S.A. board of directors.

Joe and Lou Schwai presented the check in the amount of $3,930 in proceeds from their O'Schwai's St. Patrick's Day Threshold Benefit event.

KHS Teachers and Students Use Spring Break Time Wisely

VISIT MEXICO

Two Kewaskum High School teachers, Ms. Linda Bullette and Ms. Sue Burgard, and five KHS students, Glen Hupfer, David Jones, Laurie Jones, Sharon Land and Mike Steinhart, spent the week of March 25 - April 1 in the Yucatan Peninsula, Mexico.

Under sunny 90 - 100 degree Mexican skies, the group visited such places as the ruins of the Mayan civilization in Chichen Itza, Uxmal and Kabah. They spent 3 days on the island of Cozumel in the Caribbean Sea, enjoying the tropical climate, food and atmosphere. They also went snorkeling in the clear warm waters of the Caribbean off the Palancar Reef. They took Advantage of their newly acquired Spanish language talents from Spanish teacher Bullette and spoke Spanish with and participated in the culture of the Mayan descendants.

The last 3 days of their vacation were spent in Merida - the largest city in the Yucatan Paninsula. Here they took advantage of the devalued peso and returned to Kewaskum with many souvenirs of a wonderful trip.

Scout Boat Regatta at Farmington

Cub Scout Pack 3779 held it's first Boat Regatta, March 22, at Farmington School. The Cubs were given a boat kit to complete by themselves. The boats turned out as individual as the Cub that made them.

Good Cub Scout sportsmanship was displayed as the Cubs cheered each other on. The tension mounted as it came down to the last four Cubs.

The parents held their breath, as the Cubs cheered the following Cubs on to place. Scot Paulson, first place, center, Scott Backhaus, second place, right and Robbie Kertscher, third place, left. Other scouts are in the background.

It was an exciting evening that won't be forgotten too soon.

Driver Exam Stations Across State to Be Closed April 19

If you have to renew a driver's license, register a car, or get an instruction permit, don't plan to do it on Tuesday, April 19.

That is the last of five days which driver exam stations around the state are closed, to meet the legislatively-mandated 25 per cent reduction in scheduled salary increases for state employees.

Norbert K. Anderson, administrator of the Division of Motor Vehicles, said the closings affect all driver license exam stations except those in Milwaukee and on the west side of Madison.

The Milwaukee closing schedule is being staggered in order to maintain as much service as possible in the metropolitan area. Stations serving the northwest and southwest areas, located at 8701 W. Fond du Lac Ave. and 2424 10th Ave., will be closed Tuesday, Apr. 19, while northeast and southwest stations at 6101 N. Teutonia Ave. and 4159 S. 76th St., will be closed Thursday, Apr. 21.

Driver exam and registration counters in downtown Milwaukee, 819 N. 6th St., and the Hill Farms state office building in Madison will not be closed, but will work with a reduced staff, Anderson said.

"We have made every effort to schedule the closings on mid-week days when demand for services is less, to cause the least inconvenience to the public," Anderson added.

Centennial Food Tasting Spree At Hartford

A mouth watering array of fine food is promised to all who attend the Centennial Tasting Spree on Saturday, April 23, according to Wanda Patzer and Corinne Drew, co-chairman. The Spree, to be held at the Hartford High School cafeteria, 805 Cedar Street, from 1-3 p.m., will feature about 200 favorites of area cooks who will be vying for prizes in various categories.

The recipes prepared for the Spree, along with several hundred others, will appear in the Centennial cookbook. The cookbook is included with the $4 ticket so favorites can be noted as they are tasted.

Adding to the fun for the Spree will be live entertainment and door prizes.

Tickets may be purchased in advance only at Centennial headquarters, 28 S. Main, Hartford, or by calling 673-2330 or 673-7797.

POLIO VACCINE

There have been rare cases of polio paralysis in people or their contacts soon after receiving oral vaccine [55 cases after 193 million doses]. The oral vaccine is a live virus, merely weakened to make it less dangerous than wild polio virus. In contrast, there have been no cases of paralysis with the injectable polio vaccine in which the virus is killed during processing. It is surprising that oral polio vaccine rather than the injectable vaccine is usually given in the U.S.

Plans for Professional Secretaries Week Announced

The Kettle Moraine Chapter of Professional Secretaries International has announced plans for Secretaries Week, April 24-30. Professional Secretaries International is the originator and sole sponsor of Professional Secretaries Week since its beginning in 1952.

Carole Keller, Secretaries Week Chairman, said the Kettle Moraine Chapter of PSI will be observing Secretaries Week by sponsoring its 13th Annual Secretaries Day Banquet on Wednesday, April 27, at Hon-E-Kor Country Club in Kewaskum. A Kewaskum High School future secretary will be honored.

The guest speaker for this event will be Dr. Richard Stoller, a master graphoanalyst, educator, lecturer and author of several books. His topic will be

"Change Your Writing, Change Your Life." Dr. Stoller's 30 years as a Milwaukee school teacher and principal has enabled him to research the field of scientific handwriting analysis. It is this research that has given him local TV exposure, national radio coverage, and international speaking engagements. He has taught the subject of handwriting analysis for the past 18 years at colleges, Milwaukee public schools, and private agencies.

The evening will begin with a social hour at 5:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 6:30 p.m., at a cost of $8.00. Reservations can be made by calling Secretaries Week Chairman, Carole Keller, at 334-2311 between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. All secretaries are invited to attend this banquet.

Six finalists will compete in the "Miss Washington County Pageant" to be held at Grafton High School, April 23 at 7:30 p.m. Simultaneous competitions for Ozaukee and Sheboygan Counties will be held and will culminate in the crowning of Miss Washington County, Miss Ozaukee County and Miss Sheboygan County.

A beautiful blonde college coed from Slinger is the first contestant to enter the Pageant. HEIDI GUNDRUM, sponsored as a contestant by the State Bank of Slinger, is a Freshman at U.W.-Whitewater. She is 19 years old, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gundrum.

JOLENE DANNER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Danner, is a graduate of Hartford High School and is sponsored by Jeanne's Country Casuals, West Bend. She was 2nd runner-up in the Germantown Jr. Miss Pageant in 1982.

Char Zarling, Chairman of the "Miss Washington County Pageant," said, "each one of the six contestants entered in the Pageant this year is worthy of the honor," adding "although only one will be selected for the title, all the girls who participate in the Pageant will find it a rewarding experience."

The shimmer of fame and glamour shines brightly for those seeking the crown, but most are seeking the scholarship benefits awarded throughout the local and state pageants conducted as part of the national organization, and at the Miss America Pageant finals staged each September in Atlantic City. The Miss America Pageant organization conducts the largest scholarship program for young women in the world.

Tickets may be purchased at the State Bank of Slinger, M & I First National Bank, West Bend, Allen Hron Jewelers, West Bend, or by writing Cindy Knoebel, Box 148, Kewaskum, Wi. 53040, or calling 626-4311. They may also be purchased at the door the night of the Pageant.

From the School Board President's Desk....

When is the Computer Information evening going to be? What can we expect to see there? Is this for everyone?

The Long Range Planning Committee has set up a computer information and demonstration open house for district residents on April 25, 1983, from 6:00 until 9:00 p.m. in the Kewaskum High School gym. You will be able to see a variety of programs being run on the Apple computers that the district already owns. These will be primarily on the middle school and the high school level. Other brands of computers and software that are being considered for our district will be on display. These will be mostly on the elementary level.

You will see more than just machines. The teachers who are involved with computer education and who have used it in their classes will be present to answer questions. Students will be the ones who will be demonstrating the machine use. If you have questions about computer use in the classroom, the various applications of computer programs, or the ability of students to use the computers, please come. I think that it would be interesting for the entire family. Please feel free to drop in at any time during the evening, and bring the children.

Cookbook to Feature Recipes From Milwaukee Brewers' Wives and Mothers

Plans for another championship season are not the only thing cooking in the Milwaukee Brewers' clubhouse these days.

'What's Cookin' with the Brewers' Wives?', a new cookbook featuring 166 favorite recipes from wives and mothers of the 1982 American League Championship Milwaukee Brewers, is scheduled to be released April 15 in the Milwaukee area.

With easy-to-follow directions for a variety of appetizers, beverages, breads, soups, salads, side dishes, entrees and desserts, the recipes will make it fun to recreate delicious Brewers' specialties for any occasion.

Pictures of contributors and a full color photograph of the Brewers baseball team will be included in the cookbook.

The Brewers' wives are undertaking the cookbook as a fund-raising project for selected Milwaukee area charities.

The Milwaukee Journal Promotion Department is co-operating with the Brewers' wives in the design and preparation of the book for printing.

Efforts to promote the cookbook include an autograph party at County Stadium prior to the April 17 Milwaukee Brewers-Kansas City Royals game. Another autograph session will take place April 28 in the Journal lobby at the Public Service Bureau, 333 West State Street, from 2 to 4 p.m.

'What's Cookin' with the Brewers' Wives?', a 6x8 1/2 inch ringbound book, is available at The Milwaukee Journal Public Service Bureau and at local bookstores. The cost is $4.95 plus tax, or by mail for $5.95, which includes tax and postage.

The music group will be emphasizing nationality groups of our state. For example: they will be singing the songs of Norwegians in Dane and Vernon County, the Poles in Milwaukee County, the Finns in the far north, Bohemians in Kiwani County and many others.

In preparation for Congress, the entire group will meet April 29 to May 1, for rehearsals at camp Upham Woods near Wisconsin Dells. They have also been asked to perform at State Fair in August, and at Farm Progress Days. The group is selected on the basis of applications submitted by high school age 4-H members.

Good Luck 4-H Club Receives Community Development Award

The Good Luck 4-H Club of West Bend received a $25.00 Community Development Award. They are one of 15 Wisconsin clubs to be so recognized. The awards, ranging from $15.00 to $50.00 are presented by the Wisconsin Bankers Association. The award is based on the work which a club has done in the improvement of their community.

The main part of the Good Luck 4-H Club's community program involved people at the Samaritan Home. The group made greeting cards for them at several holidays. They also went caroling at Christmas time and handed out apples and oranges to the residents. The group also adopted a grandmother and sent her greeting cards and visited her at Christmas time.

Other activities for community improvement included having educational programs on Health and Energy Conservation at their club meetings.

Paul Cypher and Arlene Cypher of West Bend were adults giving leadership to the group. Sara Hildebrand of West Bend was youth leader with responsibilities for the club's community development program.

April 17-23 Is Crime Victim Rights Week

Attorney General Bronson C. La Follette and Washington County District Attorney, David C. Resheske, jointly announced their support of Victim Rights Week, April 17-23, 1983.

Victims Rights Week, which is recognized both nationally and in Wisconsin, focuses attention on the problems experienced by crime victims and witnesses, and recognizes the importance of citizen involvement in all phases of law enforcement.

"Crime often makes the headlines, but victims often are just included as statistics," the two officials stated. "No one is immune from crime. In fact, each year, one of every five Americans becomes a victim. All victims need help, for their troubles are not necessarily over the moment a suspect is arrested. The ordeal of a prosecution often takes a heavy toll on the victim. The psychological, emotional and financial costs can be great. Yet, recent studies show that for every $50 spent on offender rehabilitation programs, only $1 is spent for victim services."

In 1980, Wisconsin became the first state in the nation to enact into law a Bill of Rights for victims of crime. These include the right to protection, information and notification relating to court cases and the availability of financial aid, such as the State's Crime Victim Compensation program.

La Follette and Resheske encourage all citizens to support state, local and private efforts recognizing the needs of crime victims.

Birds, in proportion to their size and weight, are about 75% stronger than are human beings.

"SUGAR"
 Avoid It And Avoid Tooth Decay
 by Stephen R. Van Ess, D.D.S.

You're at a party. On the table in front of you is a bowl of raisins, a honey cake, and a plate of apples. Earlier in the day, you saw your dentist, who told you that you had two new cavities. If you want to avoid tooth decay in the future, which of these foods should you choose?

It's not an easy question to answer. In the fourth century B.C., Aristotle noticed that people who ate ripe figs had many decayed teeth, but it wasn't until the 1950's that scientists began to understand the relationship between food and tooth decay. Decay occurs because of plaque, a thin film of bacteria that forms on everyone's teeth. When these bacteria encounter sugar, they produce acids that attack—and can destroy—the enamel of the teeth.

For a long time, dentists thought that the only dentally harmful element in our diets was sucrose. Although most people think sucrose is just another name for white table sugar, it is actually the most common sugar in the plant kingdom. Peaches, bananas, plums, carrots, all contain sucrose, as do many other fruits and vegetables.

Recent studies have shown, however, that other members of the sugar family can be harmful to the teeth. Foods that contain honey, molasses, corn syrup, maltose, glucose, fructose, (fruit sugar), or lactose, (milk sugar) can also cause the bacteria in plaque to produce acid.

It's not just the amount of sucrose or other sugars in a food that matters. How long the food stays in your mouth, what you eat with it, and how often you eat it are all factors that help determine its effects on your teeth.

So what should we eat? Here are the American Dental Association's suggestions:

Eat a balanced diet. Like the rest of your body, your teeth, jaw bones, and mouth tissues need a variety of foods for good health.

Try not to snack. Each time you eat sugars, acid attacks the tooth enamel for about twenty minutes. The more attacks, the more damage done.

Eat sweet foods only with meals. They are less harmful if eaten along with other foods.

Brush and floss thoroughly at least once a day, or more often if your dentist recommends. This removes the plaque that causes tooth decay.

And about the party....The raisins, the cake, and even the apple all contain sugars. Why not look around? Maybe you'll find some cheese or peanuts in the next room.

SOCIAL SECURITY PACKAGE NOT A GOOD SOLUTION

The Social Security package the President has signed into law was labelled a "bipartisan compromise" on a difficult and controversial issue, but I believe it falls short of the promises made for it, so I voted against it.

Many Members of Congress opposed certain provisions of the package, yet voted for the entire bill for the sake of compromise. However, in the end 102 of us felt the package was inadequate and could not support it.

H. R. 1900, the Social Security bill, relied too heavily on added taxes to address both the short and long-term financing problems, which will place a heavy burden on future generations of workers. It also failed to balance the burden of the $165 billion cost between workers and retirees.

Even with the increased taxes, some experts feel the system could be in financial trouble again by the mid 1990's because of the lack of structural reforms made in the program. Actuaries have testified that it may take as much as 32% of payroll to sustain the level of benefits under this bill by the year 2030. This is not fair to our young people, who already face a heavy tax burden.

The package has several other problems, as well. It includes the use of general funds for financial Social Security, destroying the original self-financing concept of the program and opening the door for greater federal deficits.

The new tax on benefits removes incentive for workers to save for their retirement, and imposes a welfare-type means test on a system designed to provide benefits in proportion to contributions made.

The added tax on the self-employed is excessive, and comes at a time when many of them, particularly farmers and small businessmen, are struggling to survive.

The bill also failed to reform the cost-of-living adjustments to keep them in line with actual economic growth.

The bill failed to adequately address the increased longevity of our population, even though it did wisely advance the retirement age to 67 over a period of years. Nor did it resolve the problem of the "notch effect" which has reduced the benefits of those reaching retirement age now.

This solution is neither permanent nor fair to all concerned. I am committed to the guarantee of full benefits to the retired and those nearing retirement, but I am also committed to the young people who will pay the price of this bill. More reforms are needed to assure them of security when they retire.

A LIFE OR DEATH QUESTION — HOW MUCH LIFE INSURANCE?

Are you worth more dead than alive?

If the answer is yes, you're among millions of wage earners buying life insurance so your family won't be financially burdened in case you die. You may even be giving up current spending and saving in order to finance this protection against risk.

It's important to have enough insurance when the time comes. But it's a trade-off between sacrificing the present for a future that may never happen.

If you have dependents—spouse, children, elderly parents who count on you for support—you should insure your own life. It's especially important to do so if the children are young.

The next question is, how much life insurance do you need?

Look at your own situation as if you might die today. How much cash and income would your dependents need?

Need, in turn, can be separated into immediate, short-term and long-term need. Under immediate need fall those expenses connected with the death itself: medical and hospital charges, funeral costs, estate expenses. Debts such as money owed on charge accounts and personal loans may need to be paid.

Second, determine daily living expenses for a term of two to six months. These would include food, rent or mortgage, taxes, clothing, transportation and education. Don't forget, some savings will be necessary in any budget.

Next, consider long-term financial needs: health insurance, home repair or maintenance, a new car or appliance, or college.

Now examine your income. Social Security or a job-related pension plan may contribute to the family fund pool after you're gone. Are there other assets: savings, stocks or bonds, or real estate that could provide income in the form of interest, dividends or rent? If your spouse works, include his or her earnings when you add up income from all sources.

The income figure may be larger than the expense figure. But this is seldom the case. It is the gap between a lower income figure and a higher expense figure that life insurance is meant to fill.

But you're not through yet. Perhaps you can add to the income side of the statement. It is sometimes unrealistic to insure your present lifestyle. Especially if there is inflation.

Rather than scrimping now, it may be more sensible to assume that a non-working spouse will take a job. Is your mate in good health, with up-to-date job skills? If not, insurance should cover medical treatment, or additional education or retraining.

All these considerations must be weighed. If you expect the spouse to find a job, either soon or eventually count that job income against the amount of insurance you'll need. Remember that part of earned income, however, will go for job-related expenses such as child care, clothing or transportation.

The time to contact an insurance agent is after you've considered all of your family's special needs.

Think too about how life insurance premium payments will fit into your current budget. Important as insurance is, it cannot take precedence over basic necessities.

That's why it's crucial to get the insurance you need for the lowest price.

"There is no wealth but life."

West Bend Savings Announces Promotion, Additions to Staff

He is a 1970 graduate of Marquette University and has been awarded a certificate of achievement from the United States League of Savings Association's School of Financial Education.

Bicyclists

Although bicycle operators have the same rights and privileges as motor vehicle operators, the bicyclist is the one who will suffer most in striking or being hit by a car, warns Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz.

Bikes will be taken out of winter storage and be in more evidence as days and nights get warmer and more inviting for travel, he pointed out. Users of the popular two-wheeled vehicle include boys and girls of all ages and an increasing number of adults, he added.

Experience varies greatly, Schwartz said. Some bicyclists tend to rely too much on the motorist looking out for them. Some bicyclists also are careless about maintaining brakes in good order. Some fail to use a white light visible to the front during hours of darkness. A red reflector showing to the rear should be kept clean so it can be spotted easily by a motorist within the distance illuminated by his headlights.

The Sheriff urges cyclists to ride alone on a bike and ride single file if with others. Special care should be taken when making turning movements.

Kite Flyers

Some days it gets pretty windy in April, leading youngsters (and even some adults) to get kite flying fever, it was pointed out by Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz.

Ideally, a person should experiment with kite flying in a rural field or a park - where one is free to roam without fear of running into streets or having the kite caught in wires or tree branches, he said.

Schwartz went on to say that in the city a youngster may find a school ground or playground suitable. However, if one is flying a kite close to home, the dangers from street traffic and the possibility of getting one's kite caught in wires or branches greatly increase.

The Sheriff recommends, motorists will do well to look on a flying kite as leading to some person on the ground, maybe in the street. It's very easy for the kite flyer to become so intent on looking skyward that the thought of watching where his or her steps are leading becomes a matter of secondary importance, Sheriff Schwartz concluded.

Wild Turkey Hunting Season Opens April 21

The curtain goes up on the 1983 Wisconsin turkey hunting season on April 21st. That opening period of the season runs through April 25th with two other hunting periods to follow, April 28th through May 2nd and May 5th through May 9th.

Twelve hundred hunters, chosen at random from those who applied for a turkey hunting permit prior to October 1st, last year, will take to the field in quest of one of the gobblers. Resident owners of 50 or more acres of land in the area of the hunt were given preference for 20 percent of the permits. The hunt is limited to four zones in southwestern Wisconsin.

Hunting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to 12:00 noon, and successful hunters are required to register their bird at a designated DNR registration station no later than 3:00 p.m. on the day it was bagged.

DNR to Have Hearings On Walleye Size Limit

The Department of Natural Resources will hold public hearings on April 25, 1983 to determine, among other things, if a minimum size limit should be set for walleye on Wisconsin inland lakes.

13 inches is the number most often heard and it appears to have the support of the Wisconsin Conservation Congress. But according to Robert Knops, director of the Fishing Research Association, Rhinelander, WI., this limit may not produce the desired result. As F.R.A. research shows, the four northwestern counties in Wisconsin which presently do have a size limit on walleye do not provide a better quality walleye fishery. In fact, the fish population tends to "stack up" at the controlled size, which is 13". Once this happens, these fish can begin to control the entire walleye fishery and large, quality fish tend to decline in number.

Mr. Knops, who has studied more than 900 lakes in Wisconsin feels that slot sizing on certain lakes might be beneficial. Slot sizing involves leaving a certain size range of walleye in the lake. This has been done with some success in southern states but hasn't been tried in Wisconsin.

A NOTE OF THANKS

If you are interested in having your voice heard on this matter, be sure to attend the public meetings which will be held at all Wisconsin county seats. Specific lake information can be obtained by writing Mr. Knops directly at Recreation Research Company, Star Route 2, Box 255 D, Rhinelander, WI., 54501, or calling him at (715) 282-5701.

I shall always be grateful to all my relatives, neighbors and friends who remembered me with cards, gifts, visits, flowers, phone calls and all those who brought food for the family, while I was a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital and convalescing at home. ## Jepson, Charland To State in Kids' Wrestling

In Regional Freestyle Wrestling competition, Wade Jepson, Kewaskum High School freshman, qualified to participate in the State Freestyle Tournament to be held at Wisconsin Rapids April 23.

Jepson, wrestling in the 105 pound class for participants 14 and under at the Howards Grove regional, placed first by pinning David McKay of Ozaukee in 3:43, Jerry Abitz of Oshkosh in 2:23, and Jon Thome of Howards Grove in :45, and decisioned Doug LaCount of Pulaski 13-1.

Also qualifying for the State Tournament was Chris Charland of Kewaskum Elementary School, placing third in the 80 pound weight class for 11 and 12 year olds.

of the season in 1982.

Jim Hendricks of Germantown is the defending mini-stock champion but it is uncertain of his return in 1983. The division was the sight of many close races throughout 1982 and any one of 10 drivers could take the title.

The ever-popular figure 8 division will get a big boost with the addition of several of the top figure 8 cars in the state from the Kaukauna area and this should produce even more exciting racing.

Special attractions will be announced throughout the season.

Admission for 1983 remains unchanged from 1982: adults - $4.00, youths, 12 to 15 - $3.00, 6 to 11 year olds - $1.00, under 6 free.

For exciting racing action all summer — remember "Think Slinger" but remember it is now Saturday nights instead of Sunday.

Buswell Appointed Chairperson for Local Bike-A-Thon

Wisconsin is gearing up for the annual Cystic Fibrosis Bike-A-Thon which in 1982 raised a record $165,000 to help fight America's number one genetic killer of children and young adults. Robert L. Gilpatrick, president of the Wisconsin Chapter, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, recently announced the appointment of the following chairperson.

Terry Buswell, Kewaskum Jaycees, Kewaskum Bike-A-Thon.

Cystic fibrosis (CF) is an inherited disease, present at birth, which causes certain glands to malfunction. Caused by a defective gene received from both parents, the fatal disease produces a thick, sticky mucus which clogs the lungs and airways, making breathing difficult. Twenty-five years ago children born with CF seldom reached school age. Today, thanks to research supported by the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, half of the children born with CF will survive to age twenty. Though treatments and early diagnosis are prolonging lives, there is still no cure or long-term control for cystic fibrosis nor is there a test to detect the over 10 million Americans who are unknowing, symptom-free carriers of the defective CF gene.

The foundation supports a network of 128 CF Centers throughout the United States with local centers at Milwaukee Children's Hospital and the University of Wisconsin - Madison Hospital and Clinics. The Wisconsin Chapter also supports several state-based research grants.

"Throughout the years, the people of Wisconsin have pulled together to participate in the bike-a-thon program and help give these kids a chance," said Gilpatrick. "We hope to get the full participation of many residents in this year's event. Together with the hundreds of other volunteers working on similar fundraising events throughout Wisconsin, we can make a strong impact on the fight to conquer cystic fibrosis."

Many geologists agree the continents are slowly moving at about a yard a century.

New Race Night Set for Slinger Super Speedway; Goeden to Defend 1982 Title

An auto racing "tradition" that goes back nearly 40 years will come to an end on April 30, when Slinger Super Speedway of Slinger, Wisconsin, changes from Sunday to Saturday nights for its weekly stock car racing program.

Speedway owner and promoter Wayne Erickson announced the change as one that will not only benefit the contestant, but the spectator as well. Contestants usually drive a long distance to compete at Slinger and then are faced with a long tow home prior to a work day (Monday). The Saturday night program will not be as hard on the drivers. The same holds true for the spectator, they will not be faced with a workday following a Sunday night program.

And, by racing on Saturdays, several drivers who have stayed away from the track have indicated they will participate in 1983. Most notably is Joe Shear of South Beloit, Illinois. Shear, the 1974 track champion in the late model division, has not competed at the track on a regular basis since 1974. He has announced his intention to compete for the 1983 track championship.

Drivers towing from the Fox River Valley Association area near Kaukauna also indicated they will race at Slinger with the switch to Saturday nights.

Erickson expects 10-12 "all-new" cars in addition to the regular competitors at the track.

The 1983 season kicks off with a practice and inspection session on Sunday afternoon, April 17. Fans will be admitted to the grandstands free from noon until 4:30 p.m. to get a sneak preview of the cars and stars that will be racing at the track throughout the summer.

It will also be a chance for those "newcomers" to test the quick, high banked paved asphalt oval for the first time, or to get some laps on that all-new or rebuilt race car.

The following Sunday afternoon, April 24, the 1983 campaign and quest for the championship begins. This will be the only afternoon program of the year. Time trials begin at 12:45 p.m. with racing at 2:00 p.m.

Then the following Saturday, April 30, the switch will be made to Saturdays for the rest of the season. Time trials will begin at 6:45 p.m. with racing shortly after 8:00 p.m. The rain date for any Saturday night show will be the next night, Sunday.

For 1983, Slinger Super Speedway will feature four exciting classes of racing action.

Late model stock cars will again headline the program with Willie Goeden of Kewaskum expected to return in defense of his 1982 track title in the division. Goeden drove his 1982 Pontiac Firebird to a convincing championship last summer and has to be reckoned with the repeat.

He will be challenged by, in addition to Shear, three-time Slinger champ Tony Strupp, Joe Laufer, Conrad Morgan and over 40 different late model drivers.

Sportsman cars will be led by two-time champ Lonnie Lentz of Watertown. Lentz, the 1981 and 1982 champ will be out to make it three in a row but will face stiff competition from Tom Bromley of New Berlin who battled Lentz until the last night
