Third Major Blaze In Less Than Seven Years

Fire Hits Felten Farm Again

Statesman Staff Writer

The State Fire Marshal's office, in conjunction with the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department, is investigating a suspicious fire on the Wilmer and Robert Felten farm, Route 1, 724 Mill Road, Kewaskum (New Fane).

The Kewaskum Fire Department received the call at 9:45 p.m. Monday and remained on the scene until 2:46 a.m. Tuesday morning. They were aided by the Boltonville, Batavia, Beechwood, Fillmore and Campbellsport fire departments.

Lost in the fire was a 60 by 100 foot metal shed containing several tractors, a round baler, kick baler, two wagons of hay and the Felten's workshop with all its equipment and tools. Kewaskum Fire Chief Augie Bilgo noted the hay did not appear to be the area where the fire started, however, he declined to comment Tuesday on the possible cause of the fire since it is still under investigation.

Bilgo said the damage estimate is expected to be in excess of $200,000.

Less than a year ago, the Felten farm was hit by fire. In that October, 1982 blaze, the family lost a new 108 x 60 foot pole shed, a new tractor and brand new manure spreader

Almost 5,000 Fish Die

Unreported Ammonia Spill Kills River's Fish Here

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

An ammonia spill which occurred at the Marigold Dairy plant last week, went unreported and undetected by local and Department of Natural Resources officials until dead fish began showing up in the Kewaskum area of the Milwaukee River.

The accident happened last Tuesday, but was not discovered until Thursday when Assistant Warden William Mitchell of the DNR's southeast district received a call and began an investigation into the matter.

Large numbers of dead fish were found near the river area of County Highway H, and below the dam at River Hill Park here. Mitchell called the DNR Fish Manager John Nelson, who went through the area picking up scores of dead fish including bass, catfish, carp, walleyes and northerns. While Nelson checked the river, Mitchell and Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo looked for the source of the problem. Bilgo said he had received a call regarding ammonia odors on Main Street in the area of a storm sewer on Tuesday.

The ammonia source was traced back to the dairy plant at 110 First Street, which produces Kemp's dairy products. It was learned a "sight glass" pipe which carries ammonia, broke under increased pressure releasing ammonia into a nearby storm sewer. Kemp's employees apparently did not report the accident.

The incident which killed almost 5,000 fish was under investigation and the DNR was to meet with Marigold Foods officials, owners of the plant, to discuss a damage settlement including restocking of the river, which had just been restocked with walleyes last year.

No Marigold officials were available for comment.

Lightning Damages Area Silo

A silo on the Daniel Rodenkirch farm located at Highways 144 and 28, sustained extensive damage when it was struck by lightning early Thursday morning.

Rodenkirch's three sons, Kevin, Bruce and Michael were mid way through their milking chores at about 6:40 a.m. when the lightning struck. Kevin walked into the silo room when he heard a loud "boom." "I thought it was an electrical outlet blowing, I didn't think it was lightning," he said.

Mike, the eldest son, said, "we were milking as usual, it was raining and thundering, then, all of a sudden it cracked once loud enough to make your ears ring." Bruce was leaning

Kewaskum School Board's Actions Called Galling and Unprofessional

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Those were the words used by Kewaskum resident Gerald Buchel as he addressed the members of the Kewaskum School Board at a special meeting held Wednesday, evening, July 27th.

Buchel was referring to the way in which the board had proceeded to terminate the services of the District's lawyer, Gerald Kiefer, and his firm, McKenna and Kiefer of Kewaskum.

Wednesday night's meeting was apparently the culmination of a series of closed meetings which began June 27th. Agenda items for closed sessions on June 27th, July 11th, and July 19th were listed as teacher contract negotiations.

It was during these meetings that the board began discussion on replacing the school district's negotiator, Ken Cole. Discussion then went on to terminating McKenna and Kiefer who have been the district's lawyers for the past eleven years.

Board member Neal Weare,

at Wednesday's meeting, noted he felt the procedure the board was using was not proper since

DA Investigating Possibility Of Board Meetings Violations

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

In a phone conversation with this reporter late Wednesday, Washington County District Attorney, David Resheske, confirmed his office is beginning an investigation of the Kewaskum School Board.

Resheske said he had received information and agendas covering meetings of the board over the last two months. While he has just begun to review the information, preliminary indications are the Board has been in violation of the open meetings law and there may be violations with regard to other meetings.

Resheske met with Board vice-president Neal Weare regarding the investigation. Resheske noted, however, he had received information from other individuals besides Weare. He declined to identify these people, saying their names will probably become public after the investigation.

Resheske also noted there was a possibility of a meeting with the School Board Members to discuss the situation.

Early Farm Days Aug. 13-14 In Kewaskum

On August 13 and 14, area residents and summer visitors are invited to take a trip through "memory lane" at the 9th annual Early Farm Days event sponsored by the Kewaskum Historical Society.

Beginning at 10 a.m. on both days, visitors will be able to view the antique farm machinery displays, some of which will be in action. Items to be included are gas and steam engines, oil pull, old tractors, antique fire-fighting equipment and hand-built and hand-crafted miniature replicas of some of the above.

The displays will be located on the beach side of the river on Parkview Drive in the village. Admission will be $1.50 for which you will receive a 1983 collector's button. which had not even been used. That fire was also of suspicious nature. Investigations by various agencies did not rule out the possibility of arson in that incident.

Seven years ago, on September 10th, 1976, the Felten dairy barn was destroyed by fire.

Monday night's fire is the sixth farm fire to occur in the immediate area in the past ten years according to Chief Bilgo's records.

Silo

against a stanchion removing a milker. As the lightning raced through the barn via the stanchions and pipelines, he received a jolt which threw him out into the aisle just as about 25 cows broke their chains and started running around in the barn. Bruce was able to get out of the way safely.

"We saw sparks and a small ball of fire in the gutter as the lightning traveled through the chains in the barn cleaner," said Mike. "Everything went so fast, then I realized what had happened." We ran outside to check the buildings for fire and damage and that's when we saw the silo steaming on top." The lightning had knocked a hole in the top of the silo, sending chunks of concrete flying; one piece made a hole in the barn roof.

Mike noted, after they tied the cows up, they found the pulsators on the milkers weren't working, he then tried to use the barn phone and found it was dead also.

Dan Rodenkirch said the silo would have to be taken down since the structure also received three cracks running almost the entire length, along with several steel re-enforcing rods being blown out of the concrete side near the silo's top.

School Board

as far as he could determine, the only order of business which could legally be discussed during these closed sessions was that of teacher negotiations. Referring to these sessions Weare said he had to plead ignorance to a certain point as a new board member. "I felt I could trust some of the old board members to say, hey, we can't discuss this."

While only 13 district residents were at the meeting, they all stated shock and disbelief at the board's actions. Mrs. Carole Connor questioned how the board could go from "hiring a negotiator to dumping a lawyer" since the board reportedly hired a new lawyer on July 19th, prior to receiving a formal letter of resignation which Kiefer did not submit until after the annual meeting Monday, July 25th.

District Administrator John Long said he had talked with Kiefer before the July 25th meeting about the possibility of the firm resigning its post. Long noted, however, that it was his understanding such a resignation would not become effective until August 8th. Kiefer apparently became aware of his "resignation" on a radio broadcast Monday morning, July 25th, the day of the annual meeting and a special meeting requested by board member Ralph Horner. Both Horner and Charles Ogi tried to skirt the issue that a decision to hire Michael Spector and the Milwaukee law firm of Quarles and Brady had been made before Kiefer's resignation had been received.

When residents asked who brought up the question of firing Kiefer, Weare said it had come from Horner. A portion of closed session minutes read by Weare said, Horner recommended securing Kiefer's resignation or firing him.

Administrator Long noted it was Horner who suggested he contact Quarles and Brady. When Long was asked how Horner came up with this firm, Long said Mr. Horner apparently talked with someone associated with the West Bend School District.

While Weare felt Spector would be an excellent asset as negotiator for the district, he saw no reason to go out of the area for a law firm to handle the balance of the district's legal affairs. Board President Jean Goeden said that Mr. Spector himself, had recommended the district retain a local law firm. "I hope the board members have enough common sense to listen to this man (Spector)," said Weare.

Kewaskum resident Richard Theusch asked what Spector's contract terms were. He was told the board did not have a written contract, but verbally, Spector had stated a fee of $90.00 per hour for his personal services or $65 to $90 for one of his associates other than himself. Joan Rosenberger noted, then the district could end up with a lawyer fresh out of school rather than Mr. Kiefer and his experience for $65.00 an hour. Weare told Theusch that Spector would not charge travel time to and from Milwaukee, however he required a guaranteed minimum session of three hours per trip or at least $270.00. Kiefer's fees were $60-65 an hour and negotiator Ken Cole's were $35.00 an hour plus travel time and expenses. When asked what would happen if the District was not satisfied with Spector's firm Horner replied, "if we don't sign a contract, we can terminate him any time." "Then he'll sue you, and he doesn't have to hire a lawyer," said Margaret McFadden.

Town of Scott resident Clara Trapp stated, "you just got yourselves out of one stinky mess, now you're into another one." Trapp said she had a chance to put one school board member on a recall vote, but maybe there should be four names there.

On a four to three vote, the board voted to hire a new negotiator and new law firm for the district. Horner, Spoerl, Ogi and Brigham voting for, Goeden, Weare and Dieringer voting against the motion.

After the meeting was over, several residents were discussing the meeting and it was noted that they had all noticed one small discrepancy in the motion made by board member Tom Brigham. That discrepancy was that while the board had discussed Spector and Quarles and Brady by name, Brigham did not specifically indicate them by name in his motion. In checking the minutes of the July 25th meeting to verify the motion, Brigham's motion as stated, reads "to hire a negotiator" and "a law firm," so legally, the board did not vote to hire Spector or Quarles and Brady as negotiator and law firm for the Kewaskum School District.

After the motion was voted on, Jerry Buchel told Weare he wanted an official investigation by the District Attorney into the legality of the board's action on this matter. Weare agreed, noting that if the members had broken the law it was only right that they be required to face the consequences and get things back on the right track, even if that meant having to pay any fines should they result.

Monday, August 1st, Weare said he had been in contact with the District Attorney's office regarding the investigation and there would probably be a meeting within the next week.

Brewer Ticket Deadline Is Monday For 'Kewaskum Night'

Monday, August 8, is the last day to purchase Brewers tickets for "Kewaskum Night," Tuesday, Aug. 16.

The price of a ticket for the twilight doubleheader is $7.00 and $3.00 for bus transportation. You must have your tickets to get on the bus.

Buses will leave the Valley Bank parking lot. The early buses will leave at 4:30 p.m. and the late buses at 5:15 p.m.

So get your tickets and let's make this the biggest "Kewaskum Night."

In 1980 there were 700 who attended the Brewers game on "Kewaskum Night." The attendance dropped to 331 persons in 1981 due to the players strike. Last year the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, who sponsors the event, did not promote a "Kewaskum Night."

Tickets are available at Valley Bank, Behring's Market and Minz Supply.

Mary finally arrived, most tardily, from school. "Where have you been," Mother demanded of the 6-year-old. "I've been down the street watching the devil's funeral," she innocently replied. "The devil's funeral? What on earth do you mean?" gasped Mother. "Well," said the little girl, "a couple of men were watching it, too, and I heard one of them say to the other: 'The poor devil got hit with an automobile.'"

Village Board Approves Permits

At its meeting Monday evening, the Kewaskum Village Board approved a liquor license for Karen M. Janowiak, who will become the new owner of the Glacier Inn on August 15th.

The board also approved a building permit to David R. Stern and Kenneth Panko, new owners of the building which presently houses R.L.'s Game Room. Stern and Panko plan on remodeling the premises into a restaurant which will be leased by Virginia Haney, operator of Gina's Pizza.

In other business, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the board he had some good news. Although the village had not gotten a rating for the recent TIF bond issue, because of the high cost, several purchasers sought a rating report at their own expense. Schmidt said he was happy to report that Standard and Poors, a rating firm, had given the village's bond issue a triple-A (AAA) rating which is excellent.

Parks Committee Chairman Richard Schmidt said there had been some inquiries as to why the park had been closed earlier than the standard time. He said it was done as a cost saving measure, noting one evening there were only two people at the park between four and six.

The park was opened at 7:00 and no one was there. Schmidt told the board it takes at least five employees to keep the park open and for only a couple of people, it is not economically practical for the village.

Trustee Don Mlodzik stated a Public Works Committee meeting has been scheduled for August 15th. The exact time will be posted later.

Police Chief Don Hlavaty requested a meeting with the Protection and Public Safety committee to discuss problems with the Winter Parking ordinance. He noted he would like to straighten out the situation before the ordinance is put into effect next November.

Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo informed the board that blacktopping of the village's streets will begin the latter part of August or early September.

The board then adjourned to closed session to discuss the police contract.

Kewaskum School District Receives $25,420 Grant

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Herbert J. Grover has notified the School District of Kewaskum, that its application for federal handicapped education funds has been approved in the amount of $25,420.00.

The money is made available under the Education of All Handicapped Children Act, which is designed to provide a free, appropriate public education for children with exceptional education needs (EEN), ages 3-21. About 130 EEN children in the Kewaskum Schools will be affected.

Approximately 130 applications during the 1983-84 school year will receive a share of the $16,495,512 available under this program, which is administered by the Department of Public Instruction. Seventy-five percent of the federal funds flow directly to the local school districts.

Through this program, a broad range of locally needed programs and services can be provided to children with exceptional educational needs. Funds may be used for salaries of instructional and support staff, purchase of special materials and equipment, bus purchases, specialized evaluations, vocational education activities, and comprehensive inservice training activities.

Said project director Richard Zarling, "The majority of the local project funds will be spent for materials and equipment of instruction as has been the case in previous years projects. These federal funds have made it possible for the district to greatly expand the amounts and kinds of material and equipment available to teachers so as to be able to better serve our EEN pupils without raising local property taxes. We anticipate this will continue to be in focus in the future years also."

Downed Tree Causes Power Interruption

A tree which came down in last Thursday's windy storm caused a temporary inconvenience to several Bel-Ric area families along Lazy Lane Friday morning.

While the tree itself did not stop electricity from getting to the homes, Wisconsin Electric temporarily interrupted service when they removed the tree and repaired wires which were stretched or pulled down by the tree.

Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo and Police Chief Donald Hlavaty said they had not received any call from that area, but a downed branch in another part of Kewaskum caused a minor problem. Bilgo went out and sawed off the broken branch.

County 'Career Conference' Slated At West Bend Aug. 11

If you are really interested in the path your life is going to take, you should attend the Washington County "Career Conference 1983: World of Work." Whether you are interested in pursuing a career in law enforcement, psychology, auto mechanics, physical or occupational therapy, or any of over 35 other career fields, you will want to participate in the conference on August 11.

Our Conference, which is being sponsored by the Washington County Job Training Office and will be held at the West Bend Recreation Department, 724 Elm Street, is open to any Washington County resident, age 16-21. The conference is free of charge and will feature a panel discussion with personnel directors from the major employers in the area. There will also be sessions on job seeking and job keeping skills. Once again, there will also be over 35 different occupational areas being represented by area citizens with expertise in their career fields.

We are very excited about having Paul Smith, Vice President of Measurable Performance Systems, located in Milwaukee, as our guest speaker. Smith will offer the participants suggestions on how to develop and improve their self image. Your career is your decision to make, but with a better self image, you present a better view of yourself to someone else.

The morning session will begin at 9:00 a.m. with registration and informational materials begin handed out to all participants. At 10:30 a.m., a panel discussion with personnel managers from various local companies, will be highlighting key issues relative to seeking, obtaining and keeping a job. The discussion will be moderated by Wally Wenzlaff of the West Bend Mutual Insurance Company. There will also be small group workshops. These workshops will be operated by representatives of the Wisconsin Job Service and area Social Service program coordinators. The workshops will deal with finding and keeping a job. The participants will be shown how to properly represent themselves during the all important interview.

The afternoon program will run from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. and will be comprised of over 35 different occupational areas. The participants will have an opportunity to meet in small groups with an expert who is working in a career area of interest to the participant. During the course of the afternoon, people will explore four different career possibilities.

Hopefully by letting the participants take time to meet the major employers in Washington County and find out what their hiring practices are, as well as talk to other professionals who are already working in various occupational areas, they will gain a better and more realistic understanding of what to expect in the "World of Work."

There is no fee for attending, but the participant must register before August 8. For more information or details, call Jorge Arocha any day, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., at 338-4490.

3-for-2 Stock Split Declared by Valley Bancorporation

The board of directors of Valley Bancorporation, parent company of the Valley Banks, have noted to authorize a 3-for-2 stock split, thus providing a 50% stock dividend. On September 12, 1983, shareholders will be mailed one new share of common stock for each two common shares held as of the record date, August 26, 1983. Gus A. Zuehlke, Valley's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, pointed out that after the 3-for-2 stock split, Valley would have 2.7 million common shares outstanding. Valley stockholders currently number approximately 3,900.

In another board action, the directors took initial steps to increase the authorized common shares from 3,000,000 to 6,000,000. Zuehlke pointed out that the increase in authorized shares, which requires shareholder approval, will give Valley greater flexibility in implementing its expansion strategies.

Valley Bancorporation serves

Wisconsin through 38 banking locations with trust, data processing, leasing and reinsurance subsidiaries.

The erratic course of female logic is frequently an awe-inspiring path to follow. Now, here's an example that is no more than ordinary. The woman stepped on the scale and made a face as she watched the dial. "What's the matter?" her hubby asked. "Are you overweight?" "No, not that," she replied. "But according to this chart, I should be six inches taller."

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Two employees of the Bar-N Annex Tavern on Highway GGG at Forest Lake, rural Campbellsport, have become the proprietors of the popular tavern and restaurant.

Dianna Faul began working at the Annex in 1975 for former owners Miles and Carol LaFever as a waitress. When Miles' brother Dennis bought the business in 1978, Dianna continued on as bar manager and hostess.

As of July 1st, she and her new business partner David Panko became the owners of the business. They will continue to lease the property from landowner Dr. F. E. Nolting of Kewaskum.

Dave began working at the Annex in July of 1980, as assistant chef to Dennis LaFever. Dave will now be in charge of the kitchen and kitchen help, while Dianna will be responsible for bar management and the waitresses.

The Annex will be open seven days a week from Memorial Day through Labor Day, offering live entertainment every Saturday and Sunday throughout the year. After Labor Day, the tavern will be closed on Mondays.

Tuesday, August 2nd, Dianna and David hosted a grand opening celebration for their new business venture.

The new owners said operation of the tavern and restaurant will remain basically the same. They did note they were considering starting a Sunday brunch service in the future.

MACHINE THAT NEVER STOPS

By H. L. Rumsey, D.C.

You may not know it, but you have a machine that will keep running as long as you live. And that can be a long time, if you take good care of it. The machine? Your body.

The human body is a wonderful machine when it's in good working order. But things can happen to it that throw it out of balance. Poor posture. Muscle strains. A spinal column out of alignment putting unwanted pressure on nerve centers. A general fatigue caused by poor nutrition.

Spinal misalignments can be corrected; so can the spinal stress that results from the misalignment. The nerve centers can be soothed and pressures relieved. The "out of balance" body can be restored to proper balance.

Every machine has a structure designed for smooth operation. Any defect in that structure can cause problems. In the human body, structural defects can cause aches and pains in the back, neck, and other parts of the body. When these aches and pains persist over a period of time that means you need treatment.

Electric Company Drops Plans For $41 Million Rate Increase

Wisconsin Electric Power Co. customers will pay no more for electricity in 1984 than they do now if a proposal to be filed with the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin is approved.

N. A. Ricci, senior vice president for Wisconsin Electric, said today the company would not need to increase electric rates next year, and will ask the commission to drop plans for a $41 million rate increase the company had requested earlier this year.

The proposal is contained in an amended filing the company plans to make Friday with the PSCW.

Ricci said the company's cost-cutting measures and the easing of inflation will make it possible to hold the line on rates.

"We've been able to cut costs by tightening our belts and by renegotiating contracts with fuel suppliers," he continued. "Our goal has been a no rate increase year, and we're pleased that we've achieved it. It will continue to be our goal for succeeding years."

The company has been able to negotiate significant reductions in coal prices due to increased coal supplies and reduced demand, Ricci said. Also, the cost of other materials and supplies has not gone up as much as expected with the leveling off of inflation.

In filing the amendment with the PSCW, Wisconsin Electric asked that the 1983 base rates for all customers remain unchanged through 1984. That means residential customers would continue paying a base rate of 6.71 cents per kilowatt-hour in winter and 7.05 cents per kilowatt-hour in summer to at least Jan. 1, 1985.

Under the amendment, the company will ask the commission to reduce the amount figured into the rates of fuel costs, reflecting lower fuel expenses. With the reduction, the fuel portion of rates would more closely reflect the actual costs of fuel.

"Our rates already are among the lowest charged in the nation's largest cities," Ricci said. "If the commission approves our proposal, we'll compare even more favorably with other areas, because many utilities have major rate requests pending."

Ricci said favorable electric rates have been a plus for Wisconsin in its efforts to attract new industry and jobs. He pointed out that the company's decision to hold the line on rates "will improve our ability to attract and retain business customers through our economic development program."

The last year in which Wisconsin Electric did not have a rate increase was 1977. The increase at the beginning of 1983 was for only 3 percent.

Electric rates have increased substantially during the past 10 years, after decades when the price of electricity dropped almost every year. Rates in the 1970s and early 1980s were pushed up by sharp increases in fuel costs, high inflation and the increased cost of building new power plants.

"To counter those upward pressures, we launched a program in the mid-1970s to control the growth in peak demand for electricity and reduce the need to build new power plants," Ricci said. "We also established a load management program for electric water heaters, introduced time-of-use rates and promoted energy conservation."

"Those programs have been successful, and the company has reduced its long-range construction program by $1.5 billion. That success is now being reflected in rates and will continue to be in the future," Ricci said.

STEER CLEAR OF POWER LINES.

Whether you're at the flight stick, tiller or steering with the "risers," it's always a good idea to be on the lookout for power lines.

If you're a sailor, it's a good practice to make sure the staging area is clear of power lines before stepping your mast.

If you're a balloonist, sky-diver or glider pilot, learn the area you'll be flying or jumping into.

Wisconsin Electric reminds you: look up (or down) and look out for power lines.

AID THE ELDERLY

Rather than lecture old people about taking medicine properly, assist them with memory aids. One good way - make a list of all their medicines daily and get them to make a check mark in a column whenever they take a dose. Perhaps the pills for each day can be set out in a series of small cups or envelopes and labeled 'breakfast' - 'lunch' - 'dinner' - 'bedtime.' If taking more than one type of medication, consult your pharmacist about symptoms of drug interaction.

A large barn on the Ray Maedke farm, Route 2, Kewaskum, near Kohlsville, was leveled by fire last Friday night. Crops and farm machinery were also destroyed in the blaze with an estimated loss of $25,000. Lost in the fire along with the barn were a threshing machine, baler, chopper and many other farm machinery items in addition to 400 bushels of oats and 25 tons of hay. A small hog barn was also destroyed and two silos were badly damaged from the intense heat. The Kohlsville fire chief, Wilmer Herman, first noticed the flames, Wilmer Herman, first noticed the flames coming through the roof of the barn from his home which is located about a mile across the fields from the Maedke farm. He turned in the fire alarm at once and members of the Kohlsville fire department hurried to the scene. By the time the firemen arrived, the flames had gained such headway that they concentrated their efforts to saving nearby buildings.

A two-year-old Barton child died at St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend, on July 25 of injuries he suffered the same morning when he apparently ran behind a panel laundry truck driven by his father which was being backed out of the family driveway in that village. He was Rodney Lee Bechler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bechler, who suffered a basal skull fracture. Rodney has a twin brother, Ronald. There are eight other children, in addition to the twins, in the Bechler family. Bechler is well known in Kewaskum.

Two students from Kewaskum visited the University of Wisconsin campus recently to register for UW studies to be started with the opening of the university's school year in September. The Kewaskum students are Gwendolyn Edwards, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Edwards, and Sandy Gruhle, daughter of Mr. and Willard Gruhle, Route 1.

A/2c Harvey Otto, Route 1, Kewaskum, who is stationed at Kessler Air Force Base, Mississippi, arrived last Thursday to spend a 22-day leave at home.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Renner, Campbellsport, on July 26. Mrs. Renner is the former Rita Rohlinger of Kewaskum.

juries when a ladder broke and a scaffold fell from a large barn in the Town of Wayne. The two men were assisting in re-roofing a barn. A third man, Leander Schmidt, who was on the scaffold with Mr. Kudek fortunately grabbed the eaves on the barn when the scaffold gave way and crawled with his hands to another ladder about 15 feet distance. He escaped injury. Both of the injured men were rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend for medical attention. Mr. Smith was the most seriously injured. He suffered a badly fractured heel and foot. The severe crushing and splinting of the bone makes the injury most painful and will be very crippling to Mr. Smith for several months. Mr. Smith was on the ladder about six feet high when it broke. Clarence Kudek received severe contusions of the back and shoulder, breaking the left shoulder blade, left wrist and a small bone in the back. His injuries will require better than six weeks to heal. Mr. Kudek was on the scaffold about 15 feet high when it collapsed.

The National Recovery Act will receive the co-operation of every businessman in the village. Some have already received their emblems showing that they are doing their part, while others have or are preparing codes to be presented to the Administration at Washington for acceptance. By the beginning of next week practically every retail store in the village will be having their employees working under a 48-hour week basis as specified in the National code. The Kewaskum Aluminum Company has presented their code to the administration and are awaiting the acceptance. In the meantime, however, they expect to engage additional help. The L. Rosenheimer Malt and Grain Company has already increased its working force awaiting the acceptance of their code. The Kewaskum Creamery is awaiting a meeting of the officials of their company to determine exactly as to how they can arrange affairs to comply with the act.

Repairman Frauds Being Reported

Have you had a repairman rap on your door soliciting repair work? Did he want to fix your roof?... sealcoat your driveway?... fix your chimney?... or install new lightning rods? Sounds familiar?

Every year during the summer months we get calls at the Sheriff's Department from citizens who are approached by transient repairmen. This year seems to be no exception. People authorize work to be done for what seems to be a "steal" of a price and end up with unsatisfactory, worthless or incomplete work, many times at a price which is more than locally established business people would charge.

Citizens are cautioned to deal with locally established businessmen who have a well-established reputation and who will guarantee their work.

One further thought — don't agree to repairs from people who use "scare" tactics, rush repair tactics, or claim that the prices are going up tomorrow." Those are tactics usually used by repairman you won't be happy with.

Play it safe. Get at least two WRITTEN estimates. Deal with established local concerns, and before you authorize the work - check them out. Take the time to call your local Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau.

The best advice I can give people is to seek out your own local reputable repairman when you decide you need repairs to be done... not when they come to your door trying to sell you on having the repairs done.

Take your time. Think it through. Check them out. You will be a lot happier if you do.

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend

ITEMIZED BILL IS REQUIRED

Many people in the area face a longer than necessary wait to receive payment under the Medicare medical insurance program because they fail to submit an itemized bill with their request for payment form, David Becker, Social Security branch manager in West Bend, said recently.

Medical insurance is that part of Medicare that helps pay for doctor bills, outpatient hospital bills, and other items and services not covered by Medicare hospital insurance.

To receive payment under medical insurance, a person generally must submit a request for payment form. The doctor or other supplier completes part of the form or provides an itemized bill to send with the form.

The problem arises, Becker said, when the bill does not provide a detailed description of the services provided and therefore, a decision cannot be made as to whether they are covered. As a result, the patient must be contacted for more information and payment is delayed.

To prevent this delay, the person should be sure that each bill shows:

- A description of each service provided;
- The date of service was provided;
- The place the service was provided;
- The charge of each service provided;
- The doctor or supplier who provided the service; and
- The person's name and health insurance number, exactly as they are shown on the Medicare card.

It is helpful if the diagnosis is also shown, Becker said.

More information about claiming Medicare benefits can be found in the Medicare handbook. The people at any local Social Security office will be glad to answer questions about Medicare. The telephone number is 1-800-242-9946.

Gasoline Tax Increased 2 Cents Per Gallon Aug. 1

Since Wisconsin's motor fuel tax increased by two cents per gallon on Aug. 1, it will cost the average auto owner only about $1 per month.

But for the Wisconsin Department of Transportation, it will mean an extra $81.9 million in revenues badly needed for continuation of highway and bridge repairs in the next two years.

Wisconsin's 15-cents-per-gallon rate compares with 16 cents in Minnesota, 13 cents in Michigan and Iowa and 11 cents in Illinois. Including state sales taxes on fuel, Michigan and Illinois drivers effectively pay 18 cents per gallon.

"We needed the extra revenue simply to deliver the existing transportation program approved by the State Legislature," said Lowell B. Jackson, secretary of the Wisconsin DOT. "And the budget provides fewer positions with which to carry out departmental programs, in line with holding the line on state expenditures."

The increased revenue will help offset the steady losses in fuel tax revenue experienced over the last decade. "The fuel tax is our most important source of revenue," continued Jackson. "Even though travel has increased, substantial increases in fuel efficiency have contributed to reduced fuel consumption. As consumption declines, so does revenue generated by fuel taxes. When you combine the inflation cost of highway maintenance and construction with a decline in revenues, we fall farther behind each year."

In the 1983-85 state budget, nearly 64 percent of DOT revenue will come from the fuel tax. While no major new programs have been added to the department's budget, there have been significant changes in some old programs.

"The state payment for the operation of transit systems has been increased from 30 percent to 35 percent," said Jackson. "In addition, several changes in local road aid formulas will increase our expenditures for that important program. Some of the money we provide through local transportation aids will directly offset money which otherwise would have come from the local property tax. Therefore, the extra two cents paid in fuel tax by Wisconsin drivers will be somewhat offset by savings in property taxes."

Minnesota raised its tax from 13 to 16 cents earlier this year and will hike the rate to 17 cents next January 1. Illinois boosted its per-gallon rate from 7.5 to 11 cents, effective Aug. 1, with penny increases set for 1984 and 1985.

Both Illinois and Iowa have diesel tax rates which are 2½ cents higher than gasoline. Illinois drivers pay a five percent state sales tax and a one percent optional local sales tax, in addition to the per-gallon fuel tax; Michigan vehicle owners pay a four percent state sales tax; and Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa motorists pay no sales tax on fuel.

IN MEMORY

In memory of Paul J. Schmitt, who passed away one year ago, August 8, 1982.

The dust of dying memories
May blur our eyes with tears,
But, just his smile, or gleaming eyes
Could quiet all our fears.
He brought comfort and guidance
To do many o'er the years.
He'll be a part of life around us,
Until our own judgment nears.
One year since he has left us,
Yet his voice we always hear.
'I'm where the Lord prepared a place,
I'll wait for you, my dears.'

Action-Packed Summer for West Bend Judo Club

It was an action packed summer for the West Bend Judo Club. Members of the club participated in the 1983 United States Judo Association Junior Nationals, the U.S.J.F. National Youth Tournament and the 1983 U.S.J.A. Camp Bushido.

The U.S.J.A. Junior National tournament was held in Decatur, Illinois, July 1-3. Competitors for West Bend included Kerri Sanfilippo, Michelle Marsala, Chris Lyman, Robb Gessert and Tom Fulop (Hartford). Also attending were coach Jon Sanfilippo and team members' parents. Tom Fulop took 4th place in the young men's 154 lb. division.

July 14-16 Robb Gessert, Tom Fulop and coach Jon Sanfilippo traveled to Chicago for the 1983 U.S.J.F. Youth Nationals.

The 1983 United States Judo Association Camp Bushido (way of the warrior) was held at Mouhead State University, Mouhead, Kentucky, July 17-23. President Phil Porter, U.S. Olympian George Harris, both 7th degree Black Belts, Pan American Coach Willie Cahill, 5th degree Black Belt, along with other high ranking Black Belts from around the country.

Over 250 Judoka participated in the camp. Robb Gessert, junior purple belt, was promoted to senior brown belt 3rd degree (Sankyu) by olympian George Harris. Tom Fulop was tested and certified as a senior coach by Wally Marr, director of the National Coaching Committee.

member of the National Examiners Board. At the conclusion of Camp he was tested for 4th Degree Black Belt (Yodan) by President Porter, National Examiners Chairman Flecher Thorten, National Kata Examiners Linda Stoops and Dot Sallars. He passed all his test requirements. This leaves only the requirement of time-in-grade to be met, which will be completed within a year, making him one of the youngest 4th degree Judo Black Belts in the country.

Judo classes will be starting this September at Silverbrook Middle School. Contact the West Bend Park, Recreation, and Forestry Dept. for times and dates.

RACING NEWS

By Tom Gross

PLYMOUTH — Gene Erdmann of Sussex snatched his fourth win of the season in the modified division Saturday night at the Sheboygan County Fairgrounds Speedway before the fog rolled in to cancel the sportsman and hobby stock features.

"The car would have gone one more lap and that would have been it," Erdmann said after the race. He had not even been to compete last week in the 30-lap feature because of mechanical difficulties.

Starting out three rows back, Erdmann bided his time until the seventh lap. Bill Johnson III of Slinger, Greg Hartlaub of Sheboygan and Bill Johnson II of Slinger scratched it out for the lead for the first six laps.

Coming out of the third corner on the sixth lap, Lee Schmidt of Kewaskum went into the fence to bring out the red flag. Schmidt's car lost the drive shaft and his ankle was injured.

Erdmann took advantage of the re-start and sprinted into the lead for win number four. "The track was rough. It had a lot of bite, but the car handled real well."

The track was rutted quickly early in the evening due to the humidity. It had to be re-graded during the intermission for the features. By the end of the modified feature the fog became a hazardous factor and the remaining features were cancelled.

Scott Vollbrecht of Sheboygan Falls overtook Al Goetsch of Sheboygan coming off of the fourth corner in the 10-lap, sportsman fast heat race to sprint to an exciting heat win. Vollbrecht, holding the number two spot in sports and division point totals also holds the track sportsman record with a :16.74 clocking.

Randy Sippel of Elkhart Lake won the modified fast time Saturday with a time of :14.55. Gary Laack, current point leader in sportsman, won the fast time in that division with a :16.85. Laack is from Glenbeulah.

Indians' Braun Named to EW All-Conference Team

The last place Kewaskum Indians were represented by only one player on the Eastern Wisconsin's all-conference team.

Junior Jim Braun was one of three shortstops named to the first team by the conference coaches at their meeting at Elkart Lake. Braun, sophomore Tom Richards of Plymouth and junior Rick Peterson of Two Rivers batted .350, .349 and .348 respectively. The coaches passed up the third base position and picked three shortstops.

Unanimous selections were Plymouth pitcher Rick Meyer, who led his team to a second straight title with a 9-1 record; New Holstein's Bill Bord as catcher, who batted .340; first baseman Rob Reinhart of Two Rivers, who hit .367, and Jeff Messer of Sheboygan Falls, who batted a hefty .460.

Outfielders named were Todd Zorn of Kiel, a junior who batted .345; Brad Rammer, a soph of Sheboygan Falls, who hit .393; Bruce Sinkula, a senior who batted .365, and Dave Criter, a senior from Chilton, who hit .340.

Two Rivers, which ended up in a tie for fifth place with a 6-12 record, had three players on the first team. Plymouth and Sheboygan Falls, which finished first and second had only two, while the others had one.

Kewaskum's Braun got off to a slow start, going to bat 20 times before getting his first hit. But he finished strong to boost his average up to .350. He had 21 hits, including two doubles, one triple, one home run, and seven RBIs in 60 at bats, despite the fact that he went 0 for 10 against Plymouth pitchers.

Defensively Braun made some sparkling plays but looked bad in others. He had 14 errors in 18 conference games but handled many chances at shortstop because the Indian pitchers did not have many strikeouts.

No Kewaskum players were picked on the second team. Players chosen were pitchers Jerry Vater of Plymouth and Kevin Morgan of Kiel; catchers Bob Konz of Kiel and Karl Zacharias of Chilton; infielders Tracy Black of Sheboygan Falls, Gary Morgan of Kiel, Tim Schneiderhan of New Holstein, and Kevin Mauer of Sheboygan Falls, and outfielders Tom Anhalt of New Holstein, Mark Duerwachter of Kiel and Dave Kennig of Chilton.

The Indians' Brad Dieringer was given honorable mention. He had three triples, three homers and a double and had just four errors at his centerfield position.

Firemen's Baseball Team Takes First Place at Batavia Tournament

On Sunday, July 17, the Kewaskum firemen's baseball team, under the management of "Tubby" Boden, took first place at the Batavia firemen's baseball tournament. The tournament is held in conjunction with the annual Batavia firemen's picnic.

With 12 teams from the surrounding fire departments, there was quite a bit of competition. Kewaskum's first game against Fillmore gave them a spark when they got 16 runs in the first inning. They won that game 16-1.

The next game with Campbellsport was a real challenge, but Kewaskum came out on top of the 24-20 score.

The final game of the day was with Random Lake. Kewaskum won this "nail biter" 6-5, to win the championship trophy and lots of free beer tickets!

The last time the firemen took first place in the Batavia firemen's tournament was in 1976.

THURSDAY NITE GOODTIME LEAGUE

STANDINGS

Bartelt Ins.	5-1
Kennelly Pharmacy	4-2
BJ & Co.	4-3
Thornton & Schaub	2-4
Grand Larsony	1-6

Highlights

In the first game Kennelly out-perspired BJ & Co. by a large margin. Kennelly is making a late season surge for the championship. This game was a grudge match between the Justmans. Homer is the manager of BJ & Co. and Hiram is the manager of Kennelly. In this game Hiram was just a bit more crafty than his aging, older brother.

In the second game Bartelt Ins. pummeled Grand Larsony 10 to 6 in a game just choked full of errors. Bartelt Ins. had to play without its All-Star shortstop Dan "Mr. Finance" Filzen, also known as the Ozzie Smith of the Thursday Nite League. The defense on the infield of Bartelt Ins. was non-existent. When pitcher Mike Pfeiffer looked around to check his defense alignment on the infield one could easily see the juniper berries perspiring from his once ample frame. The talented trio of Pearson, Bartelt and Reha combined for a total of 10 errors. It looked more like Moe, Shemp & Curley. In the end it was some key hits that pulled the game out for Bartelt Ins.

Player of the Week

Jonesy Korth with his speed and daring on the base paths accounted for 2 key runs. He is a chip off the old block. He would run thru a brick wall to catch a fly ball. However, at a glance one can determine that the wall always won. It was his enthusiasm on the base paths that has put him on the injured reserve list for the remainder of the season with a shoulder injury.

Kindy Optical Award Of The Week

For the people in attendance the winner of this award is obvious. For the few fans in the township that missed last week's games I will give you a few hints. His nickname is "The Big Swede." He is the only man alive that can still do the dangerous Sawyer County Flip. We all hope he collects his award prior to next week's games.

JAYCEE HARBALL Aug. 1

On the final night of regular season play Heppes' Pirates was defeated by Regal Ware in an exciting high scoring game. Hitting was torrid on both sides with a final score of 12-9. Meanwhile on the south diamond Miller's Brewers defaulted to Honeck Expos.

The season will be capped off Aug. 8 at 5:45 p.m. with the All-Star game. The first place team, Honeck Expos, will face the All-Stars from the other three teams.

The Jaycees would like to thank the coaches, umpires and parents who make the season possible. We would also like to thank the fine sponsors, Honeck, Regal Ware, Miller's and Mrs. Held, who sponsors a team in memory of her father.
