Wm. Martin Retires After Almost 33 Years As Village Commissioner

Statesman Staff Writer

November 30th marked the end of Bill Martin's career in which he faithfully served the Village of Kewaskum as Commissioner for almost thirty-three years.

A celebration, Saturday night, of Bill's retirement began with a 5 p.m. concelebrated mass delivered by Father Berghammer, assisted by Father Waldkirch, at Holy Trinity Church.

Two of Martin's nephews served mass and two grandnieces took part in the liturgy by doing the scripture readings and petitions. Father Berghammer offered a personal homily during the celebration of the mass. The adult choir sang and a solo, Ave Maria, was rendered by Gary Gerhartz. From there, the festivities moved to Hon-E-Kor County Club where more than 120 friends, co-workers and relatives were on hand to give Bill and his wife Dorothy congratulations and best wishes for a happy retirement.

The evening's dinner and program were planned by Village Administrator Dan Schmidt and Trustees David Nigh and Mary Krueger. Krueger is the first woman to serve on the Kewaskum Village Board and she was given her oath of office by Bill, who also happens to be her uncle.

A proclamation of appreciation was presented to Bill by Village Board President, Gerald Stollenwerk.

The highlights of the night's events was a take-off on the old "This is Your Life" program which was put together by Schmidt. Dan noted that since it was impossible to get pictures of all the special occasions or memorable events during Bill's

Village Tax Credit Cut Smaller Than Expected

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt informed the Kewaskum Village Board, at its meeting Monday night, that the loss in State Tax Credit revenues would be smaller than originally anticipated.

Official revenue figures recently released show a decrease of only 10% in State Tax Credits rather than 25% as predicted earlier in the month. What this means, noted Schmidt, is a little good news for village taxpayers. Because of the reduced cut, the village's official tax rate will now be $19.26 down from the $19.43 per $1,000 announced at the board's last meeting. Schmidt said tax bills should be in the mail by the end of next week.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of Geraldine Burckardt as an office employee in the Municipal Building. Trustee David Nigh made the motion to begin advertising the position of secretary which will be filled in January, 1984.

Trustee Mary Krueger informed the board that the library committee is considering changing Friday hours due to low attendance. A final decision will be made at the end of the month.

In other business, the board hired Kannenberg and Kieckhafer as village auditors for 1984. Several trustees were in favor of going to a new firm due to the slow service of Kannenberg in the past. However, the board voted 4 to 3, to give the present company one more opportunity to improve their service to the village. There was a $1,100 difference in cost between Kannenberg's quote of $3,200 and Virchow, Kraus & Company quote of $4,300. Trustee Richard Schmidt questioned whether the $1,100 was really a saving since Kannenberg's service had been less than satisfactory and they have never been on time with their reports.

High School Band and Chorus Christmas Concert

On Wednesday, December 14th, at 7:30 p.m. the Kewaskum High School band and chorus, under the direction of Mr. Larry Ammel and Mr. Dave Bertelsen, will present their annual Christmas concert in the high school auditorium. In a relaxed concert atmosphere, with card tables and chairs set up, the public is invited to sit back, relax and enjoy the music of the four major performing groups of the music department.

Many familiar and some unfamiliar Christmas songs will be presented. The mixed chorus will be performing the Christmas Bells Carol, "Shein Chorde," a Joyful Alleluia, Carol of the Bells and Christmas Days.

The symphonic band will play selections including Parade of the Wooden Soldiers, Introduction, March and Shepherds Dance, Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring and How the Grinch Stole Christmas. The concert band will play selections including The Carol of the Drum, Seasons Greetings, Green-sleeves and Holiday for Bells.

The girls' chorus will be performing Ding Dong, Merrily on High, A Cradle Carol, Christ was Born on Christmas Day, High Over Bethlehem and If Christmas Isn't Love. The final selection will feature a massed singing of the "Hallelujah Chorus."

Refreshments will be served and Santa will make a guest

New Kohlsville/Wayne Jaycee Chapter Formed

The Kewaskum Jaycees have extended a new chapter to the Kohlsville and Wayne area.

In an organizational meeting, officer elections were held. Pat Hanrahan will be serving as President. The Management Development Vice-president will be held by Larry Zehren and Mike Strobel will assume the office of Individual Management Vice-president, with Tom Kudek as the Community Development Vice-president. Bill Rate will be the Treasurer, and serving as Secretary will be Randy Schickert. The State Director office will be held by Lyle Ernissee.

We were very fortunate to have the State President, John Davies, present at our charter night. He gave a brief insight into the organization and its workings. Then he proceeded to swear in Pat Hanrahan as President, and the rest of the members into the organization.

The membership seems very excited and are bringing up a lot of good and interesting ideas, both for Community and Individual development.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Kewaskum Jaycees for extending us, with a special thank you to Ken Weyers, Kewaskum Jaycee President; Phil Fellenz, District Directors, and Richard Theimer, Regional Director. We hope we can be an asset to both our members and our community.

Phyllis Bade Honored at Modern Woodmen Dinner

Ray St. Mary, Counsel (left) presenting the Modern Woodmen of America Recognition Plaque to Phyllis Bade. Otto Weddig (right) is secretary and banker for Camp 2233, Kewaskum.

The Modern Woodmen of America, Camp 2233, Kewaskum, recently held a Community Service Recognition Dinner at the Stoneridge Inn, West Bend. Recognition was given to Mrs. Phyllis Bade for her outstanding service to the community.

Otto Weddig, secretary, read the following eulogy:

Mrs. Bade is the daughter of Harold and Midge Fischer, who ran a family department store similar to Rosenheimer's. This store was located in Lake Mills, Wisconsin. There is still a Fischer's Dept. Store in Watertown. Her only brother, Chuck, is a C.P.A. in Minnetonka, Minn.

Mrs. Bade was born in 1926 and grew up in Lake Mills. She graduated from Lake Mills High School and from the University of Wisconsin, Madison. She married Walter Bade in Lake Mills Congregational Church in 1948.

Five children were born to this union. Judy is married and is a teacher in Janesville; Barbara works in an office in Madison; Karen is married and is a medical technician at St. Joseph's Hospital in Tucson, Arizona; David is in Des Moines, Iowa working for Equitable Insurance Co. and

Mrs. Bade has been a member of Peace Church choir in Kewaskum for over 30 years, done much solo work and has worked with the children's choir for several years. For the past few years she has been singing with the Moraine Chorus at the U.W. Center at West Bend, under the direction of Prof. Peter Ayer, who was her first choir director at the Peace Church. She also has been Women's Guild President several times and held many other offices and chairmanships, including the Pulpit Search Committee at Peace Church. Mrs. Bade has done Cedar Lake Home volunteer work which includes giving programs for the residents at the home, has sung and helped with worship services at the Samaritan Home through the years and has done Christmas caroling with groups at various nursing homes.

Mrs. Bade served as President of Kewaskum Woman's Club in 1954-56 and again in 1976-78. This group has done many things for the community and during this time she held other offices and was chairman of the Library Discussion Group several times.

She helped with some of the organizing and calling for the Blood Bank in the earlier years and was chairman several times of serving the Blood Bank lunch when the Peace Church was asked to serve. She also was a blood donor.

An A.F.S. worker in the late 1960's she served several years on A.F.S. Homes Committee, visiting homes to decide where to place the A.F.S. students.

Mrs. Bade also did Girl Scout work when her girls were young.

She was Chairman of Charity Drives several times, including the Heart Drive and March of Dimes and solicited for many more and was happy to back the new United Way, as she felt it would eliminate having separate drives. Mrs. Bade has been Kewaskum village house-to-house chairman twice for United Way and a volunteer solicitor since the beginning of the United Way Drive.

She also does substitute teaching.

Following the recognition, card games were enjoyed.

CHOLESTEROL

Despite dieting, some people cannot keep their blood cholesterol level down to normal without medication. Drugs for this purpose are expensive, require a prescription, and sometimes cause serious side effects. The Lancet [British medical magazine] reports recent studies with large numbers of patients found that vitamin C slowly but surely brings down the blood cholesterol level to normal and keeps it there. One gram daily of vitamin C is reported adequate. Check with your doctor before beginning this treatment.

career, he had to "gather close facsimilies" of those times. Schmidt later noted most of his reference materials came from National Geographics magazines from the early thirties.

Among the spoofs was the comment that not every new job has a new building to go with it, but Bill's did. In 1951, he began his job in the village's newly constructed Municipal Building. Schmidt's presentation noted that during his career as commissioner Bill had seen many changes, from a new wastewater treatment plant and library to the major reconstruction of Highway 45 (Fond du Lac Avenue).

In his thirty-two years and ten months on the job, Bill has served with seven village presidents and forty-two trustees. As a token of appreciation for his many years of dedicated service, Bill was presented with a game table and accessories to help him occupy his "new idle hours." But that won't be for a while yet according to Dorothy. She noted now they will have time to do some of those jobs around the house that always seem to get put aside because there wasn't enough time.

Bill thanked all those who helped during his years as commissioner. He also acknowledged the many friendships he had made over those years in the performance on his job. And, of course, he thanked his wife Dorothy who was always there to give him a gentle kick in the leg or tug on his pant-leg when he forgot to say or do something.

The opening dinner prayer was given by Father Herbert Waldkirch, and the closing prayer by Rev. Robert Berghammer.

Village Trustee Mary Krueger [Martin's niece] presents Bill with a game table and accessories from the guests present.

Give to 'Toys for Tots' Program Here

Once again this year the Kewaskum Jaycees will be running the annual "Toys for Tots" program in the Kewaskum area. If you have any used or new toys which would make nice Christmas presents for the unfortunate youngsters, please bring these toys to the collection bin at Sentry Foods, Rich's Foods, or Kennelly Pharmacy.

Many Washington County youngsters are not fortunate enough to have Santa visit them this Christmas. Please give your old toys, or new toys, so that new smiles may be brought to the faces of these youngsters.

Circuit Judge Becker To Seek Re-election

Circuit Judge Richard T. Becker has announced that he will seek re-election in the Spring election next year. Judge Becker, a lifelong resident of Washington County, has been a Judge since January 2, 1978. He was elected to the office in 1977 to replace Judge Robert J. Stoltz who retired at the end of his term.

Judge Becker has presided in all types of cases, starting with traffic and criminal court. Since court reorganization in 1978, he has handled both civil and criminal cases and has been assigned to probate and juvenile jurisdiction the last two years.

Becker, 48, a native of Hartford, is married and has seven children. He attended Marquette University and Marquette Law School, graduating in 1959. Thereafter he was a teaching associate at the Northwestern Law School in Chicago for one year. In 1960 he joined the late Arthur C. Snyder in the practice of law in Hartford where he practiced until becoming a Judge. Becker served as District Attorney of Washington County from 1961 through 1966 and continued as County Labor Negotiator for two more years. During his practice he represented various school districts and towns.

In addition to his legal activities, which included the Presidency of the Washington County Bar Association, Becker was one of the incorporators of Hartford Memorial Hospital and the first President of the corporation which purchased the hospital from the Religious Hospitalers of St. Joseph. He led the hospital through its expansion program ten years ago. He is a member of St. Kilian's Parish, Hartford and the Knights of Columbus.

Judge Becker indicated that his 17 years of legal practice and 6 years of the Bench give him the knowledge and experience to properly perform the duties of Circuit Judge and, for those reasons, he is seeking re-election to a second 6 year term to Branch III of the Washington County Circuit Court.

Circuit Judge Merriam is Candidate for Re-election

Circuit Judge J. Tom Merriam has announced that he will again be a candidate for the position of Judge of Branch I, Washington County Circuit Court in the April 3, 1984 election.

Merriam began his career on the bench in 1965 serving Washington County as a County Judge, as Judge of the old twenty-fourth Judicial Circuit, consisting of Washington and Ozaukee Counties, and as Judge of Branch I of the Washington County Circuit Court. During this period of time and in conjunction with his judicial duties, he served as a director and officer of the State Board of Juvenile Court Judges and as Deputy Chief Judge of the old Judicial Administrative District, consisting of Washington, Ozaukee, Sheboygan and Manitowoc Counties.

Merriam, 62, is a lifelong resident of Washington County and lives in West Bend. He practiced law at West Bend for more than 17 years before his appointment as county judge.

He graduated from Marquette University Law School in 1948, after spending three years in the Army Air Force.

Election to the non-partisan post is for six years.

The first stewardess was Miss Ellen Church, a registered nurse, who welcomed 11 passengers aboard a flight from Oakland, Calif., to Cheyenne, Wyo. in 1930.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

November 30, 1983

Editor, Kewaskum Statesman

According to the Milwaukee Sentinel, (Nov. 26, page 1) Federal Judge John Reynolds said Greenfield's officials violated a nude dancing night-club's constitutional right to "freedom of expression." He also said a form of expression protected by the First Amendment, namely nude dancing, was suppressed.

The First Amendment says: "Congress shall make no law.... abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press....," but nowhere does it say nude dancing is "freedom of expression."

In its landmark obscenity rulings in June 1973 the U.S. Supreme Court said "the determination of obscenity is to be made by applying local community standards," such as Greenfield's. It also said: "...legal efforts should be directed by the states toward bringing this runaway situation under control."

Unfortunately, Wisconsin does not have an obscenity statute now. Permissive Senator Carl Thompson has delayed enactment of a good obscenity bill sponsored by Senator Walter Chilsen, which has been approved by foremost attorneys on obscenity law and First Amendments Rights.

It behooves citizens who are concerned about the obscenity problem to contact their Senator in Madison and ask him/her to talk to Senator Thompson and press for enactment of Chilsen's obscenity bill SB 114.

County Holstein Awards Presented To FFA Members

The Washington County Holstein Association met recently for their Annual Meeting and banquet.

One of the major events was to present awards to the junior exhibitors in Washington County for their dairy projects and programs. An award was presented to a student from each of the three Future Farmers of America (FFA) Chapters in Washington County.

The recipient from the Slinger FFA Chapter was Mike Wojtasiak. Mike lives in Slinger and works on a nearby dairy farm to gain dairy experience. He is active in the Slinger FFA Chapter, serving as Chapter Historian. He also is a member of the Junior Holstein Association and the Wisconsin Junior Dairymen's Association. He has served as a delegate to the State and National FFA Conventions, and a candidate for the State Farmer Degree. He has participated in dairy cattle judging and judging of dairy projects in many events. Mike's farming enterprise is raising soybeans and this has earned him a silver rating in crop proficiency.

Leroy Gehring, son of Dennis and Mary Ann Gehring, received the award from the Hartford FFA Chapter. He is active in the FFA program, last year serving as Chapter Secretary, and this year as Chapter Treasurer. He has also attended the State and National FFA Convention. Leroy owns one cow, one heifer and a calf, and has been involved in showing animals at the Washington County Fair. After graduation, he plans on attending the Moraine Park Technical Institute Farm Training Program and then working into the family farm operation.

The recipient from the Kewaskum FFA Chapter is Jim Herriges, the son of Leander and Mary Herriges. Jim is very active in the chapter FFA program, currently serving as Historian. He has also been involved in the Recreation and Community Service Committee. He has participated in other activities such as the FFA basketball tournament and attending the FFA National Convention. Jim would like to increase the herd from 26 to about 90 cows in partnership with his brother.

An award is also presented to an outstanding Holstein Boy and Holstein Girl. The winner of the County Holstein Girl Award is Karen Mayer. Karen is the daughter of Fred and Orlyn Mayer. She is a member of the Hi-Lite Happy Workers 4-H Club and the Slinger FFA. She has been active in the Slinger FFA Chapter participating in the dairy judging team her Freshman year. She has exhibited cattle at the Washington County Fair, and is a member of the Junior Holstein Association. Animals that Karen owns have earned production awards from the Holstein Association.

The County Holstein Boy is Bill Rate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rate. Bill is a 1982 graduate of Slinger High School. During his years in high school he was very active in the FFA program and served on the dairy cattle judging team. In his Senior year he was elected President of the FFA Chapter. He has been active showing cattle at the County Fair. During the last two years he won the Best Fitted Animal Award. In 1983 he also received the Christ Mayer Memorial Award. He has exhibited at the State Fair. This year he represented Washington County for showmanship competition. He plans to continue his career in farming on the family farm.

Production Awards were presented to Dwight Mayer, Eugene Hetebrueg, and Karen Mayer.

The Washington County Holstein Association also elected directors. Ed Hetebrueg, Richard Mayer, and Paul Melius were elected to three year terms to the Board of Directors.

Threshold-Industry Council Is Formed

The Threshold has recently formed a Threshold-Industry Council. This Council consists of representatives of various industries through-out Washington County. Its primary purpose will be to give them assistance on various production problems, such as plant layout, the production process and flow. Also, methods of assembly, use of jigs, fixtures, adaptation of work stations to meet needs of physically disabled people and to increase production capability and service to industry.

"In a sense, the Council would be consultants to our agency so we can be of more service to all our industrial and commercial subcontractors. There are other industries in our County that we'd also like to have represented on our Threshold-Industry Council," related Threshold's Executive Director, Horst Wagner.

The Council will meet at Threshold every 2 or 3 months over a noon hour luncheon.

"There are," remarked Wagner, "many more different types of short and long term jobs that Threshold could do for industry. The Threshold daily serves 190 adults who reside in all parts of our County. We rely on work to help support our County's less able people who need work and the wages they earn to be more self-sufficient and to stay off social assistance roles. The Threshold also needs production work to be less reliant on government funding and thereby become more self-supporting."

"We are most appreciative of the firms that will share with us some person from upper or middle management who is well versed in the ongoing production aspects of their firm and who is in a position to better explore with us the many areas of their expertise," remarked Wagner.

The companies which have released one of their staff and areas of their respective expertise are as follows:

Amity Leather Products - Roland LaBonte, Vice President of Engineering and Manufacturing Services.

West Bend Company - Warren Janz, Industrial Engineering

Menasha Corporation (Hartford) - Jerry Thompson, Plant Manager

Micro-Design (Hartford) - Jack Downs, Production Manager

M.B.W. (Slinger) - Ken Reiser, Purchasing Agent

Regal Ware (Kewaskum) - Larry Miller, Purchasing Manager

The Threshold representatives include Executive Director Horst Wagner and Production Manager Phil Seidensticker.

Despite an increase in the school levy of $16,000, the village board at their regular monthly meeting Monday night trimmed the village expenditures to hold the 1959 tax rate at $22.50 per thousand, the same as last year. The proposed budget had called for an increase in the tax rate to $25.00 per thousand.

Steve and Mary's service station, beer bar and lunch room just north of the village limits at the intersection of Hwys. 45 and 28 on Monday moved into the new building erected by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rahn, about a half mile north of the former location, on Hwy. 45. The Rahns, who purchased the business from Bruhn and Backhaus, were forced to vacate the former property to make way for newly located Hwy. 45, scheduled to be built next summer, which will pass through the site. After receiving official notice of same only three months ago, they immediately purchased three acres of land in a wooded section from Otto Backhaus and began plans and construction of the new building. Although the upstairs residence rooms are not ready for occupancy and the building is not completed, the Rahns moved into it on schedule December 1, and will be open for business this Friday, December 5. The split level building, constructed of concrete block, is 60 by 30 feet and has a one-story, 30 foot extension to the east which will be used as a cooler and store room. The ground floor has a large bar room with 64 foot oval bar, kitchen, ladies and men's rooms and the second story has spacious living quarters. Other properties in the area sold at public auction to make way for Hwy. 45 included the Louis Vorpahl home immediately west of the Rahn station, the Walter Braun home at the intersection of Hwys. 45 and V at the overhead bridge and a milk house owned by Loran Backhaus a short distance north.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schaefer of Kewaskum observed their golden wedding anniversary on November 30. Dinner was served at Bauer's Hotel in Campbellsport for 50 guests, followed by an open house at their home. The occasion also marked the 70th birthday of Mrs. Schaefer. Two children were born to the couple. Raymond, who resides in the town of Kewaskum, and Elva (Mrs. Milton Coulter) who with her husband operates a restaurant and filling station at the junction of Hwys. 28 and 41.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ruth announced the engagement of their daughter Beverly to Jerome Nigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nigh at a Thanksgiving Day dinner.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfonse Theisen, Kewaskum, on December 1. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Reindl, rural Kewaskum, on December 1. A son, James Scott, was also born to Mr. and Mrs. James St. Mary, Route 3, Campbellsport, Friday, November 21. They also have a daughter, Jody Ann. James is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray St. Mary, Kewaskum.

Wednesday afternoon and evening, December 13, will be a gala day for the boys and girls of Kewaskum and vicinity. On that day Santa Claus is scheduled to arrive in Kewaskum to officially usher in the yuletide festivities. It is expected that Santa Claus will arrive about 1:30 p.m. and parade the streets of the village until after 9 p.m. in the evening. The car bearing Santa is equipped with a loud speaker over which announcements of special bargain attractions at local stores and business places will be made at intervals. More than 400 bags of nuts and candy will be presented by Santa to all children under 12 years of age who visit his work shop wagon at 7:30 p.m. This presentation will be made to the children in front of the City Hall where the Christmas Tree will be erected.

The rate of taxation for the Village of Kewaskum the coming year is $1.18 less than last year, being $21.81 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation compared to $22.98 the previous year. The total amount of the tax roll is also less by $495.31. The tax roll for 1933 total is $26,765.36 compared to $26,270.19 for 1934.

WRIST AND HAND PROBLEMS

By H. L. Rumsey, D.C.

If you feel a weakness, numbness, or pain in your hand and wrist, the problem may be carpal tunnel syndrome.

This is caused by pressure on a nerve as it goes through a tunnel in the wrist. The tunnel is made up of several small bones and ligaments that form a groove. The nerve that passes through the groove is vulnerable to injury, especially when the wrist is bent back forcefully. This can happen when you fall with your hands outstretched to brace yourself - or when you hit a swinging door with the wrist bent backward.

Sometimes it results from the kind of physical exertion that's normal in your daily activities. A carpenter, for example, can develop the syndrome from heavy hammering. So can a mechanic who pulls forcefully on a wrench. Even a housewife who scrubs the floor by leaning on one hand with the wrist bent backward.

Whatever the cause, treatment is available to relieve the pressure and return your wrist and hands to their normal condition - free of weakness and pain.

HISTORY OF THE WISCONSIN DEER HERD

By Dave Weitz,
DNR Public Information Officer in Eau Claire

DEER MANAGEMENT WINTER SEVERITY INDEX

[Second in a series]

Winter is the enemy of deer in northern Wisconsin, and for decades wildlife managers wrestled with ways to determine just how badly piercing cold and immobilizing snow decimate the deer herd in the north country.

Former Wisconsin Conservation Department Director Ernest Swift, in "A History of Wisconsin Deer," described what can happen in the north: "The winter of 1935-36 was a bad snow winter and that spring, starvation was found in the Elk River - Sheep Ranch country in Price County. Heavily browsed areas and some deer starvation were becoming apparent in Forest, Vilas, Price, Sawyer, Bayfield, and Douglas countries."

Conservation wardens, forest rangers, wildlife managers, and a succession of observers carefully documented that as deep snows and winter cold sapped energy from deer and browse became scarce, the deer would die. Yet, it was not until the 1970's that the phenomenon was really measured.

Now the Winter Severity Index, calculated annually by Bruce Kohn, a wildlife researcher at the Department of Natural Resources Rhinelander research station, is virtually taken for granted.

It was Kohn who, during 1970 and 1971, compared the weather statistics of the Department of Commerce for more than a quarter-century with records of what had happened to the deer population in the north to find any patterns.

His final formula was simple. The number of days with 18 or more inches of snow on the ground is added to the number of days with a minimum zero degrees Fahrenheit or below for an index that can be used to determine how badly winter will affect deer.

Winters are considered "severe" when the index reaches 80. That measure has consistently proven accurate in the north but attempts to establish a similar system for central and southern Wisconsin have so far not been successful.

The reason for developing the index in the north was "because we wanted to have a higher capability of regulating (deer) quotas," says Bill Creed, research leader at Rhinelander for the Department of Natural Resources.

Records show that winter weather, as recorded by the index charts, correlate with overwinter losses, numbers of fawns that are born and survive in the spring, and changes in buck harvests.

Coupled with estimates of the overwinter deer population in each management unit, the winter severity index provides a guideline for establishing the number of antlerless deer that can be taken from quota areas in Wisconsin's northern areas, according to Creed.

"I guess you could call it fine-tuning herd management."

Now the records show that while a single severe winter can cause deer losses, the impact on herd levels is greatest when bad winters occur consecutively.

"If they don't come more often than 3 (bad winters) out of 10 years, we're in pretty good shape," Creed says.

Kohn says the most severe winter since 1960 was the winter of 1978-79. The severity index measured that winter at 118. At that level, about 20-25 percent of the deer in the area are lost, according to Creed. In addition, fawn survival is far lower than normal.

Two such severe winters in succession could reduce the herd by 40 percent to 50 percent, according to Creed. And there's little that could be done to reduce the losses.

As long as the overall range is maintained in a productive state, the deer herd builds rapidly. Since 1972, only two very severe winters have hit northern Wisconsin. They were the winters of 1978-79 and 1981-82. But in neither of these cases was the severe winter followed by a similar winter that could further deplete the deer herd. They were followed by very mild winters permitting rapid herd recovery.

Generally, after two years, the deer herd rebounds to levels similar to those before the severe winter hit, according to Creed.

What can be done is adjustment of the deer season so that larger quotas of antlerless deer can be taken after mild winters and lesser numbers after severe winters, says Kohn. That's been made possible by the Winter Severity Index coupled with use of the variable quota system applied to individual management. These tools, together with deer registration, provide an accurate system for the age-sex-kill formulas and enable game managers to monitor what's happening with the northern deer herd during winter.

Dairy Cattle Feeding Day Program For County Farmers

Washington County dairy farmers will have an opportunity to participate in the Dairy Cattle Feeding Day. The program will be held statewide over the Educational Telephone Network (ETN) system on Tuesday, December 13. The meeting will be held in the basement meeting room of the Washington County UW-Extension Office starting at 11:00 a.m.

Dairy specialists from the University of Wisconsin-Extension, Department of Dairy Science will be discussing feeding concerns from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Participants can either bring a sack lunch or have lunch at a local restaurant.

At 1:00 p.m. there will be a discussion of the Infra Red forage testing program available through the University of Wisconsin to analyze forages for feed value. There will also be demonstrations of the Bader Ration Balancer and the Least-Cost Ration Balancing program to help dairymen with their feeding programs.

Discussion will continue with University of Wisconsin-Extension Dairy specialists from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. over the Educational Telephone Network (ETN).

There is no registration charge for this program. Dairymen interested in attending should contact the Washington County UW-Extension Office so that adequate arrangements can be made for those planning to participate.

The Eyes Have It — Maybe!

According to figures compiled by the Division of Motor Vehicles some time ago, one of the "deadliest" hours of the day is between 5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. In spite of this, the hours of darkness are ALL very dangerous.

It is estimated that only about a fourth of vehicle travel is at night, yet nearly 42% of the traffic crashes occurred at night. Strangely enough, about 16% of those nighttime accidents occurred on dry, straight, level roads during clear weather conditions.

Alcohol, naturally, has to take a lot of blame for these accidents, but many other factors enter into the darkness crash picture. The darkness itself is one of the major causes. We often forget that our vision is drastically limited at night, and as a result, find ourselves suddenly faced with an emergency which has just appeared in our headlights. During the day you would have seen the emergency well in advance, but at night, we can't. Add speed to this, and we have a potential tragedy.

Night vision deteriorates rapidly as we grow older. At age 33 we need twice as much light to see at night as we did at age 20! By age 46, we need four times as much. This may account for the fact that headlights aren't as bright as we used to think, and why glare from oncoming headlights seem worse.

Many other things take their toll on our eyes...fatigue, flare, illness, alcohol, tobacco, prescription and illicit drugs included.

Even with good vision, we forget how different night conditions are because we usually look straight ahead where our headlights shine, unless a bright object catches our attention.

These are just a few of the reasons safety officials keep pleading with us to "slow down at sundown."

ENCOURAGE RESPECT FOR HUMAN DIFFERENCES, SIMILARITIES

We need a generation of peacemakers. With tensions rising throughout the world, and with a deadly arsenal of nuclear weapons and ever less time to decide when and if to use them, we need to promote peace as never before. One way is to raise peace-loving children.

"Children need to learn respect for human differences and similarities," says Mary Babula, executive director of the Wisconsin Early Childhood Association. All people are similar in their humanity, though cultures and beliefs vary widely.

One way to learn respect for life and lifestyle is for children to care for others, such as visiting the elderly at a nursing home or hospital. Young children can begin to respect life by helping to take care of their home, their garden or a local park. Television programs about nature, or shows such as "Mr. Rogers" and "Sesame Street" help teach respect for others.

Books can play an especially important role in developing peace-loving children. There are three aspects of child development where books can help:

* Developing basic trust — stories of a peaceful soothing nature;

* Controlling compulsiveness — stories that solve a problem or that oppose violence;

* Learning to take early steps away from the family into the outside world — stories that value the similarities and differences of all people.

The value of reading such books increases tremendously if parents and children discuss them together.

One popular example of a book that promotes peace is "The Story of Ferdinand," by Munro Leaf. Ferdinand is a Spanish bull who would rather sit under a tree and smell the flowers than fight. Through a series of mistakes, a committee decides he is the largest, toughest bull in Spain, and renames him Ferdinand the Fierce. But when they put him in the stadium, he refuses to fight — he just sits down and enjoys smelling the flowers worn by ladies in the stands. The banderilleros and picadores become angry, and the matador becomes so angry he cries. But Ferdinand refuses to fight. They finally take him home, and the story ends by giving the impression that Ferdinand is very happy, and is probably smelling flowers right now.

What if all the world thought like Ferdinand? For a list of other books you can use in teaching your children about peace, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Mary Babula, Wisconsin Early Childhood Association, 3200 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711.

RN Refresher Course Offered at MPTI

Moraine Park Technical Institute will offer an R. N. Refresher training course beginning January 9, at MPTI's West Bend Campus. The class is for licensed registered nurses interested in updating their skills.

R.N. Refresher provides an opportunity to learn the Nursing Process and new nursing skills, with an emphasis on the medical/surgical client. The instructor will diagnose student learning needs through individual assessments. Students will also renew previously learned theory and practice. Instruction will utilize the campus classroom and nursing laboratory for the theory segment, and the hospital setting for the clinical segment of the course.

Participants must possess an active Wisconsin R. N. license, and submit physical and dental exam from physicians. Training is scheduled for afternoon and evening hours.

Upon completion of the refresher course, learners will be able to begin a Health Care Agency staff orientation program.

Interested applicants should call Josephine Roehrborn, Nursing Program Supervisor, at Moraine Park, 334-3413, for more information.

Infant Injuries Drop 17 Percent Following Child Restraint Law

The number of babies and small children injured in traffic crashes in Wisconsin dropped 17 percent in the first seven months of this year, following enactment of a new law (Nov. 1, 1982) requiring the use of approved safety restraints.

Maynard G. Stoehr, highway safety coordinator for the state Department of Transportation, said the decline was sharper than expected because the penalty section of the law did not go into effect until May, and compliance with the new law was "spotty" at first.

Accident records show that 354 children under the age of four suffered injuries from January through July 1983, compared to 427 in the same period a year earlier, according to Russell Fleming, chief of accident data.

The major benefit of the law appears in the reduction of head injuries, which dropped from 332 in the first seven months of 1982 to 267 during the comparable period of 1983. There were 182 head injuries suffered by unrestrained children in 1983, down 38 percent from the 295 head injuries suffered by unrestrained children in 1982.

Stoehr said he expects the number of fatalities and injuries to drop even more sharply when accident records are compiled at the end of the year. "As more and more parents and guardians learn of the law, and as enforcement toughens, we expect that the compliance level will continue to rise," he added.

The child restraint law requires that parents or guardians of children under the age of two use approved restraint systems for transporting them in motor vehicles. Children between the ages of two and four may be transported in either a restraint system or the vehicle's safety belt system.

Penalties include forfeitures of up to $75 for children under two years of age. However, the penalty may be waived if the parents or guardians install a child safety seat within 30 days after the violation. The forfeiture for violations involving two and three-year-olds is up to $25 for the first offense, which will not be waived through acquisition of a seat.

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend

SSI ELIGIBILITY RE-EXAMINED

Most people in the area getting supplemental security income (SSI) payments because they are 65 or older or disabled or blind have their eligibility re-examined each year, Mr. Becker Social Security branch manager in West Bend said recently.

SSI is a Federal program administered by Social Security that provides a basic cash income to people 65 or older or blind or disabled who have little income and do not own much.

The reason for the re-examination is to insure that people getting these payments continue to be eligible and are getting the right payment amount, Becker said.

The amount of the SSI payment depends on the person's other income and his or her living arrangements. People getting these payments should promptly report any change in their assets, income, or living arrangements that can affect their payment rate or their eligibility.

The annual re-examinations are part of the continuing process designed to make sure that SSI payments are properly paid.

SSI payments are made from general funds of the U.S. Treasury; not from Social Security taxes.

More information about SSI payments can be obtained from any Social Security office. The telephone number is 1-800-242-9946.

Minutes of Village Board Meeting

Mid-Monthly Meeting
November 21, 1983
8:00 P.M.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in mid-monthly session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Gerald F. Stollenwerk presided. All Trustee Members were present.

On a motion by Trustee Paul Blumer, seconded by Trustee David Nigh and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the minutes of November 7, 1983.

The Kewaskum Junior Women's Club, Inc. was present to give the Village of Kewaskum a check for $500.00 to be placed in a Nature Trail Maintenance Fund for the Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park. The $500.00 will be placed in a separate account which in the future may be added to and the interest earned will be used to help defray the cost of maintaining the nature trail. Mrs. Beth Stoffel, Mrs. Nancy Malvick and Mrs. Jane Jansen were present from the Junior Women's Club to make the presentation. President Stollenwerk expressed the Village Board gratitude for the donation.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Donald Mlodzik and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the Administrator to sign the health insurance agreement with Blue Cross of Wisconsin, but mentioned their dissatisfaction with the continuing rate increases.

On a motion by Trustee Mary Krueger, seconded by Trustee David Nigh and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board instructed the Administrator to notify the village engineers Ruekert and Mielke that the logo should be placed on the new water tower at a cost savings of four hundred dollars. The log color was designated to be #2036 safety green on the white background of the water tower.

On a motion by Trustee Paul Blumer, seconded by Trustee Howard Laubenstein and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the hiring of Janet L. Knops for the Bookkeeper/Records Coordinator and to start at $5.50 per hour progressing to the minimum level of that grade in a period of one year, as recommended by the Administrative Committee. It was noted that a total of 35 applications were received of which 9 were interviewed.

Administrator Schmidt reviewed briefly with the Board the proposed budget for 1984 and provided some additional information to them that had just been received.

On a motion by Trustee David Nigh, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the purchasing of the Surety Bond as mandated by Statute at a cost of approximately $160. This bond is used in reference to the collection of State and County taxes.

Robert Stoltzmann, a member of the Kewaskum Snow Chief's Snowmobile Club requested permission to use the same snowmobile route as was approved by the Village Board for the 1982/1983 season for this coming 1983/1984 season.

On a motion by Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Howard Laubenstein and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the snowmobile route as presented by Mr. Stoltzmann.

The Board reviewed the proposed Water Department and Water Pollution Control Department budget for 1984. It was noted that both departments would balance and that no rate increase would be anticipated until 1985. It was also noted that the public hearing on both budgets will be held on December 19, 1983.

Discussion was held on the possibility of changing accounting firms and the Board then reviewed proposals from two companies, Arthur Young and Company and Virchow, Kraus & Company. The decision will be made at the budget meeting of the 28th of November, 1983.

A Proclamation in the name of the people of the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, was introduced by Trustee Paul Blumer, with a motion for adoption by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Donald Mlodzik. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent." This Proclamation of Appreciation is presented to William S. Martin in recognition of his 32 years and 10 months of public service rendered to the Village of Kewaskum. The proclamation is attached herewith.

Motion was made by Trustee Mary Krueger, seconded by Trustee David Nigh to adjourn to closed session under Chapter 19.85 (1) (c) of the Statutes to discuss employment, promotion, compensation, employee negotiations and performance data of village employees over which the government body has jurisdiction. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent." The motion was passed unanimously.

Special Meeting
November 28, 1983
7:00 P.M.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in special session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Gerald F. Stollenwerk presided. Trustee David Nigh was absent for roll call, but did arrive at 7:05 p.m. All other Trustee Members were present.

A public hearing was held on the proposed budget for 1984. It was noted that there was no one present for the public hearing, other than one reporter and the Superintendent of Public Works. After reviewing the budget proposal for 1984 the Board held the public hearing regarding the proposed use of the 1984 Federal Revenue Sharing Fund. After reviewing past practices on using this fund for parks and recreation (15%) and using (85%) for protection and public safety and discussing the possibility of using the (85%) for street lighting, a motion was made by Trustee Donald Mlodzik, seconded by Trustee Howard Laubenstein and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board closed the public hearings.

Final discussion was held on the proposed 1984 budget, which had been presented at the public hearing, in conjunction with the public hearing on the proposed use for the 1984 Federal Revenue Sharing Fund. On a motion by Trustee Paul Blumer, seconded by Trustee David Nigh and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the 1984 budget as presented.

The following Resolutions were then introduced, discussed, and then acted upon.

Resolution No.(s) 83-17, 83-18 and 83-19. All are herewith attached.

Resolution No. 83-20 regarding the retaining of a firm to perform the audit for the year ending December 31, 1983 was discussed, but no action was taken as per the following motion. On a motion by Trustee Donald Mlodzik, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board tabled the resolution No. 83-20 and directed the Administrator to contact the firm of Kannenberg, Kieckhafer & Co. to respond in writing to three points:

I. The time frame they would propose to perform to do the 1983 audit.

II. The cost proposal for doing the general, water and sewer departments audit for 1983.

III. Their ability to meet the new audit procedures as required by the State using the GAAP method of accounting.

President Stollenwerk pointed out to the Board that an oversight was made at the last meeting when discussing the proposed logo for the new water tower and that was again mentioning the fact that a past Village Trustee Jeffrey Rohrer designed the logo originally for the swim pass. It was noted the Village is grateful to Mr. Rohrer for his design.

Motion was made by Trustee Donald Mlodzik, seconded by Trustee David Nigh to adjourn the meeting. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent." The motion was carried unanimously.

Daniel S. Schmidt,
Administrator

Annual resident and non-resident park stickers for 1984 are now available, according to officials of the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. The cost of the stickers is $12.00 for a Wisconsin resident and $20.00 for a nonresident. You might consider giving a park sticker as a Christmas gift to a friend or relative who enjoys all the outdoor activities that Wisconsin state parks and forests offer during all four seasons of the year. The stickers can be obtained from the DNR central office in Madison, at state park and forest offices, or by mail. To order by mail, send a check or money order to: Department of Natural Resources, License Section, P.O. Box 7924, Madison, WI 53707.

The park sticker this year features a leaf from the sugar maple, Wisconsin's official state tree. The background of the resident sticker is red, and the background of the nonresident sticker is green.

1983 Campsite Reservations Set Record

Use of campsite reservations in Wisconsin's state parks and forests reached an all-time high in 1983, according to Department of Natural Resources state park officials.

Approximately 38,000 reservations were confirmed in 1983, representing a 21 percent increase over the number confirmed in 1982. Once again Peninsula, Devil's Lake, and Governor Dodge state parks and the Northern and Southern Units of the Kettle Moraine State Forests were the most popular areas. They accounted for 64.2 percent of all reservations confirmed last year.

Dave Weizenicker, state park director, reminds campers the time to make reservations for the 1984 season is just around the corner, so campers should begin planning now. Reservation applications for 1984 will be accepted beginning Tuesday, January 3rd. Reservation applications may be made by mail or in person. Campers mailing in their applications are reminded state law requires that their applications cannot be postmarked prior to the January 3rd date or they will be returned.

The new application forms were available at Department offices and field stations on December 1st of this year.

Campers filling out the reservation application form will note that vehicle admission and camping fees have been increased for the 1984 season.

The new vehicle admission sticker fee for residents is $12 for the annual and $3 for daily. For nonresidents the annual is $20 and the daily is $5. The new camping fees are $4 per site per day for residents and $7 per site per day for nonresidents in Class "A" campgrounds, and $3.50 per site per day for residents and $5 per site per day for nonresidents in Class "B" campgrounds. Electricity will cost $1.50 per day and the camping reservation fee is $3.

Fees were raised to help meet the costs of operating and maintaining these recreational facilities. The Legislature requires that 50 percent of the total state park operating budget be obtained through admission and user fees. General tax payments by Wisconsin residents provide the other 50 percent.

VOTING BY ABSENTEE BALLOT

Any qualified voter, unable to get to the polling place on election day, may ask to vote by absentee ballot. A qualified voter is one who is a U.S. citizen, will be 18 years of age or older on election day, and who has resided in the ward or aldermanic district where voting is desired to be accomplished for at least 10 days prior to the election. If the voter resides in a municipality which requires voter registration, then registration is also a requisite for the voter who is qualified in other respects.

To obtain an absentee ballot, contact the clerk in the city, village or town in which you reside by mail or telephone, or in person, and request an application form. After properly completing and returning the application to the municipal clerk, an absentee ballot will be sent to you along with a postage pre-paid return envelope, or given to you if the application is submitted to the clerk in person. The deadline for receipt of the application by the municipal clerk is 5:00 p.m. on the Friday before election day in the case of applications mailed to the municipal clerk, and 5:00 p.m. on the day before the election in the case of applications made in the clerk's office.

With one exception, the voter who wants to cast an absentee ballot must make a separate application before each election. Voters indefinitely confined to their home or care facility because of illness, age or disability need not file an application before each election; a special statement on the application form can be completed asking that an absentee ballot be automatically mailed to them before each election; if they fail to make and return the ballots sent to them in an election, they must complete another application later on.

Absentee ballots can be voted at home anytime after they arrive in the mail. They can also be voted right in the clerk's office if submitting the application in person. If returning the ballots by mail, the affidavit-certificate must be properly completed and witnessed by two persons. If returning the ballots in person, the affidavit-certificate must be properly completed and subscribed and sworn to by the clerk or the deputy clerk who are authorized to administer oaths. In either case, the marked, sealed ballot must be in the hands of the issuing municipal clerk on or before election day. Any absentee ballot received at the polling place after the polls close or received in incomplete or improper form cannot be counted.

George F. Nehrbass, County Clerk
 Washington County
