Wayne Residents to Vote on Cedar Lake Retirement Village Referendum

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At the April election, Town of Wayne residents will be asked to vote on an Advisory Referendum regarding the issuance of a Conditional Use Permit for approximately 200 acres of land to be used for the proposed Cedar Lake Home satellite retirement village in the Town of Wayne.

In a meeting following Tuesday night's 3½ hour long public hearing, the board, on a 2 to 1 vote, approved a motion to request an impact study from the Southeastern Regional Planning Commission and place the advisory referendum on the April 3rd ballot. Supervisor Mark Strobel made the motion, seconded by Supervisor

Leonard Peter, Board Chairman. Carl Hohlweck voted against the motion.

The study will not be a formal environmental impact study, but Peter felt a report giving residents answers to their questions had to be in the hands of the voters before April 3rd. Peter said he would personally help to hand-deliver the reports to make sure residents got the information on time.

Approximately 200 people were on hand to hear Reverend L. C. Riesch, an employee of the Cedar Lake Home and owner of the two parcels of land proposed for the project, present an hour and a half program including slides and preliminary blueprints.

Riesch explained the plan would include the phased development of the units and construction of a rural setting including ponds, woods and landscaping which would blend in with neighboring properties.

During the discussion which followed Riesch's presentation, it was very evident that the Wayne residents were widely divided in their feelings regarding the plan. Comments made ran from adamantly opposed, to 100% for the project. Many residents felt they had not been given enough information by the board which would allow them to decide definitely for, or against the project.

The biggest fear seemed to concern sewage problems and the fact that some of the land lies within the floodplain area. One resident said the same sewage system planned for the retirement village had been used at Grafton's Stonecroft Village. He noted that after two years, the system failed and mound systems were installed, some being pumped as often as once a week.

Some of the people attending the meeting expressed the feeling that the matter was already "cut and dried" and the townspeople really had no say. Mrs. Bernice Bergdorf asked Hohlweck, "if we vote against it, is the town board still going to do what they please about it?" Peter told the meeting, "I'm going with the will of the people be it for, or against." Strobel echoed Peter's comments.

Approve Distribution of $29,000 In Area United Way Drive Funds

At the Feb. 14 meeting of the Kewaskum Area United Way Board of Directors, four new members were accepted to board membership.

The new members are Mary Ann Peterson and Diane Buchel of the Village of Kewaskum, Elaine Vetter of the Beechwood area, and Ruth Ramel of Boltonville.

The terms of Karen Staehler, Arnie Stommel, and Jack Jadro expired in 1984. The three retiring members were thanked for their efforts on behalf of the United Way.

New officers were elected. Taking over as president will be Roy Esser, vice principal at Kewaskum High School. John Coulter, who has been president the past year, will be vice-president, and Ruth Kern, secretary.

Ralph Rimmel has agreed to continue as treasurer. He has held this all-important and time-consuming office since the first United Way Board was formed in 1978. The Board expressed special appreciation to Rimmel, and commended him for the meticulous book-keeping job he has done.

Gerald Zimmer, budget chairman, presented the committee's recommendation's for the allocation of the 1983-84 Fund Drive money.

Board OKs Conditional Use Permit for Rooming House

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board unanimously approved the request for a Conditional Use Permit which will allow a rooming house on the first floor of the former Pro-Built office building at 1304 Fond du Lac Avenue.

Trustee Howard Laubenstein presented the Plan Commission's recommendation to the Board at its meeting Monday night. Several conditions were contained in the recommendation including the point that an occupancy permit would not be issued until the site met all state building code requirements. Fred Robertson, owner of the building, told the Board, all the necessary work would be done once he had received formal approval on his request.

Trustee Mary Krueger said she did not think making a specific condition about revoking the permit because of undesirable behavior was necessary. "If there were six teachers, six doctors or six lawyers moving in I don't think you'd place such a condition them. Just because they're truck drivers doesn't mean there could be problems."

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt agreed with Krueger noting there were other village ordinances which would cover such a situation. Schmidt said the commission recommended that condition because they are not familiar with all the village ordinances. "They're mostly concerned with building codes not ordinances."

In other action the Board approved a recommendation to increase the rent of tenants living in a house owned by the village. Rent for the upper unit will increase from $150 to $165 per month and the lower unit from $165 to $185. The village will pick up the cost of sewer and water service for 1984 only.

The Public Works Committee also informed the Board some repiping would be necessary in the home and recommended funds be allocated in the 1985 budget for the work.

The Board also approved a motion to send certified letters to 17 property owners regarding trimming of trees on their properties. Schmidt told the

Hohlweck said he could not condemn the project noting he had heard both good and bad comments regarding the plan.

Town of Wayne resident Tom Brigham told the audience he felt the township would benefit from such a project through increased jobs in the area of support staff as well as the prospect of the professional employees moving into the township and buying or building new homes.

James Oelhafen, a Wayne farmer, said he had done some "quick calculating" regarding the added tax the township would collect. Using his own tax bill Oelhafen said it would take twenty farms the size of his to bring in the same amount of taxes as the proposed retirement village.

Hohlweck told the meeting, "the land is definitely going to be given away as a gift." The people were told that Reverend Riesch had three options for the land, number one to give it to Cedar Lake for the construction of the retirement village, number two to give it to the county for a park, or number three give it to the state and let it do whatever it wanted to with the land. Riesch told the meeting, "it's my land and I have the right to do with my land what I want to do." He said he was not trying to push anything on anyone only trying to do the most good for the people with his gift.

If the Town of Wayne doesn't want the project it could go to Kohler where it is wanted. Riesch said Kohler has already petitioned Cedar Lake asking that such a project be built in their area.

A starting date of early April had been set for the project so that the initial building would have a roof by fall. Riesch told the people, with the present building recession, the first phase could be constructed for approximately $3 million, but if it were delayed one year, projected costs would go to $5 to $6 million.

Peter said he thought the project was three to five years down the road and discussion of it could be brought up at the annual meeting. He noted this was one reason why some people felt the project was being pushed down their throats.

Rev. Riesch also learned one unexpected bit of information at Tuesday night's meeting regarding approval of the permit. He and other Cedar Lake representatives attending the meeting were surprised to learn that both town and county approval would be needed for issuance of the permit. Riesch said according to his advisors, the public hearings were strictly informational and the county alone would make the final decision on the permit.

Aldwin Seefeldt, the Town of Wayne's attorney, in referring to the ordinances and codes said, because the project had been placed in the category of nursing homes, etc., approval from both the Town Board and Washington County Parks and Planning Commission was necessary.

The Cedar Lake Home Board of Directors will hold a meeting on Thursday. It is not known whether the board will decide to continue with the project or drop it. Riesch said he had no idea what type of recommendation he should make faced with the unexpected turn of events. He said he had reached the point of dropping the whole project and just turning the land over to the county or state. If that were to happen, Wayne would lose all its taxes from the land rather than just a portion designated for non-profit organizations.

Rooming House

Board seven had received notices in both March and October and had still failed to do the work and an additional twelve had received letters in October. The owners will now have a deadline and if the work is not done, the village will trim the trees and the cost assessed on the owner's tax bill.

The Board opened bids for the purchase of a new chassis for the village garbage truck. Five bids, with base prices ranging from $16,134 to $25,493, were received. Because of the many options and alternate bids presented by the five bidders, Public Works Superintendent Augie Bitgo asked that action on the bids be tabled until the March 5th meeting so the Public Works Committee could study and compare all the bids. Dan Schmidt informed the Board that he had received a letter from Majerus Landfill notifying the village that dump charges have been increased from $2.50 per yard to $3.00. Schmidt said the charge had gone up 50c a yard annually for the last three years.

Schmidt gave an update on the Municipal Building remodeling. He said all the window and vestibule work was done except for a few minor items.

"Keeping America on the Grow," is the theme for the National FFA Week, February 18-25.

Announce Local Chairman for Heart Fund Drive

Darlene Beisbier has accepted the chairmanship of the 1984 American Heart Association drive in Kewaskum. She will be responsible to organize volunteers and direct the local campaign effort to raise funds for the research, community education, and public education programs of the American Heart Association of Wisconsin.

Each year more than 25,000 Wisconsinites representing 1600 villages and townships ask for contributions from their friends and neighbors to support the Heart Association in its mission to reduce premature death and disability from heart disease and stroke. "The impact of heart disease and stroke is felt in every community in our state," chairman Beisbier stated. "But thanks to the research and community programs of the Heart Association, tremendous progress is being made in understanding, treating and preventing our nation's number-one killer — cardiovascular disease. I am proud to be associated with this important effort and ask that you consider the Heart Association for a donation when a local volunteer calls," chairman Beisbier concluded.

It is estimated that over 700,000 Wisconsinites are afflicted with some type of heart disorder or defect. High blood pressure (hypertension) alone is a problem for approximately 1 out of every 6 Wisconsinites. Stroke, a cardiovascular disease which affects the blood vessels to the brain, afflicts approximately 36,000 Wisconsinites annually. Heart attacks are suffered by an additional 29,000 citizens, resulting in death for approximately one-third of its victims. The estimated economic cost of cardiovascular disease in Wisconsin amounts to over 1.2 billion dollars annually.

Both residential areas and local businesses will be solicited in the annual Heart campaign drive. Funds raised in local campaigns help support a statewide programming effort which last year resulted in the training of 30,000 Wisconsin residents in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR); provided youth education programs on heart health, anti-smoking and nutrition, reaching over 25,000 students; funded a speakers bureau, reaching over 7,000 residents; supported free blood pressure screening programs for thousands to detect high blood pressure, the silent killer; funded $633,000 in vital state and national heart research to further discoveries in understanding and treating heart disease and stroke; and provided for the distribution of over 1,000,000 pieces of material on risk factors, heart disease, and health information for the patient, family, educator, and lay public.

The American Heart Association of Wisconsin is the only voluntary health organization dedicated solely to the reduction of premature death and disability due to cardiovascular disease. Individuals desiring more information about the American Heart Association of Wisconsin or interested in receiving an annual report should call 1-800-242-9236, or write to the Heart Association at 795 N. Van Buren St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53202.

All Girl Scouts are eligible to apply. The Wau-Bun Council will choose two Scouts from the applicants. Please contact your leader for more information and application forms. The forms must be returned by March 23.

On Saturday, May 5, 1984, there will be a Catholic Girl Scout Gathering at the shrine of Mary, at Holy Hill, Hubertus.

This is for all Catholic Girl Scouts and adults in Wau-Bun Girl Scout Council. All Girl Scouts and adults are required to attend in uniform and must bring along a nosebag lunch.

The cost is .50 per scout and this is to cover drink and a donation to Holy Hill!

At 1:30 there will be a spiritual talk. At 2:00 the scouts will form a LIVING Rosary outside. The Day will end with Benediction at 2:45. It is planned for a departure of 3:00 p.m.

This outing is by reservation only. Reservations must be in by APRIL 1.

Planned Parenthood Program on Teen Sex

Are today's teens feeling pressured into having sex? Planned Parenthood is concerned that this is the case, making it all the more important for parents to talk to their kids about sex.

Additionally, we know today's kids are dating at younger ages and making important decisions about sex before they may be ready.

"Saying No," a free program for teens and their parents will be presented on Wednesday, February 29, 1984, at 7 p.m. at St. Joseph's Community Hospital, 2nd floor, old section, West Bend. For more information call 338-1303.

THE NATIONWIDE CELEBRATION BY FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA FEBRUARY 18-25, 1984

FFA PURCHASES APPLE COMPUTER

On October 15, the Kewaskum FFA stepped into a new and fastly expanding area, the computer. This computer, an Apple 2E, will be used by the Kewaskum High School Ag department for the Agriculture 1 through 4 classes. The computer can be programmed to do such things as: figure feed rations for beef, dairy and swine, figure dairy herd production records, figure out farm management problems, among many other uses. Not only will this computer be used by students, but eventually the FFA plans to open the computer up to local farmers who would like to run their own programs. With this step, the Kewaskum FFA hopes to bring local agriculturalists into the forefront of modern agriculture and its new technology. In the picture above, Kewaskum FFA advisor, Dave Rizzardi, is shown running a program on the computer.

1983 FRUIT/CHEESE SALE

Once again the annual Kewaskum FFA fruit sale was a huge success. In addition to the fruit sale, Schneider's cheese was also sold. As a whole, the FFA sold 1,200 cases of fruit and over 700 pounds of cheese. The entire ag shop was full of fruit. The seniors led the class competition with $325 of sales per person, followed closely by the juniors with $300 of sales per person. Top salesmen for fruit were Brian Ruplinger, Mike Gindt and John Schmitt. Mike Arndt, Patsy Panzer and Gary Butzlaff led for the cheese sale. The funds for this event support the Kewaskum FFA's activities throughout the year. Shown at left is Mike Gindt, this year's Vice-President and chairman for the fruit sale. Here he is hand inspecting a case of fruit.

KEWASKUM FFA'ERS ATTEND STATE CONVENTION

FFA HOLDS SAFETY DEMONSTRATION

On Tuesday, November 15, the Kewaskum FFA held its Safety Demonstration. Members of the Kewaskum Rescue Squad displayed many techniques on the stoppage of bleeding, wound dressing, electric shock, poisoning, and burns. It was an informative and interesting time for everyone that attended. Refreshments were served and questions could be asked by all.

DAIRY DAZE

On June 18, 1983, the Kewaskum FFA took part in the first annual Dairy Daze held in the old park. The FFA booth consisted of a cheese and seed guess, also, two dairy cows where brought in, compliments of Harold Proeber. The cows were later used in a milking contest which Mr. Greg Ogi took first place. Several pounds of cheese were given away along with other prizes. Alice in Dairyland was on hand to share in the celebration. In the picture at the right, FFA member John Schmitt, far left in the picture, and John Nowak right, tend to the animals, while other FFA members and visitors look on. FFA members were on hand to answer questions about farming. The purpose of the Dairy Daze celebration was to bring together non-rural community members with the dairyman in hopes of telling the farmers story of milk production.

FFA'ERS AT KANSAS CITY

FOOD FOR AMERICA

In March of 1983, five Kewaskum FFA members took part in "Food for America." This program is presented to elementary school students, usually third and fourth grade students. Its main focus is to show how the food we eat is the product of many farmers' toil. The students were shown a ten minute film about where a hamburger comes from. It included various agriculture activities used to make each ingredient. A presentation was given and the coloring book contest was introduced. Winners were notified and given prizes in April. The program ended with each student receiving a carton of chocolate milk. This program is one of the FFA's ways of trying to improve relations between agriculturists and the community. Shown in the above picture from left to right are: John Nowak, Gary Butzlaff, Harvey Barber and Jon Etta. Dan Mueller is not pictured.

FFA'ers SHOW THEIR STUFF AT COUNTY FAIR

This year the 1983 Washington County Fair ran from July 27-31. Once again the Kewaskum FFA was well represented. We had a great diversity of projects ranging from beef to rabbits. The judging of the meat animals began on Thursday morning, July 28. Kewaskum members that exhibited hogs were: Tony Matenaer, Daryll Pufahl, Brian Jung, Dan Jung, John Nowak, Mike Arndt, Laura Kirchner and Brian Pamperin. The FFA members that showed beef were: Gary Butzlaff, Dan Jung, Kevin Thull, John Schmitt and Dan Mueller. Jon Etta showed a Registered Polled Hereford calf. Mike Schultz exhibited dairy, Mike Arndt showed sheep, and rabbits were shown by Rich Lloyd and Steve Markus. Many members received first and second place ribbons. Jon Etta exhibited the grand champion hog and placed first in swine showmanship. John Schmitt placed first in beef showmanship. Everyone tried hard and all had a very meaningful learning experience.

RABIES CLINIC

On Thursday, April 7, 1983, the Kewaskum Chapter of Future Farmers of America held the annual rabies clinic. It was conducted in the ag shop where over 200 dogs and cats were immunized. Here Drs. Charles and Greg Ogi are administering shots with the help of FFA members. The income from the clinic went to a senior in the form of a scholarship from Dr. Ogi. The rabies clinic will again be held in the spring of the year. Watch your paper for announcements.

Richard Metzger, the Principal Trumpet Player of the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, will appear as the featured guest artist for the Moraine Symphony Orchestra Concerto Concert on Sunday, February 26th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Theater of the University of Wisconsin, Washington County Campus in West Bend.

Richard Metzger, who was born and raised in West Bend, has held the position of Principal Trumpet with the Milwaukee Symphony since 1967. He has performed with the Milwaukeeans in many of the leading cities of this country and a number of other countries during the Milwaukee Symphony's many tours. His exploits as Wisconsin's Leading Symphonic Trumpeter are legend. It would seem that no music is too difficult for Metzger's fantastic range, beautiful tone, and lightning fast technique. For the Moraine Symphony Orchestra Concert he will perform the delightful, "Sinfonia In D for Trumpet" by Giuseppe Torelli.

As a special treat for the audience, Richard Metzger will be joined in an encore by the Moraine Symphony's Principal Trumpet, Thomas Christie, and the Lakeshore Symponic Band's Principal Trumpet, Roger Butt, for a sparkling version of LeRoy Anderson's trumpet trio, "Bugler's Holiday."

The winners of the Junior and Senior High School Divisions of the Washington County Concerto Contest will also perform with the Moraine Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Albert Asch. Senior Piano Division Winner, Paul McFadden, will play the "Romanza" from Mozart's "Piano Concerto No. 20." Liz McCurdy, who won the Senior Instrumental Division will perform the "Flute Concertino" by Chaminade. Both are Kewaskum High School students. Junior Piano Division Winner, Johnna Froehlich, and Sara Prahl, who won the Junior Instrumental Division, will perform the third movement of the "Violin Concerto Number 2" by Seitz.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased at the door, or in advance from Moraine Symphony Orchestra Members, Concerto Contest Winners, or the UWWC Music Department: Adults $2.00 and Students $1.00.

At the annual meeting on Dec. 6, 1983 the above was planned. The meeting was held at the Schmidtselhaus in West Bend.

The "Cream of the Crop" award was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schmidt for using real dairy products by Pres. Nancy Rodenkirch.

New officers were elected: Sec'y. is Kathie Michaels - Town of Farmington, and President is Janet Panzer of Kewaskum.

A scholarship vote was taken and it was to have 2 - $100.00 scholarships to be given to Kewaskum boys or girls in a agri-related career in either a college or technical school. A scholarship committee was formed. The scholarships were from the profit of our Dairy Daze Lunch. Plans for taking part in Dairy Daze 1984 at Kewaskum was tabled to our April meeting.

A craft demonstration was given by Alice Stahl from Ben Franklin in Campbellsport. It was very nice.

Door prizes were vases with a Holstein cow on them filled with flowers.

A motion for a dairy certificate and a stuffed cow to be given to the first boy and girl born in the 3rd week of June at St. Joseph's Community Hospital was passed.

A motion to serve ice cream in June at the Samaritan Home, West Bend, was passed.

It was decided at next year's annual meeting a Christmas gift exchange of $5.00 for ladies would be held instead of a Craft Demonstration as the meetings get too long.

Our next meeting will be April 10, 1984, at Dick's Pizzarie, 1750 W. Washington, West Bend, at 12:00 noon. All AMPI members, wives or daughters are invited to come. Lunch is dutch treat. Call 626-4001 if you are interested in attending our meeting.

SMILE AMERICA

A Healthy Smile Brightens Everyone's Day

Losing Primary Baby Teeth

The Washington County Dental Society brings you this article in observance of National Children's Dental Health Month. It is the third of a series of eight on "Going Through Life with a Smile."

"Mommy! Daddy! My wiggly tooth fell out!" If you're a parent, you're sure to hear this speech or one much like it from your child, usually when he or she is around age six. Children are excited about losing their primary baby teeth, as they know this is an important step in becoming an adult.

As a toddler, your child had twenty small teeth that fit nicely into a child-sized jaw. But again the time he or she enters first grade, the primary teeth will begin to be replaced by thirty-two larger permanent teeth. This second set of teeth will have to last for the rest of your child's life.

Losing the primary teeth is a natural, painless process, part of growing up. When it's time for a particular tooth to be replaced, its roots slowly dissolve into the surrounding tissues. Without roots to anchor and support it in the jaw, the tooth becomes loose and falls out. In a few weeks, the gap in the child's mouth is filled by a new, permanent tooth.

You should be concerned, however, if your child loses a primary tooth too early. This sometimes occurs because a tooth has been knocked out by accident or has been removed by a dentist because of an abscess or other problem. Whatever the cause, once the tooth is missing, the neighboring teeth on either side may tip and drift into the empty space. Because of these changes, there may not be enough room for the permanent tooth when it is finally ready to come in. That's why dentists sometimes recommended that children use a space maintainer if a primary tooth has been lost too soon. Space maintainers are metal or plastic devices that can be used to hold the space for the permanent tooth.

The honor of being the first permanent teeth in a child's mouth usually belongs to the "six-year" molars, which can appear as early as age five. These molars, located just behind the primary teeth, are often mistaken for primary teeth by parents. As a result, they often do not receive any special attention and are likely to be attacked by decay.

What can you do to help your child have strong, healthy permanent teeth? Encourage good dental health habits. Daily brushing and flossing, the use of fluorides, a balanced diet, and regular dental visits are important for everyone. For healthy teeth tomorrow, take care of your child's teeth today.

HEATING WITH WOOD

by Rick Kingsbury
[Last in a series]

Q. We just went up north to check our deer hunting cabin and found raccoons in the chimney of the fireplace. They're above the damper so we made sure the damper was shut tight and left them there. What now?

A. You could hope they leave by opening day, but don't count on it. Any attempts by you to physically remove the critters may result in your dearly wishing you'd never bought the place. Raccoons can be pretty nasty fighters. The old trick of smoking them out is not only rough on the animals, especially little ones, but is also a little dangerous. If they have made a nest of sorts above the damper, a fire could ignite the material and in turn set off the creosote in the chimney, giving you a rip-roaring chimney fire to contend with.

The local Humane Society or Animal Control Shelter might handle this problem for you. If not, they sometimes rent live-traps, or know where you can get one. Get instructions from them on the proper use of the trap. Some chimney sweeps will take care of situations like this if you're not inclined to do it yourself.

When you are rid of the animals you should make sure the chimney is free of any nest, especially on the smoke shelf above the damper, and then install a chimney cap on top with metal screen sides. They are available from most hardware stores, wood stove dealers or chimney sweeps. This will prevent birds, raccoons and other unwanted guests from, let's say, dropping in uninvited.

FARMER'S HEALTH

Many farmers risk their eyesight every Spring as they plow anhydrous ammonia into their fields without proper eye protection. As most accidents occur while connecting hoses or adjusting valves, a wise farmer will wear goggles at these times. Inhaling too much ammonia can cause a pneumonia-like condition.

LENNOX Pulse Furnace

Compare that with the flue temperature of the Lennox Pulse furnace... just a little over 100 degrees. It delivers almost all the heat to your home instead of wasting it up the flue. The flue temperature is so low, the Lennox Pulse furnace can be vented with ordinary plastic PVC pipe instead of an expensive brick chimney.

Do you know why the flue on your conventional gas furnace is so hot? Because it's sending up to 450 degrees of heat up the flue and out of your house, that's why! What a waste!

See us about the Lennox Pulse furnace and quit wasting all those heating dollars up the flue. With a Lennox Pulse furnace you can actually feel the efficiency as it cuts your heating bill up to 42%.

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend

REPORT CHANGES IF YOU GET SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME CHECKS

If you receive monthly supplemental security income (SSI) checks, you must promptly report changes that could affect your eligibility or amount of payments. Failure to do so could result in an overpayment and a fine of up to $100.

Following are some things you must report to Social Security (most can be handled by phone):

- Change of address - Do this even if your checks are deposited directly in a bank or other financial institution.
- Change in income - Report any increase or decrease in income from working, other government benefits, support or alimony, gifts, and other sources.
- Change in resources - Let Social Security know if you buy or sell real estate, a car, life insurance, stocks and bonds, burial plots, or other resources. Also report changes in any individual or joint bank accounts.

- Change in your household - Report if the number of people living in your household changes because of a birth, death, marriage, divorce, separation, or other reason.

- You enter or leave an institution - Notify Social Security if you enter or leave a hospital, nursing home, halfway house, jail or prison, or any other institution.

- If you leave the U.S. for 30 days or more - You are not eligible for an SSI check for any full month you are outside the U.S.

- Your disability improves - If you get SSI checks because of disability or blindness, report if your condition improves or you start working.

If you have any questions about SSI and what to report, contact any Social Security office. The people there will be glad to help you.

Premature Thawing Causes DOT to Suspend Overweight Truck Permits

Because of premature thawing of roadbeds in the southern portion of the state, the Department of Transportation today announced suspension of overweight truck permits effective Feb. 26.

It was the earliest date for the annual road bans in two decades, according to Harold L. Fiedler, administrator of the Division of Highways and Transportation Facilities.

The order suspends the overweight provisions of annual permits at daylight Feb. 26 for trucks operating on highways south of a line extending from STH 29 from Kewaunee to Chippewa Falls, USH 53 from Chippewa Falls to Eau Claire and I-94 from Eau Claire to Hudson. The suspension will go into effect Mar. 4 for highways north of the line, Fiedler said.

The date of the overweight suspension is determined annually when checks of frost tubes buried in highway rights of way determine that the roadbeds are becoming unstable and lack normal bearing power. The overweight bans are in force until the thaw is completed and damage from overweight loads is not likely to occur.

Fiedler said the division may still provide emergency service by issuing special permits for single trips on a case-by-case basis depending on the condition of individual highway to be used.

Rich Romans once kept slaves running from the mountains to their villas with snow to cool their wines.

Gonwa Scores 44 in Lakes Win Over Port

Kewaskum, with only six players, rose to the occasion and pulled through with a big win at Port Washington Sunday night, 128-116. With the victory, Kewaskum retained second place ahead of Port in the Land o' Lakes "B" Division.

Bill Gonwa was super. He and Mike Maney were just too fast for Port to contain. Leon Laatsch, Pete Thomas and Bob Nigh rebounded well and played a tough defense against Port's strong inside game.

Gonwa led all scorers with an outstanding total of 44 points and Maney was next with 29. Kevin Lemon scored 31, Dave Ross 23 and Rick Nordling 20 for the losers.

Kewaskum hit 14 of 17 free throws down the stretch to ice it, and 30 of 38 overall for 78.9 percent.

Kewaskum's next game is Sunday, Feb. 26, at 7:30 p.m. at Cedarburg, which holds down second place in the "A" Division with a 9-1 record.

Fifth Straight Conference Win For Chess Team

The Kewaskum High School chess team rolled to its 5th conference win against no losses with a 4½ to 4½ win against Kettle Moraine. The team scored on all 9 boards that were completed and holds a material advantage on the one game that was adjudicated.

Jan Eisenmann started the team off on the right track with a quick win at board 10. The score rose to 16-0 when Todd Jaromin and Romie Holl also recorded quick wins. The match up at board 3 with Jaromin against Larry McCutchuson was supposed to be a close match as both were undefeated in conference play. Jaromin though needed only 14 moves to spring a back rank mate.

Most of the lower and middle boards were easily won by Kewaskum. Randy Igel's game at board 6 was typical. On move 3 Igel had already gained a positional advantage when he traded a bishop for a knight which gave his opponent doubled pawns that were isolated. Igel went up by 4 pawns in the middle game insuring the win. Igel is 4-0-1 in conference play.

Kewaskum hosted second place Germantown Tuesday. In the first meeting between the 2 schools Kewaskum squeezed out a 29½-25½ victory.

Indians Lose Again at Plymouth, Drop to Last

By John Harju

The Kewaskum Indians, now 3-8 in conference, went down in defeat at the hands of the hot shooting Plymouth Panthers, 79-64, last Friday in Plymouth. The loss dropped the Indians into last place in the standings.

Fine outside shooting by Plymouth kept the Indians at bay through most of the game with the Panthers using free throws to pull ahead in the fourth quarter for a win.

Although the Indians limited Plymouth's leading scorer, Rick Meyer, to 9 points, Brian Jensen was the man they couldn't stop as he popped in 26 points to lead all scorers. Bill Sagal followed Jensen in scoring with 12 points for Plymouth.

Kewaskum was led by Brian Arndt with 20 points. Junior Mike Steinhardt and senior Jim Hanrahan followed Arndt with 15 and 14 points each with Brian Ruplinger coming in next with 11 points.

Plymouth scored 31 of their 79 points from the free throw line with 13 of these coming in the fourth quarter. Kewaskum, on the other hand, was only 22 out of 34 from the line.

Arndt and Steinhardt scored on many inside baskets and combined for 21 out of Kewaskum's 32 first half points. Plymouth countered with good defense and outside shooting to take a 36-32 halftime lead.

Kewaskum's downfall came in the second half when Plymouth erupted with a killing comeback effort. Midway through the third quarter, the Panthers went on a scoring spurt to put them up, 50-40. At the end of three quarters, the Indians trailed, 54-46.

In the fourth quarter, Steinhardt single-handedly got Kewaskum back into the game with 7 points to start the final period. Kewaskum now trailed by only 3 points. But just when it looked as if the Indians might make a comeback, Plymouth went on a tear, outscoring the Indians, 18-9 in the final four minutes of the game. This was enough to insure an Indian defeat.

The Indian JV's were also defeated in their game by a final score of 58-51. Ron Theusch led the Indians with 11 points. Tim Rohlinger and Bob Yahr followed close behind with 10 points each.

The freshmen were defeated as well, 53-40. Mike Coulter led the Indians with 14 points.

The Indians finish off their season when they play Chilton on February 24th at Kewaskum.

Callison Advances to State Wrestling Meet

Kewaskum placed eighth with 35½ points and had one qualifier for the state meet in Madison this weekend following Saturday's WIAA Class A Sectional meet in Fond du Lac.

Class A regional winners from 15 schools were entered in the Fond du Lac sectional. Waupun notched the championship with 110 points and qualified five wrestlers for state. Kewaskum had five regional winners in the Fondy meet.

Kewaskum's lone representative at state will be Bob Callison, who beat Gerry Koser of Neenah, 15-0, for the 119-pound title. Koser came into the meet with a 3-2 record after missing most of the season with a knee injury. Callison reached the sectional by winning the championship in his class at the Waupun regional the week before.

Callison now has won five titles this winter and is 25-2-1 for the season. He scored 12 points in each of his other two sectional matches, posting decisions in both.

The Indians' Chris Harlow took third at 185, beating Little Ten champ Glen Marwitz of Waupun, 7-3, for third place and just missing a wrestleback by a couple of points. Harlow (22-7) edged Tim Lautz of Neenah 3-2 before getting pinned by Bill Anderson of Oshkosh North in the semis.

Brad Dieringer (21-7) took fourth, losing a 5-3 decision to Handel from Kimberly in the consolation match.

Kewaskum's other two qualifiers to the sectional, Wade Jepson (15-8) at 112 pounds and Tim Landvatter (14-7) at 138 were unsuccessful.

After Saturday's sectionals, the state wrestling field has been pared down to a final 192 Class A and 92 Class B competitors who will participate in Madison this Friday and Saturday.

Girls Rout Chilton to End Season; Finish 5th

The Kewaskum girls started off slow at Chilton Thursday night with just one basket in the first quarter but bounced back for the remainder of the game and coasted to a 43-23 win over the winless Tigers.

The Indians thus ended the regular season with a 4-8 record in the EW Conference for fifth place. Their overall mark for the second was 6-12.

In the last game of the season at Chilton, Coach Milt Dickinson started all seniors but this failed to work out as he had hoped it would and they scored waskum scorers with 12 points and Lisa Matenaer, who saw only limited action, hit eight and had three assists.

Brenda Kober scored four points, had four steals and four assists, while Julie Koepke, one of the conference's leading rebounders, added six assists.

Jody Leitner had a game high 15 points for the losers, including six of her team's eight baskets. Chilton didn't hit from the outside like they had in the first meeting between the teams except for Leitner, a good ball player.

The Indian JVs were also victorious by a one-sided 23-7 score. Chilton was held scoreless in the last three quarters of play. Tracy Prescott scored eight points, while Michelle Gebheim and Chris Frantzen each added six. The JVs wound up their season with a 6-6 conference record, 6-12 overall.

GIRLS TO FACE FOND DU LAC IN REGIONAL

The Kewaskum girls' basketball team will be at Hartford Thursday for the second half of a WIAA regional doubleheader. Hartford will play Waupun at 6:30 p.m. while Kewaskum's opponent will be Fond du Lac in the second contest. The Indians should be competitive with Fond du Lac but if they get by the Cardinals Hartford, co-champion of the Little Ten Conference with West Bend East, would be tough.

only two points in the first quarter, trailing 7-2. This charged up the Tigers, who were 0-11 going into the game and raised their hopes for at least one victory during the season.

Their lead was short-lived, however, as they tallied just four points in the third quarter and three in the fourth period as the Indians started to find the range. Kewaskum outscored Chilton in the last period, 21-3, to win easily. Donna Hlavaty scored 10 of the 21 points in the final stanza.

Both teams shot poorly, the Tigers making only eight of 35 shots for 23 percent while the Indians were 18 of 62 for 29 percent. Hlavaty led the Ke-
