Advisory Vote to Keep Beechwood Open

Electors Vote to Raise Proposed School Tax Levy

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

In proceedings that would have turned even a seasoned parliamentarian's hair snow white, the electors of the Kewaskum School District voted 100 to 60, to approve a 1984-85 tax levy of $3,130,287. That figure was $76,000 higher than the proposed levy of $3,054,287, presented by the Kewaskum School Board during Monday's annual meeting.

Approval came after more than three hours of, at several points, very heated discussions. While approval of the budget was supposedly the primary objective of the meeting, it was overshadowed by the Beechwood School controversy which eventually had a bearing on the meeting's outcome.

The meeting began with District Administrator John Long presenting a proposed 1984-85 unbalanced budget which showed anticipated revenues of $5,701,370.00 and expenditures of $5,730,734.00, resulting in the budget being in the "red" by a deficit of $29,364.00.

After the voters approved a salary increase for board members from $700 to $800 a year, the deficit rose to almost $31,000. Warren Schmidt, a Town of Auburn resident, asked the board how it could ask the electors to approve an unbalanced budget. Long replied that is what the people wanted, noting the administration had been instructed to cut another $175,000 from the budget at the last board meeting. He told the electors, the budget had been developed on the basis of a 5% increase over 1983-84 in all areas except wages and fringe benefits as approved by the board. "This is going to be a deficit budget because we've already requisitioned supplies you cut from the budget," stated Long.

Long asked how the district was expected to present a balanced 1984-85 budget when a $400,000 increase over the 1983-84 budget did not even cover the wage and fringe benefit increases of $406,000 which had been approved in contract negotiations. "I would like to address this budget," said Long, "since it is not my budget. Instead of cutting $175,000, the board should have added another $119,000," he said.

Beechwood area parents said they were told closing their school would save the district approximately $40,000, and they asked the board to show where the cuts had been made. One parent said, "that's the question we want answered and when that is answered, we can feel we weren't hoodwinked in this whole closing of the school." Board member Tom Brigham said, "we get the figure of $9,000 in heat, $4,000 in electricity, $10,000 maintenance, $15,600 staff and $1,000 in telephone, which comes to $40,000. There is a possibility, depending upon how we make the arrangements and staffing, of one less teacher also, but that has not been decided yet." Brigham added.

Clara Trapp, Town of Scott, said, "I don't see where it was cut, no where." Long told Trapp, "if I showed you in black and white Clara, you still wouldn't believe it."

Long told the meeting, referring to the Beechwood area, I consider it in relationship to what goes on in other schools in the district, whether it is a decline in the number of students. Where you used to have 2,200 kids in the school district, you've got about 1,875 this next year. You've had a loss of 300 to 400 students. It's got to be accountable someplace. You've got to fill your buildings

Schmidt Reunion Attended by 180

The second Schmidt reunion held at River Hill Park, Kewaskum, July 15, was a success. It started out with a pot luck dinner. A total of 180 relatives from Wisconsin, Minnesota and Florida met to trace their roots back to Christina and George Schmidt, immigrants from Germany in the 1800's. All enjoyed themselves because many had never met each other in all these years. Many new faces were seen in the crowd from the Ludwig and George Schmidt families.

Prizes were awarded to the following: oldest relative, age 87, Mrs. Lila Schmidt of West Bend; youngest relative, 2 months, Shannon Collins, Eagle River, Wis.; relatives traveling the farthest, Nick and Marcella Eicher of Holiday, Florida; longest married couple, 59 years, Art and Clara Schmidt of West Bend; newest newly weds, Rolland and Lorna Glass of Lomira, Jan. 1st, 1984; family with the most children, 11 children, Mrs. Alice Heid from Minnesota; grandparents with the most grandchildren, Mrs. Edward Schmidt of Pierz, Minnesota; grandparents with the most great-grandchildren, 14, Arnold and Eleanore Schmidt of Kewaskum.

Door prizes were also won by Mary Gease, Lloyd Teeselink, Jeannette Kreutzer, Betty Berres, Mary Clark, Carol Eicher, Daniel Schmidt, Alma Dahlin, Gary Schmidt, David Kreutzer and Arnold Schmidt.

Bingo was also enjoyed by many. All had an enjoyable day and hope all who missed it will be able to join the group the next time.

Virginia Oppermann, Kewaskum, was chairman.

VILLAGE RECEIVES CHECK — Ray St. Mary, right, Counsel of Modern Woodmen Camp 2233, Kewaskum, presented a check for $643.60 to Village Trustee Donald Mlodzik, center, on Thursday evening. Otto Weddig, left, is secretary of the Camp.

The check was the result of the rummage, craft and bake sale held this summer. It was a matching fund project whereby Modern Woodmen of America doubled the amount made on the sale put on by the local camp.

This year the money will go toward the flag pole and playground equipment at River Hill Park.

The presentation was made at the Modern Woodmen's picnic held at the park.

July 31 Last Day for Payment Of Postponed Real Estate Taxes

Last minute property taxpayers should take note of two important items, Washington County Treasurer, Fredric A. Seefeldt advised today.

First, Tuesday, July 31, is the last day for the payment of postponed real estate taxes for 1983. "This means that if you are paying in person, the payment must be in my hands by 5:00 p.m. on the 31st." (The one exception is City of West Bend property owners; their taxes are due and payable at the City Treasurer's office). If you are paying by mail, your envelope must carry a July postmark. The law is very clear on this point," Seefeldt declared.

"If you are paying by mail you would be better served to mail your payment on the 30th to insure a July postmark. If you choose to cut it close, then ask to have your envelope hand cancelled to protect yourself. Mail placed in a mailbox after the last pickup on the 31st will receive an August postmark and be considered delinquent," Seefeldt explained.

Second, the late payment charge on delinquent taxes has been raised from 1% per month to 1½% per month. The charge is computed on the unpaid balance for each month beginning with the first of the year.

"For example, if the July 31 deadline is missed and the payment is made in August, the charge would be 1½% times the eight months from January 1 to August 31 for a total of 12%. The charge is for the month or any part of the month, it is not prorated. The method for computing the late charge is set by Wisconsin State Law," Seefeldt pointed out.

The increase in the monthly rate was authorized by a county ordinance passed last fall and is sanctioned by a change in State Law during 1983.

up to capacity to utilize them efficiently.

After Long's comments, Ralph Trapp shouted at him, "that ain't your job to say which school should be closed. That's against the law, you don't have the power or authority to tell me what school is going to be closed. I'm sick of this, it's a violation of law." Long told Trapp, "I don't tell you what to do, the board has the right to close schools." "All right then," said Trapp, "some member of the board violated the law, why don't they admit they violated the law and get this all settled once. I'm sick of coming down here and listening to a couple of board members, just because they're dishonest and pull a bunch of stuff behind our backs. We wasted the whole night and ain't got nothing done." Long heatedly told Trapp he resented someone coming in and saying he tried to pull something behind someone's back. "And you better get that in your head, I don't try to do that! I never do. I'm sorry someone questioned my integrity in here and I resent that fact," stated Long.

An elector asked what would have happened if the $40,000 had not been taken out of the budget. Brigham indicated the budget would then have been about $40,000 higher.

One parent felt that saying Beechwood was operating at 62% capacity was incorrect. She thought the library and art room areas had not been figured in the capacities of other schools as it was done at Beechwood.

As the evening wore on, it began to look as though a levy would not be approved. Resolution #6, as printed in the budget report, to approve a levy of $3,054,287 was defeated 82 to 77, with three abstaining. A motion by Warren Schmidt to raise the levy by $700, to cover the board salary increase, died. Then a motion by Charles Voge to reserve authority to change the levy to $3,090,287, which would have balanced the budget, also fell by the wayside. Finally, a new motion by Jerry Secor, Town of Farmington, to approve a levy of $3,130,287, which would include the $36,000 to balance the budget, and return the $40,000 which had been removed from the budget because of the anticipated closing of Beechwood School was passed 100 yes to 60 no.

The question was asked if the additional $40,000 would now be used to keep Beechwood open. Long noted that decision would be made by the School Board.

As a last order of business, the electors voted on an advisory motion, made by Anita Muckerheide, that the board keep Beechwood School open. While the motion passed school board attorney Patrick Schmidt said the motion could be made, but he emphasized it was strictly advisory and was not binding as far as the board was concerned.

Schmidt also informed the meeting that a hearing has been set for 1:30, August 6th before Judge Becker in Washington County Circuit Court when he will seek to have the Beechwood closing lawsuit dismissed.

Local Woman on Board of Directors of Planned Parenthood

Margery Sorensen Fox, active community volunteer, The Rev. Brenda Yeager, Associate Pastor at Immanuel United Church of Christ, and Mary Ann Peterson of Kewaskum, were elected for three year terms to the Kettle Moraine/Lakeshore Planned Parenthood Chapter-Washington County Board of Directors at the recent Annual Meeting.

Campus Notes

High school instrumentalists and singers from 50 Wisconsin counties, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan, are rehearsing and performing this week (July 22 - 28) in an intensive instructional program at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. A total of 500 commuting and resident students are registered in the senior high school camp for musicians in band, orchestra and chorus. Among them are two students from Kewaskum:

Jennifer Anderson, 1963 Trails End Lane, and Jennifer Frac, 9103 Wescott Road.

Campers work in a daily schedule that includes more than six hours of rehearsals, sectionals, master classes, along with instruction in music theory, music appreciation, and creating music. Organized ensembles include four bands, three choruses and an orchestra. Students may also participate in small instrumental and vocal groups. Sports activities in campus facilities, social events, and evening recreation on and off the campus are also included in the camp experience. A concert Saturday morning (July 28) by all participants will wind up the week's program.

The senior high session is one of seven music camps offered during 1984, the 19th year of University sponsorship of summer camps for young musicians. Camps held earlier in the season provided specialized instruction in piano, swing choir, jazz ensemble, and band and choral performance for junior high school students. A second session for junior highs, July 29 - August 4, will complete the summer schedule. Prof. Jerome Abraham of the UWGB faculty is camp coordinator.

Should You Give Your Child Chocolate Milk?

By Joan Hanrahan
Extension Summer
Home Economist

Chocolate milk is good food, but the question is: do children need the extra calories?

Research reports a few years ago suggested that oxalic acid in chocolate tied up the calcium in milk so humans couldn't absorb it. Later studies showed that the amount of calcium removed by this reaction was too small a percentage of the total to be significant. Some people have also been concerned about caffeine in chocolate milk. This, too, is a relatively insignificant amount.

Deciding whether and when children should drink chocolate milk rests on three questions. What are the most nutrient efficient foods? What are your child's eating habits? What alternatives are available?

There is no nutrient difference between a cup of white and a cup of chocolate milk. But chocolate milk has 32 percent more calories, all of them from sugar. (An 8 ounce glass of 2 percent white milk has 122 calories compared to 179 calories for the same amount of 2 percent chocolate milk). If children are drinking three to four glasses of chocolate milk a day, they're getting no extra nutrition but a lot of extra calories.

A similar comparison may be made between whole and skim milks. Research suggests that saturated fats can contribute to heart disease. Just under half of calories in a cup of whole milk come from saturated fats (160 calories versus 90 calories for skim milk). It's a question of nutrient density. How do you get the highest level of nutrients for the calories? And if there's no disadvantage to using the lower fat item, and there are possible problems with the higher fat food, why not choose the one with less.

Children learn to like foods they're exposed to frequently, and adult eating habits are developed in childhood. Since a third to a half of the adult population is overweight, why teach a child to prefer sweets? If children are in the habit of drinking chocolate milk frequently and you decide they should drink it less, change the habit. Offer chocolate milk only once a day if the child has been drinking it more often. Later make chocolate milk a special treat — only at Saturday lunch, for example, or only when you're at a restaurant.

Most people, children included, prefer sweet foods. If they can make a choice between chocolate and white milk, or between milk and soda pop, they will generally choose the sweeter one. At home don't offer a child a sweet alternative to a basic food; make the drink for dinner plain milk. At a restaurant chocolate milk may be both a treat and a nutritionally better choice than carbonated drinks which have no nutritional value at all.

Chocolate milk is not a product that's bad for children. It's just that other choices are better and more nutritionally efficient.

KEWASKUM STATESMAN

One of the old "iron horses," a Chicago and North Western steam locomotive chugged through Kewaskum slowly around 12:15 p.m. Saturday enroute from Fond du Lac to West Bend. Locomotive 1385, accompanied by a tender, an auxiliary tanker, baggage car and two business cars, stopped in Fond du Lac and West Bend on its way from Green Bay to Chicago as part of a goodwill tour. C & NW uses No. 1385 to demonstrate its pride in the railroad's past accomplishments and to acquaint people with modern rail transportation capabilities. No. 1385 was built in 1907.

ship," he continued. The legislative change has established a funding source for each of the low and very low income categories.

Caldwell stated that approximately $24,000,000 of Wisconsin's allocation of $46,000,000 has been spent so far this fiscal year which ends September 30th. The change will enable FmHA to process loans to low income level applicants or very low income applicants as the need prevails in the area. "It is not that FmHA has abandoned the very low income people," he stated. "It will permit the agency to better adapt to the need of the local area."

FmHA rural housing loans are made to eligible farm and non-farm rural applicants to purchase, repair or build a home. Applicants must be able to show they are unable to secure the needed credit from local private sources. A network of 50 county FmHA offices serve all of the counties in Wisconsin.

Dear Editor:

It really is amazing that the Administration is thinking of putting Beechwood students in Kewaskum Elementary and/or Farmington Schools. If there are empty classrooms at Kewaskum, why are the teachers aides desks in the hallway? Why don't they move into these empty rooms? If there is extra space in Farmington, why is there still a wall dividing the Kindergarten room? After visiting both schools, I'd like to know where all these extra rooms are.

For several years Beechwood people requested for extra children to be bused to Beechwood School from outlying Farmington and Kewaskum areas. But it never was done. Neither the school board nor the administration would even answer the question. Enrollment is up at Beechwood and they close the school. Now the whole Beechwood area can be bused seven to nine miles farther for no reason. Also at least two more teachers will have to be hired.

It is even more amazing how the four board members who voted to close Beechwood School, didn't even visit the school during the past year. For this reason I think it should be mandatory that all school board members and candidates visit all the schools during the school year.

We can save $40,000.00 by closing Beechwood. Most support staff will be offered a job in the district. Their salaries of $15,000 cannot be considered in the savings. Savings - $25,000.00 - other items - $9,000. To close Wayne - $59,000.00. To build new elementary school in a few years, because of overcrowding - multi million dollars. See all the savings there? Then Farmington will also be closed.

FmHA Lifts Lid On Rural Housing Income Limits

STEVENS POINT — Ron Caldwell, Wisconsin State Director of the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) stated that recent legislation has changed the rural housing loan income levels.

"Up until now FmHA was required to make 40% of the rural housing loans to very low income applicants," he stated. "This severely hampered the loan making progress in some areas because many of the very low income applicants simply could not afford home owner-

Persons residing in the area between Kewaskum and Barton reported this week that a minor tornado swept through the area south of the village Saturday afternoon. Heavy rain, but a short duration, accompanied the high winds. Three trees were uprooted on the William Otten farm, southwest of Kewaskum, and corn stalk leaves in the field were shredded by the wind. The "cone" traveled southeast and tore a roof off a playhouse at the John Kuester residence east of the West Bend-Barton Sportsman's Club before blowing itself out. The Edward Dorn family, neighbors of the Ottens, also reported seeing the cone in the sky and the wind. Pieces of corn stalks and other debris were reported visible in the cone.

At the Budget Hearing of Kewaskum Community High School held July 20, a proposed budget of $125,970 was adopted.

Nancy Fickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fickler, and Pamela Nolting, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Nolting, Kewaskum, visited the University of Wisconsin campus during the past two weeks to register for UW studies to be started with the opening of the university's school year in September.

Miss Darlis Kudek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kudek, Route 2, Kewaskum, and Delmar Kempf, Route 1, Adell, were married on July 11, at St. Bridget's Church in the Town of Wayne.

Enlistments in the newly organized 32nd Aviation Company of the Wisconsin Army National Guard were increased recently when 14 young men were signed up for the guard at West Bend. The 14 recruits who enlisted included six youths from the Kewaskum area, namely Dennis Jandre, Patrick and Bruce Muckerheide, Robert Skrentny and Roger Garbisch of Kewaskum and Doug Wierman of Boltonville.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bienman, Kewaskum, on July 20.

A bank holdup occurred at Allenton Thursday morning. A report of the holdup follows: "It's no use looking for your gun, we've got it," a bandit said to Joseph P. Weninger, cashier of the Allenton State Bank, as Weninger entered the bank alone Thursday morning. Weninger, who had just opened the bank for business, turned to grapple with the robber. As he seized the thief, however, another robber appeared from another door. He helped to overpower Weninger, who was forced to unlock the vault, and then Weninger was taken to the basement and tied to a boiler pipe. The robbers then returned to the vault room, taking $2,500 in currency. Weninger freed himself from his bonds and ran upstairs just in time to see the men enter a Chevrolet sedan and drive away.

Raymond Jaeger, who conducts a barber shop in the village of Wayne, rescued his wife and four boys last Friday when a raft tipped over in Lake Bernice at Elmore and threw them into 12 feet of water approximately 40 feet from shore. In the party which had gone to the lake to bathe, were Mr. and Mrs. Jaeger, Leo and Cyrillus Wieter, sons of Frank Wieter of Wayne, Joseph Reimer and Frank Arken, both of Campbellsport. Mr. Jaeger was the only member of the party able to swim. Two of the young men had gone down twice before Jaeger reached them. First aid revived them when they were taken to shore.

Ignatz Budgar, 25, and his brother Raymond, 23, of Theresa, were drowned when a speedboat capsized 800 feet from shore off Boettcher's point at Big Cedar Lake, while hundreds of persons picnicking on the shore and others fishing in boats looked on.

About 500 boys and girls, parents and friends attended the annual Washington County 4-H Club Picnic July 18 at Schoenbeck's Grove.

K. A. Honeck delivered a Master Chevrolet 4-door sedan to Louis Klein of Kewaskum this week.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Eichstedt of Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Streat of St. Kilian became the parents of a baby boy born on Tuesday of last week. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rose on the arrival of a nine pound baby boy born July 21.

Rudolph Herbst, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Herbst of Schleisingerville, drowned while bathing in a clay hole filled with water in the Schleisingerville brick yards last week Friday. The body was found after 24 hours work. For hours, attempts were made to secure the body by means of diving, dynamite, etc. and was finally brought to the surface. The boy was a nephew of Jacob Schlosser of this village.

The C.&N.W. Railway Co. has opened a telegraph office at the gravel pit tower south of here. A steam shovel was also put in operation at the pit, and two trains are now at work hauling out gravel from there.

Blame the Bees If Your Car Finish Develops Orange Spots

If your car finish suddenly develops yellowish-orange spots about one-fourth inch in diameter, of waxy consistency, in rod-shaped and round patterns, don't jump to the conclusion that they come from chemical rain.

They could be, in laboratory language, "pollen in an organic matrix," i.e., bee excrement.

Bernard Wood, an engineer-inspector for the Department of Natural Resources, has been fielding orange-spot complaints for the agency's Southeast District air program since 1979. Each year when the weather gets warm, he can expect one or more calls from rural-placed enterprises complaining about the colorful spots that appear on their employee's parked cars.

On his first such call, from an insurance company, Wood thought the spots might be caused by an industrial chemical or nearby spray painting. He took samples of the deposits, peered at what looked like brown sugar through a microscope, and finally sent them off to Madison for analysis. They came back with the verdict of insect pollen.

The next year a rurally located St. Francis factory had many of its 40 or 50 employee cars similarly targeted; its building glass also was marked by the phenomenon. Again, Wood sent the orange substance to Madison with the same results.

Last week a small plant in southeastern Milwaukee

County had its employee cars spattered. The manager told the DNR investigator they'd had the same mysterious problem last summer; it went away by itself in fall.

Wood says honey bees fly an aerial corridor between their hives and their chosen source of food. They can use the same path for several seasons, and it can be a mile long or longer. Along their route they will leave their droppings.

"You're just under the flight path of these honey bees," Wood told the last "flabbergasted" complainant. "Just wash your cars. That's all you can do."

Persons residing in the area between Kewaskum and Barton reported this week that a minor tornado swept through the area south of the village Saturday afternoon. Heavy rain, but a short duration, accompanied the high winds. Three trees were uprooted on the William Otten farm, southwest of Kewaskum, and corn stalk leaves in the field were shredded by the wind. The "cone" traveled southeast and tore a roof off a playhouse at the John Kuester residence east of the West Bend-Barton Sportsman's Club before blowing itself out. The Edward Dorn family, neighbors of the Ottens, also reported seeing the cone in the sky and the wind. Pieces of corn stalks and other debris were reported visible in the cone.

At the Budget Hearing of Kewaskum Community High School held July 20, a proposed budget of $125,970 was adopted.

A bank holdup occurred at Allenton Thursday morning. A report of the holdup follows: "It's no use looking for your gun, we've got it," a bandit said to Joseph P. Weninger, cashier of the Allenton State Bank, as Weninger entered the bank alone Thursday morning. Weninger, who had just opened the bank for business, turned to grapple with the robber. As he seized the thief, however, another robber appeared from another door. He helped to overpower Weninger, who was forced to unlock the vault, and then Weninger was taken to the basement and tied to a boiler pipe. The robbers then returned to the vault room, taking $2,500 in currency. Weninger freed himself from his bonds and ran upstairs just in time to see the men enter a Chevrolet sedan and drive away.

Raymond Jaeger, who conducts a barber shop in the village of Wayne, rescued his wife and four boys last Friday when a raft tipped over in Lake Bernice at Elmore and threw them into 12 feet of water approximately 40 feet from shore. New Rustic Road Is Approved in Washington County

A new rustic road in the towns of Erin and Richfield in Washington County has been approved by the state Rustic Roads Board. It is the first rustic road to be approved in that county.

Designated as Rustic Road Number 33, the scenic route includes 3.6 miles of St. Augustine Road beginning at Highway 167, extending south to Monches Road, then southwest 2.2 miles to County Trunk Highway "Q." It also includes 3.5 miles of Emerald Drive beginning at St. Augustine Road, and extending southwest to CTH "K," plus 1.3 miles of Shamrock Lane East, from Emerald Drive west to CTH "K." Total mileage of the route is 10.6 miles.

The winding, hilly route passes through a natural "kettle" area, mainly devoted to agriculture, and offers travelers a view of the church spires atop Holy Hill, well-known tourist attraction in southeastern Wisconsin. Another section of the road offers a view of Lowe Lake.

Rustic Roads Board Chairman Earl Skagen, Burlington, said addition of the new route brings the total number of miles in the low-traffic volume, scenic road system to 163 in 24 counties.

A brochure including maps of other rustic roads throughout the state is available free of charge from the state Department of Transportation, P.O. Box 7913, Madison 53707.

State Senator
SCOTT McCALLUM
Reports

McCallum Accuses Corrections Institute Of 'Sneaking' Males Into Taycheedah

State Sen. Scott McCallum last week accused the Department of Corrections of "sneaking" male inmates into Taycheedah Correctional Institute behind the backs of community residents.

McCallum (R-Fond du Lac), said the department was using a "back-door" approach to get male inmates from Kettle Moraine Correctional Institute into Taycheedah, and warned that he and community residents would not tolerate being shut-out of the decision to put them there, regardless of the reasons.

"I've waited for nearly two weeks now for Department of Corrections staff members to explain to me how they made their decision to take male inmates into Taycheedah, and what arrangements they had for co-mingling the inmates," McCallum said. "So far I've received no answers.

"If the information is not available," McCallum said, "I can only assume that the decision to co-mingle inmates was made without planning, analysis, and above all, without public input."

McCallum was referring to the department's decision to take six male inmates from KMCI to Taycheedah for educational courses. The inmates have been at the female penitentiary for 10 hours a week since the beginning of June.

The Fond du Lac Republican said that, after receiving "Unsatisfactory" and "vague" explanations from Corrections staff members, he formally requested answers from department administrator, Walter J. Dickey.

"I asked for answers to eight questions," McCallum said. "And all of the information should have been readily available. Since I haven't received any explanations, this leads me to believe that the decision wasn't well thought out — with the community's best interest in mind & that it wasn't intended to be."

McCallum said he had asked Dickey when the decision to take males to Taycheedah was made and how; what the department's future plans for co-mingling of inmates were; what the size and composition of the classes were; why female inmates weren't being taken to KMCI instead; and how cost-efficient the program was. McCallum's letter was dated July 3.

"I've seen no figures explaining how this is going to save the state money," McCallum said. "Nor have I been given any reassurances that it is safe to have the males there."

Referring to a recent escape attempt at KMCI, McCallum said he'd like Corrections people to show him how transporting males from that institution to one of lesser security is just as safe for the community.

He said that while taking the male inmates to TCI was not illegal according to a newly passed law, all of the elected representatives from the area voted against the legislation.

"Just because the co-mingling law has been passed doesn't grant the department a license to sneak inmates into Taycheedah," he said. "The fact that area representatives voted against the law should show that residents don't like this sort of thing."

McCallum added that Rep. Earl McEssy (R-Fond du Lac), has requested an Attorney General's opinion on transporting inmates from KMCI to TCI which should be issued this fall.

Congressman
JIM SENSENBRENNER
Reports

NINTH DISTRICT RESIDENTS CALL FOR BALANCED BUDGET, TOUGHER ANTI-CRIME LAWS, OPPOSE AMNESTY

Ninth Congressional District residents overwhelmingly favor a Constitutional amendment that would require a balanced federal budget, favor a "build down" approach to nuclear arms, support tougher federal anti-crime laws and oppose amnesty for illegal aliens, according to a survey just concluded by Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-Menomonee Falls).

Sensenbrenner said 18,000 families in the district participated in the sixth annual public opinion survey.

When asked if they favored a constitutional amendment requiring a balanced federal budget, except in times of war or emergency, 87% of the people responding said "yes," people how they would balance the federal budget, 28% would reduce spending for military programs, 24% would trim spending for nonmilitary programs while 19% would freeze all federal spending at current levels. Only 2% of those responding favored raising taxes.

ANTI-CRIME MEASURES
Mandatory minimum sentences for crimes committed using handguns was supported by 92% of the people, Sensenbrenner said. When asked if they favored the death penalty as an alternative punishment for serious federal crimes, 76% of the respondents said "yes." A full 80% of the people support eliminating the insanity defense in federal criminal cases.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS
Sensenbrenner said when asked their opinion of the "build down" approach to nuclear arms control, in which both the U.S. and the Soviet Union would retire more existing weapons than deploying new ones, 89% of the people said they favored the idea. However, 74% oppose sending women into combat, and 92% oppose granting amnesty to all illegal aliens. U.S. military action in the Middle East, should oil be threatened, was opposed by 55% of the people.

Ninth district residents also:

- Oppose using federal tax dollars to finance abortions. (84%)
- Oppose taxpayer financing of Congressional elections. (80%)
- Favor giving the President the power to line-item veto individual programs in spending bills. (67%)
- Favor merit pay for outstanding teachers. (75%)
- Oppose tuition tax credits for parents of grade and high school students. (54%)
- Oppose tuition tax credits for parents of private college and university students. (57%)
- Oppose paying higher electricity rates to reduce acid rain (51%)

Sensenbrenner said he was pleased with the widespread participation. "I'm happy so many people took the time to answer the questions. It's important elected officials keep in touch with the people they represent and this survey is one way for people to make their views known. I want to thank those who responded," he concluded.

Strupp Wins at Slinger Speedway

Kewaskum Statesman, Friday, July 27, 1984, Page 1b

Tony Strupp of West Bend in the Winner's Circle with Miss Slinger Speedway.

For Tony Strupp of West Bend, it was a matter of being in the right place at the right time, to become $500 richer at Slinger Super Speedway on Sunday.

On the white flag lap of the 30

lap feature, Strupp was running third behind leader Jim Weber of Madison and Alan Kulwicki of Milwaukee.

As the leaders came out of the second turn, Kulwicki "nudged" Weber and Weber spun in the back stretch. As Kulwicki backed off, Strupp and Jerry Wood of Madison took the high groove around them and came across the line to take the checkered.

Kulwicki placed third, but was later disqualified and Weber was paid for that position. Current point leader Conrad Morgan placed fourth in the event.

Other highlights of the evening at the high banked quarter-mile were: Fast Qualifier in the Late Model Division — Al Shill of Franklin with a 11.875.

Willie Goeden of Kewaskum won the dash for cash, 5 cars for 5 laps.

Hermie Stern of Jackson hit the wall and flipped over when his steering broke in a late model heat event.

Butch Merendorf of Madison also gave the crowd some excitement as he hit the wall and slid down the asphalt track in the midst of traffic in the Sportsman's Feature. Both drivers were uninjured, but the cars were extensively damaged.

ATTENTION BOWLERS

The Queen Hits bowling league meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, August 1, at King Pin Lanes, Campbellsport.

Results: Schmitt's Never Inn pulled it out when Dan Sabish hit one deep and the outfielder mischarged it which enabled Dan to have a 4-bagger and gave Rich's Foods a loss, 6 to 5.

Saloon, after playing a great game the week before against Schmitt's, couldn't get on the winning track this week. They lost, to Krueger's Plumbing in a squeaker, 6 to 5.

Paul Lehnerz hit one for Thiemer's Sip & Snip to help place a win over The Amerahn, 6 to 3.

Games played this Sunday at Thiemer's are at 1:00 p.m., 2:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Tigers won 9-2, over Construction Crew.

A's won 19-2, over Short Stuff.

Thiemerdome Thursday Goodtime League

Standings

Bartelt Ins.	3-1
Kennelly Pharmacy	2-1
BJ & Co.	1-2
Thornton & Schaub	1-2
Grand Larsony	1-2

Highlights

Fans last week were exposed to some very dull games. It was like watching the Brewers playing the Brewers. It was so bad that the fans got refunds on their tickets.

In the first game Grand Larsony beat BJ & Co. Score unknown.

In the second game Kennelly beat Bartelt Ins. 7-3. The hitless Golden Agers from Bartelt Ins. could collect only 7 hits off Eddie "Road Block" Pfeiffer. If this keeps up there are some hot prospects on the Boltonville farm club that may be brought up to the bigs. Kennelly was led by Hiram "Popeye" Justman. He is normally a Punch and Judy hitter. He played long ball the other night with a triple over speedy Spider Wuebbens head that scored 3 runs. After the game Aileen Justman said she made Hiram eat the entire can of spinach which explains his sudden surge of power. This week's game between Kennelly & BJ & Co. is an important 1st place battle. It promises to be a blood and guts battle between the Justman brothers.

The injury last week to Eddie

Pfeiffer proved to be more serious than anticipated. Ed had to be taken to the hospital after the game where he had X rays of his brain taken. They were negative as they showed nothing.

Special•Special•Special

It was just announced from the front office of the Thiemerdome that the millionth fan to go thru the turnstile at the dome this year will be awarded a car. The lucky fan will be awarded a 1953 Studebaker. It is a clean, one owner, low mileage beauty owned by a local Sunday school teacher to drive to and from church. The car is being donated by well known local Ford Dealer, Killy Honeck. Killy was a local baseball star of the 30's, 40's and 50's. His 95 MPH fastball played chin music on many opposing hitters in the old Rainbow League. Old timers who know baseball state only lack of control kept Killy from the majors.

The threat to umpire Tom Larsen was followed thru last week. Harold "Buddy" Perkins, disguised as Guido "Hang Man" Bonnocelli gave the Big Swede quite a scare. Tom was last seen running north towards Waucousta.

The shortage of Vermox has put the VIP Lounge in somewhat of a bind. In a desperate plea for Vermox Richard Thiemer has offered to exchange one card of Blind Robbins for one bottle of Vermox.

Strupp Wins at Slinger Speedway

Tony Strupp of West Bend in the Winner's Circle with Miss Slinger Speedway.

For Tony Strupp of West Bend, it was a matter of being in the right place at the right time, to become $500 richer at Slinger Super Speedway on Sunday.

On the white flag lap of the 30

lap feature, Strupp was running third behind leader Jim Weber of Madison and Alan Kulwicki of Milwaukee.

As the leaders came out of the second turn, Kulwicki "nudged" Weber and Weber spun in the back stretch. As Kulwicki backed off, Strupp and Jerry Wood of Madison took the high groove around them and came across the line to take the checkered.

Kulwicki placed third, but was later disqualified and Weber was paid for that position. Current point leader Conrad Morgan placed fourth in the event.

Other highlights of the evening at the high banked quarter-mile were: Fast Qualifier in the Late Model Division — Al Shill of Franklin with a 11.875.

Willie Goeden of Kewaskum won the dash for cash, 5 cars for 5 laps.

Hermie Stern of Jackson hit the wall and flipped over when his steering broke in a late model heat event.

Butch Merendorf of Madison also gave the crowd some excitement as he hit the wall and slid down the asphalt track in the midst of traffic in the Sportsman's Feature. Both drivers were uninjured, but the cars were extensively damaged.

ATTENTION BOWLERS

South All-Stars Edge North in Shrine Bowl Football Game, 14-13

The South All-Stars nipped the North team, 14-13, in the Eighth Annual Wisconsin Shrine Bowl football game at UW-Oshkosh's Titan Stadium Saturday night before a large crowd of spectators, including a delegation from Kewaskum. Many others viewed the game on live television.

Kewaskum halfback Jim Braun contributed and saw quite a bit of action with the North team but only got to return one kickoff and handle the ball on two running plays, one for no gain and the other good for seven yards. He was a little disappointed that when he and Minocqua Lakeland's Corey Parker were in the game their team did not sustain any long drives that would have given them the opportunity to run more. Lakeland is the team that defeated Kewaskum for the state title last fall in Class A, Division 3.

Braun said playing in the game and the preparation beforehand was an experience he will never forget and will also help him get a head start on his college career. He reported that the players, who had a lot to learn in a very short time of practice, were fired up for the game, especially after their visit to the Shrine Hospital in Chicago on the Sunday before the game. Braun will be reporting to UW-Oshkosh on Aug. 18 where he will be a teammate of Minocqua's Parker. Braun is expected to concentrate on offense at UW-Oshkosh under new head coach Ron Cardo, who has seven of the all-stars joining his squad.

Braun said losing two players on the North squad early because of injuries hurt his team but he was impressed with the others, especially their overall size.

Neighboring Campbellsport's Rich Narges was on the winning South all-star team. Narges, who finally got to run outside in the second half, ended up with 21 yards in five carries. Rich is headed for UW-River Falls.

The South team won the game after the North's attempted two-point pass conversion attempt failed following Blaine Toshner's one-yard touchdown with under a minute to play. Toshner, who is from St. Mary's Springs, Fond du Lac, was the game's leading rusher with 49 yards in 11 carries. Beaver Dam's Doug Lloyd had just under 30 yards.

The South stars led 14-7 at halftime and maintained that lead until Toshner's touchdown with 54 seconds left in the last quarter, which left it at 14-13 after the two-point conversion attempt failed.

10 KHS Athletes Participate in Badger Football Camp

Ten KHS athletes participated in the Badger Football Camp from Sunday, July 22, through Wednesday, July 25. Practices were held in Camp Randall Stadium on the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus.

The UW staff instructed the boys in fundamental football skills, weight training, running techniques, and flexibility.

Football Players To Pick Up Practice Equipment August 2

The varsity and junior varsity football players should pick up their practice equipment on Thursday morning, August 2, according to this schedule.

9 a.m. - 10 a.m. - SENIORS
10 a.m. - 11 a.m. - JUNIORS
11 a.m. - 12 noon - SOPHOMORES

When you pick up your equipment, two important items must be turned in.

1) Signed physical examination card or alternate year card.
2) Payment of the $15 user's fee.

The first practice for the 1984 season is Monday, August 6, at 8 a.m.

Indians Edge Campbellsport In Regional, Eliminated by West Bend West in Sectional

By John Harju

Behind the pitching of Brian Arndt, the Kewaskum Indians (now 7-16) earned a berth in the WIAA Sectional last Wednesday when they defeated Campbellsport, 4-3, in Campbellsport.

With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the seventh, Indian shortstop Rick Staehler led off with a walk. Senior Tim Leitheiser was then hit by a pitch to put runners at first and second.

Coach Perry Koth called for the bunt, and the next hitter, Brad Dieringer, promptly dropped one down the third base line.

The Cougar third baseman fielded it and threw wildly past the second baseman, who was covering first, allowing Staehler to scamper home with the winning run.

Arndt pitched superbly, allowing only five hits by consistently keeping his slider low throughout the game.

Arndt made his only mistake of the game according to Koth when he had a fastball drilled over the fence by Barry Wenzlaff in the second to give Campbellsport a 1-0 lead.

Kewaskum came back in their half of the second. Bob Yahr ripped a single to left and Tim Dettmann followed with another single to put runners on the corners with one out.

The Cougars' pitcher, Dan Salter, then threw wildly to first on a pick-off play. The ball went out of play and Yahr trotted in from third.

In the third, Kewaskum picked up another run. Arndt, after singling, moved to third on a bunt from Staehler and a wild pitch. Dieringer then doubled with two outs to score Kirk Vogt, who pinch-ran for Arndt, and give the Indians a 2-1 lead.

The lead didn't last long, however, as Campbellsport came back with single runs in the fourth and fifth to go ahead 3-2.

Kewaskum tied the score in their half of the fifth when Dieringer reached second on a 2-base error and then went to third on a wild pitch. Yahr then laid down a perfect suicide-squeeze which easily scored Dieringer.

The Cougars (who finish the year at 14-7) threatened in the seventh, with one out and a Cougar on third, Arndt snagged two come-backers to the mound and kept the score tied, so you might say that Arndt got the "save" as well as the victory on Wednesday.

West Bend West 4, Kewaskum 0

The Kewaskum Indians' baseball season drew to a close on Tuesday evening when they dropped a 4-0 decision to West Bend West in a WIAA sectional semi-final game in Port Washington.

Frustrating is the only way to describe the game for Kewaskum. The Indians, who finish the year a 7-17, out-hit the Spartans, 4-2, but Kewaskum had one problem, taking advantage of opportunities to score. Kewaskum stranded 8 runners on base, four in scoring position.

One cause of Kewaskum's scoring problem was the pitching of Spartan, John Rehman. Rehman mixed his pitches well and stayed consistently low all night, striking out 5 and walking 3 along the way.

Tim Rohlinger also pitched well, maybe better. Rohlinger, Kewaskum's hard luck pitcher, again received less than adequate defensive and offensive support.

Rohlinger gave up 4 runs (only one was earned), struck out 4 and walked 4, but it was the two hits he gave up that got him into trouble. Both were for extra bases and both scored. West was leading 2-0 after 5 innings without the aid of a base hit.

West picked up these two runs in the first and fourth innings. Spartans who shouldn't have gotten on base got on, mostly via errors and walks, and ended up scoring.

West's other two runs came in the 5th and 7th.

The first came from a two-out inside-the-park homerun from Rob Lloyd. The final run came when Chip Faehling drilled a one out triple to left and then scored on a wild pitch.

The Indians had opportunities in the final four innings with their best chance coming in the fifth.

Catcher Tim Dettmann led off with an opposite field triple to right. John Harju went down swinging. Then, with Brian Arndt at bat, Coach Perry Koth called for a suicide-squeeze.

Dettmann took off early from third, allowing Rehman to easily throw him out at the plate. In the collision with West's catcher, Scott Sabin, Dettmann was injured, possibly a broken finger, and had to leave the game.

West Bend West advanced to play Homestead, winner over Port Washington (7-2) Tuesday for the sectional championship Wednesday.
