Fire Dept. Now Has Three Rescue Vehicles

Kewaskum's New Ambulance Arrives

The Kewaskum Fire Department proudly displays its two ambulances, a 1985 Ford chassis with Marion Body (left), and 1979 Chevy, also with a Marion Body.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Consistently updated equipment and dedicated personnel are what have been, and continue to be, the backbone of the Kewaskum Fire Department. The arrival of the department's latest piece of equipment, a new ambulance, is evidence of that fact.

Over its 100-year history the department has strived to maintain the best fire and rescue equipment and service available for the residents of Kewaskum and the surrounding area. In keeping with that tradition, the department recently purchased the new ambulance which has been added to its fleet of vehicles. The 1985 ambulance, with a Ford chassis and Marion body, will be used in conjunction with the present 1979 Chevrolet ambulance.

The new vehicle, which is slightly smaller than the Chevy unit, will be used basically for transport emergencies and heart attack victims. The larger ambulance can and has also handled such cases, Fire Captain Dave Zehren said, but because of its larger equipment capacity it will now be used primarily to answer auto and farm accident calls. The department's Chevrolet Suburban, which contains additional extricating equipment including the jaws of life will accompany the ambulance on its runs. The department's 1973 Dodge ambulance will be offered for sale on bids.

Beside the purchase of the new ambulance, the department is also refurbishing its FWD pumper truck, another part of its continuing effort to maintain top notch equipment to serve the community.

14% Increase Recommended

Budget Meeting a Mind-Boggling Experience

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

With approximately one month before the Kewaskum School District's Annual Meeting, the School Board has nothing much in the way of a budget that could be presented to the electorate.

What they have is a budget recommendation with a 14% increase over last year from Business Manager Cherna Gorder which, if compared to previous "barebones" budgets, doesn't even leave much in the way of bones.

Of the 1985-86 proposed budget, 73% is for teacher salaries and benefits. (Of the $808,500 increase, $554,000 is salaries and benefits). Gorder reminded the board that negotiations are still going on between the district and KEA and, that figure could increase more after a contract agreement is reached. Also, not included in the $6.65 million budget is any increase which the support staff employees may get for 1985-86. They have just begun negotiations with salary increase proposals ranging from 4% to 7.5%.

Purchased service, utilities, etc., account for 16% of the budget. Insurance premiums will take another chunk out of the budget. Gorder also informed the board that insurance costs have already increased by another $10,000.

Just addressing those three categories accounts for 90% of the 1985-86 budget, leaving 10% for all other phases of the district's operations from textbooks to toilet paper.

District's Workmens Comp Claims Continue to Climb

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum School Board received more discouraging budget related news during its regularly scheduled meeting Monday night, 43% higher insurance costs for the district next year.

Besides the general increases, the district seems to be its own worst enemy when it comes to workmens compensation claims.

Gene Bohn, of the Kettle Moraine Insurance Agency, informed the board that Kewaskum's claim record continues to go from bad to worse, resulting in continually rising premium costs to the district for workmens comp insurance. Bohn stressed that insurance companies do not arbitrarily set the rates but instead must use a schedule called a modifier to calculate rates. This modifier is issued by the Workmens Comp Bureau, said Bohn, and must be used by all companies.

The formula used indicates 1.0 is the "norm" or average district's claim status. Last year Kewaskum's modifier was 1.75, [Continued on Page 2]

School Board Approves New Administrator's Contract

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

On a unanimous vote Monday night, the Kewaskum School Board approved the hiring of Ms. Penny Kleinhans as the district's new administrator replacing John Long, who resigned this spring.

Kleinhans will receive a three-year contract with a first-year salary of $44,250. The contract also provided fourteen paid sick days, four weeks vacation, ten paid holidays, one personal day, five paid emergency days, life, dental, health insurance, and $2,000 for moving expenses if she moves into the district before January 1st. The contract will run from July 1st, 1985, to June 30, 1988.

Kleinhans has been the district administrator of the Deerfield School District since November, 1982. Prior to that she was district administrator of the Kickapoo Area School District in southwestern Wisconsin and K-8 principal at Manawa for three years. She also served as a staff auditor for the Legislative Audit Bureau in Madison for one year. Ms. Kleinhans was also employed for ten years as a social studies teacher, serving in Rosendale, Minocqua and Lac du Flambeau. [Continued on Page 2] taxpayer, said Gordier is, that if the district were to approve the present budget without any additional increases, the tax levy would increase 25%. On a $70,000 home, the current tax levy is $11.62, equaling $799. With the 1985-86 rate at $14.27, it would equal $999, a tax increase of $200.

After reviewing the original proposal, Gordier went on to explain the results of the board's request that she go back to all the administrators and building superintendent asking that they compile a list of additional needs. This request was made after a board member received a letter about a teacher not having enough textbooks for the students.

What Gordier ended up with was a "wish list" totaling almost $1 million over and above equipment, textbooks in the budget. Approximately $400,000 was for additional equipment, textbooks and in-service needs. Along with that, a maintenance budget of another $500,000 was on that list. That amount included $108,000 in maintenance projects over and above the $135,000 already included in the budget plus, approximately $400,000 for the first year of the proposed five-year long range maintenance program.

If the board were to include all these additional requests in the 1985-86 budget, noted Gordier, the district would be looking at a 29% increase, with the tax levy going up 65% to $18.90 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, resulting in taxes of $1,332 on a $70,000 home.

Gordier told the board, one of the district's problems is its low cash balance which, because of previous tight budgets, has not been able to build.

Gordier told the board it had two alternatives to financing some of these requests other than increased taxes. The first would be long term borrowing against the district's assessed valuation. The district could borrow up to 10% of that figure. Borrowing $2 million, would be 7% of that available amount, still well below the district's borrowing limit. The second alternative would be for the district to consider another trust fund loan. However, a maximum of only $500,000 over a ten year period could be borrowed from that source, Gordier noted.

Gordier told the board, the district's present annual debt is only the $40,000 on its trust fund loan.

Mary Pearson, a teacher and district resident, stated, "I think we're suffering from many years of scanty budgeting. It's finally caught up with us and I think we all knew it would happen."

Board member Kim Peterson told the meeting, "the problem in this district is, you can't convince the people that you do not have to be totally debt free."

He told the people, you're here because you're interested and you've got to go out and help us convince the rest of the people that they have to let us borrow some of this money if we're to get these things done.

The board asked Gordier to go through the lists and set up a priority list to be discussed at the next budget meeting on June 24th.

After hearing Gordier's report, most of the approximately 35 people in attendance walked away from the meeting with looks of bewilderment, some even noted they had headaches. But, from what the School Board reported during that 1 1/2 hour meeting they will have the biggest headache of all, since they are the ones who will have to make the final decision on where the axe will fall on what is included in the budget and presented at the Annual Meeting next month.

of all those people we've met thus far."

Brigham stated, "The Board of Education is very pleased to have Ms. Kleinhans head up the administrative team. She comes to us with a wealth of experience and a strong academic background. We are looking forward to a long and fruitful tenure with her for our district."

or 75% above average in claims. Since last year, the district's modifier has risen 31% to 2.06, meaning Kewaskum's current claim rate is now 206% above average. Districts who can keep their modifiers below 1.0 are paid dividends as an incentive to keep their claim records low.

Bohn said Kewaskum's insurance carrier is getting to the point where it may no longer insure the district because its claims are continually exceeding its premiums. One claim settled recently cost the company approximately $23,000, and there are still some large claims pending, said Bohn. The district's premiums have now gone up to over $26,000 per year.

In other action, the board was to have acted on recommendations of the Evaluation Policy Committee's Social Studies, Phy Ed, and Reading subcommittees. However, because the board did not receive the committee reports from administration until a few days ago, it was recommended a special meeting be set up for the near future. At that time the board will review and discuss the reports and take action on the requests.

The board also approved Building Superintendent Fred Boehlke's requests to go ahead with Wayne Elementary roof repairs, and painting of the high school gym ceiling and lockers.

The board approved an administrative request to begin a new testing program for the district which will replace the Iowa tests.

The board also accepted the various coaching and teacher resignations which were brought before it by administration. The board then moved into closed session.

Administrator

Kleinhans received her Bachelor of Education degree from U-W Whitewater in 1968, and her Master's in Educational Administration from U-W Madison in 1977. She is presently enrolled in the Ph.D program at Madison.

The new administrator is the mother of five children, ranging in age from 15 to 22. The youngest will be attending Kewaskum High School as a junior this fall.

In a written statement released by Board President Tom Brigham, Kleinhans said, "My family and I look forward to becoming part of the community. We have been very impressed, not only with the physical beauty of the area, but the friendliness and helpfulness operated by the village, the rescue unit is owned and operated by the Fire Department. It is through fundraising events such as the annual Firemen's Picnic and dances that the department raises money to buy equipment such as the new ambulance which cost over $42,000.

While good equipment is part of any efficiently run organization, it is nothing without the manpower to operate it. Kewaskum presently has 45 volunteers serving on the fire department and 13 emergency medical technicians with approximately eight drivers in the rescue unit. Zehren said Kewaskum is always willing to accept people who would like to serve on the department and he extends an invitation to men and women of the community, at least 18 years old, to consider becoming an active member of the department and/or its rescue unit.

Zehren said the department wants to increase the rescue unit's staff from the present 13 to 20. While the department would like an individual to be part of the combined fire department/rescue unit, they would be happy to take on people who would prefer to be just a part of the rescue team or firefighters.

Although being an emergency medical technician requires more training individuals may become drivers with just basic first aid and CPR courses.

"We have meetings at the firehouse every Thursday evening from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.," stated Zehren, "and we'd be happy to have anyone interested in working with us stop in and talk to us about joining our organization."

As an annual beautification project the Little Whistlers Homemakers Club members planted flowers in the boxes on all the Kewaskum Village bridges. This is the third year that the club has planted the flowers. By this fall they hope to have new boxes built to replace the old ones which have deteriorated over the years.

The Little Whistlers would like to thank the Kewaskum Floral Shop and the Sleepy Hollow Nursery for their generous donations of flowers, soil and plant starter.

Please help keep these flowers looking beautiful. In the past vandals have picked all the buds and leaves off the plants ruining them and making more work for the people involved in Aunt Agnes is Outliving Her Resources. How Can She Plan for Her Funeral?

With an irrevocable funeral trust.

It's happening often these days. It might well be happening in your family right now. An aunt, an uncle, perhaps even your mother or father is outliving their resources.

Their total income from whatever sources is not enough. They have to dip into their meager savings in order to live. But they will not be eligible for additional governmental assistance until their assets are practically gone.

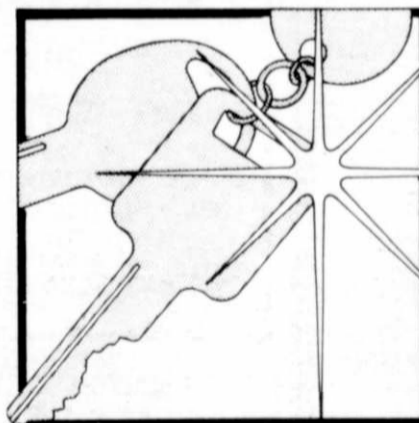

They worry about living, but they also worry about dying. They would like to plan and pay for their own funeral. But is this possible? The answer is "yes" through an irrevocable funeral trust.

Under the law an individual can set aside up to $1,500 for funeral costs in addition to a burial space and vault and still be eligible for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Medical Assistance (MA). This can most easily be accomplished with an irrevocable funeral trust. Your funeral director will be glad to assist in setting up such an agreement for Aunt Agnes or anyone else in a similar situation.

He can also answer any questions you may have about such a trust or any other funeral preplanning. So contact your funeral director first. Remember, satisfying your needs is always his main consideration.

A WHOLLY OWNED SUBSIDIARY OF WEST BEND SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION AND A FINANCIAL RESOURCE GROUP MEMBER

No name was chosen for Kewaskum School District's new organization which is being formed by parents to create pride and furnish information for the district. Instead it was decided at the June 3 meeting to form a steering committee to come up with a name and programs for the new group. This committee will include a teacher and parent representative from each of the district's schools (grade, middle and high school) and representatives from both the middle and high schools' student councils.

Suggested programs for next year were: art in the schools; olympics of the mind, and demonstrations on daily classroom activities. Mike Miller, representing the KEA, showed items that are used in a behavior and academic incentive plan for students. He said that similar programs have been very successful in other cities in promoting pride in the public schools, both among students and the communities.

Cherna Gorder, business manager, reported on the budget which is in the process of being readied for presentation to the public at the annual meeting July 22. She said that after the initial computation several months ago, the board asked for a complete list of items needed by the schools. While the list was not complete for the June 3 meeting she said that roughly $450,000 additional requests were made for equipment and texts in the schools and $500,000 for the first year of a five year maintenance plan. Miss Gorder suggested that perhaps the district should consider taking out a long term loan to cover the expenses, so these costs could be spread over a number of years.

She added that last year the Kewaskum district spent $391 less per pupil than the state average. Miss Gorder was asked if the high cost of busing because of the district's size didn't mean that even less was spent on educational items. She replied that she hadn't received the latest information on comparing individual costs among districts, but that was probably true.

Red Cross Slates Two CPR Classes

The West Bend Red Cross has scheduled two Cardio-pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) classes.

CPR is a combination of artificial respiration and artificial circulation used to keep a victim of heart attacks alive until medical assistance arrives.

The first four minutes after a heart attack are the most crucial. A CPR course will teach you how to handle this emergency and how to recognize the signs and symptoms of a possible heart attack victim.

The CPR classes are scheduled for three Mondays, starting June 17th, 24th and completing on July 1st. One class is scheduled for the mornings, 9 to 11:30 a.m. and the evening class is set for 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. Both classes will be conducted in the Community Room of the West Bend Marine Bank.

To enroll in either class, call the West Bend Red Cross at 334-5687.

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend

WHAT FARMERS SHOULD KNOW ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY

People who earn their living from farming should be familiar with how Social Security treats farm income and employees for Social Security coverage. Failure to be informed can mean reduced Social Security protection for the farmer and gaps in the protection for his or her employee.

Like other self-employed persons, the farmer gets Social Security credit if net earnings amount to $400 or more in a year. When net earnings are $400 or more in a year, the farmer gets credit for all earnings up to the maximum that counts for Social Security — $39,600 in 1985. A farmer may get credit if net earnings are less than $400 by using an optional method of reporting; call us for details.

Farmers who hire workers should note that it makes a difference how they are paid for Social Security purposes. A worker must receive cash wages of $150 or more in a calendar year or work on 20 or more days a year and be paid on a time basis to receive coverage under Social Security. It also makes a difference whether the farmer pays the workers directly or hires a crew leader to recruit and pay them. If there is no written agreement, then whoever has the final right to control the workers on the job is generally considered the employer, no matter who pays the workers.

Social Security not only pays retirement benefits as early as age 62, but it also pays disability benefits at any age to a disabled worker and his or her family, and survivors benefits to a worker's family. The protection also includes Medicare hospital insurance.

Farmers who need more information on any aspect of Social Security should call the nearest office and ask for any of the following leaflets:

Farmers...How to Report Your Income for Social Security; Farm Rental Income...Does It Count for Social Security?; and Social Security Information for Crew Leaders and Farmers.

The telephone number is 1-800-242-9946.

SHERIFFS DEPARTMENT

Clarence A. Schwartz, Sheriff

Road Construction Work

Now that the good weather has returned to Wisconsin, Sheriff Clarence Schwartz warns motorists to be "alert" for road construction.

Flagmen are there for a reason, and their directions should be obeyed, the Sheriff said. In addition, motorists must obey signs that designate a road as closed (except to local traffic). Drivers intending to drive through the area must use the designated detour, or risk a citation if using the closed roadway.

Road construction also can create a problem with debris littering the roadway. Loose gravel, stones or potholes can pose a possible hazard for the unwary motorist, the Sheriff indicated.

There is no reason why a construction area should be dangerous. The workers must obey their own rules of operation, and passing motorists must obey theirs. Together, both groups can go about their business in safety, the Sheriff remarked.

There is more water underground than the total of all the lakes and rivers in the world.

A Father's Tribute To His Family

LIFE'S LITTLE TREASURES

First came a wonderful woman
A partner in God's wonderful plan
A wife to be with forever
A credit to any man

Next came our first intruder
As big as a minute or two
A very wonderful person
We found as she grew

The second welcomed arrival
Had eyes of enormous size
A whole lot of ability
And beauty to coincide

Next came the early riser
She took her father's name
Ambition, ambition, ambition
That life may never tame

Along came our darked hair canary
A singer we came to know
Humor is her trademark
A gift the Lord did bestow

Along came a very beautiful baby
Her daddy gave her her name
Our family is enlarging
Life will never be the same

Our sixth bundle of heaven
Arrived as the sun went to bed
Blond hair, blue eyes and alertness
Is what her mama said

The seventh little pixie
Came with the dawns early light
Imagination and mischievousness
With questions from morn till night

The eighth baby needs lots of loving Enough she'll never get
She is just a little tyke
And I guess her daddy's pet

This is the last of my daughters
An animal loving gal
Ponies, cows and chickens
Will be her ever loving pals

These are my very fine daughters
Their names I'll not reveal
I'm proud as a peacock
This poem does plainly reveal

Wait! Here is another arrival
To join our little clan
But this one's a little different
For he will grow up to be a man

The tenth daughter was agile
She couldn't have been any other
For we needed a good athlete
To compete with her only brother

Along came another arrival
Much to everyone's surprise
She is another of daddy's angels
And the apple of his eye

Ah! Folks look at my family
Nicer they could not be
They make me a very proud father
As you can plainly see!

In order to avoid disappointment, early registration is being advised.

Soil Conservation Service Celebrates 50th Anniversary

Some things come only once in a lifetime. A 50th birthday is one such event.

The Soil Conservation Service is preparing for its golden anniversary celebration now.

In fact, the celebration already has begun. August 25, 1983, marked the 50th anniversary of the first national soil and water program in the United States—the Soil Erosion Service.

Created in 1933, the Soil Erosion Service was formed to supervise erosion control demonstration projects. The first of these was in Coon Valley, Wisconsin, near LaCrosse. Hugh Hammond Bennett, a USDA soil scientist and noted crusader for soil conservation in the 1920s, was named the first head of the Soil Erosion Service.

During that time, another new federal program—the Civilian Conservation Corps — also was established. Under SCS direction, Corps workers helped many communities build terraces, control gullies, stabilize creek and river banks, and plant shrubs and trees for wildlife habitat and erosion control.

In April 1935 — three weeks after the second great dust-storm in a year — the Soil Erosion Service, plus several emergency conservation work camps, were transferred from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Agriculture.

On April 27, 1935, Congress passed Public Law 46 creating the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) within the USDA. Bennett was its first chief.

Today SCS is active in the 50 states, operating offices in almost every county.

Working in cooperation with

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 11
Friday, June 14, 1985

the agency are County Land Conservation Committees, which are local units of government. There are 72 county land conservation committees in Wisconsin, one in each county of the state.

SCS and County Land Conservation Committees are sharing ideas and planning 50th birthday activities to be held across the nation during the next year.

St. Joseph's Honors Employees For Their Years of Service

St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend, held a Recognition Dinner on Wednesday, May 8, 1985, for all employees who had, through their work at the hospital, served the community for 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, and 40 years.

The dinner was held at the West Bend Knights of Columbus Hall. Following the dinner, Fred Bury, Administrator, said this was an appropriate time for a Recognition Dinner for the hospital employees since National Hospital Week was to begin May 12. In last week's story on Beechwood Lake the Town of Scott Chairman was incorrectly identified. Charles Fick is the chairman, not Charles Miller.

[Reprinted from the Kewaskum Statesman, December 28, 1934 edition.]

Wisconsin as a dairy state is equal to the best. Her dairy interests are too great to ever stay depressed. For dairy product, quality is what the buyer seeks. It nourishes the human frame, puts roses in the cheeks. Her cows receive the finest feeds her fertile fields produce, Alfalfa hay and clover hay and silage full of juice. Good feeds produce good flavor and good flavor brings demand, That's why Wisconsin dairy goods are famed throughout the land. Cheese factories and creameries everywhere abound, Condensed and powdered milk plants at many crossroads found. By tank car, truck and horse drawn rig, milk in a steady stream, Pours into town and city with its sister product cream. And if you seek for buttermilk, condensed milk or whey, Or butter, cheese or powdered milk made the finest way, Wisconsin can supply your needs no matter what you wish, Her dairy products bring success with every kind of dish. Cream makes the comely housewife glad when poured into her tea, Or dealer who makes up ice cream of super quality. And butter golden as the gleam of dandelion's crown, Were it withheld, indignantly the populace would frown. Wisconsin's cheese cannot be beat, no matter where one goes, It wins its share of premiums at all the dairy shows. Wisconsin's dairy products are equal to the best, Her butter, cheese and cream and milk, stand up in every test. Wisconsin's dairy interests are fighting for their lives, And something surely must be done if dairying survives. While to secure the needed aid, our state has done its best, Aid from the powers at Washington our farmers now request. And when, once more, the dairy cow has come into her own, And all the ills that now annoy have taken wings and flown, Our dairy farms will flourish like the ancient green bay tree And once more the dairy farmer will taste prosperity. So here's to old Wisconsin, the greatest dairy state, It's quality of product that makes her fame so great. And if her dairy farmers will just keep sane and cool, In years to come, as in the past, she will the market rule.

Milk is often described as "nature's most nearly perfect food." Milk and dairy products are the body's best source of needed dietary calcium.

AVOID CANCER

Cancer might be less common if people ate more fresh fruit and vegetables, and fewer animal fats, says Dr. Guy Newell of National Cancer Institute. "My family now eats less meat, more poultry and fish. We also eat lots of high fiber foods - peas, beans, cabbage, sprouts, spinach, oranges and apples, whole wheat bread and cereals. It will improve basic health and resist cancer," says Dr. Newell.

WIAA Board Takes Formal Action On Recommended Athletic Changes

The Board of Control of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association (WIAA) at its May meeting took the following formal action on earlier announced tentative positions regarding recommendations of the special task force which late last year studied the sponsorship of dual seasons and loss of instructional time:

1. Eliminated dual tournament series in boys golf, effective 1986-87 school year, thus leaving boys golf in spring and girls golf in fall.

2. Limited football to nine games before playoffs, effective 1987-88, and moved opening playoff game into previous weekend (instead of Tuesday night). Note: Schools not in playoffs will be allowed to play additional game, with Board of Control approval, on same weekend as first playoff game.

3. Moved opening of girls tennis season one week earlier (same date as football) and extended season one week, effective this coming fall (1985-86). Note: WIAA tournament series dates remain same equivalent time as at present. The State Tournament in 1985 will be held October 10-11-12.

4. Directed the office staff to schedule WIAA pre-State tournament games and meets insofar as possible on non-school days and nights unless travel and competition for such contests does not cause loss of instructional time for any participants. Note: Some effort to implement this change is being made for coming school year (1985-86) but full effect of this action will not be felt until 1986-87.

The Board's action considerably modifies recommendations originally finalized by the task force and also does not go as far as the Board's tentative position announced last month. The biggest change from the Board is announcement in April relates to the decision to retain the present structure of baseball with its three-class spring tournament and its open class summer tournament. Strong negative reaction (at the Annual Meeting) to the Board's decision to terminate the summer baseball tournament was the major reason for the Board's change in position. The Board also considered leaving golf a two-tournament sport but the low participation level (about 40 schools; summer baseball has about 85) made golf a different issue.

The board also changed its tentative position on moving track and field regionals and boys tennis sectionals to the previous weekend. Because (a) there are problems in securing host sites for reasons of Memorial Day weekend among others and (b) moving tournament activity earlier into May will conflict with already short regular seasons, the Board decided not to make changes in the present pre-State formats in these two sports.

The Board took into consideration the negative feeling of football coaches about moving the first playoff game into Week 10 of the regular season, thus forcing schools which play nine games to use one or two pre-Labor Day weekends. But the Board felt that from many standpoints (particularly administration of playoffs), it is not the best situation to have a mid-week playoff game.

In other action, the Board — 1. Selected Douglas Ritchie of Madison, an administrative search consultant, to begin the process of naming a successor to Executive Director John E. Roberts who will retire on December 31, after serving 29 years as director of the WIAA. Ritchie, former superintendent of schools in Madison and also a former Board of Control member, will administer posting the position, circulating the announcement and informing applicants of specifications of the position. Application forms will be received by Ritchie (28 Golf Parkway, Madison 53704) until August 1, and a successor is expected to be named by the Board early in the fall.

2. Asked administrators of Class B schools to indicate their interest in being considered for an appointment to the Advisory Council to serve for one year in place of Principal Gary Einerson of De Forest who was elected to the Board of Control last month. The Board will name a replacement at the June meeting.

3. Formalized the realignment of Osseo-Fairchild from the Dairyland Conference to the Cloverbelt Conference in all sports, effective 1986-87.

Indians Win Two, Lose Two Conference Games

By John Harju

Despite outscoring and out-hitting their opponents in four recent conference games, Kewaskum won only two of these, moving their overall record to 5-6 and their conference mark to 2-3.

Kewaskum first beat visiting New Holstein, 13-7, last Tuesday, then lost to visiting Two Rivers, 12-6, on Thursday, beat visiting Chilton, 15-4, Monday, as Don Menzel struck out 15, and lost to host Sheboygan Falls 6-4, Tuesday.

Kewaskum 13, New Holstein 7

Erupting for seven runs in the bottom of the fifth inning, Kewaskum erased a 6-5 Husky lead and went on to win, 13-7.

Junior Don Menzel picked up the win but needed relief help from Tim Rohlinger, who notched a save in going the last two innings on the mound.

Menzel also helped his cause at the plate by going 3x3 with a fourth inning solo homer, double, and three RBI's.

Centerfielder Jim Lauer also chipped in by going 2x4 with a triple and four RBI's.

The Indians' big seventh inning started out with John Donath and Bob Yahr reaching base via a walk and a single. Tim Geidel struck out but the next batter, Tim Dettmann, was hit by a pitch from Husky loser Brian Klapperich to load the bases. Lauer then ripped a triple in the gap to right center. John Mertzig grounded out but scored Lauer. Next, Jeff Newhauser singled, Menzel doubled to score Newhauser, and Rick Staehler then tripled to right, scoring Menzel. Donath walked but the third Husky pitcher that inning got Yahr to pop-up to the second baseman to retire the side.

New Holstein threatened in the sixth as Menzel walked in a run with one out, but Rohlinger relieved and got the next two batters on strikes and a fly-ball to right.

Two Rivers 12, Kewaskum 6

Scoring four runs in both the first and seventh innings, Two Rivers went on to win, 12-6, over Kewaskum last Thursday.

Kewaskum out hit the Raiders 14-11 but stranded nine runners on the base paths. Indian starter Tim Rohlinger took his first loss of the year, pitching five innings before being relieved by Tim Geidel.

Leading coach Tom Bartelt's Indians at the plate were Bob Yahr, who went 3x4, including a triple and three RBI's and Jim Lauer who also went 3x4.

Kewaskum 15, Chilton 4

Junior Don Menzel struck out 15 Chilton batters (twice striking out the side), walked only three, and scattered five hits in pitching the host Indians to a 15-4 win on Monday.

Kewaskum bats were also red hot as the young Indians banged out eight hits and with the help of eight Chilton walks, came through with a six-run second inning and a five-run third.

Leading the KHS hitting attack was Tim Dettmann with a two-run homer to start off the second inning, Tim Geidel (2x3, 4 RBI's), Jeff Newhauser (2x2, 2 runs scored), and Tim Rohlinger (1x2, 3 RBI's).

Sheb. Falls 6, Kewaskum 4

The Indians lost a tough 6-4 battle to the host Falcons on Tuesday.

Things began bad for KHS as Falcon lead off hitter Kevin Mauer patted Tim Geidel's second pitch over the right field fence for a home run. Derrek Perronne nailed a run scoring triple, scoring Brad Rammer, who had singled and Falls jumped out to a 2-0 lead after one inning of play. They added three runs in the third as the first three batters in the inning doubled, singled and doubled and caused Indian coach Tom Bartelt to call on Tim Rohlinger to relieve. Rohlinger then unloaded a wild pitch, scoring the second run of the inning. Mauer singled to drive in a run but was later cut down trying to steal home. Rohlinger then struck out the final two batters to get out of the inning with no further damage being done.

After a scoreless third, Kewaskum got on the board in the fourth as catcher Tim Dettmann drilled a Jeff Schomberg curve ball over the left field fence for a one-out solo homer, his third homer of the year.

In the fifth, KHS scored twice more as Don Menzel ripped a lead off homer over the left field fence, his second homer of the year. Jeff Newhauser reached first on an infield hit and later scored on a wild pitch.

Falls scored once in their half of the fifth as Perronne walked, stole second and came around on a Gary Widder RBI single.

Kewaskum, however, added one run in the sixth as Bob Yahr doubled, moved to third on a Dettmann fly-ball, and scored on a Geidel double.

Falls tried for some insurance in the sixth.

The first two batters reached via singles, but Rohlinger responded well in getting the next two to strike out and the third batter to ground to short. In the Indian seventh, Jim Lauer grounded out, John Mertzig struck out, and Rick Staehler flew-out, and Kewaskum faded in defeat, 6-4.

Schomberg went the distance, striking out five Indians, walking just one, and scattering six hits. Geidel took the loss in one inning of work. Rohlinger pitched the final five, giving up one unearned run, while striking out five and walking two.

On Monday and Tuesday the Indians travel to New Holstein and Kiel before playing at home against Plymouth on Thursday. All games begin at 6:00 p.m.

HIGHLIGHTS

The first game of the evening was delayed 15 minutes in order to accommodate fans caught in the traffic snarl at the Buss Farm Milwaukee River cloverleaf. Fans are urged to arrive early and tail gate in the soon-to-be revamped pigsty area.

The first game saw Kennelly pound punchless Bartelt Ins. 8-1. Kennelly was paced by two solid veterans, Larry "Brooks" Bunkelman and Ed "Fast Eddie" Ninke as they led a solid Kennelly squad. The Bartelt Ins. team has deteriorated from a pride of proud lions to a bunch of fat cats. Part of the problem was that several players were in their option year last year and in order to keep the championship squad intact large long term contracts were negotiated. Also the silk lined cashmere jerseys the team received last year from the over-generous owner has given some of the players a false sense of security. Mike "Rags" Pfeiffer and Dennis "NMI" Reha are both 0 for May and June. Jonsey Korth dispelled any rumors by getting his first hit of the season. He turned an easy inside the park homer into a sliding out at home plate as he tripped over his cigarettes rounding 3rd base. Worst hit by the hitting famine is pitcher Rags Pfeiffer. His split fingered super duper reverse drop sinker spinner has been finding the mark with uncanny accuracy, but to no avail. In a very despondent mood the other night he muttered something to the effect the only good thing about Thursday night is that it is followed by Friday night. The only bright spot for Bartelt Ins. was the play of Jerry "Artie" Kiefer. Due to a player shortage Kiefer was TEMPORARILY placed at 2nd base where he inhaled everything that came his way both during and after the game.

Crass Salvage remained undefeated by whomping Thornton & Schaub 12-1. Crass was led by Randy Crass' graceful base running and Blackie Crass' 3 error inside the park homer. The Crass team after winning the Good Sportsmanship Award for the last 3 years looks like a shoo-in for the first half championship. Vern "Blister" Ludwig from Thornton & Schaub was named the defensive player of the week due to his fine catches in center and left field. The award had just been announced over the new PA system when he dropped an easy can of corn in left field which opened the gates for Crass.
