Motion Soundly Defeated, 151 to 46

School District Electors Say 'No' to $6,647,637 1985-86 Budget

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum School District's new Administrator, Penny Kleinhans, made a good "pitch" for education and the 1985-86 proposed budget during Monday night's Annual Meeting but all the statistics, charts and graphs couldn't convince voters to approve the budget of $6,647,637. On a better than 3 to 1 vote, electors soundly defeated a motion to approve the budget with 151 votes against the motion and 46 for it.

Although Kleinhans received a round of applause for her opening comments, the proposed budget, which carries a 13.85% increase over last year, drew nothing but criticism and demands for more cuts. In defense of the budget, Kleinhans told the meeting, "education is not an expense, it is an investment." Education has been seriously affected by funding reductions noted Kleinhans, citing a 36% cutback at the federal level over the past two years.

Other nations are investing in education and the development of its people, said Kleinhans, neglect of education may condemn the future of our nation.

While almost every person who got up to speak indicated they were for quality education, they demanded to know where and how the School Board expected residents to come up with the money to meet increased taxes.

One man, from the Town of Farmington, told the board, "I came to this meeting in a twelve-year-old car and 67c out of every $1.00 I pay in taxes now, goes to the school district." Farmington contributes the highest share to the levy, 26.86%, more than one-fourth of the total levy. The Village of Kewaskum is second highest with 20.21%.

Area farmers were the most vocal in their opposition to the proposed budget. A Town of Wayne farmer told the board it was about time the school district bit the bullet. Everyone is being asked to cut, he said,

Man Charged in Town of Wayne Shooting Death

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Richard R. Bonenfant, 51, of 5685 Highway H, appeared before Judge Richard T. Becker in Washington County Court last Tuesday, where he was charged with First Degree murder in the shooting death of Malinda M. Jaeger, 71, owner and operator of Spitz and Lindy's tavern, 5685 Highway H, Town of Wayne.

A $50,000 cash bail was set and a preliminary hearing scheduled for Monday, July 29th, at 1:30 p.m. in Branch Three of the Circuit Court. Kenneth Guy, State Public Defender representing Bonenfant, contended bail should be set at a lower level. Guy noted his client was a long time Washington County resident and there was no reasons indicating he would not appear for future proceedings. Becker felt the seriousness of the charges might prove to be a greater incentive for Bonenfant not to appear.

According to records, it was Bonenfant who called the Sheriff's Department informing them of the shooting. He was found sitting in the bar room when officials arrived at the scene at approximately 9:40 p.m. Jaeger was found on her bed, in the living quarters, fully clothed with a bullet wound in her throat.

The wound was surrounded by apparent powder burns indicating the alleged weapon, a 22 caliber rifle, was fired at close range.

Bonenfant had worked for Jaeger several years as a hired man and bartender. He lived at the same address and also helped her run errands.

Bonenfant previously worked in the West Bend area as a machinist. At one time he and his ex-wife Pamela operated a stable northeast of Kewaskum where they boarded horses and bred Arabians.

Pastor Joiner Resigns Peace Church

Rev. and Mrs. Darrell R. Joiner

The Rev. Darrell R. Joiner will conclude nine years of ministry as Pastor of Peace United Church of Christ in Kewaskum on September 8th. During his tenure, Peace Church has experienced significant growth and development in its membership, programming and building improvements. Most notably were the completion of the church balcony to provide extra seating, the new padded pews, energy saving projects and the newly decorated fellowship hall.

Under Pastor Joiner's leadership the church saw increased worship attendance in the family worship hour and developed prospects for new leadership with the Bethel Bible Series for adult Christian education.

Mrs. Joiner was employed as the church secretary for seven years. She led a Lenten Bible study several years for the Junior Woman's Club; organized the Martha Bible Study Circle for the Women's Guild, and served as assistant instructor for the Bethel Bible Series.

The Joiners express their gratitude to the many members and friends who have supported them in their ministry in this community during these nine years.

A call was issued July 14 by the United Church of Christ of Saginaw, Michigan and

Second Payment on $300,000 Loan

Village Gets $120,000 Installment on Loan

State Treasurer Charles P. Smith, chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Public Lands, has announced the disbursement of a state trust fund loan of $120,000.00 to the Village of Kewaskum in Washington County for improvements to the municipal building. The loan is the second installment on a $300,000 application.

The trust funds were established at statehood and constitute revenues generated from the sale of land grant lands and from penal fines.

The Land Commission consists of the secretary of state, the state treasurer and the attorney general, and annually invests over $24 million in low interest loans to school districts and municipalities for a wide variety of purposes.

Gehl, West Bend, and we've cut our expenses at home but the school district keeps asking for more.

Jim Schmidt, another resident, said a 9.8% increase in salaries is high when the rate of inflation is 4% and farmers are already taking a 40% to 50% decrease.

Mrs. Jane McElroy told the board she could understand its concern for quality education but wondered if "it expectations were higher than ours (the taxpayers)."

Both Kleinhans and Business Manager Cherna Gorder tried to point out that deferred tax payments were also having an effect on the tax levy. With the proposed budget, the 1985-86 levy would be $3,993,188, resulting in a gross mill rate of $14.29, less a tax credit of $1.36, for a net levy of $12.93 per $1,000 of equalized valuation. In the 50-page report presented at the meeting, Gorder stated, "an interesting fact to point out is the impact that tax collections have on the levy: If 100% of the taxes were collected, the levy would decrease approximately 42.8% to a mill rate of $7.40 per $1,000, compared to a projected mill rate of $12.93 per $1,000 with the deferred taxes situation."

A woman from the Town of Auburn told the board, some of us just don't have the money to pay our taxes.

After a lengthy discussion period, Leonard Peter, Town of Wayne, stated, "why don't we just cut the meeting short and vote the budget down." Board President Tom Brigham told Peter he, and the other board members heard what the electors were telling them. The board will go back over the budget, noted Brigham, but there were no guarantees that the picture could be changed. "You have to realize that your vote tonight is advisory and the board will have to set a budget and levy by October." A woman stood up and said, "it sounds like you're going to do whatever you want to do no matter what we tell you."

While over 204 electors had registered at the meeting, not everyone voted on the eleven resolutions presented. Just why everyone did not vote was not clear, whether it was confusion or just another way to show they were not happy with the budget.

4-H NEWS

4-H INTERSTATE EXCHANGE

On June 24, 13 delegates from the Washington County 4-H left for a one week exchange program with Clinton County 4-H in Michigan. These delegates 14-17 years of age were selected from applications and recommendations by the General Leaders. A board viewed the applications and selected 13 of the counties finest. The exchange was a program in which delegates would learn about the Clinton County and Michigan and share this information with Wisconsin 4-H members.

The adult chaperones drove the delegates to St. John's Fair grounds, where each delegate met their host family. While in Michigan the delegates and their host family visited Frankenmuth, a famous German Village, MSU, Michigan State University, the State Capitol and a Mint Farm. The 4-H Older Youth helped fund this trip.

Next year the 4-H members in Clinton County, Michigan, will visit our county. An observation made about Michigan was, how flat the land was and how almost everyone had an in-the-ground pool. Our 4-H members can't wait till next year to show the Michigan

4-H'ers our area with the rolling hills.

Delegates participating were: Andy Degnitz, Jim Doll, Ken Falk, Lynn Frase, Terry Groth, Pam Gundrum, Tracy Hahn, Stan Shaw, Diane Hammen, Pauline Schroeder, Jackie Twiford, Jackie Infalt.

Chaperones were Mike Doll, LeRoy Doll and Marian Arkenberg.

Circus Train Locomotive Stops in Kewaskum

Friday, July 26, 1985, Kewaskum Statesman, Page 7

Steam Locomotive 1385, the Chicago & North Western railroad's historic 1907 train engine, arrived in Kewaskum shortly after 3:00 p.m. Wednesday, July 17, and made a brief unscheduled stop. Picture postcards of the "Goodwill Ambassador" Steam Locomotive were handed out.

The steam locomotive was used to help pull the more than 30 cars that transported the Circus Parade from Baraboo to Milwaukee for the big Circus Parade on Sunday, July 14. Diesel locomotives were also used to move the circus parade train and returned the Circus Train to Baraboo without No. 1385, which returned to the Railroad Museum in Green Bay.

The locomotive is one of only a few steam engines still operating in the United States. Two early 1900s restored luxury business cars and a baggage car with a historic photograph exhibit accompanied No. 1385.

3 Jr. Woman's Club Members Attend State Club Workshop

The G.F.W.C. Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club was represented at the WFWC summer workshop by three of its members. Carolyn Seawell, State President, presided at the workshop, held at the Holiday Inn of Stevens Point on Wednesday, July 17. The Wisconsin Federation is composed of 13,000 members throughout the state.

The keynote speaker, Phyllis Dudenhoffer, GFWC Second Vice-President presented a "Walk Through History" of the 95 years of the General Federation, since its inception in the last decade of the 19th Century, when women's clubs were based on education through libraries and kindergartens...to work with the juvenile court laws in the early 1900's...in the pioneer woman's concern for self improvement and dedication to helping the poor, and battle for the vote in 1919...to the purchase and endowment of the international headquarters...to crusaders for social and domestic causes, youth concerns, citizenship, crime reduction, energy conservation...and into the voluntarism of the 80's. Over the years, the GFWC has met the needs of each decade, but continues to think ahead. Club-women have been praised and ridiculed, but have accomplished that which had to be done. Mrs. Dudenhoffer went on to say "There is a greater need for the GFWC's grass roots organization today with the complexity of the world. We must preserve the past, and change to keep up with the world. The WFWC can dream, believe, plan and work to meet the challenges of tomorrow."

ipated in 5,600 projects involving 313,000 hours and $478,000 in volunteer service and contributions to service in their communities, their country and the world.

In addition to the projects the Kewaskum Club sponsors in the departments of the Arts, Conservation, Education, Home Life, International Affairs and Public Affairs, the Kewaskum Juniors also plan special emphasis areas this year in the areas of Free Enterprise, Car Seat Safety, Concern For Kids, Programs against Child Abduction and Abuse, and Legislative Action. Any woman in the Kewaskum area between the ages of 18-40 is welcome to attend the club's general meetings held on the THIRD Tuesday of the month at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion Hall in Kewaskum. Additional information on all projects may be obtained by calling department chairmen or Club President, Debbie Lettow at 626-2205.

the same dormitory, had their own dining room, and shared most of their recreational/entertainment activities including attendance at movies in German.

They temporarily re-named their "Amigos" dining section of the DeBot Center "Unsere Freunde" which, like the Spanish, translates to "our friends."

The university's Department of Foreign Language received a $180,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities last year to conduct the institute for three successive summers. By the time last one is completed next year, nearly a third of all the elementary and secondary German teachers in the state will have been included.

Institute Director Mark Seiler, who also is chair of the UW-SP Foreign Language Department, said the teachers have been learning how to get students involved in activity-oriented projects and to "get at grammar in a functional way."

One of the things Seiler has tried to impress upon the participants is the effectiveness of visual stimulation in teaching languages. Movies, slides, pictures, posters and other displays are of great value, he added.

Each teacher has earned six graduate credits for attending the institute and for submitting a unit employing the methods learned while on campus. Each one also received waiver of all fees for tuition, room and board, plus a travel allowance.

Local faculty plus representatives of the Department of Public Instruction and a professor from UW-Madison led the classes. There were guest speakers including an English teacher from West Germany.

Local Teacher Attends Institute On German Language

Those people who occasionally strolled through Stevens Point shops the past month, speaking an unfamiliar language, weren't foreign visitors.

They were educators from the state's small towns and larger cities enrolled at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point for an institute on the teaching of German language and culture.

Among the participants was Therese Ann Candelario, 212-5 University Dr., West Bend, a teacher at Kewaskum High School.

Theirs was a total immersion activity which involved speaking German almost all of the time.

The 26 participants stayed in These charter members of the newly formed Kewaskum History Klub toured many of the historic areas of eastern United States. Historic highlights and the breathtaking beauty of the countryside through the Appalachian Mountains made the entire trip exciting and informative.

Area visited, studied and explored included Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, Washington, D.C., Arlington, Mount Vernon, Williamsburg, Jamestown, Yorktown and Monticello, Virginia, the Blue Ridge Parkway and the Shenandoah Valley.

In Washington, D.C. the travelers visited the Smithsonian Institute, Capital building, the Washington, Jefferson, and Lincoln Memorials, the Marine and Vietnam Veterans memorial, the tomb of the unknown soldier at Arlington National Cemetery, the White House and Ford's Theatre as well as various other attractions.

The homeward trek traveled the breathtaking Blue Ridge Parkway viewing mountains of over 4,000 feet in elevation in the Appalachian chain. Fran Charland, history teacher at Kewaskum High School arranged the tour with the cooperation and assistance of the Otte Bus Service of Cedar Grove. The group traveled comfortably by air-conditioned motor-coach and was lodged at fine motels along the way. The group returned to Kewaskum

Thursday evening, June 26th, after traveling more than 2,250 miles.

Mr. Charland commented that everyone seemed to have a very good time, took lots of pictures and didn't waste much time sleeping. Plans are being made for a similar trip in 1987.

Local Teacher Attends Physics Workshop at UW-EC

Thirty Wisconsin high school physics teachers recently attended an intensive three-week training workshop at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. The workshop focused on the concepts of wave motion, sound and light.

Sumner Scott, associate professor of physics and astronomy at UW-Eau Claire, coordinated the workshop after a survey he sent to state high school physics teachers indicated a need for additional training. The program, held June 10-28, was funded by a $50,000 grant from the National Science Foundation in Washington, D.C.

The workshop was led by Scott, Dr. Thomas Lockhart, assistant professor of physics and astronomy at UW-Eau Claire; and Kermit Culbertson, a physics teacher at Chippewa Falls High School. Scott and Lockhart are former high school physics teachers.

The three-week program included lectures, discussions, laboratory work, field trips and participant-developed projects. Lecturers included UW-Eau Claire faculty members as well as scientists and engineers from area research and development firms.

Workshop participants received four graduate credits and a $600 stipend for attending the program.

Area workshop participants and the high schools they represent are: Bill Lickel, Kewaskum High School, and Paul A. Nelson, West Bend East High School.

County SWMB Recommends Construction of Incinerator

The Washington County Solid Waste Management Board has distributed copies of the most recent consultant study and recommendation on incineration. A copy was mailed to each city, village and town clerk in Washington County and each County Board Supervisor.

The County Solid Waste Management Board (SWMB) recommends that an incinerator with steam heat recovery be constructed by the County near the Courthouse. This proposal is currently being considered by the Washington County Board of Supervisors, who are expected to take action on it in August.

Attached was a copy of the recently completed Study Phase 3 prepared by the Board's engineering consultants. Phase 3 contains background and the recommendation for incineration.

The Recommendation

Very briefly stated, the SWMB recommends that an incinerator be built adjacent to the County Courthouse complex to burn and thereby reduce in volume the solid waste received. The ash residue and other accepted non-burnables would then be disposed of at a private landfill, or possibly a public owned landfill eventually. Heat generated by the incineration would be used to heat the County complex buildings. The facility and the borrowing needed to finance it would be paid for mostly through the County tax levy. The cost of operating and maintaining the facility would be paid from disposal charges to those who use the facility. This tipping fee is proposed to be competitive with the cost of landfilling, about $20 per ton. Surplus revenues, if any, could help retire debt and/or financing of the debt.

The facility is proposed to be sized based on accepting waste from about 60% of the population of the County. This figure was used to reflect those communities who said in 1984 they would plan to use the facility. Additional users of the facility from the County could possibly, through expansion, be accommodated later on.

Study Phase 3 contains estimates of cost for each community, as well as estimates of effect on the tax levy.

County Board Action Upcoming

As mentioned earlier, the proposal will be coming before the County Board in August. At that time, the County Board will be deciding whether to agree to the proposed method of financing the facility and whether to refer the proposal to all of the cities, villages, and towns for acceptance or rejection.

Officials were requested to review the proposal in their community. If the County Board agrees to present the plan to the Communities, there will be a meeting of all the communities upcoming in the near future, at which time questions and comments will be addressed by the SWMB and the engineering consultant.

Officials are encouraged to contact their County Board Supervisor to express their views.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

Letter to the Editor of the Kewaskum Statesman:

I'd like to publicly thank the Kewaskum Parade Committee for being so considerate of our elderly residents.

Our float this year had four residents in their 90's displaying what they did during their lifetimes. After the Beechwood Parade, they were so excited & ready for more, that we decided to enter the parades in their home towns. In the case of Kewaskum - it was for Bill Schaub, life-time resident of that community.

These elderly people would never have been able to tolerate the heat had it not been for the consideration of the Parade Committee, giving them a spot at the front of the parade. Their time out in the sun was as short as possible - and they had a great time because of it.

We all thank you for making it a pleasant outing.

Fire leveled a large barn and destroyed thousands of dollars of farm machinery last Wednesday afternoon on the Elroy Egerer farm, about 2½ miles southwest of Beechwood. The loss was estimated at over $40,000. Barely two hours after the blaze was reported by the Egerers' 12-year-old son, Joseph, the barn and an adjoining 30 by 48 foot storage building were in smouldering ruins. The loss included over 100 tons of recently mown hay and a variety of equipment, including a cornpicker, chopper, blower, swather and hammermill, stored in the 40 by 100 foot barn. All the livestock was saved. The Egerers' two-story frame farmhouse, less than 100 feet east of the barn, was not damaged. But the barn, adjoining structure and most of the farm machinery inside was a total loss.

During the severe electrical storm last Saturday afternoon, the home of Matt. Pesch, located on the Fond du Lac County line, about two and one-half miles north of Kewaskum on Highway 55, was struck by a bolt of lightning which ignited the roof of the house, causing damage estimated at about $100. As the local fire department arrived, smoke was pouring high into the air and flames were observed darting out at various places on the roof. The department went to work at once with the chemical truck and in a short time had the fire pretty well under control.

A new industry has been opened up at Kewaskum, namely the Kewaskum Plating Works. The new business will be conducted by August Schaefer and Son and will be located at the Aug. Schaefer place at the intersection of Highways 55 and 28. The new concern is now ready for business and will do all kinds of retinning. Milk cans are a specialty.

The state highway department commenced the blacktopping of the St. Michael's road on Highway 28, east of this village last Wednesday morning. Seven cars of oil, containing 10,000 gallons each are being used. This blacktop, it is claimed, will greatly improve the road and will eliminate dust. The cost of the project is being stood by the state.

A Ford truck, owned by Frank J. Bauer of Campbellsport, and driven by John Bast of that village, ran into the ditch and tipped over with a load of 300 cases of 24 twelve ounce bottles of beer and several eighths, last Monday afternoon on Highway 55, just north of Techtman's Hill. The truck was enroute to Campbellsport from the West Bend Lithia Company. Bauer is the Campbellsport distributor for the Lithia Company.

Dairyland Seed Offers Hybrid Corn Management Guide

"Management 2000", a farmer-oriented hybrid corn management guide is going to be available from Dairyland Seed this summer. What separates "Management 2000" from other corn guides is its distinctive farmer-grower orientation.

The hybrid corn guide is a major element in Dairyland's "Management 2000" hybrid corn management program. This program is designed to give farmers the keys for hybrid corn management for the year 2000, today.

"Today's hybrids have the genetic potential to take advantage of recently developed high-management techniques," said Dr. Paul Sun, Dairyland Research Director.

Dairyland called on its eight plant breeders, leading extension agronomists, and leading hybrid corn producers from across the Midwest to write this extensive hybrid corn management guide.

Art Dilley, Dairyland Regional Sales Manager, stated, "Dairyland felt a need to design a corn management guide specifically for the farmer. The key was to put this information into a logical sequence from the farmer's view. In "Management 2000" we have tried to separate the marketing of hybrid corn from corn management. We felt this was the missing link in other corn guides."

Dairyland Seed is a family owned and operated business serving over 4,200 farmer-dealers in the upper Midwest. Dairyland handles a complete product line consisting of hybrid corn, alfalfas, other forages, and soybeans.

According to Dairyland Vice-President, Tom Strachota, "today's farmers all know how to raise a good crop of corn. However each year crop management techniques are invented that can help raise yields. We feel it's our responsibility to get this information into the hands of today's farmers."

For more information on Dairyland's "Management 2000" corn management guide, write Dairyland Seed Co., Inc., P.O. Box 958, West Bend, Wisconsin 53095.

To Affect 183,000 Wisconsin Users

GTE Single-Line Customers to Assume Ownership of Their Telephones Oct. 1

On October 1, an estimated 183,000 GTE-Wisconsin single-line customers served by some 305,000 Company-supplied telephones will assume ownership of their telephones.

According to State Director-Operations James E. Courtney, Sun Prairie, those telephones being transferred to customer ownership include all single-line instruments issued on a regulated (leased) basis, in service prior to November 15, 1982. Auxiliary equipment such as bells, external ringers, and specialized facilities for the handicapped (hard of hearing handsets and loud-ringing bells) will also be transferred to customer ownership. All single-line telephones placed in service on a deregulated (rental) basis after November 15, 1982, are unaffected by this changeover, and remain GTE-Wisconsin property. Additionally multi-line business systems (key and PBX systems) will not be affected.

Currently, customers with leased phones pay monthly rates varying from $1.20 to $2.90 per instrument, depending upon telephone style. Beginning October 1, this monthly lease rate will no longer be charged. In addition, customers will be responsible for the maintenance of their telephone and auxiliary equipment.

Pertaining to repair service for those telephones, Courtney announced that a free 30-day warranty period will extend through October. Beginning November 1, the firm will implement two optional "GTE Phone Care" plans permitting customers to pay a small monthly fee to secure telephone repair services.

Specifically, the plans fall in two categories:

Service Center Plans - whereby customers pay monthly rates of 60 cents (covering one phone), $1.20 (for two phones) or $1.80 (for three or more phones) for repair of instruments at any of 48 GTE-Wisconsin repair locations;

OR
Home and Office Plans - whereby customers, at their option, pay monthly rates of $1.20 (for one phone), $1.80 (for two phones) or $2.40 (for three or more phones) for repair of these telephones by Company personnel at the customer's home or office.

Auxiliary equipment will not be covered under the "GTE Phone Care" options, Courtney said. However, arrangements for auxiliary equipment required by handicapped customers can be made after October 1 by contacting the nearest GTE Customer Service Center.

Customers affected by the telephone transfer are being notified by mail regarding "GTE Phone Care" plan availability, and are being asked to enroll via an enclosed business response card. Those failing to receive the card but wishing to enroll, or requesting additional information should call toll free 1-800-472-3720.

Courtney added that customers not enrolling in an optional "GTE Phone Care" plan prior to November 1 could do so later. Late enrollees must pay a $4 one-time enrollment fee, and a ten-day waiting period will be required for implementation. Customers declining to participate may still request GTE-Wisconsin repair service, but will be assessed the existing premises visit charge PLUS additional charges for any repairs made to non-"GTE Phone Care" covered instruments.

"GTE-Wisconsin's 'GTE Phone Care' repair plans have been developed and priced to help make our soon-to-be-transferred telephones virtually 'indestructible' for the vast majority of customers," Courtney said. "We encourage customers to seriously consider 'GTE Phone Care' benefits when they acquire ownership of their phones."

DTP Vaccine Now Available

An increased supply of DTP (diphtheria/tetanus/pertussis) vaccine has been received by the Washington County Community Health Nursing Service, ending a seven month shortage of the vaccine.

Parents who were asked to postpone the fourth and fifth dose of vaccine (booster doses) are now invited to bring their children to any of the regularly scheduled community clinics or to an additional clinic scheduled for July 30, 1985 from 9:00 to 12:00 a.m. at the Nursing Service office, 515 East Washington Street, West Bend.

The fourth and fifth doses of DTP vaccine, usually given at 18 months and 4-6 years (school entrance) were postponed due to the vaccine shortage. Parents are now urged to resume their children's DTP immunization series.

TODAY'S AGRICULTURE

By Jack Trzebiatowski, Washington County Agricultural Agent

DRY WEATHER RESULTS IN SHORTAGE OF HAY AND OTHER FORAGES

The dry weather this year has resulted in a shortage of hay and other forages. This is a concern for dairy farmers, as it may mean a severe shortage of feed for the rest of the season.

First crop hay averaged about 50 to 70 percent of normal for most farmers in Washington County. With the lack of moisture, there is very little or no second crop growing in many areas.

Many producers have turned to other sources of forage to stretch their forage supply. Oats have been put in the silo as oatlage, and others have planted sorghum sudan as a supplementary forage crop.

With the different forages being used this year and the wide range of feeding value in forages available, it's important that producers know the value of the forage they are using. Milk production is most efficient when balancing protein, energy, and mineral supplements to the quality of forage being fed. This is not possible unless the value is known.

Producers should consider taking forage samples, having them tested, and then balance the ration accordingly.

The Washington County Cooperative Extension Service has an arrangement with the forage testing laboratory that growers can bring samples to our office and they will be shipped to the lab for testing. The results are generally available in about 7 to 10 days. Forage samples can be tested for crude protein, dry matter, calcium, phosphorus, acid detergent fiber (which measures heat damage), and neutral detergent fiber for a cost of $8.00 per sample.

After the forage information is received, producers can either work with their feed company representative or the Extension office to obtain a balanced ration.

With the forages being in short supply and higher in price, testing those forages and balancing rations will make the most efficient use of available feeds.

Could Include As Many As 771 Ingredients Never Disclosed

Drugs You Buy May Contain Shellac, Lactose, Sulfites, Ink

"Did you know that the drugs you buy may contain shellac? Or lactose? Or sulfites? You certainly wouldn't know it by reading the labels provided by most drug manufacturers. They are seldom listed," said Senator William Proxmire (D-Wis.) in a statement released from his Washington office.

"That is why I intend to introduce legislation when Congress reconvenes to require that manufacturers list all ingredients — active and inactive substances — in drugs as well as the quality of each."

Senator Proxmire is the Ranking Democrat on the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee which oversees the Department of Health and Human Services.

"If you are like most Americans, you assume that the label provided by the manufacturer is a complete listing of all ingredients used in the drug you are purchasing. And you probably assume that the federal government requires that listing. You would be wrong on both counts.

"The truth is that only active ingredients — the agents that make the drug work for you — are required by law. But there is virtually no disclosure of the so-called inactive or inert substances in that drug, which bind it together chemically or are used in coating the tablet or pill or used to give it taste.

"And that list of ingredients is shocking. Not just shellac, lactose or sulfites. But polyvinyl chloride, carbon tetrachloride and ink. A recent listing in The New England Journal of Medicine listed as many as 771 ingredients that could be included in drugs yet are never disclosed.

"The issue here is not the safety of the drugs themselves. But for the tens of millions of Americans who suffer allergic reactions to numerous substances, they simply have no way of telling whether the inactive ingredients in that drug may contain a substance to which they are allergic. This is particularly crucial in the case of young children and that is why the American Academy of Pediatrics and the American Medical Association are on record in support of mandatory disclosure.

"For black Americans, many of whom cannot digest lactose, the avoidance of lactose may prove impossible without this type of labelling. And for those who simply want to avoid substances such as saccharin, polyvinyl chloride or other substances with some carcinogenic potential, labelling will make that possible.

"In addition, my bill directs the Food and Drug Administration to report to the Congress within two years on the inactive ingredients used in drugs, and summarize the available medical and scientific data regarding their safety.

"This legislation builds upon the principles embodied in my Pesticide Reform Bill, which also requires disclosure of inactive substances and a report on their safety, and on the pioneering work of former Congressman Richard Ottinger.

"I can think of few areas where federal action is more appropriate. If Americans are to assume more responsibility for their own health — and I think that we all should — this is just the type of information consumers need to make informed choices."

Pressure Canning Safest for Low Acid Foods

By Joan Hanrahan
County Extension
Summer Home Economist

Canning low-acid foods such as green beans, meats, corn and beets requires a pressure canner to ensure that the food will keep safely.

Before you start canning, make sure you have an instruction booklet from the pressure canner manufacturer and that the canner's gauge is accurate. An accurate gauge prevents food spoilage and possible food poisoning.

To get the dial gauge checked visit your county extension office. If you can't get it done locally, call or write the manufacturer to find out what to do.

If your weight gauge is off by more than two pounds, buy a new one.

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 15
Friday, July 26, 1985

It's a good idea to test your pressure canner with one quart of water before canning. You can use this opportunity to review the pressure cooker procedures and see if any steam leaks out.

You may want to replace the rubber gasket if it's hardened or stretched out and no longer prevents steam from leaking out. A poor gasket makes it difficult to keep the right pressure and could cause the canner to boil dry.

Watch the pressure closely during the process time. If the pressure drops below the amount required during canning, bring it back up to the required level and retime for the entire time.

Don't try to do too many other projects when you are canning. You must make sure you are careful and accurate during the entire canning process or the food will be unsafe.

When the process time is complete, let the pressure drop of its own accord, remove the jars and let them cool. Check the seal on each jar after three or four hours. Centers of sealed lids will stay depressed. Reprocess any jars that fail to seal within 24 hours of the original processing or refrigerate and use in three or four days. Store the produce in a cool, dry place.

When you are done, clean the pressure canner thoroughly and air dry it. Always store it without the lid fastened on.

If the canner develops an odor, fill the cooker with water and add a tablespoon of cream of tartar or dairy washing powder for every quart of water. Close the canner and bring to 15 pounds of pressure. Allow the canner to cool and wash it with hot, soapy water.

For more information, contact your county extension office for publication B2593, "Using and Caring for Your Pressure Canner."

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend

SOCIAL SECURITY NEEDS TO KNOW WHEN BENEFICIARIES DIE

Although Social Security learns about deaths of people getting Social Security benefits in a timely fashion in most cases from relatives, friends, funeral home directors, for example, David W. Becker, Social Security manager in West Bend, said recently that in a few cases they are not reported.

If a death is reported but checks continue to arrive, it means Social Security's system has not yet been corrected. The person who made the initial report should just write the word "Deceased" on the envelope of the check and give it to the postman or drop it in the mailbox. When the check is returned to the Treasury Department, Social Security will automatically be notified of the death.

Sometimes the failure to report is intentional because someone is trying to defraud the Social Security Administration. However, Social Security is making an intense effort to prevent this from happening.

To assure that checks are stopped after a person has died, Social Security has been matching its records against those of other Federal agencies in an effort to identify those on the rolls who have died.

In addition, Social Security is in the process of arranging to match its records against state death - certificate computer records. Despite any measures Social Security takes, Becker said, the quickest way Social Security can be notified of a death is to call a Social Security office or to write "Deceased" on the envelope of the check and give to the postman.

People who are interested in learning more about reporting responsibilities can get a copy of the free booklet, "Your Rights and Responsibilities," at any Social Security office, or by calling 1-800-242-9946. The people at the office will be glad to answer any questions.

WHY IS IT THAT A DEMONSTRATION ATTRACTS TV, NEWS CREWS?

Have you ever been responsible for contacting the local television station to invite them to cover your community award ceremony? Most likely, the response you received from the station was, "Sorry, we can't cover the event because we don't have enough people."

Well, recently, 25 people who were protesting against the vote for non-military aid to the freedom fighters in Nicaragua pushed their way into my district office in Brookfield. With them was a television newscrew from Milwaukee, two newspaper photographers and a Milwaukee Journal reporter. What a coincidence! Here in Waukesha County, all these news people just happened to run into a group of protesters. Obviously, the news organizations were "tipped off" by the organization staging the media event.

Shortly after the office was occupied, a second television news team arrived, (the cameraman said he was called in early for the assignment). The third television station and reporter for the Milwaukee Sentinel would show up later.

Ironically, several of the protesters had attended my town hall meeting at Mayville the evening before the sit-in. We discussed my vote to support the freedom fighters in Nicaragua. There were no television cameras present to record the debate. In fact, I've held some 30 town meetings so far this year and have yet to see a camera crew.

Why is it that a demonstration attracts a T.V. news crew? A high school graduation ceremony, Eagle Scout award dinner or civic reception for the teacher of the year, doesn't seem to hold the same priorities in the newsroom. That is a shame.

This nation was built by people who achieve, not by those who protest. As a side note, the media failed to point out that only 2 of the 25 people who protested in my office were my constituents.

You might say, "no problem, the protesters were peaceful." If you call having 25 people sitting on the floor of your office, singing as you attempt to help constituents with social security problems on the phone, peaceful, - then they were. Or take the case of a Brookfield woman who needed help with her retirement income who was afraid to enter the office because of the mass of humanity blocking the door. I'm afraid disruptive is a better characterization than peaceful.

This will not be the last protest in Wisconsin this year. There is a saying, "when you don't have popular support make a lot of noise." This group is making noise, and thanks to the coverage of the media they are being seen and heard. Let's face it, the news media was manipulated, just as they have been with the hostage crisis in Lebanon and in Iran before. The media has provided those who don't want to participate constructively within society a forum to air their views or demands.

Stitt Forces State to 'Pay-up' on Promises; Legislation Will Aid Residents of County

Senator Donald K. Stitt (R-Port Washington) has drafted legislation to force the Department of Natural Resources to pay in full all Private Sewage System Replacement or Rehabilitation Grants, including those applicants who received prorated checks. This legislation will significantly aid residents of Washington County.

When the State began this grant program to help individuals with failed septic systems, applicants were promised grants of 60% of their replacement cost not to exceed $3,000. Due to a statewide funding shortage, last session the Legislature changed the grant distribution formula for the Wisconsin Fund to favor northern Wisconsin.

"I don't buy that (the Legislature's) argument and fought hard against this change in the distribution formula. The bulk of the failed systems and environmental hazard is in the Washington County area, in southeastern Wisconsin," said Senator Stitt.

The new distribution formula caused half the counties in-olved in the program to receive substantially lower funds. County Boards were given the option to disburse prorated grants to applicants so everyone would get a little help or just pay on a first-come, first-serve basis leaving all unpaid applications to head the following year's list. County Boards had to make this decision without any confirmation from the State that future funding would be provided for this program.

Washington County responded in a responsible manner by attempting to get what little money was available to as many applicants as possible. Many grant checks amounted to as little as 24% of their total septic system cost - 36% less than the amount promised.

Two weeks ago, the Legislature passed the State Budget in which $2 million was budgeted to pay all applicants who had applied prior to June 30, 1984 and had not received any funds to date. Thus making the applicants of the 6 counties who prorated their funds, the only individuals to ever receive less than a full grant in the history of this program.

"The equity is just not there for Washington County and that is why I am introducing this bill to force the DNR to use the $2 million for not only the people who are on waiting lists, but also for all the individuals who received prorated grants. I want all those individuals who were promised much greater financial aid to receive their fair share of the grant funds in the form of an additional check," said Senator Stitt.

Cedar Lake Home Resident Receives Australian Painting

Brian Moss, director of the Moorfield Community For Adult Care in Melbourne, Australia, presented an original Australian painting to Lucile Stock, President of the Cedar Lake Home Campus Resident Council.

The painting is of a typical rural Australian scene and is done on the bark of a Melaleuca tree.

Moss studied at the Cedar Lake Home Campus in West Bend last November and returned July 8 to give the painting as a token of his appreciation for the hospitality and sharing of information.

A leader in the health care field, Moss was en route to New York City to present his paper on "Nursing Home Care for the Alzheimer Patient" to the 13th International Congress of Gerontology. The Congress, held every four years in cities worldwide, draws thousands of health care professionals.

Moss is vice-president of the International Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders and president of the Voluntary Care Association of Victoria in Australia.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Lloyd Erdmann, who passed away three years ago, July 26, 1982:

Those we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts,

Of those they left behind.
The happy hours we once enjoyed,

How sweet the memory still;
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.

Ever loved and missed by wife, Leona.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear husband, father, father-in-law, grandfather and great-grandfather, John Hammes, who passed away two years ago, July 29, 1983:

We never knew that hearts could ache with such a bitter pain. With longing for a vanished face.

To hear his voice again. We never knew that nights could be so lonely, cold and dim.

But oh we've learned so many things. Because of losing him. Wonderful memories of one so dear.

Treasured with a love sincere. In our hearts he's living yet. We love him too dearly to forget.

But though we've parted for a little while.

We hope to meet again. He's waiting now in Heaven. For a day that's sure to come. When we will be reunited in the land beyond the sun.

Sadly missed by the family.

Hon-E-Kor Golf Title Winners

Harold and Eleanor Marx of Kewaskum won the club's annual husband-wife golf title Sunday at Hon-E-Kor, topping 15 other couples in the competition.

"Mix" shot a 4-over par 39, one of his best rounds in years, while Eleanor also played well, shooting a 49 for a total of 88. This gave them a one-stroke victory over Jim and Judy Tiegman of West Bend.

The Marxes also had the low net score of 64 with Frank and Rosella Schmidt finishing as runnerups with a 67. The Tiegmans and Carl and Doris Bohn tied for third.

The Hron Cup competition is also nearing the end with Dave Wietor, Kewaskum, already having won the Class A match play competition and Bruce Halfmann, Kewaskum, the B title. Wietor eliminated Lou Santini in the A championship match, while Halfmann beat Marsh Alf. The two will play an 18-hole handicap match to determine the overall winner.

Kathy Wierman of West Bend took the title in this year's Bartelt Cup competition, winning on the first extra hole of a four-way playoff. After 18 holes of play, Wierman, Helen Goetz, Lucille Petri and Dorothy Schaefer were all tied with net scores of 69. Just under 30 women participated in the event.

Several low scores were recorded by Corliss Fassbinder's 93, Audrey (Bartelt) Jaraczewski's 93 and Cathy Lastofka's 94.

WEST BEND COUNTRY CLUB WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

The 17th of July dawned bright and beautiful for the women of the Wednesday Ladies' Day at West Bend Country Club. The day turned out to be steamy, but equally hot were the scores of the OVER/UNDER Tournament. Ladies selected their own partners, provided that one had a handicap of 35 or UNDER and the other had a handicap of 36 or OVER for the 18 hole golfers; 9 hole golfers had to have one player with a handicap of 27 or under while the remaining partner had to be a 28 or over. Winners had the lowest combined NET score.

Winners are as follows:

18 HOLES — 1st Place - Ethel Koranda and Dorothy Parlow combined for 147 net.

2nd Place - Delores Levy and Joan Wirth also had 147 net, but Koranda-Parlow had a lower combined Handicap Total, putting Levy-Wirth in second place.

9 HOLES — 1st Place - Jeri Bowerman and Jenny Smith put together a 79 net.

2nd Place - Patti Chistoffel and Sue Roemer gilded an 82 net.

Marilyn Seefeld and Jan Pleimann were the pleasant hostesses for the day.

JAYCEE SOFTBALL

Dukes defeated Lions on Jenny Heisdorf's winning hit 3-2.

Superstars and Indians battled in a great game of defensive play by both teams. But the Superstars scoring 3 runs in the bottom of the fifth inning proved to be the difference, giving the Superstars a 5-1 victory. Player of the week goes to the whole team for their great effort.

Tigers won 8-0 over Mean Machine.

Heads-up base running by Keith Butschlick and Chris Schmidt helped the A's win a close game against the Gems, 2-0. Some fancy ball handling by Tony and Traci Knoeck stopped a drive by the Gems in the fifth inning. Brian Smith continues to average 3 putouts per game at third base. Jeff and Kent Thorn, along with Tricia Butschlick kept the defense clicking. The Brewers were seen scouting Curtis Ammel who has pitched his fifth consecutive win. Krysten Ammel will take the mound next week so Curtis can rest.

Kennelly came back with singles from Randy Geib, Tina Weddig and Dave Homuth hitting a single driving in Randy with no outs but the bottom of the order couldn't get the hits. 3 up! 3 down! Shefond got up with 4 more runs. That's the way Shefond went the rest of innings. Russell Krezman helped Shefond's cause with a homer to put the icing on the cake to share first with a 15 to 4 win over Kennelly!

Advance to Sectional

Indians Beat Cougars, 7-1, for Regional Title

By John Harju

Behind the 4-hit pitching of Tim Rohlinger and three clutch double plays on defense, Kewaskum defeated visiting Campbellsport, 7-1, here Monday for the Regional title and a berth in Thursday's Sectional semi-final game — sight and opponent still unknown at this writing.

Rohlinger upped his seasonal record to 5-5 as he struck out three and walked four in seven innings of work, setting the side down in order four times with the help of two of the three double plays.

Rohlinger, who for two years has been a notorious "hard luck" pitcher (having a low ERA but not a good record to match), finally received some of the hitting support he deserves as the KHS bats responded with seven hits good for seven runs.

Kewaskum, now 12-14 overall, got on the board in the first inning when Rick Staehler led off with a single and, after stealing second, came home on a one-out single by Bob Yahr. KHS got four more runs (all unearned) in the third on only one base hit, and then finished their scoring in the fourth as Staehler again singled; stole second and scored on another Yahr RBI single. Yahr scored one batter later after stealing second, when Tim Dettmann drove him in with a single.

Campbellsport scored their lone run in the sixth on a Brian Hintz sac-fly, scoring Barry Wenzlaff who led off with a single.

Jeff Krug suffered the loss for CHS, giving up all seven runs in four innings of work before giving way to Brian Hintz, who held the Indians hitless the rest of the way.

Indians Win 1, Lose 2, End Season in Sixth Place

By John Harju

Kewaskum ended their regular season last week with one win sandwiched between two losses to E-W conference opponents. The Indians finish regular season play with an 8-10 EWC record (sixth place, four games out), 11-14 overall.

Last Tuesday, Kewaskum outthit host Sheboygan Falls 12-3 but still ended up losing 7-4.

Falcon pitcher Jeff Schomberg did most of the damage, helping his cause with a pair of home runs accounting for 5 RBIs. The first was a 2-run shot in the first inning followed by a 3-run blast in the third.

Indian Tim Rohlinger suffered the loss, going four innings and was responsible for all Falcon runs (two were unearned). Rick Staehler relieved with nobody out in the fifth and faced the minimum amount of batters.

Rohlinger walked a total of seven, three of which scored. The other two runs reached via errors before eventually scoring. Also, KHS stranded 11 base runners to hurt themselves even more.

On Thursday, coach Tom Bartelt and his Indians bounced back, breaking a four game losing streak with an 8-2 victory over host Kiel.

The Indians scored a pair of runs in the first, third, fifth, and sixth innings while banging out 12 hits (all were singles). Leading at the plate for KHS were Tim Dettmann (3x3, 2 RBIs), Tim Geidel (2x3, 4 RBIs) and Soph Mark Schlosser (2x4, 3 runs scored).

Bob Yahr started on the mound for the Indians, replacing ace lefty Don Menzel who was hospitalized last week with mononucleosis. Yahr went the full seven innings, striking out two, walking one while scattering five Kiel hits.

The following day the Indians concluded regular season play, losing to co-EWC-champion New Holstein, 5-0, in Kewaskum.

Husky winner and starter Scott Lefeber held KHS scoreless on only four hits, struck out four, but walked seven. Again, Kewaskum stranded 11 base runners.

Rohlinger suffered the loss, going the distance while fanning seven and walking only three. Kiel managed only four hits off Rohlinger, however, three were triples.

Kewaskum's Jaeger MVP in All-Star Game

The Northern All-Stars used two big innings, clutch hitting of Kewaskum's Al Jaeger and good mound performances to defeat the Southwest Stars, 10-5, in the Land o' Lakes All-Star game at Farmington Sunday.

The Northern team included players from the West Bend Lithias and Benders, Kewaskum and Barton and started off the first inning with a walk and three back-to-back home runs to take a 4-0 lead.

Jaeger, who did not start the game, came in to relieve Tom Buuck of Thiensville-Mequon at third base. Jaeger went to the plate twice, got two hits, a pair of RBIs and scored both times he got on base. Al's home run over the left field fence in the top of the eighth (his first ever in Land o' Lakes play) tied the game at 5-5.

Outfielder Andy Hoenecke of Kewaskum had led off the inning by fouling out to the catcher before Jaeger tagged his key blast. Kewaskum's other representative in the game was Scott Muench, designated hitter.

The Northern Stars' other big inning was the ninth, when they sent 10 men to the plate and scored five runs.

For his efforts, Jaeger was selected as the North's MVP. Similar honors went to Jim Krause of Helenville, a pitcher for the South team who held the North scoreless in three innings. John Jacak of the West Bend Lithias picked up the victory.

BJ & Co. 4-0; Crass Salvage 2-2; Kennelly 2-2; Bartelt Ins. 1-3; Thornton & Schaub 1-3.

HIGHLIGHTS

There was an unusually sparse crowd at the dome last week. Apparently no one could find a 1953 Topps baseball card of Max Surkont. The Fond du Lac County Sheriffs Dept. crowd control experts were there in full force as well as an extra shift of parking attendants and there was nothing for them to do.

The first game saw Crass Salvage squeak past Thornton & Schaub 7-5. It appears that Crass Salvage is going thru their June Swoon a month late this year. The Crass boys are swinging their bats like they have lead in them and they are running the bases like they have lead in a certain part of their anatomy. The only great play of the game was a defensive gem turned in by Brain Schommer as he took an errant throw from 3rd baseman Dennis "Lightning" Thornton, did a back flip and touched first base with his glove to get the out.

In the second game Kennelly stopped Bartelt Ins. one game winning streak by a 9-6 score. Kennelly scored 5 runs in the first inning as they were hitting line drives all over the pasture. Pitcher Mike "Rags" Pfeiffer was messing around with his new off speed pitch in the 1st inning and the hitters from Kennelly were timing it perfect. After that inning Rags just started throwing the high hard ones and they only scored 4 runs after that. Bartelt Ins. was paced by a rejuvenated Rollie "Road Runner" Maul as the svelte center fielder had 2 hits with one of them being a long homer over the left field green monster. For the fans following the season long saga of Hammering Mike Pfeiffer: YES, he is still hitless for the season. NO, he hasn't given up. His intensity level has been at a fever pitch this past week. He has been reading the Power of Positive Hitting by Bob Uecker and doing Yoga in order to concentrate on that white sphere that has been eluding his bat all summer. He has had the Engineers from Regal Ware working overtime on their slide rules measuring the various angles that the softball will drop and entering all the data into the computer and then working on various swing planes with his bat. At home on a more practical slide he has his wife Josie drop softballs down the clothes chute and Mike swings at them as they drop out of the chute and he smites them into a net. The line from the book-makers from Las Vegas is that the odds of Mike going hitless for the season are up to 25 to 1. As an added incentive J & N Liquor of Kewaskum has offered free champagne at the dome on the nite when and if Mike gets that historic hit. Also, ESPN has offered to videotape this event and show it on Sports Center later in the month. It doesn't promise to be as large an extravaganza as Hank Aaron's 714th Home Run. however it will be the event of the year for the Thiemerdome. Mike said he would appreciate any good luck cards from his numerous fans in order to bolster his confidence and to let him know you are concerned.
