Final Offer Made in School Support Staff Wage Discussions

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Whether we like the proposal or not, said spokesperson Patricia McGuire, it's down to that's all we're being offered, referring to last week's negotiating session between Kewaskum School District support staff and the School Board's Negotiations Committee.

The committee is offering us a 4.4% monetary increase, two snow days, two additional holidays for part time employees and an increase in our insurance. We asked if we could have a few minutes to discuss the proposal (without the committee present) but Board President Tom Brigham said "no" because that is all they were going to offer, said McGuire. We thought if we offered to drop the request for snow days we could have worked out a better increase but we weren't given the opportunity. The way it stands now, it looks like we're going to accept the offer.

The wage increase and benefit changes bring the total package to 7.03% which will cost the district about $45,850.

McGuire had questioned the 5 1/2% offered to the administrators recently. She was informed that the total cost for their package came to 6.25% as compared to the 7.03% for support staff.

McGuire said Tuesday, that some of the staff were satisfied to at least get some kind of raise while others were disappointed that the group's request for sick days and added vacation were dropped.

Ratification of both the administration contracts and support staff offer are expected to be approved at the October 14th School Board meeting.

New Coast to Coast Store Open for Business

Dick Schroeder, owner of the new Coast to Coast Hardware Store in Kewaskum Mall.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Kewaskum's new Coast To Coast Hardware store, in the Kewaskum Mall, opened its doors to customers last Wednesday.

The business is owned and operated by Dick and Loretta Schroeder of Campbellsport who have run the Coast To Coast store in that community for the past nine years. "It's a family operation," said Schroeder, "and we will continue to operate both the Kewaskum and Campbellsport stores. Beside my wife, our son Steve and our daughters Lisa and Susan will be working with us. Once we get going, we'll probably have some part time help."

Schroeder is busily preparing for the store's Grand Opening which is scheduled for Tuesday, October 1st, at 6:00 p.m. A feature of the opening will be a drawing for several door prizes, said Schroeder.

Hours for the new store are, 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Saturdays, and 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Sundays.

"We've been looking forward to opening the store and becoming part of the community," said Schroeder, "and we sincerely hope people like our new store."

Sison Rezoning Request Tabled

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Plan Commission faced a very light agenda Tuesday evening after Dr. Cesar Sison's rezoning request was removed from the agenda and tabled until next month's meeting.

Village Administrator Dan

Schmidt said, delays in completing survey maps and other necessary data caused Sison to delay his appearance before the commission regarding his proposed 43-unit residential building.

In other action, the commission reviewed a cadastral map of the village and found several revisions which must be made before it can be approved.

Schmidt will bring the revised map back for approval during next month's meeting.

The commission also reviewed and approved and updated Floodland Zoning map for the village.

Bike-a-Thon Postponed to This Saturday

The St. Jude Wheels for Life Bike-a-Thon which was scheduled here for Saturday, Sept. 21, was postponed due to inclement weather. It will be held this Saturday, Sept. 28.

The ride starts at River Hill Park at 9:00 a.m. and will go down Hwy. S, turn down S until Mill Road, go south until Moraine Drive and back to the park; approximately five miles. If you haven't been asked to sponsor a rider, but are interested, please call 626-2444 and a rider will contact you.

Each rider gets a lap card at registration. Every time riders pass the checkpoint the card is initialed. At the end of the ride, it is checked and signed to show that the rider earned what the sponsor pledged. Riders then return to the sponsor to collect the pledge.

Let them know you care. By supporting the Wheels for Life Bike-a-Thon Saturday, September 28th, you'll be sending the message loud and clear. Childhood cancer can be cured. Join hands with St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital and Kewaskum. Your generous pledge encourages the bike riders while demonstrating to children with Leukemia, Hodgkins and Neuroblastoma your friendship is real. Say yes to Wheels for Life.

KICK THE HABIT

If you want to kick the smoking habit, chew and enjoy sunflower seeds - the ideal substitute for smoking, because the seeds have a comparable effect on smokers as tobacco, without the metabolic unrest. Sunflower seeds provide brain energy, stimulate the various glands, and help ease allergic reactions. Their oils are calming to the nerves and their high quality B-complex vitamins are beneficial. Pop a handful of sunflower seeds when you feel the urge to smoke.

To Howard, With Love

Howard, I know you're gone from this earthly place, but I know you're up there... up there in your blue overalls with that red Moorman hat tipped cockily to the side, and laughing. Laughing. That's how I always think of you.

You came into my life at a low point. Newly married, new to Kewaskum, my world consisted of the ski hill, my new husband and our dog "Casey." I wanted to "make a home and be a wife" but there wasn't a place to be found. No where. No one was willing to accept "outsiders" and with a dog yet. We met Howard and Irene. They took a chance. They let the outsiders move in above them-- even the dog.

Howard, that first night will always be in my memory. You invited us to stay. We talked and talked and talked, and laughed and laughed and laughed. We moved in.

Poor Howard. That scrawny little girl, who was 1500 miles from home lived upstairs. She pestered him, she followed him, she asked a million questions "why?" about farming and animals, and crops and everything. You tolerated my loving insistence that the cats at the farm weren't treated well enough. I'd come down at milking time to watch, and always sneak them extra milk. You always knew. They all needed names, didn't they? All 25 of them. Remember when "Tigger," the favorite got done in by the corn picker. You were gentle, even though I was furious with you for not watching for the cats. Howard, you were so patient with me. You were the father I missed so much, who was so far away.

Howard, when it was a scorcher out and I was hot and irritable, I remember you coming out of the house, broadly smiling and saying, "It's a gin and sour day." And the day would suddenly be better. I was crazy you thought, but I knew you loved me. Even when I took that little sick kitten to the vet, spent a fortune, and nursed it back to health. You knew I was crazy when I raised that little gopher with an eyedropper and fed it formula until it was strong enough to go on its own. Even then I didn't trust those farmers, so I drove it to the Wildlife Refuge in Milwaukee and gave it to the nuns there. Howard, you were so patient with me.

"Come on in, sit down for a beer." You never got over that I didn't like beer, wouldn't drink it, but you still offered it, even years later, laughing, and then give me a soda or some wine. Those nights would usually end up until 1:00 a.m. around the kitchen table. What great memories!

I think about all the times I stopped at the kitchen window, on my way upstairs, and knocking on it. It always made you jump. I always laughed and hollered, "hello Howard." You always came to the window or outside and we'd stand there for another hour talking and laughing.

I've been married almost ten years now. I have two children of my own. But I still think of your marriage. You and Irene loved each other more than any other people I've ever seen. You raised a family which radiates with love and respect for each other. I've never seen a couple or a family love each other more. It's true you're not here anymore, but the love and kindness you gave to me, the memories, and legacy of laughter that is mine through knowing you cannot ever be taken from any of us who knew and loved you.

With Heartfelt love,
Robby

Editor's note-- The above tribute is paid to Howard Butzlaff of 8540 Sandy Ridge Road, Kewaskum, who passed away last Wednesday, September 18. It was written by Robby Smith, who with her husband, Tom, ran the Sunburst Ski Hill before they moved out west three years ago. In her letter, Mrs. Smith added, "when I heard of Howard Butzlaff's passing, I was indeed sad. Howard and Irene were such very good friends to us when we first moved to Kewaskum in 1976. They offered us a home, and more than that, friendship. There was a side of Howard that I don't think a lot of the townspeople knew, or very few."

Farmington School Begins Nutrition Education Campaign

Explore the world of food. That's the idea behind a new program for students at the Farmington Elementary School. The program, called TASTE...Your Choice, starts on October 14, and is designed to encourage children to select a variety of foods from each of the four food groups.

The TASTE...Your Choice program will be directed by Mrs. Jean Krahn, Farmington School, who heads the school food service at the school. And it will be carried out with the cooperation of the administration and faculty.

Scientific studies have shown that children who are encouraged to try new foods early in life are more likely to make wise food choices as adults. The TASTE...Your Choice program provides students with an opportunity to try foods which may be new to them.

An entire TASTE...Your Choice campaign will get an official kick-off when huge banners go up in the school cafeteria. The banners feature the campaign slogan, "Explore the World of Food with your Taste Buddies." The Taste Buddies are five adventurous cartoon kids who also appear on posters and other campaign materials.

The posters, teacher communication materials and student activities will be used together to give students the opportunity to really taste and learn about new foods.

Woman's Club Plans Gourmet Dinner for Members and Guests

The G.F.W.C. Kewaskum Women's Club will once again hold their "Gourmet Gathering" in the Peace Church fellowship hall on October 10, at 6:30 p.m. Chairmen for the dinner will be Jeanne Goeden, Ruth Gruhle and Ruth Schmitt.

Appetizers and punch will be served before the dinner, giving members and their guests time to bid on items in the Silent Auction. Dues will also be collected before dinner is served.

An oriental theme is planned for the decorations and dinner. Guests are always welcome. A door prize will be given as a result of purchasing a beautiful piece of china from Gay Bendixen.

The cost of the dinner is $4.50 per person. Reservations should be made by phoning Jeanne Goeden (334-9549), Ruth Schmitt (338-6964) or Ruth Gruhle (626-2865) by October 3.

area of the park with open beer cans. When questioned in the incident, one of the youths 18, lied to the officer regarding his age. As a result, he was required to put up a bond of $182.50 for falsely stating his age, and a second bond of $67.50 for possession of a fermented malt beverage.

The second man, 19, was required to put up a bond of $67.50 for providing the fermented beverage to the first youth.

Hlavaty said the youths were apparently among several students who had been excused early from the high school so they could attend a rock concert. The Chief indicated the department had come across several of the students in the park during the afternoon. Hlavaty noted that the information he had received indicated the concert wasn't even supposed to start until 8:00 p.m. that night.

The high test performance of Commended Students is indicative of exceptional scholastic ability, which is essential in a nation that prides itself on cultivating individual excellence. We hope the honor these students have earned will provide motivation for them to use their talents to the fullest and also will serve as an example for other aspiring young citizens."

Participants entered the current Merit Program by taking the PSAT/NMSQT in October 1984, when most of them were juniors. Although their qualifying test scores are very high, the 35,000 Commended Students nationwide scored slightly below the level required for Semifinalist standing. Only the 15,000 Semifinalists, whose names were announced on September 11, will continue in the competition for some 5,800 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1986.

KHS Science Department Views Changes

Science is an ever-changing field that requires updated knowledge in such things as computer technology, new discoveries, and advances in the physical and natural world. Five Kewaskum High School teachers meet this challenge every day.

Gene LaMarche, the most experienced teacher, has been teaching since 1950. LaMarche received his Masters in Biology from St. Mary's College. He also attended the University of Ripon, Minnesota, UW-Oshkosh, UW-Stevens Point and UW-Milwaukee. LaMarche feels science is the discovery of facts in the real world in which the application makes life more tenable.

Walt Bade, also teaching since 1950, received his Masters from UW-Madison. Bade thinks science is becoming very technical because of new findings and that means more education for the general population. Bade stated, "There aren't too many unskilled jobs anymore." Bade plans to "keep on teaching for several more years in good old room 157."

Chet Czoschke, a 25 year veteran, attended Oshkosh where he received his Masters in Biology. Czoschke feels advances in science will come from exploration of life on other planets, mechanical replacements of body parts and a cure for the common cold. He stated, "some day there will be a cure for cancer, no question about it."

Jerry Gosa, a graduate from

Oshkosh, plans to continue teaching. Gosa, who is reasonably happy with his teaching career, believes computers aid science in many ways. He said, "The use of microcomputers are used in experimental work, for inter-phasing, and even for storing and printing data."

The newest member of the science department is Bill Lickel, a graduate of Stevens Point in 1982. He is presently working on his Masters degree in Biology. Lickel believes science is headed for a genetic engineering breakthrough. His goal is to "teach a lot of factual information and to get students to think logically and clearly."

LaMarche, Bade, Czoschke, Gosa and Lickel all have the experience and knowledge to provide a well rounded science department that is capable of handling new advances in the science field.

Letters to the Editor

September 23, 1985

Kewaskum Statesman
250 Main Street
Kewaskum, WI 53040

In a recent "Letter to the Editor," Clara Trapp referred to several telephone conversations she had with Dick Peterson from the D.P.I.

In an effort to clarify the situation, following is a letter from Mr. Peterson to Mrs. Trapp concerning the "advice" he gave to her.

Sincerely,

Penelope Kleinhans
Kewaskum Schools
District Administrator

Madison, WI 53707
September 13, 1985

Ms. Clara Trapp
Route 1
Adell, WI 53001

Dear Ms. Trapp:

After reviewing the contents of your September 5, 1985, mailing, it appears a response is necessary to clarify some apparent misunderstandings.

In our initial phone conversation some weeks ago and in subsequent calls, you posed several questions relative to local governmental issues.

You voiced extreme disagreement with some recent decisions of the Kewaskum Board of Education. You also stated you represented the town of Scott and were going to pursue some undefined actions.

I suggested that before pursuing any action, you request a meeting with Ms. Kleinhans and possibly the president of the Kewaskum school board for the purpose of discussing your concerns about the decisions in question. The suggestion was made in hopes that your concerns could be clarified and the matter could be closed with no further need to pursue some future action.

At no time did I suggest who should attend such a meeting other than you, Ms. Kleinhans and the president of the school board. I also did not indicate that such a meeting was mandatory.

You are correct that I did not suggest the names of any people to be included in a meeting with Ms. Kleinhans and the school board president. My only advice was for you to request such a meeting. The decision as to who else might attend the meeting was yours to make.

In a later conversation, you informed me who might be attending your requested meeting. I suggested posting the meeting as it appeared a possibility a quorum of the Scott town board might appear at the meeting. This suggestion was made to ensure that the Scott board could legally meet in the event a quorum of the members attended.

In all our conversations I attempted to respond in an effort to be helpful by suggesting various alternatives. At no time did I indicate that the alternatives were mandatory. The essence of our conversations dealt with possible ways to keep good communication at the local level. All of the issues to be discussed were local matters and needed to be dealt with at the local level.

I hope these brief statements help clarify the intent of my conversations with you.

Sincerely yours,

Richard Peterson

Dear Editor,

The Kewaskum High School Student Government feels that in an effort to reduce the levy for the 1985-86 school year, the school board has proposed some cuts that, if maintained, would be very detrimental to the student body.

The student government has prepared a list of cuts that we think are unacceptable. These include:

$35,000 worth of computers, many of which were for the elementary schools.

The middle school play. Some of the money for Olympics of the Mind and the Academic Decathlon.

$7,000 for microscopes.

Money for some textbooks.

The student government at Kewaskum High School hopes the board will find some way to add these academic items back into the budget.

Sincerely,

Kewaskum High School
Student Government

A letter to the Editor:

I think all of us "Kewaskumites" can be very proud of our village and its appearance, and I think most of the thanks should go to Augie Bilgo, Jr. and his crew of workers.

They do an excellent job and Augie never hesitates to work right alongside of them when needed.

Thanks guys!

NOW Chapter to Feature Guest Speaker

The North Suburban Chapter of the National Organization for Women will hold its October meeting on Friday, October 4, at 8 p.m., at the Cedarburg State Bank, N61 W6312 Turner. Mary Jo Runno will give a slide/talk presentation about her two years as a nurse in Africa. Mary Jo's experiences in Uganda and Kenya point up a serious lack of medical attention for the men and children of those countries as well as for the women. The well-publicized famine in Africa is not the only threat of life that these people face daily; diseases without cure, and shortages of medical personnel also take their toll.

Anyone needing transportation or wishing accompaniment to the meeting, please call Marge Freshwaters, 228-8339.

Kewaskum Residents Welcome Foreign Visitors

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Thirteen travelers, nine women and four men, from widely scattered countries of the world called Kewaskum home for a couple of days recently as they began a three-week tour of the United States.

Under the leadership of Doug Strack, who works as a guide for Trek America, the group will be camping and sightseeing across the country from New York to California.

Marrisa Degivilo, Sally Knight, Gill Maxey and Paul

Roche of England, Norbert Ottinger and Jochen Fisher of Germany, Susan Hunn, Dieter Lehmann and Bettina Klink of Switzerland, Gail Sloane and Heather Fairish of Australia, Carola Dijk of Holland and Gilit Arazi from Israel, were the house guests of Doug's parents, Roger and Cordell Strack, 1243 Meadow Lane, Kewaskum, while they were in the area.

"This is the fourth time Doug has brought a group here and it's always an enjoyable experience," said Cordell. "This was a very interesting group of young people since they came from several countries. Other groups have been from just one or two countries. Our house is sort of a neutral ground because, until three days before they arrived here, the thirteen were complete strangers to each other. Here, they had a chance to become better acquainted."

The group's age ranged from 21 to 35, and their occupations varied from a school teacher, to a young woman who milks cows in a kibbutz (cooperative farming group) in Israel.

During their stay, the visitors spent time in the Kettle Moraine State Forest, stopping at Long Lake, and going horseback riding near Mauthe Lake. "One girl owned her own horse, but the rest came back a little stiff because it was their first time on a horse," said Mrs. Strack.

After their ride, Doug took his charges on a tour of the Floyd and Laura Klug farm on Highway D. Gilit Arazi, the young woman who milks cows in Israel, was very interested in the Klug's dairy operation and farming in America. "In Israel we have computerized milking parlors," said Arazi.

The tourists ended their Kewaskum stay with a cook-out at the Strack home. "I ran out of brats," said Cordell. "They really seemed to enjoy the meal, I guess because the food was different and new to them. I made a seven-layer salad and several of the girls asked for the recipe."

From Kewaskum, the group headed west, looking forward to many more stops including the Badlands, Mount Rushmore, Yosemite, Yellowstone, San Francisco and finally Los Angeles, where they will complete their tour and return to their respective countries.

Hi Kewaskum! The Floyd Klug farm was one of the first stops on a three-week visit to the U.S. for 13 European tourists who will be camping and sightseeing from New York to California under the guidance of Doug Strack, son of Roger and Cordell Strack of Kewaskum.

Australian Gail Sloane made friends with two Kewaskum calves who were looking for a snack.

A calf was just as curious about Marrisa Degivilo of England as she was about it.

There's no stopping the "call of nature" even when you have foreign guests observing the evening milking chores.

McGruff the Crime Dog, and Smokey the Bear recently visited Ruth Huebner's 2nd and 3rd graders at St. Lucas Lutheran School.

"THRILLERS, DILLERS AND CHILLERS," was the Beechwood Elementary School summer library theme. There are 58 ghosts on the haunted house and in the windows and doors — one ghost for each reader. 801 bats are on the bulletin board, representing the 801 books read by the children.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

With the first of October in a few days, it sure makes me feel good to know that the girls of the Kewaskum area have registered and paid their dues on time. It is great that the girls here have a chance to belong to the largest girl organization in the world.

Now is the time for the scout to give a thought to doing something extra for themselves. This year as in the past there will be the opportunity for a scout to work on a religious award program. The only real requirement is that she belong to a church and be a registered Girl Scout for this year.

The Protestant and Lutheran girls will have a program available to them under the leadership of Janet Panzer. For information call her at 626-4001.

The Catholic girls will have a religious awards program available to them under the leadership of Vivian Stommel. There will be general meeting for all girls interested in the Catholic awards on Monday September 30 at 5:15 p.m. at Holy Trinity Church basement. A parent is asked to attend at this time in order to sign a consent form and pay the cost of $2.75 for the textbook.

One important other activity that I have noticed since I arrived in Kewaskum is how the scouts are always ready to lend a helping hand. This week you could see all over town how the scouts were busy handing out flyers for the Blood Drive which will take place on October 2.

It proves one thing and that is if you want a job done the scouts are always on hand.

The Indian Princess Twirlettes: Moving Into a New Year with Confidence

[First in a series]

Another year has quickly come and gone. For the Indian Princess Twirlettes, this means one thing - that a new, challenging year of fun and excitement is waiting just around the corner! Yes, September is the month for registration - any girl grades K-6 within the Kewaskum School District are eligible to become a member of the Indian Princess Twirlettes. As a member of the corp, one is reminded of the corp objective:

The purpose of this corp is to give each girl a chance to twirl baton, gain coordination, meet new friends and to work toward Middle and High School twirling. Yet, the main objective is that each child should be able to gain respect for and acquire the value of good showmanship. It is essential that each child is willing to have patience with themselves and other members to learn, and to enjoy being a part of such a thrilling experience. It is important for each girl to work together hand in hand to gain a sense of corp unity. This year we will strictly enforce our rules and regulations so that such an attitude can be attained. We are looking forward to this new year of fun and excitement - Please share it with us!!

Parents, if your child is interested in taking baton lessons, give us a try! For more information about the corp, call Julie Wenzlaff (334-5409). This year's deadline for registration is Monday, October 7th.

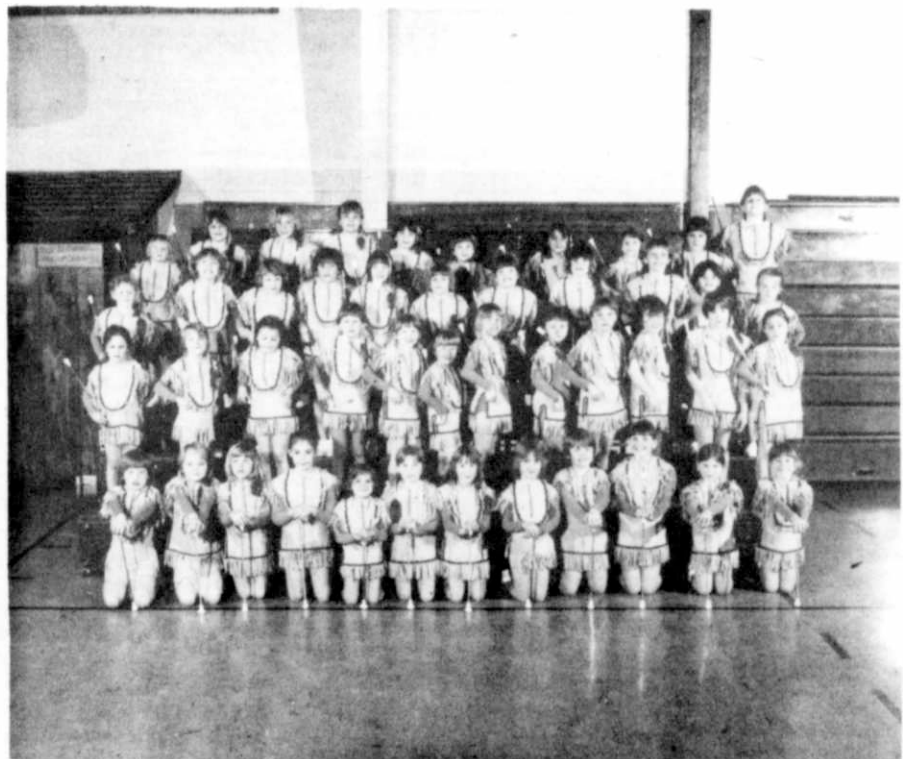

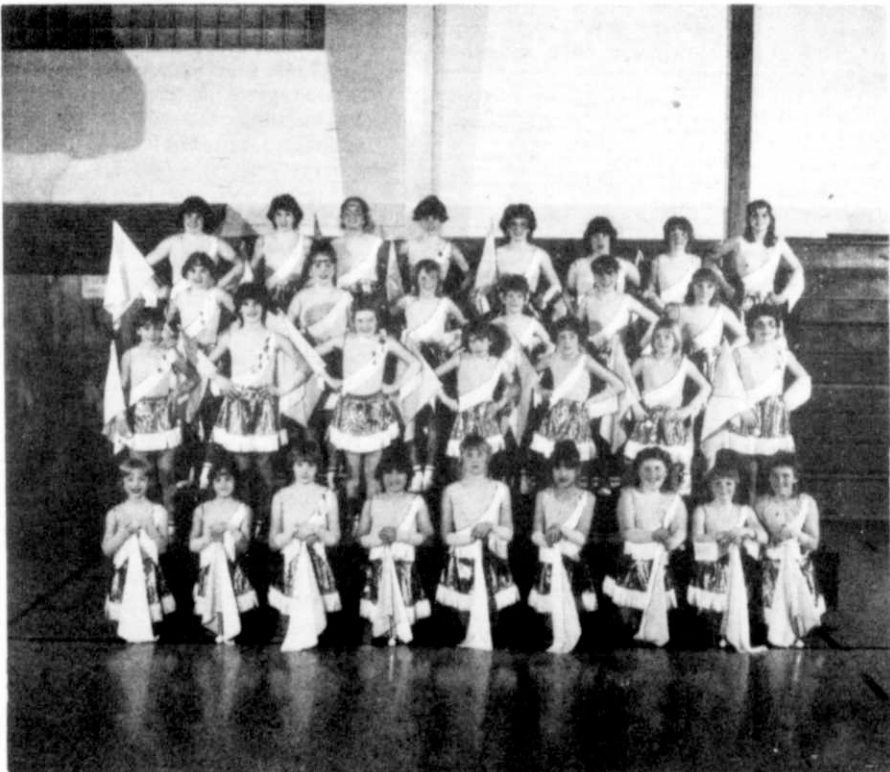

It is a policy of the corp to look back at past events for inspiration or to learn from past mistakes. Last year was a busy one for corp improvement. We were happy to announce that the corp has expanded from giving lessons at just two elementary schools, Farmington and Beechwood, to giving lessons at all four schools including Kewaskum and

Wayne. Due to this expansion, the corp decided to provide new uniforms. With the help of our uniform manager, Terri Zimdars, and several other devoted parents, the uniforms were designed, the materials were purchased and the challenging process of making them had begun. It took our crew of helpers almost five months to cut the patterns, sew up the seams, cut the fringe, sew on the ric rac, sew on the sequins and beads by hand, and many other tasks that needed to be accomplished. Many times our devoted crew would stay up all night to finish something that was needed for the next day.

To have new uniforms, we realized that we needed financial help from the parents to provide for their daughter's body suit and flag baton until the corp built up enough money through fund raising to pay them back. Thanks to all the parents and devoted helpers, the Indian Princess Twirlettes now have a new look!

Now let's take a look at the Indian Princess Twirlettes 1984-85!

Autumn in Wisconsin... Colorful Splendor

By Ronda Allen

Autumn in Wisconsin means apples, cranberries and pumpkin pies. It's a time for festivals, football games, leafy smells and color galore! As you wind through the Badger State's woods, bluffs, and rolling countryside this fall season 1985, keep in mind that colorful splendor you look forward to year after year is the result of some very complex coordination in "Mother Nature's" Season Change Department.

First she sends out Jack Frost, but warns not to "nip" too deeply. The air must be chilled to just above freezing to start the coloring process. During growing season the leaves are filled with green chlorophyll and pigments. When temperatures drop, chlorophyll production stops and the color pigments are unmasked. Next, she adds an abundance of bright sunny days to the fall color mix, then a seasonal pinch of rain and voila! Mother Nature has created a brilliant natural plate that will dazzle Wisconsin tourists.

The coloring process itself is fascinating. Those crisp yellows that we get from poplar, some beech and most birches mean the leaves have few tannins. An abundance of these brownish compounds will cast a brownish-yellow color in certain species of oak and beech trees.

The vibrant reds are the stars of Wisconsin's fall color scene. This is where the sunshine comes in. Sunlight converts sugars that have been trapped in certain leaves into anthocyanins. The more anthocyanins a leaf has, the deeper the red and purple hues. Our Wisconsin maples and sumac are "outstanding in their fields" with these shades of brilliance.

It should be noted that not all trees shimmer with color in their autumn transition. Giants like the willow, alder, elder and some oaks are relatively colorless. But mixed with the entire spectrum, their neutral shades add a rich dimension to a photographer's depth of field.

When the leaves begin to fall, it's more than gravity that brings them floating and swirling down to lawns, fields and forest beds. At the base of each leaf where it connects to the tree's stem are abscission cells. When the growing season ends and the leaves begin to dry out, these cells shrink and release the leaf from the stem. Once again, some trees do not conform to the norm. The mighty oak, for instance, never develops abscission cells and like other desiduous trees, its leaves hang on into winter until they are "weathered" off their stems.

Since rich fall color in Wisconsin depends on dry weather conditions, plenty of sunshine and crisp, but not freezing temperatures, it should be noted that peak color can be enjoyed at different times statewide, in northern Wisconsin color gets top billing mid to late September. Tourists to Central Wisconsin can expect peak color in late September to mid October. Southern Wisconsin visitors will get the full spectrum in early to late October. Even weeks after these general "peaks" have passed, there frequently are pockets of spectacular color remaining to surprise the late visitor.

Highlights in the north include breathtaking vistas along Lake Superior's shoreline, (Highways 13 & 2); Chequamegon National Forest, Flambeau River State Forest, Copper Falls State Park and Pattison Falls State Park (take Highways 3, 13, 27, 53, 63, 70, & 35); Nicolet National Forest, Northern Highland and American Legion State Forest (take Highways 51, 17, 47, 55, 32, & 141).

To the north and east along Lake Michigan's shores, glorious colorama can be seen from Green Bay and Door County all the way south to Kenosha and Racine. Take Highways 42 and 57 out to the Door County peninsula, then south on Highway 43 and 31.

Tourists won't want to miss Wisconsin's Kettle Moraine in the southeastern section of the state. And those blaze oranges, crimsons and yellows can be seen from high viewing points at Holy Hill, south of Hartford, Parnell Tower, near Plymouth, and Lapham Peak outside Delafield. For a panoramic view of the Wisconsin River Valley, visitors are invited to take in the beauty from Rib Mountain State Park in Wausau, then wind south around Waupaca's chain of lakes to Hartman Creek State Park. The Baraboo Range and Wisconsin River bluff country along Highways 78 and 60, clothed in autumn finery, are two outstanding fall color regions in southern Wisconsin. Other bright spots are Blue Mound, Wyallusing, Nelson Dewey and Governor Dodge State Parks and oak-clad hills around sparkling Lake Geneva.

As you travel, treat yourself to the fine quality food products available along our scenic routes. Wisconsin apples are crisp and juicy, and Wisconsin honey is unbeatable. Cranberries, fruit jelly, and of course, several kinds of world-famous Wisconsin cheese make any fall trip more enjoyable.

Bikers will enjoy Wisconsin's fall beauty on any of the six dedicated bike trails statewide and on hundreds of miles of trails that wind through all seven Wisconsin tourism regions. For bicycle trail information, contact the Wisconsin Department of Transportation and ask for the new Wisconsin Bicycle Escape Guides. They are available at a cost from: The Wisconsin Department of Transportation, Document & Map Sales, 3617 Piersoff Street, Madison, WI 53704 or call 608/246-3265. Hikers will enjoy exploring the wonders of autumn in Wisconsin's 58 state parks and forests and along the state's 32 designated rustic roads.

For complete Wisconsin Fall Color information call 1-800-ESCAPES and be sure to ask for the brand new Wisconsin Fall/Winter Escape guide; or write: Wisconsin Division of Tourism, P. O. Box 7606, Madison, WI 53707.

State Offers Amnesty to Delinquent Taxfilers

By Senator Don Stitt

The new budget contains a controversial "tax amnesty program" that began this month. This program was inserted into the budget by the Earl Administration and is sure to provoke complaints.

Currently, 80,000 people and businesses owe state taxes. The penalty for failure to file a tax return was recently increased to a maximum $10,000 fine and nine months in jail from a $500 fine and six months in jail.

Under this program, those people and businesses who have not paid their taxes on time receive a chance to admit their delinquency, pay up at a discount and avoid prosecution. To pay up, delinquents must apply to the State Revenue Department for amnesty. The Department will calculate taxes due and send a bill. The delinquent then has 90 days to pay in full.

The goal of this program is to recover state revenue lost through failure to pay state taxes from income, sales, inheritance, liquor, motor fuel, etc. State revenue experts estimate this program could increase tax revenues by $11 million.

Twelve other states have tax amnesty programs. Wisconsin's program began September 15th and will end November 22nd.

Under the program, there will be no criminal prosecutions, civil penalties or late filing fees for those delinquents who participate in the program. In addition, they will receive a 20% discount from the amount due up to $5,000. This discount will not be available for those with unknown tax bills. They will be charged 12 percent interest on their unpaid taxes.

This program will undoubtedly upset the many taxpayers who take careful steps to file their tax returns timely and accurately. Earl Administration officials admit this concern, but contend that the benefits of increased revenues and stiffer penalties far outweigh this concern.

Please feel free to contact me, Senator Don Stitt, P.O. Box 7882, Madison, Wisconsin 53707 or call my office at 608-266-7513 or leave a message with the Legislative Hotline at 1-800-362-9696.

Sensenbrenner Visits Central America

Representative F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr., (R-Menomonee Falls) made a trip to El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica to reassess and update himself on the situation in Central America. The Ninth District Congressman made a similar trip to the areas in 1983.

Sensenbrenner traveled on this privately sponsored trip with Congressman Mike DeWine (R-Ohio) who is a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee.

The Congressmen were briefed by the American Ambassadors of each country. Sensenbrenner, a member of the Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Refugees and International Law, was briefed by the U.S. Ambassador to Costa Rica, Malcomb Tambs, on the refugee situation in that country.

Regarding Nicaragua, Sensenbrenner remarked, "During my 1983 trip I met with President Ortega. At that time, he informed me of his plans to continue to export revolution from Nicaragua to surrounding areas. In light of his recent trip to the Soviet Union where he received $200 million from Moscow, I was interested to see how these funds have been utilized."

The Congressmen met with embassy staff, government officials, and private citizens.

The trip was made from 19th to 23rd of September.

Rain Doesn't Dampen Trapshoot Enthusiasm

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The New Fane Sportsman's Club had to face some rain in the morning and competition from the Packer game in the afternoon but all in all, it was a pretty successful day for our trapshoot, said club member Bob Manthei.

We had about a hundred people come out and we had to get some extra turkeys because we ran short, so I would say that it was a pretty good turnout considering the club hasn't held any shoots for the last seven or eight years.

Former Long Lake Players to Be Inducted

Rock River League Oldtimers' Hall of Fame Banquet Oct. 12

Pat Dobson, former Milwaukee Brewers pitching coach and a major league righthander with 122 victories, will be the feature speaker at the Rock River League Oldtimers' Association 6th Annual Hall of Fame Banquet on Saturday night, Oct. 12th.

He'll anchor the after-dinner program at the Mayville Golf Club that opens with induction of six past Rock River stars into its Hall of Fame, followed by the posthumous enshrinement of the late Bob Mullen, then a barrage of honors that'll be given retiring league umpire Tony Notheis, 72, of Beaver Dam in recognition of his 50 consecutive years service.

The six inductees are: Glenn Dhein, player and long-time successful manager at Slinger (1946-64); Bill Justman, an outstanding pitcher-outfielderslugger at Rubicon from 1958 to '69; Norm Kutz, a standout catcher-outfielder at Long Lake (1953-78) and before that in the Kettle Moraine League; Elmo Pomplun, Waupun's stellar second sacker (1962-75) and 1950-61 with Westfield in the Central State league, and Rudy Radloff, who spent most of his memorable time at first base for Hustisford (1946-61).

Mullen, who had some playing time in the old Wisconsin State Class C pro league, was an outstanding first baseman and relief pitcher at Long Lake in the 1950's and 60's. He consistently batted among the league's top ten.

Notheis' continuous half century in the 57-year-old Rock River is thought to be a state and possible national record for which claims are being instituted at this time with the Guinness Book of Records.

Dobson, 43, is recognized as an "entertaining-type speak-

Pat's majors career began in 1967 with Detroit and lasted thru the 1977 season at Cleveland. His best years (1971-72) were with Baltimore where he posted a 36-26 record and a 2.78 ERA.

Pat handled most of the pitching coach chores in 1982 when regular coach Cal McLish was sidelined with myasthenia gravis and the Brewers won the American League title.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Lance Luedtke, who passed away three years ago, September 27, 1982.

Those we love go out of sight,
 But never out of mind;
 They are cherished in the hearts,
 Of those they left behind.
 The happy house we once enjoyed,
 How sweet the memory still;
 Death has left a loneliness,
 The world can never fill.

Sadly missed by relatives and friends

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our daughter, Laura Stange, and Mike Ruplinger, who lost their lives Sept. 24, 1982.

We knew not when we awoke that day,
 What sorrow it would bring.
 Death came so suddenly that night,
 To two we loved so dear.
 But left us with memories,
 To treasure and hold forever in our hearts.

Loved and missed by the Ronald Stange family.

Snagging Prohibited In Sheboygan County

Anglers who are planning to snag trout and salmon along Lake Michigan are reminded that beginning this fall, snagging is prohibited in all streams along the Lake Michigan shoreline in Sheboygan County, according to Doug Hoskins, assistant district Conservation Warden for the Department of Natural Resources' Southeast District.

"We received petitions from Sheboygan County residents, the city of Sheboygan and the Village of Kohler to close the county to snagging," explained Hoskins. "Although there is no biological reason for the ban, many people are ethically opposed to snagging trout and salmon. As a result, DNR decided to close Sheboygan County to snagging beginning this year."

The snagging season runs from October 1 through November 15 along many Lake Michigan tributaries up to the first dam and along certain portions of the Lake Michigan shoreline. Portions of the following counties will be open to snagging October 1: Door, Kewaunee, Manitowoc, Marinette, Oconto, Milwaukee and Kenosha.

"We urge persons who intend to snag trout and salmon this fall to consult the fishing regulations for specific locations where snagging is permitted," added Hoskins.

Meeting to Discuss Restoration of Wild Turkey in Kettle Moraine Southern Unit

An informational meeting to discuss restoration of the eastern wild turkey to the Southern Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest will be held on Wednesday, October 2nd, 7:00 p.m. in Room B201, Waukesha County Technical Institute, one mile north of Interstate 94 on Highway 16.

The discussion will cover several topics, including a brief history of the wild turkey in Wisconsin and reasons for the failure of past restoration attempts involving game farm turkeys.

The reintroduction of wild turkeys in Southwest Wisconsin has been highly successful," according to Mark Anderson, Wildlife Manager stationed at Eagle. "We believe that similar conditions at the Southern Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest will also make restoration successful."

The program will also discuss on how the success or failure of the stocking efforts will be measured.

Farmington School Pupils Participate In Intramurals

By Chuck Voge

Approximately 35 fifth and sixth graders at the Farmington Elementary School are learning basic golf skills through the intramural program being coached by Dan Beske and Marlene Domasky.

After a three week course on basic golf skills taught on the school grounds, the young golfers will move up to an afternoon at Hon-E-Kor to play as many holes they can get in during the time allotted to them. The purpose of this program is to expose the kids to some of the sports which make up a large part of the social environment that they will some day be expected to function in as adults.

Program directors would welcome any donations of either new or used golf clubs and golf balls that interested parties would like to make. Donations are all tax deductible. Mike Miller, program director of the intramural program for the entire elementary school system has the information on how to apply for the tax deductions. Donated items can be dropped off at the Farmington School.

St. Lucas Boys Back On Winning Track

The St. Lucas 76'ers got back on the winning track last Thursday with a 15-9 victory over David's Star Lutheran School of Jackson. Ater suffering losses to Bethany Hustisford and an overtime loss to Good Shepherd of West Bend, the 76'ers just got by the Thunderbolts of David's Star in an exciting contest.

The victory was highlighted once again by the fleet-footed sixth grader Kris Munson. Sparking offensive "Big Plays" and very tough defense earmarked this victory. The offensive charge was led by Doug Stern who hit Kris Munson with passes of 45 and 15 yards which both resulted in St. Lucas scores. Stern also hit David Kertstcher on a pass for a successful conversion attempt. The defensive charge was led by a "hungry" David Garvey who helped sack the David's Star quarterback for a timely safety.

This week the 76'ers travel to Fond du Lac to face Redeemer and then return to the "76'er Bowl" for their final game of the year on Monday, Sept. 30th when they host Redeemer of Fond du Lac. The final game will start about 4:15 p.m. Hope to see you there!

St. Lucas Opens Girls' Volleyball Season

The St. Lucas girls' volleyball team opened its 1985 season this past Wednesday, September 25th. This year the 76'er squad will be, once again, under the helm of Miss Ruth Huebner. This year's team brings a host of experienced players led by eighth graders Dani Brazee and Jessica Schmidt. With this in mind, coach Huebner and her hustling gals look for good things during the 1985 season.

The St. Lucas volleyball schedule consists of five league games, as well as participation in a season-ending league tournament held at Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School in Jackson. The home games will once again be played at the Kewaskum Middle School gym. This year's home games are: October 2nd vs. St. John's, Newburg, and October 8th vs. Calvary Thiensville.

Both contests should start about 4:00 p.m. Come out and cheer the hustling girls in the Red, White, and Blue!

Strong Plymouth Team Blanks Indians, 20-0

The Kewaskum varsity football team lost their third straight game Friday night when the Indians took to the road against undefeated Plymouth in their first conference game.

The 20 to 0 score really isn't a good indication of the effort put forth by the Indian squad. Early in the first half the Kewaskum team put together a really good scoring drive only to have it stopped at about the Plymouth 30 yard line. From there they tried a field goal that missed. From that point on the Panthers were able to just plain wear the Indians down with their depth from the bench.

The defensive play of Jack Aupperle and Mike Coulter was everything a coach could hope for.

The Panthers fielded an exceptionally big offensive line, however, Kewaskum did a good job of keeping their attack in check until later in the second half. Then as game fatigue took its toll the Panthers were able to open large holes in the Indian line and put the game out of reach.

Although the Indians have many veteran varsity players that have returned for the '85 season they are all rookies in a way by virtue of the new offensive system recently installed by head coach Fran Charland. Learning the new plan of attack has set the Indians back about a week with respect to where other conference teams are at this point in the season.

Plymouth rolled up 280 yards rushing in whipping Kewaskum. The Indian offense never got untracked against the Panthers. Tim Rohlinger gained 23 yards to lead the Indians.

Plymouth used one drive and two long plays in which to score three touchdowns in shutting out Kewaskum.

A 47-yard punt by Rohlinger in the first quarter set Plymouth back on its three-yard line and they had to turn the ball back over to the Indians on the Panther 37. The Indians picked up one first down but then on fourth down on the next series they went for a field goal by Tim Dettmann, which missed.

Then Plymouth began a 12-play scoring drive covering 81 yards. Jeff Brinkman scored the touchdown on a run from four yards out. The extra point try was no good, making it 6-0.

It looked like the half might end that way with a couple of minutes left. Plymouth started 91 yards from the Indians' goal line. The Panthers then completed one of their only two completions in the game. Brinkman teamed up with wingback Todd Struve for a 15-yarder which turned into a 78-yard score after Rohlinger missed the tackle. A two-point conversion gave Plymouth a 14-0 advantage with 1:32 left in the half.

The Indians moved 24 yards to the Panthers 24 before the half but another Dettmann try for field goal fell short from 41 yards out.

Kewaskum failed to get a single first down in the second half and was held to 28 yards total offense.

On its final drive for a score in the last quarter with most of the regulars still in, Plymouth went 75 yards in five plays. Brinkman broke a 34-yarder against an Indian defense consisting of many reserves.

Besides Aupperle and Coulter, linebacker Ken Miller played a fine game and Dettmann and Mark Schlosser were in on a lot of tackles.

The Indians are hoping to notch their first victory this Friday night when they host New Holstein, which lost to Kiel last week.

Freshmen Lose Football Opener

By Chuck Voge

In what freshmen coach Dale Schatz described as the first football game of their life for many of his players, the Kewaskum freshmen lost their season opener to Plymouth here Thursday night by a score of 24 to 6.

In spite of two first half fumbles by Plymouth and one turnover after an interception, Plymouth led at the half 16 to 0. Their ground game looked strong enough to make up for almost any amount of mistakes. Midway through the third quarter it seemed as though a different Kewaskum team had taken the field as the Indians put together their longest string of consecutive plays in the game with 13 straight only to have their best drive of the night die in Plymouth territory.

The Indians ended the game on a high note by scoring their only touchdown with one minute and seventeen seconds left on the clock. If this game was any indication of the type of football coaches Schatz and Sorens plan on playing, then we can all look forward to seeing a lot of very hard nosed, conservative running football. If the Kewaskum team threw one pass all night I must have missed it.

Running back Shane Magonigle was injured late in the game with an apparent pinched nerve in his back, and taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in West Bend. Hospital officials would not release information on his condition.

Boys 19th, Girls 14th in 21-Team Mayville Invite

The Kewaskum boys' and girls' cross country teams participated in the 21-team Mayville Invitational Friday and neither fared well.

Pewaukee won the boys' end of the meet with 95 points, seven ahead of second place Berlin. Kewaskum was far back in 19th place with 522 points.

New Holstein won the field of girls' teams with 63 points and Mayville was far back with 121 points for runnerup honors. Kewaskum was 14th with 367.

The Indians' two top finishers were in 29th place. Miles Shaw led the boys with a time of 18:27 and Carrie Batzler paced the girls with a 14:14. Both just missed getting medals.

Mary Murre also ran well for the KHS girls, covering the two miles in a time of 14:22, good for 35th.

The Indian boys might have finished higher, but two of the runners, Corey Garbisch and Tom Strigenz, missed the bus. They drove themselves to Mayville but Coach Dave Drexler did not let them run.

Pat Miller on Platteville Team

Pat Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller, Kewaskum, is a member of the University of Wisconsin-Platteville Football team.

Pat is a senior at UWP, majoring in Occupational Safety.

Indian Spikers Win Again, Now 4-0; Also Cop Campbellsport Invite

The Kewaskum girls' volleyball team continued to roll at Plymouth Thursday evening by defeating the Panthers for their fourth straight win in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference without a defeat.

The Indians jumped to a 9-0 lead over the Panthers, with Michelle Gebheim serving at least the first five points in the first game which KHS won 15-5. They kept up their momentum in the second game, winning 15-8. With the victory already in the bag, Coach Dave Rizzardi brought in his reserves for the third game against most of the Plymouth regulars and they almost took this one too, losing in overtime, 14-16.

Rizzardi was glad to see Brenda Vetter come back, adding that Laurie Blum and Tracy Prescott provided the needed sets. Rizzardi said the team's first passes were the best he had seen all year.

The girls' varsity team also took top honors Saturday in the four-team Campbellsport Invitational tournament with a 5-1 record. Laconia was second at 4-2, North Fond du Lac third at 2-4 and the host Cougars fourth at 1-5.

Kewaskum split its games with Laconia, 4-15, 16-14; and beat North Fond du Lac, 15-12, 15-8, and Campbellsport, 15-8, 15-7. Laconia beat Campbellsport, 15-4, 15-1, and split with North Fond du Lac, 11-15, 15-8; and North Fond du Lac split with Campbellsport, 14-16, 15-1.

Eichstedt and O'Connor Best Ball Champs

PHIL FLEMMING teeing off in the rain-soaked two-man best ball tournament held Saturday and Sunday at Hon-E-Kor.

By Chuck Voge

Clark Eichstedt and Mike O'Connor Jr. teamed up to win the first annual two-man best ball tournament held Sept. 21 and 22 at Hon-E-Kor Country Club.

Their 36-hole total for the two day tournament was a sizzling seven under 133.

Much of the tourney was played in the rain, however, this didn't seem to effect the scores very much. Twenty-five teams entered the event and no one dropped out because of the rain.

Other winners were: Championship Flight - Daily & Rueth second with 139, Tenfel & Gundrum third with 141 and Korth & Westphal fourth with 147. First flight winners were: First, Kuntsmann & Kuntsmann with 146, Denis & Erickson second 153, Tighe & Ronyak third 155, and Larsen and Buss fourth with 156.

Second flight winners were Averill & Averill, first.

Indian Netters Lose Two More, Both by 6-1 Scores

The Kewaskum girls' tennis team was badly beaten in two matches the past week, both by 6-1 scores. On Monday they suffered the loss to Sheboygan Falls and the next day they were defeated by the same score by Plymouth.

The Indians' only winners in the first match were Sherry Becker and Barb Panzer, playing at No. 3 doubles, where they took a three set, 5-7, 6-2, 6-2 win from Shelly Otto and Jenny Denis. The only other match to go three sets was at No. 2 doubles.

In the Plymouth match, it was again Becker and Panzer, who prevented a shutout. The pair downed Tami Quick and Lisa Heinemann 10-3 in pro set action at No. 2 doubles.

These two setbacks dropped Kewaskum's conference record to 1-4 and to 2-7 overall.
