New Sidewalk Construction Could Be Ahead for Kewaskum

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A project to extend new sidewalks in Kewaskum may become a reality in the near future if the Village Board approves the study and one of three options for construction which were presented at its meeting Monday night.

The report was a result of the board's request that Village Administrator Dan Schmidt look into a way to extend sidewalks to all parts of the village. Over the past few years the board has discussed the project but felt that a specific plan was necessary so that work would be done systematically and with some type of time frame for completion of such an undertaking.

Schmidt's study indicates that approximately 38,000 feet of new sidewalk will have to be built to provide walks throughout the village. Schmidt told the trustees he had broken down the village into four areas, each containing approximately 8,000 to 11,000 feet of new sidewalk work.

Schmidt said he was not making any recommendations, only putting the various options before the board for its study and review. He said he divided the village into the four sections so that board would have several options to consider as a means of accomplishing the project.

If the board decided to go ahead with the work, it could follow any one of three plans. The first option would be to do all 38,000 feet in one year, the second, to do 18,000 feet (or two sections) the first year and complete the remaining 19,000 feet (remaining sections) the second year, or the last option to spread the project out over four years, completing one of the four sections, each year for four years.

Using the current price of $7.74 per foot for new walk construction, the project would cost about $284,000 plus engineering for an approximate total cost of $300,000 to

Review of Budget by Village Board Shows Increase in All Departments

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The review of 1986 proposed budgets for several municipal departments topped the agenda of the Kewaskum Village Board during its regular meeting Monday night.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt presented a budget of $69,384, for his department, an increase of 2.2% over 1985. Two recommendations were presented for the Library, one of $18,216, an increase of 9.4% and an alternate proposal of $19,000, an increase of 14.2% over 1985. The major difference between the two budgets was the amount of money earmarked for the purchase of magazines and subscriptions.

The Municipal Building's budget for 1986 is $17,869, an increase of 8.3%. Schmidt noted part of the increase is the result of a recommendation to hire a part time employee for building maintenance and to take over some of the outside village maintenance work now being done by Public Works Department employees.

Because of the increased size of the remodeled Municipal Building, noted Schmidt, someone will be needed for routine maintenance work. Schmidt said a part time Public Works employee had been considered for the past few years, but no money had been budgeted for the position.

The part time Municipal Building person could also take care of some of the grasscutting and groundwork. The position would be paid a minimum wage for an anticipated 20-hour week, which would be less than hiring a part time employee for the Public Works Department.

The Kewaskum Police Department's proposed budget of $170,077 is an increase of 3.3% over 1985. There were no major changes proposed. The board also approved Chief Hlavaty's request to advertise for bids on a new squad with delivery after January 1st, 1986.

Hlavaty told the board that

Finance Committee Gets Recommendations for School District's Remaining Trust Fund Monies

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Perry Ankerson, Chairman of the Kewaskum School District's Finance - Transportation, Building and Grounds Committee, received both an update and recommendations on money left from the district's $400,000 Trust Fund loan during Monday night's committee meeting.

In a written report, District Administrator Penny Kleinhans stated, there is approximately $75,000 of the funds left which have not been allocated to specific projects.

Kleinhans recommended the district spend about $9,200 for remodeling and repairs of the Administration Office. Of that, $3,300 would be used for roof repairs and an air break at the entrance. The remaining $5,900 would be used to construct two private offices in the present area now shared by Kleinhans and Business Manager Cherna Gorder. One office would be used by Kleinhans and the second by Gorder.

Both Kleinhans and Gorder stressed that working in the one common open area could be difficult and distracting at times, especially when there are two separate discussions or meetings going on at the same time. Kleinhans said there are occasions when the need for confidentiality and privacy arises in meetings with parents and personnel and you haven't got it.

Committee member Tom Brigham agreed with their comments and motioned to present the recommendation to the full school board and get quotes for the work. The motion died on a 2-2 tie vote, with Brigham and Carol Connor voting yes, and Ankerson and Jack Theusch voting no.

Both Ankerson and Theusch were sympathetic and agreed there was a need there but both men felt there were alternate

Sales Between $100-$200 Million Regal Ware Makes 'Wisconsin 100' List

Eleven companies, each of whose fiscal 1984 sales exceeded $200 million, top the rankings of "The Wisconsin 100." The list of the state's largest privately-held companies was compiled by the Milwaukee office of Arthur Andersen & Co. from voluntary responses to a statewide survey conducted by the accounting firm. "The Wisconsin 100" companies were identified for the first time in the October issue of Wisconsin Business magazine.

Chief executive officers of "The Wisconsin 100" will be honored at a luncheon in Milwaukee on Monday, October 14th, co-sponsored by Arthur Andersen and Wisconsin Business.

Regal Ware, Inc. of Kewaskum, manufacturer and marketer of top-of-stove cookware, small kitchen appliances and plastic microwave utensils with 1984 sales between $100 million and $200 million, is one of "The Wisconsin 100."

The 100 companies on the 1985 list reported 1984 sales of nearly $10 billion ($9,976,008,715) and total Wisconsin employment of 52,697.

The largest privately-held company identified in the survey is S. C. Johnson & Son, Inc., the Racine manufacturer of chemical specialty products, over-the-counter drugs and outdoor recreation and leisure time products.

The other 10 with 1984 sales over $200 million, in order, were:

Kohler Co., Kohler; The Journal Company, Milwaukee; U.S. Oil Co., Inc., Combined Locks; Harley-Davidson Motor Co., Inc., Milwaukee; H. C. Prange Co., Sheboygan; Menasha Corporation, Neenah; Western Publishing Co., Inc., Racine; Morgan Products Ltd., Oshkosh; Green Bay Packaging Inc., Green Bay; DEC International, Madison.

"We've introduced 'The Wisconsin 100' program to help call attention to the significant impact that privately-held business — large and small — has on our state's economy," said H. Rick Fumo, partner in charge of the small business division at Arthur Andersen/Milwaukee. "The 10 billion dollars in sales generated by

Goal: To Make School District Better

Kewaskum CARES Group to Hold General Meeting Oct. 15

"We're good and getting better," is the motto adopted by the steering committee for Kewaskum CARES to describe the school district. Kewaskum CARES, which stands for Kewaskum Citizens for Action and Responsibly Educating Students, is the name chosen for the new support organization which was formed and met several times last spring. A steering committee composed of parents, teachers and students has met twice in September and plans a general meeting for Oct. 15.

National surveys have shown that the best schools in the nation are those that have parental involvement. To implement the group's motto, the first general meeting for all Kewaskum district residents will describe what can be done to make the district better. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Cafeteria.

Karen de Hartog, Shorewood, will be the featured speaker. Mrs. de Hartog will describe the Shorewood District's acclaimed program for citizen involvement.

Members of the Kewaskum faculty and administration will also outline ways in which the district can be improved.

Joan Rosenberger, Kewaskum CARES chairman, urges all district residents: grandparents, parents, and all those without children to attend this meeting and learn how we can "get better." "In these hard economic times, when money is in short supply for the important work of educating our children, citizen commitment in other ways is important," she said.

If there are any questions about the Oct. 15 meeting or the organization contact Mrs. Rosenberger or one of the members of the steering committee: Parent members - Loretta Kirmse, Ann Thull, Ruth Schmitt, Kathleen Ankerson, Susan Buechel, and Judy Boland; student members - Mitzi Nigh and Noel Stradtman; teacher members - Mary Reilly-Kliff, Ray Martens, Mary Diez, Denise Leong, Marlene Domasky, Chris Dehler and Gerry Gosa; school principals - LeRoy Kopecky, Dennis Reha and Tom Larsen.

these companies alone and the 52-thousand-plus people they employ represent merely the proverbial 'tip of the iceberg.'

"We know of other very large privately-held businesses in Wisconsin that chose not to participate in the survey this year," said Fumo. "And there are many, many more companies with private ownership whose sales, while substantial, didn't qualify them for the list. They are nonetheless important to the economic well being of the areas in which they're located as well as to the state.

"We also recognize the distinct possibility that there are companies out there which we failed to identify, despite our best efforts. We hope they're brought to our attention so that we can invite them to participate in 1986," said Fumo.

Spencer Dean, publisher of Wisconsin Business, called "The Wisconsin 100" program "A welcome salute to private business." He said, "We've been telling the story of business in Wisconsin for several years and we've made a conscious effort to include both publicly-held and privately-held companies in our editorial mix.

There are many fascinating stories — several of which we've reported — and privately-held companies provide some of the best examples of entrepreneurial spirit and creativity. We're delighted to be part of this program."

Featured speaker at the October 14th luncheon at The Pfister Hotel will be John Rutledge, Ph.D., chairman of the board of Claremont Economics Institute, Claremont, California.

"An intelligent man never snubs anybody."

New Sidewalk

If the village decided to go ahead with the project, it could borrow money from the Wisconsin Fund, which has recently dropped its interest rate to 7.5%. "Our debt limit would stay constant," said Schmidt, "and we could recoup half (approximately $150,000) in the first four to six years. So we wouldn't really have to pay on our principal until after that and then more of our capital debt would be paid for so we wouldn't be raising taxes for this."

Trustee Mary Krueger indicated she was in favor of such a plan. "After all, we can't ask some residents to repair existing walks when there are areas that don't have any walks at all yet."

Schmidt said he understood that this was the direction the board wanted to take, and that once the new sidewalk construction was completed the village would then concentrate on a program to repair and replace existing damaged walks.

Schmidt asked the trustees to study the report so it could be discussed at a future meeting.

Village Budget

since his department had begun the annual replacement and rotation of squads, maintenance costs (including repairs and gas) had dropped from $12,000 to around $9,700 a year. Board President Dave Nigh also noted the resale value of the old squads had also increased since the program was put into effect.

The Park & Recreation Department submitted a 1986 proposed budget of $59,550 an increase of 24% over 1985. A portion of the department's outlay is targeted for construction of the Kiwanis Park multi-purpose shelter.

Schmidt said he had re-submitted a request for DNR funding which would be used in the shelter's construction. However, depending upon when, and if, the village received the grant, the board may have to make a decision on whether or not to go ahead with the construction on its own. It had been anticipated that the building would be up by the summer of 1986, and, we have already rented it out on that basis, said Schmidt.

Schmidt told the trustees that factors which would be affecting all departments budgets were an anticipated 3.75% increase in the cost of electricity and a 5.5% to 7.6% rise in the cost for gas. General Telephone said they were not anticipating any increases, said Schmidt. Federal Revenue Sharing will decrease slightly, about 2%, while State Revenue Sharing should increase about 5%, Schmidt noted. We'll also be receiving about $3,000 less in street aids for the coming year.

Trustee Tom McElhatton, Parks Committee Chairman, said the village had received a letter from the Kewaskum Booster Club regarding the installation of wind screens for the Kiwanis Park tennis courts.

The club's letter said it had planned to pay for the wind screens, but after checking the costs, it was found the project was beyond their financial means. The club asked the village to consider splitting the costs.

McElhatton said, however, quotes for the work ranged from $1,364 to $5,525. The high bid came from Century Fence Company which said the work entailed more than just putting up the screen. The company, who originally installed the fence, said additional support posts would be required to compensate for the added wind stress on the fence. Century indicated serious damage would result without the addition of eleven support posts whose cost would run about $1,500. The other two bids made no mention of the added posts, noted McElhatton.

Nigh stated he felt the board should have more information on the project before a decision was made.

In other action, the board directed Schmidt to draft a letter to School District Administrator Penny Kleinhans to reply to her letter concerning the Highway 45/H intersection and stop lights. "I don't think we have any duty in this matter whatsoever," said Trustee Mary Krueger. "I think the village has done its part and if the school district wants the state to put up a stop sign that's their concern not ours."

The board also approved Plan Commission recommendations to accept the revised Floodplain Zoning Map and establishment of a $50.00 fee for zoning changes to cover the costs of mailings, notices and publications.

In conjunction with the City of West Bend, the board set the hours for Trick or Treat, for Sunday, October 27th, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Then board then adjourned to closed session.

"A cynic is one who never sees a good quality in a man and never fails to see a bad one."

Trust Fund

solutions to the problem which would be less costly. "I'm not going to approve spending $6,000 for two offices," stated Ankerson. He suggested Kleinhans and Building Superintendent Fred Boehlke come back with a revised proposal for one office. Ankerson had several layout suggestions, noting that if one office were properly placed, possibly with some type of hall divider, the remaining open area would give Gorder space and privacy also.

Clara Trapp, Town of Scott, asked the committee how it could consider using Trust Fund money for such a project when there were several other items from a prior list which had not been completed, such as repair of the south wall of the high school. Kleinhans said the loan states the money is for the purposes of maintenance and purchase of equipment, and this falls under maintenance.

Gorder also noted that the high school wall repairs had been removed from the original list because there had been a chance it could have been partially paid for by energy conservation grant funds. Since that time, however, the district has been turned down for the grant," said Gorder.

After discussion of needed roof repairs on the Wayne School Annex, Theusch made a motion that roof repairs on both the District Office and Wayne Annex be recommended to the full board, with money to be taken from the remaining loan funds. The motion passed 4-0.

In the discussion of other agenda items, the committee will recommend the School Board approve the repair of the high school gym divider door, and that duct work in the 700 area be completed with money from the trust fund.

The committee will also recommend that the heating unit for the shop area be re-bid and taken to the board.

The group also reviewed transportation concerns and goals and objectives for the committee.

The committee also voted 3-0-1 abstaining, to set the fourth Monday of each month at 7:30, as its regularly scheduled meeting time.

The Kewaskum Post Office will be closed for window service on Monday, Oct. 14, Columbus Day, a legal holiday. The lobby will remain open for lock box patrons. There will be a dispatch of mail. There will be no rural delivery.

Local Residents Are Injured in Weekend Accident

By GERRY MUELLER
STATESMAN STAFF WRITER

Four Kewaskum residents were involved in a two-car accident early Friday evening which resulted in minor injuries to three of the parties, according to Washington County Sheriff's Department records.

Allen Schickert, 29, of 1150 Hillside Drive, Kewaskum, received cuts and bruises to his head when his car was struck by another vehicle driven by Alvin Krewald, 58, of 111 Prospect, Kewaskum.

Also injured in the accident were two passengers in the Schickert car. Cynthia Schickert Allen's wife, received a bump on the head and Richard Yahr, 41, of 1165 Hillside Drive, Kewaskum, received a cut leg. Records showed no injuries listed for Krewald.

The Washington County Sheriff's Department record indicated Schickert's car was traveling south on Highway 45, near the village limits, when it was struck at approximately 5:20 p.m. by a northbound vehicle driven by Krewald. The report states the Krewald car crossed over the centerline entering the southbound lane where it collided with the Schickert vehicle. The Krewald vehicle continued west across 45, coming to rest on the sidewalk on the west side of Highway 45.

A Sheriff's Department spokesperson said the accident was still under investigation and no citations had been issued as yet.

Standards Increased; Many Benefits

Weltzen New Head of Driver's Education Course at KHS

The Driver's Education curriculum at Kewaskum High School has increased its standards and is now turning out better informed drivers under the new department head, Neal Weltzen.

In order to pass the course now, a student must achieve at least a 75% overall grade and hand in all his/her work. In the past, students only needed to achieve a 70% to pass the course. "The course is more difficult than in the past because the course has to be tough, if you want to turn out good drivers," remarked Weltzen.

There are many benefits from taking driver's education at Kewaskum compared to going to a private driving school. The main benefit is in the cost. At private driving schools it costs between $200 to $300 per student. At Kewaskum the fee is $50. (This cost is used to help defray the cost of car rental and maintenance of the car).

By taking the course at Kewaskum there is no need to provide transportation to the class. Kewaskum also offers a wider range of knowledge. Students learn more than the basics of driving. They learn what to do when certain situations arise, along with the attitudes needed to drive safely.

Kewaskum rents an Oldsmobile Cutless Sierra with automatic transmission from Schwartzburg Oldsmobile for $4.00 per day. The school usually has one or two cars available for behind the wheel driving.

"Driver's Education can't do everything. The student's parents need to back them," said Weltzen. The parents need to work with the students to perfect the student's driving techniques. If the parents work with the teacher and support the child, the course has been a success for all involved.

Work Starts On New Bridge At New Prospect

Road construction was expected to get under way last week on replacement of the Milwaukee River Bridge on County Trunk SS in New Prospect.

The project consists of constructing a temporary bypass, removing the old bridge, and replacing it with a new timber bridge having a 28-foot wide roadway and five-foot sidewalk.

Pheifer Brothers Construction Co., which was low bidder at $107,229, has been awarded the contract for the work. The federal government will pay approximately 80 percent of the cost, with Fond du Lac County paying the remaining 20 percent, from funds primarily raised by gasoline taxes.

County Trunk SS will be kept open to through traffic across the river on a temporary bridge during construction. The project is expected to be completed by Nov. 15.

Construction Supervisor Charles Ingwersen of the state Department of Transportation urges pedestrians and motorists to use caution in the construction zone.

Smokey the Bear Teaches Fire Prevention

In recognition of National Fire Prevention Week, the GFWC Kewaskum Jr. Woman's Club has arranged for a series of filmstrips entitled "Smokey The Bear and Little Marcie" to be shown in the elementary schools in Wayne, Farmington and Beechwood.

Smokey emphasizes the importance of fire prevention at home and in the woods. Smokey's motto is Help Prevent Forest Fires: Don't Play With Matches. During this week, Smokey asks all Kewaskum area residents to pay particular attention to possible fire hazards in their homes and at work.

Your HEALTH TIP

from Tom Leitzke, R.P.H.

AVOID SORE THROAT

Dryness in heated homes and work places can irritate the lining or mucus membranes of nose, throat and bronchials by removing the protective moisture and exposing the membranes to infection. To raise the humidity or water vapor in the air, install an electric humidifier, vaporizer - or at least put pans of water on top of heaters or radiators.

PREVENTING MISSING CHILDREN

Between 1.3 and 1.8 million children are reported missing in the United States every year. Some run away, others are abducted by strangers or by parents. Each year between 20,000 and 50,000 cases of missing children remain unsolved by the police. Parents can take positive actions to protect their children. They can teach them:

- That no adult has authority over them simply by virtue of size—that the children can say no.
- To know their home address, including the city and state, and phone number with area code.
- To use both pushbutton and dial phones for local and long distance calls.
- To memorize emergency phone numbers.
- To run to the nearest public place, store or police station, if they feel unsafe.
- To watch for enticements from strangers—like candy, gifts, money, or requests to help find a lost dog or cat.
- Not to get close to a car if a stranger calls out for directions or anything else. It is easy for a stranger to pull a child into a car.
- Not to open the door to strangers.
- Not to tell callers that mom or dad isn't home. Say they can't come to the phone and will call back.
- Not to walk alone if they can help it.
- To walk near the curb, on lighted streets at night, and against the traffic, and to travel known routes.
- To run away, scream and make lots of noise if they are followed or grabbed by a stranger. The last thing a dangerous stranger wants is a lot of attention.
- To go to the checkout counter and wait to be called on the loudspeaker if they are separated from you in a store.
- Never to go out to a parking lot alone.
- To tell parents immediately if anyone or any incident has made them feel uncomfortable.

Finally, parents should keep recent, clear photographs of their children in at least two different poses.

To Observe National School Lunch Week

The Kewaskum School District and Holy Trinity Lunch Programs participate in the National School Lunch Program. Since 1974 this program has made it possible for schools throughout the nation to serve wholesome and nutritious low-cost lunches to students. These lunches make an important contribution to good nutrition, which is vital to your child's mental and physical growth.

Across the United States, schools will be celebrating National School Lunch Week from Oct. 13-19. The theme for this year is "Salute to Freedom."

Children develop good eating habits at home, so encourage them to try new foods. Talk about the foods they like and why they like them. Try different menu plans with your entire family. There are no losers when a child eats well. The nutrition in a meal is worthless if the food is not eaten.

Burglars obtained about $165 in cash and $35 in checks in a daring day-time case knife burglary at the L. Rosenheimer feed mill at 133 Second St. at about 12:30 p.m. on Monday. Henry Weddig, Sr., manager of the mill, had been unloading feed at the rear of the building. As he walked toward the office he saw two men leaving through the office door. One of them asked Weddig how to get to Boltonville. He gave them the directions and the pair left in a hurry. Weddig went to the office desk and found the cash box open and empty with the money and checks missing. Chief of Police Roland Pledl reported that the office had been locked but the door was opened with a case knife.

The feed store owned and operated by Bauer brothers at Campbellsport was burglarized sometime during last Monday night or early on Tuesday morning of this week, by thieves who escaped with $500 in cash, an adding machine and several accounting files. Entrance to the store was gained by breaking a window at the rear of the store, and lifting a bar with which the door was locked. A door leading to the office was sprung and opened. The cash register which contained about $40 was not disturbed.

The new officers of the Literary Society of the Kewaskum School Intermediate Room are: Robert Brauchle, president; Homer Schaub, vice-president; Lillian Werner, secretary-treasurer.

National 4-H Week

A FAMILY AFFAIR

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 15
Friday, Oct. 11, 1985

Washington County Joins National 4-H Week Celebration

In Washington County some 625 4-H members are planning special activities and events in observance of National 4-H Week, October 6 to 12, according to Kandi Veal, 4-H & Youth Agent. The Washington County 4-H'ers are among nearly 4.5 million young people across the country who will participate in the week-long celebration using the theme "4-H For Youth, For America."

"What we do for our youth today, we do for America tomorrow," said Veal in explaining the theme. "Through 4-H, young people can acquire knowledge and develop life skills that enable them to become self-directing, productive and contributing members of our society. Specifically, they learn good health habits, develop respect for themselves and others, explore career and leisure time opportunities, share responsibility for preserving the environment, learn how to use technology, and develop leadership and citizenship skills through participation in 4-H. And, that's something to celebrate."

"But 4-H is not only for youth," Veal added. "It's for adults, who as volunteer leaders can share their skills and expertise with young people. It's for families, who can participate in the fun and learning together. It's for the community, which benefits from the community service carried out by youth.

It is through this network of volunteer leaders, state land-grant universities, state and local governments, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, that 4-H has been able to stimulate youth to develop life skills. In Washington County some 225 adult volunteer leaders work with 625 boys and girls from 9 to 19 years of age in 25 4-H clubs through the Cooperative Extension Service at University of Wisconsin. Programs are conducted in 3,150 counties nationwide. In addition, some 82 countries around the globe enroll approximately five million youth in programs similar to 4-H.

Having fun is part of 4-H. Kewaskum 4-H'ers do just that at their Halloween party.

Kewaskum 4-H'er Brian Butzlaff likes working with his swine project.

120,000 State 4-H Members Celebrate National 4-H Week

As more than 120,000 Wisconsin 4-H members and 25,000 volunteers celebrate "4-H For Youth, For America" during National 4-H Week October 6-12, they display new skills and talents that put to rest some of the old stereotypes commonly applied to 4-H. From aircraft propulsion and SLR cameras to computer assembly and trash recycling, 4-H is preparing Wisconsin's youth for the educational challenges of tomorrow.

"4-H is one of the richest educational programs in the country," states Wisconsin Cooperative Extension Dean Charles F. Koval. "It is a diverse and multi-faceted program which allows young people to learn experientially how our modern world functions."

Koval adds that UW-Extension 4-H activities, one of four major program areas in the UWEX Division of Cooperative Extension, makes effective use of University resources and faculty. "County Extension agents work with campus Extension specialists to develop the 4-H projects and activities," explains Koval. "Through 4-H, UW-Extension and the entire UW System have a base and identity in every township of Wisconsin. To date, a large portion of our Wisconsin population has been influenced by the 4-H program during its 70 years of existence — in fact, 4-H annually reaches more than one in five of all youth in most Wisconsin counties."

Traditional Fall Harvest Activities to Be Presented at Old Wade House Oct. 12-13

A weekend of traditional fall activity reminiscent of autumn afternoons a century ago will be offered to visitors at Old Wade House in Greenbush on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 12-13. The occasion is the historic stagecoach inn's annual "Greenbush Harvest."

The Wade House staff will show visitors the typical kinds of chores people did a century ago to prepare for winter. There will be demonstrations of corn husking and apple cider making as well as the cooking of stews and pies.

Children will be able to watch and pet familiar farm animals such as sheep, goats, kittens and calves. A local butcher will give a meat smoking and sausage preparing exhibition on Sunday. Throughout the weekend visitors will be able to take a scenic carriage ride out to the Wade House pumpkin patch.

The timing of the event should coincide nicely with the advent of fall colors, making Old Wade House an excellent destination for fall color tours. The historic site includes the Wade House stagecoach inn, a popular rest stop for travelers in the 1850s and '60s; the Wesley W. Jung Carriage Museum, which houses one of the nation's largest collections of horse- and hand-drawn vehicles; and the Charles Robinson House, a residence used by Wade family members in the 19th century.

Old Wade House is located near the northern tip of the Kettle Moraine State Forest, midway between Fond du Lac and Sheboygan on Highway 23. Wade House is open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., and on weekends from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. through Oct. 31. Ticket sales end one hour before closing.

The site is one of six historic sites owned and operated by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin. For more information write Old Wade House, Greenbush, Wis. 53026, or phone (414) 526-3271.

The program, designed to prepare young people for careers in farming or agribusiness, begins Nov. 11 and ends March 15, 1986. This year, instead of three 5-week terms, the course is divided into 6-week, 3-week and 6-week terms respectively. Students can enroll for one, two or all three terms, according to Rick Daluge, UW-Madison assistant dean and short course director.

Tuition, room and board is approximately $1,600 for an in-state student. On-campus housing costs about $33 a week and is available on a first-come first-serve basis.

All Short Course students — even those who will only attend one or two terms — are required to attend an orientation program scheduled for Oct. 31. The day-long program begins at 9:15 a.m. at Union South on the UW-Madison campus.

Daluge says attendance is important because students will register for classes, pay first-term tuition and complete other registration details. A noon meal and a tour of the campus and housing will also be included.

More orientation information will be mailed to persons who enroll in the Short Course.

Short Course application forms are available at the Farm and Industry Course Office,

College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, Room 105, Agriculture Hall, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, Wis., 53706; or from area high school guidance counselors or vo-ag instructors. Applicants should also submit high school transcripts and three letters of recommendation.

A NOTE OF THANKS
 I wish to thank all of my family, neighbors, and friends for all their gifts, cards, phone calls, visits and kindness while I was a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital and while convalescing at home. These acts of kindness will never be forgotten. I have a special Thank You to my Mom and Dad who came down from up north and helped out in so many ways for the first week. I love you dearly. IN MEMORY
 In loving memory of our parents and grandparents, Paul and Sadie Liermann, who passed away one year ago Oct. 15, 1984:
 Beautiful memories woven in gold,
 A gift from God we tenderly hold,
 Deep in our hearts their memory is kept.
 To love and cherish and never forget.
 Sadly missed by the children and grandchildren.

IN MEMORY
 In loving memory of my dear husband "Little Johnny" John Wornardt, who passed away seven years ago, Oct. 13, 1978:
 God saw he was getting tired,
 And a cure was not to be,
 So he put his arms around him
 And whispered "Come with Me."
 With tearful eyes we watched him suffer,
 And saw him fade away,
 Although we loved him dearly,
 We could not make him stay.
 His golden heart stopped beating,
 Hard working hands to rest,
 God broke our hearts to prove to us
 He only takes the best.
 Sadly missed by his wife Helen, children Ruth and DuWayne, grandchildren Shelly and Nathan John.

On Wednesday, October 2, the girls from Kewaskum High School met for their annual "Powder Puff" football game. The game pitted two all-girls teams against one another. One team made up of seniors and freshmen, coached by Jim Westphal, played against a team of sophomores and

The seniors and freshmen came out on top in the contest, 12 to 8. With one exception being that it's flag football, the game is played under normal rules. Now in flag football it's not necessary to tackle the ball carrier, however, someone must have forgot to tell some of the girls about this minor change, because at times the girls got quite carried away in their enthusiasm.

I'm sure that some mothers must have left the stands after the game, shaking their heads, and wondering if the girls they just saw doing battle on the field, were the same genteel young damsels they seem to be when it's time to ask for the family car.

Indian Girls Third In EW Tennis Meet; Gruber Singles Champ

In the Eastern Wisconsin tennis meet held at Plymouth on Saturday, Sept. 28, the host team emerged as the winner with 44½ points and Sheboygan Falls was second with 38. Kewaskum was a distant third with 17½. Two Rivers fourth with 15 and Chilton came in last.

However, the Indians came away with one champion in Devona Gruber. Playing at No. 2 singles, Gruber defeated Judy Dobrzynski of Falls, 7-6, 6-4, to gain the finals. In the title match Gruber bested Joy Hebl of Plymouth, 6-2, 7-6.

Julie Reha beat Beth Otte of Plymouth, 7-6, 6-2, in the semi-finals before losing to Chris Brown of Sheboygan Falls, 2-6, 0-6.

Becky Falk, KHS regular at No. 4, gave Heather Hanson of Plymouth a fight in their first set, winning over the eventual champ, 7-5, before losing the next two, 1-6, 2-6. She came back to beat a Two Rivers player, 6-1, 6-3.

Two of the three doubles teams were also third. Tina Survis and Jane Czoschke lost to the eventual champs in the first round but then came back for a 2-6, 6-4, 7-5 win over the Two Rivers girls.

Barb Panzer and Sherry Becker won consolation honors with a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Jody Franzen and Marcia Bradshaw of Two Rivers.

The Indian girls ended the season with a 1-6 record in Eastern Wisconsin play and 2-10 overall.

Cross Country Teams in 2 Meets; Show Improvement

By Chuck Voge

The Kewaskum co-ed cross country teams competed in two meets recently, the first in their only home meet of the season on Oct. 1 with teams from Kiel and Chilton, and the second in the Slinger Invitational on Oct. 4th at Slinger.

Even though the Indians failed to place in any of the top spots, Coach Drexler reported that members of his squad are doing a good job of improving on their times, and the future looks very bright for the team.

In the Kiel-Chilton meet, Miles Shaw, top runner for the boys led in his division until the last 200 yards when the race ended up in a sprint, and Shaw was edged out by only a yard. Carrie Batzler and Mary Murre, running one and two for the girls also did an outstanding job.

The Oct. 4th meet was held on a very muddy course at Homestead Hollow Park, and in spite of the muddy course the Kewaskum runners came up with some of their best times of the season. Miles Shaw placed a high eighth overall, and was the only Indian runner to earn a medal at the meet.

Homecoming Game Has TV Coverage

Indians Play Well But Lose to Two Rivers, 19-6

By Chuck Voge

Well, homecoming '85 is history now, but the game will live on for quite some time in the minds of those young men who took to the field to do battle with the Raiders of Two Rivers. It will live on, too, in the hearts of the many loyal fans who sat through the all-night, steady downpour, that helped to make Homecoming '85 the event that it was.

The David vs. Goliath contest that many fans preconceived this game to be, just didn't happen. The Indian offense couldn't have picked a more appropriate time to jell than it did, in front of several hundred loyal hometown fans. Before the night was over, the Indians showed everyone present, just what kind of stuff they're made of.

The new wishbone offense, recently installed by head coach Charland, clicked like a well oiled machine, and as a bonus, the passing attack was right on the money for most of the evening. It was long and deep enough to give Kewaskum's remaining opponents something more to think about.

The young and inexperienced team that I saw take to the field in early season play at Horicon, came of age in just 48 minutes. Friday night. With an offensive attack well balanced between passing and running, the Indians are now a serious threat each and every time that they come to the line of scrimmage.

By now I'm sure some of you are wondering, why all the hype? What's so special? It's just another high school football game. Not so! High school football is big league stuff today, but without the big league money. For example, this game was being broadcast live by one television station, and taped for replay by another. The press box that was built to accommodate our local faculty announcer and his one spotter is being filled to overflowing with TV crew members. That translates in still another way. Media coverage of high school games being what it is today gives additional exposure to some of our rising young stars.

"So what?" you might say. "So plenty." Future college careers are being forged here in town, right under our noses and many of us really don't know just how much is going on right here in Kewaskum. Before these young men that played against Two Rivers Friday night graduate, college scouts will come to town to look some of them over. We won't know them when they arrive because college scouts dress and look just like any other fan, but they'll be here.

"So what?" "So plenty." Even a limited scholarship can mean the difference between some young boy going on to school or staying home and not being able to develop his God given resources. That's big stuff when you're only 18 and about to graduate.

In the actual play by play, Two Rivers scored first when with 9:54 still on the clock in the first quarter, running back Todd Sprang scored on a 29 yard sweep around the right side. The kick was good and made it 7-0, Two Rivers.

Only seconds after the kick off, Jerry Vetter took off on the first of his many exciting runs of the night, this one good for 37 yards. Then with 5:21 left in the first quarter, Kewaskum's Mike Coulter ran it in for Kewaskum's only score of the night on a beautiful 40 yard touchdown run. On the next play Kewaskum fumbled the snap from center and the point after was no good. The score now is 7-6, Two Rivers.

Then as the first quarter ended, Two Rivers quarterback Pat Johnson scored on a QB keeper from the one. The point attempt was no good. Score 13-6, Two Rivers.

Kewaskum had two more plays in the first half that really stood out. On one with 4th and 4, the Indians went for it and made it on a QB keeper by Rick Staehler. Had they failed, they would have given Two Rivers excellent field position. On the other, Staehler threw to Mark Johnson for 45 yards to the end zone, and a second touchdown, however, Johnson dropped the ball in the end zone for a touchback.

In the third quarter T.R. scored the last points of the evening with Sprang going in from the 10. The two point conversion attempt was blocked.

Late in the game with 1:00 to play, Two Rivers fumbled on the Kewaskum 32. The Indians recovered the ball and on the series that followed took it to the Two Rivers 16. Two complete passes in this series to Ken Miller and Mark Johnson covered 60 yards. Then with the ball in scoring position for the Indians, time ran out. Final, 19-6, Two Rivers.

Coulter finished with six carries for 58 yards and quarterback Staehler had 16 carries for Kewaskum FFA. In terms of intensity, Kewaskum played well enough to win but fumbled three times, losing the ball each time. Two Rivers had a slim 341-326 margin in total yards.

The Indians are now 0-3 in conference and 0-5 overall. So this one goes into the record books now, but the important records won't be written in ink. They were carved out the hard way Friday night in mud, blood, sweat and tears.

This week the Indians play Sheboygan Falls away. "See you at the game."

Girls' Volleyball Team Suffers First Loss to End Perfect Record

By Chuck Voge

After six straight conference victories, Kewaskum's varsity volleyball team lost for the first time here Tuesday night to Two Rivers. The loss dropped the Indian girls into a tie with Two Rivers for first place in conference play. After losing, the girls bounced back by beating Sheboygan Falls in Thursday's contest, to hold on to the tie. Tuesday's match was also parents night for the girls and to start the evening off each Kewaskum girl presented her parents with a yellow rose.

Coach Rizzardi started against Two Rivers with his same six, Fusek, Vetter, Prescott, Bodden, Blum and Gebheim. Game one was pretty much give one take one until with the score tied at 4-4 Two Rivers fell apart and gave up 11 straight and unanswered points to end the game at 15-4 Kewaskum.

In a surprise move Kewaskum started game two with two substitutes, Kober and Wodsedalek. Early game spikes by Two Rivers did their damage and with the score 8-1, Two Rivers, Coach Rizzardi called time in an attempt to break up the momentum Two Rivers had going. The Indians, however, couldn't rebound from the big lead and lost game two 15-4.

In game three Rizzardi went back to his starting six and for much of the game the Kewaskum girls drove one vicious spike after another at the Two Rivers girls only to have most of these super offensive plays blocked at the net and turned back for points on the board for T.R. Final score 15-9 Two Rivers.

The JVs won their match by scores of 15-10, 15-6 and 13-15. The freshmen lost 10-15, 2-15 and 15-7.

Against Falls Rizzardi went with his starting six again and in game one Falls played without hustle or determination, and lost a quickie, 15-7. Game two the starting six ran into trouble and the Falcons evened the match with a 15-12 win.

In game three Falls jumped to an early game 3-0 lead. The ball went over to Kewaskum and Terri Schmidt, who went in for Fusek made what had to be the key plays of the night for the Indians. After missing on one attempt she put together three straight points for the Indians on well placed soft shots to open places in the Falls defensive formation. From that point Prescott held serve for six straight and it was all Indians for the rest of the night. Final, 15-6 Kewaskum, and on to New Holstein away on Tuesday, Oct. 8.

The freshmen won their match against Falls and the junior varsity lost.

The Kewaskum girls proved they can compete against the bigger schools by finishing in a tie for third place at the six-team Grafton tournament Saturday.

The KHS girls finished with a 6-4 record (tied with Grafton) in the 11-point, round robin event. They ended a game behind powerful Menomonee Falls and Brookfield Central, who both had 7-3 records before Falls won on a final playoff.

In their final match the Indians jumped out to a 5-0 lead over Falls before losing, 6-11. Coach Dave Rizzardi thought his girls were tired. Still they swept two games from Kettle Moraine and Shorewood and split with Brookfield and Grafton.

Freshmen and JVs Lose to Two Rivers

By Chuck Voge

Both the freshmen and junior varsity football teams lost to Two Rivers last week.

The freshmen took to the road and lost, 31-8. Their only touchdown of the game came on a 35 yd. touchdown run by Bob Castro, with the point after by Shane Megonigle. Freshmen coach Ken Sorens said after the game that he felt his team was physically outclassed due to Two Rivers having a middle school football program. The junior varsity, at home for the week, took a 44-0 pounding. J.V. coach Pearson said, "his boys had too much homecoming on their minds, and not enough football."
