State Officials to Attend Important Meeting Nov. 18

School Board Okays $1.5 Million Short Term Loan

GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

On a six to zero vote, the Kewaskum School Board approved the short term borrowing of $1.5 million to aid the district in meeting its financial obligations for the next year. The money will be used to tide the district over until it receives its share of school taxes and aids throughout the year.

The action came after the board officially certified a Fund 10 tax levy of $3,993,188, with a debt service of $70,223, for a total gross levy of $4,063,411 for 1985.

Business Manager Cherna Gorder said the one-year loan, running from October 16, 1985, to October 16, 1986, amounted to approximately what the district would end up borrowing over the next year. With the new one-time loan, the district would invest the balance of the unused monies, earning interest until it was needed, thereby helping to offset interest charges the district would be paying on the loan. Gorder, at previous meetings, had indicated that part of the district's need to make short term loans resulted from the fact that more and more of the district's taxpayers are deferring or splitting their tax payments which causes the district to come up short until it receives those monies.

In the past, the district routinely borrowed several smaller amounts throughout the year or around $300,000 to $400,000, no more than was needed at the time. Borrowing that way caused the district to be faced with high interest

Rich's Super Savings Now Issuing S&H Green Stamps

Rich's Super Savings Market, Kewaskum, began issuing S&H Green Stamps on Tuesday, October 15th, according to an announcement from Rich Bechler, owner of the store located at 1277 Fond du Lac Avenue.

"Our food store will remain fully competitive with others," said Bechler, "and Green Stamps will be issued as an 'extra bonus.' Because of their popularity, we believe Green Stamps will not only attract new shoppers into our store, but will also be a way for us to thank our customers for their loyalty in shopping here," he added.

"Consumers like to save Green Stamps and have been doing so for more than 89 years," stated Warren Lorenzen, S&H area manager who signed the agreement with Rich's Super Savings Market.

Wisconsin trading stamp savers can now select from more than 1,000 brand name items featured in the '85 Gift Ideas catalog and will be able to redeem their filled books of stamps at the new Self-Service Gift Order Center which will be located within Rich's.

A Self-Service Gift Order Center is just that - self service, and an entirely new concept for redeeming stamps. All a customer need do is complete the order form and place the filled books and proper tax in an envelope. Rich's will then mail all these envelopes to the S&H National Mail Order Center in Hillside, Illinois, which will ship the merchandise to the customer. The whole process should take no more than two weeks from order to delivery.

Steiner Electric Closing Store Here

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After thirty years as part of Kewaskum's business community, Jack Jadro, manager of Steiner Electric's Kewaskum store will be moving on, but not very far, or for very long. Jadro will begin working for Steiner's in West Bend after the Kewaskum store is permanently closed at the end of the month.

While the move will be a change for Jack, he plans on making another change early next year. "Around March 1st, I will be retiring and I'm really looking forward to that. I've got lots of plans," he said. "My wife and I will be pursuing our hobbies, traveling and getting in some fishing at our home on Crooked Lake."

Jadro came to Kewaskum in 1955, when he became manager of the old Burkhardt Electric store, which was then located in the old theater building. Jadro bought the business in 1960, and ran it under the name Jack's Appliance.

In 1967, Jack sold the business to Bob Steiner. He went back to using the Burkhardt name and he continued to manage the store for him. Then in 1973, the store's name was changed to Steiner Electric.

Eleanor Holzmann, another familiar face in the Kewaskum store, will also be moving to West Bend as a part time employee. Holzmann said she has been at Steiner's for about fourteen years.

The next few weeks will be busy for Jadro and Holzmann as they handle the store closing sale and prepare to close the doors for the last time on October 31st.

20-Year Term Given in Wayne Shooting Death

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Richard Bonenfant, 51, of 5685 Highway H, Wayne, was sentenced to twenty years in prison for the July 16th shooting death of Malinda Jaeger, owner of Spitz and Lindy's Tavern in Wayne.

Bonenfant had originally been scheduled to go on trial Monday, charged with First Degree Murder in the death of Jaeger, who, he had lived with and worked for as a bartender for approximately the last eight years. At his hearing, Bonenfant had entered a plea of not guilty to the charge.

Bonenfant, however, appeared in court Thursday, October 12, and pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of Second Degree Murder, and was given the twenty-year sentence.

At the time of the incident, Bonenfant told authorities he had shot the seventy-one year old woman because she had asked him to, saying she was sick and in pain. Dr. Roland Brown, who performed the autopsy and testified at Bonenfant's hearing, said Jaeger had some medical problems but was not critically ill.

A breath test taken approximately five hours after the shooting indicated Bonenfant had a blood-alcohol content of 0.18%. In Wisconsin, a level of 0.10% is considered legal evidence of intoxication.

Milewski, Former Local Resident, New Navy Recruiter at West Bend

Navy Counselor First Class Dave Milewski is the new representative in the Navy's recruiting station at 1601 South Main Street in West Bend. He is responsible for providing free guidance to interested Washington and Ozaukee County residents on Navy occupational and career opportunities, education benefits and scholarship programs.

Milewski is a seven-year Navy veteran, having served at Patrol Squadron 48 out of Moffett Field, California, before entering recruiting duty. Before coming to West Bend, he worked at the Navy's recruiting station in Beaver Dam.

Milewski, 35, is originally from Kewaskum. His wife, the former Sharon Waas, is from Mayville.

FINISHED AT LAST — The final work in completion of Kewaskum's TIF District new sidewalk, curb and gutter and road widening project along Highways H and 45 was the landscaping, seeding and covering new grass seed. The project was finished last weekend. Looking south on Hwy. 45 toward H, the sidewalk extends to the end of the homes almost to the former Hydraulic Gear, Inc. on the east side of the road and to Prospect Dr. near Roger and Dan's Auto Service past the Kewaskum Mall on the west side. On Hwy. H west, the sidewalk extends past Bel-Ric Dr. and the apartment buildings almost to the creek on the south side and just past Milan Dr. on the north side. On the north the sidewalk begins in the area of the Kewaskum Fire Department station on Fond du Lac Ave.

School Tax Levy Rejections Jump for 1985-86

Residents in three times as many Wisconsin public school districts this year compared to last year rejected the tax levies proposed by their school boards. Boards in 18 districts had their 1985-86 tax levy proposals turned down at annual budget meetings this year, compared to five districts the previous year, figures compiled by the Wisconsin Association of School Boards (WASB) show.

WASB Executive Director George Tipler said the increase in the tax levy rejections may be due to taxpayer discontent with the state's agricultural economy, especially from residents in smaller, rural school districts. All of the 18 districts had student enrollments of 2,500 or less.

Tipler said school boards are now faced with the dilemma of making cutbacks in the estimated 12% of the discretionary parts of their budgets. "Staff salaries and fringe benefits, determined to a great extent by the state's collective bargaining law, comprise about 65% of the average school district's budget. Another portion of the budget is used to comply with state laws on scheduling of the school day and school programs, leaving about 12% at the discretion of the board. This lack of local options virtually locks school boards into running their school systems in the same way in every community," he stated.

Hardest hit this year are communities in which local tax revenues rely heavily on agricultural industries. Many residents, Tipler noted, have complained that the cost of education is increasing because of rising teacher salaries, an area over which school boards have increasingly less control as more teacher unions opt for a state appointed arbitrator to settle their annual labor agreements.

For instance, fewer than one-quarter of Wisconsin's 432 public school districts have settled their 1985-86 teacher contracts. The 103 districts which have reported settling teacher contracts for this year average an 8.4% increase in salaries and benefits from last year, more than twice the rate of inflation.

"When households dependent on the agricultural economy see their income falling, their farms being sold, and then watch teachers' unions get their demands for substantial salary hikes, it creates many unhappy taxpayers. School boards are caught in the middle trying to pay staff members, keep tax levies down, and meet all of the demands for implementing new educational programs required by the state. As a result, more and more taxpayers are just refusing to approve the levies set by their school boards. They say that the spending must stop somewhere — it's too bad that it has to be at the expense of the educational programs for boys and girls," Tipler commented.

School boards whose residents have not endorsed their tax levies at the annual budget meeting have until Oct. 21 to levy taxes sufficient to operate schools for the coming year.

payments and no money being earned to offset the cost. In a report from the district's auditing firm, the company recommended the new borrowing method, indicating it was a better operating practice than the one being presently used by the district.

Gorder presented a list of five banks who had bid on the loan. The board approved going with the low bidder, First Bank of Milwaukee.

In other action, the board approved recommendations from the Finance Transportation, Building and Grounds Committee to obtain bids for roof repairs on the Wayne Annex, District Office, and heating duct work for the 700 area of the high school. Repair of the high school gym divider and replacement of the water softener were also approved with money to come from the State Trust loan.

Ralph Horner, a former board member, told the meeting he was concerned with the board's spending Fund 40 money on small items. "When you fritter it away on all these small items, are you going to come back to the voters and ask for more?" questioned Horner. Finance Committee Chairman Perry Ankerson told Horner the administration had been instructed to prepare a priorities list for the remaining $75,000.

"At our last meeting I received a list of projects, but now I've asked the administration to go back and list them in order of priority, from #1 down," Ankerson said that list would be ready for his committee's October 28th meeting and invited everyone concerned about the fund to attend.

In other reports, Policy Committee Chairman Neal Weare informed the board his group's next meeting had been scheduled for November 18th. We're going to have several guests including Senators Donald Stitt and Scott McCallum, and Representatives Mary Panzer and Dwight York, said Weare. It's a meeting that should be of concern to everyone because we're going to ask these legislators about what happened to the 1% sales tax increase that was supposed to be used for schools. Rough estimates indicate that if that money would have gone where it was supposed to, Wisconsin taxpayers would have seen a 40% to 60% reduction in their property taxes.

Weare said he was expecting 100 to 200 people to attend. It's a very important meeting, noted Weare, and maybe we can get something going in Kewaskum that will spread throughout the state.

In other business, the board heard a presentation from Kewaskum Elementary School Principal Richard Zarling and Guidance Counselor Milt Dickinson on the district's participation and curriculum development for a Child Abuse program.

Zarling said several people from the counseling and teaching staff, along with himself, had been working with the Fond du Lac School District, Washington County and State Department of Public Instruction, to develop a curriculum for such a program. Fond du Lac's funding is tight, but they have taken us under their wing as a pilot program and voluntarily worked with us for the past eight months, said Zarling.

Zarling stated Washington County's abuse cases have risen from 40 in 1983, to 125 in 1984, a 112% increase in one year. Studies indicate that five out of every 25 kids will have been abused before they graduate from high school, said Zarling, and most of them before the age of ten. So, there is definitely a need for the program, he noted. Our program would be covered under grants which have already been given to Washington County and the DPI, said Zarling.

The board approved Zarling's request to proceed with the program and board member Jean Goeden volunteered to work on the committee.

District Administrator Penny Kleinahns informed the board she had hoped to present a candidate for the position of Director of Instruction. Unfortunately, said Kleinahns, the two finalists I had selected were also being considered by other districts and they were snatched away from us.

Rather than go through the list of remaining candidates. Kleinahns said she was considering postponing her search until next spring with the hope that other candidates might become available. I want the best person we can find for the job.

The board also approved several administrative recommendations including contract changes, a teacher resignation, and approval of the 1985-86 wage agreement for support staff personnel.

Trick or Treat Hours

The Village of Kewaskum will hold its annual Trick or Treat event on Sunday, October 27, 1985, between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m.

As in the past, the Kewaskum Police Department wishes to take this opportunity to remind parents and children of several safety tips to make this day as safe as possible.

Parents should check masks and costumes to ensure the child's field of vision is not restricted.

If possible, parents or an older brother or sister should accompany youngsters to help them cross streets and report any suspicious activity to the Kewaskum Police Department. It is very important any incidents are reported promptly so they can be checked out while still fresh in the minds of the children.

Parents should not follow children in autos. An excited child might dash into the street even though normally they are very safety orientated.

The Kewaskum Auxiliary Police will be on extra patrol in all neighborhoods to assist trick or treaters any way possible.

If we all do our part, we will give our children a fun time with pleasant memories.

KHS Key Club Will Go 'Trick-or-Fooding' Oct. 27 for Food Pantry

It's Trick-or-Treat time again! And this year there will be a new twist! The food will be donated to the West Bend Food Pantry.

The Key Club would also like to help out any parents that will not be able to take their children

CANCER RISK

Twenty years may elapse between exposure to a carcinogen and the development of cancer. Americans have been taking cinnamylanthranilate for years as grape or cherry flavoring in soft drinks, ice cream, bakery, candy, gelatin and chewing gum. High doses have caused cancer in male rats. Is There a Kewaskum Jaycee Haunted House?

Yes! There is going to be a Haunted House this Halloween, just the location is changed. With no available facilities in Kewaskum, the Kewaskum Jaycees have "teamed-up" with the West Bend Jaycees to bring you the best - of the best! The Haunted House will be located in the Washington Mall in West Bend. Tickets are $1.50 and contain over $5.00 worth of redeemable coupons. For example - the Landmark Inn of Kewaskum will be offering 10% OFF on a pizza of your choice with each ticket sold.

The Haunted House will run from Oct. 24 (nightly 7 to 10 p.m.) through Halloween on the 31st. Watch for more details.

School Closings Due To Bad Weather Will Be Announced on Radio

As in past years, we will use the radio stations in West Bend (WBKV), Fond du Lac (WFON and KFIZ) and Sheboygan (WHBL) to announce school closings because of bad weather or other emergency situations.

When school is being called off in the morning, we will have the announcement on the air as early as possible.

When school has begun but the weather is bad, please try to listen during the day for school closing announcements. The district is very hesitant about closing school during the day because we are concerned that parents may not be home when children arrive. Sometimes, however, this becomes necessary to avoid excessive problems with getting students home on buses at a later time of the day.

We will try to announce a school closing during the day at least an hour before we dismiss the students.

When school has been cancelled it means that all activities for that day will be cancelled and re-scheduled as necessary.

District Administrator

On Tuesday, Oct. 8th, Mrs. Carol Martin's Child Development class went on a field trip to St. Joseph's Hospital at West Bend.

While at the hospital, Ms. Jody Held, an obstetrics nurse and the teacher of the prenatal

Students had the opportunity to visit the labor room, delivery room, the new born babies in the nursery and ask many questions pertaining to the development of the baby, not to mention what things happen during labor. Students felt the experience was very rewarding.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK — Gary Moody and his son Tim were given a tour of the Kewaskum Fire Station by firefighter Morrie Belger. The Kewaskum Fire Department held open house Thursday in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week.

Boettcher - Hartmann

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boettcher, 1640 River View Drive, Kewaskum, are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Kimberly Ann, to James Jerome Hartmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Hartmann, 7220 Beaver Dam Road, Allenton.

Kimberly is a graduate of Kewaskum High School and Northwest Schools in Portland, Oregon. She is now employed at Serigraph Sales Mfg. Co., Inc., West Bend. James is a graduate of Slinger High School and is engaged in farming.

Three Injured In Accidents

Accidents last week sent three people to St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend with minor injuries.

John Wulff of Mohawk Drive, Theresa, received a fractured leg when the car he was driving was hit while leaving the Dinner Bell Restaurant near the intersection of U.S. 41 and State 28 west of Kewaskum Tuesday afternoon.

Also injured in the accident was Marie Laurey of Lake Zurich, Ill., a passenger in a car driven by William Bedurske, also of Lake Zurich. She received a bump on her head and abrasions to her chin. Both were taken by the Allenton rescue squad to the hospital.

The Bedurske car was headed north on U.S. 41 and passing a semi as it turned into the restaurant. Wulff was pulling out of the restaurant and was struck by Bedurske, according to the sheriff's report.

Liza M. Rahlf of 147 County S, Kewaskum, was injured Monday evening. She received a bump on her head when her car overturned on U.S. 45, 4/10 of a mile north of Sandy Ridge Road. She was also taken to St. Joseph's. Her car was northbound on U.S. 45, according to the sheriff's report, when a southbound car forced her off the road as it passed another vehicle. The vehicle continued on without stopping.

'Once Upon a Mattress'

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 10
Friday, Oct. 18, 1985

Ron Theusch as Sir Harry and Ada Thull as Lady Larken rehearse a scene from "Once Upon a Mattress."

Anne Rosenberger, Queen, Andy Medley, King, and Leah Kuphal, Lady in Waiting.

Did you ever try sleeping on a bed of twenty mattresses with a pea placed under the bottom mattress? Now if that tiny pea can be felt under all those mattresses, then you are certainly a sensitive person indeed and deserve to wed the Prince.

This is a very brief idea from the musical "Once Upon A Mattress" taken from the book "The Princess and the Pea."

Kewaskum High School will be presenting this musical comedy on November 8 and 9, 1985. The production will be shown in the High School Auditorium with ticket prices being $3.50 adults and $2.00 students.

The cast of fifty plus students have been busy rehearsing since school started and are really working hard to give you another excellent show.

Moraine Orchestra In Concert at UWWC

On October 20 at 7:30 p.m., the Moraine Orchestra will present a concert featuring members of the University of Wisconsin Center-Washington County music faculty as soloists. The concert will be in the UWWC Theatre.

Lesley Conger-Hatch will perform Vivaldi's Piccolo Concerto in C. Ms. Conger-Hatch is principal flute in the Moraine Orchestra and has the same position with the Milwaukee Civic Symphony.

Peter Ayer will sing Il Mio Tesoro Intanto from Mozart's opera DON GIOVANNI. Mr. Ayer, music professor at UWWC, conducts the Moraine Area Chorus and the Ayer Ensemble.

Albert Asch will perform Von Weber's Concertino for Clarinet and Orchestra. Mr. Asch, a music professor at UWWC, conducts the Lakeshore Symphonic Band.

Anna Asch will perform Bagatelles for Piano and Orchestra by Tcherpnin. Mrs.

Asch is the piano instructor at UWWC and is President of the Moraine Area Private Teachers' Association.

David Schleif will be guest conductor for the Mozart and the Von Weber selections. Mr. Schleif is the orchestra director at the West Bend High Schools and has played viola and flute with the orchestra.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Asch, will perform Ballet from Petite Suite by Debussy, Overture in D by Schubert, and Sixth Hungarian Rhapsody by Liszt.

Future appearances of the orchestra include a concert at 5th Avenue United Church of Christ on December 7 at 7:30 p.m. The choirs of U.C.C. will participate with the orchestra on selections from The Messiah.

On February 22 at 7:30 p.m., the orchestra will give a concert featuring the winners of the 1986 Concerto Contest, and on April 19th there will be a Night at the Pops with the orchestra and soloists in the UWWC gym. Refreshments will be served.

Letters to the Editor

Editor - Kewaskum Statesman:

The 1986 Senior Class of Kewaskum High School would like to take this opportunity to thank many people for helping make Homecoming '85 a big success. Our thanks, first of all, to the Statesman for printing all of our articles and pictures; to all the businesses who let us put up signs and posters. We sure appreciate it, thank you.

Without the time and services of the following people the Homecoming parade would have been very small: The people who provided convertibles and T-tops, Squinty Manthei, Ray Mertzig, Killy Honeck, Mike Geldreich, Tracy Prescott, Tom Kudek, Phillip Newhauser, Dave Vogt, Jim and Sheila Phillip, Ivan Kumrow, Debi Seidemann and Dave Goeden, the Schmidts for their team of horses and wagon which carried the football team, H. Laubenstein & Son for providing the tractors which pulled the class floats, and to the people who provided the wagons which were used for the floats.

We would also like to thank Holy Trinity and the American Legion for the use of their card tables for the dance. A big thank you to the Johnson Bus Company for letting us build our float in their building. And finally thank you to everyone who participated or just observed the activities. Your support is always appreciated.

The Class of 1986
Larry Ammel,
Senior Advisor

Citizens of
Washington County,

On October 22, 1985, the Washington County Board of Supervisors will meet at the Washington County Courthouse in West Bend. This will be the meeting to attend! The County Board will be voting on the final report of the Washington County Library Planning Committee. Attending this meeting will be another opportunity to show the Board just how much support there is by residents for this vital service.

If you cannot attend, the time for ACTION is now. Notify your Supervisor of your support and also the Chairman, Reuben Schmahl. Ask that your comments be made part of the public record.

The Washington County Library Planning Committee should be awarded for their efforts in bringing adequate library service to all Washington County residents. What better way than to approve the plan brought forward.

Our County Board can bring Washington County citizens' library services in line with services throughout Wisconsin. They can make it possible for all citizens to have a library card that will not only allow them to borrow materials from all the public libraries in Washington County, but also from libraries all over the state that are part of the system. This benefit will benefit all municipalities with libraries and those surrounding areas without. The service increase will not raise the taxes in municipalities with libraries. The tax increase to surrounding areas would be only .138 per thousand. There are 13 other benefits outlined in the Countywide Library Plan proposed.

Don't allow our supervisors to file this plan on the shelf with the others. Call and let yourself be heard - "Washington County Supervisors implement this plan Now!"

Jacqueline L. Hansen
President
League of Women Voters of
Washington County

October 10, 1985

Our nation has 27 million people who cannot read or write!! Our county board of supervisors can take steps now to alleviate the problem by voting for county-wide library service for Washington County. All of our representatives on the county board need to be contacted by education, business and social service agency leaders lobbying for people in need of remedial reading and writing skills. Employers know these people are often identified by the mistakes they make on the job or while filling out employment applications.

As individuals we have a social responsibility to insure that efficient library service is available to all 86,000 Washington County citizens.

After this goal is achieved our pride in our county will greatly increase.

Thank You,
Collene Anderson

Tractor Driving Contest

Todd Steger attended the State Tractor Driving Contest at Arlington Farm near Madison on September 7. The contest consisted of two wheel backing (manure), four wheel backing (wagon), written exam, and troubleshooting of a tractor. Todd placed seventh overall, facing some tough competition. He did very well on the two wheel and four wheel, but did poorly on the test to keep him out of the top placings.

Todd did a fine job representing the Kewaskum FFA earlier this summer, taking home a first place trophy at sectional competition in Hartford. He beat out the other 14 competitors by a wide margin. Todd competed in sectionals last year also, but placed 5 in 15 competitors. Good job Todd!

Don't be deceived.

"A Hunting We Will Go" will be the theme for Lucky Shoppers club members when the Kewaskum Business Association kicks off its new promotion October 21. This "Number Hunt" promotion will give lucky shoppers a chance to share in over $300 in valuable merchandise prizes. In addition to the regular Friday cash bonus numbers every member of the Business Association will post from one to ten extra Lucky Shoppers numbers in their place. Each participating business will have different numbers and many will display the prizes to be awarded before the day of the "hunt." All the winners have to do is find their numbers in any of the various business places and pick up their prizes.

The village had a new kind of visitor last Sunday. A resident of the neighborhood called to report seeing a deer roaming around the high school playground and athletic field at about 9:30 a.m. The animal was a large doe. The deer apparently entered the village limits from the north, passed through several yards, crossed Second Street, and then very boldly and nonchalantly strolled about on the athletic field. After drawing the attention of residents of the area and creating excitement among the children who were unable to believe their eyes, the doe then took off between the houses again.

Miss Ruth Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Schultz, Kewaskum, and Norbert Weis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregor Weis, Campbellsport, were married during a ceremony performed at Campbellsport on October 8.

Dennis Pillar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pillar, Route 1, Kewaskum, and a senior in Kewaskum Community High School, has been honored for his outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given last spring.

Miss Harriet L. Klumb, Route 3, West Bend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klumb, became the bride of William M. Kolbe of Milwaukee on October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gruhle of Route 1, Kewaskum, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Karen Mae, to Ronald L. McCreedy of South Milwaukee, on June 4.

Daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew "Gene" Gruber, Kewaskum, on October 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miske, Route 1, Allenton, on October 9, and to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Werhanowicz, Route 2, Kewaskum, on October 10.

Fire destroyed the large barn on the George Herman farm on Highway 28, in the Town of Wayne, several miles west of this village at 8 a.m. last Wednesday morning. A large amount of hay and grain stored in the barn were also consumed by the flames. The origin of the fire is unknown and the loss is fully covered by insurance. The Kohlsville fire department was called out, but arrived too late to be of any service to the barn as the flames had gained too great a headway. They were instrumental, however, in saving the surrounding buildings, and preventing the fire from spreading.

Posters have already been circulated by the high school announcing its production of three one-act plays on November 4th and 5th. The three plays selected and the cast included in each play are as follows: "Uncle George Pops In," with Frances Bunkelmann, Doris Mae Rosenheimer, Herbert Hopkins, Vilas Bartelt, Ray Pfenning and Helen Rosenthal; "A Case of Suspension," with Viola Backhaus, Armond Mertz, Janice Koch, Ruby Menger, Norma Hawig, Permin Kohler, Anthony Uelmen, Delbert Backhaus, Marie Beilke and Carl Kohlschmidt; and "Elmer," with Harry Koch, Lucille Romaine, Eleanor and Elaine Schleif, Marion Petermann, Dorothy Backhaus, Dolores Horning, Howard Schmidt and Vilas Backhaus.

A very colorful church wedding was consummated here at the Ev. Luth. St. Lucas Church, October 12, when Miss Elizabeth Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keller of this village, became the bride of Raymond Keno, son of Mrs. Libbie Keno of Campbellsport.

Plans have been prepared for a 52 x 122 foot combination engineer's office and building for storing equipment owned by Washington County in West Bend. Preliminary steps have been taken for the erection of the proposed building, but the matter will not be decided until later. It will be of brick reinforced concrete and steel, two stores high with a concrete foundation, and is estimated to cost $40,000. It will be built adjoining the present highway shop on Highway 33, east of West Bend.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bartelt on the arrival of a baby girl born last Thursday.

Last Saturday there appeared an article in the Milwaukee Sentinel written by J.O. Nigh of this village which read as follows: "There are a number of Indian graves in what is called North Side Park. Chief Kickapoo and Chief Kewaskum are buried in this park. I thought that the state might want to preserve the graves. I suggest that the archeological society be notified before the graves are mutilated. Why not have the state buy this burying ground and protect the graves. I think there are between three and four hundred graves on the banks of the Milwaukee River. The grounds are now used as a park. The state could still use it as a park and yet furnish protection to the graves."

Mr. and Mrs. John Rinzel met with a serious accident last Sunday evening while returning home from Beechwood. Just as they turned the corner at Frank Schultz's, they were met by another rig. Mr. Rinzel did not see the other rig and a collision was the result. The occupants of the rigs were thrown out. Mr. Rinzel's hip was slightly injured, and little Leander had one of his eyes slightly injured. Both buggies were damaged.

The approaching marriage of William Bremser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bremser, to Miss Martha Laubach, both of St. Michaels, was announced in church last Sunday.

At the Ev. Peace Church last week Saturday Rev. Mohme pronounced the words that made "two hearts beat as one." The young couple who enlisted in each other's happiness was Miss Lorinda Guth, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Guth, and John F. Schaefer, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Schaefer, both of this village.

The marriage of Otto E. Lay, son of Mrs. H. J. Lay of this village, to Florence S. Wood of Appleton will take place at the

Girl Scout News

At the recent Girl Scout leader meeting each leader and co-leader rededicated herself as a volunteer who will spend as much time as possible to serve God and her country, to help people at all times and to live by the Girl Scout Law.

There is no pay for these special women but they don't ask for pay either. The only thing that really means something to them is when someone just says THANK YOU.

You may ask what is a volunteer? This may be your answer.

Volunteers are like FORD... They have better ideas.

Volunteers are like COKE... They are the real thing.

Volunteers are like PAN AM... They make the going great. Volunteers are like PEPSI... They've got a lot to give.

Volunteers are like DIAL SOAP... They care more; don't you wish everybody did?

Volunteers are like VO-5 HAIRSPRAY... Their goodness holds in all kinds of weather.

Volunteers are like HALL-MARK CARDS... They care enough to give the very best.

Volunteers are like STANDARD OIL... You expect more and you get it.

But most of all Volunteers are like FROSTED FLAKES... They're GREEEEAAT!!!

Just to serve as a reminder that all QSP money must be turned in to Janet Panzer by October 13.

LATCHKEY CHILDREN: YOUNG CHILDREN AT HOME ALONE

An estimated 5 to 12 million children between the ages of 5 and 13 are regularly left alone at home for some part of the day. Leaving children alone always causes some anxiety, but knowing they are prepared to cope with situations that may arise will lessen the worry.

As a parent:

- Be sure your children know how to use the telephone (both pushbutton and dial models) to make local, long distance and emergency calls and to dial the operator.
- Post emergency numbers near all the phones in your home.
- Make sure your children lock the door after they arrive home and then check in with you or a trusted neighbor.
- Teach them to work the door and window locks in your home.
- Tell your children what to do in case of fire.
- Tell your children that they are never to go anywhere with another adult, even one who says he or she was sent by you. Adopt a family "code word" to be used if a third party is ever to pick up your children.
- Teach your children, if they ever feel they're being followed, not to run home but to a store, public place, back to school, or to the nearest "Safe House."
- Teach your children never to get near or into a stranger's car, or to take a walk with a stranger who says he needs the children to "show" him something.
- Impress on your children that you always want to be told if anything happens to them while they're away from you that makes them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Children will sometimes phrase this as feeling "funny."
- Tell your children not to go into anyone's house or apartment without your permission and make sure you know the people who live in any home your child wants to visit.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the application for Operator's (bartender's) License upon proper payment of fee and authorized the office to issue said License as follows:

Tod M. Seltrecht, Kewaskum, WI

NOTE: The Police Department had no objections to the application.

RESOLUTION NO. 85-21
A RESOLUTION SUPPORTING SB-1570 RELATING TO THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

WHEREAS, the U.S. Supreme Court, in the case of Garcia vs. San Antonio metropolitan transit authority, on February 19, 1985, reversed an earlier ruling and held that the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) is applicable to state and local government employers even when they are exercising traditional governmental functions; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Department of Labor, on June 14, 1985, publicized its intention to subject local public employers to investigations and enforcement, beginning October 15, 1985, in areas formerly exempt as traditional governmental functions, for acts or omissions dating back to April 15, 1985; and

WHEREAS, public employers may be liable in private suits for acts of omission dating back to February 19, 1985; and

WHEREAS, the 1974 amendments making the FLSA applicable to local government employers provided for an orderly, phased-in effective date, and the current abrupt applicability of the FLSA has created extreme confusion and uncertainty in the middle of the fiscal year of Wisconsin's cities and villages; and

WHEREAS, the application of FLSA's time and half overtime pay requirement will in general result in greatly increased (and unbudgeted) costs, and could lead to a reduction in services; and

WHEREAS, the FLSA prohibits the use of compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay for public employees, even though this is a common, long-standing and favored practice, which is typically provided for in collective bargaining agreements; and

WHEREAS, the FLSA permits labor unions certified by the National Labor Relations Board to use "comp" time under sec. 7(b) of the Act, but does not allow public employee unions this flexibility; and

WHEREAS, the provision of law enforcement and firefighting services will be particularly adversely affected by the overtime pay requirement, in spite of the limited flexibility given through the authority to establish 7 - 28 day work periods, due, in part, to the establishment of maximum hours which do not accurately reflect common scheduling practices; and

WHEREAS, the economic provision of firefighting services is threatened in small and medium sized Wisconsin communities because Department of Labor regulations provide that volunteer firefighters who receive more than $2.50 per call are employees under the Act.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum does hereby request the Congress to provide Wisconsin's cities and villages with relief from the unreasonable features of the FLSA, in particular the mandatory overtime provisions, the retroactive effective date and the treatment of volunteer firefighters as employees, by enacting Senate Bill 1570, introduced by Senators Nickles and Wilson; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to each member of the Wisconsin congressional delegation and to the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee.

Passed and Approved this 7th day of October, 1985 by the Kewaskum Village Board.

David E. Nigh

Matt Flynn Announces Senate Candidacy

Matt Flynn

Matt Flynn, former Chairman of the Democratic Party of Wisconsin, formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic Party's nomination to run in 1986 for the U.S. Senate seat currently held by Republican Robert Kasten. Flynn made his announcement in ten separate appearances throughout the state of October 9-11.

Flynn, a Milwaukee lawyer, had previously given informal indications that he would seek the nomination. Flynn made his formal announcement in press conferences held in Milwaukee, Madison, LaCrosse, Eau Claire, Superior, Rhinelander, Wausau, Green Bay, Fond du Lac, and Waukehsa, during the three day period.

Flynn challenged Kasten's claims of increases in United States international prestige and economic well-being. "America is going bankrupt under the Republicans," Flynn said. "Under the Republicans, we have reached the low points of American prestige and influence throughout the world. It is time for an American restoration."

"Our economic restoration must be based on debt-free growth," Flynn said. "The Republicans have doubled the national debt in four years; they have shipped three million jobs a year overseas because of huge trade deficits; and they have saddled America's farmers with $214 billion in aggregate farm debt."

"The Republicans say they are for the family, but they are against the family farm," said Flynn. "The Republican solution to the farm crisis is for more farmers to go out of business. But the real solution is to put the Republicans out of business."

Flynn said that America needs higher farmer income, not lower support prices. "One hundred percent parity and an aggressive export policy would do more for America's national defense than all of the MX missiles we could build," Flynn said. Born Oct. 3, 1947, the 38 year old Flynn is a 1975 magna cum laude graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School. Flynn currently is a partner in the Milwaukee law firm of Quarles & Brady. Prior to entering law school, Flynn served as an officer in the United States Navy.

Flynn is the oldest of 11 children whose parents Gerard and Geraldine Flynn, live in Random Lake, Wisconsin. Flynn is married to the former Mary Suzanne Etter of Monroe, Wisconsin. The couple lives in Milwaukee.

"We are certainly indebted to Robert Kasten for his leadership," Flynn stated ironically. "We are indebted to the tune of $2 trillion. Kasten voted for a $25 billion MX missile; a $600 billion Star Wars system; and billions for nerve gas and other military programs. The principal job facing this country is restoring American jobs and balancing the budget, not bankrupting the country with extravagant and unnecessary military spending."

"Wisconsin needs a Senator for Wisconsin, not a third Senator from Texas," said Flynn. "Robert Kasten is the hired hand of Texas oil companies. He is leading the fight to strip us of our deductions for state income and property taxes, while adding billions of dollars in tax breaks for the oil companies."

"Fighting Bob LaFollette stood up to the lumber companies and the railroads," Flynn said. "One hundred years later, Dallas Bob Kasten is the cat's paw of oil and gas interests, and we are paying his salary."

Flynn was elected Chairman of the Wisconsin Democratic Party in 1981. Flynn successfully pulled the State Democratic Party out of a $183,000 debt by the time he stepped down as Chairman this past summer. The Democratic Party membership has also increased, and at the time of Flynn's stepping down as the Party's Chairman, the Party was operating with a surplus of funds.

The Democratic primary will be held in September, 1986, with the general election in November. Former Assistant Attorney General Ed Garvey has previously announced his candidacy for the Democratic Party's nomination.

Flynn also announced his 12 Congressional District coordinators and 79 county coordinators for the election.

McCallum to Hold Office Hours in 18th Senate Dist.

State Sen. Scott McCallum will hold office hours in the 18th Senate District on Tuesday, October 22, and Monday, October 28.

McCallum (R-Fond du Lac) said he thought the hours were the best time for people of the area to express their concerns, and the best time for him to hear first-hand what the needs of the people are.

"The time I spend meeting people in the district is usually some of the most productive of all," McCallum said. "It is then that I hear what concerns and problems they have that I can help with."

McCallum urges all 18th Senate district area residents with concerns they would like to express to see him during the hours listed.

"Not everyone should feel they have to say something," McCallum said. "Sometimes it is just as helpful to listen to concerns other people are expressing."

McCallum's schedule of office hours for Monday, Oct. 28, in this area follows:

9:30 - 10:00 a.m. — TOWNSHIP OF AUBURN, Auburn Town Hall, Jct. of 67 and 45.

10:45 - 11:15 a.m. — TOWNSHIP OF SCOTT, Scott Town Hall, CTH. "A" and Boltonville Road.

The Indian Princess Twirlettes

Performance at the Booster Club Basketball Game

[Third in a series]

A big event for the twirlers each year is the chance to perform in the field house at Kewaskum High School in front of hundreds of spectators. This year the Kewaskum Booster Club game was held March 23rd. The Indian Princess Twirlettes had been invited to be one of the entertaining groups to perform between basketball games. This was the first time within the school year that the twirlers from the district's four elementary schools, Farmington, Beechwood, Kewaskum, and Wayne, had the chance to perform together.

At 8:00 p.m., forty-five twirlers age K-3rd grade marched onto the basketball court, faced the audience, and performed a routine to the song, Jitterbug. Following this grand performance thirty-five twirlers age 4-6th grade marched onto the court with their flag batons and stunned the audience with a magnificent performance to the song, Automatic.

Immediately after the performance, the girls were to go directly into the old gym where professional photographs were taken of the entire group and of the individual groups from each of the four elementary schools. With a lot of hard work from the twirlers and patience from the parents, the night turned out to be a huge success!

Kimberly Frank, along with the rest of the Flag Baton Twirlers anxiously waiting for their turn to perform at the Kewaskum Booster Club basketball game.

Some of the Flag Baton Twirlers performing a routine to the song "Automatic" at the Kewaskum Booster Club basketball game.

President William Howard Taft weighed 350 pounds. He had a special bathtub made for him which was so big that when it was delivered, four White House workmen climbed in and had their picture taken in it.

Furbearers Hunting, Trapping Seasons Open Oct. 19; Outlook Good

October 19th marks the beginning of hunting or trapping seasons for bobcat, raccoon, red and gray fox, beaver, muskrat, mink and coyote, said Chuck Pils, furbearer specialist for the Department of Natural Resources.

Last year, Wisconsin's trapped and hunted furbearer harvest was valued at $8.2 million, Pils said. "The state invests few, if any funds to manage furbearer habitat, which makes the value of the wild fur harvest stand out all the more as a contributor to the overall state economy," he said.

This year, fur values are comparable to last season's Pils said. The number of furbearers in the state has been holding steady for the past several seasons, he added, so season prospects for hunters and trappers should be at least as good as last years.

"Beaver are at especially high numbers this year, around 100,000, so prospects for beaver trappers are good throughout the state," Pils noted.

Beaver, muskrat and mink may only be trapped, not hunted, Pils reminded. Species that may be both hunted and trapped are bobcat, red and gray fox, raccoon and coyote.

Hunting and trapping requirements for residents and nonresidents vary, Pils said. Nonresidents are not allowed to trap Wisconsin furbearers. Residents must purchase a trapping license from DNR. Nonresidents who wish to hunt raccoon, shunk, weasel, opossum, bobcat, red and gray fox and coyote need to purchase a furbearing animal hunting license. Residents need either a small game or sports license to hunt these species. Either firearms or bows may be used to hunt furbearers.

Pils said a new rule this year required hunters and trappers to turn skinned bobcat carcasses over to DNR for wildlife research purposes.

Here is Pils' species-by-species outlook for this year's furbearer supply and harvest compared to last year's:

Muskrat is the "number one, bread-and-butter animal for Wisconsin trappers," Pils noted. In the 1984-85 season, trappers harvested 913,000 muskrat pelts worth $3 million. The population this year is steady statewide, he said.

Raccoon are second only to muskrat in terms of total harvest and fur value, Pils said. Last season 210,000 raccoon were hunted and trapped. Populations are steady this year, and numbers are especially good in the rolling hills and wooded areas of southwestern Wisconsin.

Beaver are spilling out of the state's seams, a condition wildlife managers have been observing in all the northern Great Lakes states for the last several years, Pils said. Beaver are so numerous that the dams they build are damaging the state's trout streams. That problem, combined with low pelt prices and demand, has prompted DNR to continue its subsidy program to encourage beaver trapping. Trappers under contract to DNR are paid $25 for each beaver over 28 inches that is taken during special trapping seasons. About 28,000 beaver were trapped last year.

Coyote are "among the most underharvested furbearers in Wisconsin," Pils said, partly because coyote pelts from the upper Midwest are somewhat lower in quality than the more luxuriant pelts harvested in western states. Coyote are found in every Wisconsin county, including Milwaukee, but are particularly numerous in the northern part of the state. "Coyote numbers in the south have really increased over the past decade," Pils said. Trappers and hunters took about 2900 coyote last season.

Mink populations are good throughout the state, but especially in east-central Wisconsin where wetlands that mink favor are more abundant. About 34,000 mink were trapped last season, many taken incidental to muskrat trapping. The wild mink harvest supplements all those raised by mink ranchers, Pils said. Wisconsin raises more ranch mink than any other state.

Red and gray fox numbers are holding steady, Pils said. Red fox are much more abundant than gray fox, and are found throughout the state. About 24,000 were hunted and trapped last season. Fur prices for red fox have changed little from last year. Grey fox are most numerous in southwestern Wisconsin along the Mississippi River. About 4,000 were taken last year in what Pils describes as a "low but steady harvest."

Bobcat are secretive, solitary animals that prefer living in northern Wisconsin. The bobcat harvest is confined to the area of the state located north of Highway 64. Hunters and trappers may take only one bobcat during the season. Last year 260 bobcat were taken, most by hunters using dogs.

For a listing of seasons, bag limits and other information related to Wisconsin furbearer hunting and trapping, check the 1985 hunting and trapping regulations pamphlets.

IN MEMORY
In loving memory of MICHAEL STERN, who passed away two years ago, Oct. 18, 1983:

Little we knew when we awoke
The sorrow the day would bring
The call was sudden, the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear.
You bid no one a last farewell
Nor even said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew
And only God knows why.
It only take a little space,
To write how much we miss you
But it will take the rest of our lives
To forget the day we lost you.
Sadly missed by mom and brother Tom.

The flying snake of Java is able to flatten itself out like a ribbon and sail like a glider from tree to tree.

The boys finished 8th in the team standings with Miles Shaw again the top runner for Kewaskum, taking 10th place in the overall standings.

Kettle Moraine Hunting Good

A September 28th spot check of bowhunters in the Kettle Moraine area southeast of the village confirmed reports by the Department of Natural Resources that the Wisconsin deer population is up.

Of the seven parties that I surveyed, all reported seeing deer since the opening weekend of the season. The mild frost that we have had so far seems to have killed off most of the mosquitoes and hunters report that they are not much of a problem.

In a conversation with Conservation Warden Al Vader Blomen he reported that with one small exception, hunter compliance with game laws has been outstanding and "I would like to compliment them." The only problem that has shown up so far is some hunters not leaving the woods early enough.

The Village Sport Shop in Kewaskum has registered four deer in the bowhunters contest now going on, the biggest, an eight point, 148 lb. buck brought in by Dan Sarauer of Campbellsport.

Sixth Straight Loss

Indians Roughed Up at Sheboygan Falls, 27-0

By Chuck Voge

Scores are deceiving. If taken at face value, Friday night's 27-0 loss to the Sheboygan Falls Falcons would make it seem like the Indians were badly beaten. That's an understatement. THEY WERE MAULED.

Throughout the entire first half the Falls defense did whatever they wanted, whenever they wanted to do it, as they held Kewaskum to just one first down in the first 24 minutes of play on their home field.

With the exception of a fourth quarter, 30-yard pass from Rick Staehler to Mark Johnson, there were no offensive highlights by the Kewaskum team to write about.

At times it looked like Tim Rohlinger was going to be the one able to make some kind of progress on the ground for the Indians when he picked up good short yardage on back to back plays several times in the game, however, the Falls defense was quick to pick up on his running and shut it down.

Each time that Staehler was forced into a passing situation the Falls defense read it like a book, and it was hardly necessary for their defensive backs to cover the Kewaskum receivers as Falcon linebackers poured through to drop Staehler before he had time to get many pass plays airborne. One could only marvel at the courage shown by Staehler in calling more pass plays late in the game, because he must have known he was setting himself up to get dumped in Kewaskum's last minute attempts to put some points up on the board. That takes a lot of courage. If the Indians had the ball inside of the Falcon 20-yard line at all I must have missed it.

Two of the Falcon scores were by fullback Chad Oppeneer. On one he took it in from the 15 yd. line, and the other, a first and goal plunge. Another came on a first and ten 56-yard run by running back Todd Stoffregen. He had excellent blocking all the way and did a masterful job of following it. The final scoring play came when with 2:04 left to play in the third quarter, Falls quarterback Terry Van Engen threw to Todd Schneider for the score. Falls had another third quarter score called back because of a penalty.

They would have scored once more in the first quarter on a long pass by Van Engen, however, Kewaskum's Jerry Vetter did an excellent job of defusing the long bomb.

Worthy of special mention was the way that Kewaskum's players responded while they were being manhandled by the Falcon defense. Poundings this bad usually provide fertile ground for many tempers to flare up, and many times result in displays of bad sportsmanship by the team taking the pounding. This was not the case with the young Indians, however, as they showed incredible restraint and self discipline throughout the evening. Their conduct in the face of a very adverse situation says much for the character that these young men are developing under the direction of coaches Charland and Harlow.

It would have been understandable for Kewaskum fans to leave the game asking themselves, "Are the Indians really that bad of a team?" The answer, "ABSOLUTELY NOT!" A more accurate analysis would be that "Falls was just that good." In spite of the pounding the Indians took from the Falls defense they are still an exciting team to watch and just as capable of bringing the crowd to its feet at any moment. The young Indians played Friday night in a manner that was a credit to their school and community, but more importantly, "they played in a manner that was a credit to themselves."

The Falcons racked up 410 total offensive yards in the contest, while holding Kewaskum to just 62.

The setback left the Indians with an 0-4 record in Eastern Wisconsin play, and 0-6 overall.

Next the Indians take on Fox Valley Lutheran at Appleton on Saturday, Oct. 19, in an afternoon game at 1:30 p.m., having a bye in the EW schedule. See you at the game.

Double Hits are Costly to New Holstein in Loss to Indian Spikers

By Chuck Voge

The Indian girls volleyball team traveled to New Holstein Tuesday night, October 8th, and picked up an easy win to hang on to their share of the two-way tie for first place, in conference play.

Coach Rizzardi started all three games using his regular six starters, and did a minimum amount of substituting throughout the evening.

In game one the Indians came out playing with a vengeance, and killer instinct seldom seen in girls' teams. Two excellent spikes by Brenda Vetter, and one outstanding save by Michelle Gebheim helped the Kewaskum girls on their way to a 15-10 first game win over New Holstein. There was never a doubt as to who was in command throughout the whole game.

Game two was a different story for the Indians. With the exception of several powerful spikes by Lisa Fusek, the girls played flat and looked very tired. Fusek showed a big improvement by being much more selective in choosing what sets she chose to spike from. Those that were too far back from the net to hit for a sure winner she held back on and just bumped them back defensively. Game two went to the Huskies, 15-9.

About all the Indians had to do to win game three was show up for it. With the exception of one small rally by New Holstein that started with the score 11-4, Kewaskum, this one was no contest. Blum held service for six straight with one going for an ace, and the Kewaskum girls closed it out on four consecutive double hits by the Huskies. Final, 15-9 Kewaskum.

The freshmen won their match, 15-7, 6-15 and 15-9. The Junior Varsity lost, 15-3, 5-15 and 7-15.

Freshmen, JVs Lose to Falls

By Chuck Voge

The freshmen football squad lost to Sheboygan Falls here Oct. 10th, by a score of 14-6, in a game that coach Sorens described as "our best outing of the season!" Sorens went on to say that it might have been a different game except for a first quarter injury to Bob Castro. His running abilities were badly missed, and with his speed he might have broken one to turn the whole game around. Defensive tackle Mike Eichstedt and linebacker Mark Hartmann both did an outstanding job on defense and were in on many tackles.

The JVs lost 28-0 to Falls. Coach Pearson summed it up this way, "we're getting beat at the line of scrimmage both on offense and defense. We have to improve at the line."
