Miller's Furniture and Funeral Home Celebrate 75 Years in Business

[See related coverage on pages 10, 11, 12 and 13]

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Edward F. Miller, a carpenter by trade, could not possibly have anticipated, when he purchased a local furniture store and undertaking business on November 14, 1910, that he was starting a tradition which would span 75 years and four generations of his family.

Now, looking forward to celebrating Miller's Furniture and Funeral Home of Kewaskum's 75th anniversary, Miller's surviving children are reflecting back on a business which was a dominating factor in their lives and whose lives have become an integral part of the business.

When the elder Miller bought the furniture store and undertaking business of Frank Zweschka that year, his family was comprised of wife Margaret, daughter Isabella (now Sister Mary Aquin, retired) and son Edward E.

(Pat).

"You might say I was a charter member of the furniture store," stated Sister Mary Aquin. "I was six when Dad bought the business and we moved into the flat above the store. It became my job to dust the furniture after school and on Saturdays."

In those early days, remembered Sister Mary Aquin, there were no funeral homes. The undertaker went to the home of the deceased, prepared the body, and then the next of kin came to make a selection from the caskets which were stored in a back room of the furniture store. The casket was then taken back to the home where the body was placed in it. Visitation was held right in the home, then the casket was taken by horsedrawn hearse to the church and cemetery for burial.

In 1912, a daughter, Margaret, was born. When she was old enough, it became her job to babysit for the two later additions to the family, sons Joe and Fred. "I can remember a graduation picture of Dad and his classmates from the Goodman School of Embalming in Milwaukee," said Margaret.

"Mother was always on duty helping Dad with funeral work, answering the phone and taking care of the store when deliveries had to be made. If a woman died, Mother was in charge of dress, hairdo and cosmetics. It was everyone's job to help keep the elaborate windowed and plumed horsedrawn hearse clean and shining," said Margaret.

"Pat" Miller, the eldest son, continued his education graduating from Kewaskum High School, then working a few years for Rosenheimer's Department Store. At their request, Pat rejoined his parents in their business, receiving his funeral director's license in 1928.

In 1929, Pat, his wife Mary, and his parents, formed Miller's Incorporated. Realizing that funeral homes were coming into the picture, we rented a house on Main Street near the

No Action Taken on School District Priority List Items

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After considerable discussion Monday night, the Kewaskum School Board decided not to take any action on priority project recommendations presented by member Perry Ankerson and his Finance-Transportation-Buildings and Grounds Committee.

The committee had presented its list to the board recommending that the approximately $71,000 remaining in the Fund-40 (Wisconsin State Trust Fund Loan) account be used to accomplish, if possible, at least the top seven projects on its list.

Because the list contained only projected cost figures, and some bids are already considerably higher, the committee's suggestion was to complete as many of the projects as possible until the money was gone. If there were any monies left, the district could continue down the list until all the funds were spent.

However, after some discussion on a letter and audit report from the Department of Public Instruction concerning the district's food service operation, the board felt Ankerson should take the list back to committee, along with the food service report, to see if some of the DPI's recommendations should be included on that priorities list.

District Administrator Penny Kleinhans told the board that, while the DPI's recommendations were valid, she did not feel any of them, at this time, outranked those projects already on the Fund-40 list. "The top items on that list are urgent," she stated.

Kleinhans told the board neither she or the DPI expected the district to make the approximately $40,000 in equipment revamping and changes all in one year. These are things which we can do over several years, noted Kleinhans. She also indicated the food service projects could be done with money from the service's Fund-50, long term borrowing or Fund-10 general fund.

Board President Tom Brigham, however, still had some concerns and asked Ankerson to take the list and audit report back to committee for further review.

Both Kleinhans and Business Manager Cherna Gorder stressed the idea of long term borrowing during the discussions. Gorder said the borrowing brings in more state aids and, because of the district's low, long term borrowing levels, it loses approximately $20,000 in state aids each year. Gorder noted the district's reluctance to borrow money makes it difficult to do a lot of the projects and repairs which are facing the district.

Winter Arrives

Winter arrived early and unexpectedly over the weekend when approximately nine inches of snow fell on Friday night and Saturday in the area. Due to the wetness of the snow there was little drifting but numerous accidents were reported in the county because of poor visibility and slippery roads. As the result of rain and milder temperatures earlier this week, much of the snow had disappeared by Wednesday.

School District to Host Political Forum

The public is being urged to attend a meeting set for Monday, November 18, at 8:00 p.m. in the High School cafeteria, where community residents will have an opportunity to discuss such issues as taxes financing, legislative mandates, and newly proposed legislation, with their legislators.

Neal Weare, Vice President of the School Board, has made arrangements with Senators Scott McCallum and Donald Stitt, along with Assemblypersons Mary Panzer and Dwight York to be present.

Discussions will center around Governor Earl's "new" proposal to distribute $400 million to public school districts over the next four years as opposed to the 1% sales tax that was to have been earmarked for school funding and would have generated closer to $650 million per year.

Weare has stressed at previous school board meetings, that this issue is important not only to the taxpayers of the Kewaskum School District but to every taxpayer in the State of Wisconsin.

School Bd.

People just don't completely understand the borrowing and state aids process, she indicated.

Referring to the $400,000 loan, Gorder told the board, it's taking the district almost four years to use up that money. In the meantime, that unused money has been invested and is earning interest for the district equal almost to what the loan is costing us.

Kleinhans again told the board the district must look into developing a long term borrowing program for itself.

Because his committee is also involved with transportation, Ankerson addressed another concern of his committee, the fact that the district is not following the busing policies it has set up for itself. In response to this issue, Kleinhans informed the board that she and Mrs. Janet Martinson, a district resident, are gathering information which will be put into a report and presented to the board in the near future. Kleinhans said the DPI has told her it does have the district's original survey map concerning hazardous areas and busing routes. "It dates back to 1977, and is undoubtedly out of date, so it looks like we will be re-writing the maps and riding the buses to work out new routes and schedules," said Kleinhans.

The board also heard an update report on the status of the competency based testing program. George Allmann, a member of the CBT committee, told the board that since its approval of the project, nothing has been done to implement it. Because no policies, procedures, criteria and objectives have been established, the project has come to a halt. Due to the lack of action, the district will not be able to participate in the testing program until the Fall of 1986.

Kleinhans told the board, "policies must be in place before you can begin testing and this has not been done." Allmann also noted that, once the testing has begun, the district is required by law to provide remedial instruction for those students failing the tests. This requires time in the schedule and none of this has been done.

Allmann said the district would be allowed to participate in the program next year, however, the board must begin immediately to set up its program.

The board also discussed, at length, the leasing of a vehicle for use by the administrative personnel. After reviewing the costs, some of the board members felt it might be better to purchase a vehicle rather than lease. The board directed Gorder to look into the possibility of purchasing a good, low mileage, used vehicle and report back with her findings.

The purchase of a gas heater for the Middle School Industrial Arts area was also approved. Because there was a deviation in supplying electrical work, the board directed Buildings Superintendent Fred Boehlke to give the contract to the bidder which met the specifications and came closest to the approved figure of $1,315 or less.

Physical Education Instructor Mike Miller presented curriculum recommendations for the district's health and phy ed programs. However, because the principals had apparently never received the report for their review and comments, no action was taken. The administration staff will meet to discuss the recommendations and they will be brought back to the board next month.

Administrator Kleinhans informed the board she had a candidate for the position of Director of Instruction. She presented the credentials of Miss Julie Backus of Slinger, Brigham, however, asked to discuss the recommendation with Kleinhans before she took any final action.

The board had previously given approval to the administration earlier this year to hire a person for the position.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

American Education Week; Visit Your Schools Nov. 20

American Education Week will be celebrated in all schools of the Kewaskum District for one day only, Wednesday, Nov. 20. You are welcome to visit on this day between 9:05 a.m. and 3:40 p.m.

Parents will have the opportunity to observe the classes in action, meet their son's or daughter's teacher, and be a part of the school lunch program if they so desire at a cost of $1.35. The ticket must be purchased not later than 10:00 a.m.

While visitation has brought large numbers of parents to school in past years, it is hoped that even more will attend this year and participate in the program. It is felt that this type of observance will help you better understand the schools and facilities, and also give you an opportunity to talk informally with teachers and principals.

The next time you pass a school in the Kewaskum District, stop a moment. Take a good look. What do you see? A building? A group of children? A playground?

Of course, but you are also looking at much more - something you may not have thought about. School is an idea - an idea that every child in America deserves a quality education.

How much do you know about the schools in your community? Maybe you should know more. Why not see for yourself? Members of the Kewaskum District invite you to visit your schools on Wednesday, Nov. 20, during school hours to help celebrate American Education Week.

Parent-teacher conferences are also being held at the schools this Thursday, Nov. 14. Parents have been invited to meet the teachers and pick up report cards. Refreshments are being served.

Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation Candidate Chosen at KHS

Craig Hubbell

Craig Hubbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbell of Kewaskum, has been chosen to represent Kewaskum's sophomore class at the Hugh O'Brian (HOBY) Leadership Seminar which will be held this spring. Last year more than 8,700 sophomores, nominated to represent their school, attended all expense paid Hugh O'Brian Leadership seminars in all 50 states.

The foundation was established in 1958. Its purpose is to recognize and reward leadership potential in high school sophomores. While Craig attends the three day weekend workshops this spring, he and the 8,700 plus young people will explore the topic "America's Incentive System." The format for these workshops is simple: bring together a select group of high school sophomores with demonstrated leaders in business, education, government and the professions. Through intense but informal discussions, let the two interact. The young people get a realistic look at what makes America great and a better understanding of our nation's role in the world community.

This question-and-answer, give-and-take, format helps these sophomores known as HOBY Ambassadors, think for themselves. They learn that as individuals, they are important - that their thoughts and actions can make a difference. HOBY motivates students by showing them that HOW to think can be just as important as WHAT to think.

At the conclusion of the State Leadership Seminar, one boy and girl will be chosen to represent their state for a week long International Leadership Seminar.

As in the past, the Kewaskum chapter of the Kiwanis organization will sponsor this very worthwhile activity.

ALCOHOL & ASPIRIN

Although most people know that aspirin can upset the stomach and may even cause gastrulcer, we should know that aspirin and alcohol together are much more likely to do this. Alcohol acts as a solvent for aspirin and quickly carries it deep into the folds of the stomach's lining. Since alcohol is a stomach irritant too, it adds to the effect. Avoid taking aspirin and alcohol together.

Receive Citizen Recognition

Washington County Sheriff Clarence A. Schwartz has presented awards to two citizens in recognition of their acts of heroism in separate incidents.

On July 4, 1985, RICK G. HASBY, 261 W. Washington Street, Hartford, WI witnessed a vehicle driven by Julie Brown of Hartford, get struck by another vehicle on Highway 60 near Powder Hill Road. The Brown vehicle rolled over, landed on its roof and burst into flames. Mrs. Brown was able to escape but her husband, David L. Brown, was knocked unconscious. At great risk to himself, Rick Hasby ran to the burning vehicle and dragged the unconscious man out. Mr.

Hasby is the brother of Mrs. Brown.

On August 13, 1985, CARLA G. OLLE, 4900 W. Joleno Court, Brown Deer, was driving on Highway J south of Highway 167 when she saw another car stopped on the side of the road, apparently on fire. The driver of that vehicle, Mrs. Rose M. Friess, 78, of Hubertus, was unable to get out of the car. At great personal risk to herself, Mrs. Olle stopped her car, went to the burning auto and pulled Mrs. Friess out.

Both Mr. Hasby and Mrs. Olle were presented with special award plaques by Sheriff Schwartz, thanking them on behalf of the citizens of Washington County.

Kewaskum CARES Monthly News Notes

This column, Kewaskum CARES, will appear once a month to inform residents of the Kewaskum School District on activities of this new organization, which was formed to promote and improve our schools. In addition to Kewaskum CARES news, small tidbits about everyday activities in the school and in future columns, histories of the schools will appear.

Complaining about schools and school systems has become a popular past time in this country. While there is always room for improvement there is a great deal to commend in our school system. As with an individual, if the school administrators, teachers and students, hear nothing but negative comments, self esteem will be lost and the district will indeed deteriorate. In an effort to accent what is good and improve, Kewaskum Cares had adopted the motto, "We're good and getting better."

One way to get better is to get more community involvement in the schools. American Education Week is Nov. 18-22. All of the schools are sponsoring open houses Nov. 20. Attend and see what the schools are like in 1985. Another way to get community involvement and improve our schools is to enlist the help of citizens for the schools. If you could give even one hour a month to the school system it would help. There is need for people to tutor children in the grade schools. It has been estimated that there could be as many as 200 children in our district that could benefit from extra help that the teachers are unable to find time to give. CARES is looking for people who would also be interested in helping with clerical work, chaperoning extra curricular activities, or supervising activities in the class rooms, such as in computer labs. Maybe you will learn how to use the computers from the students!

Another goal of CARES is to compile a resource book for the teachers with the names of people in the community who could talk about their experiences, vocation or avocation. A special need at this time is for people to coach the Olympics of the Mind teams. Last year the district had six teams, one from each school, so six coaches are needed. The teams receive their problems in January and have until the end of March when the regionals are held to solve their problem. The coach literally coaches the team. It is the team members that have to do the work of solving the problem. The team can meet after school or on weekends at the discretion of the coach. For more information contact any of the schools or Tom Larsen.

Anyone who would like to help with other school activities contact one of the parent advisory board members of CARES. Their names follow: Loretta Kirmse, 692-2880 - Farmington; Ann Thull, 338-1466 - Kewaskum Elementary; Kathleen Ankerson, 629-5324, or Judy Boland, 629-9310 - Wayne; Susan Buechel, 626-4418 - Beechwood; Sheryl Rinzel, 626-4841 - Middle School; Joan Rosenberger, 692-2491 or Ruth Schmitt, 338-6964 - High School.

SCHOOL BRIEFS

Each elementary school pupil has been given an "Apple #1" transfer to be ironed on a tee shirt which will be worn Nov. 20 for the district open houses. Mike Miller and Mary Pearson, Apple #1 coordinators, said that the theme, "Kewaskum Schools, - Your public schools ... There's no better place to learn" has been chosen for the program. Through the Apple #1 program students will be given certificates for academic and behavioral excellence.

Students at Farmington and Kewaskum Elementary Schools were treated to a taste of foreign culture this fall when Milos Lazarevic, husband of Farmington fifth grade teacher, Jane Lazarevic, danced two Serbian dances. He wore the costume of the Serbian people of Yugoslavia. Foreign exchange students, Mads Paulsen of Denmark and Sam Ortiz of Columbia gave a soccer demonstration.

Snakes have an "egg" tooth which they use to hatch out of their shells. This tooth falls off shortly after hatching.

Area Students MPTI Graduates

The following students received vocational diplomas or associate degrees from Moraine Park Technical Institute at this past May's graduation ceremonies. The delay in getting this information out is inherent to the school's grading structure - the grades are not processed and honors calculated until long after the graduates have left the fold and begun their careers.

Vocational Diploma

West Bend Campus - Ronald H. Norman, Farm Training; Calvin L. Eichsteadt, Farm Training; David A. Jung, Farm Training; Gregory Joseph Perkins, Machine Tooling Technics; Amy Kristin Goslinowski, Health Unit Clerk; Patricia Ann Hosking, Health Unit Clerk.

Fond du Lac Campus - Jeffrey Scott McChain, Data Processing - Machine Operation; Debra Anne Becker, Child Care Services; Scott L. Ader, Welding; David Charles Sparks, Welding; Thomas James Staehler, Office Machine Repair; Bonnie Lynn Wilhelmi, Cosmetology; Lisa Marie Rahlf, Cosmetology.

Associate Degree

West Bend Campus - Kim Marie Belger, Nursing-

Technical; Sherry Lynn Gavin, Nursing-Technical; Jill Susan Darmody, Medical Record Technician.

Junior Woman's Club To Have Guest Speaker

Betty Stiles, an instructor at Moraine Park Technical Institute - West Bend campus, will be the guest speaker at the GFWC-Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club meeting Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. She will address the group on the subject of leadership development.

Mrs. Stiles has had 12 years of business experience in private industry. Some of the courses she currently teaches are office management, computers, and career management.

New members will be inducted into the organization by President Debbie Lettow during the meeting.

Any area women ages 18-35 who are interested in Mrs. Stiles's program or who would like to find out more about the Juniors are invited to attend. The meeting is located in the American Legion Hall, and refreshments will be served after the program preceding the business meeting.

Letters to the Editor

November 6, 1985

The Kewaskum Statesman
c/o Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Harbeck
250 Main Street
Kewaskum, WI 53040

The Kewaskum School District will be hosting a political forum, to which it is inviting the general public, on Monday evening, November 18, beginning at 8 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. The high school is located at 1510 Bilgo Lane in Kewaskum.

Mr. Neal Weare, Vice President of the Board of Education, has made arrangements with Senators Scott McCallum and Donald Stitt as well as Assemblypersons Mary Panzer and Dwight York to be present.

This meeting has originated out of a felt need on the part of school and community residents to be able to discuss personally with legislators their concerns about school issues, taxes and financing, legislative mandates, and newly proposed legislation. Some pertinent questions and answers will center around Governor Earl's "new" proposal to distribute $400 million to public school districts over the next four years as opposed to the 1 percent sales tax that was to have been earmarked for school funding and would have generated closer to $650 million per year; the mediation-arbitration law - its impact and possible changes; the recently proposed SJR 15 (Senate Joint Resolution) that could serve to eliminate a great share of the funds now made available to schools for low cost loans; the continuing effects of gubernational legislative, and other state-mandated requirements on schools; the eventual "cost" to schools with the current tax credit system and the problems inherent in the current cycle of funding payments.

We expect this to be an informative meeting and an excellent, rare opportunity to share concerns with those involved in the lawmaking process. We hope you will choose to join us.

Should you have any questions, please feel free to call either of the parties listed below.

Sincerely,

Penelope Kleinhans
District Administrator
Neal D. Weare

To whom it may concern:

There is going to be a meeting on Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. at the high school with state representatives Dwight York - Mary Panzer, Senators Donald Stitt - Scott McCallum, also someone from the Wisconsin Town's Association from Shawano. I hope everyone out there who can possibly make it does attend. As I understand by the committee that they hope they can give everybody a chance to speak.

Topics to be discussed - Property Tax for Schools, State Trust Fund Loans, Mediation/- Arbitration Laws. Hoping for a big turn-out.

The Town of Scott clerk received our school tax. This year $377,246.68, last year $299,061.13, a difference of $78,185.55. Tax rate 1985 - $29.28, 1984 - $23.35, up $5.93 a thousand on a forty thousand valuation on a house means an extra $237.20. On a hundred thousand valuation on a farm means an extra $593.00.

How long can this keep up? Has anyone checked how the rest of the four hundred thousand trust Fund Loan is to be spent? Did anyone know there was money in the budget for car rental? Why a car? They get $300.00 for the use of their car, plus 20c a mile. Just reminding you to remember the ballot box in April.

Thank you.

Clara Trapp

Lecturer's Commitment Began With Childhood Healing!

Patricia Lyeth Webb

Christian Science lecturer Patricia Webb draws from her own life experience an affirmative answer to the question: "Is it possible to rely on prayer and spiritual means alone for healing?"

She recalls a healing of acute asthma "which had been with me from birth." She also speaks of her mother's healing of tuberculosis which had been x-rayed and medically diagnosed.

Her lecture to be held November 21st, at 7:30 p.m. in West Bend at the University of Wisconsin Washington County Campus theater, examines these healings and discusses the Christian Science viewpoint of the power of prayer to bring about radical change in alarming human conditions.

The title of the lecture is: "Christian Science: The Healing Power of Prayer." Mrs. Webb is a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

"Jesus's ability to heal human minds and bodies," Mrs. Webb asserts, "was through spiritual power, and though his method of healing was temporarily lost sight of, it is now revealed and made available to all mankind through Christian Science, which makes plain the rules and method of his Christly healing."

She continues: "Jesus healed not only the ills of the flesh, but the ills of the heart and mind. Sin and sorrow yielded as readily to his healing power as did sickness. . . . Christ Jesus's healing brought not only physical restoration, it brought moral regeneration and spiritual rebirth."

In answer to another frequent question confronting the Church of Christ, Scientist: Why do Christian Scientists place so much reliance on prayer for healing? - Mrs. Webb responds first by citing specific healing experiences and then adds: "They adhere to the healing method Christ Jesus practiced. He demonstrated that obedience to God's law proves the supremacy of good over evil, of Spirit over matter."

Mrs. Webb's lecture - free and open to the public - is sponsored by the Christian Science Societies of West Bend and Hartford. Keith Franz, a member of the Hartford Society will introduce her.

Miller's

Catholic church, recalled Pat. Using part of the building for the undertaking business and part for living quarters, Miller's opened the first funeral home (basically as they are today) in Washington County.

In 1933, the funeral home was moved to its present location on Forest Avenue. Over the years, the building has been expanded to meet the needs of the business.

Having moved the undertaking business out, the furniture store was expanded in 1934. "In 1942, the old store burned down," said Pat. Shortly before the fire, I had purchased the furniture and undertaking business of Mrs. Clem Reinders, so we temporarily ran our business out of her establishment until our new store on Fond du Lac Avenue was completed." In 1975, Miller's Furniture opened a large new addition to the building.

Joe, the second youngest, still remembers chopping the furniture shipping crates into kindling to start the morning fire. "I can still see the wood bowback kitchen chairs and other items being displayed by hanging them from nails on walls around the store," stated Joe.

As a young boy, Joe helped his father deliver furniture. After high school, he followed in his father's and brother's footsteps by attending mortuary school, receiving his license in 1938.

Joe also worked for the family's furniture business, installing carpet and linoleum. He worked at Miller's until his retirement in 1981.

Fred, the youngest of the family, had many interests. After graduation he worked at the furniture store, served in the Army, and in 1945, returned from overseas to purchase his parents interests in the business, becoming an active partner with his brother and his wife.

In 1950, Fred also received his funeral director's license. In 1956, he sold his shares in Miller's Incorporated and headed west to try his hand at mining. Fred then moved his family to California where he owned and operated two interior decorating stores.

In 1973, at Pat's request, Fred returned to Wisconsin and purchased an interest in Miller's Incorporated. In 1983, Fred purchased all the stock in the newly formed corporation of Miller's Funeral Home, Incorporated, which he presently owns and operates with his wife Pearl. Brother Pat serves as chairman of the board.

Fred still maintains his ties with the furniture store as a part time employee.

Pat's son, Edward J. Miller, now serves as president of the furniture store, running the business with his wife Sherie, sisters Mary Ellen, Joan, Isabelle, and Clare and brother Ted, who is treasurer, and Pat's grandson David.

Edward F., the founder of the business passed away in 1943, and his wife Margaret died in 1960.

County Retired Teachers to Meet

Please send $4.50 for a reservation to Mrs. Cordelia Skuldt, 278 Vine Street, West Bend, Wisconsin, 53095.

VFW Offering Broadcast Scriptwriting Scholarship Program at Kewaskum High

The 39th Annual Voice of Democracy National Broadcast Scriptwriting Scholarship program is being held at Kewaskum High School. High school students may contact their guidance counselors for more information and entry forms.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and its Ladies Auxiliary hope that every high school in the country will provide the opportunity for its students to take part in this program. Through classroom study projects and special assignments students will be motivated through writing and speaking to express their ideas about their personal responsibilities as citizens and their understanding of the rights and responsibilities of being an American.

The National Broadcast Scriptwriting program is designed to give high school students the opportunity to voice their opinions on their responsibility to our country and to convey their thoughts via the broadcasting media to all America.

All 10th, 11th and 12th grade students in public, parochial and private schools in the United States and overseas are eligible to participate in the program. U.S. citizenship is required. Former first place state winners are not eligible to participate again.

Each state winner is provided with a five-day all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C., plus the opportunity to compete for national scholarships totaling $32,500. The first place scholarship is $14,000, second place $7,000, third place $4,500, fourth place $3,500, fifth place $2,500, and sixth place $1,000.

Local prizes donated by the Barton VFW Post 8658, include: First place $50 Savings Bond, second place $15 cash, and third place $10 cash.

"Students win more than awards and scholarships when they participate in the VFW Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program," said Commander

Meyer of VFW Post 8658, Barton, in discussing the program conducted annually by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary.

In the twenty-three years that the VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary have sponsored the program, more than 5,000,000 high school students have participated. Participants write and then tape-record a three-to-five minute broadcast script expressing their views of "New Horizons for America's Youth."

"One of the greatest benefits to young people who take part in the program is that by thinking, writing and speaking up for their country, they gain a better appreciation of their obligation to maintain our nation's freedom heritage," Commander Meyer said.

CATHOLIC GIRL SCOUT LEADERS TO GATHER FOR TRAINING PROGRAM

On Tuesday, December 3, 1985, the Milwaukee Archdiocesan Catholic Committee on Girl Scouting will sponsor an evening of workshops for girl scout leaders on Catholic religious awards. The workshops will address: "Marian Medal" for Cadettes, "I Live My Faith" for Juniors, and "Family of God" for Brownies. The program will be held at Archbishop Cousins Catholic Center, 3501 South Lake Drive in Milwaukee from 6:45 to 9:00 p.m. The cost is $1.25 per person.

Registrations may be made by mail to: Joanne Walters, Archdiocesan Religious Awards Chairperson, P.O. Box 10133, Milwaukee, WI 53210; or by phoning 363-3157. Registrants are reminded to indicate the awards program that they are involved with.

Debi Seideman, Other County 4-H'ers Receive Highest Honor

The Wisconsin Key Award is the highest award a 4-H'er can receive. Recognition is given to four Washington County 4-H members who have shown constant growth and development in their projects, youth leadership, community, county and state involvement. The gold key award is sponsored by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau and its affiliates. Mike Lettow, president of the Washington County Farm Bureau presented the award to Paul Braun, Ken Falk, Diane Schmidt and Debi Seideman.

Paul Braun joined the Badger Boosters 4-H Club when he was ten years old. He held offices for five years in his club. Reporter was his favorite office. This was a valuable experience for Paul as it prepared him for the career he has chosen to pursue - Journalism. The club and county speeches Paul participated in were helpful in building self-confidence and made him successful in four years of forensics in high school. Paul also served as a youth leader and participated in the Superior Experience and State 4-H Congress. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Braun.

Ken Falk is 17 years old, a senior at West Bend High School and a nine year member of the Myraneers 4-H Club. He has held various offices in the club and served on many committees. As a freshman, he was a delegate to State 4-H Congress in Madison and this past summer was one of the representatives from Washington County at the Citizenship-Washington Focus in Washington, D.C. Ken also spent a week in Michigan on the interstate exchange this past June.

During Ken's 4-H years, his projects have centered around agriculture. His favorite project has been Dairy, along with Forestry, Field Crops, Gardening, Vet Science, Electricity, Woodworking, and Junior Leadership.

He is also a member of the Washington County Junior Holstein Association. Ken's plans for the future are to attend Moraine Park Technical Institute in Fond du Lac to study Agriculture Mechanics. Ken is the son of Alfred and Barbara Falk.

Diane Schmidt has been involved in 4-H for 8 years. Her 4-H experiences have led her in many new directions. Diane's projects include clothing, beef, poultry, foods, crops, forestry, plants and arts and crafts. She has held nearly all the club offices.

Diane is always available to assist at any of her 4-H club meetings. She has been a junior leader in beef, clothing, poultry and foods. Diane has attended county and district meetings in leadership. Currently Diane is serving on the Board of Directors for the Leaders Association.

Highlights in her 4-H career include being a camp counselor where she could work with other 4-H'ers and a delegate to Citizenship-Washington Focus.

Diane will express her ideas and carry through with anything in which she commits herself. Diane brings fun and work together in a pleasing way with enthusiasm to overcome new challenges in her 4-H club.

Diane is the daughter of Harold and Nathalie Schmidt.

Debi Seideman is a 9 year club member of the Kewaskum 4-H'ers. She has held offices for six years in her club. Debi also was a member of the Washington County 4-H Leaders Association Board of Directors. She represented Washington County on the District Youth Council for 2 years. Other highlights in Debi's 4-H career include attending State 4-H Club Congress in Madison, State Fair and Citizenship-Washington Focus in Washington D.C.

Debi Seideman is the daughter of Dennis and Maggie Seideman.

The Kewaskum FFA reminds YOU that SAFETY PAYS!

FACTS

In 1983, the farm work, accident death rate per 100,000 workers fell nearly 5%, but agriculture is still a high-rated industry.

A recent study of The National Safety Council showed that farm workers under the age of 24 suffered a disproportionate number of severe and fatal accidents than their group in the work force of other industry.

In 1984, Agriculture work accidents resulted in 1,700 deaths and 180,000 disabling injuries.

Since 1945, the number of fatal accidents per million acres farmed in Wisconsin, has dropped from 15.93 to 5.23.

In 1984, 36 Wisconsin farmers were fatally injured as a result of farm related accidents.

1984 National Statistics show 48 deaths and 66,956 injuries due to a new farm workhorse, the ATV.

Almost 75% of all fatal accidents involve a wide range of human factors, rather than equipment failure, contributing to the accident.

The cost of farm related accidents exceed the $5 million mark, however, no price could be set on the grief and suffering of the families.

Approximately 3/4 of all accidents involving youth under the age of 16 had to do with tractor overturn or having a passenger fall off the tractor.

Diet and Cancer Workshops Scheduled By County Extension

Approximately 20% of all deaths in the United States are caused by cancer. Most cancers seem to have external causes and therefore should be preventable. A number of dietary constituents have been associated with the development of cancer. Nancy Johnson, U.W. Extension Specialist will discuss recent research on diet and cancer.

Dr. Johnson will discuss research on food components including fat, protein, fiber, vitamins A, C and # and selenium and the degree of association of these nutrients. While present research is not conclusive, current ideas will be discussed.

The Diet and Cancer Workshop will be held on Tuesday, November 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Courthouse Auditorium. The workshop is being coordinated by Joyce Albrecht, U.W. Extension Home Economist, as part of the "Help Yourself to Good Health" series. The cost of the one session is $1.50 with pre-registration required.

This workshop will be succeeded by three other workshops as follows:

Tuesday, January 21, 1986 — "Stress: Taming the Green-Eyed Monster Stress! Almost everyone is concerned about it. And there are good reasons for being concerned. Researchers have found that 75% to 90% of the illnesses we experience are stress-related. This workshop will focus on what stress is, what causes it, the signs and symptoms of stress and strategies for coping with it.

Tuesday, February 18, 1986 — "Nutrition and the Athlete." Aside from heredity and training, no single factor plays a bigger role in the quality of athletic performance than diet. Good nutrition can improve performance for everyone engaged in athletic activities. This session takes an objective look at athletic nutrient needs.

Tuesday, March 18, 1986 — "Breaking the Fat Barrier." A program to give you an introduction to a safe and sound weight loss program through nutritional education, sensible eating, behavior modification and exercise. Become motivated to break the fat barrier and get on the road to successful weight control.

A special price of $5.00 will be charged for all four sessions or you can attend any of the four for $1.50 per session. For more information, contact the Extension Office at 334-4479; 644-5204 or 342-2929.
