4 Candidates for Village Board Posts

Primary Election for School Board Race With 6 Candidates

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

It looks like the 1986 Kewaskum School Board election could be almost as interesting as 1983's. With only two seats becoming available, six candidates have thrown their hats into the political arena. Deadline for filing was 5 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 7.

Incumbents Neal Weare and Lynn Dieringer, who are seeking their second terms, will be facing some stiff competition from Ralph Horner, a former board member, and three newcomers, Ruth Schmitt, Donald Nowak, and Clara Trapp.

Weare and Dieringer won, in their first attempts, as write-in candidates in the 1983 election. That contest drew a great deal of controversy, resulting in a formal recount request from Norma Serwe, an unsuccessful candidate in that race.

Horner is making his third try for a seat on the board, having served one term and then being defeated in his bid for re-election in 1985.

For Schmitt, Nowak and Trapp, this will be their first attempt to win a position on the School Board. Nowak, 2342 County Line Road, was the last candidate to take out nomination papers.

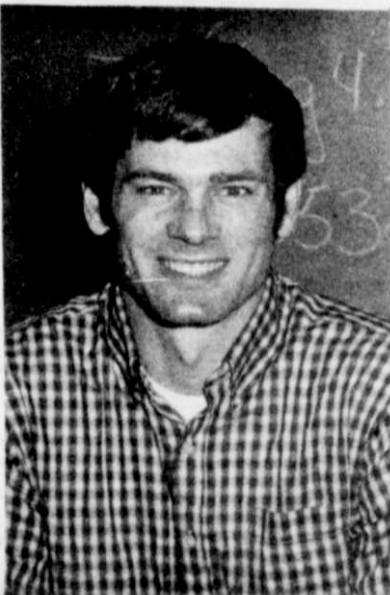

The February 18th primary will narrow the field to four candidates on the April ballot.

In the Village of Kewaskum, three posts on the village board will be open. Incumbent trustees Howard Laubenstein and Tom McElhatton will be running for re-election, while incumbent Donald Mlodzik, whose term also expires, will not seek another term.

Two other candidates will be making a bid for one of the three positions. They are former trustee Richard Schmidt, who served as chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee, and Gary Moody.

Moody, of 815 Memorial Drive, is employed by The West Bend Company. He is married and has two children. This will be Moody's first try for public office.

Burglary Suspect Apprehended by Local Man Held for Trial

Gerald Gosa

Gerald Gosa 32, of 1536 Stark Street, Kewaskum, was instrumental in the recent capture of a suspect who was subsequently arrested and charged in connection with a West Bend burglary.

Gosa is a chemistry teacher at Kewaskum High School. Like School Board President, Tom Brigham, he is a former University of Wisconsin Badger football player.

The incident occurred December 19th, at the residence of Bernard Uebersetzig, 632 Highland Drive, West Bend, who returned home at approximately 5:30 p.m. and apparently surprised some intruders who then made a hurried exit out of his back door.

Uebersetzig heard running through his backyard and followed the noises through a neighbor's yard on Ridge Road. When he reached Ridge Road, Uebersetzig saw two men walking north. One of the men turned south away from him and the second man went east onto private property. Uebersetzig chased the second man, yelling for him to stop. The man fell and Uebersetzig pushed him to the ground when he tried to get up. The man rose, allegedly hitting Uebersetzig in the nose with a small crow bar.

At that time, Gosa was leaving the building of St. Joseph's Community Hospital, heading for the parking lot. Gosa's later account was that he heard a man call for help, yelling police, stop that man. The suspect then came over a hill into the parking lot, followed by Uebersetzig who was bleeding from his injury. The man jumped into a truck and as he tried to drive out of the lot, Gosa caught up to it, opened the door and pulled the man out. Gosa managed to hold onto the man while he turned off the ignition.

In the meantime, Uebersetzig and a neighbor arrived and helped Gosa hold the man until the arrival of the police who had been called by the neighbor's wife. Police later found a .38 caliber gun under the truck seat.

The suspect, identified as Charles Karlin, 39, of Dalton, was arrested and taken to the Washington County Jail. Karlin appeared before Judge James B. Schwalbach in a preliminary hearing who ordered that Karlin be tried as a repeat offender on burglary and felony battery. Karlin was being held in the county jail on $20,000 cash bond. During the hearing Schwalbach dismissed motions by Karlin's attorney that the case be dismissed based on

Village of Kewaskum Supports County Incinerator Plan

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

In reply to a second poll from the Washington County Solid Waste Management Board, the Village of Kewaskum's board unanimously approved a second resolution agreeing to participate in a proposed county-owned and operated incineration program.

The resolution was in response to a letter from Management Board Chairman John Kohl, in which he noted responses to the board's first request for confirmation "were not clear." "Unfortunately, several communities either amended the model response resolution, did not vote, or voted 'maybe', said Kohl's letter.

Although the village was one of the municipalities to approve the plan, the Solid Waste Management Board received considerably less than the necessary 60% commitment needed to go ahead with the project.

Kohl's latest letter is asking all municipalities to approve one of the two resolutions which state either "yes" or "no" to commitment to the incinerator. The "yes" resolution now contains a statement that municipalities will commit themselves to the incinerator's use, but not prior to January 1, 1990. Several municipalities declined to support the plan while their own landfills were still operable.

If the county does not hear a response from a municipality by February 1st, 1986, on this repeat question, it will be presumed that the municipality does not wish to participate.

In other action, the board approved an appraisal of village owned property. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the board that while the dollar figure for the village's property worth has been periodically updated, the last formal appraisal had been done in 1977.

With inflation, the acquisition of new buildings, equipment and recent remodeling, Schmidt and the village's insurance agent felt an updated appraisal to provide adequate and accurate insurance coverage was called for. The board approved a contract with Industrial Appraisal Company to do the work at a cost of $4,370.

The board issued a Proclamation of Appreciation recognizing the years of service provided by retiring volunteer firefighters Augie Bilgo, Jr., Raynor Herriges, Clayton Stautz, and Hugo Straub. Bilgo, who was present, told the board, "this is the first time in my recollection that this has been done through the Village Board and I think it's really nice." Bilgo told the trustees he hoped they would continue this practice.

In other business, Schmidt presented a report on village building permits for 1985. The overall total was down 20, from 83 in 1984, to 63 in 1985. Schmidt also informed the board that, as of January 2nd, tax collections were up 18% over collections at this same time in 1984.

Our Fire Hydrants Need Your Help

So our fire hydrants can better serve us in the event of fire during the winter months, they must be kept free of snow (street side) so a pumper is able to hook up to them.

This, according to village ordinance, is the responsibility of the resident or business place who occupy a property abutting a hydrant.

But as a neighborly gesture, especially if you have a neighbor who is handicapped, elderly or for some other reason unable to keep the hydrant clean, it would be appreciated if you would help him out.

In the event of fire, that hydrant will be able to help you as well as your neighbor. If you have any questions about this matter, feel free to contact any member of the Kewaskum Fire Department.

We hope you will help us in our endeavor to save lives and property in Kewaskum.

Only Seven Fire, 149 Rescue Calls in 1985

Augie Bilgo, who retired as fire chief in December, reported that the Kewaskum Fire Department answered a total of only seven fire calls during the entire year of 1985. This is one of the lowest totals in many years. The year before, 24 fire calls were received.

The department had just two calls in the Village of Kewaskum, four in the Town of Kewaskum, and one in the Town of Auburn. They also answered three mutual aid calls, two to assist the Kohlsville department and one to help out Campbellsport.

The Fire Department's Rescue Squad answered 149 calls during the year, on which the ambulances traveled 3,589 miles. The rescue calls were also slightly down from the year before (1984), when 152 calls were made.

There were six rescue calls in 1985 where the Jaws of Life was used to extricate people injured in accidents.

FFA Safety Program Calls Begin This Week

The Kewaskum FFA would like to thank the over 100 people that registered for our calling program. We will randomly select a name and give you a call; if you answer the questions correctly you will become a winner of 2 lbs. of string cheese.

We will continue calls until we have the ten winners. The names of all winners will be published after they are contacted. Again we are giving you the fact sheet to keep by your phone, so remember to keep them by your phone to win when we call.

FACTS

In 1983, the farm work, accident death rate per 100,000 workers fell nearly 5%, but agriculture is still a high rated industry.

A recent study of The National Safety Council showed that farm workers under the age of 24 suffered a disproportionate number of severe and fatal accidents that their group in the work force of other industry.

In 1984, agriculture work accidents resulted in 1,700 deaths and 180,000 disabling injuries.

Since 1945, the number of fatal accidents per million acres farmed in Wisconsin, has dropped from 15.93 to 5.23.

In 1984, 36 Wisconsin farmers were fatally injured as a result of farm related accidents.

1984 National Statistics show 48 deaths and 66,956 injuries due to a new farm workhorse, the ATV.

Almost 75% of all fatal accidents involve a wide range of human factors, rather than equipment failure, contributing to the accident.

The cost of farm related accidents exceeded the $5 million mark. However, no price could be set on the grief and suffering of the families.

Approximately 3/4 of all accidents involving youth under the age of 16 had to do with tractor overturn or having a passenger fall off the tractor.

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM NEWS NOTES

The Village of Kewaskum's Snow Emergency Response

FACTS. The Village has four pieces of equipment used for snow removal. Three dump trucks with snow plows and the front end loader with a bucket blade. Totally the Village maintains an estimated 10 miles of streets, plus the two parking lanes on both Main Street (STH 28) and Fond du Lac Avenue (USH 45) equalling another estimated 2 miles of streets.

The normal street requires four passes to be made by the snowplow. To achieve the fastest and most effective snow removal process the Village is broken down into basically three areas. The three areas are as follows:

- I. The southwestern portion of the Village and south central portion of the Village.
- II. The north central portion and the eastern portion of the Village.
- III. The western portion of the Village.

Each snowplow covers their designated area and on an average snow removal makes an estimated 27 miles. It should be noted that certain areas can not be cleaned with a snowplow, so the front end loader covers those situations in all areas. Some of those areas are specific intersections, cul de sacs and alleys.

The systematic routine is for the removal of snow from street, firehouse/municipal building, alleys, municipal parking lots/-utilities and municipal sidewalks. This is then followed up by any snow removal and hauling, which again is handled in a systematic manner.

The Department of Public Works tries hard not to discharge anymore snow than mandated by the storm in anyone's driveway. The Department of Public Works also tries hard not to do damage to any personal property. It should be noted, however, the Department of Public Works is not responsible for the removal of snow to provide adequate access for mail delivery by shoveling or plowing out any mail box or cluster mail box.

Private contractors are requested to remove snow in a safe manner, not depositing the snow from one property onto another or on the street. No person shall cause to be deposited snow from his premises or sidewalk abutting thereon onto any street in the Village without a permit from the Superintendent of Public Works, who may require to be paid a fee sufficient to reimburse the Village for the cost of removal of such snow.

As for such ordinance of the Kewaskum Municipal Code Chapter 8.09(1)(2) & (3) and all ordinances, a penalty is also provided for in Chapter 25.04 of this Municipal Code.

Unique Woman of God To Hold Luncheon; Betty Felt to Speak

To Display Art Work

Tom Stuck

The Kewaskum High School art department would like to invite everyone to Tom Stuck's senior art show. The display will be set up in two locations. The first showing will be from Jan. 6-12th at the KHS main lobby and then moved to the Valley Bank in Kewaskum from Jan. 13-17th. Tom is planning on graduating early and further his education at the Milwaukee Institute of Art and Design. He plans to double major in illustration and graphic design. The show will include a variety of media including acrylic paintings, pencil drawing, charcoal studies, scratch board and will include the acrylic painting "Wisconsin Weekend" which won a silver palette at the Milwaukee Journal Art Show last year.

'A LITTLE MIXED UP'

Just a line to say that I am living, that I am not among the dead, though I am getting more forgetful, and mixed up in the head.

Now I sometimes can't remember when I stand at the foot of the stairs, if I must go up for something, or I just came down from there.

And before the fridge so often, my poor memory's filled by doubt — have I just put in some food, or have I come to take some out?

And there are times when it's dark out, with my nightcap on my head, I don't know if I'm retiring, or just got out of bed!

So, if it's my turn to write you, there's no need getting sore, I may think I have written and don't want to be a bore.

So remember, I do love you, and I wish you were here, but now it's nearly mail time so I must say goodbye, my dear.

There I stood beside the mailbox, with my face so very red, I was going to mail your letter, but I was opening it instead!

AFS Chapter Seeks Families To Host Foreign Students

The Kewaskum AFS Chapter is currently looking for families to host foreign students for the 1986-87 school year.

The beginning of a new year is a good time for families to talk, spend time together and discuss future plans. Perhaps your family would be an ideal host family; why not include this possibility in your discussions?

AFS students come from almost 60 different nations and from all economic backgrounds. The one thing they all want in a host family, though, is parents and sisters and brothers who are willing to spend time teaching them about American ways. And while you are "teaching," you will be amazed at how much you have learned about a foreign culture!

AFS students attend classes at KCHS and participate in school activities. They also attend AFS sponsored orientations and weekends and a week with a family in Milwaukee. Our local chapter works as a support group to family and student, helps with transportation, and lends a hand when needed.

Most foreign students do not arrive with much spending money, but they do receive a small monthly allowance from AFS. Expenses, however, should not exceed those that you have for any of your other children. Medical emergencies are handled by AFS/New York with a 24 hour phone line.

The home of a busy, active and open-hearted family is the best kind of home for a foreign student. The more interests you are involved in, the more interesting your family is, and the more you have to offer someone from a foreign country.

Please consider hosting an AFS student next year; you will learn as much about yourselves as you will about your student. It's a gift that works both ways!

For more information, call one of the AFS chapter officers: Sue Schmitz, Marlene Domasky, Cindy Knoebel, or Cordell Strack, or Home Committee members Paul Behring, Norbert Dettmann, or Tootie Backhaus. Please call soon! We would like applications before February 1 to provide the best match between family and student.

AFS Students To Show Slides

The Kewaskum AFS adult chapter will hold its bi-monthly meeting January 14th at 7:00 p.m. at the high school.

AFS exchange students Cynthia Barra, from Brazil, and Samuel Ortiz, from Columbia, will show slides of their countries. Although both countries are part of South America, in language, terrain, economics and other areas they are quite different. South America is a land of great diversity.

The public is welcome to attend the presentation. Refreshments will be served and a business meeting will follow. Anyone interested in finding out more about AFS International/Intercultural Programs is invited to stay for the business meeting.

Project Isidore Kick-off At Allenton January 11

The kick-off event for Project Isidore, a three-pronged program by the archdiocese of Milwaukee (which includes Fond du Lac, Sheboygan, Washington and Dodge counties) to assist the rural community in its ten-county area, will be held January 11 at Sacred Heart church, Allenton (Highways 41 and 33) from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Archbishop Rembert G. Weakland, Catholic archbishop of Milwaukee will open the program. Representatives from 80 to 100 city, suburban, and rural parishes will come together to hear farmers tell their stories, to reflect together about their justice responsibilities in this time of farm emergency, and to share plans and hopes for the immediate future. The meeting will be followed by a pot-luck reception.

Rita Cannestra, director of the rural life ministry of the archdiocese said that Project Isidore is named for St. Isidore, patron saint of farmers, known for his deep faith and love of the land. The project coordinator is Father Bernard Sippel, chaplain for archdiocesan rural life and pastor of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish, New Berlin.

Mrs. Cannestra said that the non-profit operation will do three things: it will provide small, no-interest loans to farmers in the ten counties who can apply for these loans anonymously; it will undertake an educational program for city and suburban parishes, enabling them to better understand the farm emergency and their own stake in it, and it will develop parish "Town and Country" teams to address the economic problem in the political arena and to be the "eyes and ears of the community."

A marketing committee is approaching parishes, especially those with human concerns committees, to provide $500 to $1,000 for loans to hurting farm families. Mrs. Cannestra said that even small loans will enable some farmers "to continue planting in spring." Such loans may also provide cash for fuel, back taxes, and overdue payment of seed or fertilizer bills. The first loans should be available in February and March, 1986, if the efforts of participating parishes are successful.

"We fully realize that these funds will not 'save the family farm', but will at least be a sign of a caring community, the church," Mrs. Cannestra said.

Farmers may request loans through their local parish priest or by using a telephone hotline installed by the diocese. The number is 1-414-782-6760.

Project Isidore will also assist the rural church to become a source of caring and healing for farm families in distress and transition, by informing them of services available to them.

The gathering at Allenton on January 11 is open to all who are interested.

Cannestra met recently at St. John's Parish Hall, Byron, with a Byron-Theresa group to discuss priorities. Another gathering is planned for Jan. 27 at Theresa.

Free Job-Seeking Workshop at MPTI

Are you currently unemployed? Perhaps you're thinking about changing jobs. Do you need assistance in preparing your resume or to improve your job-seeking and job interview skills?

Moraine Park Technical Institute is offering free employment workshops at the West Bend campus in January to help people improve their opportunities in today's competitive job market. Three different sessions are offered as follows:

Session 1: "Today's Job Market: What's Hot and What's Not!" - Thursday, Jan. 16, 6-8 p.m., Room 141, West Bend campus.

Session 2: "Writing Resumes That Work and How to Improve Your Performance at Employment Interviews" - Thursday, Jan. 23, 6-8 p.m., Room 141, West Bend campus.

Session 3: "Marketing Yourself: The Assertive Job Search" - Thursday, Jan. 30, 6-8 p.m., Room 141, West Bend campus.

To enroll in these free workshops on improving your employability skills, call 334-3413, Ext. 70.

Snowmobile Trailer Taken

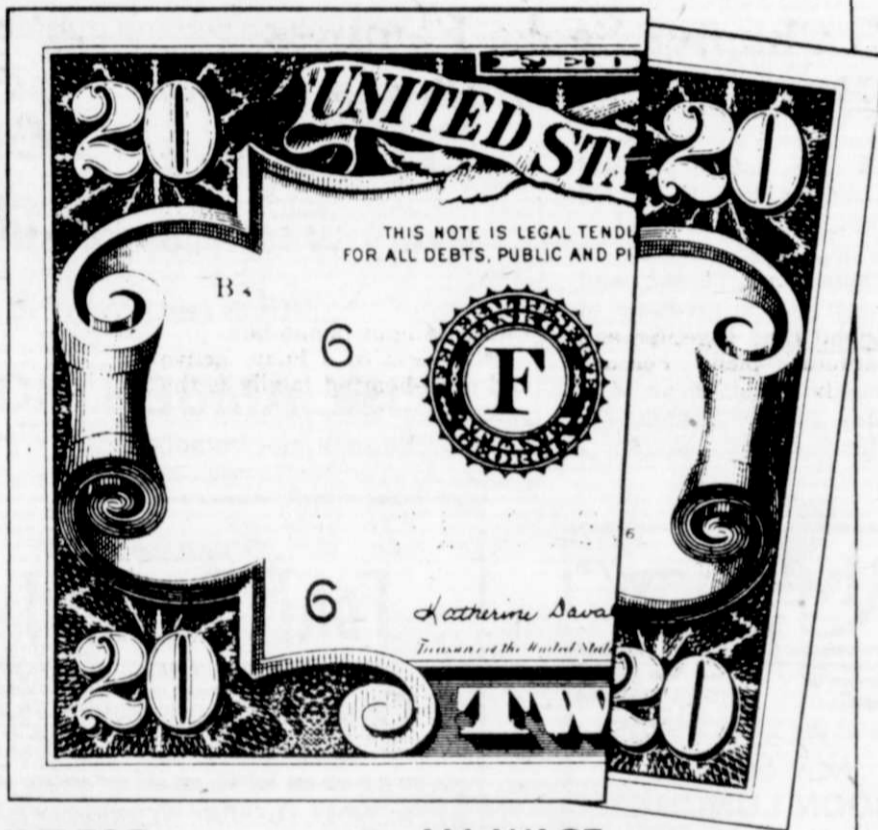

The Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department is investigating the theft of a snowmobile trailer, worth $450. Randy J. Duley, 953 Windsor Ave., Fond du Lac, reported that he parked his car with the attached trailer on County Trunk SS, one-tenth mile east of County Trunk G, in the Town of Auburn. The trailer was not locked to the car.

He left the car to go snowmobiling at 2 p.m. on Tuesday of last week and found the trailer gone when he returned at 5 p.m.

$20 is all you need to open a West Bend Savings' Tax- Deferred I.R.A.

A TAX SHELTER THAT WORKS ...TODAY

You will pay less tax every April 15th by opening or adding to a West Bend Savings' tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account (IRA).

At West Bend Savings your IRA funds are placed in a high rate savings investment plan insured by an agency of the U.S. Government. Each year you can contribute up to $2000 ($4000 if your spouse is also a wage earner) and deduct it from your taxable income. This deduction is always in addition to the other deductions you are allowed. Taxes on the interest your IRA earns are also deferred until the time of withdrawal.

SAVE FOR RETIREMENT ...TOMORROW

Over the years your tax-deferred IRA will achieve tremendous value, and at West Bend Savings you can build that large retirement fund at your own pace.

Contribute monthly, quarterly, or deposit a lump sum whenever you like. West Bend Savings can also arrange to have your contributions automatically deducted from your paycheck.

ALL WAGE EARNERS QUALIFY, AND $20 IS ALL YOU NEED TO GET STARTED.

Act now, before you file your 1985 income taxes. Take advantage of that important tax deduction today... while you save for retirement tomorrow.

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT THE NEAREST WEST BEND SAVINGS OFFICE.

West Bend Savings offers both fixed and variable rate IRAs. Government regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal.

Jaycees to Sponsor Adult Bus to Attend All-Star Wrestling

The Kewaskum Jaycees wish to extend an invitation to the adults of the community to attend one of the few legitimate sporting events left that hasn't been plagued by drug abuse, point shaving or multi-million dollar players. That, of course, is all-star wrestling.

The Jaycees will be taking a bus down to the Milwaukee Auditorium on Saturday, Jan. 25. Anyone, age 19 or over, is invited to attend. The cost is a mere $13.00, which includes your ticket, bus fare, and beer for the way down.

Reservations for this event must be accompanied by payment and can be made at either Richard's Sip and Snip or at Sentry Foods by Jan. 13. The bus will be leaving from the old Sentry parking lot on Main Street at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday night. For more information call Gary Gavin, Kewaskum's biggest wrestling fan, at 626-2209. 1-3-2t

Dinner Dance At Amerahn for Cerebral Palsy

Kick up your heels for charity! Realty World-West Grove Realty is again sponsoring its 3rd Annual Dinner Dance for United Cerebral Palsy. The event is to be held at the Amerahn in Kewaskum on Friday, January 17, 1986.

The dinner will commence with a 6:00 p.m. cocktail hour, and dancing will begin promptly at 8:30 p.m. Dinner tickets are again $30.00 tax deductible donation per couple with a guaranteed $10 or more value door prize to each, plus a chance to win $400, $300, $200 or $100 CASH! Tickets for the dance are only $1 each or 6 for $5 with a chance to win door prizes.

Joanie Sterr, chairman, stated they hoped to increase the dinner attendance to 250 couples. Anyone interested in having a good time and dancing to an 11-piece orchestra provided by George Leonard's Big Band Sound can contact West Grove's office for tickets and details.

Last year's project raised $6,122.86 for UCP. This year's goal is to raise $10,000 with a portion of the money going to our own local Threshold.

THANK YOU

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our customers for their patronage the past 6½ years.

We valued you as customers and hope you will continue to patronize the new operator, Jeanne Marchant.

Letters to the Editor

To All Kewaskum School District Residents:

Like everyone else, it was quite a shock to open our tax bill and see the school portion of our tax bill. Our family resides in Barton where some of the families send their children to West Bend and the others send their children to Kewaskum. For the first time ever, our taxes are higher than those who reside in the West Bend School District. Something is definitely wrong!

I have attended many Kewaskum School Board meetings through the years, including the budget hearings. Providing a quality education to every student in the district is indeed important, but the taxpayer deserves some consideration, too. It is discouraging to watch our School Board spend all those dollars on everything but the students.

Hiring a Director of Instruction with zero experience in the position at $32,000 a year showed very poor judgement on the part of the School Board for several reasons. Our superintendent is a certified Director of Instruction as well as a certified administrator. Currently, our School District employs a Building and Grounds manager, a business manager, five principals and several secretaries. It is my observation that our School District is a little top-heavy with administrators.

With declining enrollment in our district, is it wise to give a three year contract to the Director of Instruction? Could this administrative position at least have been delayed, in light of the voters' rejection of the budget at the Annual Meeting this summer? Instead of improving programs or offering new opportunities in education for the students, the School Board is intent upon easing the administrative burden!

Our family has been very pleased with the fine education being offered in the Kewaskum School District. I would like to see that equal opportunities for learning be provided for the next generation. For these reasons, I would like to serve as a member of the Kewaskum School Board. I believe that we can work together to continue all that is good in our School District, improve conditions that need improving and refuse to allow needless spending to take place.

See you at the polls!
Ruth A. Schmitt
School Board Candidate

To the Editor:

Are most of you over the shock of that nice raise you all got on your tax bill - school tax? I had been telling you this for a long time. Now I will tell you one more.

A letter that Penelope Kleinhans received from the D.P.I. dated October 24, 1985 reads as follows: The district should get out of the milk delivery business. It is extremely time consuming as well as costly and definitely does not meet state Sanitation Code, which states that all milk to be consumed by the public is to be delivered in refrigerated vehicles maintaining a continuous safe temperature of 40 degrees F. or below.

I was present at the meeting when the two milk bids were presented to the school board. Who recommended to go with the lower bid? Is the lower bid now really a money saver? Why was this not all looked into before the meeting?

In the past four months of school the district already dumped somewhere around 900 plus cartons of milk. Why not give it free to the students instead of dumping? Another hundred and forty dollars down the drain. Kemps always delivered to all the schools and picked up unused milk and gave the district credit. My opinion this loss maybe should come from somebody's wages. Now do we buy a refrigerated truck? What about the contract? I hope this school board finds a solution. In my opinion all I got to say is somebody has not got the smarts.

Foresight sure would of been better than hindsight. I did manage to pay my taxes, with the help of my savings account.

Now I have the satisfaction that the Good Lord provided a roof over my head for another year.

Amen. Thank you.

Clara Trapp

Editor's Mail Box:

The property tax bills are out and it's time to re-assess the situation of continually increasing taxes.

When factory employees are regularly being asked to take cuts and farmers are going through hard times, our local school board spends like there is no limit to the money supply. Someone has to impress on them "THE WELL IS DRY."

The salaries being paid for Administration are excessive (including fringe benefits) and have not directly contributed to the education of our children, I feel.

The Administration appears to be attempting to make cuts - but at the bottom of the totem pole such as cafeteria, etc. These savings would be minimal or nil. Why not start at the top of the pole where the real money is?

It's time our school board learned one simple word "NO."

State school aids were increased this year so there could be property tax relief. Our school system used these additional aids plus slapped us with a huge property tax increase.

Remember 1986 is an election year: find out what the school board candidates records are and/or what they stand for.

There is also the option of having a recall election if enough people are dissatisfied with the school board's past record.

It's time to be realistic not idealistic!

Write to the editor's mail box. Let us know how you feel.

Signed
Enough is enough!

Dear Editor,

On behalf of the Samaritan Administration, Staff, and Residents, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the many kind and caring individuals, churches, schools, business, and organizations for making our Christmas 1985 a truly joyous occasion for our residents. From the many groups that shared caroling, programs, and special decorations; to those who donated to the Christmas Gift Project with presents or money - your caring and sharing filled our home with all the joys of a very special season. To have so many friends in this and neighboring communities, we feel truly blessed.

We sincerely hope your Christmas was as enjoyable and meaningful as the Christmas you gave to the Samaritan residents. We thank you and your family for sharing with our family.

We appreciate your thoughtfulness and hope your generosity is returned to you.

4-H NEWS

WAYNE CRUSADERS

The December 11th meeting of the Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club was called to order by President, Keith Bartelt, at 7:31 p.m. Pledges were led by Jenny Schaub and Jim Schulz.

Roll call for this month was to bring a dozen of cookies or bars.

The treasurer's and secretary's reports were read and approved.

In old business, we voted that Carol Oelhafen is to purchase a hundred first aid kits for our money raising project. We hope to order more. This will benefit our proposed Prairie Project. Bev Schulz, Phil Filber and Jim Schulz are on the First Aid Kit Committee.

We formed a committee to look into the pricing of trophies. Carol Oelhafen, Judy Etta and Marilyn Filber will serve.

We also formed a committee to analyze our qualification for grants for our Prairie Project. The members of this committee are Carol Oelhafen, Marilyn Filber, Mr. Hein, Linda Schulz, Jim Schulz, Carla Anderson and Brian Oelhafen.

In new business, the club decided to participate in the Music and Drama Fest. There was to be more discussion at our January meeting. If any member would like to change or add to their project list, they were to do so by January 1.

We again encouraged our members to apply for individual trips and awards. Judy Etta talked of the Trust Fund, explaining what it was. There will be a meeting February 4 where Brian Oelhafen and Jim Schulz will represent our club.

We welcomed two new members. Our next meeting was scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 8. Roll call for this meeting was to bring hats and mittens for the Open Pantry. The Hein and Novotny families served refreshments. There will be a sledding party at Grandma Bartelt's Hill on January 11. We talked more at our Jan. 8 meeting: The Prairie Committee met after this meeting.

The meeting was adjourned to a Christmas Party and games at 8:13.

Respectfully,
Philip Filber,
Club Reporter

Girl Scout News

Girl Scouting is not only rewarding for the girls but it has many rewards for the leaders as well.

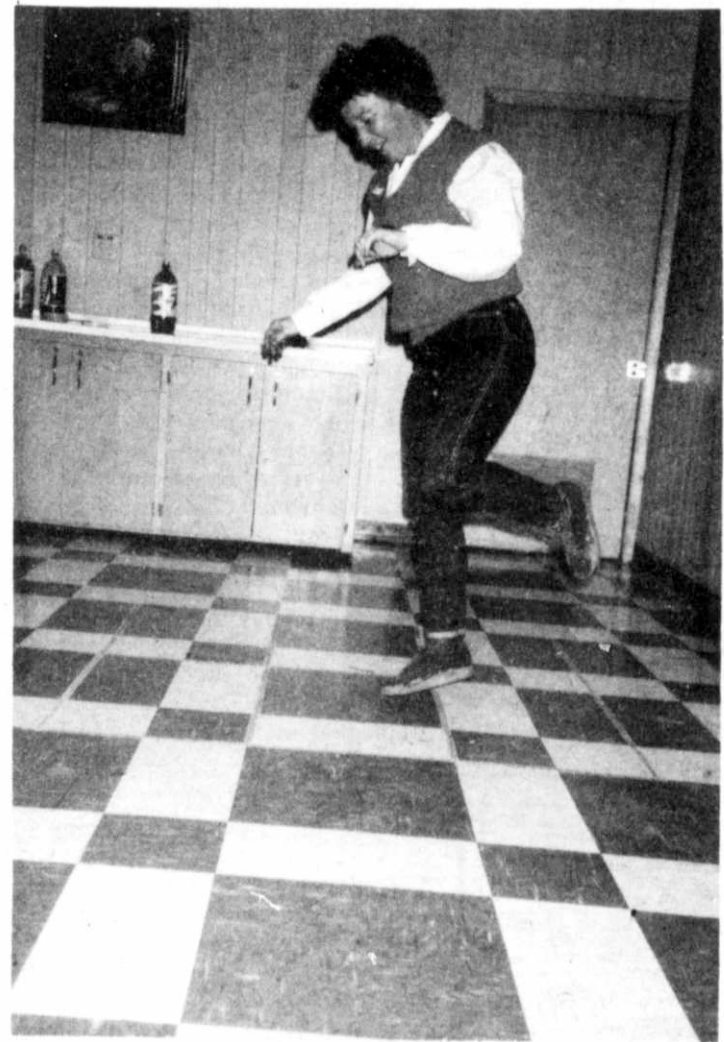

In late fall some of the area scout leaders went on a weekend camping trip for a get-a-way weekend as well as a training for them to be able to gather new ideas to share with their girls. All the leaders learned about teepee camping, enjoying nature hikes, and boat safety (photos at left). It was enjoyed by all.

Being a scout leader you can never learn enough to pass on to the girls. The leaders attended a meeting at St. Mary's school hall in West Bend recently. They were shown different flag ceremonies, different games and how to plan activities for all girls to take part in (photos below).

All these new ideas will be passed on to the Girl Scouts over the few months. Just as a reminder, the annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale is just around the corner.

Important Tax Dates to Remember

JANUARY 15 - FINAL ESTIMATED PAYMENT DUE FOR 1985

Individual taxpayers have until January 15 to pay the final installment of their 1985 estimated income tax (Form 1040ES) to the IRS. Taxpayers who file their 1985 returns and pay all taxes due by January 31 do not have to make this payment. The IRS cautions persons making estimated tax payments by check to include on their check the type of tax, the tax quarter the check is to be applied, and social security number. This will help IRS in applying the payment to the correct tax account.

JANUARY 15 - ESTIMATED TAX DUE FOR FARMERS AND FISHERMEN

Individuals who earned at least two-thirds of their 1984 or 1985 gross income from farming or fishing must pay all their estimated tax by January 15. Farmers or fishermen who plan to file Form 1040 by March 3, 1986, and pay the total tax due are not required to make estimated tax payments for 1985. The IRS cautions persons making estimated tax payments by check to include on their check the type of tax, the tax quarter the check is to be applied, and social security number. This will help IRS in applying the payment to the correct tax account.

JANUARY 31 - EMPLOYERS DEADLINE FOR SENDING W-2 FORMS

Employers are required to provide each of their employees with Form W-2, "Wage and Tax Statement" for 1985 by January 31. Retired employees should receive copies of W-2P forms for taxes withheld from 1985 benefits or Form 1099R for profit-sharing or retirement plan payments.

JANUARY 31 - FORM 1099 INCOME STATEMENTS DUE

Banks, savings and loans, brokers, and other businesses send income statements (Form 1099) to recipients of unearned income such as dividends, interest, rents, and royalties for 1985.

JANUARY 31 - ESTIMATED TAX

Individuals who estimate income and missed their final January 15 estimated tax payment must file their 1985 tax return by January 31. The IRS cautions persons making estimated tax payments by check to include on their check the type of tax, the tax quarter the check is to be applied, and social security number. This will help IRS in applying the payment to the correct tax account.

JUNE 16 - ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENT DUE FOR INDIVIDUALS

Individuals must file Form 1040ES for second installment of estimated tax payment. Recipients of Social Security benefits may be required to pay estimated tax. The IRS cautions persons making estimated tax payments by check to include on their check the type of tax, the tax quarter the check is to be applied, and social security number. This will help IRS in applying the payment to the correct tax account.

AUGUST 15 - INDIVIDUAL FILING EXTENSION RUNS OUT

The automatic 4-month filing extension runs out for individuals who filed Form 4868.

SEPTEMBER 15 - ESTIMATED TAX PAYMENT DUE FOR INDIVIDUALS

Individuals must file Form 1040ES for the third installment of estimated tax payments. Recipients of Social Security benefits may be required to pay estimated tax. The IRS cautions persons making estimated tax payments by check to include on their check the type of tax, the tax quarter the check is to be applied, and social security number. This will help IRS in applying the payment to the correct tax account.

MONTHLY - If you earned $20 or more in tips in any month, you must report the total to your employer by the 10th day of the following month.

CPR, Advance First Aid, Emergency Care Classes Scheduled

The West Bend Red Cross has scheduled a Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation class and an Advance First Aid and Emergency Care Course.

Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) is a combination of artificial respiration and artificial circulation used to keep a victim of heart attacks alive until medical assistance arrives. The first four minutes after a heart attack are the most crucial. A CPR course will teach you how to handle this emergency and how to recognize the signs and symptoms of a possible heart attack victim.

The CPR class is scheduled for three Thursdays evenings starting January 23rd, 30th and completing on February 6th at the West Bend Marine Bank from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m.

The Advance First Aid and Emergency Care class is scheduled for Monday evenings starting January 13th and completing on April 21st. The Advance First Aid course takes 54 hours. The class will be held at the County Court House, from 6:30 to 10 p.m.

Advance First Aid and Emergency Care includes such things as Emergency Childbirth, use of backboards and neck boards, extrication from vehicles, along with more detailed first aid procedures.

Anyone who needs the 21 hour Standard First Aid and Personal Care course can take the first part of the Advance Class.

To enroll in any of the classes, call 334-5687.

Signing a Lease—A Good Idea?

By Joyce Albrecht
Washington County
Extension Home Economist

Leases offer protection for both landlord and tenant. A lease is an agreement between both parties specifying rental responsibilities. Leases can be oral or written, but in either case, the terms are binding by state law.

Wisconsin has a residential rental practices rule that has the same effect as law and is designed to eliminate some of the problems landlords and tenants encounter—including misunderstandings about leases.

Rental agreements need not be in writing. However, it's good business practice to have written rental agreements so that both the landlord and the tenant have a clear understanding about obligations and responsibilities. If landlords require a down payment or a security deposit, they must furnish tenants with a written receipt showing the amount and nature of the payment.

Down payments must be returned to prospective tenants if for some reason the landlord decides not to rent the unit. If the prospective tenant decides not to rent the premises, the landlord is obligated to return the money minus actual costs or any damages incurred. The landlord should be able to prove the need for these deductions—and they should not exceed actual and reasonable expenses. When landlords do enter into a rental agreement, any downpayment not returned must be applied toward the rent or a security deposit, according to the rule.

If you're unsure about how long you plan to rent, you might be interested in a month-to-month lease. This type of lease generally offers you greater flexibility, but also allows the landlord to raise your rent to find a new tenant in a month's notice.

When your landlord tells you about a rental increase, or asks you to move out, you must be given 28 days written notice before the beginning of your next rental period, according to the rule. In return, you must give your landlord 28 days written notice if you plan to move.

A written lease protects you from rent increases or other rule changes during the lease period. It also obligates you to pay rent until your lease expires—even if you move out. However, your landlord must make a reasonable effort to find a substitute tenant.

According to the rule, when a lease contains an automatic renewal clause, the landlord must notify the tenant in writing no more than 30 days, or no less than 15 days prior to the tenant's notice deadline.

Before you sign a lease, read everything carefully. Make sure all blank spaces are filled in or crossed out. The lease should state the terms and promises both parties have agreed to, including who pays for utilities and promises of repair work. If you have to pay for heat, ask to see previous heating bills so you can get some idea of cost. Carefully read all the rules and regulations. If you find a lease provision that seems unfair, get legal advice. There are many things that are prohibited by law from being in a lease.

If you need to move and your lease isn't up, you might consider subletting your apartment. Subletting is the legal transfer of lease responsibility from one tenant to another, but it will obligate you if the new tenant defaults. Before you decide to sublet, check your lease. Most Wisconsin leases have a provision requiring the landlord's written consent. Your lease will specify if the landlord is allowed to charge a sublet fee—usually between $15 and $50. Most leases also have a sublet clause that requires your security deposit to remain with the landlord until the original lease expires. And the landlord can use this deposit to cover any damages done by the new tenant. So before agreeing to sublet, draw up a separate contract with the renter that's taking over your apartment. Make sure you require the new tenant to give you a security deposit in case of any damages.

If you have questions regarding leases or would like a copy of the landlord/tenant rule, contact the nearest Consumer Protection Division Office of the Wisconsin DATCP. Regional offices are located in Madison, Milwaukee, Green Bay and Eau Claire. Call toll-free 1-800-362-3020.

State Residents 60 and Over Invited To Enter Yarns of Yesteryear Contest

Wisconsin residents who remember the hard work, happy times, and challenging experiences of the "olden days" are invited to enter their reminiscences in the thirteenth annual YARNS OF YESTERYEAR Contest, which began January 1, 1986.

Sponsored by the University of Wisconsin Department of Continuing Education in the Arts, the Wisconsin Regional Writers Association, Stanton and Lee Publishers and the Garver Memorial Trust, the contest is open to all Wisconsin residents, age 60 and over. Entries may tell of family, friends, or activities of bygone days, or they may be historical stories with a personal slant.

Entries must be postmarked no later than March 1, 1986. Only one manuscript, original and unpublished, may be submitted. It may be typed or neatly handwritten; the word limits are 500 to 1500 words. Since manuscripts will not be returned, contestants are advised to make and keep a personal copy.

Entrants are also asked to prepare a separate cover page with the title of their manuscript, their name, address (including county), telephone number, age, the name and address of their local newspaper, and the number of words in their entry.

Prizes ranging from $25 to $5 will be awarded the top ten winners at the Wisconsin Regional Writers Association Spring Conference in May. Ten memberships in the association and twenty honorable mention certificates will also be awarded. Additional cash awards will be given by Stanton and Lee Publishers for the best entries in the "Winners' Circle," a special competition for those who have previously won contest prizes. The Alice Converse Award of $10 will be given to the oldest contestant submitting an entry.

Judges for the contest will be: Howard Kanetzke, School

Publications Editors, Wisconsin State Historical Society; Elizabeth Durbin, former editor of the Ocooch Mountain News and Wisconsin Academy Review; Clarice Dunn, free lance writer and first YARNS OF YESTERYEAR Contest Director; Jeri McCormick, Co-editor of Heartland Journal; Tim Ericson, Archivist, Wisconsin State Historical Society; and James R. Batt, Wisconsin Educational and Radio Television Networks.

For information on the contest rules and entry procedures, write to: Gen Lewis, Director, YARNS OF YESTERYEAR CONTEST, 610 Langdon, Room 722, Madison, WI 53703.

For ideas and suggestions as to the types of stories to write, contestants may wish to read selections in WE WERE CHILDREN THEN, the anthologies of previous YARNS OF YESTERYEAR Contest entries, available at bookstores and libraries throughout the state.

Halley's Comet Lecture at UWWC

Halley's Comet will be the topic of a slide show to be presented by Dr. Michael Cahill, Assistant Professor of Physics and Astronomy, at UWWC, West Bend, on Tuesday evening, January 14. The program will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the UWWC Theatre.

"The significance of this much talked about phenomena has been neatly compressed into a program titled, 'Comet Halley: Once in a Lifetime' which was developed by the American Chemical Society's Public Information Office, and will accompany many of the slides I will be showing Tuesday night," Cahill commented. This synopsis of Halley's Comet follows:

It means wind and drought to the ancient Greeks. The people of the Middle Ages blamed it for famine, plague, war. At its last visit in 1910, Americans bought gas masks to ward off its "noxious vapors." We call this famous of comets "Halley" for Edmond Halley, the 18th century English scientist who was first to recognize that comets travel in predictable orbits about the sun.

Misconceptions about comets are a part of this story. So are facts about comets — "dirty snowballs," as Fred Whipple called them—and the significance of those facts. Today, as Halley speeds toward its 1986 rendezvous with the sun, we know it is less than three miles wide. Yet it will develop a gaseous coma larger than Jupiter, a diaphanous hydrogen cloud greater than the diameter of the sun, and a tail 50 million miles long. Quite a display for a vagabond iceball!

Halley is not always bright, but it is a dependable visitor, making its courtesy call on the sun on an average of every 76 years; its faithfulness linking generations across a lifespan. Now, humankind and our scientific instruments are no longer confined to earth. Spacecraft of several nations will fleetingly visit the comet, while scientists aboard the Space Shuttle study it from space and countless thousands of professional and amateur astronomers peer at it through earth-bound telescopes. Comet Halley may tell us about the chemicals and conditions present at the birth of our solar system, how comets may have contributed chemical vital to the appearance of life on earth, and how comets possibly were the culprits in periodic mass extinctions of life on our planet.

One day, two meteor showers may be all that remain of Halley's Comet. Such is the fate of their kind. But for now, Halley has returned—ours to appreciate and remember for our lifetime.

This hour-long presentation is suitable for curious comet watchers of all ages. Admission is free. The program will begin promptly at 7:00 p.m., January 14, in UWWC's Theatre, 400 University Drive, in West Bend.

State Program Could Reduce Senior Citizen Property Tax Bill

By Senator Donald K. Stitt

Recently, the Wisconsin Legislature approved the Property Tax Deferral Loan Program to help people 65 and older who are finding it difficult to pay their property tax bill. This program was designed to assist those senior citizens who find it hard to keep up with rising property taxes and want to continue to live in the homes they own.

If you are 65 or older, own your residence in Wisconsin and satisfy other requirements, you may apply to the Wisconsin Department of Revenue to receive a loan of up to $1,800 to pay your 1985 property taxes (which are due in 1986). The loan, principal and interest, does not have to be repaid until you transfer ownership of your property or no longer live there. The loan carries a permanent 8% fixed annual interest rate.

Other requirements include a minimum age of 65 or older or co-ownership with your spouse being at least 60 years old, a household income for 1985 of $20,000 or less, and no more than $5,000 in outstanding lien mortgages, etc., on your property. Further, your home must be in Wisconsin, must be covered by casualty insurance, and must be a single family dwelling, a unit in a condominium or co-op, or a unit in a multi-unit dwelling with no more than four units.

The loan, of course, will adversely affect your ownership interest in that a lien will be filed on your property to ensure payment of the loan in the event you transfer ownership or change residences. You may, however, repay the loan at anytime prior to transfer or change of residence.

If you think you may be eligible, you should file a form with the Wisconsin Department of Revenue by June 30, 1986 for 1985 property taxes. The State Department of Revenue will try to mail your check by March 1st before your taxes become delinquent. You should submit your form as early as possible.

For more information call the Department of Revenue office at 608-266-1961 for forms, or 608-266-1983 for answers to specific questions or write the Wisconsin Department of Revenue at Box 8903, Madison, Wisconsin 53708. Otherwise, please feel free to contact me, Senator Don Stitt, P.O. Box 7882, Madison, Wisconsin 53707.

Lennox Pulse Furnace Now Available in New Models

The Lennox Pulse furnace line, one of the highest efficiency furnaces available today, has been expanded to include horizontal and reverse flow furnaces. Johann Plumbing & Heating, Inc. of St. Michaels now has the new models named the Pulse GSR14 available for immediate installation as well as the new larger 100,000 Btuh upflow Pulse.

When Lennox introduced the revolutionary furnace which can cut home heating bills by up to 40 percent, the company's only model discharged warm air through the top of the furnace. This model was ideally suited for homeowners with their furnace in the basement or ones who had the furnace in a closet area with duct work in the attic. But homeowners who needed a furnace which would operate in a horizontal position for installation totally in the attic or downflow position for duct work under the floor couldn't take advantage of the new technology.

The new GSR14 is designed to be used as either a downflow or a horizontal furnace. Capacities are 50,000, 80,000 and 100,000 Btuh and efficiencies are up to 95 percent on some models. This figure compares to gas furnaces over 10 years old which are most likely in the range of 55 percent efficient. This rating is determined by Department of Energy testing standards and higher the percentage, the more heat you receive from the same amount of fuel.

Lennox Pulse furnaces are powered by the pulse combustion process. The process is called "pulse" because it ignites small quantities of an air/gas mixture at a rate of 60 to 70 times per second instead of using a continuous flame. Once started by the unit's spark igniter, the combustion process continues by itself. The furnace achieves high efficiencies by reclaiming the latent heat of the combustion in a stainless steel heat exchanger condenser coil. This process extracts so much heat for space heating that exhaust gases are around 100 degrees F. This enables exhaust venting with plastic PVC pipe to avoid an expensive flue installation.

The new Pulse models enable thousands of additional homeowners the opportunity to enjoy savings when heating their home. Contact your local Lennox dealer today to find out how you can begin saving money on this winter's heating bills.

Citizen Advocacy Training Course for Parents of Handicapped Children to Begin

The Parent Education Project and Citizen Advocacy of Washington County will conduct a 4-week Advocacy Training course for parents of handicapped children who want to help other parents work with the public schools.

The class will meet on Thursdays, Jan. 16, 23, 30 and Feb. 6, from 9:30 a.m. until noon. There is no charge. Pre-registration is required.

The training will include information on state and federal special education laws, how parents can be involved in making decisions about their handicapped children's education and what to do when things don't work as they should.

The Parents Education Project (PEP) is a coalition of parent groups and agencies which helps parents of handicapped children work with the schools. Handicapped children include those with learning disabilities, emotional or behavioral disturbances, mental retardation, physical handicaps, hearing or visual impairments, or speech and language handicaps. PEP has been active in Milwaukee and Waukesha Counties since 1981, and expanded to include Washington and Ozaukee County school districts in 1983.

The training is co-sponsored by the Citizen Advocacy Program of Washington County, a volunteer program which develops one-to-one relationships between advocates and people with disabilities. Citizen Advocacy also makes available parent advocates to parents who are having concerns or problems with schools or who would like to work with another parent who has had some experience.

To pre-register, or for further information, call Sue Moser, 334-3384 or Liz Irwin, 272-4500.

Mrs. Louise Schuh, 76, of Milwaukee, died December 31, at St. Francis hospital there of a heart ailment. She and her late husband, Math H., operated Schuh's resort at Long Lake for 32 years before his death in 1954. The resort now is operated by their son Math and family.

John H. Kougl, RDCA, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kougl, Route 1, Kewaskum, re-enlisted for another six-year term in the U.S. Navy recently. Kougl is the CI Division's leading petty officer at Long Beach, California, where he is stationed.

A son was born to Rev. and Mrs. Donald Bitter, Kewaskum, on December 31. A son was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wickert, West Bend, on December 31. Mrs. Wickert is the former Nancy Fickler, daughter of the Ed. Ficklers of Kewaskum.

Cascade fire department responded to the call but was unable to check the flames which had gained too much headway. A few pieces of furniture and several small articles were saved.

The last wedding involving a local person to take place in the year 1935 was performed on December 31, at Wautoma, when Miss Erma Draeger, of that city, was united in marriage to George Brandt, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. George F. Brandt of this village.

Two West Bend young men, Harvey Held, manager of Held's Meat Market, and Otto Zahn, Sr., head of the West Bend Engineering Company, have developed a new meat tenderizer on which they have received a patent and which they will start manufacturing soon. Offices of the new firm, to be known as the "Tender Tasty Corporation of America," will be located in Milwaukee while the manufacturing will be done in West Bend. The new machines are described as a finer and better way of preparing meats at a sensationally lower cost.

The city of Mayville is endeavoring to settle the slot machine question as not being a gambling device by placing a license on it at a cost of $35 per year. Without the license the machines will be established as gambling devices and will not be tolerated, but if the license is applied for the machines, they will come under the heading of "games of amusement."

Anthony J. Hammes, young man from Random Lake, has composed the words and music to a song entitled "Oh a Journey in Montana," which is now copyrighted under the number 114,657. He is now making arrangements for publishing the song, which is a very pleasing hillbilly composition. It is hoped to hear the young composer's work on stage and radio soon.

A fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed a large two-story frame house belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kolber of the Town of Farmington at about 2 a.m. on December 28. Only a few household belongings were saved. The Kolber family was awakened by the crackling of flames in the basement, where the fire started. The Fillmore fire department responded to the call but was unable to check the fire. The loss is fully covered by insurance and the family intends to rebuild.

By mutual agreement, papers were drawn on Wednesday whereby the interests and management of the M. and A. Rosenheimers' affairs have been somewhat changed, so that the entire management of the L. Rosenheimer Malt and Grain Company and the Kewaskum Electric Light and Heating Plant passes into the hands of Adolph Rosenheimer and son, Newton, while the general merchandise business known as the L. Rosenheimer Store, together with the general produce and machinery business will be conducted and carried on by Moritz Rosenheimer and son Lehman.

William Raether, an employee in the L. Rosenheimer Malt House, and who works nights, met with a very painful accident last Saturday evening, which only through a miracle was not fatal. The accident happened between 11 and 12 o'clock. It is supposed that he fell down a flight of stairs. Mr. Raether, in company with Chas. Trost left the kiln room together shortly before 11 o'clock, after having turned a kiln of malt. Both were going down to the first floor to fix a fire, Mr. Trost descending by the way of one stair and Mr. Raether by another. Mr. Trost, after fixing the fire, missed his companion. Suspecting that something had happened he went to look for Mr. Raether and found him in one of the drying rooms in a very serious condition. It was found that he had fallen down the stairs, a distance of about eight feet. He suffered internal injuries and a bad bruise on the head.

The coldest morning we had this year was Thursday morning when the thermometer registered 14 below zero at Elmore.

The marriage of Miss Alma Harter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harter, of the Town of Auburn, to John Volk of Wabeno, will take place at the Holy Trinity Church on Tuesday morning.

A. A. Perschbacher has employed another blacksmith, as a baby boy arrived at his home last Wednesday evening.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE SNOW AND ICE REMOVAL IN THE VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM, WISCONSIN

The Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin do ordain as follows:

The Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin wish to repeal 8.09 (1) (2) of the Municipal Code and ordain as follows 8.09 (1) (2) (3):

8.09 SNOW AND ICE REMOVAL. [1] SIDEWALKS TO BE KEPT CLEAR.

Duty of owner or occupant. The owner or occupant of any lot or lands within the Village abutting upon a public street along the line of which a sidewalk shall have been constructed shall, whenever such sidewalk shall be encumbered with snow or ice, clear the same therefrom within 24 hours after cessation of each storm. In case it is impossible or impractical to remove the ice therefrom, he shall treat the same with sand, cinders, ashes, salt or some other substance continuously until removed so that such sidewalk will not be slippery or dangerous to pedestrians. In case of the failure of any such owner or occupant to remove such snow or ice from such sidewalk or to treat such ice as herein before set forth within the same aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Village Superintendent of Public Works to do so and the expense of such removal or treatment shall become a special tax or charge against the property, to be collected in the manner herein specified.

[2] SNOW NOT TO BE DEPOSITED IN STREETS.

No person shall cause to be deposited snow from his premises or the sidewalk abutting thereon onto any street in the Village without a permit from the Village Superintendent of Public Works, who may require to be paid a fee sufficient to reimburse the Village for the cost of removal of such snow. The expense of such removal or treatment shall become a special tax or charge against the property, to be collected in the manner herein specified.

[3] ASSESSMENT OF COST.

After clearing or treating any such sidewalk as provided in this section, the Village Superintendent of Public Works shall file with the Village Clerk a written report containing a description of such lot or tract charged and the amount of the expense chargeable to the same. The Clerk shall thereupon make out and mail to the owner of such lot or tract, at his last known address, an itemized statement of the cost and, when paid, the amount so paid shall be credited to the Village General Fund (If same be not paid within 30 days, it shall bear interest at the rate of 6% per annum from the date on which the work was completed.) If any such bill shall remain unpaid on October 1st next following the clearing or treating of the sidewalk, the Village Clerk shall insert such charge in the general tax roll of the Village; and the same proceedings shall be had thereafter for the collection of such taxes, as in cases of other taxes extended upon said roll.

This ordinance shall take effect upon passage and publication as provided by law.

PASSED, ADOPTED AND APPROVED this 6th day of January, 1986, by the Kewaskum Village Board.

David E. Nigh,
Village President

Daniel S. Schmidt,
Village Administrator/Clerk

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Municipal Code of the Village of Kewaskum be brought up-to-date and that all ordinances adopted through Ordinance No. 85-3, dated November 21, 1985, and changes necessitated by changes in State law have been incorporated into the Municipal Code. A copy of those amendments to the Municipal Code are on file for public inspection in the office of the Village Clerk/Treasurer. Public action will be taken on this ordinance to amend said Municipal Code on February 3, 1986.

Dated January 3, 1986.

DANIEL S. SCHMIDT
Village Administrator/Clerk

VOTING BY ABSENTEE BALLOT

Any qualified voter, unable to get to the polling place on election day, may ask to vote by absentee ballot. A qualified voter is one who is a U. S. citizen, will be 18 years of age or older on election day, and who has resided in the ward or municipality where voting is desired to be accomplished for at least 30 days prior to the election. If the voter resides in a municipality which requires voter registration, then registration is also a requisite for the voter who is qualified in other respects.

To obtain an absentee ballot, you must request it in writing. Contact the clerk in the city, village or town in which you reside by mail or telephone, or in person, and request an application form. After properly completing and returning the application to the municipal clerk, an absentee ballot will be sent to you along with a postage pre-paid return envelope, or given to you if the application is submitted to the clerk in person. An application mailed to the clerk's office must be received by the clerk no later than 5:00 p.m. on the Friday before election day. An application made in person in the clerk's office may be done up to 5:00 p.m. on the day before the election.

With one exception, the voter who wants to cast an absentee ballot must make a separate application before each election. Voters indefinitely confined to their home or care facility because of illness, age or disability need not file an application before each election; a special statement on the application form can be completed asking that an absentee ballot be automatically mailed to them before each election. However, if the elector fails to mark and return the ballots sent to them for an election, it will be necessary to complete an application form before receiving absentee ballots for a subsequent election.

Absentee ballots can be voted at home anytime after they arrive in the mail. They can also be voted in the clerk's office if the application is made in person. If an elector requires assistance in casting his or her vote, the assistance must be rendered by someone authorized to administer oaths, such as a clerk or notary public. If the ballots are returned by mail, the affidavit-certificate must be properly completed and signed by two persons. If returning the ballots in person, the affidavit-certificate must be properly completed and subscribed and sworn to before the clerk or the deputy clerk who are authorized to administer oaths. In either case, the marked, sealed ballot must be in the hands of the issuing municipal clerk on or before election day. Any absentee ballot received in incomplete or improper form, or received after the polls close on election day cannot be counted.

Lower state withholding, a direct result of the state income tax cut included in the 1985-87 state budget, will show up in taxpayers' checks in time to make Christmas bills easier to pay, according to Michael Ley, Secretary of the Department of Revenue.

"During his first term, the Governor promised a tax cut to Wisconsin citizens," Ley explained. "In January, every wage earner will see the equivalent of a pay increase due to the change in the state's withholding tables. This increase in take-home pay will provide concrete evidence of the Governor's commitment to reducing the size of state government."

Ley said the tax cut was substantial. "Taxpayers at every income level will see a drop in state withholding. For most taxpayers, the reduction will range from five to ten percent. The total tax cut will add up to $171 million in savings to taxpayers over an 18-month period. This means an additional $171 million in taxpayers' pockets ready to circulate in the state's economy. Whether individuals decide to spend money or save money, this tax cut will have a positive effect on our state economy."

For example, a married person with $30,000 of wages and salary per year will see a bi-weekly withholding cut of $4, totalling $104 each year. A single individual earning $20,000 per year in wages and salaries will receive a bi-weekly reduction of $1.90, for an annual reduction of almost $50. In general, Wisconsin taxpayers with incomes of $50,000 or less will receive over 70 percent of the total tax savings, generally reflecting their share of total state income taxes.

"The withholding change represents the initial implementation of the Governor's tax cut. We are committed to a permanent cut in state income taxes even though we expect to revise revenue estimates downward," Ley said.

The withholding change will take effect for payroll periods beginning on or after January 1. "However, the change may not be reflected in paychecks in early January because of the lag between payroll periods and paycheck dates. This situation will differ between employers, but the withholding reduction should be seen in all paychecks by the end of the month," Ley explained.

Phone Bills to List Local, Long Distance Charges Separately

Beginning this month, GTE customers throughout the Midwest should have an easier time finding what they owe for local and long distance telephone service thanks to a change in the format of their telephone bill.

Specifically, local and long distance charges will be listed separately. Local service, GTE toll charges, and taxes will be shown on the first page (s) and any AT&T long distance services, charge and taxes on the following page (s).

In addition, a total of all current charges will be listed on a summary page.

"I'm confident this change should make telephone bills a little easier to read and understand," said State Director Operations James E. Courtney, Sun Prairie. "The new format demonstrates an important company goal — to simplify telephone bills."

Reminder: Social Security Benefits Could Now Be Subject to Income Tax

Dave Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend, reminds all Social Security beneficiaries that they will receive a Form 1099—Social Security Benefit Statement sometime in January. This form will give the total amount of Social Security benefits paid in 1985. The purpose of this form, and the accompanying Form 703 is to help beneficiaries to determine whether or not their Social Security benefits could be subject to income tax.

A single individual whose income (including one-half of their Social Security and non-taxable interest) does not exceed $25,000 a year will not have to include their Social Security as taxable income. This limit is $32,000 a year for a married couple filing a joint return, zero for a married couple filing separately. Social Security benefits of a married couple filing separately are automatically subject to taxation. IRS Publication No. 915 is available at Internal Revenue or Social Security offices. This further clarifies the circumstances under which

Social Security benefits are taxable.

For more information, call Social Security's toll-free number 1-900-200-1099 (after January 7); or call the Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-424-1040.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our parents HERBERT and LUCILLE JUSTMAN, who passed away twenty years ago, January, 1966:

We often sit and think of you
 And speak of how you died;
 To think you could not say goodbye to us
 Before you closed your eyes:
 The flowers we place upon your grave,
 May wither and decay
 But the love for you who sleeps beneath
 Shall never fade away.

Sadly missed by their children and grandchildren.

IN MEMORY

With love we cherish the memory of Eddie Czaja, husband, father, and grandfather. January 10 marks ten years since his death in 1976. With gratefulness and sincerity we who continue his name are the living heritage by remembering his example of Christian sharing, caring, and love.

Your family

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our son and grandson, Michael H. Strelka, who passed away two years ago, Jan. 14, 1984:

Remembrance is a golden chain
 Death tries to break but all in vain;

To have, to love and then to part
 Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.

The years may wipe out many things,

But this they wipe out never—
 The memory of those happy days

When we were all together.

Sadly missed by Delores and Larry Baasch and Henry W.
 Fick.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of my husband, our father and grandfather, William Becker, who passed away twenty years ago,
 Jan. 11, 1966:

You left a beautiful memory,
 A sorrow too great to be told.
 But to us who loved and lost
 you,

Your memory will never grow old.

There is always a silent heartache,

Many a silent tear.

But always beautiful memories,
 Of one we loved so dear.

Sadly missed by his wife,
 children and grandchildren.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, Henry J. Weddig, who passed away one year ago,
 Jan. 19, 1985, and our beloved daughter, mother, sister and aunt, Gladys Waranius, who passed away four years ago,
 Jan. 14, 1982:

In peaceful sleep the ones we loved

Lie free from earthly care.

No longer need they labor here
 Gods blessing shall they share.
 No one can stop the tears that fall

Or mend the hearts that break.
 We can't forget the loneliness
 they left

The day they went away.
 They meant so much to us
 But God has called them home.

Lovingly missed by the family

Farm Bureau Pleased With Efforts at DNR To Control Deer Herd

The state's largest farm organization, the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation, is pleased with the efforts being made by the Department of Natural Resources to control the state's deer herd.

"Farm Bureau is thankful that the DNR has begun to show some sensitivity to farmer's crop damage problems," says WFBF president Don Haldeman.

Because of the wet weather this fall, a larger than normal amount of crops remain unharvested. The large deer herd has been feeding on crops that remain in fields.

"The DNR has attempted to get the deer harvest in line with their goals by issuing special permits and, for the first time, extending the season. We commend them for making these special efforts," said Haldeman.

Delegates at the WFBF's recent annual meeting voted for continued expansion of wildlife damage and abatement programs. They recommended allowing a two deer limit in problem areas, and issuing of shooting permits were requested by owners suffering extensive crop damage.

Delegates are also seeking greater participation by farmers in Conservation Congress activities.

Reproducing of Smelt Discovered In Big Cedar Lake

A reproducing population of smelt has been discovered in Big Cedar Lake, Washington County, according to John E. Nelson, Assistant Fish Manager for the Southeast District, of Plymouth.

The discovery was made during a routine fyke net survey for walleyes in April. Nelson doesn't know how long the smelt have been there, he speculates they were inadvertently introduced by smelt dippers either by direct stocking of fish or of fertilized eggs.

"I believe it's probably a recent stocking," said Nelson. "I haven't had any reports before of people seeing smelt in Big Cedar."

Big Cedar Lake is 932 acres in size and has a maximum depth of 105 feet. Nelson added that the lake has a naturally reproducing population of Cisco which, like smelt, needs relatively good water quality. Smelt are sleek, silvery fish which can reach up to ten inches. They are uncommon on inland waters, only five lakes have a naturally reproducing population, all in the northern counties of Forest, Vilas and Bayfield.

Nelson isn't sure what effect the introduced population will have on the lake's ecology. Although he doesn't expect the smelt population to have much of an impact, Nelson emphasized that it is illegal for anyone to stock fish in state waters without permission from the Department.

"The ecological balance of a lake could be irreversibly destroyed by any indiscriminate stocking," he added.

Goeden to Be Honored At Slinger Speedway Awards Night Jan. 11

Slinger Speedway will hold its annual Awards Night on Saturday, Jan. 11, at the Kettle Moraine Bowl on State Hy. 60 at 8 p.m.

Drivers who finished in the top 20 of the late model competition, including the champion, Al Schill of Franklin, and runnerup Willie Goeden of Kewaskum, will be honored at the event.

Trophies will also be presented to the top 10 finishers in the sportsman division where Jim Dragich edged out Andy Wendt for the title by just four points.

Scott Koch will receive an award for being the top figure-eight driver while Jim Kannenberg topped the amateur competitors.

Admission to the event, which will include snacks and beer, is $8.00. The band Revival will present music and dancing.

Braun Earns Football Letter at UW-Oshkosh

Three former area athletes were among those who won major football letters at UW-Oshkosh this fall.

Kewaskum's Jim Braun, Campbellsport's John LaFleur and Omira's Rick Koll lettered in football.

With just two senior letter-winners graduating this spring, UW-Oshkosh is expected to have a much improved team next year.

Second in Bowling

Pam Jeserig, of Kewaskum, rolled a 669 series Sunday to capture second place honors in the Wisconsin State Women's 600 Club Tournament held at Cedar Lanes, Cedarburg.

First place went to Penni Liechty, of Grafton, with 672. Division II singles winner was Barb Burke, Darlington, with 682.

Betti Steilen, West Bend, achieved high scratch game of 228 in Division II singles.

Sheboygan County Izaak Walton League Chapter Is Honored

The Sheboygan County Izaak Walton League Chapter has been named recipient of the 1985 Outdoor Responsibility Award for their GRIP Program by the Natural Resources Board, the citizen policy making board which guides activities of the DNR.

Also being honored is the Sheboygan County Conservation Association for their work and support given the Sheboygan County Ikes on the GRIP Program.

"The award is being presented to the Izaak Walton League Chapter and the County Association because of their outstanding contributions toward the furthering of outdoor ethics in conservation," Natural Resources Board member Richard Hemp of Mosinee said.

The award, a plaque in the outline of the state of Wisconsin, was presented to chapter members at a meeting of the Natural Resources Board at Madison.

Early in 1983, the Sheboygan County Chapter of the Izaak Walton League began an effort aimed at promoting improved hunter ethics in the county. A $5,000 grant from the National Chapter of the Izaak Walton League funded a study to seek out and provide information and support for a quality hunting experience in Sheboygan County while at the same time open up more private land to sportspersons. The study was called the Grassroots Ikes Program, or GRIP Program for short.

"The value of this study was that the whole landowner/landuser concept was not just left to the hunting and fishing public, but landuser was defined as anyone wishing to use the land," Hemp said. "Activities included berry picking, hiking, bird watching, skiing, hunting, fishing, trapping, snowmobiling and just about anything that would take someone outdoors."

This study is a potential role-model here in Wisconsin to promote better landowner/landuser relationship and increase outdoor opportunities on private lands. The National Izaak Walton League is also looking at what the Sheboygan County Ikes have done for adaptation throughout the country.

"The information produced through the written and face-to-face surveys conducted by the Sheboygan County Ikes are extremely valuable to resource managers at a time when more pressure is being put on the resource," Hemp said. "The Natural Resources Board and Department of Natural Resources is extremely proud of the work that has been done and will continue in Sheboygan County."

West Bend West Second Half Rally Nips Indians

By Chuck Voge
The Kewaskum boys' varsity basketball team, playing without the services of guard Don Menzel, lost a tough one to the West Bend West Spartans Tuesday night by four points, 65-61, at the West Bend field-house.

Playing without the injured Menzel, the Indians put together their most well balanced scoring attack of the season with four players ending up in double figures for the evening. High scorers in the contest were Bob Yahr with 15 points for Kewaskum and Tim Rohlinger with 14. For the Spartans, Sean Hackney had 27 points and Gary Loduha 15.

The determined, plucky Indians dominated the first half of play and carried an apparent comfortable seven-point 31-24 lead into the dressing room at halftime, but the Spartans improved their play after the intermission. They kept whittling away at the Kewaskum lead until they tied the score and finally went ahead in the final quarter to win by a four-point margin.

In a post-game interview, Kewaskum coach Perry Koth commented on the loss by saying that Mike Coulter's fouling out in the fourth period really hurt. In commenting further Koth said he was very pleased with the balanced scoring attack put on by his team. The 15-point total for Yahr was his high for the season.

KHS Matmen 6th of 10 Teams In Fond du Lac Invitational

Sussex Hamilton's superior depth won the team title Saturday in the 20th annual 10 school Fond du Lac Invitational wrestling tournament at Goodrich gym. The Chargers finished with 164 points, well ahead of the host Fondy Cardinals, who placed second with 122½ points. West Bend West was fourth with 88½ points and Kewaskum sixth with 52½.

Sussex, always a strong wrestling team, qualified six wrestlers for the final and four for consolation bouts.

Kewaskum's only finalist, Ken Miller, at 145 pounds, ran into a tough opponent in his match against John Mueller of Sussex Hamilton, dropping a 9-2 decision to the veteran Charger who won his fourth Fond du Lac title.

In addition to Miller's second, the Indians got a third from Rick Staehler (8-3), who avenged an earlier 7-2 defeat to Al Mondloch of Cedar Grove, defeating him 6-5 in a close match. Staehler was leading 2-1 in his semi-final match over an unbeaten Pardeeville wrestler when he got caught in a pin. Staehler previously pinned Robb Gessert of West Bend West.

The only other Kewaskum places were fourths by freshman Bobby Castro (8-4) at 105 pounds and by sophomore Rich Straub, who was a defending champ at 126.

Staehler and Miller (now 7-3-1), did a nice job. The Indians' Wade Jepsen (5-0 at 132), missed the tournament due to illness.

Wrestlers Trounce Mayville

By Chuck Voge

The Kewaskum varsity wrestling team posted a big win over the Mayville Cardinals here Tuesday night, Jan. 7th, by a final score of 37-15, with pins in the match by Chris Charland and Bob Castro and a technical pin by Wade Jepsen. The Kewaskum wrestlers took eight of the eleven matches for the evening.

The junior varsity also won their match by a score of 18-6, however, it will not be considered a match for record standings since Mayville had wrestlers in only four of the 12 weight classes in the contest.

Indian Varsity, JV Gymnasts Win Big Over Waupun

Both the varsity and junior varsity gymnastics teams from Kewaskum won big over Waupun here Tuesday night by scores of 101.35 to 85.075 for the varsity and 60.225 to 30.7 for the JVs.

School records on the floor and balance beam were tied by the Indian girls with Renee Kapp posting a record tying 8.35 on the floor for the varsity and Sherri Batzler a 7.9 on the balance beam. The current 7.9 on the beam is held by assistant coach Sue Harlow. In commenting on the record performances after the match, Harlow said of her record, "it won't hold up for the rest of the year."

Prospects Again Good for Kewaskum's Ski Team

Early snow this year gave members of the Kewaskum ski team a good start for their second year of competition which starts this Thursday, Jan. 9.

Coach Dave Wietor has a squad of 22 boys (no girls as yet) showing interest in the team. Wietor lost only one regular, Paul McFadden, from last year's squad, which placed 10th in the conference and therefore has many experienced skiers back.

Leading candidates returning for the varsity squad are: junior - Jesse Mueller; seniors - Mark Johnson, Brian Sedgwick and Ethan Miklas; sophomore - Sonny Sison.

Jesse Mueller will most likely be the best racer. He has experience and is also a member of a Milwaukee racing group, with whom he works out regularly in addition to practicing with Kewaskum.

Other good prospects are seniors Cory Garbisch and Mark Brodzeller and sophomore Eric Pearson. Others who could contribute are seniors Wade Jepsen and Scott Schmidt, sophomore Craig Hubbell, and freshmen Adam Miklas and Tom Ladwig.

The squad has some strong skiers but lacks in experience. However, they learned from last year's competition and should be stronger this season. The schedule pits them against many strong teams.

Marquette, Waukesha South and Hartland Arrowhead loom as the top contenders in the conference but West Bend also has a chance. The conference meet will be held at the New Sunburst, Kewaskum, on Thursday, Feb. 13.

KRATE OR WRESTLING. Heavyweight Jeff Diels squares off against Craig Rosencranz in the Indian win over Mayville Tuesday night.
