School Board to Get In-House Computer System Recommendation

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Finance-Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Committee was given a presentation on three options for a proposed in-house computer system which would replace administrative accounting and recording keeping services now provided to the Kewaskum School District by the Cooperative Educational Services Agency, District One (CESA-1). Business Manager Cherna Gorder told the committee Monday night, if it were to recommend the option she, and District Administrator Penny Kleinhaus, felt was the most suited to the district's needs, the cost could be paid back in approximately 2½ years.

Presently Kewaskum is paying CESA-1 a fee of $12,000 a year for payroll, accounting and student grade records services. Gorder said the district is also paying approximately $1,200 a year for a dedicated phone line which provides a direct service to the Milwaukee area and CESA-1 which is located in Waukesha. The option Gorder recommended works with Burroughs equipment. Software for the system would cost $14,750 and the hardware, (two stations) $16,269, for a total cost of $31,019. The system can handle both accounting and word-processing and can be expanded to six stations (keyboards).

There would also be a maintenance contract for $2,393. The district is presently paying $1,344 a year for maintenance on the digital printer now being used. With the elimination of that cost and the possible

Village to Begin New Sidewalk Construction

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Five of the twenty-five property owners who will be affected by the new sidewalk construction along Clinton Street and Brooklane Drive attended Monday night's public hearing on the proposed project.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said there were no derogatory comments about the work proposed. The five residents at the meeting were owners of corner lots and their primary concern was that construction on both sides of their properties be done at the same time.

The hearing was closed with approval of Resolution 86-21 regarding the improvements and levying of special assessments for the work. The Village Board approved the recommendation of the village's consulting engineers to award the contract to Barton Construction at a cost of approximately $30,000.

Timblin Apartment Project Closer to Reality

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Plan Commission, Tuesday night, voted to recommend the Village Board approve a certified survey map of land which will become the site for two multi-family units to be constructed by Tom Timblin of Kewaskum. That approval will be the next step in Timblin's securing a building permit for his project.

A stipulation of that map approval is Timblin's providing a developer's agreement which will guarantee construction of curbs, gutters and paving a portion of the new street which will run north and south behind the Kewaskum shopping center. The work would be done next spring. Originally that roadwork was to have been completed this year, however, Timblin told the commission, due to the building boom this year he was unable to secure a contractor to do the work. "I'm lucky to have contractors to build the units," said Timblin, "if I hadn't lined them up in spring when I started planning this project I wouldn't have had them either."

Plan Commission chairman pro-tem Howard Laubenstein supported Timblin's statement. The village board ran into the same situation, said Laubenstein. He was referring to the letting of bids for the new sidewalk construction. The village received only one bid and we were lucky to get that, he noted.

District Schools to Open Sept. 2

By Penny Kleinhaus
District Administrator

Tuesday, September 2, is the first day of the 1986-87 school year for returning and new students of the Kewaskum District.

Parents/guardians are urged to review the bus schedule and rules with their children. Changes this year are due to elimination of some routes and the switch of sixth grade students to the Middle School and therefore riding the first early bus route. In addition, students from the Bel-Ric area are no longer being bussed. A crossing guard will be stationed on Hwy. H just west of the intersection with Hwy. 45. Those with young children especially are urged to make sure that they cross with the guard.

Students will be receiving information at school on free and reduced lunches that should be taken home. If you don't receive an application and wish to review the criteria or have questions, call the Business Office at 626-8427. Prices for lunch and milk have not been raised this year. Costs will be: $1.10/daily or $4.75/weekly for lunch and 15c for milk. School on Tuesday is a full day and lunch will be served.

For high school students this will be the first year of a closed campus for all students. They will not be allowed off the school grounds without written permission for the appropriate reasons. Those driving cars are reminded that they will not be allowed to drive them during the day.

The School District does not carry accident insurance for students and we therefore urge parents/guardians to review their own policies to be sure coverage is adequate. This is particularly true for student-athletes. The schools do have information about WIAA insurance that is available for parents to purchase on their own. Information can be obtained by calling the school building offices.

The buildings have been cleaned and repaired. Our custodial and maintenance staff elimination of the dedicated phone line, maintenance costs would about the same, noted Gorder.

The second option covered the WOS System which operates with IBM-AT equipment. After talking to several people and seeing the system in operation, Gorder stated she had nothing good to say about it.

The system belongs to the Department of Public Instruction, Madison, which has had nothing but trouble with it and is trying to sell it. While the cost would run $17,261, Gorder said it had several drawbacks. It cannot handle wordprocessing, it has only one station, it cannot be expanded to more stations, and it operates very slowly.

The third option covered the IBM System - 36. Gorder was impressed with this system, however, she felt the cost of $44,000 was prohibitive. She said the System-36 would have been given more serious consideration if the district were growing and there would be a future need for all its capabilities.

Based on all the information and demonstrations, Gorder said the first option is the one she would like to see the committee recommend to the full School Board. Committee member Kim Peterson motioned that the Burroughs system be recommended to the Board and that the district seriously look at how much use it gets out of the dedicated phone line with the possibility of discontinuing it.

In other business, the committee heard a request from track coaches Perry Koth and David Drexler to have the high school track resealed, or repaired and resurfaced.

After a short discussion, the committee decided resealing the track at a cost of $4,900 would not improve the condition of the track other than to stop the present deterioration.

Drexler told the committee he had contacted Armstrong Paving Company in Milwaukee, and for $6,000 they would repair all the low spots which were causing standing water, fill in the cracks, resurface with two coats of Plush-Tex textured resurfacing material and repaint the white lines.

Kleinhans told the committee she had serious reservations about just resealing the track. "We'll be back in the same situation in three or four years," she said. Buildings Superintendent Fred Boehlke said all the reseal amounted to was filling the cracks and coating the track with plain driveway sealer.

Committee member Bob Schulties moved the committee recommend to the School Board that it approve the complete repair and resurfacing for $6,000.

Boehlke informed the committee that the district's 1974 Chevrolet truck had died. After an inspection, it was determined it would need a new engine, muffler and other repairs amounting to approximately $1,100.

Boehlke suggested the district look into purchasing a replacement used vehicle rather than put $1,100 into the old one. Boehlke had prices on four vehicles ranging in cost from $4,995 to $9,200. He said there was $9,000 in the Vehicle

Replacement account, however, he did not want use all the money to purchase a truck. "There are two cars which will be needing repairs in the near future," said Boehlke, "so I would rather look at a 1981-82 vehicle for around $4,000 to $5,000."

Tom Tessar of Honeck Chevrolet, who was at the meeting, said Killy Honeck goes down to the weekly GMAC sale in Chicago and if Boehlke would supply some specifications, Killy would shop around for a vehicle. Tessar stressed the district would be under no obligation to purchase anything. Peterson thanked Tessar for the assistance and also directed Boehlke to continue his search for a replacement.

Boehlke also presented three bids for asphalt work at Kewaskum Elementary, Middle School and High School. Poblacki Paving bid $4,652, Ram Construction $4,825, and Mac, Inc., $7,790. Boehlke said he was also looking for a bid from Payne & Dolan who would be doing some village work. The committee agreed to recommend the low bid of Poblacki, unless Payne and Dolan came in with a lower bid.

Boehlke and Kleinhans talked to the committee about their concerns related to water problems at the Middle and High Schools. The problems are damage to drinking water pipes, heating water pipes, water heaters and boilers.

Kleinhans said initially the problem with repairs and replacements was attributed to normal aging and wear, however, she became concerned when some of the same problems began re-occurring. She and Boehlke said that people who were making boiler inspections and repairs felt the problems were a result of the chemicals being used in the systems. Boehlke said state inspectors suggested that a different company be brought in to do water testing and furnishing of chemicals. "We definitely have to have tests to find out why our water is eating up our plumbing. The water in our heating pipes is literally eating holes in the pipes," said Boehlke. He noted the present supplier had come out several times to try and find and correct the problem. He's made changes in the chemicals we use but the situation hasn't improved, noted Boehlke.

The committee told Boehlke to contact other chemical suppliers and testers in an effort to find a solution to the problem.

The committee also discussed the need for a service contract for the newly purchased van. Since there was no expressed opinion one way or the other for the contract, the matter was dropped.

have been working hard all summer to have things ready for the return of students and teachers. Many of our professional staff spent the summer attending classes and seminars or working on curriculum. They are ready and anxious for the return of their students.

What can you as parents and guardians do to insure a successful start to the year for your student? Be positive about the teacher(s) your child has and the programs available. Be interested in what your student(s) is doing on a daily basis.

Ask questions and take the time to visit school or call teachers, and principals. Review student's work and be sure to set goals, high enough but realistic. Set aside some time on a regular basis for reading (or reading to your child) or doing homework. Finally, encourage your child(ren) to become involved with extra-curricular activities as they become available, seek as many ways as possible to find something for each child to be successful at.

WELCOME BACK!

Timblin

Administrator Dan Schmidt indicated there should be no problem with the map's approval. Schmidt did request, however, that Timblin get the developer's agreement drawn up so it could be reviewed by the village's attorney" before next month's meeting.

Timblin will also be responsible for 170 feet of curbs and gutter along Timblin Drive, from the mall driveway to its connection with the new street to the west. Timblin said he and his father Henry had assumed the mall owners were responsible for that section of road. However, after checking the mall contract it was found that its owners had no further responsibility so Tom Timblin has agreed to see to the completion of that section.

The project will be placed on the village board's September 15th agenda. Timblin said he hoped the board would grant the building permit at that time since he wanted to begin construction immediately. "I'm hoping to have the buildings done by at least the middle of December," said Timblin. "We've only begun working on the roadbed and already my phone is ringing off the hook with people asking to get on my waiting list for the apartments," said Timblin.

In other action the commission reviewed a certified survey map for the division of a lot on Werner Drive owned by Alex and Claudia Laubach. The commission also voted to recommend board approval of that map.

Home is Ransacked in Town Farmington Burglary

A 44-year-old West Bend man was charged this week with armed burglary and other criminal charges after he also allegedly rammed into a garage Sunday afternoon in the Town of Farmington with the owner of the home's van.

James R. Allen of 319 Jefferson St., also was charged with causing damage to property after kicking in the front door, ransacking the interior of the house and driving a vehicle without the owner's consent. The kitchen, master bedroom and recreation room literally were trashed and contents scattered around the rooms.

According to a criminal complaint, a witness saw a man carry several rifles and shotguns from the home of Virgil Hackbarth, 2280 Highway 28 east of Kewaskum in Farmington. The witness also saw the man ram Hackbarth's van into the garage door, according to the complaint.

Hackbarth told sheriff's deputies that several rifles and shotguns, a black onyx ring and many other items were missing, the complaint said.

A deputy found seven shotguns and rifles, including a sawed-off shotgun, and other items in Allen's own van parked in front of Hackbarth's home, according to the complaint. The deputy arrested Allen who was still at the scene, in his own car, after neighbors called authorities.

Allen was released from custody Monday on a $5,000 signature bond. He is scheduled to appear Sept. 8 before Circuit Judge James B. Schwabach.

Farewell to Beechwood School

Now the bells no longer chime,
No more history, no nursery rhymes.
The rooms, now empty, no desks to fill,
No more projects on the window sill.
The teachers and staff gave love to share
To all the students showed how to care.
Together we worked for our dear school,
Learning so often how to keep cool.

Family and friends, both young and old,
We kept on fighting, being so bold.
Our school now is closed, a sad farewell.
We gave it our best as all could tell.

Thanks be to all who shared their time,
Farewell to Beechwood Our "Auld Lang Syne."

Village of Kewaskum NEWS NOTES

50th Anniversary

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 6
Friday, Aug. 29, 1986

All dogs and cats are not to run at large or cause damage to other people's property. As per Chapter 12.02 of the Kewaskum Municipal Code and State Statutes Chapter 174.02: The owner or keeper of any dog or cat licensed or unlicensed, shall not permit the same to cause damage (leave body waste) on others' property. These matters are also redefined in both Chapter 9, Peace and Order and Chapter 10, Public Nuisances, of the Kewaskum Municipal Code.

The "Park Rules and Regulations" prohibits all dogs and cats from entering any park.

The Village would have no objection to a properly restrained animal, that is accompanied by the owner as long as no body waste is left behind. Children and adults use the parks for all types of activities and should not have to contend with unsanitary conditions.

Cluster mail boxes provide people using them the opportunity of walking their pets when picking up their mail. This provides the property owner that allowed the cluster boxes to be placed on his or her lot an abundance of animal waste being deposited adjacent to those cluster boxes. The above applies in this instance as well so please be considerate of your neighbors and pick up after your pets.

Your cooperation and consideration of others would be greatly appreciated. The same rules apply for railroad right of ways, boulevards and the like.

New Drunk Driving Laws Need Work, Sen. Stitt Reports

I recently supported the 21 year old drinking age increases as well as some of the changes in Wisconsin's drunk driving laws. Unfortunately, some of the changes in the drunk driving laws were drafted incorrectly and far too hastily by the Governor and the Democratic leadership.

Beginning next month, the penalties for a first time drunk driving conviction will require the court to impose 20 hours of community service, increase the difficulty involved in obtaining an occupational license, and require first timers to supply proof of insurance. Moreover, the new law creates an entirely new crime category for drunken drivers tested at .20 (twice the legal limit) or above with a minimum fine of $545. This new law, according to the Department of Transportation, could affect 28% of drunken drivers.

Law enforcement and court officials are already predicting problems with the new laws. First, there is the question of who will administer and supervise the community service which is mandatory under the new law. Second, some individuals may simply refuse to be tested for alcohol because the penalty for .20 blood-alcohol is greater than the penalty for refusing the test.

More significantly, many drivers will have difficulty getting the required insurance to reinstate their license. These people may choose to simply drive without a license. Even more importantly, the new law will increase the number of court hearings due to the increased potential losses that occur with a conviction and in order to delay the loss of the license.

Clearly, the penalty for refusing to take the breathalyzer test should be increased to that of a .20 blood-alcohol level conviction. The penalty for driving after a drunk driving revocation should also be increased. In Florida, some convicted drunk drivers display a special bumper strip to discourage future offenses. Finally, the Legislature should not impose local government mandates without providing the necessary funding. As the next session of the Legislature approaches, I will be working to correct these problems.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me, Senator Don Stitt at P.O. Box 7882, Madison, Wisconsin 53707 or call my office at 608-266-7513 or leave a message with the Legislative Hotline at 1-800-362-9696.

School Bus Danger Zones

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 8
Friday, Aug. 29, 1986

School bus danger zones are the areas around the bus where 80 percent of all bus accidents that cause student deaths occur. National statistics show that four times as many fatalities occur outside the bus in danger zones than inside the bus.

Transportation Safety Tips

Motorists

- Stop when meeting or overtaking a stopped school bus with red lights flashing. Failure to stop at least 20 feet from the bus and remain stopped until the red lights are turned off or the bus resumes motion can bring a fine up to $300.
- Honor the 15 m.p.h. speed limit when entering a school zone. Stop when the school patrol or crossing guard instructs you to do so.
- Yield the right of way to pedestrians in marked or unmarked crosswalks. Before driving across a sidewalk, yield to pedestrians.
- Watch for bicyclists. Maintain a minimum distance of three feet when passing a cyclist.

Pedestrians

- Walk on the sidewalk. If no sidewalk is available, walk on the left side of the roadway facing traffic.

- Cross in the crosswalk. Check for traffic before stepping off the curb.
- Obey traffic signals and the crossing guard.
- If your school bus has a designated safe route, use it.

Bicyclists

- Make sure your bicycle is the right size. You should be able to straddle your bike with both feet on the ground.
- Bicycles must be in good condition. A well-maintained bike is safer and will last longer.
- Ride with traffic on the right side of the road.
- Obey traffic signals and use hand signals to let others know what you plan to do.
- Ride single file when riding in a group. Make your own decisions instead of following the leader.
- Protect your bike by locking it up.
- Consider wearing a safety helmet. About 75 percent of all cyclists killed each year die from head injuries.

Those Lazy Days of Summer Will Soon Be Just a Memory

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Kewaskum's two parks saw lots of activity this summer with picnics, family reunions, barbecues, ball tournaments, parents and their youngsters fishing at the river and young and old alike enjoying the sun and water at the Kiwanis Park pool.

Parks Committee Chairman Tom McElhatton recently reported that the village's swimming lesson program was again a success with 327 youngsters participating during the two sessions.

The newest addition, the Kiwanis Park shelter building, is in the final stages of construction and could still see some use during the warm autumn weekends.

But soon those days will all be memories as children go back to school and the parks become almost dormant, patiently waiting for their visitors to return again next summer.

A father and daughter took time recently to enjoy a morning at the park.

Sue [Harlow] Goeden worked with a group of youngsters receiving swimming lessons at the Kiwanis Park pool.

Louellen [Klahn] Last, a former Kewaskum resident who now lives in Saukville, returned to spend a day with her daughter Nicole at Kiwanis Park. She took advantage of last Sunday's sun to give her daughter a roller skating lesson on the basketball court.

Safe Labor Day Weekend May Mean Work for Motorists

Ready to do some work for Labor Day weekend? The weekend that is usually considered a worker's holiday demands that motorists first attend to some business if they are planning to travel.

Maynard Stoehr, director of the Department of Transportation's Office for Highway Safety, says, "The best safety tip for travelers on Labor Day weekend — any weekend really — is to make sure that their vehicles are ready for travel."

Stoehr recommended that drivers check radiator and transmission fluid levels before starting out on a long trip.

"Drivers sometimes also neglect to check the windshield cleaning fluid level and see that no bugs are caught in the system," remarked Stoehr.

Stoehr also has some tips for those travelers who plan on towing recreation equipment.

"It is very important for drivers to grease the ball bearings in the wheels on their trailers. Ball bearings can melt together, causing wheels to fly off trailers in the middle of traffic," Stoehr commented.

Stoehr also pointed out that all trailers must be secured with safety chains in case of tongue of the trailer breaks or the pin connecting the tongue to the towing vehicle works loose.

"Another area that could cause motorists trouble is worn belts. On a holiday weekend a driver might have to travel pretty far to find a station open that has fan or other belts," Stoehr said.

As well as having the vehicle in safe working order, Stoehr believes it is important for the driver to be in top condition too.

"If you are planning to drink alcoholic beverages on the weekend, be sure that someone abstains and so is able to drive safely," Stoehr cautioned.

Stoehr also emphasized the value of taking breaks on long trips, especially when traveling in areas that are congested.

"It is pretty easy for frustrations to mount and tempers to flare when traffic isn't moving briskly. I advise drivers to take advantage of Wisconsin's beautiful roadside parks to unwind. They are great places to include as part of the holiday," Stoehr said.

Stoehr urges all motorists and passengers to wear their safety belts everyday. "Sometimes it's impossible to avoid an accident. Fortunately it is possible to protect yourself and your loved ones from serious injury by insisting that everyone buckle up," he remarked.

A series of five, free arthritis self-help classes will be offered at St. Joseph's Community Hospital of West Bend, Inc., 551 Silverbrook Drive, West Bend. The series will begin Monday, September 8, and continue on September 15, 22, 29 and October 6, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

The series of five classes is co-sponsored by St. Joseph's Community Hospital and the Arthritis Foundation, Wisconsin Chapter.

Deer Damage Rules Hearing

A hearing to consider changes to the rules regulating the taking of deer causing damage has been scheduled in Madison on September 2.

The proposed rules establish the circumstances under which the Department of Natural Resources can issue shooting permits to harvest deer causing damage to property during the period when the gun deer season is closed.

The rule also provides an application procedure for landowners and hunters to participate in a shooting permit program during the gun deer season where deer damage is occurring. Landowners list eligible shooters (licensed hunters) on their permit application and would have an antlerless harvest prescribed for their land. The permit includes the appropriate number of shooting permit armbands and carcass tags. Licensed hunters participating are permitted to take one antlerless deer in addition to their regular season bag limit.

The hearing on the rules will be begin at 1:00 p.m. in Room 027, GEF 2, 101 South Webster Street, Madison, on September 2.

A copy of the proposed rule may be obtained from David Gjestson, Bureau of Wildlife Management, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707. Comments on the rule submitted to Gjestson at the above address no later than September 9 this year will be given the same weight and effect as oral statements presented at the hearing.

Appoint New Social Security Manager For This District

The appoint of Lawrence W. Alt as Manager of the Social Security Milwaukee North District was announced by Marlene Moleski, Regional Commissioner of the Social Security Administration.

Alt is originally from Wisconsin and graduated from the University of Wisconsin - Platteville. He has worked in Social Security offices in Illinois and Wisconsin since joining SSA in 1970. He most recently served as District Manager at Chicago (West).

The Milwaukee North District includes two Social Security offices in Milwaukee, as well as the Social Security office located at 712 Park Avenue in West Bend. The three offices in the District serve over 80,000 retirement and survivor beneficiaries who receive a total of over $39,800,000 each month. There are approximately 8,500 disability recipients who receive approximately $3,282,000 each month. In addition, the district services slightly over 7,500 SSI recipients who receive $2,221,000 monthly.

Alt has stated that one of the primary goals of SSA in Washington County will be to continue to improve public service, through such innovations as Teleservice. By calling 1-800-242-9946, virtually any SSA business — including filing a claim for benefits — can be completed by phone, saving the time and inconvenience of a trip to the office.

An Explanation of the Annual Meeting and School Taxes

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 11
Friday, Aug. 29, 1986.

By Penny Kleinhans District Administrator

Voters in the School District of Kewaskum will have an opportunity to provide their opinions on the 1986-87 school district budget at the annual meeting at 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, September 3, 1986.

The budget hearing will be held as part of the annual meeting of the school district. Both will be held at the Kewaskum High School.

Through prior experience, I have found that many school district residents have questions about the powers of the annual meeting in the school budget process. I trust the following information will be valuable to Kewaskum School District taxpayers.

At the budget hearing, taxpayers will receive an explanation of the proposed 1986-87 budget and their opinions and input will be welcomed. By state law, electors at the annual meeting have the power to adopt a tax levy, which is the amount of tax dollars needed to operate the school system for the coming year.

However, state law also provides that on or before October 15, 1986, the School Board must certify the amount of taxes needed to operate the system for the 1986-87 school year (S. 120.12(3)).

That was placed in the state statutes to allow the School Board to make necessary adjustments to the tax levy approved by the annual meeting if the amount was either insufficient or excessive.

So, in reality, the opinion and judgements of the electors at the annual meeting are highly valued, but it is the School Board, on or before October 15, 1986, that must make the final decision on the tax levy. In many cases, however, the School Board simply reaffirms the judgements made at the annual meeting.

Another real problem for taxpayers is understanding Wisconsin school taxes. The terms "equalized" and "assessed" valuation are used freely, but seldom are they explained in terms we can all understand. Maybe an illustration of the 1985-86 school district tax rate would be helpful:

June and Don are good friends. They live in the Kewaskum School District and both own exactly the same amount of property ($70,000).

But, June lives in the Town of Kewaskum, while Don lives in the Town of Scott. Neither understands how their school property tax is computed; in fact, each suspects they pay more than the other.

June went to the Town of Kewaskum assessor. She found that her $70,000 worth of property was assessed at 105.0963%. She found that this was fair because everyone else's property in the Town of Kewaskum was also assessed at 105.0963% of its worth.

Don's $70,000 worth of property was assessed at 49.9859%. This was fair, too, because everyone else's property in the Town of Scott was also assessed at 49.9859% of its worth.

When June and Don got together and went to the Kewaskum School District assessor, they found there was none. "Well, who assesses for school taxes?" they asked. "Surely, they can't use the same assessment as the Town of Scott and the Town of Kewaskum because they differ."

From the district administrator, they learned that long ago this problem was recognized by school authorities. They learned it was solved by "equalizing" (adjusting each community's assessments to approximate actual value on a Statewide basis by the Wisconsin Department of Revenue).

This, then, is what is known as "equalized valuation." How are individual school taxes computed from this figure?" Don asked.

The district administrator provided them with a short-cut method of estimating school taxes that works very well. "It's based on the assumption that the market value of your property should be the same as its equalized valuation," she said. "Therefore, you can simply multiply what you estimate your property might sell for by the mill levy calculated on the equalized valuation to estimate your school taxes."

Let's see if June and Don paid the same amount of school taxes.

TAX COMPARISON

Dollars of School Tax Levy - 1985-86	• 3,682,477
(Net tax after property credit)
District's Equalized Valuation	• 277,586,737
Factor (3,682,477 ÷ 277,586,737)	13.266 mills
(1/10 of a cent of $13.266 per $1,000 equalized valuation)

Short-cut:	$70,000 estimated property
	x 13.266 mills (equalized mill rate)
	$928.62 tax

JUNE'S TAX (Town of Kewaskum)

Town's State equalized value	• $35,276,300
Town's share of levy	• 467,977
($35,276,300 x 13.266 mills)
($35,276,300 x .013266)
Local assessed value of all property	• $37,074,110
(105.0963% of equalized)
Town's mill rate for school purposes	12.623 mills
($467,977 ÷ 37,074,110)
June's assessed value	• 73,567
($70,000 x 105.0963%)
Taxes paid for school purposes
($73,567 x 12.623 mills)
($73,567 x .012623)	$928.62 tax

DON'S TAX (Town of Scott)

Town's State equalized value	• $25,772,496
Town's share of levy	• 341,881
($25,772,496 x 13.266 mills)
($25,772,496 x .013266)
Local assessed value of all property	• $12,882,623
(49.9859% of equalized)
Town's mill rate for school purposes	26.538 mills
($341,881 ÷ 12,882,623)
Don's assessed value	• 34,990
($70,000 x 49.9859%)
Taxes paid for school purposes
($34,990 x 26.538 mills)
($34,990 x .026538)	$928.62 tax

It can be seen from these examples that both Don and June did pay the same amount of school taxes. The equalization process makes the tax rate throughout a school district the same even though the various municipalities within the district are assessing at different levels. The examples given also showed Don and June why the comparison of mill rates between various communities and districts isn't always a reliable measure of costs.

Note: Figures are based on the 1985 Tax Levy including property tax credits. Calculations may not be exact due to rounding of decimal place.

Enrollments in Schools to Remain Steady Until 1990

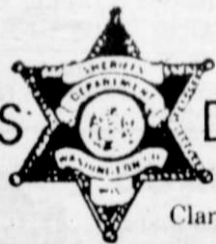

MADISON — About 767,000 public school students will return to the classroom when the 1986-87 school year begins this fall, State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover reports.

This year's estimated enrollment represents a small decrease (0.16 percent) from 1985-86, when the count was 768,234. Enrollments in kindergarten through third grade are increasing, which should eventually reverse the declining enrollment trend.

However, no significant change is expected in K-12 enrollments until 1990. Although K-8 enrollments are increasing each year, the ninth through twelfth grades are expected to decrease until 1991.

These Wisconsin trends are consistent with nationwide projections from the U.S. Department of Education, Grover notes. The Education Department indicates public school enrollments will reach a low in the mid-1980s. Starting in 1985, enrollments will increase in the elementary grades but will decrease in the high school grades until 1990.

SHERIFFS DEPARTMENT

Clarence A. Schwartz, Sheriff

Back to School Safety Tips

It's back to school time in Washington County and Sheriff Clarence A. Schwartz is concerned about the safety of our children. Below Sheriff Schwartz offers parents safety tips to teach their youngsters.

"Many children today are taking care of themselves with both parents in the work force," said the sheriff. Because it is such a big responsibility the sheriff offers tips children can follow.

* Alert your children on how to reach you at work and what to do in case of a fire or other emergencies. Point out all the local emergency numbers — fire, police, hot-lines, poison control center — and post them near all the phones in your home.

* Be sure your children know how to use the telephone correctly — both pushbutton and dial — and how to make local, long distance and emergency calls, and how to get the operator.

* Have your children check in with you or a trusted neighbor as soon as they get home.

* Make sure your children know how to work the door and window locks and be sure they lock the door after they're in the house.

* Stress to your children that when they are home alone, never to open the door to anyone they don't know well or are unsure of. Have them check the identity of service people by calling their office before letting them in. Don't let unfamiliar callers know they're home alone.

* Teach your children safety tips to follow if they feel like they're being followed on their way home from school. Tell them not to go home — go to a store, back to school, or to the nearest "safe house."

* With your children, select a safe place to keep a key or keys and money for lunch or emergency phone calls.

* Warn your children not to go anywhere with another adult, even one who says he or she has been sent by you. You and your children may even want to adopt a secret "code word" as a signal if another adult has to pick your children up.

* If anything happens to your child while they're alone that makes them feel uncomfortable, let them know it's okay to tell you or an adult they trust. Always. Every time.

"Going over these safety tips with your children will teach them how to react carefully in case of an emergency and will give you the peace of mind knowing your children are prepared to take care of themselves," concluded the sheriff.

Wisconsin's Drinking Age Goes to 21 Sept. 1

Wisconsin's legal drinking age goes to 21 Sept. 1, but 19- and 20-year-olds who are exempted will outnumber those affected by the law for several months.

Under the "grandfather" clause, the law applies only to people who turn 19 on or after Sept. 1, while those who are 19 by that date may continue to drink legally.

Joe Maassen, assistant general counsel for the state Department of Transportation, said Sept. 1, 1967, is the crucial date for bartenders, package sales store clerks and law enforcement officers to remember. "If the person was born before that date, he or she may still legally consume alcoholic beverages," he said. "If the person was born on or after that date, no booze except that provided by parents, guardians or adult spouses," he added.

After Sept. 1, 1988, 21 will be the minimum drinking age for everyone.

The "absolute sobriety" law continues to apply to drivers under the age of 19. The law provides a three-month driver's license suspension for drivers under 19 who have any measurable amount of alcohol in their system.

Also effective Sept. 1 is the "community service" provision. Maassen said that anyone convicted of a first offense of operating while intoxicated will be required to complete 20 hours of community service, as specified by the court. The community service provision applies on convictions for violations that occur after Sept. 1, but not for violations occurring before that date.

Several other new provisions which were passed in last spring's special session will go into effect Jan. 1, Maassen said. Among these are longer revocations, and a new criminal offense of "aggravated drunken driving" for drivers with a blood alcohol content of .20 percent or more.

WCMHC RELOCATION MAKES SENSE

To the Editor:

At the close of this year, Washington County's Inpatient Psychiatric Unit, a nineteen-bed treatment program of the Mental Health Center will be moving from rented space at the Samaritan Home to newly remodeled quarters at St. Joseph's Community Hospital. This change will be of great benefit to our community by improving the quality of local mental health services without doing this at the expense of either other community services funded by CCSA or of the County taxpayer. CCSA is the department of County government responsible for the planning of local services in the fields of mental health, alcohol and other drug abuse, and developmental disabilities. It is also the governing authority for the Washington County Mental Health Center (WCMHC), which operates the outpatient Family Education and Treatment Program, the Community Treatment Services for persons with long-term support needs related to a mental illness, as well as the Inpatient Unit.

The space being remodeled on the second floor of the east building at St. Joseph's Hospital has been designed to efficiently meet the needs for providing quality acute treatment services to the WCMHC's clients. Unlike our current location, the Inpatient Unit will have a separate group of rooms which will allow for the treatment of individuals with very different problems, so that all will be able to gain the maximum benefits of treatment. Patient activity areas such as an occupational therapy room, a music and reading room, an exercise room, and an attractive day room are part of the plans. These are particularly important since so much of the treatment provided involves personal interactions with the staff and other patients outside the sleeping rooms. The unit will be therapeutically designed and furnished, replacing equipment now in use which has grown old with years of wear. The availability of a quality inpatient mental health program in West Bend will allow greater involvement of family members in the treatment of local individuals who may now be going to Milwaukee hospitals for such a service. These facility improvements will increase the positive work that can be done on our Inpatient Unit.

The move of the WCMHC Inpatient Unit from the Samaritan to St. Joseph's is a sound financial decision. Between 1980 and 1985, the net cost to CCSA of funding this unit increased from $352,518 to $495,706, a 41% increase. In the 1987 budget being proposed by CCSA, this net cost will decline for the first time since 1982 to a figure of $474,996. Due to a technicality of Federal law, beginning in 1986 and as long as it remains at the Samaritan, the WCMHC Inpatient Unit is not eligible to collect reimbursement from patients covered by Medical Assistance (Title 19). If ownership of the unit is transferred to St. Joseph's Hospital, this source of payment for services will once again become available. The five-year lease between WCMHC and St. Joseph's calls for a careful study of transfer of ownership to take place during the second year (1988). For the UCMHC Inpatient Unit to move in the direction of more self-support and less reliance on County funding relocation is necessary.

The health care field has changed dramatically in the past fifteen years, affecting mental health providers, hospitals, and nursing homes alike. From common origins, the WCMHC and the Samaritan have each grown more specialized in our own fields of care. As recently as 1980 the average Inpatient Unit patient remained for treatment almost a month. Today that average length of stay is about ten days before outpatient follow-up begins. The Samaritan has needs for additional space to serve its residents which can now be addressed with the space vacated by WCMHC. Methods of payment of health care facilities have changed and the competition among providers in the greater Milwaukee area has grown intense. In this changing environment it is essential for the WCMHC Inpatient Unit to be seen and understood by our community as a specialized hospital service available for use by acute care patients. Through a survey conducted in 1985, we know that local physicians support the relocation of the Inpatient Unit and will be able to use it for a greater number of their patients. We are taking a step into the mainstream of local hospital care and physicians services by our move to St. Joseph's, adapting to today's changing health care scene. The result will be improved local mental health services at a reasonable cost to both the consumer and the County taxpayer.

Captain Michael J. Carr of the Washington County Sheriff's Department has been appointed by the State Legislative Council to serve as a public member on the Advisory Committee on Mentally Ill Inmates, according to a press release from the office of Sheriff Clarence Schwartz.

The Advisory Committee was established for the purpose of studying problems related to the care and treatment of mentally ill inmates in county jails and state prisons, with emphasis on the chronically mentally ill.

The committee will report its recommendations to the Special Committee on Mental Health Issues. The committee is chaired by Representative John D. Medinger (La Crosse), and consists of four Representatives, one Senator, and eight public members.

School District Announces Policy on Free and Reduced Price Meals

The School District of Kewaskum today announced its policy for children unable to pay the full price of meals served under the National School Lunch Program. Each school office and the central office has a copy of the policy, which may be reviewed by any interested party. Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free and reduced price meals.

The following household size and income criteria will be used

FAMILY SIZE INCOME SCALE
For Determining Eligibility for Free and Reduced Price Meals
Family (Household) Size	FREE (must be at or below)	REDUCED (must be at or between)

2	9,412	9,413 and 13,394
3	11,856	11,857 and 16,872
4	14,300	14,301 and 20,350

For each additional family member add:	+2,444	2,444 and 3,478

Application forms are available at the principal's office in each school and at the administration office. To apply for free or reduced price meals, households must fill out the application and return it to the school. The information provided on the application will be used for the purpose of determining eligibility and may be verified at any time during the school year by school or other program officials. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year.

For the school officials to determine eligibility, the household must provide the following information listed on the application: Names of all household members; social security numbers of all adult household members or a notation that the household member does not possess one; total household income must be listed by the amount received by each household member receiving income and the type of income it is (such as wages, child support, etc.) or a food stamp case number if the household is on food stamps; and the signature of an adult household member certifying that the information provided is correct. Households are required to report increases in household income of over $50 per month or $600 per year and decreases in household size.

Under the provisions of the free and reduced price meal policy, the Business Manager will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent or guardian is dissatisfied with the ruling of the official, he/she may wish to discuss the decision with the determining official on an informal basis. If the parent wishes to make a formal appeal, he/she may make a request either orally or in writing to: Ms. Penelope J. Kleinhaus, District Administrator, School District of Kewaskum, 1450 School Street, Kewaskum, Wisconsin, telephone number 626-8427, for a hearing to appeal the decision. The policy contains an outline of the hearing procedure.

If a household member becomes unemployed or if the household size changes, the family should contact the School. Such changes may make the household eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a household has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals for them, the household should complete an application for a family of one or contact the school for more information.

The information provided by the household on the application is confidential and will be used only for purposes of determining eligibility and verifying data.

In the operation of the child feeding programs, no child will be discriminated against because of race, color, sex, national origin, age or handicap. CARD OF THANKS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest
words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

A NOTE OF THANKS

I would like to thank my dear family, relatives and friends for their many comforting prayers and words of encouragement, cards, visits and gifts during my hospitalization at St. Luke's and while convalescing at home. Also to Pastor Robinson for his prayers and visits. It was greatly appreciated and will always be remembered.

Small Indian Team to Open Football Season

The Kewaskum Indians, who were hit hard by graduation last year, will open the 1986 season with a non-conference home game against Horicon next Friday night, Sept. 5, which will be Parents Night.

Meanwhile, the Indians will have a scrimmage against West Bend East here this Friday, Aug. 29, starting at 4:30 p.m.

Kewaskum, which will lack in size and numbers this season, hopes to improve on last year's record with some skilled players. Last year the Indians went 1-8 overall, and 1-6 against Eastern Wisconsin opponents. However, two of the losses were in overtime and another three by one touch-down.

At the start of practice, there were just 23 junior and senior candidates and approximately 15 others from the sophomore class. The Indians do have eight returning lettermen.

Fran Charland is starting his second year as head coach. He is assisted by Joe Harlow as offensive coordinator and Clark Pearson as line specialist, who will work with both the JVs and varsity. Charland will make the defensive calls.

A complete preview of this year's team and schedule will be published next week.

Plymouth Wins Division Title Lakes Team Salvages Win in Final Game; Also Loses Three

Kewaskum finished the season in Land o' Lakes League play with a busy schedule the past week, playing four games, three of them over the weekend.

On Wednesday night Kewaskum was drubbed by second place Thiensville-Mequon, 11-1. Saturday afternoon the Athletics played two games against two different teams. At noon they took on the West Bend Benders and were defeated, 13-5, immediately followed by a contest with Plymouth's champions, which they also lost, 12-3. All of these were makeup games. Then Sunday afternoon Kewaskum hosted Saukville in a regularly scheduled game and brought the season to a close with an 8-6 victory. The team still wound up in last place with 2-16 record.

A 16-hit attack, sparked by Rick Bury, Chris Wetzel and Matt Oswald, with three apiece, paced Manager Bill Backhaus' West Bend Bender win at Kewaskum Saturday. The young Benders, mostly former West Bend West and West Bend East players, scored four runs in the first inning and six in the eighth to sew up the victory. Up to then it was a close 7-5 contest. For Kewaskum, Tim Heberer and Jack Aupperle each had two hits.

The Plymouth Flames, with a powerful hitting attack, won the championship in the Lakes Northern Division with a fine 17-1 record, followed closely by Thiensville-Mequon at 16-2. The Flames will be entering grand championship play over the Labor Day weekend. They will face Brookfield's Eastern Division champs Sunday while Hartland's Western Division winners will take on Dousman, Southwest titlists. The double elimination series continues Monday with Dousman at Plymouth and Brookfield I at Hartland.

Hunting Permit Deadlines Near

It's the last week of August, and the first Wisconsin hunting seasons are only two weeks away. The bow bear and, gun bear without dogs, seasons open on September 13, along with the gray and fox squirrel and ruffed grouse seasons statewide and the cottontail rabbit season north of Highway 10 and 54.

Time; also, to think about some approaching deadlines for submitting applications for hunting permits. Here they are in the order they fall due:

- Canada goose - Applications for permits to hunt in the Horicon-Central zones must be postmarked no later than September 15, or delivered in person to the License Section, Department of Natural Resources, 101 South Webster Street, Madison, no later than 4:30 p.m. on September 15.

- Gun deer - Applications for hunter's choice permits must be postmarked no later than October 3, or received by the License Section at 101 South Webster Street, Madison, no later than 4:30 p.m. on that date. The hunter's choice application is included with the deer gun or sports license at the time of purchase. When you purchase that license, be sure to ask for a deer quota map. Boundaries of several of the management units have been changed this year, and you will need the map in order to apply for permit in the unit of your choice.

- Sandhill deer hunt or bobcat - Applications for these permits must be postmarked no later than October 3.

- Wild turkey - Applications for a permit to harvest this bird must be postmarked no later than November 7. The 1986 Wisconsin Hunting Regulations pamphlet lists October 31 as the deadline for making application which is the date stated in the rule. However, since the application lists November 7 as the deadline for submitting the application, they will be accepted up until that date.

Applications for permits, other than the hunter's choice which is a portion of the license, are available free at most Department of Natural Resources' and county clerk's offices.
