Residents Question District's Ownership of Property

Beechwood School's Destiny To Be Decided by Electors

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Board of Education, Monday night, voted to accept the recommendation of the Beechwood Elementary School Disposition Committee that the building be sold to a "local group at a nominal fee." Since the School Board alone does not have the power to place the property up for sale, a special meeting of the School District's electors will be called in the very near future and residents attending that meeting will be asked to vote on that proposal.

That all sounds simple and easy, however, as everyone knows, nothing is ever that cut and dried. There are demons lurking in the dark as the tale of Beechwood School's fate becomes more involved and complex with the passing of every school board meeting.

The latest chapter in this saga now centers around debate between Beechwood area residents and the School Board as to who really owns the building. According to the Kewaskum School District's legal counsel, the property belongs to it as the result of having assumed the responsibilities and indebtedness of the old Beechwood School District #10, when it consolidated and became part of the Kewaskum K-12 District.

Ron Beimborn and Ralph Buchel, speaking on behalf of the Beechwood residents, however, dispute that statement. Beimborn told the board, as he had told the disposition committee last month, their attorney says the building and original 2.75 acres of land still belong to the old District #10, in the Towns of Scott and Mitchell.

Beimborn based his statements on the fact that he and his wife had scoured all the

Village Board Holds Up On Fire House Repairs

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

During a special meeting Monday afternoon, the Kewaskum Village Board unanimously voted to rescind its motions from two previous meetings which okayed repairs to correct water leakage problems at the Kewaskum Fire House.

The action came after approximately an hour's discussion between the board and several members of the Fire Department. The special meeting was called as the result of a department member, Jim Schaub, indicating he was interested in doing the work.

At its November 3rd meeting, the board had voted to go ahead with repairs to the west wall parapit and a portion of the northwest wall. The work was to have been done by Walters Building Systems who had done the original siding on other sections of the building. During that meeting Village Administrator Dan Schmidt had been asked if the work had been put out on bids. He indicated it hadn't since an earlier request for bids by the village had found the only company interested in doing the work had been Walters.

After the board made its decision, Schaub, who runs his own home improvement business, indicted he was interested in the job.

The Board, during the special meeting, then decided to rescind its action of October 20, and November 3, and turn the entire project over to the village's engineers, Ruekert and Mielke, who will draw up specifications and handle the bidding.

The plans will now cover an expanded project which will include repairs to the west wall parapit, south wall parapit, and entire upper north wall. The village will advertise for bids on the entire project and it is hoped the bids can be opened by January with work done by March.

In the original proposal, the Village had only planned to go ahead with the west wall parapit and a portion of the upper northwest wall, holding off on the balance of the work until a later date.

New High School Courses for 1987-88 Receive Cool Reception

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Several teachers, along with Director of Instruction Julie Backus, had their recommendations for next year's high school curriculum meet with reservation and rejection during Monday night's Kewaskum School Board meeting.

While Ag instructor David Rizzardi was able to get tentative approval of a new course, depending upon his class load next year, Graphic Arts teacher Dan Wangerin and High School Guidance Counselor Davie Wietor were not able to convince the board of the merits of their respective programs.

Wangerin sought approval of a combination class and vocational on-the-job cooperative training program. His proposal would have allowed students in areas such as electricity, woods, graphic arts, etc., to participate in courses which offered both classroom time and on-the-job experience at a cooperating area business. Students would have received both credits and pay for their work and would have been graded by both the instructor and employer.

Teachers from the Business

Education Department also saw their recommendation for a cooperative classroom/work experience program die also.

Wietor proposed a career education course entitled Life/Planning, designed to help students make decisions about their futures including schooling and professional aspirations. Wietor told the board surveys of past graduating classes show the district could be doing more in helping students prepare themselves for continuing their education and making decisions as far as their futures and careers are con-

Dundee Area Death Is Ruled Suicide

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A Chicago woman, whose body was found over the weekend in a trailer near Dundee, has been ruled a suicide by Sheboygan County Coroner Robert Serich, Jr. The cause of death was a gunshot wound to the head.

Marcia Lange, 55, of Niles, Illinois, was found dead Sunday afternoon in a camping trailer off Division Road on the Fond du Lac/Sheboygan County line. The woman's car was located in a parking area south of Butler Lake.

The Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department received the initial call at 12:23 p.m. Sunday. They then notified the Sheboygan County Sheriff's Department who handled the investigation. Since the preliminary investigation showed Lange had died as the result of a bullet wound, the department treated the death as suspicious until the final autopsy results were announced Monday afternoon.

Kewaskum Designated As National Bicentennial Community

WASHINGTON, D.C....The Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution has recognized another 114 American cities, towns and counties as "Designated Bicentennial Communities." The list of such communities has now grown to 264 nation wide.

Kewaskum is one of seven of the newly designated bicentennial communities in the State of Wisconsin. The other communities are Albany, Alma, Cottage Grove, Neenah, Stratford and Woodville.

"A major goal of this Commission is to educate the American people on the historical significance of the Constitution," said Chief Justice

Warren E. Burger, Commission Chairman. "Grass roots efforts like these will help focus attention on this historic document."

The commemoration of the Bicentennial of the Constitution will focus in 1987 on the writing of the Constitution, in 1988 on the ratification by the states, in 1989 on the formation of the first Federal government under the Constitutional system, and in 1990 and 1991 on the writing and ratification of the Bill of Rights.

"The active involvement and willing participation of our nation's local governments will be key to the success of the Bicentennial," Chief Justice Burger added.

In order to be designated officially, a community (city, town or county) must have its elected officials authorize a commission, appoint members broadly representative of the community, outline plans and forward a specific request for recognition to its state commission. Where a state commission does not exist, communities may forward their request directly to the Division of State/Local Affairs, Commission on the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution, 736 Jackson Place, N.W., Washington, DC. 20503.

Hon-E-Kor Country Club Celebrates 25th Anniversary

Hon-E-Kor Country Club, Kewaskum, will celebrate its 25th anniversary with an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 15.

Hon-E-Kor is owned and operated by Bud and Tudy Korth and their son and daughter-in-law, Jim (Jonesy) and Jane Korth.

The privately owned clubhouse opened in spring of 1961, while a nine-hole golf course was opened to the public in late summer of the same year. The clubhouse was remodeled and an addition to the building was added in 1976. The course was expanded to 18 holes in 1975.

The country club has grown steadily through the years and the present husband and wife membership is 395, plus many single memberships. The course is also open to the public.

Joe Harlow serves as club pro and Bruce Halfmann as greens-keeper.

records in the Sheboygan County Court House and not a single document, according to him, could be found which shows transfer of the property to the Kewaskum School District.

District Administrator Penny Kleinhans told the meeting, according to information furnished to the board, the old Beechwood School District was dissolved on consolidation and all debts and property then became part of the Kewaskum School District, making it the owner of the property.

Buchel challenged those comments asking Kleinhans if the District's title search had actually come up with a paper showing that ownership. He asked the Board, "Do you have a deed? I think you have to have a title insurance. We've got two lawyers saying we're both owners and I think that's got to be clarified before you call a meeting." Beimborn echoed Buchel's comments.

Perry Ankeron, Chairman of the Beechwood Disposition Committee, indicated he was confident the District owned the school and made the motion that a special meeting be called to vote on the sale of the school.

The next revelation to surface concerning the school was the actual amount of indebtedness assumed by Kewaskum at the time of consolidation. At last month's meetings, it had been assumed that the "nominal fee" for which the school, if so decided, were to be sold would be the amount of its debt at the time of consolidation. That figure ranged from $2,100 to $47,000. Those numbers were, according to the memory of several Beechwood residents, the general amount of indebtedness of the old district. Since the Beechwood records could not be readily produced, those were the figures accepted.

Board President Tom Brigham, however, informed Monday's meeting that the old district's books, along with some original papers, had been located which show Beechwood's actual indebtedness. The amount when Beechwood consolidated was, in fact, $99,100, with funds of $8,278, leaving a net debt of $90,822 in loans for the school's original construction and subsequent gym and kitchen addition. Kleinhans was questioned on the accuracy of the new figures. She said, we've got the papers with the signatures here in the records.

Board member Ron Theusch said he did not feel learning about the $90,000 figure had any effect on the board's decision. "I'm very much in favor of calling a meeting and letting the people decide." We would have been satisfied selling at the $47,000 figure, he noted.

Brigham asked that a meeting date be set. Kleinhans said she would have to check to see how many official notices are required to be published prior to the meeting before she could provide the exact date. Board member Clara Trapp asked that the meeting not be scheduled during deer hunting season...

New Courses

Board member Perry Ankeron who, along with members Clara Trapp and Ralph Horner, voted against the program told the teachers, "I just can't see supporting programs where the students get paid and receive credit for them too. That's too many good things for too few students."

Several of the board members also questioned the proposal of so many elective courses. Board President Tom Brigham stated, "There's been discussion of changing to an eight-period day. I don't know how we can offer all these electives without expanding the day. If we add all these courses are we looking at an eight-period day?" Wietor said he did not know how the district could get them all in on the present schedule.

Horner said one of the reasons he was against the courses was the fact that they created the potentiality of needing more teachers at a time when the district was trying to hold down expenditures.

Backus told the board some of the programs that were being recommended were designed to comply with state mandates that were to go into effect next year.

In other business, Buildings Superintendent Fred Boehlke updated the board on the status of the Wayne School well. He indicated the well had been chlorinated and the bacteria problem had cleared up only to return. He said additional testing was being done to monitor the situation. If the problem does not clear up, a new well may have to be drilled.

Boehlke said the driller who installed the well told him the well itself was completely encased and the problem was probably being caused by water contamination seeping in below the 50-foot level.

Boehlke also gave a preliminary report on an asbestos inspection by federal officials. He said test reports had not returned so he could not provide more specific information other than some loose materials had been found. He did note that the EPA had tightened up its requirements regarding asbestos and he did not know what effect that would have on the district's being in compliance. Trapp noted that the district had encapsulated the asbestos at Wayne last year. Kleinhans and Boehlke both said that may no longer be enough to remain in compliance with the new EPA rules.

Ankeron informed the board of a tentative agreement in negotiations between the district and four non-union support staff employees. He also said a negotiations session with the KEA and mediator has been set for November 13th.

Board member Clara Trapp read a response regarding her censure by the Board earlier this year.

President Brigham read a statement proclaiming the week of November 16 through 27, as American Education Week, with open house at all the district schools on November 19th.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

Public Health nurse Karen Hau demonstrates some of the correct techniques in child care for KHS Child Development classes.

On Monday, November 3rd the Child Development classes at the high school got a lesson in baby care when Karen Hau, the public health nurse for our area, did a bath demonstration on Joshua Riebe for the 4th hour class and on Dustin Wiedmeyer in the 6th hour class. Karen also informed the class on general newborn and infant care as part of the students' studies in this area.

Chief Ehnert Issues Advice on Fire Prevention

Fire prevention week once again has come and gone and another of our frigid Wisconsin winters is just around the corner so let's all try to do our part to make it a safe one.

1. Make sure your heating systems are in good working order and if you use wood for fuel take extra precaution that the chimney is adequate and that the pipes and the heating unit itself are clean, installed properly and use a good quality wood.
2. Make sure that gasoline and other flammables are stored in a safe place and named.
3. Check your fire extinguishers and test your smoke alarms. (Most smoke alarms have a test button). Also you can test them by bringing them in direct contact with smoke.
4. Use electricity safely, make sure wiring is adequate. Circuits are fused properly and when using extension cords be sure that they are in good condition and are heavy enough to carry the electrical load that is to pass through them.

5. Make sure that the proper emergency number or numbers as the case may be are displayed in a proper place near the phone so that in the event of an emergency they are readily available.

A Few Other Safety Tips

1. Never run an internal combustion Engine (gas or diesel) in a closed area as they give off deadly carbon monoxide gas.
2. Make sure when using a snowblower to use it in a safe manner and if it is necessary to use your fingers close to its moving parts it is best to stop the engine.
3. Also when doing this or are out in the cold air for other reasons make sure clothing is of the right type and adequate to keep the body heat in and protect the body from frostbite (most susceptible parts of the body for frostbite to occur are finger, toes and face).

We hope that we all can enjoy a safe and happy winter season but if an emergency should arise and you need our assistance be it rescue or fire our emergency number is 338-4411.

Your partners in the protection of life and property.

FES Halloween Party Enjoyed by 228 Children

On Oct. 26th a Halloween party, was given by the Farmington Elementary School's Parent Teachers Organization. The party was for all F.E.S. students and Farmington area preschoolers. The 228 children who attended came in costumes. They received milk, juice, cookies, and ice cream at the kitchen; popcorn at the Walt Disney's Scarey Tales Cartoons, and candy and prizes at the games.

Special thanks to the following people and organizations that donated or reduced their prices for our party: Marigold Inc. (Kemps Dairy), Modern Woodmen of America, Brunners, Engelhardt, Dairy Queen, Homeplate, both McDonalds, Hardees, and the F.E.A. parents who donated all the candy, cookies, and stickers.

Thanks to all the volunteers, especially the girl scouts, our party was a great success.

Skuldt by Friday, November 14th.

All retired educators are invited. Anyone not reached by letter may call 334-7560.

Local Instructor Receives Gold IDEA Certification

Jacque Wiedmeyer an instructor for The Fitness Firm has passed "International Dance Exercise Association Foundation" examination. Jacquie will receive a Gold Certificate. The three and a half hour examination was taken in Chicago on October 11th. Questions were asked on physiology, anatomy, kine-siology, injury prevention, emergency training, nutrition, weight loss and legal issues. Classes are held in the Kewaskum, and West Bend areas. For information on fitness classes or IDEA certification, call 338-6754 after 4:00 p.m.

Vandalize Cemetery

The Auburn Cemetery on County Trunk Y, Town of Auburn, was vandalized within the last few weeks. One headstone was broken off and another was tipped over. Beer parties have also been taking place in the cemetery in the last three weeks, according to police.

MATC Career Conference Draws Area High School Students

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 6
Friday, Nov. 14, 1986

MATC sponsored a Career Conference on October 22, 1986 which attracted over 200 area high school students. Representative Susan Vergeront was a featured speaker who discussed her career and included "tips" on what skills are necessary to develop a successful career. Also speaking were

Tracy Gaulke and Richard Peterson, whose career training was received at MATC. The interested students had an opportunity to tour the laboratories and training center, and discuss possible careers with MATC faculty and staff. Refreshments were provided.

staff include Scott Schmitt, freshman, 8065 Kettle Moraine Drive, West Bend.

Several debaters from the nationally-ranked University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh Debate Team recently turned in top performances at the Loyola University tournament.

The team's performance at Loyola should move it up in the Cross-Examination Debate Association rankings that placed UW-Oshkosh first in the north central region and 26th in the nation before the tournament.

Mark Schubert and Meredith Domke, both of Neenah, won top honors at the Loyola tournament by defeating Wheaton College in the final round.

Quarterfinalists at the tournament included the teams of Mike Stewart, Fergus Falls, Minn. and Cindy Rutledge, Nashotah; Margaret Fafinski and Sara Fulcer, both of Appleton; and Rand Coleman, Sheboygan, and Denise Hanneman, Oshkosh.

At an earlier tournament at Northern Illinois University, Schubert and Phil Marek, Milwaukee, reached the quarterfinals. Jason Green, Green Lake, and Jen Wallace, Mazomanie, also turned in outstanding performances.

In another tournament at UW-Whitewater, Fulcer and Fafinski took first place for teams affirming the resolution while Jack Talbot, Merrill and Jean Scannell, Kewaskum, were first for teams negating the resolution. Schubert and Julie Van Gompel, Appleton, took second place for affirmative teams while Steward and Rutledge placed third for negative teams.

CAMPUS NOTES...

Richard Staehler is a freshman at Ripon College. There are over 250 new students at the college this year.

Staehler attended Kewaskum High School. He is the son of John and Karen Staehler, 8639 Boltonville Road, Kewaskum.

Ed Walz, 320 Third St., Kewaskum, and Rick Krahn, Route 1, Church St., Adell, were among visitors who attended an Oct. 24 On-Campus Day at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

On-Campus Days give prospective students and their parents an opportunity to learn more about UW-Whitewater. They can visit with students, administrators, and faculty, receive academic counseling and general orientation, and take tours of the campus, including residence halls and classroom buildings. Each academic department has faculty and students available to discuss courses of study.

Ed is interested in management computer systems, and Rick would study accounting. Both are seniors at Kewaskum High School.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL. — Enrollment for the 1986 freshman class at Illinois Wesleyan University is the highest in the school's history.

Residents of 247 Illinois cities, 63 cities in 12 other states and one foreign country, including 24 from Wisconsin, are included in the 565 freshmen enrolled at Illinois Wesleyan University.

The students include Lisa A. Krahn, 807 CTH A, Route 1, Adell, a Kewaskum High School graduate, School of Art.

University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh debaters Sara Fulcer and Margaret Fafinski, both of Appleton, along with Jack Talbot of Merrill and Jean Scannell of Kewaskum, received awards at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater debate tournament recently.

Fulcer and Fafinski were named best novice team affirming a resolution for improved relations with the Soviet Union. Talbot and Scannell took first place as the best novice team opposing the resolution. Fulcer also placed fourth in the novice speaker category.

Julie Van Gompel, Appleton, and Mark Schubert, Neenah, won second place for affirmative novice debaters. Mike Stewart, Fergus Falls, Minn., and Cindi Rutledge, Nashotah, placed third on the negative side.

Twelve schools from four states participated in the contest.

Kiwanis Students of the Month

Friday, Nov. 14, 1986, Kewaskum Statesman, Page 8

Carla Kay Anderson

Carla Kay Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anderson of rural Kewaskum and Renee Kapp, daughter of Jerald Kapp of rural Kewaskum and Karen Kapp of West Bend, have been chosen as the Kiwanis students of the month for November.

Carla has been a member of the Girls' Choir, the Mixed Choir and the Swing Choir for two years each. This year she is in the Honors Choir. She has participated at the state level in Solo Ensemble for two years. She has been involved in the musical productions for four years. Carla was a cheerleader for basketball during her sophomore year and this year was a football cheerleader. She was a member of the powder-puff football team in her sophomore year. She sings in the choir at St. Bridget's Church. She has been a very active participant in her 4-H Club and has received numerous awards for various achievements in 4-H.

Renee served as president of her class during her sophomore and junior years. Her FFA activities during her high school years are many including president this year, reporter last year and her sheep project. She has served on several committees in 4-H and was the Ringling Equestrian in the '86 Circus Parade. Renee was on both the varsity track team and the varsity gymnastics team since her freshman year. She was a cheerleader for two years, captain sophomore year, and played Powderpuff football for four years. She is in the Swing choir and was involved in the musical Grease. She has been a student government representative for three years, varsity football statistician for two years, the newspaper staff, the '85 Homecoming court, and a Key Club member. Renee is a member of Youth Concerned for Special People club and is serving on the S.E.C. committee.

Campus Notes

Seniors from Kewaskum High School were among visitors who attended an Oct. 31 On-Campus Day at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.

On-Campus Days give prospective students and their parents an opportunity to learn more about UW-Whitewater. They can visit with students, administrators, and faculty, receive academic counseling and general orientation, and take tours of the campus, including residence halls and classroom buildings. Each academic department has faculty and students available to discuss courses of study.

Visitors from Kewaskum included Barb Harmon, 709 Pleasantwood Dr., who has been accepted for admission to UW-Whitewater and plans to study accounting; Christine Kirchner, 4643 Ridge Rd., Route 2, who is interested in elementary teaching, and Michele Becker, 4196 Highway H, Route 2, who is interested in business.

Thirteen students from Kewaskum were among the 10,901 students enrolled at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater for the 1986 fall semester.

UW-Whitewater decreased its enrollment this fall, down from 11,027 a year ago. This was the first year of the UW System enrollment reduction plan mandated by the Board of Regents, and by 1991, UW-W expects to enroll about 10,300 students.

The 1986 total includes 2,317 new freshmen, compared with 2,252 last year.

Kewaskum students included: Todd E. Backus, P.O. Box 2; Brad K. Bartelt, 349 Braatz Drive; Lisa M. Fusek, 1207 Parkview Drive; Pamela J. Heberer, 691 Mill Rd.; Kenneth R. Heisdorf, 1011 Milan Dr.; Annette M. Jandre, 707 Main St.; Timothy A. Koepke, 8390 Kettle View Drive; Sharon M. Land, 8645 Hwy. 144; Lori J. Leubke, 2083 Stony Creek Dr.; Mary E. Paul, 320 First St.; Gary E. Ramthun, 1348 Main St.; Brenda J. Schuelke, 4889 Hwy. H. West; Tammy L. Schuelke, 4889 Hwy. H West.

An American Education Week Message From State Supt. Herbert J. Grover

While all observance days, weeks, and months play important roles in celebrating our American culture and heritage, none is more important than American Education Week (November 16-22). "School and Community: United for Excellence" is the theme of this year's commemoration which promotes the development of our country's young minds — the very minds that will lead and determine our future.

Indeed, the process of teaching these young citizens is truly a marvel, and the people who have the determination, compassion, and expertise necessary to contribute to this process can only be described as marvelous. Our schools' teachers, administrators, and support staff have answered one of the most noble of all callings, and their tireless efforts are deserving of recognition.

But perhaps more importantly, they deserve and require support. Schools cannot exist as tiny islands within the community, isolated not by geography but by the absence of interaction with the community and its virtually limitless resources. After all, the purpose of education is to prepare children for future life within society, and there is no better way to enhance this education than to inject elements of that society into the school experience.

Even the smallest communities have numerous valuable resources that are ideal for use in the schools, not the least of which are the skills and talents of community members. Business, scientific, artistic, and technical people possess abilities that can become the focus of interesting and educational classroom presentations.

Volunteering is another way to support and assist school programs. Volunteerism is a solid Wisconsin tradition: Each year, an estimated 80,000 volunteers devote their time and effort to embellish the educational experience. In addition, their very presence provides students with the civic consciousness that comes from fostering a feeling of community. For these reasons, and many more, the valuable services of volunteers should be encouraged and expanded.

This school - community partnership is anything but a one-way street. For their part, schools provide the most logical and accessible place for a community to share its knowledge and talents with all who want to learn or help others. Schools ought not simply be for educating children between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Indeed, many schools' doors are open wide to any and all who wish to use the facilities responsibly before, during, and after the school day.

But the schools' contribution goes beyond providing facilities and a focal point for civic educational efforts; schools provide the community with the single best place in which to reach and nurture the lifeblood of its future. Our schools are literally teeming with young, bright minds just waiting to be challenged and developed.

"School and Community: United for Excellence" is a theme that accurately conveys the school - community interdependency. It provides focus for numerous activities that encourage parents, government officials, business people, senior citizens...indeed, everyone to become involved in this important relationship.

Thus, we all must take the opportunity presented by American Education Week to ask ourselves, What can I do to improve the quality of education in my community's schools?

letter, has been published bi-monthly consecutively since 1972 by Bernice Scharf, who now lives in Fond du Lac, but continues as editor. Scheduled groups active at present are, Methodist Ladies, Lionesses, Catholic Ladies from Lomira, Mayville CCD students, the Craft Guild, Consolidated Catholic Lomira/Theresa (CCLT) students, and, of course, the Red Cross Ladies. Religious services are conducted on a weekly basis by Lutheran, Methodist, and Catholic clergymen. School groups, Girl Scouts, Brownies, 4-H and local musicians contribute to make a full program.

The staff and sisters invite you to the official OPEN HOUSE and CRAFT SALE on Sunday afternoon, November 16, from 1:30 - 4:30 p.m. Hope Hope Nursing Home, Lomira, has just completed expansion on its facilities. Although no resident rooms were added, dining room, kitchen, and laundry areas were expanded. A new living room, nurses station, office area, and staff room add to the ambience and attractiveness of Hope. Permanent chapel space was in the original design. Voss, Schuehler & Jorgenson of Milwaukee were general contractors. Dan Valle, carpenter, Kermit Zuehlke, electrician, Herb Czoschke, heating and plumbing, Henry Kracht, painter, Ram Construction, and Fleischman were subcontractors. Hope employs about 45 persons from the area.

Hope Nursing Home was built in 1963 by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Weyer, who lived on the premises. In 1967, it was purchased by the Sisters of Charity of St. Joan Antida from Milwaukee. Sister Giselda, Sister Mary Immaculate and Sister Battistina were sent here at that time. A convent home was built in 1970. In '73, a therapy room was added and the living room enlarged.

The 42 residents at Hope enjoy a variety of social and religious programs enhanced by an active staff and dedicated community volunteers. Red Cross ladies from Knowles, Brownsville, and Lomira have been celebrating birthdays, organizing bingo parties and visiting on a 1:1 basis since 1970. Whispering Hope, news-

WISCONSIN SKETCHES

By Jim De Lorme

Courtesy of Valley Bank

Kewaskum - Allenton

Wisconsin travelers readily recognize the names of communities such as Lake Geneva, Wisconsin Dells, Door County, and Eagle River. But they're unlikely to be familiar with Old Belmont, Oil City, or Newport. Once bustling places, they are now Wisconsin ghost towns.

Often the term "ghost town" creates an image of desolate buildings clustered in some remote place in Rocky Mountain mining territory.

But Wisconsin has its share of ghost towns as well. Many of these communities grew up around economic features, such as lead mining, lumber, hopes for being on a future railroad line, or the prospect of supplying firewood to steamships on the Great Lakes.

One town was located in the rolling hills of southwestern Wisconsin near present-day Lancaster and was known as Pleasant Ridge. It existed from 1848, when Wisconsin became a state, until 1961, when the last property owner died.

Pleasant Ridge was strictly a farming community that spread over six hundred acres and boasted two hundred inhabitants at the turn of this century. It was the inhabitants who made the prosperous little community unique, for all of the people who lived in Pleasant Ridge were black and were either ex-slaves or the descendants of slaves.

Strangely enough, it was education that contributed to the end of Pleasant Ridge — not too little education, but too much. Many of the young people went away to college and then made their way to bigger cities when they found they were overeducated for Pleasant Ridge.

Another ghost town, Voree, was located in southeastern Wisconsin in Walworth County, and was founded through the efforts of one man — James Jesse Strang.

Strang came to Wisconsin from New York in 1843 and fell under the influence of the Mormon religion while on a trip to Nauvoo, Illinois. He founded the village of Voree and saw it prosper as a Mormon community.

In 1847 Strang and his followers left Voree and relocated on Beaver Island in northern Lake Michigan. There he was crowned king and took four wives. He was eventually shot by two unhappy followers in 1856. Mortally wounded, he was taken by boat and wagon back to Voree, where he died at the age of forty-three.

Just around the next bend in the road could be the overgrown remains of these or other Wisconsin ghost towns.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Kewaskum school district is dedicated to the proposition that public schools belong to the people; and

WHEREAS, the Kewaskum school district is committed to providing learning experiences that will enable students to acquire the skills and understanding essential to continuous lifelong learning; and

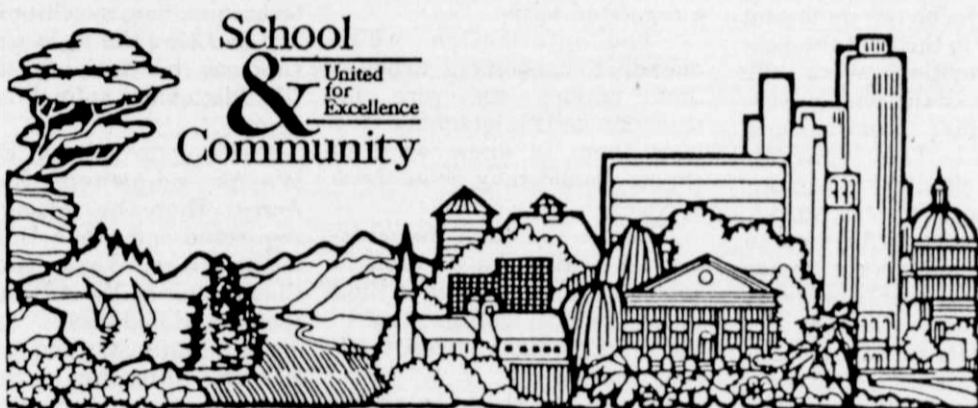

WHEREAS, the Kewaskum school district wishes to serve the educational needs of the entire community; and

WHEREAS, the Kewaskum school district works continuously to build and sustain public support of and confidence in its schools; and

WHEREAS, the Kewaskum school district welcomes and encourages a partnership with parents, business, government, and others to expand educational opportunities; and

WHEREAS, the Kewaskum school district is committed to joining the community in a united pursuit of excellence:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, THAT the Kewaskum School Board proclaims its participation in AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK, November 16-22, 1986 and urges all citizens to make a commitment to public education and the future of our community.

American Education Week: Come and See Us in Action

By District Administrator Penny J. Kleinhans

American Education week was started in 1921 under the joint sponsorship of the American Legion and the National Education Association. The National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the U.S. Office of Education later lent their support and sponsorship as well.

This year American Education week will be observed from November 16-22. The theme is "School and Community - United for Excellence."

The Kewaskum School District will sponsor an Open House at each of its schools on Wednesday, November 19, 1986. On that day we invite parents, guardians and other community members to visit, tour facilities and sit in on classes so they can see for themselves the educational process at work. There are no "special activities" geared for this one day only, but rather a chance to see the day-to-day operations of the place that occupies such a vital role in our children's lives and therefore the future of our community and nation. Educating the young people of the Kewaskum Public Schools is over a $6.5 million enterprise for 1986-87. This represents a cost per pupil of approximately $3,695. For every dollar it costs to keep a child in school, society pays more than six dollars to maintain an undereducated adult. The community and school district indeed have a shared responsibility and investment!

Our district is fortunate in having active classroom volunteers and parent organizations. In addition, citizens are widely utilized on committees involved with curriculum, policy planning, buildings and grounds, transportation, finance and groups helping plan to meet the new state mandates. We're also lucky enough to have community members who volunteer to run extra-curricular and enrichment activities for our students as well as support our activities and children with additional funds.

We in the schools, teachers, support staff and administrators alike, are only too aware of the fact that education isn't something that takes place only in our classrooms but rather that it takes place at home, in the churches, and indeed all over in the community. That is why communication and involvement between our institution and all of you is so important and valued so highly.

For the educational enterprise to succeed, and our democratic way of life to be sustained, we must have an informed public that participates with us. Your Kewaskum School District's administration has an "open-door" policy, don't hesitate to use it.

The one thing we need to make National Education Week a success next week is YOU. Please join us for Open House on Wednesday, the 19th, and parent-teacher conferences on Thursday, the 20th.

Dear Editor,

You did not have to grow up in the '50's to dig the do-wop sounds and scenes in last week's KHS production of "GREASE." A delightful mix of seasoned stars, plus new talent warbled out the treasured oldies with a new twist, backed up by authentic "do-wa" from the pit band.

And the R & R choreography, the pony tails and crinolins, the Twinkies and the greasers. . . this troupe brought it all back in high style! And those of us who lived it loved it all the more for a special way-it-was reminiscence.

It was a sell-out crowd . . . it was the best crowd-pleaser for the high school players in a long line of hits. Congratulations!

M. A. Peterson

To whom it may concern,

I'm writing in regards to the Kewaskum High School production of Grease. I was able to attend the play this past weekend and enjoyed it very much. I think all teachers and students involved whether it be acting, make-up, lights, pit band and so on, all did a great job.

It was easy to see that they worked very hard to put this performance on. And I would just like to say that I think it's really sad that they had to go through all that extra work a couple of weeks ago. By extra work I mean the battle they had to do to keep the play Grease on. I feel if those parents had something against the play they should have spoken up long before they did. After all the students had already put so much time and effort into it. After viewing the play I can't see why they were so upset because the performance dealt with real life situations that we all know exist.

So once again I would like to say to you students that I enjoyed your play very much and I wish you lots of luck in all your future productions.

A Former KHS Student,

My Dear People of Kewaskum,

FROM RUSSIA WITH HATE

By John Barron

(Reprinted from the Reader's Digest, November, 1985)

ON AN AFGHANISTAN HILLSIDE one summer morning in 1984, ten-year-old Narainjan was tending his sheep. The pure highland air was balmy, the meadows were tranquil, and the war seemed far away.

Pursuing an errant lamb, Narainjan spotted something very pretty lying in the grass. White and glistening in the sunlight, it looked like a jewelry box. But the instant he picked it up, the box exploded.

Another shepherd found Narainjan unconscious two hours later.

His left hand was a mangled mass, and only the little finger and half an index finger remained on his right. Three days passed before the mojahedin (freedom fighters) managed to smuggle him into a hospital in Kabul, the Soviet-occupied Afghan capital, where a surgeon amputated his left hand.

Unable to hold a stick or toss a stone, Narainjan never can be a shepherd again. He cannot dress himself. With difficulty, he can hold a spoon in what is left of his right hand. Now a refugee in Pakistan, he hopes someday, some way, to go to school. "I think I might learn to hold a pencil," he told me.

Doctors at the Afghan Surgical Hospital in Peshawar, Pakistan, near the Afghan border, and from the International Medical Corps* recount similar case histories: a seven-year-old maimed by a blast from a seemingly harmless canteen; a 12-year-old shorn of three fingers by an explosive charge concealed in a pen; a toddler mutilated by a bomb disguised as a doll, perhaps the most diabolical form yet seen of these Soviet weapons specifically targeted at children.

No one knows how many children these "toys" have dismembered. But testimony from the United Nations Commission on Human Rights and from numerous foreign and Afghan physicians indicates that the number of young victims, may run into the thousands.

AGONY IN AFGHANISTAN

By Jean-Francois Revel and Rosanne Klass

(Condensed from National Review)

AFGHANISTAN is being turned into a charnel house.

It is not only that the Soviets and their Afghan puppets have executed or tortured to death thousands of political prisoners. It is not only that they attack civilian targets—wedding parties, farmers in their fields, villagers in the bazaars—or that they single out medical facilities for destruction. It is not only that they pursue, rocket and strafe the slow, plodding caravans of refugees—women and children, mostly fleeing to sanctuary in Pakistan and Iran. And it is not only that they burn crops, destroy granaries, and kill flocks and herds, or that they smash irrigation systems, pushing rural Afghanistan ever closer to the edge of famine.

These are not the sporadic actions of uncontrolled troops gone berserk. This is the deliberate, calculated Soviet policy of sending Soviet forces into the villages of Afghanistan to rape, to loot, to burn, and to murder most horribly, leaving the mutilated dead as a warning and an omen to survivors. The message of this systematic campaign of butchery is clear: submit, get out, or die miserably.

The policy began with the Soviet invasion in 1979. Three years ago, in Oslo, an Afghan from the Panjshir Valley told a human-rights panel about a Soviet attack on his village in June 1980. Many villagers were killed, including his own father and grandmother, decapitated by Soviet soldiers who, with grisly cynicism, put the men's heads on the women's bodies, the women's on the men's.

Now, the number, ferocity and frequency of these atrocities are increasing as the Russians move methodically to crush and empty out the country. Last April in a single district in the Laghman Valley in eastern Afghanistan, nearly 800 people were slaughtered, from pregnant women and newborns to the aged—shot, burned alive, hanged, bayoneted, tortured or beaten to death, killed with grenades, decapitated, mutilated.

— Only five months before, Soviet soldiers entered the village of Bilwom at Issa Khel in northern Afghanistan, searching houses for young men to impress into the Afghan army. During the search, several women were raped, and a grenade was thrown into their house as the soldiers left the village. Hearing of this, mojahedin guerrillas ambushed the returning Soviet troops. Seven tanks were destroyed by rocket fire; one hit a mine and exploded.

Five days later, 400 Soviet soldiers circled the nearby villages of Rarao Keshlok Payan, Rarao Keshlok Bala, Tal Gouzar, Sar-e-Ocia and Tut Mazar and systematically entered every house, killing more than 600 people, including women and children, often by shooting them in the head. Three pregnant women were disemboweled. The houses were put to the torch, and the fires burned for five days.

JEAN-FRANCOIS REVEL, former columnist and editor of L'Espresso in France, is the author of How Democracies Perish. ROSANNE KLASS is director of the Afghanistan Information Center of Freedom House in New York City.

GTE Mails Customers Information on Phone Wire Deregulation

GTE's Wisconsin telephone customers received important information in the mail the past week information about the deregulation of the phone wires inside their homes and businesses. This packet, delayed for production reasons by approximately four weeks, contains a ballot card critical to permitting customers a choice for enrollment in GTE's inside wire maintenance program.

"What this means is that after December 1, customers can choose who they want to maintain or install the telephone wiring inside their homes or businesses - it's truly the customer's choice," said James E. Courtney, state director - operations, Sun Prairie. "We'll still maintain or install wiring, but it will be with a monthly maintenance agreement or on a service charge basis."

Courtney said the deregulation of the wiring is part of the process started in 1981 by the FCC (Federal Communications Commission) and the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin. The deregulation plan called for a transition period during which the phone company could fully depreciate its investment in the wiring.

Ownership of the wiring will go to the building owner, not tenants, according to the plan approved by the Wisconsin Commission. GTE will continue to offer a maintenance program for 30-cents-a-month for each line, Courtney said.

He added that most Wisconsin customers now are paying this maintenance rate - only on a regulated basis.

"The information we're mailing to customers explains their options for wire installation and maintenance. We want them to know what to expect should they need these services.

"Just as the other deregulation activities have brought customers more choices in their phone service, deregulation of the wiring brings choices, too," said Courtney.

Despite the delay in packet mailing, "Customers are now encouraged to look for this information. It's important that they read it and become familiar with the choices they have," Courtney emphasized.

Zentner Now Services Iron Ridge, Allenton Area for Select Sires

Wayne Zentner is no stranger to many East Central/Select Sires members in the Iron Ridge, Allenton area. He's often acted as relief technician for this area while servicing the Mayville, Theresa area full-time for four years. Starting November 1, he now provides technician service to dairy and livestock producers in the eastern Dodge County area.

An authorized EC/SS Representative, Zentner has been through intensive training to be a professional A.I. breeding specialist. He can help find solutions to questions on heat detection, proper insemination technique, heat synchronization and choosing the right sire. He supports his training with a UW-Platteville animal science degree.

Previous to joining EC/SS, Wayne co-owned Zentner Acres. There he managed 94 registered and grade Holsteins for six years. Wayne and wife Claudia live in West Bend with their two daughters.

Cub Scout News

On September 27 and October 27 the Cub Scout Pack 3744 held monthly pack meetings.

The flag ceremonies were conducted by Webelo's den 1 and 2.

Introduction of committee leaders; Cubmaster, Fred Lettow; committee chairperson, Mary Kudek; awards, Sheryl Rinzel, den leader coach, Marilyn Haug; assistant chairperson, Pat Gross; leaders Webelo den 1, Larry Bunkelman; Webelo den 2, John Boegel; Bears den 2, Virginia Lettow and Janis Oppermann; Wolf den 1, Elizabeth Olson; Wolf den 3, Gary Smith.

Den reports were given by a cubscout from each den. Webelos den II toured the Kewaskum Municipal Building and Mr. Schmidt explained some of his duties. They also went hiking on the Kettle Moraine hiking trail. Webelo den 1 is working hard toward earning various activity badges. Bear den 2 is learning about folklore, how to be prepared in emergencies, playing kickball, and working hard to earn their bear badges. Wolf den 1 made pumpkin masks. Wolf den 3 made kites and scraf slides, and they learned about the American flag and how to fold it.

The webelo induction ceremony was performed for Anthony Bunkelman, David Gosa, Patrick Bertram, Tim Buss, Michael Jansen, Shannon Mitchell, Josh Boegel, Chad Trezenski, Jeffrey Rinzel, Reuben Oppermann, Guy Liepert, and Craig Erdmann.

The Bobcat induction was performed for Andrew Styve, Gregg Serwe, Jeff Noren, Tim Bunkelman, Andrew Kallmeyer, Jesse Williams, Joel Dziedzic, Mike Smith, Jeffrey Heller, Mark McNamee, Michael Vogt, Aaron Gruhle, Paul Neumann, Bill Jacob, and Steven Cundy.

National summertime awards were presented to David Haney, Dennis Haney, David Gosa, Josh Boegel, Tony Bunkelman, Dane Dorn, Billy Lettow and Pat Schmitt.

A Bear badge was earned by Chad Trezenski.

Webelo den 1 — Anthony Bunkelman, David Gosa, Patrick Bertram, Tim Buss, Michael Jansen, and Shannon Mitchell all earned their artist, athlete and outdoorsman activity badges. Webelo den 2 — Josh Boegel, Chad Trezenski, Jeffrey Rinzel, Reuben Oppermann, Guy Liepert, and Craig Erdmann all earned their artist, athlete and outdoorsman activity badges.

The cub scouts took a hike in the Lizard Mound State Park on October 11th.

The camporee at Greenbush State Park for Webelos and Scouts was October 10th, 11th and 12th. Nine Webelos attended in spite of the cold and rainy weather. They had a great time and earned their outdoorsman activity badges.

Pumpkins were brought to the October meeting and the three best were chosen by the Cub scouts. Billy Lettow won first, Matt Wiedmeyer won second and Steve Cundy won third place.

A skit was performed by two ghouls, how it was scared to death. Unsuspecting parents and cubs got in on the act for a scary good time.

Cupcakes, cookies and punch were served. Each cub scout got McDonald certificates, and for a school project Deborah Dermeier donated spooky sucker treats.

To everyone who helps and participates — a special thank you for making scouting a great sharing and learning experience.

Marilyn Petermann

Snowmobile Safety Course Scheduled

The New Fane Kettle Riders Snowmobile Club will hold its annual Snowmobile Safety Course for youths 11 through 16 years of age.

The class will run for two Saturdays, December 6 and 13, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. Anyone wishing to enroll in the course should contact Glen or Gerry Mueller, phone 626-4406, to sign up or to get further information.

The class is open to any individual, you do not have to be a member of a snowmobile club.

Deadline for the enrollment is Friday, November 21st.

Sixers to Open Basketball Season

The beginning of November has not only brought in the start of what may prove to be a long winter, but also the start of another basketball season. The St. Lucas boys and girls teams have started their preparations for their home opener on November 25th (Tues.) against Redeemer Lutheran School of Fond du Lac.

The Lady Sixers, coached by Miss Ruth Huebner, are looking for a very successful 1986-'87 basketball season. The girls are led by a large group of experienced 8th grade girls. They will have a big challenge on the first game of the year against a very tough squad from Redeemer Lutheran. Last year's game was a very close contest, and with both teams having much returning talent it should be a super game.

The boys squads will bring youth mixed with experience into the 1986-'87 schedule. Coach Jon Woldt will start his 4th season as head coach of the Sixers and this year will be assisted by Coach Steve Stern.

Doug Stern and Jody Ludwig are the only 8th graders on this year's squad. Joined by a group of 7th graders and a number of 6th graders, the A team looks forward to a super season on the court. This year's boys B-team which is made up of players in grades 4-6 will suit up some 22 hustling boys.

Good defense, quick play, and super hustle, should be the mark of the St. Lucas boys and girls squads. Hopefully this should spell trouble for the opponents throughout the year.

Remember — the first home game is November 25th — girls — 6 p.m., A — boys — 7 p.m.

All home games will be played at the Kewaskum Middle School.

Some Deer Hunters Receive Two Permits

Almost 9,000 Wisconsin deer hunters are receiving two permits for the 1986 gun deer season this year, according to Department of Natural Resources' licensing officials.

Dick Royston, supervisor in the license section, said this will occur because in eight of the deer management units in the state there were more permits available than there were applicants for them. "As a result," Royston said, "some of the successful applicants for hunter's choice permits in those units are being issued an antlerless permit along with their hunter's choice permit." That will enable them to take two deer during the 1986 gun season, one of which must be an antlerless deer, Royston added. All of the permits are issued by mail.

Royston said the mailing of the hunter's choice permits to successful applicants began on Monday, October 27, and the final batch of permits was mailed Tuesday, November 11th.

This completes the distribution of permits for this season, and there will not be any more issued either prior to, or during the season.

Transportation Aid Checks Mailed to Co. Municipalities

The Wisconsin Department of Transportation has mailed checks totaling $42.8 million to counties, towns, villages and cities throughout the state for the October quarterly payments of shared transportation aids.

The basic payments included $9.5 million to 1,267 town governments, $2.6 million to 392 villages, $18.1 million to 189 cities and $12.5 million to Wisconsin's 72 counties, according to Julie A. Davis, DOT aids analysis chief. An additional $2.1 million in connecting highway aids was distributed to 119 of those communities to pay the cost of maintaining portions of state trunk highways within urban areas.

Basic aid payments to governmental units in this area include:

25 Years Ago

November 10, 1961

Separate meetings were held recently by men and women members of the Hon-E-Kor Country Club to elect officers for the 1962 golf season and complete business for the two leagues. Men's officers elected for the year are as follows: President, Bill Bartelt; vice-president, Clayton Stautz; secretary, Albert M. Hron, Jr.; treasurer, Ralph Marx. Elected to the board of directors were Bill Bartelt, Ralph Marx, Bud Korth, Clayton Stautz, Chuck Sparks, Albert M. Hron Jr. and George Fassbinder. It was decided that Tuesday night will be league night and Thursday will be men's day. Officers elected at the meeting of the lady members are: President, Audrey Bartelt; vice-president, Mrs. E. Pomahac; secretary, Laverne Hron; treasurer, Jan Koch. Board members include the officers plus Eleanor Marx and Mrs. Althaus.

Miss Patricia Wiesner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wiesner, Kewaskum, became the bride of John Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beck Sr., Milwaukee, during a ceremony in Holy Trinity Church on October 28.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Basil Tillou, Route 2, Kewaskum, on November 6.

scene of the marriage of Miss Bernice Emma Schmidt, daughter of Carl Schmidt, Route 2, Campbellsport, and Gordon Otto Deliege, Route 2, Campbellsport, on Saturday.

Jac. Bruessel, Sr. of the Town Kewaskum reports that out of a herd of 16 sheep owned by him, five have been killed during the past week or two by dogs which are allowed to run loose at night. Mr. Bruessel states that on several mornings, members of the family found the dead sheep badly ripped to pieces by the dogs.

Electricians are busy wiring the different homes in St. Michaels, preparatory to installing the high line which is being built through there.

Miss Mildred Rosenthal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rosenthal of the Town of Wayne, and Raymond Kirchner of Route 3, Kewaskum, were married in a ceremony on Oct. 30 at Immanuel Ev. and Reformed Church in West Bend.

A tooth of a pre-historic mammal weighing nearly two pounds was found recently by Francis Dreifurst of St. Cloud while he was hauling gravel along the bank of the Sheboygan River. It was on exhibition at the post office in St. Cloud.

evening resulted in the loss of one horse and the phills of both rigs being completely damaged. The evening was very dark and neither of the drivers were aware of each other's approach until the time of the accident. In one rig were Fred Schleif, driver, and the Misses Alma Schleif and Viola Hennings who were returning home from the village. In the other rig were Chas. Backhaus, driver, and his wife and son, who were on the way to August Miller's place, east of this village, where a party was being held. None of the occupants were injured.

John J. Altenhofen, a former resident and postmaster of this village, died at his home in Milwaukee last Monday evening at the age of 39 years.

During the heavy storm here last Saturday afternoon, lightning struck the new residence of S.E. Witzig, which is being built in Rosenheimer's new addition. No damage was done. Those in the building at the time were stunned. Martin Bassil, the carpenter contractor had the hammer thrown from his hand, while Louis Schleif, a helper, was paralyzed on one side for quite awhile. The bolt entered the chimney but where its exit was could not be found.

A bowling league was organized in this village this week, which consists of four teams. The first games will be bowled next Tuesday evening, when all teams will participate.

The teams which entered the league together with the members are as follows: Roosters - Wm. Eberle, Erwin Koch, Fred Witzig, Joe Mayer and Alex Klug. Neverslips - William Endlich, Arthur Schaefer, Emerson Olwin, Joe Eberle, Jr., and George Muehleis. L.R.'s - Newton Rosenheimer, Doctor Klumb, Byron Rosenheimer, Lehman Rosenheimer and Otto E. Lay. Benedicts - Geo. H. Schmidt, Steve Wollensak, Don Harbeck, Joe Eberle Sr. and John F. Schaefer.

Kilian Honeck and Miss Emma Stark, both of this village, will be united in marriage this Saturday in the Lutheran Church.

Isadore Marx last Monday morning had a narrow escape from being struck by way freight No. 293 on the Main Street crossing while crossing the same with his horse and platform wagon. Not hearing the danger bell or seeing the gates dropped, Mr. Marx drove out of their yard, which is near the tracks, and saw the approaching train. The horse shying from the gates dropping on the other side, stopped.

Presence of mind only told Mr. Marx to jump off the rig and grab the horse by the bridle and quickly turn her around. This was done not any too soon as when off the tracks only a few feet the train passed by.

Wm. Martin had a building erected on the old log mill property where he will in the near future go into the feed grinding business.

To be rolled and pummeled by an enraged bull until his body was a mass of bruises, one rib broken and his clothing torn into shreds was the harrowing experience Sunday of Oscar F. Miritz, a farmer residing in the Town of Empire. The victim of the bull's rage owes his life to his son, Irwin Miritz, 18, who fought with the animal until his father could escape. Mr. Miritz is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miritz Sr. of this village, and has a large number of acquaintances here who are gratified over his lucky escape last Sunday.

4-H Youth Honored

Over 350 4-H youth, leaders, families, and sponsors attended the 1986 4-H Achievement and Recognition Banquet recognizing 4-H youth and adult leaders for their outstanding accomplishments.

The Wisconsin Key Award is the highest award a 4-H'er can receive. Recognition is given to four Washington County 4-H members who have shown constant growth and development in their projects, youth leadership, community, county and state involvement. The gold key award is sponsored by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau and its affiliates. Mike Lettow of the Washington County Farm Bureau presented the award to Ann Shaw, Julie Bohn, Pam Gundrum, and Jeanne Awve.

The Brenda Oelhafen Memorial Award was presented to Carla Anderson.

The County 4-H Achievement Award was presented to four members. The recognition is based on their total work in their projects, club activities, community service, and district and state involvement throughout their 4-H career. Recipients were Holly Prochnow, Steve Klein, Carla Anderson, and Diana Buckmann.

The Leadership Award was presented to Diane Hammen and Holly Prochnow of West Bend; Steve Klein of Jackson, and Carla Anderson of Wayne. The Leadership Award is based on their work in helping others in their club and in their community.

The County Agricultural Award for excellence in their total agricultural program was presented to Diane Schmidt of Jackson.

The Home Economics Award for all around excellence and leadership in home economics project was presented to Michelle Etta of Kewaskum and Diane Hammen of West Bend, and Susan Marquardt of Farmington.

Electric Co. Stockholders Vote to Reorganize Into New Holding Company

MILWAUKEE — Stockholders of Wisconsin Electric Power Co. voted Oct. 29 to reorganize into a new holding company — Wisconsin Energy Corp. — and create new nonutility subsidiaries aimed at increased emphasis on economic development programs.

Wisconsin Electric Chairman Charles McNeer announced that stockholders holding more than 74 percent of the company's stock had voted in favor of the reorganization. More than 1,150 stockholders met at the Red Carpet Hotel to consider the action.

The Securities & Exchange Commission still must give its approval before Wisconsin Energy Corp. can be formed. The company expects that approval in time to complete the restructuring at year end.

"Today's action puts us only one step away from a new organization that we believe can make a major contribution to economic development in our state," McNeer said.

Under the holding company plan, Wisconsin Energy Corp. would become the parent company of Wisconsin Electric, Wisconsin Natural Gas Co., and several nonutility subsidiaries.

"These nonutility subsidiaries will be a logical extension of our recent economic development efforts. While we plan to move slowly, we anticipated that these ventures will mean new jobs in our service area, an increased tax base and a stronger economy over the next decade," McNeer said.

McNeer emphasized that the electric and natural gas subsidiaries of Wisconsin Energy Corp. will continue to be the top priority and key businesses for the company. They will continue to be regulated by state and federal agencies just as they are today.

Wisconsin Electric and Wisconsin Natural customers will be insulated from the risks associated with the nonutility subsidiaries, McNeer said. The formation of the new holding company follows the dictates of the state law approved in the Legislature and signed by the governor last year after several years of legislative and regulatory review.

McNeer told stockholders at the special meeting Oct. 29 that the corporate restructuring was a "continuation of the pattern of changes that have been necessary throughout the years to keep our company strong."

He noted that "change is inevitable in any business and Wisconsin Electric has always changed with the times. When our company was established more than 90 years ago, the main thrust of our business was providing street railway service." McNeer said providing electric service was little more than a sideline.

"The utility industry has changed and we expect that trend to accelerate in the next decade with increasing competition, development of new technology and changing regulatory requirements," McNeer said. "It will be a time of great opportunity and exciting challenges."

Earnings Growth Reported by Valley Bancorporation

Valley Bancorporation reported 1986 third quarter per share earnings of $.52, a 2.0% increase over the 1985 third quarter earnings per share of $.51. Net income amounted to $4.143 million for the third quarter of 1986 as compared to $3.532 million in 1985, a 17.3% increase. Nine month earnings for 1986 were reported at $12.872 million compared with $9.559 million in 1985, a 34.7% increase. Applicable 1986 earnings per share for nine months ended amounted to $1.64, an increase of 5.8% over the 1985 nine months ended earnings per share of $1.55. Applicable per share date has been adjusted to reflect the 3 for 2 stock split (50% stock dividend) distributed May 30, 1986.

The increase in net income was impacted by the acquisitions of the $170 million-asset BANCWIS Corporation, Janesville (March 31, 1985), the $350 million-asset United Banks of Wisconsin, Inc. Madison (August 16, 1985), and the $12 million-asset Valley National Bank (Minocqua/Woodruff), April 30, 1986. These acquisitions were accounted for as purchase transactions and therefore, results of operations of these units are included only for the period subsequent to their respective acquisition dates. Weighted average shares outstanding totaled 7,845,319 in 1986 and 6,146,901 in 1985.

During May, 1985, Valley completed the acquisition of the $36 million - asset Valley Bank of Oregon. On April 30, 1986, the acquisitions of the $68 million-asset First National Bank and Trust Co. of Beaver Dam, the $53 million-asset Bank of Spring Green, the $38 million-asset Commercial Bank (Chilton), and the $27 million-asset Peshtigo State Bank were consummated. These acquisitions were accounted for as poolings of interest and accordingly, all prior period financial information has been restated to include these organizations.

At September 30, 1986, Valley reported total assets of $2.121 billion, an increase of 6.1% over the $2.000 billion recorded September 30, 1985. Net loans increased to $1.156 billion, compared with $1.149 billion a year earlier, an increase of .6%. Deposits stood at $1.812 billion, an increase of 5.4% over September 30, 1985 deposits of $1.720 billion. The increase in assets, loans and deposits reflects internal growth of approximately 5% and growth through acquisition of the $12 million-asset Valley National Bank (Minocqua/Woodruff), April 30, 1986.

Stockholders' equity totaled $146.5 million, an increase of $14.6 million over the $131.9 million on September 30, 1985. Of this increase, $1.8 million was attributable to the issuance of approximately 39,000 shares of Valley common stock (including approximately $355,000 in cash) to acquire all of the outstanding shares of the Valley National Bank (Minocqua/Woodruff). At September 30, 1986, book value per share was $18.52 compared with $17.16 per share at September 30, 1985, an increase of 7.9%.

Valley Bancorporation also provides financial services through companies engaged in leasing, insurance, data processing, credit card servicing, discount brokerage, trust service and credit reinsurance.

Name Lindsay & Stone Agency for Valley Bancorporation

Lindsay & Stone has been named agency of record for Valley Bancorporation, Wisconsin's fourth largest bank holding company.

In making the agency selection, Charmaine Ponkratz, Vice President/Marketing said that Valley had reviewed the credentials of twenty agencies, inviting four to make presentations to the selection committee.

"This was an important decision for us at Valley," Charmaine said. "Our advertising agency has always been a key participant in Valley's marketing initiatives. And with the new tax reform law and the advent of interstate banking, we're facing some unique marketing challenges in the coming year."

Lindsay & Stone will handle all collateral and ad production for Valley's corporate marketing department, and will be responsible for the planning and placement of all media.

In addition to helping build on Valley's strength in retail and commercial banking, Lindsay & Stone will also provide marketing support to the growing areas of insurance, brokerage, trust and credit cards.

Valley Bancorporation has over $2 billion in assets and 75 banking locations throughout Wisconsin, including Kewaskum.

Lindsay & Stone Advertising is a $10 million agency located at 100 State Street in Madison, Wisconsin.

Necessity does the work of courage.

Minutes of School Board Meeting

The Kewaskum Statesman will be printing minutes from past Board of Education meetings that have not been published in the district newsletter.

School District of Kewaskum
Kewaskum, Wisconsin 53040
June 9, 1986

Meeting was called to order by President Tom Brigham at approximately 7:00 p.m.

Board members present: Jean Goeden, Perry Ankerson, Tom Brigham, Kim Peterson, Clara Trapp, Ron Theusch, Ralph Horner.

Absent: none.

Clerk Goeden led the pledge of allegiance.

There were three changes to the agenda: 1) closed session was rescheduled to take place at the end of the meeting. President Brigham announced that Attorney Spector would not be available until 9:30 p.m. or 10:00 p.m.; 2) Item 4 under New Business regarding quotes for insurances was deleted from the agenda; 3) E. Adjournment was added to the agenda.

Mr. Horner requested that all future closed sessions be located at the end of the Regular Meeting.

Ankerson/Goeden motion to accept the agenda with the above changes. Motion passed on a voice vote.

Student government representation; reports or questions-none.

Audience to visitors; receiving of delegations-none.

ACTION ITEMS:

Ankerson/Peterson motion to approve the open session minutes of May 12, 1986 with one correction: Craig Hubbell, student representative reported that several hundred, (rather than $100), was donated to the Heart Association. Motion passed on a voice vote.

Peterson/Goeden motion to approve the closed session minutes of April 22, 1986. Motion passed 5-2 with Clara Trapp and Ralph Horner abstaining.

Goeden/Ankerson motion to approve the closed session minutes of May 12, 1986. Motion passed on a voice vote.

Perry Ankerson reviewed the transportation contract and highlighted the new additions. Ankerson/Peterson motion to approve the transportation contract as presented by Perry Ankerson and instruct the administration to put it out on bids. Discussion followed. Trapp/Theusch motion to delete #30 on transportation contract which states; Buses owned by the Carrier that are used for regular assigned routes must be kept at the Carrier's terminal. Motion passed 5-2 with Ralph Horner and Jean Goeden voting no.

Ankerson/Peterson amended original motion incorporating changes discussed: deleting 5)D Late buses ...and 14)c replacing gasoline with motor fuel. Motion passed 7-0. The Board requested the administration to go ahead with the bidding process and set July 4, 1986 as the closing day for bids.

Peterson/Ankerson motion to have the administration get a minimum of three bids on a new phone system. Motion passed 6-1 with Clara Trapp abstaining.

Ankerson/Peterson motion that beginning with the 1986-87 school year, all students residing within the city limits not be bused. Discussion followed. Several people from the audience provided arguments in opposition to this motion. Motion passed 5-2 with Clara Trapp and Ralph Horner voting no.

Buildings and Grounds Superintendent Fred Boehlke reported that bids would be taken on the roofing at KES until June 24, 1986.

Peterson/Goeden motion to allow students to plant trees at KHS, part of a larger, overall proposed landscaping plan to be carried out as the students raise the funds needed. Motion passed 7-0.

Principal Reha provided the Board with a drawing showing the position of walls separating the areas of 7th and 8th graders at KMS and requested that he be allowed to spend approximately $4,000 out of next year's budget to purchase these walls.

Goeden/Peterson motion to approve the spending of approximately $4,000 to purchase walls for the 7th and 8th grade areas at KMS. Discussion followed. Jean Goeden called the question. Passed 5-2 with Clara Trapp and Ralph Horner voting no. Discussion ended and vote was taken. Motion passed 5-2 with Clara Trapp and Ralph Horner voting no.

Ralph Horner requested a review from the administration and voiced his concerns regarding the recent layoff procedure used in reinstating the employees who had previously been laid off by the district following the closing of Beechwood School. Kim Peterson replied that the Board gave direction to the administration at the Regular Meeting held May 12, 1986 to proceed with the lay off in the best way they saw fit and in a way that would be as fair and equitable as possible to everyone. He felt this had been accomplished. Ron Theusch said he felt the Board gave the administration guidelines that were too vague. Superintendent Kleinahns informed the Board that the support staff is in the process of organizing a union and that the subject of seniority will undoubtedly be one of the major concerns. She further stated that she had no correspondence from Ralph Horner prior to the meeting informing her of what he wanted prepared regarding this subject, and therefore she had nothing more to relate. President Brigham reminded everyone that the minutes of May 12, 1986 clearly state that the subject of a seniority system for support staff will be put on the next negotiations committee agenda, and that the negotiations committee and support staff will meet and attempt to come up with a workable seniority system.

Goeden/Peterson motion to approve the payroll and accounts payable in the amount of $587,447.14. Motion passed 7-0.

President Brigham read a letter from Linda Barrows, Superintendent of the Deerfield School District. (Copy attached.) He also read a letter which Clara Trapp wrote to Linda Barrows. (Copy attached.)

President Brigham then proceeded to make the following statement: There are three reasons for including an agenda item the public disclosure of the contents of the May 14, 1986 letter to me from Linda Barrows of the Deerfield Community School District and Clara Trapp's response of May 23, 1986. First, the Kewaskum area community should know of this highly unusual action by a Board member. Second, I as President of the Board and as a Board member, wish to state publicly that Mrs. Trapp's visit to the Deerfield Community School District was in no way authorized, condoned or approved by this Board, this District, or any member of the Board other than Mrs. Trapp. Lastly, I believe it important to emphasize that while every public policy issue, whether it be the Beechwood School question, curriculum concerns, or any other school related matter, has been and will in the future be open to good faith public debate and discussion, there is no room for actions which appear designed to intimidate an Administrator because of his or her policy recommendation, including on controversial issues.

Under whatever version of the facts are accurate, whether as stated in Ms. Barrows' letter or Mrs. Trapp's letter, the alleged pursuit of credibility concerns in an effort to see whether Ms. Kleinahns should have been hired is unrelated to Board policy making and is unacceptable conduct. Therefore, I move that the following resolution be adopted.

BE IT RESOLVED that the Kewaskum School Board make known by this resolution that it did not authorize, approve or condone and does not now authorize, approve or condone the visit to the Deerfield Community School District by Clara Trapp or any inquiries made by Mrs. Trapp about Penny Kleinahns' credibility and whether she should have been hired by the Kewaskum School Board as District Administrator, or any other similar action by any Board member or District employee as part of any public policy dispute.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that Mrs. Trapp is hereby censured for her activity in this regard. Seconded by Perry Ankerson. Passed 5-1-1, with Ralph Horner voting no and Clara Trapp abstaining.

President Brigham announced the appointments of the standing committees for the 1986-87 school year. Clara Trapp objected to her appointment on the Finance Committee so Ralph Horner was asked to switch from the Policy Committee to the Finance Committee and he agreed to do so. The final appointments are as follows: Negotiations-Grievance- Personnel Committee: Perry Ankerson, Chairman; Jean Goeden, Tom Brigham.

Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Committee: Ron Theusch, Chairman; Kim Peterson, Ralph Horner, Bob Schulteis, Layperson; Cheryl Gehl, Layperson.

Policy - Legislation Committee: Jean Goeden, Clara Trapp, Tom Brigham, Neal Wear, Layperson; Jean Slaughenhoup, Layperson.

SEC Committee: Jean Goeden, Chairman; Tom Brigham, Alternate; Other committee members will be added at another date.

Beechwood Elementary School Disposition Committee: Perry

Ankerson, Chairman; Principal, Tom Larsen; Superintendent Kleinahns, Business Manager, ex-officio, one teacher (to be chosen by the administration) 5 community members. President Brigham requested the Board to submit the names of 5 community members to be on this committee. Names should be submitted by Wednesday, June 11, 1986.

Goeden/Ankerson motion that the structure of the Long Range Planning Committee consist of one board member, the Director of Instruction, District Administrator, and one principal, Business Manager as ex-officio, four teachers and five community members. Discussion followed. Ralph Horner questioned whether the meetings of the committees would be posted. It was decided that all meeting dates would be made public. Motion passed 7-0.

Horner/Trapp motion that copies of the accounts payable will be made available to people in attendance at the Board meetings. Discussion followed. Horner/Trapp amended motion to read ten copies of the accounts payable will be made available to people in attendance at the Board meetings. Motion passed on a voice vote.

Horner/Ankerson motion that the Farmington Elementary School library be open all summer. Motion passed on a voice vote.

Mr. Horner requested the administration to provide information stating what items, (furnishings, walls, computers, etc.), have been purchased by the Board since the annual meeting for the administrative staff, including dollar amounts for each item and account and object numbers involved. Superintendent Kleinahns said she was not aware of what would be requested of her regarding this issue because Mr. Horner had not contacted her regarding it. As a result nothing was prepared. Kim Peterson questioned Ralph Horner's purpose for the request. Mr. Horner replied to find out how much money was spent. Perry Ankerson stated that the rest of the Board members were aware because they had voted to approve the purchases at prior Board meetings. Mr. Horner requested that he personally be given the requested information and Superintendent Kleinahns said she would provide him with it.

Horner/Trapp motion that any situation that includes financing the mentoring support of teachers be brought up before the Board and approved before action is taken. Discussion followed. Kim Peterson restated his feelings about some members of the board second-guessing the actions of the administration. He said that the Board hired the members of the administration in good faith and that it is impossible for the Board members to run the day to day business of the district. Mr. Peterson further stated that it is the responsibility of the School Board to set the policies and the responsibility of the administration to follow these policies. If one or the other does not follow through with their obligations then questions should be raised. Perry Ankerson called the question. Failed 5-2 with Clara Trapp and Ralph Horner voting no. Discussion continued. Mr. Kleinahns, from the audience, read a statement he had prepared regarding the actions of some of the members of the Board and the need to support the administration. Motion passed 4-3 with Jean Goeden, Kim Peterson and Ron Theusch voting no.

Director of Instruction Julie Backus reported that an EESA grant in the amount of $1427 was received to be used for staff development for math and science teachers. She informed the Board that workshops and teacher inservice meetings are currently being utilized as provided by CESA 6.

Ms. Backus informed the Board that Marlene Domasky received news that she has been awarded a $500 stipend to develop laboratory units as part of a special program through the Wisconsin and Washington County Medical Society. She will be attending a workshop with the EAA in Oshkosh as part of the development of her curriculum project which will focus on aerodynamics. Lastly, Ms. Backus advised the Board that she is currently working on a grant proposal to provide the funding for a one-day workshop tentatively set for August 27 for all 1986-87 Middle School staff members. The cost will be approximately $3,000.

Peterson/Theusch motion to approve the renewal of the WASB membership in the amount of approximately $2,000. Motion passed 7-0.

Ankerson/Theusch motion to approve the renewal of a subscription to Updated Wisconsin School Laws in the amount of $80.00. Motion passed 7-0.

Goeden/Peterson motion to approve the renewal of the WIAA membership in the amount of $425 for the High School and $20 for the Middle School. Motion passed 7-0.

Peterson/Ankerson approval to hire Ellen R. Robl as music teacher. Motion passed 7-0.

Superintendent Kleinahns reported that Sue Burgard had received a $300 stipend to attend the D.V.I. program training at UW-W this summer.

Peterson/Goeden motion to accept the resignation of J. Baitinger as junior class advisor if a suitable replacement can be found. Motion passed on a voice vote.

Goeden/Ankerson motion to hire Mickey Muenster as assistant baseball coach at KHS. Motion passed 7-0.

Goeden/Ankerson motion to accept the resignation of Rob Charlier Anglim as boys and girls tennis coach if a suitable replacement can be found. Motion passed on a voice vote.

Ankerson/Peterson motion to hire Robert Sobolewski as assistant volleyball coach at KMS. Motion passed 7-0.

Goeden/Ankerson motion to hire M. Reilly-Kliss as KMS newspaper advisor. Motion passed 6-1 with Clara Trapp voting no.

Mr. Zarling recommended that two students be approved for Special Education summer programming. Goeden/Peterson motion to approve Mr. Zarling's recommendation. Motion passed 7-0. A third request was denied because the student's needs did not meet recommended state guidelines.

Superintendent Kleinahns informed the Board that a summer typing program would take place at KHS. It is not a district sponsored activity. Rather, the use of facilities was allowed.

Ms. Kleinahns revealed that the Farmington Elementary School staff sent letters of support for all of their support staff. The letters stated that the staff appreciates the services performed by the support staff and it is their hope that the people currently having support staff positions at Farmington School would be retained in their positions. Ms. Kleinahns said she wrote a letter back to the Farmington staff thanking them for their interest and informing them of the layoff procedure and criteria used. Signatures on the contract with CESA #6 for Special Education services ($2,000 support) were requested.

Information was given regarding the upcoming Fundamentals of Bargaining Workshop to be held Saturday, June 14, 1986 in Oshkosh for Board members. No one indicated they would be attending.

Signatures for several teachers contracts were requested. These contracts were for additional time based on enrollments and classes for 1986-87. Ms. Kleinahns reported that Laury Nelson did not wish to accept the recall for a high school math position of 57%.

Principal Reha and the Board commended these students for having two years or perfect attendance at Kewaskum Middle School: Eva Nowak, David Yogerst, Paulette Birkholz and Sandy Harmon.

Principal Reha announced the names of four students who have shown high level ability in the area of math as shown by the results of the Midwest Talent Search. These students are: Kevin Bartelt, John Hazlewood, Jr., Suzanne Rinzel, Kristina Schinker and Gerald Sese.

Assistant Principal Esser commended these students for having four years of perfect attendance at Kewaskum High School: Patsy Panzer, Randy Beth and Jody Averill.

Mr. Esser introduced two students who will represent the student government at Board meetings for 1986-87. They are Jill Rimmel and Craig Hubbell. President Brigham welcomed them to the Board and also congratulated Craig on his recent tournament wins in tennis competition.

Principal Kopecky, Assistant principal Esser, Superintendent Kleinahns and teacher Larry Ammel were commended for the fine job they did at the graduation ceremony.

Peterson/Ankerson motion to adjourn into closed session as per State Statute 19.85(1)(c) "Considering employment, promotion, compensation or performance evaluation data of any public employee over which the governmental body has jurisdiction or exercises responsibility." Motion passed 7-0.

Minutes of Village Board Meeting

Regular Meeting
November 3, 1986
8:00 p.m.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin met in Regular Session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President David E. Nigh presided. All Trustee Members were present. Note: Trustee Paul Blumer arrived a few minutes late.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the minutes of October 20, 1986.

The public hearing was held on the proposed budget for 1987. It was noted that there was no one present for the public hearing, other than one reporter. The Board reviewed the proposed budget and its impact on the tax rate.

On a motion by Trustee Howard Laubenstein, seconded by Trustee Richard Schlice and unanimously carried by roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent."

A public hearing was held on the proposed uses of Federal Revenue Sharing Funds. It was noted that for 1987 20% was designated for Park and Recreation and 80% for Street Lighting. It was recommended a 20%/80% split for the two accounts be considered on any Federal Revenue Sharing Funds received.

On a motion by Trustee Paul Blumer, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and carried by the majority by roll call vote, the Board closed the public hearing on Federal Revenue Sharing Funds for 1987. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent."

President David E. Nigh complimented the Administrator, Department Heads of Office Staff for a job well done on the preparation of the 1987 Budget.

The opening of the sealed bids for the Police Squad replacement for 1987 were as follows:

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schlice, seconded by Trustee Richard Schmidt and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board turned the bids over to the Chief of Police for review and recommendation.

On a motion by Trustee Mary Krueger, seconded by Trustee Paul Blumer and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the building permit applications for Vernon Fierke, 1322 Riverview Drive, for the construction of a detached garage and Dr. Cesar Sison, 450 Forest Avenue, for the construction of a detached garage. It was noted that both the Zoning Administrator and Building Inspection had approved the applications.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt reviewed a variety of correspondence with the Board as follows:

- Balance sheet review for October, 1986.
- Reviewed the price quote received for the siding of the fire house. On a motion by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Howard Laubenstein and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the siding of the northwest side of the fire house as well as the previously authorized west wall. Also the Administrator was to include and get a quote on the reroofing of the west lean-to roof.
- Review of some brief correspondence.

On a motion by Trustee Paul Blumer, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the payment of bills as recommended by the Administrative Committee. The total of all claims as recommended are as follows:

|              |              |
|--------------|--------------|
| General Fund | $122,834.47 |
| Sewage Fund  | 49,581.44    |
| Water Fund   | 2,775.00     |
| TOTAL        | $175,190.91 |

General Voucher #6211 thru #6337
Sewage Voucher #4396 thru #4408
Water Voucher #4959 thru #4965

Trustee Howard Laubenstein, Chairman of the Protection and Public Safety Committee, and Chief of Police reviewed the request to investigate the safety of the intersection of Second Street and Reigle Drive. The information reviewed indicated that there was no major problem, but all parties agreed to monitor the situation.

Trustee Thomas McElhatton, Chairman of the Park and Recreation Committee, informed the Board that the School District has agreed to work with the Village on recreation fees.

Trustee Howard Laubenstein, the Plan Commission Board Representative, reviewed the results of the Plan Commission meeting of October 28, 1986. The primary discussion was the review of the first draft of the revised zoning ordinance.

Trustee Richard Schmidt, the Library Board Representative, reviewed the actions of the Library Board meeting of November 3, 1986.

Final discussion was held on the proposed 1987 Budget, which had been presented at the public hearing, in conjunction with the public hearing on the proposed use for the 1987 Federal Revenue Sharing Funds. On a motion by Trustee Richard Schlice, seconded by Trustee Richard Schmidt and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the 1987 Budget as presented.

The following Resolutions as attached hereto were then introduced, discussed and then acted upon: No. 86-28 and No. 86-29:

The Village Board reviewed some alternate sources of revenue.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board directed the Administrator to draft an ordinance to establish and collect a room tax as done in most other communities and that the amount of tax be tentatively set at 5%. It was noted the Board will discuss this proposed ordinance at one of the next Board meetings and then take action at the following meeting.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schlice, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote the Board authorized an increase of rent to be charged for the Village owned apartment. Lower flat to be increased to $200.00 and the upper flat to $175.00, effective January 1, 1987.

The ordinances as attached hereto in reference to the Police and Fire Commission and term of office for the appointed Fire Chief were acted on as discussed and recommended by the Police Commission, Fire Department and Protection and Public Safety Committee. (No. 86-6 and No. 86-7).

On a motion by Trustee Paul Blumer, seconded by Trustee Richard Schlice and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved and authorized the signing of the Town of Kewaskum Fire Contract for 1987.

The bids received for the 1987 Police Squad were reviewed with some questions asked by Board Members and a clarification on the low bid required. On a motion by Trustee Mary Krueger, seconded by Trustee Richard Schlice and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board tabled the matter until the meeting of November 17, 1986.

On a motion by Trustee Howard Laubenstein, seconded by Trustee Richard Schmidt and carried unanimously by roll call vote, the Board accepted the TIF audit as prepared by Virchow, Krause & Company. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent."

A Proclamation concerning Alzheimer's Disease was acted on as attached hereto:

Motion was made by Trustee Richard Schlice, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton to adjourn to closed session under Chapter 19.85 (1) (c) of the statutes to discuss employee negotiations, compensation and performance data of village employees over which the governmental body has jurisdiction. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent." The motion was carried unanimously.

Jess Mueller Receives Mention

Coulter Selected on All-Conference 2nd Team

Eastern Wisconsin coaches met last Thursday to make their selections for the 1986 all-conference football team.

Kewaskum head coach Fran Charland was very disappointed that his outstanding senior Mike Coulter was not named to the first team. He believed he had one of the best defensive linemen in the conference in noseguard Coulter, who also stood out offensively at fullback and did the kicking.

The 6-1, 205-pound senior had received praise throughout the season from rival coaches for his play and it came as a surprise that he was left off the first team. Charland said it showed that "politics were involved." He said he would put Coulter, who had 39 solo tackles during the season, on one against anyone in the conference. The Indians' losing record should not have been held against Mike.

Offensive tackle Jess Mueller, a 17-year-old senior, received honorable mention in the balloting. Mueller, who played well all season, was the only other Indian receiving consideration in the voting.

Unbeaten Two Rivers' conference champions, which lost to Denmark, 8-6, in the first round of the Division 3 playoffs, had 10 players named to 11 positions on the first team. The Raiders' Randy Wanek was named defensive player of the year by the coaches. The Raiders' also had the one unanimous player in halfback Mike Schultz.

Second place Plymouth (6-1), which lost only to Two Rivers in the final game, had seven

Tennis, Cross Country Letter Winners Named

This fall's girls tennis and boys and girls cross country letter winners at Kewaskum High School have been announced.

It was a lean year for KHS in these sports. The girls tennis finished fourth in the five-team Eastern Wisconsin Conference. The boys cross country team was sixth of seven and the girls did not have enough runners to have a full team.

One consolation is that there were very few seniors on the teams. Many of them were underclassmen who will be back next year and should show improvement.

There were seven seniors on the tennis squad but only three saw much action, namely Julie Reha, Karie Sarauer and Becky Falk. Other junior letter winners were Sherry Becker, this year's MVP, Kristin Vogt and Dawn Troeller, and sophomore Jane Czoschke.

Boys' cross country lettermen were led by junior Miles Shaw. By finishing eighth, he made the all-conference team. He won his third letter and was named MVP again. Other letter winners included Curt Ayer, No. 2 runner, junior Craig Hubbell and Kris Follmann.

The girl letter winners, with only four runners, were senior Sherri Batzler, and underclassmen Carrie Batzler, Ellen Kuphal and Pam Osterbrink. Kuphal was named MVP.

players selected on the first team. Kiel, which led in total offense had three players on the offensive team, including Ken Zorn, the top conference rusher with 756 yards and 80 points. Zorn was the only unanimous player on offense.

Zorn led the conference in individual rushing and individual scoring. Todd Horneck of New Holstein in individual passing, and Keith Jankuske of Plymouth in individual receiving.

The all-conference selections:

- Offensive Ends — 2. Rick Bunge, Kiel, grade 12, 6'7", 170 lbs.; 45. Keith Jankuski, Ply., 6', 169 lbs.

Indian Girls, Boys to Open Basketball Seasons

The Kewaskum Indians girls basketball team will open the 1986-87 season with a non-conference game at Lomira next Thursday evening, Nov. 20.

The Indian girls, who finished with a 3-9 conference and 6-14 overall record last year, have eight returning letterwinners. They include: Seniors Michelle Beck (sub), 5'7" forward; Jenny Hintz (starter), 5'8" forward; Terri Schmidt (sub), 5'9" center; Lisa Schneider (sub), 5'8" forward; Tracy Theusch (sub), 5'7" forward, and Brenda Vetter (starter), 5'5" guard. Juniors Brenda Theusch (sub), 5'8" guard, and Debbie Felix (sub), 5'9" forward. Five of these girls were also members of the volleyball team which just finished the season at the state tournament Saturday.

Three of last year's starters were lost by graduation. They are: Jodi Yearling, 5'9" forward 2nd team all-conference; Brenda Kober, 5'7" guard, and Lisa Fusek, 6'0" center.

Milt Dickinsen, who is beginning his fourth year as head coach, reports that strengths of the 1986-87 squad should be quickness, defense, unselfishness, smartness, hard play and competitiveness. Weakness could be lack of height and scoring.

Dickinsen picks Plymouth, Two Rivers and New Holstein as the top conference contenders with Sheboygan Falls as a dark horse favorite.

The Kewaskum boys basketball team will open their 18-game, one-tournament season, also with the Lomira Lions, on Tuesday, Nov. 18, at the Kewaskum fieldhouse.

The Indians will start this season with a 17-man squad with only three returning letterwinners to build around.

This year's returning letterwinners, all seniors, are Mike Coulter, Bruce Troeller and Mark Schlosser. Kewaskum athletic director Perry Koth will be returning as head coach of the varsity squad.

With the exception of the Slinger game which will start at 6:00 p.m., all conference games will begin at 6:15 p.m. for the freshmen and junior varsity, and 7:45 for the varsity.

The complete girls and boys schedules for the season appear on page 23 of this issue, along with those of the boys wrestling team and girls gymnastics team.

Indian Girls Third at State

A JUBILANT COACH RIZZARDI cheers on his team early in Saturday's tournament while the girls are still in it.

By Chuck Voge

Area volleyball fans will have to be content with having the third best Class B volleyball team in the state for the time being. The Indian girls failed in their Saturday, November 8th, bid for the W.I.A.A. state volleyball championship, by losing out to teams from Waunakee and Seymour, at this year's state championship meet, at the Kolf Sports Center at UW-Oshkosh.

It was Kewaskum's first appearance ever in volleyball in the state tournament.

First place honors went to the girls from Waunakee, who repeated as State Class B champions, with second again going to Seymour, which also placed second last year. The Kewaskum girls finished in the third spot, with fourth going to New Richmond.

The Indians took one out of their three matches for the day, when they beat New Richmond two out of three by scores of 15-10, 11-15 and 15-6. In the opener the Kewaskum girls were defeated by the Seymour Indians by scores of 15-11 and 15-5. In their final match of the day the Indians were defeated by the newly crowned champions, the Waunakee Warriors, by scores of 15-5 and 15-0.

After a tough loss such as this one it's common practice for some fans to look for various ways to explain away the bitter experience with rationalizations such as, "it was a strange court" or "this was their first time in a tournament this large." These girls gave the best that they had and no excuses are required for their play. The Indian girls represented their school and community in a way that brought both honor and recognition to the Kewaskum school district. They also gave local area residents a lot of hopes and thrills, and a chance for a moment in sports that won't be forgotten for years to come.

The Kewaskum girls lost to the two top Class B teams in the state, both of which also took first and second respectively last year. The strong Waunakee team, composed mostly of seniors, probably could have beaten most of the Class A teams in the tournament.

The Indians reached the state tournament by breezing through the regional with victories over Campbellsport, Horicon and Laconia, and then defeating Union Grove, Jefferson and Pewaukee in the sectional hosted by Kewaskum.

In the state competition at Oshkosh Saturday, Appleton East beat Madison West for the Class A title. Madison West qualified for the final round by defeating Racine Case and Appleton East eliminated New Berlin West.

Class C champion Webster won its title in a tiebreaker round. The Tigers were tied 2-1 with Pittsville and Seneca and played Seneca in a one-game playoff. Webster then beat Pittsville for the title. Pittsville finished second, with Seneca third and Ozaukee fourth.

LAKES BASKETBALL PRACTICE SUNDAY

The Kewaskum Land o' Lakes basketball team will practice at the high school gym this Sunday, Nov. 16, at 7:00 p.m. Anyone interested in playing on the team is invited to attend.

If interested but unable to attend this practice, you may call Manager Bill Backhaus at 338-6598.

The first baseball World Series took place in October, 1903 between the Boston Americans and the Pittsburgh Nationals.

DAWN DIERINGER looks on in despair as her team goes down in defeat to the Waunakee Warriors.
