Mobile Home Park's Closing Not the Kind Of Christmas Present Tenants Wanted

A Christmas wreath hangs next to a "For Sale" sign on a mobile home in Tompkins Mobile Home Park which has been ordered closed by March, 1987.

Residents of these mobile homes and their neighbors are deciding where to go when Tompkins Mobile Home Park closes next March.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The last thing residents of Melvin Tompkins' mobile home park located on Highway 45 at the south end of Kewaskum, in the Town of Kewaskum, wanted or expected was an eviction notice telling them they and their trailers must be gone by March 31, 1987.

The park's closing is the result of many things but basically the fact that its septic system is no longer operating properly and Tompkins decided he could not afford to replace or repair the system.

It appears to be more than just a matter of putting in a new septic or holding tank, but in all likelihood, the sewer lines would also have to be repaired. The project could conservatively cost from $150,000 on up and that could easily more than double tenants' rent.

Problems for the park began about two years ago. Some of the present tenants blame them on a family who moved in and has since left. They wanted cheap rent, but with all the conveniences of a fancy new park, street lights, paved roads, you name it. One thing led to another between Tompkins and his tenants and the issue of the septic system came up.

George Allmann, Kewaskum Town Chairman, was notified this spring about effluent seeping up out of the ground in the rear portion of the park. The matter was referred to county officials who ordered Tompkins to bring the system into compliance with sanitation codes.

One tenant thought some of the materials surfacing were not actually from the defective system itself but were being forced up from the landfill beneath the mobile home park. Some of those things you just don't find in a septic system, the individual noted.

Tenants Cheryl and Harry Beall blamed some of the problems on Tompkins. He had a poor attitude, said Beall. Some of the problems could have been worked out but he (Tompkins) hasn't done anything to improve the place.

Beall said he had attended a tenants meeting Sunday where there was some discussion about the tenants getting together to buy the property and make the necessary repairs. "You're looking at a ballpark figure of $380,000 for the whole thing," Beall, who suffers from cancer and is not working, said he could not come up with the necessary money to buy in. That amount he figured would be around $20,000. "Besides when

Kewaskum Looking at Sewer, Water Rate Hikes

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board began looking into the possibility of rate hikes for the Sewage and Water Departments as it reviewed the two proposed departmental budgets for 1987. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the board, Monday night, the village has not had a Water Department rate increase since 1982, or Sewage Department increase since 1983.

While the proposed budget for the Water Department shows a decrease of approximately 6.6% from 1986, the facility still is not operating at a breakeven level, noted Schmidt. Expenditures for 1987 are expected to run approximately $121,250, while anticipated revenues will only be about $110,000. This means the department will fall approximately $11,000 short of breakeven.

"The Public Service Commission says we should show a 6% profit," stated Schmidt. Between the department's anticipated shortfall and profit margin recommendation, we're looking at a 17% increase to break even, Schmidt told the board.

While that sounds like a big hike, Schmidt noted that to an average customer who uses 19,000 gallons of water quarterly, it would mean an increase of about 60c-75c per month, or about $1.75 per quarter.

Schmidt told the board, the Village of Kewaskum is third from the bottom out of 21 utilities as far as rates go. That means eighteen other facilities presently have water rates higher than ours. "Even with the 17% increase, we'd still be fifth from the bottom," said Schmidt. He reminded the trustees that the village has no control over the increases which

No Washington County Sales Tax for Now

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

On a 19-7 vote, members of the Washington County Board of Supervisors defeated a proposal to enact a 0.5% county sales tax for 1987. The plan, however, is not completely dead as the board left the door open by directing its Finance Committee to evaluate such a tax's impact on the county before it begins work on a 1988 budget.

If such an ordinance is adopted, it is calculated that the 0.5% sales tax on all taxable goods purchased within Washington County and titled goods, such as cars, etc., bought outside the county could generate over $2 million in additional revenue which would be used for property tax relief.

A change in state law last year now permits counties to keep the revenue from a county sales tax of exactly .5%. Prior to that law change, the revenue would have been divided among municipalities within a county with a sales tax.

Based on 1984 figures, the tax could bring in $2,046,927 a year. Of that, 4% would be used for administration costs to the state and retailers for collecting and processing those monies.

Winter Arrives Early This Year

This area was greeted by record-breaking cold weather for the 13th of November last Thursday when the thermometer dipped below zero. Accompanied by high winds with gusts of up to 45 miles an hour, the wind chill dropped far below zero.

Rivers and some lakes froze over so ice fishing was possible before deer hunting this year. The cold snap brought out the longjohns, stocking caps, scarves, ear muffs, mittens and insulated jackets for the first time.

We also had two dustings of snow last week and folks woke up Tuesday morning to find about two inches of the white stuff that had fallen during the night covering the ground for the first time.

Mobile Park

you're done you've still got an old park with small lots that could use still more improvements. You try to tell that to the other tenants and they jump on you." Only about half of the families showed up for that meeting, noted Beall.

Mrs. Beall, who has lived in the park over fifteen years said, "when Doc Johnson owned the park he pumped the system regularly, got up at four in the morning to plow during the winter and collected the garbage."

That garbage collection may now be part of the park's problem. According to Mrs. Beall, Johnson used to pick up the trash and take it in the back to the old landfill. "When it was full, he'd cover it and make another lot." "The people on the north end of the park are okay," said Harry Beall, "they're on solid ground but trailers like ours down on this end and in the back are on the old landfill where everything sinks." We've braced up our trailer and it just keeps sinking. If you look behind our trailer you can see the slope from the edge of the old landfill.

In considering their situation, the couple said it looked like they would try to find an apartment or a home with an option to buy if they could afford it. In 1964, this trailer cost about $5,500, said Mrs. Beall, now new ones that are anything decent start at around $30,000 without anything in them.

The deadline for the eviction is bad too, said the Bealls. How can they expect people, especially the elderly, to move in the cold weather. By March everything will be frozen, how are you expected to move a trailer that's been setting in one place for so many years. We're hoping that at least the eviction will be extended until it warms up.

A young couple, Jerry and Lori Salb, who have lived in the park less than a year, were getting ready to go out and buy a new trailer when this reporter came to interview them. "We moved in last December and knew there was a problem with the septic system but there was talk about fixing it," said Jerry Salb.

"We just paid off our trailer last month and three weeks later we get an eviction notice." The Salbs are also among the 38 tenants who call the park home and want to remain there.

At first the couple had considered moving their trailer to another park or buying a piece of land, but their trailer is a 1960 model, like most of the tenants' old, too old to be moved or too old to be accepted by other parks which will not accept anything more than four years old. "If the land won't take you or another park won't take you, you're stuck," said Salb. So it looks like our only choice is to trade in this trailer on a new one that will be accepted. "We really like it here though, said Salb, and I did a lot of work remodeling and fixing up this trailer. We thought we'd be here for a while."

Unless something happens to change the situation, for these families and their neighbors, it's a sad way to begin the holiday season.

Rate Hikes

are determined by the Public Service Commission.

The Sewage Department's budget for 1987 carries an increase of approximately 5.4% over 1986. Based on that 1986 budget, which is running about $14,800 or 5% in the red, the village's consultant, Dr. Raymond Kipp, is recommending the department's rates be increased by approximately 16.6%. If that increase were approved, village residents' average bills would go up approximately $6.80 per quarter. The combined increase for the two utilities would be about $8.55 to $8.60 per quarter, noted Schmidt.

A public hearing on the two budgets and rate increases has been tentatively scheduled for December 15th.

In other action the board again reviewed bids for the Police Department's 1987 replacement squad. After some discussion, the board approved the second low bid of Honeck Chevrolet, Kewaskum, rather than the low bid of Meyer Ford of Campbellsport, as recommended by Police Chief Donald Hlavaty and Schmidt.

Meyer had proposed a 1987 Ford at $12,398, while Honeck's bid for a 1987 Chevrolet was $12,509. Tom Tessar, of Honeck, told the board, after studying the specs Honeck's price would actually be only $62 higher than Meyer's. He noted his company's original price included additional costs related to doorlock and handle removal which were being eliminated.

The vote to accept Honeck's bid was three yes, two no, one abstention and one absent. Trustees Tom McElhatton, Howard Laubenstein and Richard Schlice, who voted in favor, indicated their decisions were based on doing business with the local dealer.

In other business the board reviewed the draft of a proposed ordinance which would create a 5% room tax for motels and hotels. While there was discussion both for and against such an ordinance, President David Nigh noted the board was not approving its adoption at this meeting, merely agreeing to pursue the idea further. "This is in the preliminary stages, there will be a public hearing and everyone will have a chance to speak," Nigh stated.

The board also approved the 1987 Fire Contract of $19,048, with the Town of Auburn.

Trustee Richard Schmidt, Chairman of the village's Library Committee, informed the board that he has been notified of his appointment to the seven-member Countywide Library System Committee.

The board discussed a letter from Chief Hlavaty recommending a change in the municipal code relating to bicycle licensing. The Chief is proposing a change from the present $1.00 annual registration to a $5.00, one-time non-expiring registration. The new procedure would mean licenses would not expire except upon the sale of the bike to another individual who would then have to re-register it under their ownership.

The board also approved a building permit for the construction of an addition to the Homeplate Restaurant, and four bartender license applications.

The Kewaskum Sno-Chiefs Snowmobile Club was given approval of its trails into the village for the 1986-87 season.

Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation Candidate Chosen at KHS

Roberto Castro

Roberto Castro, son of Dr. and Mrs. Florizel Castro, 1450 Brooklane Dr., Kewaskum, has been chosen to represent Kewaskum's sophomore class at the Hugh O'Brian (HOBY) Leadership Seminar which will be held this spring. Last year more than 10,100 sophomores, nominated to represent their schools, attended all expense paid Hugh O'Brian Leadership seminars in all 50 states and more than 20 other countries.

Bob was selected to represent his class of 154 sophomores at Kewaskum High School not only on his 3.8 scholastic record, but also his outstanding leadership ability and his incentive to help others.

The Hugh O'Brian Foundation was established in 1958 to recognize and reward leadership potential in high school sophomores. While Bob attends the three day weekend workshops this spring, he and over 10,100 young people will explore the topic "America's Incentive System." The format for these workshops involves bringing together a select group of high school sophomores with demonstrated leadership qualities and a group of distinguished leaders in business, education, government and the professions. Through informal discussions the young people get a realistic look at what makes America great and a better understanding of our nation's role in the world community.

At the conclusion of the State Leadership Seminar, one boy and girl will be chosen to represent their state at a week long HOBY International Leadership Seminar coordinated by the University of Denver, Colorado.

As in the past, the Kewaskum Chapter of the Kiwanis organization will sponsor this very worthwhile activity.

Sales Tax

County Supervisor John Frey of Hartford, who made the motion, also recommended reserving 10% of the tax money for economic development within the county.

Supervisor Herb Tennes, West Bend, who chairs the Finance Committee, opposed the tax indicating he felt it would create "an island" encouraging residents to shop in neighboring counties to avoid the tax. Supervisor Daniel Stoffel, Kewaskum, felt the county should not be in a rush to adopt such an ordinance without further study.

Recently Milwaukee County vetoed a proposal to adopt a similar sales tax ordinance. While Washington and Milwaukee Counties rejected the sales tax plan, Sawyer, Rusk, St. Croix, and Iowa Counties approved ordinances. Dunn and Barron Counties, the first to jump on the county sales tax bandwagon, put their ordinances into effect last April and received their first checks in September. Dane County is delaying action on the tax until its 1987 levy is adopted. Brown County passed a sales tax ordinance last year, but has since rescinded it.

In order for a sale tax to go into effect for 1987, counties must notify the state by December 1, 1986.

Waupun Corrections Officer Enlightens Classes at KHS

Lt. Tom Bornick, a corrections officer at Waupun's maximum-security state prison, enlightened Dave Rhode's Social problems classes about prison conditions and institutional life recently at Kewaskum High School.

Bornick, a nine-year veteran of the system, has worked every job from the front-line cells to administrative paperwork, therefore having many experiences to share — and a strong message about staying out of prison.

The Waupun facility — a 135-year-old edifice in south-central Wisconsin — is designed to house 850 inmates. But currently, Bornick said, there are about 1110 prisoners living there, guarded by about 240 corrections personnel and fifteen supervisors.

Bornick continued to say that the job of a corrections officer is frequently misunderstood. Guards are there for the purpose of directing the inmates to what they need, not for babysitting, restraint, or intimidation. Since the State provides everything a prisoner needs, a guard just makes it available. Communication is an important part of the job, and a guard makes personal relations with inmates, but must be careful not to feel sorry for the prisoners or let inmates play on one's emotional flaws.

For students possibly interested in a career in corrections, Lt. Bornick mentioned that pay starts at $8 an hour. Candidates must have a high school diploma, a (Wisconsin) driver's license and not be an ex-con. An eight week training course at the Academy must also be completed, where they try to teach you to "treat prisoners like you would want to be treated" and that half the battle is treating inmates like people.

When a prisoner is first brought to the "big house," Bornick explained, he is strip-searched, issued "khakies" (uniform), and then taken to his six-by-ten foot cell which will probably be shared with at least one other inmate. Soon, the new prisoner will be approached by other inmates demanding sex, money, or drugs for protection — a cycle that hooks you the minute you get in, and can't get out of.

Bornick's presentation also included various weapons and secret storage containers that prisoners had made. A recent "lockdown" of the prison had revealed 29 homemade knives.

In conclusion, Bornick stated that the prison system as it stands now is simply not working. He feels that prisons should be concerned more with training delinquents for new jobs to set them on a new track in life, so that when they are released, they aren't guaranteed a return ticket to jail.

'Toys for Tots' Fund Drive Here

"Toys for Tots" fund drive will again be run in the Kewaskum area by the Kewaskum Jaycees, along with the West Bend Women's Club in cooperation with the Washington County Department of Social Services.

Holy Trinity School Sells 2,000 Pizzas

Holy Trinity School has just completed a successful pizza sale. Our thanks to all the persons who supported the sale and are now eating fresh Dalerono Pizzas. On reaching our goal of 2,000 pizza sales, Dalerono's provided an all school pizza party for the children on Friday, October 24. The top saleperson for this year's sale is Tricia Teofilo, Grade 4 who sold 160 pizzas. She will receive the top award, namely, a $100.00 Savings Bond and a day off of school at her choice. Students coming in at second and third place are Angela Vogt, Grade 1 with 132 sales, and Ginger and Carrie Wiesner, Grade 5 and Grade 1 with 108 sales. Each of these students received a $50.00 Savings Bond.

Because of the determination of our students to exceed the top sales from last year, Dalerono's Pizza donated a new RCA 19 inch colored TV to the school. The new TV is housed in the First Grade Classroom, since together they sold a total of 972 pizzas. What a super surprise for our students!

The profits are earmarked for needed science equipment.

If you work in an office, chances are you'll spend at least 20 years of your life sitting down.

The Taj Mahall will only be open for specific and special occasions. One such event will be the performance of "XL" Saturday, November 29, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., playing the top 40's of the 1950's and 60's, which will be open to the public. Two dances are being scheduled for the Northwoods Snowmobile Festival in January. They are planning on extensive interior and exterior remodeling. "We will be providing the public with a good place to come and to have a good time without being expensive," Pemper emphasized.

There is always a silent heartache, Many a silent tear. But always beautiful memories, of one we loved so dear.

Sadly missed by the family.

Xmas Wreaths Now

Booster Greens Sale Keeps Indians Green

The Christmas wreath sale by KHS Boosters is underway Saturdays at Sentry parking lot in Kewaskum. And this year the parent group is doing it differently.

Customers may now buy wreaths directly from the Booster van which will be at the shopping center Saturdays, 9:00 a.m. - 3 p.m., through November. As in the past, sales tickets may be purchased from the high school office or a Booster. But wreath pick-up is still at the Booster van on Saturdays.

Prices and sizes for the decorative wreaths run: 20" for $6; 26" for $8.50 and 40" for $15. The freshly made evergreens are handmade by a local company and decorated with frosted cones and red bows.

This annual sale has proven one of the top fundraisers for the parent group due largely to generous and loyal support from the community. Profits from the sale help finance extra-curricular activities at the high school.

Voicing an opinion on how Booster funds can best meet the needs of the students guarantees lively discussion at the monthly meetings. Parents are encouraged to participate in this Booster effort so that the students may continue to benefit from extra activities. The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 25, Tuesday at the high school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m.

An Open Letter to Wisconsin Deer Hunters

Dear Deer Hunter:

You are about to embark on a journey to participate in perhaps the greatest of American hunting traditions, the deer hunt. This annual trek has become the big event of the year, the Superbowl of hunting, and you are a player.

Hunter Expectations

As in any challenging undertaking, the participants have a wide variety of expectations and satisfactions, but everyone wants to be a winner. When it comes to deer hunting, what does it really mean to be winner? And if you're not a winner, are you a loser?

I would like to share with you some observations about deer hunting and about you, the Wisconsin deer hunter. These observations are based on personal experience during 23 years as a Wisconsin Conservation Warden, including 11 as Hunter Education Administrator. Some of the comments reflect the attitudes of hundreds, perhaps thousands, of deer hunters, landowners, conservation warden, hunter educators and nonhunting citizens from throughout North America.

Hunter Emotions

Whether you hunt a massive buck in the far north or an antlerless trophy from the farming counties, you will experience an emotional anxiousness to bag that deer. Now this internal excitement is a natural feeling for almost all hunters. It is as natural as a youngster anticipating the opening of Christmas presents. Every hunter probably feels it, but if this anxiousness to bag a deer is not controlled, it can also be deadly.

Every deer season, hunters are seriously injured or killed by hunting partners. That's right, hunting partners who are over-anxious to bag their deer, or worse yet to bag a deer for someone else in their group. Last season there were 17 hunters shot by their hunting partner when they got so excited about bagging a deer they forgot where their partners were.

Hunter Behavior

Over-eagerness to shoot deer carries over into the "group bagging" situation which was made legal by the Wisconsin Legislature in 1984. In 40% of the accidents where one hunter shot another while attempting to bag a deer, the shooter had already bagged his deer and was practicing "group bagging."

To many hunters, deer hunting is the hunt they would miss the most if they could not go. It is the hunting highlight of the year, the one activity most anticipated. Nearly all deer hunters venture forth fully expecting to get a chance at bagging a record class buck, and every year some are bagged. Maybe this is your year.

Hunter Safety

A word of caution is given on several problem areas for deer hunters. If you hunt with a rifle with an exposed hammer, such as the common .30-.30 carbine, be extra careful when you cock or uncock it. Every year cold fingers slip off those hammers, the gun fires, and someone is injured.

We recommend solid color hunter orange outer garments for additional safety. Those camouflage orange outfits simply are not as visible, especially on dark, cloudy days. Solid color is recommended. You must be seen to be safe.

Wardens (and hunters) really get perturbed when a hunter looks at them through their rifle scope. Knowing full well that the cross hairs are on them, their first reaction is the desire to bend the viewer's rifle barrel. We recommend you carry binoculars and use them to look at others, at wildlife, at anything you do not intend to shoot. Never use your rifle scope in lieu of binoculars.

Hunter Success

For a winning deer season, be prepared, be careful, be courteous, and be satisfied that your hunt was enjoyable. Even if the big buck got away, you are not a loser.

True hunting success is not so much the trophy on your wall or the quantity of venison in your freezer as it is the quality of your deer hunting memories. You will have them to relive for the rest of your life. Have a safe and successful deer hunt.

Sincerely,
Homer E. Moe
Hunter Education Administrator

P.S. The most dangerous part of deer hunting is on the highway traveling to and from your hunting area. Please be careful out there. Thank you.

FFA Record Book Winners for First Quarter Announced

Students in FFA must maintain a record book dealing with their SOEP (Supervised Occupational Experience Program). Each member is given a record book that has different pages to fill out. Income and expense are the most important pages. Keeping accurate records on what they spend and earn on their SOEP projects is important.

Record books are graded on neatness, completeness of pages, a cover for the book and pictures. The SOEP committee members will then go through every record book and grade them. The committee members are: Renee Kapp - chairperson; Mike Fierke, Scott Volm, Ron Panzer and Bob Friedemann.

This quarter's winners and runners-up are as follows:

- Ag. 1 - Curtis Arndt - winner - Mike Ruplinger.
- Ag. 2 - Mike Yahr - winner - Dave Steger.
- Ag. 3 - Bob Friedemann - winner - Richard Wilkens.

CONGRATULATIONS to the winners, and hopefully everyone will have an excellent record book by the end of the year.

Fond du Lac Plans Santa Claus Parade

Celebrate the traditions of Christmas in Fond du Lac. Enter a Christmas float in the "SANTA CLAUS PARADE," Friday, November 28th at 7:00 p.m.

This annual "day after Thanksgiving" event draws thousands to downtown Fond du Lac to enjoy the sights and sounds of the holiday season. Last year, over 60 units took part with an estimated attendance of 6,000 on hand to enjoy the festivities.

There are 3 theme categories to choose from: tradition, religious and character. Floats, bands, Christmas characters, choirs, carollers are all needed.

If you do not have the personnel or the time to participate, you can elect to sponsor a float. In addition, groups who are assembling floats need garages, flatbeds, trailers and/or wagons.

Call Casey Amrhein at 921-7990 or 923-0157 for more information.

The "SANTA CLAUS PARADE" is sponsored by the Fond du Lac Downtown Council, Forest Mall and KFIZ Radio.

WISCONSIN SKETCHES
By Jim De Lorme

Dangerous Sports
Courtesy of Regal Ware, Inc.

The deer hunting season will soon be in full swing, and if the past is any indicator, there will be a number of hunting accidents before the season ends.

How dangerous is deer hunting as an activity, and how does it compare to the danger of other types of outdoor recreation?

Deer hunting is a highly visible sport. Over 650,000 hunters are concentrated into a short time period, with more emphasis on statistics than on any other outdoor activity. Last year there were eighty-five gunshot accidents in the state. Only thirty-one were part of the deer hunting season, with the rest occurring during small game hunting.

We are just beginning one of the most dangerous of sports - ice fishing. Many ice fishermen go out on their favorite pond in the early or late season with little more than blind faith that the ice will support them.

Boating can be dangerous. Green Bay has been a killer and many people using Lake Winnebago have learned the hard way how quickly that big, shallow pond can turn violent. Last year there were twenty-two boating and drowning deaths in the state, the same number as the previous year.

Hunting with bow and arrow is about as safe a sport as there is. There was only one non-fatal shooting injury during last year's season. But a growing number of archers are injured each year simply by falling out of trees.

Safety training has proven effective in reducing hunting accidents. Since 1967, when hunter safety training became required, 2,200 volunteers have trained nearly 300,000 students. This training has been the most important factor in reducing hunting accidents from a high of 264 in 1966 to a figure below 100 for the last four years. In fact, last season's total of eighty-six hunting accidents is the lowest since the DNR began keeping records in 1951.

Parents of Chapter 1 Students Attend Annual Meeting

On October 13, twenty parents of Chapter I students from Farmington and Kewaskum Schools attended a meeting at the Kewaskum Elementary School which was designed to inform parents of the nature of Chapter I: the program's funding, objectives and means of reaching those objectives.

Mr. Tom Rogers, CESA 6 District Coordinator of Chapter I, told the group that the funding source is the federal government. The money funnels through the Wisconsin DPI, then through CESA 6 to the Kewaskum District to fund the local project. On the local level, the money provided is used for salaries of staff involved and materials of instruction. School districts have the choice of providing special help to small groups of students in the area of reading, language arts, math, or pre-school. The Kewaskum program gives supplemental instruction in language arts and reading with each student receiving about two hours of special instruction per week.

Chapter I teachers, Mrs. Rebecca Swanson of Kewaskum Elementary School, Mrs. Lora Schreiber of Wayne Elementary School, and Mrs. Shary Whitte of Farmington Elementary School, listed the objectives for each group of students and included an explanation and display of materials used in the classrooms. Some examples teachers gave for parents to use at home to help children develop language skills are these: using the library, reading to children, sharing rhymes and poems, playing word games, and discussion of problems/solutions from books, television shows, and the real world. Suggestions were also given for helping students study spelling list words. For example, help them study no more than six words at a time, for no longer than 15 minutes at a sitting so that studying spelling does not become an unpleasant task for them.

The option of a Parent Advisory Council meeting four times a year was discussed and will be decided upon at a later date. Mr. Zarling, principal of the Kewaskum Elementary School, added insight into the way in which such a group would function. Chapter I personnel encouraged parents to continue to share their ideas, concerns, and suggestions on an ongoing basis whether or not a parent council is officially formed at a later date.

Audubon Society Presidents Award To Area Resident

The National Audubon Society presented the distinguished William Dutcher Award last week to Bernice Popelka of West Bend. Popelka is a member of the Kettle Moraine chapter of the National Audubon Society.

The William Dutcher Award is presented every two years for "outstanding service to the Audubon Cause at the regional level." From 28,000 Audubon members throughout the five-state region, Popelka was chosen for her dedication and hard work for conservation, and environmental education.

Popelka organized the chapter's adoption of the Horicon National Wildlife Refuge, to which chapters contribute time and talent, in conjunction with Refuge staff, to help further the goals of the Refuge. In 1983, she originated "Audubon's Corner," a weekly half-hour community access TV program on cable, which is available to 40,000 households. She has helped to preserve native habitats by serving as a leader on the Chiwaukee Prairie Rescue Coalition and on the Purple Loosetrife Task Force. Working with the Fond du Lac County Audubon Society and Horicon National Wildlife Refuge, she helped to arrange an annual educator's workshop, now in its third year.

The William Dutcher Award

was presented on October 11 to Popelka at the Audubon North Midwest Regional Conference, held in Des Moines, Iowa, in front of 150 participants. Only one other Dutcher Award was presented during the Conference. The recipient was William Bryson of Albert Lea, Minnesota.

The president of National Audubon Society, Peter A. Berle, was on hand to witness the presentation of the awards. He later congratulated both Popelka and Bryson on the receipt of the award, and personally thanked them for their contributions to Audubon's conservation efforts.

The award is named for the first president of the National Audubon Society, William Dutcher, who guided the Society's conservation efforts from 1901 to 1920. Dutcher oversaw Audubon's growth from a loose-knit federation to a powerful national society.

Dutcher Award recipients carry on the fine legacy of action begun by William Dutcher 85 years ago.

National Audubon Society's North Midwest Region consists of five states - Iowa, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and Wisconsin - with the Regional Office located in Minneapolis, Minnesota. There are 41 Audubon chapters within the five-state area, with approximately 28,000 members. Nationwide, membership in Audubon exceeds half a million.

National Audubon Society is one of the oldest and most respected conservation organizations in the country. The Society is a powerful force for conservation research, education, and action. The Society's mission is expressed by the Audubon Cause: to conserve plants and animals and their habitats, to further the wise use of land and water, to promote rational energy strategies, to protect life from pollution, and to seek solutions to environmental problems.

Deregulation has now come down to the wire.

On December 1, a small but important change will take place. Deregulation will give you the ownership of your inside phone wires and jacks. This means GTE will no longer be responsible for fixing them.

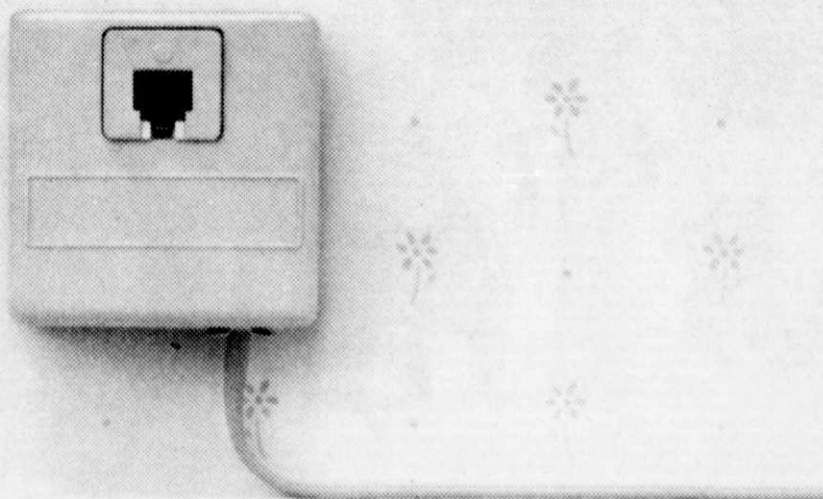

What can go wrong that you might have to repair? Well, humidity can harm wires. A puppy can chew them. A vacuum cleaner could hit and break a jack. Lots of things can happen.

These problems are facing everyone these days. So you're not alone. To help, GTE has set up a jack and inside wire maintenance program which costs only 30¢ a month. To sign up, call your local GTE business office. We're in the white pages.

This inexpensive GTE service contract is worth the peace of mind it provides. Without it, a service call could cost you up to $70. But with our contract, fixing your wire will never come down to costing you a small fortune.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Kewaskum Statesman:

Yes we do have many "real" problems in our society and teen-age pregnancies, teen-age alcoholism and teen-age drug addiction are prevalent.

The peer pressure to be in the "in crowd" has caused many a young person to disregard parental values and follow the crowd. Such was the story presented in the play "Grease."

Anyone who has witnessed the agony and regrets of teens too young to be mothers, or the self hatred and guilt of those who settled their problem by having an abortion, will not find anything amusing about presenting a play which glamorizes pre-marital sex, drinking or harmful drug use.

Why should behavior which is so destructive to young peoples lives be depicted as entertainment?

I do hope that the next play will be chosen with more discretion.

Editor:

I feel the Kewaskum School Board did not take the best interests of the students into consideration in their recent rejection of the co-op programs for the students of Kewaskum High School.

In 1983, I graduated from KHS, and in May of 1987 I will graduate from UW-Whitewater. At the end of my first semester in college, I was fortunate enough to know what direction I wanted my future to take. But for the majority of people at that age, they are quite unsure what they want to do in life.

I've encountered many students who, as juniors in college, still aren't sure what they want to do after graduation. Many take general studies classes for three years because they can't decide what major to choose. Remember, these are juniors in college. Think how many juniors in high school don't know what to do with their futures.

A co-op would benefit students who decide to enter the work force after graduation, as well as students who decide to further their education. For the students who enter the work force after graduation, having participated in a co-op with a local business organization could very well guarantee the student of obtaining a full-time position with that organization. For students who decide to further their education, a co-op will help them determine if they're in the right "area." Not only will these benefits be obtained by the students, but they will also learn the importance of responsibility and gain valuable work experience.

School board - wake up! In less than two short years, a co-op program will be mandatory. How long will Kewaskum remain a follower? When will we be a leader, as we should be?

STUDENTS - SPEAK UP! The school board is making decisions that affect your future, and you have a right to let them know how you feel about those issues.

Finally, rather than worrying about the students receiving one credit or being paid for the co-op, worry about the future of KHS students.

Sincerely,
Mary Paul

To Editor-Kewaskum Statesman
RE: Letter regarding negotiations in Kewaskum School District

Mr. Thomas Brigham
7546 Brookhaven Drive
West Bend, WI 53095

Dear Mr. Brigham:

This round of teacher negotiations involves the future education of the children in your school district as well as the future quality of life in our state and nation, our technological development, and our economic status in the world.

Many studies have highlighted the need to shape public policy which upgrades both the standards of public education and the economic standards of public school teachers. The studies range from the President's own "Nation at Risk" to the recent Carnegie Panel report, "A Nation Prepared: Teachers for the 21st Century." More reports will be forthcoming, surely they will echo the same recommendations.

It appears, however, that the W.A.S.B. effort toward coordinated bargaining (i.e., keeping teacher salary increases to 5% or $1200) has become an obsession which flies in the face of all those recommendations.

These are critical times. The teacher shortage has begun. More and better teachers are needed now; even more and even better teachers will be needed during the next decade. Our children and our society cannot afford to have the best and brightest discouraged from teacher training as they observe the wages and working conditions of Wisconsin's teachers.

We also cannot afford the exodus from Wisconsin as other states continue to increase — even legislate — higher benefits. And most importantly, we cannot afford the low morale of those teachers who, for whatever reasons, must remain in the classrooms of our state.

Last year the Wisconsin Education Association Council (W.E.A.C.) decided to work toward making teaching wages competitive with other jobs requiring Bachelor and Master's degrees in order to get and retain good teachers. We looked at wages of other occupations and determined that a teacher with a Master's Degree and ten years of experience should be able to earn $38,000. We looked at teachers' salaries and saw that achieving the goal in one year would result in a major shock. Therefore, we decided to shape a five-year goal. We used the assumption that average wages in other occupations would increase by 4% a year (an assumption that is proving too conservative). We then ascertained that if we increase the average wage by $3,000 this year and increase that amount cumulatively by 25% we can achieve the goal in terms of comparative future value at the end of the five-year period. The teachers' goal is based on the principle that teachers should have an economic value equivalent to other occupations which require a Bachelor or Master's degree.

The W.E.A.C. slogan that "Wisconsin Teachers Teach the Very Best" is not a hollow one. But, the slogan can very quickly become an empty one if you refuse to take note of the studies and reports which have received national attention. To say that the answers to educational improvement, to establishing socially competitive teacher wages, to meet the looming teacher shortage are to offer the CPI plus 2% insults the intelligence of any thinking person.

We have previously shown that:

1. Teaching salaries are not competitive with other occupations requiring similar education.

2. Teaching salaries in Kewaskum are well below surrounding area comparable schools.

3. Wisconsin teachers are top performers. Wisconsin public school students are number one in the nation in performance on the College-bound ACT and SAT tests. If you check our district scores, you will find that our students are indeed scoring high even among Wisconsin schools!

Teachers want to be prime movers in furthering improvement in education. In fact, teachers in our school district have advanced excellency proposals, have earnestly asked for a responsible role in decision-making, and have participated effectively when the opportunity was provided.

portunity was provided.

We would be remiss to overlook the issue of property tax since it is a continuing issue. Inadequate wages for teachers and starvation of educational programs will not answer the property tax dilemma. Wisconsin ranks 14th from the bottom in terms of state aid to education. Teachers are working to effectuate change in the direction of removing the cost of public education from the property tax rolls.

We must face the issues directly rather than put them off. It costs approximately $30,000 per year to incarcerate, feed, house, and educate a student in a Wisconsin correctional facility. When comparing this expense to the per-pupil cost of education in a more normal environment, one sees the folly of short-term cost-cutting in the perspective of our future status and quality of lifestyle.

Will you, too, address the real challenges facing public education and low teaching wages? We need to work together if we are to continue excellence in education. We need socially responsible solutions for the betterment of society.

GTE-Wisconsin To Reduce Rates

GTE-Wisconsin, following conclusion of its annual financial review by the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, agreed to reduce rates by $5.8 million annually, according to James D. Blanchard, state vice president-general manager, Sun Prairie.

While specific elements of this rate reduction have yet to be determined, the company anticipates this agreement's impact may be reflected in rates for all GTE-provided services.

The company will file its tariff, containing proposed rate revisions, by December 1.

In commenting on the action, Blanchard noted that "our economic climate has changed. Interest and inflation rates have fallen, and this impact on revenues is now being reflected in GTE-Wisconsin rate levels. In addition, GTE-Wisconsin has continued to stress efficiency in its operations, enabling the company to continue providing quality service at less cost."

GTE-Wisconsin has had its current rates in force since December, 1983.

A very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday at the St. Michaels Church, when Miss Elizabeth Schneider and Jacob Schladweiler, both of St. Michaels, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Last Saturday afternoon Rev. Greve united in holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Emma Stark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stark, and Kilian Honeck, both of the Town of Kewaskum.

Wm. Fick of New Fane had the misfortune of having two of his cows shot by some hunter recently. It is queer that these hunters mistake a cow for a rabbit. One of the cows died and the other is not expected to live.

Hot dogs can be frozen for up to two months.

Sensenbrenner Honored for Small Business Support

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Rep. F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr., by voting in favor of American small businesses 71 percent of the time, has earned the "Guardian of Small Business" award from the National Federation of Independent Business.

"Congressman Sensenbrenner has demonstrated his support for the most important segment of our nation's free enterprise system," NFIB President and CEO John Sloan said on announcing the award. "Small business is on the economic cutting edge of America's future and Jim Sensenbrenner's voting record is a tribute to his unswerving dedication to entrepreneurship."

NFIB, the nation's largest organization representing small business, selects the "Guardian" winners on the basis of their favorable votes on issues deemed crucial by its 500,000-plus members across the country. There are 9,381 NFIB members in Wisconsin.

Rated on 17 recorded votes during the 99th Congress, members of the House of Representatives faced a wide range of key small-business issues including: tax reform, balanced budget amendment to the Constitution, repeal of contemporaneous record-keeping requirements for autos use, deficit reduction, and improving access to federal contracts. To qualify for the award, a Member of Congress had to vote favorably on at least 70 percent of the issues rated.

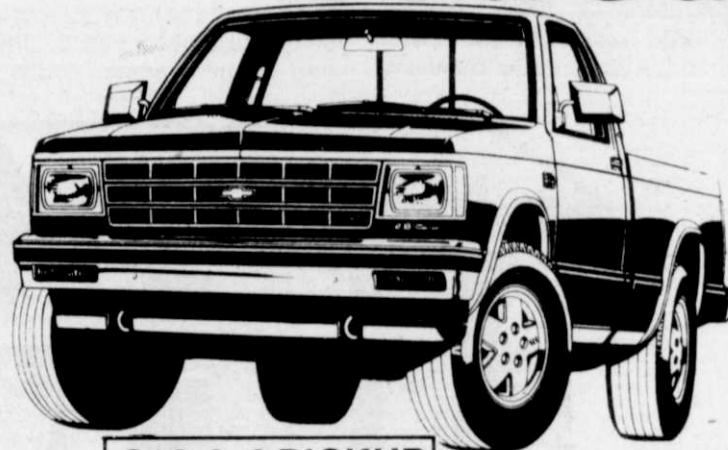

NFIB is a non-profit, non-partisan organization lobbying federal and state lected officials on issues affecting the nation's small businesses. Its more than half-million members come from all segments of American business, from family farmers to neighborhood retailers, from manufacturers to service companies.

Board members present: Kim Peterson, Perry Ankerson, Tom Brigham, Ralph Horner, Clara Trapp, Ron Theusch.
Absent: Jean Goeden.

President Brigham read the two agenda items for the meeting: 1) accepting quotes for property, liability, workmen's compensation, auto and other insurances with selection of carrier for new contract period; 2) Review of censorship of Monday night, June 9, 1986--request of Clara Trapp.

Presentations by Gene Bohn of Kettle Moraine Agency, the District's current carrier, and Dennis Knaack of Wausau Insurance were made to the Board.

Discussion and questions by the Board followed. Mr. Bohn was unable to give a quotation on the Umbrella coverage and Mr. Knaack was unable to give a quotation on the Linebacker.

Discussion followed on the possibility of splitting the coverage between two agencies and/or getting Linebacker coverage elsewhere.

Ankerson/Theusch motion to accept bid from Wausau with the exception of the Linebacker which will remain with current carrier. Motion passed 4-1 with Kim Peterson voting no and Clara Trapp abstaining.

Clara Trapp read a written statement in regard to the censorship of Monday night, June 9, 1986.

Student Representative Craig Hubbell reported that he will be attending the Wisconsin Association of School Counsels Leadership Workshop at UW-Stevens Point at the end of the month and is hopeful that his experiences there will benefit him as he takes on the job of Student Government President in the upcoming school year. The Board wished him well.

Perry Ankerson arrived at 7:15 p.m. Business Manager Cherna Gorder presented the 1986-87 school district budget.

Informative packets were available. Ms. Gorder explained the proposed budget by object, indicating the percent of object increases and decreases as compared to the 1985-86 actual figures. The expenditures for 1985-86 totaled $6,355,336 and the proposed 1986-87 expenditures totaled $6,762,927 which reflects an increase of 6.41%.

The proposed revenue budget was reviewed. The actual 1985-86 revenues were $6,964,176. Proposed revenues for 1986-87 total $6,861,550.

Ms. Gorder continued by presenting the budgeted expenditures as they relate to functions, a format recommended by the D.P.I.

A balance sheet was provided showing all funds as well as the revenues and expenditures. The proposed property tax levy is as follows:

ACTUAL 1985-86
General Fund	$3,993,188
Debt Service Fund	70,223
TOTAL SCHOOL LEVY	$4,063,411

BUDGET 1986-87
General Fund	$4,132,950
Debt Service Fund	67,000
TOTAL SCHOOL LEVY	$4,199,950

The property tax credit will have the following effect on the levy:

ACTUAL 1985-86
Gross Levy	$4,063,411
Less State Property Tax Credit	380,934
Net Levy	$3,682,477
Equalized Value	$277,586,737
Mill Rate	13.27

BUDGET 1986-87
Gross Levy	$4,199,950
Less State Property Tax Credit	506,531
Net Levy	$3,693,419
Equalized Value	$277,586,737
Mill Rate	13.31

Levy results in a .3 of 1% increase.

Ms. Gorder commented on the Legislative Audit Bureau's Report on the District's 1985-86 Budget Report. The actual equalization aid received by Kewaskum was $2,328,236 and the amount budgeted was $2,181,569 for a difference of $1,466,67. This difference resulted from a change in the equalized valuation per member from $266,900 (which was used in our budget calculation) to $271,100 (in an October 1985 estimate by the D.P.I.) to a final figure of $270,100 in June 1986. Ms. Gorder explained that the district is unable to get "concrete" figures for budgeting because the legislature has pushed forward the date to be used for equalized values. Because farmland values are dropping rapidly they wanted to give the agricultural land owners a better deal. So now, instead of using the October equalization figures, they wait and use the June equalization figures. This is reflected in the changes in the figures above.

President Brigham asked for the Board's

Rep. Panzer Selected To Visit USSR for Political Study Tour

State Representative Mary E. Panzer has been selected by the American Council of Young Political Leaders (ACYPL) as a US delegate to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), November 5 - 22, 1986. The delegation is comprised of 14 delegates - 7 Republicans and 7 Democrats - and sponsored by the ACYPL and the Committee of Youth Organizations of the USSR (CYO).

The ACYPL and CYO conducted bi-lateral exchange programs each year from 1971 until 1979. In 1979, the ACYPL-CYO exchanges were interrupted; they resumed in 1984. The ACYPL has hosted 16 CYO delegations bringing over 150 USSR political leaders to the US and sponsored 11 delegations to the USSR in which over 150 Americans participated. The delegations included young political leaders and journalists.

This delegation falls on the heels of a very, successful CYO delegation to the US led by Vladimir Aksyonov, Chairman of the CYO. The US delegates will meet with government and Communist Party leaders in the hopes of reducing tensions and building cooperative relations among the emerging political leaders of the super powers.

The West Bend Republican was first elected to the State Assembly in a 1980 special election and has just won re-election for her fourth full term. In 1985 she was appointed to the Legislature's Joint Finance Committee. She has also served on numerous other committees including Economic Development; Higher and Vocational Education; Joint Committee on Audit; Consumer and Commercial Credit; Tourism and Recreation; Job Creation and International Marketing Development; Financial Institutions; and Government Operations. She has been appointed to Special Legislative Council Committees on Condominium Issues; Ground-water Management; and Correctional Services, Facilities and Systems.

Ms. Panzer earned her B.A. degree at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, is a former banker and state Senate legislative analyst. She is active in the Wisconsin Farm Bureau, New Republican Conference, Order of Women Legislators, PACE, and Business and Professional Women.

Don V. Cogman, President of the ACYPL, stated that "the ACYPL exchanges with the Committee of Youth Organizations of the USSR are vital if the United States and the Soviet Union are ever to come to a lasting and secure relationship. What the President and the General Secretary accomplish at summits must be carried on by the next tier of political leaders in both countries. We are working to make that possible."

IN MEMORY
 In loving memory of Judy Gaffke, who is no longer with us, one year Nov. 24, 1985:

FOOTPRINTS
 I walked the road of sorrow
 A road so dark with care,
 So lonely, I was certain
 That no one else was there.
 But suddenly around me
 Were beams of light, stretched wide;
 And then I saw that someone
 Was turning by my side.
 And when I turned to notice
 The road which I had trod,
 I saw two sets of footprints
 My own...and those of God.
 We miss ya and Love ya!

A meteorite explosion large enough to affect the global climate occurs in the earth's atmosphere about once every 100,000 years, reports International Wildlife magazine. Should a meteorite larger than ½ of a mile in diameter hit the earth, it would send up a great cloud of debris that would alter the climate, possibly producing effects similar to those of a nuclear winter.

Borusky Wins Bill Kulas Award

Pistol Champions Named at West Bend-Barton Clubhouse

The awards banquet held at the WBBSC Clubhouse on Saturday, November 1st, brought the curtain down on the most successful season ever for the West Bend Sportsman Club's pistol league. "We have had more shooters, more matches, more new shooters and more fun than ever," said club spokesman Jim Borusky.

Borusky and Nick Schommer, co-directors for the pistol league, agreed that the relaxed and friendly atmosphere contributed to the increasing popularity of their pistol program. "We had seven shooters who had never shot before, four men and three women," Schommer stated. "I recall when one of the ladies hit 200 for the first time (an excellent score for a novice). She could be heard up and down the firing line," he said.

We had a total of 59 shooters who participated in the spring and fall leagues. Four world class shooters rounded out the field of competitors: Don Dricken, Leo Dricken, John Marth and Dale Fisher.

"Our competition is on a handicap system which enables ordinary shooters to compete against the Drickens and Marths," Borusky stated. "The course of fire that is used in both the spring and fall leagues is the N.R.A. gallery course. The pistol is held in one hand and fired at a distance of 25 yards from the target. This consists of 10 rounds slow fire (10 rounds in 10 minutes); 10 rounds timed fire (5 rounds in 20 seconds + 5 rounds in 20 seconds) and 10 rounds rapid fire (5 rounds in 10 seconds + 5 rounds in 10 seconds). "The greatest number of points that can be scored with one shot is 10. Since a match consists of 30 shots (rounds) the highest possible score is 300. The matches are scored the same as bowling with 200 being a very good score, 270 and above, rare, and 300 perfect," Borusky explained. In the spring league the rim fire division class A: 1st place was won by Stan Walicki with a 281 average; 2nd place, Jim Borusky; 3rd place, Olaf Fuchs; high slow fire, Bob Kranz; high timed fire, Nick Schommer; high rapid fire, Stan Walicki; high match, Ron Muth; and high average; Eric Johanan.

In the rim fire division class B: 1st place, Dick Lewandoski; 2nd place, Gene Urbaniak; 3rd place, Cindy Goetz; high average, Dick Lewandoski; high slow fire, Carol Haupt; high timed fire, Dennis Haupt; high rapid fire, Karl Johanan; and high match score, Mary Schommer.

The handguns used in the rimfire division are either semi-automatics or revolvers. All are .22 rimfires. In the center fire division any center fire revolver or semi-automatic may be used, but by far the most popular caliber is the .38 special.

First place in the spring league center fire division class A was awarded to Stan Walicki; 2nd place, DuWayne Wornandt; 3rd place, Rosemary Herr; high slow fire, Eric Johanan; high timed fire, Ron Muth; high rapid fire, John Mayer; high match score, Nick Schommer.

FALL LEAGUE RESULTS

There were more guns involved in the fall shoot and several of the area's top shooters competed.

In class A center fire: 1st place gold went to Don Dricken with 37 wins and 11 losses; 2nd place silver, Leo Dricken with a record of 35-13; 3rd place bronze, John Marth 33-15; high match, Dale Fisher; high timed fire, Duane Wornandt; high slow fire, Jim Borusky; high rapid fire, Jan Rosenthal, and high average, Ron Muth.

Competition was keenest in the rim fire division where Dale Fisher took the gold with 42 wins, 10 losses; Don Dricken,

ORVILLE KERN, CLERK

Vetter, Felix on All-Conference 2nd Team

Although the Kewaskum girls volleyball team won the regional championship, the sectional championship and placed third in the State Tournament, they finished fourth in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference with a 6-6 record the past season and as a result had no members named to the all-conference team.

However, Kewaskum did have two girls selected on the all-conference second team. They are senior Brenda Vetter and junior Debbie Felix. Coach Dave Rizzardi was not surprised with the selections because of his team's fourth place finish but was somewhat disappointed.

Vetter, who also received second team mention last year, earned the honor. She is a good all-around player, is as good as anybody in the back court, served well and showed much improvement. She had 19 service points, 27 spike kills and nine dunkkills in conference for 55 total points. She missed making the first team by just one vote.

Felix, in her first varsity year, had a powerful serve and because the team is losing seven seniors next year, she will have to be a leader. Rizzardi may change his offense next year to revolve around her in the middle. Debbie had 23 service points, 45 spike kills, fourth high in the conference, and nine block kills for 77 points.

Girls from the top three teams, Two Rivers, New Holstein and Sheboygan Falls, received all of the first team votes. New Holstein had three, sophomore Dee Dee Rose, who was also given honorable mention in All-State balloting, and Kari Mihm and Denise McCage. Two Rivers had one, Linda Kornelly, a senior, who missed being unanimous by just one vote. Sheboygan Falls had two, Shelli Schueffner and Beth Porent.

Letters, Numerals Awarded At KHS Football Banquet

At the season-end banquet, it was reported that the Kewaskum Indians football team, even though they finished the season with just one victory, had achieved some of their goals.

The small Indians were at a great weight disadvantage in almost every game but Coach Fran Charland said they continued to play hard right down through the last game and put out the best effort they could. They played with enthusiasm and never let up. Charland said next year the players will work harder in the weight room and try to do better on their record.

Special awards went to senior fullback/nose guard Mike Coulter, who was selected by his teammates as the MVP. Mark Schlosser and Daryl Landvatter were named co-captains and Rich Straub as most improved. Coulter has been named to the all-Washington County team the last two years and got second team honors on the Eastern Wisconsin all-conference team.

Other letterwinners include: seniors Jess Mueller, Keith Ebert, Rick Krahn and Tom Stollenwerk; juniors Rob Baitinger, Eric Pearson, Mitch Gebheim, Jeff Mueller, Keith Bartelt, Dave Nigh, Ron Leinen, Clarence Fry, Mike Morell, Steve Johnson, Shawn Oresnik, Robbie Hron; and sophomores Mike Heberer, Mike Kawczynski, Chris Charland and Bobby Castro.

The JVs, coached by Clark Pearson, had a successful season. They finished with a 3-5 record but lost one game in triple overtime, another in the last minute and a third by just six points. The sophomore team has good potential.

Members of the JV team, in addition to those who lettered include: Paul Budiak, Ryan Degnitz, Mark Hartman, Scott Krahn, Corey Oppermann, Marty Schulteis, Jeff Taylor, Joel Serwe, Dennis Aupperle and Mike Okuisata. Honorary captions were Heberer and Taylor.

The Indian freshmen, who were 0-6, were at a disadvantage because they do not have a grade school football program like some other schools in the conference. However, they worked hard and did show improvement.

Lomira Bombs Indian Cagers In Opener, 57-36

The Kewaskum Indians opened the 1986-87 basketball season at home Tuesday night in a non-conference game against Lomira and were beaten by the Lions 57-36.

It was a nice opening present for new Lomira coach, Pete Drexler.

The Lions were led by Mike and Murray Luedtke. Murray collected 11 points and 13 rebounds and Mike 11 points and nine rebounds. Kewaskum's Mike Coulter scored a game-high 15 points.

The Indians play non-conference games at Slinger on Friday night and are at home against Campbellsport Tuesday.

The Indians' Jess Mueller, 6-1, 175 pound senior, was selected on the All-County offensive second team as lineman.

Nine-Day Gun Deer Season to Start Saturday

A freshly revamped nine-day, gun deer season will greet Wisconsin hunters starting at 6:30 a.m. Saturday, November 22, 1986, Frank Haberland, Department of Natural Resources wildlife staff specialist said.

The nine-day gun deer season will continue through the close of legal shooting hours on Sunday, November 30.

"The deer season outlook for 1986 is upbeat as we are looking forward to better hunting conditions," Haberland said. "The weather has been dryer so there should be better access to hunting areas and farmers have been able to harvest much more of their standing corn than last season."

Some major changes were made for the 1986 gun deer hunting season with the primary change to a statewide nine-day season framework. This eliminated the two, three and five-day seasons that occurred across southern Wisconsin.

"The most significant change for this year was that southern and southeast Wisconsin changed from a five-day, either sex deer hunt to a nine-day buck plus hunter's choice season," Haberland added. "Hunter's choice permits are needed by any hunter to shoot an antlerless deer anywhere in Wisconsin except for the four Mississippi River block management units 61, 59D, 74A, and 74B."

Those Mississippi River block units will have a two-day, either sex season on opening weekend, followed by seven days of buck only hunting through the season close.

"Statewide, the deer herd is in excellent condition, numbering about 900,000 animals," Haberland added. "The population is down from about one million animals in 1985, but that was a planned reduction as our management is trying to reduce the deer herd in agricultural areas."

In 1985, there were about 670,000 gun deer hunting licenses sold and Haberland expects that a similar number will have been sold for this season. A total of 235,000 hunter's choice permits were issued. This year there were eight management units where hunters received a second, or bonus permit.

The hunter's choice permits in those units will function just like everywhere else in the state, allowing the holder to shoot either a buck or a doe in a designated unit. The second permit, the bonus permit, only can be used to take an antlerless deer in the designated unit.

"Along with a longer deer season for some hunters and published changes in management unit boundaries, this is the first year landowners received preference to get hunter's choice permits," Haberland said. "The first 30 percent of available permits in any given unit were reserved for landowners owning 50 acres or more and living on that property more than 51 percent of the year."

Local deer season information can be obtained from Department District wildlife staff specialists including: Southern District, Madison, Carl Batha, (608) 275-3248; Southeast District, Milwaukee, Tom Smith, (414) 497-4033; West Central District, Eau Claire, Terry Valen, (715) 839-3750; North Central District, Rhineland, Arlyn Loomans, (715) 362-7616; and Northwest District, Spooner, Bruce Moss, (715) 635-4154.

Snowmobiles, ATVs Must Now Display Registration Decal

Owners of snowmobiles and all terrain vehicles (ATVs) are reminded that a recent rule change requires that the registration decal be displayed on the machine before it is put into use.

Gary Homuth, Recreation Vehicle Safety Officer in the Department of Natural Resources, said the only exception is when an individual purchases a new or used machine from a dealer. "In that case," Homuth explained, "the dealer is required to apply for the registration and the owner of the newly acquired snowmobile or ATV can operate it while waiting for the decal to arrive by receiving from the dealer and carrying a copy of the registration application."

He noted, however, that in the case where the machine is purchased from a private party, it may not be operated by the new owner until the registration has been applied for and a decal received and placed on the vehicle. "The supervisor of ATV and snowmobile registrations in the license section of the department advises it will take about one week for the registration to be processed and the decal returned to the new owner."

Applications for registering snowmobiles and ATVs are available from any department office or from your local Conservation Warden.
