Less Stringent Rules Make Recycling More Appealing

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Recycling was again a major topic of discussion at Monday night's village board meeting. And, what the trustees heard from a local recycler has encouraged them to pursue the idea further.

Al Voigt, Town of Kewaskum, addressed the board on recycling and the service he provides to area communities including West Bend and the Town of Trenton. Voigt told the board recent changes in recycling procedures have made it more convenient and easier for people to comply with recycling programs.

Until recently, it was necessary to separate all recyclable materials, and glass into clear, brown and green.

That's no longer necessary, Voigt told the group. Everything that is recyclable can go together. The only requirement is that the glass can not be broken. In fact, said Voigt, all the recyclable materials can be put into the same bag and we will hand sort it when it gets to our place of business. He noted bags worked out better for glass because it had less of a tendency to break compared to when it is dropped into drums or barrels. The only time we have trouble with broken glass in a bag is when one is dropped. Voigt noted he accepted only recyclable materials, all other refuse must be put in other containers.

Charles Boegel, Chairman of the Public Services Committee, asked Voigt what recyclable materials he would take. "We'll pick up just about anything," said Voigt, "from glass to old cars."

"Do we have to take the labels off and flatten the cans?" asked Trustee Richard Schmidt. "No, we have a new shredder," stated Voigt. "All we ask is that all the cans and bottles, both glass and plastic, be rinsed." "What about leaving the covers on soda bottles?" asked Trustee Mary Krueger. "That's fine," noted Voigt, "they're aluminum and we take them off and recycle them, too." He said one

'Thee Avenue' Now Open

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The newest business in Kewaskum, "Thee Avenue," 1139 Fond du Lac Avenue, (formerly Brigadoon) opened Wednesday, providing area residents with another fine restaurant offering a wide and varied menu for dining.

The property was purchased earlier this year and, after extensive remodeling, has opened under the management of Bert Eernisse of Newburg.

Eernisse, who formerly managed No-No's in Newburg, said Thee Avenue will feature noon lunches and sandwiches as well as fine evening dining. The menu will offer several steak selections, BBQ Ribs, Chicken and Gulf Shrimp. There will be a daily fresh fish offering along with other daily specials.

Beginning this Sunday, people will be able to come in and enjoy a Sunday brunch. Eernisse said the brunch is not a buffet type breakfast instead, patrons will be able to sit down, be served by a waitress, and order their food as they want it prepared. He noted there would also be specials offered for the brunch such as Eggs Benedict.

We will also have Friday Nite fish fry featuring Baby Pike and Haddock.

The kitchen staff will be headed by Rusty Nusslock, former Corporate Chef of Creative Food Services. Eernisse was also employed by that firm as Manager of the Milwaukee Elks Club.

Eernisse said the restaurant also has a separate room for holiday and private parties. We will be serving seven days a week, and our hours are, weekdays 11:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Saturdays 5:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Sunday brunch 10:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., and regular menu until 9:00 p.m. We will accept reservations, stated the new owner.

Reservations are being accepted for the party room, phone 626-4441. Bert Eernisse, everyone to stop in and meet the staff and try their fine food.

Public Hearing Set for Village's 1988 Budget

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A public hearing for the Village of Kewaskum's proposed 1988 budget has been scheduled for Monday, Nov. 16th.

Administrator Dan Schmidt presented the revised proposal to the village board at its meeting Monday night. It includes all the changes and cuts discussed at the board's last meeting. The new proposal covers a total budget of $1,017,792 for 1988, down $710, or .10% from the 1987 budget of $1,018,502.

Schmidt noted the proposed budget represents a village tax rate increase of 4.3%, from $6.79 for 1987, to $7.08 for 1988. He noted that while the budget itself has gone down, the drop in the village's assessed and equalized valuations, along with lost revenues as a result of the malt house's closing, have caused the increase in the village's portion of the tax rate.

Schmidt told the board that he still did not have all the levy information and he would not know the state tax credit figure until possibly the early part of December. "My ballpark guess," said Schmidt, "is that the village's gross tax levy will be around $26.56 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, down 3.1% from last year's rate of $27.42."

In other business, the board opened bids for the village's 1988 replacement police car. Four bids were received with the apparent low bidder Russ Darrow, Inc., West Bend, on a 1988 Dodge Diplomat at $11,815.75, followed by Royal Ford, West Bend, on a 1988 Ford Crown Victoria at $12,880.25, Honeck Chevrolet, Kewaskum, 1988 Caprice with V-8 engine at $13,100 (alternate bid on Caprice with V-6 engine at $12,750), and Meyer Ford, Campbellsport, 1988 Crown Victoria $13,214. The bids were turned over to Police Chief Don Hlavaty for review. A recommendation will be made at the November 16th meeting.

The Chief also asked the trustees to inspect the area of Fond du Lac Avenue, near the daycare center, to consider moving the 30-mile per hour sign farther north.

Trustee Ken Bonlender, Chairman of the Village Library Board, informed the trustees that issuance of county resident cards has increased from 70 in 1986, to 359 so far, for 1987. It seems that word is finally getting around about using the village's library, he noted.

Trustee Mary Krueger updated the board on the County Incineration proposal. She said the Village of Newburg has now expressed an interest in the plan. Krueger also noted a lawyer had addressed the October committee meeting on the setting up of an Incineration District. "One new thing I learned," said Krueger, "is that an Incineration District can not tax communities to raise money like a Sanitation District."

Krueger said the committee is still looking into hiring a firm to do the feasibility study. She noted it is also looking into getting a grant from the Department of Natural Resources to help defray the study's cost. The grant would reduce the cost from $1.00 to about 50c per head for each resident in a participating municipality. The Committee's next meeting is to be held in December.

The board also issued a proclamation recognizing November 15-21, as American Education Week.

Local Companies Send Hay to Needy Farmers

Dairyland Seed Company and Regal Ware have joined hands to provide two free truckloads of hay to farmers in drought-stricken northwest Wisconsin.

Dairyland President Steven Strachota and Regal Ware President Jim Reigle collaborated to put this program together. The hay was grown and provided by Dairyland Seed. Under the direction of Cy Wietor, Regal Ware provided the trucks and delivered the hay from its Kewaskum location to farmers in northwest Wisconsin.

Northwest Wisconsin was hit by a serious drought this past year. Snowfall for the winter of 1986-87 was well below normal and spring and summer rains were also far below normal. The two farmers who received the hay were Frank Graf of Shell Lake and Wilfred Owen of Frederick.

Area Drivers Involved In Head-On Crash

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Three area drivers were involved in an accident early Tuesday evening which resulted in the head-on collision of two of the vehicles.

According to the preliminary Washington County Sheriff's Department report, David Schultz of 3824 Badger Road, Kewaskum, was traveling south on Highway 45. Approximately one-quarter mile north of Highway V, Schultz unexpectedly encountered the pickup truck of Glenway Backhaus, 4062 Highway 28W, Kewaskum, with a wagon attached, stopped and protruding into the southbound lane of Highway 45.

Schultz swerved to avoid hitting the Backhaus vehicle and collided head-on with a northbound truck being driven by Joseph Schmidt, Route 2, Highway Y, Campbellsport.

Schultz and a passenger in his car, Michelle Muth, 1506 Roosevelt, West Bend, were shaken up. Both were wearing their seatbelts. Schmidt received minor injuries. According to the report, none of the individuals were taken to the hospital.

According to a witness, Backhaus apparently pulled the wagon out of a field and parked crossways protruding partially into the southbound lane as he got out of his truck and walked back to close a fence gate.

The Sheriff's Department spokesperson said the report was incomplete and the accident was still under investigation. No citations, as yet, had been issued.

of the drawbacks of picking up cans had been that they took up so much space. With the shredder, three barrels of cans can be reduced down to one barrel with the shredding. We can get a lot more into a semi making it worthwhile to pick them up.

In discussing leaving covers on containers, Voigt noted it was better if they were left on, especially on the plastic oil bottles. "That keeps the oil from contaminating everything else. And as far as plastic, we've recently worked out an arrangement whereby our purchaser will accept all colors of plastic, from the colored soda bottles to the red and blue milk covers, without having to sort it. We're paid slightly less, but it really has cut down on the sorting time."

"I think this is what people want to know," said Trustee Schmidt, "and if they don't have to mess around separating everything, so much the better." The easier it is, the more likely the chances are you'll have the people doing it. We know it's the up and coming thing, we just have to decide which way to go."

Voigt also told the board about the pickup routes he has in West Bend. "We pick up twice a month," he noted, "and we've cut their garbage by over half." Administrator Dan Schmidt asked Voigt, "If we set up a route, could you work up a quote?" Schmidt noted if the village has to pay someone to man a drop site, it might be better to look at curbside pickup. Voigt thought, because of the short haul to his operation, it would be no problem and he agreed to meet with Schmidt and Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo to work out a route and a quote.

Voigt informed the board that quite a few people from the village were already bringing their recyclable materials to him. "How many, 20, 30?" asked Boegel. "At least that many, including Holy Trinity School," said Voigt. "People from the Town of Wayne have also begun to bring their recyclables to me since the township began its new refuse program. They rather bring it to me than pay for each bag of refuse they deposit in the town's dumpster."

Schmidt said he would have a meeting with Bilgo and Voigt and bring the information back to the board.

Peace U.C.C. Hosts Sunday Service Program Featuring Mary Mack

Peace United Church of Christ in Kewaskum hosted a Sunday service and program featuring Mary Mack on November 1.

Mrs. Mack presented the sermon-message at the 9:30 a.m. service with Rev. James Bettin, pastor of Peace Church, acting as liturgist.

Her words had a mission-centered theme, featuring facts and feelings concerning her 1986 trip to observe, first-hand, the program and plight of the United Church in the Philippines.

This ecumenical group of Protestant churches works closely with Catholic Christians in an area beset with military and political unrest as well as religious self-help programs, often involving Muslim interaction.

Mary Mack, a full-time member of the UCC Conference Staff in Madison, Wisconsin, as well as a wife and mother of five children, has held her State position for eight years. Her Philippines informational trip was made with ten other UCC denomination members from the United States to help determine the needs and problems of Philippine farmers, fishermen, and factory workers, with a focus on poverty causes, educational needs, and means of the most worthwhile help for these local people.

The group had military guards for all travel, though they slept and ate in the homes of predominately lower and middle income families. They also were able to meet with General Ramos, head of the Philippine Army, as well as local missionaries and teachers. One afternoon was spent with the five Carmelite nuns who had been held as hostages and then released by the Muslims.

Following an all-church noon potluck dinner at Peace Church, Mrs. Mack showed colored slides of her experiences. Philippines handcrafts and informational literature were also displayed.

'Pony Express' to Get Underway At Holy Trinity Church Saturday

THE PONY EXPRESS rider was created by art teacher Sister Janet and the 5th grade students of Holy Trinity.

A second "run of the Pony Express" will get under way Saturday night at the Kewaskum Holy Trinity Church with a "chuckwagon" supper and commissioning ceremony.

An estimated 80 families acting as trail bosses and station agents are expected for the supper briefing.

The Rev. Robert Berghammer, pastor, said parish families on the Pony Express "run" will again relay stewardship saddlebags to gather "estimate of giving" cards.

Saddlebags and run route lists will be handed out at the dinner by Jim Wessing, general manager of the stewardship campaign.

The relay of saddlebags among parishioners will begin later the same evening, he said.

Each saddlebag bears the names of 10 church families. Each family fills in a giving estimate card, seals it in an envelope and inserts it in the bag pouch and then hand-carries the saddlebag to another of the families on the route.

"We're excited because of the enthusiastic reception the Pony Express solicitation system received in our parish last year," he said.

Scouts Spaghetti Dinner Sunday

The Kewaskum Boy Scouts will hold their fourth annual Spaghetti Dinner on November 8 in the cafeteria of Holy Trinity Church. The meal will consist of spaghetti, salad, French bread, beverage and dessert. Please join them and help make their fundraiser a success. Proceeds will go towards Troop activities and equipment.

During October the troop was busy working on merit badges. Firemanship, Emergency Preparedness, First Aid, and Atomic Energy were the badges that were worked on. On Sunday, Dec. 6, the Troop will tour the Point Beach Nuclear Power Plant at Two Rivers.

Calendar for the remainder of the year is as follows:

November 8 — Spaghetti Dinner at Holy Trinity Cafeteria.

December 6 — Trip to Point Beach Nuclear Plant.

December 17 — Court of Honor and Christmas Party.

MARSH - LaCOSSE CORRECTION

In the Marsh - LaCasse engagement in last week's paper, LaCasse was inadvertently misspelled.

He said the program develops a spirit of teamwork, as well as one of competition.

The competition, he said, comes in the eagerness of the trail bosses to see that their run is completed before another's is finished.

"It's good, healthy competition for a good cause," he said.

He said the teamwork is similar to that of the Pony Express riders of a century ago, knowing they can count on the next rider to relay the mail to its next destination.

Each trail boss is responsible for supervision of the relaying of one saddlebag to 10 families. The trail bosses report periodically to station agents.

Trail bosses are Bruce Petri, Sylvester McNamara, Richard Reindl, Andrew Pesch, Evelyn

Sensenbrenner to Seek Sixth Term

Congressman F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr. (R-Menomonee Falls) announced Friday that he would seek a sixth term in the House of Representatives rather than running for the U.S. Senate seat being vacated by U.S. Senator William Proxmire (D-Wisconsin).

The Republican lawmaker said he had decided to seek reelection to the House because he felt he could be more effective representing the people of Wisconsin with his seniority in the House, rather than starting a congressional career anew as a freshman Senator. He also said that the Senate sessions were so long and unproductive that he could accomplish more as Congressman while also spending more time with his family.

Sensenbrenner, 44, and his wife, Cheryl, have two young sons, Jimmy, age 5, and Bobby, age 3.

"By the time the next Senate term expires, my oldest son, Jimmy, will be 13 years old and in junior high school, and Bobby will be almost 11. I want to see them grow up, to mold their personalities and to give them a strong sense of values."

Sensenbrenner has earned a reputation of being more accessible to his constituents than any of his Wisconsin House colleagues. Since he was first elected to Congress in 1978, he has held over 50 open forums, called, "Town Hall Meetings," each year and visited each community in his district four or five times a year.

"I love the people of the Ninth District and to be able to meet with them one-on-one to hear about their stands on the issues, their dreams for the future and their problems with federal agencies," the Menomonee Falls Congressman continued. "I can continue to do that as Congressman and not as Senator."

Pre-Centennial Celebration Held at St. John's U.C.C. of Beechwood

Rev. Charles Koch, guest speaker, taken through the stove pipe hats on the hat rack.

Sunday, Oct. 18, St. John's United Church of Christ, Beechwood, began their centennial year with a pre-centennial celebration. The morning order of worship was based on an old Evangelical Service, from the Evangelical Archives Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Mo. The old fashioned flair was portrayed with all the participants in the service dressed in attire from 100 years ago.

The day began with St. John's organist, Mrs. Carolyn Beimborn, playing the prelude on a pump organ. The organ was loaned for the day from Mrs. Bernice Wendell, Boltonville. Mrs. Beimborn alternately played the pump organ and the electric organ throughout the services in the morning and in the afternoon.

The processional hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God," was sung by the congregation. The first three verses were sung in English and the last verse was sung in German.

The Rev. William Kesting, Pastor of St. John's was the liturgist for the morning and the afternoon services.

St. John's Sunday School

sang two songs, "Beautiful the Little Hands" and "Jesus Loves Me."

The Rev. Charles Koch, a son of the congregation, was the morning guest speaker; his message was entitled "A Faith for Tomorrow, Today." Rev. Koch presently serves St. Paul's UCC, Sheboygan.

Special greetings were given by the Rev. Robert Horst, Pastor of the United Church of Christ Southeast Association of the Wisconsin Conference.

Offering was taken with the "Klingelbeutel," loaned from St. John's Lutheran Church, Sherman Center.

Recognition was given to the elder members of St. John's. Those recognized were: Mrs. Alma Kraemer, our oldest member; Mrs. Marie Krahn, Mrs. Clara Reed, Mrs. Lorena Stahl, Mrs. Viola Gessner, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sauter, Mr. Marvin Trapp, and Mr. Lloyd Reysen.

The joint choir of St. John's UCC, Beechwood, St. John's UCC, Boltonville, and St. Paul's UCC, Silver Creek, sang two anthems, "Praise be to God" and "Glorify His Name."

The congregation sang "Just

As I Am" during the altar Holy Communion.

The benediction was given in German and then in English by the Rev. Elmer Becker, former pastor of St. John's, and presently living in Sheboygan.

A potluck luncheon was served in the church basement by the ladies.

Horse drawn hay rides were provided by Lewis Schmidt of rural Kewaskum during the noon hour.

The beautiful anniversary quilt is displayed in the church. Each family in the congregation made a block in the quilt. The quilt was hand sewn by our members, Mrs. Elizabeth Werbecke.

A sign commemorating our centennial is outside in front of the church. This lovely sign was painted by our member, Mrs. Louise Hafermann, and will be on display throughout October, 1988.

The afternoon service began at 1:30 p.m. Special music, "I Love to Tell the Story" was by the Kraemer family in honor of their grandmother and great-grandmother, Mrs. Alma Kraemer.

The message, "The Household of God," was given by another son of the congregation, the Rev. Wade Schimmel. He is presently serving St. Paul's UCC, New Bremen, Ohio.

This service was followed by a program entitled "A Glimpse of our Churches Beginning." The scenes were created from the history of St. John's and were given by the members. The author and narrator was Mrs. Joyce Gerlach. "Preparation for the Building of a Church" by the men, "Early Sunday School Scene" and a song "Sunshine in My Soul" by the Sunday School, "Pioneering Days of St. John's Guild" by the Women's Guild, and "Sadie's Dream" was by the youth.

The closing hymn "The Churches One Foundation" and a benediction concluded the days services.

The youth sold ice cream and orange drink while the people fellowshiped to conclude the day's events.

Other activities will be throughout the year. The grand finale of the Centennial will be October 16, 1988.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Readers of
Letters to the Editor:

As many of you readers know, our family's lives changed drastically in May. My husband's stock car accident caused me to put all my time and efforts into our business and family. In my past letters in this column, you know our family received many calls of concern and well wishes. It sure made our family feel good and we needed that support. We have also been very pleased with the warm and positive attitudes we have received from people of this community.

Willie is progressing very well and it's just a matter of time that the doctors say he should make a full recovery. His eye sight and stamina are still hindering him in his efforts to get back to a regular routine.

Now, I find myself having some free time! The last 10 years, I put my energies to work for this school district. My main goals, as a board member, was to see that all the children of our district received the best education possible, and to try to achieve it by the best cost of tax dollars.

I attended the last school board meeting and policy committee meeting. I was appalled at how much tension was in the air. One could feel the vindictiveness and hatred in the hearts of some board members. Some of these members couldn't even speak socially to the administration or the public. They continue to carry the "big chip on their shoulders" that hinders them from really doing the job they were elected to do.

It's a shame that you as parents/voters or taxpayers can not be made aware of the dissent that the people you voted for have caused except by attending every committee or board meeting.

These same people want to reopen Beechwood at a cost to you taxpayers of approximately $120,000.00. The lawyer fees continue to rise as some members extend their vindictive efforts.

People have asked me if I'm glad I'm not on the board. On or off...I'm still frustrated and embarrassed as I read the articles in the newspapers. You voters have had a misjustice done to you through your honesty and trust in candidates' statements on certain issues. These board members' integrities are on the line!

Since I'm not sure I'll be able to become as active as I once was, I just wanted you residents of the Kewaskum School District to look at the agenda items. It's important for you, you do have a "costly interest," to know how these board members vote on key issues dealing with ethics, responsibilities and our tax dollars.

Let's try to bring a positive progressive feeling to this District again.

Thank You - As a person who enjoyed being involved for the children's sake.

Dear Editor:

I concur totally with Perry Ankerson's request that Clara Trapp resign from the Kewaskum School District's Board of Education. The conflict of interest principal obviously exists in this situation. (Trapp/Kleinhaus lawsuit) It would be ludicrous to think that Mrs. Trapp could objectively vote when the outcome will serve in possible monetary gain for her. As Mr. Ankerson stated, if she abstains on votes relating to the lawsuit, it leaves only 6 members of the Board to vote. This defeats the purpose of the uneven number of members on the Board so ties (which effectively defeats motion) can be eliminated. Since no one knows the length of time the suit will take, there is the potential for a serious handicap to the progress of the important business of the Board. If the Board truly feels responsible to the people of the District, they should join Ankerson in asking for Mrs. Trapp's resignation.

I highly object to the political maneuvering that took place at the October 19 Board meeting regarding the placement on the agenda, discussion of the above mentioned lawsuit. Mr. Ankerson's reasons to have this discussed in open meeting were certainly valid. The Board would be seriously remiss if they had not allowed Mr. Ankerson to address the issue and it must at a future meeting address the ramifications that potentially exist and the ethics questions relative to the situation. I can only think of the past years, remembering majority Board member's behavior as members of the audience at Board meetings. Had this political maneuvering taken place then, they would have been the most vocal crying, "foul play," or "this is cut and dried." Now that they are in the position of power, anything goes.

I feel Clara Trapp is a very self-serving person who carries personal grudges and vindictiveness to the limit. She certainly is not considerate of the school district by being party to a lawsuit against the Administrator while she serves on the Board. If there has been harassment, Mrs. Trapp is not completely innocent. She has publicly insinuated many times that the Administration is not truthful and is not carrying out it's duties properly (without concrete proof by the way.) Ms. Kleinhaus was not here for even three weeks when Mrs. Trapp went to Deerfield to investigate her personal life. (Trapp did this to John Long too.) And recently when Mrs. Trapp neglected to deposit a check for over $1 million dollars which cost the district over $1000 in lost interest, she had the audacity to blame the Administration. I could go on and on...It seems to me the kettle is calling the stove "black." Mrs. Trapp has a few ghosts in her closet and this school district cannot tolerate her "Wild West Justice" mentality.

Her antics could be funny if one did not consider the negative effect all this has had on the morale of the administration, administrative staff, teachers and the creation of the "who'd dare challenge Clara," attitude in the public sector.

I question her qualifications to serve on the Board of Education. She does not comprehend much of the business discussion and has neglected her duty by abstaining on at least 15 votes. When she was elected I thought perhaps some positive things might come of it, she'll have to put her vote where her mouth is. But she doesn't always vote; so she doesn't have to be accountable. Her foul language and lack of temper control do not create a positive atmosphere at meetings.

Clara campaigned to save the district money, to emphasize the basics in education and to bring unity to the Board. Has she achieved any of these? Instead the district is defending itself in lawsuits (the present one and the Beechwood School case) as well as paying attorney fees to referee the Board, Administration and the public at meetings etc. The "basics in education" appear to mean reopening Beechwood at a human and dollar cost too high to count. As far as unity on the Board, Clara has created further dissention greater than has ever existed.

People of the district, speak out now, so this negative hostile behavior doesn't continue to ruin the reputation of the District and deter the important work the Board and Administration has, and that is to educate our precious children.

Over the years, Mrs. Trapp's shenanigans have cost this district a considerable amount of money in attorney's fees and lost time. We have had enough! Mrs. Trapp, if you really care about the school district, RESIGN!

Dear Mr. Harbeck:

As you may have learned through recent wire service stories from Washington, D.C., the United States Department of Agriculture has issued a labeling recall of two products developed by Norden Laboratories for use in vaccinating dogs and cats against rabies. Marketed under the brand names Rabguard - TC and Endurall - K, the products were approved in 1985 for Subcutaneous Injection (just under the skin) in addition to Intramuscular Injection which had been the only accepted procedure prior to that time.

Follow-up study by Norden Laboratories and the USDA produced evidence that the vaccines were not entirely effective when administered subcutaneously, and that dogs and cats which had been vaccinated in that manner may not be protected against the deadly and incurable disease of rabies.

The Milwaukee Veterinary Medical Association feels compelled to alert the community to the serious potential danger which this situation creates, and to ask all pet owners whose animals are allowed to roam free or are otherwise at risk of contracting rabies to double check with their veterinarians to be certain that their pets are effectively protected.

Dr. David K. Rosen, President of the MVMA, has issued a statement to all of the Association's members, urging their utmost diligence in attempting to contact all owners of animals which have been vaccinated against rabies by the Subcutaneous Method with these products. MVMA members will be telephoning and mailing communications to their patients' owners as soon as possible, and special arrangements will be made to revaccinate those animals which are affected by the recall. Americans are a mobile society, however, and it is unrealistic to expect that every single animal affected will be accounted for.

Therefore, we are turning to our friends in the news media to help US communicate vital information about this matter to the public. Approximately 350,000 dogs and cats live with people in the Greater Milwaukee Area, and Norden Laboratories produces one-third of the vaccine substances used to immunize them against rabies. A very large number of animals may be involved in this recall, and the protection of both human and animal health is at stake.

The State of Wisconsin considers dogs and cats inoculated by the Subcutaneous Method with Rabguard - TC or Endurall - K to be non-vaccinated, and Wisconsin law requires non-vaccinated animals exposed to rabies to be quarantined for 180 days at a location other than the owner's premises. The burdensome expense of a quarantine and an extremely dangerous health hazard can be avoided by prompt revaccination before such exposure can occur.

We thank you for your help.

Very Sincerely Yours,

Salem United Church of Christ at Wayne raised over $1,850 for the 1987 Washington County CROP walk this month. A total of 27 walkers had secured 417 sponsor-pledges.

Those members with the most sponsors were: Phyllis Faber with 50 sponsors, Claudette Anderson with 38 sponsors, Trudy Staskal with 34 sponsors, Sue Maschmeier with 27 sponsors, Carol Maul with 27 sponsors, Jason Coulter with 23 sponsors. Five members deserve special recognition for the money they raised individually:

Phyllis Faber raised $229.00, Sue Maschmeier raised $220.00, Trudy Staskal raised $166.50, Carol Maul raised $115.50, Claudette Anderson raised $105.00.

CROP walk is a special annual program of Church World Service, an interdenominational church program specializing in hunger relief and emergency help in time of disasters. In Washington County, one-quarter of the money raised is retained for the West Bend Food Pantry serving emergency food needs for residents of the County.

Monty, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrsk, Route 2, Kewaskum, was struck by an auto on First Street, about 25 feet west of the Bilgo Lane crosswalk on Tuesday while out with a group of children on Halloween "trick or treat" night. The driver told Chief of Police Roland Pledl that the boy darted out into the street directly in front of her car. He was wearing a mask and dark clothing and she was unable to see him in time to avoid striking the boy. Monty escaped with a bump on the head and was back in school Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bohn of Kewaskum, have opened a liquor store in the theatre building on Fond du Lac Avenue in that part of the building formerly occupied by Jack's Appliance. The business will be known as the Kewaskum Liquor Mart and opened for business on November 2.

August E. Koch, long time resident of Kewaskum, has been appointed a registered representative for Link, Gorman, Peck and Co., a Chicago investment house.

After apparently having the "wind knocked out of him" during wind practice last Wednesday, Allen Bingen, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bingen of Route 2, Campbellsport, a KHS student, was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in the Kewaskum firemen's ambulance when his condition became worse. Examination revealed that the youth had suffered a ruptured kidney, which necessitated immediate surgery.

Frater Elroy Pesch, OFM Cap., son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Pesch, Sr., of Route 2, Campbellsport, had a big day of fishing on a recent Monday when he caught a 30 1/2 inch northern in the morning and a 38 inch muskie in the afternoon.

Holy Trinity Church in Kewaskum, was the scene of a wedding ceremony on October 27, when Miss Sharon Lee Danielson became the bride of Richard Puder Puerling. The Rev. John T. Budde married the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Danielson of Campbellsport to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Puerling of Kewaskum.

A Kewaskum was born to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kittleson, Kewaskum, on October 27. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Felten, Route 1, Kewaskum, on October 28, and to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voge, Kewaskum, on October 31.

Allen Klein and Ed. Fickler of Kewaskum were injured October 22 when they were struck by a hit and run driver while fixing their automobile in the village of Waubeka. Klein had parked along the edge of the road as a result of engine trouble when an unknown driver crashed into the left front side of his car and kept on going instead of stopping. See if anyone had been injured. The men had been standing alongside their car and when the accident occurred they were wedged between the two machines. The injured were taken to a physician's office in Waubeka where Klein was treated for a broken leg and Fickler for a cut ankle.

Four cottages on the southeast side of Forest Lake, located several miles northeast of Kewaskum, were broken into by a party of five during the last week. F. E. Colvin of this village who has two cottages on the lake informs us that both of his were entered. Not only were the buildings entered, but the padlocks were broken, the doors were damaged and the furniture was turned topsy turvy and strewn about, the interior also being damaged. However, no articles were stolen from the summer homes.

Paul Kral, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kral, of this village, and one of Kewaskum High School's athletic stars, sustained a fracture of the small bone in his left leg about one inch above the ankle October 29. The mishap occurred while Paul was playing football on the school campus prior to the beginning of classes in the morning. Running with the ball, he stepped on a stone and fell, breaking the bone. He was rushed to a physician's office and the bone was set. The injury jinx seems to be trailing the young man, as this was his third injury within the past year. Last winter he suffered a cracked up finger in basketball and last spring was lost to the school's track team with a broken arm. Anyway, he escaped injury in his favorite sport — baseball.

Mrs. William Schaub, Sr., 64, nee Minnie Doms, of the Town of Wayne, passed away on November 3, at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac, following a two days' illness with chronic cholecystitis with myorarditis (gall trouble).

Principal Clifford Rose and Coach Lyle Gibson of the Kewaskum High School took 23 boys, mostly athletes of the school, to Madison last Saturday to witness the Wisconsin-Northwestern Big Ten football game at Camp Randall stadium. Monty, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Belger, Route 2, Kewaskum, was struck by an auto on First Street, about 25 feet west of the Bilgo Lane crosswalk on Tuesday while out with a group of children on Halloween "trick or treat" night. The driver told Chief of Police Roland Pledl that the boy darted out into the street directly in front of her car. He was wearing a mask and dark clothing and she was unable to see him in time to avoid striking the boy. Monty escaped with a bump on the head and was back in school Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bohn of Kewaskum, have opened a liquor store in the theatre building on Fond du Lac Avenue in that part of the building formerly occupied by Jack's Appliance. The business will be known as the Kewaskum Liquor Mart and opened for business on November 2.

August E. Koch, long time resident of Kewaskum, has been appointed a registered representative for Link, Gorman and Co., a Chicago investment house.

After apparently having the "wind knocked out of him" during football practice last Wednesday, Allen Bingen, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bingen of Route 2, Campbellsport, a KHS student, was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in the Kewaskum firemen's ambulance when his condition became worse. Examination revealed that the youth had suffered a ruptured kidney, which necessitated immediate surgery.

Frazer Elroy Pesch, OFM Cap., son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Pesch, Sr., of Route 2, Campbellsport, had a big day of fishing on recent Monday when he caught a 30 1/2 inch northern in the morning and a 38 inch muskie in the afternoon.

Holy Trinity Church in Kewaskum was the scene of a wedding ceremony on October 27, when Miss Sharon Lee Danielson became the bride of Richard Peter Puerling. The Rev. John T. Budde married the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Danielson of Campbellsport to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Puerling of Kewaskum.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Kittleson, Kewaskum, on October 27. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Felten, Route 1, Kewaskum, on October 28, and to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voge, Kewaskum, on October 31.

Allen Klein and Ed. Fickler of Kewaskum were injured October 22 when they were struck by a hit and run driver while fixing their automobile in the village of Waubeka. Klein had parked along the edge of the road as a result of engine trouble when an unknown driver crashed into the left front side of his car and kept on going instead of stopping. See if anyone had been injured. The men had been standing alongside their car and when the accident occurred they were wedged between the two machines. The injured were taken to a physician's office in Waubeka where Klein was treated for a broken leg and Fickler for a cut ankle.

Four cottages on the southeast side of Forest Lake, located several miles northeast of Kewaskum, were broken into by a party of vandals some time last week. F. E. Colvin of this village who has two cottages on the lake informs us that both of his were entered. Not only were the buildings entered, but the padlocks were broken, the doors were damaged and the furniture was turned topsy turvy and strewn about, the interior also being damaged. However, no articles were stolen from the summer homes.

Paul Kral, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kral, of this village, and one of Kewaskum High School's athletic stars, sustained a fracture of the small bone in his left leg about one inch above the ankle October 29. The mishap occurred while Paul was playing football on the school campus prior to the beginning of classes in the morning. Running with the ball, he stepped on a stone and fell, breaking the bone. He was rushed to a physician's office and the bone was set. The injury jinx seems to be trailing the young man, as this was his third injury within the past year. Last winter he suffered a cracked up finger in basketball and last spring was lost to the school's track team with a broken arm. Anyway, he escaped injury in his favorite sport — baseball.

Mrs. William Schaub, Sr., 64, nee Minnie Doms, of the Town of Wayne, passed away on November 3, at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac, following a two days' illness with chronic cholecystitis with myorarditis (gall trouble).

A dance, given for the benefit of the New Fane Public School, will be held at Kolafa's Hall, New Fane on Nov. 7, with music by Al's Melody Kings.

Principal Clifford Rose and Coach Lyle Gibson of the Kewaskum High School took 23 boys, mostly athletes of the school, to Madison last Saturday to witness the Wisconsin-Northwestern Big Ten football game at Camp Randall stadium. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Readers of
Letters to the Editor:

As many of you readers know, our family's lives changed drastically in May. My husband's stock car accident caused me to put all my time and efforts into our business and family. In my past letters in this column, you know our family received many calls of concern and well wishes. It sure made our family feel good and we needed that support. We have also been very pleased with the warm and positive attitudes we have received from people of this community.

Willie is progressing very well and it's just a matter of time that the doctors say he should make a full recovery. His eye sight and stamina are still hindering him in his efforts to get back to a regular routine.

Now, I find myself having some free time! The last 10 years, I put my energies to work for this school district. My main goals, as a board member, was to see that all the children of our district received the best education possible, and to try to achieve it by the best cost of tax dollars.

I attended the last school board meeting and policy committee meeting. I was appalled at how much tension was in the air. One could feel the vindictiveness and hatred in the hearts of some board members. Some of these members couldn't even speak socially to the administration or the public. They continue to carry the "big chip on their shoulders" that hinders them from really doing the job they were elected to do.

It's a shame that you as parents/voters or taxpayers can not be made aware of the dissent that the people you voted for have caused except by attending every committee or board meeting.

These same people want to reopen Beechwood at a cost to you taxpayers of approximately $120,000.00. The lawyer fees continue to rise as some members extend their vindictive efforts.

People have asked me if I'm glad I'm not on the board. On or off...I'm still frustrated and embarrassed as I read the articles in the newspapers. You voters have had a misjustice done to you through your honesty and trust in candidates' statements on certain issues. These board members' integrities are on the line!

Since I'm not sure I'll be able to become as active as I once was, I just wanted you residents of the Kewaskum School District to look at the agenda items. It's important for you, you do have a "costly interest," to know how these board members vote on key issues dealing with ethics, responsibilities and our tax dollars.

Let's try to bring a positive progressive feeling to this District again.

Thank You - As a person who enjoyed being involved for the children's sake.

Dear Editor:

I concur totally with Perry Ankerson's request that Clara Trapp resign from the Kewaskum School District's Board of Education. The conflict of interest principal obviously exists in this situation. (Trapp/Kleinhans lawsuit) It would be ludicrous to think that Mrs. Trapp could objectively vote when the outcome will serve in possible monetary gain for her. As Mr. Ankerson stated, if she abstains on votes relating to the lawsuit, it leaves only 6 members of the Board to vote. This defeats the purpose of the uneven number of members on the Board so ties (which effectively defeats motion) can be eliminated. Since no one knows the length of time the suit will take, there is the potential for a serious handicap to the progress of the important business of the Board. If the Board truly feels responsible to the people of the District, they should join Ankerson in asking for Mrs. Trapp's resignation.

I highly object to the political maneuvering that took place at the October 19 Board meeting regarding the placement on the agenda, discussion of the above mentioned lawsuit. Mr. Ankerson's reasons to have this discussed in open meeting were certainly valid. The Board would be seriously remiss if they had not allowed Mr. Ankerson to address the issue and it must at a future meeting address the ramifications that potentially exist and the ethics questions relative to the situation. I can only think of the past years, remembering majority Board member's behavior as members of the audience at Board meetings. Had this political maneuvering taken place then, they would have been the most vocal crying, "foul play," or "this is cut and dried." Now that they are in the position of power, anything goes.

I feel Clara Trapp is a very self-serving person who carries personal grudges and vindictiveness to the limit. She certainly is not considerate of the school district by being party to a lawsuit against the Administrator while she serves on the Board. If there has been harrassment, Mrs. Trapp is not completely innocent. She has publicly insinuated many times that the Administration is not truthful and is not carrying out it's duties properly (without concrete proof by the way.) Ms. Kleinhans was not here for even three weeks when Mrs. Trapp went to Deerfield to investigate her personal life. (Trapp did this to John Long too.) And recently when Mrs. Trapp neglected to deposit a check for over $1 million dollars which cost the district over $1000 in lost interest, she had the audacity to blame the Administration. I could go on and on....It seems to me the kettle is calling the stove "black." Mrs. Trapp has a few ghosts in her closet and this school district cannot tolerate her "Wild West Justice" mentality.

Her antics could be funny if one did not consider the negative effect all this has had on the morale of the administration, administrative staff, teachers and the creation of the "who'd dare challenge Clara," attitude in the public sector.

I question her qualifications to serve on the Board of Education. She does not comprehend much of the business discussion and has neglected her duty by abstaining on at least 15 votes. When she was elected I thought perhaps some positive things might come of it, she'll have to put her vote where her mouth is. But she doesn't always vote; so she doesn't have to be accountable. Her foul language and lack of temper control do not create a positive atmosphere at meetings.

Clara campaigned to save the district money, to emphasize the basics in education and to bring unity to the Board. Has she achieved any of these? Instead the district is defending itself in lawsuits (the present one and the Beechwood School case) as well as paying attorney fees to referee the Board, Administration and the public at meetings etc. The "basics in education" appear to mean reopening Beechwood at a human and dollar cost too high to count. As far as unity on the Board, Clara has created further dissention greater than has ever existed.

People of the district, speak out now, so this negative hostile behavior doesn't continue to ruin the reputation of the District and deter the important work the Board and Administration has, and that is to educate our precious children.

Over the years, Mrs. Trapp's shenanigans have cost this district a considerable amount of money in attorney's fees and lost time. We have had enough! Mrs. Trapp, if you really care about the school district, RESIGN!

NAME WITHHELD

P.S. I am not signing my name because I do not want to be the victim of Mrs. Trapp's irrational actions.

Mr. William Harbeck
Kewaskum Statesman

Kewaskum, Wisconsin 53040

Dear Mr. Harbeck:

As you may have learned through recent wire service stories from Washington, D.C., the United States Department of Agriculture has issued a labeling recall of two products developed by Norden Laboratories for use in vaccinating dogs and cats against rabies. Marketed under the brand names Rabguard - TC and Endurall - K, the products were approved in 1985 for Subcutaneous Injection (just under the skin) in addition to Intramuscular Injection which had been the only accepted procedure prior to that time.

Follow-up study by Norden Laboratories and the USDA produced evidence that the vaccines were not entirely effective when administered subcutaneously, and that dogs and cats which had been vaccinated in that manner may not be protected against the deadly and incurable disease of rabies.

The Milwaukee Veterinary Medical Association feels compelled to alert the community to the serious potential danger which this situation creates, and to ask all pet owners whose animals are allowed to roam free or are otherwise at risk of contracting rabies to double check with their veterinarians to be certain that their pets are effectively protected.

Dr. David K. Rosen, President of the MVMA, has issued a statement to all of the Association's members, urging their utmost diligence in attempting to contact all owners of animals which have been vaccinated against rabies by the Subcutaneous Method with these products. MVMA members will be telephoning and mailing communications to their patients' owners as soon as possible, and special arrangements will be made to revaccinate those animals which are affected by the recall. Americans are a mobile society, however, and it is unrealistic to expect that every single animal affected will be accounted for.

Therefore, we are turning to our friends in the news media to help US communicate vital information about this matter to the public. Approximately 350,000 dogs and cats live with people in the Greater Milwaukee Area, and Norden Laboratories produces one-third of the vaccine substances used to immunize them against rabies. A very large number of animals may be involved in this recall, and the protection of both human and animal health is at stake.

The State of Wisconsin considers dogs and cats inoculated by the Subcutaneous Method with Rabguard - TC or Endurall - K to be non-vaccinated, and Wisconsin law requires non-vaccinated animals exposed to rabies to be quarantined for 180 days at a location other than the owner's premises. The burdensome expense of a quarantine and an extremely dangerous health hazard can be avoided by prompt revaccination before such exposure can occur.

We thank you for your help.

Very Sincerely Yours,
Patricia D. Sanderson
Public Education Director

Drug, Alcohol Abuse Grants Announced by Governor Thompson

Governor Tommy Thompson this week announced the awarding of $1,590,000 to agencies and organizations in 92 communities to help young people fight alcohol and drug abuse.

Thompson said, "Drug and alcohol abuse costs the people of Wisconsin over $3.6 billion every year in lost productivity, higher taxes, higher welfare costs, higher health care costs and higher prison costs."

"But," Thompson added, "the greatest tragedies are the premature and unnecessary deaths of people. This money will hopefully help many of our young people solve their drug and alcohol abuse problems before it is too late."

The funding is available through the federal Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1986. Sixteen agencies will receive up to $100,000 over a two-year period for special alcohol and drug abuse prevention programs with high risk youth.

Seventy-six communities will receive as much as $2,000 each to sponsor local media campaigns on the dangers of alcohol and drug abuse.

Thompson has also asked the Legislature to approve an additional $6.7 million to fight alcohol and drug abuse in Wisconsin but the proposal did not pass during the October floor period.

The funding included mini grants of $2,000 each to the Council on AODA of Washington County, West Bend; Chemical People Task Force, Fond du Lac; Catholic Social Services, Sheboygan, and Ozaukee Council, Inc., Port Washington.

IRS OFFERS FREE PUBLICATION ON TAX RECORDKEEPING

Good tax records are essential to prepare a complete and accurate income tax return, the Internal Revenue Service says.

To help you determine what records you need, the IRS has produced Publication 552, "Recordkeeping for Individuals and a List of Tax Publications." This free publication will help you determine the types and kinds of records to keep, how to keep records, and how long you should keep those records.

Generally, the IRS recommends that you keep records and receipts for a minimum of three years. However, according to the IRS publication you may want to retain some records indefinitely, such as receipts for home improvements that increase the basis of your home.

Publication 552, is free and can be ordered by calling the IRS toll free telephone number 800 424-3676.

Tax Booklet in Plain Language Offered by IRS

It's not on the best selling book list yet, but with tax time approaching, a new IRS booklet is getting more popular every day. It's called an Explanation of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 for Individuals (Publication 920) and covers just about everything you'll want to know about this far-reaching tax law.

The book has many charts and diagrams to help make the law changes more understandable. One of the most useful, found in the very front of the book, has a comparison of 17 of the most popular tax provisions. At a glance you can see the changes to personal exemptions, the standard deduction, an IRA, and unemployment compensation, just to name a few.

The booklet, and a companion publication dealing with business law changes, is free and the IRS will even pay for the phone call. Call 1-800-424-3676 to order Publication 920, An Explanation of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 for Individuals, and Publication 921, An Explanation of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 for Business.

Reservations Being Accepted for Pabst Theatre Outing

Reservations will be accepted starting Nov. 2 for the UW Center - Washington County's theatre outing to a "A Christmas Carol" at the Pabst Theatre.

Area Scrooge - lovers will travel by chartered bus to Milwaukee on Dec. 12 to see the annual production of the Milwaukee Repertory Theatre. The UWWC Pabst Theatre Committee is sponsoring the trip. The cost for transportation and tickets is $16.

Participants will attend the 5 p.m. performance, leaving the campus at 3:45 p.m. and returning at 8 p.m.

Thirty performances are scheduled at the Pabst from Dec. 3 through 30 of Charles Dickens' successful crusade to revive Christmas.

"A Christmas Carol," written in 1843 when Dickens was 31, was the first in his series "The Christmas Books." According to the program of last year's Rep production, the story "almost single-handedly revived holiday customs" that had fallen into disuse.

In his preface to the series of books, Dickens wrote about what he had intended with "A Christmas Carol." He said, "My purpose was, in a whimsical kind of masquerade justified, to awaken some loving and forbearing thoughts, never out of season in a Christmas land."

The famed English author was born Feb. 7, 1812. He grew up in a family plagued by financial troubles that landed them in debtors prison. Before selling his first writing at age 21, Dickens had achieved success as a shorthand scribe noted for his speed and accuracy.

For more information on the outing or to make reservations, call UWWC 338-5208.

VETERAN'S DAY

The American veteran has earned our gratitude many times over.

They served — as in the words of an inscription on a war memorial in Arlington National Cemetery — "not for fame or reward, not for place, or for rank, not lured by ambition or goaded by necessity, but in simple obedience to duty as they understood it..."

Next November will find us going to the voting booth. Because of our veterans' actions, we can freely step into the voting booth and pull the lever. They have ensured that we can draw that curtain. Today there are over 27 million living veterans. They and more than one million who have died in service have ensured that our personal liberties, such as the right to vote, are protected.

On November 11th, many will march in parades visit national cemeteries, stand before war memorials or attempt to deliver remarks that will do justice to the deeds of both the living and the dead. I urge all Americans to participate, each in his or her own way, in this day of remembrance for America's young people who have dedicated and sacrificed so much.

What we owe these true patriots can never really be repaid, but on Veteran's Day, let us keep them and their efforts in our hearts and minds.

Public Invited to Participate In Human Growth and Development Survey

The Kewaskum School District's Human Growth and Development Committee is distributing a survey asking for the community's input.

In 1985 the Wisconsin Legislature passed the Abortion Prevention and Family Responsibility Act. One of its purposes is to encourage all school boards to make available to pupils, grades K thru 12, instruction in topics related to human growth and development appropriate to their level of understanding. It is to promote the following:

- A. Accurate and comprehensive knowledge in this area
- B. Responsible decision making
- C. Enhance efforts of parents to provide moral guidance to their children.

The school board has appointed an advisory committee which has been meeting since December of 1986. The committee is composed of a cross-section of teachers, clergy, and interested persons in the community.

It is the purpose of this questionnaire/survey to elicit your response in assisting the committee in their task. Copies of the survey appeared in the September School District Newsletter or you may pick up a survey at the High School offices at 1610 Bilgo Lane.

Please return them to the high school or mail them to P.O. Box 37, Kewaskum, WI. 53040, before November 20th. If you have any questions about the survey or the committee, please call co-chairpersons, Ann Enright at 692-2607 or 338-5656 or Carol Martin at 338-3205 or Julie Backus, Director of Instruction, at 626-2178.

The next meeting of the committee is November 25, 1:15 p.m. at the Community Room, Kewaskum Village Hall. The public is welcome to attend.

West Bend Airport Is Set for Reconstruction

Governor Tommy Thompson and Transportation Secretary Ronald Fiedler have given the go-ahead for a $311,400 project to repave the northeast-southwest runway and install new lights at the West Bend Municipal Airport, according to aeronautics officials.

Plans also include installing a new radio for pilot control of the medium intensity runway lights, repaving a taxiway and apron and purchasing an electrical regulator, according to David Johnson, airport development engineer for the Department of Transportation.

"The runway pavement is in very poor condition," Johnson said. "The contractor will recycle the existing pavement and use it as a base for a new surface."

Bids are expected to be opened in February 1988, Johnson said, with construction slated for the following spring.

Federal share of the costs will be 90 percent or $280,260, while the state and West Bend Airport will pick up the balance.

Brandt Wins NNA's 1987 Amos Award

Romain C. Brandt, of Montello, Wis., has been named the winner of National Newspaper Association's 1987 James Amos award.

Drawn by the lure of newspapers all his life, Brandt published a shopper during his college years before entering the Army in 1942, where he edited three ship newspapers.

He spent the years 1945 - 1971 in Frederic, Berlin, Platteville and Plymouth, Wis., working in all aspects of newspapering, and serving as a director of the Wisconsin Press Association from 1958-1960.

He was named manager of WPA in 1973, and in 1975 was named Executive Secretary and Manager. The merger of Wisconsin's weeklies and dailies in 1975 was one of Brandt's most significant accomplishments.

He was chairman twice and on the board of the North Central region of American Newspaper Representatives during his tenure at WNA, and was an active contributing member of Newspaper Association Managers, serving as president in 1982-1983.

He was served on many NNA committees, and has been a member of the membership committee for five years.

Since retiring from WNA with the title of emeritus and a proclamation from the Governor, he has continued to serve NNA by making more than 1000 membership solicitations.

The Amos award was created in 1938 and commemorates a pioneer member of NNA. It was presented at NNA's 102nd annual Convention in Portland, Ore., on Oct. 2, 1987.

Teachers Attend Fall Conference on Foreign Language

"Foreign Language Proficiency: Prospects for the Future" was the theme of the fall conference of the Wisconsin Association of Foreign Language Teachers held in Madison on October 23-24. The conference is one of the largest in the midwest and was attended by over 900 educators.

Government and industry are in need of people who are able to speak foreign languages as well as read and write them. Wisconsin's teachers have been responding to this need and are always seeking ways to improve their methods and techniques.

At the conference teachers could choose from 14 workshops dealing with new approaches to teaching, 30 sessions addressing practical curricular and instructional approaches, 30 special interest sessions, and meetings of the state associations for French, German,

Latin, and Spanish.

Highlights of the conference included the keynote address given by Protase "Woody" Woodford, the Vice President of the Educational Testing Service, and the luncheon speech given by Jacqueline Benevento, the President of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages. Both speakers focused on the future of foreign language instruction for students and teachers.

Area teachers attending this conference included Therese Rosenthal, Patricia Alvarado and Elizabeth Borneman.

Panzer Rips Lottery Bill

State Rep. Mary Panzer (R-West Bend) harshly criticized the lottery legislation which squeaked out of the Joint Committee on Finance Wednesday by a narrow 7-6-3 margin. Rep. Panzer was one of the six committee members of both parties to vote against passage of SB 336.

Rep. Panzer directed the brunt of her criticism toward language which would allow vendors and retailers to engage in promotional advertising of the state lottery. "I was present on the floor of the State Assembly when we debated the establishment of a state lottery," said Panzer, "and the Legislature voted to constitutionally ban promotional advertising of the lottery. It was a long and heated debate but the proponents of the advertising ban won for a very good reason: the people of this state do not want to be subjected to the slick and demeaning lottery advertisements televised in states such as Illinois and New Jersey. The vote to allow promotional advertising by retailers," she said, "thwarts the intent of the Constitution and will allow retailers to engage in any type of advertising for the lottery."

During Wednesday's debate in the Finance Committee, ads such as those run in New Jersey, which target heavy advertising to coincide with the state's issuance of welfare checks, were held up as examples of why the state should not engage in promotional advertising. "What difference does it make," pointed out Panzer, "if the state attempts to take advantage of the people or we allow the private sector to do it? It is naive to assume that if the state only tells people how and where to purchase lottery tickets that individual retailers will follow suit. In this age of sophisticated market research and multi-million dollar advertising campaigns," said Panzer, "we are allowing the least sophisticated in our society to become the prey of unscrupulous advertisers. That is not something the state saw fit to engage in and I believe that the state should not allow the lottery ticket distributors to engage in it either."

The West Bend Republican announced that she will likely introduce amendments on the floor of the Assembly to prevent retailers from promoting the lottery. According to Rep. Panzer, the amendments will be structured in order to protect the rights of free speech and allow retailers to advertise facts about the lottery. Panzer also indicated that she may also attempt to limit the practice of image campaigns for retailers distributing lottery tickets.

Campus Notes

Four seniors from Kewaskum High School were among visitors who attended an Oct. 30 On-Campus Day at the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater.

On-Campus Days give prospective students and their parents an opportunity to learn more about UW-Whitewater. They can visit with students, administrators, and faculty, receive academic counseling and general orientation, and take tours of the campus, including residence halls and classroom buildings. Each academic department has faculty and students available to discuss courses of study.

The visitors included David Harju, 232 S. 12th St., West Bend, who has been accepted for admission to UW-Whitewater's College of Business & Economics; Kristin Vogt, 1914 Trails End La., Kewaskum, who has applied for admission, but has not decided upon a course of study; David Nigh, 355 North Ave., Kewaskum, who is interested in business and art, and Pam Oelhafen, 5908 Butternut Dr., Kewaskum, whose interest is business.

Indians Lose Out; Winner to State Kewaskum Hosts Volleyball Sectional Won by East Troy

A girls' volleyball sectional meet was held at Kewaskum High School, Saturday with four regional winners competing. Besides Kewaskum, (Campbellsport regional champion), other Class B schools participating were East Troy, West Milwaukee and Palmyra.

The meet was won by East Troy, which lost to Kewaskum in the first two games of the opening round. Thus East Troy advances to the State Tournament.

After defeating East Troy to start things out, 15-11 and 15-11, it appeared the Indians might be on their way to their second straight trip to the WIAA State Tournament. But they lost their momentum in dropping three games to Palmyra and in two to West Milwaukee. East Troy fought back to win its last two matches and the title.

Had the Indians beaten

Palmyra in the second match it would have been all over and Kewaskum wouldn't even have had to beat West Milwaukee in the last match.

In the East Troy match, Debbie Felix led her team with 6 spike kills. Along came Jenny Schneider with 19 assists to bring the team back.

In their second round match against Palmyra Kewaskum won the first match 15-5 but lost the other two, 0-15 and 14-16. Schneider paced the team with 30 assists and Felix gave out 7 spike kills.

In the third round the Indians battled West Milwaukee but lost 9-15 and 11-15. Felix blocked 6 spikes and had 5 spike kills. Schneider showed 29 assists.

Kewaskum and West Milwaukee battled hard but East Troy came out on top to win their way to state.

Indian Cagers to Open Season With 9 Returning Lettermen

The Kewaskum Indians' Boy's Basketball team can look to better things in the future with the return of 9 lettermen this year. With the help of a few Juniors and Sophomores, the Indians future looks promising, even after coming off the 1-20 season they had last year.

Returning letterwinners from last year's squad include: seniors Joel Fleury, 6'6" center and 2nd leading scorer and rebounder last year; David Harju, 6 foot forward; Ted Anderson, a 6'4" center; Eric Pearson, a 6'1" forward; Gregg Dean, a 6'2" guard/forward; Rob Baitinger, a 6 foot guard; Steve Johnson, a 6 foot guard/forward; Noel Stollenwerk, a 6 foot guard/forward, and junior Randy Krell, a 6'3" forward who finished the end of the year on varsity. Several other juniors from last year's successful J.V. team and a few sophomores should provide some help on the varsity level. The Indians may also receive help from a few seniors who are out for the sport for the first time.

The Indians will start from scratch after last year's 1-20 season, and that fresh start should help new head coach Dave Wieter in his role of rebuilding the squad. He stresses the importance of working out off-season and his game philosophy is a tough man-to-man defense and he feels that his tough defense will win him more games than a high scoring offense would.

Stressing the point that the Indians are at a disadvantage because of the natural rivalries in the conference and the community pride in those rivalries, Wieter feels that the Eastern Wisconsin Conference is one of the toughest and most competitive ones in the state. As for possible contenders for the upcoming season, Coach Wieter sees Plymouth and Two Rivers as perennial powers that should be tough.

He also commented on the new three-point line that will be installed this year, saying it will have the single biggest impact on high school basketball than any one rule in the past. With no experience with the three-point play, Coach Wieter says he won't know how exactly to attack it, but it will be a factor and rest assured, he says, "If it's there, we'll take it!"

The Indians' first game of the season is Tuesday, Nov. 17, at Lomira. Coach Wieter would also like to invite the community to attend the games this year and support the Indians and cheer them on to a very successful season.

Oelhafen also enclosed a list of the final batting averages in the Northern Division, as well as the team standings, league awards, season awards, all league team awards and players' awards.

Over 80 Hikers Raise Over $2500 For Ice Age Trail

On October 3 over 80 hikers joined in the fundraising hike for the Ice Age Trail in West Bend. It was a beautiful day for the hike. The sun sparkled on the brilliantly colored leaves. The cool air was refreshing for hikers as they walked. The hike was 3, 6, 9, or 12 miles from Paradise Road north through West Bend to Highway D. Lots of beautiful sights to be seen as hikers continued on their way. Joining local hikers were State Senator Donald Stitt and family, State Representative Mary Panzer, Tom Hooper of Contact Six, and Mayor Mike Miller of West Bend.

Hikers in the West Bend area raised over $2500.00. Statewide over 1,000 hikers raised about $30,000.00. This money will now go toward continuing the trail throughout Wisconsin. Easements must be purchased to provide the needed security of the trail across private lands. Contributions to the trail can be made at any time by contacting the Wash/Oz chapter of the Ice Age Trail at 644-8990 or 377-8456.

We would like to thank the people and businesses that helped and contributed to the success of the hike. Legislators on the task force include Rep. Robert M. Thompson (D-Poyntette), Rep. Cathy S. Zeuske (R-Shawano), Rep. Frank Boyle (D-Superior); and Sen. Brian Rude (R-Coon Valley).

The task force is to make recommendations to the Natural Resources Board in 1988. In addition to studying Wisconsin state parks' concessions, the group will look at operations in other states. It will be asked to recommend whether Wisconsin parks should have types of concessions such as cabins, lodges, tent rentals, gift shops, and restaurants, which would be new to state parks here.
