By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kiwanis Club of Kewaskum marked its 40th anniversary September 15, 1947, the date on which the group received its official charter. Last Wednesday evening, the Kiwanians celebrated those forty years of growth and community service with a banquet which highlighted the contributions, of both time and money, that the club and its members have given through those years.

Gene Bohn, president of the Kiwanis Foundation, the group which oversees the club's finances and donations, gave a brief history of the club. Since its beginning, the club has been totally involved with the community sponsoring scouting, Badger Girls and Boys State, Little League, Key Club, AFS, Conservation Recognition programs and awarding scholarships. It has also purchased playground equipment, worked on the Milwaukee River and beach cleanup, and

Father Elroy Pesch Honored

Father Elroy Pesch

Sunday, Nov. 15, marked a special day for Father Elroy Pesch, O.F.M. Cap. as many of his friends from Holy Trinity and St. Bridgets honored him for his more than 19 years of service.

The day began with the 11:00 a.m. Mass at Holy Trinity with Father Pesch saying the Mass and members of his family taking part in the celebration. Father Pesch is the son of Mrs. Theresa Pesch and has three brothers, Harold, Andrew and Kenneth and three sisters, Arlene (Mrs. William Rahlf), Catherine (Mrs. David Carter) and Carol (Mrs. Robert Heller). All were in attendance at the Mass with the exception of Harold who had a previous commitment, also a special service award in his honor.

Father Pesch had a very touching homily with the theme being, "I Don't Know Why God Is So Good To Me," but stressed the point that perhaps it was because he was born in the month of November, a special time of the year.

A delicious pot luck dinner followed the service with several speakers giving words of wisdom, thanks and well wishes to Father Pesch. Rick Heller talked about one of the things he enjoyed most about his uncle. Father Waldkirch had a very inspiring talk and Father Berghammer related the rather humorous facts on just why Father Pesch decided to become a priest.

After the program, refreshments were served in the church hall and many stayed to wish Father Pesch well in the coming years and to thank him for these many years of service to Holy Trinity and St. Bridgets. He received many of his favorite cigars, cash gifts and cards from the people of Holy Trinity and St. Bridgets.

Father Pesch will be spending the next year visiting the Capuchin Houses in California, and Wyoming and will be traveling to Jerusalem in 1988 as his Jubilee Trip. Father Pesch celebrated his First Mass at Holy Trinity on April 21, 1963, and will return to celebrate his 25th Jubilee here on April 24, 1988.

TIME FOR OVERSEAS HOLIDAY MAILING

For those with relatives in the armed services stationed overseas, and those who wish to mail holiday greetings and packages to others living in foreign countries, now is the time to plan for holiday mailings, according to the U.S. Postal Service. The Postal Service recommends anyone who hasn't already mailed their holiday gifts and greetings overseas to use airmail rather than surface.

Safety Tips for The Approaching Holiday Season

Once again Christmas is just around the corner. So we might all enjoy a safe and happy Holiday Season, here are a few things we should all know and remember.

If decorating outdoors with outdoor lighting, make sure to use equipment that is satisfactory to be used outside.

With all decorations it would be a good idea to have them treated with an approved fire retardant. Do not keep trees up too long and make sure they have an adequate water supply. NOTE: According to State Code any place where 20 or more people may assemble it is necessary to have trees and other decorations treated with an approved fire retardant.

Thank You.
Wishing you all
Safe Happy Holidays,
The Kewaskum Fire
Department
Don Ehnert, Chief

After winning regional, district and state competitions, the Kewaskum FFA Ag Mechanics team, consisting of Marty Shaw, Brian Oelhafen and Steve Redig, won the right to compete in national competition, representing the state of Wisconsin, at the annual FFA convention in Kansas City, Mo.

The 60th annual convention was held Nov. 11-14 at H. Roe Bartel Center in downtown Kansas City. This year's convention was the largest attended in the sixty year history, with approximately 25,000 members and advisors in attendance.

The National Ag Mechanics competition consisted of a 90 question written test, thermostat relay assembly, tractor ballasting, farm construction, assembling a small engine and soldering a copper pipe assembly. All areas of competition were timed, which increased the difficulty and were done individually throughout.

The Ag Mechanics contest was held at Fort Osage Voc Tech School in nearby Independence, Missouri. The Firestone Tire and Rubber Company Trust has been the principal sponsor of the contest for the past 16 years.

An award banquet was held Friday, Nov. 13, at the Hyatt Hotel in downtown Kansas City. Final placings and awards were presented by a top executive from Firestone. The Wisconsin team, represented by Kewaskum FFA placed 11th overall, with the highest silver rating. Individually, Steve Redig finished 25th, with a gold award, Marty Shaw and Brian Oelhafen tied for 45th place, and received silver awards. The nation's highest finishing teams were, Missouri, Washington and Nebraska.

Firestone has awarded ten individual scholarships to the top ten individual winners in the nation. Ten future scholarships are available to national contestants and will be awarded at a later date.

The Ag Mechanics team members are all 1987 graduates of KHS, and pursuing related fields. Congratulations to Steve, Marty and Brian!

Roy Esser Receives Honorary American Farmer Degree

Roy Esser, Assistant Principal and former Vo-Ag instructor at Kewaskum High School is shown receiving the Honorary American Farmer Degree. This award was presented at the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, MO, on November 13.

This award is the highest honorary award presented by the FFA and was received by 191 nominees this year.

This was also Mr. Esser's first trip to the National Convention in his 35 years of association with the Wisconsin State Ag Association. The presentation was made by the national FFA officers. Congratulations to a very deserving and dedicated man — Mr. Esser!

OK Raises for School's Non-Union Employees

The Kewaskum School Board approved a wage agreement for the district's non-union employees Monday night. The package covers the Food Service supervisor, Administration office secretary, confidential secretary and book-keeper-accountant. The 1987-88 settlement calls for a 4.8% salary increase, with a total package increase of 5.5% including fringe benefits.

The board also approved a architectural contract with Bray and Associates for the Wayne Elementary and Kewaskum Elementary Schools roof project at a cost of $6,300. District Administrator Penny Kleinhans indicated an architect was not required by law, but because of past problems with the Wayne Gym roof, she felt hiring an architect was the route to take in drawing up plans.

Approval was given to allow the High School Swing Choir to travel, by air, to Florida to participate in a festival next spring. Mr. Bertelsen will be in charge. The group will be holding fundraisers to raise the necessary costs of the trip. So far eighteen students have indicated they will participate in the festival.

The Finance-Transportation - Buildings & Grounds Committee was directed to negotiate a bussing contract for 1988-89 with Johnson Bus Service. It was decided not to seek bids for the coming year, however, bids will be requested on future contracts.

After a lengthy discussion the board decided to table action on the board's goals for 1987-88. Kleinhans noted the district is already working on several items including curriculum and a summer school program. Board member Donald Nowak indicated he would like to see a revamping of the district's athletic program. Kleinhans also felt some of the board's goals could be combined.

The board accepted the resignation of David Wieter as high school guidance counselor and high school boys basketball coach. The board approved the appointments of Dale Schatz KHS boys basketball coach, Wes Gaedtke J.V. coach, Jim Westphal frosh coach, Clark Pearson eighth grade coach and Dennis Reha seventh grade boys basketball coach.

Mrs. Lazarevic was granted maternity leave.

Kleinhans advised the board that the Gundrum land transfer appeal hearing has been scheduled for December 9th before the State Boundary Appeals Board in Madison.

Teofilo - Dreher

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald D. Teofilo of 914 High Street, West Bend, are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter Julie Marie, to Thomas Allen Dreher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dreher of Hwy. G., West Bend.

Julie is a 1982 graduate of

Seek 'Missing' Kewaskum Graduates Of UW-Whitewater

Does Kewaskum have any graduates of UW-Whitewater who are "missing in action?"

Kay Woit is fairly sure of it. She thinks some of the 7,000 Whitewater alumni who have lost contact with their alma mater have Kewaskum addresses.

"We do know of 15 residents of Kewaskum who hold degrees from UW-Whitewater," said Woit, the assistant chancellor for University Relations. "We have their addresses and we keep in touch through our alumni mailings. But we want to re-open the lines of communication with all of the others if possible."

Woit said eight Whitewater graduates also live in Allenton.

Woit said losing track of alumni is nothing unusual for colleges and universities.

"People may have moved up to a dozen times since graduation," she explained. "In our mobile society, it's easy to lose touch. Our goal is to locate as many of the 7,000 as we can during the current school year."

Alumni of UW-Whitewater who haven't been contacted recently may be among the "missing in action," said Woit. She invites them to write her at the Alumni Center or to call her at (414) 472-1105.

"There are no dues and no obligations for our graduates to worry about," said Woit. "In fact, they receive three free issues of our alumni magazine each year."

"Even for our recent graduates, there's plenty of news to catch up on," she added. "We'd be delighted to add even more names and addresses to our list of 29,000 graduates. We just need people to let us know where they are, including those living in the Kewaskum area."

West Bend East High School and is a 1985 graduate of Moraine Park Technical College (M.P.T.C.), where she received an Associate Degree in Registered Nursing. She is a Registered Nurse in the Obstetrical Department at St. Luke's Hospital, Milwaukee.

Tom graduated in 1983 from West Bend West High School, and attended Moraine Park Technical College (M.P.T.C.), working towards a degree in accounting. He is currently employed at Lloyd Hamm Inc., as a machinery Operator.

Plans for a July 23, 1988 wedding are being made by the couple.

Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation Candidate Chosen

John Hazlewood, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hazlewood, 1093 Fairfield Ct., West Bend, has been chosen to represent Kewaskum's sophomore class at the Hugh O'Brian (HOBY) Leadership Seminar which will be held this spring. Last year more than 10,100 sophomores, nominated to represent their schools, attended all expense paid Hugh O'Brian Leadership seminars in all 50 states and more than 20 other countries.

John was selected to represent his class of 141 sophomores at Kewaskum High School not only on his scholastic record, but also his outstanding leadership ability and his incentive to help others.

The Hugh O'Brian Foundation was established in 1958 to recognize and reward leadership potential in high school sophomores. While John attends the three day weekend workshops this spring, he and over 10,100 young people will explore the topic "America's Incentive System." The format for these workshops involves bringing together a select group of high school sophomores with demonstrated leadership qualities and a group of distinguished leaders in business, education, government and the professions. Through informal discussions the young people get a realistic look at what makes America great and a better understanding of our nation's role in the world community.

At the conclusion of the State Leadership Seminar, one boy and girl will be chosen to represent their state at a week long HOBY International Leadership Seminar coordinated by the University of Denver, Colorado.

As in the past, the Kewaskum Chapter of the Kiwanis organization will sponsor this very worthwhile activity.

Sheboygan, Wis. — The 1988 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" will include the names of 15 students from Lakeland College who have been selected as outstanding national leaders.

The selection of students was based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success. They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Students named this year from Lakeland include Donna Hlavaty, a senior sociology major from Kewaskum, and Pamela Krahn, a senior biology major from Adell.

Mandatory Seat Belt, Drunk Driving Laws Will Take Effect

The Thanksgiving holiday weekend is a good time for dress rehearsal of two new safety laws that are scheduled to go into effect in the upcoming months, say Department of Transportation officials.

Next month, the mandatory seat belt law will take effect and after Jan. 1, those who drive while drunk will get their driver's licenses immediately suspended.

Designed to get drunk drivers off the road sooner, administrative suspension occurs when a driver tests at or over .10 blood/alcohol concentration. The suspension is for 6 months and is separate from the court action on the drunk driving charge.

"If you don't normally wear your seat belts, now is a good time to get used to it," said

Maynard Stoehr, director of the DOT's transportation safety office. "And as always, if you're planning to drink, don't drive."

The DOT also expected a heavy workout for Wisconsin's roads during the holiday season in addition to the Thanksgiving traffic.

"The first snowfall seems to be a Thanksgiving tradition in Wisconsin — it's wise to prepare for snow by making sure your car is equipped with an ice scraper, sand or traction mats, and your snow tires are mounted," Stoehr said.

During the past 10 years, there have been 135 traffic fatalities over the Thanksgiving holiday, averaging more than 13 a year. There were 16 traffic deaths in 1986.

"Remember to drive according to weather conditions, buckle up, don't drink and drive and help reduce this year's fatalities over the holiday weekend," Stoehr said.

'Read Aloud Month' at Schools a Big Success

Kewaskum School correlated with the National November "Read Aloud Month" with various activities. "Read" posters were made in grades K-5 and posted throughout the school buildings.

The National Children's Book Week, November 16-22, was celebrated by promoting a 'READ T-Shirt Day. Kewaskum, Farmington, and Wayne each had a designated day on which to wear a T-shirt with sayings, buttons, or caps. Any child that had the word 'READ' on it received a candy bar. Throughout the K-5 system the total student participation was keen and exciting. There were over 150 students receiving snickers as winners!

Our community businesses shared in promoting this READ ALOUD MONTH activity. Our appreciation goes to Shefond's Gas Station and Sentry Foods of Kewaskum; Barney Strobel's of Wayne, and Kerry's Korner of Farmington, in helping us promote and instill the love and growth of reading among our children.

MAY YOUR Thanksgiving
BE JOYFUL

Count Your Blessings

Throughout the Bible, we are commanded to be thankful. Thankfulness is the natural outflowing of a heart that is attuned to God. A spirit of thanksgiving is always the mark of a joyous christian.

Be thankful for the material blessings God gives you. Some people are never satisfied with what they have. But what a difference it makes when we realize that everything we have has been given to us by God. The Apostle Paul declared, "I have learned the secret of being content in every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or want." A spirit of thankfulness makes all the difference.

Thank God for the people in your life. It is so easy to take other people for granted or to complain and become angry because they do not meet our every wish. But we need to give thanks for those around us, our spouses, our children, our relatives and our friends. Do you go out of your way to let others know you appreciate them and are thankful for them?

Thank God in the midst of trials and even persecution. We draw back from difficulties and yet not one of us is exempt from trouble. Yet in the midst of trials we can thank God because we know he has promised to be with us and He will help us. The Bible says in James 1:2-3 "consider it pure joy my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance."

Thank God especially for His salvation in Jesus Christ. The Bible says that we are separated from God because we have sinned but God loves us. He loves us so much that He gave His one and only son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.

For the Christian every day is Thanksgiving Day, according to Ephesians 5:20, we are always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This message is from the Community Church, West Bend, meeting at Silverbrook Middle School each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. For further information, please call 338-0725.

The Kewaskum School District Weeked American Education Week with an open house on Wednesday. Parents were invited to visit classrooms and join their children for lunch.

As part of Education Week activities, the students held a week-long food collection drive. Non-perishable items were collected at all the schools and taken to the Full Shelf Food Pantry in West Bend. The pantry works with the Washington County Department of Social Services to provide food to needy families.

In addition to the food collected, the Kewaskum Future Farmers of America presented a check for $50.00, to be used by the pantry to purchase more foodstuffs.

Kiwanis Celebrates 40 Years

Lehman "Lem" Rosenheimer led the singing during the Kewaskum Kiwanis 40th Anniversary banquet.

with funds raised from its annual turkey shoot, built the Kewaskum High School tennis courts, purchased a "Jaws Of Life" and rescue sled for the Kewaskum Fire Department.

"Our most ambitious project, however, was the purchase of land which was used to create the Kewaskum Kiwanis Park," said Bohn. "That represented an investment of $75,000 in the community and most recently the club donated an additional $30,000 toward the construction of the park's new shelter, bringing the total donation for the park project to $105,000."

Dr. R. G. Edwards, past president and active charter member, was credited with bringing the idea of an annual turkey shoot as a fundraiser to the club. Bohn told the audience, money raised from this year's shoot, brought the total to $272,000, which the club has raised over the past thirty-five years. Funds which the club has continuously used to help the Kewaskum community. He also thanked Regal Ware, Incorporated for its annual donation of cookware, with proceeds going to the club.

Because of its community involvement, the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club has received Honorable Mention recognition by Kiwanis International. Guest speaker Dick Mortimer, Governor-Elect of the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan Kiwanis District, told the gathering, "I wonder if the people of Kewaskum have ever stopped to realize what this community would be like if there were no Kewaskum Kiwanis. Your club has been recognized for its community service projects. You have served and served well and for that, this is a better community."

Several of the club's past president and charter members reflected back on their association with the club.

The highlight of the evening was special recognition given to L.N. "Pete" Peterson, the club's first president. A short background history of Pete and his forty-year association with the community and club was presented by members and friends. One of the speakers told the gathering, "this club would never have lasted if we had not had one good, one grand member, L.N. Peterson."

Peterson told his fellow members and guests, "We're forty years young, not forty years old. Who thought we would be here today. When we started, the word went around, we'll give them three months, well we're still here."

Through the club's existence Peterson has continued to be an active, driving force. In recognizing his forty years of dedication, the club presented him with a bronze plaque.

Also recognized at the dinner were past presidents and active charter members Dr. Edwards, Edward "Pat" Miller, Marvin Martin and Ernie Mitchell. Marvin Martin was also honored for forty years of perfect meeting attendance and Gene Bohn for twenty-eight years of perfect attendance.

On behalf of the Village of Kewaskum, Board President Paul Blumer presented the club with a proclamation recognizing its 40th anniversary and all its contributions to the community.

"Doc" Edwards gave an emotional speech as he talked of his association with the Kiwanis.

Attorney Leo F. Schlaefer, partner in the West Bend law firm of Schloemer, Schlaefer, Alderson, Seefeldt & Spella, S.C., has formally announced his candidacy for the newly created fourth branch of the Washington County Circuit Court.

A 27 year veteran of private law practice in the Washington County area, Schlaefer points to his broad background of legal experience and his leadership in professional and community organizations as the prime credentials that qualify him for this newly created judicial position.

Schlaefer attended Marquette University and graduated from St. Norbert College. He also graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School prior to beginning a law practice with C. J. Schloemer and present Judge J. Tom Merriam in 1960.

Over his legal career, Schlaefer has experienced a wide variety of professional challenges including work in trial, probate, real estate, family, municipal and criminal law as well as handling workers and unemployment compensation and social security disability claims. He has also been a past president of the Washington County Bar Association, and presently serves on the District 13 Investigative Committee of the State Board of Attorneys Professional Responsibility, which is under the direct supervision of the Wisconsin State Supreme Court. Ladies and Gentlemen:

The author of the following article on the public opinion on AIDS testing is telling you the exact same facts that I wrote to our Senators Bill Proxmire and Bob Kasten and Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner soon after the first reports were announced six years ago, and I have been repeatedly scolding them for their inaction on this most dangerous matter.

It will please me very much if most of your readers will write to each Senator and to their Congressman and state their views. It may help to start some action on their part.

Dear Concerned American,

You are among the first in your area to receive the enclosed Public Opinion Survey on AIDS Testing.

Your Survey has been issued under a special number in your name as a representative of your voting district:

KEWASKUM, WISCONSIN
VOTING DISTRICT #09.

Alarming, an estimated 1.5 MILLION Americans now carry the deadly AIDS virus — maybe more. Worse, most don't even know it!

It's a fact. AIDS is no longer a disease limited to homosexuals and intravenous drug users. Within just the next four years, AIDS could claim 3 TIMES MORE lives of Americans than the death toll of the entire VIETNAM WAR.

And unless we do something to control its spread, experts say the number of those infected could continue to DOUBLE every 12 to 15 months.

As Health and Human Services Secretary, Otis R. Bowen, put it:

"UNLESS PROGRESS IS MADE, A WORLDWIDE AIDS EPIDEMIC WILL DWARF SUCH EARLIER MEDICAL DISASTERS AS THE BLACK PLAGUE, SMALLPOX AND TYPHOID.

But because of intensive pressure from "civil liberties" and homosexual activist groups, our public policy leaders are treating AIDS like a political football...

...rather than working to protect the public majority from the catastrophic health threat which AIDS really is.

Your personal Survey answers can play a major role in the heated debates now going on in Congress over the AIDS Testing issue.

We here at the American Policy Institute (API) have formed the NEW Coalition for Public Health and launched this nationwide opinion-gathering campaign for one reason only:

To give our policy makers in Washington hard evidence about whether or not the majority of Americans believe it's time for mandatory AIDS Testing. After all, we all have our civil rights — the foremost is to life.

Now even if you are undecided about some Survey questions, it's very important you return it right away in the enclosed postage paid envelope.

Our funds are limited, and I could only afford to contact people like you who I thought would be most interested in helping today.

Frankly, I'm outraged our own government would knuckle under to the pressure from these activist groups, and continue to risk our public health for fear of "making waves."

 Especially when you consider that Ward Cates, of the U.S. Centers for Disease Control said, "Anyone who has the least ability to look into the future can already see the potential for this disease being much worse than anything mankind has seen before."

 Especially when you consider AIDS experts say ONE-FOURTH of the world's population may be wiped out by AIDS.

 Especially when you consider the economic disaster which would result from the high cost of treating AIDS. Some experts believe it will bankrupt our health care system if AIDS continues increasing at its present rate.

 Especially when you consider there is no known cure or vaccine for AIDS. Dr. Robert C. Gallo, American co-discoverer of the AIDS virus says, "...a cure is impossible in anyone's lifetime."

Until now U.S. health policy to control dangerous, contagious diseases was to do two things immediately: First, determine who and how many were infected. Second, prevent the spread of the disease to healthy people.

Clearly "gay activist politics" has no place in the AIDS crisis issue. For how can this deadly virus be controlled if we don't even know who has it?

How can we expect AIDS education to be effective when we're not even sure those infected are paying heed? Many experts say we can't.

I personally agree with medical experts who say the only way to control AIDS is to give those people who unknowingly carry the AIDS virus the truth so they can stop spreading it to others.

Can I count on you to return your Survey answers? It's an active way you can personally do something to control the AIDS epidemic.

Unfortunately, a few thousand opinions from concerned people like you will not be enough for our results to have a major impact on Congress.

For our public opinion campaign to be effective, we must reach at least one million other people like yourself with our Survey within the next 30 days.

That's a tall order, but only if we can gather opinions from a massive number of the voting public can we hope to educate our politicians about the true public sentiment on this life-and-death issue.

The American Policy Institute (API) was founded back in 1980. We're a citizen-based organization dedicated to research and education on critical public policy issues facing our country.

And frankly, I can't think of a more important public policy issue facing America today than the AIDS epidemic. That's why we formed our Coalition for Public Health and launched this nationwide campaign.

Yours to protect public health,

Jerry Woodruff

Doyle Esterline of 1217 Meadow Lane, Kewaskum, an employee of Honeck Chevrolet, Inc. was accidentally shot in the legs by another hunter from South Milwaukee while deer hunting in the Tomah area on the opening day of the season Saturday. It was reported that Esterline was struck by the bullet when the other hunter fired at a deer. He was shot in the left thigh, the bullet passing through the flesh and grazing his right leg. The bullet tore a hole in Esterline's leg about the size of a small orange and the wound required the taking of about 100 stitches. Twelve stitches were required to close the gash in his right leg which the shot grazed. Esterline was hunting with two companions when he was struck by the bullet which was fired from an Italian make deer rifle.

In observance of the fifth annual Farm-City Week, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kern and Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Murre of rural Kewaskum were presented the agriculture conservation plaques for their outstanding job in soil conservation by the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club at their meeting Monday evening.

Howard Schmidt, operator of amateur radio station W9DDD in this village, has just received a full confirmation from Dr. L. H. Mrs. Jac. Bruessel, Sr., who resides on a farm in the Town of Kewaskum was severely bitten by one of the hogs on the premises on Thursday of last week while chasing a chicken which had gotten into the pig stable. The hog knocked Mrs. Bruessel down and also trampled on her. Mrs. Bruessel, in attempting to trap the chicken in a corner and return it to its coop, caused the fowl to cry out, which evidently aroused the hog. The hog jumped over a partition and attacked Mrs. Bruessel. It bit her on the hand and above and below one of her knees.

Mrs. Charlotte Backhaus, nee Krueger, passed away at the home of her nephew in the Town of Kewaskum on November 15 after being ill for three weeks.

John Dengel of Campbellsport, a former resident of the Town of Wayne, who resided on the Schield farm three miles west of this village, passed away at his home in the Village of Campbellsport, last Sunday after an 11 days illness with pneumonia.

Mrs. Cecelia Calvey died at her home at Campbellsport Thursday morning while reciting her prayers. As Mrs. Calvey knelt in prayer she was suddenly seized with heart failure and expired before medical aid could reach her. She was 79 years of age.

Last Monday Geo. Rosbeck's strawstack near St. Kilian caught fire. When neighbors arrived on the scene, a bucket brigade was formed and water was constantly poured onto the barn. If the barn would have been destroyed it would have meant a heavy loss for Mr. Rosbeck as all his thrashed grain, hay and corn stalks were stored therein. That the barn was saved is a miracle as at the time of the fire, the wind was from the south, and the strawstack was on the south side of the barn.

Last Tuesday morning the wedding of Miss Katie Berg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Berg, and Mr. Joseph Butchlick, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Butchlick, took place at St.

Pieper Announces Candidacy for Judge of New County Circuit Court Post

Roland L. Pieper

Roland L. Pieper, a Germantown resident and attorney at law, has announced his candidacy to run for Judge of the new Fourth Circuit Court post of Washington County. Pieper, 43, is married with three children. He is the President of the Germantown Board of Education, having served on the board for the past seven years. He has practiced law for fourteen years and has an office in Germantown.

Pieper is a Director of the Germantown Economic Development Corporation, a Director of the Germantown Community Scholarship Fund, an active member in the Germantown Area Chamber of Commerce, the Edger Zimmermann American Legion Post 327, Trustee of St. John's United Church of Christ and member of the Wisconsin and Washington County Bar Associations.

claim a personal exemption for a dependent child who had income exceeding the personal exemption amount, if the dependent child was under age 19 or a full-time student, and the child could also claim a full personal exemption on his or her own return. Beginning in 1987, the child or full-time student can no longer take a personal exemption on his or her own return, even if the parents do not actually claim the exemption.

Although many of the rules that affect the amount of a child's tax have changed, the basic steps for figuring the tax have not changed. However, there are two sets of new rules for computing the amount of income tax for certain children who have investment income. Investment income includes all unearned income, regardless of its source, such as interest, dividends, capital gains, and certain trust income. One set of rules is for children under 14 years of age, while the other is for children 14 years of age and older.

In general, for children over 14 years of age, all investment income is taxed at the child's rate. However, the tax for a child under 14 years of age will be taxed at his or her parent's higher marginal tax rate and will be computed on Form 8615, Computation of Tax for Children Under Age 14 Who Have Investment Income of More than $1,000. Form 8615 must be filed for any child who is under age 14 on December 31, 1987 and who has more than $1,000 of investment income.

Publication 922, Tax Rules for Children and Dependents, contains detailed information and a worksheet to compute the tax. It will be available during the filing season and can be ordered by calling 1-800-424-3676.

TAXATION OF MINORS

Many children and other dependents who never had to file a tax return, may now have to file and pay tax to comply with the new provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

Beginning in 1987, an individual who can be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return must file a tax return if he or she has:

a. Earned income only and the total is more than $2,540.00. Earned income includes wages, salaries, professional fees, and other amounts received as pay for work actually done.

b. Unearned income only and the total is more than $500.00. Unearned income is income such as interest, dividends, capital gains as well as distributions of interest, dividends, capital gains and other unearned income to an individual who is a beneficiary of a trust.

c. Both earned and unearned income totaling more than $500.00.

The standard deduction for an individual who can be claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return is generally limited to the greater of $500.00 or the dependent's earned income up to the standard deduction amount of $2,540.

Improperly Abandoned Wells - Safety Hazard

Unused and improperly abandoned wells in Wisconsin pose safety hazards for small children and are a threat to groundwater quality, according to the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources.

"Wisconsin undoubtedly has many improperly abandoned wells similar to the Midland, Texas well that Jessica McClure fell into," said Thomas Riewe, Wisconsin DNR hydrogeologist.

Wisconsin law requires all unused wells to be properly sealed. There are an estimated 750,000 wells in use in Wisconsin and, according to Riewe, possibly another 500,000 unused wells are located in rural and urban areas throughout the state.

"Well owners are often reluctant to fill and seal old wells 'just in case' they may need to use them again," Riewe said. "However, our records show that old wells are seldom put back in service. These old wells deteriorate, presenting substantial threats to Wisconsin's groundwater and drinking water quality and occasionally present safety threats to people."

Property owner should check to make sure all unused wells are properly filled with cement. Wells presently in use should also be checked to make sure they are safely capped and all screws are tightened.

Unless properly trained, property owners who have an improperly abandoned well should not attempt to seal the well themselves. Riewe recommends that people contact a licensed well driller or pump installer to seal the well.

Today most drilled wells are a standard six inches in diameter and normally don't present a human safety problem, according to Riewe, but still can threaten groundwater quality. Older wells usually vary in diameter from four to eight inches; the infant in Texas fell into an eight-inch diameter well. Posing a greater threat to safety, Wisconsin also has abandoned dug wells that can be from two to three feet in diameter, and abandoned irrigation wells from 16 to 18 inches in diameter.

The DNR has emphasized the importance of properly sealing abandoned wells for 50 years. Because of pressing demands dealing with unsafe drinking water and groundwater contamination cases, the department water supply field staff can't actively search for abandoned wells. However, Riewe pointed out that personnel regularly identify abandoned wells during their spot checks of new wells and investigations of water contamination complaints.

Counties now have the opportunity to join with state officials to help identify and fill improperly abandoned wells through the voluntary County Delegation Program. The program allows counties to share responsibility with the DNR for properly locating new wells and filling unused wells. Presently only six counties - Washington, Waukesha, Dane, Eau Claire, Chippewa and La Crosse - are participating in the program.

FARM-CITY

Food is not only one of the basic needs of all humans, it is a common bond between Wisconsin consumers and agricultural producers. This bond is celebrated November 20th to 26th, 1987 during the National Farm-City Week.

Held each year preceding and ending on Thanksgiving Day, the National Farm-City Week promotes local observances which focus on the important relationship between rural and urban people. While this relationship encompasses the over 500,000 jobs and $20 billion impact agriculture provides to the Wisconsin economy, it is still the variety of high-quality, low-cost food products which is the foundation of the farm-city bond.

It is no secret that Wisconsin farmers are way out in front when it comes to producing milk and milk products, such as cheese, butter, dry milk, whey products and lactose. According to figures compiled by the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection and the Wisconsin Agri-Business Council, these products and others are produced by 1.86 million dairy cows on 39,000 dairy farms and processed in Wisconsin's 414 dairy plants.

Wisconsin farmers produce more snap beans and peas for the country's homes and restaurants than any other state. These crops along with the production of sweet corn, cucumbers, carrots, mint, ginseng and others have gained Wisconsin first place in growing specialty crops.

The Agriculture Department figures show Wisconsin residents can rely on their farm neighbors for the bounty of livestock products produced within the state's borders. Wisconsin ranks 1st in the nation for special fed veal calves, 11th in hog production and 10th in turkeys with over 6 million produced annually.

Local Farm-City Week observances in Wisconsin are promoted by the Wisconsin Farm-City Council, an affiliate of the National Farm-City Council, Inc. Farm-City Week is a national program begun in 1955.

Farm Income Tax Seminar at County Courthouse Dec. 3

A Farm Income Tax Seminar will be held on Thursday, December 3, from 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. at the Washington County Courthouse in West Bend.

A number of changes have occurred in the Federal laws pertaining to Farm Income Tax. These new laws will require changes in the way farmers need to keep records and prepare to work with their tax professionals.

Topics to be discussed include: 1) Handling Pre-Productive Expenses for dairy and other animals with a two year or greater pre-productive period. 2) Agriculture programs such as the Whole Herd Buyout, Commodity Certificates, and Conservation Reserve Program. 3) One time refundable credit for investment tax credit carryover and regular investment tax credit carryover. 4) MACRS depreciation, 5) Capital Gain changes and Form 4797 and 6) Prepaid Expenses of part-time farmers.

This seminar is designed for persons preparing their own tax forms and those using professional tax prepares.

There is no registration cost for this program. However, individuals that plan on attending should contact the Washington County Extension Office at 338-4477, 644-5204, 342-2929, by December 2. You must register in advance. If 30 people do not pre-register, the program may be cancelled.

PROPER NUTRITION

Do you think your diet is balanced? Let's take a look. Carbohydrates should make up for 58% of our daily caloric intake. Complex carbohydrates are found in vegetables, fruit, breads, cereals, and pastas. Complex carbohydrates supply a wide variety of essential nutrients at a low cost in terms of calories.

Fat should make up 30% of our calorie intake. Most of us consume too much fats in our diet. Fat is a concentrated source of energy, and is easily turned into body fat. Fats can be found in foods such as shortening, oil, butter, meat, poultry, fish, milk, cheese, cream, chocolate, and nuts. When we talk about fat, cholesterol has to be on the mind. Poly- and monounsaturated fats have a favorable effect on blood cholesterol levels while saturated fats in the diet increase the amount of cholesterol in the blood.

Proteins should make up 12% of our caloric intake. Proteins main function is to build and repair body tissue. Protein can be found in meat, fish, poultry, eggs, and milk. Many Americans consume two times their protein requirement.

Next time you sit down to eat a meal, look at your plate full of food and see if it matches this guideline.

WITH THE NEW WHIRLPOOL TIGHTFIST® II GAS FURNACE,

YOU GET WHAT YOU PAY FOR!

But with the new Whirlpool Tightfist® II gas furnace*, up to 96% of the energy you pay for is actually used to heat your home! Only 4% is wasted. That's real efficiency. And it can make a substantial difference in your fuel bill, too. So why pay for energy you're not getting the use of? Call today and let us help you lower your fuel bill!

Oscar Mayer Sets Guinness Record With 200 Foot, 1,450 Pound Bologna

MADISON, WIS. "That's one bodacious bologna" . . . that's the way one television newscaster described it when Oscar Mayer Foods Corp., the nation's leading manufacturer of brand identified processed meats, made the world's largest bologna at its Madison, Wis. plant.

The record bologna, 200.5 ft. long and weighing 1,450 lbs., was produced Sept. 28-29 in connection with an employee open house that was held the following Saturday.

On the scene to record the event was a crew from "The Spectacular World of Guinness Records," a new syndicated television program. The Guinness people certified the King-Kong-size bologna as the world's largest.

The Oscar Mayer production crew began stuffing the big bologna at 2:30 p.m. and finished 33 minutes later. The sausage batter was held in a stainless steel hopper and at the bottom of the hopper, a production employee had stuffed the batter into a clear cellulose casing. As the stuffing operation continued, workers hosed the plastic skin with water to keep it from cracking. Meanwhile, workers lining up to carry the bologna into the smoke house were told to remove their rings and watches.

"We do it as a safety precaution," said Tom Celley, a worker at the plant. "The casing is fragile. And if it broke, there'd be batter everywhere." "But the batter everywhere is making the turns," he said. "You don't want to take the corners too fast or too sharp."

It took 75 employees to coil the giant sausage into a 10 ft. wide by 36 ft. long smoke house where it was smoked and cooled for nine hours at 180 degrees. After the bologna was cooled, it required 75 more employees to remove it from the smoke house at 5 a.m. the next day and place it on a specially built rack in a meat cooler.

The cooler, valued at about $3,600, was big enough to make 23,200 sandwiches.

"But we didn't want to merely make sandwiches with this record bologna," according to Mary Beth Jung, Consumer Information Manager for Oscar Mayer. "Since our products are so closely associated with children, we wanted to donate the product to a worthy children's group. We chose Boys Town in Nebraska because they have such a good reputation for helping children."

The record bologna was placed on a special rack in an Oscar Mayer semi trailer and delivered whole to the 550 residents of Boys Town, Neb. on Oct. 6. It took 100 of the youngsters, ages 9 to 18, to unload the bologna and carry it into the town's large dining room. There, the bologna was cut into 3 ft. sections and carried to the 64 homes in Boys Town.

Jung was accompanied by a semi truck driver and an operations supervisor who supervised the removal of the bologna from the truck. Leading the semi truck and trailer into Boys Town was the colorful 22 ft. long Wienermobile — a promotional vehicle shaped like a hot dog — that Oscar Mayer uses at store openings, parades and special events around the country.

The entire process of making the bologna, carrying it into and out of the smokehouse and delivering it to Boys Town will be shown on an upcoming program of "The Spectacular World of Guinness Records" later this year.

DOT Tries Several Methods To Keep Deer Accidents Down

1986 DEER - VEHICLE ACCIDENTS

15 Top Ranking Counties by Percent of Accidents

Wisconsin Department of Transportation officials are warning motorists that November is the peak month for deer accidents in Wisconsin.

"Deer are really a problem right now because it's mating season — they tend to act crazy around this time of year," said John Volker, a DOT accident analysis engineer.

In 1986, deer-vehicle collisions accounted for 11 percent of all highway accidents in the state. The DNR reports that 33,000 deer were picked up from vehicle accidents. Police reports showed that there were 13,793 deer accidents last year. These included five fatal accidents, 407 injury collisions and 13,381 incidences of property damage. Total economic losses exceeded $21 million.

"Where there's a high density of deer-hunting, such as Marquette, Adams and Jackson counties, there tends to be more deer-related accidents," said David Cipra, analyst for the traffic accident section of the Division of Motor Vehicles.

Marquette County had the highest percentage of deer accidents compared to the county's total number of accidents last year, Cipra said. Of its 530 total accidents, 262, or 49 percent, were deer-related.

Although Marathon County had the highest number of deer accidents in the state last year — 583 — it ranked 42nd for percentage of deer accidents because the number was only 16 percent of the total accidents in the county.

Accident data also showed that most deer accidents occurred between 5 p.m. and 10 p.m. and November was the highest ranking month for deer-vehicle collisions, with October second.

Although no measure has been totally effective in preventing deer from running across roads, there are several methods the DOT uses to help curb the problem, according to Volker. It begins with the highway design standards.

"Wisconsin's highways are designed according to standards which allow for maximum visibility and safety," said Volker.

Sight distance, or the road-span ahead that's visible to the driver, is affected by trees and shrubs, hills or slopes and other objects such as fences or signs. For maximum safety, any obstruction to the driver's view is removed.

"Grass is mowed regularly not only for appearance but for safety," he noted. In some cases, selected slow-growing shrubbery is planted alongside highways to keep the sight distance clear.

Highways that are flat with no sharp curves also provide the most sight distance — in some instances, roads are flattened to reduce the accident rate.

Deer crossing signs are also posted to warn drivers and in a pilot project, reflectors have been positioned so that headlights are directed into the woods to scare off the deer. The State Patrol is also experimenting with high-pitched wind whistles on its cars, making a sound that is imperceptible to human ears.

"We haven't had a great deal of success with any of these methods," Volker said. "Being alert and cautious is the best way to prevent the deer accidents, but no matter how ready you are for it, they can still jump out at you."

In this area, Washington County had 146 deer accidents in 1986, Fond du Lac County 294, Sheboygan County 187, Ozaukee County 72, and Dodge County 173.

33 Youngsters Complete Hunter Safety Course

Thirty-three Kewaskum area youngsters recently completed the Wisconsin Hunter Safety Course sponsored by the Department of Natural Resources and the Kewaskum Middle School which was conducted by registered hunter safety instructors Jan Rosenthal and Jim Borusky.

Young shooters who received their Hunter Safety certificates and embroidered shoulder patches after successfully completing the eight-week course are: Duane Deverney, Scott Donath, Mark Dziedzic, Derek Follman, John Fromm, Elroy Graese III, Jon Graese, Keith Herman, Jim Jakklich, William Klahn, Tony Knoeck, Jason Krahn, Thomas Kuehn, Erik Laatsch, Steve May and Kelly Melichar.

Instructors Rosenthal and Borusky held the sessions in the Kewaskum Middle School Library for one hour each day beginning at 3:00 p.m. Field shooting exercises were conducted at the West Bend - Barton Sportsmen's Club rifle and pistol range which is located just north of West Bend on Friendly Drive. Ammunition for the range work was donated by the Kettle Moraine Sportsman's Club.

In addition to the shoulder patch and certificate certification permits, youngsters between 14 and 16 are permitted to shoot and hunt without adult supervision. Otherwise state law prohibits anyone under 16 from handling firearms for any purpose without supervision.

The course covered proper gun handling, firearms safety at home and in the field, care of firearms, basic marksmanship, and responsibilities of hunters and shooters.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Eddie Bunkelman, who passed away five years ago, November 25, 1982:

We walked beside you many times

In memories of the golden days we shared,

We laugh aloud remembering things you said,

We're touched when we recall how much you cared.

Sometimes we hear your laughter in our thoughts

And see that smile that brightened many a day.

Deep in our hearts a memory is kept of one we loved and will never forget.

Sadly missed by his wife, children and grandchildren.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Otto "Buckshot" Backus who passed away Dec. 1, 1982:

Five years have past since you left us

We miss you, you know we do

Though we try to over come our sorrow

The house is empty with out you.

The memories of when you lived there

Are deep inside our hearts

Some sad, but many are good ones

Will remain until we too depart.

Sadly missed by his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Amelia Butzlaff, who passed away 10 years ago, November 27, 1977:

Though her smile is gone

And her hands we cannot touch,

Still we have so many memories

Of one we loved so much;

Her memory is our keepsake

With which we'll never part.

God has her in His keeping

We have her in our hearts.

Sadly missed by her family.

Indians Have Early Struggle But Defeat Scrappy Slinger Team, 83-68

The Kewaskum Indians' Boys' Basketball team struggled early, but came on strong in the second half to defeat a quick, scrappy Slinger Owl squad by a score of 83-68.

The Indians, now 2-0, were plagued by foul trouble the whole night. They fell behind early in the first half and although the score was tied 13-13 at the end of the first quarter, they seemed to be playing catchup the entire half and eventually, pulled to within two, 38-36 at halftime.

The Indians started to pull away from the pesky Owl team in the third frame. The Slinger full court press, which troubled the Indians early, now was no problem for the Indians and they went on to outscore the visitors 20-8 in the third, to pull out to a 56-46 advantage after 3 quarters of play.

The Indians took over in the 4th quarter, scoring 27 points in the period, enroute to their highest scoring output in two years. The Owls did pull within six, 74-68 with about a minute and a half left, but that was all the Owls were to score. Rob Baitinger added eight straight free throws to sew up the victory for Kewaskum.

The depth on the Indian roster was again apparent in the victory. With some of the Indian starters getting in foul trouble early, the bench took up the slack and filled their role competently. Four Indians scored in double figures, led by Joel Fleury with 18 points and Rob Baitinger with 17, including 10 of 12 shooting at the free throw line. Ted Anderson contributed 12 points along with 10 rebounds and Steve Johnson added 10 points for the victors. For the Owls, Dave Breuer led with 20 points and Andy Strupp added 14, 12 of which came in the fourth quarter.

The Indian cagers now take their 2-0 mark against a tough Campbellsport team Tuesday, Nov. 24 and then will get ready for the conference opener at home against Chilton, on Friday, Dec. 4. Details of the Campbellsport game will appear in next week's paper.

Kleinhans Receives Stevens Point Honor

Tyrone Kleinhans of Kewaskum was named to the all-tournament team as the Ripon College basketball team won the consolation title of the Stevens Point Tip-off Tournament this past weekend.

Kleinhans, a 6-1, 208-pound forward, tallied 17 points and pulled down seven rebounds as Ripon lost a heartbreaking 71-67 decision to UW-Stevens Point in a semi-final contest. In the consolation game, Kleinhans scored 19 points in only 17 minutes of action as Ripon trimmed Concordia College of Milwaukee, 117-69.

Brandon University (Canada) won the title with a 67-59 victory over UW-Stevens Point.

Others named to the all-tournament team were Whitney Dabney and Pat Jebbison of Brandon University, and Todd Christianson and Troy Engstrom of UW-Stevens Point.

In the loss of UW-Stevens Point, Ripon had a 16-point lead with 1:55 remaining in the first half, but the Pointers cut the deficit to 10 points at halftime, then scored the first eight points of the second half to make it a ballgame. The score was tied at 67-67 with 1:30 left in the game, but UW-Stevens Point scored the last four points of the game to gain the victory. Kleinhans made seven of nine free throws in the final six minutes of the contest to keep the Redmen in the game.

Ripon College, now 1-1 on the season, plays at Viterbo College in La Crosse this coming Saturday night, Nov. 28.

Girls Have Easy Time With Lomira for Second Victory

The Kewaskum girls' basketball team shot a hot 47% for an easy, one-sided non-conference win over Lomira Thursday, 62-32. It was the Indians' second victory of the young season. On the other hand, the Lions hit on a paltry 18%.

Pam Osterbrink, 6-0 sophomore center, again was a standout for the winners. She scored 17 points and nabbed 11 rebounds. For the first two games she is averaging 17.5 points in leading the Indians to a perfect 2-0 record.

Close behind Osterbrink were senior Brenda Theusch and junior Jenny Schneider with 14 points each. Debbie Felix, out of the first game with illness, also was back and played well, scoring five points and pulling in five rebounds as team leader.

Kewaskum got off to a fast start to take a 32-16 lead at halftime and steadily pulled away. The Indians had a height and speed advantage over the Lions.

Tuesday night the girls hosted Campbellsport, which is led by their ace guard, Sue Welsh.

1987 a Banner Year for Eagles in Wisconsin

American bald eagles expanded their nesting territories in Wisconsin by 20 percent this year and produced more young in 1987 than in recent history according to Department of Natural Resources officials. Wisconsin is second only to Florida in eagle production.

"We counted 42 more territories this year over last and at least 420 eaglets were banded this summer," said Irene Schmidt, coordinator of Wisconsin's Adopt an Eagle Nest program operated by the Bureau of Endangered Resources. "That's up from 311 young last year."

The goal of the Bald Eagle Recovery plan prepared by the Bureau of Endangered Resources calls for establishing a self-sustaining population of 360 active nesting pairs in Wisconsin. In 1987, DNR eagle biologists, Ron Eckstein, Chuck Sindalar and Dave Evans counted 294 nesting pairs in the state.

"We're well on our way to recovery," said Ron Nicotera, director of the Bureau. "As long as we continue to control contaminants and protect nesting habitat and nest trees, we can expect to one day soon achieve our goal. We hope to have a secure population eventually and remove the eagle from the endangered species list."

According to Schmidt, Wisconsin bald eagle preservation is made possible in large part through the Adopt an Eagle's Nest program. "We have hundreds of individuals, groups, schools and businesses who have adopted eagle nests in an effort to support eagle recovery. They 'give' eagle's nests as Christmas gifts, retirement, anniversary and birthday presents."

"School children collect aluminum cans, have bake sales and hold other fundraisers - all to collect money to adopt nests for their schools," she said. "Students of St. Anthony School in Neopit raised more than $1,000 to adopt 10 eagle nests over the past two years and that's just one of many schools who support the program."

Those who adopt eagle's nests receive an adoption certificate, photographs of their eaglets in the nest, a booklet on "Birds of Prey," information on eagles, and breeding season
