Howie Schneider Bringing Back 'The Real Sound'

Revival of the Big Band

The fifties and sixties were good times for groups that produced the 'big band' sounds. People danced to Glenn Miller hits such as "In the Mood," "String of Pearls," and a host of Broadway show tunes.

During that period a group called the Harry Rothman Orchestra of Grafton was popular, playing throughout southeastern Wisconsin at country clubs, proms and as the house band at the Eagles Club in Milwaukee, a popular place for weekend dances.

Slowly that sound diminished in popularity. In 1963, Rothman died of cancer at the age of 51, but his orchestra continued to make appearances under the guidance of the group's trombonist Fred Gall. When the group disbanded, Rothman's wife Helen carried out one of the last requests he made, that she keep all the arrangements he had acquired together. Rothman had the feeling that some day the 'big band' sound would make a comeback.

For over twenty years the collection remained stored and unplayed at the Rothman home. Mrs. Rothman kept her promise and never parted with an arrangement. Last summer Howard Schneider of Kewaskum became aware of the collection when he and his five-piece group were playing at a wedding. Neighbors of Mrs. Rothman talked to Schneider and thought he would be the right individual to assume ownership of the vast library of over 500 arrangements that Rothman had treasured so highly.

After looking over the collection, Schneider decided it contained some excellent arrangements. He purchased

Bartelt Insurance, Kennelly Pharmacy Donate Books to Local First Graders

This news release is smaller than the average news release because it details the facts of some big generosity in the community to little children through the distribution of some powerful little books.

First grade students in St. Lucas Evangelical Lutheran School, Holy Trinity Catholic School and Kewaskum Elementary School will all receive a beautiful gift book titled, "My Favorite Book."

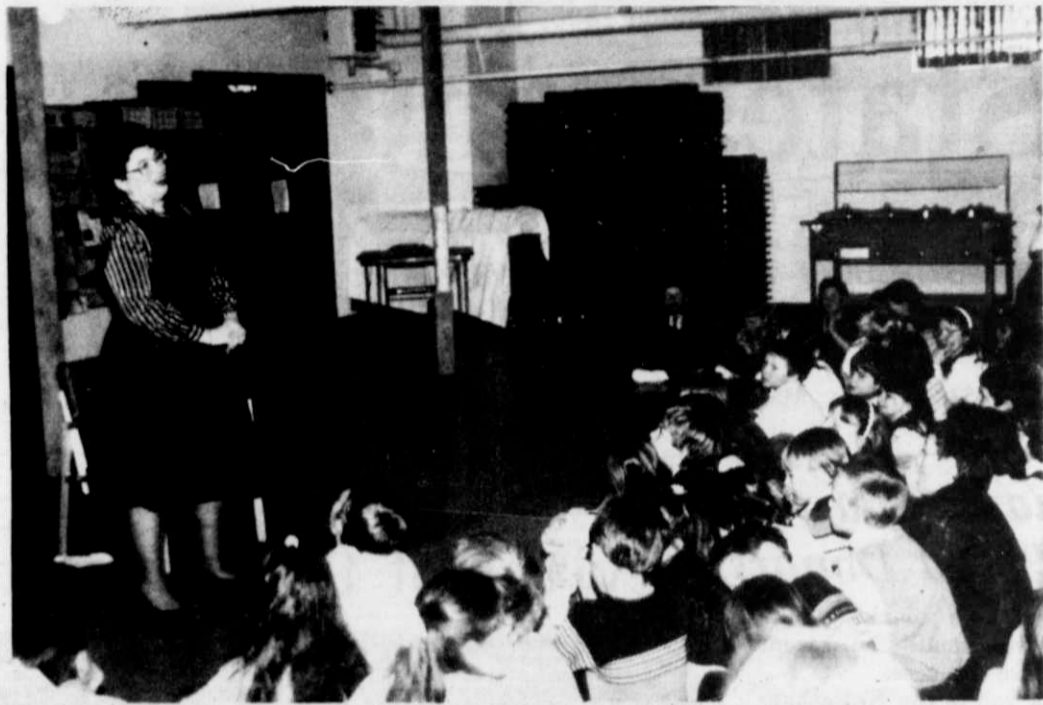

"My Favorite Book" is designed and written to bring "positive" influences into each of these children's lives. It illustrates the beauty of their world and the people who are in it, especially themselves.

The civic-minded leaders who are sponsoring this program see it as a valuable contribution toward the development of the young people in the community.

Kewaskum sponsors are Tom Bartelt, Bartelt Insurance Agency, 1231 Fond du Lac Ave., and Tom Kennelly, Kennelly Health Mart Pharmacy, 927 Fond du Lac Ave.

Professional Storyteller Entertains Students At Holy Trinity to Kick Off RIF Program

Storyteller Judy Busack entertains students at Holy Trinity.

Holy Trinity School has launched its first RIF (Reading is Fundamental) Program, on March 2, 1988. A program was held for the students in the parish hall.

Mrs. Judy Busack, a professional storyteller, provided the entertainment. Stories as well known as "Dinderella and the Slass Glipper," an African folktale of the Creation, and an interesting storysong about the length of time black socks may be worn were told with pupil participation. The interest of the students was held for over an hour before they enjoyed browsing through hundreds of books and selecting one to take home and enjoy.

Our thanks to those who helped to make the program work: The Holy Trinity Home and School Association, Hardees of West Bend for providing lemonade, The Cookie Jar, The Project Literacy for funds to purchase books for students, and to those parents who served on the committee.

Our next program will be a play presented by the Holy Trinity Fifth Graders, on April 13. Parents of students are welcome to attend.

only, with no increases in extra curricular charges. In the second year of the contract, 1989-90, there will be a 3 1/2% across the board increase.

The present two-year contract which expires at the end of this school year had carried 7% increases for both the 1986-87 and 1987-88 school years.

In other business the committee reviewed the Wayne Elementary School roofing project. Committee member Clara Trapp questioned the need to re-roof the gym portion of the roof. After some discussion the committee decided not to forward a recommendation but instead take the item to the full board for discussion.

Buildings Superintendent Fred Boehlke reported on the status of the asbestos removal and monitoring program. The committee agreed to recommend the hiring of Wisconsin Asbestos Advisory Team at the low bid cost of $10,716 to do an inspection, sight survey, total management and formal reports for the district. Laws governing the program require that the work be done by people who have been certified. The company will also train district employees on how to make inspections.

In other discussions the committee decided to recommend the hiring of Del Ponte Brothers to do some cement work projects in the district. They include work at the Wayne well site, the Kewaskum Elementary School southwest entrance, and work on the floor drains in the high school kitchen. The bid was $2,175.

The committee also reviewed the traffic problem at KES which was brought to the board's attention by the village. The situation will be monitored.

The issue of problems with carpeting installed at the Middle School was again discussed. The committee decided to contact the installer to discuss the situation and get the problems corrected.

The committee tentatively scheduled its next meeting for April 18th, at 7:30 p.m., in the high school library.

the rights to the musical library and recruited more musicians, expanding his original combo to an eleven-member band to feature a horn section, bass, drums and keyboard. The musicians in Schneider's new orchestra brought a variety of experience having played with concert and big band groups from throughout Wisconsin. The average band member age is forty.

After several rehearsals, the "Howie Schneider Big Band" made its debut at the Amerahn on January 29th. Its first Metro-Milwaukee appearance was in February at McCormick's II in Grafton. The band will again be playing there on April 10th, followed by a performance at the Eagles Ballroom in Milwaukee on April 16th.

Schneider and his big band sound will be traveling to Green Bay and Sheboygan for gigs, returning to Kewaskum on Sunday June 26th, to play at the Amerahn.

The big band sound has had a resurgence and its popularity seems to be growing again. Schneider said the orchestra will continue to perform as long as its members stay together and the big band music remains in demand. Bookings are handled through Ask Me Services of Grafton.

Homuth, LeRoy, Hanson, Students of Month KMS Celebrates National Middle School Education Week

Kewaskum Middle school students and staff joined with middle schools across the country to celebrate National Middle Level Education Week, March 14-18. The week was filled with various activities focusing on the special interests and needs of middle school students.

Monday was open house for parents and interested citizens. A special video tape "Early Adolescence: A Time of Change, Implications for the Family," was shown. This video tape can be checked out from the middle school to anyone interested in learning more about parenting an adolescent.

A proclamation was read by Ron Beimbom, Kewaskum School Board Member, officially designating the week in recognition of the special purposes of middle schools, particularly the needs of early adolescents. The mission of a middle school is different in that not only academic programs are offered, but special curriculum and activities are designed to help students grow physically, socially, and emotionally.

A poster contest, special dress-up days, school spirit activities including a staff versus 8th grade boy's basketball game was held. One of the most unique programs was a staff member exchange with secretaries, principals, and teachers showing up in temporary assignments around school. Students who did not receive any disciplinary referrals during the week were treated to a mini-breakfast on Monday.

Students of the month were also announced. Students recognized for March included Joanna Homuth, 8th grade, daughter of Dennis and Laurel Homuth. 7th grade student of the month is Melissa LeRoy, daughter of Jack and Darlene LeRoy. Justin Hanson, son of James and Carlotta Hanson, is the 6th grade student chosen. A special certificate, breakfast with the principal, and school-wide recognition is part of this program to recognize students displaying special achievement, contributions to the school, or growth in their work at school.

4-H News

The Kewaskum 4-H meeting came to order on March 10, 1988, at the Labor, Union Hall. Debbie Schneider led the Pledge of Allegiance and Mary Yahr led the 4-H Pledge. We didn't have a secretary's report. The treasurer's report was read by Beth Schaefer and approved. There was a bill submitted for paying for the Soc-Hop posters and for the flashes of film. Michelle Schaub made a motion to approve it and Joanne Lemke seconded it.

For old business we are going to go roller skating at Skate Country in West Bend on April 4. It will be $3.75 for non-members and free for members. On June 10 we're going to go to Noah's Ark for a day. Jamie Van Den Huevel talked about when we went swimming at West Bend High School. Joanne Lemke talked to us about the Poster Contest and Sara Lemke talked to us about the Speaking Contest.

For new business we decided to go to the Brewer game August 27. There was no other new business. The meeting was adjourned by Michelle Schaub and Marlo Desohotels.

We owe a lot to our President, Holli Etta. This is her last year in 4-H and she has done a lot for us. We really appreciate it. Thank you Holli! Our next meeting will be April 7. Hope to see you all there.

Sentry's Brand New Look

WAUKESHA, WIS., — Sentry is sporting a brand new look. Not just on the stores' marquees and shopping bags, but in every aisle and on every shelf. It's the fresh, bold and colorful new packaging for Sentry Brand products, and it's catching shoppers' attention.

"The new Sentry logo is being incorporated into all signage, packaging and uniforms," says James H. DeWees, president and CEO of Godfrey Company, parent company of Sentry Food Stores. "It's a streamlined, contemporary look that symbolizes our commitment to innovation, technology and customer service."

The new black background and red Sentry logo distinguish the Sentry private label products on store shelves while highlighting the products inside. Over 400 products from meat packages to canned goods feature the new corporate image.

"This bold design is the Sentry look that will carry us into the 21st century," says DeWees. "We thought it was high time our Sentry Brand products stood out and were noticed, and this packaging does this for us."

DeWees adds that aside from attracting shoppers' attention, he hopes customers will examine the labels.

"Inside every package customers will find a premium quality product that is as good as, if not better than competing name brands at significantly lower prices. I think once they discover Sentry Brand, they won't go back to paying more for a product that just isn't any better."

Godfrey Company, based in Waukesha, Wis., is a grocery wholesaler and retailer whose operations include 86 Sentry Foods and four Sun Warehouse Foods stores in southern and eastern Wisconsin. As of November, 1987, Godfrey operates as a subsidiary of

Boy Scout Troop 744 Camps Out in Eagle Cave

Troop 744 at the entrance of Eagle Cave

Pat Bertram checks out a hole that is in the floor of the cave.

David Gildersleeve points to some bats that are hibernating in the cave.

On March 5th and 6th, Kewaskum's Troop 744 camped out in Eagle Cave, which is located west of Madison. The scouts spent Saturday afternoon and part of Sunday morning exploring the cave. The best time of year to visit the cave is Winter, because the cave is dryer than the rest of the year.

Scouts who went were Jim Gildersleeve, John Gildersleeve, Pat Bertram, Eric McElhatton, Eric Giese, Jason Giese, Jason Noren, Gerald Sese, Phillip Lettow, Tim Buss, Jeff Kissinger, Chad Trzeczinski, Adam Bude, Eric Bude, Billy Lettow, Mike Groskopf, Craig Erdmann, Pat Schmitt, and Matt Wiedmeyer.

Adults and other family members who accompanied the scouts were David Gildersleeve, Scoutmaster Freddy Gildersleeve, Jerry Bertram, Fritz Lettow, Vern Wiedmeyer, Dave Groskopf, and Curtis Erdmann.

The Candy Bar Sale will continue until the end of March. The scouts would like to thank everyone who has supported them in this and other fundraisers.

On Sunday, April 17th, the Troop will go to Oshkosh to tour the E.A.A. Museum.

Computer Courses Available at UWWC

One of Matt Zillig's goals in teaching his computer courses, he said, is to avoid "boring the expert or making the novice feel like a bonehead."

He achieves that goal with a hands-on approach where students are "constantly interacting with the computer." In addition, he believes in "demystifying computers" by "playing with the computer slang so students can have fun."

Zillig's success is measured in a string of successful course offerings through the continuing education programs at the UW Center - Washington County and other freshman-sophomore centers.

From March 28 to April 1, Zillig will be offering six courses here at UWWC. Each of the software seminars is aimed at increasing computer skills and decreasing user nervousness, he said.

This spring the courses will be taught in UWWC's new computer laboratory. New in terms of scheduling is an evening course in "Introduction to Microcomputers," scheduled for Wednesday, Mar. 30, from 6 to 9:30 p.m.

The courses range in length from one half-day to three half-day sessions, in time from about four to 12 hours and in cost from $45 to $95.

According to Zillig there is no particular sequence for taking most of the courses. He said, "The rankest novice can take any course except Advanced Lotus."

To obtain more information or register for a course, contact Jack Anderson at UWWC, 338-5233.

ANNOUNCE DATE OF GERMANFEST

Germanfest will be on August 27 with a possibility of starting August 26 and having a two day event.

This is the third year Germanfest has been in West Bend and every year the attendance is larger, last year's estimated at 7,000.

Stamps By Phone Available Nationwide

For the first time, postal customers nationwide will be able to use their credit cards to buy nondenominated stamps during the transition period to new postage rates.

Milwaukee Division General Manager/Postmaster Norman L. Miller said, "the new program is intended to make the transfer to the new rate structure more convenient for our customers."

Customers will be able to order nondenominated "E" stamps by calling a toll-free number, 1-800-STAMP24, 24 hours a day and can charge orders to MasterCard or VISA. There will be a minimum order of $12.50 with a $2 service charge.

Orders for the new "E" stamps, featuring a colorful design of the Earth, will be taken until such time as stamps specifying the new rate are available. The orders will be mailed when the Governors of the Postal Service approve the new rates.

The Postal Service began testing this program in September 1987 in Sacramento. Since then, eight other cities were added to the test program. To date, the Stamps by Phone program has generated more than $2 million in stamp sales.

It was unfortunate, in the release submitted to the Kewaskum Statesman, that appropriate recognition was not offered to Cory Rammer for receiving an individual award for creativity at the regional Odyssey of the Mind competition held on March 12, 1988, at Morse Middle School in Milwaukee. It would seem to me that encouragement and recognition ought to go hand in hand. As a member of the Farmington Elementary School OM team, Cory AND all of his teammates worked hard and I, as coach, want to thank all of them for their efforts. They definitely came through for me.

CONGRATULATIONS
TEAM! CONGRATULATIONS
CORY!

March 21, 1988

To the Parents and Citizens of the Kewaskum School District;

Last week, if you recall, I published some of my views. This letter will let you know more about me.

I am a veteran of WWII, during which I served in the Philippines and then participated in the occupation of Japan. Carroll College in Waukesha is where I acquired a math-physics degree, and later completed studies at UW-Milwaukee for a Masters degree in physics.

My wife and I are blessed with ten children, all of whom are graduates of K.H.S. and all have gone on to school, or are currently in school. We love, trust and respect each other, besides that we are friends. They have presented us with seven grandchildren. We are members of St. Michael's Church for 20 years, where the people are concerned people. Catechism classes, choir and church finances keep us quite busy.

I have lived in the Kewaskum School District for thirty years and have owned a home in the town of Farmington for the past 20 years. I am now retired after 36 years of teaching, 29 of which were served at KHS. Also I did some coaching at the school for 20 years.

At the School Board Candidate Forum, last Monday, March 15, 1988, sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Washington County, my emphasis was put on good values and attitudes, family and patriotism.

Sincerely,
Edward J. Sleger, Jr.

TO THE RESIDENTS OF THE KEWASKUM
SCHOOL DISTRICT:

Governor Thompson's proposed budget bill, which purports to reduce property taxes, is a sham for the taxpayers of Wisconsin. Thompson's bill aims to reduce property taxes by increasing the amount of state aid to local school districts. The Governor also intends to freeze local spending and apply permanent statutory limits to local spending. This proposal will render excellence and local incentive to improve the quality of a district's educational services obsolete.

The budget places local VTAE districts, school districts and local units of government under a freeze for 1989, but places no cap on the state governmental or university system expenditures. This means that these two units of spending can continue on their merry way unchecked, while school districts and local governments, which provide the majority of services to the taxpayers, have to bite the bullet again.

The taxpayers should realize that if you cut property taxes, you have to increase other taxes to make up for the difference - which is like robbing Peter to pay Paul. Peter will expand the sales tax and reduce the married couple credit to 1.5% in order to keep Paul happy!

One thing Thompson fails to keep in mind is the fact that local government is the most efficient and most effective. It is ludicrous to penalize those who do the best job by limiting their spending, while financially rewarding the larger governmental bodies who have their purse strings open.

The challenge for Democrats and Republicans is to pass a budget which will benefit property owners without jeopardizing either the quality of instruction which our local districts provide or the level of services which our local governments provide.

We urge you to write or call your legislator to ask for the defeat of the present budget bill.

Sincerely,
Kewaskum

To: the Voters of Washington County
Re: Here Come Da Judge---
---And Other Old Sayings

Most people don't pay much attention to judicial elections; this seems beyond their comprehension. Then, when their lives are affected by some judicial decision, as their lives increasingly are, they may wonder how that "joker" ever got on the bench, and how he manages to stay there.

But, by then it usually is almost impossible to remove him; the strange forces that put him there, keep him there, unless he is a babbling idiot - and sometimes even then.

I think this situation exists in Washington County as we approach an election April 5 for a new, fourth, circuit court judge. The candidates go through a brief "dog and pony show." They are rarely asked tough questions, even by the media. Stupid questions, yet, but not good ones; certainly not any questions that could embarrass them. The candidates compete for endorsements from "important people," and whoever, has the best organization - or machine - wins. This is the fellow who makes the best deals - and the most of them, in an insiders' game. The public is not really invited, except as rubber stamps to make the process look acceptable.

Because of the "thundering" public silence over this campaign, I asked a certain highly opinionated small businessman what he thought. How about Patrick Faragher, the county attorney? His response was that those government employees all want more money for government, and to raise our taxes. Maybe so, I replied, but I did not think that accurately described Faragher. And how about Atty. Leo Schlaefer? He fumed, those candidates all make promises until they get in office, and then, it's the same old thing again. Perhaps so, I mused.

So why should we bother to vote? Is there much choice between the two candidates? Both are Republican, Catholic, male, white, married, have Kewaskum area connections, and are long time residents of West Bend. Then, I began to see some differences.

There were more important differences. Faragher, who has devoted most of his life thus far to public service, was approachable, easy to talk with, and genuinely wanted to resolve matters decently. He often appears frustrated that he is not in a position to do so. He knows the law well, and shares it with others. While he wants to win his cases, he fights fairly. I came to respect him.

Then, I recalled how, when the previous corporation counsel left, Faragher, the assistant, said he could do the job of corporation counsel, and he wouldn't even need an assistant. The county board gave him a chance, and he's been doing the job alone ever since. I'm guessing that he's saving the county a lot of money. He has a way of resolving controversy quietly and decently when he can, rather than provoking controversy. This, indeed, has probably saved the taxpayers money. I decided that he might make a good judge.

The opposite appears true of Leo Schlaefer, and associates, at the corner of Sixth and Hickory. These people have devoted most of their lives to making money, and they have made a lot of it. Provoking controversy here pays off. Also, they are heavily into real estate and development, which is a rough, but lucrative business, filled with intrigue and trickery.

In considering Schlaefer for judge, I thought, well, maybe it takes one to catch one, as the old saying goes. But I wondered if the will was there to do that. Then I thought of an age-old question: Does a leopard ever change its spots? The answer is, no.

I mused, then, that Schlaefer is carrying around too much "baggage" to be a judge. Should he reach the bench, he might have to be disqualified again and again for possible conflicts of interest, as numerous former partners, clients, and cronies appear before him. Besides, there already is one judge from the Schloemer, Schlaefer, etc. law firm: J. Tom Merriam.

At this point, I thought of another old saying, the more things change, the more they stay the same. Electing Schlaefer would mean more of the same old thing in the Washington County courts. Electing Faragher, however, might bring a fresh, wholesome change.

So, then, am I endorsing Faragher for judge? Well, an earlier candidate for judge told me that he is not endorsing either Faragher or Schlaefer, nor asking his supporters to do so. He said that he might pick the wrong one, if he did so, and then a lot of people would be angry with him. He thought it was best to let the people decide for themselves, although they hadn't picked him, and he was "the best qualified."

It would be nice if the people did decide, rather than ignoring the election, or voting the way the "boss" tells them to vote. It is with this in mind that I offer my thoughts to you. And now, just one more old saying, remember that a stitch in time saves nine.

Signed,

To the Editor:

The announcement that Representative Dwight York has decided not to run for reelection was sad news for members of the Legislature who are actively involved in education issues. During the four years he has served in the Wisconsin State Assembly, Dwight York has proved himself again and again to be a good friend of education - from elementary and secondary levels to higher education.

As a Democrat, I will miss working with Dwight to build bipartisan support for legislation aimed at strengthening Wisconsin's educational systems. His unremitting efforts in behalf of education have been appreciated by his colleagues in both the Democratic and Republican caucuses.

I hope that Dwight York's constituents realize that they have been represented by a truly class person who cares about the people he serves. He will be sorely missed in the Capitol.

Sincerely,

DAVID HELBACH

NEWS EXTRA...

Men Turning 26 in 1988 Reach an Important Milestone

The Selective Service System has announced that men who will reach their 26th birthday in 1988 and who have not registered with Selective Service may forfeit their eligibility for some federal programs.

Men who were required to register with Selective Service in 1981 will be turning 26 this year. The law requires that young men register with Selective Service within 30 days of the day they turn 18. Although tardy registrations are usually accepted, Selective Service does not have the authority to accept registrations after a man reaches age 26. By failing to register before turning 26, a young man may permanently forfeit his eligibility for federal student aid, job training and most federal employment. Likewise, some states require registration for state student aid, entrance to a state supported college or university, state employment and permission to practice law.

Many of the men who have still not registered may be unaware of the requirement or do not understand the importance of the obligation to register. Some may even have served in the military but failed to register either before entering the Armed Forces or after leaving active duty. Others may have been institutionalized or incarcerated at the time of their 18th birthday and not realized that they were required to register within 30 days if released prior to age 26.

For those men born in 1962 who have registered, 1988 also marks the year that ends their eligibility for selection for induction under present law should there be a return to the draft. Nearly 20 million men, age 18 through 25 have registered with Selective Service since registration was reinstated in 1980. These men comprise over 90 percent of those required to register.

Men who have not yet registered should do so at any post office. Failure to register is a felony punishable by a fine of up to $250,000, up to 5 years in jail, or both.

Her memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part,
God has her in His keeping
We have her in our hearts.

Sadly missed by her families.

State cash is flowing into local treasuries this month, as checks totalling over $4,000,000 are sent out to county, town, city and village treasurers, the State Highway Commission of Wisconsin announces. These represent the state's annual contribution to localities for the maintenance of local roads and streets. State Highway Commission figures show Washington County will receive a total of $35,316.56 of which Kewaskum will receive $99.50.

The Ke-Waynie Five orchestra, formerly under the management of Sylvester Terlinden of Kewaskum, has reorganized following the resignation of the latter and Sylvester Harter. Three new members were added in their places and the orchestra is now composed of six pieces, namely: Paul Flasch, sax; Sylvester Volm, accordion; Ulrich Guntly, piano; Rudy Hoepner, drums; Frank "Bush" Guntly, violin, accordion and clarinet and Leo Wietor, violin.

Another death which shocked this community occurred on March 17, when Mrs. Fred Bartelt, 73, nee Wilhelmina Schultz, venerable resident of the Town of Kewaskum, who resided just south of the Village limits on Fond du Lac Avenue, was called in death at St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Art Ruplinger of St. Kilian on March 22.

75 Years Ago

March 22, 1913

The sad event of Mr. Oscar Teschendorf's death of the Town of Scott, which occurred on March 15th, is herewith made known to the readers of the Statesman. During the morning while in the act of felling a tree, Mr. Teschendorf was struck by a smaller tree, which was broken off by means of the former, fell towards the unfortunate, striking him on the head, causing the deathly blow. His brother was present at the time, who immediately rushed to neighbors for aid. Medical aid was at once summoned, but before the doctor arrived the young man passed away.

Last Sunday, Palm Sunday, two classes of children were confirmed. One class of 16 by Rev. Mohme, in the Ev. Peace Church and the other, a class of five in the Ev. Lutheran St. Lucas Church by Rev. Greve. The class confirmed in the Ev. Peace Church consisted of Melvin Brandt, Noah Brandt, Orie Buss, Edwin Opper, Melvin Schaub, Harry Schaefer, Herman Schaefer, Ralph Schaefer, Lorinda Geidel, Louise Giese, Malinda Guth, Virginia Koepke, Gertrude Mohme, Dora Opper, Gladys Perschbacher and Elva Weddig. The class confirmed in the Ev. Lutheran St. Lucas Church consisted of August Bilgo, August Seefeld, Celesta Martin, Belinda Bassil and Alma Nordhaus.

A class of nine children were confirmed in the St. John's Church in New Fane last Sunday, namely: Amanda Stange, Frieda Heberer, Elsie Fick, Alma Backhaus, Esther Bleck, Clara Krueger, Walter Oppermann, George Heberer and Eddie Fick.

The sudden death of Mary Anna Hammes, 15, on March 15th, at the home of her parents near St. Mathias, was a great shock to her relatives and many friends. She was taken ill with appendicitis in such a severe form a week preceding her death, and grew worse so rapidly that an operation could not be performed.

The amount available for the improvements for highways in Washington County this year will be $28,290, being about three times as much as was expended last year.

Four adults leading fairly active lives can be supplied well balanced meals at a cost of $2.50 a week each. This has been proved at the practice cottage of the University of Wisconsin Home Economics Department, where young women are taught practical home making.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sauter of Beechwood last Saturday. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy of Dundee on March 12. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Bremser, Kewaskum, on March 16. Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Schiltz of New Fane are the happy parents of a little daughter who made her appearance last Monday. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jake Kleinhaus of Elmore last week Thursday.

1986-87 Fur Harvest Puts $8.1 Million Into Circulation

Wisconsin furbearer harvest value for the 1986-87 season jumped 44 percent over the previous season, putting $8.1 million into circulation in the state economy, Chuck Pils, Department of Natural Resources wildlife furbearer specialist said.

"Muskrat continually comprises the largest number of individual species harvested in Wisconsin, this year making up 67 percent of the harvest total," Pils said. "Raccoon was second comprising 21 percent of the total while topping all of the state's furbearers in dollar value, producing $2.2 million of the harvest."

An estimated 662,000 muskrats were harvested with an average price of $3.39 per pelt. Raccoon averaged $18.00 per pelt with some 206,000 harvested. Together muskrat and raccoon accounted for $6.0 million, or 74 percent of the state's total fur harvest value. The total number of furbearers harvested was estimated at 981,000.

"Beaver ranks third as the most valuable furbearer in Wisconsin," Pils declared. "The estimated harvest this year of 48,730 beaver statewide is the highest take of this valuable furbearer ever recorded in Wisconsin's history."

Relatively high pelt prices and excellent trapping conditions were factors creating the high beaver harvest. Generally the increase in furs purchased and prices received are influenced by fluctuations in demand from the fashion market and the strength of the U.S. dollar.

"The harvest level for every species, except bobcat, was up from last year, which caused the substantial rise in total fur harvest value," Pils added. "Average prices were up for all species except for skunk and weasel. Fisher and bobcat average pelt prices increased substantially, up $29 and $21 each to $109 and $85 respectively."

A fisher season has been provided trappers since 1985. This season ran from December 1 through 11, 1987, to insure primeness of the pelts. A total of 300 permits were issued within three specific fisher management units and 98 were registered. Mild December weather conditions resulted in better trapping conditions to produce the increase over the 38 trapped in 1985.

Another record was set with 1,588 otters harvested during the past season. This is the highest since 1930 when records were started. The leading counties where otter were taken include Oneida, Sawyer and Price. Pelt prices averaged $27.

Pelt primeness, individual fur condition and bargaining power affect the variability of prices paid to hunters and trappers for their pelts, Pils explained.

The bobcat harvest for the state totaled 183 with 49 percent taken with the aid of hunting dogs. Another 45 percent were trapped and six percent were hunted without dogs. The average pelt price was $35.

The number of licensed trappers in Wisconsin decreased during the past trapping season. The general decline in fur prices over the last few years may have discouraged some trappers from trapping.

Other furbearers harvested, listed with the average price per pelt, include: mink, 30,900, $19; red fox, 20,500, $22; gray fox, 3,344, $20; opossum 3,750, $1.36; and coyote, 2,500, $16. There were 279 skunk harvested with an average pelt price of $2.44 and 293 weasel harvested with an average price just under $1.

'Watchable Wildlife' a Guide to Spring Adventure

Wildlife enthusiasts housebound by winter snow are cleaning binoculars and hiking boots and looking for compasses as warm spring weekends begin to tease them out of their snuggles. If the call of the wild has your heart pounding and you just have to get out, making a decision about where to go may be difficult.

"That's why we published Watchable Wildlife," said Steve Miller, Bureau of Wildlife Management director for the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. "We've chosen some of the most outstanding locations for wildlife watching in Wisconsin and highlighted them in a 72-page full color magazine."

"Choosing wasn't easy — there are more than 200 wildlife areas, state forests and parks in the Wisconsin and each one has an abundance of species. But Watchable Wildlife highlights the top 35," said Miller. "There are even maps and directions."

This special magazine also features wildlife watching tips and articles on such topics as eagles, ospreys and loons, backyard wildlife, reading wildlife "signs," watching amphibians and reptiles, and listening techniques.

Watchable Wildlife is available at many DNR district and area offices at a cost of $3.00, or $4.00 through the mail. Call your local DNR office for details or send $4.00 to: Bureau of Wildlife Management, Dept. of Natural Resources, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707.

(It was noted that the Village President and Administrator do have the authority to declare a snow emergency by ordinance if necessary.)

Administrator Daniel Schmidt reviewed the possibility of the replacement of the Village-owned mercury vapor street/security lights. The estimated cost for the four (4) projects or 74 lights would equal $12,000 with the estimated savings per year at $2,800.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the Administrator to prepare applications for the street lighting rehabilitation work and apply for a rebate/refund from Wisconsin Electric Power Co.

Trustee Mary Krueger asked if the Administrator would inform the Board of the Governor's Budget Bills. Administrator Schmidt reviewed several of the proposed changes.

On a motion by Trustee Mary Krueger, seconded by Trustee Howard Laubenstein and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board directed the Administrator to call the Legislative Hot Line, to inform them that the idea of property tax reduction would be great if it did not involve an overall increase in general/total taxes paid and if no cost controls would be included in the Bill.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Richard Schmidt to adjourn to closed session under Chapter 19.85(1)(e) to deliberate and negotiate the purchase and disposition of public lands (referring to Kewaskum Industrial Park). Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent." The motion was carried unanimously.

Staehler, Kleinhans Travel South With Ripon Baseball Team

Kewaskum has three players on the Ripon College baseball teams this year. The Ripon College baseball team returned from the friendly confines of Storzer Physical Education Center and traveled south to participate in the Gulf Coast Classic at Panama City, Florida. In Florida, the Redmen were greeted by nice weather and several good baseball teams, including a number of Division I and Division II schools. The Redmen were able to sandwich one big win among four tough losses.

According to coach Bob Gillespie, Rick Staehler, junior outfielder and Tyrone Kleinhans, junior infielder, of Kewaskum, members of the team, filled some big holes at two positions. "Once our hitting gets squared away, we have a chance to put together a really great season," Gillespie stated.

Staehler is the son of John and Karen Staehler of Kewaskum and attended Kewaskum High School. Kleinhans is the son of Jim and Penny Kleinhans of Kewaskum and attended Deerfield High School.

Sandra Secor, junior outfielder, also is a member of the Ripon Women's baseball team. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Secor of Kewaskum and also a KHS graduate.

Shaw Sets Mark as Indian Trackmen Begin New Season

The Kewaskum boys' track team outscored an inexperienced Random Lake team, 88-21, last Thursday at Kewaskum in the Indians' first track meet of the season.

Senior Miles Shaw vaulted 12'3" to break the school indoor pole vault record which stood for 12 years. The previous record of 12'0" was set by Dennis Bremser in 1976. Shaw also won the 1600 meter run with a time of 5:05.3 and ran the second leg of the winning 1600 meter relay team.

Senior David Harju won the long jump, anchored both winning relays (the 1600 meter relay and the 800 meter relay), and placed third in the 200 meter dash.

The hurdle trio of juniors Marty Schulteis, Ryan Degnitz, and Chris Follmann swept both hurdle events, the 45 meter high hurdles and the 45 meter intermediate hurdles. Schulteis won the high hurdles in 6.9 seconds and the intermediate hurdles in 6.8 seconds. He also was instrumental in the win for the 1600 meter relay team.

Degnitz, who placed second in both hurdle events right behind Schulteis, won the 400 meter dash with a time just over one minute.

Follmann took a first in the high jump leaping 5'6" to go with his two thirds in the hurdle events.

Junior Dan Fischer, bothered by a pulled muscle, still managed to win the 20 meter dash in 27.4 seconds. He also helped the 800 meter relay team win in 1:49.4 and placed second in the 40 meter dash.

Senior Clarence Fry also a member of the winning 800 meter relay team as well as the winning 1600 meter relay team placed second in the long jump.

Jeff Taylor, the Indians best shot put dominated in the shot put with a put of 46'. Junior teammate, Cory Oppermann placed second behind Taylor with a 38' put.

Senior Sprinter Mike Lubahn won the 40 meter dash with a 5.5 second time; however, due to a sore back he was unable to compete in the 200 meter dash and the 800 meter relay.

With everyone back from last season and many talented newcomers, the Indians are looking to improve from their last place finish in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Meet a year ago.

Head coach, Dave Drexler believes "so far this team looks to be our strongest in years. We will not have the depth in the events, but individually we should be strong."

The Indians will compete in the Washington County Indoor Meet on Thursday, March 24, at the West Bend High Schools' gymnasium.

KHS Golfers Optimistic About Upcoming Season

You mean you didn't know there was golf at Kewaskum High School? Well, if you didn't know, take notice because this season may be the Indians' finest.

The linksters have four returning lettermen, which include three-time letterwinner Gregg Dean. Dean, who was the Indians' Most Valuable Player the past two seasons, also has captured All-Conference honors. The most improved linkster last year was Joel Fleury. As a first year letterwinner, he captured All-Conference honors. Another three-time letterwinner is Eric Pearson who was a sectional qualifier two years ago. Also, Joel Miller last year had his first varsity experience.

Last year's accomplishments were second place finish in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. Besides that they were sectional qualifiers as a team.

Kewaskum golf team plays head-to-head nine hole meets; also, they have three invitationals which consists of eighteen hole tournaments and the state tournament. The Indians' home course is Hon-E-Kor Country Club. The golf season consists of six weeks, and what the linksters do in the state tournament depends on how long the season will progress.

The following people plan to participate on the golf team this season: Bruce Bodden, Don Iwen, John Jalas, Mike Johann, Mike Amerling, Tim Butschlick, Steve Gerhartz, Brian Fleury, Mike Ruplinger, Jesse Santoro, Chad Schmidt, Stacy Schmitt, Tim Schultz, Steve Bodden, Brian Dobke, Jason Gengler, Darrin Haeuser, Scott Heller, Jeff Sabish, Dean Slaughenhoup, and Joe Steier.

The first head-to-head meet will take place at Hon-E-Kor C.C. against the Slinger Owls on April 13.

Hunter Safety Course Begins Apr. 6

Richard Knoebel, a Wisconsin DNR Certified Hunter Safety Instructor, invites all young people interested in hunting and recreational shooting to enroll in a Wisconsin Hunter Education course. The course will be starting on Wed., April 6, at 3:30 p.m. at the Kewaskum Municipal Building Community Room and is sponsored by the Kewaskum Police Department. Students must be 12 years old to enroll (or reach 12 prior to the end of 1988). There is no maximum age, and parents are also encouraged to enroll and participate.

Class size is limited and advanced registration is required. Please contact Richard Knoebel at 626-4311 for more details.

Persons successfully completing the course will receive a distinctive embroidered emblem and a hunter safety graduate certificate. The certificate is valid in lieu of a small game hunting license for one season, and is a lifetime certificate required for hunting in many states and provinces.

Young students certified will also be able to hunt and use firearms without parent or guardian present at age fourteen instead of age sixteen.

Classes will cover responsibilities of hunters, firearms safety in the home and afield, knowledge of firearms and hunting equipment, wildlife identification and management, marksmanship and outdoor skills.
