Lot Layout Changes Will Increase School Parking

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At its meeting Monday night, the Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Committee agreed with a proposal to change the layout of the Middle and High Schools parking lots.

Buildings Superintendent Fred Boehlke presented the committee with sketches which show that, changing from horizontal to angle parking will increase the capacity of the two lots substantially. The High School lot adjacent to the field house would increase from its current 24 spaces to 35 parking stalls. The parking lot between the two schools would be increased by 49 spaces, from the present 45 to 94.

Boehlke said the only cost involved would be for paint and the services of two employes for one week to restripe the lots.

District Administrator Penny Kleinhans noted it was hoped the additional parking would help to reduce parking problems in the area. She said the district had been asked by the village to find a solution to alleviate parking problems along First and Third Streets. Once the change is made the district will have to advise the public that more parking is available at the schools, noted Kleinhans.

In other discussions, the committee moved to pass on a recommendation to the full school board that fuel tanks at the high school and Kewaskum Elementary be abandoned.

The tanks, which have only been used as standbys, would be flushed, pumped out, and filled with a gravel-type material in accordance with Department of Natural Resources requirements. The total cost for the work would be $4,500.

Committee member John Spoerl questioned the possibility of removing the tanks. Boehlke said that abandonment procedure would cost approximately twice as much and then there would be the added problem of trying to dispose of the tanks. He stated virtually no one is willing to accept abandoned tanks.

The committee also discussed the replacement of a heat exchanger in the high school shop furnace. Boehlke said an inspection of the exchanger showed more than a dozen rust holes which were allowing

New Street Lights Mean Rebates, Cost Savings

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board, Monday night, approved the request of Village Administrator Dan Schmidt to proceed with rehabilitating street and security lights in four areas of the village. The work will be done in conjunction with Wisconsin Electric's "Smart Money" energy program.

Four lights along Reigle Drive will be changed at a cost of $723. The village will receive an $88 rebate and the change will mean a savings of $118 per year in electric usage costs. Based on those figures, said Schmidt, the new lights will pay for themselves in four years.

Change of village-owned lights along Main Street will cost $4,722. These will earn a $591 rebate and reduce lighting costs by $794 a year, with total payback in three years and nine months.

Replacement of lights on Fond du Lac Avenue will cost $4,547, with a rebate of $569, and an electrical costs saving of $764 annually. Payback will be the same as the Main Street lighting.

Rehabilitating park lights will cost $2,263, with a rebate of $381 and an annual electric saving of $502. Payback will take two years and five months.

Schmidt also updated the board on the village's sidewalk improvement program. Engineers should have the plans and specifications completed by the end of the month. An assessment hearing will then be scheduled for the early part of May, followed by the advertisement for bids on the work.

Schmidt said the third phase of the project is expected to be completed by August 15th.

Schmidt advised the trustees that work at the Kiwanis Park pool had been completed. He said 10,000 gallons of sediment had been vacuumed from the pool, and 40 loads of debris filled sand removed and replaced with 40 loads of clean sand. Schmidt said the new aeration system is in place and expected to go into operation shortly.

A request by the Kewaskum High School's National Honor Society to have softball diamond fees waived was also approved. The society is planning to hold a benefit tournament in May, with proceeds going to the KEYS Scholarship Fund.

The board also accepted the offer of the local AAL branch to assist with Christmas decorations during that holiday. The group would like to put up a Christmas tree and hold a short lighting program.

The trustees discussed a request by the Kettle Moraine Condominium Association to create additional parking at the east end of its complex. Action on the request was tabled until a future meeting.

Schmidt also reviewed a recycling survey done by the Mid-Moraine Municipal Association. He asked the trustees to look over the information. Schmidt said the survey would be used as a guide for setting up a recycling policy for the village. He expected that policy to be ready for the board's review and possible approval by June 1st.

Schmidt asked for permission to advertise for a new secretary. He informed the board the village's present secretary had submitted her resignation effective immediately.

Board president Paul Blumer issued a proclamation declaring April 23rd, as "Clean Up Kewaskum Day." The project is being organized by the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

High School OM Team Takes Second at State

Students from all over the state of Wisconsin displayed their abilities in a variety of ways on Saturday, April 9, at the University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point. Kewaskum was represented by three teams: Kewaskum Middle School, coached by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Beimborn; Kewaskum High School, coached by Mrs. M. A. Peterson; and Kewaskum High School coached by Mr. Charles O. Kocher.

Mrs. M. A. Peterson's team took second place in their division. Their problem was "Atlantis." In sum, the Kewaskum O/M teams and coaches had another very successful year. Hats off to all players and coaches!

Fire Destroys Van

carbon gases to escape. He noted temporary patching of the unit had been made but the board would have to consider replacing the exchanger or replacing the entire furnace. The exchanger would be the cheaper of the two choices.

The committee voted to recommend the apparent low bid of Envytr Systems, Inc., to disassemble the furnace, replace the exchanger and reassemble the furnace.

The committee also discussed engineering bids for repair of the high school tennis court. After reviewing the three bids, which were dated December 1987, the committee directed Boehlke and Kleinhans to go back to the companies and ask for current bids on those engineering costs.

Of the three companies, only one, Gremmer-Bablitch gave a specific dollar amount. Committee Chairman Ron Theusch said he could not see spending $6,000 just for engineering work on the tennis court.

Kleinhans said she and Boehlke would prefer to have an engineering study done that would include all the outdoor sports facilities. She said that while she did not have the figures immediately available, the cost to do that engineering project was not much more than the bids for just the tennis court.

Committee member Irene Gnacinski agreed with Kleinhans' comments. "We know that we're going to have to do something with the football field in the future," said Gnacinski, "so we might as well look into having the engineering done for all the facilities."

The committee then directed Boehlke to also request bids for engineering that would include the tennis court, football field and track. Boehlke will then bring the new bids back to the committee for further review and discussion.

Plymouth.

The Kewaskum Fire Department received the fire call at 10:37 a.m. According to reports, Leist was traveling north through New Fane. He smelled gas, stopped the vehicle, but could not find anything wrong. He then proceeded on his way. At the intersection of Auburn-Ashford Drive and Youth Camp Road, just west of St. John's Church, Leist again smelled gas and then fire. He drove the van off the road into the ditch and got out. The vehicle then burst into flames.

By the time the fire department arrived on the scene the van was completely engulfed in flames. The vehicle was a total loss.

The blaze also started a small grass fire. The Kewaskum Fire Department was at the scene about an hour.

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM NEWS NOTES

Arrival of Wetland Maps

Maps delineating the wetlands in the Village have arrived at the Village Clerk's office. They are available for public inspection at the Municipal Building, 204 First Street, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

The Village of Kewaskum has 90 days to suggest changes to these maps. A public hearing, to be announced later, will be held to review the accuracy of the maps, which were prepared by the Department of Natural Resources.

After the maps are corrected, the Village will be required to adopt the final Wisconsin Wetlands Inventory maps as part of a shoreland zoning ordinance under Chapter NR 117, Wisconsin Administrative Code. The maps will be used by the municipality to regulate certain uses of wetlands within the incorporated shoreland areas.

The shoreland zone is the area within the following distances from the ordinary highwater mark of navigable waters:

- a) 1000 feet from a lake, pond or flowage
- b) 300 feet from a river or stream, or to the landward side of the floodplain, whichever distance is greater.

For further information on the wetlands mapping program, contact Kewaskum Village Administrator/Clerk, Daniel S. Schmidt, at 204 First Street, Kewaskum, WI or telephone (414) 626-8484.

History of Professional Secretaries Week

1988 PROFESSIONAL SECRETARIES WEEK
April 24 - April 30, 1988

In the spring of 1952, National Secretaries Association (International) President Mary Barrett and C. King Woodbridge, President of Dictaphone Corporation, were working together on a council to address the national shortage of skilled office workers. Together they formed a plan to ask United States Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer to proclaim a National Secretaries Week.

The purpose: To recognize...the American secretary upon whose skills, loyalty, and efficiency the functions of business and government offices depend."

The objective: To call attention, "through favorable publicity, to the tremendous potential of the secretarial career."

With the help of Washington friends and Mr. Woodbridge's enthusiasm and financial assistance, the dream was achieved. Secretary of Commerce Sawyer proclaimed the first Secretaries Week (then called National Secretaries Week) June 1 through 7, 1952, with Wednesday, June 4, as Secretaries Day. President Barrett and Mr. Woodbridge were invited to Washington for the official announcement, which received national publicity.

In 1955, NSA changed the date of Secretaries Week to the last full week in April. This has become a permanent date for the observance of Secretaries Week, with Wednesday of that week designated as Secretaries

Day. When the name of The National Secretaries Association (International) was changed to Professional Secretaries International® in March 1981, the word "Professional" was added to the name of Secretaries Week and Secretaries Day. Professional Secretaries International® continues to be the sole sponsor of Professional Secretaries Week and Professional Secretaries Day.

The first year that the President of the United States gave official recognition to the secretarial profession was 1972. This was achieved by a letter to President Richard M. Nixon from International President Angeline Krout CPS.

As national and civic pride in secretaries has grown, so has recognition of the Week. In addition to official acknowledgement by the President of the United States and the Prime Minister of Canada, recognition has come from state, provincial, county, and municipal governments. International recognition is growing through the efforts of PSI individual affiliates and affiliated autonomous associations and chapters throughout the world.

America's first extensive hard-surface road was built in Pennsylvania. Completed in 1795, it was known as the Lancaster Turnpike and ran 62 miles.

Letters to the Editor

April 18, 1988

To the people of the Kewaskum School District:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of those people who voted for me on April 5. I will continue to work to control spending, while at the same time work to build an education system of which we can all be proud.

I honestly believe that we have a good school system in Kewaskum, and that we have many outstanding teachers. I think that my children are getting a good education, and that if the school board will work with the administration, we can make improvements that will further benefit our kids and our community.

I want to publicly acknowledge the excellent job that Ron Theusch did while serving the past three years as a school board member. Though we disagreed on many issues, it was a pleasure to discuss and debate those issues in public. I think these discussions gave the people of the community a better understanding of what the real issues were.

My commitment to the school district is to live up to the same high ethical standards that Ron demonstrated those three years — integrity, morality, and a genuine concern for the kids.

Perry M. Ankerson

April 17, 1988

To The Voters In The Kewaskum School District:

I would like to thank all those who turned out to the polls for the April 5th elections, especially to those who voted and supported me. I would also like to extend a personal thank you to those who allowed me to place yard signs on their property during my campaign.

As your "voice" on the Kewaskum School Board, I will welcome your comments, suggestions and concerns on school district matters and I pledge to act on them with the best interest of the school district in mind.

Thank you, again, for your votes and support.

Sincerely,
Neal D. Weare

April 13, 1988

Editor:

Congratulations go to the winners Perry Ankerson and Neal Weare in their recent victories for the two positions on the Kewaskum School Board. My best advice to them is that they be their own true person in making board decisions for the Kewaskum School District.

Many thanks to all who have helped me with encouragement, advice, time and support in my efforts in this recent close contest. The recent petition added some interest to the campaign.

The statement, that a 6% raise was not enough for the teachers, in Marilyn Haug's letter of April 1, is false. The question raised at the Forum, sponsored by the League of Women Voters was "Was the 6% raise the teachers of the West Bend Schools received, too much?" My response was that in view of the 3 - 4% rate of inflation 6% is not too much. Please note, there is a difference.

The reference to toxic waste in Kim Peterson's letter is also false. A few years ago The Milwaukee Journal carried an article concerning the storage of material that was contaminated by low level radiation. The U.S. Energy Dept. was looking for some place to store the material, which would be adequately shielded to prevent contamination to the vicinity. Should any community be selected, it would have to meet quite strict requirements and the community would then be compensated to the amount of $100,000. to $200,000.00 per year. For a township that has revenue of about $300,000.00 this would be a topic to consider.

At the time, there was much talk about lowering property taxes, so I submitted the article to Marcia Theusch to give to Jack Theusch to use as a base of discussion at a town of Farmington Meeting. There was no follow up and I surmised that it was a dead issue - until Peterson's letter of April 1, 1988.

So good reader, you can see how words get twisted to convey a meaning other than the original intent.

Sincerely,
Edward J. Slegler, Jr.

IT'S THAT MAGIC TIME OF THE YEAR

GARDEN ART FAIR
SILVERBROOK SCHOOL
WEST BEND, WIS. 53095

GERRI WARD, MMP CHAIRWOMAN

For most of us, spring heralds a marvelous feeling of renewal — grass greening, leaves and flowers budding and extended daylight — a real uplifting of our spirits.

But, in addition to this, to those of us in the St. Joseph's Community Hospital Auxiliary, spring means MAGIC MARKETPLACE!

Plans are already well under way for the Magic Marketplace Garden Art Fair, to be held at Silverbrook Middle School on Sunday, May 15, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Many of the old favorites are back such as the Greenery, Pantry, Children's Booths, etc., along with a fine array of artisans and craft people. In fact, Marge Kieckhafer, Artists and Judges Chairwoman, tells us that many new faces will be present in the display booths — exhibitors who will be at Magic Marketplace for the very first time this year. So, you see, you haven't seen it all yet!

Marlene Listwan and the ladies of St. Frances Cabrini Church have again produced a unique quilt entitled "Irish Chain," done in shades of creme, mauve, and moss green. Measuring 90" x 90", it is large enough for a queen-size bed.

Fabulous Booster prizes have also been acquired for this event:

1. Ladies 24 Karat Gold, Diamond and Ruby Bracelet and Brooch
Donated by: Allen Hron Jewelers, Pick Heaters, Inc., West Bend Marine Bank, M & I First National Bank, Walter's Carpet Gallery, Inc., Myrhum Funeral Home, Hemauer's Decorating, Mr. Allen Koepke.
2. $500 Gift Certificate for furniture from Miller's Furniture Store, Kewaskum
Donated by: Miller's Furniture Store, Drs. Cesar Sison & Florizel Castro, Valley Bank, Kewaskum, Sentry Foods, Kewaskum, Kemps Dairy Products, Kewaskum, Kewaskum Frozen Foods, Strobel Oil Company, Inc., Friends of St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary.
3. Season tickets for two for Pops Concert at the PAC.
Donated by: Amity Leather Products Company, Inc.
4. $200 worth of groceries/meats from Pick 'N Save.

Donated by: Pick 'N Save, West Bend.

5. $100 Gift Certificate for shoes from The Shoe Rack
Donated by: Bill Hamilton

6. Gift Certificate for 5 sessions/sunbed at the Creative Cut Chalet

Donated by: Creative Cut Chalet

Refreshments and hot sandwiches will again be served. Come see your favorite M.D. in his pretty little frilly apron.

The Silent Auction, always a favorite Magic Marketplace booth, will again be featured.

All proceeds from Magic Marketplace, one of our three major fundraisers each year, are donated to the hospital for its benefit and that of its patients. So, with your continued support and cooperation, we can continue to meet our financial pledge to the hospital.

Stay tuned, and hope to see you there!

A National Library Week Message from State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover

I encourage everyone in Wisconsin to investigate the wide range of information our libraries offer during National Library Week, April 17 to 23. During April we also celebrate National School Library Media Month.

Libraries are cornerstones of our culture. They are the traditional storehouses for the knowledge and ideas of the past but today provide much more. In this information age, libraries help meet the demands of a rapidly changing world by expanding their resources beyond books.

The Department of Public Instruction's Division for Library Services provides consultation services to school library media centers and public libraries to help them in their tasks. The DPI also has statutory responsibility for administration of the public library system program and the Library Services and Construction Act, and it is responsible for resource sharing and networking among libraries.

Today's libraries offer the latest in audio and video technology, computer software, and databases. These materials are available to all individuals and businesses. In addition, libraries serve the special needs of communities by providing materials for children, the homebound, and the handicapped. Reference services, comprehensive periodical collections, and consumer and employment information make our libraries a valuable asset for the entire adult community as well.

Through programs such as Inter-library Loan and the Bookmobile, our libraries reach out to make themselves accessible to everyone. Libraries even benefit those who do not read, not only by providing visual arts, but by actively supporting those groups working to address the problem of illiteracy in America.

We Americans take pride in our richly diverse cultural history. Wisconsin's school libraries are responsible for providing an accurate and unbiased source of materials that reflect and enrich the pluralistic nature of American society. For students to meet the practical and ethical challenges of the future, access to the board spectrum of information and thought in our society is vital.

Evaluation of our schools shows a significant relationship between student achievement and the quality of library and media services. The success of our educational system and the future of economic development in our state are linked to the quality of services our libraries provide.

To promote library use, the American Library Association is mounting a library card sign-up campaign. The American Association of School Librarians joins this effort by encouraging parents, teachers, and students to visit their school's library media center.

April will be an opportunity to recognize the importance of libraries for all of us; to challenge ourselves not only to support our libraries, but to explore their benefits firsthand. During this National Library Week and School Library Media Month, I encourage everyone to discover their libraries.

Warm Weather Workout

by Jacquie Wiedmeyer
Fitness Firm Instructor

Now that the warm weather is here there is no need to slow down on your exercise program. The warm weather may get you thinking about how fit you really are.

People can still enjoy aerobics, walking, running or biking. If you are starting a new outdoor activity keep in mind how active you have been in the last few months. Do not try to keep up with the younger you. The body does age as time goes by. What ever activity you start in, take it nice and easy.

Most people quit a fitness program because they ask too much of their bodies in the early stage of the program. Starting out at a low level is a key to a pain free and enjoyable time in the sport. Muscles, ligaments and tendons all take time to respond to training. Give your body time to warm-up, stretch and cool down:

The best time to do stretching is after the muscles are warm.

One of the fastest growing activities is walking. Walking can be aerobic. Many people are putting weights on their bodies to get a better workout in walking. Never put weights on the ankles, the legs get enough stress from the walking. Put the weights on the wrists to build up the upper body and to burn extra calories.

When using weights for the upper body keep the elbows bent and arms fairly close to the body. Do not lock the elbows or use large swinging movements. Let the muscles do the work not the joints. The arm movements should be controlled at all times. Elbow presses, lateral pulls, tricep extensions, deltoid swings are all movements you can use to build up the upper body.

You can swing the arms to burn up more calories, but remember to control your arms. Try to stand tall when walking, pull the navel to the spine, lift the ribs up off the hips. From a side view of the body try to keep the ears in line with the shoulders and the shoulders in line with the hips. These posture tips are not only good for walking but also good to remember when sitting, standing, aerobics, or running.

Today's minutemen can get to the refrigerator and back during a TV commercial.

KMLHS Presented With Learning Aids on Teen Suicide Prevention

Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School in Jackson, Wisconsin, is taking an active role in helping to curb the tragedy of teen suicide.

AAL, an Appleton, Wisconsin-based fraternal benefit society, has presented the school with key learning aids which the Rev. Roger Schultz, principal of Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School, hopes will have a positive impact on both students and their parents. The learning aids include a videotape, called "Fragile Time," and related discussion materials which were developed after extensive research by the Minnesota Extension Service at the University of Minnesota. AAL is providing all 102 Lutheran high schools in the United States with the program and all related materials.

According to Barbara Kuxhaus, manager of the AAL grant program, "Since suicide is a leading cause of death among young people, we felt it was vital to provide a way for schools to educate parents, teachers and students about how to recognize warning signs. We found that most schools did not have the resources necessary to offer this kind of program."

The videotape combines research data about adolescent stress, depression and suicide with the personal stories of three young people who fell into the "high risk" category. "The videotape is very poignant," Kuxhaus said. "Suicide is such a devastating experience for family and friends. We really feel this program can make a difference."

It is expected that the videotape will be shown to school classes with group discussion following the sessions.

AAL provides 1.4 million members in 6,800 nationwide branches with fraternal benefits while its affiliated companies offer members other financial services. In addition, members are offered volunteer opportunities to help others in their own communities. AAL is the nation's largest fraternal benefit society in terms of assets and ordinary life insurance in force.

Citizen Advocacy Holds Tenth Annual Meeting

Citizen Advocacy Board President Lynn Camin chaired the annual meeting portion of Citizen Advocacy's 10th Annual Dinner Celebration.

The meeting is held in conjunction with the dinner in order to include the voting membership in decisions that affect Citizen Advocacy. This process is unique to Citizen Advocacy and insures membership involvement in the decision-making process.

The agenda included a change in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, and the nomination of new Board members Collene Anderson, Carol Bauer, Rev. Chuck Brummond, Barbara Deters, Hallie Stollenwerk and Linda Thies. All were unanimously elected to the Board, with terms ending in March, 1990.

Re-elected to the Board for renewed terms ending in March 1990 were Frank DeRaimo, Bob Deters, Gretchen Fincke, Dr. Bill Gerard, Kathy Ramsthal and Susan Sauer.

Continuing Board members are Lynn Camin, President; Dale Tietz, Treasurer; Con Hall, Joan Pick, Georgette Raab, Jane Reigle and Marge Schloemer. Their terms will end in March, 1989.

Treasurer Dale Tietz gave the financial report which reflected the 40% support from the United Ways, and the remaining 60% from donations and fundraisers.

He told the group that, although Citizen Advocacy has been doing a good job in fundraising this past year, the need for services is still growing; Citizen Advocacy must work hard at fundraising to meet those needs. Community support is crucial to the program's growth.

Votes to Support UWWC Expansion

The Board of Directors of the Kettle Moraine Chapter of the National Management Association has voted to support a $1.9 million expansion of the University of Wisconsin Center - Washington County.

The unanimous action came March 9 following a presentation on UWWC space needs by an NMA member.

In its resolution, the board went on record to "encourage its members to become aware of the needs of the UWWC campus." Members were asked to "support the additional facilities by contacting members of the city council or county supervisors to encourage their support of this project."

The motion was made by Dwain Ehrlich, superintendent of West Bend schools and secretary of the NMA board, and seconded by Dave Westenberger of SEEK, Inc., a member of the board.

Voting for the endorsement were board officers David Heving of the West Bend

Marine Bank, president; Douglas Behrend of Time Insurance, vice president; Beth Wachs of the West Bend Marine Bank, treasurer; and Ehrlich; and board members James McLean of West Bend Mutual, Randy Wiskirchen of Serigraph, Jeff Valind of Luitink Mfg., Westenberger and Betty Pearson of the West Bend Chamber of Commerce.

The Kettle Moraine Chapter of NMA was chartered last November and has 240 members from 28 firms including Serigraph Sales Inc., West Bend Mutual, Amity, B.C. Ziegler Company, Regal Ware, St. Joseph's Hospital, M & I First National, Pick and Save, Gehl Co., West Bend Marine Bank, Dairyland Seed, Dennis Probnor Masonry, Dillon Royale, Enger Kress, Gehl Co., Guarantee Savings, Praefke Brake, Prescotts, SEEK Incorporated, Stuart Peterson Group, The Threshold Inc., Tim Insurance, Washington County, West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce, West Bend Community Memorial Library, West Bend Schools, Windy's Service and Wisconsin Electric Power.

In the Service

Army ROTC Cadet Mark G. Rosenthal was one of 124 cadets and midshipmen who participated in the Reserve Officers Association seminar held in Washington.

The annual event brings to the nation's capital the top ROTC cadets from all branches of the service to the three-day conference to hear the views and opinions of some of the most militarily-informed people in the country.

A highlight of the session was a major address to the organization by President Reagan.

The cadets were chosen from among their contemporaries for their academic and military achievements.

Rosenthal is the son of Gordon E. and Patricia A. Rosenthal of 5012 Beaver Dam Road, West Bend.

A 1985 graduate of Kewaskum High School, he is attending Bradley University, Peoria, Ill.

1 can (10½ ounces) condensed beef broth
¼ cup water
2 tablespoons flour

In large shallow dish, pour combined vinegar, garlic, thyme, pepper and bay leaf over round steak; cover and refrigerate 1 hour. Drain round steak; save marinade. Sprinkle steak with salt. Arrange a layer of bread crumbs, spinach, onion and carrots (slender and about 8 inches long) on steak; sprinkle with parsley. Roll up; tie securely in several places. Brown round steak in oil in frying pan. Place in shallow baking dish. Pour on reserved marinade and broth (undiluted). Cover dish with aluminum foil and bake at 350°F. until tender, approximately 2-2½ hours. Remove round steak; keep warm. Spoon off excess fat from drippings; add water to make 1½ cups liquid. Stir in mixed ¼ cup water and flour. Cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Slice and serve.

Marinades are "in". Use of wine, vinegar or lemon juice as a base for an oil-free marinade helps to tenderize those less tender cuts of beef such as round steak. Round steak needs tenderizing because it contains connective tissue and muscle fiber. Tips when working with a marinade are as follows:

- Marinate beef in the refrigerator to prevent bacterial growth. Marinate no longer than 24 hours and if beef is cubed, marinate for only 3 to 4 hours.
- Use a non metal container and turn frequently to distribute the marinade.
- Use ground spices and whole leaf herbs in uncooked marinades. These seasonings release flavor without heat.
- If marinade is used as a sauce, boil before serving.

The numbers in the nutritional analysis for Stuffed Beef Steak will please you. Share this special recipe with family or a few close friends. Dine at home in style. Yes, Wisconsin Beef is great from pasture to plate.

Lottery Games Set for June, Says Director Flynn

Lottery Director Bill Flynn said he hopes to have the games operating by mid-June, if all things go as planned. Flynn made his comments in Lt. Governor Scott McCallum's weekly column, "Insights on Small Business."

Flynn said he expected Wisconsinites will be able to play three standard lottery games. One will be the "instant ticket" game, where a player scratches off a latex covering to match a certain preset three-of-a-kind. The prize will be stated on the ticket.

The second game will be a "pull tab" game, where players spend 50 cents and then pop five panels and hope for the right combination of symbols for a prize.

By fall a Lotto game should begin. This is the game with the potential for big winnings, where a player has to buy the ticket with the correct numbers. "The pull-tab games are small prize games with lots of winners. The instant games typically have a $1 million prize at the end of each game. The Lotto games are a function of how many people play - the more players, the larger the jackpot," Flynn said.

Flynn said he expected that people in every Wisconsin community will be able to buy tickets someplace locally.

A transcript follows:

LT. GOV. McCALLUM: Bill, you started your job with Wisconsin on January 26th. Since then what have you been up to?

FLYNN: We've been organizing the office, and we've got some proposals to get a vendor to produce the tickets we will sell. We're also working on the computer systems we need to control our finances and take care of the business.

McCALLUM: When you say working with the vendors, does that mean you will be letting out bids to some out of state firm that's going to help to run the lottery?

FLYNN: Yes. We've got two bids out now. One is for printing the tickets - there are no Wisconsin printers that we are aware of - and the other one is for a firm to come in and get the State started.

McCALLUM: What type of games will the residents of Wisconsin be able to play?

FLYNN: We'll start with the traditional instant ticket game. That's a game where you scratch off the latex covering on a ticket and if you match a certain preset three of a kind, for example, you win the prize that's stated on the ticket.

The second game is a pull-tab game. Some people refer to them as "pickle tickets," others call them "break-open" tickets. These sell for about 50 cents. A player pops open 5 panels and if the panels have the right combination of winning symbols, they win the prize on the ticket.

The third, that we'll see will be a little bit later this fall, will be an on-line format game. Typically it's called Lotto. In some states they play Lotto along with a three digit number game. We'll probably start with Lotto in the fall.

McCALLUM: It seems other states get big publicity from the million dollar winnings. What will we see in Wisconsin?

FLYNN: The pull tab games are small prize games with a lot of prizes. It's for people who really want to win a lot and have a lot of fun playing. The instant games typically have a million dollar prize at the end of each game.

The Lotto games are a function of how many people play because it's a paramutual game - the larger the state's population, the larger the jackpot. States like Illinois, California, soon to be Florida and New York are able to offer big jackpots because it's a function of how many people live in the state.

McCALLUM: When will Wisconsin residents will be able to go out and purchase tickets?

FLYNN: We've asked for a commitment in our proposal for the start up vendor to begin about June 13th. Once we get the bids in, we have to evaluate them and some time early in April we should be able to award the contract. At that point we'll pin down the exact date of the start.

McCALLUM: Who's going to be able to sell the tickets? How many small business outlets do you expect to be selling lottery tickets in the state?

FLYNN: That again would be a function of how many people actually apply. My experience in Colorado was about 1,400 vendors were small businesspeople.

McCALLUM: We've got almost 100,000 small businesses in Wisconsin. I expect in just about every community people are going to be able to buy tickets some place then.

FLYNN: That's true.

McCALLUM: If you have any questions about the lottery, or any other business concerns, call the Lt. Governor's office at (608) 266-3516 or write to 22 East, State Capitol, Madison, WI 53702.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Barry Ehnert, who passed away one year ago, April 21, 1987:

God saw he was getting tired,

And a cure was not to be.
So he put his arms around him,
And whispered "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes I watched him suffer.

And saw him fade away

Although I loved him dearly,
I could not make him stay.

His golden heart stopped beating.

Hard working hands to rest,
God broke my heart to prove to me.

He only takes the best.

Love Always,
Chris

Spiritual Enrichment Concert at Fond du Lac

MERRILL WOMACH

Fond du Lac Kiwanis Clubs will present a community-wide spiritual enrichment concert at 8 p.m. Friday, May 20, in University of Wisconsin Center - Fond du Lac Gymnasium.

Featured will be Merrill Womach of Spokane, Wash., an internationally-known singing artist who has a vocal range of four octaves. He uses advanced electronic techniques to amplify his Christian performance.

Al Timm of Fond du Lac, Kiwanis general chairman, said a freewill offering will be taken and no tickets will be sold. Family groups are invited to attend the informal concert, Timm said.

He noted that Womach, who has been gospel singing since age 6, performed in sacred concerts on stage, screen, radio and TV in virtually all of the United States. Womach's voice is heard on tape in many funeral homes in the U.S. and Canada.

Womach is founder of National Music Service with offices in the states, Australia and Great Britain.

Timm points out that "Womach miraculously survived a fiery airplane crash in 1961," when Womach became a human torch and spent 55 weeks in hospitals to restore his burned body and face.

Womach and his wife are authors of "Tested By Fire," a best-selling religious book which was made into a movie and translated to many foreign languages.

"We expect to see the Campus Gym filled to its capacity of 1,800 people," Timm said. "A total of 1,200 persons attended the recent Merrill Womach concert in Belleville, Wis., which has a population of only 1,302."

"Our program here is not a profit-making project; it's a spiritual growth community service through Kiwanis for everyone to enjoy," Timm said. "This is our local observance of National Day of Prayer designated earlier by President Ronald Reagan and supported by Kiwanis International."

Presenting the one-night "Womach in Concert" on May 20 are the Kiwanis Clubs Spiritual Aims Committees: North Fond du Lac and Fond du Lac (Noon, Sunrises, Fabulous FDL and Lakeside).

Foreign Students Looking for American Host Families

Our community will be entertaining, and making friends with some guests from distant lands this year. These guests will be on one of the programs offered by American Intercultural Student Exchange, a non-profit organization whose purpose is to encourage world peace through student exchange. Over 5,000 students and host families participate in the many AISE exchange programs every year. By opening your home to one of these students from another country, your family will be enriched in many ways, as you help to bring the world closer.

WHAT IS A HOST FAMILY

Host families come from all walks of life. Successful hosts can include two parents and children, single parent families, young couples with no children and older couples whose children are grown.

YOUR FAMILY AND YOUR EXCHANGE STUDENT

Think of your life in everyday term and consider the things you take for granted. Now imagine looking at your world through the eager eyes of a student from Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Germany, France, Switzerland, Holland, Australia. Suddenly everything gains new perspective, think of teaching your new Son or Daughter about Halloween or Thanksgiving and having them teach your family about their way of celebrating Christmas, and New Years. You will acquire renewed appreciation of your life by sharing it with your new Son or Daughter.

Hosting a 15 to 18 year old student will allow you and your family a first-hand look into another culture. What a terrific way to better understand the world around you, as you make memories that will last a lifetime and establish friendship that will span the miles between countries.

SPECIAL STUDENTS FOR SPECIAL FAMILIES

All AISE students are carefully screened and selected by AISE representatives. They have all been required to study English for many years in their countries, and are quite proficient in our language. Before you accept a student, your entire family will meet with one of the more than twenty Wisconsin AISE Area representative for an interview. Files on prospective students will be made available to help you make an appropriate choice. These files contain information about student's family, photographs, and personal essay. AISE takes the best possible care to make a successful match of student and family.

If your family is interested in learning more about hosting one of these fine young people please contact the following:

ASPIRIN vs STROKE

It is known that a small daily dose of aspirin reduces the incidence of strokes. Modern Medicine reports, a daily aspirin reduces the severity of strokes even more than it reduces their number. Preliminary clinical studies suggest that daily aspirin cuts the number of strokes that are severe [fatal or paralyzing types] by 80%

Mayville Woman Appointed to Replace Carl Plum on Moraine District Board

Margaret E. Nitschke, Mayville, was named Monday afternoon as an employee member of the Moraine Park Technical College District Board.

Nitschke will replace Carl Plum of Kewaskum, who did not re-apply for the employee position. Plum, who has served on the board since 1968, will complete his current three-year term on the board on June 30.

Nitschke was named to the board by the County Boards Appointment Committee during a meeting at Moraine Park's Fond du Lac campus.

Re-appointed to the board for three-year terms were Raymond H. Thompson, Beaver Dam, employer member; and Philip J. Baranowski, Green Lake, school district administrator member.

The County Boards Appointment Committee consists of county board chairmen of the 10 counties making up the Moraine Park District - Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Washington, Dodge, Calumet, Columbia, Marquette, Sheboygan, Waushara and Winnebago.

Attending Monday's meeting were county board chairmen from Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Washington, Dodge and Waushara Counties. The appointments will be forwarded to the Wisconsin State Board of Vocational, Technical and Adult Education for consideration.

specific nutrients. They seldom contain the variety of nutrients that the body needs, and that are provided naturally in food.

Also, carbohydrate loading - the attempt to increase the amount of carbohydrate stored in the muscles and available during an athletic event by drastically changing eating habits - is ineffective for most athletes. Studies show that carbohydrate loading provides little or no benefit for athletes who participate in sports of relatively short duration, such as football, basketball, baseball, wrestling or swimming. It may offer limited benefits for individuals who compete in cross-country skiing or marathon running, where the body is exercising for hours at a time. But carbohydrate loading may increase the amount of water and weight in muscles, which can cause feelings of heaviness and stiffness.

Because unanswered questions remain about carbohydrate loading's effects on the heart and long-term health, the American Dietetic Association recommends that the practice be limited to two or three times a year by athletes high school age or older.

Eating a variety of foods in moderation is the best recommendation for both teen athletes and their families.

Help Your Teen Athlete Eat to Compete

by Joyce Albrecht

Extension Home Economist

Supporting your teen athlete is more than just attending games or playing chauffeur. Your child's athletic performance is influenced as much by the daily food you provide as it is by proper training and equipment.

In a recent survey, college athletes named their parents as the single largest source of their nutrition information.

Time spent in training can be effective only if the body is properly nourished. Teaching kids to choose wisely is a necessary skill that parents can demonstrate daily.

All teenagers have high nutritional needs because they're experiencing their greatest growth spurt since infancy. At a minimum, teens should consume the following: milk and cheese: 4 servings per day; meat, fish, poultry, eggs, dry beans: 2 servings per day; fruits and vegetables: 4 servings per day; and enriched or whole-grain breads and cereal products: 4 servings per day.

Athletes should be careful to include sufficient calories and plenty of water in their diets.

The best way to get extra calories is by eating more of the types of food listed above. Foods that are high in sugar (candy, carbonated beverages, cakes, cookies) or fat (fried foods, salad dressings, pastries, butter) provide few nutrients and many calories; use them with discretion.

Athletes lose fluids through sweat, so they should consume water before, during and after exercise. Water transports nutrients throughout the body and is necessary to maintain body temperature. A loss of 4% of body weight because of exercise-induced sweating can lead to dehydration, which reduces muscle strength and endurance.

Athletes shouldn't wait until they're thirsty to drink water. Thirsty signifies that the body is already dehydrated and is not a reliable indicator of your need for fluids.

Some athletes and coaches are concerned about what should be eaten at the pre-game meal. Studies show overall eating habits are more important than pre-game meals. However, the emotional stress and tension that often precede athletic competition do affect the digestive tract. To help avoid discomfort, athletes should eat easily digested food two to three hours before the competition. Examples include cereals, bread, spaghetti, macaroni, rice, potatoes, and fruits.

Foods that are high in fat are harder to digest and are best avoided before games; for example cake, rich cookies, peanut butter, nuts, frankfurters, luncheon meats, gravy, yellow cheeses and ice cream.

What about nutritional supplements? Championship performance requires dedication to training, not to using nutrient supplements or eating large amounts of protein or carbohydrates.

Studies show that the body can often use vitamins and minerals more easily from foods than from concentrated pills or liquids. Another disadvantage is that supplements contain only

... about your Social Security

CONTACTING SOCIAL SECURITY

Chances are you or a family member will contact Social Security in the near future: A teenager needs a Social Security card; someone applies for monthly retirement, disability, or survivors checks; an older individual wants to discuss the effect of part-time work on his or her benefits.

Visiting any government office can be trying. There may be long waits and forms to complete. Then there's the nuisance of finding a parking spot and possibly another visit if you forgot something. Here's how to avoid some of these problems:

- Use the phone! Most Social Security business (including applying for benefits) can be handled by phone. Look in the telephone directory under "Social Security Administration" or "U.S. Government." The number for the West Bend office is 1-800-242-9946.

- Time your contacts! The best and least busy times to contact Social Security are generally the last half of each day, week, and month. There are times, however, when you should get in touch with Social Security as quickly as possible (such as reporting a change of address, work activity, or other event that may affect benefits).

- Find out what you need! If you decide to visit Social Security, call first to find out what information and proofs you need so you can avoid a second trip. Evidence required for most claims include: proof of age and Social Security number for each applicant; most recent W-2 form or tax return; and possibly marriage, divorce, military, or other documents.

If you apply for disability benefits, you will be asked for names, addresses, and phone numbers for doctors, hospitals, etc. that have treated you and dates of treatment. If you need a Social Security card, be prepared to bring evidence of age, citizenship, and identity.

Improve Dairy Herd Profitability with DHI

Dairy producers can improve their dairy herd profitability with the use of DHI (Dairy Herd Improvement) records.

DHI records can increase productivity and profitability by providing information on feeding management, breeding management, replacement selection, herd health management and culling.

The average Wisconsin dairy cow produces 12,722 lbs. of milk. The average cow on DHI produces 15,606 lbs. of milk while the average non DHI cow produces 11,143 lbs. of milk. The DHI difference is 4,464 lbs of milk per cow per year.

Individuals that use DHI records improve their profitability through a number of factors, such as increased income over feed cost, shorter calving intervals, improved breeding performance and better culling and replacement selection.

DHI records provide some additional options that can improve management. One option is titled "Herd Management Option." This report provides information on cows to breed, cows to pregnancy check, cows to dry, cows to calve, potential culls based on production, calving distribution and calve to vaccinate. The somatic cell count report can provide information that is helpful to reduce somatic cell count, improve production and milk quality. This will qualify producers for premiums being offered by dairy plants.

The DHI program in Washington County is provided by the Ozaukee/Washington Dairy Herd Improvement Association Cooperative. This is a Cooperative made up of farm members that elect their board of directors and hire a local manager.

A number of different programs are available to meet the needs of the individual dairy producer. Some programs are designed for official test while others are designed for owner sampler programs. Another option includes am/pm where milk samples and weights are taken at one milking each month rather than two.

DHI records are an investment that will easily pay more than their cost. For example, if 50 cow herd on an owner sampler program, enrolled in the somatic cell count and the herd management option and renting meters would cost $15.84 per cow per year. With the price of milk at about $12 per hundred an increase in milk production of 132 lbs per cow per year would pay for the DHI records. Individuals using the management information can certainly increase their production by more than this amount. Another example is that if the somatic cell count program helps you in maintaining your quality premium it will more than pay for the entire DHI program.

Dairy producers interested in more information about the DHI program, various options and management information available, should contact the Washington County Extension Office.

District Administrator Kleinans informed the Board that CLUE representative Deb Schwach-Swoboda requested that the Board waive a hearing and proceed directly to arbitration if employees who were given probationary status chose to file grievances. The Board was in agreement with this.

Regarding that status of the KMS carpeting problem, Ms. Kleinans reported that a meeting had been held with Mr. Leitheiser of Ken's Carpet. He has requested that an outsider be called in to evaluate the problem.

Administrator Kleinans said that because of increased enrollment in the LD class at Farmington Elementary, aide time has been increased from 4 hours per day to 6 hours per day.

Superintendent Kleinans informed the Board about some concerns that have been voiced about the sound quality of the cable tv tapings of the Board meetings. The cost is estimated to be $250 to purchase audio equipment to resolve the problem. This equipment will be paid for by the Village out of the profits they received from the cable tv company as per her discussion and agreement with Village Administrator Dan Schmidt.

Board members were instructed to contact Jeanne Jaack at the Central Office if they are interested in attending a Sports in Education seminar sponsored by the WASB.

Principal Kopecky asked whether the Board wants present member's signatures to be on this year's diplomas or the new incoming member's signatures. It was mutually decided that the present Board member's signatures would be on the diplomas as was done in the past.

Principal Zarling informed the Board that an auditory trainer for a Special Education student has been ordered at a cost over $1,000. This was previously reported to Treasurer Trapp as per Board Policy.

Theusch/Ankerson motion to adjourn. Motion carried.

Turkey Hunting Season Opens April 20

Wisconsin's turkey season opened April 20, and more hunters than ever before have an opportunity to get a gobbler, according to Ed Frank, turkey season coordinator for the Department of Natural Resources.

The 1988 spring wild turkey season consists of four hunting periods: April 20-24, April 27 - May-1, May 4-8 and May 11-15.

"This year we issued 11,070 turkey hunting permits for 10 zones in southwestern Wisconsin," said Frank. "Last spring there were 6,040 permits issued for seven zones."

Hunters may only hunt in the zone and time period specified on their permit. Since most land with turkeys is privately owned, Frank advised hunters to scout for places to hunt before the season starts and to obtain permission before hunting.

Frank expects that about 2,500 turkeys will be harvested this spring. In 1987, a total 1,482 turkeys were harvested. Over 70 percent of all permits were issued for hunting within zones 1-4 and 10. The combined harvest from these zones is likely to account for more than 80 percent of the total harvest.

Hunting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to noon (DST) each day. All successful hunters are required to exhibit and register their turkey at any designated registration station no later than 1:30 p.m. on the day it is killed.

Following is a map of hunting zones.

Despite the fact that the Kewaskum Community High School's boys' tennis team lost its first two matches, the team did manage to soundly defeat Chilton's squad on April 19. In that match, Kewaskum won all of its varsity matches but one. On Wednesday, April 13, Wayland Academy's Experienced team squashed the Indians. The next day, Thursday, April 14, Kewaskum hosted Kohler High School's young team, but after a noble effort, Kohler eked by the Indians. For the second year in a row, Jan Rosenthal, a teacher at the high school, is the boys' coach.

Kewaskum had little hope against Wayland Academy's mighty team; in last years state meet for private schools, Wayland Academy's number one player, Todd Ocomy, took second. Ocomy defeated Craig Hubbell, who was playing number one for the Indians, by a score of 6-3, 6-0. Even though Frank Vollmering, a foreign exchange student that played number two singles, played impressively, he lost by a score of 4-6, 4-6. Tim Kaufman, number three singles, lost a close match, 3-6, 3-6. Wayland's team smothered the Indians by a score of seven matches to zero.

The match against Kohler was very close, but the Indians lost by a score of three matches to four. The first three singles players, Craig Hubbell, Frank Vollmering, and Tim Kaufman, each won in two-set matches. However, Kewaskum lost all of its doubles matches and its match at fourth singles.

On Tuesday, the Indians devastated the Chilton Tigers' boys' tennis team by a score of six matches to one. All four singles players and all but one of the doubles teams won. Highlights of this match included the performances of the number two and three doubles teams. Junior Bruce Wechter and freshman Curtis Ammel, playing number two doubles, won their match by a score of 7-5, 6-0. Sonny Sison and Scott Kulas, playing number three doubles, won by a score of 6-1, 6-1. Also winning were Frank Vollmering, Tim Kaufman, Adam Miklas, and Craig Hubbell.

Last year, approximately 600,000 participants raising more than $30 million took part in WalkAmerica throughout the nation. In southeastern Wisconsin alone, approximately 2,500 people helped raise $162,000 for the fight against birth defects.

To add to the day's festivities, Coca Cola will be served at each of the rest stops along the route. Refreshments also have been donated by Dairy Queen, Deli Food X-Press, Hankerson's Bakery, The Cookie Jar and Burger King.

Trackmen Pass First Conference Test

Last Tuesday, April 12, the Kewaskum boys' track team defeated two conference rivals, Kiel and Chilton, at its first outdoor meet of the season. With strong performances in the field events, the Indians placed first as a team with 67 points followed by Chilton 58, and Kiel 45.

Senior Miles Shaw and juniors Marty Schulteis and Jeff Taylor lead the way taking two first places each. Shaw won the pole vault with a 12'3" vault, three inches shy of his personal best and only six inches under the school record. His 1600 meter time of 4:52.8 was also good enough for a first place.

Schulteis won both hurdle events, the 110 meter high hurdles and the 300 meter intermediate hurdles. He ran the 110 highs in 15.6 seconds (only four tenths of a second off his own school record which he set last season; and the 300 intermediates in 42.6 seconds (only one tenth of a second off the school record).

With a shot put of 47'½" and a discus toss of 129'6½", Taylor easily won both weight events. His shot put was over two feet further than his previous best while his discus throw was also a personal best.

Senior sprinter Mike Lubahn and senior jumper David Harju were the two remaining Indians to take firsts. Lubahn won the 200 meter dash in 24.1 seconds while Harju won the triple jump with a leap of 38'5¼".

The Indians showed considerable depth (placing in every event except the 400 meter dash) which should help in the bigger meets and especially the relays.

The junior varsity also won (84 points) with Kiel taking second (30 points) and Chilton taking last (25 points). The Indians' next meet will be on Wednesday, April 20, at Campbellsport.

KHS Girls Impressive Over Cougars

The girls' track team hosted Campbellsport Monday, winning decisively 95-37. Campbellsport lacked the depth and experience needed to compete with a team like Kewaskum, which has 73 members 13 of whom are returning letter winners.

The Indians placed first in all but four events (even in the events that they didn't place first, they placed second and third), swept the first three places in two events and had five individuals taking two or more firsts.

Debbie Felix won four events, the long jump (14'3¼"), triple jump (30'7½"), 400 meter dash (68.2), and anchored the winning 1600 meter relay (4:44.7).

Lisa Steiner won two events, the 100 meter intermediate hurdles (18.4) and the 300 meter low hurdles (55.1).

In the distance events, Laurie Vogt won both the 1600 meter run (6:12.2) and the 3200 meter run (13:27.1).

Pam Osterbrink cleared 5'0" for a first in the high jump while teammate Tina Weddig won the discus event with a 93'11½" toss.

Melissa Braun and Debbie Donath, both members of the 800 meter relay (with Felix and Becky Schlosser), ran well in the sprints. Braun won the 100 meter dash (13.5) while Donath won the 200 meter dash (29.7).

Indian Girls Win First Track Meet of the Season Outdoors

Paced by senior sprinter Debbie Felix and freshman distance runner Laurie Vogt, the Kewaskum girls' track team won its first outdoor meet of the season, defeating Chilton and Kiel, 65-55-40.

Felix won the long jump (13'10"), the 200 meter dash (28.1), and anchored the winning 800 meter relay (1:55.7) while Vogt won the 1600 meter run (6:18.4) and the 3200 meter run (14:11.5) as the two combined for 25 of the Indians' 65 team points.

Hurdler Lisa Steiner took two second places, one in 100 meter intermediates (19.1) and the other in the 300 meter lows (55.7). Nanci Goeden also placed in the 100 meter intermediates taking a fourth while Ellen Kuphal placed third in the 300 meter lows.

Pam Osterbrink tied her personal best in the high jump at 5'0", good enough for second place. Andrea Flies also placed, taking a third with a 4'4" jump.

Sprinter Kristi Lubahn placed in three events. She was a member of the winning 800 meter relay, second in the 100 meter dash (14.4) and fourth in the 200 meter dash.

In the weight events both Tina Weddig and Patti Padden threw well. Weddig (second in the discus and third in the shot put) and Padden (third in the discus and fourth in the shot put) along with Tammy Sabish should do well in the shot put at the relay meets coming up later in the season. All three have been consistently putting around 32 feet.

The girls will be traveling to Sheboygan Falls to compete in the Vanderpan Invitational.

Kewaskum Host to 66 Dartball Teams in State Tournament

Chairman Harry Roecker presents the championship trophy to Curt Yahr.

Dartball teams from all over Wisconsin gathered in Kewaskum recently and competed in the 49th annual State Dartball Tournament.

The weekend event, which drew over 1,300 participants, 66 teams, was last held in Kewaskum in 1983. This year drew a record number of teams competing, and players from the area finished well above average.

The Yahr Oil Team of Kewaskum won the championship title in the Class A division (only teams with a .500 or better average qualify for Class A), and the team from the Barrel Haus took second place in Class

B. In the finals against Bourdos of Milwaukee, Yahr's lost its first game, 31-20, but came back to win two in a row for the championship.

Two other Kewaskum teams made the finals, LR Trophy - Schmidts' Farms co-ed team taking the title, and LR Trophy - Kewaskum Saloon women's team finishing second.

Entries included 54 men's teams, seven women's teams, and five others in the co-ed division. The games were played in the Kewaskum High School new gym and additional games were played in the old gym.

KHS Ties for First in Golf Opener

The Kewaskum golf team had their first meet of the season last week. It was a windy day at Hon-E-Kor Country Club (the site for Kewaskum home meets), where the following teams participated: Mayville, Lomira, Slinger, and Kewaskum.

The lowest score for the Indian's came from Eric Pearson who fired a 40. Later Eric said, "I didn't make a putt outside of three feet." Next came a 41 from Gregg Dean, who was very disappointed about his round. Then came a 42 from Joel Miller and two 46's from Joel Fleury and Dean Slaughterhoup.

It is the beginning of the season, and the scores should get better with a little practice. Coach Joe Harlow said, "The scores need to get lower if we want to have a successful season." Counting the lowest four scores to come up with a team score, Kewaskum and Mayville tied at 169, Lomira 184, and Slinger 191.

Eighth Grade Girls End Basketball Season

The 8th grade girls Basketball Team started their season in slow fashion, losing their first two games of the season. Then the girls won two out of the next three. They ended the first half with a 2-3 record. The girls turned their play around in the second half finishing with a 3-2 record with the two defeats by six points each to two very tough opponents.

The girls ended their season with a 5-5 record for a third place finish.

The girls really worked hard and played with an intense desire to win in the later part of the season. Congratulations on a fine season.

Members include the following: Deanna Lieberg, Tricia Schultz, Jenny Schinker, Tammy Gundrum, Nicole Fellenz, Tina Schwartz, Nicole Oppermann, Jackie Hintz, Rachel Gosa, Kelly Korth, Sherry Hass.
