32 Applicants for Superintendent's Post

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

As requested by member Neal Weare, president Ralph Horner advised his fellow board members on the status of the search to find a new superintendent for the Kewaskum School District.

To date the district has received 32 applications, including one from a foreign country, for the position of District Administrator.

In an update on the search's progress, Horner said he would like to narrow the field down to approximately eight candidates. Horner said he would then like the board, as a whole, to act as a committee to narrow that field down to three or four finalists. Those finalists would then be interviewed in depth by the board before a final selection is made.

After Horner's report, Weare said he would like to suggest including some of the administration and professional staff in the interviewing process. Both Horner and board member Ron Beimborn indicated they felt it was the job of the board to interview and select a replacement. Weare indicated he felt their assistance could help the board make the proper selection. Board member Ruth Schmitt was in accord with Weare. "I would like to invite a member of the administration and Kewaskum Education Association to at least sit in on the final interviews," said Schmitt.

After some discussion the board also decided to seek an in-house interim superintendent until a replacement is hired. As an alternate plan, the board agreed to enlist the services of a retired administrator through CESA 6, for a maximum of three days a week, at a cost not to exceed $200 per day.

In other staffing business, the board voted to accept the resignation of Julie Backus who has been serving as both Director of Instruction and Middle School Principal.

After discussion on posting the two positions, Schmitt told fellow board members she felt the middle school principal post should again be a full time position. She then made the motion the job be advertised as such. As for the position of Director of Instruction, Schmitt conceded that the district had made a lot of progress and she would like to see it continue. Schmitt did, however, note that she did not know if it had to continue in the same way, not necessarily as an administrative position.

The board decided to hold off any action on the position of director of instruction. The contention of some of the board being they would rather wait

A fire late Wednesday afternoon destroyed a shed and damaged a barn on the Sue Neumann property at 1443 Old Bridge Road, Campbellsport, approximately four miles north of Kewaskum.

The Kewaskum Fire Department was called to the scene at 5:09 p.m., where a shed was engulfed in flames. Strong northerly winds fanned the fire causing flames to ignite a barn approximately 30 feet south of the shed.

The Kewaskum Fire Department called for tanker aid from the Campbellsport Fire Department. The shed was a total loss but firefighters were able to save the barn with minimal damage.

A Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department deputy said the cause of the fire was being listed as careless use of smoking materials by juveniles.

There was no damage estimate available for the loss.

In another fire Saturday night, firefighters from Eden, Campbellsport, Lomira, Mt. Calvary and the Town of Fond du Lac battled a blaze which destroyed a barn on the Joe Baumhardt farm on Highway B, one mile west of Eden and Highway V.

According to a report, two girls swimming in a backyard pool noticed the fire about 6:30 p.m. They called the Eden Fire Department and then rushed back to the barn where they led approximately 100 beef cattle to safety before the barn was leveled by the fire.

Beside the barn, approximately 5,000 bales of hay were lost in the fire.

Baumhardt's son Jim, who is Eden Assistant Fire Chief, was one of the 75 firemen who fought the blaze.

Peace Church to Present Musical 'Bright New Wings'

On Sunday, June 19, the Chancel Choir of Peace United Church of Christ in Kewaskum will present a religious musical at its 9:30 a.m. worship time. "Bright New Wings" is the exciting and joyful story of five persons whose lives were touched and transformed by Jesus Christ. Music for "Bright New Wings" is by Cynthia Clawson, with book and lyrics by Ragan Courtney and arrangement by Buryl Red.

The musical is directed by Larry Ammel, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Margaret McFadden. The role of the "Explainer" will be filled by Pastor James Bettin. The five who were transformed by Christ are Mitchell Ogi as John, Kathy Charland as Martha, Gregory Ogi as Lazarus, Shannon McFadden as the Sinful Woman, and Charles Petrie as the Thankful Leper. "Bright New Wings" takes these Biblical encounters and sets them in the pioneer days of America, adding a flavor and style to the music that is memorable. Peace Church welcomes everyone in the community to hear and experience "Bright New Wings" this Sunday.

Town of Kewaskum Crash Takes One Life

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A two-car accident late Saturday night claimed the life of one man and injured another.

According to a Washington County Sheriff's Department report, Tony Luedtke, 42, of 7274 Highway WW, Town of Addison, died as the result of an accident which occurred about 11:25 p.m., on Highland Drive, about one half mile north of Highway H, west of Kewaskum.

The crash occurred when a northbound car driven by Kevin

R. Flasch, 18, of 9075 St. Kilian Drive, Allenton, crossed the centerline on Highland. At the same time, Luedtke, heading south, approached the hillcrest and the two cars collided head on, driver's side to driver's side.

The report stated Flasch's car then skidded 310 feet, struck a mailbox post, skidded another 77 feet hitting a flag pole, skidded another 42 feet before coming to a stop.

Luedtke was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend, where he was pronounced dead of massive head injuries.

Flasch was also taken to St. Joseph's where he was reported to be in stable condition with trunk and internal injuries.

A Sheriff's Department spokesperson said Flasch was being cited on two counts, Operating a Vehicle While Intoxicated and Operating a Vehicle on the Wrong Side of the Road.

This is Washington County's fourth traffic fatality.

Beginning Last Phase of New Sidewalk Project

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After a public hearing last Thursday night, the Kewaskum Village Board gave the green light to construction of the village's third and final phase of new sidewalk construction within the village.

The job, which will affect 22 property owners, was awarded to low bidder Rennhack Construction at a cost of $57,184.

Nine of the property owners were on hand for the public hearing and all expressed their approval of the work. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said construction of the new sidewalks is expected to begin between July 1st and 15th, with completion scheduled for September 1st.

After the Capital Improvements New Sidewalk Project is completed, the board will begin looking into another sidewalk project for 1989. That work will cover repair and replacement of damaged or sunken sections of existing walks throughout the village.

School Board

until the district has a new administrator so that individual could give their input on the position.

The board also got into a lengthy discussion on regarding a letter from Perry Koth in which he submitted his resignation as District Athletic Director.

Koth was asked his reason for submitting the resignation. He indicated that despite the amount of time it took away from both his teaching and family, one of the reasons was he had accepted the position with the understanding it would be a long term commitment. However, despite his willingness to devote all the time needed to the job, there had been inferences that the job would eventually become a part of the assistant high school principal's position if, or when Mr. Esser left the district.

Koth noted he was not qualified to follow the Athletic Director's job into the position of assistant principal nor did he intend to acquire, at any time in the near future, the necessary qualifications to seek the assistant principal position.

Both District Administrator Penny Kleinmans and the board indicated that there had been no such discussion or consideration to add those duties to the assistant principal's job description. "We don't know what the assistant principal position will entail in the future," said Kleinmans.

High School Principal LeRoy Kopecky said he was totally against the board's accepting Koth's resignation.

The board members told Koth they felt he was doing a good job and asked him to reconsider his resignation at least one more year. They then voted to reject his letter of resignation.

In other business the Trapp lawsuit was addressed. Horner told the board he felt what was over, was over, and the matter should be dropped. Weare said his reason for placing the item on the agenda was to have it written into the records that the suit had been dismissed along with what the district's costs had been as a result of that action.

While several items were not included in the report such as mileage, meals, etc., and not all the hours spent on gathering information credited to the litigation costs, the administration came up with a cost of $8,782. A breakdown was, $2,340 to the district's lawyers Quarles and Brady, $2,211 to attorney James Doyle, Business Manager's time related to the suit $1,475, clerical time $605, and Administrator's time $2,150.

The board also received a report on the status of problems with new carpeting which had been installed at the Middle School by Ken's Carpeting. Kleinmans informed the board that the company had installed 1,800 yards of carpeting which had proven to be unsatisfactory. She said areas of the carpeting had been repaired or patched six times. She told the board that every effort had been made to work with Mr. Leitheiser, however, there were still serious concerns about the quality of the carpet and workmanship.

Kleinmans said she had agreed to allow Mr. Leitheiser to bring in an independent outside person for an opinion on the problems. However, there had been no response from him since last March. "We haven't seen the kind of cooperation we'd like to see" said Kleinmans. She suggested the matter be turned over to a lawyer for further contact and follow-through. The board agreed with her recommendation.

The board also heard a written request from Mr. and Mrs. David Batt, 300 First Street, that the district consider purchasing their home and lot adjacent to the administration office for the expansion of school parking facilities. The Batts are asking $43,000 for their property.

The matter was turned over to the Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Committee.

In other action the board approved a contract with Gavin Painting in the amount of $4,491, the purchase of a new walk-in freezer for the high school at a cost of $9,040, and CESA contracts for a part time social worker, high school scheduling and grading services, and supplemental special education services.

Kewaskum to Receive Estimated $10,244

Grover Announces Estimated 1988-89 Block Grant Awards

MADISON — State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover today announced estimated Chapter 2 block grant awards to the state's public school districts and other education providers. The local education agencies will share $7,385,448, or 80 percent of Wisconsin's $9,231,810 Chapter 2 allocation.

"Although the state's $9.2 million award and local entitlements for the 1988-89 school year are as yet estimates," Grover explained, "we are giving this information to school districts as early as possible so they can use these figures in their budget preparation."

Actual entitlements can't be computed until Wisconsin receives the official notification of grant awards from the U.S. Department of Education (ED).

"The education department has assured us there will not be any changes from the preliminary to the final state allotment," Grover said. "Given that information and the fact that the state block grant committee approved a block grant distribution formula identical to the one used last year, we are announcing these awards. The more information school districts have to prepare their budgets, the better they will be able to tailor those budgets to serve the needs of children in their districts."

School districts apply to the Department of Public Instruction for Chapter 2 funds which may be used for programs to improve reading, mathematics, and communication skills; to support counseling and guidance services; and to meet special needs for innovative and experimental projects. Both public and private schools are eligible for block grant funds.

The 1988-89 estimated allocation for the Kewaskum School District is $10,244.

Excellent Attendance at KHS

According to our records the following students have had an excellent attendance record during the 1987-1988 school year. This is a commendable accomplishment for developing the correct attitude about being in school as being very important. There is a direct relationship between good attendance and grades as well as an interest in school. This also carries over into the world of work. Industry is concerned about unusual absenteeism and when employers call the school their first question concerns attendance records.

There may be situations when a student is needed at home or if a student is sick he/she should not be in school. The attitude of the parents towards attendance in school and later life on the job is reflected in their children. Truancy tends to be a warning that the student is a potential drop-out and in many cases headed for other problems. As we prepare for the 88-89 school year we again ask for parents cooperation in encouraging their students to be in school.

We congratulate all of our students but special congratulations go to four seniors who have had perfect attendance for four years. They are Pam Amerling, Jean Herriges, Ann-Marie Horner and Pamela Oelhafen.

Congratulations to the following students:

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor:

I'm writing this letter in deep concern for my family. We need a 3 to 4 bedroom house to rent by June 24 and we aren't having any luck what so ever. As soon as they find out the size of our family, they won't even give us a chance to even look at the house. I think this is discrimination, because we have seven children.

If there is somebody out their with a house to rent, possibly in Kewaskum School. Please call us at 626-4992.

Thank You

Mumps Immunization Required For All School Children

Wisconsin Health and Social Services Secretary Timothy Cullen has announced that beginning with the 1988-89 school year all students through grade 12 will be required to meet the state's mumps immunization requirements.

Proof of mumps immunization or evidence for a medical, religious or personal conviction waiver has been required for students entering kindergarten since 1983. A change in the state's school immunization administrative rule earlier this year extended the mumps requirement to students through grade 12.

"I urge parents with school age children to check their immunization records now so that any necessary immunizations or waivers can be obtained before schools reopen this fall," Cullen said.

Parents can be fined up to $25 for each day their children do not meet the state's school immunization requirements.

According to Jeffrey Davis, M.D., State Epidemiologist, although mumps itself is usually not a serious illness, the complications which can follow it, such as encephalitis (brain inflammation), hearing loss and, in rare cases, permanent deafness and sterility, make immunization important.

"We estimate that 81,000 Wisconsin students in grades five through 12 are susceptible to mumps," Dr. Davis said.

"Children born before 1977, when mumps vaccine was first recommended for routine immunizations, make up the highest percentage of the susceptible group."

"In recent years, the rate of mumps among children in grades for which proof of mumps immunization was not required was more than three times higher than among children in grades for which proof of mumps immunization was required."

Davis said that in 1987, 1,741 cases of mumps were reported in Wisconsin compared to 325 reported cases in 1986.

"Wisconsin had the highest incidence rate for mumps of any state in the nation last year with 36.2 cases per 100,000 population. The national incidence rate for mumps was 5.1 cases per 100,000 population," he said.

According to Dr. Davis, school principals will notify parents whose children do not have proof of mumps immunization on their school records. These parents will be instructed to submit proof of mumps immunization to the school their child will attend in September 1988.

Dr. Davis said that parents with children who have not already been immunized for mumps should contact their doctor, health maintenance organization or local public health agency to obtain immunization.

Girls' will attend camp from 9:30 to 3:30 daily, to learn about various camping skills. We have many individuals signed up and paid for, but if we do not find a few good volunteers for the Day Camp, girls already signed up will have to be cancelled, on a first come first serve basis.

Volunteers can be 18 to 80, men or women, young persons, Moms or Dads, grandparents, etc. A tentative training date is set up for June 30th at 9 a.m. at Kiwanis Park. Parents with young children who want to volunteer will have a Tag-a-long unit available made of girl scouts to babysit during the week.

Bussing for the scouts and volunteers will be available from the Farmington, Campbellsport and Wayne areas.

For more information contact Director Joy Kuhnke at 626-2506.

Please help all our girl scouts attend Day Camp by being a volunteer.

Kapp, Filber Delegates

Nation's Capitol — Classroom for 4-H

The nation's capitol will become the classroom for more than 4,000 4-H members from 44 states in week-long citizenship and leader training sessions at the National 4-H Center this summer.

Four Washington County 4-H'ers will be a part of the Southeast Wisconsin delegation, June 19-25, 1988. The four 4-H'ers are Diane Hammen, Badger Boosters 4-H Club, daughter of Robert and Nancy Hammen; Philip Filber, Wayne Crusaders 4-H Club, son of Arthur and Marilyn Filber; Connie Schmidt, St. Lawrence Eager Beavers 4-H Club, daughter of Michael and Susan Schmidt; and Renee Kapp, Kewaskum 4-H'ers, daughter of Karen Kapp. These four young people were selected on their involvement in club, county and state 4-H activities and leadership skills. While in D.C., the 4-H'ers stay at the National 4-H Center in Chevy Chase, Maryland on a beautiful 12 acre campus located on the outskirts of Washington.

Delegates will have the opportunity to learn about the election process by conducting their own political campaign and elections. They also visit federal agencies and historical sites. Each 4-H'er has opportunity to meet with their Congressman. But most important, they meet other 4-H'ers throughout the United States to share new ideas, concerns, and build friendships.

The program challenges the delegates to become active involved citizens in their community when they return home.

The Washington County 4-H Leader's Association, Washington County Farm Bureau, and Washington County Farm Bureau Women help sponsor this program for 4-H'ers in Washington County.

Lakeshore Symphonic Band to Present Concerts 'On the Road'

The Lakeshore Symphonic Band is getting its act together and taking it on the road during a June 24 through 26 tour to Door County.

Director Albert Asch of West Bend said that 46 of the band's 64 members will travel by bus to present concerts at 7:30 p.m., June 24, at the Kiel park bandshell; at 7:30 p.m., June 25, in the Sturgeon Bay auditorium; and at 2 p.m., June 26, in an outdoor concert at Ellison Bay.

At 10 a.m., June 25, a brass ensemble from the band will play on a float during the Ellison Bay Days parade.

Asch, who became director of the band in 1978 — a year after it was organized, said this is the group's first concert trip. He sees the experience as a rare chance for the band members to get to know each other apart from rehearsals, performances and an annual banquet.

"Most community bands grow up as social musical organizations," he said. "But we're just too spread out geographically. We're not all from the same community. People come together to play music."

According to the band roster, the touring company comes from 13 communities including Cedarburg, Glendale, Grafton, Hartford, Jackson, Mequon, Milwaukee, Newburg, Port Washington, Saukville, Slinger, Thiensville and West Bend.

"That's quite a radius," Asch said. "People have a pretty long drive. After practice, they are in a hurry to get back home."

The idea for a tour has been brewing for several years, Asch said. "We've wanted to get to a different part of Wisconsin and take a little trip together."

Door County became the destination after people in Sturgeon Bay heard a Christmas recording the band made last year. "They got excited about us coming up," Asch said.

On the tour, band members will spend their first night at Lakeland College in Sheboygan and in private homes in Sturgeon Bay. Meals include a post-concert get-together at the VFW Hall in Kiel and a pre-concert picnic at Sturgeon Bay. Most community bands are busiest in the summer. But the Lakeshore group is off, allowing members to scatter as musicians and directors in other places.

Asch's group makes up for slack summers with a busy schedule the rest of the year. Since last September, the Lakeshore Symphonic Band has played a concert at the Cedarburg Harvest Festival, recorded its Christmas tape, played a benefit concert for a children's hospital at Milwaukee's Mecca and a pops concert to boost Kewaskum KEYS scholarships, performed at Christmas and children's concerts in Cedarburg, played formal concerts in West Bend and Grafton and a big band concert sponsored by the Grafton State Bank.

Tour audiences will hear a varied program that includes marches, big band music, show tunes, overtures, concert pieces and solos by band members.

The variety of music poses the biggest problem to touring by bus. Asch said, "With the repertoire we do, we need to carry a lot of percussion equipment. We can't get by with just a bass and snare drum. We need a xylophone, tympani, marimba, gong, temple blocks and drum set."

Kewaskum AFS Seeks Host Family for 1988-89 Year

OPENING YOUR HOME TO AN AFS EXCHANGE STUDENT WILL CHANGE YOUR WORLD

The Kewaskum AFS has received an application of a student who could be placed in our local high school for the 1988/89 school year. She is Spanish speaking, is 17 year old, and is interested in tennis and music.

The family who hosts this student will have a ten month experience in international relations without leaving town - that is what AFS is offering our community. "The main requirement for an AFS host family is the sincere desire to open your home to a young person from another country," stated Kewaskum AFS President.

AFS International carefully screens candidates from over 60 countries who apply for a year's stay in the United States. There are approximately 2900 students hosted in all fifty states each year on AFS programs. The local AFS chapter provides support for host families, students, and schools.

The AFS program is beneficial to the student and also is extremely rewarding to the host family. A family can: - acquire new perspectives about another culture; - acquire new perspectives about their own culture; - experience the rewards of new and continuing friendships; - help a student discover the life of our community and nation.

If you wish further information about hosting a student or about Kewaskum AFS in general, please contact Marlene Domasky at 692-9523 or Cindy Knoebel at 626-4311.

Campus Notes

Madison — An area student is among students enrolled in the University of Wisconsin - Madison College of Letters and Science who have been named to the dean's list of top scholars for the past semester.

The honor is earned by approximately 10 per cent of Letters and Science students. Letters and Science is the largest college on the Madison campus with 69 teaching departments and approximately 2100 faculty. The student is: Talitha Jo Kleinhans, sociology, PO Box 112, Kewaskum, WI.

RIPON, WI; June 8, — Sandy Secor, a junior at Ripon College, is among 186 honored students to be named to the Dean's List for the second academic semester. Secor is the daughter of Gerald and Mary Secor, 1856 Scenic Drive, Kewaskum and attended Kewaskum High School.

To qualify for this distinction students must achieve a 3.40 grade point average (on a 4.0 scale) while registered for at least 12 hours of course work. Ripon College Vice President and Dean of Faculty Douglas Northrop noted, "Students who qualified are within the top quarter of the student body at Ripon — an honor at this highly competitive college."

4-H Music and Drama Festival Is Successful

A variety of plays and musical selections made the 1988 4-H Music and Drama Festival one of the best ever. Over 100 4-H youth performed 28 separate acts in two shows presented at the UWWC Theater on May 1.

Four musical numbers were nominated by the Washington County 4-H Arts program to perform at the Wisconsin State Fair, August 4-14. These musical numbers include: The County Music Group-4-H Teen Twisters performing a selection of 1950's music and dance, Steve Klein and Rachel Heidtke, both of the Kirchhain Trotters 4-H Club, for their piano solos, and the Kewaskum 4-H Club for their creative dance called "Lollypop." Final selection of State Fair performers will be made later this month by the State 4-H Office in Madison.

4-H Clubs performing at the 1988 4-H Music and Drama Festival include: Thompson Irish Settlers, Myraneers, Kewaskum 4-H's, Kirchhain Trotters, St. Lawrence Eager Beavers, Badger Boosters, County Music Group, Canine Company, and Badger Boosters.

Mrs. Dolores Bruni, a 4-H Volunteer Leader, coordinated the Festival with help from club and youth directors. William Fisher of Ozaukee County evaluated the performances. West Bend Community Cable taped the Music and Drama Festival for broadcasting later this month.

In a program sponsored by the Hartford and Kettle Moraine Hospices, Dr. Lynn Vice, a clinical psychologist in private practice and on the staffs of St. Mary's Hospital and the Medical College of Wisconsin, discussed the therapeutic value of humor to a group of 75 on May 11.

Starting with only a brief introduction of her topic, Dr. Vice immediately moved to the audience participation portion of her program. Imagine a group of "professional" adults, with Groucho Marx glasses and noses, with New Year's hats and noise makers. Then imagine these same people doing the hokey-pokey, with the emphasis on "shaking it all about." The pure silliness of the situation warmed the audience up, opened them to the speaker's message.

Humor and laughter, from the smile to the snicker to the belly laugh, all provide a positive outlet for stress and burnout, for both the caregiver and the patient. For the most part, this natural reaction is schooled or socialized out of adults. Dr. Vice suggested that humor and laughter serve as a buffer from negative emotions brought on in somber and traumatic situations, rather than as signs of a lack of professionalism.

What is natural for children, laughter and even silliness, adults often ignore. Recent research and writings support the use of humor as a useful adjunct to conventional medical treatment. Laughter effects the respiratory, circulatory and muscular systems — all in positive ways. Blood pressure is lowered, oxygen in the blood stream is increased which stimulates the body and a relaxation response takes place in the muscular system. Some researchers claim laughter seems to release endorphins, the body's naturally produced pain suppressors.

All these positive attributes attack the one thing we hear about every day — stress. If stress is a leading cause or contributing factor to the six most commonly appearing diseases, if two-thirds of all visits to doctor's offices are for stress-related conditions, and if the three leading selling medicines are those to treat stress, the humor can be a life-giving tool.

Dr. Vice provided a handout with various items of humor in medicine ("Patient has been married twice, but denies any other serious illness") which also included a prescription — to laugh at least 15 times per day. Again she pointed to children — they laugh at least 15 times per day, and will find a way to have something funny happen to them if it doesn't naturally appear. As adults we must learn to play, to see the humorous elements in everyday life, and temper the seriousness of our work with laughter in a creative, caring fashion. Research with leading, well-run organizations has shown those whose staff allowed some element of humor are the most successful.

Numerous strategies can lead to the incorporation of humor and laughter into our daily lives. Work at maintaining a positive attitude, not a Pollyanna-style one, but one which emphasizes what is actually positive in your set of circumstances. Relaxation therapy and positive imagery, thinking of and remembering pleasant times, places and people, can increase receptiveness to humor. Have funny books, tapes, movies available. Finally, and most importantly, begin by smiling; this can be the first step to getting someone (maybe even yourself) to laugh.

There is no known neurological or physiological center in the body for our laughter; in this way it is not unlike the human soul. Dr. Vice concluded by stating that the mind, body and spirit are interconnected, and that it is important to make humor an integral part of our lives. It can relieve, enable, relax, heal — but more than anything, it's fun.

First Dad's Day proved child's love

The year was 1909. Mrs. John Bruce Dodd was a young mother living in Spokane, Washington. She was the daughter of William Smart, a Civil War veteran who had gone west as a young man, and there bred a family of five sons and a daughter. William Smart's wife died when she was young and it was up to the father to rear his brood.

And rear he did, with such warmth and strength that his only daughter was inspired to promote a "Father's Day" — out of gratitude to her own father's devotion and out of respect for all American dads.

It took a year for the idea to mature and become a reality, but with the help — of the mayor of Spokane, the Ministerial Association, the YMCA and other civic organizations, the first Father's Day was observed in Spokane, Washington in June 1910.

Mrs. Dodd had hoped that the day would be observed on her father's birthday, which was the first Sunday in June in 1910, but the ministers needed more time to prepare their special Father's Day sermons, so the celebration was put off until the third Sunday of the month. And so it has been celebrated ever since.

Early on, Father's Day was recognized by William Jennings Bryant, the great turn of the century populist; Presidents Wilson and Coolidge; and by the American public, most of whom observed Father's Day from the mid-thirties on, following the formation of the National Father's Day Committee to create awareness of this special day.

Today, about 95 percent of all 240,000,000 Americans pause to observe Father's Day. They do it with greeting cards (over 100,000,000 are sent to our dads); more than 6 million dollars are spent on gifts; there are family dinners and backyard barbecues (The Beef Industry Council estimates that over 80,000,000 pounds of beef will be served over the week-end); there will be millions of phone calls, photos and family gatherings.

Father's Day is Sunday, June 19 this year. Remember your dad with the priceless gift of love!

SELF BARBECUE

Every summer, 10,000 Americans burn themselves at the backyard barbecue — by lighter fluid exploding in their hands — being splashed by grease — or caught in a flare-up from the fire. Take caution to avoid such accidents. Never barbecue in a tent, trailer, or garage — there is both the danger of fire and carbon monoxide poisoning.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Ruth F. McChain, who passed away one year ago, June 19, 1987.

Those we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts,
Of those they left behind.
The happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still;
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.

Sadly missed by her family

IN MEMORY OF JAKE BRUESSEL III

Another year has passed by since Jake was taken from us. It doesn't seem possible that 16 years have gone by. How our lives have changed during those 16 years. So many things have happened to all of us. One thing remains constant, however. Our memories remain fresh and bright, and his spirit is always present and will be for as long as we live. So many times we have said, "if only he could see how those four beautiful children of his have grown up to be such fantastic adults with so much of him in each of them, or if only he could see that beautiful grandson God has blessed us with." Then we remember, he does know. He has the best seat in the house, in our Lord's house as he watches over us. The love we share will never die, and he is missed more than words could ever say.

His wife, Audrey, and his children, Joan, Gerald, Ronald and Cheryl, and grandson, Bryan.

Rosenheimer graduated from West Bend West High School in 1978. He received a bachelor of business administration degree in finance from the University of Wisconsin in Whitewater. The company has 12 offices in Wisconsin and 33 offices nationwide.

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held Wednesday evening for a new McDonald's restaurant being built at 630 East Ave., along Highway 41 in Lomira.

Wearing hard hats, officials posed with a giant McDonald's spatula and unveiled a "Here We Grow Again" banner. The restaurant is expected to open for business Sept. 1. The site, located behind Bublitz's Restaurant, was recently rezoned from industrial to highway commercial.

With a full-size kitchen, the new McDonald's will measure 37 feet by 101 feet, and plans to employ 50 to 60 people, depending on business volume.

Tentative hours are 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Friday and 6 a.m. to midnight on Friday and Saturdays. General contracting is being done by Peter Schwabe Inc. of Big Bend, Wis.

Attending the ceremony were Augie Luedtke, Lomira Chamber of Commerce president; Howard Gilbert, Lomira Village Board president; Chuck Kuen, restaurant supervisor; Bud Barrette of PSI contractors; Paul Webb, Valley Management Inc. vice-president; and Dave and Micki Rause of Fond du Lac, owners of the new restaurant.

Rause said he is "extremely pleased" about his new McDonald's restaurant in Lomira.

"It's an opportunity to have what's considered an interstate store with a highway location," he said. "It will provide some additional employment."

GOOD NEWS WITH COMMUNITY CHURCH

We Really Need You, Dad

"If American families are to survive the incredible stresses and dangers they now face, it will be because husbands and fathers provide loving leadership in their homes, placing their wives and children at the highest level on their system of priorities," according to Dr. James Dobson.

It is more difficult to teach proper values today than in years past because of the widespread rejection of Christian principles in our culture. The result is a generation of young people who have discarded the moral standards of the Bible.

It is possible for fathers and mothers to love and revere God while systematically losing their children. You can go to church three times a week, serve on its governing board, attend the annual picnic, pay your tithes and make all the approved religious noises, yet somehow fail to communicate the real meaning of Christianity to your children.

The mission of introducing one's children to the Christian faith can be likened to a three-man relay race. First, your father runs his lap around the track, carrying the baton, which represents the gospel of Jesus Christ. At the appropriate moment, he hands the baton to you, and you begin your journey around the track. Then finally, the time will come when you must get the baton safely in the hands of your child. But as any track coach will testify, relay races are won or lost in the transfer of the baton. There is a critical moment when all can be lost by a fumble or miscalculation. The baton is rarely dropped on the backside of the track when the runner has it firmly in his grasp. If failure is to occur it will likely happen in the exchange between generations.

The most important reason for living is to get the Gospel safely in the hands of your children. Unless your son and daughter grasp the faith and take it with them through life, everything else (professional advancement and financial success) appears pale and washed out in comparison.

This message comes to you from Community Church, West Bend. Sunday services begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Silverbrook Middle School.

Permits Needed To Divert Water

MILWAUKEE, WI — (June 9, 1988) — Landowners who wish to divert water from Wisconsin's lakes and rivers under Governor Tommy G. Thompson's Emergency Order for irrigation permits should contact the Southeast District office for permit applications and restrictions, according to Gary Nelson, District Water Management Coordinator.

"Permits are still needed to divert water, even under the Governor's Emergency Order," said Nelson. "We want to make sure that there will not be any adverse environmental impacts caused by the diversion. Therefore, we will be making a site inspection before a permit is granted or denied."

Nelson emphasized that only riparian owners (those landowners that actually live along waterways) will be allowed to divert water. Diversion will only be allowed for agricultural purposes. Permits will be either granted or denied within 48 hours.

"These emergency permits will expire on July 7, 1988," added Nelson.

Persons in Washington, Ozaukee and Sheboygan Counties should contact Vic Pappas at (414) 562-9682.

Gropp Announces for State Senate

Mary L. Gropp

Mary L. Gropp, an Oshkosh area businesswoman, announced today that she is a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the State Senate.

Gropp, is a Wisconsin native born and raised in Clear Lake, who currently works as a Real Estate loan originator with Fox Valley Savings and Loan in Oshkosh. Gropp said her interest in politics stems from strong family ties to unions - her father and three brothers are all union carpenters and her husband, Jim, a public school teacher, is a member of the Wisconsin Education Association Council (WEAC), the largest teacher's union in the state.

Gropp commented on some of her views, "As a home loan specialist, I have first hand knowledge of the importance of property tax relief. We need to provide direct tax credits to the taxpayers. The only fair way to do that is by increasing funding for the Homestead and Farmland programs, to provide for those most in need, and through a tax credit on the income tax form for other taxpayers." Gropp went on to say that this method would ensure that the taxpayers, not the tax spenders, would benefit directly.

Gropp, who describes herself as a pro-family, pro-worker candidate said she is running because of concerns she shares with people in the 18th District. "In addition to the central issue of property tax relief, I think the people in this area would like to see legislation that directly benefits working people and their families. In my mind, that means we need to raise the minimum wage, enact tough plant closing measures, strengthen the recently passed family leave act, and provide early retirement for our public employees," stated Gropp.

Mrs. Gropp went on to explain that passing such legislation doesn't mean that business suffers, in fact it benefits. "If we raise the minimum wage, the purchasing power of a significant portion of the population is increased, and that money goes right back into the local economy. Democrats have tried on 5 separate occasions to raise the minimum wage in the last legislative session and have been frustrated in their efforts by the Republican members."

Mrs. Gropp summarized by saying that she was uniquely qualified to represent the 18th Senate District. "I have been involved in the Oshkosh community for over 20 years, not only as a businesswoman, but as a homemaker as well. I think my business experience, community involvement, and labor background ties me into all viewpoints of the district and I think it's time that the people in this area had an effective voice in Madison."

NEWS EXTRA...

Your Pet's Worms Can Cause Human Problems

Just the thought of worms in our dog or cat is enough to make any person squirm! Roundworms, one of the most common intestinal worms, can be both prevented and treated so that our pets and the people around them remain free of parasite-related disease.

Roundworms live inside the intestinal tract of dogs and cats and are only visible if passed out of the pet. Usually only the eggs, which are microscopic, are passed. The roundworm eggs then may infect other pets and possibly young children.

In pets, these worms can cause digestive upsets even resulting in bowel obstruction and death. More seriously, if children ingest roundworm eggs passed in an infected dog's stool, they can contract a rare disease called Ocular Larval Migrants that can result in blindness.

Puppies and kittens are more commonly affected by roundworms than adult pets. They can contract the parasites while still in the womb or after nursing on milk from an infected mother. Adult dogs and cats are often infected by ingesting grass or other material from an area where another cat or dog has soiled.

To prevent problems related to roundworms the Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association urges pet owners to follow these guidelines:

1. Have your pet tested for roundworms by submitting a stool sample to your veterinarian at least once a year or more frequently for puppies, kittens and outdoor pets.
2. If you see any worms obtain proper identification and effective deworming medication. (Different types of worms require different medication for elimination of the problem).
3. Pick up after your dog in all public places to minimize risk to children who might play in these areas.

a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Wednesday and 9:30 a.m., Thursday to 9:30 a.m. Friday. The overnight will feature a special surprise. Fees are $63.50 per person.

For more information and to register, call Riveredge Nature Center at 931-8095 (Metro) or 675-6888 (local). Riveredge is a nonprofit located on Highway Y, north of 33 near Newburg.

The members of the congregation of Peace United Church of Christ of Kewaskum will celebrate the sixty-fifth anniversary of the founding of their church on June 23, with a religious service and a pot luck dinner. On June 2, 1898 first organizational steps were taken by nine men of the community. These nine men subsequently became the first council members or board of trustees of the new church. A constitution was adopted on June 6, 1898, and by November of that year land had been purchased and a church erected. Dedication services were held on Nov. 4.

Honor roll students at Kewaskum High School for the second semester of studies were announced this week as follows: Freshmen — Joyce Bruessel, Lucille Kirchner, Roger Mertz, Jean Miske, Jennifer Nolting, Kenneth Pesch, Jeanne Reindl, Margaret Rodenkirch. Sophomores — Mary Bodden, Kathy Keno, Mary Kroncke, Sherilee Schuster. Juniors — Margaret Kirsch, Thomas Lavarda, Diane Marx. Seniors — Janet Dreher, Allen Koepke, Rita Schumacher, Mariel Seefeldt, Mary Skiba, JoAnn Wagner, David Williams.

Rev. D. F. Bitter performed a nuptial service in St. Lucas Lutheran Church, Kewaskum, on June 8, uniting in marriage Miss Judith Ramthun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ramthun, Sr., Kewaskum, and William Heberer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Heberer, Route 2, Campbellsport.

Miss Cecelia Deppiesse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deppiesse, Route 1, Random Lake, and Dennis Jandre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jandre, Kewaskum, were married during a nuptial mass at St. Mary's Church, Random Lake on June 1.

Ronny Charles Risse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Risse, Route 1, Random Lake, claimed Miss Duanne Marie Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deward Miller, Route 1, Kewaskum, as his bride on June 9, at St. John's United Church of Christ, Boltonville.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Basil Tillou, West Bend, on June 10. Mrs. Tillou is the former Patsy Haug, daughter of Wesley Haug, Kewaskum. A daughter was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Nigh, Route 2, Kewaskum, June 11. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tischendorf, Route 3, Campbellsport, June 8.

Milton Melius, 43, a farmer residing near Kohlsville in the Town of Wayne, was killed June 15, when a team of horses bolted and pinned him between a hayrack and the barn on his farm. Little could be learned of the fatal mishap at the time of this writing, but according to unconfirmed reports, Mr. Melius was opening a gate to allow the team of horses pulling a hayrack to pass when the animals bolted and he was crushed to death between them and the stone foundation wall of the barn. Mr. Melius who married a Gerhardt girl, was the father of five children, all of whom survive.

Schaefer Bros., who operate the Ford garage in Kewaskum, are now going ahead rapidly with the building of a new super service station on the site of the present structure. All but the office part of the old garage has been razed in the past two weeks and the new one is taking shape. The new super service station, with garage in connection, is expected to be completed and ready for business by August 1.

A beautiful double wedding ceremony, one of the rarest and most unusual ever performed in this vicinity in which six of the principals are twins, took place in the Peace Evangelical Church parsonage in Kewaskum on June 11. At that time Pastor Richard M.A. Gadow, united in marriage Miss Beulah Buddenhagen and Leslie P. Kurtz and Miss Bernice Buddenhagen and Benjamin H. Kurtz. The Buddenhagen twins are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buddenhagen of the Town of Barton, Route 2, Kewaskum. The bridegrooms are twin sons of Mrs. Mary Kurtz-Frank of Richfield. Adding to the unusualness of the occasion were the attendants of the twin brides at the ceremony, who are also twins, namely the Misses Elaine and Eleanor Schleif, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schleif of this village and are cousins of the twin brides. They attended as maids of honor. Besides the three sets of twins participating in the ceremony, the brides also have younger twin brothers.

In a charming wedding ceremony performed at St. Lucas Evangelical Church on June 15, Miss Elizabeth G. Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Martin of the village of Kewaskum, became the bride of Carl R. Johnson of Slinger, son of Mrs. Kathryn Johnson of the Town of Farmington.

Miss Rosemarie Theresa Boegel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boegel of St. Kilian, Route 3, Campbellsport, and Edwin J. Amerling, son of Mrs. Magdalena Amerling of Route 3, Kewaskum, were joined in wedlock on June 14 in St. Kilian's Church, St. Kilian.

Another wedding of much interest to residents of this village and West Bend took place June 15, when the Rev. Ernest Brittain officiated at a ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Elizabeth Quade, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Quade of the village of Kewaskum, and Elwyn W. Hamlyn, well known son of Mr. and Mrs. Winsor W. Hamlyn, Route 1, West Bend.

Mrs. Mary Bassil, nee Horning, 76, another beloved pioneer resident of this community, passed away at her home in this village on June 15, following an extended illness of several years.

Death saddened a Kewaskum home on June 15, when Albert F. Buss, 80, well known and aged pioneer resident of the village died suddenly of a heart attack.

The death of Mrs. Mary Domann, beloved Beechwood resident, occurred June 9, at the Sheboygan Memorial Hospital after an illness of 10 days with a complication of diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schacht are the proud parents of strapping twin sons which arrived at their home at Orchard Grove on June 13. The boys received the names of Lloyd and Lyle. A baby boy also arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerner in the Town of Wayne June 9. The little fellow received the name of Kenneth Don.

VOLUNTEER STATE CAMPGROUND HOSTS SOUGHT

MADISON, WI — The Department of Natural Resources is seeking volunteers to serve as campground hosts at many of its parks and forests during the summer camping season.

"We're looking for people to be hosts who enjoy camping, like helping park visitors and have talents and interests that they would like to share with state park and forest visitors," said Norman Pazderski, Park Employee Development coordinator for the DNR.

Free campsites, with electricity where available, will be provided for persons chosen as volunteer campground hosts. In exchange for the free camping, hosts will provide visitor services for a few hours each day.

Hosts will perform some light housekeeping duties such as minor rest room cleanup and restocking of rest room supplies. Hosts will also greet new campers, answer questions on the parks or forests, and hand out literature on the park and area attractions.

"One of the intents of the program is to ensure that campers who are starting vacations and are unfamiliar with the park get started on the right track," added Pazderski. "And the hosts can also serve as extra eyes and ears for the park staff, and relay visitor needs and concerns."

Unbeaten Lithias Hand Lakes Team Third Loss

By Bob Pick II

Veteran West Bend Lithia pitcher, John Jazak, pitched a three-hitter and worked his way out of a ninth inning jam as the Kewaskum Athletics saw their Lakes record slip to 3-3 in a 2-0 loss here Sunday afternoon.

Jazak retired the Kewaskum batters in six of the nine innings pitched. He walked two and struck out five. Jeff Geidel pitched a complete game for the locals and suffered his third loss in six outings. He walked one and recorded ten strikeouts.

The Lithias scored their first run in the top of the fourth on Greg Rinn's double down the leftfield line with one away. Doug Gonring fouled out. Kurt Meinberg walked and Jay Munding singled to right center driving in Rinn which proved to be the winning run. The other Lithia run crossed the plate in the top of the ninth of Rinn's lead-off single to right. Gonring moved Rinn to second on a grounder in the infield. Rinn came home as the result of a throwing error on the left side of the Kewaskum infield.

Kewaskum plays their next two Lakes games this weekend at home with Barton coming to town on Saturday afternoon and Port Washington Sunday. Both games begin at 1 p.m.

Wisconsin Forage Expo To Be Held June 30

The Western Wisconsin and Chippewa Valley Forage Councils along with the Wisconsin Forage Council will co-host the 1988 Wisconsin Forage Expo. The Expo will be held on Thursday, June 30 at the farms of Jon and Cindy Becker and Butch and Val Sutherland, both of Cumberland, Wisconsin. The Wisconsin Forage Expo has been known in recent years as the Wisconsin Forage Field Day.

The Forage Expo will begin at 9:30 a.m. with registration and will continue until 3:00 p.m. This year's Wisconsin Forage Expo will feature the use of total mixed rations (TMR's). Speakers will address what herds should consider buying a TMR, evaluating and sizing TMR mixers, and incorporating and managing a TMR effectively.

Over 140 varieties of alfalfa, red clover, trefoil, grasses, and specialty forages will be on display. Demonstrations will be given on types of cutting machines, conditioners, tedders, and bale compactors. Commercial exhibits will be on display throughout the day.

Participants will be able to view two vigorous farm facilities. Both the Beckers and Sutherlands worked as a team last year when they co-hosted the 1987 Wisconsin Farm Progress Days in Barron County.

Attend Wisconsin Forage Expo by driving 11 miles northwest of Barron, or 4 miles southeast of Cumberland on County Highway T. Watch for the signs. Lunch will be served at noon. There will be a nominal charge.

Indians Play Well; Beat Chilton

After consecutive losses to New Holstein and Sheboygan Falls, the Kewaskum Indians finally put it all together and played good, sound baseball in cruising past the Chilton Tigers, 9-3.

Another good sign for the Indians was that they only committed three errors, two coming on one play. Most coaches would consider that a nightmare, but for Indian coach Tom Bartelt, whose team is averaging five to six errors a ballgame, three was more than welcome.

"I thought we played well," Bartelt said after the game, "We made a few dumb mistakes, but not as many as we usually do."

The Indian bats were also smoking as they collected thirteen base hits. Senior outfielder Jeff Miller again led the way with a 3 for 4 effort, including a double. Miller, a returning all-conference selection from last year, is batting close to .700 in conference action this season. Scott Krahn went 2 for 3, as did Noel Stollenwerk and Mike Heberer added a 2 for 4 effort.

The Indians struck for a couple of runs in the first as Krahn led off with a double and Stollenwerk reached on an infield single. Miller then doubled to the gap scoring Krahn, but Stollenwerk was called out as the umpire apparently did not see him touch second base. Steve Johnson then added a single to score Miller, and the Indians led, 2-0.

Chilton answered with a couple of runs of their own in the first. With one out, Indian lefty Dennis Aupperle walked a batter and then gave up a single with runner eventually winding up on second and third. Bob Broeckel then hit a line drive off the glove of second baseman Mike Morell, who took his eye off the ball for a moment, and into rightfield. Right-fielder Paul Budiac then launched a throw which ended up in left field, allowing two runs to score. The Indians got out of any further damage with some nifty plays in the infield.

The Indians scored a few in the third after successive walks to Krahn and Stollenwerk. Miller, Mike Heberer and Mark Hartmann each followed with singles to push across three runs in the inning to give the Indians a 5-2 lead. They added two more in the fourth inning on a single by Budiac and a triple by Krahn. Stollenwerk drove in the second run with a ground ball and Kewaskum led 7-2.

That's the way it stayed until the seventh. Stollenwerk led off with a single and Miller followed with another single. After a strikeout, Heberer doubled both runs home to make the score 9-2. Heberer collected three RBI's for the game.

Chilton added a run in the bottom of the seventh, but by then it was all academic. Indian Coach Tom Bartelt cleared his bench and gave everybody some well-deserved playing time.

Southpaw Dennis Aupperle went the distance for the Indians to pick up the complete game victory. Although not one of his overpowering victories, (five strikeouts, six walks) Aupperle got the job done, allowing only three Tiger base hits.

The Indians, now 3-2 in conference, 3-5 overall, will have to continue to play well in order to contend for the conference title.

Upcoming Games: Mon. June 20th, at Plymouth; Tues., June 21st, Two Rivers, home; Thurs., June 23rd, at Kiel.

Schulteis Fifth at State

MADISON — Kewaskum's Marty Schulteis placed fifth last Saturday in the State Class B 110 meter high hurdles, while coed teammate shot putter Patti Padden, also competed at state; however, she was unable to place.

After qualifying for the finals at Friday's preliminaries, Schulteis hit five hurdles in the finals, crossing the line in 15.48. Schulteis was disappointed with his final performance, but fortunately, unlike many of the hurdle finalists, Schulteis is a junior and will have a chance to come back and try to win next season.

Padden did put well in making the finals, but her fine put of 35'11" was not quite as far as she needed it to be to place in the event. Padden recently graduated and therefore will not be back to compete next season.

There were a few other Eastern Wisconsin Conference athletes competing at the state meet. Sheboygan Falls' Brad Ruettgers won the 110 meter high hurdles with a time .3 of a second faster than Schulteis' time. Another Falcon, Jay Klister, also placed with a fifth in the discus.

Ross Hoffman, from Two Rivers vaulted 14' in Class A competition, good enough for a third place in the pole vault.

Kiels' 400 meter relay as well as it's 1600 meter relay placed. The 400 meter relay team placed third with a very fast 44.64 second time while the 1600 meter relay team placed fourth with a quick 3:28.79.

For the New Holstein girls, their 400 meter relay team placed second, 51.07, and Sherri McNamara placed sixth in the discus.

Two area athletes placing from other conferences were Slinger's Diane Breuer and West Bend West's Rebecca Butt. Breuer a senior, took a sixth place in the 800 (2:20). Butt, only a freshman, was the state champion (Class A) in the high jump (5'8"), third in the long jump (17') and fifth in the 110 meter intermediate hurdles (15.71). She scored all 18 of West's points, placing the team in a seventh place tie with Madison Memorial. A state champion at only 15 years of age, Butt looks to have a very promising future as does the Spartan team if Butt stays healthy.

Out of First Place

Indians Fall to New Holstein

The Kewaskum Indian baseball team opened their play last week, traveling to New Holstein in search of their third straight conference victory, and sole possession of first place. Both teams entered the game with identical 2-0 records and a share of the top spot. The Indians, however, came up on the short end of a 9-0 decision against the Huskies.

The game was much closer than the score indicates, as big left-hander Dennis Aupperle was on the mound for the Indians, pitching masterfully in the first few frames, striking out three of the first four batters. Aupperle didn't allow a run and only allowed one hit until the Huskies broke the ice in the fourth.

The Huskies struck for a run in the fourth after a walk accompanied by an old nemesis for the Indians, an error. The Indians accumulated five miscues in this contest, and they paid for them. A wild pitch by Aupperle scored the run and after four complete innings, the two teams were involved in a close 1-0 struggle.

The Indian offense, meanwhile, couldn't get untracked in this game. The Indians only scrounged up five base hits, two by senior outfielder Jeff Miller. Miller, however, also was the culprit accounting for a botched scoring opportunity in the first inning. Miller hit a one-out single to right field, moving Noel Stollenwerk, who had singled, to third base. Miller advanced to second on the throw to third. Steve Johnson then hit a ground ball to short and Miller broke for third, forcing Stollenwerk in a rundown, and an easy out. Other than that inning, the Indians really didn't pose much of a threat to the Huskies, except in the third. After a walk to Scott Krahn, courtesy runner Dan Heisdorf got picked off first base. Jeff Miller then proceeded to triple to right-center, but was left stranded. The Indians stranded eight baserunners.

The Huskies finally, got to Aupperle in the fifth coming up with three more runs, on only one hit. Two base on balls combined with four Indian errors forced in the runs, forcing Aupperle to an early exit. Coach Tom Bartelt put in junior Paul Budiak in the sixth inning and after striking out the first batter, walked the next two, then gave up three consecutive singles. Two more walks followed, and Budiak was gone. Miller came in as the third and final Indian pitcher. After walking the first batter he faced, he got pitcher Scott Sabol to bounce into a fielder's choice. In all, five runs crossed the plate, leaving the Indians to wonder and wait till their next meeting.

The loss dropped the Indians record to 2-1 in conference action, and to 2-4 overall.

Indians Finish Golf Season at State

Wisconsin Rapids — The Kewaskum Indian golfers made history by making it to the state meet for the first time. They traveled to Wisconsin Rapids to compete in the 36 - hole state tournament at Lake Arrowhead. The 36-hole tournament showed to be the factor by showing the lack of depth of the Indians. The Indians were going Tuesdays round in fifth place, but finished sixth after the last 18 - holes of the tournament.

The Class A champions were defending champions Madison West who shot a 313 - 298 - 611. Runner-up of Class A was Grafton who fired a 303 the last day to overtake Racine Case.

The Class A medalist was Bill Herm of Green Bay Preble. This was Bill's third straight state medalist championship. He fired a 73-72 for a one over par 36-hole match.

The Class B champions were Mount Horeb who fired 320 - 330 - 650. Runner-up was Holmen who stayed in second for the whole tourney.

The Class B medalist honors went to Mark Voeller of Whitewater who shot 74 - 78 - 152.

The Kewaskum Indians went in by knowing if they would have shot their averages that they would come away with the Class B championship. But that was not the case at this tournament.

The low score the first 18 - holes for the Indians was senior Joel Fleury who shot a 40 - 40 - 80. Next came an 83 from senior Gregg Dean. Then junior Joel Miller came in with a 93, and the Indians also got a 94 from senior Eric Pearson. Also having some problems was freshman D.J. Slaughenou who shot a 101.

The second day the Indians were hoping for some good scores to get a respectable finish, but that was not to be. The low for the second 18-holes came from Gregg Dean who fired an 85 and finished the tourney at 168. Then came an 86 from Joel Fleury who finished at 166. Joel was low for the Indians at the state meet. Next came Eric Pearson by shooting 89 by finishing the tournament at 183. Then came a 98 from D.J. Slaughenou who finished at 199. Also Joel Miller who had troubles the last day with a 104 for a 197 finish.

The Indians were disappointed about the outcome but they made it to the state meet and represented their high school well. The final stats will be in next weeks paper.

Indians Blow Big Lead, Bow to Falls

The Kewaskum Indians did their biggest promotion to date for goodwill, blowing a seven run lead in giving away an 8-7 victory to the visiting Sheboygan Falls Falcons. The Indians were even gracious enough to supply five errors to the Falcons' cause, helping Falls in their come-from-behind triumph.

The Indians didn't appear to be kind hosts to Falls starter Brek Rammer, however. The Indians ripped Rammer for four runs on four hits, in the first frame. Even Mike Morell got into the action. Morell, who didn't even have a batting average coming into the game, lined a single to left center during the rally.

The Indians struck for three more runs in the second. A pair of singles and three walks pushed across the three runs and after two innings the Indians held a commanding 7-0 lead. That was all the scoring that the Indian offense was to accumulate on this day, however. Falls hard thrower Jay Klister replaced Rammer and held the Indians in check the rest of the way, scattering five hits, while striking out six and walking one. Coincidentally, this was Klister's first game with the Falcons, after competing at the state track meet as a discus thrower the previous weekend.

Indian starter Mike Heberer

held the Falcons' attack in check until fourth when he was touched for a run. After allowing a single, Heberer watched his defense fall apart, committing two errors in the inning, allowing the runner to score and cut the Indian lead to 7-1. The Indians again committed five errors in the ball game.

The Falcons struck for a couple more runs in the fifth. After a leadoff walk, Heberer retired the next two batters, but then walked Klister. The center fielder Kubowski then cleared the bases with a two-run scoring triple. A single and another error eventually forced three runs across the plate and suddenly, the Falcons were back in the ball game at 7-4.

Falls continued to nibble away at the lead, adding another run in the sixth on a base on balls and a couple of singles. The Falcons finally managed to tie and over take the Indians in the final inning. A single and a stolen base, to go along with an error put runners on the corners with nobody out for Falls. Heberer got the next batter, Brad Kayden to pop up in the infield, but consequently, the runner from third scored as the Indians tried to double off Frausto, who was caught off first. The throw didn't get Frausto, nor did it get Daharsh at the plate as Sheboygan Falls closed the gap to 7-6.

After Frausto stole second, Heberer got Brian Wulff to pop up for the second out. The next batter, Walch, hit a grounder in the gap, that was knocked down by Morell, but Morell threw the ball away, allowing Frausto to score with the tying run. Leynor then singled to put runners on the corners. Heberer then balked allowing Walch to score the go-ahead run. Senior Noel Stollenwerk replaced Heberer and got Rammer to pop up for the third out.

The Indians went down quietly in the seventh, falling to their second straight disappointing loss. The Indians record now falls to 2-2 in conference, and 2-5 overall.
