Electors Approve $7.3 Million School Budget for 1988-89

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Approximately forty people were in attendance to hear the presentation of the proposed 1988-89 budget for the Kewaskum School District at its annual meeting Tuesday night.

The budget, along with a simple and direct explanation of its expenditures and revenues, drew few questions and still fewer adverse comments.

The proposed budget of $7,373,443, represented an increase of 4.74% over the 1987-88 budget of $7,039,915. Temporary Chairman Perry Ankerson told the audience he wanted to draw their attention to the budget report's summary. That summary showed that while the total figure for all other expenditures within the budget had decreased by $65,763, from $1,700,688 in 1987-88, to $1,634,925 for 1988-89, the budget area of salaries and employe benefits had increased $399,692, from $5,338,826 for 1987-88, to $5,738,518 for 1988-89.

As a result of the recent ratification of a two-year contract with teachers, salaries went up 7.02% this year and they will go up another 6.8% for next year which represents a 14% total increase in teacher salaries over the two-year contract period. Administrative salary increases averaged 4.5%.

With proposed expenditures of $7,373,443 and anticipated revenues of $7,250,384 for the coming school year, the electors were asked to approve a 1988-89 tax levy of $3,568,064, up 7.10% or $236,564 from 1987-88.

Based on an anticipated equalized value for the district of $256,916,034, the result will be a mill rate of $13.89 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, an increase of 3.97% or 53c, over last year's figure of $13.36.

Business Manager Cherna Gorder noted the estimated equalized value figure for 1988-89 was based on a 3% projected increase. As an example, Gorder said school taxes on a house with an equalized value of $70,000 were $935.20 in 1987. Should this house increase in value by the projected 3% to $72,100 for 1988, the new school tax would be $1,001.47. Gorder noted, however, that all property would not automatically increase by 3% as some of the increase will be due to new construction.

In other action the electors approved the standard list of resolutions for the coming year which authorize the school board to take such actions as selling obsolete and unused equipment, provide a lunch program, books, transportation, and set the date for next year's annual meeting.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

James R. Copeland, 34, of 2842 North 12th Street, Milwaukee, and Eugene Caldwell, 33, 3151 North Richards Street, Milwaukee, appeared in Washington County Court Monday where they were each charged with being party to the crime of theft.

The charges were the result of an incident which occurred late Friday afternoon at KL Home and Hardware, 985 Fond du Lac Avenue, Kewaskum.

According to the Kewaskum Police Department report, two male subjects entered the store and proceeded to the power tools aisle. Ken Weddig and his son Greg, who were working in the store at the time, thought the men acted suspicious.

One man walked to the rear of the store and Greg followed, asking if he could be of help. Greg stated he heard a noise as if something had dropped, noting it sounded like the

Dr. David Heather Named New District Administrator

Dr. David Heather

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At a special meeting following the annual meeting Tuesday night, the Kewaskum Board of Education unanimously approved the hiring of Dr. David Heather as the district's new administrator, filling the vacancy left by the resignation of former District Administrator Penny Kleinhaus.

Dr. Heather comes to the district with a diversified professional background having work experience in both the field of education and private industry. He received his PhD, with a major in education and administration from the University of Wisconsin - Madison in 1984. His Master's Degree is in curriculum and instruction.

Dr. Heather comes to Kewaskum from the Monticello School District south of Madison where he has served as District Administrator for the past two years as well as Elementary School Principal. The Monticello School District is comprised of a high school, junior high school and elementary school, with a total enrollment of 440 students.

Prior to his association with the Monticello school system, Dr. Heather held the position of principal at Bennett High School, Bennett, Iowa. Before going to Iowa he taught welding in Moline, Illinois.

From 1969 to 1978, Heather worked as a welding engineer for Chicago Bridge and Iron. He also worked 2 1/2 years as a heavy equipment operator in Davenport, Iowa. He left private industry to further his education and subsequently returned to the education field as a teacher and administrator.

Dr. Heather is married and has five children, all presently in school. One child is a junior at the University of Iowa, another is a sophomore at the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater. The younger children are a high school junior, an eighth grader and the

Going Ahead with Incinerator Feasibility Study

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Trustee Mary Krueger advised the Kewaskum Village Board Monday night that a study to determine whether a plan to build an incinerator in the county is feasible or not is scheduled to proceed.

Krueger said three municipalities have formally committed financial support to cover the cost of the study. She stated the Incineration Committee had recently received a $15,000 state grant which will cover part of the study's $30,000 cost. The balance of the tab would be picked up by the City of West Bend for 78% or $12,496, Town of Trenton 13.83% or $2,100, and Village of Kewaskum 8.5%, $1,200. That cost breaks down to 50c per person for each resident of those communities.

Krueger said the Village of Jackson and Town of Barton had informed the committee that they are definitely interested in being part of the project, however, neither community has come up with a formal commitment or funds. The Town of Kewaskum has also expressed an interest as has Newburg, but there has not been any formal action taken on their part.

"The Town of West Bend has given a definite 'no' to the plan," said Krueger. She noted the Town of Farmington had also changed its mind about becoming involved with the incinerator project. Krueger said Farmington indicated that while it has an operating landfill now, it will need an alternative before the incinerator would be ready for operation and therefore it is not interested. "Based on that information," noted Krueger, "I would have thought Farmington would be even more interested in being in on the ground floor of the proposed project."

Krueger again indicated those municipalities that want to join the partnership after the project gets off the ground will find it is going to be costlier than becoming involved from the start.

Krueger said the committee would again be contacting all the area municipalities to give them another opportunity to become part of the project.

In other business, the board approved the amending of the Capital Improvement Sidewalk contract to extend the completion date to October 1st. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said the contractor had asked for the extension citing the heat for causing the request. Schmidt said crews are only working half days and the heat is also causing the new concrete to dry too rapidly causing powdery surfaces.

In other action the board approved the surveying and subsequent sale of approximately seven acres of village-owned land on the north end of Kewaskum, west of Fond du Lac Avenue. The village will retain a portion of the property for its new lift station which will be servicing northern portions of the village and the new industrial park.

In other action related to the industrial park, the board approved Schmidt's request to secure a loan from Valley Bank for the purpose of installing sewer and water improvements in the park.

Schmidt said he had looked into funding through the Wiscon Trust Fund, however, he had been informed that the fund had severely over-extended its lending capacity and has temporarily halted further lending.

Even if the fund were to begin lending again in the near future, noted Schmidt, it has reduced its maximum borrowing limits from $400,000 to $100,000, which would not cover the cost of the three projects involved.

Schmidt said he had gotten a written commitment from the bank just prior to the prime rate going up. That in itself means a savings of about a quarter per cent in our interest rate, noted Schmidt.

The board also approved the purchasing of a generator to provide emergency power for well #3, at a cost of $14,500 for the generator and the necessary switch gear.

Water Pollution Control Superintendent Pete Albers said the 200 kw unit would meet the village's needs as well as fit in the existing building.

Schmidt indicated money for the generator could be transferred from funds set aside for the new well. He said it seemed unlikely that work would be done any more this year. The money could be replaced in the 1989 budget.

In Fire Department business Fire Chief Donald Ehnert informed the board that plans to remodel the cab on the department's telesquirt truck had been tabled.

Ehnert said an alternative solution of installing additional passenger capacity in one of the other units would solve the problem for the present. He felt the department, however, should still go ahead with writing up the specifications and bid requests for future consideration. Ehnert noted the department was reluctant to go ahead with the project when it was learned the cost would exceed $10,000.

Trustee Tom McElhatton, chairman of the Parks Committee, advised the board that a record 743 swim passes had been sold this year. He also noted effective August 23rd, people should be aware of the change in pool hours due to the opening of school.

Due to the Labor Day holiday, the board unanimously voted to move the next meeting date from Monday, Sept. 5th, to Tuesday, Sept. 6th.

A Plan Commission meeting has also been scheduled for August 30th.

The voters also approved the same yearly salary for school board members, $800 plus actual expenses and earning losses not to exceed $15.00 per day.

After looking over the 1988-89 school calendar, several parents asked the board to consider scheduling parent-teacher conferences over a period of more than one day since most parents with more than one child in school find it almost impossible to meet with each child's teacher.

Another parent also asked the board to seriously consider starting school after Labor Day, noting the extra days could be made up by shortening the Christmas and Easter vacations.

Students return to school this year on Thursday, Aug. 25th.

Kewaskum Man Has Close Call With Lightning Strike

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Bob Callison, 21, of Route 1, 2046 Brazelton Drive, Kewaskum, had a close call with lightning Saturday afternoon.

According to a Kewaskum Police Department report, Callison, the lifeguard in charge at the Kiwanis Park Pool, was in the bathhouse with the other lifeguards during a storm which was passing through the area. As he grabbed a doorknob at the back of the building lightning struck either the building or the door itself, sending an electrical charge through Callison which threw him back and onto the floor.

Callison remained conscious but dizzy. He said it felt like his heart had been pushed up. He was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend, where he was monitored and tests were run to determine any injuries. He remained conscious through the whole episode.

According to Callison he was going outside to make a final check to be sure all the swimmers had left the pool area and taken cover when the incident occurred.

Callison remained at the hospital about four hours then was transported back to his home by two fellow lifeguards.

By GERRY MUELLER

Mr. Stephen King, who was recently hired as the new Kewaskum Middle School principal, was formerly introduced to electors of the school district at its annual meeting Tuesday evening.

King comes to Kewaskum from the Port Washington School District where he served in the capacity of assistant middle school principal.

Prior to his association with the Port Washington School District, King worked in the West Bend school system where he taught science for eight years.

King fills the vacancy left by the resignation of Julie Backus.

King was hired on a two-year contract with a beginning salary of $38,000 plus fringe benefits.

One of the subjects then went to the front of the store and left. Before Ken Weddig could get to the front of the store the other man also left, getting into a brown car. Weddig, however, was able to get the vehicle's license number.

Upon checking the power tools aisle, it was discovered that a Milwaukee 3/8" hammer drill valued at $169, was missing. Weddig contacted the Kewaskum Police Department and other law enforcement agencies were notified.

On the information furnished, the two men were apprehended at highways 45 and 60 in Jackson. The two were returned and placed in custody at the Washington County Jail, West Bend.

In their court appearance Monday, the men were ordered to return to court August 29th on the theft charge. Copeland and Caldwell were each released on $2,000 signature bonds.

NO SMOKING

Students, faculty, support staff, and visitors will enjoy smoke-free schools starting September 22. This is due to Board Policy #2700.

Kewaskum School District has joined many other school districts in the state in enacting this type of policy.

The use of tobacco products on school premises is contrary to the educational goals of the Kewaskum School District. In order to carry out this philosophy, to promote further the health and safety of all students and staff, and to promote the cleanliness of facilities, the Board of Education enacts the following into policy:

1. There shall be no smoking or other use of tobacco products in any of the school buildings, offices, shops, warehouses, vehicles or enclosed structures of the Kewaskum School District.

2. There shall be no smoking or other use of tobacco products on any school grounds, playing fields, or other outdoor area of the Kewaskum School District.

Heather said Tuesday evening he was impressed with Kewaskum, noting it has a good educational system now and one which he hopes to improve even more. "We want to help people grow to their highest expectations," said Heather.

Heather was given a three-year contract with a beginning salary of $49,500 plus fringe benefits. He said he expects to be on the job full time by September 12.

Mr. Raymond Kinziger will remain on as interim superintendent during the transition.

Cyclist Killed Sunday

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A Mequon man became Washington County's 8th fatality for 1988 as the result of a week-end motorcycle accident.

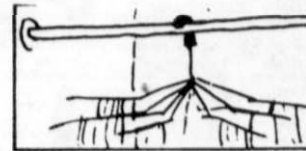

According to a Washington County Sheriff's Department statement, the victim, Craig A. Smith, 37, of 11715 County Lane, Mequon, was traveling, apparently alone, south on Kettle Moraine Drive at 7:45 p.m., Sunday evening approximately 2/10th of a mile north of Highway 28 in the Town of Kewaskum, about 2 1/2 miles east of the Village of Kewaskum.

The report said Smith entered a series of curves in the road and apparently lost control of his machine. The cycle left the road turning over several times, landing on top of its rider.

Smith was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend, by the Kewaskum Rescue Squad, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

The sheriff's department report indicated Smith was not wearing a helmet.

CRY BABIES

Babies may cry less if they're carried more often. Researchers tested 99 three to twelve week olds and their moms. Half the babies were carried [in arm or a carrier] an average 4.4 hours a day - the other half were carried for 2.7 hours. Result: At six weeks [peak crying time] the more frequently carried infants cried and fussed 43% less than the others - and 54% less at night.

Schools Will Welcome Students Back August 25

Thursday, August 25th is the first day of school for returning and new students of the Kewaskum School District.

Parents and guardians should by this time have received information on bus rules and pick-up times. If you have not, please call the Johnson Bus Company at 626-4414 to complete arrangements.

We are asking that families take time to review the bus rider rules and safe boarding, riding, unloading procedures. If this is your youngster's first experience at riding the "big bus" why not take some time, or arrange for someone to accompany him or her at that first pick-up and drop-off.

Also, please be aware of the times crossing guards are present on village street corners and utilize them accordingly. And, finally, don't send your children to school before the school doors open as they will be unsupervised.

Information for those interested and eligible for the free and reduced hot lunch program was published in the Statesman several weeks ago. Middle School and High School students also received copies at registration. Forms will again be given to elementary students (one per family) during the first week of school. If you don't receive one, or wish to review the criteria, please call the Business Office at 626-8427.

Hot lunch prices for this year will remain the same as for the past several years. That will be $1.10 daily and $4.75/$5.00 weekly. School on Thursday is a full day and lunch will be served. The calendar for the school year has been published several times in the past few months. If you still need one please call the business office and we'll send one out.

A new policy this year will be free milk for the kindergartners. You will be receiving a note from school about the cost for snacks ($5.00 approximately) for each semester. That will be about $10.00 less than in the past because of the free milk.

Please be aware of the fact that the School District does not carry accident insurance for students. We therefore urge parents/guardians to review their own policies to be certain coverage is adequate. Particularly in the case of athletics this is a necessity. The schools do have information about the WIAA (Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association) insurance program that is available for parents to purchase on their own at a nominal sum. Information can be obtained by calling the school building offices.

District support staff have worked hard this summer cleaning and making the buildings "spic and span" for the fall opening. Different teachers have continued curriculum development and advanced training. Administrative staff have worked to hire new staff and arrange schedules. All is in readiness and all are anxious to greet children and begin anew.

Most important for us will be the continued support and involvement of parents, grandparents, guardians and community members at large.

Please take the time to review handbooks with your students, go over homework with them, call their teachers or principals, visit your schools, volunteer any time you might have and get involved with parent groups or committees! We need and want your assistance.

Other hints for a successful start to the 1987-88 school year include the following: Be positive about the teacher(s) your child has and the programs available; be interested in what is happening on a daily basis, encourage participation in extra-curricular activities; set goals that are high enough yet realistic and set aside some time on a regular basis for reading (or reading to your child) or homework.

WELCOME BACK!

A Back-to-School Message from State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover

Herbert J. Grover
State Superintendent

As Wisconsin schools and families prepare to begin another school year, I encourage the entire community to work cooperatively to expand its efforts in educating children.

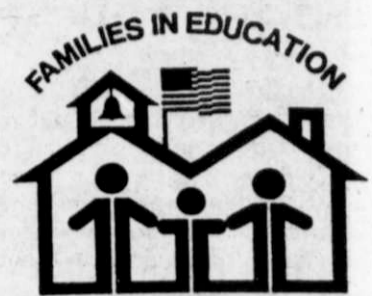

"Coordinating community resources — such as human services agencies, local businesses, service clubs, schools, and families — can create a "seamless web of support" for our children through which they cannot fall.

As more and more families are dual-income or single-parent households, parents frequently face conflicts over the priorities of work, family, and social obligations. And while schools have evolved to more effectively meet the educational needs of today's children, they cannot and should not be expected to fulfill all the needs of children.

Schools are one of many places children learn. Ralph W. Taylor, educational researcher and president of the Systems Development Center, says "the learning environment is not just what the school provides, but what the home and the community provide." He tells us we must make our communities and our homes into learning environments.

Last school year, many communities celebrated the Year of the Family in Education to focus attention on family involvement in education. For the 1988-89 school year, the DPI's Families in Education "Our Children ... Wisconsin Cares" program provides information on how schools, families, and community organizations can work together to help prevent, solve, or reduce the problems children may encounter in learning and growing to adulthood. The Families in Education program will also include examples of Wisconsin school districts' efforts to better serve students, their families, and the community. We all have a responsibility to help our children grow into mature, productive adults. To do this, we need to provide them with guidance and support.

Through expanded community and individual efforts, the stake we all have in educating today's children will pay off. Our children are tomorrow's leaders, workers, and parents. Our future depends on them.

Peter the Great of Russia, in an attempt to encourage his subjects to adopt a Western look, levied a high tax on beards.

Moraine Park Child Care Center to Offer Free Meals

This fall Moraine Park Technical College's "Tiny Tech" child care center will have free meals available to all enrolled children based on financial eligibility guidelines.

The meals are made possible through the Child Care Food Program, receiving funding from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), and administered by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. The program provides financial assistance to child care centers so that nutritious meals can be integrated with nonresidential child care services for children. The goal of the program is to improve the diets of young children and increase the opportunity for children to eat a variety of nutritious foods. The meals and snacks served meet standards set by the USDA.

Children enrolled for child care are served the meals at no separate charge and without regard to race, sex, color, handicap, age or national origin. Any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against in any USDA-related activity should write immediately to the Administrator, Food and Nutrition Service, 3101 Park Center Drive, Alexandria, VA 22302.

West Bend MPTC Gears Up for Fall Semester

School is starting Sept. 6 at Moraine Park Technical College in West Bend and in addition to its vocational diploma and associate degree programs, the technical school has a number of courses and services that bear extra attention.

The Farm Employer/-Employee Relations course will help strengthen relations on your farm in the areas of communication, motivation, hiring and termination and other areas.

You can choose from 13 different courses available on cable channel 16. Seven courses are also available on PBS channel 36 and all courses can be viewed at the West Bend campus library.

Courses in accounting, marketing and computers will be offered during the evenings. In order to meet student needs, the campus bookstore will be open until 7:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday Sept. 6-22.

The Business Skills Center helps students hone their skills on typewriters, computers, calculators and CRTs. The center allows open continuous registration so students can pick days and times convenient to their schedules. An instructor is always on hand to help.

Once again the popular Critical and Creative Thinking elective course will be offered on the West Bend campus. This course is a powerful resource for personal and professional decision making. A new elective this year is Psychology for Personal Growth. There is no prerequisite for this one-credit course.

A new course, Death and Grief, will confront the mystery of dying. The course will offer a practical and philosophical exploration of death and the self, the grieving process, values clarification, death in children and coping with loss.

A number of offerings exist in the health occupations field. Body Structure and Function, a required course for students in the practical nursing and medical transcription programs, is an excellent survey course for anyone interested in learning more about how their body works. Increased demands in the health care field have increased the need for qualified medical transcriptionists. This one-year program prepares students for producing a permanent-type document to detail a patient's health care.

The Dental Assistant Equivalency is a newly revised independent study course for new and experienced assistants who are looking for training and/or preparation for the national certification exam.

Anyone interested in opening a day care center must meet a number of certification requirements mandated by the Department of Health and Social Services. The West Bend campus will offer seven courses that can help you meet these requirements.

The Reentry Women Project offers a free three-week program each month. The program helps women in transition make a new start on life through group sharing of ideas, concerns and goals; confidence building; skill and interest assessment and counseling; job-seeking and interview techniques; skills training opportunities and support services during and after the program.

The GOAL Skills Center will help you improve your math, reading, writing and study skills. Students can prepare for the GED exam, learn English as a second language and explore career interests and aptitudes.

A new Job Matching Service will help you match people, training and jobs to increase your company's efficiency with effective personnel management. This service incorporates standardized testing into your personnel decisions and produces reports that will help you reduce employee turnover, promote team building and increase productivity and job satisfaction.

For more information on these and many other offerings at Moraine Park this fall, consult the course schedules which were delivered to your home the week of Aug. 8. To register for any of these courses call the West Bend campus at 334-0909 or call toll free 1-800-472-4554. Registration begins Aug. 15.

Trefoil Alert

The Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection reminds growers of birdsfoot trefoil that trefoil treated with the herbicide Dowpan M (dalapon) cannot be fed to livestock, grazed by livestock or sold as livestock feed or bedding.

It appears that this year's drought has seriously affected the production of harvestable seed in Wisconsin's trefoil crop. As a result of poor seed production, the Department has received a number of calls from trefoil growers inquiring about the legality of using or selling trefoil treated with dalapon as animal feed.

Because there are no tolerances for dalapon on trefoil, any trefoil treated with dalapon cannot be used or sold as animal feed or bedding. Trefoil treated with dalapon and fed to livestock has the potential to contaminate milk and other animal products.

Sale or use of trefoil treated with dalapon would be a violation of Wisconsin's Pesticide Law.

Build Self-Confidence As a Child Starts School

By Mary Reese
Summer Home Economist
UW-Extension
Washington County

The first day of school is a milestone in a child's life. As a parent, your understanding at this "turning point" is important to the child's future attitude toward school and to his or her healthy growth and development.

Experts in child mental health and development emphasize that parents can play an important role in starting a child off to school with the self-confidence needed throughout life. This self-confidence is built upon good feelings about parents, about authority figures at school, about other children and about himself or herself as a worthwhile human being.

If you have a child starting school this year, here are some things to keep in mind:

-Recognize that the day your child goes off to school is an important event. It may be the first major separation from the secure and familiar world of home and family, and it marks entrance into a new universe of friendship, learning and adventure — a world that parents can never again entirely share. Your greatest gift to your child at this time is your loving support and understanding.

-Remember that learning to like school and liking to learn are closely related. Your child's first school experience can contribute to a good or bad attitude toward school in the years ahead.

-Prepare your child for the new school experience by explaining what to expect and answering all questions honestly. Children need to know the number of days and length of time they will be in school as well as how to get there and back.

-Convey a positive attitude about school. If the parents show enthusiasm for what the school experience can mean, the child is more likely to look forward to it.

-Make transportation plans clear to the child. If he or she is to walk to school, walk the route together a few times before and after school starts. If there are other children from your neighborhood who are of the same age, see if they can walk together. If a child goes to school by bus, help the child identify the vehicle. Once the bus arrives be direct; say goodbye and allow the child to board alone. If the child cries, try not to overreact; in most cases the tears will soon disappear.

-Create a normal routine atmosphere at home the first few days of school. Do not deny or avoid the uniqueness of the situation, but do take an active interest in what your child tells you about school when he or she comes home. Be a good listener, allowing time to talk about school and people there.

Water Beds May Be Hazardous to Infants

MADISON, Wis. — Babies placed on adult water beds may be in danger of dying from suffocation or head trauma, says a University of Wisconsin-Madison Medical School professor. Dr. Enid Gilbert-Barnes, professor of pathology and surgical pathology, reports diagnosing 34 cases of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) at UW Hospital and Clinics during the past three years. At least six of these deaths occurred in babies found in adult water beds.

SIDS, or crib death, is the most common cause of death in two-week to one-year-old infants. Often when a seemingly healthy infant dies, usually during sleep and for no apparent reason, the death is classified as SIDS. Gilbert-Barnes' evidence may help explain some of the deaths and could lead to their prevention.

Gilbert-Barnes believes an infant placed on a water bed, especially when covered with quilts or restrictive clothing, causes a depression in the bed, preventing the infant from lifting its head to breathe sufficiently. "Unlike an adult, a baby's small, concentrated weight on a large, soft area is able to 'sink,' or form a hole, not allowing it to move," explains Gilbert-Barnes. She notes that a 10-pound bag of sugar placed on an adult water bed will cause a deep hole or depression. Gilbert-Barnes emphasizes that the cases she reviewed were associated with adult water beds, and she has no information about small, baby water beds.

Gilbert-Barnes also notes that water bed dangers other than suffocation included an instance where an infant wedged his head between a water bed mattress and frame, and another where a baby was thrown from a water bed when a sibling jumped on the bed.

Gilbert-Barnes reprinted her findings in a recent letter to the New England Journal of Medicine. "These are the first published findings I'm aware of relating water beds to SIDS, so it is difficult to know how many lives this may have affected," she says. "However, I hope this information will cause more physicians to raise the question of whether a water bed may have been a factor in a sudden infant death." Gilbert-Barnes would also like to see water bed manufacturers issue warnings with beds, as well as have pediatricians, obstetricians and the department of health warn parents leaving infants unattended on adult water beds.

County 4-H Youth at State Fair

Washington County was well represented at the 1988 Wisconsin State Fair by members of its 4-H and other youth groups. Among those representing the county were Monica Pikoske and Diane Buckmann, Demonstrations; Lynn Hammen and Penny Gundrum, Action Center; Amy Chesak, Clothing Revue; and Mark Hautamaki, Mechanical Science Activity Center; as well as the 4-H Music Groups and the exhibitors in Dairy, Livestock, and small projects.

For these county youth, State Fair was an experience unlike any other. It was also a chance for youth to learn public speaking, modeling, and leadership skills.

Monica Pikoske, Diana Buckmann, and others involved in communication arts presented their demonstrations and formal speeches to the public two to three times daily. Pikoske and Buckmann were scheduled for August 8-11. They also attended workshops where they shared experiences and learned skills from professional communicators, such as broadcasters, public relations specialists, even the guys who sell kitchen knives on the fairgrounds. The professionals often gave the young speakers advice in how to capture and hold an audience. Many of the youth performed in front of their first "non-captive" audience. Some of the fairgoers stopped just to sit down and rest. The challenge for the 4-Hers was to get their interest and keep it.

"Action Centers" in the Expo Building were the sites of informal demonstrations where youth explained their projects such as Arts and Crafts, Photography, or Dog Obedience. Lynn Hammen and Penny Gundrum teamed up to share their "Salt Designs" to fair-goers August 8-11.

Amy Chesak joined 4-H'ers from throughout Southeast Wisconsin August 8-11 for the 4-H Clothing Revues which were held four times daily. Clothing Revue participants planned and coordinated the revues as well as modeled clothing and accessories they've made as part of a 4-H clothing project. Chesak, who was selected at the County Clothing Revue, also attended workshops in color, line, make-up, speaking, and modeling.

Mark Hautamaki was busy working at the 4-H Mechanical Science Activity Center. Hautamaki demonstrated to fair-goers how to operate radio controlled tractors, and perform simple workworking techniques. He then supervised the fair-goers as they tried their hand at each of the activities as well as trying to generate electricity by riding a stationary bicycle.

Washington County had four 4-H Music Acts selected for State Fair. Rachel Heidtke performed her piano solo s on August 10 at 9:30 a.m., 12:00 noon, and 2:00 p.m. Steve Klein performed his piano solo s on August 13 at 9:30 a.m., and 2:15 p.m. Also on August 13, the Kewaskum 4-H'ers performed their "Lolly Pop" dance at 10:00 a.m., 2:30 p.m., and 5:00 p.m. and the Teen Twisters presented a mixture of 1950's and 60's song and dance at 10:30 a.m., 12:30 p.m., and 2:00 p.m.

As a result of the severe electrical storms last Thursday and Saturday evenings, several buildings around this vicinity were damaged by lightning. A barn of Frank Hayes in the Town of Ashford was struck early Friday morning, with fire following which completely destroyed the building. The dwelling house occupied by S. C. Wollensak and family located on North Fond du Lac Ave., was struck during the heavy electrical storms early Sunday morning. The damage done was very slight. The bolt first struck the chimney on the north end of the house and passed along the eave troughs to the south end where it ripped off several pieces of siding. On its course it blew out the electric light fuse block, which set fire to the curtains below it. Mr. Wollensak noticed the room was ablaze and rushed to extinguish the fire before it could gain headway. The Silver Creek Methodist Church was also struck by lightning early Saturday morning and destroyed by fire.

Another tarantula was captured in I. J. Marx's confectionary store on Monday last week. While John Strachota, John Schaefer and a gentleman friend from Milwaukee were in the store last Thursday evening they noticed a large spider on the wall. Upon closer investigation it was found to be a large tarantula.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Uelmen of St. Michaels was brightened last Friday by the arrival of a little baby boy.

Officials at Mercury Marine, which is headquartered in Fond du Lac County, realized the need and provided the boat. It was water-ready with a trailer, marine radio, depth finder and all required safety gear. The Sheriff's Department added their own communications equipment.

In addition to regular patrols of county lakes, including the southern half of Lake Winnebago, the boat will be utilized for dragging operations, for dive teams, for Sea Scout activities and rescue operations. The boat will be stored at the Sheriff's Department for immediate dispatch.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

August 8, 1988

Dear Editor:

We would like to thank everyone in your area who provided assistance to drought-stricken farm families in Northwestern Wisconsin this last year. Our special appreciation is to local organizers and those who donated hay, money, labor, trucking, supplies, publicity and public information.

As a result of your efforts and similar efforts by thousands of individuals, businesses, churches, communities, organizations and others, over 600,000 bales of hay were delivered to 550 farm families these past eleven months. These families had no available cash or credit and, without your assistance, would have exhausted their feed supplies before this spring.

Program coordinators from the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection indicate that the Emergency Feed Program (or Haylift) provided assistance valued at approximately $1.2 million. To the best of their knowledge all qualified applicants were assisted, none of these farms were liquidated solely as a result of inadequate feed, and severe, widespread livestock malnutrition was avoided.

Without your support these outstanding accomplishments would not have been possible. Thank you for being such "good neighbors" to distant farm families. We applaud your concern and generosity. Your actions have demonstrated, once again, that Wisconsin is a fine place to live and work.

Sincerely,
Tommy G. Thompson

To The Editor:

During the week of July 25th, the Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County sponsored a Peer Listeners Training Program for 78 high school students from 5 county school districts. The week consisted of informational workshops on topics such as good self concept, sexuality, suicide, alcohol and other drug abuse, and active listening. It was an intense week of sharing, caring, and learning. These young women and men will be available to other teens in their respective schools who need someone to listen and provide information on where they might find help with a particular problem.

We wish to thank the following businesses who provided food or beverages for the week long event: Pick 'N Save, Red Owl, 7-Up Bottling Company, Dominoes' Pizza, Cousins's Sub Shop, Little Caesar's, Burger Hut, Rooney's Grocery (Germantown).

Our thanks also to the presenters for their time and talents: Luke Bodensteiner, Kristina Zulick-Roth, Jean Sable, Denise Leong, Vicki Bladow, Alan Pearson, and Roxanne Vincent.

Your fine example of generosity, and your interest in the well-being of our Washington County youth helped to make the Peer Listeners Training a great success.

A special thanks to those 78 teens and their advisors who endured the unbearable heat. Your spirit and good humor was admirable! We are proud that you have chosen to be associated with this project.

To The Editor and Citizens of Kewaskum

OUR SCHOOL BOARD??

It's a sad state of affairs when personalities and not qualifications can determine how ones vote is cast. Remember, we the taxpayers have already paid out about $8,000.00 because of a personality clash.

A statement was made by one of our Board Members to the effect that she was unhappy about a petition for Mr. Clark Pearson and also a letter that appeared in the Statesman supporting Mr. Clark Pearson for District Superintendent. The petition contained in excess of 300 signatures of people who wanted the School Board to hear them.

At present we are paying $200 per day for someone to do the job that could and should have been filled by Mr. Clark Pearson back in July.

Citizens of Kewaskum School District pay close attention to the actions of this School Board and then at election time remember who voted for what. At that time your voice can and will be heard.

Enough is Enough!

Pork Referendum Absentee Ballots Available

by Jack Trzebiatowski
Extension Agriculture Agent

The Pork Referendum, a national referendum to decide whether to make the pork checkoff permanent, will be held Sept. 7 and 8. Eligible pork producers may submit written requests for absentee ballots for the Pork Referendum to:

State Pork Referendum Coordinator, 256 Animal Sciences Building, 1675 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706.

Absentee voters can pick up ballot request cards from any University of Wisconsin - Extension county office, or write a signed letter to the state coordinator. Ballots will be mailed until Friday, Aug. 26. The absentee ballots must be returned to the county UW-Extension office in the voter's county residence by Thursday, Sept. 1.

The Washington County UW-Extension office is at 432 E. Washington Street, West Bend, WI 53095.

In-person voting will be held Wednesday, Sept. 7 and Thursday, Sept. 8 at county UW-Extension offices. Proxy voting is not permitted.

Anybody who claims to be a producer or importer will be allowed to register and vote. According to federal regulations, anybody who produced swine in the United States for sale from Nov. 1, 1986 through Sept. 6, 1988; and anybody who imported swine, pork or pork products during that period is eligible to vote.

Groups such as families, joint tenants or tenants in common, partnerships, and owners of community property who produce swine are considered "producer entities" and will be allowed only one vote. Children, including 4-H, FFA and other youth program participants, who buy or sell swine in their own names are also allowed one vote each. Contact your county UW-Extension office for more information on eligibility.

Myths About Single Parenting Dispelled

by Joyce Albrecht
Extension Home Economist

Nationwide, the proportion of family households headed by a single parent doubled between 1970 and 1985. The 1980 census found that in Washington County, approximately 10 percent of all children, or about one in ten, lived in single-parent households.

Even though the number of single-parent families is increasing many people share negative myths about singles' abilities as parents. Both the parent and the people they deal with could benefit from a more realistic picture of single parenting.

Many single-parent families thrive. This destroys the first myth, that single-parent homes are broken homes.

Single-parent homes are not broken; they are new and different homes. Often they are homes with less tension and stress, where strong relationships are formed.

A second myth is that children living in single-parent homes tend to have more emotional or behavioral problems.

This is a tricky issue because some studies do link behavior problems to the number of parents in the home. However, most researchers point out that it is not the number of parents but rather the other stresses placed on single parent homes that may cause behavioral problems.

A study in Great Britain found economic hardships in single-parent homes have the greatest effect on children's lives. When single-parent and two-parent families with similar incomes were compared, the differences in children's behavior were small.

After divorce, income drops sharply for mothers, to about one-third that of married couples. According to 1982 estimates, the median income for husband-and-wife families was about $25,000 per year, while families headed by a woman averaged only about $12,000.

A third myth involves sexual identity. Many people ask if children need a parent of the same sex present to develop a healthy sexual identity.

How a child develops a sexual identity has not been conclusively proven. Several current theories disagree about the amount of influence parents have on their children. However, all theories agree that children needed contact with adult members of both sexes.

This doesn't mean a single parent must immediately develop a relationship with a member of the opposite sex so the children will develop a healthy sexual identity.

There are many ways to provide children with satisfactory contacts with adults of both sexes. Some single-parent families provide caregivers of like and opposite sexes. Many turn to informal support groups such as dinner exchanges where several families get together on a routine basis to share meals and conversation.

Activities with relatives can be particularly important. A recent UW-Madison study found that children in single-parent families did better in school if relatives regularly took them on outings, such as sporting events, and included them in chores, such as cooking and gardening.

Any family is as strong as its members—whether there are two or twelve of them.

WISCONSIN OUTDOORS AND CONSERVATION NEWS

Snowmobile Trails and Bridges to Receive Funding

MADISON, WI — The Governor's Snowmobile Advisory Council has recommended funding $234,865 in grants to develop and maintain approximately 412 miles of snowmobile trails in 26 counties, according to Department of Natural Resources motorized recreation grant program coordinator Larry Freidig.

These additions will bring the publicly funded snowmobile trail system to a total of approximately 12,700 miles maintained by counties and affiliated clubs and 630 miles maintained by the DNR on state-owned lands.

The Council also recommended approval of grants totalling $224,410 to rehabilitate trail bridges in 14 counties, and an additional $123,980 to build new bridges in 10 counties.

The grants, which are awarded to county governments, cover 100 percent of trail construction and repair costs.

The entire snowmobile program budget totals $2,735,300 for 1988-89. The program is funded by snowmobile registration fees and a formula transfer of gas tax funds generated by snowmobile consumption of gasoline.

Snowmobile trails will be located in the following counties: Bayfield (20 miles), Burnett (20), Clark (11.5), Crawford (6), Douglas (12), Eau Claire (12), Green (22), Iowa (19), Iron (15), Jackson (27), Juneau (3), Lincoln (16), Marinette (22), Oconto (16), Oneida (8), Ozaukee (7.2), Polk (24), Racine (24), Sauk (28), Shawano (12), Sheboygan (13.5), Vernon (20), Vilas (13.8), Waukesha (2.1) and Waushara (19).

The bridge construction and repairs will take place in Ashland, Barron, Bayfield, Brown, Calumet, Columbia, Dane, Green, Iowa, Iron, Jackson, Jefferson, La Crosse, Lafayette, Marinette, Oconto, Oneida, Pierce, Polk, Price, Rusk, Shawano, Trempealeau, Vilas and Washburn counties.

The program providing grants to rehabilitate major trail bridges, now in its third year, has grown each year. According to Freidig, this is necessary to protect the large investment the snowmobile program has in bridges throughout the state.

The grants included $95,000 to develop 46.7 miles of abandoned railroad corridor in Lafayette, Green and Iowa counties. This corridor, now known as the Pecatonica Trail, is jointly owned by the Tri County Corridor Commission. The grant will go toward planking and railings for 57 bridges along the corridor.

The Council also approved a 50 percent cost-sharing grant to acquire an 11-mile abandoned railroad grade in Juneau County, along with $12,000 for bridge planking and railings along the grade.

Kewaskum's first cheerleading workshop appears to have been very popular and a big success.

Thirty-seven 4th through 8th grade girls participated in the weeklong program headed by new cheerleading advisor Lori Telschow. Fifteen varsity cheerleaders assisted Telschow with the workshop. Broken down into groups of six girls each, under the guidance of the cheerleaders, emphasis was placed on aerobic, sideline, and floor cheers along with stunts and jumps.

The highlight of the workshop was a cheerleading competition on Friday. The girls made up their own floor and sideline cheers and for their efforts participants were awarded Kewaskum Cheerleader T-shirts.

Said Telschow, "The camp was very successful for its first year. The girls were spirited and enthusiastic and caught on quickly. I hope to double the numbers next year."

Goose Hunting Rules Change; All Hunters Need to Have Permit

MADISON, WI — New goose hunting rules in effect for 1988 require that all hunters must obtain a permit to hunt Canada geese anywhere in Wisconsin and also pick a zone in which they intend to hunt, Steve Miller, Department of Natural Resources wildlife management bureau director said.

The state has been divided into five zones: Horicon (combines the old east central zone and Horicon zone), Collins, Pine Island, Theresa and Exterior Zone (Exterior includes the rest of the state).

"These major changes have been enacted in an effort to increase hunting opportunities both in season length and bag limits while staying within harvest limits set for Wisconsin by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service," Miller said. "A harvest report system has also been adopted which tracks total harvest and allows Wisconsin to verify its harvest estimates which is useful when seeking more liberal seasons and in preventing unnecessary restrictions."

The deadline for applying for a permit for 1988 is September 9 except for the Theresa and Exterior zones, where permit numbers are unlimited and permits can be obtained throughout the season. In all zones, except the exterior zone, carcass tags are required and the hunter must validate the tag and attach it to the goose before transporting the bird in any manner in the field.

Also in all zones, except for Theresa, hunters must validate their permit each time they kill a Canada goose by slitting or pinching out the day the goose was killed before transporting the bird. In all zones, except for Theresa, hunters must report their harvest by mailing a self-addressed, stamped postcard (supplied to the hunter) to the DNR within 48 hours of the time of harvest. This will enable accurate determination of the harvest and prevent needless restrictions on goose hunts in Wisconsin.

In the Theresa Zone, hunters must register all Canada geese harvested at the state registration stations established on Theresa Wildlife Area.

The final season framework, including dates, will be available around September 1st and published in the 1988 Wisconsin Waterfowl Regulation Pamphlet.

It's estimated now that in the Horicon Zone a quota of 36,000 Canada Geese will probably be assigned for harvest. It's also expected that this zone will be substantially undersubscribed (fewer people applying for permits than the number available). Most applicants for a Horicon permit may receive two tags. The fourth, or late period Horicon permit applicant will get two tags automatically again this year.

A quota of 2,000 geese will be assigned to be harvested in the Collins Zone. Permits are valid for one of three time permits and four tags per person will be issued to the 325 hunters allowed in each of the three time periods.

In the Pine Island Zone, the harvest goal is 1,000 geese with permits valid for one of three periods. Again, four tags will be issued to each of the 165 successful applicants per each time period.

The hunt in the Theresa Zone will be similar to last season, but with an assigned harvest quota of 3,000 birds instead of the 2,000 assigned last year. The limit will be one goose per five-day period with a season limit of four. Everyone who selects this zone will get a permit, but the season will end when 3,000 geese have been harvested and registered.

Those hunters selecting the Exterior Zone will have a bag limit of one Canada goose per day with a maximum of two in possession. It's expected that U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service approval will be given for a 30-day season. Everyone who selects this zone will get a permit.

Special seasons along the Mississippi River, in Brown County and at Rock Prairie will be similar to last year. These late hunts will be open only to hunters holding the Exterior Zone permits.

Kewaskum A's Win Two More; End Season at 7-3 in Nite League

The Kewaskum A's assured themselves a place in the Tri-County Nite League playoffs with a pair of victories to close out regular season play. Kewaskum beat Waupun 5-4 in 11 innings on the strength of a dramatic 2 out, 3 homer by Dan Menzel. Jeff Geidel went all the way, striking out 18 to notch the win.

The Athletics traveled to Slinger on Saturday and notched a 2-0 victory on the strength of a sparkling mound performance by Tim Heberer who allowed only six hits. The two wins left Kewaskum's record at 7-3. The A's opponent and date for their play-off game will be determined after the rest of the Nite league teams finish play this week.

Kewaskum also recorded two wins in Land-O-Lakes play to raise their record to 8-9 with one game left to play. The Athletics trounced the West Bend Benders 19-4. Randy (Home Run) Heberer opened the scoring with a long home run in the first inning. Dan Menzel also added a home run in addition to picking up the win on the mound.

The A's put a serious crimp in the West Bend Lithias championship hopes with a solid 7-2 victory. The loss left the Lithias two losses behind with two games left. Geidel turned in another strong performance to pick up the win. Barry Wenzlaff ripped three doubles. Dan Menzel had another home run among his three hits. Mark Schlosser and Dave Donath each added two hits.

Clark Pearson Assumes Head Coaching Duties

Indians to Open Football Season at Campbellsport

Five 1987 Starters Returning

New Head Coach Clark Pearson will open the 1988 football season with a non-conference game at Campbellsport on Friday, August 26, at 7:30 p.m.

Among the 12 lettermen Pearson has returning, are 5 starters from last season. They are Mike Kawczynski, center and defensive lineman, Ryan Degnitz, running back and defensive back, Joel Serwe, fullback, Mike Heberer, linebacker, and Chris Charland, linebacker.

Also returning will be Dennis Aupperle, offensive tackle, defensive guard, who sat out the 1987 season with an injury.

Pearson's other junior prospects include center, defensive lineman Tim Oelhafen, running back, defensive back Dave Kuphal, fullback, defensive back Noe Stradtman, and quarterback, safety Brian Leitheiser.

The balance of the team members who will figure into the members of the 1988 Indians are (denotes letter winners): Seniors — Paul Budiac, running back, quarterback, defensive back; Mike Ciriacks, end, linebacker; Mark Hartmann*, end, linebacker; Mike Johann*, tackle, linebacker; Scott Krahn, wingback, defensive back; Corey Oppermann*, guard and defensive lineman; Marty Schulteis*, running back, fullback and safety; Randy Trapp*, guard and linebacker; Jeff Verch, tackle and linebacker, and Shane Megonigle*, fullback and defensive back.

Juniors — Mike Amerling, end and lineman; Tim Butschlick, fullback and defensive back; Jim Coulter, tackle and lineman; John Hazelwood, running back and linebacker; Steve Heberer, fullback and defensive back; Mike Melzer, guard and linebacker; Randy Romaine, guard and lineman; Eric Reha, end and lineman; Chris Schmit, tackle and lineman; Tim Schulz, tackle and lineman; Bruce Theusch, fullback and defensive back; Rich Thiemer, tackle and lineman; Chad Warnecke, end and lineman; and Dave Yogerst, tackle and lineman.

Pearson feels if he can keep his team healthy, he should have a good offensive line. He figures he has a good fullback and good team size in his favor. He commented, "Overall we lack team speed. A large part of our success will depend on how injury free we stay. We are thin in the ranks. At this stage, I do not know how well we will do in conference."

According to last year's 0-6 conference record, there is nowhere to go but up. Overall, last year's team was 3-6.

In order to improve their record the sharp football against their razor tough Eastern Wisconsin opponents Sheboygan Falls, Kiel, Chilton, Two Rivers and Plymouth.

Pearson, who has been assistant coach at KHS for the past four years, was formerly head coach at Kiel High School from 1964 to 1967. His record there was 9 wins and 18 losses. Here he will be supported by his assistant coaches Perry Koth, Dale Schatz and Ken Soerens. Freshman coaches are Milt Dickensen and James Westphal.

Also of interest is the fact that three KHS team members from last year will be playing football as freshmen at college. They are: Eric Pearson, quarterback, River Falls; Mike Lubahn, defensive back, Whitewater; Robbie Hron, lineman, Whitewater.
