Last Stump Through State Before Tuesday's Election

Candidates Hope to Draw Voters Out to the Polls November 8th

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Candidates from the presidential race on down will be making their last bids this week to garner last-minute votes for the election on Tuesday, November 8th.

Presidential hopefuls Republican George Bush and Democrat Michael Dukakis made stops in Wisconsin Tuesday in an effort to draw uncommitted voters into their camps.

President Ronald Reagan also made a short visit to lend his support to other Republicans such as Susan Campaigner as they wind up their campaign efforts.

This year's campaigns seem to have been directed more at personalities than politics with more namecalling and mud-slinging than has been heard and seen in the past. Polls show many electors still have not made a final decision as to who will receive their precious vote come Tuesday.

A national poll last week indicated that 61% of the voters polled were not pleased with the choice of presidential candidates and would have preferred to see other names on the ballot.

Despite all the 'political debates,' voters have indicated they felt the candidates had not really addressed the true issues and concerns of the people. Although polls show Bush as having a slight lead overall, the Dukakis camp feels the figures are shrinking and their candidate still has a chance to win the presidency.

Voters are also less than thrilled with the vice presidential nominees Lloyd Bentsen and Dan Quayle.

Pollsters are predicting a low voter turnout for this year's presidential election because of their disenchantment with the candidates. Estimates are that only about 51% of the eligible voters will go to the polls on Tuesday.

The battle between Republican nominee Susan Engeleiter and Democrat Herb Kohl for the U.S. Senate seat being vacated by retiring William Proxmire also seems to have gone astray. The last few weeks campaigning have been directed primarily at spending and personalities rather than issues which affect the voters.

Incumbent F. James Sensenbrenner, a Republican, is being challenged for his seat as U.S. Representative for the 9th Congressional District by Democratic challenger Thomas Hickey.

On the state level, incumbent Republican State Senator Donald Stitt of the 20th District is facing a challenge from Democrat Rita Liesiefsky.

Incumbent State Senator Carol Buettner of the 18th District, also a Republican, will battle Democratic hopeful Mary Gropp in an effort to retain her post in Madison.

Representative Mary Panzer of the 53rd Assembly District for Wisconsin is running unopposed.

Republican nominee Steven Loucks will be challenging Democrat Neil Willenson for the post of Representative for the 58th Assembly District.

Republican hopeful Michael Lehman is battling his Democratic opponent Todd Bodden for the 59th Assembly District seat being vacated by representative Dwight York who is not seeking re-election. Republican Richard Ruth, who was defeated by Lehman in the September primary, is trying to mount a last-ditch effort write-in campaign to win York's post.

For representative of the State Assembly's 60th District, Republican Susan Vergeront is running unopposed.

On the County level, incumbents Clerk Arthur Degnitz, Treasurer Fredric Seefeldt, Clerk of Courts Jon Saenfilippo and Register of Deeds John Steilen, all Republicans, will be running unopposed since there are no Democratic candidates.

Republican Robert Schulteis, a Washington County Sheriff's Department Detective who defeated Republican incumbent Sheriff Clarence Schwartz in the primary election, will run unopposed on the November 8th ballot as will James Shane who won the Republican nomination for County Coroner.

Farmington Accident Claims Two Lives

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Annette Maechtle, 42, of 1022 County A, Farmington.

An accident Tuesday afternoon killed two people raising Washington County's highway death toll to ten for 1988.

According to a preliminary Washington County Sheriff's Department report, the accident occurred at 3:15 p.m., on county highway A, just west of Orchard Valley Road, in the Town of Farmington.

Fatally injured were the westbound driver, Brian S. Gundrum, 19, of rural Campbellsport, and the other driver,

The report said the accident occurred when the westbound vehicle struck an eastbound vehicle on A. The department spokesperson said there was no information in the report indicating which victim was driving what car. Both drivers were alone in their cars.

The accident was still under investigation and it was expected the second victim's name would not be released until late Wednesday.

'Scouting for Food'

The scouts will be back to pick up the bags with any food donations on Saturday, Nov. 12, between 9 a.m. and noon.

Governor Appoints New County DA

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

J. Dennis Thornton, Washington County's Deputy District Attorney, was appointed Monday, by Governor Tommy Thompson to fill the unexpired term of District Attorney David Resheske who resigned effective October 30th.

Thornton, a 1974 graduate and Marquette University Law School classmate of Resheske, has been with the Washington County DA's office since 1985. Before that he had been in private practice.

Resheske's name will still appear on the November 8th ballot after having won the Republican slot in the September primary. He is expected to win the general election but decline appointment. At that time, Thompson is again expected to re-appoint Thornton to fill the new two-year term won by Resheske.

Resheske, early in October, decided to leave public office and enter private practice. He indicated one of his reasons for resigning was the fact that county-employed district attorneys historically make less money than state-employed public defenders.

The only other candidate for the DA's job was Robert S. Flancher, an assistant district attorney for Racine County.

Suicide Victim Identified

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A Washington County Sheriff's Department report states an apparent suicide victim discovered Friday afternoon in the Town of Kewaskum has been identified as a West Allis man.

The individual was identified as Cory Niemzyk, 37, of 3409 South Wollmer Street, Apt. 301, West Allis, Wisconsin.

According to the report, the suicide occurred some time before 3:48 p.m. Friday afternoon. Niemzyk was discovered by a party who had gone into the area of East Moraine Drive and Mill Road to check out some bowhunters. When the party turned around in a lane they observed a small red car with a ventouse running from the exhaust to the passenger compartment.

The Sheriff's Department and Kewaskum Police Department were notified because a sheriff's squad was not in the immediate area. The Kewaskum Rescue Squad was dispatched to the scene and the victim was transported to St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend.

Memories...

The Statesman welcomes readers to submit photos for the "Memories" feature. Photos should show life in the olden days in this area. Deliver or mail to The Statesman, 250 Main St., P.O. Box 98, Kewaskum, WI 53040. Photos can be picked up again after publication.

The above photo is a train wreck which happened around 1895 between Kewaskum and Campbellsport, near the former Chris Becker farm, now the Sam Kudek Jr. farm. The injured were taken to the Becker farm where they recovered, but possibly one may have died at the farm home. The engineer and fireman were killed along with several others. It is believed the rail snapped from the severe cold.

MARKS OF RESPECT FOR THE U.S. FLAG

The National flag should be flown daily from sunrise to sunset in good weather from public buildings, schools, permanent staffs in the open and near polling places on election days.

The flag may be flown at night on special patriotic occasions.

The flag should always be flown on national and state holidays and on those occasions proclaimed by the President. On Memorial Day, the flag should be half staffed until noon, then raised to its highest position.

The flag should be hoisted briskly and lowered ceremoniously.

The flag should never be allowed to touch anything beneath it, nor should it ever be carried flat or horizontally — always aloft and free.

The flag should never be used for advertising purposes in any manner whatsoever, nor should any picture, drawing, insignia or other decoration be placed upon or attached to the flag, its staff or pole. The flag should not be embroidered on personal items nor printed on anything designed for temporary use and then discarded.

The flag should never be used as drapery or decoration, for carrying or holding anything, or stored in such a manner that it will be damaged or soiled.

When the flag is so worn or soiled that it is no longer suitable for display, it should be destroyed in a dignified manner, preferably by burning.

Any and all flags to be disposed of may be delivered to the American Legion Post 384 for proper disposal.

Moraine Park
Sponsoring Preview
Night for Adults

On Tuesday, Nov. 15, from 7-9 p.m., Moraine Park Technical College will host an Adult Preview Night at its West Bend campus. The event is free and will be held in Room N119-121. The agenda includes filling out a short career assessment survey/game, participating in small discussion groups and hearing overviews of Moraine Park's career lab, GOAL center and placement services.

"We're trying to make the adult community aware of the variety of training options and other services available to them at Moraine Park," says Karla Huck, recruitment specialist at the technical college. "We find that the adult population tends to be unaware of Moraine Park's services and how they can fit in."

A special part of the evening planned for West Bend will be a panel discussion by "adult" students at Moraine Park, people who have continued their education despite family, job and other commitments. At an Adult Preview Night held this past spring at Moraine Park's Beaver Dam campus, administrative assistant - secretarial student Bev Kreuger told her audience of interested adults, "You should be proud of yourself. The first step is just coming to find out more about what Moraine Park has to offer." Kreuger indicated that juggling school work with a family, a job and other outside interests was difficult, but "most worthwhile things aren't easy." Most importantly, she discovered that "I can do it, and so can you."

To register for the Adult Preview Night in West Bend, call 334-3413 (local) or 1-800-472-4554. For people who can't make the West Bend event, two additional Adult Preview Nights will be held at Moraine Park's Beaver Dam (Nov. 3) and Fond du Lac (Nov. 9) campuses. Call those campuses to register.

RICHARD RUTH

Is Best Qualified for the State Assembly

He has the solid credentials needed to provide us with effective representation.

- Graduate of U.S. Air Force Academy - Graduate studies in public administration.
- A proven leader - Awarded three Air Force Commendation medals - Selected for promotion to Major in Air Force Reserves
- Married with four children - Committed to pro-life, pro-family values
- Committed to quality education and restraining state spending

"Ruth stands out as more articulate and more knowledgeable about the issues than are his opponents. Ruth remains the best Republican choice based on his intellectual strength."

- The Milwaukee Journal, Sept. 9, 1988

It is absolutely essential for the good of our community that we choose the most capable and best prepared candidate to represent our interests. Richard Ruth is the ONLY candidate that has a college degree or any significant public policy training. Richard Ruth is clearly the best choice.

His name, however, is not on the ballot and therefore must be written in.

EFFECTIVE REPRESENTATION IS CRITICAL TO OUR FUTURE

Please write in Richard Ruth

Authorized and paid for by Friends of Ruth for Assembly, Gary Schlieve, Chairman

Dear Editor:

We feel it is important to express our concerns about the upcoming election for Assembly representative in the 59th District.

We are concerned about the quality of our choices in this race. Neither candidate has a college degree. Neither one has extensively studied public policy. Neither candidate has a strong record of proven performance. In addition, they have taken very few clear positions to let us know where they stand.

This only leaves us with questions. Do either of them have the necessary experience and training to be effective representatives? Will they be forceful and able spokesmen for our communities?

We have taken a look at our choices and feel that we must write in Richard Ruth. He is the most capable and best qualified. He is a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy, has pursued graduate studies in public administration and held positions of significant responsibility in the military. He is firmly committed to pro-life, pro-family values and has a thorough understanding of the principles that make for sound public policy. The Milwaukee Journal has described him as "more articulate and knowledgeable about the issues" and "the best Republican choice based on his intellectual strength."

As representatives of a group of Hartford residents, our concern is that we elect the best qualified candidate. For this reason, we strongly urge others to also write in Richard Ruth. It is vitally important to the future of our district. There is still time to make a choice.

Sincerely,
Jim Larkee

Dear Editor:

First, I would like to thank you for the support you've shown my administration the last two years. I ask you to help me in urging your readers to vote on November 8th, so that their voice can be heard in Madison, and continue to move Wisconsin in a positive direction.

You know the difference having a good State Representative can make for the people of the 59th Assembly District. I urge you to vote for Mickey Lehman for the State Assembly. He has my full support. I have talked with Mickey about his primary election, and I know the hard work that went into winning a tough three-way Republican primary.

I am impressed with Mickey's commitment to serving you in the State Assembly, and I look forward to working with him to continue moving the State of Wisconsin ahead.

Voting on November 8th is an important right and duty of the citizenry. I urge your readers to support Mickey Lehman for the State Assembly, because with Mickey Lehman at my side, we can continue to make progress on issues important for the 59th Assembly District and the entire State of Wisconsin.

Sincerely,
Tommy G. Thompson,
Governor

October 31, 1988

Dear Editor,

I would like to make it known that I am definitely a candidate in the upcoming 59th district State Assembly election. I am running for several reasons.

The Republican primary for this position was an extremely close three way race. This being the case, the sizable number of invalid ballots could have easily swung the results one way or the other. Since no candidate received a majority of the votes, the clear intent of the electorate may not be represented.

Now that the ballot contains only two names, many voters have come to me and expressed dissatisfaction with the quality of their choices. They believe I am the best qualified and have asked me to continue my campaign efforts. In response to this popular support, I feel it is appropriate to remain in the race.

I originally campaigned for this position because of my concern that we have effective, conservative representation. After hearing the other candidates speak, this is still my concern. A candidate must have an understanding of the legislative process, insight into the long range impact of programs and the willingness to make difficult decisions.

I feel well prepared to accept this challenge. Speaking on behalf of others is a tremendous responsibility that I take seriously. Important issues, such as property tax, education costs, day care and farm needs, hang in the balance.

There is still time to make a choice and I ask for your serious consideration. I welcome your support and ask that you write in my name for this office. I look forward to serving you.

Sincerely,
Richard Ruth

Influenza vaccine — $3.00 per dose.

Pneumonia vaccine — $8.00 per dose.

WHAT IS INFLUENZA ("FLU")? It is an illness caused by influenza viruses. It generally affects people of all ages. Typically, people with influenza have fever, chills, headache, cough, and muscle aches and may be sick for several days to a week or so. Most people recover fully. A small proportion of cases are particularly severe, and patients may develop pneumonia or other complications. The risk of complications and death from influenza is highest for people with chronic health problems and those over 65 years of age.

WHO SHOULD GET INFLUENZA VACCINE? 1) Individuals over 13 years of age with chronic health problems such as diabetes, diseases of the heart, lungs, or kidneys, or severe anemia. 2) Elderly persons 65 years and over and 3) Individuals who provide care to high-risk persons.

Influenza vaccine will not be given to:

- Those who have a fever or feel ill with something more serious than a cold on the day of clinic.
- Those who have received another type of vaccine in the past 14 days.
- Those with allergies to eggs.
- Those with multiple sclerosis or other recurring or persistent neurological illnesses.
- Those who are pregnant.
- Children under 13 years of age.

WHAT IS PNEUMONIA? It is an acute bacterial or viral illness affecting 400,000 to 500,000 persons per year. Pneumococcal infections cause respiratory symptoms, meningitis, and otitis media. The risk of complications is greatest for persons over 65 years of age and those with chronic health problems.

WHO SHOULD GET PNEUMONIA VACCINE? 1) Elderly persons 65 years and over. 2) Persons, two years and older, with immune deficiencies. Children, from 2 years through 17 years, will need a written order from their physician to receive the vaccine. 3) Persons with chronic health problems such as diabetes, chronic respiratory disease, or cardio-respiratory disease.

WHO SHOULD NOT GET VACCINE? 1) Those who have a fever, illness, or active infection on the day of clinic. 2) Those who have had a pneumonia vaccine; repeat immunizations of pneumonia vaccine are not recommended. 4) Those who are pregnant.

Pneumonia vaccine and influenza vaccine can be administered on the same visit to a clinic.

Your Vote Makes a Difference

Did you know that in the last National election less than 50% of the eligible voters cast a ballot? Fifty percent chose not to be involved in the decision making process that is the heartbeat of freedom.

Many people treat God in the same way they treat their right to vote. They say "I'm not hostile to religion, lets just say that I'm neither for nor against God."

Indifference is a decision. Failure to vote is really a vote against freedom which grants us that privilege, so failure to respond to God's love is to reject Him.

The Bible says that you cannot be neutral with Jesus Christ. You are either for Him or against Him. It says "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on Him."

Pardon for sin, inner peace and joy, and eternity with God hinge upon your vote. God loves you and invites you to respond to Him in this way:

1. ACKNOWLEDGE that you need a Savior, the Bible says "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God."
2. RECOGNIZE God's love for you. God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."
3. RECEIVE Jesus and His forgiveness. "As many as received Him to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name."

Don't be indifferent! Your vote for Him will make a difference for all eternity. Sunday Services begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Silverbrook Middle School, West Bend.

Marquardt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Marquardt, 2066 Stony Creek Drive, Kewaskum, Wisconsin.

NOT ANOTHER SLICK POLITICIAN! A CARING PERSON - RITA LIESIEFSKY

If Rita Liesiefsky is elected to the State Senate, she will fight for:

Rita is a field service manager for the American Red Cross. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work and previously worked as a VISTA volunteer in Texas.

As your Senator, Rita will dedicate herself to working for you. She will seek practical solutions to your problems and will provide you with strong and honest representation in the Legislature.

FAMILIES

As a working mother, Rita understands the challenges that families in our society face. In order to help families meet these challenges, Rita will support:

- Better child care services. Government officials must face the reality that child care practices are changing and it is important that we work to improve the quality and availability of child care facilities.
- An increase in the minimum wage. Many families are forced to survive on jobs paid at or near the minimum wage and the current wage - $3.35 an hour - provides a standard of living well below the poverty line. Rita believes it is time for an increase to at least $3.65 per hour.
- A tougher plant-closing law. It is only fair that people be given adequate notice when a plant is closing so that they can have enough time to regroup and plan for the future.

EDUCATION

Rita is proud of Wisconsin's commitment to quality education and will work to make our educational system even stronger. This means she will support:

- Increasing state funding for K-12 education and working to take schools off the property tax.
- Promoting policies that will serve to increase family involvement in a child's education.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Rita believes that society must be willing to take care of its older people. That's why she will support:

- Continuation and expansion of the Community Options Program (COP), which allows elderly people to stay at home and avoid entering a nursing home, if they so choose.
- Increased funding for Elderly Benefit Specialists, who help seniors cut through bureaucratic red tape in order to find the government programs that will offer them assistance.
- Expansion of the Alzheimer's Clearinghouse program, which provides people with training, education and other services related to Alzheimer's disease.

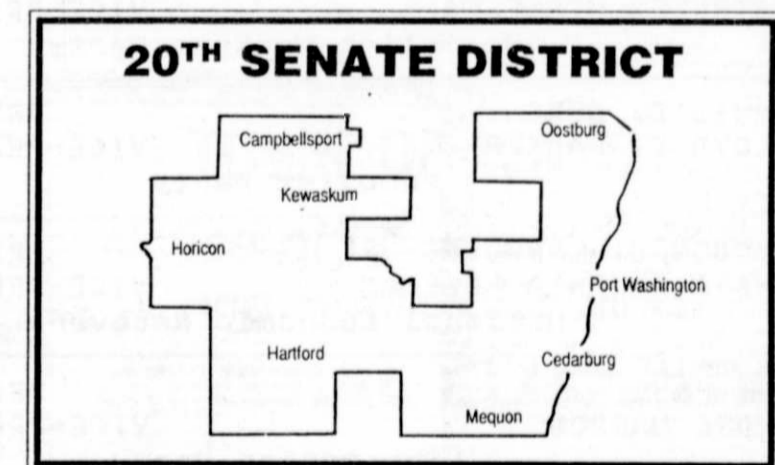

HER CONSTITUENTS

Rita feels that one of the most important jobs Senators have is to serve as an advocate for the people they represent. That's why she pledges that, if she is elected, she will place a high priority on helping the people of the 20th District deal with the state bureaucracy and will work closely with local officials to ensure that government works for the people and not against them.

THE ENVIRONMENT

Rita will fight to continue Wisconsin's strong commitment to environmental protection. She will support:

- Efforts to combat acid rain. Rita believes we need to continue our efforts to stop acid rain so that our lakes and forests do not become even more damaged than they already are.
- Proposals to encourage recycling. Like most states, the amount of Wisconsin's solid waste is increasing and we are running out of landfill space in which to put it. The most logical answer is to encourage recycling.
- Funding to maintain and improve our state park system. Wisconsin's parks are deteriorating and we need to provide additional funding so that we can preserve these valuable resources and help our tourism industry.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 8, 1988

OFFICE OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK
TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a partisan election to be held in the several wards in the County of Washington, on the 8th day of November, 1988, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, each in its proper column.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two inspectors must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot except that an elector who is a parent or guardian may be accompanied by the elector's minor child or minor ward. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate a particular voting choice.

At the November general election, if an elector wishes to cast a straight party vote for all candidates nominated by any party the elector shall make a punch or a hole at the right of the party of his or her choice, or depress the lever or button under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot. Unless another name has been written in, a sticker applied, or a punch or a party, the punch or a hole to the right of the party designation is a vote for all the party's candidates listed on the ballot. If an elector does not wish to vote for all the candidates nominated by one party, the elector shall make a punch or a hole at the right of the candidate's name for each office or separately depress the levers or buttons next to each candidate's name for whom he or she intends to vote, or insert or write in the name and the office of the candidate of his or her choice.

A separate vote must be cast for President and Vice President. To cast a vote for President and Vice President of the United States, the elector shall make a punch or a hole at the right of the candidate of his or her choice or choice, or depress the lever next to the candidate of his or her choice or write in the name of a candidate for President and Vice President.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in punching or marking his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official ballot is punched, it shall be inserted in the envelope provided so the punches do not show. After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the booth or machine, deposit the envelope containing his or her ballot in the ballot box, or deliver the envelope to an inspector for deposit, and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. The selected individual rendering assistance may not be the elector's employer or an agent of that employer or an officer or agent of a labor organization which represents the elector.

Subscriber Line Telephone Charges to Increase Dec. 1

The Subscriber Line Charge initiated in 1985 by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) on all telephone lines will be increased effective December 1, 1988.

GTE North Incorporated has filed the new charges with the FCC. The filing is part of an ongoing FCC effort to reduce the amount of toll revenue that is used to support the local network. Similar filings have been made by most other telephone companies.

Currently, all single-line residential and business customers pay $2.60 per line, per month, to cover a portion of the cost of network access. On December 1, that month charge will increase by 60 cents to $3.20.

Although rates for multi-line business customers are not affected by this filing, in Wisconsin, Centrex customers with lines in use or ordered by July 27, 1983, will pay an additional $1.00 per line, per month.

The increase may result in further reductions in long-distance rates since the telephone operating companies have been ordered to pass the revenue increase through to long-distance carriers in the form of reduced fees charged for access to the local telephone network.

Village Board Meeting

Public notice is hereby given that the next meeting of the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, Village Board is scheduled for Monday evening, Nov. 7 1988 at 8:00 p.m. in the Council Room, of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

Sheriff's Dept. Seeks Persons In Town of Barton Vandalism

The Washington County Sheriff's Department asks for the assistance of county residents in identifying the persons responsible for numerous acts of vandalism in the Town of Barton Sunday night, Oct. 23.

Sheriff's deputies are looking for a 1973 Dodge or Plymouth station wagon. The vehicle is missing at least one tail light and one headlight. Because it was used to ram mailboxes, fences, and other fixed objects, it is probably in very poor condition and not used often. It may be parked in a yard or field when not used.

If located, the driver and accomplices will face numerous charges.

Anyone with information about this incident or the location of the vehicle, should contact the sheriff's department immediately.

Raymond W. Schmidt (owner) and his wife Karen Jo are returning this week from Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where they attended a factory training school on the operation of their new mobile feed processing plant. They are driving their Feedmobile to Kewaskum where it will soon be placed into operation by Ray's Mobile Feed Service of 1261 Meadow Lane. The Schmidts flew to Daffin Manufacturing in Lancaster this past weekend for three days of intensive instruction in bringing a complete feed processing service to local farmers and feeders. Their new mobile mill will now enable them to take the feed plant to the farm instead of asking farmers to bring their grains to the mill.

Sealed bids will be received by the Joint School District No. 1 of the Village of Kewaskum, Towns of Kewaskum and Barton, Washington County and Towns of Ashford and Auburn, Fond du Lac County on November 20, for the construction of an addition to the Kewaskum Elementary School building.

Joseph and John Klumpjan, cousins, who spent the last two months in Germany, returned to their home on the Harter homestead, in the Town of Auburn Sunday evening, where they are employed. Their aunt, Mrs. John Wagner of Fond du Lac and their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weyer of Lomira accompanied them on their journey. While abroad Joe Klumpjan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Klumpjan at Velen, Westfalen, Germany, and his brothers and sisters. His mother is very much improved after a serious illness. This was his first visit with them in 11 years. John visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Klumpjan, and his sisters, his first in 10 years. Mrs. Wagner, a native of Germany, had not been there for 35 years. Although the time of their absence was comparatively short they had quire a few experiences during this time, the last of which was that they were passengers on their return trip aboard the German liner, S.S. Deutschland, the ship which was afire in mid-ocean last week Tuesday and of which so much was read in the large daily papers last week. This ship left Bremen, Germany, on Oct. 20th and arrived in New York Oct. 28th. They traveled on the Erie railroad from New York to Chicago. When questioned about the fire while aboard ship Joe and John said they were in the third class dining room, eating when they heard an explosion, which shook the tables and chairs and immediately thereafter smoke started to sift into the room. They were not allowed to return to their staterooms, not even to get their life belts, however, there was not much hysteria. A few of the women cried, but for the most part everyone was calm. Third class passengers were sent to the other side of the ship in the first class section and as the fire lasted several hours, mattresses were placed on the floors and they slept there. Joe and John stated they slept through most of it and knew little of what was going on but later learned that the staterooms they had occupied had been used by the fire fighting crews who bored holes through the walls for the transmission of chemicals to control the fire; also that 22 of the sailors were overcome by smoke. Their aunt, Mrs. Wagner, and quite a few other passengers, could not sleep and spent most of the night peering through portholes at the ocean and were very much relieved when they saw the lights of smaller boats around them about three in the morning. The members of the crew had the fire out by that time. As to the war question between Germany and Czechoslovakia, Joe Klumpjan stated that he did not at any time think there really would be war, but a few of the people were afraid there might be. John Klumpjan said that some of the people were such zealous followers of Hitler, that they were willing to do whatever he said. Otherwise they read practically the same thing about it in the papers over there and heard the same speeches on the radio that we did over here. When told that in press bulletins here in the U.S. American citizens were urged to come home immediately, the two claimed they knew nothing about that. They had little trouble getting through the lines, although the officials there were a little more strict than in this country. As to the unemployment problem there was none in Germany. All who were able had work, and the people were all comfortably if not extravagantly situated. While there John Klumpjan took a trip up the Rhine River. They enjoyed the trip and the visit with their folks, but were glad to get back to the USA.

St. Bridget's Catholic Church in the Town of Wayne was the scene of the marriage of a popular young couple on October 29, when Miss Isabelle Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. F. Campbell of the Town of Kewaskum, became the bride of Albert A. Karius, son of Mrs. Caroline Karius of the Town of Polk.

VITAMIN 'A' -
SOURCES

Preformed vitamin A is most prevalent in fish liver oils, liver, egg yolk, butter and cream, but these are also high in negative saturated fat and cholesterol. The body can produce vitamin A from carotene, found in dark green and yellow vegetables and fruit, including carrots, dark greens, yellow corn, sweet potatoes, peaches, apricots, cantaloupe, etc. These are the better source of essential vitamin A.

Theodore Schoofs of this village met with a very painful accident last Saturday afternoon, while operating a corn husker on his son's farm, which is located about two miles west of this village. Mr. Schoofs was busily engaged in operating the husker when one of the corn cobs got caught. He tried to loosen it and in so doing the canvas glove, that he was wearing, got caught in the husker and before he could draw it away three fingers and the thumb on his right hand were mashed in the machine. John Oppenorth Jr. who was assisting rushed to his aid, throwing the belt off of the husker drive wheel and reversing it so as to enable Mr. Schoofs to get his hand out of the machine. He suffered the amputation of three fingers and part of the thumb.

Frank Strube's hall in West Bend, one of the largest dancing halls in the state, was badly damaged by fire last Sunday evening. Mr. Strube is well known here having been a resident of this village for many years. His wife is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Schaefer of this village.

Senator Stitt Receives Merchants Federation Award

MADISON...Senator Donald K. Stitt recently received an award from the Wisconsin Merchants Federation for his work on behalf of economic development issues this year.

Presenting the award, and representing the Merchants Federation, were Doug Johnson and Chris Tackett.

Stitt has played an active role on many issues which have sought to create jobs and make it easier for businesses to function in Wisconsin.

"I'm pleased that the Merchants Federation would select me for an award this year," Stitt said. "I've always viewed their organization as a tremendous asset to the state and am supportive of their pro-growth agenda."

Stitt noted that the Merchants Federation has consistently expressed sound and creative ideas on initiatives which work to buoy state business.

"Merchants throughout Wisconsin are sensitive to the importance of a strong economy and are very aware of what the State Legislature does in Madison to enhance business development," Stitt said.

Stitt said that merchants across the state are providing quality jobs and giving employment opportunities to many people. Stitt continued to say that Wisconsin's all-time low unemployment rates illustrate this, and that merchants deserve a great deal of the credit for this.

Stitt cited his long-time commitment to lower taxes and affordable state spending as issues where state merchants can expect assistance. He also pointed to tort reform for small businesses as a key issue when the Legislature reconvenes next January.

Stitt is the incumbent State Senator in the 20th Senate District which includes all or part of Ozaukee, Washington, Fond du Lac, Dodge and Sheboygan counties and is running for re-election. The general election will be held Tuesday, Nov. 8th.

When the volcano Krakatoa erupted in the Dutch East Indies in 1883, the sound was heard in Bangkok, 3,000 miles away.

Opperman Attends Career Workshop

Stacy Opperman of 1113 Hwy. G, Campbellsport, attended a week long session of a natural resources careers workshop at the Central Wisconsin Environmental Station near Nelsonville this summer. She received a scholarship from Wings over Wisconsin.

The workshops have been run for over a decade and are in their sixth year of co-sponsorship by the University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point and the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources. Three one-week sessions were attended by approximately 150 high school students from the Midwest. The workshops focus on career possibilities and give students a wide range of field experience in the areas of natural resources and environmental protection. Participants meet and talk with professionals from forestry, fire control, fish and wildlife management, park services, environmental standards and law enforcement.

Environmental organizations and sports, conservation and service clubs throughout Wisconsin lend their support to the workshops by providing scholarships to deserving high school students interested in natural resources.

Information about the workshops can be obtained by writing to the Central Wisconsin Environmental Station, 7290 County MM, Amherst Junction, WI 54407, or calling 715-824-2428.

An Open Letter to Wisconsin Deer Hunters from Homer E. Moe, DNR Hunter Education Adm.

Dear Deer Hunter:

Just as America's astronauts recently embarked on a journey into the challenges of space on the rejuvenated spaceship "Discovery," you will soon take your annual journey to participate in the challenges of Wisconsin's deer hunt. As with outer space, there are unknowns for your deer hunt. Constantly changing weather conditions can affect space exploration, whether it is astronauts exploring outer space...or you exploring the space inhabited by the wily whitetail deer.

What Do You Expect?

Life is full of challenging experiences for each of us. For the most part, our successes or failures depend on how well we prepare to meet these challenges. Certainly NASA and the astronauts have done everything they could to prepare to meet the challenge of once again being in space.

The challenge of hunting Wisconsin's whitetail deer is matching wits with this elusive animal in its own territory. The deer are well prepared for you. They have escaped from you many times. Whether you were hunting them or not, they detected you and avoided being seen or heard.

If you expect to see deer, you must prepare by being able to identify deer movement. You must be able to pick out the flick of an ear behind brush, the movement of a leg or the glint of an antler as a deer moves.

If you expect to bag a deer, you must prepare by targeting in your rifle or your slug gun. You must practice, practice, practice. Your ability to shoot accurately is a major key to your ability to bag any game, especially a deer.

Mission: Control Excitement

Deer hunting is an exciting undertaking. It brings you an emotional anxiousness to bag your deer. Whether you are stalking an elusive giant buck in the north woods, or pursuing an antlerless trophy near your home, that internal excitement is a major reason why we hunt. Without that excitement hunting would not be nearly as popular as it is. The secret to safe hunting is to control that excitement. Without control, bullets fly where they are not wanted...and they can be deadly.

Your hunting partners can also be hazardous to you if they cannot control their excitement. Their safety should be your primary concern and your safety their primary concern.

A new development in hunter education is the realization that excitement causes the human eye to decrease the zone of peripheral vision. When we're excited we don't see as far to each side as we normally can. We believe this may be an important factor in why hunters do not see their hunting partners when they are attempting to bag game.

Before you shoot, look around. Don't just glance with your eyes, but turn your head to look on both sides of where you intend to shoot to see whether others are there. Also wear solid color hunter orange clothing and ask that others that hunt in your party do the same, so that you can see each other to the best advantage.

Safe Hunting Reminders

Every deer season hunters fall from trees and tree stands... and some of them are injured fatally. If you must hunt from a tree, do not carry your loaded gun up or down. Unload it and use a hauling line to bring it up to you or to put it back down.

Another excellent suggestion is to tie a safety line to your firearm at the grip or wrist of the stock, using a wrap-around cinch. With a three-foot safety line on your firearm fastened to your safety belt (or to the tree you are in), if your gun should fall, it will fall muzzle down — and if it should fire, it will not be pointed at you.

Firearms with exposed hammers, such as the .30-.30 carbine and others, require a little extra care. These firearms are more difficult to cock or uncock when hands and fingers are cold, or in times of excitement, or when wearing gloves or mittens. If you use this type of firearm, be aware of the extra caution needed and practice so that you don't have an unanticipated discharge and cause an accident.

Planning for Success

Before you start hunting, make sure that you and all the hunters in your group understand your hunting plan, where each person is supposed to be and what each hunter will be doing. Remember that every year nearly three-quarters of the persons shot by others are shot by members of their own hunting party. Often it is because they fail to properly plan their hunt. Sometimes excitement or over-anxiousness to kill deer takes over. Properly planned hunts are essential... and so is the responsibility of every hunter in the group to hunt as planned.

Bagging a deer is one measure of hunting success. But there are other, maybe more important, satisfactions you should consider. The quality of your deer hunting memories will be directly reflected through your involvement in pre-season preparation. Scouting new territory, meeting landowners as you ask permission to hunt on private lands and all the other preparation activities, are part of the hunt.

Magnificent memories will include sharing your experience with younger hunters, making and molding lifetime friendships, bursting with pride when seeing a youngster in your party bag his or her first deer, and enjoying the flavors and aroma of venison in your deer camp and in your home.

You can re-live your deer hunting memories all of your life, long after that delicious venison is gone and the antlers are collecting dust. When we really think about it, true hunting success is not measured only by the size of antlers or the pounds of venison. True hunting success is the total experience...and a measure of you, the hunter.

This year, take time to enjoy your trip into the space of the deer and relish all facets of your deer hunt. Consider a safe and memorable hunt worthy of your efforts...and any deer bagged a very special bonus to enjoy throughout the year.

Sincerely,
Homer E. Moe

Indian Football — A Wrap-Up

Injuries spoiled what could have been an excellent year of football for the Kewaskum Indians. After starting the year with a 2-0 record, senior and starting quarterback Mike Heberer was out for the season. "Losing him so early in the season when we had our momentum going really hurt us," stated Coach Pearson. Others lost to injuries during the season included Joel Serwe, two games; Mike Johann, two games; Mike Ciriacks, one game; Dennis Aupperle, two games, and Corey Oppermann, one game. Despite this plaque of injuries, our Indians were "in" all of the games except for Depere Pennings and Sheboygan Falls. The Indians were always a contender until the end of the game and quite unpredictable. Said Coach Pearson, "the boys gave a fine effort all season long."

Leading total defense this year for Kewaskum was senior 5'10", 153 lbs. Chris Charland. For his size, he was a dominant force on the defensive squad. Other defensive stand-outs include seniors Ryan Degnitz, Mike Ciriacks, and Mike Kawczynski.

Offensively Degnitz, Joel Serwe and Marty Schulteis were key factors in our running game and quarterback Mike Heberer, when uninjured, was 14 of 25 for a 56% pass completion accuracy. His main receivers this season were Charland and Degnitz, with Serwe and Mark Hartmann also doing the job.

Now's the Time for Motorists To Watch Out for Deer

MADISON, WI — More than 40,000 vehicle/deer accidents occur annually in Wisconsin and this is one of the peak periods for those collisions, according to Rollie Lee, Department of Natural Resources deputy chief warden.

Last year there were some 33,000 dead deer removed from highway rights-of-way while many more injured deer ran off into the woods to die.

"In late October and early November, deer accidents happen with increased frequency. The rut or breeding season causes deer to throw caution to the wind and many are hit by unwary motorists," Lee explained.

Drivers can become more wary. Deer are especially active in the hours around dawn and dusk. That means deer can be seen almost anywhere Wisconsin's highways.

Drivers must be alert and look for eyes reflecting in the light from headlights in the distance. Slow down when eyes are seen. Honk the horn, not just a little bit, but many times, conservation wardens urge.

One mistake motorists make is not reducing speed when a deer is sighted. Drivers must be prepared to come to a complete stop.

"Often a deer crossing the road well ahead of a motorist is followed by a second, third and even a fourth deer that can all be standing out of the motorist's view," Lee stated. "The driver's judgement might be correct and miss the first only to collide with one of the following deer. Again, slow down and honk the horn!"

A deer that crosses the highway and pauses on the far-side ditch is trouble. Time and time again, that deer, if alarmed, is more likely to dart back across the road than stay where it is.

"Drivers should not anticipate that the deer will stay put or run out of sight," Lee warned: "Slow down. Be prepared to stop and use your horn. Remember a deer standing with its tail pointing toward the road is likely to bound back across the road in front of your automobile."

One theory is that a deer in the situation just described gets frightened by its own shadow in the headlights of the oncoming vehicle.

Most collisions with deer can be avoided by being alert, being prepared to stop and understanding that this is a very active time for deer. These thousands of vehicle/deer collisions translate into millions of dollars of damage, personal injury, investigation fees and in some cases the death of some motorists.

"In the next few weeks, motorists are reminded extra caution is warranted along Wisconsin highways," Lee said.

Vogt Does Well At State CC Meet

The 1988 WIAA cross country meet was held at Wisconsin Rapids Lincoln, the host school, on Saturday, Oct. 29.

Laurie Vogt, who won the cross country sectional meet and qualified for the state meet, was 35th overall out of the 92 runners in Class B with a fine 12:50.

KHS coach Dave Drexler stated Laurie ran well but was up against some stiff competition. Her going to state this year will help tremendously.
