WEEK'S WIT

Prosperity is something you feel, fold, and send to Washington.

Kohl Defeats Engeleiter

Bush Wins Big, But Not In Wisconsin

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Until the last week both presidential candidates knew it was still a toss-up as to which way Wisconsin would go in the election. The national polls showed the percentages between Republican George Bush and Democrat Michael Dukakis so close that both men made last ditch efforts last Tuesday to win over Wisconsin voters.

As the old saying goes, Dukakis "won the battle but lost the war." Unofficial tallies show he won the Wisconsin vote by a 52% to 48% margin. Bush, however, won the war by claiming victory in 40 states to give him 426 electoral votes and a landslide victory to the presidency.

True to past performances, however, Washington County went Republican, giving its votes to Bush 24,328 to 15,907 for Dukakis.

In the statewide race for the U.S. Senate, Democratic challenger Herb Kohl defeated veteran Republican campaigner Susan Engeleiter by a 52% to 48% margin to win the seat being vacated by retiring William Proxmire.

Incumbent 9th District U.S. Representative J. James Sensenbrenner warded off the challenge of Democrat Thomas Hickey 75% to 25%.

Incumbent Republican State Senator Carol Buettner of the 18th District defeated her Democratic opponent Mary Gropp by a 69% to 31% margin. Incumbent Republican State Senator Donald Stitt of the 20th District claimed victory over his Democratic rival Rita Liesiefsky 63% to 37%.

For the 59th State Assembly District, Republican challenger Michael Lehman defeated Democratic challenger Todd Bodden 59% to 41%, for the seat being vacated by Dwight York who did not seek reelection. Republican Richard Ruth, who was defeated by Lehman in the September primary, mounted an unsuccessful write-in campaign to win York's post.

1989 Village Budget Increase Less Than 3%

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Village of Kewaskum's proposed 1989 general budget was presented to the trustees at Monday night's Village Board meeting. It carries an increase of less than 3% over the 1988 budget.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the board members that the final budget proposal, however, did not come easy. "There were a lot of departmental budget revisions," noted Schmidt, "some of them were reworked four or five times before their final drafts were prepared." He thanked bookkeeper Janet Knop and all the department heads for their hard work and efforts to keep budget increases as low as possible.

The 1989 budget of $1,073,637, represents an overall 2.6% or $26,832 increase over the 1988 budget of $1,046,805. It will result in a 1989 village tax levy of $421,161, up 2% or $8,209 over 1988's levy of $412,952.

Schmidt noted, however, that because of a slight drop in the village's assessed valuation, the tax rate will increase 3.1% or 22c per $1,000 of assessed valuation. That figure will go from this year's $7.083, to $7.305 for 1989. "On a $50,000 home," said Schmidt, "that would represent an increase of $11.10, on a $60,000 home $13.32, and on a $70,000 home $15.54." He reminded the trustees that this rate represents "only the village's portion" of the total tax bill.

A public hearing on the proposed budget has been scheduled for Monday, November 28th.

Schmidt also went through several departmental budgets, advising the trustees of significant changes, either up or down, and explaining the reasons for the variations.

The Administration budget had minor changes increasing 2.6% or $1,896, from $71,877 for 1988 to $73,773 for 1989. The Library's budget increased from $29,119 to $37,920. Schmidt noted that while this

Loretta Weston of Prospect Drive, could not believe her ears last Tuesday. The Kewaskum woman was officially notified by phone that she was one of two big winners in a recent contest jointly sponsored by Coca-Cola Bottling Company of Wisconsin and Sentry Food Stores.

Weston's prize, a brand new Jeep Wrangler, was presented to her Thursday, at the Kewaskum Sentry Foods store where she had submitted her winning entry.

The vehicle was delivered by Robin Jennings, Division Manager of Coca-Cola Bottling's Beaver Dam branch and Scott Steinhorst, District Manager for Coke in Beaver Dam.

Also on hand to congratulate Weston were Judy and Bill Geidel, owners of the Kewaskum Sentry Foods store and their son Mike.

A second Jeep awarded in the contest went to a lucky winner in Oshkosh.

Chamber of Commerce to Sponsor Christmas Decorating Contest

In the festive tradition of Christmas, the Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce will be sponsoring a Christmas Decorating Contest for all Village of Kewaskum residents.

The Chamber is asking villagers to join in decorating their homes and yards for the holiday season. Judging will take place sometime in mid-December by the Chamber members. Prizes will be awarded to the top three homes chosen on the basis of creativity and promotion of the holiday spirit Kewaskum is known for. The first place winner will receive a $100 savings bond, and second and third place will each receive a $50 savings bond.

We encourage everyone to participate; this is a wonderful opportunity for families to work together on a holiday project.

The Chamber of Commerce is inviting not only Kewaskum residents but all those surrounding area residents to take a winter drive through our community during the holiday season to view the wonderland of decorations and good cheer.

Watch for further details to come in the Kewaskum Statesman.

West Bend Man Killed In Car Accident Sunday

A 34-year-old West Bend man died Sunday after a one-car accident in Sheboygan County, according to a Sheboygan County Sheriff's Department spokeswoman.

Alan C. Thull, of 2406 Park Ave., West Bend, drove into a power pole and a tree at 11:29 a.m. after leaving Sheboygan County F, three-quarters of a mile west of Highview Road, according to department representatives.

Thull was eastbound and alone in the car, the spokeswoman said.

He was taken to Valley View Medical Center in Plymouth and pronounced dead at 1:04 p.m., she said.

The accident remained under investigation.

A Sheriff's spokesman said that the road was snow-covered and slippery at the time of the accident.

A parade of ghosts and goblins made their way down Main Street following the 2nd Annual Halloween Party sponsored by the Kewaskum Jaycees on Sunday, October 30, at the Riverview Inn.

Village

appears to be a large increase, it actually is not. While expenditures have been increased, revenues for the library will also be up by approximately $15,000. The end result, noted Schmidt, is a 'wash' with little or no actual change from the 1988 budget.

The Municipal Building budget is going up 4.2% or $761, from $18,294 in 1988, to $21,455 for 1989. Parks and Recreation is up 3.1% or $1,920, from $62,748 to $64,668 for 1989. The Public Works Department budget is up 2.2% or $6,442 to $304,695 for 1989.

In other business the board approved the awarding of a contract in the amount of $22,221, for the remodeling of the Fire Department's Telesquirt truck cab from three to six passengers. The renovation is necessary because of recent changes in state and insurance requirements which now prohibit firefighters from riding on the rear portions of fire trucks.

The trustees also approved the purchase of a computer and printer for the library at a cost of $3,275. Head Librarian Kitty Hlavaty advised the board the equipment was needed to replace a computer which Kewaskum had been using on loan for the past year from the County Library System.

While none of the trustees had any objections or reservations about the need for the computer, Mary Krueger and Ken Bonlender objected to being, in a sense, dictated to by the county system on how the village's library should operate. "It seems more and more the county is telling you how to run your library," said Krueger, "it's turning into a bureaucracy." She told her fellow board members that the system was getting away from the original idea of what it was meant to be. "We're losing our anonymity and our right to run our library as we see fit," she noted. "I think we're losing sight of what this library system was supposed to do and that is get books to people who did not have library service."

Bonlender was in general agreement with Krueger's comments. He told the board the village's contract comes up for renewal next year. Bonlender suggested the village take a long hard look at the program and where it's going before committing itself to another contract agreement.

In other action the board opened five bids submitted for a replacement squad for the Police Department. Ewald Chevrolet of Oconomowoc submitted the apparent low bid of $13,345 for a 1989 Chevy Caprice, Schwartzburg Chevrolet of West Bend, $13,826, Meyer Ford Campbellsport, $14,090 for an '89 Ford Crown Victoria, and Royal Ford of West Bend $14,215.83 for a Ford CV. Russ Darrow Chrysler/Plymouth declined to bid due to a model change. The bids were turned over to Chief Richard Knoebel for review and a recommendation.

The board also approved the hiring of three part time officers for the department. The candidates approved were Robert Konzant, Alan Ratzel and John Schmitt. Knoebel noted the hiring of three individuals would provide more flexibility and a cushion in scheduling in the event one or more part time officers were to resign.

The board also accepted the offer of James Wessing to purchase the remaining 7-acre parcel of land, formerly known as the Ideal Subdivision, on the northwest side of the village. The village had put the land up for sale after retaining a portion of the property for the installation of a lift station and sewer and water mains to service that section of the village. The sale price was $42,400.

The board also voted to terminate its agreement with Mr. Al Voigt for the pick up of recyclable materials from the recycling center. The village will use the services of Zahn's Disposal which has now begun collecting recyclable materials.

The trustees, on the recommendation of Chief Knoebel, approved the installation of two additional street lights on LinDe Lane. A building permit request for Michael Geidel to construct a home at 1136 Roseland Drive was also approved.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

Woman's Club to Feature Program On Aging

The Kewaskum Woman's Club is featuring a special program to anyone interested on Thursday, Nov. 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Peace Church Fellowship Hall. The topic is "The Pleasures of Aging."

This will be presented by Kathy Krueger, M.S.N. Director of the Senior Services at the West Allis Memorial Hospital. She will have a slide presentation called "Aging America - The Shape of Things to Come." The public is invited.

Local Art Teacher Is Featured Artist at Exhibit

Art teacher Mary Stephan shows one of the art pieces featured in her exhibit. The piece is entitled "South Carolina Widgeons."

Mary Stephan, the Kewaskum High School art teacher, is the featured artist for the month of November at BANK ONE in DePere. BANK ONE which sponsors exhibits year long to promote artists, contracted Stephan to exhibit some of her art collection. Anyone can come into the bank to browse and/or buy as all the pieces featured at the bank are also up for sale.

Stephan, who has worked in art all her life is displaying a graphite study rendering two pastel paintings, and four watercolor paintings in the gallery. Her watercolor shown in the picture above entitled "South Carolina Widgeons" was entered in the South Carolina Duck Stamp competition.

Stephan has been teaching at Kewaskum High School since last January. Previously she taught art in Green Bay for three years. She holds a BFA degree in fine and commercial arts and currently lives in Cedarburg with her husband. Her major art goal is to further develop her style for future exhibits and her personal satisfaction.

YOU AND THE U.S. FLAG

"I Pledge Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

This should be recited while standing at attention with the right hand over the heart. Military personnel, Legion members, V.F.W. members and Amvet members wearing uniform hats should salute.

If the flag is not flown during the playing of the National Anthem, all present stand and face the music. Persons in uniform salute at the first note, holding the salute until the last note. All others stand at attention, with men removing their hats. If the flag is displayed, all present should render the proper salute... hands and or hats over your heart.

When the flag is passing in a parade, or is being hoisted or lowered, all present should face it, stand at attention and salute. Uniformed persons should render the military salute; women and uncovered men should place their right hands over their hearts. Men should remove their hats, holding them over their hearts with their right hands.

The U.S. flag represents our nation - our state - our town - our neighbors and ourselves. Treat it with the utmost respect - treat it as you want to be treated.

Be proud of your flag and yourself - salute when the flag goes by - fly it every day.

We of the American Legion, Robert G. Romaine Post 384 Salute you all.

Sheriff's Dept. Lists Passing As Cause Of Fatal Crash

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

An investigation by the Washington County Sheriff's Department has revealed that a fatal accident which claimed two lives last Tuesday was caused by one of the drivers passing in a posted 'no-passing' zone.

Fatally injured in that crash were Brian S. Gundrum, 19, of rural Campbellsport, and Annette M. Maechtle, 42, of 1022 Highway A, West Bend. Both victims were alone in their cars.

According to the report, witnesses stated Gundrum, who was westbound, was seen passing cars at an excessive rate of speed on a hilly section of Highway A, which is posted and highway-lined as a 'no-passing' zone. The Gundrum car collided with the eastbound Maechtle vehicle killing both drivers.

The victims were transported to St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend, where they were pronounced dead. Gundrum, who reportedly was not wearing a seatbelt, died of head and internal injuries. Maechtle, who was wearing a seatbelt, died of a skull fracture.

Peace Church Dinner Theatre Production a Definite Success

165 area residents attended the October 22 and 23 full-house performances of "The Hidden Heiress," a dinner theater production at Peace United Church of Christ. Written by Betty A. Bettin and directed by Rev. James Bettin, the melodrama was featured as the first non-religious presentation by Peace Players, a drama group founded at the church two years ago. Religious monologues and plays have been presented frequently within the worship services at Peace Church during this time.

The success of the dinner theater will result in an annual "Fun production" at the church in future years.

In addition to the cast, Peace Church members involved in the presentation were Willard Gruhle, Rev. Bettin and Patrick McFadden — set construction; Betty Fleury and Kay Petrie — ticket promotion; Margaret McFadden — sound effects; Patrick McFadden — photography; Betty Bettin, Jane and Cassie Romans, Marian Erdmann, Betty and Erin Fleury, Kay, Kim, and Keri Petrie, Joanne Manthei, Ruth Gruhle, and Pat McFadden, Jr. — food and refreshment staff. A cast party will be held at the Peace Church parsonage on November 12, to reminisce about the production, receive awards, and make decisions on the titling of the profits of the play toward a charitable project of the members' choice. The remaining profits will be used for future scripts, setting and property needs of the upcoming dramas.

Education Logo and Slogan Contest Being Sponsored by School District

The Kewaskum School District in conjunction with National Education Week Nov. 14-18th is sponsoring two contests open to all students grades K through 12. The first contest is a "logo" contest in which the district is looking for a design or picture to be utilized to represent our Kewaskum School District. The logo should try to incorporate home, school, and community in its design.

The logo picked will be used on all the Kewaskum School District's mailing materials and will become a symbol to represent our educational system. First place winner will be awarded a $25 savings bond.

The second contest is an educational saying contest, something positive that could be said about our learning process district-wide. The saying must be original and can be interrelated with a logo if you plan to enter both contests. Again, first place winner will be awarded a $25.00 savings bond.

The Kewaskum School district is in the process of developing a mission statement and a whole new image for the educational system. These contests are designed to get the students involved with the new image process and also help them to realize how valuable education and learning is to their lives. Hopefully this will be brought out in their contest entries.

All entries should be submitted to any Kewaskum school principal or sent to the district office by Friday, Nov. 18th at 3:30 p.m. Final judging will be by the general public with entries being on display at Valley Bank.

Ayer Ensemble to Perform Nov. 18

Tickets are now on sale for a Nov. 18 concert by the Ayer Ensemble at the University of Wisconsin Center - Washington County.

The concert is the group's fifth annual appearance as part of the Fine Arts Series at UWWC. Tickets cost $5 with $3 admission available to persons under age 18 and over age 62. UWWC students are admitted free. For more information, or to make reservations, call UWWC, 338-5208.

Director Peter Ayer, professor of music at UWWC, founded the group in 1980. He said the ensemble now has "its best sound ever," due in part to its recent expansion to 16 members, four in each section.

For the Nov. 18 concert, Ayer promises his usual varied program with music ranging from the Renaissance to Motown and the Manhattan Transfer.

Singers in the ensemble, by sections, are: Bass: Paul Schleif, Gary Gerhartz, Paul Vogelsang and Al Marschner; Tenor: Dave Bertelsen, Fred Luft, Tim Dondlinger and Peter Ayer; Alto: Mary Dakin, Gaytha Hillman, Carol Ayer and Janet Sharbuno. Soprano: Sheila Boyung, Karen Bartley, Robin Pfothenauer and Kathy Stonecipher.

Gerhartz is from Kewaskum and Pfothenauer from Hartford. All other singers are from West Bend.

Christmas appearances begin Dec. 4 with a benefit performance for KEYS, the Kewaskum Scholarship Foundation. Other concerts include a series of three at the Waupun State Prison and state correctional institutions at Taycheedah and Kettle Moraine.

'Grateful Nation Remembers'
Is Theme for 1988 Veterans Day

Activities for the 1988 observance of Veterans Day on November 11 will be guided by the theme "A Grateful Nation Remembers," Administrator of Veterans Affairs Thomas K. Turnage has announced.

The VA Chief urged Americans to pay tribute to the more than 27 million living veterans who have served their country in uniform, and to the more than one million who died during wartime service.

In Washington, the 35th annual Veterans Day Observance at Arlington National Cemetery will be held in the Memorial Amphitheater following the traditional 11:00 a.m. wreath-laying at the Tomb of the Unknowns.

Turnage pointed out that while Arlington captures much of the national attention on Veterans Day, the rest of the nation's observances are just as meaningful.

"While the Veterans Administration is the means by which all Americans are able to express the spirit of Veterans Day year around, it is on this special day that we all can gather to voice our gratitude," he said.

Sixteen cities have been designated for official regional Veterans Day observances. In the Great Lakes area the Veterans Day National Committee designated Milwaukee, Indianapolis and Columbus, Ohio as Veterans Day Regional Sites.

One of the original Veterans Day Regional Sites, Milwaukee again planned one of the nation's largest parades. True to its tradition, the city even began its Veterans Day activities almost two weeks before the day itself. On Oct. 30, it held the annual "Americanism Awards" breakfast, sponsored by 18 veterans' organizations, with 350 people attending.

On Sunday (Nov. 6), the annual Veterans Day Memorial Services were held, with over 350 expected at the War Memorial Center. In the afternoon, the annual parade took place.

On Nov. 11, at the annual Veterans Day banquet, the honored veterans' organization will be the Military Order of the Purple Heart of the USA. At that time, the "Veteran of the Year" honor will go to Abe Malofsky, past Commander, Wisconsin Department, Jewish War Veterans of the USA. Malofsky, 84, spearheaded a successful 40-year struggle to dedicate all major Wisconsin highways as "Veterans Memorial Highways," with appropriate state markers. Malofsky is also a longtime volunteer at the Clement J. Zablocki Veterans Administration Medical Center and USO Headquarters, both in Milwaukee.

In connection with Veterans Day, the City of Milwaukee traditionally encourages people to donate a pint of blood during the extended Veterans Day observance in memory of 37 MIA/POWs from the State of Wisconsin whose names are posted at the Wisconsin Blood Center. Last year, a total of 1,327 pints were collected.

At the Zablocki VA Medical Center, plans are to hold a ceremony on the morning of Veterans Day. At 11:11 a.m., the audience will face east in a symbolic observance as the flag is put at full staff. Also, regional competition for the National Veterans Art Festival, sponsored by the Veterans Administration, will be held at the medical center.

'No, No, Nanette' a Musical Hit

The Kewaskum High School provided a variety of music, talent, and 1920's costuming in this weekend's presentation of "No, No, Nanette." Under the direction of Mr. David Bertelsen, the cast pulled together two excellent performances (one Friday and one Saturday night). "The leading roles couldn't have been picked any better," exclaimed Bertelsen as all the characters "got into" their character and adapted to their roles beautifully.

Leading cast members in the play included the following: Junior Becky Manthei who played the part of the Smith's maid. She was perfect for her role, always catching a laugh as her maid-work keeps her busy, too busy. At one point she even threatens to "pack her bags and vamoose"; Manthei played a fiery, energetic, and aggressive role and was a strong character throughout the play.

Senior Shannon McFadden played a money-spending Lucille Early who wouldn't miss a chance to go shopping for anything. McFadden added grace and charm to her role and used her voice beautifully in vocal numbers.

Senior Cindy Wilson played Sue Smith, the Bible translator's wife and woman who didn't believe in spending money just to spend it. Wilson used her past play experience to help create the calm, mild mannered character and does an excellent job of it.

Jimmy Smith, Sue's husband played by sophomore Curt Ammel is the naive Bible translator who believes everyone should "be happy." He showers three beautiful ladies in distress with some of his Bible earnings and ends up in a mess of trouble. Ammel plays his role superbly, especially when he's being fought over by the three women who each want "all his love."

Billy Early, played by junior John Hazelwood, is the "brain and brawn" lawyer Jimmy Smith uses to buy off his three beauties. Hazelwood puts poise and charm into his character and even some 1920's dance steps.

Tom Trainor, played by junior Jeff Brigham, is the lawyer's love-struck naive assistant who's hopelessly wishing for Nanette says she has to "raise a little Cain" first, Tom gets angry and Nanette leaves to go to Atlantic City with Pauline, as chaperone. Brigham uses a strong tenor voice in his vocal selections and blends well in his duets with Schoofs.

Sophomore Angie Schoofs, provides the wit, spunk, energy and charm needed to play an exciting and believable Nanette. Schoofs' beautiful vocals and excellent dramatizations added new dimensions to the play.

The three wild women Flora, Betty, and Winnie were played by junior Jill Peterson, sophomore Pam Gauger, and sophomore Ingrid Ankerson. These three ladies added spark and magnetism to their characters and really enhanced the whole second act.

Over-all the play flowed quite smoothly. The cast and chorus combined for a top quality show both nights. Also to be commended for a great job include: assistant director Mr. Larry Ammel, dramatics instruction Mrs. Judy Jacak, choreographer Mrs. Lori Telschow and the make-up, costume, tech & lighting, and set crews.

St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary to Sponsor 2nd Annual Christmas Love-Lights

Unbelievable as it seems, after that sweltering summer just past, there are but a few shopping days left before Christmas! Time to start thinking about baking, decorating, visiting relatives and friends, and gift-giving. What better way to remember our loved ones, living or deceased, than by honoring them with their very own "lovelight" on St. Joseph's Christmas Lovelight Tree?

The Auxiliary of St. Joseph's, Lovelight sponsors, were very pleased with the tremendous response it received last year, and for this reason, plan to continue the tradition once more. Hopes are that the Lovelight Tree has become an important part of the Christmas celebration in the area, as well as providing funds for needed projects at the hospital.

On the tree (located on Ridge Road), will shine red or green lights honoring a friend or loved one, and white lights will be designated in memory of a person who has died.

A minimum donation of $3.00 will purchase one Lovelight, and the names of the people honored or memorialized by the lights will be published in area newspapers during the holiday season.

The tree-lighting ceremony will be held at 7 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 4th. A special program and dignitaries is being planned. The Lovelight Tree will shine throughout the Christmas season.

Coupons for ordering the Lovelight will be available in the newspaper, the hospital Gift Shop, many businesses throughout the area, or donations may be mailed to: Lovelight Christmas Tree, c/o St. Joseph's Community Hospital, Auxiliary - Treasurer, 1415 North 10th Avenue, West Bend, WI 53095.

1800 lights are currently available and our goal is to light every last one of them!

So make your list, check it twice, see who's been naughty or nice — then buy them all a Lovelight!

Pediatric Specialist at Cedar Haven

Julaine Gelderman

The Cedar-Haven Rehabilitation Agency, (CHRA), West Bend, has added Julaine Gelderman to its Physical Therapy staff.

Mrs. Gelderman, Germantown, joined CHRA as a Pediatric Specialist. She works with children from newborn to 21 years of age at the Cedar-Haven Rehabilitation Outpatient Clinic located on the Cedar Lake Home Campus, Hwy. Z, West Bend. CHRA is a non-profit division of the Cedar Lake Home Campus. Gelderman is also developing the new 0-3 Infant Therapy Program for Dodge County in Juneau.

A 1983 graduate of the University of Wisconsin -

Madison and a former member of the Curative Workshop staff, Gelderman has attended numerous Neurodevelopmental treatment courses.

Currently she is planning a Splinting Center to provide on-site fabrication of temporary devices to promote better body alignment for functional control and a Wheelchair Clinic for Washington County residents of all ages.

Mrs. Gelderman joins Cedar-Haven's staff of five physical therapists, four occupational therapists and two speech therapists providing community members with comprehensive rehabilitative services.

American Legion High School Oratorical Contest Now in Progress

The Fifty-second (52nd) Annual American Legion High School Oratorical Program is underway. Wisconsin High School students are invited to participate. Contestants are required to speak on some phase of the Constitution of the United States of America.

Scholarships will be awarded to all state finalists. Additional scholarships will be awarded in the state semi-finals. The state winner will advance to the next level of competition (a National Regional Contest) and will automatically receive a $1,000 scholarship from The American Legion National Organization. A contestant who wins a National Regional then competes in a National Sectional and if successful at that level will receive an additional $3,000 scholarship and advance to the National Finals in April, 1989. National scholarships will be awarded to the four (4) finalists competing in the contest: 1st place - $18,000; 2nd place - $16,000; 3rd place - $14,000; 4th place - $12,000.

High school students interested in participating may contact their local high school, their local American Legion Post or Wisconsin American Legion Headquarters at 812 East State Street, Milwaukee, WI 53202, (414) 271-1940 for further information.

Scholarship Available

The "Salute to Excellence" scholarship program for southeastern Wisconsin high school seniors enters its second year with more scholarships and an expanded eligibility area.

Developed by the Wisconsin Health Organization (WHO) to recognize outstanding high school leaders, winners will be awarded $1,000 scholarships to the college or university of their choice. This year, 24 students will be awarded scholarships. That's up from 22 seniors in 1987. Students from Washington County are eligible to enter the scholarship competition along with seniors from Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Racine, Kenosha and Waukesha counties.

In addition, the seven-member select panel of judges has three new faces this year. They include: Jean Tyler, executive director of the Public Policy Forum; Eloisa Gomez, staff assistant to the mayor; and Susan Phillips, education coordinator for the Greater Milwaukee Committee.

Returning as judges from last year include: Herb Kohl, U.S. Senate candidate and owner of the Milwaukee Bucks; Sue Ann Thompson, first lady of Wisconsin; Tom Trebelhorn, manager of the Milwaukee Brewers; and Thomas R. Sobocinski, vice president of marketing for WHO.

Judges are reviewing applications at this time and the winner will be announced the beginning of November. Each winner will be recognized at a Milwaukee Bucks game.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

Nov. 4, 1988

STATESMAN:
EDITOR:

We of the Robert Romaine Post 384, American Legion wish to express our thanks for publishing the four articles on the American Flag.

It is hoped that all who read them will be more aware of what to do and how to do it to show their respect to our great flag.

Again thank you for your participation in the publication of this public service information.

Elmer Hallen,
Robert Romaine Post 384,
American Legion

Letter to the Editor:

We would like to congratulate everyone in the Kewaskum High School play last week for a great production of "No, No, Nanette."

A special thanks to David Bertelsen, Director; Larry Ammel, Assistant Director; Mrs. Judith Jacak, Dramatics; Mrs. Lori Telschow, Choreography; the entire cast, pit band, tech crew, set designers, and make-up and costume coordinators.

Also, a thank you to Mr. and Mrs. Pat McFadden and Shannon for hosting the cast party.

Sincerely,

A Major (Messy) Project

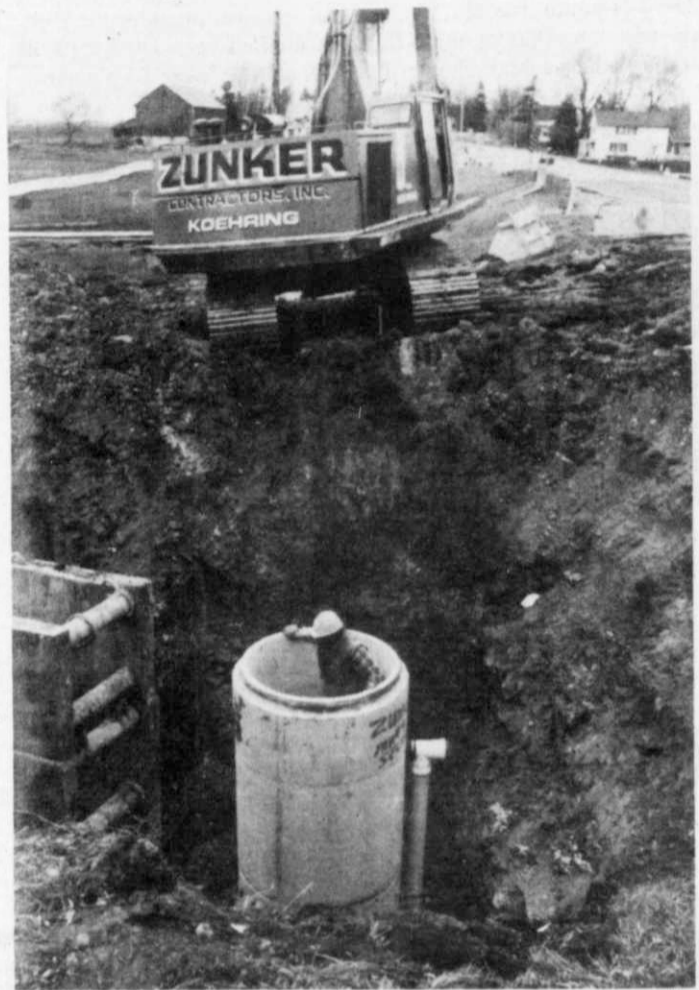

For youngsters, being in the mud would be fun, but for employees of Zunker Construction of Fond du Lac, it's all in a day's work.

The company's crews are working on a major project for the village. A new lift station, sewer and water mains are being installed to provide utilities service to the north and northwest limits of the village.

Presently, construction of the sewer mains and lift station are under way. Work included boring tunnels under Highway 45 for hookups to the Farmers Union milk station on the east side of the road. The boring eliminated the necessity to tear up the Highway 45 roadbed to install piping.

Work has also been progressing in the creek area on the west side of the highway despite a continuous battle to keep water out of the construction area.

An American Education Week Message From Superintendent Herbert J. Grover

This year American Education Week calls on all of us to invest in our schools as Wisconsin joins the nation in a week-long focus on the importance of education. The theme for the Nov. 13 to 19 observance is "America's Schools: Invest in Your Future."

The Department of Public Instruction recently took stock of one portion of its investment in elementary and secondary education by analyzing educational reform in Wisconsin during the five years since the "Nation AT Risk" report criticized the "rising tide of mediocrity" in our nation's schools. "Educational Reform in Wisconsin" looks at the wide range of state-level activities undertaken between 1983 and 1988 that helped local districts tailor reform activities to their communities' needs.

A sampling of Wisconsin's educational reforms described in the 16-page booklet includes the 20 educational standards, which set minimum expectations for each school district's educational program. Students face tougher graduation requirements due to the reform movement and receive assistance in meeting the rigors of education through a number of programs. The Wisconsin Developmental Guidance Model is among these. The nationally recognized model guides teachers and counselors in working to help students develop a strong self-concept, a pattern of academic success, and a desire to make plans for the future.

Reform over the past five years also took aim at teachers and administrators. Tougher requirements for teacher training and additional opportunities for developing administrative skills are among the activities Wisconsin pursued.

The list of reform activities extends much further. But as we look back at what we've accomplished to ensure that all children have equal access to a quality educational experience, we also must push ahead. Wisconsin has been a leader in education because it has never been content with mediocrity.

The framework for Wisconsin's continued progress in education is contained in the DPI's 1989-91 budget request. Among the items in that budget is a call for increased state support of our educational investment to 50 percent of school costs with an ultimate goal of two-thirds state support. The budget promotes state assistance with the problem of repairing or replacing unsafe schools. It also proposes incentive grants for local districts to implement school improvement activities in the areas of gifted and talented education, early education-day care, family involvement, distance learning, and teacher development.

While financial investment is a necessity to education, money alone will not educate children. Education has its foundation in the homes and communities where our children live; it thrives in the hands of dedicated teachers and blossoms in the minds of students who understand that education is their key to the future.

Yes, we invest in the future when we invest in our schools. I encourage you to invest in tomorrow's parents, teachers, politicians, and doctors by visiting your local schools during American Education Week, by participating in the governance of schools, and by volunteering your time and talents throughout the year. Education flourishes when we are a part of it. We invest in all of our futures when we invest in our schools.

The scouts enjoyed a hay ride at the Schmidt Farm

The Scouts were very busy the month of October.

On Saturday, Oct. 29th the scouts enjoyed a hay ride at the Schmidt Farms. They traveled through the New Fane area and could view the beautiful fall colors.

The dens were hard at work with many projects and games.

Den 1 — worked on fun projects and made games to play at their meetings. They also got in the Halloween mood by having a Halloween costume party, heard a spooky story, and had treats to take home.

Den 2 — Visited the Historical Society building and got to see Kewaskum's past. They also learned what makes America special.

Den 3 — Has been working

25 Years Ago

November 8, 1963

On October 26, Robert G. Romaine Post 384, The American Legion, held a 40th Anniversary dinner and social in honor of its charter members. A total of 76 members and wives attended, honoring the charter members, with State Commander Jim Mulder present. The following six charter members of the post were present: Maurice Rosenheimer, Louis Bath Sr., Fred Buss, Edwin "Spatz" Miller, (Milwaukee), Hubert Wittman and Carl Schaefer.

Christ J. Schoofs, 85, of Route 2, Kewaskum, a retired farmer and a lifelong resident of the Town of Kewaskum, where he lived on the Schoofs homestead all of his life, passed away November 5 at the farm home, now owned by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Schoofs.

Nuptial vows were exchanged during a 10 a.m. mass in Holy Trinity Church, Kewaskum, on Oct. 26, by Miss Grace Helen Theusch, daughter of Edward Theusch, Route 2, Kewaskum, and the late Mrs. Theusch, and Gerald Oscar Batzler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Batzler, Route 3, Campbellsport.

A daughter, Michelle Ann, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Puerling, Kewaskum, on October 26. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Larsen, Kewaskum, on October 31.

In a recent business transaction, Arthur Weddig of this village rented the Texaco service station on South Fond du Lac Avenue, better known as the former K.A. Honeck garage, from the Texaco Oil Products Company. Art purchased the equipment in the station from Sylvester Staehler, the former operator, and has been in business since Nov. 1.

Miss Elsie Bruhn, who has been employed in the ready-to-wear department of the J.C. Penney Company store at West Bend for a number of years, has resigned her position there and very shortly, will open a bakery, confectionary and ice cream shop in the John Gruber building on Main Street in this village, which was vacated a short time ago by the Reinders Sweet Shop. Miss Bruhn is well known in the vicinity and we feel sure that her new business venture will be a success.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zuehlke of Kewaskum on October 29.

75 Years Ago

November 8, 1913

George Johnson, aged 25 years, son of Chairman Tom L. Johnson of the Town of Ashford, passed away at St. Agnes Hospital at Fond du Lac last Thursday. Death was due to lock-jaw. Johnson thought that his inability to open his mouth was due to sore teeth. A few weeks ago, while operating a shredder, his hand was in some manner caught between the rollers and four of his fingers badly mashed. He was taken to St. Agnes Hospital on Oct. 13. On Oct. 21, the first symptoms of tetanus were noticed, and although every possible means were tried to save the young man's life, death resulted.

Philip Dougherty, aged 35 years, met with a very painful accident last Thursday, while operating a corn shredder on his brother's farm, three miles east of Dundee. His hand was caught in the shredder, mashing four fingers and a portion of the palm of the right hand. Dougherty was helping his brother Matt fill a silo on the latter's farm, when in some unknown manner, his hand was caught between the rollers. Dougherty was at once taken to Cascade, where a medical operation was performed.

All Conference Volleyball Selections from Kewaskum

Hard work and dedication were the key characteristics describing this year's Kewaskum volleyball all-conference selections. All four girls chosen for all conference honors have been playing volleyball all of their high school careers, and playing very well.

Chosen for second team all-conference is senior Deb Donath and junior Tina Weddig. Donath was a strong, consistent serving strength on the team who "aced" many serves throughout the season.

Weddig was known for her solid high sets and assists. Because of her steady playing and excellent contribution to the team, she was also awarded most valuable player of the team by her team-mates.

Honorable mention honors were awarded to senior Jenny Schneider and junior Andrea Fliess. Schneider was a consistent player who used experience and expertise to provide a solid strength to the team.

Fliess, 5'10" used her height advantage and spiking power to be a dominant force at the net. She was a key factor in the front line.

Each of these girls proved that hard work and dedication can and do pay off. The team ended their season with an 8-4 conference record and will definitely be a contender for the conference championship next year.

County to Issue Sr. Citizen ID Cards

Are you 60 years old or older? Washington County Senior Citizen Identification and Discount cards will be issued on Thursday, Dec. 1, 1988, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the Washington County Senior Center, 401 East Washington Street, West Bend.

Information needed: Social Security number, person to contact in case of an emergency and their phone number, and your doctor's name and phone number. Your picture will be taken. The cost for each card is $1.00.

If you have a child in school, you know about report card day, that fateful day of reckoning. Will your pride and joy come bouncing home bursting with happy news, or will it be time once again to review the sad Parade of Excuses? What can a parent do to help the young one succeed?

Consumer Education Research Center has published a book that describes many new and innovative techniques that can help both you and your child be happier and more satisfied on the day the report card comes home. Based on recently conducted research, HOW TO HELP YOUR CHILDREN ACHIEVE IN SCHOOL includes a five-step plan for better school performance. For your copy send $3 (plus $1 p&h) to CERC-Education Task Force, PO Box 336, South Orange, N.J. 07079 or call 1-800-USA-0121 (outside N.J.).

How well a child does in school depends in a large part on the child's study habits. There is no substitute for hitting the books, and no short-cuts to getting an education.

Yet many students do not believe that the hours spent studying or amount of work they do will make the difference between success and failure. It's far easier to blame failure on unfair teachers, or distracting classmates, or bad luck or twenty other reasons, rather than admit they just didn't do the work.

Golf Champions!

How to Help Your Children Achieve in School

Many young people claim there are not enough hours in the day to do all the things they want to do - and study too. There may be some truth in that, but most often there is not a shortage of time, but a lack of planning. To encourage better use of time, have your school-agers draw up a weekly schedule. By writing down how they spend their days, hour by hour, young people may be surprised how much time they are wasting. By organizing their time, planning their study hours and sticking to the schedule, they may find they actually have more time for "things." Encourage your youngsters to be faithful to the schedule, and make sure they have reasonable quiet, well-lighted place to study, far from the distractions of the radio, record player and television.

You can also help by taking a daily interest in your children's school work and reviewing homework assignments with them. Ask them to give a summary of a chapter they have just read, or to explain how they solved a math problem. By asking specific questions, you can help them focus their thinking and see where their weaknesses are.

The book gives parents explicit strategies to help their children learn skills, attitudes and behaviors that characterize successful learners. It explains in detail:

- *how positive self-talk, images and questions related to the task at hand can increase attention.

- *how motivating children means helping them change their perception of themselves.

- *the five strategies for learning and remembering.

- *an effective, organized study and note-taking system.

- *how to help students redirect their attention away from fear of failure and toward productive ways to do well on tests.

Six KHS Indians Named As All-Conference Football Selections

Five seniors and one junior were chosen from the Kewaskum Indians Football team as All-Conference selections.

The lone first-team All-Conference player was senior Dennis Aupperle, who played offensive guard for the team. Aupperle, a strong offensive man gained a lot of yards over his position. His only problem is staying away from injuries. Again this year when Aupperle was injured, the offense suffered as Aupperle is considered a key player in making the offense run smoothly.

The two second-team All-Conference selections were seniors Mike Ciriacks and Ryan Degnitz. Ciriacks, a linebacker, is in his first year here at Kewaskum after transferring in from Illinois. He proved to be a real asset defensively using his size and strength to overpower his opponents. Ciriacks missed the first three games of the season and still ended up in the number two spot in total defense points for the Indians.

Degnitz, a two way player for the Indians, was picked on the second team as a defensive back and also made "Honorable Mention" as a running back. Degnitz, a solid player and hard worker gained 639 yards rushing and caught 20 passes for 177 yards. Known for being a quiet guy, he was a silent but dominating factor on the Indian's squad this year.

Honorable Mentions were awarded to seniors Chris Charland, Joel Serwe, Degnitz and junior Tim Oelhafen.

Charland, a three time letter winner, is the type of player who is always in the right spot at the right time. His steady and consistent play at linebacker proved to be a real strength to the team.

Serwe, Kewaskum's fullback gained 387 yards on the season, rushing for an average of 4.9 yards per carry. Serwe was a hard runner who didn't stop moving until he was down. Due to an injury, he missed the last game of the season against Chilton.

The only junior to make all-conference this year is Tim Oelhafen at offensive tackle. Oelhafen is a two way player who played both ways all season long. He's noted as being a consistent player who anchors the team. Coach Pearson is definitely looking forward to having him back next year.

Ripon Volleyball Team Evens Season Record

RIPON, WI; October 31, 1988 — The Ripon College volleyball team dropped a crucial Midwest Conference match at Lake Forest College last Wednesday and then bounced back the next night at home to destroy Marian College. The Redmen fell 13-15, 14-16, and 3-15 to Lake Forest and beat Marian 16-14, 15-0, 15-3. The split leaves the Redmen at 15-15 on the season and 1-3 in the conference going into the conference championships this weekend.

At Lake Forest the Redmen played tough against the favored Foresters but dropped the first two games by the narrowest of margins. Ripon was led by Tami Thronson Blue Mounds, and Sandy Secor, Kewaskum, at the net and Stacey Spaulding, Seymour, and Melissa Sheldon, Fond du Lac, on defense.

The next night, after a very shaky start, the Redmen loaded both barrels and bombed Marian. Thronson was again the big gun with a lot of help coming from setter Becky Polk, Berlin, off the bench. The Marian match also marked the final regular season appearances of Secor and Sue Wagoner, Rochester, MN. The two seniors also had great nights to aid the Redmen cause.

Redmen of the week: Sandy Secor and Sue Wagoner. Secor is the daughter of Gerald and Mary Secor, Kewaskum.
