Village Board Reviews Rough Draft Of Concession Stand Agreement

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Both the village's attorney, Gerald Kiefer and insurance agent, Eugene Bohn were on hand at Monday night's village board meeting to go over the rough draft of a letter of agreement between the village and Kewaskum Softball Association for the proposed construction of a concession and multi-purpose building in Kewaskum Kiwanis Park.

The agreement lists ten points stipulating procedures and requirements which the association will be required to meet as part of the building's construction.

The village has been asked, by the association, to come up with the necessary funds to purchase building materials. As its part of the agreement, the association will provide and donate all labor necessary to completely construct the building which will be located near the northeast softball diamond.

Kiefer advised the trustees that this agreement covers only the actual construction and does not address leasing of the facility. Basically, this agreement stipulates the type of building and materials to use along with safety and insurance procedures that must be adhered to during the building's construction, he noted.

In addressing the issue of insurance coverage, Gene Bohn said the village will provide Builder's Risk insurance for the stand's construction and liability insurance. He stressed that this coverage would only be in place during the building's actual construction. The liability insurance will not cover any injured workers. Since their time will be donated, the village also will not provide any workmen's compensation.

Bohn told the board the Builder's Risk insurance need only be in effect during the actual construction since it insures the building should anything happen to it during its construction.

Once the building is completed, noted Bohn, it will be up to the association to provide annual liability insurance for the stand. He said such a policy would cost $596 a year and would provide $500,000 in combined single limit coverage including product liability but excluding any liquor liability.

Bohn noted two points made in the agreement are extremely important. First, that the construction area be enclosed to restrict unauthorized people from coming onto the site and secondly, that no one under the age of 18 be allowed onto the construction site. "We don't want the volunteers bringing their youngsters along with them when they come to work on the building, that's just inviting problems," said Bohn.

After reviewing the agreement with the trustees, Kiefer and Administrator Dan Schmidt said they would meet with members of the association and go over the agreement with them. A final draft will then be brought back to the board for approval.

Several of the trustees asked about guidelines for leasing the building once it is completed. Kiefer said a second, separate, agreement should be drawn up covering procedures and requirements for leasing of the building.

Schmidt noted that while the building will be the sole property of the village, the responsibility of operating and maintaining it will be the associations. Kiefer and Schmidt suggested following West Bend's lease contract as a guide to writing up an agreement for the village. In reference to the finished product, noted Schmidt, the village will still maintain control. During weekdays, scheduled use of the building would be handled by the association, while weekend scheduling would be done and under the control of the village. The village will set aside two weekends during the summer to be used by the association for their baseball tournaments, said Schmidt.

The board directed Kiefer and Schmidt to take the next step, drawing up of a rough draft leasing agreement for review at a future meeting.

In other business the board discussed the installation of additional street lights along LinDe Lane in the Bel-Ric subdivision. Trustee Howard Laubenstein asked that action on the item be postponed. "I would like to see it tabled because we have to discuss some problems about lights," said Laubenstein. The board agreed to table the item until its next meeting.

Ken Bonlender, Countywide Library Committee representative, advised the board that the village had received $3,000 in funding for the last quarter of 1988. The village also received $367 in continuing education funds, $1,500 in grants and aids plus, an additional $600 through the reading service which allows the village to purchase $2,000 in books through the Fond du Lac Library system.

Trustee Mary Krueger, who represents the village on the County Incineration Committee, advised the board that the incineration feasibility study had been completed. She noted that a representative of the firm which did the study also addressed the committee's last meeting about composting as well as recycling.

Schmidt said, because of the involved nature of the discussion, he was getting a video of that meeting which he hoped to show the trustees after some future board meeting. "The video can answer all your questions a lot better than I can," said Krueger.

The village's 1989 Capital Improvements Project of replacing damaged sidewalks was addressed by Schmidt. He asked the trustees to look at the village and prepare a list of

County Looking at '911'

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Washington County is moving closer to becoming a member of a continually growing group of municipalities and counties to establish a "911" Emergency Response system for their communities.

The County Board has agreed to coordinate law enforcement agencies which would participate in the system that automatically gives dispatchers the number and location of persons making the emergency call. The system would also automatically route calls to the proper law enforcement agencies.

A Wisconsin Bell Telephone Company representative advised the board's Public Property and Safety Committee that it would cost $176,710 to purchase and install a fully enhanced emergency response system. Monthly maintenance costs would run $7,262.

For the county's 35,000 potential users, that would represent a cost of 35c per month for the first three years of operation until the equipment and installation costs were paid off. After that, the cost would drop to 21c a month.

The system has been on the county's drawing boards for the past year and if the board decides to go ahead with the program, it could be in place and operational by 1991.

The only problem with the proposed system arises in the eastern area of the county where Washington and Ozaukee Counties share telephone exchanges in Cedarburg, Grafton and Thiensville. The system, however, has an option called Selective Routing which would allow computers to separate residents within an exchange by their addresses.

Before the system can become a reality however, the county must pass an ordinance exhibiting its intent to install the system. The county and telephone company would then have to come to a contract agreement and user fees would have to be established. Lastly, communities that wish to have dispatch centers would also have to pass ordinances accepting the system.

Currently there are dispatchers in the Washington County Sheriff's Department as well as the West Bend, Germantown and Hartford police departments.

Sheboygan County already has an operating '911' system, with Milwaukee County joining the system this year and Waukesha County expected to have its system functioning by 1990.

'Arrests' Scheduled

Community leaders and personalities in Kewaskum and surrounding areas may find themselves arrested, handcuffed and put behind bars when the American Cancer Society stages its "Jail and Bail Fundraiser" in Kewaskum Wednesday and Thursday, March 1st and 2nd at the Honeck Chevrolet showroom.

A "Hit List" of about 100 worthy criminals has been formed, but for a $15 fee citizens may phone in and have their favorite neighbor, friend or employer arrested. Off-Duty police officers and other volunteers will be on hand to make all arrests, upon which the "criminals" will be hauled off to a staged prison and will appear in front of a judge who will then set bail. Once imprisoned, several phone calls will be given so that the bail may be raised. All local businesses, as well as citizens of Kewaskum, are encouraged and asked to give their support in this community fund raising effort. "Jail and Bail" will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, with area radio stations and local newspaper support.

For further information, contact Greg Ogi, chairman at 626-2380.

UWWC's $2.1 Million Expansion, Remodeling Project Could Get Underway by Month's End

WEST BEND — Construction work could be underway before the end of February on a $2.1 million expansion and remodeling project at the University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County.

The UWWC Board of Commissioners voted unanimously on Wednesday to recommend the acceptance of a low bid of $1,801,663 for the project, from A. Guenther and Sons contractors of West Allis. In a separate resolution, the commissioners recommended that Washington County and the City of West Bend pass the required resolutions to authorize borrowings for their share of costs for the project.

Total costs for construction and fees for architects and contingencies were set at $2,072,663. Architect's fees were established at 10 percent of the construction costs; contingency fees, at 7 percent. The county pays 75 percent of the total costs; the city, 25 percent.

Final action on accepting the bids will come at a Feb. 13 meeting of the city council and a Feb. 14 meeting of the county board.

A representative of A. Guenther, who was present at the commissioners meeting, said he expects work to begin as soon as a contract is signed. Projected completion date for the project is Dec. 22, 1989.

Along with 17,000 square feet of new construction, the project includes repair and remodeling work and the construction of a 1,200 square-foot pole building for storage.

The 'Big Train Wreck' of '29

(SECOND IN A SERIES)

Approximately 3,000 feet of track were torn up, two telephone and telegraph poles were smashed and wires tangled and torn, depriving the local station of wire communication. Station Agent Anthony P. Schaeffer, who reported for work at 3 a.m., crawled over the wrecked cars and after three hours of hard work untangled the wires and restored temporary service so he could report the wreck and call for assistance.

In 1840 there were 2,818 miles of railroad track in the U.S. Today there are over 200,000 miles of track!

Campbellsport School To Present 'Stars'

For the third consecutive year, the Pepsi Foundation and Burger King have awarded a grant presentation to the Campbellsport Public School. This year's presentation, "Stars," will be presented on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 1:30 p.m. in the new gym at the Campbellsport Public School.

The message of "Stars" deals with the hope that is had for every human being to reach their full potential in life. Thousands of young people these days are wasting their lives due to alcohol and drug use rather than reaching for the stars." Alcohol and drug use limits one's ability to think fast and stay emotionally stable. It robs the person of the energy and confidence necessary to make it in the real world. It is time that every young person decides that they will not be denied the fullest life possible - that it is time to say "Yes" to being the best and not just "No" to drugs.

"Stars" will be presented to Campbellsport Public School's students in Grade 7 - 12. Parents of the students, as well as anyone who is interested, are welcome to attend this presentation to be shown on Feb. 14th, at 1:30 p.m. If you have any questions regarding the presentation, contact Mary Beth Leonard, Drug Education Program Coordinator, at Campbellsport School.

Surplus Food to Be Reinstated Feb. 18

Distribution will be made at Kewaskum High School from 8:00 a.m. on Feb. 18, until all the food has been distributed.

Air Force Seeking Veterans for Prior Service Programs

The Air Force is seeking qualified veterans to return to active duty with the Air Force, Captain Richard V. Briggs, Chief of Operations, 3555th U.S. Air Force Recruiting Squadron, here, said.

"If you're a recent veteran and qualify, the door may be open for you to return to the U.S. Air Force. The training, education and entitlements are greater today than when you left...and the pay's better too. I recommend that interested applicants contact their local recruiter to see if they qualify for the prior service program," he added.

CAP Fund Announces $100,000 Initiative To Prevent Child Abuse and Neglect

Milwaukee - Officials of the CAP (Child Abuse Prevention) Fund have unveiled a $100,000 initiative to help fund effective child abuse and neglect programs in Wisconsin.

Community organizations throughout the state are being invited to submit proposals for programs to be funded from the $100,000 initiative.

Calling the new program "Reach & Teach," CAP Fund officials said dollars from the initiative will be targeted towards communications and educational programs. "Reach & Teach" seeks to provide an educational link between parents, especially first-time parents, and community resources aimed at helping those individuals deal with the pressures of parenting.

"We want to make 1989 go down in history as the year the people of Wisconsin made the family their top priority," said former Milwaukee Brewer star Sal Bando, CAP Fund Advisory Board co-chairman.

"What we're really talking about is making an investment in our own future. We must all recognize the critical importance of growing up in a safe, healthy environment."

Bando noted that there is "no magic cure for child abuse and neglect, but through education we can reduce the number of young victims while strengthening the family."

"Being a parent is a tough job under any circumstance. The CAP Fund's objective is to let parents know the need for advice and help is natural, that help is available in their community and that we expect them to take advantage of these resources," Bando said.

All community groups in Wisconsin, who are concerned about the health and welfare of children, are invited to learn more about the CAP Fund's "Reach & Teach" initiative.

The deadline for proposals for "Reach & Teaching" funding is March 1. Funding awards will be announced in April.

Inquiries should be directed to Katharine H. Buenger, Executive Director, CAP Fund, P.O. Box 1997, Milwaukee, WI 53201. Telephone inquiries may be made by dialing 1-414/931-4093.

The CAP Fund was established in December of 1987 by Milwaukee Brewers President Allan H. (Bud) Selig and Milwaukee County Supervisor Tom Bailey. Their objective was to give the people of Wisconsin a private source of funding for the prevention, rather than the treatment, of child abuse and neglect.

Bando and his wife, Sandy, serve as the co-chairs of the CAP Fund's advisory board. Bando is a special assistant to the general manager of the Brewers and is a partner in the investment firm of Bando McGlocklin Capitol Corporation.

The CAP Fund is administered by the Children's Hospital Foundation, a private not-for-profit organization.

Fund volunteers and staff solicit gifts through direct appeals, public awareness campaigns and special events.

Dec. 28, 1988 was the day Linda and Milton Howe celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. "It was special to use because our family was all together," said Linda.

Raymond their son, and his family live in Virginia Beach, Va., Ramona, their daughter and her family live in San Diego, Ca.

Because both men are in the U.S. Navy their anniversary had been planned a long time. A BIG surprise was the appearance of Linda's sister Karen Hammer from the state of Washington. They had no idea she was coming. This put all of Linda's sisters together. Gale Corona and Janis Podenski were there from Milwaukee. They were junior bridesmaids at the wedding. Also present was the best man, Ronald Stormer from West Allis, the maid of honor Carole Huhn from Ashland, and one of the ushers, Darryl Ruprecht from Green Bay.

The celebration took place at Turner Hall in Fillmore. It began with the choir of St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church, Newburg singing "Now Thank We All Our God." Pastor

Biebert then said a few words. The Happy Hearts Homemakers of Fillmore surprised us with a "mock" wedding. Sharon Geidel was the preacher, Mary Carol Albrecht the bride, Judy Degnitz the groom and Marge Degnitz the mother of the bride. The other members were dressed in outfits befitting memories of the couple's past.

Milton and Linda wish to thank all the people that worked so hard to make their party a real success and a joy to remember!

A Time to Celebrate Open House at MPTC Campuses

For the past four decades the technical colleges, community colleges and junior colleges which make up the American "community college movement" have seen enormous growth. The number of two-year institutions has doubled and enrollment in those schools has gone from 500,000 in 1947 to nine million today.

With these figures projected to continue increasing through the mid-1990s, Moraine Park Technical College has something to celebrate during Community College Month and Vocational Education Week in February.

Under the banner "Community Colleges: Where America Goes to College," Community College Month is a celebration of past success and future achievements of community, technical and junior colleges and their students.

"More and more Americans are choosing community colleges for their educational needs," says District Director John J. Shanahan. "Our ability to provide diverse programs and specialized services make community colleges an affordable option for everyone."

Shanahan says the role of the community college has expanded in the past 50 years to keep up with the nation's changing needs. In this time, the number of community, technical and junior colleges has grown from 553 in 1937 to 1,222 in 1987.

"Because we are community based, we are responsible for meeting the needs of our specific district," explains Shanahan. "Through educational partnerships with local business, industry and high schools, we are able to keep up with the changing educational and technical demands of our residents and provide them with the education they need to succeed."

Shanahan says Vocational Education Week "will give students a chance to show off what they know in a variety of fields from computers and agriculture to trades and home economics."

Shanahan continues, "We want to educate the community about the level of skills our students gain here at Moraine Park and encourage them to find out how vocational education teaches young people the skills they'll need to be productive workers - and to be community leaders."

Shanahan says that participation in vocational clubs and special programs like this one supplements the practical training students receive in school by giving them practice at decision making, organizing and cooperating to meet a goal.

During Vocational Education Week, Feb. 12-19, Moraine Park will host several events emphasizing the theme "Building Tomorrow's Leaders." A banner across Main Street in Fond du Lac will announce the week to the community.

On Sunday, Feb. 12, The West Bend, Beaver Dam and Fond du Lac campuses will host an open house from 1 to 4 p.m.

Area residents, students and staff are invited to witness firsthand how vocational - technical students are acquiring job skills and preparing for future careers. The open house is the first on the Beaver Dam campus in many years. The campus has undergone extensive renovations this past year and area residents are invited to tour the expanded and updated facilities. Refreshments will be served and entertainment will be provided on all three campuses.

UWWC's Dean Thompson Honored

WEST BEND — Dean Robert O. Thompson was honored at West Bend Saturday by more than 40 persons who have served over the years on the Washington County Campus Foundation and the University Council at the University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County.

And after listening to their praises for his 16 years of service at UWWC, Thompson turned the tables and commended the community leaders for their role in campus growth.

Thompson, 63, who retires in mid-February, told the group, "We've come a long way, baby. All of you are to be congratulated on that."

James Bowerman of West Bend, president of the Foundation — the group that oversees UWWC scholarship funds, said Thompson has "taken UWWC to the top" of the list of the 13 UW freshman sophomore centers and has made it "one of the best educational institutions in the state."

Ray Werhand of West Bend, president of the Council, cited Thompson for his role in the education of more than 7,000 individual students since arriving in 1973. Many former students, he noted, have made their homes in Washington County and are "contributing" members of companies and the community.

"When you speak of the campus," Werhand said, "you speak of Bob Thompson."

Dion Kempthorne, professor of English at UWWC and master-of-ceremonies for the evening, described Thompson as having "the heart and mind of a poet-philosopher-teacher."

Thompson reviewed the histories of the Foundation and Council.

The Foundation was formed in March 1974, he said, after "it occurred to me that if anyone wanted to give us a gift, we ought to have an organization to receive it."

By September of 1974, the Foundation treasury had $16.01, Thompson said. A year later, there was $28.01, "after expenses."

This spring, the Foundation is overseeing a scholarship program that totals more than $37,000 annually, including five $1,500 scholarships awarded directly by the Foundation. "You've come a long way, baby," Thompson said.

According to Thompson, the idea for renewing an earlier version of the Council surfaced early in his administration. "I felt our first need was to build a bridge between campus and community. We were seen as being remote and on a hill outside town. I wanted to build strong community support for the campus."

Thompson praised the Council for its efforts in expanding the campus, providing an advisory group that represented the entire county, acting as ambassadors and even "turning around" a short-lived legislative attempt to close the campus.

He credited the Foundation and Council with helping the campus achieve "stronger, healthier and better community support" that at any time in its 21 year history. He said, "You are a very special group of people. Together we have done a great deal to advance the cause of higher education in Washington County because we worked together to achieve a common goal."

Thompson concluded by commenting on his decision to retire. "Now it is time for new leadership," he said, "a new dean, new perspectives, a different vision for the future."

"We've barely begun to realize our potential for serving educational needs of community."

Thompson said retirement will include traveling, reading, writing and grandchildren. He said, he and his wife, Mary, have "many things we want to do together," but the only commitment for the first two months is going to Florida, watching the Gulf and deciding what we want to do when we grow up."

St. Agnes Hospital to Unveil 'Welcome Home, Baby' Program on Valentine's Day

Having a baby is a labor of love. Unfortunately, for most new parents, the labor doesn't end with delivery — once home, there are feedings every two hours, frequent diaperings, sleeping when you can, and to top it off, all the usual housework to be done! Starting Valentine's Day (February 14), new parents' lives can be made a little easier with a new program from St. Agnes Hospital: Welcome Home, Baby.

Welcome Home, Baby is provided by the St. Agnes Maternity Unit, Women's Health Resource Center, and Home Care Department. With the program, specially trained hospital staff take care of all the routine household chores, giving new parents time to enjoy their baby. Services provided include meal preparation, light housekeeping, laundry — even taking out the garbage! Also, if the new father must return to work right away, the smiling face of a Welcome Home, Baby staff member can be a real boost for the new mom. In addition, a registered nurse is available to answer questions and provide support.

The cost of the program is just $39 for six hours of service, which may be taken all in one day or in two three-hour visits. Welcome Home, Baby gift certificates are available in the hospital gift shop and in the Women's Health Resource Center.

To introduce the new program, the hospital will be presenting a Welcome Home, Baby gift certificate to the parents of each baby born on Valentine's Day. Said Maternity director Lynette Bosin, "Whether there are three or thirteen, we want to give each Valentine's Baby a warm 'welcome home' with Welcome Home, Baby."

ASTHMA RELIEF

Vitamin B6 [pyridoxine] is under study for symptomatic relief of asthma. A USDA study of the effect of vitamin B6 on sickle cell anemia surprisingly showed the beneficial effect of taking 100 mg of B6 daily among members of the control group who happened to be asthmatics but otherwise healthy. They had a reduced frequency and duration of asthmatic attacks. Researchers then found low levels of B6 in the blood of both the asthmatics and those with sickle cell anemia who had responded favorably to B6 treatment.

Holy Trinity Observes Catholic Schools Week

One of the highlights of Holy Trinity Catholic Schools Week, which was observed from January 29 to February 4, was the Open House held on Tuesday. Katie Schladweiler, front, is shown with her father, Gary, looking at her school work, and Jason Strobel, showing his dad Mike, just how it's done. The parents had an opportunity to eat lunch with their children after the Open House.

Wednesday featured "Ye Olde School House." As in the old days, students were asked to bring a bag or bucket lunch and dress according to that era. Invited guests, some alumni of Holy Trinity, spoke to the students about school days past. Left to right, Helen Felix, Class of 1925; Rosaline Kohler, Class of 1922 and Frances Van Blarcom, Class of 1913.

Two other Holy Trinity graduates who spoke were left, Clara Weiss, Class of 1934, and Marcella Schaefer, Class of 1926.

Mrs. William Olbrys, 38, of 158 Martin Street, Campbellsport, died Saturday, Feb. 1, at St. Agnes Hospital of injuries sustained Jan. 20, when a car she was driving left a County Trunk V curve, four miles south of Fond du Lac, and crashed into a utility pole.

Also injured in the mishap were Richard Olbrys, 12, and Mrs. Paula Little, 74, both of Campbellsport. Mrs. Olbrys had been an employee of Regal Ware, Inc. in Kewaskum.

The warm weather in this area the past week brought out the appearance of spring. The temperature on Tuesday and Wednesday was near 50 degrees. The entire month of January and most of the winter has been mild except for a cold snap in December. The groundhog failed to see his shadow so who knows? Maybe we will get an early spring.

Historymobile II, the giant traveling museum of the State Historical Society, will visit Kewaskum under the sponsorship of the Kewaskum Statesman.

John Odekirk of the town of Auburn caught a whopping 7 pound, 24½ inch walleyed pike fishing in Auburn lake.

At the February 7, 1939 meeting of the Village Board of the village of Kewaskum, the matter of a snow plow was again brought up and after discussing the matter thoroughly, a motion was made by Trustee Martin and seconded by Trustee Seil that the board purchase a Drott snow plow (9 foot blade) for the sum of $265.00, installed at Milwaukee. Motion passed.

Thirteen hundred boxing fans filled the stock pavillion at Waukesha to capacity Monday night for the opening of the Land O' Lakes tournament.

Clarence "Clark" Werner was Kewaskum's only representative in the meet. He participated in the light-heavy-weight class and was pitted against Frank Goodwin, who represented the Waukesha Legion. Werner was unattached.

Just as we were going to press we were notified of the death of John F. Schaefer, aged 53, prominent and widely known resident of the village of Kewaskum, which occurred at his home this afternoon, Friday, Feb. 10, as a result of a heart stroke.

Nicholas Hammes, 74, well known farm resident of East Valley, in the town of Auburn and a native of the town of Kewaskum, passed away Thursday, Feb. 9, following a lingering illness of one year's duration. He had been a resident of the same farm for 59 years.

Otto Backhaus, Kewaskum's ice dealer, employed a crew of 15 local men the past week cutting the annual ice supply on the Milwaukee River adjoining his large ice house. Because of the mild winter so far the ice is not as thick as usual but measures 13 inches and is good and clear.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. George Koerble of this village, Happy parents of a 6¼ pound girl born Tuesday, Feb. 7, at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac.

"They are fast-growing landscape trees with soft needles and graceful branching. You can use them as specimen trees or as a privacy screen or windbreak... even as a beautiful sheared hedge."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between March 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

International Pot Luck Held With a Danish Flair at KHS

Denmark foreign exchange student Lisbeth Rasmussen hosted a potluck dinner Monday, Jan. 23 in the cafeteria at KHS. Lisbeth prepared some very common Denmark foods for her guests including a main dish, a dessert, and open sandwiches. The main dish was (in Danish) "Frikadeller," which is meatballs and "Kartotler" which is cooked potatoes, with "Persillesous," a white sauce. The desert was "Aebleshiver" which is pancakes that are round like an apple. The open sandwich was ryebread with liver pate.

None of the food had any special connection to the holidays except the "Aebleshiver" which the Danish people always eat the 23rd of December right before Christmas. At that time, it is served with a hot drink called "Glogg" which is made of red wine and all kinds of spices.

After dinner, Lisbeth showed various slides from Denmark and her hometown Svendborg. Many of her slides were from an amusement park called "Lego Land." The name refers to the fact that everything is made out of Legos and, yes, she told her attentive audience, Legos were invented in Denmark.

The slides from Svendborg included the city hall museums and the castle she worked at for three years called "Valdemars Slot."

Lisbeth concluded that she felt the pot luck dinner went pretty well and only wished more people would come to AFS pot lucks.

$1,628,833 Recovered by State for Consumers

MADISON — According to Attorney General Don Hanaway, the Wisconsin Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection and Citizen Advocacy recovered $1,628,833 for state consumers in 1988.

The office received complaints from 21,539 consumers, 11,183 of whom filed complaints in writing. Hanaway said his office recovered $946,839 for them through mediation and an additional $681,994 in court-ordered restitution.

Hanaway said the totals do not include the $6 million in insurance premiums and finance charges returned to state consumers last March as a result of the 1984 consent judgment the department received against the Thorp Finance Co.

The Attorney General said the office initiated 24 new lawsuits in 1988. Twenty-three completed cases resulted in $1,182,140 in civil forfeitures. Forty injunctions and 60 voluntary assurances of discontinuances were obtained.

The office distributed more than 60,000 brochures through its information and education programs and handled an estimated 70,000 phone calls in 1988, he said.

Sheriffs Department Offers Video on Drugs and Youth

Washington County Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis invites interested community groups and schools to borrow a new videotape that has been provided by the Wisconsin Attorney General, Donald J. Hanaway. The tape "Drugs and Youth...The Challenge" is designed to give parents and teachers a basic education about illegal drugs and drug abuse.

The 23-minute program shows parents how to recognize illegal drugs, drug paraphernalia, and the symptoms of drug abuse in their children. It would also be very helpful for teachers so they can recognize the danger signs in their students.

The tape can be borrowed from the Sheriff's Dept. by contacting Sgt. Jed Dolnick at 338-4432, 644-5204 (extension 4432), or 342-2929 (extension 4432). The Sheriff's Department also offers speakers on drug awareness topics for both adults and young people. Your request for such a program can be made to Sgt. Dolnick, who will forward it to one of the department's drug enforcement specialists.

Parks Attract Winter Sports in County

The Washington County Park System is reporting another very active winter sports season according to Administrator Paul Mueller. Cross country skiing is continuing to gain popularity and the free entrance to Washington County Parks has been very attractive.

Residents in West Bend and northern Washington County are encouraged to try Sandy Knoll County Park, just northeast of West Bend at Trenton Road and Wallace Lake Road. It has been growing in popularity. Its unique three loop trail system allows for short, medium or longer outings on a scenic and not-too-difficult trail. Residents in Germantown and southern Washington County are urged to try Homestead Hollow County Park at Freistadt Road and Merkel Drive in Germantown for an easy-to-moderate trail.

All those seeking a more demanding cross country ski trail should check out Glacier Hills County Park on Holy Hill Road at Freiss Lake Road in Richfield. Trails there are moderate-to-difficult. A heated warming room, flush toilets and water are available.

All of these parks are served with toilets, plowed and lighted parking lots and pay phones. Parking is also available for those wishing to snowmobile on separate trails running through these parks. Heated shelters are available for public rental at Glacier Hills Park-Richfield, and Ridge Run and Sandy Knoll Park near West Bend.

Ice skating is now available at Sandy Knoll, Ridge Run and Homestead Hollow County Parks with unheated shelters for ice skaters. Skating is also available at Glacier Hills County Park-Richfield, on Freiss Lake. Park patrons are urged to use common sense in judging proper ice conditions based on recent weather.

Winter sports are available from 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily in all Washington County Parks. For more information and free trail maps, call 338-4445 in the West Bend area, 342-2929 ext. 4445 from Germantown, or 644-5204 ext. 4445 from the Hartford/Slinger area.

Wisconsin Waterfowl Stamp Contest Winner

MADISON, WI — Artist Rick Kelly of Hudson won the 1989 Wisconsin Waterfowl Stamp Contest with his entry featuring a common goldeneye drake, Jon Bergquist, DNR waterfowl specialist announced.

Kelly has been a top 10 finisher in the last three waterfowl stamp contests. He was the first runner-up in the 1987 contest with an entry depicting pintail ducks.

First runner-up this year was

Thomas R. Schultz of Green Lake with a mallard entry. Second runner-up was Louis S. Raymer of Webster with an entry featuring a black duck.

"There were 85 entries in the contest this year," Bergquist added. "Competition was very tough with a high number of tremendous pieces of art entered."

Judges for the contest included: Gene Henry of McFarland; Chuck Petrie of Oshkosh; Jerry Solsrud of Delafield; and Samuel Timm of Wautoma.

The Wisconsin Waterfowl Stamp contest was begun in 1978 with Owen Gromme the first winner. Other winners in successive years included: Rockne Knuth of Fond du Lac; Martin R. Murk of Eagle; Timothy C. Schultz of Fond du Lac; William Koelpin of Hartland; Knuth; Michael James Riddet of Gays Mills; Greg Alexander of Herbster; Donald Moore of Monona; Allan Kraayvanger of Franklin; and Samuel J. Timm of Wautoma.

The Department sold 94,880 waterfowl stamps in 1987, the latest year for which final figures are available. That's down from 96,057 in 1986 and up from 90,248 in 1985. The largest number sold was the first year of issue with 130,090 in 1978.

Auto Tour Guides Available

Representative Steve Loucks (R-Mequon) has a limited supply of the state's new AUTO TOUR Guides to Wisconsin, which are available to interested constituents. The guide is published by the Division of Tourism Development of the Department of Development.

Wisconsin AUTO TOURS features 23 tours with 25 routes, more than two hundred color photographs, maps, and over five hundred great attractions. "Explore Wisconsin," Loucks said, "and discover the beautiful Great Lakes shorelines, the rolling green farmland, the pine forests, the magnificent water falls, and the crystal clear lakes."

"The road clearly leads to Wisconsin," said Loucks, "and the new AUTO TOURS guide opens that road to a new world of festivals and fun."

KHS Wrestlers Place 4th In EW Conference Tournament

Kewaskum Statesman,
Friday, Feb. 10, 1989, Page 19

by Dennis Aupperle

The Kewaskum wrestlers placed a strong 4th at the Eastern Wisconsin Conference tournament in Sheboygan Falls this past weekend. The Indians were helped to their finish by: Bob Castro, Dan Heisdorf, and Dennis Aupperle, with their first place finish.

Plymouth again won the team championship for the second year in a row with 154½ points, followed by Chilton with 121 points, third place Kiel with 115 points, followed closely by the Kewaskum Indians with 110 points. Then New Holstein, Sheboygan Falls and Two Rivers with 108½, 68 and 55 respectively.

Championships began with Bobby Castro at 119. First round Bob wrestled Kevin Ditter of Chilton, pinning him in 1:12. Next round he wrestled Tony Charles of Two Rivers, pinning him in 1:18. After defeating Tony Charles Bob went on to the final competition, in which he wrestled Tony Koczkowski, pinning him in :48 seconds.

The second championship title was obtained by Dan Heisdorf at 140 lbs. Danny began by receiving a bye first round. He then wrestled Tim Schuler of Sheboygan Falls, after pinning him in 3:55, Dan moved on to the final competition. In the finals Dan shut out Keith Backhus from Plymouth, by a score of 8-0 for the conference championship.

The third championship for Kewaskum was won by Dennis Aupperle. He started out by receiving a bye first round.

Second round Dennis was up against Dan Berg of Plymouth, he pinned Berg in a mere :48 seconds. Dennis then moved on to the finals competition where he was up against Randy Reimer of Chilton. These two wrestlers had tied early this year in a dual meet 1-1. Dennis pinned Reimer in 3:39 this time.

Scoring points for the Indians in the third place bracket were Chris Charland, Dave Kuphal and Matt Gruss.

Chris Charland lost a close match second round, to the eventual conference champ, by a score of 7-5, moving Chris to the third place bracket where he encountered Joe Buechel. Joe Buechel beat Chris earlier this season, Chris won this match over Buechel by a score of 5-0.

Then came Dave Kuphal who had a bye first round. He then lost his second round. Going for third place Dave beat Corey Stoney of Plymouth, who had a better record than he did, he also beat Dave earlier this season. Dave decisioned Stoney by a score of 10-6.

Matt Gruss helped out the score by also placing third. He began by pinning Brian Smogoleski of Two Rivers in 2:09. Second round he lost to Mike Sell of Chilton. Third round he came back to take third place by pinning Sean McLaughlin in 3:56, Sean beat Matt earlier this season in their dual meet, against Sheboygan Falls.

Finishing fourth place for Kewaskum was Jeff Sabish at 112, and Chad Schmidt at 145.

This Saturday the Indians encounter Region action at Sheboygan Falls.

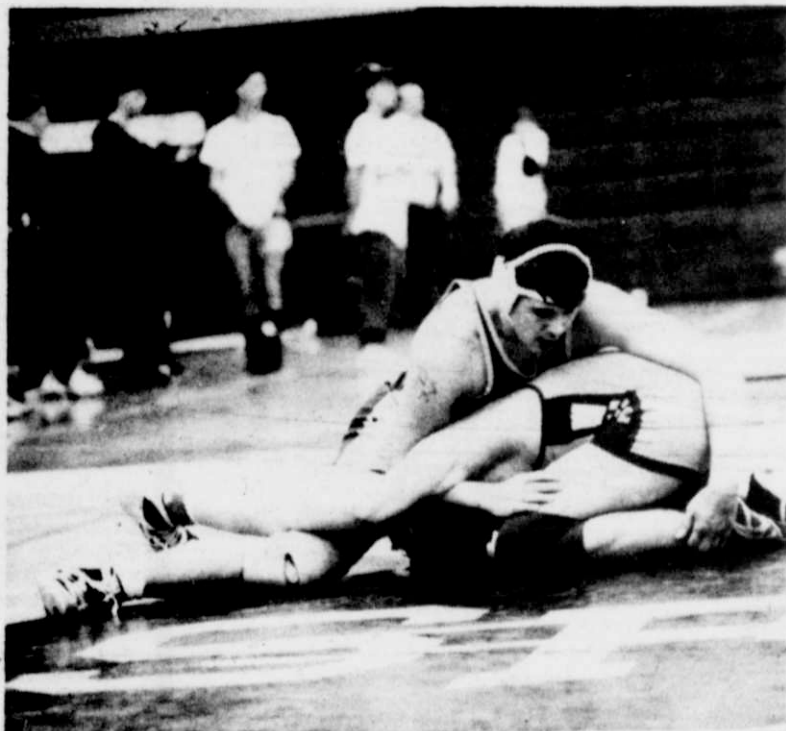

Whitewater Loses Duals to Nationally Ranked Opponents

The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater wrestling team, ranked sixteenth in the latest National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III poll, narrowly lost a pair of home dual meets last weekend to nationally ranked opponents. Friday UW-W was defeated by defending Wisconsin State University Conference champion UW-River Falls 24-21 and Saturday UW-W dropped a 24-17 decision to tenth ranked Wartburg College (IA).

UW-W used some last minute lineup switches to edge the Warhawks. After the programs were printed, after the lineups announced to start the match, as the wrestlers were walking out on the mat for the match UW-W coach Byron James, well within the rules, inserted a new wrestler at 126 pounds (who went on to win by a pin). UW-W also moved wrestlers up to 134 and 142 pounds, in the latter case negating what had been thought to be a forfeit weight. Although Warhawks Tony Schaaf (junior, Mineral Point) and Rich Straub (freshman, Kewaskum) won by pins at 134 and 142, the Falcon pin at 126 proved to be crucial. Troy Hauser (freshman, Holmen) at 177 and Mark Riggs (sophomore, Fort Atkinson) were the other winners for UW-W.

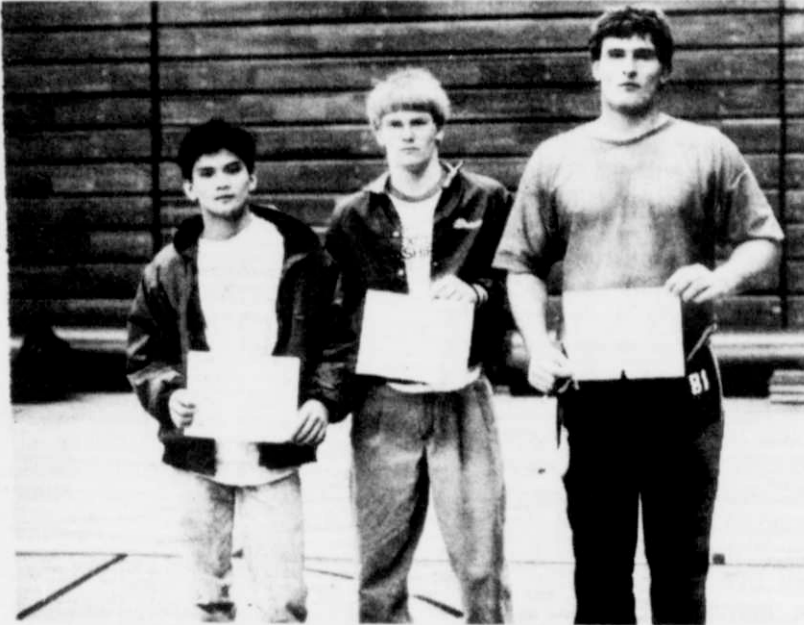

Dan Heisdorf, Kewaskum, has the cradle locked in on Tim Schuler of Sheboygan Falls. In the second round of the conference meet Dan pinned Tim the the second period.

Indians Lose Thriller to Raiders, 58-56

The Indians never played better than they did Friday night before a hometown crowd against state-ranked Two Rivers and had the clock run out just five seconds sooner, Kewaskum would have pushed the Raiders into overtime instead of losing 58-56.

The Two Rivers strategy of "opening-up-wide" and playing "stall-ball" worked to their disadvantage in this game as the Indian team played tough, patient defense which attributed to six Two River turnovers.

Kewaskum was down by nine points at the end of the first quarter, 24-13, as Raider guard, Jim Messman pumped in two right before the buzzer. Indian's Randy Krell picked up three quick fouls during this quarter and was benched which hurt Kewaskum's underneath board game.

Second quarter action saw our Indians come alive and popped in seven unanswered points with Mark Heather contributing five of these. Before first place Two Rivers knew what hit them, big man Mike Ciriack sunk an 8-footer to tie the game, 26-26, with just under 5:00 to play. Joel Miller put the Indians ahead 34-33 on a three point shot but Two Rivers Messman scored two quick baskets before Kewaskum's Ciriacks hit a jumper right before the horn to cut the lead to 37-36.

Excitement was in the air as the Indians took to the floor in the third quarter. Even when Two Rivers Ted Swiontek swished a three pointer and followed it up with another basket to open up the lead a little, the Indians were playing too good to give up then. Big man Randy Krell checked back into the game and in the meantime, Two Rivers experienced a little foul trouble of their own. Starters Karmen and Shimulunas each received their fourth foul. Using their stall-ball technique all quarter, Two Rivers still couldn't widen the scoring deficit by more than eight and the Kewaskum Indians were still alive and fighting, even after a 51-43 third quarter score.

Kewaskum came on strong in the fourth with Ciriacks and Krell fighting underneath and scoring four and two respectively. With 5:05 remaining, Two Rivers called a time-out and Kewaskum was only down by three, 49-52. The heat was on and our Indian fans were going wild in the stands. Two Rivers again tried to stall, only to turn over the ball two times in a row, and with the score 50-52 (on a Krell free-throw), Two Rivers again called time with 2:40 left on the clock. Kewaskum's Gerhartz tied the game 52-52 at the 2:30 mark and Two Rivers went back to the stall which even' the Two Rivers fans were yelling about. Two River's Ted Swiontek ended up scoring on this possession and the Raiders were up by two, 54-52. Swiontek fouled Kewaskum's Mark Heather who made one of two, and Gerhartz answered with two more points and the Kewaskum Indians were in the lead, 55-54, with 2:00 minutes remaining. Two Rivers got a traveling call and with 1:43 left in the game, Coach Schatz signaled for a time-out. The fans went crazy. When action returned, Two River's Shimulunas picked up his fifth foul and was out of the game. Kewaskum's Heather went on the line again shooting the bonus and making one of those pressure free-throws to put the game at 56-54 Kewaskum. Two Rivers again stalled down to 43 seconds and then called time-out. They set up a play to Messman who nonchalantly pumped in the tying basket for 56 all with 19 seconds left in the game.

Coach Schatz used his last time-out to hopefully set up the winning play but the inside pass to Gerhartz with 12 seconds left was deflected and Two Rivers had a rough time getting through Kewaskum's tough defense. With five seconds left, simultaneously it seemed, the Two Rivers bench signaled for a time-out and Kewaskum's Heather fouled Raider Karmen. Much to the Indian's dismay, the officials weren't aware of the frantic efforts of the Raider bench to get that final time-out and Karmen went to the line with five seconds left to shoot the bonus. HE sunk both of them and with no time-outs remaining Kewaskum went down-court to try to shoot a 3-pointer but Miller's shot was blocked to end the game.

Coach Schatz said of the loss,

"How can I be disappointed. The team put out an excellent effort and we had good balanced scoring."

Kewaskum's big men led the attack with Ciriacks and Heather each hitting five baskets, while Krell and Gerhartz each added nine more points.

JayVee and Freshmen teams both won their games by close margins.

The Kewaskum Indians continued their season on the road taking on Mayville Tuesday and will play Chilton on Friday.

Kewaskum fell to 2-7 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, 3-11 overall.

Two Rivers Sinks Indian Girls

by Janel Flynn

After the long ride to Two Rivers, the Indians tried to bring a victory home but couldn't quite get it. Coach Milt Dickinsen missed the game because of illness and J.V. Coach Keith Amundson had to take his place. Both games were very rough and competitive.

The Varsity was trailing at the end of the first quarter 17-11 and the Raiders only allowed them another 11, while they took 16 to end the first half with a score of 33-22.

In the third stanza the Raiders allowed the Indians only two points, a bucket by Debbie Donath. The final score was 62-39.

Coach Amundson commented, "the thing that bothered us the most was the press they put on us."

The results were, Pam Osterbrink, who averages 15 points, a game, was held to only six. Jenny Schneider led the team with 14 points, eight steals and three assists. Donath also chipped in with 11 points.

The J.V. also played a competitive game, breaking their full court press, but couldn't receive the win. At half, they were only down by six points from the Raiders. Kelly Rohlinger ended the game with a three pointer but it unfortunately didn't decide the win. The final score was 42-29.

Tracey Steinert led with eight points, Amy Chesak - seven, and Kelly with six. Janel Flynn had four assists and Chesak had three.
