Pledges in Excess of 160% of Goal

Cancer Society's Jail and Bail Tops All Expectations

Photos on Pages 16 & 17

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

It was a "first-time" effort for many of the individuals involved in last week's Jail and Bail fund drive to raise money for the American Cancer Society, but that effort and dedication paid off beyond anyone's most optimistic hopes. The 57 culprits who were 'arrested' during the two-day event managed to come up with over $16,500 in pledges for the society, well over the set goal of $10,000.

Two Kewaskum men, Mitchell Ogi and his brother Dr. Gregory Ogi, took on the task of co-chairing the committee to organize and hold the first Kewaskum Jail and Bail fundraiser. "It was a lot of hard work but we had fantastic cooperation and help from the other members of our committee and that's what made it a success and fun," said Mitch. We were just hoping to reach our goal but we've surpassed that by almost $7,000 and the pledges are still coming in, he noted.

Working with the Ogi's were Nicole Condon, ACS Area Executive Director, Jean and Jim Stoffel and Bob Sparks. These people put in a lot of long hours before the event actually took place. They helped with the initial work, setting the dates, securing a "Jail" location, advertising, lining up donations of food and refreshments for the event, putting together lists of potential criminals to be arrested, securing the assistance of the Kewaskum Police and

Washington County Sheriff's Departments volunteers to make the arrests and all the other countless details that had to be taken care of.

The cooperation and participation of the community as a whole is really what made the event the success that it was, noted Ogi.

Two of the men who seemed to enjoy their roles the most were "Judge Gentlemen Jim" Schaub and "Judge Hardhearted Jerry" Kiefer. Not mentioning any specific names, one wielded a stern gavel setting some mighty stiff bails while another individual "seemed" to show a little more lenient disposition toward the accused.

Gruber Among Lottery's 'Money Game' Winners

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Jeanette Gruber of Kewaskum was one of three area contestants to participate in last week's Wisconsin Lottery TV show "Money Game."

Gruber, along with Peter Cappelz of Eden and Allen Freund of Malone each came home with $477, in addition to their $100 winning entry which made them eligible to be chosen for the game show.

Gruber purchased her winning ticket at Pick N Save, West Bend. Gruber, Freund and Cappelz were among 60 contestants selected to make up the audience for the first airing of the Money Game which is taped at the Channel 12 studios in Milwaukee. All sixty were the guests of the state lottery staying at the Marriott Hotel in Milwaukee.

Area Spared Rage of Second Storm

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Although weather forecasters predicted that Wisconsin would be hit by snow, sleet and freezing rain through the whole weekend, the state 'lucked out.'

The second storm, which developed after the low pressure area split into two lows, tracked farther south taking its "mixed bag" with it, dumping anywhere from six to fourteen inches of snow as far south as Texas.

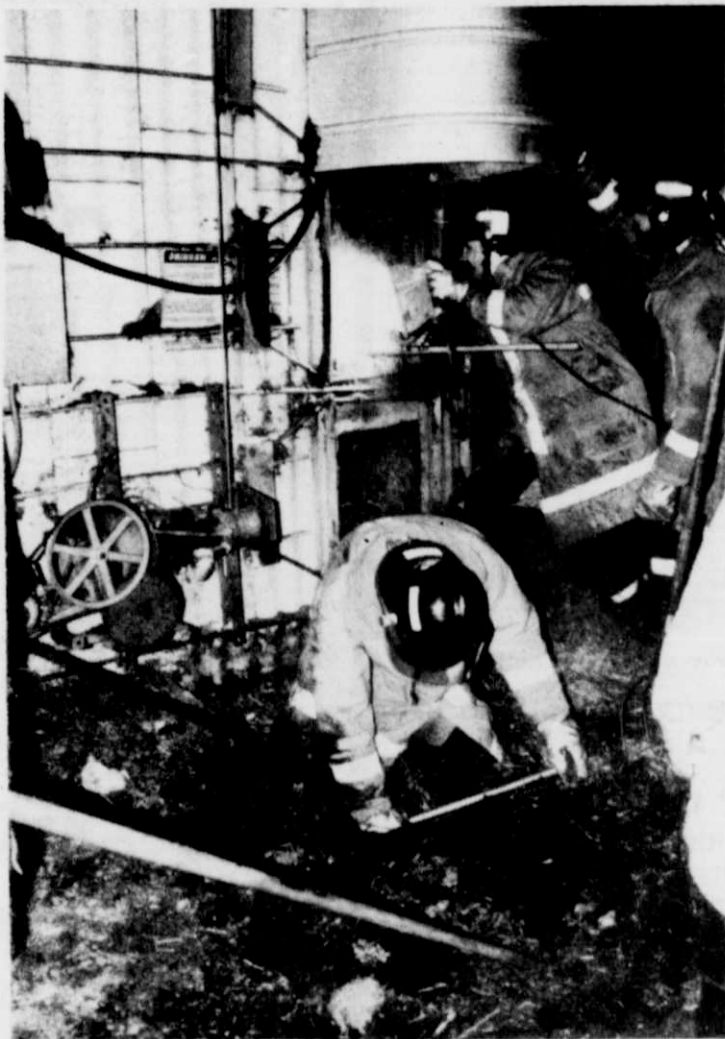

Friday's storm brought snow accumulations ranging from 7½" to 9½" to our area causing a few cancellations and early dismissal of area schools.

Sunday and Monday's sunshine and gusty winds, however, caused scattered slippery spots which were blamed for numerous minor accidents which occurred. Lake-effect snow showers throughout Monday also compounded the problems.

In keeping with this winter's yo-yoing up and down weather pattern temperatures are expected to rise into the high 40's by Friday.

The Kewaskum Fire Department was called out at approximately 6:30 p.m. Monday evening to extinguish a fire in a silo on the Glenway Backhaus farm, 4062 Highway 28W, Kewaskum.

Firefighters found haylage smoldering in the silo near the lower doors. Firemen removed some of the haylage and inserted a hose to run water into the silo. The department remained on the scene until 10:30 p.m. They were called back to the farm at approximately 4:00 a.m. Tuesday morning.

The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Newspapers In Education Week, March 6-10

In celebration of Newspapers In Education Week, being held this year March 6-10, you will find some very special ads and editorials on pages seven through thirteen in this week's edition.

On these pages, readers will find paid advertisements and editorials created, designed and drawn by the third graders of Holy Trinity School in Kewaskum. These children recently completed a phase of study on newspapers, and therefore, were contacted to participate in Newspapers in Education Week.

The whole concept behind the Newspaper In Education Week promotion is to encourage children to get into the habit of picking up a newspaper to READ. If we have influenced one child into the habit of reading, we have accomplished a great deal.

The Kewaskum Statesman would sincerely like to thank the Holy Trinity third graders for their fine efforts in this participation and thanks to their teacher, Mrs. Diane Gremminger for her help and patience.

These students worked hard to help make this a special edition. But many thanks must also be extended to the businesses who paid for the advertising space. Without their commitment, readers would not be enjoying this edition.

Thanks to: Family Hair Salon; Herriges Oil; Kewaskum Frozen Foods; Sentry Foods; Kemps-Marigold Foods; Miller's Furniture; Integrity Cleaning Service; Dr. J. Dennis Connor; Dr. Stephen Van Ess; Rumsey Chiropractic Health Centre; and Campbellsport Building Supply. Your support helped to make our first effort in Newspapers In Education Week possible.

Any teachers interested in participating in this project for next year's Newspapers In Education Week, please contact Lana Kuehl at the Kewaskum Statesman.

Kewaskum Committed To Incineration Project

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Members of the Village Board unanimously agreed Monday night that Kewaskum is committed to the plan to construct an incineration plant in Washington County.

Trustee Mary Krueger, who represents the village on the Joint Incineration Committee, told fellow boardmembers, "we have to come to some conclusion within the next month or so." Krueger said, "if we're not going to commit ourselves to the project I don't want to waste my time attending meetings."

Board president Paul Blumer said from his point of view, "we (the village) don't have much choice." The other trustees agreed.

Krueger reminded the board that the village's formal backing will mean additional financial support. You've gotten all the information there is to get, from here on in, it's going to be planning and actual construction of a facility, she noted.

After listening to the board's comments Krueger said, then what you're saying is that I can go back to the committee and tell it Kewaskum is formally committed to the plan to build an incinerator.

In other business the board discussed the problem of unshoveled sidewalks and individuals who snowblow the snow back into the streets.

Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo told the board most of the homeowners have been very conscientious about cleaning up their sidewalks and there really hadn't been any problems. He did note, however, that it would be easier for the Police Department, on its routine patrols, to take down the addresses of those people who have not even made an attempt to clean their walks.

The board asked if letters were sent out to the property-owners telling them to correct the situation. Bilgo indicated no, the village, in most cases, would clear off the walks and charge the cost to the tax bill. He said, however, such incidents were relatively few.

Bilgo told the trustees, "the bigger problem is those individuals who clean off the sidewalks by blowing the snow back into the street." There's an ordinance against it, he said. Bilgo felt those people seen blowing the snow back into the street should be given a ticket "right then and there." He said there was no reason why those using snowblowers could not direct the snow onto their lawns or at the snowbanks along the curb. He stressed that throwing snow back into the street is illegal.

Bilgo said he can understand the people's frustration when the village plows and the snow goes into their driveways. We have to push it some place until we can come around and clean it up and haul it away, he noted, but it doesn't help to have somebody blow the snow back into the street five minutes after we've plowed.

The board agreed that if the village has ordinances they should be enforced or it doesn't pay to have them on the books.

In other action the board approved the issuance of a building permit to David and Irene Stradtman for construction of a new home on Werner Drive and a dance hall license to Somethin-Ta-Do.

Action on a computer services contract for tax bill preparation with Washington County was tabled until the board's next meeting.

Annual Talent Show Returns to Kewaskum

They're baaaaack! Dave Bertelson, Larry Ammel, Dave Rhode and Keith Amundson delighted the audience at last year's Kewaskum High Talent Show, with their barbershop quartet. Well, they're back this year, along with a host of other superb and exciting acts. The show will take place on March 18th at 7:30 p.m. at Kewaskum High School. Tickets will be $1.00 each.

By: John Hazlewood

On March 18th at 7:30 p.m. in Rose Hall the Kewaskum High School swing choir is hosting possibly the most colossal talent show the world has ever seen since last year. That's right, the annual talent show is back in Kewaskum this year, but this time it's hoped to be even bigger and better.

Last year's show featured such gifted wonders as teachers Dave Bertelson, Larry Ammel, Keith Amundson, and Dave Rhode singing a barbershop quartet entitled "Coney Island Baby", Gina Olmsted and Angie Schoofs singing a self-written song, teacher Fran Charland singing "Puff the Magic Dragon" and "A Boy Named Sue," and an appearance by the KHS Swing Choir. Overall, it was a night of comedy, music and fun.

This year, the swing choir and the quartet will be back. There will also be a student barbershop quartet, a comedian, various solos, and a rendition of "Dance Fever."

PUBLISHER'S LETTER TO PARENTS

Dear Parent/Guardian: Are you looking for a way to help your child do better in school?

Are you concerned because your child would rather watch TV than read?

Are you searching for ways to make homework relevant?

Perhaps the newspaper can be part of your answer. It lends itself to a variety of learning situations because it is up-to-date, relevant, and highly motivational.

It is an accepted fact that we try to provide for our children those things that we think are important. At school we think it is important that children develop a love of the printed word. In order to foster this love, much of our school day is spent in reading activities. Your further support is needed, too.

One way you can encourage a child's reading habit is to be a model at home. A good way to model reading is through the daily reading of a newspaper. Parents who are excited about newspaper reading and "share" with their children what they have read are modeling good reading. In this way you as parents can help your child develop a life-long reading habit.

Newspaper In Education Week is to be celebrated during the week of March 6-10. This week is sponsored in Wisconsin through joint efforts of the Wisconsin State Reading Association, The Wisconsin Newspaper Association, and The Kewaskum Statesman. During this week, students in our classrooms will be discussing and sharing the power of the printed word. Many activities are planned to help our students understand how newspapers affect our daily lives.

Your support of the activities at school is appreciated. Together we can use the newspaper as an effective learning tool.

Sincerely,

Lana Kuehl

A Memorandum From Your Child

1. Don't spoil me. I know quite well that I ought not to have all I ask for. I'm only testing you.

2. Don't be afraid to be firm with me. I prefer it. It lets me know where I stand.

3. Don't use force with me. It teaches me that power is all that counts. I will respond more readily to being led.

4. Don't be inconsistent. That confuses me and makes me try harder to get away with everything I can.

5. Don't make promises...you may not be able to keep. That will discourage my trust in you.

6. Don't be too upset when I say "I hate you." I don't mean it, but I want you to feel sorry for what you have done to me.

7. Don't do things for me that I can do for myself. It makes me feel like a baby, and I may continue to put you in my service.

8. Don't make me feel that my mistakes are sins. I have to learn to make mistakes without feeling that I am no good.

9. Don't nag. If you do, I shall have to protect myself by appearing deaf.

10. Don't demand explanations for my wrong behavior. I really don't know why I did it.

11. Don't tax my honesty too much. I am easily frightened into telling lies.

12. Don't forget that I experiment. I learn from it, so please put up with it.

13. Don't protect me from consequences. I need to learn from experience.

14. Don't put me off when I ask HONEST questions. I really need to know.

15. Don't ever think that it is beneath your dignity to apologize to me. An honest apology makes me feel surprisingly warm toward you.

16. Don't worry about the little amount of time we spend together. It is how we spend it that counts.

17. Don't forget that I can't thrive without lots of understanding and encouragement, but I don't need to tell you that, do I?

TREAT ME THE WAY YOU TREAT YOUR FRIENDS, THEN I WILL BE YOUR FRIEND TOO.

REMEMBER, I LEARN MORE FROM A MODEL THAN A CRITIC!

Nintendo-good or bad
 Nintendo was given to my family for Christmas. I like to play it a lot. My mom thinks we play it too much. It teaches us a choice to play fair or not fair. We have a chance to compete against another person. And, it can also teach us patience and to understand. But, when the patience ran out so did my mom's. We now play it twice a week. That is enough, we realize that there is other fun things than just Nintendo.

MOTHER'S LAMENT

My hands were busy through the day
I didn't have much time to play
The little games you asked me to
I didn't have much time for you.
I'd wash your clothes, I'd sew and cook
But when you'd bring your picture book
And ask me please to share your fun
I'd say: "A little later, son."
I'd tuck you in all safe at night
Hear your prayers, turn out the light

Then tiptoe softly to the door...
I wish I'd stayed a minute more.
For life is short, the years rush past
A little boy grows up so fast.
No longer is he at your side,
His precious secrets to confide.
The picture books are put away,
There are no longer games to play,

No good-night kiss, no prayers to hear
That all belongs to yesteryear.
My hands, once busy, now are still.
The days are long and hard to fill.
I wish I could back and do
The little things you asked me to.

Buettner to Co-Sponsor Child Abuse Bill

MADISON — A bill that would require judges to determine the "best interest of the child" is being introduced in the State Legislature, in response to child abuse cases like the Joshua DeShaney case, State Senator Carol Buettner (R-Oshkosh) said recently.
The bill, of which Buettner is a co-sponsor, provides that in child abuse and neglect cases, judges must use the "best interest of the child" standard when making a decision of whether or not a child should remain in or be returned to the home. Under current law, when a court exercising jurisdiction under the children's code makes a dispositional order, the court must ensure that the order employs those means necessary to keep children in their homes whenever possible, and also employs the least restrictive means of the rights of the child or parent.

"As unbelievable as it may seem, judges are often directed by current law to send many of these kids back into the home, even though there may be signs that abuse is taking place," Buettner said.
"The original intent of the requirement was well-intentioned, but it has led to too many situations where children were being sent back into the custody of abusive family members, only to be abused again," Buettner said.
The bill was introduced at the request of Channel 6, WITI-TV in Milwaukee after they ran an investigative series on child abuse.

WAYNE CRUSADERS

The January meeting was called to order at 7:20 p.m. by President Tim Herman. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved.

Members were also asked to participate in the 4-H trust fund bowl-a-thon. Teams will be chosen by the club officers at the next meeting. Roll call for the February meeting will be handmade Valentine cards for Grandma and Grandpa Koenig. Meeting was adjourned at 7:53 p.m.

Cancer Society's Jail and Bail

But, of course, it was all done in the goodnatured spirit of helping a worthy cause.

While the "judges" and "Criminals" were in the limelight, there were others working behind the scenes doing that ever important accounting and clerical work. In that area, the Core Committee was ably assisted by Julie McCoy, Mary Bartelt, and Julie and Donna Ogi.

Special recognition was given to four villainous individuals who really knew how to hit their "marks" for pledges. Three men, Dr. Stephen Van Ess, John Thull and Mitchell Ogi were able to raise more than $1,000 each in bail while Mel Gullickson raised over $900 in pledges.

We're extremely proud of these gentlemen and all the other men and women who graciously allowed themselves to be "arrested," noted Ogi. "Our fundraising figures equal very close to $300 per person arrested," said Ogi, "and according to the society, that appears to be one of the highest per-person ratios in the state for this event." The normal ratio is about $200 per person arrested. So we did very well."

Ogi again expressed a big 'thank you' on behalf of his committee and the American Cancer Society for the super response. The people of our community were terrific as far as participating in the event and in responding to the calls asking for their pledges.

John Thull, left, congratulated by Jail and Bail Committee Co-Chairman Mitch Ogi, right. Both men raised over $1,000 in pledges for the American Cancer Society's Jail and Bail.

Dr. Stephen Van Ess, left, was congratulated by Jail and Bail Co-Chairman Dr. Greg Ogi for his efforts in raising over $1,000 for the ACS.

"Judge" Jerry Kiefer helped set bail befitting the charges as alleged criminals were brought before him.

Charlene Barutha of West Bend Savings and Loan, charged with "moonlighting evenings as a cashier at Valley Bank's drive-thru window." (Those dangerous ones are always brought in with the "cuffs" on).

Mike Enright doesn't look very happy as Judge Kiefer charges him with not showing his veterinarian any respect.

Is that a look of real innocence on the face of Gladys (Buffy) Seefeldt, center? Her charges — "practicing medicine without a license by serving 'Buffy Burgers' as a cure for constipation. On her right is Wayne Rimmel and to her left is Patty Seefeldt, also of Buffy's.

Water Pollution Control Department employee Bob Manthei, left, was brought in "cuffed" by Kewaskum Police Chief Richard Knoebel. The charge — bottling and selling waste treatment water as generic "Perrier" substitute.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

First letter to the editor,
Kewaskum Statesman

March 6, 1989

Dear Concerned Voting
Member of the Community:

Allow me to introduce myself as one of three candidates, for the two positions open, on the Kewaskum School Board. My name is John C. Schulte. I grew up in Marshfield, WI and have been a member of your community for almost three years, and I love being here. I have operated my own business, Northern Moraine Auto Body, for over two years and also driven bus route #1, for one year. Of my three children, one no longer attends high school here, one is a freshman at our high school, and the third isn't old enough for kindergarten. (I will have many years of interest in our schools at this rate.) I am also a voting member of the Kewaskum United Way.

I seek a position on the board simply because I truly care about our children's education. Not just what they aren't being taught but also the wrong things they are taught. My children are not the only ones I live with and neither do you. From the day you are born to the day you die, you will be living with children and children who become adults. They will have a part in your life, either as desirable contributors or deficits to society, and our first basic institution - the family.

I have attended several board meetings in the past year and some committee meetings. This community is a great pro-family, christian community with many well informed concerned people and I couldn't be happier than to live and work here. I do see some unfulfilled needs that require civic involvement. As you will realize where I stand on issues of concern to us all, I hope you will stand behind me and allow me to represent you.

Sincerely,
John C. Schulte

GIRL SCOUT WEEK MARCH 12-18

Girl Scouting has had many faces since it began in 1912. This year, as we celebrate our 77th anniversary during Girl Scout Week, March 12 - 18, we also celebrate more than 50 million women who got a head start on their futures through Girl Scouting.

And we celebrate nearly three million current members, girls and adults from every walk of life, every corner of the globe. Faces of Girl Scouting in the Kewaskum area alone number almost 275. Perhaps one of them is you. If not, one of them should be.

We invite you to join us in celebrating a great American tradition - Girl Scouting - the face of the future. Happy Birthday Girl Scouts!

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear son Michael Ehnert who passed away two years ago, March 13, 1987:

God gave us a son to brighten our day, someone to love and lead in his way.

He came to this world with such a pure heart, that his days here on earth were numbered from the start.

He gave us his smiles, his laughter and joy, and the world fell in love with our sweet, precious boy.

And when God called him home, he went with a smile, knowing we'd join him in just a short while.

Sadly missed by his family.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our very dear friend, Ann-Marie Horner, who died on February 16, 1989:

We are just a few of the very many who cared and loved her. It seemed as if Ann-Marie loved everybody. In school, there was never a moment when she didn't have the time for someone. Ann-Marie is an example of what we should all strive to be like. That is what will keep her spirit alive in everyone who knew her.

25 Years Ago

Kewaskum and southeastern Wisconsin dug out of its worst snow storm in years Thursday and Friday. The raging blizzard which left about 12 inches of snow on the ground in an eight-hour period, was accompanied by 40-mile-an-hour winds which piled up huge drifts.

The storm began with rain Wednesday evening, followed by sleet and the snow began falling shortly before 9:00 p.m. Many night shift workers in factories were snowbound. Some 30 of them spent the night at the Labor Center in the village where they sipped coffee and played cards throughout the night.

Leslie Ludwig, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ludwig, 1139 Midland Avenue was injured slightly when the bicycle he was riding was struck by an auto on Fond du Lac Avenue at the intersection with First Street on Thursday, Feb. 23.

The boy was crossing Fond du Lac at the center of the intersection when his bike was struck. Leslie complained of a headache and back pains.

Gerald Buchel, 20, of West Bend suffered possible chest and hip injuries Tuesday night when his car crashed on Hwy. 28 about 4.5 miles east of Kewaskum when the brakes failed. Buchel said he attempted to shift the vehicle into a lower gear in a futile effort to halt the auto.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hug, Kewaskum on Friday, Feb. 28. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Westerman, Kewaskum, on Monday, March

Kewaskum firemen were called out at 5 p.m. Saturday to put out a grass fire on land owned by "Bud" Korth south of the Hon-E-Kor Country Club along the Chicago and Northwestern railroad right-of-way.

50 Years Ago

March 10, 1939

Mr. and Mrs. William Bunkelman, Sr. esteemed residents of this village, had the rare distinction of celebrating their 55th wedding anniversary at their home last Thursday, March 2.

A bridal shower was given in honor of Mrs. Lloyd Lemke of Campbellsport at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Fisher, Des Plaines, Ill. About 45 guests were present from Des Plaines, Parkridge and Chicago.

Coach Gibson's Kewaskum High School basketball squad, after winning the championship of the Fox Valley Tri-County conference, played its worst basketball of the season in the Class "C" District tournament at Pewaukee last Wednesday through Saturday and failed to win a game.

Mrs. Harvey Backhaus, 29, nee Edna Rammel of the Town of Scott, passed away Sunday, March 5, at St. Nicholas Hospital, Sheboygan, where she had been a patient for 14 weeks following a gallstone operation.

Frank M. Enfelt, 62, former mail carrier and harness shop and tavern operator at Campbellsport passed away at his home Tuesday, March 7, following an illness of a few days with pneumonia.

John Schaefer, 88, marshall of the village of Campbellsport for many years and janitor at St. Matthews Church for 15 years, died at his home Monday, March 6, of a heart ailment.

Mr. and Mrs. E.F. Vilter of Milwaukee are the proud parents of a 7½ pound baby boy born March 6. Mrs. Vilter is remembered here as Miss Florence Rosenheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.P. Rosenheimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ernst, Jr. of Kewaskum are the parents of a daughter born Thursday, March 2, at the home of Mrs. Ernst's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kiersten of Empire.

Lyle Gibson of this village, instructor and athletic coach at Kewaskum High School, was stricken with an attack of appendicitis on Tuesday, March 7, and submitted to an operation the same day at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac. Mr. Gibson is recovering nicely.

County Historical Society Holds Annual Banquet, Dinner Meeting

On Wednesday, Feb. 22, the 2nd Annual Washington County Historical Society Old Settler's Club held their banquet at Greene's Fort Silver Inn, with about 70 people attending.

Mr. Oelhafen spoke about the early years of the Banquets before this one. Some of the speakers included:

County Board Chairman, Reuben Schmah, reminisced about his involvement in these banquets and how he hopes the Old Courthouse becomes available to them in the near future. It would help the Museum tremendously as to more room to expand, especially the Genealogy Department.

Daniel Schmidt from the Kewaskum Historical Society spoke about their Museum and history of Kewaskum.

Sylvester "Fat" Naumann, who served as Sheriff in the Old Jail, recalled many events of how prisoners were brought there and some that he even had to go by airplane and bring back to West Bend; his many years living in the quarters of the old jail, which has a house and how funny it was to see many, many lines of laundry hanging outside between the Courthouse and Old Jail.

Towards the end of the program Mr. Oelhafen again called on Sylvester Naumann who had a presentation to make to the Museum. Pres. Keith Keehn and Museum Aide Judy Giessen were called to the podium to accept from Mr. Naumann his badge, revolver and case, which will be put on display at the Museum for viewing.

The museum will be open on Sunday, March 12 from 2 to 4 p.m., depending on the weather.

The society's regular meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 21 at the Fifth Avenue United Methodist Church, 323 S. Fifth Ave. Newcomers are always welcome to attend these meetings.

Retired Persons, Chapter 401 Plan March Party

Lehman Notified of Highway 41 Study

MADISON....Alfred Benesch and Company of Kenosha has been hired by the Wisconsin Department of Transportation to study proposed improvements on Highway 41, according to State Representative Mickey Lehman (R-Hartford).

Improvements are planned for the Richfield interchange north to CTH DW. This study will determine what upgrades are necessary to gain freeway status for Highway 41 by eliminating hazardous intersections and upgrading certain designated interchanges.

The contract also calls for additional studies to look at the future need for additional driving lanes.

The preliminary meeting for the proposed Highway 41 project was held March 7th at Waukesha. Further public meetings are anticipated.

"Persons with questions are invited to contact me; I will in turn keep the public informed of progress and new developments," Lehman said.

Fond du Lac County Turkey Population Update

HORICON - The reintroduction of the wild turkey throughout southern Wisconsin continues at a steady pace. This is due to the Department of Natural Resources' transplant program. The last of Wisconsin's wild turkeys disappeared around 1885, due to non-regulated hunting, deforestation, and diseases. In 1976, the first reintroduction took place when turkeys from Missouri were released into southwestern Wisconsin. From the original 300 plus turkeys, their population has grown to more than 40,000 birds today.

The spread of the turkey continues as birds are trapped in winter and released into new areas. In 1985, 46 birds were introduced into the Northern Kettle Moraine State Forest. That population has grown to nearly 500. On February 27, 19 turkeys were released on private land in the drumlin region between Campbellsport and Eden. Once a population has become well established, a limited hunting season will be opened, as in the southwestern part of the state. Usually, a hunting season can open as early as six years following initial stocking if population growth is steady.

The success of the wild turkey restoration has come about for a number of reasons. In particular, these birds were taken from a wild population free of diseases and well suited to life in the wild. One of the greatest threats to the restoration program is the releasing of pen-reared birds in an attempt to "help the population." These game farm birds can infect the wild population with any of a number of diseases. Game farm turkey and wild turkey interbreeding can reduce survivability in the resulting offspring.

All released turkeys are marked with colored wing tags - red for hens and yellow for toms and jakes (immature males). This aids in identification and tracking their movements. Some of the ways people can help the wild turkey is by reporting sightings of these birds. Make note of the location, date, number of birds sighted, and the colors and numbers on the wing tags. Landowners near release sites can help by practicing good woodlot management, emphasizing mast or nut producing tree species. Regular spreading of manure in winter and delaying the plowing of corn stubble until spring will help provide additional food for turkeys during the winter.

It's great news to have the turkey doing so well in Wisconsin after nearly 100 years of absence. The wild turkey once again fills our woodlands with its growing numbers and its spring gobbling, to the thrill of sportsmen and other outdoor enthusiasts.

Ripon College 'Red Night' Held

On Wednesday, Feb. 22, Ripon College sponsored basketball "Red Night." The event, which was originated in 1976, gives everyone in attendance a chance to show their support for the Redmen by wearing something red.

This year "Red Night" featured a basketball doubleheader that was interesting and exciting for everyone. The first half of the doubleheader saw the Ripon-UW-Platteville women's game which started at 5 p.m. and the second half, the Ripon-St. Norbert men's game which started at 7:30 p.m.

"Red Night" is also the last action of the season for both the men's and women's teams and marks the end of three memorable individual careers at Ripon.

Men - Tyrone Kleinhans (Menomonie, formerly of Kewaskum) - Tyrone is a history major, the team captain, and the team's leading scorer with 374 points. His 1141 career points ranks him at number seven on the Redmen all-time scoring list. Kleinhans, who was a first-team all-conference performer last year, is a sure bet to repeat this year. He was also named first team all-conference in baseball as a sophomore and junior. Tyrone, the son of Jim and Penny Kleinhans, is probably the best 6'2" post player in NCAA III; Pat Broeske (Abbotsford) - Pat is an economics major and four-year letterwinner in the basketball program. Although his career has been plagued by numerous injuries, Broeske has made a significant contribution to Ripon's championship efforts. Pat, the son of Marv and Kay Broeske, is a great example of the determination and perseverance of the Ripon

College athlete.

Women - Sandy Secor (Kewaskum, WI) - Sandy is an honor student in chemistry, the team captain, and the only senior on the women's roster. Secor is also the captain of the volleyball and softball teams where she has received all-conference mention. She received honorable mention recognition in volleyball as a junior and senior and was named to the first team in softball as a junior. She also lettered on the women's track team as a freshman. Sandy, the daughter of Gerald and Mary Secor, has been very instrumental in the success of women's athletics at Ripon College.

The oldest man to win an Olympic boxing gold medal was Richard K. Gunn of England who won the featherweight title in 1908 at the age of 38.

ORDINANCE NO. 01-02-89

AN ORDINANCE CLASSIFYING TOWN HIGHWAY AND ESTABLISHING SPECIAL AND SEASONAL WEIGHT LIMITATIONS THEREON

THE TOWN BOARD OF THE TOWN OF KEWASKUM, WASHINGTON COUNTY, WISCONSIN, ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Class "B" Highways Designated. Pursuant to SS 348.16, Wis. Stats., the highways maintained by the Town are designated Class "B" highways, pursuant to SS349.15, Wis. Stats. No person shall operate any vehicle or combination of vehicles imposing wheel, axle, group of axles, or gross weight on any Town highway which exceeds 60% of the weight limitations for Class "A" highways as set forth in SS348.15(3)(c).

Section 2. Special and Seasonal Weight Limitations.

(a) The Town Chairman is empowered to exercise the authority granted by SS349.16(1), Wis. Stats., to impose temporary seasonal special weight limitations on any Town road or portion thereof which, because of weakness of the roadbed due to deterioration or climatic conditions or other special or temporary condition, would likely be seriously damaged or destroyed in the absence of such special limitations.

(b) Imposition of the special weight limitations authorized by sub. (a) above shall be done by erecting signs on or along the highway on which it is desired to impose the limitation sufficient to give reasonable notice that a special weight limit is in effect and the nature of that limitation.

(c) The Town Chairman is further empowered to exercise the discretion authorized by SS349.16(3), Wis. Stats., to exempt vehicles carrying certain commodities such as construction materials and fuel from the limitations imposed by sub. (a) above or to set different weight limitations than those imposed by sub. (a) above for vehicles carrying such commodities if, in the judgment of the Chairman, the exemption or limitation is reasonable and necessary to promote the public health, safety and welfare.

Section 3. Penalty. Any person violating this ordinance may be penalized as follows:

(a) If the weight exceeds by 1,000 lbs. or less the maximum set forth in said ordinances and posted as provided therein, a forfeiture of not less than $50.00 nor more than $100.00 upon the first conviction together with the costs of prosecution, and, upon the second and each subsequent conviction within a 12 month period, a forfeiture of not less than $100.00 nor more than $200.00 plus the costs of prosecution.

(b) If the weight exceeds by more than 1,000 lbs. the maximum set forth in said ordinances and posted as provided therein, the forfeiture shall be computed according to the following schedule:

1. For the first conviction, a forfeiture of not less than $50.00 nor more than $200.00 plus an amount equal to: 1c for each lb. of total excess load when the total excess is not over 2,000 lbs; 2c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 2,000 lbs. and not over 3,000 lbs; 3c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 3,000 lbs. and not over 4,000 lbs; 5c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 4,000 lbs. and not over 5,000 lbs; 7c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 5,000 lbs.

2. For the second and each subsequent conviction within a 12 month period, a forfeiture of not less than $100.00 nor more than $300.00, plus an amount equal to: 2c for each lb. of total excess load when the total excess is not over 2,000 lbs.; 4c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 2,000 lbs. and not over 3,000 lbs.; 6c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 3,000 and not over 4,000 lbs.; 8c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 4,000 lbs. and not over 5,000 lbs.; 10c for each lb. of total excess load if the excess is over 5,000 lbs.

(c) In determining whether a second or subsequent conviction has occurred within a given 12 month period, either the original judgment of conviction in trial court of the affirmation of the judgement by an appellate court, if judgment has been affirmed, may be counted. This method of counting is authorized to effectively reach the repetitious violator and to prevent misuse of the right of appeal for the purpose of forestalling imposition of the penalties provided by this ordinance. Forfeiture of deposit or payment of a forfeiture is a conviction within the meaning of this ordinance.

Section 4. Severability. If any provision of this ordinance is determined to be invalid or unconstitutional, or if the application of this ordinance to any person or circumstance is invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality will not affect the other provisions or applications of this ordinance which can be given effect aside from the invalid or unconstitutional provision or application.

Section 5. Effective Date. This ordinance shall, in accordance with sec. 60.80(2), Stats., take effect the day after its publication as a Class 1 notice under ch. 985, Stats.

Seniors Awarded $1,000 Mini-Grant New Equipment Added to KHS Weight Room

The weight room at Kewaskum High School is starting to "come alive" not only with track members working out for the upcoming season but also with newly acquired equipment.

Seniors Joel Serwe and Marty Schulteis took it upon themselves to work on a $1,000.00 mini-grant through our Student Assistance Program. (Mini-grants are competitive grants written by students and awarded upon the basis of DPI regulations as how effective they would be as an alternative to drinking). These boys wrote for a grant for the Power-Lifting Club which uses the weight room as an alternative to drinking and other chemical use. Recently they found out their work proved profitable as they were selected as one of the twelve clubs or organizations from the state to be awarded a $1,000.00 mini-grant. The result is the new equipment in the weight room which includes the following:

A PEC-total machine for arm and chest strengthening; a competitive flat bench for arm and chest development; a leg flexor and leg curl machine for development of the upper leg muscles; and an arm curl isolator for upper arm development.

This equipment will aid in the development of many of our young athletes at Kewaskum High School and as the Weight Room becomes an even bigger success, the efforts of these fine senior athletes won't be forgotten. Serwe and Schulteis deserve to be recognized for helping make Kewaskum High School and our Weight-Lifting program a success.

If anyone in the community is interested in helping out our weight lifting program with a contribution, please contact the High School office.

The youngest individual Olympic winner was American Marjorie Gestring who took the springboard diving title at the age of 13 years 268 days at the 1936 Olympics.

Fighting for a rebound (which were hard to come by in this game) include #40 Mike Heberer, #22 Bruce Waechter, and #30 Mark Heather. Howards Grove controlled the boards and the game in the 76-61 loss.

Coach Dale Schatz peps his team up during sub-regional play at the Kewaskum Fieldhouse Tuesday night.

Our 'work force' behind the scenes of our varsity boys basketball games include, left to right, Bill Lickel, announcer; Ed Sleger, official scorekeeper and Walter Bade, official timekeeper. The Kewaskum Athletic Department thanks these men for their fine work throughout the basketball season. Lori Telschow photos

What started out as "looking good" for our Indians turned into "looking bad" as Kewaskum Indians bowed to the Howards Grove Tigers in sub-regional play in the fieldhouse Tuesday night, 76-61.

Kewaskum kept up with the Tigers throughout the first quarter and ended up being down by only two points 14-12 at the end of the quarter. Mark Heather and Randy Krell did the job for our Indian team providing some steals and inside board action to keep our Indians in the game.

Second quarter saw the Tigers break away and before Kewaskum could score a basket, Howards Grove upped their score to 22. Rich Radtke broke their scoring spurt with the first Kewaskum basket of the quarter. With 3:42 left in the quarter, Randy Krell picked up his 3rd foul which hurt our rebounding game. The Indians fought to within five points but could never get closer during this quarter and by half-time, the score was Howards Grove 34 - Kewaskum 25.

Throughout the second half of play, Kewaskum never could make up the scoring deficit and remained 'down 10-12 points throughout. Kewaskum sent the Tigers to the line 32 times as they had to foul to try to get back in the game. A disappointed Coach Schatz commented on the over-all season "It wasn't the way I expected. I thought we'd do better."

High scorers for the Indians were Mike Struebing with 11 points and Mike Ciriacks with 10 points.

UWWC Cagers and Coach Take All-Conference Honors

Two University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County women freshmen basketball players and their coach were selected by coaches from the Wisconsin Collegiate Conference for all-conference honors this week.

UWWC cagers Tammy Becker and Kelly Koller, who led the Wildcats to a WCC championship title last week, were chosen as members of the All-Conference team. The conference is made up of teams from the 13 UW freshman-sophomore centers.

Becker, a 5' 10" center and forward from West Bend East, was also named to the All-State Junior College basketball team by basketball coaches from all two-year colleges and vocational/technical colleges in the state.

Koller, a 5' 6" point guard also attended West Bend East.

Wildcat coach Tom Brigham was voted Coach of the Year for the eastern division of the conference.

Brigham's team finished the 1988-89 season with a 13-6 record.

Both Becker and Koller were instrumental in leading the UWWC cagers to victories this season, usually alternating as high scorers for the team from game-to-game, Brigham said.

After clinching the Eastern Division conference title by defeating UWC-Fond du Lac, the Wildcats went on to take the UWWC championship on Feb. 18 by beating UWC-Marathon County. It is the first conference championship for the UWWC women since 1981.

The coach also commended the other members of his team for their outstanding play on the court this season, including Deb Gerner of Newburg and five West Bend women: Tisha Warda, Patricia Dorn, Melissa Gundlach, Amy Tousey and Chris Reth.

Brigham had special praise for Becker and Koller and the way they worked together. He cited their unusual ability to "ad lib" off Wildcat patterns, crediting four years on the same high school team under Rick Riel, described by Brigham as "one of the premiere high school coaches of the state."

In recapping the season, Brigham called Becker "the dominant force inside for the Wildcats, regardless of how big her opponents were." Koller, he said, could shoot from outside and was a good ball-handler able to "penetrate through the seams" of opponents' defenses.

"Both players possess triple threat ability," he said, showing the ability "to pass the ball, drive with the ball and shoot with the ball."

Brigham also received Coach of the Year awards in women's basketball for the 1981-82 and 1982-83 seasons. In 1984, he received the honor in soccer.

The coaching awards share the limelight on Brigham's office bulletin board with another honor. He received it last year from his daughter Jennifer, a freshman at Kewaskum High School. The award reads: "Number One Daddy in the World."

"Guess which award I like best," Brigham said.
