Regal Ware to Hire 225 Workers

KEWASKUM, WIS. Regal Ware, Inc. will hire 225 production workers at its Kewaskum facility to handle the manufacturing from its plant in Virginia Beach, Virginia, and to help produce its new line of water purifiers.

According to company officials, the Virginia Beach facility is being closed to streamline its operations, a move necessary to remain competitive in a rapidly changing worldwide marketplace. Production at Virginia Beach will cease some time in fall, but equipment and tooling will be transferred here gradually, beginning about May 1. Manufacturing processes have become more efficient and less space is required to produce the same number of products. This facility has the floor space readily available.

Traditionally, this plant has produced range-top cookware and non-motor-driven appliances. The move will expand production to include such housewares as electric knives, food processors and its step-up line of automatic drip coffeemakers.

New technology being brought into this plant will include plastic injection molding which will operate twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. Through an agreement with its bargaining unit (AIW Local #849), the company will institute a new employment structure that will include regular fulltime workers and those who will work 12-hour weekend shifts. All are permanent positions, not summer jobs.

In positions where specific training is required, Regal Ware will work jointly with Moraine Park Technical College to train the new employees for new production operations.

Applications are already being taken, with hiring to begin May 1 for those people needed to start work May 15. All new jobs are expected to be filled by July 31. Most new jobs are semi-skilled assembly and material handling that will pay $5.75 to $6.25 an hour. A few skilled positions are in the range of $9.50 to $12.50 per hour.

The company is the largest local employer and currently has 650 people at Kewaskum which is also corporate headquarters. In addition to local people and those in Washington County, the company hopes to attract workers from Sheboygan, Fond du Lac and Dodge Counties.

Some of the new employees are needed to handle the increased sales of Regal Ware's new line of water purification and treatment systems currently produced here.

Regal Awards Scholarships

Chad Schmidt

Regal Ware, Inc. has awarded the 1989 J.O. Reigle Scholarships to Chad Schmidt and Kristopher Follmann, seniors at Kewaskum High School. The $6,000 scholarships are offered annually and now provide $1,500 a year for a four-year college program.

Chad Schmidt has a 3.95 grade point average and is number one in his class. He is a member of the cross country, wrestling and golf teams, National Honor Society, Key Club Varsity Club, Badger Boys State and the school newspaper staff. Outside of school, he enjoys cross country skiing and computer programming.

Schmidt plans to attend either Illinois Institute of Technology, Purdue University or Massachusetts Institute of Technology to pursue a program in aerospace engineering. He is the son of Lee and Barbara Schmidt of Kewaskum.

Kristopher Follmann holds a

Kristopher Follmann

3.90 grade point average which ranks him number two in his class. He is a member of the cross country and track teams, and the Varsity Club. Outside of school he likes to paint, play the guitar, read and draw.

Follmann, who also hopes to be an aerospace engineer, will begin studies at the University of Wisconsin - Washington County in the fall. He then hopes to transfer to the University of Arizona. He is the son of Reinhard and Rosalie Follmann of Kewaskum.

Regal's scholarship program was established in 1963 in honor of the housewares firm's founder, the late J.O. Reigle. The award recognizes the outstanding scholastic achievements of one or more graduating seniors at Kewaskum Community High School. It is designed to assist them in their pursuit of a meaningful college education.

Election Tuesday

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Village of Kewaskum, Town of Farmington and Kewaskum's Board of Education are the only local elections which have competition for some of their offices on the April 4th ballot.

In the village, incumbent board president Paul Blumer, a salesman for a local car dealership, will be challenged for his post by retired Kewaskum Police Chief Donald Hlavaty.

Although the terms of three trustees also expire, there will be no competition for the seats despite the entrance of a new face on the political scene. Incumbents Mary Krueger and Kenneth Bonlender will be seeking re-election. However, the third incumbent, Charles Boegel, will not seek re-election, thereby leaving a position open for newcomer Vincent Groh.

In the Town of Farmington there will be competition in the race for town treasurer where first-time candidate Nancy Rodenkirch will be challenging incumbent Kurt Schmidt for the post.

Schmidt was appointed to complete the unexpired term of former town treasurer Kenneth Ramthun who resigned from the position when he moved out of the township. Schmidt will be seeking his first full term.

Incumbent supervisors Francis Mayer and Joseph Sekeres will be challenged by Richard Schneider and James Degnitz.

In the Kewaskum Board of Education election, incumbent Clara Trapp, 76, a retired farmer from Beechwood, will be challenged by two newcomers, Paul Seymour, 38, Town of

Rezoning Requests Could Mean Additional Growth for Village

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

One of the largest agendas in recent memory was addressed by the Kewaskum Plan Commission Tuesday night. It contained three petitions for re-zoning, review of a fourth project and approval of a final plat map for a fifth project.

Coming before the Commission was the final plat map for the Creekview Estates project of James Wessing, Kewaskum. On a unanimous vote, the Commission agreed to pass the plat on to the Village Board and State for final approval. Once that approval is received, Wessing can begin construction of his apartment project on the land formerly known as the Ideal subdivision, located on the northwest side of the village.

A request for the re-zoning of a 1.93 acre parcel of land located north of the Kewaskum Mall on Timblin Drive will be passed on to the board for action. Tom Timblin is seeking a zoning change from R-1 single family, to R-4 multi-family residential, for the purpose of constructing a 24-unit apartment building. A public hearing on that request has been set for April 17th.

The Commission also reviewed a certified survey map and request for re-zoning of a 1.28 acre parcel of land adjacent to 127 Elm Street. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Heberer are requesting a zoning change for the property from R-3 duplex, to R-4 multi-family residence. That request will also be passed on to the Village Board with a public hearing scheduled for April 17th.

A third request for both re-zoning and a conditional use permit for the property at 1139 Fond du Lac Avenue (Thee Avenue), drew more lengthy discussion.

Mr. Scott Hayes of Wisconsin Elder Care, Inc. is proposing to convert the building into an Elderly Community Based Residential Family (CBRF) unit.

Tax Referendum Could Open One Big Can of Worms

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Although most electors are expected to vote for the tax referendum listed on the April 4th ballot, some state legislators and economists are questioning the wisdom of that referendum which would allow revision of a section of the state's constitution relating to taxes.

The referendum itself would only amend the Constitution requiring that taxes be applied uniformly. The wording in the referendum is very complicated and confusing as to just what form that tax relief will take. The amendment, if approved, would permit selective rebates and there are feelings that will lead to some very heated discussions in the Legislature this spring.

Some officials say the Democrats would use the amendment to pass a "3% Solution" plan which is being pushed in conjunction with the referendum. Those backing the 3% solution say the plan would limit a taxpayer's property tax liability to 3% of his income.

Opponents of that plan say it would exclude most taxpayers and only about 30% of Wisconsin's 2.1 million taxpayers would receive anything. That group would get an average credit or refund of about $528.

The 3% solution would send state revenues directly to the individual taxpayer who would receive credits on his state income tax return or a refund if no income taxes were owed.

While the plan sounds simple in itself, there are restrictions. Property taxes above $2,500 would not be offset at all. Families with incomes over $83,000 would not qualify and the maximum refund would be $1,000 but no rebates could exceed 80% of the property taxpayer's liabilities.

Another down side of the plan is that these refunds are considered income and would be subject to both federal and state income tax, thereby reducing their value. Another point which might make the plan less palatable is, those who received rebates under the 3% plan would not be eligible for refunds under three existing property tax programs, Homestead Relief, Farmland Preservation and the Property Tax - Rent Credit.

The plan could become a situation of robbing Peter to pay Paul. Even if implemented, it does not limit tax increases by schools and municipalities which would feel the brunt of this proposal. Some state officials feel, in fact, the refunds could cause local taxing bodies to adopt larger levy increases to offset the loss of funds received from the state.

Although the 3% plan is being pushed along with the referendum, it would require separate legislation of its own. Approval of the referendum would merely open the door for the 3% plan, the proposal itself, would require separate action by the Legislature and approval by Gov. Thompson.

Kewaskum Village Administrator Dan Schmidt and Kewaskum School Board member Neal Weare are among several local officials who have expressed their reservations with the 3% solution plan.

"I believe there is a serious need for some form of property tax relief and I am all for the idea," said Schmidt, "however, I do not believe the 3% plan is the solution." Schmidt noted the money is going to come from taxes one way or another. He felt that a great deal more study and research was needed on the part of the legislators before they presented a plan.

In addressing the issue at a past school board meeting, Weare said his feelings were that the School Board should be in opposition to the plan until the Legislature comes up with some specific details and a program which set down exactly how the plan will work and where the money is going to come from.

The 3% solution does have one legal hitch in that it potentially violates the Constitution's uniformity clause.

Auburn Charities Return Generous

This year as in the past the "four Charities" envelopes were sent out with the Auburn taxes. Every year between 600 and 700 envelopes are sent to the residents of Auburn. This year there were only 62 donors, but the generosity of these good people gave a total of $806.00 as follows: Heart $215.50, Red Cross $177.50, Cancer $219.50 and Arthritis $193.50.

The cost of the envelopes was $31.70. After deducting this amount, checks were sent as follows: Heart $207.58, Red Cross $169.58, Cancer $211.57, Arthritis $185.57.

Marie Mathieu, Alice Marchant and Catherine Strassburg wish to thank these 62 donors for this year's generous amount and ask the good people of Auburn to remember the "Charities" when the envelope comes next year. Also a big thanks to Maureen Heberer for inserting the envelopes in the tax papers.

Election

Wayne, a self-employed engineer and John Schulte, Town of Scott, owner and operator of Northern Moraine Auto Body.

Incumbent Ralph Horner, who presently serves as board president, has decided not to seek re-election. That will leave three candidates vying for the two open seats on the board.

In the Town of Kewaskum all incumbents will be running unopposed. They are chairman George Allmann, supervisors Daniel Stoffel and David Dorn, treasurer Dolores Prost and clerk Barbara Hinz.

Unopposed incumbents in the Town of Auburn are chairman Roger Schleif, supervisors Ervin Seifert and Kenneth Jandre, treasurer Maureen Heberer and clerk Camilla Butzke.

For the Town of Wayne, the unopposed candidates are chairman Carl Hohlweck, supervisors Mark Strobel and Leonard Peter, treasurer Gerald Schulz and clerk Orville Kern.

In the Town of Scott, Larry Martin is running for the post of town chairman. Charles Fick who presently holds the post has decided to retire and will not seek re-election. On the balance of the town's ballot, incumbent supervisors Clarence Janz and Dale Burke, treasurer

Marie Edeler and clerk Lester Benzschawel are all running unopposed.

On the state level, electors will be voting for State Supreme Court Justice and State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

In the judicial race, incumbent Judge Shirley S. Abrahamson will be challenged for her post by Ralph Adam Fine of Milwaukee.

Incumbent State Superintendent of Public Instruction Herbert J. Grover will be facing off against challenger Arlyn F. Wollenburg who has made several unsuccessful bids for the post in the past.

One ballot item of great importance to all voters is the referendum regarding a revision of the state's constitution under Section One of Article VIII, concerning property taxes, sales taxes and tax credits.

Four Local Teams Move On to State OM Competition

The annual Odyssey of the Mind regional competition took place Saturday, March 18th at the West Bend High Schools.

More than one hundred teams in grades 3 through 12 from schools all over southeastern Wisconsin participated in the all-day event, acting out solutions to various problems.

Kewaskum will send four teams to the state competition in Stevens Point next month - three high school teams, and one middle school team.

In Division II - grades 6 to 8, Kewaskum Middle School placed first in the category "Cause and Effect," in which participants had to design a system to perform a set number of tasks.

In Division III - grades 9 to 12, Kewaskum High School teams took first place in three categories; "Cause and Effect," "Just in Time" - in which students had to exchange costumes using a transportation system of battery - powered vehicles, and "Classics - Ye Gods" where students had to write and perform an advertising campaign using mythological characters.

A Farmington - Wayne Elementary team also deserves mention for placing second in Division I - grades 3 to 5, in the category "Classics."

The Rinatra Fusca award for special creativity was also awarded to Kewaskum Middle School, "Cause and Effect."

We wish all our OM teams good luck at state competition.

DIVERTICULOSIS

Only 1 in 10 Americans develop diverticulosis by age 40, however 2 out of 3 do so by age 60. It consists of little pouches or hernias in the wall of the colon caused by repeated straining to expel hard stools. Problems arise when the contents of the intestines move sluggishly and some is forced into the pouches to become plugged and infected. Plenty of fluid [8 glasses a day] plus adequate fiber diet usually prevents complications. Laxatives irritate the colon and are not advised for diverticulosis.

Leona Thull to Compete In Miss TEEN Pageant

Leona Thull

Miss Leona Thull, age 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thull of 8650 Kettle Moraine Dr., Kewaskum, has been selected to compete in the MISS T.E.E.N. Pageant to be held at the Hilton Convention Center in Oshkosh, on July 21-23 1989. In her pageant, Leona and other 13 to 18 year olds will be honored and recognized for their achievements, personally, in school, and in their communities.

Leona and other young ladies from the state who will participate in the pageant are required to participate in the Volunteer Service Program. Through this program many teen girls are becoming involved in community activities by contributing at least 12 hours of time benefiting those less fortunate than themselves. This past year, Miss T.E.E.N. contestants, because of the volunteer service requirement, have donated over 300,000 hours of time across the country to many volunteer and civic organizations.

During the Pageant Events, contestants will participate in a leadership training seminar, and will be judged on scholastic achievement, volunteer service, talent or speech, personal interview, and formal presentation. Awards will be given in each category. State winners will move on to the National finals in Kansas City, Missouri.

Miss Thull's accomplishments and hobbies are: biking, walking and playing some tennis in the summer. In the winter she likes to go snowmobiling and sno-tubing. She won the "Name the Old Park" contest when she was 10 years old, which is River Hill Park, and in August of 1983 Leona competed in the Wisconsin State Fair poster contest. She and others had to draw on the theme "Wisconsin Forests, A Living Community," and received a 1st place plaque for 5th grade. Leona's plans for after high school are going on to college for cosmetology.

Her sponsors are her family, John Thull - her godfather, the Randy Frank family, Honeck

PLAN COMMISSION

The plan would renovate the structure into a residential facility which could house eight residents.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt advised the Commission that because Hayes' project falls into the same classification as the Exodus House, state law requires a distance of at least 2,500 feet between the facilities. The distance between Thee Avenue property and the Exodus House, however, is only 1,600 feet, which necessitates the request for the conditional use permit. Schmidt noted the state also tended to be lenient in granting variances for this type of facility.

Both Schmidt and Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling recommended the Commission consider a zoning change from B-2 commercial to I-1 Institutional rather than R-4. Zarling said he made the I-1 recommendation so that in the event the building was damaged more than 51% in any way and had to be rebuilt, new construction would be required to have a 25-foot front yard setback from the street. R-4 multi-family would require a 30-foot setback. Presently the building is situated right up to the sidewalk with no front yard space.

Several of the commission members had reservations about converting the property. Gerald Stollenwerk, however, noted that several individuals had made efforts to run a retail business at that location and been unsuccessful. "It's standing empty now," said Stollenwerk, "and if someone has the money for such a project, I think we should give them the opportunity to make it a running business."

Raynor Herriges noted he was not pleased about the project's layout as far as room sizes and bathroom facilities. Zarling said the Commission could pass on its recommendation noting any reservations it might have. Following those comments, the Commission voted to pass on a recommendation for re-zoning and a conditional use permit with its reservations concerning room size and toilet facilities. A public hearing on the requests has been set for May 1st.

Schmidt also advised the Commission that an unusual situation has arisen in that the person who purchased the land adjacent to the Sison Clinic has come back with yet another proposal for the property and, this too, is for CBRF housing like that being proposed for the 'Avenue' property.

That plan calls for two, fifteen bedroom units, each with its own toilet facilities. The problem is, noted Schmidt, that project, which is already approved R-4, may also need a conditional use permit. "It all depends on who gets their request approved and application into the state first. If Mr. Herro of the former Sison land project gets his application before Mr. Hayes, he will not need a conditional use permit since his property is 2,500 feet away from the Exodus House and technically the Wisconsin Elder Care project wouldn't be in existence yet. However, should Elder Care get its license first, there would only be 1,300 feet between it and the Herro property, thereby necessitating Herro's application for a conditional use permit. It's just a coincidence that both projects came up at the same time creating this situation," said Schmidt.

Reports on the annual programs, fund raisers and service projects were presented to Kiwanis members at a dinner meeting held at Glacier Inn on Monday, March 27.

In the discussion of miscellaneous business, Schmidt advised the Commission that the plan to extend the four lanes of Highway 45, north from Highway D (Near West Bend Elevator), to the village limits was again being reviewed. Schmidt said the project is on the DOT's books for construction in 1996. However, due to the fact that the Highway 45 Bypass has been moved up and all four lanes will be open by about October, there is a good chance the four-lane extension to Kewaskum could also be moved up to as early as 1994.

NOTICE OF REFERENDUM ELECTION APRIL 4, 1989

State of Wisconsin } ss. County of Washington)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that at an election to be held in the several towns, wards, villages and election districts of the State of Wisconsin, on the first Tuesday of April, 1989, being the fourth day of said month, the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin, having been approved by two successive legislatures, will be submitted to a vote of the people pursuant to law:

1989 Senate Joint Resolution 9

ENROLLED JOINT RESOLUTION 2

To amend section 1 of article VIII of the constitution, relating to state income tax credits or refunds for property or sales taxes due in the state (2nd consideration).

Whereas the 1987 legislature in regular session proposed an amendment to the constitution by 1987 Assembly Joint Resolution 117 (1987 Enrolled Joint Resolution 74) and agreed to it by a majority of the members elected to each of the 2 houses, which amendment reads as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of article VIII of the constitution is amended to read:

(Article VIII) Section 1. The rule of taxation shall be uniform but the except as follows:

(1) The legislature may empower by law authorize cities, villages or towns to collect and return taxes on real estate located therein by optional methods.

(2) (a) Taxes shall be levied upon such real property with such classifications as to forests and minerals including or separate or severed from the land, as the legislature shall prescribe by law.

(b) Taxation of agricultural land and undeveloped land, both as defined by law, need not be uniform with the taxation of each other nor with the taxation of other real property.

(3) Taxation of merchants' stock-in-trade, manufacturers' materials and finished products, and livestock need not be uniform with the taxation of real property and other personal property, but the taxation of all such merchants' stock-in-trade, manufacturers' materials and finished products and livestock shall be uniform, except that the legislature may provide in law that the value thereof shall be determined on an average basis. Taxes may also be imposed

(4) The legislature may by law impose taxes on incomes, privileges and occupations; which such taxes may be graduated and progressive, and reasonable exemptions may be provided.

(5) Subject to reasonable classification and to progressive effect on the tax system, the legislature may by law authorize credits or refunds for taxes due under property or sales taxes in this state from or against taxes imposed by this state on incomes, privileges and occupations.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the foregoing amendment to the constitution is agreed to by the 1989 legislature; and, be it further

Resolved, That the foregoing amendment be submitted to a vote of the people at the election to be held on the first Tuesday of April, 1989; and, be it further

Resolved, That the question concerning ratification of the foregoing amendment be stated on the ballot as follows:

QUESTION: "Tax credit or refund for property or sales taxes. Shall section 1 of article VIII of the constitution be revised, and shall an additional provision be created in that section, to allow the state of Wisconsin to provide by law property tax relief or sales tax relief, or both, to the citizens of the state, subject to reasonable classification and progressive effect on the tax system, by means of credits or refunds for taxes due under property or sales taxes in this state, to be credited against or refunded from taxes imposed by this state on incomes, privileges and occupations?"

EXPLANATION

Article VIII, section 1 of the Wisconsin Constitution requires that taxation of property must be uniform, assessed on the same basis and taxed at the same rate. The section presently allows forests, minerals, merchants' and manufacturers' inventories, farm animals and agricultural and undeveloped land to be treated differently. A yes vote on this constitutional amendment would further relax this requirement by allowing the legislature to enact laws which would permit property tax relief through a reduction in income taxes owing, or if there are no income taxes owing, direct payment from the state.

The amendment provides that any legislation must provide reasonable classifications of groups that will be eligible, and the change must have a progressive effect on the tax system. A yes vote would also make some technical changes in section 1, article VIII of the Wisconsin Constitution and change that section of the constitution from one paragraph to five numbered paragraphs. A no vote would retain the present language of section 1, article VIII of the Wisconsin Constitution, which would continue the requirement of uniform taxation of property with only the exceptions now allowed.

I, Arthur G. Degnitz, Washington County Clerk, certify that the proposed referenda set out in 1989 Enrolled Joint Resolution has been compared by me with the published copy of said resolution and is a true copy of said resolution.

Given under my hand in the City of West Bend, Washington County, this 20th day of March, 1989. ARTHUR G. DEGNITZ, COUNTY CLERK WASHINGTON COUNTY

A Special Person... For Special People

Jeaneen Kudek

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Jeaneen Kudek, of 529 Keller Street, Kewaskum, is an active member in her church and community. She is a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church's Christian Mothers and vice-president of District #13 of the Milwaukee Archdiocese Council of Catholic Women of which next month, she will become president. Jeaneen is also treasurer of the Kewaskum School District's Auxiliary Personnel Union and a member of the Special Olympics Kettle Moraine Area Committee.

With all these activities, however, there is something else which makes Jeaneen a 'special person' to a very special group of young people. To these youngsters she is known as Mrs. K. Kudek, teacher and coach. For ten years Kudek has played an integral and very important part in the lives of the Kewaskum School District's special education students, especially the Trainable Mentally Retarded children.

Jeaneen began working for the district in 1978 as a teacher's aide with the TMR class at Kewaskum Elementary School. While the class is housed at that school, the class itself contains a group of students of widely varied ages and disabilities. Her association with these young people, however, goes far beyond the classroom both literally and physically.

In the same year Kudek began as an aide, a young, energetic and dedicated teacher came to teach the TMR class. Her name was Kathy (TeWinkle) Charland. Together Charland and Kudek saw more for their students than just trying to provide them with an education. And so, in looking for ways to expand these youngsters' horizons, Charland with the help of Kudek began a Special Olympics team in 1980. Together they worked tirelessly to get support from parents and financial assistance from local organizations. Their efforts were rewarded and together the two women spent many hours training their athletes during the week and traveling to all the state and area meets on the weekends. So successful were their efforts that each year the team earned several first and second place slots at the regional meets earning them the right to participate in the state meets, both summer and winter.

In 1987 Kudek became head coach for the team and Charland left the district to teach in another community. Jeaneen did not, however, let the efforts of the two women fall by the wayside. She continued to head the team, working throughout the year training the athletes so they could experience and enjoy the thrill and fun of competing in a variety of sports.

As the team grew and the number of events in which the youngsters participated in, expanded, Kudek recruited new volunteers to work with the group.

Charland continued to help whenever possible as an assistant. The class's new teacher Marilyn Contrestan was added to the coaching staff. Jeaneen, however, did not stop there. She soon had other members of her family involved, her husband John and one of her two grown sons, Jeff, helped train the athletes for bowling and swimming. The recruiting did not stop there as Wayland Tessar, retired president of Valley Bank, and his wife added their assistance to the swimming training program. When one of the students' father retired he was quickly recruited as a trainer. Another student's brother soon began volunteering his time.

Jeaneen has faithfully worked to make certain the Special Olympics Team remains successful and continues to grow. This year she hopes to field a team of ten athletes.

Besides her association with the Special Olympics program, which meets the social and physical needs of the youngsters, Kudek saw there were spiritual needs to be met also. She took on another task, that of tutoring her church's special education students in its CCD and CYM programs.

Jeaneen has given freely and generously of her time, patience and love to her second family. There have been no monetary rewards but there have been smiles of triumph after struggle and hugs from those youngsters who have known Kudek over the years as more than just "a teacher's aide." All she has ever asked of them is work hard and try to do your best.

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the Editor:

I am writing this letter as a concerned resident of the Village of Kewaskum.

This letter is about a man who proudly represented our village in competition as an all star football player at our local Kewaskum High School in 19???. This man went on to make his home in this village for 37 years. A man whose interest and concern is for the good people who live here and take care of our village in a "team" effort.

I am personally quite proud of our village crew, who always go the extra yard to help all of us with our problems; who keep our village clean and make it a nice place to live.

We can be thankful for our law enforcement who make this a safe place to live and raise our families. Our sanitation dept. does all it can to provide us with a healthy environment.

According to the front page article in last weeks "Statesman" "Village In Good Financial Shape," our Village Board and Administration also deserve a pat on the back.

Let's take a closer look at this man's statistics. He not only made his home in this village for the past 37 years, he has had his own business here, and is presently employed with local business. This man volunteered his services with our local auxiliary police dept. for 27 years. He has served the village board for eight years, and has been president of the Village for the past two years. He is supportive in every possible way to the endless efforts of our "excellent" volunteer fire dept. and rescue squad. What would we do without these fine people and concerned citizens.

A member of a local church, this man is also a charter member and past president of our local Lions Club.

I guess what I am talking about here, is "Commitment." Commitment by a man who not only chose to live and raise his own family here, but has great concern for our village and its residents. He's "out there" with "the people." At church, at our local businesses, our village functions, the annual Firemans Picnic, and Lions Bar-B-Que. He always has an ear to listen to anyone with a question or comment concerning our village. He's available at all time, "with the people" not sitting in an office from nine to five.

We all have a chance to show "this man" our appreciation by voting for him again for another term of President of our Village of Kewaskum. Don't forget to vote, Tuesday - April 4th, 1989 for Paul Blumer - President.

I should know about this man and his interest and commitment to our village of Kewaskum. I've probably known him longer and better than anyone else in our fair village, and proud of it!

Respectfully,
Mrs. Kenneth Neldner

To the voters of the Kewaskum School District:

Again it is time to select and elect members to the Kewaskum School Board. I urge all eligible voters to exercise their rights and to cast ballots in this important election. Each and every vote does count!

Before you cast your ballot think back to what has been done - what has been said and who did and said what. Personal vendettas have no place on this board. They cost the district too many dollars. The children's future is in your ballot as well as your tax dollars.

I understand the district is now operating with a deficit budget and the predictions are for this deficit to increase by over 50% by the end of this school year. Is this problem possibly weak management, or a supervisory top-heavy organization with misalignment of priorities?

The present board has been unable to address the problems before it, so now is the time to make the changes necessary to correct the situation.

There are people willing to try to solve the problems of the board - I hope you will give them consideration.

Let's get back on the track of educating our children.

Citizens of the Kewaskum School District:

I hope I'm wrong! The April 4th election is now upon us and my major fear that you do not feel compelled to be involved in this district's $7.5 million dollar "business" of educating our children is emerging. Too many important issues are in our future to accept the "going-good" attitude. All citizens need to be involved, demand excellence, and expect this at a reasonable cost. Some very broad-based thoughts I would like to introduce for the long range future are: year-round schools, competitive education so that public education does not price itself out of business as it is doing now, and many more home-based educational plans to maximize the learning experience.

As a school board member today I see the need to challenge district's complete staff to be more creative, strive for more, demand more, and to not accept mediocrity. I feel I have the time and talent to dedicate and assist in this effort.

Parents; we must help, encourage, be part of, volunteer, and do more than we do now if our children are going to be able to keep up in our fast changing world. We can not go back in time as is suggested from time to time. History tells us that change is and will happen and the school must be the start and sound base for the learning process that will follow us the rest of our life. Thank - you.

Please vote on April 4th, your support is greatly appreciated.

Fourth letter to the editor,
Kewaskum Statesman

March 27, 1989

Dear Concerned Voting Member of the Community:

Be it known that not all board members have the same strengths and concerns. It would be disastrous if we all thought the same. Some will be more concerned with the qualities of the administrative staff, some with the curriculum being taught, or keeping the budget under control. For some it may be in providing or promoting extra curricular activities and sound health practices. Some of us will be like watch dogs, to oversee that maintenance of the buildings is properly and efficiently carried out; or that our children aren't subject to teachings or influences that break down the structure of the family. Whatever it may be, the board still must act as a unit.

I am ready, willing and able to serve YOU! My concerns are that the family retain responsibility and control of the children. That our District School Board be responsible and retain control of our schools rather than the state, thus, less taxes because of increased bureaucracy. Less taxes by knowing and meeting our districts individual needs, but, if more state mandates are imposed, that state taxes pick up the tab - continually.

Our teachers are great academically. Now we must insure they teach positive principles and require curriculum to be objective in content. Our children and we parents should feel prepared, when they graduate that they can enter the job market or further their education if desired to blend into society with the tools for a healthy lifestyle.

My wife Anne and I are parents of three children ranging in age from 4 to 18. My business of three years is successful. Three of my last five jobs in my career were that of manager. I have graduated from Marshfield Senior High, Mid-State Technical Institute and have a two-year associate degree in insurance and business from Madison Area Technical College. In all schools I earned a 3.5 grade point average or better.

By voting for me, you will be broadening the strengths of the board. There must be a balance of individual, fearless input, with the ability to educate and communicate and listen and learn, to vote accordingly.

For those of you who read the article in last weeks Milwaukee Journal regarding the candidates, I hope you will watch for this weeks corrections, which I submitted. The Journal editor says he will print it and give it prominence. I found the reporter's article to be very slanted. Thank You!

Sincerely,
John C. Schulte

March 23, 1989

Dear Editor:

The time is near for you as voters to decide your destiny. On Tuesday, April 4th, you will be asked to change the Wisconsin Constitution and surrender your protection against unfair taxes.

The referendum question will not lower your property taxes. What it will do is open the door to powerful special interest groups seeking property tax relief for their friends and leaving you to pay for it.

One plan that could result if voters approve this proposed constitutional change is the 3 percent solution. This plan would only help a small percent of taxpayers. It is unfunded and could eventually lead to a tax increase. The 3 percent solution contains no mechanism for controlling state and local spending - a major cause for high property taxes.

I urge you to think before you vote to change the Constitution. Do you want to give the Legislature freedom to spend your money on something that will help less than half of the property taxpayers?

There are a vast array of alternative property tax relief plans before the Legislature - plans which help everyone and don't require a drastic change to our State Constitution.

Respectfully,
Mickey Lehman
State Representative
59th Assembly District

To the voters of the Kewaskum School District:

I am a candidate for the Kewaskum School Board because things have changed considerably the past several months. The major reason for this is that we have an excellent administration that works well with the Board, faculty, support staff and community.

I have been a supervisor for the Town of Scott the past eleven years, and I have an excellent understanding of the local issues as well as those in Madison. Also, I am a member of the Building and Grounds, Policy, and Special Education Committees on the School Board. On the Building and Grounds Committee, starting back in 1983, the past Board wanted to have our tennis courts fixed; it never got done. However, this past summer it became a reality for a lot less money than we had been previously told. Like-new welders were given to the school this past summer. They were sitting there for lack of power. This fall our new administrator looked into it. After some discussion, I was one of them who said, "Let's get the electric power company to bring in a new line," and we got the job done. When a major tool was needed in the Industrial Arts Department, I asked the Board for it; that tool was long overdue as was the paint sprayer. My top priority has always been to provide an excellent education for our students at a price the taxpayers can afford. When our students leave high school, they should be prepared for success in college or have sufficient skills to find a job. Thank you for your support! See you at the polls April 4!

Sincerely,
Clara Trapp

Cedar Lake Home Sets Memorial Service

Lois Kesselhon

Mrs. Lois Kesselhon has been selected by the Cedar Lake Home Tri-Campus Resident Councils to be the guest speaker at its annual memorial service, Tuesday, April 4.

Each year, on the second Tuesday following Easter, the Tri-Campus residents hold memorial services in remembrance of residents who passed away the previous year. Family and friends of the deceased are invited to attend the service of their choice and the reception following.

Star Cablevision Announces Amnesty Period for Abusers

Star Cablevision of West Bend announces the instituting of their amnesty period during which time residents of the area who are knowingly receiving cable television service, or specialty channel programming without paying a monthly fee may come forward without fear of prosecution or be required to make back payment of cable service already enjoyed.

Theft of cable is the taking of cable service without compensation of Star Cablevision services, and is presently against the law. The Cable Communications Policy Act of 1984 enacted Federal Legislation and the 1987 Wisconsin Act 345 in which Wisconsin Statutes "Obtaining Telecommunications by Fraud" also outlaws cable theft.

"Our business is to provide entertainment and information," said Dean Sinclair, System Manager. "However, our securing of quality programming cost a great deal of money." "When someone obtains cable service without paying for it, the cost falls disproportionate among the law-abiding citizens." The amnesty period will be in affect until April 15, 1989. After that date, Star Cablevision will call upon local police to help enforce the law. A complete system audit is taking place now to determine who is participating in cable theft. "The last thing we want to do is prosecute someone," Sinclair said, "We would rather educate people than punish them, and some of these offenders don't even know what they're doing is against the law."

Cedar Lake Home Campus will hold its memorial service at 2:00 p.m. at Fellowship House. Cedar Ridge's memorial service will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the Ridge assembly/chapel hall.

Lois Kesselhon has been active with the Tri-Campus program for many years. She is a past president of the William Koehl Working Auxiliary and currently serves as its vice-president. Both her mother and mother-in-law are campus residents.

The deadline for the filing of nomination papers in the village of Kewaskum was Friday, March 20, for candidates for the three trustee offices to be elected at the April 7 spring election.

The incumbent trustees, whose terms expire, are Harold Degner, John Geidel and Arvin Merwin. Geidel and Merwin will be candidates for re-election, while the third, Degner, will not run on the ticket. Three new aspirants for the office who filed nomination papers are Paul Blumer, Carl Freehauf and Oscar Hirsig.

The Kewaskum Indians placed one player on the first team of the Scenic Moraine all-conference squad selected by coaches. The Indians copped second place in the conference, behind champion Grafton.

Mike Coulter, senior guard, second highest scorer in the conference with a total of 324 points for the season, was named to the first team, while Dan Survis, senior forward, another top scorer, was placed on the second squad.

Reports from Wolf River waters indicate the ice is about to go out and the walleye run will soon be on.

Carl Degnitz, aged about 55, was mysteriously beaten between the hours of 6:45 and 7:45 p.m. Wednesday evening March 29, in the barn on his farm located in the Town of Wayne, about three and one half miles west of Kewaskum, and was still unconscious at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac, at the time of this writing on Thursday.

Degnitz's attacker is unidentified, although he is believed to have been a farm hand who asked him for work, as no attempt of robbery was made on the premises.

According to Mr. Degnitz's sister Minna, she and her brother were doing chores when a roughly dressed farm hand came into the barn. Minna returned to the farmhouse to prepare supper. When her brother did not come in for his meal after an hour she went to the barn and found him lying unconscious on the floor. The farm hand had disappeared.

Fred Martin, 77, former resident of Kewaskum many years and village board member passed away at his home in West Bend, Thursday, March 23, following an illness of more than two months with heart trouble.

Mrs. Rose Skalisky, 84, beloved mother of E.E. Skaliskey of Kewaskum, Washington County Agricultural agent, was called in death last Sunday, March 26, following a minor illness of four months.

Mr. and Mrs. William Geidel, residents of the Town of Ashford, observed their fifty-fifth anniversary on Saturday, March 25. Their children and grandchildren joined the celebration which was held Sunday.

Fashion Design Class Makes the Grade

ONE SIZE FITS ALL... Mrs. Froelich's Fashion Design class recently completed the all new multi-purpose Booster Club vest. A slogan for the vest could be "Large, Tall or Small...We Fit 'Em All!"

The Fashion Design class of Mrs. Ginny Froehlich learned the concept of mass production is a unique, creative way this quarter... that of making Booster Club vests for our Kewaskum Boosters. Under the direction of Ms. Froehlich, who designed the "pattern," each girl in class helped piece together the vest in an assembly line process. The finished "product" is shown in the picture above and will be seen at the many Booster Club events in the future.

The assembly line workers were Jeanine Williams, Karin Robaek, Cindy Donath, Kim Gaffke, Lisbeth Rasmussen, Cori Oresnik, Vicki Schuh, Paulette Birkholz, Nicole Gaffke, Lauren Mielke, Lisa Miske, Becky Reysen, Jackie Taylor, and Laurice Thill. Said Mrs. Froehlich of the product, "It was an interesting experience and I feel all the girls benefited from seeing how a real assembly line operates by being involved in it."

Unexpected Warmup Causes Ice Jam

The Milwaukee River near the bridge on Main Street almost resembled spring in the Arctic on Monday morning. As the warm weather caused the ice to crack and shift, the flow caused a huge ice jam from the dam north past the bridge. As temperatures continued to rise, however, the jam broke up and by early afternoon the water was free flowing and the ice had disappeared. The river rose above its banks but caused no serious flooding problems. Residents along the river in Saukville were not as lucky as water there rose well above flood stage flooding basements and the first floors of some homes.

KMS Basketball Season Ends

The fortunes of the women's basketball team rode the roller coaster of success as the Redmen shot their way through an up and down season. The Redmen, who finished the season with a 7-14 record, 1-7 in the conference, were always exciting as they lived and died with the 3-point shot.

The 1988-89 season also marked the end of the basketball career of Sandy Secor (Kewaskum). Secor, who is an honor student in chemistry, team captain of the volleyball, basketball, and softball teams, and an all-conference performer in volleyball and softball, ended her career as Ripon's seventh all-time leading scorer with 580 points.

All-Conference - Kathy Russell
Most Valuable Player - Sandy Secor
Team Captain - Sandy Secor

Secor Ends Career at Ripon College As Seventh All-Time Leading Scorer

The Kewaskum Middle School 8th grade boys coached by Clark Pearson had a successful season this year ending at the .500 mark in the conference (5-5) and 5-7 overall.

The most exciting games of the season proved to be a one point win over Hartford, 45-44 and a mere four point win over Slinger 39-35.

Coach Pearson was quite impressed with his young Indians stating "The boys showed excellent hustle and played good defense all season long."

Members of this year's team included: Chad Bindrich, Doug
