Proposed Budget Up Almost 9% Over Last Year

Preliminary '89-90 School Budget Represents 22% Levy Increase

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum School District's administration was told by members of its school board Monday night that, the budget proposed for 1989-90 is unacceptable and reductions are going to have to be made somewhere.

The first draft of the proposed 1989-90 budget shows expenditures of $8,083,454, up $652,568 or 8.78% over 1988-89. Using those figures, the levy would come up to $4,293.854 for the General Fund, plus $60,500 for Debt Service. Based on the total tax levy of $4,351,188, that would represent an increase of approximately 22% over the 1988-89 levy. This would also mean a 22% increase in the mill rate, from $13.88 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, to $16.92 per $1,000. A hike of $3.04 per $1,000. On a $70,000 home this would equal an increase of $212.80.

Business Manager Cherna Gorder told the board those calculations were based on the assumption that there would be no increase in equalized valuation. She noted, however, that she anticipated some increase but declined to speculate how much. Unofficial projections from some municipal officials are ranging anywhere from a low of 1% to a high of 7%. Even if the valuation were to increase as much as a 7%, the proposed budget would still call for a mill rate of about $15.82.

Part of the large projected increase, noted Gorder, stems from the fact that the Department of Public Instruction has projected no new state aids as well as a projected loss of $70,000 in state aids for the Kewaskum School District due to declining enrollments. "The loss of state aids has to be made up in the tax levy," said Gorder, "what we don't get from the state we have to get from the taxpayers."

Perry Ankerson, who has been forecasting the inevitable for months, told the administration one of the few places where the district can make reductions of any consequence is in the area of staffing and teacher salaries. He noted an increase of 8.76% has been plugged into the budget. "Let's reduce that to the area of negotiations," said Ankerson, "4% plus increases for lane changes, for a total increase of 5.3%." If we end up going to arbitration, he noted, taxpayers and the arbitrator will know where we stand, this is all we're offering and we plan to stick to it.

KEYS $1,000 Scholarships Awarded

Mike Heberer

Bobby Castro

Denise Hlavaty

KEYS, (Kewaskum Youth Scholarships Inc.) has announced the recipients of their $1,000.00 scholarships to the following KHS seniors. They are: Mike Heberer, son of Norman and Maureen Heberer, Bobby Castro, son of Dr. and Mrs. Florizel Castro, and Denise Hlavaty, daughter of Donald and Gerda Hlavaty.

This selection was based on scholastic achievement, extra-curricular involvement, enthusiasm and desire for higher learning and community involvement.

These three fine Kewaskum seniors will be able to utilize their scholarships to help further their education in a college of their choice.

Heberer, who plans on pursuing a career in Business Financing at the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater, has been recognized in "Who's Who Among High School Students" in both his junior and senior year, and was also selected as an "Outstanding High School Student of America" for two years. He was Homecoming King this fall and the Kiwanis Student of the Month for December.

As far as extra-curriculars, Heberer has been involved in student government for three years, including class vice president. He's been active in the Letterwinners Club serving as both Vice President and President; has joined school plays, and baseball, basketball, and football all four years of his high school career. He's a member of the National Honor Society junior and senior year.

Heberer hopes by furthering his education, he will be a "contributing factor in family business," and feels a successful college education would accomplish this.

Castro plans to continue his education at Marquette University in the area of arts and sciences, once he completes his quite successful high school career. Castro has accumulated many honors which include being selected for the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Scholarship, Badger Boys State, D.A.R. Good Citizen Award, Smoke Signals Award, and Most Valuable Wrestler for 88-89. Castro qualified for state in wrestling this season, finishing fifth.

Castro has been involved in many various extra-curricular activities including Spanish Club, Key Club, Forensics, Letterwinners Club, Plays, Future Business, Leader's President, Student Government President and Treasurer and the Smoke Signals Newspaper staff, where he served as a Sports Editor for two years.

Castro's also played baseball and football for the Indians and has wrestled all four years of his high school career, which ended at state in Madison this year.

Castro feels a college education is significant to the

Class Cutbacks Will Mean Reductions In Staffing

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Perry Ankerson showed no mercy at Monday night's school board meeting as he went through a list of high school teachers and their class loads proposing consolidations, reductions and even elimination of some courses.

"I know I'm going to hear about this as soon as it hits the papers," he noted, "but this is the last place we, as a school board, have to make any significant reductions in the budget. I would like to see if we can eliminate three to five teaching positions."

Right off the top Ankerson's axe was aimed at trimming down the agriculture courses by recommending it be offered on an every other year basis. "I live in an area where the kids are heavily involved in Ag," said Ankerson, "I know my neighbors are going to be upset and on the phone to me." Ankerson told fellow board members, "If we don't have the interest I think we have to consider elimination." Ag I has 12 students and Ag II 13 students.

Ankerson's cuts were targeted at consolidating or eliminating classes or sections with low or small student numbers. It's nice to have small classes of ten or fifteen students he indicated, but if increasing class sizes is what it takes to eliminate staffing then that is what I propose, noted Ankerson. He has three children attending school in the district and his recommendations will affect them too. "I have no reservations of putting them into large classes," he stated. Ankerson indicated his goal was to save taxpayers money.

Ankerson recommended Computer Literacy be reduced by one section, from six to five, increasing class size from 19 to 23 students. He proposed the elimination of Office Procedures with only fifteen students or combining it with another business course, combining Development English 11 students and two sections of English 1A with 14 students each into two sections of 20 students. Condensing three sections of English Communications into two sections of 28 students each. Elimination of one Mass Media section down to three sections of 26 students each. Combining two sections of Computer Writing 2, with 13 students each into one class of 26. Consolidating German I into one class of 27 students. Combining four sections of Spanish II, into three with 30 per class. Condense Beginning Foods from three to two sections. Combine three sections of Single Living with 18 students into two sections of 24. Completely eliminate Consumer Management 16 students, and Housing and Home Furnishings 17 students. Reduce Child Development from five to three sections. Combine two sections of General Math into one of 28 students. Reduce three sections of Pre-Algebra to two sections of 29 students. Reduce Geometry from five sections of 22 to four sections of 27 students.

Change computer courses Basic I, 9 students, Basic II, 8 students and Pascal 11 students, into independent study courses. Phy Ed reduced from six sections of 23 to five sections of 27, four sections of Senior Phy Ed to three of 26

KHS Students Stage Sit-In

A majority of the Kewaskum High School student population took part in a "sit-in" Wednesday afternoon to protest the Kewaskum School Board's decision to reduce staffing at the school.

In order to restore order and return students to their classrooms, Assistant Principal Roy Esser suggested the students select a group to represent them in stating their views. He also suggested a more orderly approach to expressing their concerns would be the writing up and signing of petitions directed to the school board.

Budget

Board member Neal Weare said, "the thing that really hurts the most is you've got two classifications in the budget that increased by over $550,000 (salaries and employe benefits) and all the other classifications (the balance of the budget, increasing by only $100,000."

In reviewing the budget further, Ankerson told the administration he wanted it to go over the areas of "Purchased Objects, Non-Capital and Capital Objects and the Other Objects" classifications, with an effort at reducing expenditures to no more than 4% over last year's budget.

Some areas which carried hefty increases were Administrative Salaries up 16.2% or $46,197. Gorder noted, however, this included $20,000 budgeted for the part-time curriculum coordinator position recently approved by the board. Health insurance costs are projected to rise at least 22%. Non-capital Objects, Parts 51%, paper supplies 43%. Capital Objects, Equipment Addition, up 63%, Equipment Replacement 64%, and the Other Objects classification up 27%.

Board president Ralph Horner indicated he would also like to see a 'zero' per cent increase for school board member salaries, board member Donald Nowak said "I propose freezing administrative salaries."

The administration will now go back to the drawing board and try and come back to the April 24th special meeting of the board with a trimmed down proposal.

future generation in which he is a part of and wants to use his education to help him succeed in life.

Hlavaty plans to further her education at Lakeland College in Sheboygan with an emphasis on Business Administration and Economics. She is also planning on going on to law school.

Hlavaty has had "perfect attendance" at KHS, was selected for "Who's Who Among High School students for two years, and a member of Honor Roll, and High Honor Roll. She has been involved in German Club for four years and in Future Business Leaders for three years. This year she also joined Forensics and will compete in district competition this spring.

Hlavaty has always planned on going to college because she can't get into law school without it. Eventually she would like to be either a federal prosecutor or a judge.

All three of these outstanding seniors end their high school education with goals for the future, goals which can only become a reality by furthering their education. That's what KEYS, Inc. is all about... giving Kewaskum youths the opportunity to pursue their dreams and reach their goals. Those who would like to help K.E.Y.S. and these goals are asked to get involved with the KEYS organization!

KEYS Inc. wishes Mike, Bobby, and Denise well.

All that remains of the David Warnecke home after a fire Sunday morning, is a blackened shell. The home was completely gutted by the blaze.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Efforts to thaw a frozen pipe are being blamed for a fire which destroyed a Town of Wayne home Sunday morning.

Kohlsville Fire Chief Gerald Schulz said his department was called to the David Warnecke home at 7683 Townline Road, about 10:15 a.m. to battle the fire which began when Warnecke tried to thaw a frozen water pipe with a small propane torch.

Kohlsville's efforts to put out the fire were hampered by strong, gusty winds. Despite mutual aid from the Kewaskum and West Bend Fire Departments, firefighters were unable to save the two-story wood frame home which was completely gutted by the blaze.

Warnecke's wife Donna and four children Carrie, Dawn, John, and Todd were also at home at the time of the fire. The family escaped the fire unharmed with little more than the clothing they had planned to wear to eight year-old John's

First Communion which took place Sunday.

No damage estimate on the home or its contents was available. Kohlsville Firefighters remained on the scene until 12:30 p.m.

In planning a vacation, the object is to get to their place before they come to your house.

Local Man's Body Recovered From Lake Winnebago

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The body of David "Ziggy" Ziegelbauer, 45, of 8735 Highway 45, Kewaskum, was recovered from Lake Winnebago Wednesday afternoon by the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department.

Ziegelbauer broke through the ice December 26, when he and his son Cole were trying to return to the east shore of the lake after ice fishing off Beauchaud Beach. Attempts to rescue Ziegelbauer or locate his body were hampered by hazardous weather following the accident.

The Ziegelbauers, along with other fishermen in the area, attempted to head for safety when high winds came up causing a crack in the ice. The crack continued to grow and widen as they tried to find a place to get back to shore. Several individuals were rescued by snowmobilers or made it back to shore on their own. Ziegelbauer fell through the ice, disappearing almost immediately. Cole Ziegelbauer was rescued by a Fond du Lac man using an air boat.

Lake area residents spotted the body Wednesday afternoon approximately 100 yards off Lake Winnebago's west shore near Highway 45 and Kinker Road. The body was recovered by the Sheriff's Department about 2:00. The department had also recovered the three-wheel ATV the Ziegelbauers had used to get out on the lake on Tuesday afternoon.

Private funeral services for Ziegelbauer were held Friday at the Miller Funeral Home, Kewaskum.

students each. Six Health classes of 22 down to five classes with 26 students each.

General Science seven sections of 21 reduced to six sections of 24 students. World Studies seven sections of 22, condensed into six sections of 25. U.S. History six sections of 23 and 24, condensed to five sections of 28. Geography three sections to two of 30 students each. Social Problems four sections to three of 28 students and Social Psychology three sections down to two of 30 students each.

"We can't afford to have these small classes and that's my proposal," stated Ankerson. The small class size was defended, noting it gave teachers the opportunity for more individualized help. Board member Neal Weare indicated he did not agree with that argument. I can't believe there are that many kids in every class having problems. If there are 28 kids in a class and 27 are having problems, noted Weare, I think we better start looking at the teachers.

High School principal LeRoy Kopecky said the administration and teachers felt the schedule presented at the meeting was "the best package they could put together." "We've been working on this schedule since January," said Kopecky, "and we've already gotten the student registrations in." Referring to the proposed cuts, board member Donald Nowak replied, "if the teachers and administration don't give us any other alternatives they don't leave us any choice." "Are the teachers and administrators willing to freeze their salaries for a year, if not something has to go."

"I want you to realize some of these staff will be on a part-time basis," stated Administrator

David Heather, "If you're going to lay off you will have to give notice by May 4th."

Ankerson stood fast on his recommendations. "We are the place where the buck stops. If you refuse to take a position and turn around and blame this on the state and tell fellow taxpayers we can't do anything, the state tells us to do all this stuff, the state does not mandate class size and they do not levy taxes, we do that."

After listening to Ankerson's proposals Weare stated, "It's been a long time in coming but somebody has to take the bull by the horns."

On a four to three vote, Ankerson's motion to make the proposed class consolidations and reductions were approved. Ankerson, Nowak, Weare and Horner voting for the motion, Ruth Schmitt, Clara Trapp and Ronald Beimborn voting no.

The administration will now have to get busy and make the necessary schedule revisions and present them to the board at its special meeting scheduled for April 24th so layoff notices can be sent out by May 4th.

School Board Cool Toward Idea of Full Time Social Worker Position

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Although it was a non-action item, members of the Kewaskum School Board spent a considerable amount of time Monday night, discussing the pros and cons of expanding the district's social worker position from part, to full time.

District Administrator David Heather told the board the district is seeing more and more social problems such as drug and child abuse coming up especially at the elementary level.

In addressing the need for a full time position Jackie Schoening, who is employed as the district's social worker, said with the limited time she has she is not able to address all the needs of the district. She also works with the district's Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse program (AODA).

Kewaskum presently shares Schoening's services with two other school districts. "One person in five buildings half time doesn't work," stated Heather.

Board member Perry Ankerson voiced his opposition to the proposal, asking what role the schools play in social work. It seems the more we do the more we are expected to do, he noted. "We've got to get parents and churches involved," said Ankerson. He did not think it was right that taxpayers should be supporting these programs with school district funds. "I would spend the money if I really felt it would help but this is just a way of soothing ourselves," stated Ankerson.

Ankerson told fellow board members he believed that the problems started in the home with the parents. "That's where the programs should be directed," he said, "at the source, not in the schools." The district should not be placed in the position of being foster parents, he noted. "We are responsible for educating your children, you are responsible for fulfilling your roles as parents, you are responsible to teach your children morals."

While this was strictly a discussion item, it appears when the board is called on to make a decision on the proposal there will be more heated debate. With a proposed budget carrying a double-digit levy increase staring the board in the face, several members plan to give the issue considerable scrutiny.

On behalf of the Kewaskum Athletic Club, Ron Theusch asked the board's permission to, as in the past, sell alcoholic beverages during its week-end games played on the school's baseball diamond.

Theusch noted the games are not school related functions and some of the money earned at the concession stand is put back into the diamond and its upkeep.

Heather told the board, "As School Administrator, I don't agree with allowing the sale of beer on school property and I think we should oppose it."

Ankerson did not agree with Heather's comments. "We shouldn't be in a position to teach temperance but we should be in a position to teach responsibility." It was noted that neither the district or the Kewaskum Police Department had received any complaints about beer sales or problems in the past. On a 5-2 vote, the club's request was denied.

In another item which went against the tide of reducing the budget, the administration asked for approval to increase the Middle School's secretary position from part, to full time. MS principal Stephen King said the secretary's services could be used on a full time basis including assisting with the summer school program. He indicated the secretary had been called in on a daily basis 33 times last summer.

Ankerson said, if we only needed a person for 33 days, it did not seem to justify the added cost of over $4,000 for salary and benefits, which would not be applicable to a part time employe. Board member Ruth Schmitt indicated she was leery about creating another position. The board voted to deny the request.

The board also heard Dr. Heather's recommendations concerning elementary class sizes for the 1989-90 school year. While he presented eight options to resolve a situation of large fifth grade class sizes at KES, his first choice was the addition of another teacher to create three classes of 21 students each, at an approximate cost of $38,000.

Other options included transferring Wayne's 17 fifth graders and their teachers to KES, creating three classes of 27 students, bringing in both the fourth and fifth grades from Wayne, leaving KES's classes the same and keeping the present full time aide, or changing the attendance boundaries between Kewaskum and Wayne. The item was on the agenda strictly for the purpose of discussion and no action was taken by the board.

The board approved the hiring of David Rizzardi for the position of Athletic Director and James Westphal as head HS boys basketball coach.

The board set April 24th as the date for its organizational meeting to install its new board members and continue discussion of the 89-90 budget including the review of staffing changes as approved by the Board's action at this meeting.

After going into closed session, the board reconvened and voted to approve the extension of Dr. Heather's contract for another year.

Campbellsport Artist Donates Limited Edition Prints to Wings Over Wisconsin

Campbellsport Wildlife artist Andy Stoffel has made a special donation of his latest limited edition collector prints to Wings Over Wisconsin. Each of WOW's twelve chapters and its executive board will receive two print's from each series. They will be sold at chapter and board banquets with the money raised to be used to purchase seed for winter feeding of songbirds.

Each WOW chapter sponsors a winter songbird feeding program in its community and distributes literally tons of sunflower, thistle and other seeds to local hospitals and senior citizen centers. Sale of the Stoffel prints will support these programs which attract songbirds to feeders, where they may be enjoyed by patients and residents.

The prints themselves are part of Stoffel's fifth and sixth limited edition collector series and features a special three-in-one print of ring-neck pheasant, wood ducks and brown trout. Only 350 of each print in a series will be made, plus 35 artist proofs. The Wow prints will bear a one-of-a-kind Stoffel remarque to enhance their beauty and value. They will be printed on 100% acid-free paper to insure their longevity.

Stoffel was the Wings Over Wisconsin - Miller High Life Wildlife Artist of the Year in 1988. The Campbellsport painter, who draws his inspiration from the woods and wildlife of eastern Wisconsin, has gained an increasing amount of recognition for his

A Tribute to Oak Grove 4-H Club

Alma Kuhn, Oak Grove 4-H leader, teaching a food project in her home.

This year is the 75th Anniversary of 4-H in the United States. It is fitting that we read about some of the 4-H clubs that have served the youth in this county.

One of the early clubs and also one of the longest continuing clubs is the Oak Grove 4-H Club. It was, in the past, also one of the largest clubs, having had sixty members. Some members were from the towns of Richfield and Jackson as well as Germantown.

The Oak Grove 4-H Club was organized in June, 1932 by Mr. Byrnes, Washington County Agent, and a group of boys and girls at the Oak Grove School, District #8, in Germantown. It was a one-room school in an oak woods and the club was therefore called the Oak Grove 4-H Club.

Art Bast was the first leader and Pearl Bock, Lorraine Bock, Lawrence Stephan and Elmer Beuscher were the first officers.

The projects taken the first year were calf, corn, pigs, sewing and cooking. The members wanted other activities, so they organized a baseball team which practiced in a farmer's field, often in a cow pasture. Sometimes they played other teams in the county and once won a trophy for being the champions in 4-H baseball. They also attended the annual 4-H county's picnic which was held in Schoenbeck's woods or at Big Cedar Lake.

A big event for the members was the County Fair, which in the early days was held in West Bend. The Oak Grove 4-H Club had a float in 1937 showing how to prepare potatoes for planting.

In 1938 Mrs. William Kuhn (Alma Kuhn) became a leader in the club. She was asked to help with the sewing and felt that in order to know what was expected of her, she would attend the meetings. She became a general leader in the club, which she continued to be until her death in March, 1970.

Art Bast was the first president of the Washington County Leader's Association.

In the early years meetings were held from April to October. These meetings were held in the Oak Grove School. In 1939, meetings were held all year.

In August, 1939 Art Bast was married and Mrs. Bast joined as a leader. The meetings were held one month in Mrs. Kuhn's home and one month in the Art Bast's home. In 1942 the Art Bast's moved to Hartford, and Mrs. Kuhn was then the only general leader of the club.

In the early days of the club, some members did not exhibit at the County Fair, therefore the club had a local fair in the Oak Grove School and Mr. Skalickey, the county agent did the judging. Items exhibited included vegetables, grain, corn, apples, clothing, handcraft, flowers, cakes, cookies, dogs, chickens and turkeys. There were other exhibitors than 4-H members. Parents were present and had a great deal of interest in the judging.

Hobbies were encouraged for the winter months.

In 1941 to 1945 meetings were also held in a member's home, which gave parents an opportunity to sit in.

In 1948, Alma Kuhn asked Roland Bast to be an assistant general leader. He was particularly needed to help with the boys projects. He also led the club in square dancing.

In the 1950's the Oak Grove School was closed and joined with the Rockfield School and meetings were held in the new Rockfield School.

In addition to general leaders, the Oak Grove 4-H Club, as well as other clubs, had project leaders and members who were junior leaders.

The general monthly meetings had a formal format. The Oak Grove 4-H Club program included: opening, a patriotic song, 4-H pledge and Pledge of Allegiance to the flag, birthday songs, health and safety talks by 4-H'ers, roll call according to a specific topic, such as favorite project, book, health rule, treasurer's report, old business, and new business. Often there were games and lunch. Various speakers gave talks or showed slides.

Project meetings were held for each individual project. They were held at homes of the leaders. During the spring and summer, project meetings were held at least every week at Alma Kuhn's home. As in all clubs, project books were completed and achievement was emphasized. Project leaders who were very active, in addition, to Alma Kuhn and Roland Bast were William Schroeder, Conrad Schlaefer, and Mrs. Ray Bast.

The Oak Grove Club also had many extra curricular activities which were of benefit to the whole community. Some of these were water-testing, safety in the home and farm, fire hazards, conservation, health activities and "war on rats." Other activities of the club included judging at the county fair, demonstrations at the county fair, plays, caroling, 4-H week in Madison, picnics, speaking contests, bird watching, Christmas parties, posters in community businesses, booths at the county fair, floats, rural life Sunday, and help with the Hi-Neighbor party at Rockfield in honor of new residents.

For many years Alma Kuhn was in charge of the dress revue for the county fair and for demonstrations at the fair.

In 1950, Alma Kuhn was selected as the outstanding 4-H leader in Washington County. In 1959 she attended the state conference at Madison for leaders with twenty years service or more. In 1960, Alma Kuhn and Paul Cypher, another 4-H Club leader had the Washington County Fair Book dedicated to them.

In 1962, Alma Kuhn wrote a Oak Grove history from which most of this material has come from. She listed the outstanding club members, primarily for judging, exhibiting, and demonstrating at the State Fair. They were Pearl Kuhn, Lois

Kuhn, Conrad Schlaefer, Elaine Boecker, Jill Bast, and Patricia Bast who made a citizenship trip to Washington, D.C.

Urban youth also were members of 4-H as the years progressed and dairy farming decreased.

The Oak Grove 4-H Club even had three generations at one time active in the club: Alma Kuhn, general leader, Robert Kuhn, project leader and Debbie Kuhn a 4-H member.

After Alma Kuhn's death, Roland Bast was general leader. Presently, Mary Lynn Prost is general leader of the Oak Grove 4-H Club.

In closing her history, Alma Kuhn said: "4-H helps to build a career by stressing good work habits, pride in workmanship and responsibility for work well done and by providing opportunities to cooperate with others."

Our club is proud to belong to such a wonderful organization as the 4-H Club. We have enjoyed many years of our club work and expect to enjoy many more.

Village of Kewaskum NEWS NOTES

A public hearing will be held on May 1, 1989, at 8:00 p.m. in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street in the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, to solicit comments on proposed shoreland wetland zoning ordinance provisions which are intended to meet the requirements of Chapter NR117, Wis. Adm. Code. Those wetlands identified on final Wisconsin Wetland Inventory maps on file in the office of the village clerk which are located in the shoreland area must be regulated by the village. The shoreland area consists of lands within the following distances of the ordinary highwater mark of navigable waters:

- 1,000 feet from a lake, pond or flowage.
- 300 feet from a river or to the landward side of the floodplain, whichever distance is greater.

The proposed regulations are intended to protect wetlands and will govern the uses permitted in wetlands near rivers and lakes. Activities such as dredging, filling, draining, excavating and construction of buildings are generally prohibited, but various open space uses including agriculture, forestry and parkland are allowed (but may require a land use permit from the village zoning authority for certain development and maintenance activities). Any use not permitted in a shoreland wetland is prohibited unless the wetland is rezoned pursuant to procedures and standards specified in the proposed ordinance.

All persons interested are invited to attend this hearing and be heard. Written comments may be submitted to: Kewaskum Village Board, P.O. Box 38, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

UNINARY INCONTINENCE

By exercising the muscles that support the bladder and surround its neck, many incontinent persons can regain control over the passage of urine. The exercise involves tightening, then relaxing certain muscles repeatedly for 15 minutes, 3 times each day. By starting and stopping the flow of urine, victims of incontinence can learn to identify those muscles that need strengthening.

American Family Insurance Tops 4.4 Million Policies

MADISON, WI — The American Family Insurance Group increased its number of policies by five percent in 1988 to over 4.4 million. The actual total is 4,421,855.

Also increasing during 1988 was premium revenue, investment income and finance charges to $1,849,128,000, up 12 percent.

Claims, not including life insurance, during the year of 1988 were just under 800,000, a 10 percent increase over 1987. This resulted in $1,179.1 million in payments to American Family Mutual and American Standard policyholders and outside claimants for losses and claim processing costs. Catastrophic storm losses accounted for $19 million of those benefits.

Business in 1988 produced a $127 million operating gain for the companies. Along with investment capital gains, this resulted in a $110 million increase in surplus.

American Family's annual policyholders meeting was held March 7 at its headquarters in Madison. Carl Weigell, President of Motor Castings Company of Milwaukee, was elected to the Board of Directors as a first time member. Re-elected to the Board were James Underkofler, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of WPL Holdings, Inc. of Madison, and Dr. Robert Walton, President of American Breeders of DeForest.

A major highlight for American Family in 1988 was the purchase of over 800 acres of land on the far east side of Madison for a new national headquarters. Construction is scheduled to begin in 1990 with occupancy expected in 1992.

SHARE YOUR HOME, HEART AND HERITAGE Host an Exchange Student For the Coming School Year

ASSE International Student Exchange Programs (ASSE), a non-profit, public benefit organization, would like to introduce you to some very special people.

Exceptional high school students from Scandinavia, France, Italy, Spain, Germany, Holland, Great Britain, Switzerland, Japan, Canada, Australia and New Zealand are looking forward to spending the upcoming academic year in America as exchange students. Local families are needed to host students in your area.

"Potential host families come from a wide variety of backgrounds and lifestyles," says Pat Juhl, spokesperson for the Midwestern Region. "Ideal host families are open-minded, have a interest in people, especially those from another culture, and have a sense of humor!"

The students are between 15-18 years old, are fluent in English, are fully insured and have their own spending money. They expect to share household responsibilities and be included in family activities.

The qualified students have a great variety of talents and interests. Among the available students are: Jakob, from Denmark, feels being an exchange student is an exciting way to learn about American culture. He enjoys music, fishing, skiing and basketball. Kristina, from Germany, is fascinated by foreign languages. Her interests include reading, tennis, music and playing piano. Eelco, of Holland, likes a wide variety of sports such as volleyball, tennis, soccer and baseball as well as drama, reading and playing cards. He can't wait to experience the American way of life. piano and reading.

June Wirt, local area representative said, "We help the host family to choose a student who has some interests in common with the family, as well as keep in contact with the family and student on a regular basis to assure everything is going smoothly."

If you are interested in becoming an ASSE host family or would like more information, please contact: June Wirt W230 N9491 Colgate Road, Sussex, WI 53089, 414/246-6353 or call 1-800-333-3802.

First Graders to Receive Gift Books

This release is smaller than the average news release because it details the facts of some big generosity in the community to little children through the distribution of some powerful little books.

First grade students in the schools listed below will all receive a beautiful gift-book titled My Favorite Book. Books will go to: St. Lucas Evangelical Lutheran School; Holy Trinity Catholic School, and Kewaskum Elementary School.

"My Favorite Book" is designed and written to bring "positive influences into each of these children's lives. It illustrates the beauty of their world and the people who are in it, especially themselves.

The civic-minded leaders who are sponsoring this program see it as a valuable contribution toward the development of the young people in the community.

These sponsors are: Tom Bartelt of Bartelt Insurance Agency and Tom Kennelly of Kennelly Health Mart Pharmacy.

Holy Trinity Offers A Helping Hand

In a lifetime everyone needs help at different stages along the way. Many different organizations and individuals try to fill that need.

The St. Vincent de Paul Conference of Holy Trinity has been in existence for two years now. The function of this organization is to serve all people in and around Kewaskum who, because of unfortunate circumstances, may need assistance.

Through the generosity of the Holy Trinity parishioners on sharing Sundays, a fairly well-stocked food pantry is maintained for those who need additional food supplies. In addition, vouchers for fresh fruit, vegetables, milk, meat and bread, can be obtained and used at a local food market. If there is a need for items of furniture, clothes, bedding, etc., these are made available by providing vouchers for the St. Vincent de Paul Store in West Bend.

Another function of Saint Vincent de Paul conference members is to visit the sick, people who are confined to their homes and nursing home residents.

If, as you are reading this, think of someone in need, the following telephone numbers will contact members of St. Vincent de Paul; Kathy - 626-4318, Ernie - 626-2618, and Mary - 626-2305.

Citizens of the Kewaskum School District:

To All Voters: A resounding thank-you for being involved. To everyone: I want to assure you I will do my best as a school board member and can only hope you will share your ideas, concerns, and wishes for the district with all school board members and the administration. We are going to have some very difficult issues coming up soon and I hope many of you will be involved in the most positive way you can!

Thank you,
Paul Seymour

Letter to the Editor:

On Monday, April 10, at the School Board meeting, they talked about cutting back on the number of teachers, by laying off three of the new teachers and not replacing a retiring teacher.

We, the Kewaskum High School students, strongly oppose their recent budget decision.

We feel they are making a big mistake, by making a temporary problem, which could be dealt with, a permanent problem, in regards to our education.

We want quality teachers, not quantity classrooms. By cutting the teachers they are going to put more students in one class. Classes are full now! How are we suppose to learn? Is that really the answer?

We need the support and involvement of you, the community, to support us. Our school board is making a big mistake. We aren't going to give up without a fight?!

PLEASE CONSIDER US THE STUDENTS AND OUR EDUCATION!!!

Letter to the Editor:

To every one, a thank you who voted for me in the past election, even though three board members knew that win or lose I did not intend to serve on the board. This past year has been a pleasure to serve on the board, but in my opinion the other two years were a nightmare. I was accused of many lies and none were true and none were ever proven.

But I will do everything I can do from the outside to support education for all our district's students. Education has always been my first priority and always will be. "Kids" today face a very hard road ahead, times have changed considerably and students need enough education at the high school level so when they walk out they can get a job, if they cannot afford college.

As for the District Administrator he has been fair and honest and I for one support him all the way.

Thank you
Clara Trapp

First Installment Of Estimated Tax Payment Due Apr. 17

The Internal Revenue Service reminds people who make estimated tax payments that the first installment for 1989 is due Monday, April 17.

The payment should be sent to the IRS along with the first quarter payment voucher from Form 1040ES, Estimated Tax for individuals. To be sure that the payment is properly credited to your account, the IRS asks that you write your social security number and the words, "1989 Form 1040ES" on the check.

If you're not sure whether you should be making these quarterly payments, the IRS suggests first checking your 1988 return. If the return shows a balance due of at least $500, and if you expect your financial situation to stay pretty much the same during 1989, then you probably should be making these payments. Moonlighters and two-wage-earner households should also consider making estimates. The same goes for people who receive significant income on which no tax is withheld such as business profits, rental income, alimony, interest, dividends, capital gains, and unemployment benefits.

Form 1040 has a worksheet which can help you figure out whether or not you need to make estimated tax payments and, if so, how much. To get this form, call toll-free 1-800-424-FORM (3676). You can listen to a quick overview of this subject by calling Tele-Tax, the IRS' automated system of prerecorded tax information. Dial 1-800-554-4477 and request tape number 156.

If It's Placed In Your Mailbox, It Should Have Postage On It

The Postmaster advises: If it's placed in your mailbox, it should have postage on it! Kewaskum Postmaster Frank Beesten is putting the word out to local business customers and residents alike that any items placed in the mailbox should bear proper postage according to federal law.

"Actually," says Beesten, "the law is very specific and prohibits non-mailed matter from being placed in, placed on or hung from a mailbox."

Why is Postmaster Frank advising area residents?

Beesten explains that those individuals or businesses placing non-mail matter (not bearing postage) can be billed for the appropriate amount of postage that would be required.

The billing could be based not only on an individual piece found, but on the total number of pieces placed in mailboxes throughout the community.

Postmaster Beesten says that if small businesses or home-operated businesses need information on how to prepare bulk mailings, they are welcomed to contact him/her. "We can even arrange for small businesses, civic and community organizations to borrow a video tape titled 'Ten or More' which will take them step by step through the mail preparation process."

For more information Postmaster Beesten suggests his customers call him at 626-2575.

DOT Allocates $4 Million To Counties for Special Transportation Services

The state Department of Transportation will allocate nearly $4 million to the state's 72 counties to support specialized transportation services for the elderly and disabled.

The counties will provide $792,000 to match the state funds. Washington County will receive $50,038 from the state and will contribute at least $10,008 of local monies.

This year's state allocation represent a 4.5% inflationary increase over 1988. Allocations are based on each county's share of the state's estimated disabled and elderly population. Each county is guaranteed at least .5% of the annual appropriation.

Counties can use the state funds to complete studies, provide services themselves, purchase services from other private or public organizations, or purchase capital equipment.

Services provided by the counties include fixed route van service, demand-responsive service, door-to-door service, subsidies to riders for taxi service, and volunteer driver programs. The elderly and disabled typically are transported to medical facilities, shopping, day care services, work, nutrition program sites, nursing homes for visits, and chartered trips.

All of the transportation services provided by the counties under this program are in addition to public transit services provided by municipalities within their urban areas.

In addition, numerous other special transportation services are offered throughout the state under programs funded by the state Department of Health and Social Services.

NEWS EXTRA...

1988 Highway Death Rate Is Lowest In History

People who traveled on Wisconsin highways last year were safer than in any previous year in history, according to Ronald R. Fiedler, secretary of the state Department of Transportation.

The 1988 death rate was 1.92 deaths per 100 million miles of travel, down from 2.03 deaths per 100 million miles in 1987.

Fiedler said the rate was based on 813 traffic fatalities in 1988, and 42.3 billion miles of travel. The 1987 figures were 817 deaths and 40.2 billion miles of travel. Travel increased 5.4 percent in 1988.

The death rate has declined gradually, from an all-time high of 14.58 deaths per 100 million miles of travel in 1935. By 1970, when the original rural interstate system was opened to traffic, the death rate was 4.56 per 100 million miles of travel. That figure dropped again to 2.96 in 1980.

Although the percentage drop doesn't sound large, Fiedler said it is a significant decline. "If the death rate had remained the same as in 1987, we would have had about 860 deaths in 1988," he explained. "If the rate had remained the same as in 1980, there would have been 1,252 deaths," he added.

Fiedler credited a number of factors for the long-term decline. "The Legislature has passed major new safety laws, including the recent safety belt law, and the administrative suspension law which guarantees on-the-spot license suspension for drivers who flunk the breath test."

"Wisconsin has also made major safety improvements in its highways in the past few years which have included rebuilding many hazardous intersections, widened, straightened and paved shoulders along state, county and local roads, and upgraded many segments of our most dangerous highways," he added.

"It's obvious that all the easy safety gains have already occurred," Fiedler said. "From now on, we will be fighting hard for every percentage point gained. That's why I believe that the safety belt law is so important, because safety belts are your best defense against drunk and drugged drivers, or unexpected changes in road conditions that could cause you or somebody else to lose control at the wheel," he added.

Wisconsin has also made steady gains in reducing the number of traffic crashes due to drunken driving, Fiedler said. "Laws increasing the minimum drinking age, requiring younger drivers to be absolutely sober, and the administrative suspension law have played a major role in the decline," he explained.

Indian Princess Twirlettes Celebrate Ten Year Anniversary

All members of the Indian Princess, Kewaskum Middle School and Kewaskum High School Twirling Team performing their grand finale to the song, "Celebration."

On Saturday, March 11, the Indian Princess Twirlettes held their annual awards program in the beautifully decorated Rose Hall at Kewaskum High School. This program was designed to look back through the corps' ten years of existence. The twirling team was divided into smaller groups — each group performed a selected routine that was performed at one time within the past ten years. The show ended with a brilliant grand finale, where all 125 members from the Indian Princess Twirlettes, Kewaskum Middle and High School twirling team performed a dazzling routine to the song "Celebration." To add to the festivities, anniversary cake, coffee and orange drink were served immediately after the program.

The corps was founded in the year 1979 by Julie Dettmann Wenzlaff and her mother, Lou Dettmann. Julie, then a sophomore at Kewaskum High School, was a member of the Georgie Girls of Washington County and was instructed by Green Bay Packer's first majorette, Germaine Christiansen. When the Georgie Girls folded in 1978, Julie felt the great desire to keep the sport of baton twirling alive. She started a small twirling group of 30 members at Beechwood and Farmington Elementary Schools.

Julie's goals were to give all twirlers a chance to learn twirling skills, to gain coordination, poise, good showmanship and good sportsmanship, to gain a positive self-esteem and a sense of belonging. Finally she wanted to see all twirlers work toward their fullest potential to become an accomplished twirler, and to eventually be a part of the Kewaskum Middle School and Kewaskum High School Twirling team.

Throughout the ten long years of laughter and tears, with the help of many devoted volunteer parents and the expansion to Kewaskum and Wayne Elementary Schools, the Indian Princess Twirlettes grew to its current enrollment of 125 members. They are now one of the largest baton corps in the entire state of Wisconsin.

The continued success of this corps can be attributed to its teaching staff along with all of its devoted members and their parents — especially those parents who volunteer their precious time to help make uniforms, make phone calls, chaperone, keep records, etc. Also, the continued support of the Kewaskum School District for allowing the corps to use its facilities to hold lessons and performances is well appreciated.

Seedlings Available from Trees for Tomorrow

EAGLE RIVER...Spring is a good time for tree planting according to Mark Gawron, Forester at Trees For Tomorrow.

Container red pine, white spruce and blue spruce seedlings may be obtained from Trees For Tomorrow Natural Resource Education Center in Eagle River in time for the 1989 Spring planting season.

The seedlings are grown in styrofoam blocks each in its own cell of soil and fertilizer. They can be ordered any time, in any quantity. Little skill is needed to plant them and survival is often greater than with bare-root stock. A planting instruction guide is given with each seedling order.

Red pine, white spruce and blue spruce are available from May through October. They are shipped via UPS collect or can be picked up at the Center when ordered in advance. Proceeds from the seedlings go to support the Center's public education programs.

For a free brochure and order form, write Trees For Tomorrow, Seedling Program, P.O. Box 609, Eagle River, WI 54521 or call (715) 479-6456.

Trees For Tomorrow began in 1944 when a group of nine paper and power companies formed the non-profit organization to reforest vast areas of Wisconsin woodlands which had been over-harvested and neglected. Through the years the Center has developed public programs emphasizing management and the wise use of natural resources.

Juniors Prepare for Prom

With Cory Oresnik, right, as the money-taker and Denise Bergdorf as the malt deliverer, noon hour malt sales proved to be a big success as a money-maker for the annual Prom.

What goes into a malt? Just ask Jesse Santoro, left, or Denise Bergdorf. Everything tastes great with a little help from Kemps Dairy who had a great time playing "Dairy Queen" to help defray Prom costs.

The KHS Junior class has been very busy working on all the "specifics" of what they hope will be a very special prom for everyone this April 22nd.

One of the fund-raisers the junior class undertook was the selling of malts during lunch hour. For a mere dollar, a student could buy a super thick chocolate, vanilla, or strawberry malt. These malts "sold out" on both the lunch hours they were sold. Another current money-maker is the selling of Prom Key Chains. All the money raised will be used to defray prom costs.

Said Mary Stephan, prom coordinator, "Everything seems to be running quite smoothly and Kemps Dairy deserves a special thanks for all their help during our malt sales."

The theme for this year's Prom is City - "Lights" with "Lights" by Journey as the theme song. Prom court will be pictured in an up-coming Statesman issue.

The following System Videos will be at the library from April 12th to May 13th:

Animal Talk, Apocalypse Now, Blazing Saddles, Charlotte's Web, Donovan's Reef, Energy Conservation, Goldfinger, HUD, In Love With Paris, Is There Life After Housework.

It Happened One Night, Lassie, In the Miracle, Lethal Weapon, A Man for All Seasons, The Princess and the Pea, Psycho, The Realm of the Alligator, Resurrection, Secret of the Titanic, Swim Baby Swim.

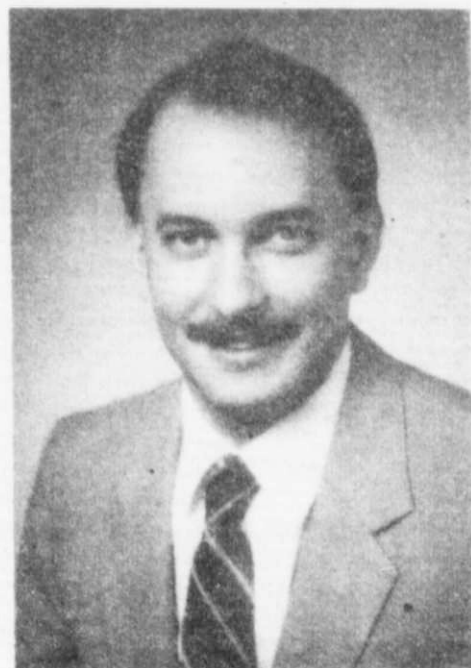

Thumbelina, A Tour of Prado, An Unmarried Woman, and Winnie the Pooh and Tiger Too.

Books from the best seller list include: Star, Danielle Steel, The Edge, Dick Francis, Midnight, Dean R. Koontz, A Prayer for Owen Meany, John Irving, Cat's Eye, Margaret Atwood, The Fortune, Michael Korda, The Sands of Time, Sidney Sheldon, All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten, Robert Fulgham, Blind Faith, Joe McGinniss, The 8-Week Cholesterol Cure, Robert Kowalski, The Bleeding, Joseph Wambaugh and Gracie: A Love Story, George Burns.

TESTING FOR ATRAZINE RESIDUES

Atrazine is one of the most widely used corn herbicides. It controls most annual weeds, and high rates of application control several perennial weeds. Corn is highly tolerant to atrazine, which normally provides full season weed control. Occasionally, atrazine residue remains in the soil longer than desired and can affect the rotation to other sensitive crops such as oats, alfalfa and soybeans.

In a normal growing season, much of the atrazine applied in spring or early summer disappears from the soil. This occurs primarily through microbial or chemical breakdown, some leaching, and uptake by corn and weeds. During dry years, such as 1988, this breakdown process is greatly reduced, and residues are likely to persist in the soil.

Fields that were treated with low rates of atrazine in 1988 with expectations or rotating to other crops in 1989, may have a residue problem. It's difficult to estimate whether or not there will be a problem, based upon the amount of atrazine applied. The best way to evaluate the fields is to use an atrazine test.

There are two ways that the field can be tested. The easiest and most economical method to measure atrazine residue consists of growing oats as a test crop. This procedure is often called a "bioassay" test. While the bioassay test does not give an exact measure of atrazine residue, it can be used as an indicator to provide useful information in making crop selection decisions. Growers can run the bioassay test on their own fields.

Basically the test involves taking a representative sample of soil from the field under consideration, and also take a sample from a field that no atrazine has been applied. Oats is planted in both samples, and after a period of time, the samples can be compared for evidence of atrazine injury.

Individuals that wish to consider running this test can contact the Washington County Extension Office for a publication titled "A Simple Test For Atrazine Residues." It describes step by step the process to use in conducting the test.

One of the concerns is that it takes 18 to 21 days for the results of this test to be known, which may be too late for some cropping decisions.

Another alternative is to take representative samples of soil and send them to some of the testing laboratories that will test for atrazine residue. These tests may be somewhat expensive, and while giving an indication of the amount of atrazine in the soil, the results may still need to be interpreted as to whether or not the field is safe for sensitive crops.

Growers having questions about either of these two procedures can contact the Washington County Extension Office.

A small flat sponge or paper towel kept in your refrigerator vegetable bin can absorb much of the excess moisture collecting there.

Southern Seed Corn Harvest Bolsters Dairyland Supply

Dairyland Seed's venture to produce seed corn in the southern U.S. is helping it meet record demand for its seed corn hybrids this spring. According to Dairyland President Steven Strachota, "Demand for our corn hybrids has been truly outstanding. Thanks to hard work and long hours put in by our production crew out of Mt. Hope, we were able to successfully grow additional seed corn in the southern U.S. to help bolster our supply."

The decision to grow additional seed corn in the southern United States was one of much importance for Dairyland according to Strachota. "When we saw the way our 1988 production was being hit by the drought, we knew we had to do something. Although the risks were great, our direction was clear. We had to give it a try."

While Strachota categorized Dairyland's southern production as being successful, Dairyland was not able to avoid all pitfalls.

"When we decided to go south for winter production, we took a 'best case/worst case' approach. Although our best case goals were not attained, our worst case fears were not realized either," he commented.

Strachota went on to say that yield goals for this winter's production were far below goals normally established for summer Midwest production. In some cases these yield goals were attained, although there were acres that had to be abandoned.

When asked if Dairyland would consider winter production again should a recurrence of the 1988 drought happen in 1989, Strachota responded, "Absolutely! With the experience we had in 1988, we feel confident that we could be more successful with winter production next time."

Strachota added, "But hopefully it won't be a part of our annual production plans."

Bay-Lakes Council Gala Recognition Held in Oshkosh

The Bay-Lakes Councils' Gala Recognition was held on Sunday, February 26, at the Grand Opera House in Oshkosh. It was attended by over 500 people. Seventeen Silver Beavers were presented, seven heroism awards were recognized and four Bronze Big Horn awards given along with many other awards.

Over 50 Eagles (Class of '88) were called to the stage and recognized for reaching the highest rank in scouting.

John Schorse chairman, developed a program and Walter Scott Jr., president of the Council served as the Master of Ceremonies. Roy Valitchka, Louis Milsted, and Walter Scott Jr. presented the Silver Beavers. This award is made for note worthy service of exceptional character to boyhood by registered scouters within the territory under the jurisdiction of a local council. It is the highest award a council can bestow on an adult leader.

Bruce Black acknowledged the Eagles, Bruce Chudacoff recognized the heroism awards and Dr. David Outcalt presented the Bronze Big Horn awards.

The Bronze Big Horn criteria for youth and leaders in exploring includes: exceptional dedication and outstanding service and/or leadership to the exploring program and to youth on the unit and/or council level.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. A delightful event was enjoyed by all.

Without clouds and other constituents of the Earth's atmosphere, the surface of our planet would reach a temperature of 176 degrees at the equator by day.

Q. One morning, I spoon-fed my infant about half a jar of baby food, and the next day when I took the jar out of the refrigerator, the food had a liquid consistency. Why did that happen?

A. The baby's saliva can turn certain foods to liquid. It is transferred from the spoon to the food, and the saliva begins to digest the food. That is one reason a baby should not be spoon-fed directly from a jar of baby food.

When feeding baby, if only a portion of a jar of baby food is being served, remove it from the jar and serve it in a feeding dish. This practice helps preserve the taste and texture of the food and retains its nutritional value.

Also, never return uneaten portions of food to the original jar. Bacteria from the baby's mouth can contaminate the food and promote spoilage.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING STATE OF WISCONSIN Village of Kewaskum TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given to all persons in the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, that a public hearing will be held on May 1, 1989 at 8:00 p.m. in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street in the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, to solicit comments on proposed shoreland wetland zoning ordinance provisions which are intended to meet the requirements of Chapter NR 117, Wis. Adm. Code. Those wetlands identified on final Wisconsin Wetland Inventory maps on file in the office of the village clerk which are located in the shoreland area must be regulated by the village. The shoreland area consists of lands within the following distances of the ordinary highwater mark of navigable waters:

- a. 1,000 feet from a lake, pond or flowage.
- b. 300 feet from a river or stream, or to the landward side of the floodplain, whichever distance is greater.

The proposed regulations are intended to protect shoreland wetlands and will govern the uses permitted in wetlands near rivers and lakes. Activities such as dredging, filling, draining, excavating and construction of buildings are generally prohibited, but various open space uses including agriculture, forestry and parkland are allowed (but may require a land use permit from the village zoning authority for certain development and maintenance activities.) Any use not permitted in a shoreland wetland is prohibited unless the wetland is rezoned pursuant to procedures and standards specified in the proposed ordinance.

All persons interested are invited to attend this hearing and be heard. Written comments may be submitted to:

Shawano County to Host 1989 Farm Progress Days

The adage, "If you don't first succeed, try, try again," runs deep in Shawano County. In 1984, Shawano County agricultural business men bid to host the 1987 Farm Progress Days. However, Farm Progress Days officials selected Barron County. So in 1986, Shawano County tried again. This time, they were successful in earning the right to host the 1989 Farm Progress Days.

"We sent a group of people to meet with the Farm Progress Days Board of Directors and convinced them that Shawano County was the best county to host the 1989 show," said Thomas Anderson, Shawano County dairy and livestock agent. "We stressed Shawano County's strong dairy industry, well-established, cooperative and enthusiastic residents." In addition, the Shawano County Board strongly supported the Farm Progress Days bid.

Even though this is the first time Shawano County will host Farm Progress Days, Anderson says, "It's like Farm Progress Days is coming back home again." Shawano County lies just north of Waupaca County where the first Farm Progress Days were held.

Ranking eighth in Wisconsin for milk production, it is only natural that Shawano County will feature dairying at the 1989 show. However, forages are also important to the county. Shawano County ranks sixth in corn silage production.

Shawano County has a lot of poor soil and rocks. "It's amazing our farmers get quality crops from their land," Anderson noted. "Considering the soil conditions, our farmers shouldn't get the yields they do." He added, "We'd like to show others how to grow good crops with adverse conditions." Many farmers share groundwater as a concern. Thus, Shawano County Community Resource Development Agent Jim Resick and his group will develop an exhibit on groundwater monitoring. Also, they'll prepare information on water quality and surface water.

Just as dairying and water are important to Shawano County, so is forestry. A professional forester, Allan Waelchli, is coordinating a forest demonstration area. Shawano County will highlight the farm woodlot which butts up against Tent City on the Rosenow farm. The group plans to show farmers how to harvest lumber wisely.

Clarence Waelchli heads the special events committee. Currently, this committee is working on a cheesemaking booth. Several cheese plants dot the county's rural area. So, the county cheesemakers want to describe cheesemaking, from start to finish, with a walk-through exhibit.

Family life from three perspectives will highlight the family living program under the theme of "The Family - Traditions, Trends and Tomorrows." The family living committee is developing a program to take a nostalgic look at the family of yesteryear, the issues and concerns facing today's family and what lies ahead for the future of the family.

One benefit to hosting such an event is that urban and rural residents work together and consequently build stronger ties. "The community has adopted Farm Progress Days," said Anderson. Urban businesses strongly supported the hospitality committee and its needs.

As with many agricultural counties, Shawano residents have found that the fortunes of town are linked to fortunes of the country. Executive Committee Chairman Vernon Ainsworth says the committee will build agriculture's esteem in Shawano County by hosting Farm Progress Days.

Anderson and Ainsworth both admit they want to show off Shawano County. "We have good farms, farmers and ag businesses," said Anderson. He also noted the sense of family and traditional values play a significant role in Shawano County.

One other key factor in Shawano County's successful Farm Progress Days bid and strong agricultural economy is the ideal of cooperation. "Shawano County is co-op country," said Anderson. The cooperatives influenced the sense of cooperation and provide a lot of energy to make 1989 Farm Progress Days in Shawano County happen.

Pool Banquet and Awards At Somethin' Ta Do

FIRST PLACE WINNERS in the Wednesday night pool tournament at Somethin' Ta Do, Kewaskum, 17 and over, are Erik Reha, Ben Edwards, Dave Jaecks, Shane Megonigle. Not pictured are Scott Krahn and Joel Serwe. The team is sponsored by Main Street Tattoo, Dave Jaecks, owner.

BILL KULAS, Glacier Inn, sponsor, shown with the first place trophy in the Tuesday night pool tournament league, ages 14 - 16.

Saturday, April 8th marked the end of the pool season at Somethin'-Ta-Do with their 1st pool banquet. Featured was a dance with their new sound system.

Music of all types was played. "We're trying to make a music library that everyone can enjoy. We will be taking requests, and as soon as we can, we get those songs." Said Randy and Sherry Kemp, owners of Somethin-Ta-Do.

Saturday was a spring board of sorts because beginning Saturday, April 15, they will have weekly dances for 12 year olds and up.

There were teams for pool league for three different age groups that were sponsored by area businesses. A 2½ foot trophy went to the 1st place team sponsors for their business. Trophies were also awarded to the members of the 1st place teams and to 1st, 2nd & 3rd place in individual standings. Trophy winners are as follows:

Tuesday night — Ages 14-16, Sponsor - Glacier Inn - owner Bill Kulas. Members — Dave Brooks, Scott Muckerheide, Kelly Sarauer, Dave Jacak and Brian Klug.

Barrel Haus, 3rd Gavin Painting, 4th Honeck Chevrolet.

Thursday night - 2nd Shefond Self Serve, 3rd Ashford Country Inn, 4th Sentry Foods, and Amerahn for letting us borrow some of their equipment for the banquet.

Following the awards ceremony there was free food, soda and music until 10 p.m.

"Also," Randy and Sherry continued, "we would like to extend an extra Thank You to Main Street Tattoo. Beyond the original sponsor fee the owner, Dave Jaecks also donated a hat for each member of his team and money for pizza and sodas on pool nights. To show their appreciation the Main Street Tattoo team gave him a pewter replica of a 1977 Harley Davidson Low Rider. "It's nice to see the grown ups and kids of this town cooperate," said Randy.

"Starting the 22nd of April we will also have one day pool tournaments, until our next pool league begins. We hope to see some new faces," said Sherry. "We will continue to make Somethin-Ta-Do a place for all people in the community. It's never been 'just for kids' but it's nice they finally have a place to go."

"We would also like to thank the other area businesses and kids who participated in the pool league," Randy said. "We appreciate the interest these area businesses had in our young people."

SHOTPUT SENSATION Jeff Taylor has already broken the school record twice in this event. At the Washington County meet, he ousted the shot put 49'8" "smashing" his previous new record by nearly a foot.

The Holy Trinity Athletic Awards Banquet was held on March 11. It started off with the 5:00 Mass followed by a potluck supper for the players, coaches and parents. Eighth grade players and cheerleaders were given a plaque while the 5th, 6th and 7th graders were given medals. The night ended by a rap song done by the A Team cheerleaders and coach.

The 1988-89 Season ended for Holy Trinity A Team Boys with a record of 7 wins and 11 losses overall.

The team played very competitive ball all season, in which a number of games were lost by only a few points. Despite the number of hardship losses, the team worked extremely hard and dedicated themselves to the game of basketball.

The team also entered the St. John's 8th grade Tournament in West Bend, where they met up with some tough competition but managed to bring home the Consolation Trophy.

All-Stars for the team were Jim Marx, Adam Laatsch and Brian Bruendl. They are coached by Tony Butschlick.

The Holy Trinity 5th and 6th grade boys B-team basketball squad enjoyed a very successful 88-89 season. The Wildcats compiled a 7-1 season capturing 1st place in the Kettle Moraine Grade School League. The B-team was also invited to play in the St. John's Lutheran Tournament in West Bend where they finished in second place. Team effort combined with great sportsmanship made this a fine team to be proud of.

The Holy Trinity Wildcats A & B girls' basketball teams both finished with a winning season.

The B team, which consists of 5th and 6th graders took 1st place with a very impressive eight wins and zero loss record. This year's team was quite large, consisting of 19 girls. The shuffling of players in and out was constant, which meant determination and hustle were needed by all. This is the 1st B team to go undefeated.

The all-stars for the team were 6th graders JoAnn Theusch, Shelly Williams and Andrea Bonlender.

The A team consisting of 7th and 8th graders finished with a 6-2 record, giving them 2nd place in the league. The girls also took 3rd place in St. Kilian's of Hartford tournament by defeating Slinger Middle School in the final game.

The all-stars for the team were 8th grader Kim Sabish who led the team in scoring and 7th graders Christa Fleischman and Allison Bruendl.

Both teams are part of the Kettle Moraine Catholic conference which includes teams from West Bend, Lomira, Campbellsport, Eden, Lomira, and Kewaskum.

KHS Girls Are Washington County Track Co-Champs

Girls track is "off and running" and the girls at KHS mean business this year. In the recent Washington County Invitational Indoor Track Meet, our Indians tied with West Bend to share the "Washington County Championship" out of a total of six teams.

Junior Pam Osterbrink tied the school high jump record with a leap of 5'2". Ingrid Ankerson also placed sixth for Kewaskum. The girls sole first place finish in track came in the eight lap relay in which Rachelle Zuehlke, Kristi Lubahn, Melissa Braun, and Joy Braun posted a time of 3:08.5.

In the field events Tina Weddig and Tammy Sabish heaved the shot put to a 1-2 finish for the Indians. There were many other "places" taken by our Indian girls including Melissa Braun 2nd in the 50 yard dash; Rachelle Zuehlke 2nd in the 440 yd. dash, and 4th in the 213 yd. dash. Laurie Vogt 2nd in the 880 yd. run and 3rd in the two mile run; Kristi Lubahn 3rd in the 213 yd. dash and 4th in the 50 yd. hurdles. The four lap relay team of Tina Schwartz, M.

Braun, Shelley Kasseckert, and J. Braun took 3rd. According to Coach Koth the girls put out an excellent effort and he was extremely pleased with their showing at the meet.

The varsity girls have competed in two other meets thus far this year, the Titan Invitational and at Random Lake. At the Titan Invitational 39 schools competed with each school registering two competitors in each event. Finishing in the top ten included Melissa Braun in the 60 yd. dash, Kristi Lubahn in the 220 yd. dash, Rachelle Zuehlke in the 440 yd. dash, and Shelley Kasseckert, Zuehlke, M. Braun, and Lubahn in the 880 yd. relay. In the field events Pam Osterbrink placed fourth in the high jump. Laurie Voigt put out an excellent effort in the mile and finished in the top 15.

At Random Lake, Kewaskum dominated the meet placing first in all events on both the track and field and giving the girls a confidence building victory with the final score of 84 to five.

The girls Track team competes at home this Friday.

Victorious In First Two Meets

Girls Jayvee Track Team 2-0

Like the Varsity Indians, the JayVee girls track team is starting out in the right direction with two victories in their favor.

The girls started out their season at Random Lake with a smashing victory 68-14. Kewaskum placed first in all but one event with the following girls providing the "blue ribbons." Jenny Oneska in the 45m high hurdles, Jessica Rohrer - 40m dash, Pam Osterbrink, Michelle Marx, Michelle Schaub, Laurice Thull in the 800m relay, Rachel Gosa - 400m run, Patty Aupperle - 800m run, and Terri Vogt in the 200 yd. dash. In the field Tammy Schmidt, shot put, Laurie Vogt, long jump and Melissa Jacak, high jump proved winners.

In Slinger, the Indians pulled out another victory 55-35 the girls again dominating the finish line and also proving victorious in the field. Lora Delcore, Kelly Korth, and Ingrid Ankerson placed first in the shot put, long jump, and high jump, while on the track, the Kewaskum runners were burning up the field. Laurie Vogt was the Indians double winner in the 800m run and the 1600m run; Rachelle Zuehlke won the 400m dash; Melissa Braun the 200m dash, and the 8 lap and 16 lap relays of Schwartz, Gosa, Korth, Vogt and Salaj, Kalmus, Braudot, and Rausch also crossed the finish line first. Hopefully the girls will keep up their great "showings" in the meets to come.

KHS Boys Begin Tennis Season

The boys Tennis team began their season against Wayland Academy and although they didn't win, the inexperienced team got a feel of competitive play.

Coach Rosenthal lost his #'s 1, 2, 3 singles players and his #1 doubles team and only had four returning letterwinners. Those "returning" include Adam Miklas #1 singles, Ira Sison and George Walz #1 doubles team, and Jeff Brigham. Other team members include Dave Homuth, Shane Oppermann, Dan Staehler, Adam Pilanchowski, Jason Noren, Jeff Moulen, Bryan Blair, Sean Harris, Ryan Kertscher, Shawn Schneider, Mark Clement, Chris Weddig, Jason Miller, and Mark Piowarczyk.

According to Coach Rosenthal this is the largest turn out of boys tennis to date and hopefully the "strength in numbers" might prove a factor in seasons to come.

Next tennis meet will be against Plymouth away on April 18th with the first home meet April 20th against Sheboygan Falls.

Returning doubles team, George Walz, left, and Ira Sison, right, will be playing the No. 1 spot this year.

No. 1 singles player Adam Miklas returns a volley. Coach Rosenthal is expecting "good matches" out of this returning lettermen.

Freshman hopeful Shawn Schneider practices his serves at boys tennis practice.

RIPON COLLEGE WOMEN'S SOFTBALL OPENS SEASON

RIPON, WI; April 3, 1989 — The Ripon College women's softball team opened its season last Saturday with a pair of losses to a well-seasoned club from UW-Madison. The weather in Madison was nice for the opener but the Badgers were not quite so nice as the Redmen fell 10-4 in the first game and dropped the second game of the doubleheader 8-2.

Team leader for the Redmen was Sandy Secor (Kewaskum, WI), two hits in eight at bats, one stolen base, and one run batted in.

"Taking into account the fact that Saturday was the first time this spring we have been outside on a diamond, I thought we played reasonably well," commented Ripon head coach Doug Bradley. "We certainly are ahead of last year at this time, but we still have a number of things to work on. Even though we had 15 hits and played pretty good defense after the first four innings, we still need to work on making the key play on defense and coming up with the big hit with runners in scoring position."

KMS 7th Grade Boys Basketball

The young KMS Indians did not win any games this season, but a lot of progress was made during the year. In the last game, they made a tremendous showing against the undefeated Pewaukee team.

The boys hustled and worked hard in both games and during practice. They are looking forward to bigger and better things when they return as 8th graders.

The team members, coached by Dennis Reha, were: Erik Ankerson, Pat Bertram, Jamie Brown, Beau Coulter, Robby Donath, Jason Gaffke, Justin Hanson, Heath Heise, Mike Jandre, Steve Johann, Jesse Korth, Ryan Kurth, Chad Landvatter, Steve May, Chad Muckerheide, Jeff Oneska, Kevin Parish, Mark Stephani and Tony Strancke.

In the 47 nations where bowling is popular, there are an estimated 60 million bowlers.
