Traffic Accidents Claim Two Lives

Passenger Struck By Vehicle After Fall from Motorcycle

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department is continuing its investigation of a fatal traffic accident which occurred Saturday night, claiming the life of a West Bend man.

According to the Washington County Sheriff's Department, the incident occurred at approximately 9:11 p.m. As an off duty Washington County Sheriff's Department Deputy was traveling east on Highway 28, in the area of the Johnson Bus Company terminal, he struck a person lying in the eastbound lane of the road.

Because a Washington County officer was involved, the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department was called in to handle the investigation. According to witness reports, said Captain John Theusch of the Washington County Sheriff's Department, the victim was a passenger on a westbound motorcycle driven by a 31-year-old West Bend man. The victim, identified as Daryl D. Fettig, 33, of 203 South Street, West Bend, apparently stood up on the cycle losing his balance, falling into the path of the eastbound pickup truck being driven by off duty officer Daniel Lecher.

The driver of the motorcycle fled, however, he was arrested early Sunday morning by Fond du Lac County officials on information supplied by a witness who saw the cyclist leave the scene and Lecher who was able to get the license number. The cycle driver, identified as Ed Zimdahl, 31 of West Bend, was charged with operating a motor vehicle after license revocation.

Zimdahl said Fettig fell off the motorcycle right in front of the truck. Zimdahl, who was being held in the Washington County Jail, was released on a $750 recognizance bond and ordered to appear in court next month.

The Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department is continuing its investigation and turning its findings over to Washington County District Attorney Dennis Thornton for review. Charges of failure to render aid and leaving the scene of a fatal hit and run accident are also pending against Zimdahl.

Fettig was transported to St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend, by the Kewaskum Rescue Squad. He died at approximately 10:55 p.m. An autopsy was to be performed, however, the results would not be released.

Fettig had been a key witness in a 1986 inquest into the shooting deaths of Lee Luebke and Alan Guenther at a Town of Farmington egg farm. At that hearing Fettig had testified that his friend, Glenn Zimdars had shot the two men in self defense.

There were rumors about how Fettig died, but as of now it was an accident only, said Lt. Ed Sheppard of the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department. Fettig had allegedly received death threats after that testimony. Sheppard indicated nothing in his department's investigation of the accident had turned up anything to substantiate claims that Fettig's death was connected to that incident. If something should come out of the investigation, indicated Sheppard, we would look into it.

Barton Girl Is Victim of Fatal ATV/Truck Collision

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A fourteen year-old Town of Barton girl became Washington County's eleventh traffic fatality Monday night.

According to the Washington County Sheriff's Department, Debra Eisenberg, 14, of 3910 Schuster Drive, Town of Barton was killed when an ATV she was riding was hit in the rear by a pickup truck.

A Sheriff's Department spokesperson said the accident occurred about 8:24 p.m. on Schuster Drive, near Kettle View Drive. According to the preliminary report, an eastbound pickup truck, driven by Jamie Kahut, 16, of 6915 Colt Drive, West Bend, hit the rear end of the ATV which was either moving very slowly or stopped in the eastbound lane of Schuster Drive.

Eisenberg, a passenger on the ATV, was killed and the driver, Linda L. Habersetzer, 18, of 3986 Schuster Drive, was hospitalized with two broken ankles and other injuries.

The incident is still under investigation. The accident report has not been completed or any citations issued as yet.

Two Youths Are Cause Of Weekend Grass Fire

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Two youths, aged fourteen and fifteen were the cause of a grass fire in a marshy area along Highway 28, near Kettle Moraine Drive, in the Town of Kewaskum.

According to reports, the boys started a fire while they were fishing Friday afternoon in ponds south of Highway 28. The boys tried to put the fire out but it got away from them. They then called the Kewaskum Fire Department which arrived at the fire about 5:45 p.m. The youths were at the scene when firefighters arrived but then left.

The youths were later identified and admitted they had been the cause of the blaze. The Town of Kewaskum said it would charge the $500 cost of having to call out the fire department to the boys' families.

The fire had burned a sizable area along the pond shoreline and had begun to move up a hillside toward the state forest land.

The Kewaskum Fire Department responded to a second fire call Friday. This time to the Richard Ellis home at 1458 Parkview, in the village, where a clock-radio shorted out and fell into a wastebasket starting a small fire.

Chief Donald Ehnert said fire damage was minimal, however, there was considerable smoke damage throughout the house.

On Saturday Kewaskum firefighters responded to another grass fire, this time near the intersection of Ridge Road and Highway B.

Because of the extremely dry conditions, people are being urged to be careful with smoking materials and not discard cigarettes, etc., from the window of vehicles. Residents are also being advised not to burn any materials collected in the raking of their yards.

Village Board Okays Computer Systems For Municipal and Police Departments

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After hearing a factfinding report from Jerry Stollenwerk, who has experience in the area of computers and programming, the Kewaskum Village Board voted to approve the purchase of computer systems for the general village and police department operations.

Stollenwerk told the trustees Monday night, "Dan (Administrator Dan Schmidt) was after me while I was still president, to install a computer system for the village." At that time, noted Stollenwerk, I was reluctant to do it because of the cost. Stollenwerk said, in the past five years however, the costs have come down considerably on personal computers. "Today you can almost purchase the whole system for what just the PC's would have cost then."

Stollenwerk recommended the village go with a package presented by Conley, McDonald and Sprague which will include the complete equipment system, software, setup, training and consultation for $24,000.

For the Police Department, Stollenwerk recommended going with a package presented by Wang Laboratories at a cost of $3,753. He told the board Wang has already set up this system for five neighboring police departments. Stollenwerk said going with the Wang proposals would make it possible for Kewaskum's department to be compatible with other law enforcement agencies, allowing it to exchange information by using the same software such as the CLUES program.

On a 5-0 vote, the board voted to approve the purchase of the systems. Trustees Charles Boegel and Howard Laubenstein were absent.

In other Police Department related business, the board turned down a request by Chief Richard Knoebel to hire another full time officer as a replacement for two part time individuals who have quit the department.

Knoebel told the board it is extremely difficult to keep part time officers. "We spend $1,000 to $1,500 to train them and six or seven months later they quit and go to another community that can offer them full time employment with benefits." Knoebel said "we're training too many officers for other departments." Trustee

Marigold Foods, Inc., Wins Top National Dairy Quality Award; $10 Million Rochester Expansion Program Nearing Completion

Marigold Foods, Inc., the Kewaskum manufacturer of Kemps Milk and other dairy products, has been awarded the national Irving B. Weber Award for Excellence from the Quality Check Dairy Products Association. It is the fourth time that Marigold Foods has won the "Oscar of the Dairy Industry" since 1978.

Marigold also announced that its $10 million expansion program for its Rochester ice cream production plant is well on its way toward completion in fall 1989. The expansion will make Marigold's plant one of the most advanced computerized production sites in the dairy industry.

The Irving Weber Quality Award was given to Marigold on the basis of quality control lab tests and on-site plant audits conducted by Quality Check production staff. Marigold was chosen from three other finalists for the Weber award, with finalists named from 45 Quality Check Production Merit Award winners. The Merit awards are given to plants which exceed the Association's standards for product quality, outstanding plant sanitation, and cleanliness.

The Weber Award honors all five of Marigold's Upper Midwest plants - two Rochester plants for ice cream and milk, a Farmington facility for cultured products and cottage cheese, and milk bottling plants in Minneapolis and Kewaskum, Wisconsin.

"The highest standards of quality control have always been a tradition at Marigold Foods," notes Southern Division Vice President Herb Hakes. "For instance, each of Marigold's five plants actually compete to surpass each other in quality."

Specific illustrations of Marigold Foods' achievement by the award judges included:

- * Marigold's continuous cooling of defoamed milk, a difficult process.

- * An exceptional program to monitor product quality, involving more than 16,000 individual tests during 1988 at one plant alone.

In addition to the Weber Award, Marigold Foods earned two national Marketing Awards of Merit from the Association. Kemps won a national Marketing Award for Best New Product Introduction (the Minnesota debut of Kemps Frozen Yogurt) and for Brand Building (The Kemps Ice Cream "Sound of Mooosic" mooing competition).

The Chicago-based Quality Check Dairy Productions Association is the largest dairy products organization of its kind, with 42 member companies in 38 states.

High School Counselors Sharon Blank and John Baitinger are busy this spring. Not only do they work with individual students in the scheduling of 89-90 classes but they also conduct mini-sessions for college bound juniors.

At these sessions, juniors find out all the many different aspects of college including college admission policies, decisions making skills concerning which college to choose, financial aid information, and just general information necessary for them in their college search.

The students receive information from various colleges and can compare the quality education and additional options of the many colleges in our state and out. Said junior Brian Pesch "If you want to go to college it's a good way to find out what you need to know."

Ground Broken for $2.1 Million UWWC Expansion

WEST BEND — More than 100 chilled spectators watched here April 12 as ground was formally broken for a $2.1 million expansion project at the University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County.

"The last time we did this we battled mosquitos," master-of-ceremonies Ray Werhand said, referring to a 1980 campus expansion. "Today we're battling snow flakes."

Werhand, president of UWWC's University Council, directed a series of eight speakers to the podium placed just outside the Union cafeteria, where one of two major additions will be constructed. When the speakers picked their gold-painted shovels, ground was turned over from a fresh pile of earth unloaded earlier in the day.

Werhand explained that tests earlier in the day showed the ground was still too hard. "We couldn't get the shovel in," Werhand said.

Student Senator Margaret Martin of Kewaskum, representing the student body, told the crowd the expansion is "exciting."

She said that more space will mean "more classrooms, more study areas, more places to lay around and party, and read and breath and grow intellectually, emotionally and socially."

County Supervisor Leo Groh of West Bend said, "This was a lot of work for many people. The expansion is going to benefit us all whether we have someone in school or not."

Groh chaired the UWWC Board of Commissioners, the county-city body that coordinated the expansion project.

West Bend Mayor Michael Miller spoke of the swift agreement of city and county in backing the latest expansion, noting that the 1980 project had taken several years of effort. "The first experience was used as practice," he laughed. "This time we got things done in a timely fashion."

Reuben Schmahl of Jackson, chairman of the Washington County Board, also commented on the speedy agreement between county and city. He joked, "The next time we construct something here, there should be nothing to do. It should be a pushover."

Schmahl predicted the expansion will be "a help and benefit" to both city and county. He commended officials for handling the project like statesmen instead of politicians.

"A politician looks at the next election," he said. "A statesman looks at the next generation."

Tony Kucera, assistant chancellor of the 13 UW freshman-sophomore centers, praised the city and county for its careful planning of the project and its courage in moving ahead. He said, "An occasion like this is a cause for celebration at all the other centers."

He reaffirmed the state's commitment to support UWWC financially by paying the costs of campus operations, equipment and the hiring of faculty and staff.

Dion Kempthorne, acting dean at UWWC, expressed appreciation for the new building to the city, county and state taxpayers. He read a letter from Robert O. Thompson, who retired in February after 16 years at UWWC.

Thompson, writing from Florida, called the expansion "a significant step forward in the life of the Center." He said that students will benefit from the added space "for many generations to come."

In summing up the planning that resulted in the ground breaking, Werhand noted it had required "many studies, meetings, compromises, hard decisions" and leaders with "a commitment to growth in West Bend."

Werhand said, "Washington County is growing. UWWC is proud to be part of it."

WHEREAS: Our nation is fortunate to have an individual as faithful to the intent of the Constitution as George Washington, for our first national leader; and

WHEREAS: The process of government established by the Constitution and first implemented by George Washington still protects our liberties 200 years later in 1989, and continues to assure the ultimate authority of "We the People."

NOW THEREFORE: I, Paul E. Blumer, by virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the Village of Kewaskum, State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim April 16, 1989 through April 30, 1989 as a period of observance of the commemoration of the Inaugural Journey of George Washington from Mount Vernon, Virginia to New York City, and his subsequent Inauguration on April 30, 1789. I urge all our citizens to commemorate this historic time in our nation by participating and celebrating these dates and all events related thereto.

Richard Schlice asked how many had been lost in the last year. Knoebel replied, about six. He noted, however, that in the last fourteen years, not one full time officer has left the Kewaskum department.

Knoebel said a starting full time officer would cost about $30,000 a year, as compared to $19,000 for a part time position. "I can see your point," said Trustee Mary Krueger, "but that $11,000 makes a big difference." "I also think you're going to be hardpressed to find a lot of people in the village who feel we need another full time officer."

Trustee Kenneth Bonlender agreed with Krueger's comments. "Some people also feel that the village doesn't need 24-hour protection," said Bonlender.

Board president Paul Blumer stated, "I think we have to stay with 24-hour coverage, but I think we should give our part time program another try." Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the board that was the recommendation being made by the Police and Fire Commission. On a 5-0 vote, the board approved the commission's recommendation to continue to advertise for part time patrolmen.

In other action, the board approved the re-zoning of two Kewaskum properties after there were no objections to the requests voiced during their public hearings. The first rezoning covered the Norman and Maureen Heberer property at 133 Elm Street, changing it from R-3 duplex, to R-4 multi-family residential. The second request concerned a two-acre parcel owned by Henry and Carole Timblin, located just north of the Kewaskum Mall. That property will change from R-1 single family to R-4 multi-family.

The board also approved the installation of a street light at the end of Lin-De Lane in the Bel-Ric subdivision.

Schmidt and Krueger also updated the board on the county incineration project. The next phase, which is expected to cost about $30,000, is the location of a site for either a composting or incineration facility. Schmidt said, according to County Supervisor Dan Stoffel, the county appears to be leaning toward taking over the whole program again.

Schmidt told the trustees that since the village had pledged its continued support to the program, it would be helping to finance a portion of that cost. "We don't have anything budgeted, but we could go to the Restricted Fund," said Schmidt. The Incineration Committee's next meeting is for May 1st.

Two bids for the sale of the retired 1987 police squad were received and opened. The board approved sale of the vehicle to high bidder Woodside Motors of Long Island City, New York for a price of $3,502. The second bid came from Check Industries Wauwatosa, at $3,066.

The board briefly reviewed the sidewalk repairs program. Schmidt asked the board once again to consider recommendations for the cost sharing and the possible establishment of an ordinance restricting the planting of trees in the greenway. The project will be put on the May 1st agenda for action.

Bonlender advised the board that the village had received its share of the latest Countywide Library quarterly funding. Kewaskum's share was $2,870, a little better than 6% of the circulation.

In miscellaneous business, the board accepted the resignation of Trustee Howard Laubenstein who will be moving out of the village. Laubenstein served on the board for over seven years.

Schmidt noted a special election could be held to fill Laubenstein's unexpired term, however, that might not be possible before September, and by that time there would be less than six months left in the term. The board then approved a recommendation to advertise for letters of application from individuals who would be interested in filling the last year of the unexpired term. The board will then review the applications and make an appointment.

CORRECTION

In last week's article on the school budget, a portion of the second last paragraph concerning board president Ralph Horner's comments was inadvertently omitted. It should have stated;

Board president Ralph Horner indicated he would also like to see a 'zero' per cent increase for Clerical Aides. In noting there was a zero per cent increase for school board member salaries, board member Donald Nowak said, "I propose freezing administrative salaries."

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Armin Oppermann, who passed away April 19, 1975:

The world may change from year to year,
And friends from day to day
But never will the one we loved
From memory pass away.

Sadly missed by Ginny & family

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear son Barry Ehnert who passed away two years ago, April 21, 1987:

Softly the stars are shining upon a precious grave
Beneath sleeps one we dearly love

But whom we could not save
God saw that he was suffering
And the hills were hard to climb
So he closed his weary eyes in rest

And whispered "peace be thine"

Sadly missed by his family.

KHS Student Assistance Program Makes a Difference

Jackie Schoening

The Kewaskum High School's Student Assistance Program (S.A.P.) is definitely starting to "make a difference" among its students.

As it builds on its successes of students who are more well-adjusted and able to cope, Vice Principal Roy Esser had this comment, "The number of students in-school suspension is going down which is definitely a positive sign of students trying to adjust."

Although the total effectiveness of the program is not measurable, these small successes along with the general attitude of the school seem to be on the "up-swing."

The reason for the success in the high school is three-fold. First and foremost, for any program to be successful, it needs the backing of trained facilitators who are willing to volunteer their free time and spend it with students outside a classroom setting. At KHS, over 70% of our school's staff are involved in some way with S.A.P. and 30% are core trained. These people are willing to get involved for the sole purpose of doing just this: helping the students COPE. Said John Baitinger, high school guidance counselor and active supporter with the program, "It's so healthy when teachers can deal with students in the affective domain rather than the cognitive domain..." He feels this program is "helping kids deal with their feelings now so they can take care of themselves later." KHS facilitators, a strong, tight-knit group ready and willing to volunteer time to help kids.

The second factor in the S.A.P. success story is the excellent administrative and school board backing. Here at KHS, our administrators are trained in the S.A.P. program and they in turn use their knowledge and skills when a problem presents itself where they need to intervene. Our school board is not only aware of our program but is readily available to assist in any areas when needed. The more support at the core, the stronger the program. Because of those people, our program is solid-based.

The third success step is funding. We, at KHS have students and teachers who have been applying for various state funded grants to help aid our program. Recently we've applied for a "count on me" grant which is a $3,000.00 grant geared toward seniors at the high risk time of graduation. If awarded to us, this grant will be used solely for seniors as an alternative to drinking during senior week and plans to utilize the money are already in the making. Two such grants were worked on by teachers Connie Strand and Fran Charland along with District SAP Coordinator, Jackie Schoening, all of whom are very involved in the success of this program.

Students also applied for funding in the form of mini-grants and at the high school Bobby Castro, student council president and Joel Serwe, Powerlifting Club executive have applied for such grants with the Powerlifting Club grant being awarded to KHS recently. It was one of only ten in the CESA. These mini-grants again are to be utilized in such a way so that students can do something besides "count on chemicals." Mini-grants are "competitive" in that other schools are applying for them too and only so many get awarded (according to how much money is available). There is also a grant reader criteria in accordance with the DPI that must be met, therefore the Powerlifting Club was extremely happy with their recent grant award.

Besides these grants, the Kewaskum School Board has provided financial support. Said Schoening, "The Kewaskum School Board is very supportive and not only generates a positive influence to this program but provides the financial backing to keep it going." Schoening, herself is now grant writing for the next school year to enhance our existing program and build on some community networking. Community/parent involvement is the next phase of this program that Schoening wants to develop.

This is the second year of support at the high school.

Jackie Schoening school social worker came into our system through CESA (Cooperative Education Services Agency) to do various different things including start up this program. Schoening states, "I've been talking to other coordinators in other districts and our program is far above any of them, our support has been top-notch." According to high school facilitators, Schoening is "top-notch" also.

One of the things Schoening is coordinating is a spring program for "Active Parents" which will be facilitated by Mr. and Mrs. John Breeze. These parent sessions will consist of six two-hour sessions which will aid parents in coping skills and various other aspects of life with a child.

A goal Schoening also has is to get parents and community members, sheriffs, social services, secretaries, etc. all core trained so that our network system for S.A.P. is more broad-based. The more people we have familiar with the program, the more we can help... The kids need our help.

For more information on any S.A.P. program or service, please contact: Jackie Schoening MSW, SAP/AOD Coordinator, Kewaskum High School, 626-2166.

Support Groups at KHS

General Concerns — Students who are experiencing life problems: Home, school, social, drugs, etc. Group members are expected to gain skills in program solving and communication skills.

This is Kewaskum High School's biggest group mainly because problems seem to hit hardest at this age level. We stress the importance of learning how to cope with various situations and try to get students in tune with themselves and the world around them.

Health Concerns — Open to students who have any type of health problem. The students are expected to gain an acceptance of their condition and to adjust their lives accordingly.

For our school, this group calls itself the "Eating Disorders" group and contains students with anorexic or bulimic type behaviors. Due to the strong emphasis on exercise and diet in our society today, many young people feel they can not accept their bodies or themselves the way they are. In this group, they work on how to accept and cope with their conditions and themselves.

Concerned Persons — Students who are concerned about fellow students' chemical use and need to learn that they "can't change someone else, they can only change themselves and their situation." Students are taught skills in coping with various chemical situations and how to deal with chemically dependent friends.

At Kewaskum, we have many "concerned persons" and yet they fail to want to make it known that they have friends who drink too much. Thus at this time, the group isn't as large as the S.A.P. program staff would like it to be. The students who are involved feel that they are benefiting from the support of this group in that they can talk about their concerns with others who feel the same way. Stated one student, "I've learned that I can't change my friends until they realize they need help and I can't always feel so guilty myself when they drink."

Recovery — Open to students who have made a commitment to live a chemically free life after treatment has been received.

The group at Kewaskum has bound together in their struggle to stay chemically free and it helps all members of the group to know that they're not alone.

'Money Game' Paying $2.4 Million Weekly

MADISON...The Wisconsin Lottery is paying "Money Game" winners an average of $2.4 million per week, according to Lottery Executive Director William F. Flynn, Jr. "I think any time you're paying more than $2 million a week in prizes, you have a successful instant scratch game," Flynn said.

According to Lottery figures, more than $24.3 million has been paid to winners in the first ten weeks of the "Money Game."

"There have been a lot of instant winners claiming low-tier prizes of $25 or less," Flynn said, noting more than $22 million in prizes payments had been paid directly to winners by retailers at the low-tier level.

"High-tier prizes have accounted for more than $2 million in winnings, while the weekly television show paid more than $300,000 in prize winning to participants during its first six weeks," Flynn explained.

Included in the "Money Game" show participants for the April 15 production of the weekly telecast were: Adell: Robert Reksten; Kewaskum: Sandra Bonlender, Richard Thiemer, Sr.

The average person is said to get 140 colds in his lifetime.

STAND BY ME

Some adults in Washington County need someone to stand by them. Because they are disabled and determined by a court to be unable to care for themselves, they need a guardian to look after their needs.

Volunteer Guardians, under the Guardianship Services Program of Washington County, help insure that disabled adults have a proper home, the right food, and appropriate medical care. They act to protect their rights and their dignity.

More volunteers are needed. As a competent and caring adult, you are invited to consider how you can help another human being who asks you, "Stand by me."

WOMAN'S CLUB to MEET APRIL 27 to
HAVE DEMONSTRATION

Kewaskum Statesman, Friday, April 21, 1989, Page 11

Letter to the Editor:

Concerning the sit-in held in the Kewaskum High School, it truly was a "situation that was out of emotion and not logic" as so stated by a student.

About 3 months ago, the taxpayers were hearing comments and rumors about a possible large increase in the school budget. At that time it was the job of the Administrator and his staff to find ways to trim the budget.

The administrator and High School Principal should have taken a look at the class sizes after the tentative selection of subjects were done by the students. We, as taxpayers, can't accept class sizes of 8-11-16 students. (Unless so stated, for computer, etc.) That isn't utilizing our staff properly, or to the best of it's potential.

The suggested budget is $8,083,454.00. That is an increase of $652,568.00 over last years' budget. Of this increase, $550,792.00 is for employees' salaries and benefits. It's a shame, but wouldn't you say, with all common sense, that this is the place to start trimming?

This board will have to "bite the bullet," probably making decisions that are not always acceptable to a few. But we, as taxpayers can't continue to pay higher taxes. Members will have priorities but will have to justify them to us. They would be given guidelines from the Administrator, which would help the board make those kind of decisions.

Last year the mill rate per thousand was $13.88. The proposed budgets' mill rate is $16.92 per thousand. That is an increase of about 22% or $3.04 per thousand. Last year, the board voted to use some of the fund equity (the cash flow savings acct.) to bring our taxes down to a .52c increase. They can't continue to do this or soon the District will have to start borrowing money. My children would also have been upset if their favorite teacher was dismissed. So the reaction of these students is understandable. With some proper direction from the Administrator and his staff, let's hope this type of incident doesn't happen again.

Sincerely,
Jeanne Goden

A Letter from the President of the Board of Directors of Kewaskum Area United Way

Kewaskum Area United Way is now in the process of merging with United Way of Washington County. The primary reason for this move is manpower. Better stated the lack of manpower. The personnel we have had over the years have done a remarkable job of collecting and disbursing over a quarter million dollars.

The problem we have been facing is replacing these volunteers on our board of directors, drive chairman, etc. There has been precious little interest shown when soliciting volunteers throughout our eleven year existence. The same people have had to remain in their positions just to keep the organization up and running.

Another reason for merging is duplication of effort. Washington County United Way funds all the agencies we do. This led to the funded agencies having to fill out numerous forms with different figures because our fiscal years didn't coincide.

We hope that you all will continue to support the United Way through the Washington County organization. There are many local people helped by the fine organizations they support. Incidentally any leftover funds will be donated to the KEYS scholarship fund.

Sincerely,
J. Dennis Connor

To The Editor:

On behalf of our present and future frail and handicapped residents; our volunteer board members of the Benevolent Corporation of the Cedar Lake Home Campus; our staff and wonderfully sharing host of volunteers; I wish to thank the residents and Board members of the Town of West Bend and Washington County for supporting the renovation of our Cedar Lake Home Campus Fellowship House. This 415 skilled bed long term and rehab short term facility (including Alzheimers) will well serve the people of the community with the finest professional quality care possible. This includes our special rehabilitation program for children and out-patients.

This month we began our 37th year of health care and educational services to people from all walks of life. As a voluntary non-profit agency, we look forward to continuing to meet the challenges of community need, using all of our resources to glorify the Lord in helping and sustaining the frail, the handicapped, the aged and those seeking continuation of growing and maturing.

Sincerely,
Rev. L. C. Riesch

The Kewaskum Woman's Club will meet Thursday, April 27, at 7:30 in the Community Room of the Municipal Bldg. The program is "For the Fashion Minded." There will be a demonstration on tying the ever popular scarf by a J.C. Penny store demonstrator. You may bring your scarf and practice tying.

We will also have a raffle of spring plants.

You may bring a guest but inform the hostesses. Hostesses are Midge Swanson, Isabelle Straub and Mary Ann Miller.

Burglaries Cleared

The Washington County Sheriff's Department has cleared ten home and business burglaries which had occurred in the County in recent months.

Four Hartford men face charges for two burglaries they allegedly committed at houses on Wildwood Ridge Road and Hubertus Road in the Town of Richfield. Three of these men have also been charged with burglaries on Emerald Drive and Highway K in the Town of Erin.

Four burglaries were solved with the arrests of three Milwaukee men. Homes on Pleasant Valley and Sherman Road in the Town of Polk, and a home on Kettle View Road in the Town of Barton were involved.

Two Hartford men were charged with burglary at a tavern on Highway 41 in the Town of Polk and two Hartford teenagers were arrested for a home burglary on Lake Drive, Pike Lake, in the Town of Hartford.

Finally, two West Bend men were arrested for their burglary of a Woodford Drive residence in the Town of Barton.

Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis credited Detective Mark Jansen, Detective Robert Miotke, Deputy Marie Joers, and Deputy Tim Ewing for their work in clearing the burglaries. The Sheriff also assured residents that the incidents were unrelated and isolated.

The Sheriff did encourage residents to take the basic crime prevention precautions of using night lighting of front and back yard areas to deter vandalism, and the use of good locks and doors to prevent burglary. "We have encouraged these steps for many years, since no one can predict when or where a burglar will strike," the Sheriff indicated.

Dairyland Seed's Soybean Sales Skyrocket!

Bernard Thelen of Berlyn Acres in Fowler, Michigan, won the 1988 Dairyland Seed Yieldmaster Contest with Dairyland Seed's DSR-287 which yielded 81.73 bu/a.

Current bookings show Dairyland's sales of DSR soybean varieties are at record levels! With spring planting only a few months away, almost every soybean variety handled by Dairyland is sold out.

"1989 will mark the third consecutive year Dairyland is experiencing record sales," said Tom Strachota, Executive Vice-President. "Our 1989 sales volume is nearly four times greater than what we sold three years ago and is more than twice the size of our sales two years ago."

Strachota credited aggressive dealers and sound research for the sales increase.

"This geometric increase in sales is because of the aggressiveness of our dealer force in taking these products forward. The only reason our 1988 sales won't be even greater is because of supply constraints caused by this summer's drought."

Fundamental to the successful sales effort by our dealer force are the sound products our Research Department had developed."

Dairyland's soybean research has its hubs at Clinton, Wisconsin, and Gibson City, Illinois, with test locations throughout the corn belt and upper Midwest.

Strachota pointed out that the development of the newest DSR's was a culmination of years of research effort.

"Our research staff has been working diligently the past ten years to develop these superior varieties. Farmers are now able to reap the benefits of those earlier years with our current product lineup," Strachota said.

One of the keys to Dairyland's success has been its ability to incorporate pest resistance into its varieties without sacrificing yield.

"Our focus has been on stopping the yield robbers. However, our research efforts today are both offensive and defensive in nature. We need defensive strategies to fight against the yield robbers while we incorporate offensive strategies to bring high yield into that same variety," Strachota stated.

"Dairyland's 1988 DSR production goals were quite high which enabled us to have a terrific increase despite the drought. Our 1989 production goals are again very high."

Strachota was asked if Dairyland was taking some risks with such a large production commitment for 1989. He responded, "It's a matter of confidence. We know the productions are superior and we're confident in the ability of our sales force to sell this production."

He painted a very bright picture for DSR soybean sales in the future.

"Based on the acceptance of our products to date, we see no reason why this should change. Our DSR varieties are making us a growing force in the soybean industry."

Kewaskum FFA to Sponsor Annual Rabies Clinic

Enjoying his work! Dr. Greg Ogi enjoys administering another rabies vaccination to one of man's best friends. All pets should be vaccinated as a safeguard to the pet, as well as the people the animal comes in contact with.

It is the time of year to once again begin thinking about having pets vaccinated against rabies. Wisconsin is one of the leading states in rabies reported cases, a statistic the state could do without. The Kewaskum chapter of FFA is concerned about the problem. Along with local veterinarians, Doctor Charles and Greg Ogi, the chapter will conduct a rabies clinic on Tuesday, April 25, 1989, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Kewaskum High School agricultural shop. The vaccines will be administered at a reduced cost of $5.00 per animal, with the proceeds from the clinic going to the Ogi Scholarship Fund.

Rabies is an acute disease caused by a virus. The most common form of contamination is by means of a bite from an animal containing the virus bearing saliva.

The incubation period is variable, but signs of the disease may become visible within 15 to 20 days after contamination. The first sign is general loss of appetite and a change of behavior. The second phase is known as the paralytic form, where paralyzation and salivary excretion begin. The third phase, or sign, is the furious form, where the animal becomes very irrational and viciously aggressive. Dogs rarely live more than 10 days after the onset of these signs.

For more information about rabies and accompanying symptoms, consult your local veterinarian or physician.

Students Visit Television Studio

Another "set" on Channels 10 and 36 is looked over by students Chad Schmidt, Bruce Bodden and Pam Johann. This kitchen definitely looks real.

Over 50 students from Mr Chambers and Mrs. Telschow's Mass Media classes had the unique opportunity of visiting a real television studio this month.

In correlation with a television unit they're working on, the students were taken to the channel 10/36 studio in Milwaukee to see how television production is put together.

The students found out that many factors play a part in getting a program on the air and they also learned about all the various equipment that's utilized, and the cost of each one.

They walked through an actual "set," checked out the cameras, and walked through a "prop" room. They were amazed at all the various props that are kept on hand for shows and also learned that a set that isn't "permanent," (meaning it stays up for a week or more) ends up being made of materials such as styrofoam to cut down on costs.

The students toured the office area, the director/producer area and also viewed a control booth and all of its operations.

The conclusion of the tour included a question/answer period where the students could ask more about any of the equipment or find out about what it takes to get a job in this field. The trip was very informative and a worthwhile venture for all involved.

Mass Media student Lee Kurth sits on the set where "Wisconsin Business Report" is filmed while on a recent field trip of Channels 10 and 36 in Milwaukee.

KHS Clothing Class Experiences Tie Dying

Some of the students that tie-dyed were Trisha Repinski, Tammy Sabish, Linda Jacobs, Leslie Flom, Mr. Nell, Sheila Susen.

Tie dying is the event that was going on the week of March 12th in the clothing room by the fashion and design I students. It was taught by Mr. Nell and Mrs. Froelich.

Mrs. Froelich wanted to do something new this year in her clothing classes. One of the suggestions that everyone liked was tie dying. So she decided to try it with the semester I clothing classes.

The idea came off really well and everyone enjoyed it. The students were excited to untie their shirts and see how everybody's design was so unique.

Mr. Nell was asked to help with this project since he had prior experience in tie dying.

Farmington Brownie Troop 61 Exploring 'Worlds of Interest'

The girls of Farmington Brownie Troop 61 have had a busy year exploring the five worlds of interest. Participation in the Kewaskum Area World Friendship Folk Fair at Paradise Mall in March helped the girls learn about the World of People. They chose to study Japan and created a booth relating to the Japanese culture, displaying food, clothes, dolls, toys and flags. Especially fun was learning the ancient art of origami (paper folding). Each girl made a Japanese paper doll.

In the World of Today and Tomorrow, the girls experienced science in action as they earned the Science Magic try-it. They made rock candy crystals, did a magnet hunt, learned about static electricity, and did chemistry magic.

The girls also displayed their creativity in the World of the Arts earning the Puppets, Dolls and Plays try-it. They enjoyed learning about safety through role playing, as well as creating puppets of their own.

Try-its were also earned from the World of Well - Being and the World of the Out-of-Doors. Troop 61's energetic 16 girls will receive their awards at the May awards banquet.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING STATE OF WISCONSIN Village of Kewaskum

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given to all persons in the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, that a public hearing will be held on May 1, 1989 at 8:00 p.m. in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street in the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, to solicit comments on proposed shoreland wetland zoning ordinance provisions which are intended to meet the requirements of Chapter NR 117, Wis. Adm. Code. Those wetlands identified on final Wisconsin Wetland Inventory maps on file in the office of the village clerk which are located in the shoreland area must be regulated by the village. The shoreland area consists of lands within the following distances of the ordinary highwater mark of navigable waters:

- 1,000 feet from a lake, pond or flowage.
- 300 feet from a river or stream, or to the landward side of the floodplain, whichever distance is greater.

The proposed regulations are intended to protect shoreland wetlands and will govern the uses permitted in wetlands near rivers and lakes. Activities such as dredging, filling, draining, excavating and construction of buildings are generally prohibited, but various open space uses including agriculture, forestry and parkland are allowed (but may require a land use permit from the village zoning authority for certain development and maintenance activities.) Any use not permitted in a shoreland wetland is prohibited unless the wetland is rezoned pursuant to procedures and standards specified in the proposed ordinance.

All persons interested are invited to attend this hearing and be heard. Written comments may be submitted to:

Hurricane force winds gusting to 81 miles an hour in the LaCrosse area and to 61 miles an hour in the Kewaskum vicinity Monday pounded the state. Buildings were damaged, power and communications knocked out and trees felled. The high wind continued on Tuesday and caused some further damage, although of a lesser velocity.

In Kewaskum, a large limb broke off a tree in front of Holy Trinity School and fell on a parked car owned by Mrs. Harvey Jandre. The car was slightly dented and scratched! The fallen limb also blocked traffic on Main Street for a short time until village crews sawed it into pieces and hauled it away.

The Milwaukee Beagle Club's derby trial was held on Hwy. 45 at Kewaskum Sunday. Joe Eberle's beagle hound, Little Bannister, won first place in the 15-inch class. On Saturday the same dog owned by Eberle capped second place at the Waukesha Beagle Club trial.

Three cars were damaged in a pileup on Hwy. 45 in the Kewaskum swamp area south of the village about 8:28 p.m. last Friday when a car stopped to avoid hitting a deer which ran onto the roadway. The deer was in a herd of several animals.

A car driven by Dorothea Schwandt, 17, of Campbellsport, stopped behind the first auto when a following vehicle driven by William Timken of Milwaukee, unable to stop in time, collided with the Schwandt auto. The Timken car was then struck by another following car operated by Robert A. Thelen, 23, of Campbellsport, which was also unable to stop. Injured was Clara Timken, 66, of West Bend, who suffered a possible neck injury.

One hundred volunteer firemen of Fredonia, Belgium and Waubeka waged an unsuccessful fight early Wednesday to save the burning warehouse and office building of the Fredonia Canning Co.

Loss of the building and damage to 50,000 cases of canned goods was estimated at $100,000 by George Meyer of Fredonia, president of the company.

The cause of the fire had not been determined Wednesday, according to Walter Klumb chief of the Fredonia department.

Development of the Kettle Moraine state forest park in Fond du Lac and Sheboygan counties on an extensive scale was started last Friday with the beginning of a WPA project calling for the planting of 375,000 trees in the southwestern part of the area.

The planting program is part of a $26,156 project sponsored by the state conservation commission. The project will continue through August and will employ 50 men at the start and 80 men after July 1.

Last Saturday afternoon while Arnold Bartelt was splitting some wood at his home near this village, a piece of it flew up and struck him across the eye, cutting a bad gash across the eyeball and also into the pupil of the eye. It was at first thought the eye could not be saved, but the attend-physician, after being in consultation with an expert from Milwaukee, thought the injury could be overcome, or at least partly so.

At the first meeting of the newly elected village council, Tuesday evening, Arthur W. Koch received the unanimous vote for appointment as trustee for the unexpired term left vacant when William Hess moved away from this village.

Deer Released in Kettle Moraine

Several of you probably remember seeing the news reports of deer doing damage in the River Hills Area and the subsequent trapping of these deer.

As of April 2nd a total of 68 deer have been released on the state property in the Kettle Moraine from Kewaskum up to Dundee. The sex, age break down for these deer is as follows: 30 adult doe, three adult bucks, 19 doe fawn, and 16 buck fawn. The deer will have a numbered round ear tag that is orange, blue or white in color. Six of the deer in the Kettle Moraine State Forest also have radio transmitters, which are being monitored on a weekly basis to get an idea on movements. One of the radio transmitters is either not working or the deer has moved out of the area, and the signal can not be picked up.

If you do run across one of these deer, we would like a report. Hopefully, that will not happen until the up coming hunting season, but car kills and death by natural causes should be reported to myself or the Mauthe Lake Office. We are interested in the movement of these "City Deer."

The trapping of these deer will continue through April 15th, so a few more will be released in the forest area.

KHS Trackmen Displaying 'Hot' Performances Despite Cold Spring

Senior Marty Schulteis tied the 50 yard high hurdle record and has his eye on state again this year in this event.

Coach Charland has no complaints about his new track position or the performances of his trackmen this season. Although the Indians are 1-3 in the conference (out-running Kiel but suffering losses to Chilton, Sheboygan Falls, and New Holstein) various individuals continue to do an outstanding job in their various "specialties."

Seniors Marty Schulteis and Ryan Degnitz are the "dynamic duo" in the high and low hurdle events and if one isn't taking first, the other is by mere tenths of a second. Said Coach Charland of the two, "Marty and Ryan are good competition between good friends. Each pushes the other to be the best."

Other noted runners include Chris Donath who "kicked" out a come from behind 1st place in the 800 meter run and the 400 meter relay team of Dan Fischer, Aaron Miller, Mark Hartmann, and Randy Schlice who captured a first place at Chilton.

On the field, senior Jeff Taylor continues to be a dominating force in the shot put. Taylor's best heave of 49'8" not only got him a first place in the Washington County invitational but the school record as well.

The main thing hurting the boys track team this year is numbers. Because track is an individual sport, you can excel according to how much you're willing to work... but "we don't have the kids this year and that's hurting us" stated Coach Charland. He did have praise for the boys that were out for track commenting "The kids that are out are all quality kids and I've been seeing good effort."
