Board Rescinds Approval of Middle School 'House Plan'

School Board Stands Behind It's Plan to Reduce Staffing

Andrew Degnitz of Kewaskum addressed the Kewaskum Board of Education during its special meeting Monday night. He was one of approximately 200 persons attending the meeting as the board discussed class consolidations and staffing reductions.

Statesman Staff Writer

Monday night's special meeting of the Kewaskum Board of Education proved to be a highly charged and emotional one as the audience, made up largely of students and teachers, argued against the board's plan to consolidate high school classes and reduce staffing.

What the group got for its efforts was not what it had hoped for. On a 4-3 vote, the board did, under the guidance of newly elected president Neal Weare, decided to rescind its action of April 10th. A motion from that meeting asked for consolidation of class sections along with the dropping of five classes including Agriculture, which would be offered on an alternate year basis.

In making that motion, board member Perry Ankerson had sought to reduce staffing by approximately three to five full time equivalent (FTE) teaching positions.

What the approximately 200 people attending the meeting got in exchange, however, may prove to be even more upsetting, approval of a motion made by board member Ruth Schmitt to reduce staffing throughout the district by four teachers, including non-replacement of a high school position which will become vacant due to a retirement, plus the elimination of six overload sections. This could result in an even higher staff reduction of 6.1 FTE positions.

Before the board took any action, however, Administrator David Heather presented it with a counterproposal for staffing reductions. He indicated his recommendation could eliminate two teachers and six overload sections for a gross reduction of 4.1 FTE's including 1.1 on overload plus a retirement for a net reduction of 3.6 teachers.

Heather recommended combining Ag 1 and 2, for the 1989-90 school year and then

First Round of Cuts Trims School Budget Slightly

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

During its special meeting Monday night, the Kewaskum Board of Education again directed a major portion of its attention to the proposed budget for 1989-90. This time it reviewed a second draft of the proposal which contained cuts as discussed at the April 10th meeting.

Business Manager Cherna Gorder informed the board she had made the various reductions in several areas of the budget including teacher salaries, benefits, buildings and grounds and equipment purchases, as requested at that meeting. She noted, however, that the second draft total expenditures figure of $7,913,233, or a 6.49% increase, was already outdated. With the reduction of $70,000 for two cut teaching positions, total expenditures would drop to $7,843,233, representing an increase over 1988-89 of 5.5%.

The latest changes in the budget would reflect a total levy of $4,110,967, an increase of 15.2% as compared to the first draft increase of approximately 22%. If there were no increase in equalized value, that would still represent a 15.2% increase in the mill rate from $13.88 for 1988-89, to $15.99 for 1989-90.

If the district, however, was fortunate enough to see at least a 5% increase in equalized value, that mill rate could drop to $15.23, an increase of 9.7%. That would still represent an increase of $1.35 per $1,000 of assessed value over the 1988-89 figure.

There is $400,000 of new expenditures said Gorder, and

'River Fest '90' Needs Your Input to Become a Reality

At its monthly meetings, the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce has been discussing the possibility of a weekend "River Festival," as an annual summer event, beginning in the year 1990.

We want to make it hard for people to stay away!

Fire Damages Rural Campbellsport Home

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A fire last Friday severely damaged the home of a rural Campbellsport family and the cause is being listed as a child playing with a cigarette lighter.

The Michael Wiesner home on Elmore Drive, near Lake Bernice, was heavily damaged by fire and water damage. According to reports, the living room and kitchen were destroyed by the blaze and a downstairs bedroom suffered heavy water damage.

The fire reportedly started when a living room couch caught fire as a three-year old child played with a cigarette lighter. The youngster's mother attempted to pull the burning couch through a doorway to get it outside however the flames spread to drapes on a patio door. The woman then called the Campbellsport Fire Department at 9:20 a.m.

Personnel from the Kewaskum and Eden Fire Departments assisted Campbellsport in fighting the fire.

According to Campbellsport Fire Chief Phil Hahn, the home, which was being remodeled, was not covered by fire insurance. An estimate of the fire damage was not available.

going to the alternate year plan in 1990-91. He also recommended returning as many of the cut classes as possible back into the schedule.

When Ankerson asked Heather exactly where the staffing reductions would be made, he could not give a specific answer. Ankerson told fellow board members he thought it was inappropriate to be asked to vote on a plan when it can't be seen what specific changes have been made. "How in the devil can we vote on something if we don't know what's going to happen?" asked Ankerson.

Newly elected board member Paul Seymour agreed with Ankerson's comments. "Where are the two teachers," questioned Seymour. He noted he'd read this report and it didn't tell him anything as to where those reductions are being made.

As the discussion continued, Schmitt said it was her goal to keep as many classes in place as possible.

Ankerson told the meeting, "This administration has had a year to address the issues and the school board years." "And nobody took any action of any kind. To sit back on your hands and do absolutely nothing is a travesty. I think it's time we stood up and took charge of the job put before us. We're so far away from accomplishing something its sad."

In making her motion Schmitt noted layoff notices have to be given. She said she hoped, however, that the district's financial picture would improve so that these teachers could be reinstated.

One student, who is a junior, asked the board what would happen to students who would be put on waiting lists for classes they would need for graduation. The board was confused by her statement and Weare asked what "waiting list" she was referring to. The girl said the waiting list mentioned in a letter from the guidance counselors. The entire board indicated it had no knowledge of the letter or the waiting list. Weare asked who had authorized the letter. High School Counselor Sharon Blank said she had prepared the letter upon direction from High School Principal LeRoy Kopecky. Kopecky said he authorized the letter in the event there would be waiting lists as the result of class consolidations. Some of the board members felt Kopecky's action was somewhat premature and alarmed students unnecessarily.

In refuting student comments that the school board was laying off some of their favorite and younger teachers, board member Donald Nowak stated, "We don't pick which teachers go, the union does that, talk to them."

When more than an hour's discussion finally ended, the board, on a 5-2 vote, passed Schmitt's motion. Ronald Beimborn and John Schulte voted against it.

In other business the board rescinded action it had taken at its March 13th meeting approving institution of a 'House Plan' at the Middle School. That plan would have also required the addition of a half time teaching position, bringing one part time teacher to full time status.

In discussing the plan again, several board members indicated they had been led to believe there would be no other added cost except for the partial increase in one teaching position.

Middle School principal Stephen King was also asked if the new plan resulted in a reduction of teacher class contact time. He reluctantly indicated it did. Several board members then asked why the union had indicated it planned to negotiate increases for positions where contact time was being reduced. Nowak noted he was somewhat confused by what he was hearing. According to comments made by George Allmann at that March meeting, said Weare, no contract adjustments had been anticipated. Several teachers in the audience indicated that assumption was not correct.

On a 6-1 vote, the board moved to rescind its approval of the Middle School house plan. Schulte cast the only dissenting vote.

The position of district social worker was again addressed in a short discussion. While the administration and teachers had hoped to see the job increased to a full time position, Ankerson moved to abolish the post completely. He said the four guidance counselors could pick up the slack and the district could refer to outside professionals when a situation warranted such service. On a 6-1 vote the board defeated the motion retaining the position on a half time basis.

no new (and some lost) revenues so every dollar has to be added to the levy. She noted it is not easy to explain why, with only a 5.5% increase in total budget expenditures, you have a 15% increase in the levy. Revenue losses and decreases in state aid have to be made up somewhere to balance the budget and that somewhere is by adding them to the tax levy and collecting them from the taxpayer.

The board also looked at a three-year capital expenditures plan that would involve long-term borrowing. It took no action on the proposal, returning it to the Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Committee for further review.

The board's final action of the evening was to approve the addition of second through eighth grade reading to the list of classes to be offered as part of the summer school program.

A noisy six-year-old was running up and down the aisles on an airplane, bothering the passengers. Finally, one man looked up from his newspaper and said, "Sonny, why don't you run outside and play?"

KHS English Class Tours Valley Bank

Mrs. Telschow's Practical English class learned about banking and finance first hand last week Thursday in a presentation and tour conducted by Sue Coffman, a loan officer with the Valley Bank.

This field trip began with a presentation on the various aspects of banking. First off, the students heard about savings accounts and why they're important and then the topic moved to checking accounts. Ms. Coffman answered questions on how to open each type of account and also why a minimum balance is required. Credit cards and Tyme cards was the next issue discussed and it was stressed that although having a credit card might seem "nice" there are "negatives" in using them incorrectly.

Ms. Coffman then discussed the various loans that can be applied for at the bank and what the bank looks for when determining whether or not, the loan gets "ok'd."

The whole theme dealt with during this presentation centered around "money management and its importance" even now in high school.

Packets were distributed to each class member and the field trip ended with a tour of the bank. Students viewed the different offices and work areas and had the opportunity to ask questions about each.

Overall the field trip was a great learning experience and the students all gained insight into banking. Thank you, Valley Bank.

Busy Cub Scouts Discover Alaska

During the first month the cub scouts have been discovering our state of Alaska. They have been checking our information from the library, making soap carvings of Alaskan items and animals, made Alaskan ceremonial blankets and an Alaskan toy called a gazinta. One den made a snowfort and sat in it, relating to an Alaskan igloo.

The rest of the month they were busy making Easter cards and crafts for their parents. They also made time for some fun times like visiting Kewaskum Frozen Foods, having balloon races, and one den had a chance to go to Dairy Queen for the good behavior candle being burned down. This candle is lit at each meeting and if the boys misbehave the candle is blown out. So this proves that the boys must have been angels.

The Webelow dens also were working on activity pins in the area of communication, and the readyman. They are learning sign language and learned how to save someones life when they were choking.

Keep up the good work.

Life today could be aptly described as a jigsaw puzzle with a PEACE missing.

A Familiar Face... Leaving Wayne

With a smile and a joke, Barney Strobel waited on bar patrons. Strobel, owner of Barney's Tavern and Dance Hall in Wayne, is retiring after 40 years in the business.

Mike Strobel joined his father Barney "behind the bar."

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Barney's Tavern and Dance Hall has been a Wayne gathering place for almost 40 years but come Monday morning, things just won't be the same. The building will still be there but its name and the faces behind the bar will be different.

Barney Strobel, after forty years as a Wayne tavernkeeper, has decided to retire and enjoy the good life. This is the last week 'behind the bar' for Barney who came to Wayne in 1949. "When I first came here I ran a tavern around the corner on Highway H. Two years later, in February 1952, I moved over here on Highway W and opened Barney's Tavern and Dance Hall. I've been here since," said Strobel.

"When I opened this tavern beers were 5c a glass or 21 for a dollar and whiskey was 20c a shot," stated Strobel. Barney's has been the site of many a dance and brat fry over the years.

Strobel was especially proud of the fact that his hall served as Wayne's Town Hall. "We held all our meetings and elections here," he said. "Our place was the only tavern in Wisconsin where they voted until two years ago when they built the new town hall."

When asked what his retirement plans were, Barney said, "first thing I'll be doing is getting my new car." Strobel said he hasn't bought it yet. "I haven't had the time we've been so darn busy lately, but I've been shopping around and pretty much decided its going to be a Buick."

Other than that Strobel doesn't have a lot lined up. "Joanie (Strobel's wife) and I will be moving into our new place in West Bend but during the summer we're going to spend most of our time at the house on Long Lake."

"I've already been offered ten different jobs bartending but I'm not real interested" said Strobel. "If I wanted to stay tied down I would have kept this place."

Barney's son Mike was at the tavern during this interview. When I asked him if he had considered taking over the business he said "no way, I was born and raised here and that's enough, besides my wife would kill me if I took on another job."

Barney's new owners, Chris and Cindy Canter of Wayne will take over on May 1st. Strobel jokingly said, "I think they're going to call the place CC's or maybe Used To Be Barney's."

There is no bait that really works when you are fishing for compliments.

Easter Seals Summer Camp

For hundreds of handicapped Wisconsin residents, summer means Easter Seals' summer camp. And now is the time to apply to attend those camps, before it is too late!

The Easter Seal Society of Wisconsin runs two camps for physically handicapped children and adults — Easter Seals Camp Wawbeek and Pioneer Camp. Both are located on a 400+ acre wooded site in the Wisconsin Dells.

Easter Seals Camp Wawbeek serves campers from eight through adult, offering a two-week program of swimming, campouts, cookouts, archery, crafts, and much more to its campers.

At Easter Seals Pioneer Camp, campers from 10 to adult, are involved in canoeing, extended campouts, and a generally more strenuous program.

Sessions at both camps are organized by age groupings and begin June 11.

For applications, financial information and answers to questions about Easter Seal camping, contact Delores P. Harder, R.N., Washington County Camp Chairperson at Community Health Nursing Service, 432 East Washington Street, West Bend, or telephone: 338-4462, 644-5204, or 342-2929.

Pony Express Campaign Set at Holy Trinity

A "trail boss" breakfast and commissioning of workers Sunday will kick off the Pony Express Run at Holy Trinity Church, Kewaskum.

The program is based on the same concept as the Pony Express of more than a century ago - teamwork.

Some 68 members of the parish will fill the roles of trail bosses and station agents and will attend the breakfast for a quick briefing.

Parish families on the Pony Express run will be relaying finance campaign saddlebags to gather "estimate of giving" cards.

General manager Randy Schickert along with his five station agents will hand out the saddlebags and run route lists at the breakfast.

The relay of saddlebags among parish members will begin early that same afternoon. Each saddlebag bears the names of a number of parish families. A family fills in a giving estimate card, seals it in an envelope and inserts it in the saddlebag pouch and then hand-carries the bag to another of the families on the route.

Each trail boss is responsible for supervision of the relaying of one saddlebag to the families on its list. The trail bosses report periodically to station agents.

Psychology Class Applies Learning Theories

Seniors Joel Serwe, Mark Hartman and Marty Schulteis apply a new learning theory to a recent psychology class in which Middle School students also participated.

The Kewaskum High School psychology class taught, by Mr. Dave Rhode, got a chance to apply many different learning theories in a classroom environment last month as part of a major assignment. The main goal of the program was to initiate a meaningful learning experience for the eight students, four of which were from the middle school.

Five different groups of student teachers proposed various methods of teaching the political spectrum. The diverse method of teaching these students ranged from positive reinforcement discovery, curiosity, lecture, and interpersonal relationships between teachers and pupils or a combination of these. After the presentation, the pupils were tested on their comprehension of the material. All methods displayed were successful.

The Psychology students were able to gain more insight into what makes effective instruction and they also got an idea as to what a teacher goes through when looking for the most effective method to use in class.

High Quality Projects Constructed at KHS

Senior Ryan Verhunce displays his wood cabinet making project, a solid oak gun cabinet, lined in red velvet, and able to hold 12 guns.

Wood - Cabinet Making class, conducted by Mr. David Stradtman, provides students with the unique opportunity of making different types of wood cabinetry.

One of the fine quality projects of this semester is a gun cabinet constructed by senior Ryan Verhunce.

Ryan used a basic design and altered it to his specifications to create a gun cabinet which will hold up to 12 guns. The cabinet is made of solid oak, stained a light walnut, and the inside is lined with red velvet. It cost Verhunce approximately $200.00 to make this and it would cost at least $600.00 in the store.

It took Ryan about one school quarter, or nine weeks to design and construct this project and he plans on keeping it for himself after all the work he put into it. Said Mr. Stradtman, "It's a very nice project."

'Classy' Project

Matt Whitaker

Senior Matt Whitaker, a transfer student to Kewaskum High School from Pulaski at semester, recently completed a "classy" project in his "Advanced Metals" class. The project, a cannon - the materials, brass and aluminum.

Matt brought all his materials and the design from Pulaski and was able to utilize his project as part of his "Advanced Metals" grade in Kewaskum. Said Matt, "The project was very time consuming, but it was well worth the effort. The cannon is quite a show piece and needs to be seen to be enjoyed." Matt himself was pleased with the way it turned out and has hopes to get into the Tool and Die trade although he realizes it may be hard.

Matt is a fine example of a quality student producing quality work at Kewaskum High School.

Election of officers and presentation of awards were the order of business at the Washington County Council Meeting on April 1, 1989. The Council, made up of American Legion members from Posts in Allenton, Germantown, Hartford, Hubertus, Jackson, Kewaskum and West Bend, met at the Allenton Post.

Becky Schwoch, a junior at West Bend East High School, presented her oration on the U.S. Constitution. Oratorical Chairman David Wegener then presented her with a citation and a $100 scholarship for her participation in the program. Schwoch was a runnerup in the State Finals in March.

Steve Braun of the Washington County Sheriffs Department was presented the Law Officer of the Year award by Commander Ken Herman and Chairman August Utech. Braun was cited for his dedication in educating the public about drug abuse and his work with the Department as an undercover officer.

The Firefighter of the Year award was presented to Daniel Bruesch of the West Bend Fire Department. He was honored for his work in the Department, his volunteer service with the Home for Abused Families in West Bend and his work as a counselor to the Boy Scouts to help them earn their first aid skill award and merit badges.

David Wegener of the Germantown Post was presented the Legionnaire of the Year award by Commander Herman for his dedication to the Legion and its programs. Wegener is Commander of the Germantown Post, County First Vice-Commander and Oratorical Chairman and Second District Sgt-at-Arms and American Legion Baseball Day Chairman. Other elected officers were First Vice-Commander David Wegener (Germantown), Second Vice-Commander Clayton Stautz (Kewaskum), Finance Officer Jerry Bentfield (Hartford), Chaplain Art Weis (Allenton), Sgt-at-Arms John Wollershein (Allenton), Judge Advocate Henry Renard (West Bend), Historian Hubert Montag (Hartford) and Service Officer Jim Koepke (Hartford). Appointed as Adjutant was Dean Schatz of West Bend. These officers will be installed at the June 24 meeting at Germantown.

May Is Clean Air Month In Wisconsin

Over 2,200 Clean Air Month educational kits will go into use May 1 at public and private elementary schools all over Wisconsin. The free kits are part of the American Lung Association of Wisconsin's annual Clean Air Month campaign to educate the public about the health hazards of indoor and outdoor air pollution.

Gov. Tommy Thompson will kick off the 1989 campaign with a proclamation declaring May as Clean Air Month in Wisconsin. The campaign focuses on the dangers of secondhand smoke and the health hazards for people who exercise in heavily polluted areas.

The Clean Air Month kits include a copy of the governor's proclamation, a calendar with daily activities, puzzles, games and a poster contest. The cartoon character "Squeaky The Clean Air Canine" will lead students through activities which will help them identify and discuss air pollution, the problem associated with it and the benefits of a clean environment.

"Nationally, the American Lung Association will be sponsoring Clean Air Week, May 1-7," said Wisconsin Lung Association Executive Director James Pender. "But public education is an ongoing process. In order to extend the interest and enthusiasm generated by Clean Air Week, we decided to extend the educational activities to one month."

For more information, call the American Lung Association of Wisconsin at 258-9100 in Milwaukee or toll-free at 1 (800) 242-5160.

Check Property Assessments, WTA Warns

Property owners should check their 1989 property assessments to see if there are any changes, according to the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance (WTA), Madison.

The WTA, a privately supported government research and citizen-education organization, pointed out that assessments are made annually, and it is the property owner's responsibility to check the assessment.

According to the WTA, the first step is to contract the assessor to find out when the assessment roll will be open for inspection. Although owners of property whose assessments have increased should be notified by the local assessor, failure to receive the notification does not make the new assessment invalid.

An owner who feels the assessment on the property is too high should ask the assessor to explain the procedure used in establishing the value. If the explanation is not satisfactory and the owner feels the property is assessed at a higher level than comparable property in the municipality, the property owner may wish to appeal to the board of review.

The WTA said that, in the appearance before the board of review, the property owner must establish the fair market value of the property and also show that the property is overassessed in comparison with the general level of property in the town, village or city. This assessment level is shown in the assessor's affidavit attached to the assessment roll.

Important dates to remember for 1989, the WTA noted, are:

Monday, May 1, assessment rolls will be open for inspection in most towns, villages and cities.

Monday, May 8 (or within 6 days thereafter), local boards of review will convene.

However, there are different dates in Milwaukee and Madison, both of which have a board of assessors as a first step in the appeal process. Taxpayers in these cities should check with the assessor's office. Appeals from a board of review decision may be made to the circuit court, Department of Revenue or local governing body.

For more information on property assessments and appeals, write the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance, 335 West Wilson Street, Madison 53703-3694.

To Be Or Not to Be... A School Bus Driver

My early morning drive is a lonely one - empty seats stretch behind me and the only noise is the creak of metal over the hum of the motor!

But such peaceful solitude is short-lived!

Children are my timetable, and I am heading into a regular school battle of survival. At the first stop, little Henry is throwing his usual tantrum. (I feel a little sorry for him as his mother convinces him with a heavy hand that education is a blessing... but I learned long ago to stay in the bus and remain neutral.)

Bus stop delinquents cause drivers to turn gray. "Denise is still taking her bath," explains her sister. "Robin forgot his lunch," says his brother. So we wait three minutes for him and another ten while his mother lectures him to never keep the bus waiting.

Since my bus stops are gathering places for children, they are also magnets for dogs... all sizes, colors and breeds. Some of them insist on going along... one old hound with floppy ears always manages to wedge himself under a seat. Another one stands faithfully by when his young master refuses to get on the bus. It's always hard to explain to the principal why a bus is late.

Keeping the peace is always my problem. Minutes after I tactfully try to separate two sixth graders madly in love, I look back to find them punching each other in the nose... this then requires a psychologist to get them back on speaking terms.

Other world-shaking crises about that time include Sandys swallowing a marble, a bee stinging Sharon, and George dropping his lunch money in the panel under the window. (You either give him your last quarter, or have the bus torn apart.) Someday, I'm going to de-panel the bus and if I can wade through the apple cores, banana peelings, bobby pins, chewing gum, frogs and fish worms, I might collect enough to retire to that little chicken ranch.

The noise in the bus is enough to explode the eardrums, but not and then, it calms down enough for snatches of conversation to float frontwards: "I don't take milk to school because I don't have a thermostat." "We have two guppies at home, but they haven't laid any baby fishes yet. I think they're both fathers." "My mother is married, is yours?"

Often we all sing together, especially in moments of precocious conversation. Their favorite selection generally winds up to be: "Glory, Glory Hallelujah, mother hit me with a ruler, then I conked her on the bean with a rotten tangerine, and we ain't gonna see her any more!"

I get much practice in blotting running noses, loosening stuck zippers, and serve as lawyer, doctor, friend and advisor in affairs of the heart. They show me loose teeth, purple eyes, poison ivy rash, and several of the little girls lisp a marriage proposal through gaps in shiny baby teeth. (More serious than this was a proposal from a sweet little eight-year-old who wanted me to marry her mother). And they heap on me their most priceless possessions, a mummified garter snake, a piece of potato pancake, a knotted show lace.

Sometimes I wonder if there is any future for me in this job. But my passengers have a habit of restoring my faith by making me feel a valuable part of their future. "Two-four-six-eight, who do we appreciate - our bus man!" Then I reflect - in an age of rockets and dissension the world is waiting for these kids with bated breath. The world wants them. God loves them. Who am I to hold out? I love them, too! Let's give them a chance to grow up, let's help them grow up - and grow up right!

High winds, with gusts up to 50 miles per hour, which again swept across the state Tuesday for the second time within a week, caused more damage in this area.

Two electric power lines were felled by the wind on Railroad St., in front of the Louis Bath machine shop Tuesday afternoon. The sputtering line wires fell to the ground and sidewalk narrowly missing Mrs. John Milewski of Kewaskum, who was walking to work at the time. Although she received quite a scare from the hot wires jumping around her, she managed to escape injury.

Sophomores - Gloria Benicke, Janet Breit, Joyce Bruessel, Joyce Foerster, Lucille, Kirchner, Roger Mertz, Jean Miske, Jennifer Nolting, Jeanne Reindl, and Margaret Rodenkirch. Although the Red Sox had been using Gaffke as a catcher and outfielder, he will play the outfield for Louisville.

His many friends in Kewaskum will be glad to be able to see him play ball again when the Louisville Club comes to Milwaukee. "Abie," a graduate of the Milwaukee amateur leagues, led the Badger League in batting when a member of the local team.

Besides his widow, the deceased is survived by a daughter Burnette Kirchner at home and his mother.

Miss Elsie Guth, school teacher of district 3, located about three miles southwest of this village and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Guth of this village, defended herself at the school building last Friday afternoon, shortly after school was dismissed, from intended assault by a man who had previously given his business as book agent. Fleeing the assailant, Miss Guth ran to the M. Johannes home a short distance away relating her story to Mrs. Johannes.

Upon arriving at her home, Miss Guth related the story to her parents and the authorities were notified. The accused was traced to Fond du Lac where he was apprehended. The accused gave his name as Chester Dobbs of Chicago. Being unable to furnish the assessed $1,000 bail, the defendant was remanded to the county jail.

Deniston, of 2326 Creek Road, West Bend, will now represent Moraine Park in the state competition held May 10 and 11 in Madison. She will compete with winners from other vocational, technical and adult education districts for the right to be the VTAE student ambassador for the 1989-90 school year.

Finalists in this year's local competition include: Rick Kenneth Stenz, 328 N. National Ave., Fond du Lac, a mechanical design student; Linda J. The local finalists were chosen by a faculty committee for their outstanding scholarship, extracurricular activity, class attendance, appearance and maturity. As the 1988-89 star student, Deniston will receive a $500 scholarship. The finalists will each receive $100.

Deniston was chosen by the star selection committee during interviews conducted on April 10. The committee consisted of representatives from area business including Mari Bindrich, supervisor at Amity Leather Products Company; Paulette Bilke, supervisor - administrative services, Giddings and Lewis Corporation; Cal Rens, director - human resource services, Mercury Marine Corporation; Myrtle Young Clifton, executive vice-president, Beaver Dam Chamber of Commerce; Tal Kuhn, human resources administrator, A. West Bend Savings Reports Big Quarterly Gain

West Bend Savings and Loan Association reported first quarter earnings of $159,632 which is a 63.9% increase over 1988's first quarter earnings of $97,390. Richard A. Larson, the Association's president, indicated that interest income had increased by 7.5% and interest expenses had increased by 8.5%. The bank's overall interest income was higher in 1989 because of increased loan volume. Its operating expenses were similar to 1988's first quarter.

Larson said that a number of savings and loans and banks reported lower 1989 earnings due to the increase of interest rates, but West Bend Savings conservative asset/liability management program continued to increase net earnings. Residential mortgage lending was very strong Larson said, and the Association had not experienced any significant decrease in its savings volume. West Bend Savings is expecting record earnings during the second quarter of 1989 and would again substantially increase its net worth which is already above both state and federal requirements.

Going, Going, Gone are the State Jewels

State Treasurer Charles P. Smith announced today that a jewelry and coin auction, to dispose of the contents of abandoned safe deposit boxes, has been scheduled for Saturday, May 13, 1989 at 10:00 a.m. at the Dane County Expo Center, Forum Building in Madison. The property will be on display on Friday, May 12 from 2:00 until 7:00 p.m. at the Forum building, and again on Saturday from 8:00 - 10:00 a.m.

Smith's office administers the state's unclaimed property law, which requires that the contents of abandoned safe deposit boxes be forwarded to the state when the rent on the box remains unpaid for 5 years, and the bank is unable to contact the owner. Smith's office has attempted to return the contents to the rightful owners through public advertisements. Smith explained, "of the approximately 1000 safe deposit boxes turned over to the state biennially, only a few contain anything of value. This will be the first auction in ten years, and will include approximately 550 lots of jewelry, coins and miscellaneous items."

Proceeds of the sale will be credited to the School Fund, which loans money to school districts and municipalities throughout the state.

The auction will be conducted by Massart Auctioneers, of Green Bay. Positive identification is required, and the items will be sold for cash or check.

A listing of the items available for sale can be obtained from the Office of the State Treasurer by writing to the Unclaimed Property Division, PO Box 2114, Madison, WI 53701-2114 or by calling (608) 267-7977.

Don't Burn Debris Without a Permit

MADISON, WI — Department of Natural Resources fire officials are not issuing friendly warnings about burning without a permit in DNR forest fire control areas this spring — They're issuing tickets. And the penalty is $62.

"It's just too risky," said Earl Meyer, fire prevention specialist with the DNR. "Conditions in the southern, western and north central part of the state are so dry that trees, especially pines, burn up like a roman candle. Stumps burn into the ground and downed timber burns easily, making cleanup after a fire even more difficult and time consuming."

Meyer attributes much of the problem to the rainfall deficit from last year. Normally, the cold temperatures we've experienced would help keep fires to a minimum. But because of last year's drought, there's little moisture in the vegetation; it ignites and burns as if temperatures were much warmer, he explained.

"People think that because it's cold, it's safe. But it's not. That's why we insist on burning permits," Meyer said. He also stated that creating a mulch pile with dry leaves, pine needles, branches and other yard debris would be a better alternative to burning.

"If we go into another dry spell this summer, homeowners can use that mulch to put around their shrubs and bushes to help hold moisture in the ground."

As of April 18, 424 fires have burned 1265 acres statewide.

For more information contact: Earl Meyer — 608-267-7508.

Action was taken on Resolution 89-8, regarding continued support of the Joint Incineration Committee and their efforts, as attached hereto:

On a motion by Trustee Mary Krueger, seconded by Trustee Kenneth Bonlander and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the sale of the 1987 squad car of Woodside Motors, Inc., New York for $3,502 as recommended by the Police Chief as being the high bid received.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schlice, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the use of ReMax Realty at a commission rate of 5 percent to sell the two parcels of land off of the extension road. It was noted that ReMax offered the lowest commission price, that being 5 percent. Fran Wajer Realty at a commission rate 6 percent with no others being received.

Mr. Gerald Stollenwerk appeared before the Board to discuss the possible purchase and installation of a computer system for the general Village office and the Police Department. It was noted that two quotes were reviewed for both the general Village office and the Police Department. The recommendation was to go with Wang Laboratories, Inc., Brookfield for the Police Department computer at a cost of $3,753.70, that includes software, PC and printer. The recommendation was to go with Conley, McDonald, Sprague & Co. of Brookfield, Wisconsin for their support services at a cost $3,870. Other recommendation was to go to Sears Business Systems Center for IBM hardware and related software which includes a service contract, installation, etc. for a cost of $20,176. President Blumer expressed the Village Board's appreciation to Mr. Stollenwerk for looking into the computerization of the Village departments.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schlice, seconded by Trustee Kenneth Bonlander and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the purchase and installation of a Wang computer compatible to the CLUES package for the Police Department at a cost of $3,753.70. Also the use of Conley, McDonald, Sprague and Co. for their support assistance at an estimated cost of $3,870 and to Sears Business Systems Center for the purchase of IBM hardware, software, printers and service contract at a cost of $20,176.

President Blumer reviewed a proclamation for National Secretaries Week and a proclamation celebrating the Inauguration of President George Washington, 200 years ago. Also, a letter of appreciation was read that was being sent to Maude Rose of her retiring from the Library Board.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt read a letter he received from Trustee Howard Laubenstein tendering his resignation as Trustee.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schlice, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the advertising for a Trustee to fill unexpired term of Howard Laubenstein.

President Paul Blumer asked the Board to consider which committees they would like to serve on this next year and also to bring back suggestions as to citizens serving of committees and boards.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger to adjourn to closed session under Chapter 19.85(1)(c) of the statutes to discuss employee performance data and evaluations for village employees over which the governmental body has jurisdiction. Buettner Co-Sponsors Drug Paraphernalia Bill MADISON — A bill that would restrict the sale, possession, manufacture, delivery and advertisement of drug paraphernalia is being introduced in the legislature, State Senator Carol Buettner, (R-Oshkosh) a co-sponsor of the bill, announced recently. The bill would also create specific provisions for juvenile offenses relating to the sale and use of drug paraphernalia.

"No one believes drug paraphernalia by themselves promote drug abuse," said Buettner "but open sale of this equipment mocks our drug laws, prevention programs and education programs."

"The key element of this bill is the definition of drug paraphernalia," Buettner explained. "It is based on the Model Drug Paraphernalia Act and placed in the Uniform Controlled Substances Act of 1971."

Under the bill, drug paraphernalia means equipment, products and materials used, intended for use or designed for use to produce, package, store, test or use drugs (controlled substances). In addition to this general description, the term includes various items such as roach clips, water pipes and hypodermic needles.

The bill would also require a court, when determining whether an item is drug paraphernalia to consider other criteria, including the proximity of the object to the drug, instructions concerning the object, the manner of display for sale and the existence and scope of the legitimate uses of the object.

Finally, the bill would also authorize police to use the citation procedure currently in use for juvenile offenses involving beer and liquor. It makes the dispositional alternatives applicable to juveniles who commit drug paraphernalia offenses. (Law enforcement officers may currently use the citation and disposition process by issuing citations similar to traffic citations. For disposition of these offenses, a judge must impose penalties involving a monetary forfeiture, suspension of driving privileges or participation in a supervised work program.)

"This is similar to bills that we have introduced in previous sessions," Buettner explained. "Hopefully, the climate will be more amenable in the legislature this session."

Chicago Architectural Field Trip April 29

WEST BEND — Fewer than 20 seats remain for the April 29 Chicago Architectural Field Trip at the University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County.

More than 70 persons are scheduled to make the day-long trip to the Chicago loop. A $12 fee includes round-trip transportation but no meals. To make reservations or obtain more information, call the UW Extension Continuing Education office at UWWC, 338-5233.

Tom Gross, professor of art at UWWC, has announced details on five self-guided walking tours that are available.

—THE HISTORIC DISTRICT features 19th Century iron frame skyscrapers including: The Manhattan Building, the old Colony Building, the Fisher Building, the Monadnock Building with the Architectural Center Bookstore.

—THE DEARBORN STREET WALK includes sculpture as well as buildings. Buildings are the Federal Center, the Marquette Building, the Inland Steel Building by Som, and two post-modern skyscrapers. Sculptures include Alexander Calder's Flamingo, Mark Chagall's mosaic The Four Seasons, Henry Moore's bronze figure, the Chicago Picasso and Joan Miro's bronze figure.

—THE LASALLE STREET WALK goes past the art deco Board of Trade Building, the Rookery — a 19th Century Romanesque building, the No. 1 Illinois Building by Helmut John, Jean Dubuffet's creature, a sculpture, and post-modern skyscrapers.

—THE MICHIGAN AVENUE WALK takes in the Chicago Auditorium (Roosevelt University), Ivan Mestrovic's bronze Indians on horseback, the Buckingham Fountain, the Chicago Art Institute, the Railway Exchange Building, the Wrigley Building, the Chicago Tribune Building, the Old Watertower, the Watertower Place and the John Hancock Building.

—THE WACKER DRIVE WALK, Gross said, has "experienced a recent surge in building." The walk features numerous Post Modern skyscrapers, the Sears Tower, the Chicago Opera House, the Marina Towers and art deco Merchandise Mart.

Gross said, "A short walk off of Wacker Drive will put you in touch with the railroad stations: Union Station, an example of Beaux Arts Revivalism, and Northwestern station, a new addition by Helmut Jahn.

Busses will leave UWWC at 7 a.m. and arrive at the Columbus Drive entrance to the Chicago Art Institute at 10 a.m. Busses will head back at 7 p.m.

Participants will be provided with maps, and historic information on styles and specific buildings, and an abbreviated restaurant list for a variety of eating experiences.

Tennis Team Improving

The Kewaskum Indians tennis team's record might not be all that impressive (0-3 in the conference and a 0-4 overall) but Coach Rosenthal feels the team is "showing some signs of improvement."

The season started with the team traveling to Plymouth to play in the cold and wind and then losing a 7-0 decision. The Panther team shut out all four Indian players in the singles competition. Although Indian's doubles team of Ira Sison and George Walz won games, they didn't win the sets they needed to pull out the match.

In their Sheboygan Falls meet, Kewaskum was once again aced 7-0. The number two doubles team of Chris Weddig and Mark Piowarcz showed signs of improvement in their matches which proved to be Coach Rosenthal's only bright spot of the day.

In a recent triangular match in Germantown with Vincent High School of Milwaukee and Kewaskum, our netters lost 1-6. The #2 doubles team of Weddig and Piowarcz pulled out a win for our Indians as the sole victors of the team. Adam Miklas, returning lettermen and #1 singles player has been playing some real tough competition but he's also been improving every meet.

In the Chilton meet Tuesday night Miklas did pull out his first win in #1 singles and freshman Shawn Schneider playing #4 singles and the "rookie hopeful" on the Indian team also posted a win, #2 doubles team Weddig and Piowarcz won their second match in as many meets and the thriller matches of the night were with the #1 doubles team of Sison and Walz. The combo won their first set 6-2, lost their second set on a tie-breaker 7-6, and then totally lost their concentration and the match 2-6. The netters are not even half way through the season and Coach Rosenthal is hoping for things to get better.

Goeden and Strupp Team Up For 1989 Racing Season

The #72 late model will still be "for rent" if a NASCAR driver comes to compete in Wisconsin, but the weekly ride will go to a "hometown" Slinger gentleman... Tony "The Tiger" Strupp.

Both Willie Goeden and Strupp have over 20 years of experience at the Slinger race track and their goals for a successful season are high. Dave and Don Goeden will continue to head up the pit crew, with help from John Peters, Jerry Zingsheim and Al Watry, all of West Bend.

The plans for this summer are to run at Slinger Super Speedway, regularly on Sunday evenings and if all goes well, to take in some ARTGO shows at the Dells Motor Speedway in Wisconsin Dells and Wisconsin International Raceway, Kaukauna.

This Sunday afternoon, April 30, the #72 late model with the rabbit and tiger will be competing in the Coors-Gold Twin 75 lap events at the Slinger Speedway. Time trials are at 1 p.m. with the races starting at 2 p.m. (reserved seating only). Come into the pits after the races and meet this new team.

List Results of Annual FFA Basketball Classic

On April 12th the Kewaskum F.F.A. took on the F.F.A. Alumni in their annual basketball game.

The F.F.A. lost two of their guys before the game even got started. That is because some of the Alumni players thought the game was to start at 8:30, instead it started at 8 o'clock.

Both teams played tough defense and aggressive offense. At the end of the first quarter the Alumni were up by eight points. The F.F.A. came fired up in the second quarter and made three 3 pointers in a row to take the lead.

By the end of the half the F.F.A. were only down by one. In the second half the Alumni was red hot and started to pull away from the F.F.A. The rest of the way the F.F.A. had to play catch up, but they just couldn't do it and lost 69-53.

The teams were coached by Keith Bartelt for the F.F.A. and Terry Schaub for the Alumni. The scorers for the F.F.A. were Mike Ruplinger with 11 pts., Kevin Bartelt and Dave Schulz with 9 pts. and 8 pts. High scorers for the Alumni were Todd Steger with 22 pts., Jason Boegel and Dallas Wodsedalek with 17 pts., and 13 pts.

Next year the F.F.A. will seek revenge on the Alumni.

KHS Girls Track Team Continues to Dominate

The girls track team continues to "smoke" on the track this season with records in jeopardy and personal best records continually being broken.

The girls defeated Chilton and Kiel at Kewaskum track on Friday, April 14th with eight individual events and two relay teams taking first places.

First place people and their events included: Tammy Michaels - long jump, Pam Osterbrink - high jump, Tina Weddig - discus, Ingrid Ankerson - triple jump, Melissa Braun, Kristi Lubahn, Tina Schwartz and Rachelle Zuehlke in the 880 yard relay, Rachelle Zuehlke in the 400 m. dash, Melissa Braun, Joy Braun, Kristi Lubahn, and Shelley Kassekert 400 relay, Kristi Lubahn 300 hurdles, Laurie Vogt 800 m run, and Joy Braun, Rachelle Zuehlke, Jessica Rohrer, and Jodi Batzler, 1600 m. relay.

In Campbellsport, the girls continued their exceptional showings with an impressive 110.5 point total compared to Elkhart Lake's 60, Campbellsport 41.5 and Cedar Grove's 32.5.

Four school records look to be in jeopardy as Tina Weddig ousted the discus 119'11 inches for a first place, nearing the school record of 124 feet. The 400 m. relay team consisting of Tina Schwartz, Joy Braun, Kristi Lubahn, and Shelly Kassekert sprinted to within two tenths of a second of the school record of 55.3, with a time of 55.53.

Another school record in jeopardy is the 300 m. hurdles in which Kristi Lubahn continues to sprint her way closer to the school record she originally set. In the Campbellsport meet, she hurdled to a time of 49.58 just over her record of 48.8.

Pam Osterbrink is definitely a threat to the high jump record of 5' 2" having already tied that record at the very first meet of the season.

Coach Koth stated, "These records definitely have a chance of being broken, especially with it being so early in the season." Coach Koth is also pleased with the excellent depth in his team this year, which is why Kewaskum dominates the top. The scores reflect the not only first place but seconds, thirds, and fourths as well... Places earn points, and in the Campbellsport meet Kewaskum placed in the top five in nine events.

Personal bests from Kewaskum girls trackers and events against Campbellsport include:

- Rachelle Zuehlke - 400 m. 63.9
- Jessica Rohrer - 400 m. 68.4
- Tammy Michaels - Triple Jump 31' 4 1/4"
- Ingrid Ankerson - Triple Jump 30' 4 3/4"
- Kristi Lubahn - 300 m hurdles 49.58
- Laurie Vogt - 800 m 2:41.5
- Jodi Batzler - 800 m. 2:46.1
- Rachelle Zuehlke - 200 m 29.3
- Pam Osterbrink - 3200 m 16.11
- Janel Flynn - 3200 m 17:32
- Joy Braun, Jessica Rohrer, Jodi Batzler, Rachelle Zuehlke - 1600 m relay 4:30.2
- Laurie Vogt - 1600 m 5:45.9
- Ingrid Ankerson - High Jump 4' 10"
- Andrea Fliess - High Jump 4' 8"

Coach Koth praises all his girls and has been real pleased with all of their efforts.

WIAA Schools Implement New Format In Basketball, Volleyball Tournaments

WIAA schools will implement an 8-4-4-4 format in basketball and volleyball tournament series in the 1990-91 and 1991-92 school years.

That was the decision made by the Board of Control at its April 14 meeting.

The 8-4-4-4 plan means there will be one additional division of competition in those two sports than at present. Other sports with tournament competition in classes will continue operating under the 8-4-4 plan.

The breakdown of schools in the 8-4-4-4 shows 96 schools in each of Divisions 1 and 2 and 114 schools in each of Divisions 3 and 4. The enrollment cutoffs would be 834 and over for Division 1, 396 to 827 for Division 2, 215 to 394 for Division 3 and 215 and under for Division 4 were the 8-4-4-4 adopted for the coming (1989-90) school year. Enrollments change, however, from year to year, and the cutoff points can expect to be different for 1990-91 and different again for 1991-92.

It was Executive Director Douglas Chickering's recommendation that the Board adopt the 8-4-4-4 plan as supported by a 196-162 vote in the recent second survey of the membership. But before the Board adopted the change on a split (6-3) vote, there was a move - defeated by only a single vote - to maintain the status quo.

The two Board votes reflected the diversified sentiment which has been prevalent throughout the lengthy discussion of the tournament qualifying issue. The board agreed with Chickering's assessment that there is more support for the 8-8-8 than revealed in the survey but that concern about an additional school day for the State Basketball Tournament and potential conflicts with nonschool activities generally scheduled on Wednesday evenings turned the vote in favor of the 8-4-4-4.

Recognizing the Board's near-decision to make no change, Chickering indicated the 8-8-8 idea should not be abandoned while planning gets under way to implement the 8-4-4-4 experiment. In making that statement, Chickering observed that (a) other sports will be reacting to the 8-4-4-4 experiment and (b) should the 8-8-8 format remain in contention, it will not be possible to conduct the entire State Basketball Tournament either at the same time or in the same location.

The Board at its April meeting also approved cooperative teams for 1989-90 and 1990-91 school years involving Big Foot and Williams Bay in girls basketball and boys soccer, all three Racine schools (Case, Park and Horlick) in gymnastics and Rice Lake and Cumberland in gymnastics.

Indian Golfers Win First Match

The Kewaskum golfers fired a 171 Friday which was not only the best four man total of their season thus far but also allowed them to win their first Eastern Wisconsin Match quite easily against Sheboygan Falls, 171-187.

Indians Tom Sharp and Joel Miller shared medalist honors with Falcons' Dan Schneider with seven over par 42. The other two Indians Schmidt and Slausenhoup came in with 43 and 44 respectively. Coach Harlow is pleased with the team's 10 stroke drop since their first match against Class A schools Hartland Arrowhead, Kettle Moraine, and Wauwatosa West, and felt starting out facing tough competition is good experience. His theory paid off as this meet the golfers all dropped their scores.

The JayVee golfers posted their first win 208-233 with Steve Gerhart shooting a 50 despite the fact he had two holes with a combined 17 stroke total. Mark Heather was next low on the JayVee team shooting a 52.

At race tracks, the favorite wins only about a quarter of the time.

Kewaskum Boys Win Quad Meet

Kewaskum boys track came home from Campbellsport with a victory Friday in a quadrangular meet which included Kewaskum who tallied up 75 points, Elkhart Lake 72, host Campbellsport with 53, and Cedar Grove 46.

Kewaskum captured seven first places with seniors Jeff Taylor, Ryan Degnitz and Marty Schulteis combining for four of these. Taylor continues to dominate both the shot put and the discus, tossing the shot 49-1 and the discus 125-6. Degnitz and Schulteis, the conference hurdle experts, took 1-2 honors in the hurdle events with Schulteis taking the 110 highs with a time of 16.2 and Degnitz pulling out the 300 lows with a 42.14 time.

Sophomore Chris Donath continued to "shine" in the 800, this time turning in a time of 2:07.8 and beating his closest competitor by four seconds. Donath took 4 seconds off his personal best time in the first place finish and has really been running well.

The thriller of the meet came in the 1600 where Indian senior Doug Geidel put on a "kick" to outspring Kevin Pierret of Campbellsport at the finish line. Geidels time of 5:01.29 cut 10 seconds off his best time in this race. Pierret's time was 5:01.43. The 1600 relay team of Schulteis, Doug Mueller, Donath, and Degnitz combined for a win with a time of 3:42.5 for the seventh first place in the meet. Said Coach Fran Charland "We scored points for our consistent runners and had some real improvements in our times." He cited Donaths 10 second drop, and also the relay team of Schulteis, Muller, Donath, and Degnitz, who also cut 10 seconds off their time. And then, there was KHS Geidel at the finish line winning by mere tenths of a second... the victory was sweet.
