Village Begins 1990 Budget Review

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board has begun the lengthy process of reviewing departmental budgets in preparation for the development of the General Budget for 1990.

In a new departure this year, each committee is meeting in special sessions to review departmental budgets which fall under its particular jurisdiction. The trustees agreed the new method would help them to get a better grip on all the facts and figures rather than to discuss all the budgets at one time during regular board meetings.

At Monday night's meeting, the full board was presented the proposed Fire Department budget and fire service contracts for 1990 as recommended after committee review. That budget comes to $116,775, up $9,336 or 8.7% over the 1989 budget $107,439.

The budget contains one large ticket item under "Major Equipment," the replacement of the department's sixteen air masks. The cost for the mask replacement may vary depending upon how the board decides on payment options as recommended by the Fire Department.

Fire Chief Donald Ehnert, at past meetings, had stated his concern and stressed the need for uniform breathing apparatus to insure the safety of the firefighters during emergency situations. He noted during a fire the men do not have time to stop and think about what type of mask they're wearing and where the gauges might be on that particular piece of equipment.

After reviewing the budget, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt went through the 1990 fire service contracts for the village, Town of Kewaskum and Town of Auburn. The formula used to calculate the contracts is based on several factors including service provided during the three preceding years (1986, 1987 and 1988).

The Village of Kewaskum's contract, due to an increase in fire calls from 15 to 25 over the past three years, will go up

Police Training Requirements Going Up, State Funding Going Down

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Police Chief Richard Knoebel, informed the Kewaskum Village Board, Monday night, there will be some major changes which will affect his department in the next three years.

State aids to help communities fund training costs will be phased out completely over the next three years, noted Knoebel. While the training is required by the state and the number of training hours is being raised from 320 to 400 hours, state aid is being taken away.

"Presently we receive 100% reimbursement for officer training," said Knoebel, "as of July 1, 1990, that will drop to 50%, 1991 will see it reduced to 35%, and beginning with 1992, the state will only pay for meals and lodging."

Knoebel also advised the trustees that his department had recently held its annual "Officer Friendly" program visiting all the district second grade classes.

Fire Department, Rescue Calls Up

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A report submitted to the Village Board Monday night along with the Kewaskum Fire Department's budget, showed both fire and rescue calls were up last year.

A total of 26 fire calls were logged for 1988, plus eight mutual aid calls to neighboring communities as compared to 13 and five, for 1987. For 1989, as of September 4, the department made 25 fire calls and six mutual aid runs.

The department's Rescue Squad responded to 145 calls (60 village, 65 Washington County, eight Sheboygan County, 12 Fond du Lac County and five dry), logging 4,328 miles in 1988. In 1987, there were 140 calls (42 village, 75 Washington County, nine Sheboygan County, 14 Fond du Lac County and 10 dry), logging 3,523 miles.

There were 22 Jaws of Life calls for 1988, and four instances where the equipment was actually used. For 1987, the totals were 18 calls and three actual uses.

10.3%, from $55,216 for 1989, to $60,909 for 1990.

The Town of Kewaskum will see a reduction in its fire contract cost of 9.8% from $45,721 for 1989, to $41,265 for 1990, as the result of a drop in fire calls over the last three years, from 20 to 14.

A service contract for the portion of the Town of Auburn served by the Kewaskum Fire Department, will see a 5.8% increase, going from $23,985 for 1989, to $25,384 for 1990, due to an increase in their three-year record, from 10 to 15 calls.

In other action, the board approved a building permit to James Wessing for the construction of a ten-unit apartment building in Creekside Estates, located west of highway 45. A bartender's license application for Jack Aupperle was approved.

On the recommendation of the Library Committee, the board approved the hiring of Darlene Rohlinger as assistant librarian. Board representative Ken Bonlender also advised the trustees that a replacement will have to be appointed to fill the unexpired term of Kathy Paul who has resigned from the Library Board. Bonlender informed the board that the village's share of countywide funds for the last quarter were $2,534.

In other business the board authorized the village's engineers to prepare plans and specifications for bids on the sewer and water construction in the Bonnie Lane annexation project.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

Kewaskum Receives Preschool Grant for Handicapped Children

MADISON — State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover has notified the Kewaskum School District that it will receive $6,750 to support special education programs for preschoolers with exceptional educational needs (EEN).

The grant is made available under part B of the Education of the Handicapped Act, formerly known as Public Law 99-457. Administered by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, the act provides an incentive for states to serve all handicapped children between the ages of 3 and 5.

Statewide, all local educational agencies will share in the more than $4.2 million available under this program during the 1989-90 school year. Seventy-five percent of these federal entitlement funds will flow directly to local school districts.

Commenting on the grant, project director, Richard E. Zarling said, "The funds will be used primarily to purchase special materials and equipment and to do specialized evaluations, as well as offer parents, assistant through home visits."

HALLOWEEN IS A GREAT TIME TO ENCOURAGE CREATIVITY— Children will enjoy assembling and wearing papier mache masks, such as the ones pictured above. All you need is a blown-up balloon, some old newspapers and Elmer's Glue-All®.

This Halloween, kids can create homemade papier mache masks

Given the success of last summer's blockbuster hit, Batman, it's likely that the Joker, the caped crusader's arch-rival, will encourage the revival of clownfaces for Halloween.

To avoid the high price tag of store-bought costumes, why not help children make their own masks? Papier mache masks (more lightweight and breathable than their rubber and plastic counterparts) from the Elmer's Glue people, are easy to make and fun to wear.

Start with a blown-up balloon, plenty of old newspapers and a 50-50 mixture of Elmer's Glue-All® and water.

Use wet, unglued strips of newspaper to cover the first layer of balloon. Then, dip strips in Elmer's Glue mixture, pulling each strip between fingers to squeeze out excess and wrap four or more layers around balloon.

Apply one layer cross-wise on balloon, the next up and down, and so on. Alternate newspaper and colored comics, to help see which layer you're on.

When thoroughly dry, split into two sections (front and back) and remove balloon. Cut small openings in each mask for eyes and mouth.

Paint whole surface with glue tinted pink, yellow or green with food coloring. Let dry and paint or add on features.

Try using small pieces of paper dipped in glue-water mixture, squeezed out and molded into heavy lips, a pointed nose or heavy eyebrows. For a comic clown, use a plastic red ball for a nose, a paper cup for a hat and yarn for hair. Paint on a broad grin and attach big, round ears.

Opening Concert of Moraine Symphony Orchestra Nov. 11

"I don't know how to lead it or spell it," Albert Asch, a University of Wisconsin professor of music, said of the instrument. But on Nov. 11, the "ophicleide" will be featured at UWWC at the opening concert of the 1989-90 season of Asch's Moraine Symphony Orchestra.

"Anyone interested should not hesitate to call," Asch said. "This is a true community orchestra."

The opening concert will feature "The Ophicleide Concerto," and the unusual instrument that looks like a brass horn but has the finger pieces of a woodwind.

Four other concerts for the year include:

December 3, a Cathedral Concert at the United Church of Christ in West Bend, with the church choir and organist;

March 18, a performance featuring the winners of the annual Ozaukee County Youth Concerto Contest, at the Grafton High School.

Sixth graders from Kewaskum enjoy Camp Witcomb-Mason

Roger Guiles, Oshkosh, who helped increase enrollment by nearly 10,000 during his 14 years as president of University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, died Friday, university officials said. He was 81.

Guiles was president of UW-Oshkosh from 1959 until his retirement in 1973. During his tenure, the university's enrollment grew from about 2,000 students to almost 12,000.

More than $55 million in construction on campus also took place during his term. Undergraduate majors available to students increased three-fold.

Guiles came to Oshkosh from Platteville where he was director of teacher education and later dean of administration at the state university there. He was at Platteville 17 years before being named president at Oshkosh.

He was the father of Janet (John) Hubbell of Kewaskum.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval E. Behnke, Kewaskum, are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter Katherine to John Roekle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Roekle, Saginaw, MI.

The winners on Wednesday, Oct. 11, played by the Senior Citizens XYZ Club at the Legion Hall in Kewaskum were: Ken Kaschner, 22-2-20 net; Harold Eggert, 24-4-20 net; Allen Reindl, 16-3-13 net; Melvin Martin, 14-2-12 net; Allen Reindl, Diamond Turn vs 5.

Have you looked at the Kettle Moraine area and thought about a simile to describe the beautiful scene, lately?

When the sixth grade at Kewaskum Middle School went to Camp Witcomb-Mason they observed the beauty of nature and wrote creatively about it. The tall trees were like a giant's brush dusting the sky. The flower was like a drop of gold. A bright crimson maple leaf was like volcanic mountain with lava flowing down its veins. These are just a few similes students wrote about as they looked at the beauty surrounding them.

Cinquain (sin-kane) poems were also written to relate the beauty and nature that was seen. The following poems will help you see why the sixth graders enjoyed camp.

First I got pulled over. They arrested me and took my license on the spot. Jail was humiliating, but the $3,000 in fees, fines and insurance is what really socked me. No family vacation or new car. Coronary heart disease still kills over 750,000 people each year in the U.S. The link between heart disease and smoking or high blood pressure and cholesterol is well known. Now, researchers at the Centers for Disease Control determined that inactivity is definitely a culprit - the least active people were twice as likely to have heart disease as the most active. Good news: less rigorous exercise, such as walking, swimming, gardening, household chores - performed regularly - also protect against heart disease.

Tree Talk

Scientists speculate that some trees may have the ability to communicate with each other. International Wildlife magazine reports that willow trees, and perhaps some others, may warn trees of their own kind that insects are on the attack. When insects start nibbling on one tree, it gives off a scent that may be picked up by other trees nearby. The scent tells the other trees to produce insect repellent chemicals quickly in their leaves.

An Exciting Time for Dairyland Seed Corn Breeders!

Each year Dairyland evaluates thousands of plots to identify superior corn hybrids. As we identify these superior new hybrids, we then want to bring these experimental products into a larger testing program the coming season. This is what makes the breeders job interesting.

At the very early stages of testing we need just a few seeds to begin our evaluation. However, as the hybrid continues to look good in our testing program, the amount of seed we need to generate any be a few ears resulting from our hand pollinations this past summer. After hybrid goes through this phase, the next level is to put in a small crossing block so we may have seed for DST plots. The stage after this is called the pilot production stage.

It is at this pilot production stage that Dairyland will "take a chance" and produce seed of experimental hybrids that may never be released. We win when the hybrid performs well because we have seed to release one year sooner. Depending on our need for a hybrid in a given maturity slot and depending upon the prior seasons' test results, we may commit to this pilot production or may decide to wait with production until after we have determined to release the hybrid into our product lineup.

At the beginning of each planting season, we try to anticipate which hybrids we think will give us our best chances of success. Those hybrids we will attempt to produce on a limited basis at our research farm at the same time we are evaluating the hybrid performance. Our plant breeders must exercise careful judgement in determining how much and more importantly, which ones, will be increased.

However, if a new hybrid should emerge that was not produced this past summer, it is time for a quick decision to be made. Should we wait until next season to produce additional quantities of this hybrid? If we do, that will delay evaluation at the next testing level for two years. If we identify the hybrids early enough in the fall's harvest season, we can immediately ship seed to one of our winter nursery locations in Hawaii, Chile or Argentina, and produce larger quantities of that hybrid this coming winter. In this manner, we'll have sufficient quantity of seed to promote the hybrid to the next level of evaluation next season.

By producing these hybrids in our winter nursery location we have thus evaluated them to the next level of testing. Does this mean these hybrids will be ready for release sooner? Not necessarily. Just as we have to increase seed of the hybrid in our winter crossing program, we also have to consider our need to produce inbred seed of both parents in the winter program as well.

Fall harvest season is an exciting time. It's also an important decision-making time for our corn breeders!

National and International Dairy Leaders Visit Future Home of World Dairy Center

MADISON — Calling it a concept that "has the potential to revolutionize the dairy industry, and to focus the spotlight of world attention on a broad range of Wisconsin products, services, and technologies," Governor Tommy G. Thompson spoke in favor of the World Dairy Center at an on-site breakfast held recently to promote the Center.

The Governor addressed more than 300 national and international dairy leaders — in Madison for the World Dairy Expo, plus state legislators and others.

This past summer, Thompson announced Wisconsin's intentions to build a World Dairy Center accommodating 50 to 60 businesses and organizations on a 100 acre parcel just off Interstate 90-94 and Highway 151. The area is part of a large 800 acre corporate site being developed by the American Family Insurance Company.

Thompson explained, "We plan to build a Center of international reputation, a Center that exists nowhere else in the dairy world, that will serve as a forum for the exchange of dairy-related products, services, and information."

"It will function as a catalyst to develop new dairy products for new markets, as well as a magnet to attract the top experts in the dairy industry," the Governor said.

These technical experts will be available to dairy farmers and researchers, through consultation and seminars coordinated by the Center's staff. The Center will also address business concerns by sponsoring training classes to help dairy businesses maximize their profits.

Governor Thompson emphasized that the Center could have a major impact on Wisconsin's economy. "Our best estimate is that this year's World Dairy Expo will generate over $9 million of related business in the Madison area — and that's just for a five-day show. Imagine the impact of a World Dairy Center operating year-round."

"A major emphasis of the World Dairy Center will be on promotion and public relations activities for the industry — a coordinated thrust to increase sales, expand the dairy market worldwide, and foster a positive public image for the products," said Governor Thompson.

"The World Dairy Center, as we envision it, will be a one-stop facility for farmers, business leaders, government officials, and researchers," added the Governor.

A major advantage of the World Dairy Center will be its location. The site offers easy access to major transportation routes, the UW-Madison dairy research facilities, leading agribusinesses such as American Breeders Service and Boumatic, and national dairy organizations such as the Dairy Herd Improvement Association and Dairy Forage Research Center.

Pointing out that the facilities will also contain the latest information and communications technology, Governor Thompson predicted "the World Dairy Center will be an up-to-the-minute databank of vital industry data, residing on a sophisticated computer system. It will link member tenants and associates through satellite communications that have the power to beam information to viewers located around the world."

Center members will have access to a range of additional support services and amenities. The World Dairy Center complex will include a theater/auditorium, meeting and technical seminar rooms and an exhibit hall. The Center will offer visitor coordination services, simultaneous interpreter and translation services, help arranging trade missions and participating in foreign trade shows, and assistance obtaining government and foreign funds for technical and training projects.

A number of companies have given verbal commitments to join the World Dairy Center. The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade, and Consumer Protection is also looking at the possibility of relocating its offices to the World Dairy Center site, a move that would enhance the visibility and coordinating efforts of both organizations.

Governor Thompson recognized American Family, for cooperation in developing the site, and commended the hard work of the development team, including more than 30 representatives from the Governor's Dane County Executive's and Madison Mayor's offices; the State Departments of Development and Agriculture; the Greater Madison Chamber of Commerce; the UW System; and the numerous dairy-related concerns in Wisconsin that worked on the World Dairy Center concept.

"I can assure you," said the Governor, "from the enthusiastic response I have seen, the dream of the World Dairy Center is becoming a reality. I challenge the dairy leaders and the Wisconsin business, government, and educational leaders assembled here today to participate in shaping the reality of the World Dairy Center, in order to shape a prosperous future for the dairy industry."

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of DAVID TODD WENDELBORN who died four years ago, Oct. 23, 1985:

It has been four long years ago
And still I stop and wonder why
When I see a flock of geese winging high.
Or hear the baying of a hound in the evening nigh.
I see your brothers off to the hunt
And know you will not be with them out in front
Then I sit and cry and wonder why
But I guess the only one that can say why
Is the God in heaven high Sadly missed by Mom & family.

It is estimated that ALS is responsible for one out of every thousand deaths in people over 20.

WISCONSIN'S BIGGEST WINNER... Jacek Maciejko, Neenah, claimed the largest prize ever awarded by the Wisconsin Lottery when he matched all six numbers drawn in the Wisconsin's MEGABUCKS Lot-to-America drawing Wednesday, September 20, 1989. After having his ticket validated Thursday, September 21, Maciejko, along with his wife and daughter went to Madison to meet Governor Tommy G. Thompson and pick up his first payment Friday, September 22. In addition to a giant souvenir check for $7.22 million, Maciejko's total winnings, he collected the first of his 20 annual installments of $361,000, or $263,783 after federal and state withholding at the Governor's office. Pictured are, from left: Weisia Maciejko, Anna Maciejko, Governor Tommy G. Thompson and Jacek Maciejko. The winner intends to continue working as an industrial engineer at Valmat in Appleton. Maciejko's son, Kris, 17, stayed behind the day of the check presentation to attend school. The Maciejkos emigrated to the United States from Poland in 1983 and have lived in the Fox River Valley for the past several years. They buy 2-3 MEGABUCKS tickets for each drawing. He won the $7.22 million using a "quick pick" ticket purchased at SuperAmerica on East Wisconsin Avenue in Appleton.

IN MEMORY

In memory of BRENDA OELHAFEN who passed away four years ago, October 23, 1985:

FROM THE CLASS OF 1988
"TO BRENDA"

It seems like only yesterday,
When we were talking and laughing.
But it's been four years now -
And we can still see you smiling.

You taught us a lesson -
Of life and of love.
And we're sure that now -
You're watching from above.

That lesson we learned -
It was tough and cruel.
But when you said "DON'T QUIT,"

We made it a rule.

We've all grown up now.
We've changed in many ways.
Our goals and achievements -
Change everyday.

But let it be known -
That you live in our hearts.
You will never be forgotten -
Even though we're apart.

More and more each day we
miss you,
Friends may think the wound is healed.

But they little know the sorrow,
That is in our hearts concealed.
There is many a lonely
heartache,

There is many a silent tear,
God only knows how much we
miss you
At the end of this 11th year.

Sadly missed by wife Helen,
and children Ruth, DuWayne, and grandchildren, Shelly and Nathan John.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of MICHAEL J. STERN who passed away six years ago, October 18, 1983:

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still;
In our hearts you hold a special place

No one else can ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

Sadly missed by mom Shirley and brother Tom.

A man expects school to make his kids smarter than everybody else but not quite as smart as himself.

The only time a husband can be sure he's right is when he admits he's wrong.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

October 12, 1989

Dear Kewaskum Residents,

Kewaskum has a fine tradition of neighbor helping neighbor. You can help continue this tradition by supporting the 1989 United Way of Washington County campaign.

There are 36 agencies that are funded by our local United Way. No other charitable organization can offer so much to so many people in our community, and 99% of monies raised stay right here in Washington County.

Our county-wide goal this year is $610,000, and the Kewaskum goal is $32,000. This means that more contributors will be needed and each of us should increase our support if possible. Cutbacks in governmental services suggests that the private sector must increase its support.

Please send your donation to United Way of Washington County, P. O. Box 304, West Bend, WI 53095 by October 31.

Your gift will enable us to "Paint a Brighter Picture" for all of our neighbors in Washington County. Join hundreds of others who've already given their pledge or gift. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

G. H. Zimmel, Chairman
Kewaskum Division

Counties Receive Money to Help Innocent Victims of Crime

MADISON — Attorney General Don Hanaway has announced that the Wisconsin Department of Justice has mailed $758,233 in checks to 37 counties to help innocent victims of crime and witnesses to crimes.

The funds will be shared by counties with victim/witness programs, Hanaway said.

"These programs are an acknowledgement by the people of this state that they care about victims," Hanaway said. "Crime victims are increasing in number and they need help."

The funds are used to reimburse victims for such items as out-of-pocket expenses due to the crime, as well as helping them through the criminal justice system. Witnesses of crime will receive such assistance as child care and transportation, Hanaway said.

Half the money comes from a $50 surcharge on felony fines and a $30 surcharge on misdemeanor fines. The other half comes from general purpose revenue.

Included in the counties and totals are: Dodge $5,459; Fond du Lac $7,167; Ozaukee $11,530; Sheboygan $11,084; Washington $8,978.

Counties Receive Money to Help Innocent Victims of Crime

MADISON — Attorney General Don Hanaway has announced that the Wisconsin Department of Justice has mailed $758,233 in checks to 37 counties to help innocent victims of crime and witnesses to crimes.

The funds will be shared by counties with victim/witness programs, Hanaway said.

"These programs are an acknowledgement by the people of this state that they care about victims," Hanaway said. "Crime victims are increasing in number and they need help."

The funds are used to reimburse victims for such items as out-of-pocket expenses due to the crime, as well as helping them through the criminal justice system. Witnesses of crime will receive such assistance as child care and transportation, Hanaway said.

Half the money comes from a $50 surcharge on felony fines and a $30 surcharge on misdemeanor fines. The other half comes from general purpose revenue.

Included in the counties and totals are: Dodge $5,459; Fond du Lac $7,167; Ozaukee $11,530; Sheboygan $11,084; Washington $8,978.

Jayvees End Season with 6-2 Record

The Kewaskum Indians Jayvee football squad ended a terrific season posting a 6-2 record, which was good enough for second place in the conference.

The Jayvee squad finished out with five straight wins in a row outscoring their opponents 64 to 8. Behind the hot hand of sophomore quarterback Chad Cook, our Indian team marched down the field again and again scoring, 11 of their 15 total touchdowns on pass plays.

Cook credits his excellent offensive line consisting of Joel Fleishmann, Keith Butschlick, Jason Stielow, Ryan Amerling, Sheldon Oppermann, and Aaron Laatsch with his passing success saying they "held extremely well against the various conference teams and definitely contributed to our victories." Main targets for Cook this season included Kim Marx, Matt Seiser and Shawn Schneider, while Jamie Miller and Randy Schlice were the leading rushers for the team.

Holding down the opponents scoring for the Indian squad this year included defensive linemen Stielow, Brian Jackson, Schlice, and Seiser. Seiser was also credited with being the leading tackler on the team. Juniors involved in the Indian victories were Jackson, Brett Rauch, Rob Kertscher, Steve Liegl, and Scott Haas, who scored his first touchdown ever in a critical point of the New Holstein game.

Said Coach Sorens of his victorious Indians, "I can't even name specific individuals because our whole team combined to produce victories." The "team effort" definitely paid off for the Jayvee squad this year who has set their sights on breaking that varsity Indian losing streak first thing next year. That goal is something Coach Pearson will be happy to hear about.

Wisconsin Offers Unusual Outdoor Winter Fun

Wisconsin is a state that doesn't hibernate during the winter. Wisconsin comes alive with a wide range of outdoor activities that guarantee thrills and excitement for those who participate. Bundle up and enjoy camping, hiking, sailing and fishing. All the activities that brought you so much pleasure during the spring, summer and fall months have a special fun found only in winter.

If you're an avid camper, you've probably spent at least a few days in the rain, but how about the snow? Fourteen Wisconsin state parks and forests offer winter camping, and pitching your tent in a secluded spot is still possible. For the day's entertainment you might want to bring along your snowshoes or cross-country skis. They're perfect for making tracks through the snow to explore the winter wilds of the woods. At night, gather around the fire to cook the evening meal — brats are just as tasty in the winter as they are in the summer!

Or how about an outdoor fish fry with fresh fish caught the same day? During the winter there's almost a million acres of ice in Wisconsin for fishing enthusiasts to auger through and reach the fish below. Perch, bluegills and crappies are found in lakes and ponds just about everywhere, and walleyes and lake trout lurk in deep water waiting to be tempted by your bait. For the competitive fisherman, ice fishing derbies found throughout the state offer the chance to test your skills (and luck) against others. If it's a real challenge you're after, try sturgeon spearing on Lake Winnebago. (A special license is needed for this two-week season).

Another sport that's a good time on the ice is ice boating. It's breathtaking flying over a frozen lake, the steel blades of the boat chattering on the ice, as you reach speeds up to 100 miles per hour. Even if you don't own an ice boat they're wonderful to watch. The big, bright sails moving against a white winter background produce a kaleidoscope of color.

A cousin of the already popular tobogganing and sledding, snow tubing, is catching on as another great way to zoom down slippery slopes. There's nothing more exhilarating than sailing through the crisp winter air while fresh powdery snow flies all around you.

Ever try body surfing on snow? It's easy, any kid can show you how. Just take a running start at the top of the hill, ease onto your stomach and plunge toward the bottom keeping your arms and legs from touching the snow. Later, with your hands around a cup of hot chocolate, you can warm yourself by the blazing fire in the lodge and talk over the memorable winter day spent outdoors.

Wisconsin is a state of all seasons. Winter is one great reason to get outdoors, to enjoy the brilliant sunshine glistening on the snow, to breath the fresh, tingling air, to hear the crunch of snow beneath your boots and to join in the thrilling activities.

The Wisconsin Division of Tourism Development will send you a free vacation kit that tells what there is to do in winter and in every season. Just send a postcard with your name, address and zip code to: Wisconsin Division of Tourism Development, Box 7606, Madison, WI 53707.

Vogt Earns First Team All-Conference Honors

Although Kewaskum junior Laurie Vogt finished in the "runner-up" position in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Cross Country meet, it was still a race in which she broke 13:00 minutes, being clocked at 12:59, and despite having to run with a stomachache, she earned herself first team all-conference honors for the second year in a row.

A senior from Plymouth, Jenny Lodi was the only runner to top Vogt touring the 3,500 meter course around Kewaskum High School in 12:21.

Coach Dave Drexler was pleased with Vogt's effort stating, "I was happy with Laurie's time... this being a new course and for not having any experience running it, she did a good job."

Vogt finished this race in sixth place last year and after her runner-up position this year she decided next year will be "her" year to take first. With the drive and determination of this fine young Indian athlete, it's a goal she more than likely will achieve.

Teammates of Vogts who also went the distance included Teresa Anderson in 27th place, Jodi Batzler in 34th place, Nancy Neumann in 36th place, Kris Schinker in 37th place, and Pam Osterbrink in 40th place to finish out the Indian pack.

Indians End Season on Losing End

Two teams, yet to post a victory this year squared off in the season finale of the Eastern Wisconsin conference and of this New Holstein vs. Kewaskum match-up, it was the Huskies, not the Indians who walked off with the 20-7 win.

The Huskies put themselves on the scoreboard first yet it was the Indians who led 7-6 at the end of the first quarter as QB Brian Leitheiser completed a 63 yard Indian drive with a 3-yard over the middle pass to Bruce Waechter.

But as the saying goes, "that-was-all-she-wrote" for our Kewaskum squad as the Huskies pounded out two touchdowns in the second quarter, including one with just 20 seconds remaining before the half.

The Indians had the ball five times in the second half but failed to capitalize on any of their possessions. Tragically enough for our Kewaskum team three of those five possessions, the Indians were forced to punt the ball after only three downs, and another drive was halted on a Leitheiser interception on the New Holstein 15 yard line.

The Huskies scored their final TD with 3:57 remaining in the game on a fourth down, and goal situation in which the New Holstein team opted to go-for-it and Kevin Schroeder scampered into the end zone.

Coach Pearson commented in the defeat that the Indians did "play better." He was especially pleased with the teams first drive in which he stated, "lightie played a real nice first half." Defensively Pearson cited Mike Melzer and Noel Stradtman while the Heller brothers, Scott and Brian, as usual, put out a super effort.

And as the 1989 Football season comes to a close, our Indians find themselves again waiting until next season to post its first victory and snap that 24 game losing streak.

Flag Football League Results

The fifth week of games in the Kewaskum Athletic Club flag football league were played on October 14.

In the first game the Amerahn Redskins defeated the Gruber Tool Bears 6-0. This was to be the battle for first place and that's just what it turned out to be, a good tough battle.

The first half had both teams play great defense as one offensive play after another was shut down. End sweeps were stopped before they got started and passes were incomplete or intercepted as the first half ended 0-0.

The second half was almost a carbon copy of the first half except for one play. With about eight minutes left in the game Steve Johann was able to break away on a sweep to the right side and rambled 42 yards for a touchdown for the Redskins for the only score of the game.

The Redskins and Bears are now tied for 1st place at 4-1 with one week left in the season.

In the second game the Regal Ware Raiders defeated the Lions Club Packers 18-7. This may not have been for first place but this game was also a good defensive battle.

The Raiders scored first on a Mike Marx 14 yard pass to Beau Coulter. Coulter also scored on a 48 yard run and the score at half time was 12-0, Raiders.

In the second half the Packers came storming back as Erik Ankerson scored a touchdown on a 26 yard run and Sean Parish added the extra point and the score was 12-7. Late in the game Mike Marx took a hand off from Beau Coulter and then dropped back and threw a pass back to Coulter that covered 39 yards for a touchdown and a 18-7 victory for the Raiders.

Games on Saturday, October 21, starting at 1 p.m. have the Raiders against the Bears followed by the Packers against the Redskins. These are the last games of the regular season and if you are a football fan and haven't seen a game why not make it up to the varsity football field on Saturday. These are our future high school players and they are playing some very exciting football. See you Saturday at 1 p.m.

Standings
Gruber Tool Bears	4 - 1
Amerahn Redskins	4 - 1
Regal Ware Raiders	2 - 3
Lions Club Packers	0 - 5

KHS Varsity Goes On As JV and Freshman Teams End Volleyball

By Kim Stielow

Last week was the last week of season play for the J.V. and Freshmen, and the end of the regular season for the varsity.

The freshmen played their last game on Tuesday in the big road trip to Two Rivers. The freshmen came out of that match victorious, ending the season with a record of 9-1 with the only loss going to New Holstein. Congratulations to a very promising freshmen team.

The J.V. ended their season last Thursday in a home stand against Chilton. The J.V. had an up and down season under the direction of new Coach Donath, with a season record of four and eight.

The Varsity ended regular season play with a victorious week playing against both Two Rivers and Chilton. The team seems to be pulling together on their journey to State Competition.

The stats for Tuesday nights game at Two Rivers showed our high scorer as Karen Felix who totaled ten points, containing five spike kills, three block kills, and one ace serve. Our assist leader was Tina Weddig with a total of nine assists. The match scores for Two Rivers vs. Kewaskum were 5-15, 15-9, 15-6.

Then on Thursday they played their last season home game against Chilton and came up with another win. Our team high scorer was once again Karen Felix with 12 points, consisting of nine spike kills, two block kills, and one ace serve. Also our assist leader was Tina Weddig, with nine assists. The match scores were 9-15, 15-9, and 15-13.

The Indians varsity finished the regular season at 6-6 which is not exactly what was expected but they are starting new with a goal of state. Good luck girls!

Hunter's Choice Deer Permits Mailed Beginning November 1

MADISON, WI — Applicants for Hunter's Choice permits for Wisconsin's 1989 gun deer season should begin receiving their permits during the first week of November, according to Dick Royston of the Department of Natural Resources licensing section.

Hunter's Choice permits allow a deer hunter to kill a deer of either sex in a specified deer management area. This year a record 346,970 Hunter's Choice permits are available; 296,630 permits were available for the 1988 deer hunt.

"Hunter's Choice permits will be mailed starting Nov. 1," said Royston. "We hope to have them all out by Nov. 10."

Wisconsin's gun deer hunting licenses for residents ($15.35) and nonresidents ($106.60) are available at DNR and county clerk offices, and from some retail outlets. Licenses must be purchased before the season begins. More than 653,000 deer hunting licenses were purchased in 1988.

REGISTER YOUR SNOWMOBILES NOW

MADISON, WI — Snowmobilers should register their snowmobiles now so they're ready to go when the snow arrives, advises Dick Royston of the Department of Natural Resources' licensing section.

"Snowmobiles cannot be legally operated without displaying valid registration decals," said Royston. "We're encouraging everyone to register their snow machines now."

More than 75,000 snowmobile registration renewals have been mailed. The renewals must be signed and returned to the DNR for processing for owners to get this season's validation decals.

"Don't wait for the snow because you might miss some good early season riding," added Royston. "Processing the application can take up to three weeks or more."
