Slain Nun was Former Teacher Here

The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Agnes in Fond du Lac are saddened at the loss of two of their sisters. Sisters Maureen Courtney age 45, a Milwaukee native, and Sister Teresa de Jesus of Nicaragua, age 24, were killed in an ambush at 6:30 p.m. on January 1, 1990, in Ojo de Agua outside of Siuna, in the remote Caribbean coastal region of Managua, Nicaragua. Other passengers, Sister Francisca Maria Colomer sustained shrapnel wounds to the eyes and face and Bishop Paul Schmitz, underwent surgery for a broken arm.

Courtney, the first Agnesian nun to die in missionary service, taught elementary school at Holy Trinity Catholic School, Kewaskum, from 1966 to 1968 where she is remembered as Sister Margaret Mary. It was her first teaching assignment.

A pickup truck with the four passengers left Siuna, a town in northeastern Nicaragua, at 6:00 p.m. The jeep rode over a grenade which exploded. Shooting ensued. Both sisters were killed instantly as a result of gunfire. The white pickup truck in which the group was traveling was clearly marked with yellow crosses. When those still alive in the truck shouted that they were religious, the firing ceased, but by then two were dead.

Bishop Pablo Schmitz, a Capuchin priest and Fond du Lac native, told reporters before boarding a plane from the city of Puerto Cabezas that "it was very dark outside" when the attack occurred so he couldn't identify his assailants.

"I only know that a mine went off or a grenade and there was heavy shooting afterward," said Schmitz. "We identified ourselves but nobody came to the pickup."

People from the town of Ojo de Agua heard the shooting and came to remove the wounded and dead from the truck. The townspeople spent the night in vigil and prayer around the wounded and dead. News of the ambush did not reach officials in Nicaragua until the morning of January 2. The Sandinista military evacuated the wounded and dead to the hospital in Siuna.

The Regional Coordinator of Nicaragua, Sister Raymond Griebel, was able to get through to St. Agnes at 12:45 p.m. on January 2. Ater Raymond was informed, helicopters flew from Managua to Siuna and transported the sisters and bishop to Cabezas.

Sister Jean Steffes, superior general of the Sisters of St. Agnes in Fond du Lac, said of Sister Maureen, "she loved life and she loved to share her life. I think it's just a tragic loss of life. I just don't understand this kind of tragedy."

Steffes and Sister Mary Mollison traveled to Milwaukee shortly after 1 p.m. Tuesday to notify Sister Maureen's parents and family of the nun's death.

Sister Teresa de Jesus Rosales' body was left in Puerto Cabezas where the funeral was arranged. Many delegates, deacons, and catechists were gathered there for the annual assembly of church workers of the Atlantic coast. This is the meeting the sisters and bishop were traveling to reach.

From Puerto Cabezas the body of Courtney and the wounded Colomer and Schmitz were flown by plane to Managua, where they were taken to the military hospital. Shrapnel was removed from the face and eyes of Sister Francisca Maria and Bishop

Paul underwent successful surgery for the multiple fractures in his shattered arm.

There was a memorial Mass for Sisters Maureen and Teresa in Managua January 3, celebrated by Bishop Salvator Schlaefer, who is a native of Campbellsport, son of Math and Mary Schlaefer, brother of Tony Schlaefer and cousin of Mrs. John Battaglia, Kewaskum. On January 4, Maureen's body was transported to the United States accompanied by a long time mission companion, Sister Marise Meis.

Sister Maureen had been in Nicaragua since 1978. She worked primarily with the Miskito Indian people along the Rio Coco and the Atlantic coastal region. Her work consisted of parish ministry. Besides teaching catechism and being present to the people, Courtney was involved in developing sewing cooperatives with the women of the villages. Recently she received a grant from the West German bishops to re-establish a health clinic for the Miskito people at Waspam on the Rio Coco. Maureen was a dynamic and zealous missionary who worked to help the people

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM — NEWS NOTES — 1989 4th Quarter Sewer & Water Bills

The 4th quarter Sewer and Water bills will be late. This is due to a computer breakdown with the service company who prints the bills for the Village of Kewaskum. They will be sent out as soon as possible. Please note this delay. The due dates for these bills will be adjusted accordingly.

Village to Proceed with Bonnie Lane Improvements Project

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board Monday night, approved proceeding with the construction of sewer and water service to the newly annexed Bonnie Lane subdivision on the southern edge of the village.

The board decided to spread the project out over a three-year period with sewer and water being installed this year and the remainder of the project being completed by 1993.

The board approved the purchase of a replacement copier for the Municipal Building at a cost of $7,500 and the hiring of Pamela Nass as a part-time custodian.

The board also approved the transfer of funds to pay for the softball diamond lighting project.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt informed the trustees that tax collections were up 2% over last year.

The board directed Schmidt to advertise for written applications to fill the unexpired trustee's position which became vacant due to the death of Vincent Groh last month.

Cost to Re-Open Beechwood School Would Have Major Impact on Budget

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Board of Education was told Monday night, the cost to open and operate the Beechwood Elementary School could conceivably cost the school district in the neighborhood of a quarter of a million dollars.

In making his report, as requested by board member Ron Beimborn, District Administrator Dr. David Heather said the cost could run anywhere from a low of $195,000 to a high of $323,000. "Just the 'start-up' cost to get the building operational would be a minimum of $114,000" said Heather, "without a student or teacher in the building."

The remainder of the cost would result from staffing, noted Heather. Addressing that area in his report, Heather offered three plans as ways to implement that staffing. The first, and least expensive, calls for the hiring of 1½ new teachers, four full-time aides and the transfer of two currently employed teachers. This would result in a juggling of both support and teaching staff between Farmington and Beechwood. Depending upon the experience level of the teachers hired, the cost could run anywhere between $195,000 and $207,000, including start-up. Classes at BES would again be split grades (1-2, 3-4, and 5).

The second plan recommends the hiring of 3½ new teachers and two new aides. The classes would be the same as the first plan except no teachers would be transferred from FES. The cost, including start-up, $237,000 - $265,000.

The third plan would require the hiring of 5½ teachers and each would teach an individual grade at Beechwood, resulting in very small classes. Projected BES enrollment would mean an estimated 10 first-graders, 13 second grade, 9 third grade, and 15 each in both the fourth and fifth grades. The cost for this plan would be $279,000-$323,000 including start-up.

During the presentation Heather suggested a fourth plan which would make

Limiting K-3 Class Size Costly Idea

House Plan Again Proposed for Middle School

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A proposal presented by interim principal David Jones, teacher Ken Erickson and supported by District Administrator Dr. David Heather to institute a "House Plan" at the Kewaskum Middle School received mixed reactions from Kewaskum's Board of Education Monday night.

In opening discussion on the proposal, Heather told the board, "we are well on our way to providing exceptional education for the students." He noted, however, staff members would have to be added to do a better job in the future.

That staffing would be in the form of two more full-time teachers at a cost of approximately $53,000 - $65,000 to help implement the plan for the 1990-91 school year.

Basically and simply put, the house plan would keep the classes of each of the three grades together in their own separate unit (house), with each grade's teachers working as a team to oversee their house.

"If we do nothing else, we hope to convince you the middle school student is different," said Jones. "They're either high as the ceiling or down on the floor. There is no in-between for them. They don't know if they are fish or fowl."

These students are not young adults, noted Jones and cannot be expected to act as such, these are 10-14 year-olds who we are trying to help through a difficult transitional period in their lives.

While Jones was not pointedly explicit, he implied discipline at the school was a major problem. "The Middle School is modeled after a junior high," said Jones, "and that is what we want to get away from. We want to de-emphasize competition between grades. Middle school students have to be nurtured in learning the basic skills if they are to succeed at the high school level."

One of Jones' recommendations was a switch from two to three lunch periods. "We have intramurals during lunch," said Jones, "as a result, the seventh graders beat on the sixth and likewise the seventh graders are no contest for the eighth graders. With individual lunch hours for each grade, the students would be competing against classmates, not upper-classes."

"These youngsters are like bear cubs they need a lot of

National Honor Society Induction Held at KHS Beechwood

Seven seniors and fifteen juniors were inducted into Kewaskum's chapter of the National Honor Society during a special induction ceremony held at the high school in November. New senior candidates for induction were: Dawn Jandre, Eva Nowak, Richard Radtke, Timothy Schultz, Brian Sharpee, Melissa Webber, and Tina Weddig. New junior candidates for induction were: Patti Aupperle, Brenda Behling, Stacey Betts, Angela Brath, Amy Chesak, Nicole Doherty, Janel Flynn, Nicole Gaffke, Gregory Holl, Heather Kulcinski, Melissa Miller, Amy Redig, Tammy Troeller, Laura Vogt and Christian Wunsch.

Each new member of NHS must have at least a 3.4 cumulative grade point average, as well as being active in extra-curricular activities to qualify. These candidates are then selected for membership on their qualities of scholarship, leadership, character and service. Only juniors and seniors are eligible for membership.

Mary Zehren Larsen, a graduate of Kewaskum High School, gave the main address for the evening's ceremony. The Kewaskum Chapter of the National Honor Society began in 1964 and Ms. Larsen served as president of the organization.

Present members, April Wulff, Steve Gerhartz, Tina Keller, Christine Ramthun, Michelle Marx, LeeAnn Winninghoff, David Kuphal and Kristina Schinker pointed out the requirements, responsibilities and attitudes which go along with the honor of being an NHS member. KHS principal, LeRoy Kopecky and NHS advisor, Sharon Blank offered congratulatory speeches as well.

A FORTUNE
Old folks are worth a fortune, with silver in their hair, gold in their teeth, stones in their kidneys, lead in their feet and gas in their stomachs.

Farmington a K-3 school and Beechwood a 4-5 grade attendance center. Heather indicated he did not favor this idea since "Farmington would be under utilized and the class sizes would still be large."

Heather advised the board that he considered these figures to be on the conservative side. Beside the obvious costs mentioned, he noted there could be several other "hidden costs," such as compensating teachers for loss of preparation time because of special time for art, music, etc., due to having to travel to a fourth building and the possibility of having to locate an Exceptional Education Needs (EEN) teacher at Beechwood (another $30,000 - $38,000).

If Beechwood were to be re-opened, Heather estimated continuing costs to operate the school on a yearly basis would run between $243,000 and $300,000.

Mrs. Irene Gnacinski, a Beechwood area parent, questioned some of the cost figures such as $21,000 for busing. The busses go right past the school now, she noted. Heather indicated his figures were estimates and there could be some error, however, there would still be some added busing costs. One board member questioned the impact of a $20,000 item when the district is looking at a quarter million dollar cost.

As far as tax consequences, based on the 1989 tax levy, reopening Beechwood would have resulted in a levy ranging from $16.14 to $16.58 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, a percentage increase ranging from 16.28% to 19.45% over the 1988 levy. (The current levy is $15.36 per $1,000).

Beimborn, who requested the data, felt the board should take the re-opening under serious consideration. He based his comments on a recent statement by Village of Kewaskum Administrator Dan Schmidt, that his community could see a doubling of its population by the year 2000.

Board member Perry Ankerson rebutted Beimborn's rationale by saying that would not necessarily hold true for the Beechwood area. That means busing, noted Ankerson, and parents have already indicated their opposition to such a suggestion.

The issue of Beechwood School was not an action item for the board. The information was presented for discussion only and required no decision by the board members.

direction, a lot of control," stated Jones.

"Speaking on behalf of the teachers," said Erickson, "it should be very obvious to you we are in support of the house plan." By working with one grade level the teachers will be able to become more familiar with their students, being able to detect when a student has a problem and needs extra help and support. At the middle school, noted Erickson, we are not working with just the academics, we are looking at educating the whole child.

Jones noted the added teachers would also allow for added elective courses as well as provide for tutorial assistance for children at risk as being mandated by the state. The house plan will help create a better atmosphere for teaching and learning with increased student/teacher contact, said Jones.

The board will be asked to act on the request to hire the two additional teachers at its March meeting.

Another discussion item which came before the board Monday night was the cost associated to limit k-3 classes to a maximum of 20 students per class. This idea was initiated by board member John Schulte.

Dr. Heather presented data gathered on this issue.

Condensed, that information showed, while it might be another one of those 'nice-to-have' things, it would be both costly and difficult to institute efficiently. To limit the k-3 class sizes to 20, it would require an additional 5 1/2 to 6 teachers, plus the availability of 5 1/2 classrooms. The cost for the teachers would range from $165,000 to $228,000.

While Kewaskum Elementary has extra rooms for the added staff, the facility would become cramped according to Heather's report. Farmington on the other hand, does not have the extra rooms for use and at least two more classrooms would be needed there.

In a letter to the board, Heather stated, "Limiting class size to a maximum of 20 is educationally sound but very expensive. If this is feasible for grades k-3, I think you should be expected to provide a similar situation for grades 4 and 5, which would also escalate costs."

This was again a discussion only item which required no action on the part of the board.

Dr. Heather also presented information on what he called one of his pet projects, participation in the Satellite Educational Resource Consortium. This program allows schools to participate in courses through the use of satellite dish transmission. The program presently offers only courses in Japanese and Russian.

Estimated cost for the dish and telephone hook-up would be $10,000. Since the program is only two years old, its services are expected to expand in the future. The board will review the program further.

In action items, the board approved the purchase of 185 folding chairs for the high school. Including storage carts, the cost was $2,072. The board also approved the hiring of Bray and Associates at a cost of $4,300, to design the high school roof replacement, the hiring of Marie Ritger as Wayne Elementary School intramural director and the requests of sixteen students for early graduation.

In other action the board voted to oppose supporting Resolution 75, the constitutional amendment to abolish, over a ten year period, the use of property taxes to fund public school operations.

Several board members felt such action would be disastrous in that the state would have financial control of all the school districts and how money was allocated.

"School districts such as Kewaskum which are operating on a barebones budget would really suffer, while those districts which have virtually run themselves into debt, funding everything from swimming pools to you-name-it, will benefit," said board member Ruth Schmitt. Local school boards will no longer have control over their budgets and their districts, she noted.

The board also vetoed support of a resolution to extend the school year from 180 to 190 days.

Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand advised the board that eight mini-grants from the district's Chapter II funds had been awarded to district teachers for projects and materials which they were not able to secure through normal budget procedures. The mini-grants for a maximum of $100 each were awarded to; Erv Uhlman to produce a classroom musical, "Music of the Planets," Peggy Henke for a field trip for 5th graders to the Milwaukee Art Museum, Carol Zoerb for a reading program and learning center, Jane Lazarevic for a reading project, Karen Larson and Kim Gutjahr for science equipment and resource materials, Mary Stephan enrichment project for HS art students and Chet Czoschke for charts and materials for use in biology classes.

HOLY TRINITY SCHOOL
Kewaskum, Wisconsin
Grade 1
1968 - 1969

A Written Eulogy

By Sister Jean Steffes
Congregation of the Sisters of St. Agnes, Fond du Lac

Sister Maureen Courtney died as the result of bullet wounds suffered when the vehicle in which she was a passenger was attacked on a road in a remote area in Northeastern Nicaragua, January 1, 1990, in the 46th year of her age and the 25th year of her religious profession.

On the occasion of her Final Vows, Sister Maureen presented to each of the sisters in the group a small wooden plaque on which is lettered "Amen, Alleluia." That was the response by which the assembled congregation voiced its affirmation and jubilation as each of the sisters pronounced her vows.

"Amen, Alleluia" — those two powerful words convey the strong sense of commitment and hope-filled spirit which characterize Sister Maureen's dedicated ministry to the children she taught in Kewaskum, Beloit, and Harlem and to the Miskito people among whom she lived and worked in the small village of Waspam, Nicaragua.

One friend described Maureen as a "Gospel woman," who might readily claim, "I have come to give life." Indeed, Sister labored to bring new life to the once devastated village of Waspam and to inspire in the people an appreciation for their culture, their talents and skills, to nurture their sense of self-worth as human beings. It was her dream to rebuild the clinic. She had explored the possibilities of setting up programs for the women similar to those offered in a maternity center. Sister taught the women crafts, and sewing, helping women to establish cooperatives and to plan for their future.

Sister Maureen was fun-loving and shared her ready smile generously. She was able to communicate clearly and utilized her talent for the benefit of her sisters as well as for the people to whom she ministered. Sister had genuine love and concern for the poor and devoted much of her life to their service.

We extend our sympathies to Sister Maureen's parents, Frances and Russell; to Sister's brother, Russel; her sister Kathleen and brother-in-law Fred and to her several nieces and nephews. On the Feast of St. Agnes the sisters in Nicaragua were planning to celebrate Sister's Silver Jubilee. In the summer she would have been part of the community celebration in the States. Now, we mourn the loss of a dear one, who, in the words of the convent chaplain at a Liturgy offered for our slain sisters, "represents the heroic struggle for human dignity and a just society in Central America." Sister Maureen's death was, as it were, her "Amen," that beautiful assent signifying the revelation of God's glory through her life. In this her year of Jubilee let our response be "Alleluia."

In the peace and love

help themselves.

At a special meeting of the Ecumenical Committee of U.S. Church Personnel in Nicaragua, the Committee said they are especially challenged by the witness of Maureen "who showed us, as U.S. citizens, how to live, and if necessary, even to die, while working with the Nicaraguan people, to bring peace and justice to our world."

The Sisters of St. Agnes have been serving in the remote coastal region of Nicaragua known as Zelaya Norte, Bluefields, since 1945. The Congregation of St. Agnes responded to a request from church officials to send missionaries to Central America. Currently they have twenty-one sisters and four novices in Nicaragua, ten being from the United States.

The funeral was held at 7 p.m. Friday, January 5, at St. Joseph's Church, corner of Second and Marr Streets, in Fond du Lac. The Rev. Archbishop Rembert Weakland officiated. The wake was held at Nazareth Heights Infirmary Friday afternoon. Memorial services were also held Friday in Milwaukee prior to the funeral.

Sister Maureen had chosen not to return home for Christmas this year, preferring instead to wait until summer when she would have celebrated her silver jubilee - 25 years as a Sister of St. Agnes.

Former Kewaskum Nun Comes Back to Say Goodbye to a Friend

Another local former resident is tied to the tragic story of Sister Maureen Courtney who was fatally shot recently in Nicaragua.

Sister Mary Ann Czaja, who was born and raised in Kewaskum, traveled back to Wisconsin late Thursday night from North Carolina to say goodbye to her friend at services held for the slain nun on Friday.

The sisters had spend three weeks prior to November 2nd, working side by side in Nicaragua, visiting villages and dispensing medicine to the poor.

The two friends met in 1962 when they were studying together to become nuns at St. Agnes Convent, Fond du Lac. They also taught together at Our Lady Queen of Angels School in Harlem during the 70s.

KHS to Participate in Wisconsin, National Citizen Bee Competition

Kewaskum High School students will have the opportunity to participate in a unique social studies academic competition which could lead to a scholarship and a study trip to Washington, D.C. in June 1990. The school has registered to participate in the Close Up Foundation Citizen Bee.

The Citizen Bee is an academic competition that focuses on social studies and progresses through school, regional, and state events. Three Kewaskum students will advance to regional competitions with top students there going to the state finals.

State winners earn a trip to Washington to participate in the Foundation's government studies program and the national competition. Winners of the national event receive college scholarships of $7,000, $5,000 and $3,000. The national Citizen Bee is funded by the Milken Family Foundation and Burger King Corporation, with additional support from KPMG Peat Marwick; RJR Nabisco, Inc.; and Kraft General Foods. On the state level the Bee is sponsored by Wisconsin Council for the Social Studies.

Schools which register for the event are permitted an unlimited number of participants and receive source books from which most questions are derived.

Kenneth Soerens, an educator at Kewaskum, will be coordinating the Citizen Bee at the school.

Fire Dept. Called To Regal Ware

The Kewaskum Fire Department responded Monday evening to a call from the Regal Ware Inc. plant in Kewaskum at 9:45.

The fire was confined to the buffing department where a 30 h.p. motor on a dust-collecting system shorted out and ignited. The drive belts also caught fire, causing a considerable amount of smoke.

The fire was contained to that area and there was no other damage. The firemen were on the scene 23 minutes.

Local Woman's Club to Celebrate Founders Day

The Kewaskum Womens Club will celebrate its 77th anniversary with a Founder's Day Dinner at Hon-E-Kor on Saturday, Jan. 20, at 7:00 p.m., with cocktails at 6:30. The cost is $11.00.

All members take note that 1990 is the 100th birthday of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. So we have a dual purpose to celebrate.

Please make your reservations with either committee member. The committee members are Kathy Paul (626-4318), Kathy Tiemann (626-4664) and Elda Kuehl (626-2088).

JANUARY COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Coming events will be listed only if they are submitted to the Statesman and are of area interest. We will be happy to list meetings of your non-profit organization only if they are sent in to us each month. We can no longer be responsible for keeping a running file of meetings for the entire year. Please submit your meeting notice for publication the week before it is to be published. Bear in mind, if your coming event, is designed to make money for your organization, it should be considered advertising.

Holzer - Beck

On November 25, 1989, Tammy Sue Holzer and Michael Lee Beck were united in marriage at Holy Trinity Catholic Church during a 2:00 p.m. Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Holzer and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Beck are the parents of the couple. The maid of honor was Karla Kleinschmidt, Belgium, Michelle Beck, West Bend, Tracy Wodsadelek, Allenton, Angie Schmitz, Grafton, Sara Schmitz, Grafton and Gail Holzer, Oostburg, were the bridal attendants. Bridget Beck and Bobbi Jo Lukens, godchildren of the bride and groom, were the flower girls.

Dallas Wodsadelek, Allenton, was the best man. Ron Loyas, West Bend, Richard Wilkens, West Bend, Rob Dickmann, Jackson, Jeff Gillian, West Bend, and Steven Holzer, Oostburg were the groomsmen.

The ushers for the wedding were David Beck, brother of the groom and Frank Schmitz, brother-in-law of the bride. The mini-usher was Ryan Loehrke, nephew of the groom.

The reception and dance was held at the KC Hall, West Bend.

The couple is engaged in farming on the family farm. After a honeymoon in Florida, the couple made their home at 5702 Hwy. H, Campbellsport.

Sledding Accidents Injure Two KHS Students

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Two Kewaskum High School students remain patients at the Milwaukee County Medical Complex Wednesday, as the result of separate sledding accidents over the week-end.

James Coulter, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Coulter, 819 Memorial Drive, Kewaskum, was injured Saturday in a snow tubing accident at River Hill Park.

Coulter was transferred to the Medical Complex Monday, where he is listed in satisfactory condition with a fracture of the right hip.

Dalavani Marques, an AFS foreign exchange student from Brazil, remains in the complex's Intensive Care Unit, listed in critical condition. A hospital spokesperson stated Marques has severe abdominal injuries.

Marques, who is living with the Agnes Fellenz family, was reportedly out sledding Sunday with some neighbors when the accident occurred. There was no information available as to where or how the accident happened. Marques' family was notified of the accident by AFS officials.

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS Some Adults Need Payees

By David W. Becker, Branch Manager

While most adults who receive Social Security benefits are able to manage their own money, some beneficiaries are paid through another person who acts as a representative payee. A representative payee is someone appointed by Social Security to receive and use payments for the well-being of a beneficiary who is unable to manage benefits because of mental or physical impairments.

Once it has been determined that an adult needs a payee, the Social Security Administration tries to find their most qualified person for the task. The preferred payee is a relative who lives with the beneficiary. If none can be found, a friend who shows strong concern for the beneficiary, an organization, institution, or other qualified person may be appointed.

Social Security exercises the utmost concern in choosing the best payee. Beneficiaries who need a payee are further protected because Social Security requires payees to file yearly reports showing how benefits were used. For information about representative payees, call Social Security at 1-800-234-5772.

Hartig/Emmer, Senecal Receive Beltone Award

Mary Beth Hartig/Emmer and Debrah Senecal of the Beltone Hearing Aid Center at 2395 W. Washington in West Bend were recently awarded 1989 Pacesetter Awards by Tom Thompson, owner of the West Bend Beltone Hearing Aid Center with a service center located in Kewaskum at the Kennelly Pharmacy, 927 Fond du Lac.

The Pacesetter is awarded to Beltone hearing instrument specialists who have made significant contributions to the education and well-being of the hearing impaired through conscientious and thorough testing, accurate evaluation, and appropriate application of hearing aid technology.

The West Bend Beltone Hearing Aid Center is an integral part of Beltone's network of hearing aid specialists who have served the hearing impaired for nearly 50 years. The network currently consists of more than 3,300 offices and service center locations across U.S. and Canada.

LESS TV - MORE ACTIVITY
Pediatricians now consider excessive TV watching a genuine disease of children, causing obesity and other ills. Hours spent watching TV are hours not spent burning up calories and developing muscle coordination and social excitement in play activity. TV watchers usually snack on junk food [many children see on TV over 11,000 low-nutrition, high-calorie junk food ads a year]. For healthy kids - less TV, more social, active play.

MPTC Winter/Spring Courses Offer Something for Everyone

Would you like to develop or increase your leadership skills? Does the exciting world of medicine beckon you? Would you like to learn more about computers? Are your math skills a little rusty?

If so, check out the winter/spring course schedule from Moraine Park Technical College. This year the tabloid takes on a new shape, making selection of your courses easier than ever.

Registration for all courses began January 8, with classes beginning January 22. Call the West Bend campus at 334-0909, Beaver Dam at 887-3411, Fond du Lac at 929-2100, dial toll free 1-800-221-6430 or contact your nearest Moraine Park center.

A program of special interest on the West Bend campus is Supervisors' Management. This five-year associate degree program is taught in the evening and will help you develop skills in leadership, motivation, delegation, discipline and more. Applied Supervisory Management and Managerial Budget and Finance are the program courses which will be offered this winter and spring.

When people who are thinking about returning to school are asked which skill they would most like help with, many respond "mathematics." Modu Math - The Right Answer is a one-credit course teaching the math skills fundamental to occupational and personal success. This course is offered at the campus library through an interactive video computer.

The Department of Health and Social Services requires day care staff to have both entry-level training and continuing education. Seven child care courses will be offered this winter/spring - one of those as a TV course - to help professionals meet these requirements.

The campus also offers a number of free services, including the Reentry Women Project and the GOAL lab. Reentry offers training, employment and support services for displaced homemakers. One three-week session is offered each month during daytime hours.

The GOAL lab offers instruction in math, reading, writing, career and study skills. Participants can begin at any time and attend when it is convenient. English as a Second Language instruction and GED preparation is also available.

Speak and think with newfound confidence with the help of two general education courses at Moraine Park. Oral Communication will aid in sharpening your presentation skills and Critical and Creative Thinking will provide a powerful resource for personal and professional decision making.

Enhance your degree or credentials by completing Moraine Park's Technical Writer Certificate. To earn this certificate you must complete the following courses: Technical Writing, Technical Writing - Advanced, Critical and Creative Thinking, Microcomputer - Presentation Graphics and Desktop Publishing.

The West Bend campus also offers the medical record technician program. Medical record technicians maintain important patient health records. These reports are used for diagnostic purposes, for hospital accreditation, for medical research and for planning. Graduates of this program are in great demand by hospitals, clinics, nursing homes, insurance companies, medical research organizations and government agencies.

The medical transcriptionist program offers healthy job opportunities for students and Moraine Park's program can train you for this career in one year. Demand for medical transcriptionists is so high you can usually arrange your schedule to juggle work and family and the salary is good. There are also many opportunities for advancement. Call the campus for more information.

For detailed information on these and many other courses and programs consult the winter/spring course schedule. To register call the West Bend Campus at 334-0909.

Adults-Only Piano Classes Begin at UWWC Jan. 24

Two adults-only group piano classes for beginners get underway here starting January 24 and running through March 28, 1990 at the University of Wisconsin Center - Washington County.

The popular new group sessions will be taught in the UWWC electronic piano lab. Cost of the ten-week courses is $65.

The group lessons, taught by veteran piano teacher Judy Mitchell of West Bend, were first introduced last January and filled up almost instantly. Student reactions were "very favorable," Mitchell said.

Two beginners classes are planned on Wednesday nights: the first session from 7:00 to 8:15 p.m., the second session from 8:15 to 9:30 p.m.

Mitchell, who runs her own piano studio in West Bend, has taught group lessons in several college settings. She has her master's degree in music from the University of Wisconsin.

According to Mitchell, some adults who were wary of group lessons discovered they liked them better than the individual approach.

During class evaluations of the course, they explained some of their reasons, including:

- Students get to be with the instructor for an hour or more a week instead of the usual 30 minutes.

- Listening to other students provides a lot more opportunities to hear what is expected.

- Sessions allow more time for practicing the lesson in class.

- Group sessions permit students to feel a sense of success before leaving the lab.

Learning in a group can be less stressful. "If you are not prepared," Mitchell laughed, "you can hide in a group session."

Students said they like the way Mitchell explains each new section and takes time to review what has gone before. They also find it helpful when she divides the group and lets half play the right-hand part and half, the left-hand.

"That way they can hear the whole piece even though they cannot play both hands at once," she said.

At the end of 10 weeks, students are ready to put both hands together. Mitchell's beginners tackle songs like: "Windy," "Love is Blue," "Michael, Row Your Boat Ashore," "This Old Man" and "When the Saints Go Marching In."

The piano courses are part of the UW Extension Continuing Education Program at UWWC. To reserve a spot or get more information, call Joan Laabs at 338-5215.

New Members Welcome At UWWC Book Club Course Starting Jan. 19

Robert Fulghum's book, "All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten" is the reading assignment for the opening session of the UWWC Community Book Club.

The club is a part of the spring UW Extension Continuing Education program at the University of Wisconsin Center - Washington County.

The four-session course meets the third Friday of each month starting Jan. 19. Marie Pitz is the instructor of the 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. classes. Other sessions are set for Feb. 16, March 16 and April 20 in the Main conference room at UWWC. New members are welcome.

Pitz said that participants need to read the book prior to the class and can purchase it locally or borrow it from the library.

Pitz refers to her sessions as "an adventure in sharing." The spring fee is $10. An average of ten readers attend the monthly discussion sessions.

Students read one book each month, Pitz said. She describes her role as that of starting the discussion and then trying "to keep things on track and pull in those who are a little more reticent."

She said her goal is one of keeping the class "fun and interesting" but avoiding its becoming "a coffee klatch."

Reading has always been important to Pitz, she said. She and her late husband Dar tutored adults in reading in Milwaukee's inner core area. She recalls a student asking Dar why anyone should bother to read. He replied, "Because there are so many interesting things to learn."

New members are welcome in the class. To register or obtain more information, contact Joan Laabs, Continuing Education coordinator at UWWC, 338-5215.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

January 8, 1990

To the Editor:

As we all celebrated Christmas and New Years with our loved ones some of our Village employees spent their holidays knee deep in mud repairing breaks in our water supply lines in the bitter below zero weather.

These men should be commended by all the citizens of our village. They unselfishly gave up the traditional family time together to do a job that affected the entire community.

We wish them a belated Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year, and a great big THANK YOU!

"CHRISTMAS CARD SNOWFALL" — It may have been messy, but last Thursday morning's snowfall was picture postcard pretty. To the left is a giant evergreen whose huge branches bent under the weight of the heavy snow. Below a flowering crab tree's branches were laden with inches of fresh snowfall beauty.

Tryouts for UWWC's 'Canterbury Tales' Slated for Jan. 22

"The Canterbury Tales" will be the spring musical of Theatre on the Hill, the drama group at the University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County.

Director Brad Ford said the production is slated for the last weekend in February and first weekend in March. Tryouts are scheduled for Jan. 22 from 7 to 9 p.m., in the UWWC Union theatre. Ten men and ten women will be needed for the cast.

Ford, an assistant professor of communication at UWWC, said he did the show before coming to UWWC. He said, "I enjoyed it so much, that I thought it would be fun for people to be in it, work on it and see it."

"The Canterbury Tales" is described as "a ribald musical comedy." Ford said, "The musical does focus on tales that tell of happy, unrequited and deceptive love."

The action takes place in April 1387, when Geoffrey Chaucer falls in with an assorted group of pilgrims who are spending the night at the Tabard Inn in Southwark, London, before setting out to visit the shrine of Thomas a Becket.

As the group travels, they each agree to tell a tale as they ride along. In the process, nearly two dozen musical numbers are presented.

The book for the show was written by Martin Starkie and Nevill Coghill and is based on a translation from Chaucer by Coghill. Richard Hill and John Hawkins wrote the music; Coghill, the lyrics.

The first London performance of the show was at the Phoenix Theatre in the spring of 1968; the first New York performance, at the Eugene O'Neill Theatre on Feb. 3, 1969.

Music in the show is a blend of modern pop with medieval rhythms and harmonies. The songs are not from Chaucer, Ford said, but are Professor Coghill's adaptations of medieval popular songs in a modern idiom with a Chaucerian flavor.

The public is invited to tryout for parts in the show. For further information, contact Ford at UWW, 338-5200.

Hubby: "Dearest, why didn't you pack some clean socks for my hunting trip."

Wifey: "I did, my dear! I put them in your gun case!"

Small Business Counseling At UW-Extension Office

Over 400 persons interested in starting small businesses have had interviews with the Small Business Development Center in West Bend.

The counseling service is offered by the Washington County UW-Extension Office. Appointments can be made with Chuck Wise, Area Business Agent, by calling 338-5204.

"There are many resources and a lot of information available for those expanding or starting a new business," says Wise. All discussion is held in confidentiality, and at no cost to the entrepreneur.

Special assistance is offered in the area of financial management and funding, personnel administration, marketing, and general management. Individual appointments will be scheduled for 90 minute periods, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

If interested, call the Washington County UW-Extension Office at 338-5204 for an appointment. Interviews will be held at the UW-Center, West Bend Campus, 400 University Drive, on Thursday, January 11.

No polka or rock music... no tantalizing smell of grilling bratwurst and hamburgers... no children's laughter on the gaily lit rides... no aroma of freshly popped buttered popcorn... the quiet stillness of winter surrounds the picnic area of River Hill Park in Kewaskum.

25 Years Ago

Jan. 8, 1965

Members of the old Kewaskum Gashouse Gang held a reunion-meeting on New Year's Jan. 1, at the Hon-E-Kor Country Club. It was the first meeting held by the club in 20 years and after all this time a very fine turnout of 49 members attended. The Gashouse Gang meeting used to be held every New Year's day at Mrs. Tillie Schaeffer's Grand View lunch room and tavern (now occupied by Bunkelman's Floor Covering) at the intersection of Main St. and Fond du Lac Ave. Members present greatly favored reorganizing and again holding meetings every year on New Year's day. As a result new officers were elected as follows: President - "Tiny" Terlinden, vice-president - Bill Roehrdanz, Recording Secretary - Ione Terlinden, Publicity Manager - Bill Harbeck, Public Relations - Dorothy Martin, Chaplain - "Mike" Sletflug. No treasurer was elected because the gang has no money anyway.

75 Years Ago 4-H News

Jan. 9, 1915

The grim reaper seems to have had Kewaskum in its grip the past few weeks, therefore we are obliged to publish with deep sorrow the announcement of the death of Nicholas Marx of this village. Mr. Marx, aged 63, one of Kewaskum's oldest settlers and very prominently known passed away at his home Tuesday after a lingering illness of three months duration.

The funeral of Mrs. Jos. Strachota, who died after an operation at St. Joseph's Hospital, Milwaukee on Dec. 30th, took place from Holy Trinity Church last Monday. Mrs. Strachota, formerly Mary Bernhardt, was born May 1, 1857, at LeRoy and was married to Jos. Strachota on Oct. 6, 1874, at Theresa.

Gerhard Pastor, Town of Barton was kicked in the face by a horse one day last week losing eight upper and two lower teeth. His lips were so badly cut a physician was called upon to close the wounds by inserting a number of stitches. Luckily the blow was low, for had he been struck on the forehead he would no doubt have been killed.

John Herriges, St. Michaels, harvested his ice this week.

Quite a number of young people from Prairie Villa enjoyed a sleighing party to Boltonville Saturday evening.

A number from Five Corners enjoyed a sleigh ride to the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Steinacker in North Auburn on Sylvester Eve. At 11:30 a delicious oyster stew was served, after having partaken of same the guests joyfully welcomed the New Year.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. Kempf last week Thursday, a boy, congratulations.

XYZ CLUB SKAT RESULTS

The winners on Wednesday, Jan. 3 played by the Senior Citizens XYZ Club at the Legion Hall in Kewaskum were: Allen Reindl, 33-4-29 net; Joe Butschlick, 28-4-24 net; Syl Schmidt, 24-2-22 net; Frank Sell, 25-3-22 net.

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 by Michelle Schaub. The Pledge of Allegiance was lead by Brooke Zanow and the 4-H pledge was lead by Sandy Schuster. Marlo Deshotels read the secretaries report and took role call. Missy Radtke read the treasurers report.

For the old business Michelle Schaub talked about the Valentines dance and the hockey game that is coming up. Kathy Deshotels told us about the Christmas parade and our float. Jenny Johnson told us about when we went to the Beechwood Nursing Home, sang and gave Christmas presents to the residents.

New business Michelle Schaub and Sara Lemke told us about their trip to 4-H state congress for 14 to 18 year olds. Joanne Lemke talked about her experience on going on a intrastate exchange within the state. Poster and Speaking is coming up and the theme for this year is "water" for all ages. So get ideas rolling and send them in. Also the all fun Bowl-a-thon which is March 18th.

The birthdays were recognized and refreshments were served. After we ate a little we all made snowflakes and snowmen out of paper for the people and the Beechwood Nursing Home. We all had fun thinking of new designs to make.

The next meeting will be February 1, 1990. Hope to see you all here to make Valentine hearts!!

Reporter,
Joanne Lemke

GOOD NEWS FROM UNITED WAY

This is a part of a continuing series of United Way-funded agencies in Washington County.

This Fall, Slinger and Hartford High School Peer Listeners were called upon to help their fellow students deal with tragedies at their respective schools. With their training in grief and loss, the Peers offered comfort and shared feelings when death claimed a beloved teacher and a fellow student. Sponsored by the Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse, 85 teens from 6 high schools in Washington County have been trained to be available to fellow students who need a listening ear. They may also make referrals to guidance personnel or refer for other assistance as needed.

Your United Way gift enables some youngsters to participate in field trips with Child's Place, Inc. Day Care and Preschool in Hartford. In October, the tots visited an apple orchard, a pumpkin farm and participated in a Halloween costume party.

Earlier this Fall, the Southeastern Wisconsin Center for Independent Living (SEWCIL) sponsored a wheelchair softball exhibition in West Bend for 10 county residents, with others in the cheering section.

Catholic Social Services in the West Bend area has been busy these past few months, providing services in their Family Counseling Program. They've also facilitated step-parent adoptions, supervised other adoptions and provided family mediation services.

Your continued support of United Way through payroll deductions, pledges or outright gifts makes these and many other services available through 36 agencies in Washington County.

Thanks to you, the United Way works for all of us.

Tiger Cubs Go Sledding

Sled riding was the order of the day for the Kewaskum Tiger Cubs during their January outing held last Saturday. The boys relished the cold snowy hill at Hon-E-

Kor and rode down with a vengeance, sliding to the very bottom, only to jump off and hike right back up to the top to give it another shot.

The gleeful smile on Josh Bullette's face as he lickety-splits down the hill brings back childhood memories of just how much fun sled-riding was, despite what we now call the "white, cold, wet stuff." We never thought of it that way when we were children!

Mitch Strobel figures there has to be an easier way to get back up that hill. The ride down goes so fast... how come the hike back up takes so long?

The Tiger Cubs who went sled riding take a "cookies and hot chocolate break," while assessing the merits of today's faster sleds. The general consensus was the sno-tubes seem to be the fastest, but the sled with the steering wheel sure was fun. The cookies and hot chocolate weren't too bad either! Front row, left to right: Mitch Strobel, Josh Bullette, Luke Piwoni. Back row: Dustin Kuehl and Bobby Ogi.

Church Trains Sexual Abuse Counselors

MILWAUKEE — The Archdiocese of Milwaukee will offer its first Project Benjamin training program for church leaders and volunteers working with people affected by sexual abuse. The January 16 training will be held at Archbishop Cousins Catholic Center, 3501 S. Lake Drive. Representatives from the ten counties of the archdiocese will participate.

This program follows nine months of research and planning since Archbishop Rembert G. Weakland, OSB, launched Project Benjamin in May, 1989. At that time a hotline was opened for victims sexually abused by authority figures, for their families and for the perpetrators to call and get help. A training handbook has also been developed to assist those working with abuse victims. This handbook will be distributed to all clergy and school principals in the archdiocese, as well as to participants in this training day.

The training will address such concerns as sexually abused victims, their families and the perpetrators; legal and ecclesiastical issues; the victim's journey to healing; the church's response to a victim; and the role of Project Benjamin.

"My hope is that parish leaders will have a greater awareness of sexual abuse and a better understanding of how to minister to its victims," said

Mary Kay Balchunas, Project Benjamin director. "We want them to understand Project Benjamin and the role it plays in helping to heal the pain of such abuse."

For more information about Project Benjamin or the training, call Mary Kay Balchunas at 769-3441.

WOLF MYSTIQUE

Yes, there are wolves in the wilds of Wisconsin and here's your chance to learn more about them. On Sunday, Jan. 14, Riveredge Nature Center will give you the opportunity to learn more about behavior of wolves through games, a study of the whitetail deer and the movie "The Wolf and the Whitetail."

Time is 1:30 to 3:30 and fee is $2.50. Children under 8 must be accompanied by an adult.

To register or for more information, call Riveredge at 931-8095 (metro) or 675-6888 (local).

Riveredge is a nonprofit nature center located one mile north of Newburg on Highway Y.

TOWN OF KEWASKUM TOWN BOARD MEETING

The Kewaskum Town Board will meet Monday, January 15, 1990, at 7:30 p.m. at the Labor Hall, 1230 Fond du Lac Avenue, Kewaskum, WI.

Bills will be presented for payment.

Notice to Young Men Turning 26 in 1990

Young men who will turn 26 in 1990 will be reaching an important milestone, according to the Selective Service System.

Beginning on January 1, 1990, men who were required to register with Selective Service in 1982 will be turning 26 and will no longer be eligible for induction should a draft be reinstated. Selective Service does not have the authority to accept late registrations after a man reaches his 26th birthday.

Selective Service Wisconsin State Director, Mr. John C. Cumicek, warned that with few exceptions, a man who fails to register before turning 26 will permanently forfeit his eligibility for certain benefits, such as federal student aid, job training and most federal employment in addition to facing possible prosecution as a felon.

Some states also require registration for state student aid, entrance to state supported colleges and universities, state employment and permission to practice law.

Mr. Cumicek points out that men age 18 through 25 who have not yet registered can avoid the risk of prosecution and loss of benefits by registering promptly at any local post office. Failure to register is a felony punishable by a fine of up to $250,000, up to five years in prison, or both.

Over 14 million men, age 18 through 25 are currently registered with Selective Service. Of those, 306,067 are from Wisconsin.

1990-91 Wisconsin Turkey Stamp Design Contest

The design contest for the 1990-91 Wisconsin Turkey Stamp has started and runs through March 19, 1990, said Ed Frank, contest coordinator for the Department of Natural Resources.

New to the contest this year is the involvement of the National Wild Turkey Federation (NWTF) and the Wisconsin chapter of the NWTF. The NWTF will publish and market a limited edition of fine art print reproductions from the winning entry. In addition to national exposure, the winning artist will receive $500 and signing fees from the NWTF and any income from the eventual sale of the original artwork.

Entries will be accepted beginning February 1, but must be received or postmarked no later than March 19. The design should be of an Eastern wild turkey, appearing in some setting in which it is found in Wisconsin.

The design must be the artist's original creation and cannot be copied or duplicated from previously published art, including published photographs. Entries must be eight inches high by 10 inches wide, and mounted on white matting to a size of 10 inches high by 12 inches wide. Artwork done for previous turkey stamp contests will not qualify.

Copies of the 1990-91 Wisconsin Turkey Stamp Design Contest rules and the print reproduction rights agreement can be obtained by writing: Wisconsin DNR, Turkey Stamp Contest, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707.

Early Trout Season Closure Reminder

Trout anglers are reminded that there is one big change in regulations for the early season in eight southern counties — the season is closed Department of Natural Resources Trout Habitat Specialist Larry Claggett stated.

The early trout season beginning Jan. 1 in Columbia, Crawford, Grant, Green, Iowa, Lafayette, Richland and Sauk counties has been closed by an emergency order of the Natural Resources Board because of the drought. Fish surveys in representative streams show significant decreases in both adults and 1989 young-of-the-year class trout.

Lower than normal precipitation in the southwestern portions of Wisconsin resulted in stream flows at 10-year lows. The low flows and high temperatures reduced the areas of trout streams where both young and old trout lived. As a result there were fish mortalities.

"Protection is needed to save adult spawning fish in natural reproducing streams and to ensure a variety of sizes of fish in future years in stocked streams," Claggett said.

Kuphal Earns 1st in FDL Tourney

Kewaskum Statesman, Friday, Jan. 12, 1990, Page 18

Dave Kuphal, Kewaskum, decided Mark Bradley of Ripon, 9-3, to finish in first place.

Todd Muckerheide, Kewaskum, decided Tony Goglio, Thomas-Moore, 6-4, to take third place at the Fond du Lac Tournament.

On Saturday, the grapplers traveled to Fond du Lac to face eight other teams in their tournament opener this season with 52.5 points. The Indians placed seventh out of a total of nine teams. Dave Kuphal managed to be the lone Indian to take first in his weight class. Among other good finishes were Dan Heisdorf, who placed second and Todd Muckerheide who placed third.

Kuphal faced Brian Cliver from Marshfield in his opening round and won 11-5. In his second round Kuphal managed to easily take Tim Burke of Markesan to earn his way to the championship match. In the title match Kuphal was up against Mark Bradley of Ripon and showed no signs of defeat as he beat Bradley, 9-3.

Taking a second place finish at the tournament was Dan Heisdorf who with a technical fall in the first round kept him going to fight for third. Facing a tough last two rounds, Heisdorf was forced to go into overtime both times. In the second round Heisdorf wrestled Darin Meyer of Westfield and after a tie score of 5-5, Meyer and Heisdorf went into overtime where Heisdorf beat Meyer 14-6.

Facing Jeremy Becker of West Bend West for the championship, Heisdorf was unfortunately defeated in overtime 8-4. However unable to take the title, Heisdorf was still able to walk away proud with his second place finish.

Also, doing unexpectedly well at 171 was freshman Todd Muckerheide. Wrestling at a tough weight for his age and placing third in such a relatively hard tournament was a job well done. Having abye first, Muckerheide was pinned by Mark Dudzinski of Ripon in 5:20 during his second match, Todd came back in his last two matches where he won both of them by decision. The third match was won 6-4 and the last match, which was won for third place, was won 15-9 against Tony Goglio of Thomas Moore.

Others doing well for the Indians were Kevin Kapp and Jeff Sabish. Kapp was pinned in his second round by Toby Kok of Ripon and later in his last match was defeated 3-2 by Brad Klein of Hamilton - Sussex.

Dan Heisdorf, Kewaskum, decided Darin Meyer of Westfield, 14-6, in over-time. Dan finished in second place at the tournament.

At 125, Jeff Sabish won two out of his three matches. Losing in his first 9-17 in overtime, Sabish came back to win with a pin against West's Hartlage in a time of :59. However, he was unable to keep it from happening one more time, as he lost 4-10 to Scott Flasch of Fond du Lac.

Josh Kurtz at 135, also lost his first and last matches. He did pin Mike Wehr of Thomas Moore in 3:20 in his second match.

Wrestling at 145, Dean Kries suffered a hard defeat in his first varsity tournament getting pinned in :53 from Pat Knoeck of Westfield and in :31 from Doug Kim of Fond du Lac.

The tournament lasted nine hours and all wrestlers are commended for great jobs. All fans are reminded to come cheer them on in Waupun on Saturday at 10:00.

Indians Lose Despite 5 Pins

While the wrestlers had a good meet Friday, their 5 pins were still unable to manage a win for the team over the Sheboygan Falls Falcons. Tied 36-36 after the 189 match, the Indians forfeit at heavyweight gave the Indians their fourth conference loss of the season with a score of 36-42.

Pinning for the Indians were Kevin Kapp, Brad Reikkoff, Jeff Sabish, Dan Heisdorf and Dave Kuphal.

Kapp pinned Jason Yost at 112 in :29. Freshman, Brad Reikkoff, wrestled at 119 and also pinned in :38.

Sabish also had no problem pinning Dave Christian of Falls. With a quick takedown, Sabish was able to pin Christian in 1:35.

Heisdorf, at 152 showed control by also pinning. Continually taking Schuler down, Heisdorf saved his pin until the end pinning in 4:48.

Kuphal also dominated his opponent. Within a quick :31, Kuphal took his opponent down and pinned.

Winning by decision for Kewaskum was freshman, Josh Kurtz, who at the end, time permitting, would have stuck Saunders. However time ran out and he won by decision.

Losing for the Indians were Todd Muckerheide and Greg Holl. Both Holl and Muckerheide got pinned by the Falcons.

The Indians now hold a 2-8 season record and are now currently 0-4 in conference.

Their next meet is Friday as they host the Chilton Tigers w/varsity action beginning at 7:00 and JV at 6:30. Saturday, the Indians travel to Waupun for their second tournament this season. Action will begin at 10:00 in the Waupun High School gymnasium.

103 - Kewaskum forfeited to Jeremy Soles.

112 - Kevin Kapp (K) pinned Jason Yost (S.F.) :29.

119 - Brad Reikkoff (K) pinned Kyle Yost (S.F.) :38.

125 - Jeff Sabish (K) pinned Dave Christian (S.F.) 1:35.

130 - Kewaskum forfeited to Mike Adamavich (S.F.)

135 - Josh Kurtz (K) decided Joe Saunders (S.F.) 10-7.

140 - Kewaskum forfeited to Dirk Huibregise (S.F.)

145 - Kewaskum forfeited to Dean Strauss (S.F.)

152 - Dan Heisdorf (K) pinned John Schuller (S.F.) 4:48

160 - Dave Kuphal (K) pinned Todd Mielke (S.F.) :31.

171 - Matt Krueger (S.F.) pinned Todd Muckerheide (K) 1:24.

189 - Lance Siebert (S.F.) pinned Greg Holl (K) :45.

275 - Kewaskum forfeited to Todd Arnoldi (S.F.)

Indian Boys Rout Falcons

The Kewaskum boys' basketball team finally showed its fans what it is capable of doing, Friday night, as the Indians used some good shooting and rebounding to dominate visiting Sheboygan Falls, 80-44.

After some close early season losses to the likes of Two Rivers, Kiel and Campbell-sport, the Indians were due to explode, and explode they did, against a smaller, weaker Falcon team.

In addition to the regular starters, Brian Leitheiser, Rich Radtke, Steve Gerhartz and Mark Heather, Indian head coach Jim Westphal inserted 6-5 senior Chris Schmid. Schmid responded to the starting nod with three big blocked shots early in the game, and he wound up with six blocks on the night, before fouling out in the third quarter.

Although Schmid played well early, the Indians found themselves trailing 9-4, midway through the first quarter. Not to fear, however, as the Indians scored the next ten points on consecutive baskets by Radtke, Schmid, Leitheiser, two free throws by Gerhartz and another jumper by Leitheiser, to take a 14-9 lead. The Indians upped their lead to 20-14 by the end of the quarter.

The second quarter saw the Indians increase their lead and begin to pull away. The Indians began to look for the fast break as Leitheiser upped the tempo of the game, pushing the ball down the court and coming up with some nice assists to teammates.

Kewaskum, using a tough, matchup zone defense, forced some ill-advised Falcon shots which didn't fall. While on the other hand, everything seemed to fall for the Indians, as they broke Falls' full-court trapping defense with ease, resulting in some easy buckets.

The result of all this was Kewaskum outscoring the Falcons, 18-4, in the second quarter, and opening up a 20-point lead, 38-18, by halftime.

With the big lead, Westphal decided to clear his bench in the second half, and even they could do no wrong. All of the Indians' players, with the exception of sophomore Chad Cook who didn't play because of an ankle injury, got into the game, and all 11 Indians scored at least two points.

Leading the way for the Indians was Leitheiser, who had 16 points, and junior Mark Felix, who had 12. Senior reserve Tim Butchlick also added a season-high 10 points. No Sheboygan Falls player scored in double figures.

The reason for that can be seen clearly in the shooting. The Falcons hit on only 18 of 61 shots from the field, for a lowly 29 percent. The Indians, meanwhile were smoking hot, hitting 34 of 63 shots, for 54 percent.

The taller Indians also managed to dominate the boards, outrebounding Falls 46-26. Leading the way for the Indians was Gerhartz, who, although held to just 9 points, came away with 11 rebounds.

Kewaskum, now 5-5 overall, 2-3 in conference, hope to keep things rolling along Friday as they travel to New Holstein to take on the Huskies.

Indian Girls Roll Over Falls

The Kewaskum girls' basketball team, as was the case with the boys' a day later, had an easy time of things as they rolled past Sheboygan Falls, 48-18.

The Indians actually trailed in the game, as Sheboygan Falls scored exactly one-half of their total points in the first quarter, and led Kewaskum, 9-8, after one period of play.

The Falcon lead may have been due, in part, to the slow start of Indian star Pam Osterbrink. The 6-1 center started the game with a 1 for 5 shooting performance, but then got things rolling as she hit on 10 of her last 12 attempts, on her way to a 23-point night, including 8 in the second quarter when the Indians took the lead for good, while outscoring the Falcons 13-2.

The game was really no contest after that, as the Falcons couldn't muster any more than four points in a quarter, while the Indians' lowest output was a 13-point fourth quarter.

Eleven different Indians scored in the contest. After Osterbrink's 23, Janel Flynn, celebrating her 17th birthday, chipped in 5 points, including a three-pointer at the end of the game and Kristi Lubahn and Nicole Doherty each added 4.

The win improved the Indians' overall record to 7-4 while they evened their conference mark to 2-2.

The Indian girls' JV team lost a close one to their counterparts from Falls, 25-22.

Nicole Oppermann and Tricia Schultz contributed 6 and 5 points, respectively, to lead Kewaskum, now 3-8, 1-3 in conference action.

KHS Girls' Basketball Game Rescheduled

The Girls' Basketball Game that was canceled December 21 against Chilton has been rescheduled for Tuesday, January 23, 1990, at the Kewaskum Fieldhouse. The freshman and JV will begin play at 6:15 p.m. with the varsity to follow the JV game.

Any questions regarding this change can be directed to Dave Rizzardi, Kewaskum Athletic Director.

Cedarburg Turns Back Kewaskum In Lakes Game

KEWASKUM — The Cedarburg Turners turned a close game into a route in handing Kewaskum its fourth straight setback, 159-115, in Land o' Lakes play here Sunday night. The Turners in the process kept their hold on a share of first place with their fourth straight win.

Kewaskum stayed closed to the Turners for two and a half quarters before Cedarburg turned on the steam. Kewaskum trailed by only a dozen midway through the third quarter. The Turners led by 40-29 after the first quarter, and increased that to 74-59 at the half and 112-90 after three quarters, before pouring in 47 points in the fourth quarter.

The Turners shot a sizzling 85.0 percent from the free throw line on 17 of 20, while Kewaskum was eight of 10 for 80.0 percent.

Sharpshooter Scott Murrey turned in 41 points for Cedarburg, Steve Van Dyck 36, and Rick Nisleit 34. Brian Earnest led Kewaskum with 33 points, Tony Pirozzoli had 29, and Mike Goldsworthy 24.

Kewaskum draws the bye this week and will next be in action January 21 hosting Port Washington.

Boys' JV Team Wins Tournament

The Kewaskum Indian boys' JV basketball took first place in the junior varsity version of the Sheboygan Falls Holiday Tournament over Christmas break.

Although they were shorthanded due to injuries and vacations, the Indian boys rolled in their semifinal game against Waupun, beating the Warriors 62-39. Shawn "Majik" Schneider led the Indian attack with 20 points, while Joel Fleishman added 18.

In the championship game, the Indians faced the host Falcons. Fleishman hit a basket with just under a half-minute to play to give the Indians a thrilling 55-53 victory and the championship. "Majik" Schneider once again led the Indians, this time with 22 points. Scott Paulson also chipped in 10 points for the winners.

The Indian JV's mark improved to 4-5 with the victories, although they are still looking for their first win in conference play after starting 0-4.

AN INTRODUCTION TO CROSS COUNTRY SKIING

Riveredge Nature Center will host a cross country ski session strictly for beginners on Saturday, Jan. 13. Participants will learn about equipment needed to enjoy this sport and then practice kicking and gliding, as well as falling and snow-plowing. This is a good opportunity to get acquainted with the pleasure of cross country skiing.

Fee is $6. To register or for further information, call the Center at 931-8095 (metro) or 675-6888 (local).

Injured KHS Gymnasts Fall To Spartans, 91.55 to 77.84

The Indian gymnasts were hosted by the West Bend West Spartans early Thursday night. The Spartans overtook the young Indians early on - winning with a score of 91.55 to 77.84. Although the Indians started out with a few disadvantages - one being top gymnast Ingrid Ankerson out, (with back troubles) and also Stephanie Reindl and Wendy Fideler with ankle injuries, the Indians still managed to have some top standings. Stephanie Reindl placed second on the beam, which was her personnel best (she also earned a silver medal for her score 7.1).

Wendy Fideler placed second on the floor - her routine earned a 7.7.

Chris Ramthun placed first in all-around and also tied for third on the vault with a score of 6.6.

Some high lights for the meet were: Stacey Heberer's personnel best on floor - she scored a 6.0 (and also successively completed a front tuck in her routine). Jessica Rohrer competed on the beam - at the varsity level, with a score of 4.85.

Freshmen Rachele Krahn competed on the varsity level also - for the floor, her routine earned her a 4.7. Tracy Ruplinger's floor routine earned a 5.5. The Indians hope to look healthier and stronger for their upcoming meets. They host the Hartford Orioles Jan. 11, and also are competing in two invites - one at DePere Jan. 13; and Chilton Jan. 20. Both invites are away. The next upcoming meet for the gymnasts will be Jan. 25 when they host Beaver Dam.
