School Board Ratifies Two Year Pact with Teachers

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

During a special meeting Saturday morning, the Kewaskum Board of Education ratified a two-year contract with the Kewaskum Education Association. The new pact covers the present 1989-90 school year and extends to 1990-91. The vote was 4-2, with board members Perry Ankerson and Paul Seymour casting the dissenting votes. Board member Donald Nowak was unable to attend the meeting.

Terms for the first year of the agreement call for a starting salary for new teachers, with a bachelor of science degree, of $20,044. With a master's degree, the starting salary will be $22,577. The maximum salary for the 1989-90 contract would be $37,351 for a teacher with a master's plus 20 additional credits and 14 years experience.

The new contract provides for a 6.31% salary only increase of $1,850. With fringe benefits added, the increase equals a 7.55% hike.

For the second year of the contract, covering 1990-91, teachers will receive a 6.34% or $1,975 salary only increase. Adding the fringe benefits brings that figure up to 7.51%. Starting salaries would go up to $20,328, with a salary of $40,656 at the top of the wage scale.

District Administrator Dr. David Heather also noted there were two significant language changes in two major areas of the contract. The first came in the area of health insurance where the KEA has agreed to pay 3.5% of the costs beginning next year with the 1990-91 portion of the contract.

The second change relates to early retirement and insurance coverage. The new pact calls for the district to pay health insurance for those teachers who opt to take advantage of the early retirement from ages 55 to

62. At 55, with 15 years of service with the Kewaskum School District, the district will pay for two years coverage, for 20 years service, three years coverage, 25 years service four years coverage, and 30+ years, five years of insurance coverage. The premium would be locked in at the time of retirement, noted Heather. Any increase over that amount would be picked up by the retiree.

The new raises do not reflect deductions for the portion of the health insurance which will be picked up by the teachers in the second year of the contract.

The 1989-90 portion of the contract will cost the district $214,403, this year. The package will cost the district $228,905, for the 1990-91 portion of the two-year contract.

Checks for the teachers' back pay, retroactive to the start of the 1989-90 school year, are expected to be issued some time in March.

Lehmans Drop Petition for Annexation

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

On a 4-3 vote Monday night, the Kewaskum Village Board voted against a motion to temporarily pick up half the cost to install sewer and water service to several homes along Highway H, on the western edge of the village.

The action came in response to a petition by Mr. and Mrs. William Lehmann seeking annexation to the village. That petition, if approved, would have allowed the Lehmann's and several of their neighbors to have installed and hook up to the village's sewer and water utilities.

The village, however, learned after a second meeting with the petitioners that not all the property owners in the area in question were interested in annexation. Properties along the north side of Highway H, showed an interest in being annexed while landowners on the south side of H, did not want to be a part of the annexation. Had all parties agreed to be a part of the petition, the cost to install the sewer and water lines along approximately 1,000 feet of Highway H, would have been split 50-50, with property owners on each side of the road paying their fair share.

With the refusal of the south side property owners to join the annexation, the question arose as to who would pick up the cost of about $50,000 which would have been assessed to that land.

While the board had no qualms about the annexation itself, the trustees felt some form of developer's agreement had to be written up spelling out who was going to pick the installation costs and how much. At its last meeting the board considered two options, first that the petitioners be required to pay the entire cost of about $100,000 and through a developer's agreement, gain reimbursement of the cost plus interest when the south properties were annexed, or secondly, that the village would pick up that 50% and seek reimbursement if and when the southern properties applied for annexation.

For the board, the 'if' and 'when' questions were the big hang-up, causing lengthy discussion. Board members Larry Williams and Tom McElhatton were strongly in favor of the village picking up the 50%, citing possibility of expansion and development in the area. Williams felt such action would help to stimulate and encourage the area's development.

Trustee Mary Krueger was strongly opposed to such action. While she told the Lehmann's she understood their predicament and felt sorry for them, Krueger said she felt an obligation to the taxpayers and was against tying up over $50,000 of the village's money for an unknown period of time.

Trustee Bob Beisbier said he would give the idea stronger consideration if there were not so much land still available for development within the village

Dinner Concert At KHS Mar. 15

The Kewaskum High School Music Department will be presenting a Dinner Concert on Tuesday, March 15, 1990. The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the concert starting at 7:00 p.m. The meal, which costs $7.00, will be catered by Homeplate.

All profit from the concert will go to much needed equipment for the Music Department. The music for the evening will consist entirely of classical music from all periods and styles from our rich musical heritage.

Tickets may be purchased from any high school musician or from the high school office. Tickets will not be sold after Friday, March 9, so get yours soon and avoid the rush. See you in Rose Hall on Tuesday, March 15, at 6:30 p.m.

Village Board Votes to Close Landfill March 1

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

On a unanimous vote, the Kewaskum Village Board, Monday night, approved the closing of the village's landfill effective March 1st.

Citing excessively high costs to meet stringent new EPA regulations, the trustees felt they had no other choice but to close the landfill.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt and Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilge indicated that closing the site even before the new regulations take effect will still cost the village several thousand dollars.

In other action the board approved a resolution to assess costs to properties being affected by the 1990 phase of the village's Capital Improvements sidewalk repair program. Schmidt went over the list of areas targeted for this year's repairs. He advised the board that $60,000 had been placed in this year's budget for the work.

Schmidt said the bid prices that come in will determine just how much of the repairs

In celebration of FFA Week, February 17-24, the Kewaskum Chapter, under the guidance of Dave Rizzard, Vo-Ag Instructor, has an eight-page promotion insert in this week's issue.

The FFA officers along with the help of their Vo-Ag Instructor and other chapter representatives were instrumental in soliciting the ads, writing the news items and laying out of the eight pages. It was then brought to the Statesman office for typesetting, ad makeup, proofing and paste-up.

FFA Week traditionally is marked from the Saturday before George Washington's birthday to the following Saturday. Washington is honored for his significant contributions to American agriculture as well as his military and patriotic contributions.

Through their FFA experience, they will develop skills and knowledge to help them prepare for a career in agriculture. Their future in farming is our future as well.

We join the community in saluting the FFA during this, their special week.

The members of the Kewaskum FFA have a great deal to be proud of.

Please help support your high school's Vocational Agriculture-FFA program, and the advertisers who so graciously took out ads again in the FFA promotion.

School Board Denies Detachment Petition

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At a joint meeting of the Kewaskum and West Bend School Boards Saturday morning, Kewaskum unanimously voted to deny the detachment petition of Town of Barton residents Steven and Sharon Strachota. That petition would have allowed them to petition for attachment to the West Bend School District.

Because the West Bend School Board did not have a quorum present at that meeting, it was not able to take a vote on the petition. The West Bend board, at its regular meeting Monday night, did vote on the petition, approving it on a 3-2 vote, with two members absent.

The Strachotas had hoped to receive approval from both districts which would have allowed them to attach their property on Kettle View Drive to West Bend.

Kewaskum Administrator Dr. David Heather had asked both boards at Saturday's meeting to deny the petition noting there were no compelling educational reasons for the change.

The 69-acre property has an assessed value of $150,000, generating approximately $2,400 in taxes annually.

Strachota cited hazardous transportation conditions from his property as one reason for the petition. He noted, however, that his children did not attend public school in either district. One child attends St. Mary's Springs in Fond du Lac and another child attends Holy Angels Catholic School in West Bend.

With conflicting votes on the petition, the next step for the Strachotas is to appeal the petition through the department of Public Instruction in Madison.

Professional Tax Advice Free

The Dial-A-Tax program sponsored by the Wisconsin Institute of CPAs (WICPA) is offering free tax advice to the public.

The program debuted February 17th and will be offered on February 24th, and March 17th, 24th and 31st. It is scheduled on Saturdays from 12 to 3 p.m.

Steve Meyerson, Chairman of the Dial-A-Tax Committee, said, "We are hoping to reach a large audience by offering the Dial-A-Tax program on Saturdays."

The program is free and confidential. The CPAs are eager to help taxpayers with their problems. People are encouraged to call with their questions. The number to call is 785-0818.

The WICPA maintains offices in Brookfield and serves more than 6500 CPAs in Wisconsin.

Krueger also noted there was a possibility that the land in question might never be developed and the village would not recoup its money.

When the Donald Ritgers learned after the board's last meeting that they, along with the other petitioners might have to pay 100% of the installation costs, they indicated they were no longer interested in the annexation. The Ritgers said they were not having septic problems as were the Lehmanns.

The petition's death blow apparently came when Dr. Charles Ogi, one of the south property owners, advised the board during the meeting that there were no development plans now or in the near future for land he and Jim Reigle own, despite the fact that such plans had been brought to the board several years ago.

Mrs. Lehmann said Tuesday, she and her husband were disappointed by the board's actions Monday night and felt it had a devastating effect on their annexation petition. "We were very disappointed in what took place," said Clare Lehmann, "since we were advised by several individuals that this was the approach to take."

The Lehmann's indicated the only reason their petition came about was the fact that they must repair a failed septic system and they were told that properties along Highway H, in their area, were being eyed for development and annexation to the village some time in the future.

The Lehmann's indicated

they had no problem with having to install a mound system, but they did not want to spend thousands of dollars to have work done, only to find out two years down the road their property would be annexed and they would have to tear out their mound system and spend several thousand more dollars to hook up to the utilities.

If we had known this is what was going to happen, we would have just gone ahead with the mound system and not spent all this money on petition and lawyer's fees.

The Lehmann's attorney, Carol Beverly, told the board that West Bend did not require petitioners to pick up the entire cost. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said West Bend was in the minority and, in fact, almost all the neighboring communities required the entire 100% 'up front' rather than allowing property owners to spread the payments over several years.

After hearing the board's vote, the Lehmann's decided to drop their petition and go ahead with the installation of a mound system.

TAP THE SUGAR BUSH

Tapping the maple trees is Wisconsin's way of welcoming Spring. Riveredge Nature Center will begin this rite on Saturday, Feb. 24 from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Riveredge has over 300 trees which await the bite of the bit, the spiles to be inserted and the buckets to be hung. Riveredge is asking for volunteers to help with this. There is no fee, only the need for strong arms.

Holy Trinity School Sponsoring Fund Raiser

Holy Trinity School launched a family reading program, an activity designed to raise funds while encouraging reading at home. On February 16th for a period of two weeks, students began talking to parents and friends about placing magazine subscription orders from a selection of more than 600 general and special interest magazine titles. (Individual records, cassette tapes and CDs will also be available). The program is handled through QSP, Inc. under the direction of local manager, Ed Staacke. QSP is a subsidiary of the Reader's Digest Association.

Profits are earmarked for buying literature and providing reading-writing resources for each grade.

Sister Phyllis, Principal, said, "because the average household spends over $90.00 on magazines each year, we know this is money that would have been spent anyway. The beauty of this campaign is that while we're selling magazines at regular subscription prices, we're recapturing 40 cents of every dollar that would otherwise be leaving our community. We're really counting on community support to reach our goal of 600 magazine sales.

"Profits will be used to create a premiere reading program at Holy Trinity School.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank my family, relatives and friends for their cards, gifts, visits and prayers while I was a patient at the hospital and at home. Special thanks to doctors and nurses. Also thank you to the Rescue Squad of Kewaskum. It was greatly appreciated.

Steven Braun Awarded Degree

During graduation ceremonies conducted at Marian College of Fond du Lac, on Dec. 16, 1989, Steven F. Braun of Kewaskum was awarded a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. Steve is currently employed with the Washington County Sheriff's Department. Steve who received local and statewide recognition for his drug enforcement efforts also possesses an Associate's Degree in Police Science Technology having graduated from Moraine Park Technical College of West Bend in 1979. Steve and his wife Renee have two daughters Melissa and Becky who are students at the Kewaskum High School. Steve is looking to expand his role in law-enforcement.

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself," the father told his lazy son. "When Washington was your age he had become a surveyor, and was hard at work."

"Yeah," retorted the son, "and when he was your age he was President."

Kindergarten Registration And Preschool at St. Lucas

Registration of new five year olds will be held Monday evening, Feb. 26th at 7:00 p.m. in the lower level of the school.

Parents may come at that time to receive all necessary forms and to hear a brief presentation by Mr. Bollinger and Mrs. Hoenecke. It is important that parents register their children that evening so that provisions can be made for the coming school year. Your child must have attained the age of five years by September 1st to be eligible for school this fall. St. Lucas will again offer preschool this coming school year. We would like to hold two sessions each week. Each class would be held two afternoons a week with a limit of 10 children in each class.

Members of St. Lucas will have first choice, but sessions will also be open to children of the community if we do not fill our quota. Start calling now to ensure enrollment of your child.

Any questions may be directed to Deborah Hoenecke (626-8235).

scheduled for this year will get done. He noted the lower the bids are, the more the village can have repaired.

In other business the board accepted the high bid of Beltline Motors of Wausau, to purchase the Police Department's retired 1988 squad. Beltline's high bid was $2,787. Cheyka Motors of Schofield submitted a bid of $2,483.50.

The board approve a building permit for an addition and remodeling work on the Kim Peterson residence at 202 Forest Avenue.

After reviewing the Washington County Highway Jurisdictional Plan, the board directed Schmidt to submit a letter to the County and Department of Transportation supporting the extension of the Highway 45 four-lane reconstruction, from the northern edge of the bypass to Main Street in the village, as a high priority item.

The board also approved the request of the various village departments to advertise for part time summer help.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel advised the board that his department will have the baseball card handout program again this year. He stated the cards were being purchased by Kewaskum Valley Bank for the department.

County Parks Receive Grant

Washington County has received a State grant award for the start-up of a Wisconsin Conservation Corps crew to work on improvements in the county parks for one year starting April 9th.

The project labor is valued at $75,700, according to Land Use and Park Department Administrator Paul Mueller.

The crew will be working on several construction related and park development projects in all of the parks. Projects include dismantling of abandoned buildings, construction of new trail segments, hazardous tree removal in intensive use areas, construction of new nature trail signage and fish cribs, removal of old barb wire fence lines, moving of cabins to more useful and accessible sites, handicap access projects and many more.

It has been shown that this opportunity to gain important work experience in the outdoors has been beneficial to the 18-25 year old crew members and the sponsoring agency alike.

The crew members will be State employees, compensated at minimum wage with educational scholarship and project completion bonuses at the end of one year of service.

Persons interested in more information about the program should contact the Wisconsin Conservation Corps office at 30 W. Mifflin St., Suite 406, Madison, WI 53703-2558 or call (608) 266-7730.

Maurer - Hanrahan

Eileen Susan Maurer and Patrick Leo Hanrahan exchanged wedding vows during a 2 p.m. ceremony at St. Bridget's Catholic Church, Wayne on November 25, 1989. Father Robert Berghammer was the celebrant.

Parents of the couple are Donald and Phyllis Maurer 3206 Lighthouse Ln., West Bend and George and Mary Hanrahan 4930 Hwy. 28 W. Kewaskum.

The bride chose her sister Lori Beilke of West Bend as her matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Joni Hanrahan, Berlin, sister of the groom; Karen Hockett, Wauwatosa, friend of the bride; and Mary Herriges, Kewaskum, cousin of the groom.

Matthew Hanrahan, Mt. Prospect, Ill., brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Terry and Kevin Maurer, West Bend, brothers of the bride, and James Hanrahan, Oshkosh, brother of the groom.

The miniature bride and groom were Heather Beilke, niece of the bride and Brian Hanrahan, brother of the groom.

Ushering duties were shared by James Hanrahan and Gilbert Beilke, brother-in-law of the bride.

Gift-bearers were Leanne Bentley and Linda Puestow future sisters-in-law of the bride.

A reception and dance followed at the Amerahn in Kewaskum.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of West Bend West High School and is employed at St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend as a Certified Health Unit Clerk. She is presently taking classes at MPTC in West Bend towards a degree as a Registered Nurse.

The groom is a 1979 graduate of Kewaskum High School and is self-employed as a farmer.

Following a honeymoon to the Pocono Mts., in Pennsylvania, the couple now reside 4930 Hwy 28 W., Kewaskum.

The West Bend Home Show will be held at Silverbrook Middle School on Saturday, February 24th from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and on Sunday, February 25th from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Over 70 exhibitors will display products, demonstrate services and impart valuable information to homeowners and renters alike.

Consumer sessions will be offered to allow home show visitors the opportunity to learn about specific topics and to ask questions of the experts. It is suggested that visits to the home show be geared around the topics of most interest.

The schedule of consumer sessions is:

Saturday: 10:30 - Building That Dream House-New Home Construction, Realty World-West Grove Realty; 11:30 - New Home Construction Rebate, Wisconsin Gas Company; 12:30 - Methods of Carpet & Upholstery Cleaning, Kettle Moraine Professional Cleaners; 1:30 - Landscape Design in Wisconsin, John Lamm of Jackson; 2:30 - Real Estate Agents, Who do they Represent?, Coldwell Banker/Spectrum Real Estate.

Sunday: 11:30 - Building That Dream House, Realty World - West Grove Realty; 12:30 - Something to Build On-New Home Financing, Federated Financial Savings; 1:30 - Senior Citizen Home Care, Fair Wind Farm & Judy's Home Haircare Services; 2:30 - Staining, Stripping & Painting Methods, Tennes True Value Hardware.

The consumer sessions will be held in an area away from the congested area of the home show. Watch for signs indicating the proper area.

The home show is sponsored by the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce. For information call 338-2666.

West Bend Savings To Have Senior Appreciation Day

Richard A. Larson, Jr., Vice President - Sales/Marketing for West Bend Savings and Loan Association announced that the Washington County based financial institution will be test marketing its new SENIOR APPRECIATION DAY, starting Friday, March 2nd at the association's Kewaskum office.

All seniors age 50 and up are welcome to attend and participate in this special day said Larson. Refreshments will be served throughout the day and visitors will have an opportunity to enter a series of drawings which will give away gift certificates to various Kewaskum/Campbellsport merchants. In addition, Larson stated that interested investors should take advantage of the special day in that all seniors opening up a checking account will receive their first 200 checks for free and the association will buy back a limited number of the new customers old bank checks in return. The association will also offer seniors an opportunity to earn bonus interest on certificates of deposits ranging in terms from 1-5 years with minimum investments of $1,000.

For additional information on the senior day, interested parties should contact Kewaskum office manager Charleen Barutha at 626-2186.

County Labor Unions Sponsor Food Drive

Left to right, Washington County Central Labor Council treasurer Bill Gehring looked on as Peter Hoffmann, chairman of the Hartford Food Pantry accepted a check for $864.51, from Carol Vetter, chairperson of the council's Community Services Committee. Louise Ratzel, council recording secretary, held a check for the West Bend Full Shelf Food Pantry (which was not at the presentation) and Carl Schweiger, council Sergeant at Arms.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Seventeen local unions in Washington County were participants in the annual food drive sponsored by the Washington County Central Labor Council recently.

Through the efforts of their members the locals collected and delivered non-perishable food items to two county food pantries, the Hartford Food Pantry and the Full Shelf Food

Northbrook Church Offering Second Sunday Service

Northbrook Church of Richfield is gearing up for a second service to go into effect Sunday, March 4th. Due to steady growth over the last several years, the church can no longer offer only its current one service, but will expand to two services: 8:30 a.m. to 10:15 a.m.

"The second service is our way of further meeting the needs of our growing congregation," says Lee Heyward, Pastor. "We want Northbrook to be a place where people want to come Sunday after Sunday with the least amount of hassles, and right now our parking lot has reached maximum capacity."

Because Northbrook Church caters to a large number of young families with children, it is committed to its Children's Christian Education program. Children's Sunday School will be offered during both of the services. Sunday School is provided for all children ages 2 through 5th grade. Additionally, there is nursery for children under two. During the 10:15 a.m. service only, Sunday School will be offered for youth (grades 6-12). Adult Christian Education will be offered during both services.

Northbrook Church, an interdenominational church, has been in existence for four years and meets at Richfield Elementary School on the corners of Hwys. 167 West and 175.

For more information about Northbrook Church or the new service times, call the church office at 628-3142.

Pantry of West Bend. Cash donations of over $1,700 were also divided among the two pantries with each receiving a check in the amount of $864.51.

Carol Vetter, vice-president of the council, president of Regal Ware AIW Union 849, and chairperson of the council's Community Services Committee, said response by the unions and their members had been excellent. Vetter stated she had made several trips to the pantry to deliver foodstuffs which had been collected. In addition to the unions' efforts, Regal Ware, Incorporated of Kewaskum donated 40 turkeys to the food drive.

Members of the Community Services Committee which oversaw the food drive were Vetter, Sue Olsen of Amity Leathers Local 915, Carl Schweiger West Bend Company AIW 865, and Louise Ratzel of Enger-Kress Local 902.

The unions participating in the food drive were; Amity Leathers AIW 915, Bricklayers Union 8, Carpenters Union 2283, Communication Workers of America 4675, DALU 24111, Enger-Kress AIW 902, Firefighters 2025, Gehl Company 579, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers 494, International Stamping 152, Musicians Union 193, Postal Workers 878, Regal Ware 849, U.S. Marine 879, Wacker Corporation 369, Weasler Engineering 144, and West Bend Company 865.

National FFA Week to Be Celebrated Feb. 17-24

Alexandria, Va. — FFA members all over the country will promote FFA, agricultural education and the food and fiber industry during National FFA Week, Feb. 17-24.

FFA members in thousands of chapters across the U.S., and in the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands will organize events and activities to create awareness of and support for agricultural education and the FFA.

FFA activities and programs will be promoted by FFA members and through public service announcements on the local, state and national levels. This year's theme is FFA - Leading the Challenge.

Agricultural education classes stress hands-on experience in diverse areas of agriculture. FFA activities provide leadership development, career training and award incentives for young people.

Donnell Brown, national FFA president from Throckmorton, Tex., said FFA Week is the chance for members and communities to recognize achievements and activities available through FFA and agricultural education.

"We're proud of this commitment to young people and agriculture. As FFA members and students in agriculture classes, we are receiving the business, science and leadership skills we need to prepare for the diverse and challenging careers in agriculture," Brown said.

Each year FFA Week is held during the week of George Washington's birthday (traditional) to recognize his leadership and commitment to American agriculture. The National FFA Center is located on part of Washington's original Mt. Vernon estate near Alexandria, Va.

FFA is a national organization of 397,115 students in 7,705 local chapters preparing for agricultural careers. FFA activities and award programs complement instruction in agricultural education by giving students practical experience in the application of agricultural skills and knowledge gained in classes. Developing agricultural leadership, cooperation and citizenship is FFA's major objective.

WBHS All-Year Class Reunion Part of Celebration West Bend Chosen Honor City For Milwaukee's Germanfest

West Bend is the honor city at the 10th Anniversary of Milwaukee's 1990 Germanfest. As part of that celebration, an all-year class reunion of WBHS graduates will be held Friday, July 27th on the Summerfest grounds in Milwaukee.

Imagine being in the company of hundreds of people that have something in common with you. Talk about "old times," the football game that clinched the championship, the prom. See friends and acquaintances — some dear, some casual — who shared your high school experiences and dreams.

This opportunity is yours if you graduated from West Bend High School, any year from 1888, the first year WBHS graduated a class, to 1990. To help get the word out to these thousands of WBHS graduates, we are seeking the help of one or two persons from each graduating class.

If you are a WBHS graduate of any year (and possibly worked on your class reunion) please call Lynn Grgich at 338-0611 between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., or 334-9708 after 5 p.m. and weekends.

You can help make this a fun get-together. Plans are underway for an entertaining evening. Watch for more information about the reunion, but please call Lynn today. Those attending will also have the opportunity to tour the grounds and enjoy Germanfest.

County American Legion Again Offers Scholarships

The Washington County Council of the American Legion is again offering four scholarships to area high school seniors. The applicant must be a child or grandchild of a veteran of the United States Armed Forces (living or deceased) and must be attending a high school within Washington County.

The scholarship is a one time $300.00 payment which is paid directly to the registrar of the institution the student decides to attend. This is the second year that the Council is offering these scholarships. Last year sixteen students applied with four being selected to receive the $200.00 offered. The Council has since voted to raise the amount to $300.00 per student.

Application and eligibility requirements for the scholarships can be obtained from any Washington County high school counselor or by writing Jerry Bentfield at 308 Elm Avenue, Slinger 53086.

Applications must be returned to Bentfield, who is serving as the Council Chairman by March 1.

Tomatoes, a member of the poisonous nightshade family, are quite a new food for man. A hundred years ago they were not much used. Today, tomatoes are third in rank among vegetables consumed in this country.

Lecture to Be Held At West Bend Gallery

On Sunday, March 4th at 2:00 p.m., the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts is pleased to present Dr. Mary Stieglitz Witte, Professor of Art and Boise State University, Idaho. Dr. Witte's one-hour lecture entitled "LIGHT RECORDS" presents an alternative view of photography's technical and aesthetic turning points.

This illustrated presentation highlights a series of imaging changes in the history of photography. Included is a historic look at the alternative photographic processes, and current changes in imaging. Processes range from iron salts to digital color laser prints. The examples begin with J. B. Dancer in the 1840's, and conclude with a selection of contemporary photographers who use both old and new techniques to express ideas.

This lecture is open to the public. A $1.00 donation is requested. Please RSVP your positive intentions so that we may have adequate seating available. Seating is on a first-come, first-serve basis so don't delay your responses.

The West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts is located at 300 South 6th Avenue in downtown West Bend. Normal gallery hours are Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday 1:00 - 4:30 p.m. and Thursday 12:00 noon - 9:30 p.m. There is no admission charge.

River City Irregulars To Start Rehearsals

Musicians from Kewaskum and the surrounding areas should get those musical instruments out of the closet now!

The River City Irregulars (West Bend Community Band) will begin its seventh season with a rehearsal on Thursday, Feb. 22, 7 p.m., at Badger Middle School, 710 S. Main in West Bend.

New, interested musicians are encouraged to attend. Membership is open to post-high school musicians who enjoy playing. Players should not feel reluctant to attend because they haven't played in some time. All instruments are needed and welcomed. The band charges no dues and holds no tryouts. Just come!

The band's primary activities are playing several local concerts and marching in West Bend's Memorial Day and July Fourth parades. The band usually marches in one out of town parade, too!

Additional rehearsals are scheduled for March 8 and 22, April 5, 19, and 26, May 3, 17, and 24. Players should feel welcome to join at any time. Call 338-8458 for more information.

SENN RECEIVES AWARD

Peter Senn, director of the Wisconsin Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Service, was presented a plaque Feb. 8 by Wilson Scaling, soil Conservation Service administrator in Washington D.C., for "Outstanding Cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service in Implementing the 1985 Food Security Act."

Senn, one of eight ASCS state directors to receive this award, was presented the plaque at a reception during a two-day meeting of state ASCS directors and state SCS chiefs in San Diego, Calif.

A Campbellsport dairy farmer, Senn has held the job of Wisconsin ASCS director since 1983.

World Day of Prayer March 2

World Day of Prayer, which will be observed on Friday, March 2, 1990, and is sponsored by CHURCH WOMEN UNITED OF WASHINGTON COUNTY is an annual event that unites Protestant, Roman Catholic, Orthodox, and other Christian women and men in 170 countries and regions of the world in "informed prayer and prayerful action" which is the motto of WORLD DAY OF PRAYER.

Prayer services will be held throughout Washington County. In the greater West Bend area, the service will be held at St. Francis Cabrini Church, located at 1025 S. 7th Ave., West Bend, beginning at 9:00 with coffee and donuts. This will be followed by a Bible Study at 9:30 with Father Tom of St. Francis Cabrini as leader. Please bring your Bibles. At 11:00 a prayer service will be led by women from St. Francis Cabrini Church and Immanuel United Church of Christ. The Rev. A. Quast of Our Savior's Lutheran Church will present the meditation.

This year's observance marks the 103rd annual World Day of Prayer. A group of ecumenical Christian women of Czechoslovakia have written the prayers and worship service for this year's observance, using the theme "A Better Tomorrow - Justice for All." It has been translated into hundreds of languages and dialects and will be observed around the world in thousands of services on March 2nd.

There are ten churches in the West Bend area who have participated in this event. Members of these churches will conduct brief prayer services in the afternoon of March 2, at Samaritan Home, Cedar Lake Home, Meadowbrook Manor and Meadow Creek Manor, Kewaskum.

Another prayer service will be held at St. John U.C.C., Slinger at 1:30 which involves the Jackson/Slinger area churches. The Germantown area churches will hold a prayer service at St. John U.C.C. on Donges Bay Road at 1:30. Another prayer service will be held at St. John's U.C.C. in Hartford.

Unified by a common faith in Christ, the women of Church Women United work for the elimination of poverty of women and children and issues of justice and peace. WORLD DAY OF PRAYER offerings make possible, in part, the mission of Church Women United including the Intercontinental Grants for Mission program that funds national and international self-development and teaching projects for women as well as community services and disaster relief at home and abroad.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER SERVICES and Bible Study is open to everyone - women, men, families. Plan to attend any service offered in Washington County on March 2.

This year's event is under the direction of Helen Chinnock and Lucille Karius, co-chair, members of St. Francis Cabrini Church. Ida Kuss will be music coordinator and organist.

In the ten years between 1970 and 1980, the state with largest percentage gain in population was Nevada, with 63.8 percent.

Tourist Guide Coloring Contest Winners Chosen

After studying the many entries in the Fall/Winter Kewaskum Statesman Tourist Guide Coloring Contest, the winners have finally been selected.

We received entries weekly from the first week the Tourist Guide came out up until the last week of the contest in January. All the pictures were beautiful and all the children must be commended for their efforts and their talented creativity.

Because of the many fine entries, the Statesman staff had a very difficult time choosing one to be the winner, Ellan Copiskey, age 5, P.O. Box 135, Cascade, was selected as the best entry in the 1 to 5-year-old division, and Chris Koth, age 8, 317 Braatz Dr., Kewaskum, won in the 6 to 9-year-old division.

The Kewaskum Statesman would like to thank all the children who took the time to enter the contest. Winners will receive their prizes shortly in the mail.

We sincerely hope all the children will again enter the next coloring contest which will be included in the new Spring/Summer Tourist Guide coming out in the near future.

Letters to The Editor

To the Voters of the Kewaskum School District:

Soon it will be time to vote for the persons who will be our voices on the Kewaskum School Board.

Did you realize that, if we do not like the past performances of any of the candidates running for re-election we do not have to vote for them?

Or, if we do not like or cannot agree with any of the candidates' answers to questions concerning issues, we do not have to put our trust in them?

Just because the ballot says "vote for three" does not mean we have to. We can vote for only one - we can vote for two, or, we can "write in" names of our own choosing along with the position to be filled.

We do not have to vote for any of the candidates, but we must exercise our privilege and our right to vote.

A concerned voter in the Kewaskum School District and Farmington resident of over 29 years

OBESITY

Obesity is often associated with high blood pressure, diabetes, increased cholesterol levels, certain cancers, and heart disease. If that isn't bad enough, overweight can cause mental depression due to a reduced social life, attractiveness, and feeling of self worth.

The obese can certainly regain a normal figure if they avoid fad diets, but get with a professional dietician and exercise program. Mental and physical health surely are worth the effort.

Kiel High School to Host Eastern Wisconsin Art Show

The 3rd Annual Eastern Wisconsin Conference Art Show opens February 26th at Kiel High School with an opening reception for the public from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. The Art departments of all seven schools in the EWC Athletic Conference will be represented with art work in a variety of media. Schools representing the Eastern Wisconsin Conference include: Kewaskum, Two Rivers, Sheboygan Falls, Chilton, New Holstein, Plymouth, and Kiel.

The show originated as an opportunity to expose students in the EWC conference to work by other area art students. The exhibit also coincides with the opening of Youth Art Month. The month of March is Wisconsin's official Youth Art Month with local exhibits and shows to celebrate the efforts of student artists and the art instruction they are receiving.

Judges for the exhibit are Julie Johnsen of Sheboygan North High School and Jon Lind of Sheboygan South High School. They will be judging the 25 entries from each of the EWC schools. A best of category ribbon will be given in the following categories, Oil Painting, Water Color Painting, Acrylic Painting, Ceramics, Design, Jewelry, Sculpture, Graphic Design, Printmaking, Crafts, Color Drawing, Black and White Drawing, Color Photography, and Black and White Photography. The judges will also be awarding 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place ribbons in all categories. Each student whose works were chosen by their art instructors will also receive a participation ribbon.

The exhibit may be viewed during the week of February 26th to March 2nd in the Kiel High School gym. Those wishing to view the show are advised to use the parking lot in the rear of the school and enter through the gym entrance doors. Any school groups planning to tour the exhibit should call the principal's office (894-2263) to arrange a tour. In addition to the opening reception the public may view the show during regular school hours.

Enjoy Lent?

Lent? It can't be! We just had Christmas! I haven't put all my decorations away yet! Nevertheless, it will be here in a few days. There are many diversions which will help these forty days pass more quickly.

Being Polish, the day before Lent was always the time to make "Punchkee." That is a prune filled doughnut fried in deep fat, then rolled in granulated sugar. They are best eaten warm. Then there is a fritter which we make called "Pierogi." It is a noodle dough made like a turnover with a cottage cheese filling - cooked in boiling water, and later browned in a skillet. Even Gordon Hinkley would make mention of these foods on his "Ask Your Neighbor" program on W.T.M.J. (and he isn't even Polish!) Another good dish to make are potato pancakes with applesauce. Of course, if you have a fisherman in the family that helps with the Lenten meals.

Enough of food. The day before Lent, our neighbors would get together and have a celebration in anticipation of the meager days that were to come.

When I was younger, a dance was held at this time of year commemorating F.D.R.'s Birthday, and the proceeds given to the March of Dimes. A popular song at that time was "The Music goes Round and Round," and all the dancers would join in singing.

Years ago, the city of Berlin, WI would hold a Mardi Gras, patterned after the big doings in New Orleans. There were rides and dancing and clean entertainment, also food and refreshments.

This is a good time to be of assistance to others whenever possible, and help to lighten someone's burden. Then when Easter morning dawns, we will have that inner peace, knowing we strived to be the kind of person the Lord would want us to be. Many special services are held at this time, so I will close with this message:

See you in church!

'Dance for Heart' At Campbellsport

Over 30 aerobic exercisers from the Campbellsport area, are expected to participate in a "Dance For Heart" event on Saturday, February 24, from 9 a.m. to noon sponsored by the Health Hut Fitness Center. The benefit will be held in the new gym in the Campbellsport High School, south entrance.

The three hour event will benefit the American Heart Association of Wisconsin community programs, cardiovascular research and heart-health education.

Dance For Heart is part of a nationwide effort to fight heart disease and stroke - the number one killer in America. Exercisers collect pledges from friends, relatives and co-workers for every minute they dance/exercise.

Besides raising funds for the Heart Association, Dance For Heart also promotes the health benefits of exercise and dance, according to the Coordinator, Beth Jones. "Dance For Heart is great for men and women, young and old alike. Not only will we be doing something healthy and fun for ourselves, we'll be raising money to help people of our area fight disease and stroke," Jones said.

Since Dance For Heart began in Wisconsin in 1982, over 21,000 men and women have raised more than 850,000 at events held throughout the state. Last year, the Health Hut Fitness Center raised over $1600 for the Heart Association.

The public is invited to come to the high school gym and watch on Saturday, the 24th. Or, if you care to receive a T-shirt and participate, bring your $10 registration fee with you, or call the Health Hut at 533-4747, for more information.

MPTC Looks at Goals For the Next Decade

John Shanahan

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Moraine Park Technical College, in a program entitled "Building Communities: 2000" is looking at itself as far as programs and services and what it will need to provide to meet the needs of its students and the business community in the 1990's. In-plant and on-site training programs, such as the one recently initiated in cooperation with the Weasler Engineering Corporation will be in increased demand along with a greater emphasis on assistance in the field of education for economic development in relation to such areas as international trade and government procurement. MPTC will continue its assistance to high schools and it will also look toward more supportive services for the community and business. These are just a few of the challenges MPTC will have to meet in the next ten years according to MPTC's president John Shanahan.

Shanahan addressed approximately 100 business and community leaders at MPTC-West Bend last week as part of the college's annual celebration of National Vocational Education Week. In speaking to the group Shanahan discussed the economic picture which will be faced through the 1990's and the part MPTC will play in it. He also talked about the college's past accomplishments, its plans to respond to the needs of the future and what will be expected of MPTC in the next decade.

MPTC is already finding more and more employers coming to it to upgrade the skills of their work force. "We have a role to play, we are a vital part of the community," said Shanahan.

MPTC is one of sixteen locally governed technical colleges in Wisconsin which provide educational and training services to residents 16 years of age and older. Shanahan acknowledged there are areas which need to be expanded to offer more courses. "We never want to shut people out in terms of opportunity," he stated.

There has been an increase in the number of people who want to extend or expand their education both for private and professional reasons. "Many people are finding they haven't used some of their basic skills in years. If you don't use them, you lose them," said Shanahan. "At the high school level we are being asked to supplement or enhance their curriculums."

A recent survey showed in a ten-county area MPTC campuses are serving one out of every eleven residents and one of every 5.5 households. Statistics show Washington to be the fastest growing county. With a population of over 57,000, it has 4,740 enrollments at MPTC.

While MPTC's statistics also show an all time high, 94.2% placement of its graduates, Shanahan said that number is misleading. "That figure should really be 100%," he noted, "because there are actually more legitimate job openings than graduates available to fill those positions."

"While 96% of our graduates live and work in Wisconsin," said Shanahan, "only 62% work within the Moraine Park district." Shanahan felt that might be due, in part, to better wages and opportunities being offered elsewhere.

A 1989 University of Wisconsin survey showed that an associate degree graduate of a Wisconsin technical college earned about $9,000 a year more after five years, than the average U.S. high school graduate. "Business is saying, people need more education, more than twelve years is necessary," stated Shanahan.

Shanahan said MPTC will also have to improve and increase its services to the business community through courses, technical assistance and hours of instruction. "Our advisory committees tell us what to teach. They are our best source of information on current trends."

"What is our future as we look at the year 2000," said Shanahan, "we must look at the fact that people do not retire at 65 anymore." "What they have for education now will not suffice in the workplace in the year 2000." Reports show there is a national need for both training and retraining. Shanahan told the meeting 54,000 new jobs were created in Wisconsin last year and that manufacturing is a growing employment opportunity in Wisconsin.

While hands on skills jobs are declining, society is requiring more education, especially in the basic skills area, noted Shanahan. The definition of basic skills, however, has also changed. They are no longer the old standards of reading, writing and arithmetic. Tomorrow's basic skills are those which employees will need to successfully perform daily as part of their jobs in the workplace. Those skills which specifically relate to their job.

"Continuing the education of our people is going to be more and more of a concern." According to current reports, most of the workers (70-80%) in the year 2000, are already in the work force. By the year 2000, 75% of today's workers will need some form of retraining. To meet those retraining needs, the workplace learning center seems to be a part of the answer. They are convenient, accessible and their unstructured flexibility works into an employee's schedule.

In a survey of employers, critical workplace skills included such things as, learning to learn, listening, oral communication, problem solving, creative thinking, self-esteem, motivation/goal setting, interpersonal, negotiation, teamwork, organizational effectiveness, leadership and computer literacy.

Of 168 employers who responded to the survey, 158 expressed interest in MPTC training courses, 138 wanted a move to more workplace sites, 110 wanted assistance with customized training, 118 wanted assistance in government procurement and export trade databases and services in help securing funding for training and other technical support.

MPTC has recently completed an in-house survey of itself. When that data is compiled, MPTC will know what its goals must be and what will be required of it to meet the needs of its students, business and the community into the year 2000.

Dairyland Alfalfas Win 14 Trials

John Strachota, Vice-President of Dairyland Seed, observes Magnum III in a side-by-side comparison at its research headquarters in Clinton, Wisconsin.

Dairyland Seed Company recently announced that its alfalfa varieties recently won 14 alfalfa trials sponsored by state universities across the United States. The performance of Dairyland alfalfas in 1989 continues an unprecedented streak according to Dairyland Executive Vice-President Tom Strachota.

"Since 1977 Dairyland alfalfas have won more state trials than any others in the Upper Midwest. All performance in 1989 indicates that we continue to be the number one alfalfa company in the country," stated Strachota.

Dairyland's alfalfa marketing program is also quite novel according to Strachota. He stated that Dairyland is the first seed company to guarantee an alfalfa for its performance in the field.

"Our Magnum III alfalfa is guaranteed for yield and persistence in side-by-side, on-farm comparisons. No one else has ever attempted an alfalfa marketing program this bold," said Strachota.

He went on to explain that the marketing program is based on a performance guarantee rather than a satisfaction guarantee. Quite simply, if Dairyland's Magnum III does not outperform any other alfalfa in a side-by-side comparison, Dairyland Seed will provide five free bags of alfalfa seed.

According to Strachota the Guarantee Program is designed to provide a simple, fair comparison among alfalfa varieties.

"The Guarantee Program is not a gimmick. We are confident that our product is significantly better than other products on the market. If a farmer plants them side-by-side he will see this difference."

For more information on Dairyland Seed or the Magnum III Guarantee, write Dairyland Seed Co., Inc., P.O. Box 958, West Bend, WI 53095 or call 414-338-0163.

With direct factory help from MACK Trucks, Inc., Rawhide Boys Ranch recently acquired a new semi tractor to assist with its vehicle donation program. Longtime Rawhide backer and Packer great, Bart Starr and Ranch Director, John Gillespie, are presenting an appreciation plaque to MACK executives: (center) Frank Otto, President of Transquip, Inc., of Green Bay; Dick Tracht, District Manager, Dearborne, Michigan; and Patrick McMahon, Chicago Regional Vice President.

In 1967, Vince Lombardi and Bart Starr, invited a friend to fly from Pennsylvania to visit Rawhide Boys Ranch. The visitor was Zenon Hansen, President and Chairman of the Board of the giant MACK Trucks, Inc. He liked what he saw and offered the support of his company to help in the work of rebuilding young men's lives.

Rawhide is a 500 acre facility located in Wisconsin's Waupaca County along the scenic Wolf River. The non-profit program for court referred teenagers was found by John and Jan Gillespie in 1965, with the help of Bart and Cherry Starr. The Starrs have continued their 25 year effort of promoting Rawhide, and returned to the boys ranch this February 9 to accept a new semi-tractor from MACK Trucks, Inc.

Since that first visit by Mr. Hansen, the company has donated three other trucks, one of which is still in use at Rawhide with well over a million miles on it. The 1990 semi-tractor was provided through a factory direct, tax exempt purchase that saved the boys ranch close to $40,000. The special order work and approval for this unusual sale was done with the help of Mr. Paul Ritter of MACK Trucks, Inc., and Transquip, Inc., of Green Bay, and its President, Mr. Frank Otto. Transquip is the area MACK dealership, and a long time backer of Rawhide Boys Ranch.

MACK trucks are used by Rawhide to pick up over 2,500 used cars and boats donated each year by people and businesses from across the State. The Wisconsin Auto and Truck Dealers Association members provide collection sites in over 130 state cities for people to drop off vehicles. Semi-trucks with auto trailers cover Wisconsin each week, stopping at the dealerships to pick up the cars and boats. After clean-up and some mechanical or body repair, they are sold to licensed dealers through auctions held at the ranch.

According to Gillespie, "Rawhide has to raise half a million dollars a year to operate and the income from the sale of cars and boats now provide half of this needed money. The special help from numerous state and national companies, like MACK, help to make this money go farther in our effort to work with more needy young men."

Car and boat donors receive a full tax benefit. A free information packet is available by calling 1-800-221-AUTO.

March Exhibit at West Bend Gallery

The month of March will be ushered in at the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts with an exhibit which examines the contemporary use of pattern and texture as the two primary elements. This twelve - person exhibition features the works of Rita M. Crooks-Wausau, Peggy Thurston Farrell - Waukesha, Barbara Manger - Milwaukee, Rise Petersons - Cashton, Beth A. Priestley - Milwaukee, John Pritchard - Newburg, Terry Richards - Kenosha, Kathy Ross - Milwaukee, John R. Roth - Madison, Mona Waterhouse - Peachtree City, GA, Cynthia Whynott - North Prairie and Mary Stieglitz Witte - Boise, Idaho. Patterns & Textures will be a tactile and visual feast not to be missed.

The artists (many of whom teach at the university level) all have a long line of exhibition records. Patterns & textures surround us, artist Cynthia Whynott states, "...Repetition is the stuff of life: music utilizes repetitive sound, science has its patterns, daily life itself is a series of repeated acts. What better way to make art, but to use repetitive, patterned (& textured) imagery..."

A reception will be held for the participating artists on Sunday, March 4th from 1:30 - 4:00 p.m.

The West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts is located at 300 South 6th Avenue in downtown West Bend. Normal gallery hours are Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday 1:00 - 4:30 p.m. and Thursday 12:00 noon - 9:30 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Energy Services Program to Continue Through May 15

The Washington County Department of Social Services wishes to remind community residents that the Energy Services Program for the current heating season will continue through May 15, 1990, if funds remain available.

This is a three-part program offering (1) Heating Assistance (2) Crisis Assistance, and (3) weatherization services.

Heating assistance is a one-time benefit payment during each heating season (October 1 through May 15). It is intended to help pay a portion of the annual heating costs for eligible applicants. The amount of the heating assistance benefit is determined by family size, income level, and heating costs.

Crisis Assistance for eligible applicants is available for the purchase of fuel and for furnace repairs or replacement.

Applicants who are eligible for heating assistance may also be eligible for Federally funded weatherization services. Weatherization services can conserve energy and help to reduce heating costs. All services and materials are provided at no cost to applicants who have been determined eligible, nor is there any cost to landlords of eligible renters.

For additional information, or to make an appointment to apply, please call the Washington County Department of Social Services at 338-4610 or 644-5282. The office is open from 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. In the case of the homebound, we can arrange for a home visit.

We would also like to remind S.S.I. recipients that no automatic heating assistance check will be sent this year. In order to receive a heating benefit, you must apply and be found eligible. The head of the household is the person who should complete the heating assistance application. This can be done by calling the Washington County Department of Social Services at the number listed in the preceding paragraph.

Contractors, Engineers for West Bend Freeway Bridges Receive DOT Awards

The contractor and engineer on three West Bend Freeway (US 45) bridges in Washington County have been cited by the state Department of Transportation for outstanding work on state construction projects.

Zenith Tech, Inc. of Waukesha and five other contractors, a Madison district construction chief, five DOT project engineers and a consultant project engineer received plaque awards for work completed in 1989 at the Wisconsin Road Builders Association's meeting held Jan. 22 in Madison.

Zenith Tech, Inc. won the structure category for its work on the $700,000 project to build three 2-span concrete bridges on the West Bend Freeway. Construction began on December 20, 1988 and was completed on June 22, 1989. Jerome Bruckert, Waukesha, was also cited as the DOT Engineer.

The award was presented to the firm and Bruckert by Harvey Shebesta, director of the Waukesha district.

"All of the honored firms demonstrate the quality of workmanship and construction which Wisconsin motorists are entitled to," explained Shebesta. "Engineers who oversee the contractors personify the kind of leadership, cooperation and responsiveness that produce an outstanding product." The annual awards were first presented in 1968.

Forestry Writing Contest Deadline is March 12

MADISON, WI — Wisconsin fourth graders have until March 12 to enter the Department of Natural Resources' Forest Appreciation Week Writing Contest.

The contest is open to students in both public and private schools. Each fourth-grade class can select one entry for competition. A panel will select the best entry from each CESA district based on originality, effectiveness, theme application, accuracy, neatness, spelling and punctuation, and grammar.

The top entry from each CESA district will then compete for first, second and third place with cash prizes of $200, $100 and $50, respectively. The first place winner will also receive a tree to plant in their school yard.

Entries cannot be longer than 150 words, and must focus on forest appreciation. They can be written in essay, poetry or other creative writing forms. For an information packet write: Pat Murphy, Wisconsin DNR, P.O. Box 309, Spooner, WI 54801.

For more information contact Pat Murphy, 715-635-4155.

University of Wisconsin-Madison Researchers Prevent Lyme Disease in Laboratory Animals

Researchers at the Wisconsin State Laboratory of Hygiene and University of Wisconsin - Madison have developed a serum that prevents laboratory animals from developing symptoms of Lyme disease, a discovery that brings scientists one step closer to creating a human vaccine against Lyme disease.

The immune serum was developed by John Schmitz of the Lyme Disease Research Laboratory under the direction of Dr. Ronald Schell, professor of medical microbiology and immunology, UW Medical School, and chief of bacteriology at the State Laboratory of Hygiene. The results were published in the January issue of Infection and Immunity a monthly journal of the American Society for Microbiology.

In the study, begun nearly a year ago, hamsters injected with an immune serum were prevented from developing arthritis, one of the primary symptoms of Lyme disease. The serum was obtained from the blood of hamsters that had been previously infected with the bacteria, Borrelia burgdorferi, which causes Lyme disease.

"The recipient hamsters showed no symptoms of Lyme disease," Schmitz said, adding that a control group of hamsters not receiving the immune serum did develop Lyme disease symptoms, including arthritis and swelling of the paws.

"This is an important step - but only a first step - toward developing a vaccine for Lyme disease," Schmitz said. "We're probably four to five years away from finding a vaccine that can prevent Lyme disease in people."

Schell, director of the Wisconsin Lyme Disease Laboratory, said a half-dozen research centers across the country are working on developing a vaccine, but the Wisconsin laboratory is the first to successfully prevent Lyme disease in animals.

Lyme disease is caused by bacteria transmitted to humans from the bite of the tiny Ixodes dammini tick, also known as the deer tick. The disease often begins with a red rash appearing a few days to a month after the tick bite. The bull's-eye-shaped rash, experienced by about two-thirds of bite victims, is often accompanied by fatigue, headache, fever, chills, stiff neck, joint pain and muscle aches.

Without treatment, Lyme sufferers may develop severe headaches, numbness or facial paralysis, irregular heartbeat, light-headedness and shortness of breath. Eventually, they may have recurring attacks of arthritis in the large joints and may experience overpowering fatigue, burning or numbness of in the limbs and short-term memory problems. A small percentage of the affected individuals develop chronic arthritis or neurological problems, or both.

First identified in the United States in 1977, the disease now has become the most frequently reported tick-borne illness in the country. The Ixodes tick is found on both coasts and shows an especially heavy density in eastern Minnesota and western Wisconsin, Schell said.

Collaborating with Schmitz and Schell in the Lyme disease work were Drs. Anthony Hejka and Douglas England of the UW-Madison departments of pathology and laboratory medicine.

Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance 1990 Tax Guide Now Available

TAXES 1990, the annual tax guide and information book published by the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance (WTA), Madison, is now available for purchase.

The WTA, a privately supported government-research and citizen-education organization, said that the 1990 edition incorporates the tax law changes affecting the filing of the federal individual income tax returns for 1989. These include higher standard deduction and personal exemption amounts, and a further limit on the itemized deduction for non-mortgage interest paid.

The guide also covers the changes in the Wisconsin individual income tax law, including a lower married couple credit but a higher school property tax credit, and provides step-by-step information for completing the Wisconsin return for 1989. The publication also describes the supplemental school property tax credit that will be paid by check in April.

The 90-page pocket-size book contains information on Wisconsin's homestead credit and the farmland preservation programs.

The guide, in addition to serving as an aid in filing out income tax returns and the homestead credit form, is a useful year-round reference on federal, state and local taxes - property, sales, excise, social security and unemployment compensation. This includes information on the Wisconsin inheritance and gift taxes, which are being phased out.

TAXES 1990 may be purchased from the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance, 335 West Wilson Street, Madison 53703 - 3694. The single-copy price $1.40, which includes the state sales tax.

Hwy. 41 Rest Areas To Open in Dodge Co.

The long-awaited opening of the US 41 safety rest areas at Lomira in Dodge County is scheduled for February 15, the state Department of Transportation said today.

Ronald R. Fiedler, secretary, said the new facilities have been completed for several months but couldn't be opened until the sewage line to the village of Lomira was completed.

Fiedler said the modern new rest areas replace two primitive waysides with pit toilets and wells with hand pumps. "We're proud of the new pair, which feature a unique hexagonal design that takes full advantage of natural light," he said. "The interior is bright and cheerful, there is a baby changing table, a heated lobby and all other amenities people now expect," he added.

The DOT is also proud of the appearance, Fiedler said. Care was taken to design the building so that it fit the surrounding area, and to preserve as many existing trees and plants as possible.

Because of the delay in opening the new facilities, the DOT installed portable rest rooms for temporary use at the intersection of highways 41 and 67. These portable rest rooms had to be removed with the advent of freezing weather this past fall.

The new rest areas will be open 24 hours a day the year around, Fiedler said. "They will prove to be a convenient stopping location between Milwaukee and communities in the Fox Valley," he predicted.

Washington County Conservation Corps Project Approved for One Year

State Senator Donald K. Stitt (R-Port Washington) has announced that the Wisconsin Conservation Corps (WCC) Board approved the Washington County application for a WCC crew.

The one-year commitment includes a crew leader and 6 young adults. The WCC will pay for wages, safety equipment and other crew support at a cost of $75,700.

Washington County will supply the equipment, supplies and transportation needed to complete the work projects.

"This is a great asset for our conservation efforts in Washington County," Stitt said. "The added money and manpower is a real boost."

Among projects to be undertaken by the crew include landscaping and painting, nature trail sign installation, pit toilet construction, rock retaining wall construction, trail development/rehabilitation, tree transplanting, and picnic table construction.

The Washington County project is scheduled to begin April 9th and to last for a period of one year.

The Wisconsin Conservation Corps was created by the State Legislature in 1983. The WCC offers conservation-related job experience to unemployed young adults.

At the same time, Wisconsin communities benefit from a variety of important wildlife, forestry, recreational and community development projects.

1990 Klondike Derby

The Klondike Derby is a Glacier Edge District annual event which took place on Feb. 9 and 10 at Hawthorn Hills Park outside of Fredonia.

Troop 744 had the following boys attend: Eric Giese, Gerald Sese, Sheldon Oppermann, Jason Noren, Billy Lettow, Chad Trzecinski, Craig Trzecinski, Craig Erdmann, Matt Wiedmeyer, along with Fred Lettow Scoutmaster and Dennis Trzecinski Assistant Scoutmaster.

The weekend started out Friday night with a few of the scouts camping overnite, and ended Saturday afternoon. The scouts that stayed overnite earned their Polar Bear Patch. Saturday morning there were field events in which the troop took first place. That afternoon they played capture the flag and had the sledge judging and ran the obstacle course.

Other awards received were second place in carrying the stick on the snake trail. Individual awards given were second place to Eric Giese for the obstacle course and fourth place to Sheldon Oppermann. All the boys had a great time.

Next month the troop will be hosting the Webelos from Packs 3744 and 3779 to a winter campout at Camp Rokilio.

The troop wishes to thank all the people of the community for their support in the fund raisers.

Heisdorf Advances to State Tourney

Dan Heisdorf earned a trip to the WIAA state wrestling tournament in Madison this weekend as he captured the sectional title in Sheboygan Falls this last Saturday.

A senior, Heisdorf will make his first appearance in Madison due to his excellent performance at sectionals. The Indians had three wrestlers advance to sectionals and placed eighth out of twenty-eight teams.

Heisdorf started out the day facing Pat Rego of Wilmot and defeated him by a technical fall. He then went on to face Joe Rocha of Whitewater, who lost 15-7.

Placing him in the championship match, Heisdorf was up against Gary Depies of Random Lake. Too tough for Depies, Heisdorf came out on top to end the day with the WIAA sectional championship at 152.

Dave Kuphal also did well as he placed fourth. Kuphal lost in the semi-finals to put him in the position of a possible wrestleback for second place. However, Kuphal unfortunately lost 11-12 to Elkhorn's Jeff Delange.

Stradtman lost in his first round to Kevin Dempsey of North Fond du Lac, 4-10.

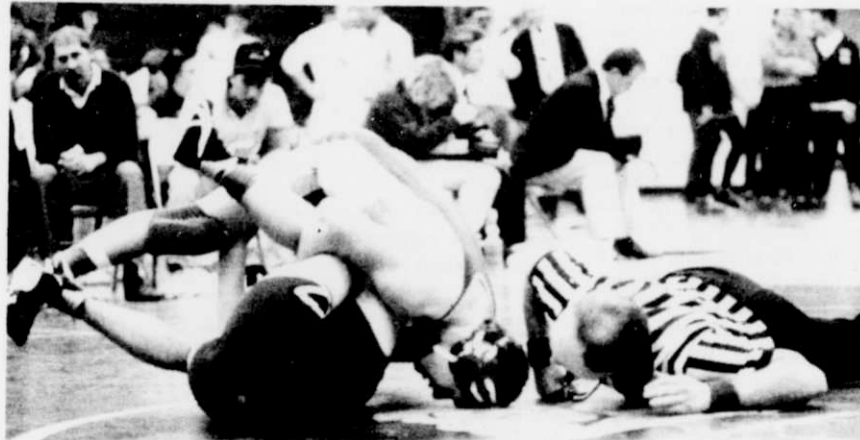

Heisdorf will wrestle Friday with Class B matches, beginning at 11:00 a.m. Heisdorf's first opponent will be from Lodi. Good Luck Dan!!

SECTIONAL CHAMP — Dan Heisdorf took the 152 pound sectional championship by defeating Gary Depies of Random Lake, 11-5.

Dan Heisdorf, Kewaskum, has Pat Rego of Wilmont in the cradle and is about to take him to his back. Dan decisioned Pat 16-0 in the first round.

Dave Kuphal, Kewaskum, decisioned John Roecker of Mayville in the first round at the Sheboygan Falls Regional.

Park Sticker Design Contest Deadline March 1

Artistically - inclined Wisconsin high school seniors have until March 1 to enter their original designs in the 1991 Wisconsin Park and Forest Sticker Contest.

"The winner not only has their design displayed on more than 150,000 vehicles, they will also receive a $500 scholarship for post-high school education," explains Bill Moorman, contest coordinator for the Department of Natural Resources. The scholarship is provided by Laacke & Joys, a Milwaukee sporting goods retailer.

Second and third place winners will receive engraved plaques, as will seven honorable mention winners. All 10 winners will have their designs displayed at the Milwaukee Sentinel Sports Show.

This is the third year the annual resident and non-resident admission stickers have been selected by a contest. The 1990 sticker depicts ducks on water and the 1989 sticker featured a stylized butterfly. Stickers prior to 1989 were designed by DNR employees.

Entrants must comply with technical requirements dealing with colors, size, shape and lettering or their design will be disqualified. Students interested in submitting designs should pick up an entry form and list of contest rules from their high school art department, or from the DNR Bureau of Parks and Recreation, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707.

"Many students have already submitted entries, but there is still time for aspiring artists to submit work. They may end up having their design displayed on more than 150,000 vehicles," Moorman says.

The word "turnpike" originated in the days when toll collectors were armed with pikes, long-handled weapons with sharp iron heads. They used these weapons to prevent travelers who refused to pay the toll from using the roads.

1991 State Park Sticker Contest

Students in the Kewaskum High School Art Department are attempting to keep a winning tradition in the State Park Sticker Contest.

Last year, senior Bruce Bodden won the 1990 Contest and Bruce's design can be seen on thousands of cars. This year, there will be 13 creative designs submitted from Kewaskum.

The contest is open only to high school seniors. This year's participants are: Michelle Marx, Shelley Kassekert, Jeff Morlen, Jesse Santoro, Denise Bergdorf, Shelly Schuster, Kim Gaffke, Jenny Bauer, Willa

Marshall, David Yogerst, Tammy Bath, Jeff Brigham and Andrea Fleiss.

Keep your fingers crossed for a winner. All winning entries will be on exhibit during the Milwaukee Journal / Sentinel Sports Show held at the Mecca this spring.

Indian Boys Lose In Overtime With Chilton

KEWASKUM — Most high school basketball players get the opportunity to play in an overtime thriller just a couple of times during their four-year tenure. This year's athletes on the Kewaskum high school basketball teams are definitely not like most.

With the girls' varsity basketball team playing three O.T. games thus far this year, the boys' team thought it was time to catch up. Playing in their second overtime game in four nights, the Indian boys came up on the short end of a 68-65 decision to Chilton on Parent's Night.

Foul trouble plagued the Indians throughout the evening. By the end of the game, Indian head coach Jim Westphal was joined on the bench by Steve Gerhartz, Chris Schmid and Mark Felix, all with five personal fouls apiece, while another two players, Rich Radtke and Mark Heather, each had four fouls.

The Indians had many opportunities to win this one, however. After lacking a little zest in the early going and falling behind 14-12 after one quarter, the Indians showed some life in the second period as they outscored the Tigers 21-12, behind some inspired play by Felix, to take a 33-26 halftime lead. Felix scored six points down the stretch to give Kewaskum a bit of a cushion heading into the locker room.

Chilton came right back after the intermission, however, and outscored the hosts 18-11 in the third period to knot things up at 44 heading into the final stanza.

The Tigers jumped out to a two-point lead early in the fourth, a lead they would hold until under a minute remained to play. Down by four late in the game, Bruce Waechter came through for Kewaskum, hitting a jumpshot that cut the Chilton lead to 58-56.

The Indians put on some full-court, pressure after the Waechter basket and forced a critical Chilton turnover. Felix then got the ball and drove to the hoop, scoring and knotting things at 58-all.

After another Tiger turnover, Indian guard Brian Leitheiser had a chance to give Kewaskum the lead as he was fouled and faced a bonus opportunity at the free throw line. But "Lighty" missed the front end of the one-and-one giving Chilton a final shot. Chris Vande Vort drove and put in the potential game-winning basket, but the referees whistled him for traveling and the Indians breathed a collective sigh of relief as they headed into another overtime.

In the extra period, the Tigers once again had a lead going as the game hit the one minute mark. Leitheiser came through with a jumper that cut the deficit to one, at 66-65, but Chilton's Dale Forstner released on the play and got a long pass from one of his teammates for an easy bucket to up the lead back to three, at 68-65.

The Indians got another opportunity when Vande Vort missed a bonus opportunity, but Kewaskum missed a three-point try which would have tied the game, and thus fell to 7-10 overall, 2-8 in the Eastern Wisconsin.

Keith Steffes led the winners with 14 points, including 10 at the free throw line. Glenn Geisner also added 14 for Chilton.

Felix led Kewaskum with a season high 24 points before fouling out with :33 left in overtime. Mark Heather added 11 for the Indians, including a pair of three-pointers. Gerhartz, Kewaskum's leading scorer on the year, was held to just eight points as he took his usual beating underneath and, as usual, didn't get many calls going his way.

Indian Girls Crush Falls

KEWASKUM — All things considered, the five seniors on the Kewaskum Girls' basketball team who were present couldn't have had their regular-season home finale result much nicer.

Sure, they each probably would have liked to score 20 points and make the game winning shot at the buzzer, but this group had to settle with none scoring more than 10 points and the game-winning shot occurring some time in the first half.

Nevertheless, the Indians 51-27 drubbing of Sheboygan Falls was a nice way to go out in style for seniors Pam Osterbrink, Kristi Lubahn, Tina Weddig, Debbie Rimmel and Andrea Fliess.

The five girls, along with foreign exchange student Dalvani Marques, were recognized before the contest for their contributions to the girls program. Marques, a member of the team up until a sledding accident, was unable to attend as she is still recuperating from severe internal injuries from the accident, and is being hospitalized in Milwaukee.

The group, who has 17 years of collective experience at the varsity level, all received plaques.

As for the game itself, it really wasn't much of a contest. Indian head coach Glenn Eichstedt started the five seniors who, in turn, jumped out to an 18-4 lead by the end of the opening period of play.

With a big lead already built, Eichstedt was able to substitute freely the rest of the night. Junior Kelly Rohlinger didn't let the opportunity pass, as she tallied all of her points in the second period, scoring 9 of the Indians' 11 points in the quarter, helping Kewaskum widen the gap to 29-13 at the intermission.

A 14-2 third quarter further widened the Kewaskum lead to 43-15 going into the fourth, where it became "garbage time" as reserves from both teams flooded the floor.

Osterbrink led all scorers with 10 points, leaving her just 21 points short of 1000 for her career, with at least two games remaining in the season for the Indians, who improved their overall record to 10-9, 4-7 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

The Indian JV's were not as fortunate as the Varsity was, in that they came up short in their contest against the Falcons, falling 25-24.

Kelly Korth played a fine game as she scored eight points to lead the Indians J.V.'s who fell to 2-9 in the EW, and 4-15 overall.

Winter Survey Finds 410 Bald Eagles in Wisconsin

MADISON, WI — A mid-winter survey January 12 and 13 found 410 bald eagles enjoying an unusually mild Wisconsin winter, according to Charlene Gieck, nongame biologist with the Department of Natural Resources. That compares to 418 eagles counted in the 1989 survey, which is sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation and DNR's Bureau of Endangered Resources.

"The mild weather allowed eagles to spread out more, making them more difficult to count," Gieck said of the slightly lower number. "But the large number of immature eagles was very encouraging. It indicates our Wisconsin population is growing."

Volunteers counted 103 immatures, compared to 74 last year. The nationwide survey found 11,610 eagles in 1989. National results from the 1990 survey won't be available until later this year.

The 84 counters surveyed 38 counties. "As usual, the highest concentrations of eagles were found in counties bordering the Mississippi and Wisconsin rivers," Gieck said. Eagles stay near open water, especially near dams, to feed on fish.

Hebbring Hotel Registers Win Over Kewaskum in Lakes

MENOMONEE FALLS — Mike Ehler's 34 points led eight players in double figures as Menomonee Falls Hebbring Hotel rolled over Kewaskum, 152-116, in Land O' Lakes play here Sunday night. The Hotel upped its record to 3-5 while Kewaskum remains winless in the basement at 0-8.

Kewaskum led 37-29 after the first quarter, but it was all downhill after that. Menomonee Falls came back to take a 66-60 halftime lead. They expanded that to 106-87 after three quarters, and continued to roll in the fourth quarter to win by 36.

The Hotel shot a sizzling 84.6 percent from the free throw line on 22 of 26, while Kewaskum was 11 of 17 for 64.7 percent.

Nick Nellis added 29 points for the Hotel and Dave Weber and Paul Frings each tallied 17. Tony Pirozzoli led Kewaskum with 27 points, while Dan Pace added 24 and Steve Johnson 16.

Kewaskum plays its final home game of the season, hosting second place Oconomowoc, this Sunday at the high school fieldhouse.

JV Boys Win, Frosh Fall Short

KEWASKUM — The Kewaskum J.V. boys basketball team, behind a strong defensive effort which allowed Chilton just two points in the opening quarter, had an easy time of things as they destroyed the visiting Tigers, 55-35.

Kim Marx led the Indians with 13 points, while Joel Fleischman chipped in 10 for the J.V.'s, now 6-11 on the year.

Matt Bertsch's pair of free throws, with :15 left in the game proved to be the difference as the Indian freshman came up a bit short, falling to the visitors 42-41.

The Indians had one last chance for victory go by the wayside as Jim Marx's shot at the buzzer was short, handing Kewaskum its ninth loss in ten tries in the EW this year.

Keith Herman led the Indians, now 4-10 overall, with 9 points.

PUSH THAT BALE! FFA member Mike Ruplinger takes his attempt at rolling a round bale in the Annual Ag Olympics Contest. Various "ag" related events challenge FFA members to be the best that they can be, while striving for the championship gold.

BASKETBALL'S BEST - Each year the Kewaskum FFA hosts a 3 on 3 tournament for local members and various other nearby chapters. The tournament allows more participation and playing time for the serious and fun loving competition. Above are various members of the Kewaskum FFA warming up before the tournament gets underway.

Killing a Business In Ten Easy Steps

1. DON'T ADVERTISE! Just pretend everybody knows what you have to offer.
2. DON'T ADVERTISE! Tell yourself you just don't have time to spend thinking about promoting your business.
3. DON'T ADVERTISE! Just assume everybody knows what you sell.
4. DON'T ADVERTISE! Convince yourself that you've been in business so long customers will automatically come to you.
5. DON'T ADVERTISE! Forget that there are new potential customers who would do business with you if they were reminded and urged to do so.
6. DON'T ADVERTISE! Forget that you have competition trying to attract your customers away from you.
7. DON'T ADVERTISE! Tell yourself that it costs too much to advertise and that you don't get enough out of it.
8. DON'T ADVERTISE! Overlook the fact that advertising is an investment in selling - not an expense.
9. DON'T ADVERTISE! Be sure not to provide an adequate advertising budget for your business.
10. DON'T ADVERTISE! Forget that you have to keep reminding your established customers that you appreciate their business.

EXPLORE HIGH SCHOOL AGRICULTURE

The President Speaks

By Kevin Bartelt

The FFA organization is a huge organization that extends from the state of Alaska to Puerto Rico and from the state of Hawaii to Maine. But the FFA is not only quantity, it is quality. When I joined the great organization as a freshman, I really didn't know what it was all about. Now, as a senior, I still don't know all the great experiences that can be found through FFA.

Over my four years in the FFA, I went to numerous local district, and state judging contests. I also went to leadership workshops, a speaking contest, Kansas City for the National Convention, and much more, and there still were many things that I still could have done.

The FFA is not only for those people who are presently involved in Agriculture or are planning to be in the future. It is also for those who like to experience new things, meet new people, and like to have fun.

I feel that everyone in high school should give the FFA a try. It just may have something for you!

Tomorrow's Agriculture...

Today's FFA!

STATE CONVENTION

On June 12, 1989, Ricky Kreif, John Hupfer and Mike Ramthun were our delegates at Green Lake, and Jenny Degnitz was in the State FFA Chorus. We received awards for BOAC, National Chapter and Safety. The guys sat in three sessions each day. At the beginning of each session the State FFA Chorus and Band performed for them. We arrived back in Kewaskum on June 14 in the afternoon.

NATIONAL CONVENTION

On November 8, 1989, John Hupfer, Tim Herman, Jenny Degnitz and Mike Ruplinger left Kewaskum to go to Kansas City, Missouri. On the way down we stopped at the John Deere plant in Iowa and toured it. We arrived in Kansas City at 10 p.m. that day. On November 9, we sat in session all day and listened to speakers. November 10 we sat in sessions and also went to a rodeo. November 11 we sat in the closing ceremonies and then headed for home. We arrived back in Kewaskum at 4 a.m. on November 12.

Where Quality & Craftsmanship is a Family Tradition

Walters has been constructing durable quality buildings since the 1950's. Our family of directly employed Engineers, Manufacturers, Salesmen, and highly trained crews have earned an envied reputation of quality and integrity in the work they do. Either machine sheds, grain storage buildings, horse barns, dairy barns, hog confinement, or garages Walters has hundreds of designs to choose from. So for your next building need, call a Walters representative today for the complete Walters story. At Walters there is no shortcuts to the old family tradition of quality structures and pride in craftsmanship.
