Rescue Squad to Introduce Child Alert 10-33 Kewaskum Fire and Rescue Open House Set for Sept. 20

NATIONAL EMS WEEK - SEPT. 16-22

In recognition of National EMS Week, September 16 thru 22, the Kewaskum Fire Department will be holding an open house for the public, on Thursday, Sept. 20 from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

This will be an excellent opportunity for everyone to get a close up look at the rescue related equipment used by our Kewaskum Rescue Squad. Highlights of the evening will include FREE Blood Pressure screening, a Jaws of Life demonstration at approximately 7:00 p.m., tours of the fire house and related equipment, a CPR demonstration, and other related activities. The Kewaskum Rescue Squad will also be introducing a new program for children with special needs. The program is called CHILD ALERT 10-33.

CHILD ALERT 10-33 is an innovative program designed to help emergency medical services treat children with special needs and is being introduced across the state of Wisconsin, according to Don Laurin, Public Information and Education Coordinator of the Wisconsin EMS (Emergency Medical Services) for Children Project. Child Alert 10-33, first developed and tested by the Cedarburg Fire Department Rescue Squad, gives EMS personnel information about a child's medical problem, recommended treatment, and preferred hospital long before an emergency occurs.

"We introduced the program in Cedarburg after we learned about certain children in our area who had severe medical problems like irregular breathing patterns and slow heartbeat," says John T. Stauske, Captain of the Cedarburg Fire Department Rescue Company. Any child whose need for emergency medical services can be anticipated is enrolled in the Child Alert Program. The Rescue Squad keeps files on these children's medical problems and recommended treatments. "It's been a big help to our rescue personnel because it lets them know how the physician wants them to treat the child during transport," Captain Stauske says. The program also tells parents what to say to the dispatcher in case of an emergency.

Because of the program's success in Cedarburg, the EMS for Children Project is encouraging other rescue squads across the state to adopt Child Alert 10-33 in their areas. Not every EMS unit has introduced the program, but parents or physicians can call their local emergency medical services to determine whether it is available and to enroll children with special medical needs. More than one parent has expressed thanks for the program since it was introduced in Cedarburg. "Because of the

Enrollments Show Slight Increase

School Off to a Good Start, Says Administrator

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

District Administrator Dr. David Heather began Monday night's school board meeting with a 'thank you' to the board's members. "Speaking personally and for the staff," noted Heather, "it has been one of the better starts in a few years for the district and that has been due to the efforts and actions of the board of education and for that we thank you."

Heather also informed the board that the start of the school year has seen a slight increase in the overall enrollment. Class counts on the first school day show the high school up by 30 over last year, from 605 to 635. The Middle School is up by 12, to 379. At the elementary level, Farmington has seen a decrease, from last year's figure of 297, to this year's beginning enrollment of 274. Kewaskum Elementary has an increase of three students to 384. Wayne Elementary has risen from 93, to 123, but some of that increase is due to the fact that the fifth grade has been returned to that building. The total elementary enrollment is up 12 students from one year ago.

Again this semester, as in past years, some classes are a little large. Of present concern are the two KES second grade classes, noted Heather, which test scores indicate also have a wide range of skill levels, from low achievers to average, gifted and talented and special education.

Heather advised the board that two part time instructional aides have been hired for the KES third grade and he asked for approval to hire up to an additional five instructional aides, two of which would be used for the KES second grade classes.

Heather stated money had been budgeted for up to eight aides, however, personnel would be hired only if there was a need for them.

If the KES second grade continues to grow during the school year, Heather advised the board, they may want to consider hiring another teacher for next year, "but for this year the addition of the two instructional aides would be effective."

In hearing committee reports, the board approved several recommendations of the Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds Committee. They included the purchase of a bleachers tractor for the high school gyms, new locker for the middle school, window screens for KES and a new water heater for KMS.

Buildings Superintendent Fred Boehlke noted the difficulty of manually moving the KHS bleachers in and out made some groups reluctant to ask to use them. With the new electric, soft-wheeled tractor, one person can easily pull the bleachers out and return them. The cost of $2,760 was budgeted.

Also budgeted was money to replace 54 old KMS lockers, which had been transferred from the high school. The contract went to low bidder Lyon Company, at a cost of $5,138.

Screens, which will allow KES windows to be opened in spring and fall, was also a budgeted item. Slesar Glass will install 111 screens at a cost of $2,790.

Albiero Plumbing replaced a leaking KMS water heater at a cost of $1,430. The company was also awarded the contract to do several maintenance type plumbing projects throughout the district for a low bid of $4,822.

No action was recommended on moving an overhead power line at FES that crosses over the playground area.

In other action the board accepted the resignation of Carol Zoerb as kindergarten teacher. The board also approved the hiring of Mrs. Robin Foerster as one-year KMS replacement for Mrs. Marlene Domasky and Ellen Kesting as a short term replacement for Linda Koepf at FES.

The board also granted Heather approval to increase substitute teacher pay from $50 to $53 per day.

County Sheriffs Seize Marijuana

On Friday, September 7, the Washington County Multi-jurisdictional Drug Unit seized approximately 32 pounds of marijuana plants.

These plants, which were located in the Village of Germantown, appeared to have been cultivated. Only a very small quantity of the marijuana had been harvested prior to the seizure taking place.

The seizure was conducted in cooperation with the West Bend Police Department who had developed the information which led to the seizure.

The estimated street value of the marijuana taken is in excess of $90,000.

had to do and had the comfort of knowing that you were going to know about my son before you got here."

For more information regarding the Kewaskum EMS or CHILD ALERT 10-33, please contact Rescue Captain, Todd VanLangen at 626-4175 or Rescue Lieutenant, Tim Miller at 626-4876. Look for your local Fire Department and Rescue Squad at Kewaskum Kountry Kolors, October 13th and 14th.

License Plate Transfer Fee Goes Into Effect

People who transfer license plates from one of their vehicles to another vehicle titled in their name will pay a $4 transfer fee after Sept. 1, according to the state Department of Transportation.

Legislation approving the new fee was adopted by the state Legislature to help pay the administrative costs of titling services, according to Joyce Gelderman, acting administration of the DOT Division of Motor Vehicles.

Maureen Hlavacek, director of the registration bureau, said people are permitted to transfer license plates only on their own vehicles or vehicles owned by a spouse, and after filing a transfer application to the Division. "It is not legal to transfer license plates to a vehicle owned by another person," she added.

The $4 fee also applies to transferring plates from one person's vehicle, to a vehicle registered in the spouse's name.

Hlavacek said the fee will not be collected when the owner transfers the license plates when purchasing a new or used vehicle.

Formerly, a car owner could transfer plates to another vehicle which he/she owned merely by submitting a transfer application. The fee was adopted to help pay the costs of processing the transfer, Hlavacek said.

KEYS to Celebrate 5-Year Anniversary

This October represents the 5-year anniversary of KEYS, KEWaskum Youth Scholarships, Inc.

Since its founding in October of 1985, KEYS has made excellent progress toward its goal of providing additional scholarships to graduates of Kewaskum High School. The interest earned from contributions has provided $17,500 in scholarships to thirteen students over the last five years. Included in these amounts are the six scholarships totaling $12,000 that were awarded on May 6, 1990.

KEYS is in the process of contacting community members, past donors and area businesses to request donations to help celebrate the first five years of growth and to help provide funds for additional scholarships into the 1990s and beyond.

In October, the KEYS organization is planning a special tribute to all past donors. (Traditionally each quarter the Kewaskum Statesman publishes the names of all contributors to KEYS during that respective quarter.)

This October, the KEYS organization is planning to publish a complete list of ALL contributors from October 1985 to October 1990. Be looking for this special tribute in the October 26th issue.

If you haven't had the opportunity to make a contribution to KEYS, now is the time to do so! Please make your tax deductible contribution to KEYS today. Your contribution made now will help provide additional scholarships into the 1990s and beyond. Contributions made before October 15th will be included in the special tribute. Let everyone know that you have contributed to the community's scholarship organization.

Shown above is just one of the many craft items you will be able to purchase at the Arts and Crafts Fair being held in conjunction with the Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival, Saturday and Sunday, October 13th and 14th, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Gordon J. Decker of Cedarburg is the artist who specializes in handcarved bowls and vases made of wood, not wood turning. All Gordon's beautiful craft items have a polyurethane and lemon oil beeswax finish.

Be an Animal Detective

Fall walks are enjoyed by many as an opportunity to get outdoors and experience a change of scenery as well as a change of pace.

The Lac Lawrann Conservancy, located only minutes from the West Bend downtown area has surprised many of those living in the surrounding community with its beauty and quiet. The area is open to the public only through its public tour program and the participants have a variety of themes to choose from during the months of September and October this year.

Coming up on Sunday, September 23 children and adults are invited to participate in the great animal search as they follow naturalist guide Suzanne Bateman. Participants will be asked to "Be An Animal Detective" as they look for tracks, rubbings, scat and other signs that will give evidence of the variety of animal species living at the conservancy.

To join in on the search, please call the West Bend Park Department at 338-5080.

DARE Program to Begin in Kewaskum School District

The Kewaskum School District in conjunction with the Washington County Sheriff's Dept. and the Kewaskum Police Dept., is presenting a drug abuse education program at the Farmington, Wayne, and Kewaskum Elementary Schools.

The primary emphasis of the program is to assist students in recognizing and resisting the pressures that influence them to experiment with drugs. The program is entitled D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education).

A semester course will be given one day each week to 5th grade students. The curriculum, developed by the Los Angeles, California, Unified School District's Instructional Specialists, will be presented by a uniformed Deputy Sheriff and will cover such topics as how to say no to peers, building self-esteem, assertiveness, social influences involved in the abuse of drugs, and possible alternatives to drug use. An abbreviated program will also be given to children in grades kindergarten through 4th. The officer teaching this class will also be available to present drug education classes to parent groups and will work in cooperation with parents to ensure that children are well informed regarding the dangers of drug abuse. The program is divided into 16 one-hour sessions.

Deputy Brian Bausch of the Washington County Sheriff's Dept. has been trained to instruct fifth graders at Farmington and Wayne Elementary schools. A former teacher, Bausch plans to present the kids with facts, not "scare tactics," along with role playing and decision-making, focusing on the development of self-esteem. The lessons also focus on interpersonal and communication skills, risk assessment, critical thinking and the identification of positive alternatives to substance abuse.

Officer Steven Seitz, youth services officer for the Kewaskum Police Dept., and a trained D.A.R.E. instructor, will be teaching in the Kewaskum Elementary School, and will be available for the parochial schools. Only experienced officers who have completed two weeks of training are permitted to act as instructors.

As a summary of the program, students will compose and read aloud their own essays on how they will respond if pressured to use drugs. This essay becomes each student's "DARE Pledge." In a school-wide assembly, all students who have participated in the DARE program receive certificates of achievement.

The program will be recognized in a National DARE Day celebration on Thursday, September 13, 1990. Bells in schools and churches across the country will be rung at the same time, which will be at noon in Kewaskum. Select baseball teams including the Los Angeles Dodgers and Chicago Cubs, have agreed to host DARE Day games.

DARE is the start on a road to changing attitudes, especially in children, about the use of alcohol and drugs. Driving drunk is no longer acceptable in this society, and it is hoped these kinds of feelings will develop in our youth through efforts of drug awareness programs like D.A.R.E.

President Bush Awards DARE Program with National Day

President George Bush has declared September 13, "National D.A.R.E. Day," in recognition of the nationwide teaching program to educate school children about the dangers of drug abuse.

The D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) concept was created in Los Angeles in 1983, and has spread to over 100,000 classrooms in 49 states. About 5 million children in the fifth and sixth grades will participate in D.A.R.E. this school year.

Specially selected law enforcement officers complete an eighty hour certification course before beginning their duties as D.A.R.E. facilitators. D.A.R.E. is a 17-week curriculum designed to build the self-esteem of young people and teach them the skills they need to lead drug free lives, as well as to educate them about the dangers of drugs.

Deputy Brian W. Bausch is the Washington County Sheriff's Department D.A.R.E. officer. Bausch, 44, is a former high school teacher, and his combined experience in education and law enforcement will enhance his D.A.R.E. work. D.A.R.E. is currently being offered to students in the Kewaskum school district.

Other school districts can receive information about the program by contacting Deputy Bausch (338-4378) or Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis (338-4388).

Officer Seitz Trained to Establish DARE Program in Village Schools

Kewaskum — In an effort to help establish the nationally-recognized D.A.R.E. (Drug Resistance Education) program in Kewaskum Schools, Officer Steven Seitz of the Kewaskum Police Department recently completed a special 80-hour training course at Fox Valley Technical College.

The training prepared Officer Seitz to teach a 17-week series of lessons that will give fifth and sixth grade youths the skills they need to resist drugs.

Officer Seitz was instructed in teaching techniques, elementary school operations, the use of visual aids, officer-school relationships, communication skills, child development and classroom management. The final training session involved the officers "student teaching" a D.A.R.E. lesson in a local classroom.

The D.A.R.E. curriculum includes officer-led lessons on drug resistance, self-esteem, assertiveness, stress management without drugs and decision making. It concludes with a graduation ceremony in which students pledge to stay off drugs.

The D.A.R.E. program was designed to be taught by officers because students are frequently much more sophisticated about substance abuse than classroom teachers. Veteran police answer questions based on their training and experience.

D.A.R.E. officers are representative of the best officers in their police departments. They are selected based on their interest in working with children and their ability to maintain a positive rapport with students, schools and the community.

D.A.R.E. was established in 1983 as a joint venture between the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles Unified School District. It has since expanded into more than 100,000 classrooms in 49 states, Department of Defense Dependent Schools, American Samoa, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

D.A.R.E. is the largest and most successful drug education program in the U.S. today.

Jerry Lewis Labor Day MDA Telethon Gets Strong Backing from Southeastern Wisconsin

Milwaukee, WI — Southeastern Wisconsin viewers who watched the 1990 25th Anniversary MDA Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon benefitting the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA) responded with a stunning show of generosity, pledging $842,648. Nationally, the Labor Day extravaganza raised $44,172,186. The Telethon aired locally on WITI TV 6.

"WITI and the people of Southeastern Wisconsin have the heartfelt thanks of "Jerry's Kids" and all of MDA for their fantastic show of support for the Telethon this past Labor Day weekend," said local Telethon chairperson, Jim Paterson. "With their continued help, we'll soon see the day when neuromuscular diseases are just memories of the distant past."

Broadcast live from the Aquarius Theater in Hollywood, the 2 1/2 hour spectacular was hosted by MDA National chairman Jerry Lewis.

"Each year I know I can count on the finest TV stations in America and their terrific viewers to give much needed help and hope to 'my kids,' stated Lewis, "and this year was no exception. When I needed them, they again came through for me and MDA."

TODAY'S AGRICULTURE Farm Safety Week Sept. 16-22

By Jack Trzebiatowski, Extension Agriculture Agent

President Bush and Governor Thompson have declared September 16-22, 1990 as Farm Safety Week. Each fall one week is designated as Farm Safety Week, to call attention to the need for safe practices during the upcoming harvest season.

Farming is considered one of the most hazardous occupations. Farmers and their families are exposed to a number of risks involving tractors, machinery, livestock, storage facilities and hazardous material. Fall harvest season is traditionally a time when many accidents happen to occur. A major objective of Farm Safety Week is to help call attention to safe practices and reduce the risk of injuries or death to farm families during the harvest season.

Forty one fatalities occurred on Wisconsin farms during 1989 work related activities. This is a decrease of 5 from 1988 when farm accidents caused 46 fatalities.

Accidental farm facilities involving tractors and farm machinery counted for approximately 56% of the total farm fatalities during 1989. Farm tractors were involved in 15 farm fatalities, while farm machinery other than tractors accounted for another 8 farm fatalities. Four people were asphyxiated, poisoned by carbon monoxide, silo gas, manure gas or entrapment in a grain bin.

Overturns were the most common type of tractor accidents, resulting in the 11 fatalities. Four tractor fatalities resulted when victims fell from or were run over by a tractor.

The number of farm fatalities victims, 55 years of age and older was quite a large portion of the total fatalities. Approximately 50% of the victims in 1989 were 55 years or older. Young children were also victims, as three children under the age of 5 were fatalities. In all three cases the victims were run over.

Farm families need to take time during the harvest season for farm safety. Equipment should be maintained and kept in a safe operating condition with all safety guards, shields and other equipment kept in place. Operators need to observe safety practices when working around equipment especially turning off equipment when doing maintenance or removing clogs. Stress of long hours can add to the risk of accidents or injury. Operators should take regular breaks to keep alert.

Farm families should use Farm Safety Week as a reminder to all members of the family that farm safety is a family affair. All members should do their part to reduce accidents and deaths during the upcoming harvest season.

Return to School Means Drivers Must Be Alert

Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis has expressed concern for the safety of the county's children as they return to school.

Each year, the sheriff's department receives numerous complaints regarding vehicles that do not stop in response to the familiar flashing red lights and "stop arms."

"We've even had drivers pass school buses on the right shoulder of roads while the bus was loading or unloading children. When questioned, the driver is amazed. They don't know it happened. It's as if they're so intent on getting to their destination, that nothing will get in their way," the sheriff remarked.

Drivers are reminded to pay attention when school buses are operating in the morning and afternoon. They should be prepared to stop when the bus driver activates the signal devices, and should not proceed until these signals are extinguished.

School buses must also come to a complete stop at railroad crossings and the driver must observe the track to the left and right before proceeding. This means that other vehicles should expect a brief delay if following a bus that is approaching a railroad crossing.

Drivers must also use special care when approaching children who are walking or bicycling to school. Yield the right-of-way when children are crossing the street and give a wide berth when passing a child on a bicycle.

Sheriff Schulteis observes, "No one wants to be haunted by the thought that they are responsible for the death of a little boy or girl. Don't risk a tragedy just to save a few seconds of driving time."

He was brought to this county for sentencing.

son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Romaine, and Werner Bruhn, son of Herman Bruhn. Weddig and Romaine are about 22 years of age and Bruhn is 31. Romaine is a brother of Private Curtis Romaine, who recently enlisted in the Army Air Corps.

Louis Foerster, Sr., widely known farm resident of the Town of Kewaskum, passed away at 6:30 a.m. Friday, Sept. 13, at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac. He had been ill only a week and his demise is a great shock to the community.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ehnert of New Fane, was baptized last Sunday, Sept. 8, by Rev. Zanow, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, and received the name Richard Franklin. Sponsors were Mrs. Edwin Bruesewitz, Loren Keller and Harold Rosenthal.

A marriage license has been issued to Marvin Kuehl, Town of Wayne and Celeste Foerster, R. 3, Kewaskum. A license has also been granted to Ray Reysen and Gertrude Otto, both August E. Koch sustained a bad gash on the top of his head while at work Monday morning when he accidentally struck his head against a plow point protruding out from a shelf on which it was laying. The cut required the taking of a couple of stitches to close the wound.

Relatives and friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Bonlender Tuesday, the occasion being their 5th wedding anniversary.

75 Years Ago

Last Sunday evening the local Moving Picture Theatre re-opened for the season with a packed house in attendance. The pictures shown were as advertised and met with the approval of all those present. They were by far the best pictures ever shown. Words of praise and compliments could be heard all the week of the excellent pictures.

Mrs. Mary Berres, nee Ketter, beloved wife of Jacob Berres, residing in the Town of Scott, passed away in death last Saturday. Death resulting from cancer. Mrs. Berres was less than forty-eight years old. Mrs. Berres was operated on for cancer at Milwaukee last December but gradually failed in health until she succumbed to the dread disease.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the barn on the Charles Doves farm near Waucousta last Friday, while the owner had gone to Eden on business. Neighbors discovered the fire and prevented the flames from spreading to other farm buildings. A horse tied in the stable of the building was also consumed by the flames.

J.P. Van Blarcom received his new five passenger Maxwell car which he purchased from Schlienten Bros., of Cascade.

Many people from here attended a barn dance at Joseph Mueller's home in the Town of Ashford last Thursday evening.

Allmanns Receive Premier Sheep Breeders Award

For the second consecutive year, a rural Kewaskum couple have been awarded Columbia premier breeder award by the Wisconsin State Fair Board.

George and Anne Allmann, operators of Home Haven Farm, received the coveted plaque for placing first in each of the six classes in the Wisconsin Performance Division. Animals must be bred and owned by the exhibitor and must be performance indexed in the National Sheep Improvement Program, headquartered at the University of Iowa.

In addition to their State Fair winnings, Allmann's showed the champion and reserve champion ram and ewe at the Dane County Fair. They also showed the top selling Columbia yearling ram at the Wisconsin Performance Test Sale at the UW Experimental Farm at Arlington.

Allmann's have been raising Columbia sheep for the past 10 years and have shown at the Wisconsin State Fair the past six years.

La Lawrann Legacy: The Author's Story

The Lac Lawrann Conservancy was made possible through a gift made by Lawrence and Ann Maurin in 1979 to the City of West Bend's Park System.

The dedication of the conservancy in 1980 was the beginning of what is now an on-going environmental education tour program for the community. This however was also a time of closure for the Maurin's. Ann Maurin put aside her personal journal, a journal she had kept for a quarter of a century, recording the happenings in her "wild" backyard through a series of letters, poems and short stories.

Naturalist guide Jane Manderfield will share excerpts from Ann's journal as part of a special tour on Sunday, September 16, at 1:30 p.m. entitled "Lac Lawrann's Legacy - The Author's Story." Participants will appreciate the beginnings of a conservancy and a love shared between two people and the natural world.

Advance reservations are required. There is no fee. Please call the West Bend Park Department at 338-5080.

Falls Upends Indian Volleyballers Bag Limates

SHEBOYGAN FALLS — Kewaskum volleyball coach Dave Rizzardi isn't exactly in a state of panic over the early season woes his team has been facing. But if the recent trends continue, Rizzardi may get just a bit uneasy.

After the Indians dropped their opening conference match to Kiel, whom the Indians had beaten soundly in the season opening Indian Invitational, Kewaskum dropped another match to a surprisingly tough Sheboygan Falls team here, last Thursday night.

In the opening game, the two teams battled back and forth, with neither team gaining a substantial lead on the other. With the score tied 13-13, the Falcons got a pair of quick points to take the first game 15-13.

The second game went pretty much the same way as the first, one team running off a couple of points and then the other team coming back to tie or go ahead. Again, the score was tied 13-13, but then Sheboygan Falls pulled together and eventually came away with a hard-earned 16-14 win to take the match.

The Indians came back to win the third game 15-8, but the hosts were the team that improved their record to a surprising 4-0 in conference play thus far this season. With the loss, the Indians fell to 1-2.

"That was one of the better matches that I have seen in a while," Rizzardi said of the matchup. "I thought we played well, but we just came up short in the end."

Rizzardi had all kinds of praise for senior spiker Nicole Doherty, who "had an outstanding game," according to the Indian mentor. Doherty led the Indians in scoring with ten points, most coming on spikes and from her strong play at the net.

Fellow senior Tisha Stradtman had another solid performance as well. Stradtman had 8 assists, as well as 5 saves, "which is pretty high for a high school match," Rizzardi said.

The Indians JV volleyball team, under the direction of coach Mary Holfeltz, remained unbeaten in conference play with their win over the Falcons. The JV's improved to 3-0, while the Indian freshman fell to 0-3 with their loss to Falls.

The outlook for the upcoming hunting seasons is better than normal in most cases and the best ever in others. Take the Canadian Goose hunt for example.

Those of you who applied for the Canada Goose Hunt in the Horicon Zone can expect to receive between 4 and 8 tags. Its hard to believe that only 3 years ago hunters only received 1 tag. With this increase in hunter opportunity, there will probably also be an increase in bag limit violations.

Even with the daily bag limit set at 2/day in the Horicon Zone, hunters often over bag or attempt to over bag. What often happens is one hunter will attempt to help another hunter fill his or her daily bag. Hopefully this is not a surprise to most of you, but once a hunter has shot his or her daily bag limit, that person may not kill or attempt to kill other animals of that species. In other words you can not fill someone elses daily bag or tags.

This holds true for all hunting except that in the Deer Gun Season when group deer hunting is allowed.

The daily bag limit also applies to fisher-people in the same way. You must catch your own daily bag limit and stop fishing for that fish species when you do have your limit. You can not help your companion catch their fish.

On occasion a person will ask, "What if we are not sure who shot the bird because we both shot at it." The bird must become someones daily bag immediately. A goose would have to be tagged by one of the hunters which would make it easy to determine who's bag it was in. A pheasant, when the bag limit is one/day would require that one of the hunters not shoot at any more pheasants.

Hunting is considered an individual sport and therefore hunters must reduce game to their bag on their own, another hunter can not do it for them. This will also help to eliminate the shooting of extra game which will occur when more than one hunter is shooting at a number of birds.

One quick reminder, beginning September 15 and running through December 31, there is no shining after 10:00 p.m.

Kohler Beats Indians in Tennis

KOHLER — With the conditions being more suitable for a dip in the neighbor's pool, the Kewaskum girls tennis team's match against Kohler here, last Tuesday proved to be more than a battle between two teams. It was more like survival of the fittest.

If that was the case, send the physical fitness awards to the Blue Bombers, who outlasted the Indians 4-3 in the hot and humid conditions.

Kohler featured sophomores in three of the four singles spots, and one would think that the youth would win out in the heat. But it was the Indians who won two of the three matches that the Kohler youngsters were in.

Indian junior Jessica Rohrer continued to play fine tennis with a victory at No. 1 singles. After dropping the first set to Brooke Radder in a tiebreaker (7-4), Rohrer came back to post wins in the second and third sets 6-1, 6-2.

At No. 3 singles, Kewaskum's Tammy Troeller finally won a match without going to a tiebreaker. Troeller also dropped the first set before roaring back to post a 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 victory over Kelly Girdaukas.

Jenny Thull tried to continue the drop-first-set-come-back-to-win course of action after losing her opening set to Lisa Hess 1-6. Thull won the second set 6-4, but failed in her comeback, losing the last set 4-6. The Indians' other win came at No. 3 doubles, where sophomores Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank held on to beat Kim Milbrath and Laura Salzwedel in a marathon, 7-6, (7-2), 5-7, 6-4.

VARSIITY

DOUBLES — No. 1 - Brenda Falk and Heidi Gruhle lost to Michelle Vanderweele and Katie Schueller 1-6, 2-6. No. 2 - Angie Clements and Shawn Erdmann lost to Kelly Jensen and Erin Morrissey 1-6, 1-6. No. 3 - Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank beat Kim Milbrath and Laura Salzwedel 7-6 (7-2), 5-7, 6-4.

Could Upset Plymouth Indian Tennis Match Suspended

PLYMOUTH — Some interesting events could take place September 25th for the Kewaskum girls tennis team.

That is the day on which the Indians' suspended match with Plymouth is to resume. The two teams began a match last Thursday, but heavy rains moved in and the match was stopped with the Panthers leading 3-2.

But it is the Indians who lead both of the suspended games that are left to be played, and wins in both of those would spell victory for the Indians over the perennial - powerful Panthers, who have won the Eastern Wisconsin championship in the sport 12 years in a row.

Things started out dismally for Kewaskum, as Brenda Falk (No. 2 singles) and the team of Heidi Gruhle and Chrissy Survis (No. 1 doubles) both went down to defeat against their powerful foes, putting the Indians at a 0-2 disadvantage.

A 4-6, 2-6 loss by the team of Karyn Dossinger and Stacey Pamperin at No. 2 doubles showed that the Indians could at least play with the mighty Panthers, but being down 0-3, things looked awfully bleak for the Indians.

But the sophomore duo of Nicki Cayner and Kim Frank routed Plymouth's combination at No. 3 doubles, 6-1, 6-3 in convincing fashion.

And just before the rains hit, Kewaskum Jessica Rohrer was tied at one set apiece with Plymouth's Cheryl Slabe when the two respective coaches decided that the girls should just play a tiebreaker to determine the winner. Rohrer came out fired up, and came away with a 6-3, 3-6, 7-1 win over Slabe, making it 3-2 in favor of Plymouth.

At No. 3 singles, Kewaskum's Tammy Troeller won the first set 6-4, and was down 1-3 in the second when the rains came. In the other uncompleted match, No. 4 singles' Jenny Thull split the first two sets with Plymouth's Sarah Wondra 6-3, 1-6, but is leading in the third and final set by a 2-0 margin.

Doherty, Kauth Win Hon-E-Kor Championships

KEWASKUM — The matchups were the same as they were a year ago in the Hon-E-Kor men's and women's club championships. However, this year, it was the runnerups from a year ago that tasted victory.

Joe Doherty beat three-time defending champion Mike O'Connor Jr. on the first playoff hole to win the men's championship flight, while Cornelia Kauth held on to beat 1989 champ Judi Tiegelman in the women's division.

Doherty, who advanced to the finals by beating Jim Dean 2-1 in the match play semis, had a 3-up lead on O'Connor through eight holes. But O'Connor, who beat Craig Anderson 3-2 in the semis, battled his way back into the match, forcing it into a sudden death playoff.

But on the first hole of sudden death, O'Connor had his problems in the sand, and had to settle for a bogey, while Doherty made his par to take home the trophy.

Kauth took a 3-up lead on the defending champ Tiegelman after nine holes, and had to hold on for a 5-4 victory, earning her the right to be Hon-E-Kor's best for this year.

In the junior championship, Ryan Amerling and Matt Seiser advanced to the finals with respective wins over Corey Krahn and Eric Kral. The two battled it out for 18 holes, but it came down to the final one, as Amerling took advantage of Seiser's problems to take home the win.

In the seniors championships, the husband-wife combination of Betty and Elmer Hallen won their respective titles to take home two championships to their household.

Indians Blanked by Falcons, 6-0

KEWASKUM — In just about any sport you come across, defense is the key to winning. In its first two games this season, the Kewaskum football team surrendered just 7 points, and it's no coincidence that the Indians were 2-0.

But in their game with Sheboygan Falls here, last Friday night, the tables were turned on the Indians. It was the Falcons who allowed the Indians just 65 yards of total offense, as the visitors went home with a 6-0 victory over the locals.

"We didn't look good offensively," Indians coach Clark Pearson said regarding the contest. "We just couldn't move the ball against them at all. They just shut us down."

That was an understatement. The Indians accumulated just 41 yards rushing and 24 yards passing in their conference opener. The Indians were led in the rushing department by Jamie Miller, who had 19 yards.

The passing game wasn't any better, as quarterback Mark Felix completed just 3 of 16 passes on the evening, although the poor passing percentage can not be blamed entirely on the 6-3 senior, according to Pearson.

"He was hurried quite a bit," Pearson commented, although adding "He didn't throw the ball as well as he has, but he was pressured some."

The game's only score occurred in the second quarter, when Sheboygan Falls was able to mount a 59 yard scoring drive, which culminated in a seven yard pass from Tom Kublic to Paul Van Eegan for a touchdown. The extra point was unsuccessful, but as it turned out, it was also unneeded.

"We had poor field position all night," Pearson went on to say. "We never really did get in scoring position or even threaten. They just dominated defensively."

On the bright side, the Indians defense, which shut out Campbellsport in the season opener and limited Horicon to just a touchdown last week performed well once again.

"Our defense did very well," said Pearson. "We gave up the one touchdown, but we did a good job otherwise. I was real pleased with our defense."

Although the defensive unit didn't force any turnovers, they did get tough in the second half when they needed to. The Indian defense thwarted two Falcon drives inside the Indian ten yard line in the second half. But the poor field position was too much for the offense to overcome.

Turnovers didn't help the Indian cause, as Felix threw three interceptions, while the Falcon defense forced one Indian fumble. The Indian defense did limit the Falcons to just 182 yards of total offense in the game, however, with just 55 of those coming via the passing game.

"Defensively, we made some strong efforts," Pearson said in citing Scott Heller and Craig Krell for their fine play. The Indian coach also added that junior Jason Steilow also played well on defense.

The Indians, now 2-1, 0-1 in Eastern Wisconsin action, will try to get their offense back on track this week. But they run into a formidable opponent Friday, when they travel to Plymouth to take on the powerful Panthers, who lost last week to conference favorite Two Rivers, 22-6.

Indian JVs, Frosh Lose to Sheb. Falls

While the Kewaskum junior varsity and freshman football teams had the same result as the varsity did against Sheboygan Falls, the two young Indian squads accomplished something that the varsity didn't - they scored.

The Indian JV team fell behind 26-0 in their game against the Falcons. And while they couldn't mount much of a comeback, the JV's did get a touchdown run of about 15 yards from sophomore running back Matt Schlosser in their 26-8 loss.

The Indian freshman team went one better, scoring a pair of touchdowns, but it wasn't enough as Sheboygan Falls frosh completed the sweep of the Indians with a 30-14 victory.

Indian Spikers Tame Panthers

KEWASKUM — Coming off of a lackluster performance in its previous outing against Kiel, the Kewaskum Indian volleyball team needed a good all-around team effort in its match against Plymouth.

Indian coach Dave Rizzardi got exactly that, as the Indians got some strong performances from their front-liners in a 17-15, 15-8, 9-15 win over the Panthers here, last Tuesday.

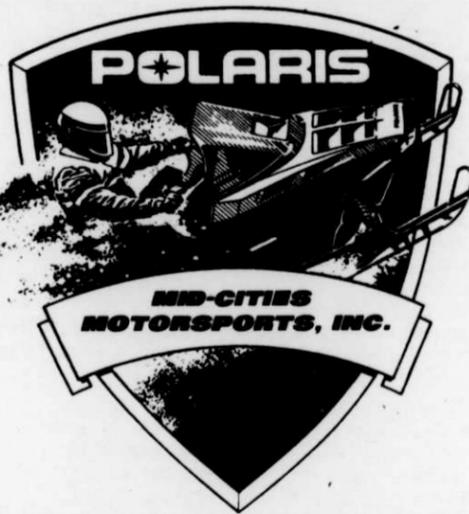

"We really came together," Rizzardi said of his team's character in the win over Plymouth, which entered the match with a 2-0 record. "We had a good team effort."

The first game appeared to be the most critical in the match, as the two teams battled each other evenly before the Indians got two quick points after being tied 15-15.

The momentum was in the Indians favor after the close win, as they rolled in the second game. With the Indians already having the match won, Plymouth salvaged some pride in the third game with victory over the Kewaskum reserves.

Senior Nicole Doherty led the Indians in points in the contest, and she shared the team lead in spikes with sophomore Christa Schmidt. Another senior, Tisha Stradman, had a nice game, according to Rizzardi, as she led the team in assists from her setter position.
