Holy Trinity School Wins 1990 State Champion Physical Fitness Award

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Where are the fittest students of all? At Holy Trinity School in Kewaskum, Wisconsin. Their school has won the 1990 State Champion Physical Fitness Award in category II, presented annually by the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports (PCPFS).

The State Champion Award is presented to the school in each of three different enrollment categories that qualifies the highest percentage of eligible students, ages 6 - 17, for the Presidential Physical Fitness Award. Enrollment categories are: I - schools with 100 or less student enrollment; II - schools with 101 - 500 student enrollment, and III - schools with over 500 student enrollment.

State Champion Awards are based on school performance for the 1989-90 school year. To qualify for the Presidential Award, students must score at or above the 85th percentile on all test items of the President's Challenge, a national fitness test which measures heart/lung endurance, muscular strength and endurance, speed and agility.

Each State Champion school receives an official certificate of recognition from the PCPFS. In addition, each Presidential Award winner in the school receives a State Champion emblem.

The Holy Trinity students were tested on five areas of fitness: 1) strength and flexibility - number of sit-ups in a minute; 2) flexibility - sit and reach; 3) upper torso strength - pull-ups; 4) agility and quickness - shuttle run; and 5) endurance - milk run/walk.

Holy Trinity has been testing physical fitness levels the past three years and entering the State competition. The students can be proud of their efforts.

German Exchange Teacher Visits Kewaskum

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Kewaskum High School is one of 40 schools chosen by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction to have a partner school in the state of Hessen, Germany. The sister school program agreement was recently signed by State Schools Superintendent Herbert Grover and Dr. Christean Wagner, Cultural Minister of the state of Hessen.

As part of that Wisconsin/Hessen relationship, a representative from Hessen has been in the state the past two weeks, visiting schools and businesses throughout Wisconsin. Jochen Peter (pronounced Payter), a teacher from the city of Langenselbold, spent last Wednesday visiting classes at KHS and touring Regal Ware, Inc.

Peter is a Geography and English instructor from Kathe Kollwitz-Schule (School) which has an enrollment of 725 students. He stated German schools have 190 days of instruction with vacations scattered throughout the entire year. Mr. Peter said he was using his two-week autumn vacation to visit Wisconsin.

Mrs. Terri Rosenthal, German instructor for KHS and KMS, hosted Mr. Peter's visit to the high school. Rosenthal said she and her students hope to visit Mr. Peter's school during their vacation to Germany in 1992.

Accompanying Peter and Ed Rappe of Manitowoc, who will be Wisconsin's exchange teacher to the state of Hessen next summer. Rappe is a Social Studies teacher at Lincoln High School in Manitowoc.

Trick or Treat Time Set

Trick or treat time has been set for the Village of Kewaskum between 2:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 28, 1990.

We ask citizens to follow some of the following suggestions to make this a safe and enjoyable time for our children.

1. Keep your children in their own familiar neighborhoods.
2. Do not use masks or costumes that do not afford a good field of vision for the children.
3. DO NOT follow children in a car.
4. Parents, inspect all treats before allowing the children to eat them.

5. Report any suspicious treats and any other suspicious activity to the Police at once. The longer you wait the more difficult it becomes to apprehend the suspect.

The auxiliary Police will be on patrol as well as an extra squad car during this time. Report to them and go to them to help you across dangerous intersections.

With all our cooperation, this should be a safe and meaningful experience for our youngsters.

The principal, Wayne Baxmann of Kettle Moraine Lutheran High School, Jackson, WI announced today that Travis Breikreutz and Ginger Egelseer have been named Commended Students in the National Merit Scholarship Program. A Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the program, will be presented to these outstanding seniors.

About 35,000 Commended Students nationwide are being honored for their outstanding performance of the 1989 PSAT/NMSQT, which places them in the top five percent of more than one million students who entered the 1991 Merit Program by taking the qualifying test. Commended Students scored slightly below the level required to continue in the 1991 competition for Merit Scholarships, but they have shown exceptional academic promise.

Mark Twain Visits Kewaskum

Walter Garbisch, a member of the National Speakers Association, in his presentation of an evening with Mark Twain.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Over 150 people had the opportunity to hear Mark Twain

(alias Walter Garbisch) reminisce about his multi-faceted life and times with stories and quips during a 45-minute visit at Kewaskum High School last Thursday evening.

Twain, besides being a writer, was a man of many other wide and varied talents, from riverboat pilot, to inventor and businessman. Garbisch, a member of the National Speakers Association, gave an excellent portrayal of Twain, both physically and literally. He entertained his audience with a rapid succession of stories, sprinkled with such comments such as he could remember when chickens were 6c a piece and eggs 10c a dozen. Having donated his brain to a university for study, Twain told the audience he was curious as to what the learned scientists had gathered from it.

Garbisch has spent twenty years studying Twain and collecting his works. His presentation of an evening with Mark Twain was sponsored by the Kewaskum Womans Club past part of its education program.

KWC member Jeanne Goeden said she and the club would like to thank the community for the excellent attendance and reception to Mr. Garbisch's presentation.

Bay-Lakes Scouts To Join Nationwide Food Appeal

More than 20,000 youth will mobilize for two weekends in November to help feed the hungry.

Organized by the Bay-Lakes Council, Boy Scouts of America, the 1990 "Scouting For Food Good Turn" will involve Cubs, Boy Scouts, Varsity Scouts, Explorers, and their leaders from a 22 county area in an enormous effort to collect 1,000,000 cans of food. The local appeal is part of a national "Good Turn" being conducted by the Boy Scouts of America, which will seek to ease the food problem for the more than 20 million Americans who go hungry at some time each month.

The Bay-Lakes Council effort, now in its' fourth year, has netted 1.8 million cans of food collected locally in that time, and distributed it locally through community Food Pantries. The local "Good Turn" is credited with stocking dozens of food banks with enough food for several months last year.

While the Scouts "Good Turn" has been extremely successful, the root causes of hunger have not gone away, nor has the food pantries need been fully met, so the Scouts will undertake their fourth Scouting For Food project this November.

Scouts will distribute bags to individual homes in neighborhoods Saturday, November 3. The following Saturday, November 10, they will return to pick up the bags, which they are asking residents to fill with canned goods and nonperishable items, and place outside their doors by 9:00 a.m.

James Winget, District Project Chairman, encouraged everyone to participate in this community service and help feed the hungry.

Food will be taken to the local Food Pantries: Hartford, to the Hartford Food Pantry at the Recreation Center, 525 Main Street; Slinger, to the Slinger Food Pantry at St. Peter Catholic Church, 200 E. Washington Street; Allenton, Jackson, Kewaskum and West Bend to the Fullshelf Food Pantry at St. John Lutheran School, 899 S. Sixth Street, West Bend.

Co-Chairmen of the appeals are Bill Schmidt, Chairman of the Board of U.S. Oil, and John Borree, Senior Vice-President of Presto Products.

Child Injury and Abuse a Growing Problem

The recent death of a Washington County infant has once again brought to our attention the terrible spectre of child abuse. Due in large part to increased media attention and social awareness, reports of child abuse and neglect have exploded — both statewide and nationally — throughout the 1980's. From 1983 to 1988, reports of maltreatment increased 227 percent. Reports rose from 9,614 in 1983 to 31,370 in 1988. These numbers are truly alarming.

Governor Thompson appointed Lieutenant Governor Scott McCallum to head a task force on Trauma and Injury Prevention (TIP) for Wisconsin's children last year. The report of this task force was recently released. This year-long study has produced numerous recommendations, but it also recognizes that these recommendations are only the beginning.

One of the recommendations of the TIP task force is the creation of a Childhood Injury Prevention Advisory Committee. The task force did not have sufficient time to deal with all childhood injuries, particularly intentional injuries such as child abuse. It is hoped that a permanent Advisory Committee would follow-up on the TIP task force recommendations, as well as explore new methods to deal with the problem of child abuse.

Governor Thompson took the first step in the direction of preventing childhood injury when he signed into law 1989 Senate Bill 394, which creates an injury prevention grant program. These grants are to be used for establishing and maintaining injury prevention activities.

The TIP task force has made other recommendations to promote safety and prevent injury. These recommendations include: the development of uniform hospital discharge guidelines to include parental education on the safe transportation of children; increased enforcement of bicycle, ATV (All-Terrain-Vehicle), and snowmobile laws; encouraging the use of trigger locks by gun owners; promoting the installation of improved mirror systems on school buses; encouraging schools to replace old, dangerous playground equipment and surfaces (asphalt, concrete, etc.); and encouraging several community based safety programs. In all, 84 injury specific recommendations were made by the task force.

With implementation of several of the Task Force's recommendations, we can hopefully begin to lower the incidence of childhood injuries which claim the lives of almost 250 children in Wisconsin each year.

Much work remains to be done in the area of child abuse and neglect. Seventy percent of people in juvenile court have a history of abuse or neglect, and nearly eighty percent of prison inmates have such a history. This indicates that child abuse not only causes suffering to the children, but it can lead to other societal problems as these children grow to adulthood.

The next session of the Legislature will certainly have to deal with the issue of child injury and abuse. With continued efforts to combat child abuse, we may someday look forward to picking up the morning paper without reading about the senseless death of another child.

Hangovers occupy heads that weren't used the night before.

Valley Reports Earnings Increase

Valley Bancorporation today reported net income of $7.846 million for the quarter ended September 30, 1990, up from $7.738 million in the same period last year. Earnings per share of $.65 were unchanged from period to period. On a year to date basis, Valley earned $22.694 million or $1.89 per share versus $21.954 million or $1.85 per share in 1989.

Commenting on nine months results, Peter M. Platten, III, Valley's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "Overall, we are somewhat disappointed with our earnings growth although we continued to experience solid loan and deposit growth. We are also encouraged by the public's favorable response to our supermarket banking effort, with the opening of 9 locations since April of this year. Our core banking operations showed solid earnings growth while revenue from a nonbank income source, specifically our platform automation software subsidiary, did not develop as anticipated and contributed to our variance from plan." Platten further stated that Valley's credit quality improved during the third quarter in contrast to overall industry trends.

Platten said Valley's outlook for the balance of 1990 remains positive. "Barring a significant weakening in our regional economy," he said, "we expect increased earnings for the fourth quarter. We remain confident 1990 will be another record year for Valley although slightly below our targeted earnings."

Valley Bancorporation is the third largest bank holding company headquartered in Wisconsin. Valley currently serves Wisconsin through more than 100 banking offices with additional financial service companies engaged in leasing, insurance, data processing, software development and sales, trust service, brokerage and credit card servicing. The company's common stock is traded on the National Market System under the NASDAQ symbol VYBN.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

The big thermometers in front of Valley Bank remind us that the 1990 United Way of Washington County fund drive is underway. My heartfelt thanks to those of you who have contributed so far. Our very ambitious county goal of $685,000 is within reach...but only if everyone does his or her part.

This is the second year since the merger of the Kewaskum and Washington County United Ways. I am happy to report that we are having our best year ever, and involving new people at many different levels.

The real beneficiaries of your donations are the thousands of people in Washington County who will be helped in 1991, thanks to you. Our theme, "Touch a Life - The United Way" reflects how effective your gift is in helping families, friends and neighbors.

No other charitable organization can offer so much to so many people. Local community volunteers raise the funds, review agency needs, and determine how those funds should be distributed.

If you haven't made your 1990 donation or pledge yet, you can mail it to the United Way of Washington County, P.O. Box 304, West Bend, WI 53095. One in four county residents served by 30 agencies are counting on your support.

Thank you,
LARRY MARTIN,
Kewaskum United Way
Division Chairman

WB Christmas Parade Seeks Musical Groups

The sound of jingle bells and the aroma of hollyberry is getting stronger at meetings of the West Bend Christmas Parade at the Chamber of Commerce offices. The committee is setting the stage for the annual event heralding the arrival of Santa Claus and the kickoff of the holiday season.

The theme, A MAGICAL, MUSICAL HOLIDAY, provides the setting for the parade. The committee, headed by Bernie Koenig, is looking for area participation to help make this year's parade bigger and better. "Music is an important part of any parade," according to Koenig. Many comments following previous parades include asking for us to include more music. The committee asks any musical group, vocal or instrumental, to consider being part of the parade. The committee is ready to assist groups to adapt their musical talents to a mobile mode. For more information about the parade, call the Chamber office, 338-2666.

Local Survey to Show Hearing Health of Kewaskum

Rock music and city traffic can take their toll on our hearing.

But so can lawnmowers, hair dryers, power tools, and other everyday appliances. Because most hearing loss happens gradually, the Beltone Hearing Aid Service Center of Kewaskum is sponsoring a community-wide healthy hearing survey to uncover the incidence of hearing loss in the community. Each survey participant will be screened for hearing loss, the results tabulated, and a profile of the hearing health of Kewaskum residents compiled. The data also will be tabulated nationally by the Beltone Electronics Corporation in Chicago, so Kewaskum residents will see how their hearing levels compare on a national basis. "There is so much environmental noise affecting our hearing," explained Debrah Hoops, a licensed Beltone hearing aid specialist. "If we can conduct this test every couple of years, our local government will have a clear picture of the gradual effects of noise pollution. Ordinances on car stereo volume, and controlling the noise levels in restaurants and bars may be able to save future generations from early hearing loss," she added.

The community-wide hearing survey is based on the hearing screening and test results of Kewaskum area adults over 50. Participants will receive a copy of their audiogram (hearing test) results for their medical files. There is no charge for the program. Because hearing screenings may take 30 minutes, appointments are recommended. For more information or to make an appointment, call the Beltone Hearing Aid Service Center at Kewaskum Pharmacy, 927 Fond du Lac in Kewaskum at (414) 626-4222.

Kids Home Alone: Coping with Fear

By Melanie Yager, Extension Summer Home Economist

Children at home alone may be afraid of real dangers or imagined dangers. Imagine how a child would feel if he/she heard the frightening commotion of an unbalanced load in the clothes dryer for the first time. Or what if there is a large, strange dog in the yard? Children need to talk about their fears to help them sort out what is real danger, what is possible danger and what is scary but not dangerous.

Parents must acknowledge the child's feelings. We know we do not need to be afraid of small mice or worms, but to the child, the fear is very real. Parents must not laugh at the child's fears, because the child may quit talking about those feelings. Then, the child will hold in his/her feelings, never share them with the parent, and their feelings will only grow worse!

There are three things a parent can do to help deal with fear: educate the child, discuss what the child should do when the child is alone, and plan ahead to limit the child's time and activity to prevent fear and boredom.

A child may be afraid when there is no real danger. We often see this when children hide from costumed trick-or-treaters at Halloween. The costumes cause no danger, but the children perceive danger. Children may be afraid of basements, closets or any other areas where parents or siblings have said the areas are dark and scary. Many children and adults can remember running and jumping into a bed because they thought a monster or alligator was under the bed. Even though the danger is not real, children feel the danger is real. Parents should show the child that costumes come off, that lights on in rooms show the room is safe, and there is nothing under the bed!

What should your child do when he/she feels afraid when home alone? Phoning the parent is an option, but many parents cannot take calls at work. Other options may include phoning a neighbor or relative, leaving the home to visit a neighbor or friend, or playing outdoors. For some children, digging into an activity such as a game, hobby or TV show, may take their minds off the things they are afraid of. Adults need to be very sensitive to the issue of fear, because many school aged children who feel afraid are too embarrassed to say, "I am afraid." They may say such things as, "I do not want to stay home," or "I do not have anything to do," or "I want someone to play with." Children are more likely to feel afraid when they are lonely.

Boredom and loneliness often go along with fear. To prevent these feelings, children may have special hobbies to work on, music lessons to practice, or after school clubs such as Cub Scouts or Brownies or an art club to participate in.

A child should not stay in a situation where he/she feels fear often. That child should not stay home alone after school. Any parent who has a child in "self-care" should be very sensitive about the issue of fear because it is often hard for kids to express that problem. Watch for other behavior that might indicate fear.

Spiders: The Original Trick or Treaters

Atlanta — Halloween brings images of goblins, witches and cobwebs, but according to Orkin Pest Control, those cobwebs can become all too real as the weather cools off and fall gets into full swing.

Spiders become more active in the crisp fall weather as many of these arachnids move indoors searching for shelter from the cold. Although most species in the United States are not dangerously poisonous, having them in one's home can be quite a nuisance.

"An abundance of spiders in your home can mean they're breeding there," said Judy Donner, consumer specialist or Orkin Pest Control. "A single egg sac can hold hundreds of young spiders, and in no time at all they're spinning their webs throughout your house."

While the majority prefer a diet of insects like mosquito, and roaches, different species enjoy different types of living space. Some prefer moist areas and are attracted to water sources such as pipes, floor drains and air conditioning units. Others like it dry and move into upper corners of rooms, air vents, attics and even clothing.

Spiders spin webs to catch their prey, which becomes entangled and then consumed. The web can be spun almost anywhere and it is often so fine it's not noticed until it is abandoned and becomes covered with dust.

Though all spiders have poison glands, most are harmless and typically do not bite unless aggravated. However, homeowners should be cautious if they cannot identify the type of spiders in their home. Two species, black widow and brown recluse, have a lot of venom in their glands and while their bite is seldom fatal, victims may experience fever and nausea as well as slight swelling in the bite area. Small children, elderly people and individuals with allergic reactions to the venom are much more vulnerable and without proper medical attention they can become very ill or die.

According to Orkin, knocking down and vacuuming up the spider webs and egg sacs, screening windows, sealing cracks and keeping doors closed when possible are a few preventive steps to take to spider-proof a home. "Our goal is to keep them outdoors in their environment and prevent them from invading yours," said Donner. "One of the reasons Orkin's Perimeter Defense System is so popular (treating a home's exterior, under eaves and around windows and doors) is because it discourages spiders from spinning their webs in areas where they also have easy access to the inside of your home."

Orkin is the world's largest pest and termite control company, which also provides lawn care and landscaping services. Its parent company, Rollins, Inc., is listed on the New York Stock Exchange and is headquartered in Atlanta.

UWWC Record Enrollment

Enrollment at the University of Wisconsin Center - Washington County is at its second highest level since UWWC opened in 1968. As of October 1, the total number of individuals enrolled was 830 and the FTE (full-time equivalency) was 642 students.

Total enrollment this fall is up 5% compared to fall 1989, and FTEs are up 1% compared to last year. Both Acting Students Service Director Jan Ford and Dean Joel Rodney credit the growing institutional reputation of the University of Wisconsin Centers System as part of the reason for enrollment growth at UWWC and all the 13 UW Centers. This year's UW Centers FTE enrollment increased by 5% over last year. The total number of FTE students is at an all time high of 8,280.

Rodney also points to UWWC's favorable local reputation. "Students are fast realizing that UWWC is a fine place to learn," says Rodney. He cites small class sizes, professors teaching courses (versus the common practice of graduate students teaching courses on larger campuses), economics, (there has been no tuition increase at UWWC for three years), and the proven success of UWWC graduates once they transfer, as four main reasons UWWC continues to experience enrollment growth.

The highest enrollment level at UWWC occurred in 1988 when total enrollment was 856. The FTEs for 1988 however were under the record 642 FTEs enrolled this semester. According to Ford, UWWC's retention rate is strong which adds another positive enrollment dimension.

1991 Tree Seedling and Shrub Applications Available

MADISON, WI — Application forms are now available for ordering tree seedlings and wildlife shrubs from the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources for delivery in the spring of 1991, said Trent Marty, nursery coordinator for the department's Bureau of Forestry.

One-, two- and three-year-old hardwood and conifer seedlings are available, as are a variety of wildlife food shrubs like hazelnut, wild plum, crabapple, ninebark, highbush cranberry and silky dogwood.

Landowners who want to buy forest tree nursery stock from the department must adhere to a number of regulations," Marty said. "And a minimum order of 500 tree seedlings is required."

The forestry stock must be used for growing forest products, game food or cover, controlling soil erosion, or establishing windbreaks or shelterbelts. Purchasers cannot give the stock away or use it for decorative, ornamental, Christmas tree, or landscaping purposes.

Landowners are encouraged to order trees as soon as possible because of the demand for nursery stock. Applications are available from any DNR office, or by writing to: Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, Bureau of Forestry, P.O. Box 7921, Madison, WI 53707.

MATCHING SUIT is Latest Lottery Scratch and Win Game

Wisconsin Lottery officials launched the new Matching Suit scratch and win game October 18th and 19th, with one of the most ambitious public information efforts in the Lottery's history.

"This game offers a play format Wisconsin players have not seen before, so we scheduled public information events in ten Wisconsin cities over two days," Lottery Executive Director William F. Flynn, Jr. explained.

"Players win prizes of as much as $2,000 by matching 'Your Suit' with the 'Dealer's Suit' on a Matching Suit ticket.

"If, for example, scratching the latex off the 'Dealer's Suit' reveals a diamond, a player wins one or more prizes for each 'Your Suit' space that has a diamond.

"The tickets use conventional playing card symbols for spades, clubs, hearts and diamonds, and will often pay a winner more than one prize, in fact about 25 percent of the winning tickets in Matching Suit will pay two prizes," Flynn noted.

Matching Suit is the 19th scratch and win game offered by the Wisconsin Lottery since September 14, 1988.

"People play the scratch and win games more than any other lottery product line because, I believe, we offer games that are fun to play.

"Of the four scratch and win games currently on the market, each offers a different play style and prize structure.

"Matching Suit, of course, pays prizes for matching 'Your Suit' with the 'Dealer's Suit.'

"Tic-Tac-Toe pays up to $3,000 instantly to players who have three X's or three O's in a row on a single ticket.

"$1,000 Football pays up to $1,000 every time 'Your Score' beats 'Their Score.'

"The Money Game ticket, meanwhile, offers players the best odds to get on our weekly television show and have a chance to win more than $50,000," Flynn continued. Money Game uses the most popular instant scratch game format, match three, and has the best odds of winning prizes in the $20-$25 range.

Flynn estimated about 425 million scratch and win tickets have been played since the lottery began.

"Currently, we sell more than 360,000 scratch and win tickets per day, on the average," Flynn said.

Any Wisconsin Lottery instant scratch ticket can be a winner as a Home Player. Simply send five non-winning Wisconsin Lottery instant scratch tickets to Home Player, Madison, Wisconsin 53775.

Moms, Dads and Kids...

Time Needed to Grow Together

By Melanie Yager, Extension Summer Home Economist

The bond between parents and children can be strengthened by spending time together in ways that are enjoyable and meaningful to all. Through parent-child activities and time spent together, children feel a sense of self-worth as family members. The parents can show their children they are interested in each one, and love each one.

Getting this "quality time" together takes some planning. One must choose an activity the child enjoys. Some children will enjoy shopping with a parent, while others won't. Family tasks and housekeeping tasks may be enjoyed together. Many children enjoy helping fix dessert, for example. Games and outings create fun also.

A "quality time" ceases to be just that when the child becomes bored, tired, or restless. Younger children need a different type of involvement with their parents than do older children who have longer attention spans.

Children and parents need time together just to talk. This can be done easily while riding in the car, if the parent makes an effort to use the time to show concern about and interest in each child.

Time together may be a time for learning, or it may be time for laughter or recreation. Parents may choose a variety of educational games or activities to pursue with their children, and should balance these with fun times of exercising the family's muscles and using the children's imaginations and senses of humor.

Not all "quality time" needs to be planned. Parents should watch the activities children initiate in their play or their hobbies. Parents can then join in and share those activities, use them as topics for conversation, and build the child's self-esteem by making positive comments about the activities.

Some interesting ways of spending meaningful time with children may include shopping for school clothes and supplies, preparing a fresh, garden vegetable such as corn-on-the-cob, attending nature walks in area parks, or working a puzzle together. Parents may want to start a log of how their time was spent with their children. At the end of the day, write down how parent and child engaged in activities together, and note the activities that the child particularly liked. Set goals for how time can be spent together in the future. Ask the children what special activities they would like to do with their parents - then take time to enjoy those activities with the children in the warm summer days before school starts.

Six Inductees For Rock River Hall of Fame

Six new members will be inducted into the Rock River League's Hall of Fame on Saturday evening, Nov. 3, at the Mayville Golf Club.

Five from a slate of 10 nominees were to be elected this year, but a tie for fifth allows for six in another close election.

Mail ballots from the league's Oldtimers' Association, which sponsors the Hall, were counted last week by Pres. Carl Heimerl, Jackson, and Sec.-Treas. Bud Bellon, West Bend.

To be inducted are: Chuck Erdman, Jr., 51, of Jacksonville, IL; a swift southpaw hurler who started at Rubicon in 1956 at age 16, starred there for nine seasons, with six at Neosho and one at Slinger. In 1962, the year of the league's great lefties, Erdman completed the greatest 27-inning pitching performance in Rock River history, shutting out first Slinger and Don Held, then Randolph and John Westmas twice in consecutive playoff games.

A pair of Mayville residents, righthand pitcher Dean Wilderman, 51, and strong arm centerfielder Emil Baerwald, began their distinguished Rock careers at Horicon, then were instrumental in Mayville's Northern division pennants.

Don Gourlie, Sr., 52, Mayville, dedicated 20 years to Rock River home talent baseball as a second baseman and manager of the LeRoy Royals.

Harvey Vocks of Mercer, WI, is the grand daddy of the inductees. He was known as "Mr. Lightning" during Juneau's 1940-50's era. A consistent .350-.370 hitter and dangerous base stealer, infielder Vocks still has cleat marks to show for his refusal to give ground to any baserunner sliding high into second.

Francis "Fritz" Goebel, 45, of rural Eden, is the "baby" of the bunch. He had 21 Rock seasons, 17 at Long Lake and two each with Eden and Brownsville from 1963 thru '83. A right hand throwing, left hand batting pitcher, first baseman and outfielder, Goebel led the league in total hits five times, was among its top 10 batters seven times and once homered three times in a game.

New DSR Soybeans Bring Yield and Disease Resistance

Dairyland Seed has added three new DSR soybeans to our already strong lineup for 1991. The three DSR soybeans cover a maturity range from Group 0 to Group III.

DSR-045 is an early Group 0 maturing two days earlier than DSR-070. DSR-045 shows a four bushel yield advantage over Ozzie based on three years of DSR research trials. DSR-045 also shows better yield and standability than Evans. It has an excellent field tolerance rating of 1.7 for phytophthora and a super iron chlorosis rating of 1.1. DSR-045 is even early enough that it can be planted in early summer after peas.

Our new DSR-208 is an early Group II which replaces DSR-204 in our lineup. DSR-208 has excellent standability and has outyielded DSR-204 by more than three bushels per acre in our research trials! DSR-208 has better standability and has outyielded DSR-204 by more than three bushels per acre in our research trials! DSR-208 has also outyielded BSR-101 by more than three bushels per acre. It features excellent phytophthora root rot tolerance with a rating of 1.5, has very good iron chlorosis tolerance with a rating of 2.5, and very good tolerance to brown stem. For those of you who like DSR-204, you should love DSR-208!

Our new DSR-308 is a special product for special conditions. DSR-308 was released by Dairyland Research specifically for your hot phytophthora root rot soils. DSR-308 features the necessary combination of traits you need for your low land. It features excellent emergence, excellent field tolerance and carries the Rps1c gene for race resistance to phytophthora root rot. DSR-308 will perform in soils where other varieties give out. For those of you who remember DSR-297, DSR-308 has the same kind of toughness, but has better standability and consistency. When you've got those tough soils or rough conditions, you can depend on DSR-308!

East Central/Select Sires Honors Bohlman

East Central/Select Sires recently honored Larry Bohlman of Eden, Wis., as the 1990 Direct Herdsman of the Year. Bohlman earned the award after selling 24,120 units of bull semen to dairy and beef producers in his Direct Herd area covering Washington County and sections of Ozaukee, Dodge and Fond du Lac counties. Since April 1989, he has boosted annual sales by 3,279 units.

Bohlman has served East Central/Select Sires customers for more than 22 years. Al Deming, director of marketing for East Central/Select Sires, says Bohlman's knowledge of the industry and integrity benefits the entire business. "Larry works closely with his producers and is out there to do more than sell semen. He works for the customer, striving to increase the producer's bottom-line profits. Larry's a tremendous asset to our members and the entire A.I. industry," comments Deming.

East Central/Select Sires is a professional, artificial breeding cooperative serving dairy and livestock producers in southern Wisconsin. As a member-owner of Select Sires, located near Plain City, Ohio, East Central helps make up the largest Artificial Insemination (A.I.) cooperative in the world.

New Vets Mortgage Money Available

(Madison) - State Veterans Affairs Board Chairman, Carole J. Vasarella, has announced Board approval of 8.25% as the rate of interest eligible Wisconsin veterans will pay for Department of Veterans Affairs Primary Mortgage Home Loans finances through the scale of 20 million dollars in General Obligation Bonds recently approved by the State Building Commission. Veterans taking advantage of the Department's Home Improvement Loan Program will also pay 8.25% interest.

Noting that prevailing conventional interest rates for 30-year fixed rate mortgages are in the 10% range, Vasarella said, "The WDVA Primary Mortgage Home Loan continues to be the best deal in town." Since the program's inception in 1974, the Department has made more than 43,600 primary mortgage loans to Wisconsin veterans totaling more than $1.4 billion. The loan program features no discount points, no prepayment penalty, no limit on retained assets and a fixed rate of interest. The current annual income limitation is $39,000.00.

Jean Harlow and Clark Gable appeared together in six movies during the 1930s. The first movie was, ironically, titled The Secret Six.

Kewaskum's professional resident artist Dan Gerhartz takes advantage of the fall colors to paint a scene in the Kettle Moraine. Gerhartz was found recently putting the finishing touches on a landscape scene along Hwy. 28, east of Kewaskum.

The twisted, mutant, five-fingered carrot on the left and 1 1/2 pound on the right were grown in the garden of Isabelle Muckerheide of Kewaskum.

ASCS Committee Elections to Be Held

Farmers are reminded that the county ASCS office is now receiving nominations for ASCS community committee election candidates. Gretchen S. Greidanus, County Executive Director, encourages farmers to use this opportunity to nominate their farm neighbors as candidates in the ASC committee election.

Ms. Greidanus said the ASC committee provides the important service of administering government farm programs in the local community. The election will be conducted by mail from November 23 to December 3. Eligible farm voters will be provided with instructions for filling out the secret ballot and returning it to the county ASC office.

Most resident farmers are eligible to hold office as ASC committee members. If a farmer would like detailed information concerning eligibility requirements, he or she should contact either a present committee member or the county ASCS office.

In filling out a petition, farmers should be careful to include the name of only one nominee, the signatures of at least three eligible ASC voters who support the nominee, and certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected. Petitions must contain this information to be accepted. The completed petition should be dated and mailed or hand-delivered to the county ASCS office no later than October 29, 1990.

ASC committee elections are open to all eligible ASC voters without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, handicap, or national origin. Ms. Greidanus explained that any farmer with an interest in serving fellow producers would be an asset to the ASC committee. For this reason, farmers are urged to petition for the farmers of their choice. The individual producer will benefit in the long run from a responsible, concerned team of ASC committee members in the local administration of U.S. government farm programs, Ms. Greidanus said.

Wisconsin has 309 dairy plants manufacturing one or more dairy products.

Hunters Reminded To Guard Against Lyme Disease

Hunters and other outdoor enthusiasts are reminded to continue taking tick-bite precautions throughout the fall to guard against contracting Lyme disease, advises Sarah Hurley, Department of Natural Resources wildlife health specialist.

"All life stages of the tick can over-winter under leaf litter and tree bark," said Hurley. "However, they become active whenever temperatures are above 40 degrees or so."

Both deer and wood ticks are found in Wisconsin. Deer ticks (also known as bear ticks) may transmit a bacteria that can cause Lyme disease. Animals and people can become infected with Lyme disease through a tick bite if the tick is imbedded in the skin for more than 48 hours.

"It's very important to check for ticks right away after you've been out in the woods or tall grass, and to remove them as soon as you find them," Hurley said. "Using a fine-tipped tweezers to grasp the tick, pull the tick straight out and then kill it."

Lyme disease symptoms can become progressively worse the longer the disease goes untreated. Within the first several weeks after infection, symptoms may include chills, nausea, headache, fever and, in 70 percent of the cases, an expanding red rash that can reach 20 inches in diameter. As the disease progresses it can cause damage to the heart, joints and the central nervous system. Lyme disease may be treated with antibiotics.

No matter what the season, the best precautions against Lyme disease include:

- * Using a tick repellent or insecticide containing permethrin or DEET;

- * Checking yourself and your pets for ticks every few hours while in the woods or tall grass;
- * Tucking pant legs into boots and wearing a long-sleeved shirt buttoned at the cuff.

According to Hurley, hunters would be wise to practice added precautions because they come in direct contact with animals that may be tick infested.

"Because ticks are looking for a living organism, they may crawl from dead game onto the hunter if they haven't begun to feed yet," she added.

Hunters who are concerned about Lyme disease transmission can wear impermeable gloves when cleaning game to avoid contact with Lyme-infected animal blood. Although rare, Hurley noted that laboratory studies have shown that Lyme disease bacteria can pass through broken skin.

However, the bacteria can't survive in cooked meat.

"The Lyme disease-causing bacteria are heat sensitive and will be killed when cooking or smoking the meat," Hurley said.

Moraine Park Offers Economic Services

One out of every eleven residents in the Moraine Park Vocational, Technical and Adult Education District - or one in five households - takes advantage of services provided by the college. But while servicing a sizeable and growing portion of the district's population, Moraine Park has remained a fiscally responsible public servant.

According to figures released in the college's 1990-91 budget document, Moraine Park's property tax increase has averaged 2.3 percent over the past three years. The Wisconsin Department of Revenue reports that the average increase in property taxes for all taxing authorities over the same period was 8.1 percent.

Audited annually, Moraine Park has never experienced a qualified audit which would indicate failure to comply with generally accepted accounting principles.

Since the 1985-86 fiscal year, the percentage of Moraine Park operating revenue dependent on property taxes has decreased from a high of 61 percent to 53 percent last year, while state aids has risen from 21 percent to 25 percent during the same period. Other sources of revenue come from tuition, other fees and federal aid.

Moraine Park relies on the third lowest operating mil levy in Wisconsin's 16-district VTAE system to help support its $23 million annual budget.

By law, a VTAE district in Wisconsin cannot have an operating mil levy higher than $1.50 per $1,000 of equalized valuation. Moraine Park's mil levy is $1.43. Only Madison Area Technical College and Waukesha Area Technical College, with larger tax bases, have lower mil rates.

For the second year in a row, Moraine Park has the lowest student loan default rate in the Wisconsin VTAE system. Moraine Park's default rate of 4.8 percent is a fraction of the national average of 15.6 percent.

Moraine Park is continuing its tradition of sound fiscal management with its JOBS 2000 facilities expansion project. The stated $13.8 million cost of the project is really a spending ceiling and covers all construction, landscaping, furniture, parking lots and equipment. The estimated $340,000 in additional operating costs will be more than offset by proportional increases in state aids.

Robert W. Baird Co., the district's financial consultant, has worked closely with John Willis, Moraine Park's vice president for business and finance, to develop the details of a 15-year debt service budget necessary to fund the expansion. Over the life of the bond issue, the net tax impact to district taxpayers would be an additional ten and two-thirds cents per $1,000 of equalized valuation each year.

The planned additions and remodeling to all three Moraine Park campuses in Beaver Dam, Fond du Lac and West Bend are designed primarily to allow for expansion of current programs that have growing enrollments, new programs to provide skilled workers needed by local industries and various student services.

The Moraine Park Vocational, Technical and Adult Education District covers 129 municipalities and 2,450 square miles of territory within 10 counties. It serves a population that totals more than 250,000.

Moraine Park's more than 19,000 full- and part-time students represent a cross-section of the population within the district. The average age of a Moraine Park student is 31. In recent years, women have been attending the college in larger numbers; they comprised 52 percent of the student body last year.

Dean All-Conference And All-District

PLATTEVILLE — Gregg Dean, former Kewaskum High School golf standout, and currently a member of the UW-Stout golf team, has been named to the Wisconsin State University Conference All-Conference and All-District golf teams.

Dean, a sophomore at Stout this fall, finished in the top ten at the Conference golf meet held here at Spring Green Golf Course recently. Dean shot a 76-80-81 for a three-round total of 237. That tied him with UW-Stout teammate Todd Watkins for sixth place in Conference, and 9th place in the district. The top ten golfers from each make the first teams.

Paced by Dean's and Watkins' efforts, the UW-Stout team finished sixth among the conference schools, and fourth among district schools. UW-Eau Claire won the conference teamtitle, while UW-Parkside won the district title.

Despite some nasty weather conditions, which included temperatures in the upper 30's and some rain and sleet as well, Dean managed to shoot just six strokes off the pace of conference champion Scott Friday of UW-LaCrosse.

"I played real well," said Dean from his apartment in Menomonie. "The weather was terrible. I couldn't feel my hands on the last three holes," he said, leading him to a bogey and a pair of double bogeys on the final three holes.

"The course was very competitive," he said of the Spring Green layout, which is the home course of the UW-Platteville squad. "I knew that this was the biggest meet of the year and I had to do something big. I knew I had to come through for both the team and myself."

Dean, who played the number one position this fall, says he wasn't satisfied with his past season's performance, in which he had a 79.3 average, good enough to be in the top ten of fifteen in conference.

"I didn't have a very good season," he said. "I really didn't putt very well this year. If I could have averaged 36 putts per round (of 18), I would have done a lot better. I'm really looking forward to spring," when the spring golf season begins, he said.

Natural Resources Board Approves Extended Deer Season

MADISON, WI — The Natural Resources Board has approved a seven-day extension to the gun deer season in 67 deer management units as a solution to reduce a deer herd numbering approximately 1.3 million animals statewide, said Bill Ishmael, DNR's deer, bear and furbearer ecologist.

The Natural Resources Board, the policy-making board governing the Department of Natural Resources, approved the extended season at its meeting in Wausau on Thursday, Sept. 27.

The proposal the Natural Resources Board approved includes:

1. A seven-day, antlerless - only season extension for 67 deer management units immediately following the close of the regular nine-day season, beginning Monday, Nov. 26 and running through Sunday, Dec. 2.

2. The extended season open to those hunters possessing unfilled Hunter's Choice permits (these will be valid for antlerless deer only during the season extension), bonus tags or disabled hunter permits for those extended units.

All deer killed during the extended season must be tagged with one of these permits and registered as usual. Group hunting will be allowed.

3. Firearm restrictions the same as required during the regular season.

4. Bowhunters hunting in an extended-season deer management unit on the opening weekend of the late bow season (Dec. 1-2) will have to wear blaze orange.

5. The season closure for hunting coyotes in northern Wisconsin extended to include the seven-day, antlerless-only season.

6. Raccoon hunting will be allowed during the extension.

7. All deer harvested during the regular nine-day gun deer season must be registered by 5 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 26.

8. All deer harvested during the extended season must be registered by 5 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 3.

9. A two-day, either - sex season is established for deer management units 59D and 61 on the last two days of the regular nine-day gun deer season (Saturday, Nov. 24 and Sunday, Nov. 25). Firearm restrictions are the same as normally allowed during the final two days of the regular season.

The Deer Management Units slated for extension include Units 1 through 20; Unit 22, Units 23-28; Units 29A and 29B; Units 30 through 47; Units 49A and 49B; Units 50; Units 51A and 51B; Unit 52; Units 57 and 57B; Unit 58; Units 59A, 59C and 59D; Unit 61; Unit 62B; Unit 63A; and Units 66, 68, 70, 72, 78, 80 and 81 (see the map on the next page).

Indians Win Volleyball Regional

SHEBOYGAN FALLS — Despite losing its first two games of the day, the Kewaskum girls volleyball team captured the Sheboygan Falls Regional championship here, last Saturday afternoon.

After losing their first two games to Plymouth, the Indians came back to beat Waupun and Sheboygan Falls, and then had to wait and sweat out Waupun's match with Plymouth before winning the regional.

"At the end of the second round of play, everybody was 1-1," Indian coach Dave Rizzardi said regarding the meet. "We knew we had to rely on someone else if we wanted to go (on to sectionals). Waupun had to beat Plymouth for us to go on."

And so the Indians, who finished 3-1 in the meet, sat and watched as Plymouth won the first game with Waupun rather easily, and then took a 14-8 advantage in the second game.

But Waupun came back to top the Panthers in game two, winning 16-14, and then won the back and forth third game, sending the Indians into next week's Sectional meet at Shorewood.

In Kewaskum's opening match against Plymouth, the Indians came out flying, as they took an early lead in the first game, which wound up going back and forth. Plymouth, however, came back and won the opener 16-14.

"It was like a bubble bursting," said Rizzardi, whose team promptly lost the second game to the Panthers, 3-15. "We came out really pumped up in the first game...really emotional. Maybe it was too much adrenaline, because we seemed to lose that edge (after losing)."

During the break between rounds, however, the Indians regrouped and came out against their second-round opponent, Waupun, and played solid ball. The Indians downed the Warriors in two straight games, 15-12, 15-11.

"We really did a nice job in those games," Rizzardi said of the Waupun matchup. "They had a lot of height and some good blockers. It was a good match against a team that we didn't know anything about." Waupun is a member of the Little Ten Conference.

"Nicole Doherty did an excellent job," said Rizzardi, reported that she had 11 points in the match. "Rachelle Zuehlke was consistent as well," he added, also noting that Tisha Stradtman had 14 assists in the two games.

That set up a showdown between the Indians and Sheboygan Falls, which came into the meet as undefeated champions of the Eastern Wisconsin. The match was as close as it can get, with the Indians prevailing in both games by close margins of 16-14, 16-14.

"That was an unbelievable match...our toughest match of the day by far," said Rizzardi, who was really looking forward to his team's rematch with the Falcons. "It was just a heckuva match. It was probably our best match of the year, at least as far as statistics go."

Rizzardi reported that Nicole Doherty had a season-high 21 points, including 14 spike kills and 6 tip kills. "She really dominated the match," the KHS mentor said, also adding that Stradtman once again led the team in assists, this time with an all-time high of 21.

The Indian coach also pointed to the efforts of Stacey Heberer as being a key to the Indians 3-1 record on the day. "Stacey did just a great job serving," Rizzardi said, noting that Heberer had 32 serves on the day without a miss. "That was really nice to see. That really gave us some consistency in an area that we've been having problems in all year."

Heberer got her big opportunity to contribute partly due to the fact that starter Christa Schmidt sprained her ankle the week before during practice. Rizzardi did not comment on whether Schmidt would be able to return for Sectionals.

"The girls were really happy...they did a great job," said Rizzardi, who said it was at least the fourth regional championship for the Indians since he's been coach. "I think they are really coming around at just the right time."

Hopefully he's right, as it doesn't get any easier the rest of the season. The Indians will open play at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, as they will face New Berlin West in the first round, Westosha, which was formerly Salem Central High School, in the second round, and then host Shorewood in the third round. The best overall record in the meet will advance to state, which will be held at UW-Oshkosh the following week.
