Village Okays Electrical Updating For River Hill Park Buildings

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board approved the recommendation of its Parks Committee to spend approximately $2,800 of budgeted funds to update electrical service in two buildings at River Hill Park.

Committee Chairman Tom McElhatton told fellow trustees $454 has been targeted for modifications in the Hamburger Stand and another $2,200 to improve and increase service in the Ice Cream Stand. McElhatton said the Ice Cream stand had been having service problems and the renovating was badly needed.

In other action the board approved the appointment of Mark Vechart to complete the unexpired trusteeship of Mary Krueger who has assumed the duties of interim board president until the spring election.

Krueger will be running for the post of president in the April election and Vechart will be seeking a full term on the board along with incumbent Bob Beisbier and write-in challengers Robert Wagner and Brian Petermann.

In a re-assignment of committee positions due to the board changes, McElhatton was appointed chairman of the Finance Committee replacing Krueger. Vechart was appointed to the Public Works and Public Service Committees, Gary Gavin to the Plan Commission and McElhatton to the Board of Review.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt informed the board the village may be eligible for a recycling grant amounting to around $10,000. The board authorized Schmidt to proceed with the grant application.

Schmidt also noted he had completed a county survey regarding a countywide "Clean Sweep" program. He said the county was looking at a fall program.

The board acknowledged receipt of a petition for annexation affecting seven properties on the northern edge of the village limits.

The board approved ordinances regarding the $25 minimum snow shoveling charge and an increase in mileage allowance for village business related travel.

The board also approved a resolution to proceed with engineering work to extend sewer and water lines to the former Honeck Truck lot property at 890 Fond du Lac Avenue on the southern edge of the village.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel informed the board that he is working with the Junior Woman's Club to establish a McGruff safe house program. "We hope to have the program up and running before school is out," stated Knoebel.

The department will also start its DARE programs for the village's public and private elementary schools next week.

Knoebel also advised the board the new squad car is expected to arrive the first week of February.

The board then adjourned to closed session.

Write-In Candidate for School Board Election

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The School District Administration Office has confirmed that there will be a second candidate for the spring Kewaskum Board of Education Election.

Ray Engelking, 8150 Forest View Road, Kewaskum, has signed the necessary documents formalizing his candidacy for a seat on the board. However, because Engelking announced his intention to run for the school board after the January 2nd filing deadline, his name will not appear on the ballot. All electors wishing to cast their vote for him will have to write his name on the ballot.

The only name that will officially appear on the ballot will be that of incumbent Neal Weare, who presently serves as board president.

Washington County Records First Traffic Fatalities of 1991

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A two-car accident late Tuesday night, January 15, claimed the lives of two men. The accident occurred at 11:19 p.m., on Highway 33, 2/10ths of a mile east of Town Line Road, in the Town of Barton.

According to a Washington County Sheriff's Department spokesperson, the accident occurred during a snowstorm. John M. Crossman, 27, of 338 Marquette Street, Fond du Lac, was driving eastbound on Hwy. 33, when he lost control of his vehicle and slid into the westbound lane where it was hit broadside by a westbound car driven by Sherry L. Hoffmann, 19, of 623 Church Street, Allenton.

Crossman and a passenger in his car, Barry B. Knoelke, 34, of 828 Main Street, Lomira were killed. Hoffmann was transported to St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend, suffering from chest injuries.

The storm and slippery road conditions were said to have been significant contributing factors in the accident.

Koelke was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Knoelke, Rt. 2, Campbellsport.

Village Board Considering Sewer Utilities Rate Hike

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At its meeting Monday night, the Kewaskum Village Board unanimously approved the preparing of documents to implement a rate increase for its sewer facilities service.

In discussion prior to the approval, Chris Abrahamson of Ruckert & Mielke, Inc., the village's engineers, explained how he had reviewed the Water Pollution Control Department's 1991 budget and broken down its expenditures in percentages relative to the areas accountable for specific costs.

In concluding his presentation, which included two alternate proposals on sewer user charges, Abrahamson recommended a revision in the village's ordinance reducing discharge limits and the addition of a Facilities Charge. "My understanding is your rates have not increased in three years," stated Abrahamson. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt noted it was actually going on four years.

Abrahamson told the board most communities prefer to have some annual increases to meet expenditures. "What everyone wants to avoid is roller coaster rates." He recommended the village look at a rate that would provide revenues to meet expenditures plus generate $30,000 to $70,000 in surpluses.

Abrahamson reminded the trustees the village is looking at modifications for the sewage treatment plant including the construction of a sludge storage facility. "Oconomowoc recently constructed a storage facility at a cost of a half-million dollars," he stated, "and estimates for other facilities are running between $250,000 and $500,000." The build-up of surplus funds would help the village meet those costs, noted Abrahamson.

The proposal recommended would actually lower the per gallon flow charge for residential users. The increase in rates would come as a result of the implementation of a facilities charge amounting to $52.62 a year, divided over the four quarterly billing periods. Basically, the facilities charge for sewer service would be the same as the meter charge for water service.

Using a chart based on 1990 third-quarter sewer charges, Schmidt said the new rate would be $1.72 per 1,000 gallons as compared to the present rate of $2.18. The addition of the quarterly facilities charge of $13.15, however, is where the increase in rates would come in.

Using the third quarter figures, a resident discharging 10,000 gallons paid $21.80, at $2.18 per 1,000 gallons. Under the new proposal, that same resident would pay $36.34, 10,000 gallons at $1.72/1,000 gallons equalling $17.20, plus the $13.15 quarterly facilities charge, resulting in an increase of $8.54.

For residents using 15,000

KHS STUDENT OF THE MONTH

-January 1991-

HEATHER KULCINSKI

Heather was nominated and subsequently selected as the student of the month for January based on her initiative and contributions. She is a self-motivated and hard-working student. Heather was solely responsible for painting a mural of Don Quixote in one of the classrooms and being an important part of a multi activity mural painted in a hallway.

She also exhibits outstanding initiative in and out of class. Heather often times uses her study hall to do extra work in the Design class. She's also given up vacation time to complete a window display for her class and school.

gallons, the present charge is $32.70. The new rate would result in a quarterly flow charge of $25.78, plus the $13.15 facilities charge, for a total quarterly charge of $38.93 an increase of $6.23.

The 20,000 gallon figures, $43.60 present charge, proposed $34.37 flow, $13.15 facilities charge, total $47.52, an increase of $3.92.

For residents using 25,000 gallons, the third quarter charge was $54.40. Under the new plan, the flow charge would be $42.96, plus $13.15 quarterly facilities charge for a new rate of $56.11, up $1.60 over the present rate.

In other business related to the treatment plant, Schmidt said he had some good news. In another letter from Ruckert & Mielke, he had been informed the company had determined the village would not need a full scale Facilities Plan done for modifications of the plant. "We've been advised that a 'Needs Survey' would be adequate and acceptable by the DNR," said Schmidt.

What that means is the time frame for the report's completion is four to six weeks and the cost will be $2,000. "Had the village been required to go with the Facilities Plan," noted Schmidt, "we could have been looking at a cost of anywhere from $10,000 up to $30,000, or possibly even more and a time frame of over a year to complete the study."

After completing the necessary paperwork for rate and ordinance changes, the proposal will be returned to the board for a public hearing and formal approval. If all goes smoothly, the new rate could go into effect for the first quarter of 1991.

Holy Trinity to Celebrate Catholic Schools Week

The week of January 27th through February 3rd has been designated as Catholic Schools Week.

During this week, each Catholic School nationwide is involved in celebrating their Catholic School. This year's activities are organized around the theme "Catholic Schools: A Kaleidoscope of People." The Archdiocesan slogan is "Catholic Schools: For the Course They Take Tomorrow."

Each day of Catholic Schools Week, students at Holy Trinity School will be involved in some all-school activity.

On Sunday, January 27, and Saturday and Sunday, February 2 and 3, special Mass celebrations are being planned around the school families and Catholic Schools Week.

The first all-school Science Fair will be displayed for viewing in the Holy Trinity Parish Hall after all Masses on Saturday, January 26, and Sunday, January 27.

On Monday, January 28, there will be no school for students, but teachers will be busy on the (dreaded) report cards and setting up the Book Fair for the week.

Tuesday, January 29, will be spent putting the finishing touches on displays. Students will share with their classmates their "Family Boxes" during a special "Show and Tell" activity. Shoe boxes are being created by each school family. The boxes are being wrapped with the family name written on the outside. The inside of the box will contain symbols of each family member. At an all-school mass on Friday, students will build a wall representing Holy Trinity with the "bricks" (family boxes).

Wednesday, January 30, will be TWINS DAY. Students and teachers may dress up as "twins." This will also be Little Buddy, Big Buddy projects for the students to work on. These projects will be something special for Valentine's Day, and will be made for the elderly who reside in area retirement centers.

Thursday, January 31, has been designated as Parent's Day. All parents are invited to an Open House where they can visit classrooms and join their children for lunch. They can also see a school play at 1:30 in the church basement.

School activities will be the highlight at an all-school mass being held on Friday, February 1. The Holy Trinity Family Wall will be built with the special "bricks" made by each school family.

Teachers, students and family members of Holy Trinity are enthusiastic about Catholic Schools Week and the making of a new memory together.

FEMA Monies Available

For the third year, the United Way of Washington County has been designated as a recipient of funds from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). A total of $13,111.11 has been awarded and will be distributed to local agencies who provide emergency shelter and food for the homeless in Washington County.

The monies are part of $134 million appropriated by Congress for the Emergency Food and Shelter Program in 1991.

The Local FEMA Board, chaired by United Way Executive Director Barbara Hurula, will convene later this month to determine how those funds should be distributed. Previously, St. Vincent DePaul, the two county Red Cross chapters, Friends of Abused Families and the Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse have used the funds to help people served by their agencies.

"The 1991 award represents a $2,000 increase over 1990 funding," said Hurula. "There is a growing need for these funds in our county each year. The local FEMA Board will determine how the funds will be distributed," she added. Local Board members represent United Way, the Department of Social Services, clergy, city and county government and other service providers.

Agencies interested in applying for funds should contact the United Way office at 338-3821 by January 25.

UNITED WAY: Over the Top!

John Dedrick, the 1990 United Way campaign chairman, has announced the final total for the 1990 campaign. "I am pleased to report that we have $689,820 in gifts and pledges," said Dedrick. "This exceeds our $685,000 goal by almost $5,000."

Dedrick candidly admits that it was a tough year. "In the past, we set higher than average goals and exceeded them by large percentages. This year, after looking at what our agencies needed and what the potential for giving was, we challenged our volunteers to raise 11 percent more than the 1989 goal of $610,000," he said. "And we were successful."

He continued, "Even though we extended the campaign by a month, we were confident that we could achieve and exceed our goal." How was it done? "My hat is off to the volunteers who kept working well past the November 8 deadline," said Dedrick. "Also, some key companies and individuals did their share to ensure our success," he added.

Donors will be honored at the annual United Way Reception in West Bend on March 6.

Sheriff Announces Promotions

Sheriff Robert H. Schulteis has promoted three members of the Corrections/Communications Division to the rank of sergeant.

The three are Peter E. Ritger (52) of the Town of Addison, Daniel J. Marx (39) of the Town of Farmington, and David R. Weske (39) of the Town of West Bend.

The sheriff indicated that there are now four sergeants supervising jail operations, bringing needed command and control to the division. One of the new positions was due to the retirement of veteran jail supervisor Robert W. Kratz, who retired January 13 after serving the department for more than 28 years.

FFA Leadership Workshop

On January 4 and 5, Jenny Degnitz and Rick Kreif attended the 1991 Wisconsin FFA Halftime Leadership Program for the chapter officers. They received information for assisting in directing the work of the local chapter throughout the remainder of the year.

The conference was conducted by the eleven State FFA Officers, led by the State President Joel Wondra of Sun Prairie. Individual work sessions included information on goal setting, membership activities, travel opportunities, public relations, and communication.

Over 250 members and advisors from better than 170 FFA chapters around the state participated in the workshop, which was held at the Holiday Inn and Holidome at Stevens Point. This was the largest such workshop held in Wisconsin.

The Wisconsin Association of FFA (formerly Future Farmers of America) serves students in Wisconsin's public schools, with interests in over 200 careers in agriculture and agribusiness. Over 15,000 members in 260 schools make up the Wisconsin Association, which is the sixth largest FFA in the nation.

I think Holy Trinity School is the best school in the world! You can learn more about God. My favorite subject is writing. Writing is fun because you can learn more. There are nice teachers, good food, a good principal, good everything and good friends.

By Nick Staehler - Grade 3
Why I like Holy Trinity School... I like some of the lunches. They give us a long recess. All the teachers are nice. I like the work we get. But recess is the best, and the teachers are more important than the recesses.

I like Holy Trinity School because we have a great principal and teachers and I am learning alot that I never knew. The cooks have good lunch, and they give us time to play so we can have fun. I like all these things because they help me be a better person.

By Missy Theusch - Grade 5
I like the way the teachers will help you. I also like the privileges we receive such as lockers, having a Science Fair, an Art Fair and lots of other activities. I like coming here because we can do fun things with learning.

By Mike Vogt - Grade 6
There are many reasons why I like Holy Trinity but I can only list a few. One of the reasons is the teachers aren't too hard on us except for assignments. The lunch is also very delicious and nutritious. Everyone is very helpful and tries to teach you new things especially in sports like basketball. I am also proud to play on Holy Trinity's basketball team because it shows us, or me, that winning isn't everything.

By Jenny Strobel - Grade 7
I like Holy Trinity School because we have many extra activities like basketball and cheerleading. We have many good teachers and all of them teach good. H.T.S. has a good music, art, phy ed and computer program for all the kids to learn. This school also has great students to be great friends with! Holy Trinity School is great!

By Sara Eckes - Grade 8
The reason I like Holy Trinity so much is because they care about us, not just if we are sick or hurt physically, but emotionally too. They also spend more individual time with a student if they are having trouble understanding some things. This school also gives the students here a good set of values like showing us to be kind, caring, helpful, unselfish and to share, but most of all to be honest. These values will follow us through the years. Besides values, it also gives us the chance to grow and expand mentally and physically through their academics and extracurricular activities.

HOT 7s Is First Scratch And Win Lottery Game of 1991

Wisconsin's first new lottery game in 1991 is the lottery's first "add 'em up" scratch and win game: HOT 7s, on sale at more than 5,000 retail locations statewide.

"HOT 7s is an exciting new game with a play format Wisconsin Lottery players have never seen before," Wisconsin Lottery Executive Director William F. Flynn, Jr. noted.

"HOT 7s is an 'add 'em up' game, which means that you win cash prizes when you add up your rolls of the dice and the total equals seven.

"Each HOT 7s ticket offers a player three chances to win and approximately 1 in 3 winning 'HOT 7s tickets win two prizes," Flynn explained.

"A player removes the latex covering over each 'roll' and if a 'roll' of two numbers equals seven, the player wins the prize amount for the winning roll," Flynn continued.

Prizes range from $1,000 to $1 in the game. Prizes of $1 to $32 may be claimed from the retailer selling the winning ticket or in person or by mail directly from the Wisconsin Lottery. $70 prizes may be claimed from any Wisconsin Lottery retailer with a MEGABUCKS/SUPERCASH! terminal or directly from the lottery, while $1,000 prizes are paid directly by the lottery.

"HOT 7s, as well as all of the scratch and win games presently offered by the Wisconsin Lottery, returns a generous 60 percent of sales to players as prizes, one of the highest paybacks among lotteries in the midwest. Adult Children.

"I think players will have fun with this new way to play the Wisconsin Lottery and win cash prizes," Flynn added.

Every HOT 7s ticket has a chance to be a winner, either as an instant winner or as a Wisconsin Lottery Home Player.

To enter the Home Player drawing each week, send five non-winning Wisconsin Lottery scratch and win tickets, make sure at least one ticket in each Home Player envelope is signed with your name, address and phone number on the back. Send Home Player entries to: HOME PLAYER, Madison, Wisconsin 53774.

Home Player entries not drawn each week are destroyed, so players should enter the drawing each week.

Five Home Players win cash prizes ranging from $3,000 to $750 on every MONDAY GAME television show.

By S. Callaway Roznik
Statesman Staff Writer

Fifth graders from Wayne and Farmington elementary schools were awarded for their "daring" during special school assemblies held on January 14 and 18th.

The students were recognized for concluding the project D.A.R.E. program (Drug Abuse Resistance Education), and the culmination of the 17 week program was a graduation ceremony complete with diplomas and lots of official handshakes.

On Friday parents and teachers along with students, gathered at Farmington, as the graduates presented a picture of what they'd learned through speeches, skits, and songs, including a rap song entitled "Dare to keep a kid off drugs."

Several skits, while making us laugh, also presented alternative consequences of "taking drugs" and "saying no to drugs."

Special guests of the ceremonies were Sheriff Robert Schulteis of Washington County, along with the high school role models comprised of Daniel Schulteis, Chris Wunsch, Tammy Troeller and Brenda Behling. Officers Brian Bausch and Steven Seitz were on hand to congratulate the students, and their pride was apparent.

Dare certificates were presented by teachers Mrs. Lider and Mr. Beske, along with Deputy Bausch.

Sheriff Robert Schulteis addressed the students as guest speaker, thanking everyone who made the program possible. He spoke of the success of D.A.R.E. in Los Angeles. "It takes a lot of cooperation to make this program work," and reminded the students to "practice what you've been taught."

D.A.R.E. began as a cooperative venture between the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles Unified School District in 1983. It is now taught in more than 1,000 classrooms in 49 states, Department of Defense Dependant Schools, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. It was adopted in the Kewaskum School District in August, 1990 as a joint effort of the school district and the Washington County Sheriff's Department.

The D.A.R.E. program will continue at St. Hubert's School, Friess Lake School, St. Kilian's in Hartford, St. John's in Newburg and St. Peter's in Slinger with the upcoming second semester.

Finding and Keeping Farm Employees

By Jack Trzebiatowski, Extension Agriculture Agent

Finding, hiring and keeping farm employees is becoming more difficult for many farm families. As farms have increased in size many farm families are not able to provide the labor needed for the business. The availability of qualified persons to work on farms is also declining as less people have the background and skills for today's complex farms. The employment situation in this area has been quite strong, resulting in competition from other areas for available employees.

The area of personnel management as it relates to finding and keeping employees is an area that may be new to many farm families. This makes the process more difficult.

The Washington County U.W. Extension Office is sponsoring a Managing Farm Labor program. The program will be held on Wednesday, January 30, 1991 at the Washington County Courthouse in West Bend. The program will start at 10:30 a.m. and conclude at 2:30 p.m.

The program will feature a number of topics related to finding, hiring and keeping farm employees. A survey was conducted in a number of counties to find out what kinds of wages, benefits and other considerations are currently being used for farm employees. The survey also addressed what employees and employers feel are important to develop a good working relationship. The result of this survey will be useful to employers and employees.

Other topics include: Wages and benefits paid, How to locate and attract quality help, Employment application review, Organizational structure, involving employees in decision making, Communicating with employees, Leadership styles and other topics. There will also be a panel of farmers to discuss how they manage and work with their employees.

This program would be useful for both employees and employers. It will also provide useful information for farm families who do not hire outside labor but make use of paid or unpaid family labor.

The program will be presented by Dr. John Ambrosius, farm management specialist with U.W. - Extension from the University of Wisconsin at Platteville and Jack Trzebiatowski, Washington County Agriculture Agent.

Persons planning to attend must preregister with the Washington County U.W. - Extension office by January 25th. Registration cost is $6.00 per person for the program and the noon meal.

The same program will be held at the Sheboygan County U.W. - Extension office on Tuesday, January 29th and at the Ozaukee County Courthouse on Thursday, January 31st.

TIME TO SMILE

"How are you this morning?"
 "All right,"
 "Well, you ought to notify your face."

Sheriff Schulteis Issues Phone Solicitation Alert

Washington County residents may receive a phone call from a person selling tickets to a concert featuring Bill Haley's Comets. The concert is sponsored by the union representing deputies in Ozaukee County.

Inquiries have been received by this agency from residents and business owners, who have reported that solicitors have claimed that the concert is co-sponsored or endorsed by the Washington County Sheriff's Department and that support of the concert would benefit the public.

The Washington County Sheriff's Department and the union representing its officers are in no way connected with the concert. Further, consumer protection authorities in Madison report that neither the Ozaukee union or its concert promoter are registered as charities, and claims by solicitors that charitable work will be done with the concert proceeds may be a violation of the law. The concert is a fundraiser for the Ozaukee deputy sheriffs' union.

The sheriff's department has asked the Ozaukee union to restrain the concert promoters from making these claims. Anyone who suspects that they have been victimized by deceptive advertising should contact their local law enforcement agency.

The Holy Trinity School children presented, "Let's Keep Christmas In Our Hearts" on December 18, 1990.

The songs of Christmas were directed by Mrs. Ellen Schmid. The pianists were Lori Schoofs and Betsy Schill. All the ornaments on the Christmas trees were made by the Holy Trinity students under the direction of their art instructor Sister Janet Heder.

All the students participated with the traditional Christmas songs, piano solos, flute quartet, recorder band, and the Orff band. The evening concluded with a live nativity scene and a community sing-a-long.

Meteorologist Brings Traveling Weather Show to Holy Trinity

Alan Sealls, meteorologist from Channel 4 visited Holy Trinity

The Traveling Weather Show visited Holy Trinity School on Wednesday, January 16. Alan Sealls, the meteorologist from Channel 4, talked with the students from grades three to eight.

He showed the students slides of the T.V. station, weather computers and instruments, storms and precipitation. They even viewed a film on tornadoes and reviewed weather safety precautions.

Mr. Sealls allowed time for questions, which the students really enjoyed. Holy Trinity students learned a great deal and they had a lot of fun too!

Letters to the Editor

Jan. 9, 1991

Letter to the Editor:

Due to the shortsightedness of a small number of residents of the Town of Farmington, the Public Hearing to present the plans for the Spa and Wellness facility has been postponed indefinitely. The personal prejudices of this small, selfishly motivated group and their unforgiveable tactics have penalized the other 2400 residents of the townships.

The merits and benefits of this facility have been totally disregarded. The information being discussed throughout the community indicating that a gambling casino was to be included in the spa is ludicrous. Wisconsin does not allow it — end of matter!!! Secondly, was the widespread rumor that a helicopter landing pad was to be included. It has been over four years since a helicopter pad was used on the site and it was stated publicly that there was no intention to return to this. In fact, private limousine service was to be available to the guests.

Mr. Pavalon may prefer seclusion but does that mean he is devious? NO! It means he is not a detriment to the community. He attempted to create something that everyone could be proud of and which would be of benefit to the Town of Farmington. He made every effort to meet the conditions of the town's zoning laws and to comply with every environmental concern. Those individuals who may feel they have beaten these developers are the real losers; they used false information to gather support against what promised to be an asset to the area.

The benefits of the development are best exemplified in the addition to the tax base. The spa would have a value of several million dollars without creating any additional burden on the schools - where the majority of local tax dollars is spent. To compare: a low estimate of a five million dollar spa facility would generate approximately $120,000 in tax income — with no demand for other services. On the flipside is the potential for residential development as current zoning would allow. An $80,000 house in Farmington pays $1950 in property taxes. One child from that house attending the local schools costs over $4400 to educate per year. If state aid is $1936 per student, then we can see that state aid (1936) plus the total property tax payment (1950) equals $3886, less than the amount needed to cover the cost of educating the one child. Multiply this by more children per household and more houses and we, the taxpayers, only realize increased taxes to subsidize these costs. Plus, this hasn't even taken into account the costs for bus transportation and other services that would be necessary for residential development.

It's sad when a few self-serving individuals can negatively impact such a project. It's also hypocritical when there is evidence that several of these same individuals have appeared before the Town Board in years past to request exceptions and permits for their personal property that are much more negative and detrimental to the neighborhood and the township. Examples of requests for this same area of the town include: creation of a public campground, and creation of a substandard lot in order to exploit the woodland tax followed by a request to lower the tax on the substandard lot! Another of these individuals called me at home in October, 1989, when the spa was initially proposed, and threatened to hire a lawyer and "sue our asses" (the Town Board). He then sent a letter demanding to know when the Town Board met but has never attended a meeting.

It is the role of the elected officials of this town or any other municipality to do what is best for all citizens. In this case, the democratic process has been usurped by misinformation and negative tactics.

Sincerely,

John G. Theusch,
Chairman
Town of Farmington

Dear Editor:

January 4, 1991

As you know, we are responsible for providing quality care and love to hundreds of homeless animals in our area each year. Unfortunately, our animal population increases dramatically during the winter months when many animals are left homeless.

While our staff and volunteers are very dedicated to our animals, our shelter funds can only do so much. We have the opportunity to receive hundreds of dollars from the Gaines Dog Food Company, which we will use to help operate our shelter. We will receive this extra money by collecting redemption symbols from Gaines and Ken-L Ration dog foods and redeeming them for cash. The Gaines program, which is endorsed by the American Humane Association, has generated over $500,000 for local shelters nationwide since the program began.

As Director of The Washington County Humane Society, I'd like to thank all the animal lovers in our community who sent us stars and labels during the last few months of 1990. Your help is extremely important to our operations. We hope you continue to send these symbols to use and encourage your friends to do so also.

Anyone who is interested in helping us receive these badly needed funds can call our shelter at 677-4388 or send us the redemption symbols from Gaines and Ken-L Ration dog foods and treats at 3650 Hwy. 60, Slinger, WI 53086. Again, we are very grateful to those of you who have been helping us take care of Washington County's homeless animals.

Sincerely,
Dianne Horlamus
Executive Director

Jos. Kern, Jr. of the Town of Wayne last week Saturday, while hunting about two miles south of St. Kilian found a trail of some wild animal which puzzled him, following it up it led to a hole where Mr. Kern set traps two days before. After looking at the traps he found the animal caught, and to pull it out was impossible. Not knowing what the capture was, he went to his home for an ax to dig the hole open. After digging two hours he finally reached the animal and to his surprise seen it was a Badger being almost as large as a dog. After shooting the animal several times he was able to extricate it from the hole. The Badger weighed 26 lbs. and measured from tip of tail to snout 41 inches. His fur was so thick that one could hardly find the skin. It is thought the animal was well advanced in age. This is the first Badger caught in this vicinity.

VOTING BY ABSENTEE BALLOT NOTICE

Any qualified elector, unable to get to the polling place on election day for any reason, may ask to vote by absentee ballot. A qualified elector is a person who is a U.S. citizen, who will be 18 years of age or older on election day, who has resided in the ward or municipality where the person wishes to vote at least 10 days before the election. If the voter resides in a municipality which requires voter registration, then registration is also required for the voter to receive an absentee ballot.

To obtain an absentee ballot, the voter should contact the clerk of the city, village or town in which the voter resides. A written request must be made by the voter for the absentee ballot. If the voter contacts the clerk by telephone the clerk will send the application form to the voter. If the voter requests an absentee ballot by mail, a written request, signed by the voter which indicates that the voter resides within the municipality, will be honored. Written requests may be made beginning six months before the primary election. The deadline for receipt of the written request by mail is 5:00 p.m. on the Friday before the election. If the voter goes to the clerk's office to complete a written request, the request must be made no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day before the election.

If the absentee voter resides in a nursing home, the absentee ballot will be delivered to the nursing home by two special voting deputies appointed by the municipal clerk. The special voting deputies will present the absentee ballot to the voter and provide assistance in marking or punching the ballot if necessary. At the request of an absentee voter a relative may provide the assistance. After voting at the nursing home is completed, the special voting deputies will return the absentee ballot to the municipal clerk.

With two exceptions, the voter who wants to cast an absentee ballot, must make a separate written request before each election. If a voter is indefinitely confined to his or her home or a care facility because of illness, age, or disability, or if the voter is in the military, the voter need not make a request before each election. There is a special statement on the application form which is provided by the municipal clerk which can be completed asking that an absentee ballot be automatically mailed to the indefinitely confined or military voter before each election. If the voter fails to vote and return the ballot sent to the voter, a separate written request for the next election must be made before the voter can obtain a ballot.

A voter who is hospitalized on election day may obtain an absentee ballot by designating another person as the agent for the voter. There is a statement on the application form for this purpose. An application by agent for a hospitalized elector may be made in person at the municipal clerk's office no earlier than 7 days before the election and no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day of the election.

If a voter requests an absentee ballot stating the reason that he or she is a sequestered juror, the application can be made no earlier than 7 days before the election, and no later than 5:00 p.m. on the day of the election. If the application from a sequestered juror is received by the municipal clerk after 5:00 p.m. on the Friday immediately preceding the election, the municipal clerk or the clerk's agent will deliver the absentee ballot to the court and the judge will call a recess to allow the voter to cast his or her vote.

The municipal clerk will send the absentee ballot to the voter once the request is received and the ballots are prepared. Absentee ballots are available thirty-one (31) days before each September primary and general election and twenty-two (22) days before each other primary and election. The municipal clerk keeps a public record of all individuals requesting an absentee ballot indicating when the ballot is requested, sent, and returned to the municipal clerk.

An absentee ballot can be voted at home any time after it is received in the mail. An absentee ballot can also be voted in the clerk's office if the voter appears in person and fills out the written request. The voter should make sure that the certificate-affidavit is properly completed and witnessed by two persons or a person authorized to administer oaths. The voter and the witnesses must sign the certificate on the absentee ballot carrier envelope. If the absentee elector receives assistance in marking the ballot, the person providing the assistance must sign the statement on the back of the ballot which provides that the person giving the assistance marked the ballot as directed by the absentee voter. The municipal clerk will make sure that the certificate-affidavit is properly completed by the voter when the absentee ballot is voted in the clerk's office.

The completed absentee ballot must be in the possession of the issuing municipal clerk in time for the clerk to deliver the ballot before the polls close on election day. Voted absentee ballots may be delivered in person to the municipal clerk. Any absentee ballot received after the polls close or any absentee ballot where the certificate-affidavit is not properly completed can not be counted.

Wildcat Women Downed by Silver Lake College

By Statesman Sports Writer

WEST BEND — While the UWWC women's basketball team has not fared much success again four-year women's power Silver Lake College, Wildcat coach Tom Brigham isn't exactly disappointed in his team's effort against the tough squad.

"It isn't all doom and gloom," Brigham said regarding his team's 81-57 loss to the Manitowoc-based school here, last Tuesday night. "It was a good game for us in that it puts us back down to a more realistic level."

The Wildcats suffered a big blow early, as guard Lisa Gardapee went down with an ankle injury, leaving UWWC with just six players in its platoon-type system.

"That really hurt," Brigham said of the injury. "She's a key in our rotation." Soon after Gardapee went down, Silver Lake employed a full-court press that seemed to bother the Wildcats, who definitely could have used Gardapee's services.

The pressure allowed the visitors to take a 43-28 halftime lead over the tiring UWWC squad. Silver Lake continued to pressure the Wildcats in the second half, leaving Brigham to notice some areas his team needs to improve.

"I think this forced us to realize we have some problems against the press," Brigham noted. "And it also made us realize that we can be in better shape. In that sense, it was a good game for us."

Jenny Meyer led the Wildcats with 20 points and 15 rebounds. Heidi Wagner also had a double-double, collecting 11 points and 12 rebounds. But Brigham was most pleased with the play of sophomore Rocky Justmann, who came back after cracking a tooth on the team's road trip a week earlier.

"I was very, very pleased with Rocky's play," Brigham went on about Justmann, who scored 14 points and grabbed seven boards, five of which were on the offensive end. "Without a doubt, she is the key to both our offense and defense."

The Wildcats didn't exactly need a top performance from Justmann last Thursday, though. UWWC played some excellent defense in the first half, enroute to a 60-30 win over UW-Sheboygan in a home contest.

The Wildcat women held the Wombats scoreless until the 7:20 mark of the first half. By that time UWWC had rolled up a 20-0 lead.

"I think the key in the game was the boards," Brigham said of the Sheboygan game. "That and being able to run the fast break. That made the difference."

That, along with some intense interior defense in the first ten minutes of the game. The Wildcats controlled the paint area in the early going, blocking numerous shots, which eventually led to some easy fast break baskets on the other end.

"We were taller than they were," Brigham said, also noting that "They had trouble against our full-court press."

With the game already in the bag, Brigham used the second half as an opportunity to play a couple of his new players, Port Washington's Jackie Murphy, and Hartford's Michelle Schwalbe.

"It's a matter of trying to bring it back with her," Brigham said, referring to Schwalbe who hasn't played competitively for about three years. "We just tried some different combinations."

Meyer took advantage of her playing time, as she wound up with 21 points 20 rebounds. "I don't think she has reached her potential yet," Brigham said of the freshman from Hartford, who also finished with four blocked shots.

Jenny Jankowski also came up with a big game, chipping in 15 points and nine rebounds. "I think she had one of her better days," the UWWC boss added. Jankowski's long range bombs in the second half, including a three-point shot, helped put the icing on the Wildcats 13th win of the year, against just three losses.

Justmann added 10 points and five assists, while Wagner contributed eight points and 11 rebounds for the Wildcats.

Trespassers Threaten State Trail System

Regular snowfall in southern and central parts of the state may be the answer to a snowmobiler's prayers. But it's also creating a nightmare for local snowmobile clubs. Trails in areas where the snowfall has been good are seeing a dramatic increase in use this year. Traffic that would normally head north has moved south. Unfortunately, so have trespassers.

Clubs have begun receiving threats from land owners who say they'll pull their property from the state trail system unless snowmobilers stick to the marked trails.

A few snowmobilers have apparently found it difficult to resist the temptation of the open fields common alongside trails in south and central parts of the state. Once a path is laid, it provides an equally tempting invitation to others who may or may not realize they're breaking the law. That temptation wouldn't be so great if people realized they not only risk their lives by leaving the trail, they also threaten to unravel a trail system widely regarded as the best in the nation.

The safety risk is well documented. Each year snowmobilers die in Wisconsin because they've left the trail system. Local clubs spend thousands of hours to make the trails as safe as possible. Once off the trail, a trespasser can expect to encounter barbed-wire fences and stumps, rocks and gullies hidden beneath the snow.

Property owners give up the use of their land to provide a safe trail system. In return, they ask snowmobilers to respect property around their homes and croplands they depend on for a living. Tracks through a hay or winter wheat field, or a late-night joy ride by trespassing snowmobilers may be enough to convince some that they've given up too much.

Already this year, property owners in Dane and Sauk counties have taken their lands out of the trail system. In doing so, they've effectively shut down vital links in a chain of trails that both snowmobilers and the state's winter tourism industry depend on. Local clubs are being forced to approach new property owners and groom new trails. Without the help of snowmobilers themselves, it's a task that could soon prove impossible.

State law on trespassing is as clear as the markers that have been placed along the trails to guide you. If you don't have permission to cross into private property, you do so at the risk of being arrested and fined up to $67.00 per offense.

Please join the thousands of Wisconsin snowmobilers who enjoy the state trail system and honor it's boundaries. If not out of respect for the law, do it for your safety and that of your friends. Better yet, do it for the sake of the sport.

UWWC Men Drop Two More

By Statesman Sports Writer

WEST BEND — The UWWC men's basketball team has been doing an excellent job of staying with their opponents in the first half of games recently, something that hindered the Wildcats earlier in the season.

The problem is that the Wildcats seem to run out of gas in the second 20 minutes, however, and that led to another pair of losses last week, which dropped UWWC to 1-13 overall.

On Thursday, the Wildcats put forth one of their best efforts of the season. But UW-Richland Center pulled away in the second half, to eventually post a 87-70 win over the hosts.

The Wildcats shot well from the field in the first half, connecting on over 50 percent of their tries, with Karl Klosowski and Dave Anderson supplying much of the firepower.

Anderson came off the bench to pop in six first half points, while Klosowski was also hot from the field, and his dunk off of a steal pulled UWWC into a tie at halftime at 39-all.

The Wildcats continued to fluster Richland with their trapping zone defense in the second half, and remained close, trailing just 54-51 with about nine minutes to play.

But a questionable call led to a technical foul against UWWC, and Richland proceeded to make three free throws and an ensuing basket, to open a 59-51 lead over the Wildcats, from which they were never able to recover.

Klosowski, along with Jay Leberecht, each had 20 points to pace the Wildcats. Leberecht also added nine rebounds, while Klosowski chipped in five assists and three steals. Terry Howell also reached double figure with 12 points, despite a woeful 6 of 26 efforts from the floor.

Pat Vorwald led Richland with 28 points, with 22 coming in the second half. Matthew Parker III added 25 points, including a couple of dunks, while Jamie Johnson threw in 21, 15 in the first half.

ON Saturday, the UWWC men made the long venture to Marinette, where they faced the Bucanners, who they fell to 69-67 in their first meeting of the season. The ride back was made no more relaxing, as the Wildcats again fell apart in the second half, losing 94-67.

UWWC, having just seven players available for the contest, stuck with the Bucs in the first half. With Klosowski and Noel Stollenwerk nailing three-pointers from the outside and Anderson connecting underneath, UWWC stayed within one, at 38-37, at the half.

The Wildcats actually took an eight point lead early in the second half, before self destructing. Klosowski opened the second half scoring with a three pointer and a basket to make it 42-38 UWWC. Then after another UWWC hoop and a couple of baskets by three-pointers to give the Wildcats a 50-42 lead.

After a timeout, Marinette switched to a man-to-man defense, which seemed to bother UWWC, which proceeded to be outscored 33-4 over the next ten minutes. The Wildcats were never able to recover.

Haight was the thorn in UWWC's side all night, as he pumped in a game-high 33 points and also pulled down the majority of the Bucs' rebounds. Andy Mittag chipped in 17,

Indian Girls Shoot 8% In Loss to Two Rivers

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — If Kewaskum girls basketball coach Glenn Eichstedt had been told before last Friday night's game with Two Rivers that his team would be able to get off 70 shots against the state-rated Raiders, he probably would have been quite pleased.

But after watching his team sink just six of those 70 tries, and eventually lose to the Raiders 54-29 here, Eichstedt wasn't exactly gleaming with enthusiasm.

"It's hard to imagine," Eichstedt said of the Indians' shooting percentage, which came out to perhaps an all-time record low eight percent. "First, shooting that many times, and then not being able to convert. It's mind-boggling."

And it was definitely not the kind of effort that could have enabled the Indians to post the upset win over the Raiders, who improved to 7-1 in the Eastern Wisconsin, and 13-1 overall. Kewaskum fell to 1-7 and 4-11.

"We knew we had to play well and not give them any extra opportunities," Eichstedt said, giving Two Rivers credit as well. "You're not going to be 13-1 without a good defense."

That defense, along with the Indians ineptitude from the field, enabled the Raiders to take an 8-1 lead after the first period. The Indians were only able to make one field goal the entire first half, as Two Rivers opened their lead to 20-8 by halftime.

The Indians made a bit of a run at the Raiders in the third quarter, hitting three baskets, along with 11 free throws in the period to climb back within reach. "We were starting to attack the basket a little better," Eichstedt noted. "We made a little run at them. But then it all came down to shooting."

Two Rivers, having four different players collect their fourth personal fouls, went to a bit of a delay game in the final stanza. The Indians were then forced to foul, and the Raiders kindly obliged sinking 12 of their 16 free throw attempts in the final period.

"They wanted to stop our momentum," Eichstedt said regarding the Raiders' decision to go to a delay offense. "Then the same things that got us back into the game (free throws), also stopped us."

The Indians did end up holding their own on the boards getting rebounded by just one. Of their 45 total boards, the Indians came away with 28 offensive rebounds, normally an unusually high amount. But considering the number of misses that the Indians threw up, "There were a lot of rebounds to be had," as Eichstedt put it.

A bright spot for the Indians was the play of Tracy Steinert, who returned to action after a knee injury kept her sidelined since the Christmas break. "She did a real nice job rebounding," hauling down six rebounds in what amounted to about one quarter's worth of work.

For the Raiders, DeNee Prausa finished with 20 points, while Gwen Gates and Paula Zahn each added 11. "They're not an overwhelming team. Eichstedt noted. "Little by little, they just pull away from you."

Chilton Muscles Past Indian Girls

By Statesman Sports Writer

CHILTON — It wasn't all too long ago that a girls basketball game against Chilton was looked on as an easy mark in the win column.

But those days are definitely in the past, and the Tigers made sure that the Kewaskum girls took note of that fact last Tuesday, as Chilton rolled to a 56-37 win over the Indians in a physical contest.

The Tigers, who in the past have not even had enough players to field junior varsity and freshman teams, have put together a winning combination this season. The win over the Indians improved the Tigers' record to 6-1 in the Eastern Wisconsin. Included in that mark is a victory over then the No. 1 girls team in the state, Two Rivers.

"They're doing it with a young team," Indians coach Glenn Eichstedt said of the Tigers' success. "Last year they started three sophomores and a freshman, so they will be tough in the coming years. They have a fairly balanced team."

Against the Indians, the balance came in the form of a 1-2-3 scoring punch which leveled the visitors. 6-2 center Tracy Winkler, along with 5-7 sophomore guard Renee Mueller each scored 15 points, and Cathy Dallman added 12 to lead the Tigers.

"She was the recipient of a lot of fast break layups," Eichstedt said of Mueller, who came into the game averaging just two points per game. Of Winkler, Eichstedt noted, "She was able to do some things inside once Nicole (Doherty) got in foul trouble."

Doherty's foul trouble, along with some bumps and bruises she received in the physical contest, allowed her to play less than one-half of the game, according to Eichstedt, and that definitely hampered the Indians' efforts.

Kewaskum did jump out to an early lead on the Tigers, but then, said Eichstedt, "we just started misfiring." That led to Chilton being able to take a 15-10 lead after one quarter of play, of which they extended to 34-20 by halftime.

"We just weren't going to be able to make much of a run at them scoring just 10 points in each quarter," Eichstedt said of his team's offensive woes. The KHS mentor added that his team's foul trouble didn't help any either, noting "It was a very physical game."

The Indians did manage to pull within six, at 40-34 at the start of the final quarter, but the Tigers converted 12 of their 17 free throws in the final stanza to hang on for the win.

Kelly Rohlinger "played a strong game," for the Indians, according to Eichstedt. Rohlinger led the Indians with 10 points, the only Indian to reach double figures in scoring.

Also doing a good job against the Tigers, according to Eichstedt, was Teri Vogt and Amy Chesak, who tallied five and six points, respectively. Defensively, Wanda Jacobs and Kelly Korth "put in some solid performances," said Eichstedt.

Spring 1991 Turkey Hunting Permits To Be Mailed

MADISON, WI — Wild turkey hunting permits for the Spring 1991 season will be mailed to applicants beginning January 22, according to Ed Frank, turkey season coordinator for the Department of Natural Resources. Frank expects that all permits will be mailed by January 25.

A record number 41,340 permits are available for the Spring 1991 wild turkey season. Hunters receiving permits will be able to hunt during one of six time periods, April 10-14, April 17-21, April 24-28, May 1-5, May 8-12 or May 15-19, in one of 20 designated turkey hunting zones located primarily in southwest and northeast Wisconsin.

Turkey hunting in Wisconsin is allowed by permit only. A current 1990-91 Wisconsin Wild Turkey Stamp is required to hunt turkeys; the stamp must be signed across the face and be in possession (attached to a valid hunting license) while hunting turkeys. Senior Citizen Recreation Card holders, first-year Wisconsin hunter education course graduates and military licensees do not need a turkey stamp.

During the Spring 1990 turkey season, 29,696 permits were issued for 19 hunting zones, and hunters bagged 6,501 turkeys.

Osterbrink Named to All-Tournament Team

The Northeastern Illinois University women's basketball team picked up its first win of the season in the University of Central Florida Holiday Classic as they defeated Boston University, 58-53. The Golden Eagles now stand at 1-13 on the year.

"It was a win for us," said Head Coach Mike Fogel. "It was our last game in the three game tournament and we came close on the other games but fell short."

"I know the team has had a great burden lifted from their shoulders and I expect us to bring home a few more wins," said Fogel.

Another highlight of the tournament came when freshman center Pam Osterbrink (Kewaskum, WI/Kewaskum H.S.) was chosen as a member of the All-Tournament Team. In three games, Osterbrink scored 41 points on 16-of-32 shooting and had 38 rebounds, 16 of which came in the Boston game.

"Pam turned in a great performance all tournament," said Fogel. "I couldn't ask for more from a freshman. I think everyone at the tournament was impressed and that's why she earned the honors."

On the season Osterbrink is averaging 11.9 points, and leads the squad with 10.7 rebounds per game as well as in field goal percentage at 47.4%

Jeff Sabish, Kewaskum, is trying to pin Jason Lehrke of Sheboygan South after tossing him to his back in the first round at Sheboygan North.

Kewaskum sophomore Todd Muckerheide is up against Matt Schiefelbein of Sheboygan North in the finals of the Sheboygan North Tournament held last Saturday.

Indians Fall to New Holstein 62-54

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — With the way the Eastern Wisconsin Conference boys basketball race is going this year, the Kewaskum Indians surely aren't out of the picture. But a win last Thursday, definitely would have helped.

Unfortunately, the Indians fell behind early and were never able to get over the hump, as they dropped a tough 62-54 decision against New Holstein here.

The win enabled the Huskies to move into a tie with Two Rivers for the top spot in the EW. Both New Holstein and the Raiders sport 4-2 marks. The Indians, meanwhile dropped to 2-4 in the conference, and had their hopes for an upper division finish take a severe blow.

The Indians rode the tails of junior forward Joel Fleischman in the early going. The 6-1 Fleischman, who started the year on fire, but who has slumped recently, scored 11 of the Indians 13 points in the opening quarter, as Kewaskum stayed within reach of the Huskies 17-13.

The Huskies outscored Kewaskum 15-8 to open the second frame, and in doing so, upped their lead to 32-21 midway through the second quarter. But the Indians weren't about to roll over, as Mark Felix scored a couple of baskets to help lead an Indian uprising late in the first half.

Kewaskum outscored New Holstein 10-2 the rest of the half, and trailed just 34-31 at intermission. But the Huskies once again used a quick 11-4 run to start the second, opening up another ten point margin for the Indians to make up.

The Indians did just that, scoring three baskets at the end of the third quarter to pull to within four heading into the final stanza. But the Indians' run did not come without a bad note, as guard Kim Marx collected his fifth personal foul and made an early exit with just over a minute left in the third.

While that may have hampered the Indians' effort in the end, one wouldn't have known it at the start of the final quarter. The Indians continued to chip away at the Husky lead, and finally pulled to within one with just under three minutes to play.

But Fleischman missed a free throw that would have tied things at 53, and the Indians seemed to lose their steam after the miss, as they scored just two more free throws after that, while New Holstein got nine points from ace Eric Klapperich down the stretch to ice the win.

Klapperich wound up with a game-high 20 points for the Huskies. Fleischman paced the Indians with 18 points, while Chad Cook added 13 and Felix 11, along with 12 rebounds.

The Indians shot just 30 percent for the game, while the Huskies connected on 45 percent of their tries. Kewaskum also finished 17 of 23 from the line, while New Holstein was 11 of 14.

The loss left the Indians 5-7 overall. Kewaskum was back in action Tuesday against Chilton, and is at Kiel on Friday. The Indians returned home next Tuesday against Lomira.
